

Two Trillion 2071

Chapter 2071 - Out of Danger? (Part 2)

"Leave it to me!" Lei Ying made an "OK" gesture to Bai Xiaosheng, then moved swiftly in a low crawl towards the bar.

Normally, such a big guy like Lei Ying crawling over would look quite awkward, but Lei Ying completed the maneuver with military precision, making it surprisingly cool!

By the time Xiya and the others reacted, Lei Ying was already behind the bar.

"What's he doing there?" Xiya exclaimed in surprise.

"That move was beautiful, truly impressive! He has a special forces background!" Jaster's eyes burned with admiration, completely taken by Instructor Lei.

However, despite his prowess, Instructor Lei followed Bai Xiaosheng's orders, prompting Adam to look at Bai Xiaosheng, thinking, "He has remained calm and composed, analyzing everything in detail. This guy's really reliable! He must be a commanding talent!"

Up to this point, Adam and Jaster realized that Elder Yun had found them not one, but two formidable individuals — truly extraordinary!

Bai Xiaosheng smiled and said to the three of them, "Just wait and see, sometimes dealing with the bad guys doesn't require knives and guns, you know?"

His words made Xiya roll her eyes.

Acting mysterious! Nonsense!

Dealing with armed bandits without weapons, what are we supposed to do, talk them to death?

Just as Xiya thought this, she felt something fly over her head, scaring her into looking up. Adam and Jaster were also startled.

It wasn't just one thing flying over, but one after another, nonstop.

As they looked in bewilderment, they saw things being thrown from behind the bar, and realized what they were.

"Bottles?" Xiya exclaimed in surprise.

Strictly speaking, it was full bottles of alcohol.

The bar had a vast selection of strong spirits, including the five major base liquors.

"Crack!" came the sound of bottles shattering on the ground.

Bai Xiaosheng looked carefully along the edge of the wall and burst into laughter.

Lei Ying was accurate with his throws!

Every bottle shattered against the opposite wall, starting from one end and smashing towards the other.

Alcohol splattered, shards of glass flew around.

The two fake waiters behind the low wall probably never dreamed they'd encounter such "hidden weapons."

Finally, a gun popped up, accurately smashing a bottle in mid-air, causing shards to scatter and burst around them as they cried and wailed in pain. It was almost like stepping on a mine. This tactic also marked Lei Ying's target, as all the subsequent bottles were aimed at that spot.

The two guys behind the wall naturally didn't want to sit idly by. They seemed to dodge around behind it, yet low moans and curses erupted from time to time.

The shards of glass on the ground easily pierced their palms, elbows, legs, and knees.

Bai Xiaosheng's tactic was downright nasty, not only involving hidden weapons but also adding a trap effect...

Listening to the commotion on the other side, Bai Xiaosheng couldn't help but laugh heartily and muttered, "I'll go throw a few myself."

As he spoke, Bai Xiaosheng bent low and dashed to the back of the bar.

Xiya, Adam, and Jaster were stunned.

Listening to the cries on the other side and watching various spirits fly through the air, the three were a little dazed.

Is this really a life-or-death crisis?

They were just shooting at each other, trying to exhaust the other's patience in the silence.

Now, what had this become?

Whack-a-mole?

Beside them, Lin Weiwei couldn't help but chuckle. This was Bai Xiaosheng's style, unexpected and unconventional.

"This move works, DAMN, I want to throw some too!" Adam couldn't help but exclaim with excitement.

"Instructor Bai is wicked, but I like it!" Jaster laughed, "And it ensures safety!"

"Is he supposed to teach us tactical strategies and crisis management?" Adam asked.

"It seems so! I like this class!" Jaster replied.

The two didn't mention "crisis management" yet; when they did, Xiya bit her lip with a complex expression.

She thought the best strategy was either to attack with firepower or to hold out for reinforcements, as suggested in textbooks.

However, it might not suit this situation, especially against powerful opponents.

Personnel casualties or a total wipeout were not risks she could afford, whereas Bai Xiaosheng had artfully avoided them with an "absurd" tactic!

To say she wasn't convinced would be stubborn, to say she was convinced seemed...

"This kind of play won't really work, it'll just make them suffer a little. If they choose not to emerge, they remain a threat to us. Those two fear no death, why would they fear some suffering?" Xiya frowned, "To think this alone could drive them out is underestimating them too much!"

As she spoke, Bai Xiaosheng actually crawled back from behind the bar.

"Hey, does any of you smoke?" Bai Xiaosheng asked.

Xiya and the others were taken aback, Adam and Jaster nodded.

"Yes."

"Hand over your lighters," Bai Xiaosheng said bluntly.

The two quickly pulled out lighters from their pockets and handed them over.

Bai Xiaosheng looked at Jaster's lighter and set it aside, but his eyes lit up when he saw Adam's, "Wow, a premium brand, this must have cost a lot, it's even windproof and extinguish-proof."

Bai Xiaosheng lit it.

"Yeah, it cost me quite a bit," Adam smiled widely at the compliment.

"In my class, no smoking is allowed, so now you're going to lose it," Bai Xiaosheng gave a mysterious smile and told the three, "Get ready to fire, I'll push them out!"

Adam, Xiya, and Jaster were no fools; they instantly understood what Bai Xiaosheng was going to do and couldn't help but be astounded.

What had been thrown over were strong spirits, and over there the floor was covered in alcohol, tossing this over would...

Chapter 2072: Out of Danger? (Part 3)

"Pray nothing goes wrong." Bai Xiaosheng put away his smile and tossed the lit lighter with a flick of his wrist.

Just for a moment!

If flames burst out and flush out the bandits, it's their chance!

But soon, the fire alarm will trigger, and water sprinkling down will dilute the alcohol, neutralizing the threat!

If they fail to seize the opportunity, those two fierce individuals will undoubtedly be enraged and charge at them recklessly.

By then, casualties will be inevitable!

Everyone tensed up instantly.

The fire blazed up suddenly.

From behind the low wall, the two bandits, with flames on their clothes, fled out in panic.

They could never have imagined that the people opposite them would be so ruthless!

Almost instantaneously, Adam and his two companions, who were fully prepared, opened fire.

Adam, who always claimed to be a shooting expert and was recognized by Xiya and Jaster, indeed proved to be formidable.

With successive gunshots, the two fell instantly.

Soon after, the store's fire alarm blared, and water sprinkled down from above.

Adam, Jaster, and Xiya hesitated no more, and without waiting for orders, they moved forward in a formation taught at the police academy, alternately covering each other.

Bai Xiaosheng then pulled Lin Weiwei along, signaling Lei Ying to retreat.

The following scene was for these officers to handle, not them.

Once outside the store, Bai Xiaosheng and the others discovered that people were gathering from afar, and a perimeter had been set up.

A few special police officers, armed with shields, were closing in, commanding them to crouch down with their hands on their heads.

It was still a remote area here; otherwise, the police force wouldn't have come only now.

Just as Bai Xiaosheng and the others were about to comply, Xiya and the others came out of the store, recognized them, and identified themselves loudly as comrades.

Then a verification followed.

Xiya took the opportunity to inform Bai Xiaosheng about the situation inside. The two bandits suffered severe injuries, lost the ability to move, but were still alive.

And they were unharmed.

Bai Xiaosheng was satisfied with this outcome, while Xiya felt conflicted.

In the face of a crisis, any strategy, no matter how ridiculous it seems, is a good one as long as it's effective and can minimize casualties.

On the surface, Xiya found it difficult to accept, but in her heart, she acknowledged that Bai Xiaosheng was a bit more formidable than her.

Bai Xiaosheng naturally could see through her thoughts at this moment, but he just smiled without exposing it or making any sarcastic comments.

Xiya proactively engaged with the present commanding officer, asking them to dispatch a vehicle to send Bai Xiaosheng and the others away.

After all, Bai Xiaosheng and his companions were the ones they needed to protect.

The arriving commanding officer was extremely surprised to learn that Bai Xiaosheng was an honorary instructor hired by the Twelve Countries Police Alliance academy and immediately made arrangements to deploy personnel and a vehicle.

A young officer volunteered to drive a seven-seater car to transport Bai Xiaosheng and the others.

By now, the scene was under control, and Bai Xiaosheng and the others had no reason to stay longer. As for the record and interrogation, it's believed that Xiya and the others would handle it subsequently.

Once everyone got in the car and informed the driver of the destination, they began to relax.

After experiencing tension, one often feels exceptionally tired, instinctively emptying the mind.

This is also a protective mechanism of the human body, preventing mental breakdown from constant tension.

The car drove away, weaving through the streets and alleys.

Four to five minutes later, Bai Xiaosheng glanced out the window, furrowing his brows slightly, and looked at Xiya beside him.

Xiya also came out of her daze, scanned the view outside, and shifted inside the car to meet Bai Xiaosheng's gaze.

Bai Xiaosheng's lips curled into a smile, "Xiya, you're quite lucky today to have a case to teach you to predict a crisis in advance, and respond to it. Aside from the earlier example, a test has come for you too!"

"Will you succeed?" Bai Xiaosheng asked softly.

Adam in the passenger seat and Jaster in the back, hearing this cryptic dialogue, looked at Bai Xiaosheng in confusion.

What was he talking about? What test was he referring to?

Was it only for Xiya? Did it not apply to them?

Xiya gazed at Bai Xiaosheng and earnestly nodded, "Understood, Instructor Bai!"

Unconsciously, she even changed her form of address.

This left Adam and Jaster dumbfounded.

Then, they were both intrigued and startled.

Xiya drew her gun, pressing it to the driver's head, and said sternly, "Slow down, stop the car!"

Everyone was shocked.

Bai Xiaosheng, however, smiled.

Despite Xiya voicing no acknowledgment, she had noted the points he taught.

She also realized there was something wrong with the driver!

He wasn't one of their own!

The young man driving, with a gun pointed at his head, didn't panic. Instead, a peculiar smile played at the corners of his mouth, and he obediently complied by stopping the car without any sudden moves.

"Lady, there's no need to point that at me! Because we've already reached our destination." The driver grinned coldly, "No, it's your time to die!"

Chapter 2073: Facing Death Alone

Adam and Jaster looked incredulously at the young driver. Was he also one of them?

How could that be possible!

Earlier, the sheriff recognized him, and he should be a reliable ally!

Even if they didn't believe it, a fact is a fact.

Just now, with a cold declaration of death, this young man named Carson revealed his true allegiance, forcing them to believe.

A sudden chill ran through Adam and Jaster.

With a gun pointed at his head, the young Carson showed no fear. He calmly took out the car key and tossed it out of the window.

The set of keys fell into a corner, disappearing from sight.

Only then did everyone realize they had forgotten to restrain him.

“What are you doing? Stay put!” Xiya shouted.

Adam moved to handcuff him, but Carson merely glanced at the dark gun barrel, not resisting at all.

The car was parked in a secluded small square in an alley. The surroundings were eerily quiet, with no visible figures, yet it felt like eyes were watching them from every corner, surveilling and observing.

Adam and Jaster drew their guns, lowering themselves while aiming in all directions outside the car.

They saw nothing, only sensing an eerie silence.

In light of Carson’s words, danger seemed imminent. Staying in the car didn’t feel safe, yet stepping out would make them sitting targets!

The two were so tense they didn’t know what to do.

Inside the car, Lin Weiwei’s face also showed panic.

Thankfully, Lei Ying was by her side, preventing her from being too frightened.

Xiya remained relatively calm.

“How did you figure it out?” Bai Xiaosheng asked Xiya calmly.

Xiya looked at Bai Xiaosheng and answered honestly, “From just now, I noticed something was off about him. The car was heading into more and more remote areas, and he kept observing us through the rearview mirror with a cold gaze!”

Xiya was applying what Bai Xiaosheng had taught.

“Being observant is a good thing,” Bai Xiaosheng nodded in approval towards Xiya.

Receiving Bai Xiaosheng’s praise, Xiya felt gratified.

Bai Xiaosheng looked at Carson and said to Xiya, “From the moment they attacked us in the café, I felt something was off!”

Off?

How could something be more off than being attacked?

Adam and Jaster secretly grumbled.

But Xiya listened intently to Bai Xiaosheng, acknowledging that she was not as sharp as he was, admitting he could teach her things.

Bai Xiaosheng continued, “Why would they choose a place where the police could quickly assist to make a move, especially in a public area? If they waited a little longer, they could have found a more suitable ambush spot. Knowing you as an expert in crisis management, using that ridiculous food delivery ploy was unreasonable...”

Xiya blushed slightly.

As an expert in crisis response, she hadn’t noticed anything at the time...

Bai Xiaosheng looked out the window and continued, “Just a moment ago, I thought about it more. They probably knew we had Lei Ying, a formidable ally, along with you three top police school graduates. They likely believed the first wave of attack had little chance of success!”

“Therefore, their real killing move wasn’t there, but now!”

“After experiencing a terrifying attack, once people feel safe, their vigilance is at its lowest. This is when they are easiest to deal with. It’s a bit like the frog boiling in warm water scenario.”

“Our spirits are exhausted, and there’s not many bullets left in your guns. What they’re depleting is our mental and physical endurance and weapons!”

“As for choosing that easily reachable café by the police, I think it’s because they had someone infiltrated here — him!” Bai Xiaosheng pointed at Carson.

From the beginning, as Bai Xiaosheng analyzed the situation, Carson watched him coldly. However, when Bai Xiaosheng reached this point, Carson’s expression completely changed, looking unsightly, as if seeing a ghost.

This guy, how could he deduce everything just with reasoning!

By comparing Carson’s expression, Xiya understood that Bai Xiaosheng’s analysis was probably accurate!

She hadn’t thought of any of this!

She only sensed something was strange about the driver, and it was Bai Xiaosheng’s hint that made her confirm there was an issue!

She was that much behind him...

Xiya felt a mix of frustration and resignation in her heart, yet she had a newfound respect for Bai Xiaosheng.

Adam and Jaster looked at Bai Xiaosheng almost reverently.

Lei Ying nodded, while Lin Weiwei felt proud of Xiaosheng’s foresight.

In truth, they didn't know that Bai Xiaosheng had deduced even more.

Just like now, they were led here, and the car was such a huge target, yet the adversary hadn't opened fire immediately.

Bai Xiaosheng figured that since Landvo sent them, he harbored extreme animosity towards him, and wouldn't let him die cluelessly.

He must want to inflict maximum fear and torture.

This meant they wouldn't experience a sudden direct assault!

As for the supposedly poisoned coffee and cake in the café, it was likely overthought.

The person sent by the opposition was just meant to be exposed.

Playing cat and mouse, witnessing my despair, and recording it all in video, perhaps? Bai Xiaosheng sneered in secret.

But such opportunity might never come to fruition.

The advantage of this situation is that staying in the car was relatively safe, with no sudden attacks expected.

Bai Xiaosheng glanced at the car's central console, pointing there and said to Xiya, "You didn't observe carefully enough. The radio has been on the whole time, yet there's been no static noise, much less a voice. I suspect their leader or someone like that is monitoring our every word closely!"

Chapter 2074 - One Man Faces Death (Part 2)

Xiya looked over, and indeed saw the green light shining brightly, her face immediately changed color.

Adam and Jaster were the same,

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying also looked in that direction.

"Am I right, sir behind the radio," Bai Xiaosheng said toward the radio.

Carson looked at Bai Xiaosheng in shock, swallowed, and glanced at the radio.

Once again, this Huaxia person was spot on!

Inside the car, there was a moment of silence.

Then, suddenly, a "grating" laughter came through the radio. The coarse man's voice laughing like that made one's hair stand on end even more.

Adam and Jaster nervously pointed their guns over, as if there was an enemy hiding there.

"You are impressive, Bai Xiaosheng, I really want to meet you!" a ghostly voice floated in from the radio, "Ask those in your car to put away their guns. It's still close to the city center here. If gunshots are heard, it will inevitably alert the police. We will be very troubled, and then we will have no choice but to resort to some terrible measures. Your fire attack is good, we can turn this car to ashes. None of you will escape!"

Upon hearing this, Adam and Jaster's faces changed in shock, and even Xiya turned a bit pale.

"Put away your guns, come down, and my people won't resort to terrible measures either. I just want to meet you." The voice in the radio said, ghostly.

"How can you guarantee that we won't become targets when we come out?" Bai Xiaosheng said calmly.

Although he considered that the other party might not attack suddenly, there was still no confirmation.

The grating laughter came from the other side, "You are also targets in the car, and you can't move like that."

Then, the voice continued, "Look outside."

Led by Bai Xiaosheng, everyone looked outside the car.

People emerged from the shadows, not just one, a dozen on the left, a dozen on the right, two or three dozen figures appearing on both sides of the car.

Those people were walking and throwing things.

"They're throwing... guns!" Adam saw through the car window and was immediately astonished, incredulously said.

The other side was actually "disarming" proactively.

"Great, they're unarmed!" Jaster excitedly whispered, "We have weapons in hand."

Unarmed, how can you compare with guns?

"I advise you, you'd better not to use your weapons. A few bullets can't deal with all our tribe warriors! We don't care about our lives, only about promises and honor!" The young man Carson, who was handcuffed, said coldly, "It's the leader who's interested in him, showing some sincerity. If you don't abide, then we won't be polite either!"

Hearing this, Jaster immediately became nervous, looking at Bai Xiaosheng and the others.

"Put it away." Lei Ying suddenly said.

Bai Xiaosheng also nodded.

Xiya hesitated slightly, then did as told. Adam and Jaster did the same.

Then, Bai Xiaosheng took the lead, and everyone got out of the car.

Among those who emerged from the shadows, leading the group, was Loki.

Bai Xiaosheng identified the leader immediately and led the group over.

The two sides drew closer.

Loki had been staring at Bai Xiaosheng from the start, grinning, revealing a mouth full of sharp shark-like teeth.

This appearance was really chilling.

Xiya, Adam, and Jaster looked at Loki and the people behind him, feeling an intense unease.

Those people were like zombies, living ghosts, each with cold eyes, not like humans. Coupled with their light, wind-like movement, like leopards, it was truly terrifying.

Just now, Carson said they were all tribe warriors?

From which small tribe?

Where did Landvo find these people?!

Xiya and the others mused.

"You must be Bai Xiaosheng, our prey for this time," as the two sides stood, Loki smiled and asked Bai Xiaosheng, introducing himself, "I am Loki."

Being directly called "prey" was indeed an uncomfortable feeling.

However, Bai Xiaosheng showed no reaction, even smiling, "I am Bai Xiaosheng. But I don't consider myself your prey!"

In such a situation, he even dared to retort to Loki.

The others couldn't help but look at Bai Xiaosheng in astonishment.

The tribe warriors behind Loki's gaze turned even colder.

Loki smiled, not verbally sparring with Bai Xiaosheng. He looked around at Bai Xiaosheng's group, his eyes landed on Carson, gently pointing a finger, "Do you plan to use the hostage in your hand to negotiate with us, or as a meat shield to break through?"

In fact, Adam and Jaster truly had that thought, and now that it had been spoken, the two looked at Bai Xiaosheng, waiting for him to make the decision.

"Release him," Bai Xiaosheng said directly to Adam and Jaster.

These words left the two stupefied.

Releasing a perfectly good hostage?

Even Xiya couldn't help but be somewhat in disbelief.

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying exchanged a glance, remaining silent.

Having been with Bai Xiaosheng for so long, they naturally knew he wouldn't act without reason. If he said so, he must have his reasons.

Opposite, Loki also looked at Bai Xiaosheng in surprise, seemingly unexpected by Bai Xiaosheng's decision.

"If we don't release him, they'll kill him, and this Carson probably won't survive either." Bai Xiaosheng said softly.

From the looks exchanged between Loki and the hostage, Bai Xiaosheng saw they truly regarded human life as worthless.

As for whether releasing him would bring the opposition an extra combatant, Bai Xiaosheng didn't even consider it. After all, there were already enough of them, too many lice don't bite, too many debts don't worry...

"Release him," Xiya said to Adam and Jaster.

By now, she had more trust in Bai Xiaosheng than the two men. She believed if Bai Xiaosheng said so, he must have his reasons.

Chapter 2075: Facing double death alone_3

Adam and Jaster were unwilling, but they still complied and released the person, though the handcuffs were not removed.

Carson didn't hesitate, jogging back to his own people.

"Interesting!" Loki surveyed Bai Xiaosheng, smiling with interest, "The more I think about it, meeting you was the right choice. You truly surprise me."

Facing Loki's words, Bai Xiaosheng smiled, "I take that as a compliment."

Bai Xiaosheng continued, "I'm quite curious, where did Landvo find you! Are you from a certain tribe, and how are you taking orders from him! Is it because of money?"

Loki thought for a moment, shrugged, "Initially, it might have been because of repaying a favor, but last year I did the math and felt it was enough of a repayment. This year it's purely for the deal, you know, life always requires work."

Even though Loki spoke lightly, those behind him showed no reaction, as if whatever the leader said was how it was. They were just a group of cold-blooded walking corpses, nothing more.

If Landvo were here, he would surely be shocked and angry, as he always thought he could drive such wolf-like people through favors for a lifetime, clearly not as he imagined.

Wolves travel thousands of miles to eat meat, where would they constantly be grateful.

However, Loki and his people were reliable in their tasks and did not mind sacrificing.

This is a way of life, genes developed from ancestors fighting with nature.

"Just business?" Bai Xiaosheng smiled, "Then can we have a talk!"

"Sure." Loki agreed readily.

Just as everyone was surprised and pleased, thinking there was a real turnaround, Loki smiled and said, "But, adhering to principles. We need to finish one order before discussing business."

Loki smiled at Bai Xiaosheng seriously, "So, you must die!"

Everyone's expressions froze, unable to express their feelings at the moment.

Lei Ying looked at the other side coldly, as if Loki was overestimating himself.

With him here, who could threaten Bai Xiaosheng's safety!

Not to mention these twenty-odd tribal warriors, even if doubled, he wouldn't fear or allow it!

"Seems you're still true to your word." Bai Xiaosheng smiled, "I like that, someone like you should be in business, you'd have a promising future!"

Loki politely responded with a smile to Bai Xiaosheng's praise, "In my next life, perhaps."

At this point in their conversation, there was no possibility of a turnaround.

Behind Bai Xiaosheng, everyone became tense and vigilant.

"However, I find you interesting, I think you are quite good." Loki smiled at Bai Xiaosheng and suggested, "How about this, I challenge you to a duel, if you survive against me, or kill me, this matter ends here today. They all live!"

Loki raised his hand to make a fist, pointing his thumb back, smiling, "The people behind me, they won't touch the people beside you, even if I die, my orders remain effective!"

"So, dare to face me in a one-on-one battle?!" Loki asked with a smile.

Everyone behind Bai Xiaosheng was shocked.

Whether it was Xiya, Adam, or Jaster, they all thought it was a despicable proposal.

They believed it was sending Bai Xiaosheng to his death!

If it were Lei Ying, they thought he could definitely fight the enemy leader, after all, they had witnessed Lei Ying's bravery and skill.

Bai Xiaosheng, no way!

From their first impression, Bai Xiaosheng appeared refined, gentle, and amiable to Xiya and the others.

Moreover, being a prominent businessman from Huaxia, such a man, in their view, had nothing to do with being able to fight.

Let alone facing Loki, the leader of tribal warriors, a truly fierce man!

Even Jaster could feel a chilling oppression from Loki.

Bai Xiaosheng fighting him would have less than a one percent chance.

Not of winning, but of surviving.

"So, will you stand up like a man and die honorably, or should we act and drag them along as companions for your burial?" Loki grinned widely, shark-teeth exposed.

To Loki, he thought Bai Xiaosheng was pleasing to the eye, allowing him to die by his hands was a reward.

"Alright, I'll go one-on-one with you." Bai Xiaosheng looked at the people behind Loki and loudly said, "If there's any tribal honor in you, then just watch quietly and adhere to my agreement with him!"

The tribal warriors stood like stone sculptures, saying nothing.

"This, rest assured, we value honor more than life!" Loki laughed.

This fearless man was growing on him more and more.

He would personally ruin him!

Bai Xiaosheng's decision caused Xiya, Adam, and Jaster's expressions to change suddenly.

They all believed Bai Xiaosheng was a measured person, never reckless, more likely to stall for time with words, using strategies to seek opportunities.

No one expected Bai Xiaosheng would agree to the opponent's demand.

"No, you can't." Xiya urgently told Bai Xiaosheng, "You're seeking death!"

"Instructor Bai, don't be impulsive!"

"If we band together and fight our way out, there's still a chance!"

Adam and Jaster urgently said.

In their view, Bai Xiaosheng was nobly sacrificing himself in a desperate situation, giving them a chance to live.

These three felt both moved and unwilling.

Lin Weiwei worriedly glanced at Bai Xiaosheng, then at Lei Ying.

"Don't worry, with me here, I won't let him be in danger!" Lei Ying reassured Lin Weiwei, while coldly looking at Loki.

Lin Weiwei nodded slightly, saying nothing more.

Seeing their close ones “unmoved,” Xiya was extremely anxious, whispering urgently, “Miss Lin, Mr. Lei, you must persuade him!”

Before Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying could respond, Bai Xiaosheng had already stepped forward.

Xiya couldn’t stop him in time, anxiously stamping her feet, immediately wanting to step forward and pull Bai Xiaosheng back, but was held back by Lin Weiwei.

“Trust my brother Sheng.” Lin Weiwei focused on Bai Xiaosheng’s back, solemnly telling Xiya, “He has a plan!”

Chapter 2076: Victory or Defeat in a Single Punch

Xiya looked at Lin Weiwei with a strange gaze. Lin Weiwei’s eyes faintly shimmered as she stared at Bai Xiaosheng’s back, her expression was like a “little fan girl.”

Does she really believe so firmly that her Xiaosheng knows his limits and won’t do anything foolish?

Xiya simply couldn’t understand.

Right now, Bai Xiaosheng is approaching Loki, intending to challenge the leader of those tribal warriors; is this what she calls knowing one’s limits?

This is courting death!

Regardless of how “modernized” these small tribes may be, one thing is hard to change—respect for strength!

Even in today’s society, everyone unconsciously follows this rule, or else how could a financial tycoon’s lunch fetch millions?

However, people today no longer advocate brute force and killings, but these tribal people still adhere to that principle.

In the café, Xiya had seen how powerful those fake waiters under Loki were; as their leader, wouldn't Loki's combat skills be even more terrifying?

Does Bai Xiaosheng not know?

Xiya concluded that Bai Xiaosheng thought the current situation was hopeless and was ready to sacrifice himself to save them.

Xiya felt very moved inside.

Bai Xiaosheng's willingness to sacrifice for others was quite similar to her original aspiration to become an outstanding officer!

Xiya suddenly held great respect for Bai Xiaosheng.

"Later, if he's truly in danger, even if it means disregarding everything, I will save him and shoot Loki dead!"

Xiya bit her teeth in silence, placing her hand on her waist, discreetly touching the gun there.

Adam and Jaster also believed Bai Xiaosheng was willing to fight Loki for their sake, even if it meant dying.

The two men were equally moved, their thoughts were exceedingly similar to Xiya's.

As long as Bai Xiaosheng was in danger, they would draw their guns.

Bai Xiaosheng would never have expected that his actions instantly earned him the respect and camaraderie of these three.

Though Lin Weiwei said Bai Xiaosheng knew his limits, her heart was still tense, her worries unabated.

After all, the person opposite, Loki, felt terrifyingly formidable, eerily dreadful, like a ghost even in broad daylight.

Beside Lin Weiwei, Lei Ying was on full alert; the moment Bai Xiaosheng met a life-and-death crisis, he would certainly charge over regardless of anything, even though his actions would give the other side a reason to attack their group.

At that time, he might not be able to protect everyone adequately, leading inevitably to life or death...

Lei Ying gazed intently at Bai Xiaosheng, silently hoping, "I hope you can win this battle, sparing us from danger!"

Lei Ying shifted his gaze to Loki, a hint of gravity in his eyes, "But this guy is definitely not simple!"

Even Lei Ying himself felt an intangible pressure from Loki.

At this moment, Loki watched Bai Xiaosheng approach with a sinister smile, raising his arm and gesturing backward.

The people he brought, those tribal warriors, silently moved backward, making space for the two of them.

Those people walked without any sound, their movements minimal, almost drifting, if it weren't for their shadows, they would seem like phantoms. Once they stopped, their gazes fixed on Loki and Bai Xiaosheng, excitement shimmered in their eyes.

As if wolves thirsting for blood.

Loki looked at Bai Xiaosheng in front of him, raised a thumb, and laughed, “Boldly courting death, I couldn’t tell from your frail appearance that you have a spirit of steel. Very good, I, Loki, keep my word. After disposing of you, I won’t touch them a bit. And you, believe me, in just a moment, you won’t feel any pain!”

Bai Xiaosheng laughed slightly, his eyelids drooped, as if waiting for his fate to come.

At this moment, Red Lotus’s voice echoed repeatedly in Bai Xiaosheng’s mind.

“Adrenaline levels rising...”

“Doubling strength, speed, reflexes...”

In just a breath’s time, Bai Xiaosheng felt his blood boiling, his muscles tightened, power surged, his heartbeat thundered like a storm.

Even his emotions were exceedingly exhilarated.

This Loki was no small fry, against him no testing is allowed; it has to be serious from the start.

This was Bai Xiaosheng’s strategy.

Loki, seeing Bai Xiaosheng’s eyelids slightly drooping, already prepared for “courting death,” smirked coldly as he strode forward.

One step, light as a feather.

Two steps, silently creeping.

Three steps, like a gentle breeze...

Clearly a tall, robust figure, yet Loki's steps were silent; if approaching during a dark night, he might have already acted without his opponent noticing his presence.

Just those few steps left Xiya and the others astounded.

Even Lei Ying couldn't help clenching his fists.

"Farewell!" Loki neared Bai Xiaosheng in five steps, wearing a sinister smile, silently mouthed three words, then threw a punch, driving his knuckles towards Bai Xiaosheng's throat.

A throat-shattering blow!

A lethal strike!

Just as Loki threw his punch, Bai Xiaosheng suddenly raised his eyelids, locking eyes with him.

Loki saw Bai Xiaosheng's eyes as cold stars, sharp and dazzling, suddenly his heart skipped.

Inherent sharp perception of danger suddenly gave Loki a strong sense of threat, making him want to flee from Bai Xiaosheng's side.

Sadly, in just a thought, he couldn't move his body.

As soon as Loki sensed something was wrong, his fist was already caught by Bai Xiaosheng. The high-speed punch, unhindered, still aimed for Bai Xiaosheng, but Bai Xiaosheng didn't resist Loki's formidable strength outright; instead, he suddenly pushed to the side, guiding this force, capable of shattering wood and stone, off course.

Chapter 2077: Victory Decided by One Punch (Part 2)

Bai Xiaosheng shifted sideways, moved half a step forward, and swung an elbow toward Loki's ear.

The movement was as fluid as flowing water, and the force was even more astonishingly swift.

The three who were almost ready to draw their guns, Xiya, and Lei Ying, who was almost ready to rush over, froze in disbelief, eyes wide open as they witnessed this scene.

Lin Weiwei couldn't help but cover her mouth.

But the most surprised was not them; it was Loki, who roared wildly in his heart—

This man is not a weakling!

He is a master!

Loki desperately twisted his body to dodge, raising one arm at his side, curling it up to protect the side of his ear.

Bai Xiaosheng's elbow strike collided with Loki's arm, producing a muffled sound.

Loki's body swayed instantly, stumbling backward in a woeful manner.

The force of Bai Xiaosheng's strike didn't come from the elbow, but from his waist driving his body, which then propelled his arm. How domineering was this blow!

If it were anyone else but Loki, they might have been knocked to the ground.

Behind Loki, his tribe warriors stared dumbfounded, unable to believe their eyes.

However, shortly after, their indifferent gaze changed. They were not enraged or depressed because their leader was struck. On the contrary, they seemed very excited, with many of them clenching their fists, just shy of cheering.

When Xiya and the others saw this, they felt a chill. What kind of people are in this tribe!

So warlike and fanatical!

Then what kind of violent person must their leader be, can such a person be easily dealt with!

Everyone started to worry again.

The former Bai Xiaosheng, with the enhancement of Red Lotus, could match Lei Ying momentarily in fists and kicks; how much more now.

Over the years, no matter how busy or tired with work, whenever there was time, Bai Xiaosheng would go running, go to the gym, train body coordination and reaction skills with Lei Ying, making Lei Ying his personal fitness coach.

Bai Xiaosheng strongly believes in a principle: good health is the foundation of everything.

With such physical fitness, combined with improved stats, Bai Xiaosheng's combat power at the moment is naturally quite terrifying.

After all, all techniques are built on a solid foundation.

At this moment, Loki only felt the entire arm he used to block Bai Xiaosheng's elbow was in a state of aching numbness, including his shoulder.

But none of that mattered.

What really infuriated Loki was being embarrassed by Bai Xiaosheng's single strike, especially in front of his tribe people.

Loki, the tribe's first warrior, felt deeply humiliated.

"Roar!" Loki suddenly straightened his body, letting out a deep, furious howl, his expression grim like a beast.

The sore and numb arm was suddenly clenched into a fist and posed for an attack. No matter the pain or lack of feeling, it was irrelevant; as long as it still moved, it was enough.

Even if it wasn't, Loki would use any movable part to attack.

At this moment, Loki felt almost like a beast rather than a man.

Those blood-red eyes would make anyone shiver with just a glance.

Xiya and the others felt their hearts tremble from that roar.

"Roar!" The tribe warriors seemed emotion-triggered and simultaneously let out a shout, both boosting morale and intimidating.

In some Hidden World Tribes, there is a notion of battle dance, battle song, where during hunts or rituals, they dance, sing loudly, or shout in unison to enhance momentum and atmosphere.

Momentum is something intangible, but it can ignite a person's potential.

Loki became excited in response, his gaze heated, as if his combat power instantly doubled.

However, what welcomed Loki's transformation was Bai Xiaosheng's whip-like leg, a triple kick!

You shout your shout, and I attack my attack. Your frustration, your excitement, none of it concerns me.

I will strike all the same!

This is what Bai Xiaosheng is doing now.

With a strong physical foundation, plus Red Lotus's aid, Bai Xiaosheng was akin to a whirlwind; his whip-kicking actions were violently explosive, looking overwhelmingly fierce.

Just as Loki felt his fighting spirit soar, he was hit by a series of kicks. His numbed arm blocked three heavy blows, his feet retreating continuously.

Now even half of his body was numbed from the shock.

Following the triple kick were a series of close-range punches from Bai Xiaosheng.

Bai Xiaosheng remained silent and relentless, attacking until Loki succumbed!

After the roar, Loki became incredibly disheveled, retreating continuously.

Everyone present watched, eyes wide open.

Loki had appeared like a primeval beast, that roar clearly a prelude to eruption. Now, Bai Xiaosheng silently beat him down like a dog...

The tribe warriors were also astonished, but they all gazed at Bai Xiaosheng with glowing eyes.

In the eyes of warriors who revered strength and might, Bai Xiaosheng became a figure of valor and worthy of respect.

But just as Bai Xiaosheng was about to secure his victory, having to catch his breath, there was a brief lull in his stormy offensive, and Loki suddenly leapt out, escaping from Bai Xiaosheng's reach, jumping out of his attack rhythm!

Even when Bai Xiaosheng noticed this and followed up with a sweeping kick, Loki again dodged.

Not only that, all subsequent pursuits by Bai Xiaosheng missed their target.

The situation, which was nearly settled, unexpectedly reversed?

"Your speed has slowed down!" Loki distanced himself, giving Bai Xiaosheng a sinister smile, "Looks like exerting full strength tires you out! The increase in speed and strength just now should only be temporary."

Bai Xiaosheng stopped, stared at Loki, exhaling secretly, catching his breath.

Loki was right; humans are not perpetual motion machines. Energy stored in muscles can be unleashed explosively at one point but will lead to fatigue and exhaustion.

Chapter 2078 - Victory in a Single Punch (Part 3)

His speed and strength are indeed decreasing now.

It has to be said, this Loki is really difficult to deal with. After enduring so many blows, he can still hold on!

Bai Xiaosheng thought it was incredible.

From this point of view, Loki is indeed worthy of being the leader of this formidable warrior tribe!

"Why did Instructor Bai stop? Why didn't he take the opportunity to defeat the opponent?" Xiya couldn't help but ask from over there.

"No clue, it's a shame, just a bit more and he could have taken that guy down!" Adam had the same doubt.

"Maybe he's exhausted." Jaster furrowed his brow deeply, eyes full of worry.

Amateurs watch the excitement, professionals watch the technique. Jaster was amazed by Bai Xiaosheng's previous storm-like attacks and was equally shocked by Loki's ability to withstand them.

"Now it seems, we were too optimistic! That Loki can still hold on, and Instructor Bai..." Jaster didn't want to say more discouraging words, but Adam and Xiya heard the meaning behind his words.

Immediately, they too became uneasy.

"Is this true?" Lin Weiwei looked at Jaster and asked Lei Ying.

Lei Ying's face was sullen, and he nodded slowly.

Bai Xiaosheng is exhausted, yet the opponent still maintains stamina.

The situation is indeed changing!

I must prepare to assist! Lei Ying even thought to himself.

"What a pity, you've used all your strength, and I haven't even started! I'm telling you, in our tribe, we also have techniques for enhancing human potential. Soon, I'll let you witness what true strength is! What true despair is!" Loki sneered at Bai Xiaosheng, "Next, your speed is not worth mentioning! Your strength is like a gentle breeze to me! Come, I can stand still and you won't hurt me at all!"

Loki even posed in a stance reminiscent of a Huaxia Kung Fu Hard Qigong posture.

In reality, it's a method from their tribe combining ancient Huaxia Kung Fu, breathing techniques, and psychological suggestion to enhance potential.

It also serves as a psychological suggestion of despair for the opponent!

"Roar!" The tribal warriors shouted in unison again, their voices echoing to the skies.

Bai Xiaosheng looked at Loki, who had posed to welcome his attack, and remained calm.

Bai Xiaosheng wasn't pretending to be calm; instead, he was silently chanting in his heart, "Red Lotus, maximize my strength."

Upon hearing Bai Xiaosheng's request, her voice echoed in Bai Xiaosheng's mind, full of warning, "Enhancing to the limit will lead to dangerous outcomes, causing muscle tears and prolonged fatigue, and after enhancement, the usage time is only ten seconds."

"No problem, do it!" Bai Xiaosheng resolutely thought.

Now, it's necessary to move forward without looking back and crush the opponent at all costs!

Red Lotus was silent for a few moments, then responded, "Understood, full enhancement!"

At this moment, Bai Xiaosheng suddenly felt his muscles surging, as if writhing, the power within him erupting as if about to break out, much like the extreme sensations described in cultivation novels.

"Come on, let me taste your fists, how much strength do you have left..." Loki finished gathering his strength and sneered at Bai Xiaosheng.

But before he finished speaking, he felt his vision blur.

Bai Xiaosheng had unknowingly appeared before him.

When did he get here, he had no idea!

Not only Loki, but no one present saw it clearly.

But then, everyone heard a dull thud, like an iron rod striking a tire, amplified tenfold, each person hearing it distinctly!

Loki looked down in shock, seeing Bai Xiaosheng's fist against his abdomen.

When did he get hit, he didn't know at all.

Loki desperately tried to recall what had just happened, but couldn't figure it out.

He couldn't understand why, even though he used his tribe's secret technique to enhance his combat strength, he still couldn't match the opponent's speed or power.

"You..." Loki forced a grimace at Bai Xiaosheng, seemingly wanting to laugh but unable to, "Strong!"

Loki rolled his eyes and fell back stiffly.

After taking repeated beatings, he still lost!

Bai Xiaosheng settled the match with a single punch!

Chapter 2079 - Unexpected...

Bai Xiaosheng's final punch, an unexpected decision-maker, caught everyone off guard. Even after Loki collapsed straight to the ground, everyone stood staring, unable to react.

Did the ferocious, often roaring, and breakout-threatening Loki end just like that?

Despite Bai Xiaosheng's apparent physical exhaustion, did he really just... win?

Everyone felt it was unbelievable.

Under the gaze of the crowd, Bai Xiaosheng stood there, motionless.

Like a mountain, commanding respect. Like the sea, unfathomably deep.

The first to rush over was Lin Weiwei. Simultaneously moving, but faster in action, was Lei Ying.

Following their reaction, the three members of Xiya also rushed over.

Opposite them, that group of tribal warriors also swiftly moved, swarming over.

Heading straight for Loki, straight for Bai Xiaosheng.

Lei Ying stepped up in front of Bai Xiaosheng, coldly staring at those people on the other side, ready to become an enemy of anyone who dared attack Bai Xiaosheng. He would show no mercy. He was prepared to fight to the death.

Lin Weiwei stood side by side with Lei Ying, forming a barrier in front of Bai Xiaosheng.

Though fragile, she was unyielding like a man!

Both Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying could see that Bai Xiaosheng was not in a good state.

Although Bai Xiaosheng stood there expressionless, his face was pale and terrifying, with only his gaze remaining resolute. It seemed he was standing by sheer willpower.

Xiya's trio had already drawn their guns, aiming at the approaching tribal warriors.

"Stop, what are you trying to do!"

"Are you planning to gang up on him?"

"Have you no honor left?"

The trio believed the tribal warriors were planning to avenge their leader by attacking Bai Xiaosheng en masse.

Unexpectedly, they simply carried away the unconscious Loki. As they passed by Bai Xiaosheng, they didn't glance at anyone else, ignored the dark gun muzzles, and instead gazed at Bai Xiaosheng with reverence, making an odd gesture—a slight bow with a slight forward lean, bending their knees and tapping their fists on their chests.

Every one of them did this.

The fierce tribal warriors seemed to bear no malice, appearing more like expressing a sense of reverence, performing a ritual of respect.

Seeing this, everyone finally felt at ease.

To avoid misunderstanding, Xiya's trio quickly holstered their guns.

After paying their respects to Bai Xiaosheng, the tribal warriors took Loki and hurried away, disappearing without a trace in the blink of an eye.

Once it was confirmed that there was no danger, everyone turned their attention to Bai Xiaosheng.

Bai Xiaosheng's expression finally changed, grimacing with a slightly pained expression.

"Quick, help me up! Be careful, I might have overexerted myself just now..."

Everyone thought Bai Xiaosheng had injured his muscles and bones, quickly moving to help yet hesitating to touch him.

Eventually, they carefully helped Bai Xiaosheng to a stone to sit on, propping him up with several jackets.

Lin Weiwei, her eyes shining, watched Bai Xiaosheng with concern.

Lei Ying carefully examined Bai Xiaosheng, saying, "No major injuries, no strained muscles or bones, just need to rest a bit."

In fact, Bai Xiaosheng was indeed merely exhausted, without any muscle tears or the like. If Loki had evaded with all his might and fought tactically with Bai Xiaosheng for just ten more seconds, Bai Xiaosheng would not have come out of this unscathed.

We can only say Loki's defeat also had something to do with his own stubbornness, and this is just another example of how unpredictable life can be...

Seeing Bai Xiaosheng alright, everyone sighed in relief.

Bai Xiaosheng silently let Red Lotus help regulate his bodily functions, minimizing side effects to regain his strength.

Meanwhile, Xiya's trio ran to a corner full of rubble to retrieve the car keys.

When they returned, Bai Xiaosheng was walking normally again, with no problem moving around.

Xiya's trio, both surprised and delighted, addressed Bai Xiaosheng respectfully as "Instructor Bai."

After this battle, the trio was completely convinced by Bai Xiaosheng and Lei Ying.

This time, Adam drove, first taking Bai Xiaosheng and the others back to their lodging.

Afterwards, the trio immediately reported the incident to the academy, requesting enhanced security for Bai Xiaosheng and urging the academy to expedite Bai Xiaosheng's relocation to the academy. But that's a story for another time.

As soon as Bai Xiaosheng returned to the hotel room to rest, he received a "message" from Red Lotus.

Upon learning that he had become the second-in-command of the Headquarters' Surveillance Department, even Bai Xiaosheng found it a bit unbelievable.

Although only second-in-command of the Surveillance Department, that department holds significant meaning: that position is equally extraordinary, endowed with significant powers of oversight and investigation initiation.

However, Bai Xiaosheng was still unaware of the specific powers and needed to learn more.

Shortly thereafter, phone calls began to come in, not just one or two.

Calls from Wen Yan, Jiang Kuo, Soruns.

And from the headquarters' human resources department and administration heads.

Congratulatory, celebratory calls, along with some procedural matters that needed Bai Xiaosheng to address.

From Wen Yan, Bai Xiaosheng heard something unusual.

The upper management of the headquarters decided that the treatment of Landvo would depend on the final verdict of the South American court.

"Sheng, the situation at the headquarters might be more complicated than you think. Vice Chairman Morgan supports Landvo, there seems to be a hint of protectionism, and the old chairman has been out of the picture for years. The seven vice chairmen each have their divisions and claims. Sometimes, an established fact does not always yield an expected result. I believe someone as smart as you understands this."

Wen Yan's words to Bai Xiaosheng could be described as truly "from the heart."

It was a revelation that even the headquarters was divided by factions, and the power spaces were closely guarded.

Chapter 2080: The Unexpected... (Part 2)

Bai Xiaosheng naturally understood what Wen Yan implied.

Bai Xiaosheng was quite moved, unexpectedly, the headquarters were this chaotic.

However, even in such a situation, the position of Deputy Director of the Observation Department remained vacant, no one dared to touch it, showing just how unusual that department was.

"You don't need to report back to headquarters right away, serve as my deputy, and I'll give you the greatest authority," Wen Yan told Bai Xiaosheng directly. "Holding both the position of second in the Observation Department and the Executive President of the Greater China Region is something I've never seen. Both positions have great potential for you. Given time, your promotion is not impossible!"

Bai Xiaosheng naturally knew that it was possible, but he remained modest.

"To be honest, I look forward to you coming to the headquarters, hoping for our cooperation," Wen Yan said.

After chatting for a while, they hung up the phone.

Holding the phone, Bai Xiaosheng fell into silent contemplation.

There were protectors at the headquarters; the situation with Landvo had to be clarified, depending on the verdict of the South American court.

Will Landvo get the treatment he deserves?

Bai Xiaosheng remained silent.

In the following days, there were indeed changes regarding the Landvo couple's situation.

First, a group of people led by Meifu collectively overturned their previous testimonies, "admitting" that they had committed perjury before.

Especially Meifu, who declared that he had been inappropriately induced against the law and, in a moment of desperation, falsely accused someone, hoping to earn merit and reduce his sentence.

Meifu appealed to the Twelve Countries Police Alliance and entrusted a lawyer to bring some charges against people in court, further negating the original testimonies.

Upon hearing this news, Bai Xiaosheng believed that someone must have visited Meifu in detention, colluding with him and others.

The testimony Yun Guangzhi had cleverly extracted was ultimately cracked.

Secondly, a world-renowned lawyer named Coleite took on Landvo's defense.

With Catherine taking full responsibility for all charges and with Meifu and others retracting their statements, this lawyer, known for his prowess in Western law, successfully convinced the jury, resulting in Landvo being found guilty but not responsible, required only to pay a fine.

From Bai Xiaosheng's research, this famous lawyer Coleite had close connections with Morgan's family.

It's obvious who helped Landvo.

The only lawyers capable of competing with such a prominent lawyer like Coleite are backed by world-class financial conglomerates or major super families. However, those families aren't inclined to eradicate Landvo over this matter, and Zhenbei Group decided to wait until after the verdict to determine whether to sue, not deploying a legal team to prosecute, which left Coleite unopposed and allowed Landvo's defense to succeed.

Regarding this, Bai Xiaosheng couldn't do anything, and Yun Guangzhi was extremely regretful.

Fortunately, all of Landvo's power and illegal businesses in South America were uprooted.

Landvo remained alone, reportedly transferred to North America, implying deportation.

From Wen Yan, Bai Xiaosheng learned that due to negligence and oversight without actual law-breaking, Landvo was demoted by the headquarters, from holding both the positions of business president and executive president, to a minor position under Vice Chairman Morgan.

Being a smart person, Bai Xiaosheng understood why Wen Yan spoke directly. Even with solid evidence against Landvo, his fate wasn't simply determined by facts, but by multifaceted struggles and negotiations.

To this, Bai Xiaosheng expressed "understanding."

In Wen Yan's words, Bai Xiaosheng detected deep helplessness, even a hint of resentment. It seemed Wen Yan also longed for swift justice against "pests," but felt powerless to do so.

Once more, Wen Yan expressed the hope that Bai Xiaosheng would soon enter the headquarters and collaborate with him to "make a difference."

Bai Xiaosheng naturally agreed, believing Wen Yan to be the conscience of Zhenbei Group.

Through this event, Bai Xiaosheng gained a certain understanding of the complex situation at Zhenbei Group's headquarters.

As the future heir of the group, Bai Xiaosheng naturally hoped to eradicate all drawbacks and restore clarity to the headquarters. However, it was currently beyond his power. Therefore, Bai Xiaosheng developed a very strong desire to utilize his dual roles to earn more achievements, further his advancement, and realize his ambitions and aspirations.

Meanwhile, Bai Xiaosheng had a not-so-good impression of the acting director at the current headquarters.

Who was that person, and how were they elected as acting chairman, seeing the chaos and corruption at the headquarters without taking action to address it?

At this point, the matter of the Landvo couple was considered closed, although not perfectly, yet satisfactory enough.

The Loki Clan, sent by Landvo, vanished without a trace. Despite the police's vast resources to investigate, they found nothing, as if they mysteriously disappeared. Bai Xiaosheng discovered, through scant online information, the meaning of the rituals those people performed towards him—respect, awe, and non-hostility.

It seemed they recognized his strength, with a promise from their clan leader, ensuring they wouldn't bother him in the future. Undoubtedly, this was greatly beneficial. After all, who would want to be constantly watched by a group of monsters, especially when they could employ modern weapons and shrewd tactics?

In these days, Bai Xiaosheng also dealt with various family matters. Fortuitously, he didn't fall but received high praise from the Twelve Countries of South America, and also gained some substantial business conveniences. Those allies who once showed signs of "wavering" began to earnestly demonstrate sincerity, not to mention Bai Xiaosheng's current value, incomparable to before.

Suddenly, Bai Xiaosheng found himself facing numerous affairs, causing him and Yun Guangzhi to “request a few more days off” from the academy.

Fortunately, Yun Guangzhi was understanding and consented to Bai Xiaosheng’s request.

However, in return, Yun Guangzhi added ten extra hours of “courses” for Bai Xiaosheng.

Bai Xiaosheng felt extremely helpless about this.

Yun Guangzhi, this old man never suffered a loss, or rather, he was exceptionally good at business, and entering the police force was a waste of his talents; he should have been doing business.

Furthermore, Bai Xiaosheng’s journey in South America wasn’t without gains. With the Qin Family’s significant assistance, Bai Xiaosheng naturally reciprocated, especially since the Qin Family was already an excellent partner.

Bai Xiaosheng’s global commerce alliance plan gained an even richer chapter.

Additionally, with tacit approval from headquarters, some top-tier enterprises in South America began collaborations with their counterparts in the Greater China Region, favoring Bai Xiaosheng’s side.

This seemed like a form of compensation for the “injustices” Bai Xiaosheng had suffered here.

Obviously, Bai Xiaosheng was happy to accept such good fortune.

Overall, Bai Xiaosheng’s trip to South America proved beneficial, even surpassing expectations...

As they say, life is full of unpredictability...

Regarding Bai Xiaosheng's security, Yun Guangzhi and the academy were very concerned, increasing law enforcement in Bai Xiaosheng's area and inspecting suspicious individuals once a day. Bai Xiaosheng's security treatment was akin to that of a statesman.

The academy also equipped Bai Xiaosheng's protectors with micro-submachine guns, flashbangs, and other weapons.

However, hearing of the extreme danger Bai Xiaosheng faced, the three originally assigned by Yun Guangzhi were reluctant to go.

After all, to protect a businessman, a famous instructor, someone seemingly unqualified to teach them, and to risk one's life was hazardous. Who would be willing?

While they were unwilling, Xiya, Adam, and Jaster requested the academy to serve as Bai Xiaosheng's protectors, claiming it was to make up for past failures in protection. The academy agreed to their request.

Xiya and her team's actions earned ridicule from the original three and rumors among academy students that they were unlucky to have taken this troublesome task.

Little did they know, Xiya and her group were delighted rather than feeling aggrieved about becoming Bai Xiaosheng's security detail.

In his free time, Bai Xiaosheng, along with Lei Ying, would discuss cases with them. The perspectives of these two were impressive, benefiting the three immensely. Moreover, Lei Ying even taught Jaster some combat skills, significantly improving him, and impressed Adam greatly in the shooting gallery, providing numerous insights.

Once Bai Xiaosheng had mostly handled his affairs, he fulfilled his commitment to officially head to the academy to begin his "teaching career."

To Bai Xiaosheng's and even Xiya's surprise, a group of genius students was planning to give Bai Xiaosheng a hard time.

The reason was that Bai Xiaosheng supposedly made the academy goddess Xiya “suffer grievances”...
