

Two Trillion 2371

Chapter 2371 - The Boastful Young Man (Part 2)

Bai Xiaosheng adhered to the modesty of Huaxia people and spoke truthfully just now.

The expressions of the four people immediately turned somewhat gloomy upon hearing this.

Lin Weiwei saw this and couldn't help but want to "correct" Bai Xiaosheng.

But in the end, she held back.

"So, what scale of collaboration are you bringing with you this time?" Mr. Laimu asked.

The other three perked up and looked at Bai Xiaosheng.

They couldn't just give up hope because the other party was an ordinary company. After all, if there was some collaboration, they could share it among their four companies. Even a small piece of grasshopper meat is better than nothing, right?

Bai Xiaosheng pondered and said, "If there is a worthwhile collaboration, I naturally want to take it all. If none are suitable, then it's possible there won't be any deals at all."

Bai Xiaosheng was a pragmatic person with an appetite for swallowing vast collaborations.

However, the four had made prior judgments, and they obviously only heard the harsh word "none," immediately dampening their spirits.

In their view, without even a clear volume of collaboration, this young man's visit wasn't going to be very profitable.

"Then, may I ask, what are your main business areas?" Mr. Luka asked with a last glimmer of hope.

At least if there was a match, one of their four companies could get some orders, which wouldn't be bad.

Bai Xiaosheng smiled, "I dabble in various industries; it's no exaggeration to say that we have every kind of business. If not, I can also find friends to collaborate with."

Bai Xiaosheng was speaking frankly, yet it chilled the hearts of the four.

To them, what Bai Xiaosheng said sounded like a small street workshop, claiming to do everything...

The four people's smiles diminished instantly.

"Mr. Bai!" Lin Weiwei finally couldn't hold back, tugging on Bai Xiaosheng's sleeve in a low voice.

"I'm sorry." Bai Xiaosheng apologized to the four, then turned his head, looking at Lin Weiwei quizzically.

"Xiaosheng, you don't see it, do you? Look at their faces, can't you say something encouraging, like our company's strength isn't weaker than Tengyun, and your business connections are widespread across continents." Lin Weiwei whispered to Bai Xiaosheng in Huaxia language.

Bai Xiaosheng chuckled immediately.

He indeed saw through the four people's thoughts.

However, so what? Just to make them look up to him, should he boast about his capabilities?

These enterprises, in Bai Xiaosheng's eyes, were just worth a look, not an equal presence. Should he inflate his achievements just to work with them?

Not necessary.

As Bai Xiaosheng listened to Lin Weiwei, the four also walked away a bit and whispered among themselves, using dialect.

In their opinion, Huaxia people shouldn't understand it.

"This Huaxia person doesn't seem to be anything major."

"It seems he can't bring us much cooperation."

"Damn, I was still holding hope."

"Now what, just let him look around? Just make it look good for the higher-ups..."

The few also lost interest.

...

After Bai Xiaosheng finished speaking with Lin Weiwei, the others also wrapped up their short discussion.

Bai Xiaosheng naturally heard everything, but he kept a smile as if he hadn't understood. The four also forced a smile.

Bai Xiaosheng and his two companions followed them into the park. At the entrance, there were sightseeing vehicles available. Bai Xiaosheng's group took one, and the four business heads and their subordinates took others, noticing many were left empty, likely prepared for a larger group that didn't show up...

In the vehicle, Lin Weiwei complained to Bai Xiaosheng in Huaxia language, "These people are so superficial. They see we are few in number and assume there's not much business opportunity, so their attitude is lukewarm..."

"Isn't that understandable?" Bai Xiaosheng asked with a smile.

Lin Weiwei couldn't refute, immediately pouting without speaking.

Lei Ying, however, sat there unaffected, saying nothing.

Bai Xiaosheng murmured, "Isn't it better this way? They're less guarded and disguised, so we can see more things..."

...

As the sightseeing car moved inside, the four company heads each held their phones, sending out messages to their own companies or factories to trim down some welcoming ceremonies and tour projects. After all, only one person came, and it's not like it's a big company, so why make a big fuss?

The four of them were doing similar things and also noticed each other's intentions. They paused for a moment, exchanged glances, and shared a knowing smile.

The first stop was Mr. Filas's manufacturing factory, which specializes in developing new energy extraction and transmission equipment.

Originally, Filas wanted to showcase two parts: the main mature products and the "avant-garde" concept products.

Because Mr. Filas changed the tour content midway, the presentation was greatly reduced.

Accompanied by technical staff for introductions, Bai Xiaosheng looked around and knew that the other party was holding back and giving him a discount.

"I thought Mr. Filas's factory would open my eyes, but it's just so-so. These technologies and equipment are nothing compared to what some of our trade companies produce." Bai Xiaosheng feigned disappointment, shaking his head, "They even asked me to pay close attention, but it seems unnecessary."

Bai Xiaosheng's dismissiveness instantly pricked Mr. Filas's pride and made the other three a bit gleeful.

Hearing that Bai Xiaosheng came with the attention of other businessmen, Mr. Filas felt a bit more spirited.

"Nothing worth mentioning? Let me show you what cutting-edge high-end really is!" Filas, annoyed, led Bai Xiaosheng and the others to see the part that wasn't displayed.

This time, Bai Xiaosheng was fairly satisfied.

"However, many technical problems are yet to be solved, and the follow-up investment won't be small. Cooperation doesn't seem too fitting." Bai Xiaosheng said, "If you could fully transfer these new technologies, that would still be good."

A sentence that left the four of them momentarily stunned.

This guy has quite a nerve, thinking the investment's not worth it and wanting to buy the existing new technology?

Filas couldn't help but laugh, raising an eyebrow at Bai Xiaosheng, "We invested two billion US Dollars in R&D, and now it's worth at least 2.5 billion. Sir, do you want to buy it? That's quite a sum of money! We ourselves couldn't afford it in one go!"

The other three couldn't help but chuckle.

Bai Xiaosheng nodded calmly and glanced at Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying.

This asking price, even if not entirely true, is close enough, and it's certainly much less than Bai Xiaosheng and his team's evaluation.

"Then it's settled, if I have that much money, Mr. Filas should sell." Bai Xiaosheng said lightly, sounding as if he was joking.

"Sure thing, I stand by my word, everyone here can be witnesses. Now, do you want to sign a contract?" Mr. Filas treated it like a joke.

The others felt the same.

"Next, should we go to see Mr. Laimu?" Bai Xiaosheng ignored the bait, instead asking.

Meanwhile, Filas amusingly spread his hands towards the remaining three.

"Let's go, let's check out our place then." Mr. Laimu laughed heartily.

Afterward, everyone arrived at a large headquarters building in the park, seeing a massive sandbox model in the lobby.

Mr. Laimu is in the infrastructure engineering business, and the sandbox displays projects in various places.

"As long as I have enough external funds, along with new Huaxia equipment and enough raw materials, I can give a facelift to a quarter of Naliya." Mr. Laimu was very confident about his business.

After looking at the sandbox, Bai Xiaosheng didn't even lift his head, "So, that means Mr. Laimu has overextended, leading to potential problems with the funding chain, and a shortage of equipment and materials."

This comment immediately froze Laimu's smile.

The others couldn't help but burst into laughter.

"You outsider, what nonsense are you spouting." Mr. Laimu, embarrassed and angry, rudely accused Bai Xiaosheng.

If it were in front of many people, he might have minded. With just one person, he saw no reason to be polite.

"I think Mr. Laimu should proceed steadily." Bai Xiaosheng said calmly and with a smile, "Otherwise, how about transferring half of your projects, exchanging them for cash and resources, and doing the other half well?"

The suggestion was easier said than done, half the projects?

"If you can find someone in Naliya to take on half my engineering projects in one go, I'll listen to you." Mr. Laimu sneered, "The premise is no installment payments, it must be an all-at-once payment for half of my projects, if possible, I would really agree to it!"

With this boastful young man, one had to use words to stump him.

Mr. Laimu's indignant words indisputably confirmed Bai Xiaosheng's assessment.

"Okay, I'll remember Mr. Laimu's conditions." Bai Xiaosheng smiled and looked at the other two, "So, where shall we go for the next visit?"

Chapter 2372 - The Distinguished Guest Has Arrived

Among the four entrepreneurs, Filas, Laimu, Luka, and Kars, Mr. Luka's company is the smallest. In the entire park, his fixed assets only occupy two floors of a five-story building, with a total of fewer than two hundred employees.

Yet, Mr. Luka's company is the one Bai Xiaosheng is most interested in because their company solely focuses on "technology".

Including car engines, they can improve and optimize the design for twelve categories of thirty-two types of mechanical products and electronic products.

However, this kind of business involving trade secrets is actually not easy to undertake because major brands have their own technical teams and will not leak their core data and drawings. According to local laws, Luka and his team cannot reverse engineer and can only take some small orders to survive.

Unexpectedly, Luka is very good at team management, and out of over a hundred technical personnel, very few have switched jobs.

Bai Xiaosheng couldn't help but secretly admire this.

"Luka, aren't you having some business difficulties now? We've been friends for many years, and I've always wanted to help you. You know I hold your personnel in high regard and welcome you to bring them over to my side at any time. I can offer you the treatment of a partner, no one here will be laid off, and they can still hold shares just like now, how about it?" During a tour, Mr. Filas pulled Luka aside and whispered these words.

They naturally used the local dialect.

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying truly didn't understand that language, so they naturally ignored it.

Bai Xiaosheng heard every word.

"Let me think about it; I also need to discuss it with my team." Luka responded.

Everyone is in the same park, not far from each other, Luka's clients even include Filas, and after years of interacting, they pretty much understand each other.

Business is sluggish for Luka here, and Filas is now seeking external capital, neither is much better off. Even if Luka's team accepted the offer, it would be for mutual warmth, hoping Filas would accept the entire team, compared to the current situation, there wouldn't be much change.

Currently, there are also big companies secretly contacting Luka, expressing a desire to acquire their large team, but requiring at least half of the personnel to be removed.

Because of this, Luka has never agreed.

"The Huaxia people are still here, shouldn't you save this conversation for later!" Laimu couldn't help but murmur.

Kars shared the same sentiment.

Filas glanced over to see Bai Xiaosheng deeply focused on observing Luka's team at work, as if he hadn't heard a word of their conversation, and promptly pursed his lips with a low chuckle, "What does it matter, anyway, they don't understand our language."

Despite saying so, Filas really did stop discussing that topic next.

But Bai Xiaosheng had already gotten the information he wanted and observed Luka's expressions during his conversation with Filas.

Bai Xiaosheng realized that Luka didn't really resist being acquired, perhaps just hoping to be accepted by a strong enough entity.

From Luka's genuine expressions towards his team, Bai Xiaosheng guessed that he probably didn't want anyone in his team to be dismissed after being taken over, which was precisely what those large companies outside, eager to absorb the technical team, were unlikely to agree to.

"I've pretty much finished the tour here, and I think we can wrap it up." Having gotten what he needed, Bai Xiaosheng remarked to Luka with a smile.

Mr. Luka was the most gentle in temperament, smiling at Bai Xiaosheng, "You've come from far away, why not come to my office for a cup of tea to relax?"

He was the first among them to extend such an invitation to Bai Xiaosheng.

Filas and Laimu displayed a "is that necessary" expression.

Throughout this visit, they've grown increasingly dismissive of this young Huaxia businessman, feeling there's little possibility for collaboration.

"Thank you, Mr. Luka, but we're not tired now. We lost some time on the road, so we'd better focus on business first." Bai Xiaosheng smiled to Luka and replied.

Mr. Luka nodded and did not insist.

Because of this invitation, Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying had a good impression of Luka.

After talking with Luka, Bai Xiaosheng turned his gaze to the last entrepreneur among the four—Kars.

"Mr. Kars, can we now take a look at your place?" Bai Xiaosheng asked.

"I don't think that's necessary!" Kars replied with half a smile, lazily saying, "I'm just in the energy extraction and transportation business over there. I imagine you wouldn't be too interested. Besides, we have high expectations for partners, hoping for large, capable collaborators, it's meaningless for medium and small enterprises to come."

Kars publicly refused Bai Xiaosheng's request to visit, with a hint of sarcasm in his words.

He is the kind of person opposite to Luka, exhibiting the coldest attitude, even overtly showing disdain.

This demeanor made Lin Weiwei frown behind Bai Xiaosheng, while Lei Ying slightly narrowed his eyes, showing some displeasure.

Filas and Laimu seemed faintly schadenfreude.

Luka felt this treatment of guests was excessive and quickly advised, "Kars, we've been waiting for this guest for a while, isn't it appropriate to let them have a look!"

"If you really want to see, then go ahead." Kars replied lazily.

Bai Xiaosheng suddenly smiled, lightly saying, "I think we can skip it, since Mr. Kars seems indifferent anyway."

Chapter 2373 - The Honored Guest Has Arrived (2)

Seeing that the atmosphere had become somewhat awkward, and given that everyone was at his company, Luka quickly said, "Why don't we all go to my office and have some tea while we rest? I have some top-quality black tea here. We can chat while we drink!"

Bai Xiaosheng nodded with a smile.

Filas and Laimu also had no objections.

"Forget it, I won't have tea. I have a lot to do, so I'll take my leave first." Kars rudely declined, turned on his heel and left without waiting for anyone to speak, muttering something in the local dialect, "A complete waste of time!"

Luka felt a bit awkward and glanced at Bai Xiaosheng.

Although this Huaxia guest might not understand their local language, he could guess some meanings from the tone and expressions.

This was not good; it made the people of Nalinta City appear impolite.

"Mr. Luka, where is your office? I'd like to chat with you a bit more." Bai Xiaosheng said with a smile, seemingly unaffected.

Luka quickly smiled and made an inviting gesture, "This way, please!"

Meanwhile, while Bai Xiaosheng was visiting the companies of the four entrepreneurs, Deputy Mayor Tori of Nalinta City was sitting in a car returning to the city government, feeling particularly angry.

Nalinta City also urgently needed foreign investment, and out of the companies they could present, aside from Filas and Kars, the other two were barely adequate.

They did not dare hope for all to succeed in securing cooperation, but if even one or two companies could receive investment support, they would be tremendously satisfied.

However, the Huaxia Business Group that finally arrived was intercepted by Dilu City.

This matter cannot be let go like this!

Currently, Mr. Send, the Mayor of Nalinta City, was in Banjiao City accompanying high-level officials and the leaders of the Huaxia Business Group.

This needs to be reported.

In the car, Deputy Mayor Tori immediately called Mayor Send, and after several attempts, with no answer, he patiently waited.

After a while, Deputy Mayor Tori received a call back from Mr. Send.

Deputy Mayor Tori quickly connected the call.

"Mr. Tori, why did you call me? I'm with some important guests," Mayor Send's tone over the phone was slightly displeased.

"It's like this, Mr. Send, there's something I must report to you." Deputy Mayor Tori hurriedly said.

He then detailed the situation to Mayor Send.

"Oh, that matter!"

To Deputy Mayor Tori's surprise, Mayor Send seemed to know about this matter already!

"Because I was just in a high-level meeting, I couldn't make time to greet you. In fact, as soon as I'm done here, this is the first matter I was going to discuss with you."

Instead of being furious over the unexpected decrease in personnel, Mr. Send seemed to be rather pleased.

This left Deputy Mayor Tori quite astonished and a bit baffled.

Could it be that because fewer Huaxia businessmen visited for inspections, there would be some kind of compensation later?

"Regarding the small business group visiting us altering their plans at the last minute, I found out right away. To avoid any misunderstandings on my part, the leader of the Huaxia group even disclosed some information to me!" Mayor Send's tone was excited over the phone, "Isn't the person visiting us a very young Huaxia businessman with a male and female companion?"

"Yes." Deputy Mayor Tori responded.

"Do you know the name of that young Huaxia businessman?" Mr. Send asked eagerly.

"He said his name was Bai..."

Before Deputy Mayor Tori could finish, Mayor Send interrupted excitedly, "His full name is Bai Xiaosheng, and he's the Executive Director of Zhenbei Group's Greater China Region! Among the Huaxia Business Group, he maintains the closest cooperative and personal relationships with nearly two-thirds of the strong enterprises. I heard he can even invite big companies like Tengyun Group and Jia Group to invest in a location anytime!"

Deputy Mayor Tori was stunned, shocked beyond belief at these words.

Zhenbei Group is a world-class financial conglomerate, he knew that. In recent years, their city had frequently extended an olive branch to Zhenbei Group's Africa region, hoping they'd invest, but after three inspections, they still hadn't come.

That young Huaxia man turned out to be the Executive Director of Zhenbei Group's Greater China Region!

Simply incredible!

And, of course, Tengyun Group and Jia Group, these influential Eastern conglomerates were also well-known to Mr. Tori.

Not only was Bai Xiaosheng a key figure of Zhenbei Group, but he also had close ties with those big enterprises and could easily draw them in to invest?

This was simply unimaginable!

Deputy Mayor Tori's hand holding the phone involuntarily trembled, overwhelmed with excitement.

"And, Tori, don't you follow financial news? That Huaxia businessman who shook the North American business community and was known worldwide, do you know who that is?" Mr. Send asked excitedly.

"Is it... Mr. Bai Xiaosheng?" Deputy Mayor Tori exclaimed in surprise.

He recalled that it really was such a name!

Mr. Send, realizing Deputy Mayor Tori understood, excitedly said, "It's not the number of visitors that matters, but their quality. Having Mr. Bai Xiaosheng alone is enough! He alone is worth two or even three delegations!"

Deputy Mayor Tori couldn't help but swallow, nodding in agreement before realizing.

Making a call, nodding, Mr. Send couldn't see that.

"By the way, did you host that gentleman properly, was the etiquette complete? Although our previous welcome ceremony wasn't grand, it wasn't disrespectful either."

Chapter 2374 - The Distinguished Guest Has Arrived (Part 3)

"Ah..." Deputy Mayor Tori suddenly snapped back to his senses and found it difficult to continue speaking.

This "Ah" made Mayor Send over there suddenly sense a problem.

The other party immediately said sternly, "What's wrong? Could it be that there's a problem with the reception?!"

"Mr. Send, rest assured, we will definitely treat Mr. Bai well! No problems will arise, I assure you!" said Tori promptly, awakening with a start.

Mayor Send heard this and said in a deep voice, "Since you know the importance of this guest, make sure you entertain him well. I really can't leave now, so the responsibility falls on you! Make sure those businessmen don't mess it up for me!"

Mayor Send's last words were spoken with a hint of fierceness.

Deputy Mayor Tori, hearing this, swallowed his saliva and quickly agreed.

After hanging up the phone, Deputy Mayor Tori stared blankly at the phone in his hand for a solid two seconds, then shouted directly at his driver, "Quick! Turn around and go back! Drive as fast as you can!"

Now Deputy Mayor Tori's heart was practically being cooked in an oil pan, eager to go back.

...

When Bai Xiaosheng finished touring Mr. Laimu's company, Deputy Mayor Tori was urging the driver to speed back desperately.

On the road, Deputy Mayor Tori initially thought of calling Filas and the other entrepreneurs to give them a heads-up but felt they were busy with Bai Xiaosheng and couldn't answer the phone, so he held back.

By the time Bai Xiaosheng and his party finished an entire pot of tea in Luka's office, Deputy Mayor Tori's car had already rushed into the park.

Because he didn't know where Bai Xiaosheng and the others were, Mr. Tori called one of the four.

As luck would have it, he dialed Kars' number.

"Mr. Kars, that important guest, where is he now?!" Deputy Mayor Tori asked anxiously as soon as he got through.

"Important guest? What important guest?" Kars was in his office, drinking coffee.

Just now, he was mocking how Luka wasted good tea and time on a useless Huaxia person.

And at this moment, receiving a call from Deputy Mayor Tori surprised Kars, and he was puzzled by the term "important guest" from the deputy mayor's mouth.

"It's the very young important guest from Huaxia. Where is he? I need to see him immediately!" Deputy Mayor Tori said urgently.

"He should be... having tea with Mr. Luka." Kars realized.

But afterward, Kars was a bit surprised.

How did that Huaxia businessman become an "important guest" in Deputy Mayor Tori's words?

"Okay, I got it, I'm heading over immediately!"

Deputy Mayor Tori hung up the phone without another word.

Kars stared at the phone that had been hung up, feeling puzzled, and then frowned and stood up.

He had a vague feeling that something unusual was going on, so he decided to go over and check it out as well.

When Kars arrived at the building where Luka's company was located, he saw the slightly chubby Deputy Mayor Tori hurriedly striding along.

"Mr. Tori, what's going on?" Kars quickly approached, intending to inquire.

Deputy Mayor Tori waved his hand, seeming too busy to talk much, and gave him a complicated look as if displeased that he hadn't been accompanying the guest.

Kars felt an inexplicable unease as he saw the deputy mayor running towards the elevator, and he hurried to follow.

At this moment, Bai Xiaosheng in Mr. Luka's office was having a pleasant conversation with him.

Filas and Laimu were sipping tea and occasionally chit-chatting about their own topics.

At that moment, a burst of hurried footsteps was heard outside.

Then, the office door was pushed open forcefully.

Everyone couldn't help but look over.

It was Deputy Mayor Tori, panting heavily but with eyes shining bright as a torch. He immediately found Bai Xiaosheng and, completely disregarding others, strode over with the most enthusiastic smile that Filas and others had never seen.

He went up and shook Bai Xiaosheng's hand firmly.

"Mr. Bai Xiaosheng, on behalf of the entire city, I extend a heartfelt welcome to you, your visit is a great honor for the Lin ta business community!"

Filas, Laimu, Luka, and the arriving Kars were all utterly dumbfounded.

How did Deputy Mayor Tori... suddenly change completely?

Could this young Huaxia person truly deserve such a high evaluation?!

Chapter 2375 - The Grand Collaboration

Deputy Mayor Tori returned as a different person, showing extreme enthusiasm toward the young businessman from Huaxia, a stark contrast to his previous indifference.

Filas, Laimu, Luka, and the newly returned Kars all looked on in disbelief, thinking Deputy Mayor Tori must have taken the wrong medicine.

"I did have an urgent matter to attend to, but as soon as it was finished, I rushed back," Deputy Mayor Tori said with a laugh.

He began by apologetically addressing Bai Xiaosheng.

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying, next to Bai Xiaosheng, exchanged amused glances.

It was said that Nalinta City's government was quite a distance from here; could he really have made it back in such a short time? Considering Mr. Tori's dramatic change in attitude, they believed more that he had learned Bai Xiaosheng's true identity and strength halfway through his journey and hurried back, fearing to miss the opportunity of a major businessman and a big business deal.

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying could guess it, and naturally, so could Bai Xiaosheng.

However, Bai Xiaosheng maintained his composure and even thanked him with a smile, "Thank you for your efforts, Mr. Tori."

"No trouble at all!" Deputy Mayor Tori quickly waved his hand with a smile, his eyes eager as he spoke to Bai Xiaosheng, "What do you think of our local enterprises, Mr. Bai? Is there anything you find noteworthy, or perhaps any critiques or suggestions you have? We would be immensely grateful!"

Filas and Laimu raised their eyebrows at this, wondering if it was a bit over the top.

If the visitor had been a famous Huaxia businessman like Lu Yun, Jia Chengshan, Dong Tianlu, or Lu Tiandao, they wouldn't see it as excessive, as humble advisory might bring unexpected benefits. But speaking like this to such a young, inexperienced person felt a bit too much.

To Filas and Laimu, Deputy Mayor Tori's treatment of this young man seemed more like a political maneuver.

Luka looked at Mr. Tori and Bai Xiaosheng curiously, not understanding why.

Beside them, Kars's eyes flickered as he closely monitored the situation.

"Mr. Tori, you're jesting. I'm in no position to offer critiques or suggestions," Bai Xiaosheng said with a smile, "The enterprises of Mr. Filas and Mr. Laimu each have their strengths and commendable aspects. As for Mr. Luka's business, I'm most impressed."

This was Bai Xiaosheng's polite bit of commentary.

Deputy Mayor Tori nodded at his words, giving Luka a smile before turning back to Bai Xiaosheng, "Is that so? That's wonderful!"

Seeing no further comments from Bai Xiaosheng, Deputy Mayor Tori curiously glanced at Kars, politely asking Bai Xiaosheng, "We also have Mr. Kars here. Why not share your thoughts on his enterprise, Mr. Bai?"

Deputy Mayor Tori assumed that Kars had left earlier and hadn't accompanied Bai Xiaosheng, not knowing that Kars had actually "closed the door" on him.

Everyone instinctively looked at Kars.

Kars suddenly felt uneasy.

In Kars's opinion, if Deputy Mayor Tori maintained his previous indifferent attitude, there would be nothing wrong with him refusing this Huaxia businessman. But with Tori's 180-degree shift in attitude, the situation could become awkward. At the very least, it hinted at non-cooperation with Mr. Tori's work, possibly jeopardizing their previously agreed municipal support...

"Oh, it's like this: Mr. Kars had matters to attend to, so I couldn't visit his site earlier, hence I only saw these three enterprises," Bai Xiaosheng said with a smile.

His words were already quite polite.

According to Lin Weiwei's way of thinking, they should have lodged a strong complaint against Deputy Mayor Tori, otherwise they wouldn't let it go.

After all, they hadn't come here to be humiliated. Kars's arrogance had left them disgusted.

Hearing Bai Xiaosheng's explanation, Kars awkwardly forced a smile, nodding repeatedly to Deputy Mayor Tori, "Yes, yes, but now my matters are settled, and we can go for a tour."

Sharp as ever, Deputy Mayor Tori immediately grasped the situation, giving Kars a cold glance but said nothing.

Yet that glance made Kars's heart turn cold.

"Now, we can go for a tour, Mr. Bai. Let's go," Kars turned to Bai Xiaosheng.

If Bai Xiaosheng agreed, this matter could possibly be brushed off.

It seemed that this Huaxia person was reasonable and even covered for him earlier.

Kars naturally assumed Bai Xiaosheng would agree.

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying regarded Kars coldly.

Who did he think they were, ignoring them when there was no benefit, but expecting them to come running when there was an advantage?

In this world, where would one find such easy gains!

Bai Xiaosheng indeed had a good temper and was willing to forgive, but he was not a pushover.

Sure enough, Bai Xiaosheng smiled gently and politely said to Kars, "I think there's no need."

This Huaxia person actually declined him!

Kars felt a bit displeased immediately and was about to speak.

"Since Mr. Bai has decided, we must respect his decision!" Deputy Mayor Tori said to Kars with a soft yet firm tone, his eyes sharp.

Kars's mind raced, and he immediately shut his mouth.

Deputy Mayor Tori turned his smile toward Bai Xiaosheng, "Actually, Mr. Bai, we have many outstanding enterprises in this city beyond these four. However, due to your limited time, we've arranged them into smaller visiting groups for convenience, focusing on these relatively centralized four as one viewing point. If you're interested, I can take you to visit other companies!"

Chapter 2376 - The Grand Collaboration (Part 2)

Facing this invitation, Bai Xiaosheng smiled and looked at the time, saying, "We need to rush back to Banjiao City before evening, but I think we should be able to visit two companies before that."

Deputy Mayor Tori was overjoyed upon hearing this.

Always so aloof, yet today he was acting unusually. This Huaxia businessman agreeing to visit two more companies had prompted such a reaction from him.

Filas and the others couldn't help but exchange glances, puzzled.

"It's already this time, Mr. Bai, I'd like to invite you for lunch," Deputy Mayor Tori offered.

Beside him, Luka couldn't help but interject, "But just now, when we were chatting, I mentioned that our company's outsourced lunch is quite good, and Mr. Bai already agreed to eat here."

Earlier, Filas and Laimu hadn't intended to invite Bai Xiaosheng for lunch, but Luka had warmly extended the invitation.

When Bai Xiaosheng agreed, the two of them secretly laughed, thinking this Huaxia person, who hadn't seen much of the world, was pleased even with a fast meal.

Deputy Mayor Tori shook his head immediately upon hearing this, firmly opposing, "This is absolutely unacceptable! Mr. Bai is a guest; he must have a formal lunch!"

Luka was out of options and looked at Bai Xiaosheng.

"But I'd like to eat here and chat with Mr. Luka about some collaboration," Bai Xiaosheng said with a smile.

Deputy Mayor Tori, hearing this, immediately broke into a smile, saying to Luka, "Mr. Luka, add me in for lunch here as well."

Mr. Tori's words surprised Filas, Laimu, and Kars.

Deputy Mayor Tori was going to accompany this young Huaxia person for a quick meal here? Does he really think his time is so expendable?

These three finally realized, judging from Deputy Mayor Tori's attitude after his return, that there might be something unusual going on.

This young Huaxia businessman might... not be simple!

Deputy Mayor Tori eagerly asked Bai Xiaosheng, "I still don't know, Mr. Bai, what kind of collaboration do you plan with Mr. Luka?"

Bai Xiaosheng heard this, looked at Luka, and with a sincere smile, said, "Earlier, I didn't have a chance to talk to Mr. Luka, but now that Mr. Tori is here, can I say it?"

"Of course!" Luka immediately nodded.

In front of Deputy Mayor Tori, discussing collaboration matters should be no problem.

Luka and Bai Xiaosheng were chatting amiably, and Luka faintly felt that this young man was rather extraordinary.

He was very curious to hear about what collaborations Bai Xiaosheng had in mind with him.

Given the current difficult situation, Luka would not refuse any upcoming order!

Filas and the other three were also listening intently, wanting to know this young man's appetite, deducing what remarkable things he might possess.

"I would like to invite Mr. Luka and your people over to our side," Bai Xiaosheng said.

Just an invitation to visit, to inspect?

Filas and the others held their breath, but upon hearing just an invitation, they were slightly disappointed.

"Alright, I'll bring my people over to visit Mr. Bai's place," Luka smiled.

During the earlier chat, Luka felt Bai Xiaosheng was knowledgeable about the industry, guessing he also had a technical team.

This kind of international exchange is always a good thing; if there's a chance for cooperation, even better.

Deputy Mayor Tori looked puzzled at Bai Xiaosheng, unable to believe it was merely an invitation.

Seeing that the group hadn't understood his meaning, Bai Xiaosheng realized he had been too subtle, so he smiled and said, "When I say invitation, I mean I would like you all to join our group."

Bai Xiaosheng's words stunned everyone present.

Now, everyone understood.

Bai Xiaosheng intended to acquire Luka's business here.

Filas had long coveted Luka's people, and seeing someone stepping in to seal the deal, he laughed, "Mr. Bai, I think you're not aware that Luka doesn't oppose joining other groups, but requires maintaining a certain level of independence, and he also has requirements concerning the counterpart's strength. Furthermore, how could everyone here possibly leave and go all the way to Huaxia? Technical personnel are not likely to leave their hometown..."

"Mr. Luka, you can continue with your team here. I will invest to establish a headquarters building and a new company for you, purchasing all necessary facilities and equipment. Initially, I will invest twenty billion US dollars to ensure all this," Bai Xiaosheng calmly looked at Luka, saying, "You will never have to worry about orders again; I'll provide all the work. Aside from salaries and bonuses, you will enjoy thirty percent of the shares in the new company. You will still fully be in charge of daily operations. How does that sound?"

This young man spoke, and just like that, he was ready to invest twenty billion dollars.

Filas's smile froze on his face, his eyes widening like saucers.

Twenty billion US dollars!

That's money!

Real silver!

Just for basic assurance?!

Others also stared at Bai Xiaosheng in a daze, with faces full of disbelief.

Luka looked somewhat dazed at Mr. Tori.

Beside him, Deputy Mayor Tori couldn't help but cough twice, looking at Bai Xiaosheng and smiling, "Well, Mr. Bai, you're ready to acquire one of our big companies just like that, this..."

Actually, Luka and his team would remain locally, and tax would still go to Nalinta City.

Bai Xiaosheng smiled at Deputy Mayor Tori, "If the collaboration goes through, I will naturally engage more with Nalinta City's enterprises, even inviting friends to invest together."

Deputy Mayor Tori was delighted upon hearing this and eagerly said to Luka, "Mr. Luka, what are you hesitating for, you must agree to this golden opportunity! Do you know who he is?"

Luka immediately glanced at Bai Xiaosheng again.

Chapter 2377 - The Grand Collaboration (Part 3)

Filas and the other three were also looking at Bai Xiaosheng.

"This Mr. Bai, he is the Executive President of the Greater China Region of Zhenbei Group—Bai Xiaosheng!" declared Deputy Mayor Tori.

Mr. Tori surmised that these four, including Filas, never inquired about each other's identity, or perhaps the other side intentionally hid it from the start; otherwise, they wouldn't have such an attitude!

Upon revealing Bai Xiaosheng's identity, including Luka, the four immediately looked at him in disbelief.

They knew about Zhenbei Group, a world-renowned financial conglomerate with thousands of companies under its African division, renowned and powerful in many countries and regions.

So far, Nalinta City hasn't been able to invite them to set up companies or factories here!

Unexpectedly, this young Huaxia businessman turned out to be the one in charge of the Greater China Region!

"In the East, Lu Yun, Jia Chengshan, Dong Tianlu, and Lu Tiandao, those people are friends and important business allies of this gentleman!"

Deputy Mayor Tori's second statement left everyone short of breath.

"Do you know about the Huaxia person who recently shook the North American and even the global business community? It's also him!"

Deputy Mayor Tori's third statement was like a series of crashing waves.

Suddenly, the people who were originally sitting stood up abruptly, breathing rapidly as they looked at Bai Xiaosheng.

Bai Xiaosheng put down his teacup and smiled at Filas, "Mr. Filas, I want to acquire your entire new technology set. You mentioned the cost is two billion US Dollars, with an added value of five hundred million, so I'll offer you 2.7 billion. How about it?"

Then, Bai Xiaosheng turned to Laimu, "Mr. Laimu, I am willing to buy half of your projects at a high price, supply you with a batch of the latest engineering equipment, and introduce some foreign deals, projects in Europe, America, Africa, for you to choose from. Are you willing?"

Bai Xiaosheng's conditions hit the nail on the head, fulfilling Filas's and Laimu's most pressing desires.

The two couldn't help but swallow hard, their eyes lighting up.

"This... You're joking." Filas couldn't help but say, disregarding Deputy Mayor Tori's presence.

"This isn't a dream, is it?" Mr. Laimu's voice also trembled slightly.

Deputy Mayor Tori, listening nearby, was overjoyed that three out of their four companies had gained Bai Xiaosheng's favor, potentially pulling in dozens of billions in investment, and he quickly affirmed, "If Mr. Bai says so, then there can be no mistake!"

It's said that wherever the Huaxia Business Group goes, major cooperation surely follows.

Here, they have indeed achieved a shocking level of success!

This year's city GDP might just soar off the charts!

Filas and Laimu, regaining their composure, immediately showed a flush of excitement.

"Yes, I am willing to accept!"

"So am I!"

The notion that businessmen should be reserved and that negotiations shouldn't be rushed was long tossed aside by these two.

The reason partly was Bai Xiaosheng's substantial offer, but also the potential infinite business opportunities through collaboration with him!

Beside them, Kars dully watched the others in jubilation, but in his heart, he felt like he was plunging into an ice cave with deep regret.

"Mr. Bai, how about you come over to my place and take a look? It's quite good..." Kars murmured, swallowing hard.

Unfortunately, no one paid him any attention.

Filas and Laimu warmly invited Bai Xiaosheng for lunch, and upon being declined, immediately asked Luka to add two simple meals to accompany...

Amidst the bustling, Kars still wanted to seek cooperation with Bai Xiaosheng.

Deputy Mayor Tori, seizing the moment when others weren't watching, glared at Kars menacingly, signaling him not to cause trouble.

Otherwise, he should not expect preferential policies or loans in the future.

Kars, completely unwilling, dared not say more under Deputy Mayor Tori's long-cool gaze and felt increasingly uncomfortable, unable to resist leaving the room.

Outside, Luka's employees saw Mr. Kars come out, thinking he might need something, and immediately wanted to inquire.

In the end, Kars suddenly burst out, slapping himself three times in front of those employees.

"I'm such a fool!"

Luka's people were startled, dumbfounded by Kars.

Seeing them, Kars immediately felt too ashamed to stay any longer and fled, covering his face.

The person stared at Mr. Kars's retreating figure, puzzled about the situation inside Mr. Luka's office, quietly stepped in, listened for a while, and instantly had a strange expression.

"Inside, why is there such joyful laughter? Have those gentlemen and the Deputy Mayor gone mad?"

Chapter 2378 - When "Enemies" Meet

At noon, Bai Xiaosheng had a simple lunch with Deputy Mayor Tori, Luka, Filas, Laimu, and others at Luka's company, chatting while dining and discussing some details of cooperation.

"Subsequently, I will arrange everything and have someone liaise with you, please be patient." Bai Xiaosheng said with a smile to Filas and Laimu.

Although Bai Xiaosheng was the absolute leader in this cooperation, and by his status, he had an absolute "advantage" over the two, Bai Xiaosheng never positioned himself as superior, always treating others as equals in his words and actions.

So young, so esteemed, and with such a mindset!

Filas and Laimu grew increasingly respectful and awed by Bai Xiaosheng, nodding repeatedly and replacing wine with tea to thank Bai Xiaosheng for his investment.

Regarding the cooperation with Luka, Bai Xiaosheng was even more attentive.

Luka listened intently to every word, suggestion, and requirement from Bai Xiaosheng, with a serious attitude, vowing to do his best.

Bai Xiaosheng even asked Deputy Mayor Tori on the spot to help find a location where he would invest in building a headquarters as the new office for the new company.

Deputy Mayor Tori eagerly assisted in thinking and selecting, after all, if, with Bai Xiaosheng's support, Luka's company flourished and became renowned, the Nalinta city government could take it as a model, using the new enterprise's location as a center to develop a new high-tech zone.

The significance would be entirely different!

Given time, if Nalinta City became the tech capital of Naliya, Deputy Mayor Tori and Mayor Sen would also rise with the tide, with unlimited prospects and glory!

With such expectations, how could Deputy Mayor Tori not put his heart and soul into it?

Seeing Bai Xiaosheng, Deputy Mayor Tori, and Luka having a heated discussion, Filas and Laimu felt that their gains seemed to lack luster, but no matter how envious they were, it served no purpose.

Both of them secretly decided to maintain a good relationship with Luka, in case he succeeded, they might also gain connections and opportunities...

After the meal, Luka specifically vacated his office for Bai Xiaosheng and the others to rest.

Deputy Mayor Tori didn't leave either and went to another lounge. Since Bai Xiaosheng agreed to visit other enterprises in Nalinta City in the afternoon, Deputy Mayor Tori hurried to call his secretary to make proper plans.

Taking the opportunity, Filas and Laimu hung around Luka, claiming to offer help, but in reality, getting closer.

Leaving others aside, in Luka's office, instead of truly resting, Bai Xiaosheng was arranging the local liaison work.

The cooperation with Filas and Laimu would be handed over to the enterprises under Zhenbei Group's Greater China Region.

As for Luka, Bai Xiaosheng intended to incorporate it under his own charge.

Originally, Bai Xiaosheng thought of placing them under the new North American company "Qidian Power," as it would be fitting for both parties.

However, Bai Xiaosheng later discarded the idea, given that cross-continental matters were not easily resolved.

Therefore, Bai Xiaosheng intended to develop Luka's side into a wholly new tech company.

"Nalinta City is in North Africa; I hope one day Luka's company can become the leading tech company in North Africa. I suggest naming the new company 'Feibei High-Tech'," Bai Xiaosheng said to Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying.

The two naturally had no objections.

Having set the new company's goal, direction, framework, and name, and arranging support plans from Qidian Power, Xue Lian Wan He, and others, Bai Xiaosheng felt at ease and closed his eyes for a short rest on the office sofa.

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying, who had other matters to attend to, worked as quietly as possible, not to disturb Bai Xiaosheng's rest.

In the afternoon, Deputy Mayor Tori personally knocked on the door, politely asking if Bai Xiaosheng was ready to set out.

Bai Xiaosheng, having handled other matters, cheerfully agreed, greeted Luka, and took Deputy Mayor Tori's car to visit enterprises not originally on the agenda.

With the deputy mayor accompanying him, wherever Bai Xiaosheng went, he naturally received an exceedingly warm welcome.

By the end of the visit, Bai Xiaosheng suggested that two of the enterprises cooperate with Filas and Laimu's entities to help absorb orders.

Deputy Mayor Tori, being astute, naturally understood that the quicker they absorbed orders, the sooner they could receive new ones from Bai Xiaosheng, indirectly promoting the development of local enterprises, which naturally delighted him.

Not until five in the afternoon did Bai Xiaosheng bid farewell to Deputy Mayor Tori, as he needed to return to Banjiao City.

Unable to persuade Bai Xiaosheng to stay, Deputy Mayor Tori directly offered his own car to Bai Xiaosheng and additionally dispatched four people in two cars for escort.

With such a lineup, Bai Xiaosheng naturally declined.

But he couldn't resist Deputy Mayor Tori's persuasion.

"Mr. Bai, you've significantly bonded with our Nalinta City, establishing a genuine kinship relationship beyond mere cooperation, and setting up a new company here. Shouldn't we become closer? You extended a helping hand in Dilu City, Samba could dispatch two people and two cars, so if I send four people and three cars, is that too much? Given our relationship, it's really not, and it's quite low-key! Otherwise, I ought to arrange an entire convoy for you!"

This was Deputy Mayor Tori's firm stance.

Chapter 2379 - When "Enemies" Meet_2

It seems a bit like a contest with Dilu City's Vice Mayor Samba.

In the end, Bai Xiaosheng could only compromise.

Two cars led the way, Bai Xiaosheng's vehicle followed, and Vice Mayor Tori personally saw them off until they were out of sight.

Truly the height of courtesy.

In the car, Lin Weiwei tested the driver again.

He was still a local who didn't understand the Huaxia language, so the three of them comfortably communicated in Huaxia language.

Halfway through, a person in charge of the Huaxia Business Group called.

Bai Xiaosheng initially thought it was to inquire about their return, but instead was told the meeting time had moved from tonight to tomorrow at noon, because some visiting teams, due to various reasons, couldn't return tonight. The higher-ups, considering the situation, adjusted the schedule.

This meant Bai Xiaosheng and his group didn't need to rush back to Banjiao City that night, but could make it by midday tomorrow.

"If we had gotten this news earlier, we wouldn't have rushed so much." Lin Weiwei sighed as Bai Xiaosheng hung up the call, "We've been in a hurry all the way back..."

Despite saying this, Lin Weiwei stretched lazily, feeling it wouldn't hurt to get back earlier.

Bai Xiaosheng thought for a moment and said, "Then today, we won't return to Banjiao City."

"Huh?" Lin Weiwei was taken aback by Bai Xiaosheng's words.

Lei Ying also looked at Bai Xiaosheng in surprise and asked, "Not going back? Then where to?"

"To Dilu City!" Bai Xiaosheng decisively said, "We're going to Dilu City!"

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying exchanged glances, both unable to understand.

"Why? Are we going to check on the collaboration between the Kuer, Kulik people, and our people?" Lin Weiwei couldn't resist asking.

Apart from that, she couldn't think of any other reason.

But is it really necessary?

Lei Ying, however, didn't think Bai Xiaosheng was doing this because of that, and stared intently at him.

"We did our homework on the way here, didn't you forget? There's an enterprise in Dilu City that we're interested in." Bai Xiaosheng smiled.

Lin Weiwei blinked and suddenly realized, pointing with her fingers, "I remember now..."

"It's Zhenbei Group's African branch here!" Lei Ying also realized, his eyes brightening.

To say the least, Dilu City, alongside Nalinta City, might be the bottom two in economic development linked to Banjiao City.

Nalinta City has wanted to attract Zhenbei Group's African branch to invest, but without success. Dilu City, however, unexpectedly received an olive branch from them.

This is why Vice Mayor Tori is bitter and resentful toward Dilu City.

Bai Xiaosheng and his team had learned of this news back home, noticing signs of Zhenbei Group's African operations "moving north." Their enterprise here is just one of their moves. Of course, they hadn't planned on visiting it before.

Now, it might be an opportunity to take a look.

It's said that the Zhenbei Group's subsidiary in Dilu City is notable and acts "high and mighty," and has pushed back and declined the inspection arranged with the Huaxia Business Group for various reasons, likely trying to keep a low profile.

The more it is like this, the more Bai Xiaosheng is intrigued.

Understanding Bai Xiaosheng's intent, Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying also wanted to check it out.

Immediately, Lin Weiwei communicated with the driver in English, instructing him to head to Dilu City.

The driver was surprised by this request but, given the distinguished guests in the car insisted, he naturally complied, especially since Vice Mayor Tori had repeatedly instructed that these guests were not to be offended.

The driver promptly used the radio to inform the other two cars.

So, the three cars turned at an intersection and headed directly toward Dilu City.

...

Dilu City, as a medium-small city, has a modernized eastern district with the latest and complete infrastructure, along with several sizable enterprises.

This time, another smaller group from the Huaxia Business Group went there, but they returned early and didn't achieve much.

The new enterprise that Bai Xiaosheng and his team were interested in, part of Zhenbei Group's African branch, was located there as well.

On a main road, a car was speeding along.

The car was a rental, and the driver was a woman; if Bai Xiaosheng and his team saw her, she would surely seem familiar.

It was the very Miss Jenny who had had "conflicts" with them before.

At that moment, Miss Jenny's face was dark, and she drove aggressively.

The men in the car with her were visibly uneasy.

"How infuriating! That damn Huaxia person!" Jenny angrily complained while driving, "Using connections to investigate us, wasting so much of my time! That bastard!"

After venting about outsiders, still not satisfied, Miss Jenny turned her anger to the people in the car.

"What kind of lousy car did you prepare, breaking down again and again on the way! I had to rent a car, and my reputation will be ruined when I arrive! Are you all pigs?"

The men in the car dared not say anything.

But seeing Jenny driving with the pedal to the floor, honking all the way, the man in the passenger seat couldn't help but feel panicked, clutching the handle tightly.

"Miss Jenny, how about I drive... You're driving too fast!" The man couldn't help but force a laugh and suggest.

This woman was terrifying, speeding when upset, the rented car weaving in and out dangerously close to other cars, which was nerve-wracking.

"What are you afraid of? I'm a great driver!" Jenny snorted coldly, "Besides, there's a checkpoint far ahead, I can just slow down by then!"

As she spoke, Jenny glanced at the passenger seat and then at the rearview mirror to see the men in the back, smirking disdainfully, "You big men are useless and cowardly! Bringing you along was my biggest mistake!"

Even being humiliated like this, the men remained silent.

Rank and authority prevail, and that's true in the workplace as well, with a higher rank inherently commanding authority.

They could only listen and endure it.

As she swerved for a lane change, the car barely scraped against another. The man in the passenger seat turned pale, unable to speak, gripping both the handle and seatbelt.

In the back, some crossed themselves, and some simply shut their eyes.

"I know my skills well!" Jenny laughed coldly, "Stop worrying about nothing..."

Jenny had not finished speaking when three cars suddenly appeared close ahead at the intersection.

Jenny had just passed one car and, seeing this, narrowed her eyes, sharply turning the wheel and slamming on the brakes.

Unfortunately, her speed was too high. She avoided the first, dodged the second, but ended up in a close encounter with the third.

The two cars practically brushed against each other, moving forward with synchronized braking.

The side of contact between the two vehicles resulted in a broken side mirror, and sparks flew between the car doors.

"Ah!"

"Oh my God!"

"Mamma mia!"

The men in Jenny's car cried out in soprano tones at that moment.

Jenny was just as terrified, desperately gripping the steering wheel.

Finally, the car stopped, thankfully without a more severe accident.

But behind them, a series of bangs and crashes followed.

That was the sound of a chain reaction collision...

Jenny turned pale, feeling like she had stomped the brakes almost through to the engine. Her hands and legs trembled.

But once she recovered, Jenny turned angrily, lowering the window on that side to yell furiously at the nearby car, "Hey, how are you driving!"

The driver of the car beside her also lowered his window, a burly man looking pale as he also yelled back in anger.

Soon, the rear window of that car rolled down, revealing a young Huaxia face looking her way.

It was Bai Xiaosheng!

Bai Xiaosheng and his team had been startled.

Jenny was about to exchange insults with the other driver when she caught sight of Bai Xiaosheng in the back seat, first taken aback, then nearly exploding, "It's you again, Halley's Comet!"

Bai Xiaosheng saw her as well and frowned, "Oh, it's you!"

Chapter 2380 - Why Am I Always the Unlucky One

When enemies meet, their eyes blaze with hatred. Jenny caught sight of Bai Xiaosheng and instantly glared at him with fierce resentment, wishing she could grind her teeth to pieces.

Today, she had already wasted half a day because of this Huaxia man. Not to mention earlier, her car and herself were splashed with dirty water, leaving her wet and uncomfortable. She finally managed to free herself from the checkpoint and was still 'cursing and swearing' when, unexpectedly, they met again!

The cars were scratched, and the cars behind them kept rear-ending each other. Hearing the curses of the drivers behind, Jenny knew this trouble wouldn't be small!

Why is it that every time we meet, I'm the one who gets unlucky! Jenny felt a stabbing pain in her heart.

This Huaxia man is simply the 'scourge' from Eastern sayings!

The embodiment of the god of misfortune in the West!

In her fury, Jenny applied the electronic handbrake, pushed the car door open, and walked directly over there.

She wanted to ask this Huaxia man just how many times he intended to ruin her!

"That woman has come down. She's walking over here. Why does she still have such a murderous look?"

Lin Weiwei in Bai Xiaosheng's car saw Jenny's every move through the car window and couldn't help but frown.

Just now, Lin Weiwei had also noticed that the woman driving the car next to them was the same white woman who they had had conflicts with before.

All day, the two sides had been in conflict!

Actually, the initial misunderstanding was really just a misunderstanding and had nothing to do with them.

But that woman insisted it was Xiaosheng's fault, and she slandered them at the Kulik Tribe, almost getting them into big trouble!

Since then, Lin Weiwei had had a very poor impression of her.

At the Luto Checkpoint, that woman forcefully cut in line, her gestures were rude, and when the checkpoint people gave her a hard time, Lin Weiwei felt relieved.

She thought there would be no further encounters, but unexpectedly, here she was, driving over again.

Making such a big mess, that woman not only lacked any guilt but also came at them angrily, thinking she was the one wronged.

Lin Weiwei felt that the woman was simply unreasonable!

Of course, to be fair, she was indeed quite unlucky...

Lei Ying also saw it, but turned his head to look back at the vehicles that kept rear-ending and mumbled, "Looks like a big trouble!"

Bai Xiaosheng naturally saw Jenny's movements as well. Watching her walk around to Lin Weiwei's side, raise her foot, and kick the car door, loudly scolding, "Get down! Get down for me!"

It was clear the other side came to argue.

Bai Xiaosheng knew that on his side, it was not easy to stand outside, so that woman went over to the other side to curse.

Before Bai Xiaosheng could speak, Lin Weiwei's eyes widened, she rolled up her sleeves, and was about to open the car door, "Xiaosheng, stay here and don't move, let me deal with her!"

Although Lin Weiwei was now a senior white-collar worker, arguing was an innate skill for an outstanding woman.

Lin Weiwei also needed to let the other side know her power!

Seeing this, Bai Xiaosheng hurriedly held Lin Weiwei back and persuaded, "Don't get excited, Weiwei, let's let someone else handle this. What would it look like if members of the dignified Huaxia Business Group argued with someone on the streets of Dilu City!"

Under Bai Xiaosheng's strong dissuasion, Lin Weiwei eventually didn't get out of the car, and the window on that side wasn't even rolled down.

Lei Ying, sitting in the passenger seat, remained indifferent to the commotion outside.

He wasn't good at arguing, so he wisely never dealt with such matters.

The driver of Bai Xiaosheng's car moved the car forward a bit, also angrily got out, and yelled at Jenny, "Hey, how did you drive! You kicked our car door? Do you know whose car this is?!"

From the two cars in front, four people got out. These were the people sent by Deputy Mayor Tori to escort Bai Xiaosheng. They also looked annoyed, coming over while loudly scolding this reckless woman who couldn't drive.

From Jenny's car, several burly men also got out. Seeing Miss Jenny being "encircled," how could they ignore it, and they immediately pointed at those men, angrily asking, "What do you all want?"

"Just now, how did you drive the car!"

"Hey, you want to fight?"

Neither side gave in, and the scene suddenly became lively, plus the drivers involved in the chain rear-ending also joined in with curses.

This immediately turned into a chaotic scene.

Bai Xiaosheng rolled up his car window, keeping the noise outside.

In such a situation, as an important member of the Huaxia Business Group, it was not appropriate for him to show up or get involved.

Holding in her anger, Lin Weiwei, resisting the urge to argue, looked outside at Jenny through the car window, then at Bai Xiaosheng next to her, and couldn't help saying, "Xiaosheng, are we just going to wait like this?"

Upon hearing this, Bai Xiaosheng immediately gave her a reassuring smile, "Don't worry, she won't be shouting for long. Soon, someone will come to handle it."

Sure enough, within less than five minutes, the sound of police sirens was heard.

More than ten Dilu City police officers quickly intervened to maintain order, restoring traffic while collecting evidence, defining responsibility, and moving both parties at fault with their cars to the side of the road.

Traffic began to resume.

Inside the car, Lin Weiwei couldn't help but say, "We were driving normally. It was that woman who aggressively scraped her car on us. It should be all her fault, yet we're stuck here wasting time. It's truly infuriating!"

Bai Xiaosheng smiled.

As Lin Weiwei said, it was indeed that white woman's initial driving error.
