

Two Trillion 2531

Chapter 2531 - Bai Xiaosheng's Victory

Today's meal for Bai Xiaosheng, the Yang Family in West Africa can be said to have a "big bleed", not only continuing their cooperation with those eleven enterprises from Huaxia, but also reducing prices by fifteen percent across all categories on top of the already discounted prices!

It's money they're throwing in!

Don't mention the Yang father and son, anyone would feel pained, heartbroken, liver aching...

Besides, Bai Xiaosheng was quite unrestrained, selling back the batch of second-hand transport trucks and the second-hand cruise ship, doubling the price to the Yang Family.

Bai Xiaosheng was busy inside and outside, couldn't let his efforts go unpaid, couldn't charge his own people, so naturally the Yang Family had to foot the bill...

Watching the Yang Family painfully maintaining smiles and acting generously, Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying struggled to hold back—

Wanting to laugh.

In the latter half of the meal, Yang Junluo accompanied Bai Xiaosheng and his team alone.

Yang Xiaoyun and Yang Yishan left midway.

It wasn't that the father and daughter were too heartbroken to eat, but rather, they had to hurry to draft the contract for Bai Xiaosheng to review and take along. They would also return with Bai Xiaosheng to finalize the cooperation with those Huaxia merchants.

The sooner this matter is settled, the less the Yang Family loses.

Currently, the news of the Yang Family's collaborations with various European and American consortia coming to nothing has leaked externally; once it spreads widely, the impact will be significant, leading to various ensuing losses.

To promptly finalize cooperation with Huaxia merchants, getting them to concede allows the Yang Family to cooperate with European and American consortia, transforming the news into a rumor even if it's just a minimal cooperation.

However, in order for Huaxia merchants to concede, the cooperation promises must be fulfilled, it's a premise.

Therefore, the Yang father and daughter disregarded their meals and prioritized drafting the contracts.

Bai Xiaosheng naturally understood the reason for Yang Xiaoyun and his daughter's departure, knowing the Yang Family would expedite matters, he didn't need to worry, just patiently wait.

So, Bai Xiaosheng and Yang Junluo drank and enjoyed their meal, strengthening connections and savoring the feast.

Yang Junluo continued to engage warmly with Bai Xiaosheng.

After more than an hour, everyone was content with food and drink.

Yang Junluo instructed the servants to clear the table, then asked them to bring his treasured tea for Bai Xiaosheng to taste.

Bai Xiaosheng praised it, and Yang Junluo straightforwardly asked the servants to bring two jars of tea leaves for Bai Xiaosheng to take away.

In any case, Yang Junluo's enthusiasm was enough to make others feel overwhelmed.

However, Bai Xiaosheng remained calm, expressing gratitude when appropriate, laughing and chatting as usual.

When the tea was nearly finished, Yang Xiaoyun and Yang Yishan returned with a stack of thick contracts in their arms.

Actually, those contract templates already existed, they merely required some modification and completion.

Otherwise, with only Yang Xiaoyun and his daughter, they couldn't have finished everything in such a short time.

"Mr. Bai, we've prepared the contracts, signed and stamped, just needing signatures from your relevant people. Would you like to take a look? There's absolutely no errors!" Yang Xiaoyun said smiling to Bai Xiaosheng.

He dared not make mistakes, playing with the Yang Family Clan's future was not an option.

Bai Xiaosheng smiled and said to Yang Xiaoyun, "No need to look, firstly, this isn't my contract, I don't have the authority. Secondly, with Old Mr. Yang here, how can I suspect any issues with the contract?"

Upon hearing Bai Xiaosheng's reply, Yang Junluo laughed heartily on the side.

Yang Xiaoyun did not insist, but specifically took out a document, smilingly handed it to Bai Xiaosheng, "Then Mr. Bai, take a look at this, it's related to you. This is the contract for purchasing that batch of transport trucks and the cruise ship from the third-party company, sent over by fax, and the payment has been made online!"

This matter was dealt with swiftly by Yang Xiaoyun, even the payment was made.

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying exchanged a subtle glance, breaking into a smile.

Regarding Bai Xiaosheng's interests, Yang Xiaoyun emphasized the matter face to face.

Bai Xiaosheng glanced at it briefly, smiled nonchalantly, "Why rush, Mr. Yang? Those transport vehicles are mine, acquiring them sooner or later doesn't matter, Old Mr. Yang said, we're family after all."

Bai Xiaosheng benefited from this.

He uttered nice words too.

Behind Yang Xiaoyun, Yang Yishan wanted to roll his eyes at Bai Xiaosheng.

They thought this man was principled, but didn't expect his mischief to be so sly...

"Family shouldn't let family lose out." Yang Xiaoyun remarked with a courteous smile.

Bai Xiaosheng smiled, checked the time, and promptly told Yang Junluo, "Oh, it's about time, Mr. Yang, the younger generation should be leaving."

Yang Junluo showed a reluctant expression, lamenting as he spoke to Bai Xiaosheng, "It's rare for us to meet, and we haven't talked enough, yet you have to leave. Alas, I know you're busy and can't stay longer. Also, Xiaoyun just drafted the contracts, needing signatures soon. Therefore, I won't hold you back. Next time, next time, you must stay for several days!"

"Absolutely." Bai Xiaosheng replied with a smile to Yang Junluo.

Finally, Yang Junluo personally saw Bai Xiaosheng to the door.

Bai Xiaosheng bid farewell multiple times before getting in the car.

Yang Xiaoyun and Yang Yishan accompanied Bai Xiaosheng, after all, the contracts require signatures from Huaxia merchants to officially take effect.

Yang Junluo watched Bai Xiaosheng and the others leave by car, until they were out of sight, his smile gradually fading.

Chapter 2532 - Bai Xiaosheng's Victory (2)

"Little bastard, you actually came to the Yang Family to cut the flesh of Yang Junluo!" Yang Junluo gritted his teeth as he said this.

...

When Bai Xiaosheng and his group returned to the Aisha Emirate, they were still on the Yang Family's private jet. However, this time, the route was arranged differently, reducing travel time by nearly an hour.

After all, getting back earlier is a good thing.

At the Huaxia Business Group's residence, Dong Tianlu, Lu Tiandao, and the others had already learned of Bai Xiaosheng's negotiation results with the Yang Family.

Although Bai Xiaosheng was busy drinking with Yang Junluo, unable to leave, Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying managed to step away and report back every detail of the situation to their own people.

Upon hearing the results, everyone, including Dong Tianlu, was both surprised and thrilled.

This time, Bai Xiaosheng truly avenged them!

In addition, Bai Xiaosheng recovered all the previous cooperations and even managed to get the Yang Family to lower their prices by fifteen percent!

It's simply unimaginable!

Even Dong Tianlu found it unbelievable.

But, in the end, it's a good thing!

Everyone was overjoyed, gathering to praise each other at the earliest opportunity.

"Mr. Bai, you're amazing. I never thought it could be accomplished to this extent!"

"Yes, not only did you avenge us, but you also established cooperations with some European and American conglomerates and made the Yang Family bleed. We earned a significant profit from cooperation with the Yang Family!"

"I've been in business for decades and rarely admired anyone, but Mr. Bai is one. And he's so young!"

"What's wrong with being young? You have to respect someone of high skill, and not respecting them is a crime!"

"Haha, indeed, indeed. Not respecting someone of high skill is a crime!"

While Bai Xiaosheng was still on the plane, the Business Group was filled with laughter and lively discussions.

However, when Bai Xiaosheng returned, everyone had already dispersed, leaving the residence calm and without a trace.

This was also something Bai Xiaosheng had instructed from the beginning.

Even if the matter succeeded, they should maintain a cool demeanor. After all, the Yang Family's breach of contract caused everyone significant "psychological trauma," so they couldn't be too happy...

When Bai Xiaosheng returned to the Business Group residence, Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying brought Dong Tianlu and others together again.

When everyone appeared in front of Yang Xiaoyun, they didn't show any friendly faces and were indifferent towards Yang Xiaoyun.

In fact, it was not just that they were playing along with Bai Xiaosheng's instructions; they genuinely had great dissatisfaction with Yang Xiaoyun and the Yang Family.

Yang Xiaoyun had no choice but to force a smile and greet them, having to explain the new cooperative contents and seek forgiveness for past mistakes.

After Yang Xiaoyun's endless persuasion, everyone finally softened their attitude a bit, for the sake of cooperation.

In reality, hearing the specific cooperation details made people like Dong Tianlu secretly delighted.

But on the surface, they remained reserved and composed.

Afterwards, there was a flurry of activity as Yang Xiaoyun, representing the Yang Corporation, officially signed contracts with everyone.

Though there was no formal signing ceremony, and it seemed a bit rushed, even hasty, the signatures meant real business dealings involving actual money.

It was only then that smiles appeared on the faces of people led by Dong Tianlu.

Bai Xiaosheng politely invited Yang Xiaoyun and his daughter to stay for dinner, but Yang Xiaoyun politely declined multiple times, saying they had to rush back to arrange the execution of the contract.

Bai Xiaosheng didn't insist.

Before departing, Yang Xiaoyun specifically pulled Bai Xiaosheng aside, and with a smiling face, said to Bai Xiaosheng, "Mr. Sheng, our cooperation here has been settled... Could you help us by clarifying things with those European and American conglomerates so we can also sign some deals with them?"

Under the influence of Bai Xiaosheng and his team's offensive of interests, the European and American conglomerates refused to cooperate with the Yang Family, citing violations of business ethics. Now that the Yang Family and Huaxia Business Group have both fulfilled their commitments, this excuse no longer stands...

With a step forward, the Yang Family could sign agreements with those conglomerates.

However, the Yang Family had signed long-term contracts with the Huaxia businessmen, covering more than seventy percent of their production capacity, with the remaining thirty percent supplying the local market. Only a small portion could be allocated to cooperate with the European and American conglomerates, making them small deals.

But having some is better than none.

In case the Yang Family expands their production capacity...

At the very least, in the present, they could use the fact of cooperation to offset the negative impact of being ostracized by various conglomerates...

"Mr. Yang, we have now signed an agreement in black and white, establishing a long-term friendly cooperation. Naturally, we will help with this task. Rest assured." Bai Xiaosheng smiled.

Hearing Bai Xiaosheng's "promise," Yang Xiaoyun repeatedly expressed his gratitude with a smile.

Bai Xiaosheng had indeed made arrangements, and Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying were now carrying out the task.

As the saying goes, be forgiving whenever possible.

In the business arena, unless under special circumstances, no one wants to burn bridges. The saying "leave a line in all your deeds for future encounters" stands true.

Moreover, Yang Junluo is also a friend of Sir Wei from the Wei Family...

After sending off Yang Xiaoyun and his daughter, Bai Xiaosheng returned to the residence, only to be surrounded by Dong Tianlu and the others.

The big merchants, having thoroughly shed their "reserved" facade, burst into laughter and almost lifted Bai Xiaosheng to toss him into the air.

These middle-aged major merchants showing such behavior must genuinely be happy, fueled by true emotions.

Seizing the opportunity, Dong Tianlu and others mentioned their plan to maintain close cooperation with Bai Xiaosheng after returning home and jointly form a business alliance. Others quickly supported the idea and voluntarily said they would bring their partners and collaborators to join.

Bai Xiaosheng gratefully thanked everyone for their trust with a smile.

This news also caught the attention of others in the Business Group, who came to congratulate and show warmth and friendliness to Bai Xiaosheng.

After all, Bai Xiaosheng not only risked offending the Yang Corporation for the group but also used his European and American connections to avenge everyone and finally helped them win back the big contracts. Bai Xiaosheng's qualities, abilities, and skills have earned admiration and willingness for deep connections.

That evening, visitors came to see Bai Xiaosheng one after another until late at night.

Before going to bed, Wei Xuelian called to specially inquire about the matter, mentioning that she wanted to help Bai Xiaosheng.

After all, she is his future wife, showing concern for him.

Bai Xiaosheng felt very sweet, smiling as he said that the matter had been resolved satisfactorily.

The two chatted sweetly for a long time over the phone.

After hanging up, Bai Xiaosheng fell asleep in high spirits.

On his end, he was content, but someone was not as happy.

Yang Xiaoyun and his daughter took the plane back, with a different return route, and only arrived home in Oklandt City of Oshan Emirate late at night.

Upon returning, Yang Junluo had not yet slept, and Yang Xiaoyun and his daughter brought the contracts to report to the elder.

"I already knew in advance." Yang Junluo said in a deep voice, looking at those contracts, "There is already a turn of events on the boss's side, and our cooperation with those conglomerates will also start. However, it'll be little by little."

Looking at those contracts, Yang Xiaoyun and Yang Yishan felt uncomfortable inside.

People are like this—when trouble and crises arise, they rush to resolve it, and giving everything doesn't feel painful. But when the crisis passes and they look back at what they've paid, it feels more and more uncomfortable.

"That Bai Xiaosheng is really ruthless!" Yang Xiaoyun sighed heavily.

"Will our Yang Family just swallow this indignation?" Yang Yishan couldn't help but mutter, "I always feel dissatisfied."

Yang Xiaoyun's gaze flickered as he glanced at his father.

Yang Junluo, with his back turned, showed no expression.

"Dad," Yang Xiaoyun called.

Yang Junluo didn't turn his head, saying, "Try to provoke Bai Xiaosheng as little as possible in the future, and don't even think of scheming against him."

Yang Xiaoyun and Yang Yishan's eyes instantly dimmed.

"Unless you're absolutely sure!"

Yang Junluo suddenly added, making the father and daughter both pause, exchanging a glance.

Without another word, Yang Junluo turned away with his hands behind his back, without looking back.

In Yang Junluo's eyes, a rare hint of cold light could be seen.

Chapter 2533 - Before Setting Out Again

This time, Bai Xiaosheng quickly resolved the conflict between the business group members and the Yang Corporation and even made both parties continue their cooperation. It must be said, he did a splendid job.

The day after the incident was resolved, Hou Yuncheng came to see him, bringing praises from the upper leadership.

Hou Yuncheng appeared extremely pleased, praising Bai Xiaosheng profusely face to face.

Bai Xiaosheng kept humble, and by the end, he was slightly embarrassed.

"Director Hou, that's enough! That's enough! If you keep praising me, I'll start getting a big head!" Bai Xiaosheng joked.

Hou Yuncheng laughed heartily and finally stopped.

Afterward, Hou Yuncheng advised Bai Xiaosheng, "This time, although the Yang Corporation had no choice but to yield temporarily, they're certainly not pleased internally. No one can guarantee they won't have any backhanded actions later on. I've heard from you about Yang Xiaoyun from the Yang Family, and he leaves quite an impression on you. That person is not simple, very cunning and ruthless. You must keep your guard up."

In response, Bai Xiaosheng smiled and said, "Rest assured, we won't provoke anyone, but we'll fear no one. If they haven't learned their lesson this time, they're welcome to come to us. But next time, it won't be as easy."

Bai Xiaosheng radiated immense confidence.

Hou Yuncheng nodded to Bai Xiaosheng, not continuing the topic, instead smiling and saying, "You've been delayed long enough in Aisha Emirate this time. The next stop needs to be hurried along. You're one of the business group's leaders, so it's up to you to manage the upcoming itinerary."

"Alright," Bai Xiaosheng agreed.

"This time, we officials will go directly to the final stop and wait for you there, even though we're not traveling with the group. But if you have any issues, feel free to contact us," Hou Yuncheng said solemnly to Bai Xiaosheng, "Sheng, remember, Huaxia will always be your strong backing!"

Bai Xiaosheng, upon hearing this, also nodded earnestly.

"Well, I've been here long enough, and it's time for me to leave. My flight is in an hour," Hou Yuncheng said with a smile as he stood up.

"I'll see you off!" Bai Xiaosheng hurriedly stood up and offered.

Hou Yuncheng did not refuse, but when Bai Xiaosheng walked him to the courtyard gate of his residence, he firmly made Bai Xiaosheng stop.

Before parting, Hou Yuncheng examined Bai Xiaosheng again, his gaze filled with advice and hope. Finally, he patted Bai Xiaosheng on the shoulder, without saying anything emotional, turned, and walked away.

Bai Xiaosheng watched Hou Yuncheng's back, seeing him off.

After sending off Hou Yuncheng, Bai Xiaosheng returned to his room, instructing Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying to pack their things.

In two hours, half of their business group would also set off for the next destination—Karan Chieftaincy.

As for what Hou Yuncheng mentioned, Bai Xiaosheng was to manage this trip himself, minimizing time while ensuring the effectiveness of the investigation. Bai Xiaosheng was already informed of this in advance and had considered it.

He planned to discuss it with the business group members while on the road.

Fortunately, Karan Chieftaincy is relatively small, about half the size of Aisha Emirate, and there aren't many companies to investigate on this trip, allowing them to accelerate the inspection process.

After concluding the trip to Karan Chieftaincy, their next destination would be Oshan Chieftaincy, the largest and strongest country in the Western Chieftain Union, bar none.

The main business of the Yang Corporation and the residence of the Yang Family Clan are also located there.

However, as most of the contracts have been signed, their cooperation with them should not be extensive.

Just as Bai Xiaosheng was hurrying to pack and prepare to set off, a phone call came to him.

The caller was Mr. Brown.

Right from the start, Mr. Brown said straightforwardly, "Mr. Bai, I heard you had a conflict with the Yang Corporation?"

"Yes, but it's all resolved now," Bai Xiaosheng replied with a smile.

"Why didn't you come to me then?" Mr. Brown's tone on the call had a hint of dissatisfaction, "Don't you trust me? If I had intervened, applying pressure from all sides, the Yang Family would have had to comply!"

Mr. Brown wasn't exaggerating. Given his connections and capabilities in the African business community, he could indeed achieve that.

Since Mr. Brown and Bai Xiaosheng got to know each other following an initial conflict and eventually became allies, he had hoped to lend Bai Xiaosheng a hand.

Unexpectedly, when he learned of the situation, Bai Xiaosheng had already resolved the matter.

Therefore, this time, calling seemed not entirely from a cheerful heart.

Bai Xiaosheng also knew that Mr. Brown sincerely wanted to help him, and he laughed at that.

"Mr. Brown, the situation here is relatively special, to be precise, it isn't entirely my own matter, so I didn't want to trouble you. However, the issue has already been resolved, and the result isn't too bad. Thank you for your concern!"

Bai Xiaosheng had to comfort this old gentleman.

Hearing Bai Xiaosheng's sincere tone, Mr. Brown felt less displeased and said over the phone, "So that's it for this time. If there's a next time, make sure to reach me, and I'll do my best to help you!"

With such a promise from Mr. Brown, Bai Xiaosheng undoubtedly felt grateful.

The two chatted amicably over the phone.

Meanwhile, in Ganande, America, Caroline was sitting with Vice Chairman Morgan, drinking coffee.

They were also discussing Bai Xiaosheng's situation.

"By the time I learned about the matter, it was already over. If I had known earlier, I might have done something," Caroline said with a regretful tone while sipping coffee.

However, what Caroline meant by "done something" was not assistance like Mr. Brown but rather adding fuel to the fire.

If she had intervened, Bai Xiaosheng would certainly not have handled the situation as easily.

Because the connections of the Caroline Family in North America are in no way inferior to those of the Wei and Bai Families.

"I also heard some news," Vice Chairman Morgan said, stroking his beard, "That Bai Xiaosheng showed me his skills and influence. Ganande's Wei and Bai Family both stepped in to help him, which is quite impressive."

Caroline laughed softly at this, lazily saying, "Naturally, Huaxia families will help Huaxia people. That doesn't surprise me. Besides, Bai Xiaosheng is the man fancied by the Wei Family's young lady. It's certain they would assist him, and the Bai Family would give some face as well."

Vice Chairman Morgan glanced at Caroline, "Both families support Bai Xiaosheng... Yet you still think it's worth taking action against him?"

Not overly afraid of those two Huaxia families, but avoiding conflicts of interest is best.

Vice Chairman Morgan was reassessing Bai Xiaosheng.

Caroline elegantly took a sip of coffee and calmly replied, "Do you think if we had a real conflict with Bai Xiaosheng, because of one Bai Xiaosheng, the Wei and Bai Families would risk their family business to go head-to-head with us!"

If put that way...

Vice Chairman Morgan shook his head, "Whether in the East or the West, in the face of family interests, individuals are always insignificant, especially when it comes to an outsider."

"So, no need to be overly concerned," Caroline put down the cup, sneering coldly.

Bai Xiaosheng, who caused her to forever lose the qualification to enter politics and suffer significant losses, must be avenged, even at the cost of some family interests!

Vice Chairman Morgan examined Caroline, suddenly asking, "Regarding Bai Xiaosheng's conflict with the West African Yang Family, you're informed too late to intervene, but with your character, will you just view it as a spectacle?"

Vice Chairman Morgan's words carried hidden meaning.

Caroline smiled meaningfully and said, "Who knows, guess you can speculate a bit."

Chapter 2534 - Gentleman Milo

Bai Xiaosheng and his entourage arrived at the largest city of the Karan Chieftaincy—Akkro City, at three in the afternoon. As soon as they got off the plane, they were warmly welcomed.

The ceremony wasn't quite as grand as that of the Aisha Emirate, but it was unique and exceptionally enthusiastic.

Previously, Bai Xiaosheng would hide in the crowd, watching Hou Yuncheng and the leaders busy with receptions and engagements. Now the responsibility falls to him, and he has to step forward to shoulder the duties, which feels quite different.

Originally, he only felt that being a leader was not easy and tiring, but once in that position, he realized how utterly challenging and exhausting it truly is!

Bai Xiaosheng continuously met members of the Karan royal family, high officials, business celebrities, and famous figures from various circles, constantly smiling, shaking hands, chatting, and repeatedly discoursing formal pleasantries.

For one or two hours straight, Bai Xiaosheng spoke without rest, not even having time to pause for a drink of water to soothe his throat.

Dong Tianlu, Lu Tiandao, and others saw Bai Xiaosheng handle such a scene with composure and couldn't help but secretly commend him with a thumbs-up.

Little did they know, whenever Bai Xiaosheng glimpsed at them, he couldn't help feeling envious.

Bai Xiaosheng recalled the times he leisurely stayed in the crowd, those were indeed good times. It's a pity he didn't realize it then and thought it was exhausting; looking back now, he truly was blessed without knowing it.

The Karan royal family sent a prince to welcome Bai Xiaosheng and his group, a person who is plump and round with a wealthy demeanor, speaking most amiably.

After completing all welcoming ceremonies with Bai Xiaosheng, the prince smiled at him and said, "Mr. Bai, I have long heard that you are a promising young businessman. Meeting you today, you indeed stand out. However, our Karan Chieftaincy also has talents like you. As recommended by our business people, he will be responsible for contacting you. Now, let me introduce him to you, shall we?"

Turns out, a key figure has been hidden behind the scenes.

Bai Xiaosheng thought to himself, mustering the spirit to smile and nod.

"Your Highness, you are too kind. I'm very much looking forward to meeting this gentleman you mentioned," Bai Xiaosheng replied politely.

As he spoke, the prince smiled and beckoned to someone behind him.

A person stepped forward.

Bai Xiaosheng looked over and saw a man slightly older than himself, his manner elegant.

He had slightly fair wheat-colored skin, smooth hair, a high nose bridge, deep eyes, an appearance that could be considered handsome, and a hint of arrogance in his demeanor.

"This is Mr. Milo, the acknowledged prodigy of Karan's business circles!"

The prince of the Karan royal family cheerfully introduced the two, "This is Mr. Bai Xiaosheng, whom Mr. Milo should have heard of."

Bai Xiaosheng and Mr. Milo were already face to face, both smiling amicably at each other as they reached out their hands for a handshake.

"Pleasure to meet you," Bai Xiaosheng smiled.

"Very pleased to meet you, Mr. Bai Xiaosheng," Milo slightly raised his chin, smiling at Bai Xiaosheng. "In the coming days, as your business group conducts activities here in Karan, I will accompany you throughout. I am both your guide and the contact person for Karan's business community."

From this, it was clear that Milo was indeed extraordinary.

Bai Xiaosheng thought to himself, smiling politely and saying, "Thanks for your efforts, Mr. Milo."

"Not at all," Milo also smiled.

After a brief introduction, the atmosphere was friendly.

The prince of the Karan royal family smiled and said to Bai Xiaosheng, "Mr. Bai, I must report back to the king, so I will leave you to Mr. Milo to take you to your accommodation. Should you need anything, feel free to request through him."

Bai Xiaosheng offered another round of thanks and, along with Milo, escorted the Karan Chieftaincy's prince as he departed.

Once the prince left with his entourage, Milo smilingly said to Bai Xiaosheng, "The residence for the Huaxia Business Group was chosen by me. It is the best five-star hotel in Akkro City, featuring exclusive dining services and security personnel. Mr. Bai, if you have any dissatisfaction, please let me know, and I will endeavor to meet all your requirements promptly."

"Mr. Milo, I appreciate your efforts," Bai Xiaosheng replied politely.

Subsequently, Milo invited Bai Xiaosheng to ride with him to the group's accommodation, which Bai Xiaosheng did not refuse.

Milo's vehicle wasn't a car but an RV.

Initially, Bai Xiaosheng was a bit surprised; upon entering, he saw an exceedingly spacious area resembling a living room, with soft and comfortable leather sofas, hand-crafted carpets underfoot, a dedicated liquor cabinet, and custom-level sound systems.

It was evident that Milo was someone who understood and enjoyed luxury.

Inside the vehicle, there were two attractive and charming ladies dressed in refreshing attire.

One was a Caucasian woman, with fair and radiant skin, a figure well-defined and shapely, wearing a snugly tailored black dress and black stockings—very seductive.

The other was an African woman, her skin like flawless black pearls, her appearance and physique just as stunning as the Caucasian girl, wearing a white dress and stockings.

The contrast and harmony between the two were strikingly beautiful.

Unexpectedly, he was also a connoisseur of pleasure.

Bai Xiaosheng discreetly glanced at Milo, who was smiling.

The two ladies were exquisite in each gesture, mesmerizing enough to lift anyone's spirits, as they offered fruit platters and drinks to both Bai Xiaosheng and Milo, serving them warmly and enthusiastically.

"This Mr. Bai is not only my distinguished guest but also a VIP of the Karan Chieftaincy, a great businessman of Huaxia, and the leader of the Huaxia Business Group. You should serve him with care," Milo introduced Bai Xiaosheng to the ladies with a smile.

The two women curiously eyed Bai Xiaosheng, seemingly intrigued that someone of his stature was actually younger than Milo.

Chapter 2535 - Gentleman Milo (2)

Milo made a "please" gesture to Bai Xiaosheng, then comfortably lay down on the sofa himself.

An African beauty stepped forward to massage his shoulders.

The white girl also wanted to go over and give Bai Xiaosheng a shoulder massage.

Bai Xiaosheng immediately smiled and made a "stop" gesture, politely saying, "Thank you, I don't need it."

The white beauty looked at Milo, who shrugged with a smile and waved his hand, also letting the beauty massaging him stop.

"You guys go sit in the back, I'll have a chat with Mr. Bai," Milo waved the two away.

The two of them obediently walked to the back.

"Does Mr. Bai think they are not pretty?" Milo spoke again, surprisingly in Huaxia's language, although slightly awkwardly.

Bai Xiaosheng looked at him in surprise, "Mr. Milo, you speak Huaxia's language?"

Milo chuckled, "If I didn't know the language, how could people in the business world recommend me as a representative to contact Mr. Bai so easily?"

Bai Xiaosheng smiled, "Mr. Milo, you're joking. Having an extra translator is no big deal in communication, but since Mr. Milo represents the Karan business world in connecting with us, you must have extraordinary skills."

Milo smiled without denying it, glanced at the two beauties sitting in the back, and lowered his voice, winking at Bai Xiaosheng, "Mr. Bai, was it because you found my two maids to be not attractive enough?"

Milo also said this in Huaxia's language, as if afraid the two girls would be unhappy if they heard.

Hearing this, Bai Xiaosheng quickly waved his hand, smiling, "Those two are great; it's just that I'm not used to this kind of enjoyment."

Bai Xiaosheng has Wei Xuelian, how could he act so freely outside; he is a very disciplined good man.

Upon hearing this, Milo couldn't help but lean forward, winking at Bai Xiaosheng with a knowing look, "Mr. Bai comes from Huaxia, you might think that Eastern women are the most beautiful, subtle and reserved. Actually, I really like Eastern girls, but I haven't met one who fascinates me. I heard there's a beauty in your trade delegation named Dong Tianlu, so perhaps you could introduce me to her later..."

Bai Xiaosheng held his breath, looking at Milo in surprise.

This naturally sociable person has really done his homework, he even knows about Dong Tianlu.

But if Dong Tianlu knew your thoughts, she might just hit you...

Just as a hint of a different look appeared in Bai Xiaosheng's eyes, Milo laughed heartily, sat up straight, and said to Bai Xiaosheng, "I'm just joking; it was just a harmless little joke with Mr. Bai. I hope you don't mind."

Bai Xiaosheng's expression eased a bit, and he chuckled, "Oh, so it was just a joke."

From this incident, Bai Xiaosheng made some realizations.

This Milo is very perceptive.

Bai Xiaosheng is confident in managing his emotions, and he doesn't show much outwardly, yet Milo was able to catch on right away.

Conversely, when Bai Xiaosheng looks at him with his usual insight, he finds it a bit hard to grasp.

It seems, aside from joking around, Milo has extraordinary capabilities and acumen!

It makes sense, if he were an ordinary person, how could the Karan business world entrust him with such an important task?

Bai Xiaosheng couldn't help but take another deep look at him, smiling, "Mr. Milo, shall we discuss the itinerary of this inspection? I'm sure you're aware that our time for inspection in Karan Chieftaincy is not very ample."

Bai Xiaosheng wanted to see Mr. Milo's skills on serious matters.

"Understood, understood, we've already prepared three plans for you. I invited Mr. Bai to ride with me so that we can exchange ideas." Milo immediately grinned, switching back to his native official language.

He spoke more fluently this way.

Bai Xiaosheng nodded, smiling, "Mr. Milo well prepared, much appreciated!"

Then, Milo explained the three exploration plans one by one to Bai Xiaosheng, who listened and interacted with him.

The more they talked, the more Bai Xiaosheng felt that this person was extraordinary.

Before they finished talking, the car they were in began to slow down.

The white beauty came over and whispered to Milo, "Mr. Milo, we have arrived."

"Ah, we've arrived?" Milo glanced outside and smiled at Bai Xiaosheng, "This journey was rather short, we've arrived at the hotel; why don't we continue talking inside?"

Hearing this, Bai Xiaosheng naturally nodded, smiling, "Alright."

Milo invited Bai Xiaosheng out of the car, and it wasn't until then that Bai Xiaosheng realized that the hotel seemed to be situated in a botanical garden. Aside from the road, everywhere else was lush greenery, with neatly manicured lawns even in the small plaza.

Beside them stood a ten-story building, standing alone but looking very grand from the exterior.

"Is this the hotel?" Bai Xiaosheng said in surprise.

A five-star hotel in the city should be dozens of stories high, with a strong business style.

This looks more like a sanatorium, but as a sanatorium, the building seemed a bit too tall.

Bai Xiaosheng looked around, and indeed, there were many high-rise buildings, ten or twenty stories high, but this place stood alone like a small high-rise planted in a green area in the city center.

"This is the hotel, 'Akkro Oasis Pearl,' a name I came up with myself." Milo said with a hearty laugh, "It's also one of the properties under my name."

So it's theirs...

Bai Xiaosheng murmured, "What a romantic name for a hotel..."

The members of the trade delegation were also getting out of the car, looking around with novelty in their eyes.

A small high-rise hotel in the city center's green park does indeed have its quirks.

Chapter 2536 - Gentleman Milo_3

The hotel staff had already lined up outside to welcome them, probably because of both Bai Xiaosheng and Milo's arrival, given that Milo is their boss, making this a grand reception.

Milo, alongside Bai Xiaosheng, invited the business entourage to head inside.

Bai Xiaosheng noticed that this guy's eyes were like a cat's; there were attractive assistants in the group, and every time he saw one, his eyes would light up, especially when he saw Dong Tianlu—he was simply stunned.

Seeing Milo almost rush over to ask Dong Tianlu for her contact information, Bai Xiaosheng quickly stopped him.

Realizing his faux pas, Milo gave Bai Xiaosheng an awkward smile.

"Mr. Milo, you don't need to host here; come with me, and let's discuss the inspection plan inside." Bai Xiaosheng quickly dragged Milo along, heading into the hotel.

Milo didn't refuse and agreed.

The two leaders continued walking inside while chatting.

Seeing this scene, others tacitly chose not to interrupt.

In fact, Bai Xiaosheng already had the list of businesses to inspect in Karan and had also mapped out a route.

However, Milo's suggested route had newly added businesses, differing naturally from Bai Xiaosheng's plan.

Bai Xiaosheng tried his best to "seek common ground while shelving differences," meanwhile calculating the time required for the inspections to ensure they wouldn't exceed too much.

The two of them talked as they walked, taking the elevator up.

Only two beauties, one in black and one in white, accompanied them, while others were stopped, and Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying had their tasks to attend to and did not follow.

Fortunately, Bai Xiaosheng didn't need anything from Lin Weiwei and the others right now.

Finally, Bai Xiaosheng and Milo reached an open café on the upper floor and sat by the window.

In the time it took to drink half a cup of coffee, they had mostly finished their discussion, except for a few areas where opinions differed.

"Actually, our business community in Karan sincerely hopes that Mr. Bai's business group can stay a few more days, walk around more, and see more. Although some businesses may not yet meet your cooperation standards, they have immense potential. Karan Chieftaincy has a great domestic and international environment, excellent policies, and is truly worth investing in. We also have oil and mineral resources, which are not inferior to the Aisha Emirate..."

As the local business liaison, Milo was indeed dutiful and spoke passionately.

"I believe that, and I'm arranging as many inspections as possible," Bai Xiaosheng agreed.

Milo's words were not unfounded; for businessmen, short-term and long-term prospects are important, and the advantages of the Karan Chieftaincy were undeniable.

As they chatted, someone approached.

Milo's two beauties, seated at the nearby table, stood up immediately upon seeing someone walk directly towards Bai Xiaosheng and Milo, stopping them.

The person, seeing they were blocked, quickly pointed at Bai Xiaosheng and smiled, saying, "I'm with this gentleman; I'm his assistant."

The two beauties, one in black and one in white, paused upon hearing this and immediately looked towards Bai Xiaosheng.

Bai Xiaosheng and Milo also heard the commotion and looked over.

Seeing her, Milo's eyes suddenly lit up like a beacon.

The newcomer was a stunning Huaxia beauty, unparalleled in appearance, figure, and demeanor.

Milo's two maids instantly paled in comparison in his eyes.

"Mr. Bai, is this your assistant?"

Milo looked at Bai Xiaosheng with envious eyes.

No wonder you're indifferent to my people; you're traveling with such an enchanting Eastern beauty!

Bai Xiaosheng naturally recognized the newcomer as Lin Weiwei.

Honestly, Bai Xiaosheng was already feeling uneasy; would Milo have any impulsive reactions upon seeing Weiwei?

Moving closer to Bai Xiaosheng excitedly, Milo said, "Mr. Bai, introduce me to this beauty, give me her contact information, and could you introduce us so we can become friends!"

Bai Xiaosheng couldn't help but twitch his eye at Milo's request and retorted, "Mr. Milo, please behave yourself!"

Chapter 2537 - A Beauty in Front

Lin Weiwei came to find Bai Xiaosheng, naturally to report something. She and Lei Ying were close associates of Bai Xiaosheng, and since Bai Xiaosheng became the leader of the business delegation, they naturally had to take on the corresponding responsibilities.

As it stands, there are many things the delegation needs to coordinate in terms of accommodation.

Some people have numerical superstitions about room numbers and need to change rooms. Some have brought too many attendants and need additional rooms. Some require a sunnier or quieter room due to health issues... In short, problems are never lacking.

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying rushed around the hotel, coordinating with the hotel staff where possible, so as not to trouble Bai Xiaosheng.

But some issues require Bai Xiaosheng, as the leader, to coordinate with the contacts in the Karan Chieftaincy responsible for connecting with them.

So Lin Weiwei came to find Bai Xiaosheng.

After being stopped by two beautiful women of contrasting complexions, Lin Weiwei revealed her identity to them.

As a result, before she heard Bai Xiaosheng speak, she heard an excited magnetic voice from the other side.

"Don't stop this beautiful Eastern lady, let her come through!"

Lin Weiwei looked up and saw the man with Bai Xiaosheng eagerly watching her, his eyes shining brightly, brimming with passionate admiration.

It startled Lin Weiwei.

What is this?

Why does he look at her like a wolf eyeing meat?

Lin Weiwei's comparison of Milo to this was quite apt...

Before Bai Xiaosheng could stop him, Milo had already rushed over like a whirlwind, his face blooming into a smile, extending both hands towards Lin Weiwei.

"Hello, I'm Sir Milo, responsible for coordinating with your delegation this time. You can call me Ailuo, a name that only a few can use."

Milo introduced himself to Lin Weiwei in a sweet voice.

Lin Weiwei looked at Milo awkwardly, maintaining a forced smile, but feeling her smile stiffen, shaking hands with him reluctantly, "Hello, Mr. Milo."

Looking for Bai Xiaosheng as she spoke, Lin Weiwei hoped he would rescue her from this situation.

Bai Xiaosheng came over, stood beside them, coughed twice, but found that Milo was not paying any attention to him, still fervently staring at Lin Weiwei.

Bai Xiaosheng had no choice but to intervene, holding Milo's arm and pulling him away.

"Mr. Milo! My person is here to find me! They probably have something to discuss!"

Bai Xiaosheng spoke courteously yet firmly.

Milo tried to pull away from Bai Xiaosheng but realized he couldn't, only to turn around and see Bai Xiaosheng, not feeling embarrassed but smiling instead.

"Oh, oh, then you talk."

Lin Weiwei couldn't help but look at this "flower in bloom" man, feeling as if she was looking at a huge oddity.

Is this really the person sent by Karan's business sector to coordinate with them?

Or did he escape from a mental institution?

Actually, Milo would be the type women like—sunny, handsome, young, wealthy, sporting a sexy little mustache; if he maintained some restraint and aloofness, perhaps he'd captivate countless girls.

But here, as soon as he sees a beauty, his eyes sparkle, making one immediately want to label him "not a good person."

If not having seen Milo with Bai Xiaosheng in the airport crowd initially, Lin Weiwei might have thought he was a lunatic or some hotel pest.

"Weiwei, what's the matter?" Bai Xiaosheng stood in position, blocking Milo, and asked Lin Weiwei.

"Oh, yes, there are a few matters."

Lin Weiwei steadied herself and explained the situation to Bai Xiaosheng in Huaxia language.

Milo smiled broadly, admiring Lin Weiwei, only thinking her gestures were full of Eastern grace, beautifully refined, moving, her voice pleasant.

As Lin Weiwei reported problems to Bai Xiaosheng, Milo stood nearby, his eyes "bling bling" blinking, causing Lin Weiwei to be distracted several times.

Finally, Lin Weiwei couldn't help but whisper to Bai Xiaosheng, "Xiaosheng, is this lunatic really responsible for connecting with us?"

Bai Xiaosheng was listening to the issues when Lin Weiwei suddenly said this, feeling something amiss, quickly coughing.

But it was too late; Lin Weiwei had already spoken, and Milo heard it.

"Miss Lin Weiwei, don't worry about what you've mentioned. I'll arrange everything to be dealt with. Also, I'm not a lunatic." Milo spoke with a smile in somewhat stiff Huaxia language, "I'm merely moved by your beauty, couldn't help it."

Lin Weiwei was stunned for a moment, looking surprised at Bai Xiaosheng.

"Does he understand Huaxia?" Lin Weiwei couldn't help but point at Milo.

Bai Xiaosheng immediately smiled wryly and shrugged, meaning, haven't you already heard?

Only then did Lin Weiwei realize that asking Bai Xiaosheng this question in front of Milo might be inappropriate.

"I understand Huaxia to some extent," Milo said, smiling, not minding in the least, giggling.

Lin Weiwei could only force a smile and give Milo a thumbs up, saying, "Mr. Milo's Huaxia language is outstanding."

"No, no, I barely know the basics; hopefully, Miss Lin can teach me sometime." Milo immediately flashed an enchanting smile.

Lin Weiwei couldn't help but get chills.

Who knows what's going on with this guy.

"Alright, Weiwei, you've said what Mr. Milo already knows, and he's agreed to help us resolve them. You head back first, I'll talk to him for a bit, and I'll return after. Our delegation needs to hold a meeting, make sure everyone prepares." Bai Xiaosheng instructed.

Chapter 2538 - Beauty in Front (Part 2)

Lin Weiwei quickly nodded, turned around, and hurried away without a moment's hesitation.

Speaking even a few more words to Milo would be too much for her—if not for Milo's status, she might even slap him.

"Hey, Miss Lin Weiwei, why are you leaving? Let's chat a bit more," Milo said loudly, stretching his legs and watching her leave.

Bai Xiaosheng hurried to stop Milo, "Mr. Milo, Mr. Milo! We haven't finished talking yet!"

Milo watched Lin Weiwei leave in a gust, feeling a bit lost. Returning to his senses, he looked at Bai Xiaosheng in confusion, "Ah, we haven't finished?"

Bai Xiaosheng wore an expression that said, "What do you think?"

After that, Bai Xiaosheng and Milo continued to chat for the duration of half a cup of coffee.

Eventually, even Bai Xiaosheng found it hard to continue talking with Milo.

This Sir Milo discussed everything by relating it to Lin Weiwei, which Bai Xiaosheng found both amusing and exasperating.

Thankfully, most of what needed discussing was covered.

Bai Xiaosheng decided to take his leave, "Mr. Milo, I have many matters to attend to on my side, so I won't chat with you any further."

"You're leaving already?" Milo couldn't help but glance in the direction Lin Weiwei left, "Could you give me the phone number of your assistant?"

"No," Bai Xiaosheng replied crisply.

"Anything else, Mr. Milo?" Bai Xiaosheng asked politely.

"No, that's all," Milo shrugged with a slight hint of disappointment and smiled.

Bai Xiaosheng also smiled, got up, and said, "See you tomorrow."

"See you tomorrow."

Milo stood up, watched Bai Xiaosheng leave, and then, reflecting on the oriental beauty, couldn't help but smile, "Lin Weiwei, what a lovely name!"

Soon after, Milo waved to his two beautiful escorts and left with them.

...

After separating from Milo, Bai Xiaosheng called Lin Weiwei to confirm the arrangements and headed over.

Bai Xiaosheng first returned to his own room, where the door was open, and Lin Weiwei was waiting at the door.

Seeing Bai Xiaosheng, Lin Weiwei purposely glanced behind him, relieved to find that Milo hadn't followed.

Bai Xiaosheng couldn't help but look behind him, then teased, "That handsome gentleman didn't follow."

"Handsome? Gentleman?" Lin Weiwei shivered, showing some disgust, "Xiaosheng, don't gross me out; you know I hate those types the most, slick-tongued and lustful. If it weren't for his unusual status, I'd really want to slap him!"

Lin Weiwei was absolutely serious when she said this.

Bai Xiaosheng laughed and said, "Milo's personality, and his status and assets, should be pretty appealing to some girls."

"Anyway, I can't appreciate it," Lin Weiwei scoffed, "Maybe spending so much time with you all made me loath that type. As for wealth, I'm not short on money."

After being with Bai Xiaosheng over the years, Lin Weiwei had already become a billionaire, indifferent to money and looking upon it lightly.

Bai Xiaosheng smiled, choosing not to discuss Milo further. He stepped into his arranged room, which was tastefully decorated, with everything being extremely refined and comfortable to stay in.

Bai Xiaosheng couldn't help but nod, "Not bad here."

"The others think so too," Lin Weiwei followed Bai Xiaosheng, "I've already notified everyone to meet in the conference room on this floor in an hour. Is that too late? Should I schedule it earlier?"

Bai Xiaosheng had mentioned he wanted to convene everyone for a meeting upon returning, likely to discuss tomorrow's travel plans, so Lin Weiwei arranged it promptly upon returning. Lei Ying was currently notifying the others on the next floor.

"No need to change it, that's fine," Bai Xiaosheng replied.

While speaking, Lei Ying returned, nodded first to Lin Weiwei, then said to Bai Xiaosheng, "Just now, someone from the hotel approached me, saying that Sir Milo instructed them to handle all issues properly, so we don't need to worry."

Bai Xiaosheng smiled upon hearing that, "At least he gets things done."

Lin Weiwei, recalling Milo's face, couldn't help but purse her lips in disdain.

Lei Ying saw Lin Weiwei like this, and was surprised. He turned to Bai Xiaosheng, saying, "What happened to her?"

"She was disgusted."

To this sentence, Bai Xiaosheng and Lin Weiwei unexpectedly spoke in unison.

Lei Ying looked at the two, increasingly puzzled.

...

At this moment, Milo was sitting in his RV, opposite him sat a beauty with a wheat-colored complexion, dressed very professionally, exuding a bit of an efficient and bold vibe, completely different in style from the two beauties in black and white seats in the back.

"Lisa, I didn't expect to meet you on the way back, it's really an honor to sit down for a drink with you."

Milo smiled and raised his glass, his eyes shining again.

The beauty named Lisa smiled and raised her glass, saying, "It is indeed fate. Mr. Milo, is this to welcome the business group from Huaxia? Is everything settled over there?"

This is no secret in the business world.

"Yes, I've been busy for quite a while and I'm exhausted." Milo laughed, "Your company is on the list for tomorrow's inspection. Make sure to have everything prepared simply, as Huaxia people prefer everything to be simple to save time."

Lisa immediately nodded with a smile, "Thank you for the reminder, Mr. Milo."

"How will you thank me then, dinner together tonight?" Milo asked with a cheeky grin.

"There will be an opportunity, but today isn't quite suitable." Lisa replied with a smile.

"Ah, turns out you're talking about today!" Milo said seriously.

Lisa paused, then chuckled, "Mr. Milo, how can a gentleman speak like this to a lady? That's not very appropriate. What I meant by 'not suitable' is not physically but because I have to go back early to prepare for tomorrow's inspection."

Upon hearing this, Milo chuckled and nodded understandingly.

"Then another day, we must have a romantic candlelight dinner, I'll prepare it!"

Lisa did not refuse and nodded cheerfully.

Suddenly, Milo was full of joy.

"By the way, Mr. Milo, I heard there are many beauties accompanying the Huaxia Business Group. Have you met them, like Miss Dong Tianlu, who is said to be very beautiful?"

Lisa said with a smile, and Milo did not shy away, replying, "I did see her from afar, she's very beautiful, but probably not easy to approach. Besides, if I upset them, would I still do business? If my family blames me, I couldn't bear it."

Upon hearing this, Lisa laughed, "I didn't know there were times when Mr. Milo would be intimidated by a beauty."

"This is not intimidation, it's prioritizing the bigger picture." Milo quickly corrected.

Lisa smiled without saying anything.

"However, I did notice an extremely beautiful secretary, she's by the side of their group's leader, Bai Xiaosheng." Milo muttered.

Lisa's eyes twinkled slightly, laughing, "So Mr. Milo did find a Huaxia beauty."

The two who had a bit of ambiguity between them were discussing such a topic, one dared to ask, the other dared to answer, surprisingly without any reservations.

"It's a pity, though, that the beauty doesn't seem to like my personality." Milo said a bit dejectedly, lamenting, "Just from these few days of interaction, I fear I don't have much chance to win her favor."

Lisa smiled softly at Milo, speaking gently, "So there are times when Mr. Milo feels he can't manage something."

Milo shrugged his shoulders.

"Actually, if not all, most girls desire romance, hope to encounter some extraordinary scenarios where they are the heroine, wishing a handsome gentleman would stand up for them. That moment's impact is hard for any girl to resist." Lisa said seemingly casually.

Milo heard the underlying message, couldn't help but stare at her, "You mean..."

Lisa smiled.

"A hero rescuing a beauty!"

"Such a corny old yet effective method, won't you give it a try?"

Chapter 2539 - An Unexpected Game

Miss Lisa suggested a plan to Milo; the idea was for him to play the hero rescuing the damsel in distress, a cliché trick, to capture Lin Weiwei's heart.

"Will this, will this work?" Milo was a bit surprised upon hearing this, and couldn't help but look at Lisa and ask.

"Heroic rescue," he had used it before, but that was many years ago and used to deceive naive young girls. Nowadays, at this age, women are pursued with money and romance. Would that tactic still work against an experienced professional beauty?

Lisa seemed to notice Milo's concern and smiled gently before saying, "Mr. Milo, don't worry. No matter the age, every woman has the heart of a little girl; it's just not shown on the surface. It's not about whether the method is new or old, as long as it works. What's key in this heroic rescue, would you say?"

The key?

Milo pondered for a moment and tentatively replied, "The hero's fearless performance in a crisis?"

"Wrong!"

Lisa firmly rejected the notion.

Milo was taken aback, "Isn't that the point of a heroic rescue, for the other person to see your bravery and courage?"

Lisa burst into laughter, leaving Milo utterly confused.

"Even a master of romance like Mr. Milo sometimes misses the point." Lisa teased.

Milo immediately objected, "Then tell me, what is the key aspect of the heroic rescue?"

Lisa smiled but didn't rush to answer. Instead, she swirled the wine in her glass, observing the amber liquid, allowing Milo to become more anxious before leisurely stating, "Mr. Milo, do you read novels?"

Novels?

Milo looked at Lisa, bewildered, unsure of what she meant by her digression.

"I went to Huaxia to study and learned Chinese there. At first, I wasn't doing well until I became fascinated with Huaxia's novels," Lisa explained.

"In these novels, there's an interesting phenomenon: if a beautiful woman is saved by an older, unattractive, or impoverished savior, she might say, 'I have nothing to repay you with, in my next life I wish to be a cow or horse to repay my savior.'"

Milo blinked; his Huaxia language was decent, and he understood this part.

"While for those young, handsome, and generous saviors, they might say, 'I have nothing to repay you with, I'd like to give you my life.'"

Lisa laughed, "So, have you understood, Mr. Milo?"

Milo blinked again, gradually understanding.

"The key to heroic rescue isn't how brave and fearless you are at the moment, but rather your own qualities!"

"Mr. Milo, you're young, handsome, charming, romantic, with a fine lineage, rich in wealth, and if you can also show courage, do you think a Huaxia beauty could resist being moved? This tactic is practically tailor-made for you with no hint of being cliché or corny!"

Lisa's words made Milo's eyes shine with excitement, and he couldn't help but slap the table, "That makes sense!"

Lisa gave a half-amused half-serious smile, looking at the newly enlightened Milo.

Having been excited, Milo saw Lisa's expression and felt slightly embarrassed.

"Ahem," Milo cleared his throat, saying solemnly, "But I believe when making female friends, it's important to be sincere, not relying on such tactics. I've always been sincere with you, Miss Lisa, without any pretense. This time, I merely wish to learn Huaxia with that Huaxia girl... yes, I want to sincerely communicate and learn Huaxia. How could I use 'heroic rescue' and such deliberate means? That would spoil the interaction, wouldn't it?"

Milo seemed to recall that the woman before him was also someone he wished to pursue...

Upon hearing Milo's words, Lisa smiled, "So, Mr. Milo only wants to learn Huaxia language. I misunderstood your intentions; let's pretend I never mentioned those before."

"In my heart, you couldn't be wrong, Lisa." Milo said genuinely to Lisa.

Genuine Milo proved to be quite attractive.

In the meantime, the car was slowing down.

Milo's beautiful maid approached respectfully, "Mr. Milo, we've arrived at the intersection of Kro Street."

As she spoke, the maid also politely glanced at Lisa.

This is where Lisa had previously told them she wanted to get off.

"Ah, so Mr. Milo, thank you for the drink, I must be going; see you another day." Lisa put down her wine glass, picked up her handbag, and showed Milo a charming smile.

"Oh dear, Miss Lisa, you've only been here a while; how come you're leaving so soon?"

Milo regretted immediately, tried to persuade her to stay for a few more words, but ultimately sent Lisa off the car.

At the car door, they waved goodbye.

The car Lisa rode was right by the roadside; she got in directly and drove away.

When Lisa was sure Mr. Milo couldn't see her, her smile disappeared as she sat in her car, took out her compact, touched up her makeup, and murmured to herself in the mirror, "Hmph, not following my suggestion? I wouldn't believe that for a second!"

After seeing Lisa off, Milo returned to his seat.

The beautiful maid immediately refilled his wineglass.

Milo took a sip, smiled and contemplated, murmuring, "Hero rescuing the damsel, sounds quite appealing!"

...

Before dinner, Bai Xiaosheng held a meeting with the business group, notifying them about the itinerary for the next day, which he had arranged after discussions with Milo.

The group naturally had no objections to such arrangements.

Those who intended to cooperate had already looked into the information and would focus on assessments; once agreed upon, decisions could be readily made, nothing much to discuss.

Chapter 2540 An Unexpected Situation (Part 2)

After the meeting, everyone went to the hotel restaurant together to enjoy a lavish dinner.

This was also due to Karan's royal family considering the business delegation's fatigue from the journey and not scheduling any activities for the night.

After eating, everyone went back to their rooms to rest, including Bai Xiaosheng.

But as Bai Xiaosheng entered the room, Lin Weiwei came to report that there was a guest.

Bai Xiaosheng was wondering who it could be, and then saw that the visitor outside was actually Yang Yishan from the Yang Family!

Seeing Bai Xiaosheng somewhat surprised, Yang Yishan took the initiative to smile at Bai Xiaosheng and said, "Mr. Bai, hello, we meet again."

As he spoke, Yang Yishan extended a small, soft, white hand.

Bai Xiaosheng quickly reached out to shake it, "Miss Yang, we meet again."

"How come you are here?" Bai Xiaosheng couldn't help but curiously ask.

Yang Yishan chuckled and said, "Our Yang Family has a lot of business in the Karan Chieftaincy, and we're planning to establish factories in Akkro and the three major cities soon, so naturally, I'd come by more often."

With this explanation, Bai Xiaosheng understood and nodded.

"Actually, I came because I knew you all were here, so I wanted to come by and say hello," Yang Yishan said with a smile. "My father, Mr. Yang Xiaoyun, was supposed to come as well, but he had something come up at the last minute, so he couldn't make it. Please forgive him, Mr. Bai."

After being bested by Bai Xiaosheng, Yang Yishan's view of Bai Xiaosheng actually improved significantly.

Bai Xiaosheng could also see this, but didn't care much.

Whether she valued him or not was irrelevant; Bai Xiaosheng simply didn't care.

"Thanks for Mr. Yang's consideration," Bai Xiaosheng still courteously said.

"Now, since we're partners, we naturally need to strengthen our relationship. I also brought some local specialties for your business group friends, assuming you all didn't have time to explore on your own," Yang Yishan said with a smile.

That was thoughtful.

Bai Xiaosheng smiled, just about to express his gratitude, when Yang Yishan winked and said, "Mr. Bai, aren't you going to invite me in for a bit?"

Only then did Bai Xiaosheng realize that they had been chatting at the door all this while.

He immediately gave an apologetic smile and made an inviting gesture, "Miss Yang, please come in."

Yang Yishan immediately beamed a sweet smile and walked in.

Lin Weiwei, standing to the side, couldn't help but glance at Yang Yishan's swaying hips and frowned slightly.

Previously, she didn't think much of it, but now, she found this woman somewhat "awkward" and not very pleasant to look at.

"Weiwei, a cup of coffee, please," Bai Xiaosheng didn't notice Lin Weiwei's unusual demeanor and instructed.

Lin Weiwei nodded, but there was a faint hint of displeasure on her face.

Yang Yishan ended up chatting and laughing with Bai Xiaosheng for over half an hour.

Eventually, seeing that it was getting late, Yang Yishan reluctantly got up to say goodbye.

Before leaving, Yang Yishan sincerely told Bai Xiaosheng, "Mr. Bai, our Yang Family has many friends in Karan's business circles. If you have any issues here, feel free to let us know. We'll definitely offer all the help we can! After all, we're partners now!"

Faced with the Yang Family's goodwill, Bai Xiaosheng naturally expressed his gratitude.

After seeing Yang Yishan off, Lin Weiwei couldn't help but mutter to Bai Xiaosheng, "We just clashed with the Yang Family and pushed them to bow down. Now their young lady comes running to be all chummy. It feels so strange..."

What's so strange about it?

Bai Xiaosheng instantly chuckled, "People come to show goodwill, and you're not happy about it. Alright, alright, go rest up early. Aren't you tired from the day?"

Lin Weiwei pouted, not saying a word.

"Go to bed early; staying up late will give you dark circles, and you'll look bad tomorrow. How will you travel with us like that?" Bai Xiaosheng teased.

Lin Weiwei was startled, said a quick goodbye to Bai Xiaosheng, and hurriedly left.

Nighttime skincare and masks were not to be skipped, and they took a lot of time.

Watching Lin Weiwei's hurried departure, Bai Xiaosheng couldn't help but smile.

Back in his own room, Bai Xiaosheng truly felt exhausted, and after a simple wash, he collapsed onto the bed, falling asleep in no time.

The night passed without incident.

The next day, Bai Xiaosheng got up early to get ready. After having breakfast with the business group, the car came to pick them up.

Leading the way was Milo, driving his conspicuous RV as always.

The Karan Chieftaincy is small, with only about six hours' drive from south to north, and the economically developed cities are relatively concentrated, making this inspection much more convenient.

As usual, Bai Xiaosheng was pulled into Milo's vehicle.

Upon boarding, Milo made it a point to remind Bai Xiaosheng that he could bring his own entourage along.

The implication was clear.

And this guy kept the door open, craning his neck to look outside.

"No need to wait, Mr. Milo, it's fine if I'm the only one in your car. The others have work to do," Bai Xiaosheng said with a smile. "If you're not inviting me, then I'll get off."

"No, no, of course, I'm inviting you!"

Milo laughed heartily, pulling Bai Xiaosheng inside, reluctantly letting the door be closed.

Claiming to discuss the itinerary, but the whole way Milo and Bai Xiaosheng chatted away about beautiful women from various countries and regions.

Bai Xiaosheng tried several times but failed to steer the conversation back on track, so he gave up.

Besides chatting about women, Milo circled around inquiring about Huaxia women's preferences, and then indirectly asked about Lin Weiwei.

In the end, even when Bai Xiaosheng blatantly brushed him off, he wasn't the least bit embarrassed.

Facing someone like this, Bai Xiaosheng was rather helpless.

Fortunately, they soon reached the first inspection site.