

Two Trillion 2591

Chapter 2591 - A Fruitless Conversation (2)

"Moreover, the former Mr. Maiwen from Maiwen Transport Company has also agreed to come forward and testify."

"And relevant documents from Asia's Lunge Island confirm that the actual registrant of those shell companies is a Huaxia individual, with the surname Bai."

Mr. Wagg put down the paper in hand and said to Bai Xiaosheng, "We have more evidence, though it's not convenient to disclose to you now, Mr. Bai. However, if you are willing to share some insights with us, we'd be glad to listen."

Wagg stared into Bai Xiaosheng's eyes, hoping to see a change in expression - perhaps anger or panic at being wronged, anything.

However, Bai Xiaosheng merely furrowed his brow slightly.

Having this reaction was also good, at least better than yesterday's indifferent attitude.

"I want to see my people," Bai Xiaosheng spoke.

Trapped here, under surveillance, unable to contact his own people, Bai Xiaosheng also couldn't prove his innocence.

"You'll see them; yesterday your Mr. Hou Yuncheng contacted us for stern negotiations and said he'd come over today." Wagg smiled, leaning slightly forward and gazing into Bai Xiaosheng's eyes, "But he can only urge us to expedite the investigation; he cannot interfere with anything!"

Wagg's attitude clearly told Bai Xiaosheng not to harbor any expectations.

Bai Xiaosheng looked at Wagg coldly.

Wagg sat up straight, smiling, "Today I don't have much worth asking, and Mr. Bai seems to have nothing worth saying, so let's just chat casually. You two, please step outside first."

The latter part of Wagg's sentence was naturally directed at the two people who accompanied him.

The two people immediately nodded, swiftly packed up their computer and paper, and left the room without a word.

With the sound of the door closing, the room was free of a third party, allowing Wagg to relax. He smiled at Bai Xiaosheng and lowered his voice, "Mr. Bai, we believe there are substantial doubts in this matter, and we will endeavor to help clear your suspicions."

"However, we also have to provide an account to the thirty or forty companies in our country that suffered losses, right?"

"Regardless of whether this matter is related to you, it does have some association with the Huaxia people, given those shell companies were registered on that side of Asia."

"So, you see, why not attempt to foster more cooperation between your business group and our businessmen? With friendly relations on both sides, what problem can't be solved?"

"We could also mobilize them to search for clues to clear your suspicions." Wagg said with a smile, "This is my suggestion!"

Wagg's words made Bai Xiaosheng raise his eyebrows, his gaze turning meaningful.

"Is this a suggestion or your agenda?" Bai Xiaosheng asked.

Wagg shrugged immediately, smiling, "It's a highly valuable suggestion! If Mr. Bai does not accept, it's no big deal, you can wait it out slowly. But if you want to leave here urgently, then this is certainly a good suggestion for you!"

Wagg's meaning was unmistakably clear.

Considering the whole situation, with Wagg's department exhibiting no objections and acting coherently, it all pointed to an issue.

Bai Xiaosheng offered a faint smile, "This isn't Mr. Wagg's personal suggestion; it's your department's suggestion!"

Reflecting on the overall situation, the Oshan Commerce Department is currently facing an examination crisis, urgently needing significant cooperation from the Huaxia Business Group. Bai Xiaosheng, due to the actual circumstances of the business group, refused their cooperation request, and then was inexplicably drawn into trouble and brought here.

The "suggestion to resolve the issue" they provided was to exchange it for extensive cooperation.

Behind this...

Bai Xiaosheng felt a chill.

"Mr. Bai, you really like to make jokes; our department has no agenda other than hoping both sides can be better." Wagg shrugged with a smile, "Think about it, if you get deep into a trouble, perhaps the entire Huaxia Business Group might be dragged into a credibility crisis. By then, your Mr. Hou Yuncheng might bring in large orders to secure your release from here. Only, once back, your days might not be so good. You see, since cooperation as a result is inevitable, why not be proactive about it?"

Having said this, Wagg stood up with a smile, "Think it over; let's end this conversation here, I have to leave now..."

He was interrupted by a knock on the door.

Wagg immediately looked at the door suspiciously.

During his talk with Bai Xiaosheng, who dared interrupt?

Just as Wagg was puzzled, the door was pushed open, and two people walked in from outside.

"Mr. Mira?" Wagg was surprised to see one of them.

At this time, his superior Mr. Mira should be presiding over matters in the department, how did he come here without any notice?

What was most curious was, since it was Mr. Mira arriving, then why knock, being courteous to his deputy?

Wagg then noticed, beside Mr. Mira stood a Huaxia man, with a rather imposing presence.

Hou Yuncheng!

Wagg had seen Hou Yuncheng's appearance, left with a deep impression, recognizing him immediately caused his eyes to narrow slightly.

This Hou Yuncheng had arrived so quickly!

"Wagg, have you finished talking with Mr. Bai Xiaosheng? Mr. Hou Yuncheng hopes to see Mr. Bai Xiaosheng." Mr. Mira looked at Wagg and said.

The knock, rather than courtesy, served as a reminder.

Mr. Mira feared Wagg might say something inappropriate to Bai Xiaosheng.

"We've finished talking." Wagg immediately gave a smile to Hou Yuncheng, "Didn't expect Mr. Hou Yuncheng to arrive so early."

"Mr. Wagg." Hou Yuncheng turned to Wagg, nodded politely, but showed no smile.

In fact, Hou Yuncheng's expression was stern the moment he entered.

"Director Hou." Bai Xiaosheng stood up, smiling to greet Hou Yuncheng.

Seeing Bai Xiaosheng, finally a smile appeared on Hou Yuncheng's serious face as he spoke in Huaxia, "Sheng, I'm here."

This simple statement brought Bai Xiaosheng a sense of warmth and reassurance upon seeing his own people.

In a foreign land, subjected to strange investigations, without seeing his own people, a heartfelt statement was more comforting.

"Mr. Hou Yuncheng, you've met Mr. Bai, feel free to speak, though we cannot avoid it, it's our policy." Mira smiled and said to Hou Yuncheng.

Rather than policy, it's more about distrust.

Hou Yuncheng said nothing, walking directly to Bai Xiaosheng, saying, "Sheng, I've come to see you, to convey the concern from above to you, we believe you have been wronged, and we will closely watch the progress, urging the Oshan side to thoroughly investigate everything!"

Hou Yuncheng continued, "And please believe, behind you is Huaxia, which will never let any Huaxia person suffer injustice!"

Hou Yuncheng's words were simple yet powerful.

"I believe; thank you, Director Hou!"

At this moment, Bai Xiaosheng was also moved internally.

"Alright, you've seen each other and spoken; take a good rest here! Wait for the day I come to fetch you!" Hou Yuncheng said nothing further, providing Bai Xiaosheng a warm smile, then nodded to Mira and turned to leave.

"Take care, Director Hou." Bai Xiaosheng called out loudly.

Mr. Mira glanced at Bai Xiaosheng and followed Hou Yuncheng out.

He didn't understand Huaxia at all, having no clue what the two of them discussed.

Wagg remained, watching the direction of the door, lowering his voice to Bai Xiaosheng, "Mr. Bai Xiaosheng, you've seen it; even if your senior officials come, it still does not remedy your situation. You'd better think over what I've said..."

Bai Xiaosheng looked at Wagg blandly, suddenly smiling.

"What are you smiling about?" Wagg asked warily.

"Mr. Wagg," Bai Xiaosheng smiled, "Let's see how this matter unfolds!"

Facing Bai Xiaosheng's unyielding attitude, Wagg's eyes flashed slightly, then he chuckled, "Then we shall see!"

With that, Wagg also turned and left.

Their defiant words were proven right by afternoon.

Because unexpected changes happened that neither side anticipated...

Chapter 2592 - Like a Storm

After Hou Yuncheng met Bai Xiaosheng, he went to Mira's office and closed the door. Inside, bursts of "arguments" could be heard, even faintly audible to those outside the door.

The high-level personnel from Huaxia was furious!

Two hours later, Hou Yuncheng left Mira's office with a serious expression, not saying a word, while Mr. Mira personally escorted him to the elevator, smiling.

Wagg was the first to go to Mira's office right after Hou Yuncheng left.

With the door closed, Wagg tentatively asked, "Mr. Mira, was that Huaxia person difficult to deal with? People outside said they heard you arguing with him."

"That's nonsense." Mira, behind his desk, laughed bitterly at himself, "I was calm and gentle throughout; you call that arguing? I see it as receiving strong protests and condemnation."

Mr. Mira was quite frank.

Wagg's words were merely to save face for his boss...

"The Huaxia people are not easy to mess with. We need to act quickly and make Bai Xiaosheng feel cornered to force him to compromise, or else... it will be very troublesome later on," Mira muttered.

Wagg was immediately on alert when he heard this.

"Mr. Mira, you wouldn't be wavering, would you? You must stick to your position and not waver at all! None of us can waver on this issue, or the consequences will be more terrifying than losing our jobs! You wouldn't want to end up in a place like prison, would you?"

Wagg's words carried a hint of threat.

Mira's eyes narrowed slightly, and he slowly nodded, "Rest assured, once the first step is taken in this matter, there's no turning back!"

The two then sat facing each other and researched for another hour—

How to continue to pressure Bai Xiaosheng next!

Finally, Wagg left Mr. Mira's office.

Once out of Mira's office, Wagg walked down the corridor, his eyes flickering. The pressure from the Huaxia people was indeed immense. Fortunately, some high-level officials at Oshan were also dissatisfied with Huaxia's sudden reduction of inspections and were secretly helping them fend off some troubles. But this couldn't be a long-term solution.

Moreover, it was still uncertain whether Mira could consistently withstand the pressure.

"But fortunately, the Huaxia people have vented their anger and won't exert more pressure here for a short time." Wagg took a deep breath and took out his phone.

He wanted to call his nephew Alger; Alger had another trump card that he had mentioned before.

Now, it's time to use it.

"Bai Xiaosheng will never expect who will be helping us against him this time!" Wagg's lips curled into a smile.

The more "evidence," the deeper Bai Xiaosheng would fall into trouble. If the "evidence" was abundant, even the Huaxia side would have to change strategies and voluntarily settle things.

By then, they could set the conditions as they pleased!

The more Wagg thought, the more excited he became, eager to find a place to make the call.

In the afternoon, after lunch.

Wagg went to see Mira again, and this time, he brought someone along—his nephew Alger.

Upon seeing Alger and knowing why he came, Mr. Mira was astonished and then looked at Wagg with dissatisfaction.

This was a serious matter, and Wagg had dragged his nephew into it. The key was that this young man knew their plans from the start!

How absurd!

Previously, Mira always thought Alger knew only bits and pieces and had no way of confirming even if he guessed.

Now, well, the person was standing right in front of him, just short of demanding a confrontation.

"Alger is trustworthy. Many of my ideas were inspired by him, and quite a few things this time were actually helped by him behind the scenes." Wagg confided to Mira.

Wagg meant that you shouldn't worry about whether Alger is trustworthy; he knows everything and is already deeply involved.

Mira looked at Alger, who was smiling at him, and could only bitterly accept it.

"So Mr. Alger, you've brought us a powerful trump card, and I appreciate it. I heard you wish to meet Bai Xiaosheng?" Mira said to Alger.

"Yes, Mr. Mira, I want to have a chat with him. Previously, when I wanted to cooperate with him, he refused. I want to reclaim my dignity and persuade him to cooperate with us." Alger replied honestly.

Look at that, a young man particularly concerned with his bit of dignity—is he reliable?

Mira felt helpless inside but nodded superficially, saying calmly, "Fine, I'll allow you to meet him. If you can persuade him, that would be great."

Alger heard this, and immediately felt pleased, laughing, "Don't worry, I will persuade him. This time, I'm not only prepared with people and things to knock him down but also planning to involve the media. With the media, the pressure on Bai Xiaosheng and the Huaxia people will increase, while the pressure on our side will decrease."

The media?

Mr. Mira suddenly frowned.

That could be a double-edged sword; if not used well, it would harm them first!

Seeing Mira frown, Wagg immediately said, "Regarding this matter, I will report to you later. Rest assured, the resources are trustworthy!"

Since Wagg spoke so, Mira could only nod, tentatively trusting him.

Wagg turned to Alger and said, "Alger, you've got the authorization now. Go, meet Bai Xiaosheng. I'll call the guards shortly and let you through."

Alger heard this, nodded, and then turned and left the office.

Once he left, Mira immediately frowned and said to Wagg, "How far do you intend to take this! Do you want it to reach an uncontrollable point, Wagg?"

Chapter 2593 - Like a Storm (Part 2)

Although he knew the matter was serious, Mr. Mira now truly felt chills down his spine.

"Do you think we still need to be restrained? The Huaxia people have already come to us!"

This time, Mr. Wagg was uncompromising, shouting fiercely at Mr. Mira.

This tough stance and the current situation choked Mr. Mira's breath, his eyes flickering uncertainly.

"We have no retreat, we can only move forward, only forward!" Wagg stated firmly.

After a long time, Mr. Mira finally exhaled a breath of impure air and said to Wagg, "Explain to me in detail, what are you planning to do next!"

No matter how things develop, he accepted it.

Upon hearing this, Wagg immediately gave a smile, "Our plan will definitely satisfy you!"

Elsewhere.

Alger left Mr. Mira's office, hastening to the hotel where Bai Xiaosheng was temporarily staying.

The journey was silent.

Upon arrival, the guards had already been informed of Alger's visit and, with Wagg's orders, naturally allowed him entry.

Before entering, Alger adjusted his smile, ready to witness Bai Xiaosheng's current agitated and angry state.

Honestly, he was really looking forward to it.

"Huaxia people, I kindly brought business your way back then, even negotiated with partners for you, yet you rejected me! You embarrassed me among those business partners, and now I will thoroughly ridicule you! In the end, you will have to bow down to me obediently; otherwise, you will be completely ruined!"

The more Alger thought about this, the more pleased he became, pushing the door open alone.

Upon entering, Alger indeed saw Bai Xiaosheng in a state of agitation, even somewhat angry.

At the same time, he heard a burst of intense battle music, quickly coming to an end.

"Damn it, didn't clear it again, just a bit short!"

Bai Xiaosheng cursed, frustrated, throwing the game controller onto the coffee table, slumping onto the sofa to calm himself.

He was... playing video games?!

Alger was simply dumbfounded upon seeing this.

What kind of mindset is this, too carefree!

Being confined here, yet still in the mood to play?

Shouldn't he be agitated, angry?

Alger was genuinely a bit dazed.

Bai Xiaosheng looked at Alger, his expression calm, with a slight smile as if he wasn't surprised at all, "Oh, Mr. Alger, you're here. I was just wondering when you might come to see me."

"How did you know, I, I would come..." Alger was momentarily stumped by Bai Xiaosheng's question, unable to react, even stuttering a little.

Aware of his lack of composure, Alger was a bit annoyed.

Bai Xiaosheng chuckled lightly, "Is it hard to guess? Both you and your uncle approached me with business proposals during the banquet that day, which I rejected, giving you reason to be antagonistic towards me. Now, when I encounter this matter, there are certain things that Mr. Wagg and his department can't directly intervene in, but are conveniently related to the business segments you handle. Moreover, I gathered a bit of information from Mr. Wagg."

Bai Xiaosheng listed his points one, two, and three, causing a chill to creep over them.

He observes with meticulous detail, truly terrifying!

"That can't prove I am necessarily aware of it." Alger, though shocked, still tried to remain composed.

Bai Xiaosheng picked up the remote, turning off the television, smiling, "What I just said was a bluff. I don't have evidence, but your expression tells me I guessed right. You're involved in this matter, and quite significantly. With that, I suspect your uncle and others have set me up nicely. Thank you for confirming this for me."

Bai Xiaosheng's mocking words made Alger somewhat upset.

This self-proclaimed clever, but actually cunning Huaxia person, still has the mood to jest with him!

Alger walked over with a cold smile, pulling a chair to sit across from Bai Xiaosheng.

"Mr. Bai, no matter how you speculate, it's just your imagination! You have no evidence, and I won't admit anything! Rather than talking about those pointless things, why not discuss something valuable? Like, how to end this matter quickly, allowing you to leave here!" Alger said.

He was ready to lay all the cards on the table with Bai Xiaosheng.

Bai Xiaosheng calmly looked at Alger, a slight smile appearing after two seconds, "Sorry, you're willing to talk, but I have no interest in listening."

Knowing that Alger and Wagg were on the same side, what he was going to say was not hard to guess, it would be similar to what Wagg had previously said.

At most, adding some conditions like cooperation or something.

Bai Xiaosheng didn't need to think carefully, he could guess most of it, naturally losing interest in listening.

Besides, Alger seemed eager to spill everything.

Therefore, Bai Xiaosheng was even less inclined to grant his wish.

"I haven't even spoken yet!" Alger, of course, was quite displeased, furrowing his brows.

This Huaxia person really doesn't give him any face!

Previously it was like this, and now again!

Alger only felt his anger rising, utterly aggrieved.

"Whether you speak or not makes no difference, I have no interest!" Bai Xiaosheng told him word by word.

Then, Bai Xiaosheng, with an amused look, said, "You mentioned discussing ways to leave here quickly, but why should I leave, and quickly? This place is great, the living is comfortable, every meal prepared by a chef is delicious, there's a gym, and I can play video games. You don't know how pleased I am, and how thankful I am for such care. You have no idea how exhausting being a trade delegation leader can be, these days are perfect for some rest. Speaking of which, I ought to especially thank you!"

Bai Xiaosheng's words truly made Alger's eyelids twitch, his blood pressure soar.

"Bai Xiaosheng... Mr. Bai, do you know what situation you're in here, your reputation, your status, all will suffer because of this, and you don't care?" Alger, slightly breathless, sternly questioned, "Do you believe that in a few days, you'll be utterly finished!"

Chapter 2594 - Like a Storm_3

"I don't believe it."

Bai Xiaosheng looked at Alger, earnestly, seriously, and told him these three words.

"You really don't know what's good for you. You have no idea what you're going to face next, and by the time you regret it, it'll be too late! I'm telling you, don't take what I'm saying as a joke!" Alger shouted with a pale face.

Bai Xiaosheng looked at him calmly.

Alger came to his senses, suddenly feeling as if he was the one bitterly trying to persuade others to do good, only to be treated like his "good intentions" were nothing but garbage.

It was not Bai Xiaosheng who was impatient, but himself. In front of Bai Xiaosheng, he seemed like a monkey driven to desperation.

A surge of shame and resentment almost erupted from Alger's body.

"Mr. Alger, if there's nothing else, please leave." Bai Xiaosheng's smile fell, his gaze emanating a chilling coldness, "You think I am about to face a dire situation, but who will truly be in a worse position next, is yet to be determined!"

Looking into Bai Xiaosheng's eyes, Alger inexplicably felt a chilling sensation welling up from his heart.

This Huaxia man, in such a predicament, made others feel even more uneasy.

"OK!" Alger stood up, in a moment of anger even kicked the chair away, "Then there's nothing to talk about, fine, fine, that's great! Mr. Bai Xiaosheng, let's see how things unfold!"

Alger, who was in a rage, didn't want to stay there a moment longer and hurriedly left.

As for the long speech he prepared to "persuade" Bai Xiaosheng, it had long been thrown to oblivion, gone without a trace.

Bai Xiaosheng watched Alger leave in a hurry, saw the door slam shut, and revealed a derisive smile.

"If my guess is correct, my reinforcements should be entering the scene now." Bai Xiaosheng muttered to himself, "It's a real pity that I can't mobilize resources this time to break the impasse, but I am curious to see the extent of my influence as Bai Xiaosheng, and whether I can break through without doing anything!"

After speaking to himself, Bai Xiaosheng picked up the game controller on the coffee table again and muttered something incomprehensible to others, "Red Lotus, no need for your help, it's just a game, I must pass it myself!"

After leaving Bai Xiaosheng's place, the more Alger thought about it, the angrier and more aggrieved he became. He hurried towards Mr. Mira's place.

"I must tell Mr. Mira and my uncle, it's Bai Xiaosheng who doesn't appreciate a favor!"

"I want to say, I painstakingly tried to persuade him a thousand times, and he listened to none, it's definitely not that I didn't say anything!"

"If he wishes to die, we shall fulfill his wish!"

The more Alger spoke, the angrier he became, just thinking about getting back quickly to discuss how to ruin Bai Xiaosheng.

At this moment, in Mr. Mira's office, the conversation between Mira and Wagg was abruptly interrupted.

In a short time, no less than ten batches of people came to report, both of them already feeling the immense pressure.

First, many companies in Oshan united in protest, calling the administration department.

The Huaxia Business Group protested against the unfair treatment of their leader Bai Xiaosheng, threatening to collectively terminate contracts. Oshan companies naturally didn't want that, putting pressure on this end, demanding a prompt response.

Moreover, many international companies based in Oshan, all with backgrounds in Europe and America, all renowned conglomerates, also called, demanding that justice be done for Bai Xiaosheng promptly.

Those calls started coming in an hour ago, almost overwhelming the administration with calls.

The most terrifying thing is, each of those international companies carries significant weight, and if escalated to higher levels, it would indeed bring immense pressure down.

The secretaries came one after another, Mira struggling to cope, Wagg becoming increasingly astonished.

"This Bai Xiaosheng, not just a leader of the Huaxia Business Group, merely an executive president of Zhenbei Group, why are so many forces backing him!" During a brief pause, Mira couldn't help but express his amazement and said to Wagg with slightly shocked eyes, "Before making a move against him, did you really investigate what background he has!"

"This... how should I investigate!" Wagg also looked flustered.

Mira was about to erupt in anger when the phone on the table rang.

A call that could directly reach him gave him a jolt.

"Could it be, another call supporting Bai Xiaosheng!"

Chapter 2595 - The Son of a Tycoon

The phone on the desk kept ringing. Mira couldn't help but exchange a glance with Wagg. Anyone who could call him directly, whether they were from the business or political circles, must be an influential figure.

Now, the fear was that the caller might also be related to Bai Xiaosheng.

At this moment, it's as if they've poked a hornet's nest, with troubles coming one after another, all exploding within this hour or two, leaving them feeling overwhelmed.

It's no exaggeration to say that if Mira had known Bai Xiaosheng would be such a hassle, he wouldn't have agreed to Wagg's foolish idea for anything.

Unfortunately, there is no medicine for regret in this world, nor are there any "ifs."

Mira calmed himself, picked up the phone handset, placed it against his cheek, and said in a deep voice, "Hello, this is Mira."

Wagg immediately pricked up his ears, trying hard to listen.

Unfortunately, it wasn't on speaker, so he couldn't hear clearly.

"Oh, it's you. It's been so long." Mira relaxed as he recognized the voice on the other end, a smile appearing on his face with a hint of ease.

It seems the call wasn't from the political circle.

Wagg watched Mira's reaction from the side, thinking to himself.

If it's not someone from the political scene, then it must be from the business circle?

Who in the business world has such power to call Mira's office directly and be addressed by Mira as "you"?

Wagg's mind raced.

Such a person could probably be counted on one hand in all of Oshan, possibly even the entire African business scene.

"What did you say?" Mira suddenly showed a bit of surprise, and his expression turned serious.

Wagg immediately focused his attention, closely observing Mira's reaction.

"Is that so... no problem, I can arrange it." Mira laughed, "Yes, your request is nothing unreasonable."

Wagg couldn't help but raise an eyebrow.

What Mira said was quite skillful, he agreed to the request while subtly hinting not to make excessive demands.

No one knew who it was or what request they made that prompted such a response from Mr. Mira...

"Let's have coffee together someday." After a round of pleasantries, the call finally ended.

Wagg watched as Mira put down the handset.

"Mr. Mira, who was that on the phone?" Wagg couldn't help but ask.

Mira paused slightly, then said with a deep voice, "Anlos!"

Anlos!

Wagg's eyes widened in shock. That was the second most powerful business in the top ten of the West African Chieftain Union, a true local financial conglomerate leader!

If the previous pressure from European and American financial groups seemed distant, this man could truly be considered a business giant right beside them.

"Why did he call you? What did he want?" Wagg couldn't help but swallow and ask.

Mira's face looked quite unpleasant as he said in a deep voice, "His son wants to meet Bai Xiaosheng."

Upon hearing this, Wagg was instantly shocked and stunned.

It really was about Bai Xiaosheng. Does even Anlos value that Huaxia person so much!

The key issue is Anlos's son wanting to meet Bai Xiaosheng. Could he have any connection with Bai Xiaosheng?

And that Anlos is even willing to call Mira directly for his son's meeting...

Wagg was momentarily at a loss for words.

"The fact that even Anlos is involved in this matter is not good. I don't know how deeply he plans to get involved. However, if he wants to step in, the higher-ups won't ignore his voice." Mira said seriously.

This means that their pressure increases significantly, and they need to act faster.

Either confirm Bai Xiaosheng's issues undeniably or push the Huaxia side to make concessions quickly.

In essence, it's the same thing.

"I wonder when that young master from the Anlos Family will arrive," Wagg asked.

"He should be here soon," Mira said. "Anyway, in the phone call, Mr. Anlos mentioned that he was already nearby."

As Wagg nodded, they heard hurried footsteps outside.

"Is that the young master from the Anlos Family!" For a moment, Wagg and Mira both looked towards the door.

The door was knocked.

"Come in!" Mira steadied himself, his voice gentle as he spoke towards the door.

The door opened, and a person came in first, appearing somewhat aggressive.

However, it wasn't the young master from the Anlos Family; it was Alger.

Mira and Wagg were suddenly somewhat disappointed.

Alger strode towards them, looking angry and speaking loudly, "Mr. Mira, Mr. Wagg, that Bai Xiaosheng is truly ungrateful, arrogant. I don't think we need to be polite to him any longer. We should immediately, without delay, use the methods we previously discussed against him!"

Alger's anxious and indignant demeanor made Wagg and Mira exchange a glance.

He was previously determined to persuade Bai Xiaosheng; heaven knows what kind of provocation he suffered over there...

"We also think this matter can't be delayed any longer!"

"We must take urgent action, go all out!"

Mira and Wagg rarely voiced their opinions at the same time, both in agreement.

Receiving unanimous support from the two bigwigs, Alger immediately became invigorated, "Alright, I'll immediately..."

Before he could finish, there was a knock at the door outside.

Alger looked at the door in confusion, not knowing who was interrupting their conversation at this moment.

Wagg and Mira exchanged a glance.

This time, who was it? Could it be Anlos's son?

"Come in," Mira said.

As the door opened, a young man walked in from outside, appearing around the same age as Alger, dressed well but not overly luxurious, with a faint smile on his face.

Chapter 2596 - The Titan's Son (Part 2)

Alger looked at the person who entered without examining closely and immediately frowned, saying, "Are you here to deliver something or report? Hurry up, Mr. Mira is very busy here!"

In Alger's view, this was just a young employee to be dismissed, as they were currently discussing important matters.

The young man curiously glanced at Alger twice and smiled, "You are Mr. Alger, I've seen you before."

These words made Alger suspiciously look at the other party.

"Mr. Mira, my father should have spoken with you on the phone, I request to see Mr. Bai Xiaosheng." The young man turned to Mira and smiled.

"You are Milo!" Alger beside him finally recognized the young man's identity.

Milo, is Anlos's son, a giant's son!

Milo politely smiled at Alger.

Although both were of distinguished origins, they had no interactions.

Wagg and Mira couldn't help but secretly exchange glances.

Finally, the person had arrived.

Mira gently said, "Mr. Milo, you can go see Bai Xiaosheng now, I'll arrange for someone to take you."

Wagg also said, "Let me take Mr. Milo over."

Their attitude towards Alger was much more courteous.

Alger suddenly felt a vague displeasure in his heart. In his view, the ranking between Milo's family and his was not too different; Milo's family ranks second in West African business, while his ranks fourth, how could the attitude differ so much.

Feeling upset, Alger looked at Milo with some resistance.

Overcome by emotions, Alger couldn't help but ask Milo, "Mr. Milo, you want to see that Bai Xiaosheng, do you know him?"

"Consider him a friend," Milo admitted, answering without concealment.

This response surprised Wagg and Mira, causing them to be cautious.

"Friend?" Alger sneered, "He is now a suspect in the Oshan incident!"

Alger's words were clearly mocking Milo for considering a suspect as a friend, deeming it inappropriate.

Upon hearing this, Milo couldn't help but frown slightly and looked at him, "Mr. Bai is a suspect? Who said so!"

"All evidence is present, and the facts determine it!" Alger tilted his chin slightly.

"Mr. Alger!"

"Stop talking nonsense!"

Before Milo spoke, Mira and Wagg simultaneously reprimanded.

Alger saying such things here was extremely inappropriate!

Milo looked meaningfully at the two, "I didn't know the situation progressed so fast, they've already characterized my friend."

"Also, knowing such matters, Mr. Mira, Mr. Wagg isn't surprising, but Mr. Alger can learn in advance here?"

Milo was clearly questioning.

"Actually, this matter..."

"Is not as Mr. Milo thinks."

Mira, Wagg spoke sequentially, intending to explain.

However, before they could continue, Alger frowned and said, "What does this have to do with you! Mr. Milo!"

Alger was still furious from Bai Xiaosheng's words, and now faced Milo, digging deeper, couldn't tolerate it.

In his view, their family backgrounds were similar; even if Milo's family ranks ahead slightly, he had no reason to fear.

Mira and Wagg's expressions changed slightly simultaneously.

Alger may not know, but they understood clearly; the so-called business rankings, they knew the real data.

The top three in the rankings and the last seven are completely different worlds; the enterprises ranked last seven are not vastly different, none firmly suppressing the other, even if Alger's fourth-ranked family faces the eighth-ranked Yang Family.

However, the top three holds strength far surpassing any other in the last seven, akin to elephants compared to tigers in weight disparity.

Therefore, Milo's father could call Mira directly, making Mira give face.

Therefore, Mira and Wagg treated Milo, this junior, exceptionally courteously.

Therefore, Milo was previously unanimously selected by the Karan business community as their representative.

Presently, Alger brazenly challenged Milo, truly causing Mira and Wagg headaches.

"Alger, do not be rude here!" Wagg immediately reprimanded, then hurriedly turned to Milo, smiling, "Alger is impulsive, speaks recklessly, Mr. Milo, please don't mind, let me take you to see that Bai Xiaosheng!"

"That's right, Mr. Wagg will take you there now! As for Alger, thank you for bringing the documents, you can leave now!" Mira also tried to smooth things over.

Alger wanted to say something, but when the two of them glared at him simultaneously, he finally shut his mouth.

Milo glanced at the two, then took a deep look at Alger, and slowly spoke to him, "Mr. Alger, today I came to see a friend, not to argue with anyone. However, I have a flaw, I can endure grievances myself but cannot watch a friend I'm fond of being unjustly wronged, no matter who I offend! And in matters like this, even my father would have to listen to me!"

Milo's words were more for Mira and Wagg than for Alger.

Mira and Wagg's eyes narrowed slightly at the same time.

Alger, however, thought Milo was targeting him, and immediately his expression turned fierce.

However, Milo no longer paid him any attention but turned to leave, not even giving him a chance to speak.

Wagg quickly followed, to lead Milo onward, and as they passed Alger, he couldn't resist giving him a fierce glare.

This nephew of mine, to be so reckless at such a critical moment, it utterly disappointed Wagg.

As for Mira, after Milo and Wagg left, his face immediately turned downcast, he glanced at Alger, and solemnly said, "Alger, go do what you should be doing now!"

Mira didn't want to say another word, just waved him away.

This was out of respect for Wagg.

Seeing this, Alger, though unwilling and resentful, left without a word.

Once outside, Alger was full of anger with nowhere to vent.

"Bai Xiaosheng, all this mess is because of you! I'm gonna let you know what happens when you tick me off!"

Alger thought angrily, walking away briskly.

Twenty minutes later, Milo, under Wagg's guidance, met Bai Xiaosheng at a nearby hotel.

Seeing Milo, Bai Xiaosheng was quite surprised, knowing he was concerned for him, he felt very grateful.

Upon learning that Milo was actually the son of Anlos, Bai Xiaosheng was somewhat surprised, but not too shocked.

Because whether it was Karan's business community recommending him as a representative, or various signals afterward, Bai Xiaosheng had sensed that Milo had an extraordinary background.

When Milo met Bai Xiaosheng, Wagg was "present" the whole time, citing regulations that he couldn't avoid it.

Milo made no pretense, and in Wagg's presence, asked Bai Xiaosheng if he needed "help," saying that his father would support any decision he made.

Hearing this, Wagg's expression slightly changed.

Bai Xiaosheng, however, laughed and politely declined Milo's kindness, knowing that asking for help would create a debt of gratitude between them.

"After I get out, you can introduce me to Mr. Anlos, I'd like to meet him," Bai Xiaosheng said with a smile.

"If it's you, then there's no problem!" Milo readily agreed.

In fact, his father was willing to help because he had heard of Bai Xiaosheng and held him in high esteem.

With Wagg watching, Milo couldn't say much more to Bai Xiaosheng, having expressed his intentions, he could only take his leave.

Knowing that Bai Xiaosheng did not ask Milo for help, Wagg secretly breathed a sigh of relief.

To not use such assistance! How unfortunate for you! Wagg secretly sneered at Bai Xiaosheng.

Bai Xiaosheng had no idea what they had planned for him, he would surely regret it later, but by then it would be too late!

In the evening, at the Huaxia Business Group's premises, a group of people suddenly arrived.

There were public officials and a large number of reporters.

Entrusted with the temporary task of leading, Dong Tianlu came out to stop them when he heard they wanted to search Bai Xiaosheng's room.

Bai Xiaosheng was also their pride.

"Your Mr. Bai Xiaosheng is suspected of accepting bribes and smuggling artifacts. We are here based on significant reports," said the leader of the team, smiling at Dong Tianlu.

"Absolutely ridiculous!" Dong Tianlu harshly retorted, "You have these new charges, what evidence do you have?"

The group from the business association also voiced their indignation, supporting Dong Tianlu.

The opponent sneered coldly, waved a hand, and had those who came with him step aside.

"The informant is here." Someone stepped forward with a smile, "Miss Dong, it's better not to obstruct official duties."

When she saw who it was, Dong Tianlu was taken aback, her eyes widened involuntarily.

"Yang Xiaoyun!"

"You're the informant?!"

Chapter 2597 - The Evidence Is Here

Dong Tianlu and the Huaxia businessmen present were shocked when they saw Yang Xiaoyun. No one expected he would stand up to accuse Bai Xiaosheng of soliciting bribes and having intentions of smuggling artifacts.

Although it sounds ridiculous, these are not minor charges.

After all, Bai Xiaosheng carries the title of team leader of the business group, and the Yang Family is a major commercial family in Oshan. Their involvement in the investigation is justifiable in legal terms.

If the charges are proven, Bai Xiaosheng's reputation would be severely damaged, and he would be completely ruined.

"Mr. Yang Xiaoyun, do you know what you're saying!" Dong Tianlu couldn't help but shout.

The members of the business group around her also voiced their indignation towards Yang Xiaoyun.

"This is simply absurd. With Mr. Bai Xiaosheng's reputation and wealth, what bribe would he need to solicit from you, and why would he smuggle artifacts?"

"That's right, this is sheer nonsense! I believe that Mr. Bai Xiaosheng's character is nothing like that!"

"Mr. Yang, we are in a cooperative relationship here. How can you slander Mr. Bai like this!"

"Back then, Mr. Bai Xiaosheng overlooked past grievances and did not hold your family's actions against you, even promoting cooperation between us!"

Facing the anger from everyone, Yang Xiaoyun's trademark smile vanished from his face, and his expression turned stern.

So according to you, our Yang Family should be grateful to Bai Xiaosheng! Yang Xiaoyun sneered inwardly.

"You talk about how wonderful Bai Xiaosheng is, but that's because you work with him. What you've seen is the glamorous side of Bai Xiaosheng; who knows what he's like behind the scenes!"

Yang Xiaoyun challenged everyone in public, showing no fear.

As a result, the members of the business group were genuinely enraged, and their words became more intense.

Yang Xiaoyun stood in front of everyone with arms spread, sneering provocatively, "Do you think I'm wrong? Oh, it seems some of you are ready to fight, go ahead, I welcome it!"

With this provocation, the men in the business group were almost bursting with anger.

Seeing the situation on the verge of getting out of control, the journalists nearby were frantically snapping photos, all focusing on the Huaxia Business Group, clearly anticipating big news.

Neither Dong Tianlu nor Lu Tiandao were foolish. Seeing this scene, they quickly restrained their emotions and held back their more impulsive companions.

In a foreign country, on someone else's turf, any overreaction could be magnified and distorted by the media, which they could not afford to suffer.

Fortunately, Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying, the two closest to Bai Xiaosheng, were currently not here, as they were busy seeking evidence to clear Bai Xiaosheng of suspicion.

If they were here, they definitely wouldn't have been able to hold back.

Yang Xiaoyun waited for a while, seeing that the members of the Huaxia Business Group all remained restrained, giving him cold looks, he immediately realized that his small tactics were ineffective.

Yang Xiaoyun sneered repeatedly, raising his voice, "Since you are all reasonable people, then don't block the way here; whether Bai Xiaosheng is guilty or not, whether he asked my Yang Family for bribes, or tried to smuggle our family's treasured artifacts, go search his room and you'll know, isn't that a simple thing?"

Hearing this, the individuals leading the team stepped forward immediately, addressing Dong Tianlu, "Ma'am, we're just following orders, please cooperate with us."

Dong Tianlu was silent for a moment, then looked at the other party, saying, "We are the Huaxia Business Group, not representing ourselves here. The Bai Xiaosheng you want to search is our leader; he's not just an individual! Your large-scale approach here damages our interests and dignity! Without permission from our side, we cannot yield!"

Dong Tianlu stood her ground, as did the others.

The patience of the leading person seemed limited, as he stepped back half a step and beckoned, prompting more personnel to advance from behind, clearly intent on forcing their way.

Dong Tianlu and Lu Tiandao stood firmly together, looking coldly at the other side, with no one backing down.

At this moment, these people were united like never before.

Just as both sides were about to have a physical confrontation, someone shouted, "Wait a minute!"

Dong Tianlu and the others saw a commotion brewing from behind the other party.

Then, the people moved aside, clearing a path, and two people hurriedly walked through.

Dong Tianlu looked up and secretly breathed a sigh of relief—Hou Yuncheng had arrived!

Following Hou Yuncheng was Mr. Mira, the head of the Oshan Commerce Department.

This time, it was Mira who actively sought out Hou Yuncheng, saying he had heard that the relevant departments were investigating Bai Xiaosheng for soliciting commercial bribes and smuggling artifacts, and were on their way to gather evidence. Fearing a conflict with the business group, he invited Hou Yuncheng to accompany him.

With such a major issue at hand, Hou Yuncheng promptly dropped everything and came with Mira.

However, upon arriving, Hou Yuncheng found the perimeter swarmed with reporters, "long guns and short cannons" set up everywhere.

An undercover evidence-gathering investigation, no matter how keen the media's senses are, shouldn't have caught wind of it in advance.

Unless, they were deliberately informed before the operation.

Hou Yuncheng cast a long look at Mira at that moment, his eyes full of meaning.

Mira also noticed the exaggerated scene, yet forced an explanation, saying that recent investigations into Bai Xiaosheng had attracted media attention. Those people were camping near the business group's base, and when this new incident occurred, they naturally called friends and arrived in droves.

Hou Yuncheng had no time to argue with Mira about this as he saw a conflict about to erupt.

With the escort accompanying Mira, the two of them managed to break through the crowd and get to the front.

Chapter 2598 - The Evidence Is Here (Part 2)

Seeing Hou Yuncheng arrive, Dong Tianlu and the others immediately felt invigorated.

"Mr. Hou, they're trying to forcefully investigate our residence!" Dong Tianlu said.

Before Hou Yuncheng could speak, Mira laughed and said, "This lady, how is this called a forced investigation? Someone has filed a report, Mr. Bai Xiaosheng is suspected of issues, our staff are completely acting according to the law."

Dong Tianlu immediately raised an eyebrow and sneered, "Then may I ask, if I now report that Mr. Mira has issues, can I, based on my word alone, inspect your residence?"

Mira laughed, "How can that be the same? Mr. Bai Xiaosheng is currently under investigation..."

"It's assisting the investigation!" Dong Tianlu immediately corrected, "Mr. Bai volunteered to assist your investigation, he is not a criminal!"

"But the situation is different now," Mira said with a hint of a cold smile, shrugging his shoulders and glancing at Hou Yuncheng.

The business group had not received detailed reports, so they were naturally unaware that Bai Xiaosheng now had many 'solid proofs' against him.

"Everyone, I understand how you feel, but now we need to cooperate with their investigation," Hou Yuncheng finally spoke.

With his words, Dong Tianlu and others looked at each other, finally stepping aside silently.

Actually, from the beginning, they didn't really want to stop it, nor could they. Today's scene, along with the presence of Yang Xiaoyun, was clearly a setup meant to destroy Bai Xiaosheng. None of them could sit back and do nothing.

Now, Hou Yuncheng is here, and everything depends on him.

Hou Yuncheng glanced at Mira and slowly said, "Mr. Mira, your people can go in and check, we'll be waiting right here and won't interfere."

Seeing that Hou Yuncheng agreed, Mira immediately waved, and the investigators behind him immediately passed by, heading straight for Bai Xiaosheng's room.

"I don't know how you define and investigate commercial bribery cases in Oshan, but okay. Shouldn't the bribery personnel also be investigated?" Hou Yuncheng said in a deep voice to Mira, also casting a deep look at Yang Xiaoyun beside him.

At this moment, Yang Xiaoyun looked aside, not even meeting Hou Yuncheng's gaze.

Mira forced a laugh, "This matter will be handled according to procedure, and once there's a result, I'll inform Mr. Hou accordingly."

Hou Yuncheng nodded, "Alright, I'll wait!"

The crowd waited outside, and shortly after, some investigators came out, most of them with empty hands, but two held items, respectively a chess set and a can of tea leaves, the tea can appearing to be ceramic.

"Found it, Mr. Mira." the leader immediately said to Mira.

Mira looked in amazement at the two items, unable to resist sneaking a glance at Yang Xiaoyun.

Just these two items?

Yang Xiaoyun was also watching, and seeing the situation was different than expected, he couldn't care about his fear of Hou Yuncheng and quickly walked up.

The people who went to search brought the items closer, Yang Xiaoyun pointed to them and said, "These are all things from the Yang Family, this is a Yunzi Chessboard from over two hundred years ago, it's an artifact worth more than fifty thousand US dollars. This ceramic tea set is also over a hundred years old, crafted by a famous artist, worth around ten thousand US dollars."

After speaking, Yang Xiaoyun continued to look, checking if anyone else was holding anything.

The gifts the Yang Family gave to Bai Xiaosheng were the least valuable among these two.

Where did the valuable ones go?

Yang Xiaoyun immediately looked at the person who led the search.

The person immediately shook his head and said in a low voice, "We've checked, except for computers and personal items, there aren't any items that can be considered historical artifacts."

Yang Xiaoyun hearing this, immediately said, "That's impossible, that Bai Xiaosheng extorted a batch of higher-valued items from us, if they're not in his room, they must be in the rooms of his companions. Yes, he has two subordinates, they should be searched together!"

With Yang Xiaoyun such a shout, Hou Yuncheng's face darkened.

However, before he could speak, Dong Tianlu coldly snorted, "We are all companions of Mr. Bai Xiaosheng, should we be searched as well!"

"Hmph, items worth a mere sixty thousand US dollars, and Mr. Bai needs to extort them from your Yang Family." Lu Tiandao mocked, "Do you really think Mr. Bai Xiaosheng is that poor? As friends, he gave me a watch worth over two hundred thousand!"

"Last time we drank wine, it was a million per bottle, hosted by Mr. Bai. Would he care about such a small amount of money from you!" Zhang Qinglin mocked as well.

"Even talk about Mr. Bai Xiaosheng, even among us present, anyone could pull out a tie or a belt worth more than that sum. Is that how stingy you are with your Yang Family gifts?"

"Sending some worthless gifts, then turning around to say people extort bribes, hmph, truly shameless. Is your Yang Family desperate?"

The business group members collectively ridiculed and scolded Yang Xiaoyun publicly, leaving the latter's face alternating between pale and red, extremely unpleasant.

Dong Tianlu coldly said, "And for this chessboard and a worthless ceramic can, how does Mr. Yang know it's from your Yang Family and not Mr. Bai's own belongings? Just because it's dug out doesn't mean it's yours, that's inappropriate."

With Dong Tianlu's words, Yang Xiaoyun immediately took the chess set, flipped to a spot with an engraving, "Look here, there's a 'Yang' character, it's from my Yang Family."

"And for the tea can, pour out the tea leaves, there's a 'Yang' character at the bottom with resin coating for protection," Yang Xiaoyun added.

The Yang Family's intentions were malicious from the start when gifting items to Bai Xiaosheng.

Of course, if it weren't for this incident, this tiny root of trouble wouldn't have taken hold.

The first to hook up with Yang Xiaoyun was Lisa.

Chapter 2599 - The Evidence Is Here (Part 3)

This idea was even suggested by her, originally meant to leave a mark, so that even if Bai Xiaosheng accidentally saw these marks, he would think favorably of the Yang Family.

Later, Alger contacted Yang Xiaoyun through Lisa, and the two sides hit it off. Then, Alger "introduced" them to Wagg.

The two sides decided to use this small mark to ruin Bai Xiaosheng, at the very least to destroy his reputation, so that even someone like Anlos wouldn't be able to speak up for Bai Xiaosheng.

The Huaxia side would then have nothing to say.

In this way, the concerns of Mira and Wagg would no longer exist, and they would also use this to get through the crisis, and possibly even gain opportunities.

For the Yang Family, they could take revenge on Bai Xiaosheng and establish a good relationship with the Oshan Business Department, killing two birds with one stone.

This "great opportunity" has now resulted in such a situation.

Dong Tianlu and others watched as Yang Xiaoyun produced "evidence," and their eyes narrowed slightly.

It seems the Yang Family had ill intentions all along!

But fortunately, Bai Xiaosheng's generosity allowed him to unwittingly avoid a "major crisis."

Bai Xiaosheng shared the gifts from the Yang Family with the members of the business group, and generously allowed everyone to choose a gift each.

At the time, no one thought much of it, because even though all the items were in front of them, for people of their wealth, measured in billions, they were insignificant.

Unexpectedly, this resolved the immediate trouble.

"Mr. Mira, I think it would be wise to search the rooms of Bai Xiaosheng's two assistants," Yang Xiaoyun suggested to Mira, having already "fired the arrow."

Mira couldn't help but look at Hou Yuncheng.

Hou Yuncheng, though seemingly allowing them to search Bai Xiaosheng's room, maintained a sullen expression.

This matter is not something this Huaxia person will easily let go of!

Mira also couldn't help but feel a headache coming on.

"Fine, go ahead and check! You've checked Mr. Bai Xiaosheng's assistants, if you find nothing, that's okay, there's still us, you can check us too!" Dong Tianlu folded his arms and sneered, "You accuse Mr. Bai Xiaosheng, the leader of the business group, of soliciting bribes, but that's reasonable. But we're just businessmen; we have nothing to fear because this accusation won't stick to us!"

With Dong Tianlu's words, everyone immediately echoed in agreement.

Mira felt bitter at heart.

The original plan was going smoothly, but it only resulted in finding items worth sixty thousand US Dollars, an amount that isn't substantial enough to clearly distinguish between "gift" and legal violation in Oshan law, making it difficult to convince the public and superiors, making it necessary to investigate Bai Xiaosheng's entourage, but it shouldn't be too overboard.

If it implicated the entire Huaxia Business Group, that would be a huge problem...

Mira carefully tried to smile and asked Hou Yuncheng, "What do you think, Mr. Hou..."

"You may investigate, but only among Bai Xiaosheng's attendants, and don't mess with their things!"

Having seen Dong Tianlu's indication, Hou Yuncheng spoke calmly, "However, if nothing is found, Mr. Mira, you owe me an explanation!"

"Otherwise, I'll have a direct talk with your chieftain!"

Hou Yuncheng was quite angry.

It's not that the Oshan upper echelons were entirely unaware of this matter, yet they permitted it, likely due to dissatisfaction when the business group temporarily changed their inspection plans.

But now, this matter has exceeded their tolerable limits, and even the higher-ups are preparing to hit back hard.

Therefore, Hou Yuncheng felt justified.

Upon hearing Hou Yuncheng's words, Mira hurriedly arranged for people to investigate.

As a result, those who went came back empty-handed, not finding a single thing.

Dong Tianlu watched this happen and sneered coldly.

Most of Bai Xiaosheng's belongings were distributed among the others; even his two closest aides got nothing, proving his openness and making it impossible for them to find anything!

Mira, seeing the result, turned pale.

Hou Yuncheng turned and walked away, his voice trailing, "I hope Mr. Mira and your people can provide us with an explanation soon! Otherwise, you will bear the consequences of this matter."

Feeling embarrassed, Mira chased after Hou Yuncheng, not forgetting to give Yang Xiaoyun an angry glare before leaving.

Yang Xiaoyun, having received Mira's glare and the resentment from Dong Tianlu and the others, didn't dare linger even for a moment and quickly left in disgrace.

Those who came to investigate departed like a receding tide.

The journalists also left; coming in high spirits and leaving disappointed could describe their mood, but with Alger's arrangements, they would embellish the story, portraying the sixty thousand worth of items as "significant amounts."

Dong Tianlu and others watched the others leave, exchanged glances, and returned silently to their accommodations.

That evening, at the Yang Family Ancient Castle, Yang Xiaoyun was scolded harshly by Yang Junluo.

Yang Yishan, who rushed back from out of town, was also furious about this matter.

The difference being, Yang Junluo was aware of it, while Yang Yishan had just found out.

While Yang Xiaoyun was caught between a rock and a hard place, a family member suddenly presented a box, saying it was sent by Dong Tianlu.

Upon opening the box, Yang Xiaoyun was stunned.

Inside were some pieces of porcelain and fragments of paintings, all of which bore a small "Yang" character.

Only he knew what this meant, the "evidence" on those gifts.

The evidence was here, but the investigators were gone...

Chapter 2600 - On the Eve of the Storm

Mr. Mira invited Hou Yuncheng to go to the Huaxia Business Group premises to deal with the "sudden situation," while Wagg stayed in Mira's office, waiting for the "exciting" news to arrive.

With solid evidence of Bai Xiaosheng receiving a "bribe," Yang Xiaoyun from the Yang Family as a witness, many media reporters present, and Mr. Mira himself in charge.

Wagg felt that this matter was solid.

"Bai Xiaosheng, oh Bai Xiaosheng, I wonder if after this, you will regret not agreeing to our demands in the first place!"

"Your disgrace is self-inflicted, and of course, it's a sacrifice for our future, so don't blame us!"

"After this, even if you regret it, it's useless, because even merciful God can't save you..."

Thinking of this, Wagg truly felt his mind and body were relaxed.

Left waiting and right waiting, Mira still didn't come back, but Wagg wasn't anxious at all, he thought such a big matter would inevitably consume a lot of time.

Wagg couldn't stop imagining, with Bai Xiaosheng's "new charges" being confirmed, Hou Yuncheng would be so annoyed and ashamed, perhaps now pulling Mr. Mira to request them not to blow things up, as a bargaining chip, he would come forward to persuade Huaxia merchants to cooperate with the companies over here and give some benefits...

Just when Wagg was imagining all this pleasantly, the office door was forcefully pushed open, and Mr. Mira came in like a gust of wind, heading straight to the desk, pouring himself a full glass of water, and drank it in one gulp.

Repeating like this, Mira drank three large glasses of water.

When Wagg saw him come back, his eyes instantly brightened, he stood up from the sofa and rushed over, excitedly saying, "Mr. Mira, how did it go? Did it succeed? Did that Bai Xiaosheng's new charges get confirmed? Are the media people surrounding this issue with difficulties? That Hou Yuncheng..."

Before Wagg could finish, Mira slammed the cup on the table, angrily turning back, "I...damn it, FUCK, what success!"

Wagg was startled, stopping in his tracks, looking at Mira in astonishment.

Mira's anger started to erupt, "Is this the final blow you arranged for me to attack Bai Xiaosheng? And it's supposed to be a lethal one? That Yang Xiaoyun is an idiot, your nephew too! Even you, I think, are! At the scene, only 60,000 of US Dollar worth of things were found from Bai Xiaosheng's room, just a bit higher than the tax-exempt gift amount by law! Why would a big Huaxia businessman be bribed for such a small amount of money? How am I supposed to convince the authorities and the public, who would believe wealthy Huaxia people care about such petty cash! Damn it, that Yang Xiaoyun said there were goods worth millions, where are they!"

Wagg was stunned by Mira's roaring, although he gathered a rough idea of what happened.

The situation was not as expected, only insignificant items were found, and the so-called "bribery" accusation was hovering between yes and no...

Wagg was a bit dumbfounded, not knowing how things turned out this way.

To be said, even if Alger didn't do a solid job, could it be the same with Yang Xiaoyun from the Yang Family.

Everyone knew, he was a famously sly and cautious person in the West African business community, him standing out to testify against Bai Xiaosheng should be foolproof...

"Mr. Mira, what's going on here, please don't rush, tell me carefully, let's sit down and make a long-term plan."

Wagg hurriedly comforted Mira.

At this point, Mira understood that even exploding with anger wouldn't help anymore.

He was breathing heavily, sat back on his chair, to make himself feel better.

After resting for about five minutes, Mira explained the situation in detail to Wagg.

Wagg was also a bit stunned hearing it.

This situation, greatly unexpected!

"Just because the scene was overblown by the media and two more Huaxia people's rooms were searched, I even went to explain to that Hou Yuncheng for a long time! Do you think it feels good to look at a cold face! Also, I see that Hou Yuncheng was genuinely furious because of our move this time! When talking with me, even though his words weren't that intense, I could see his patience was at its limit, maybe by tomorrow, he will notify our Oshan's higher-ups! By then, to consider the relationship between both sides, guess how the top will handle us!"

Mira said a heap of resentful words in one breath, his throat even sounded hoarse.

It seemed that his "explanation" with Hou Yuncheng must have been quite a marathon of words.

The effect was still uncertain.

"Huaxia people, can they be that aggressive? Weren't they always known for their endurance..." Wagg couldn't help but mutter.

In memory, they were supposed to be a very gentle race...

Mira was pouring himself a drink while sneering, "Is your impression of Huaxia people still stuck in the past? Nowadays, they are better at protecting their own interests than ever! Do you know what their national treasure is? You think it's the bamboo-eating ones? Let me tell you, they are also ferocious meat-eaters! In short, this matter is probably troublesome! Damn it, it was all planned well, who would have thought there would be an unexpected outcome!"

Mira truly felt a headache.

"At this point, Mr. Mira, we can only look forward!" Wagg advised.

For them, in fact, there wasn't a second path, no turning back.

Mira narrowed his eyes slightly, saying in a deep voice, "You're right, we have no choice!"

After saying that, Mira pulled himself together, with a bit of a fierce look on his face.