

Two Trillion 2601

Chapter 2601 - The Eve of the Storm (Part 2)

"Now, contact the Yang Family immediately and tell them to use all media resources to cooperate with us! Start the public opinion offensive right away! If the Yang Family disagrees... they have no right to refuse! Since they're already on board, they shouldn't think they can stay out of it! They've also provoked the Huaxia people, and they should know that this matter won't end well!" Mira shouted.

Wagg's eyes were heavy as he nodded, "Alright, I'll contact them shortly!"

The Yang Family, who came to them willingly, should naturally be used to the fullest!

"And your nephew Alger, he has a Colossal Family backing him!" Mira showed a hint of a fierce smile.

Dragging that big family into this means more opportunities, even a chance for survival in a hopeless situation.

"Alger?" Wagg shook his head repeatedly at Mira's request, "No, this won't do! He is my nephew! He hasn't been much involved in this situation so far, and it's unnecessary to pull him in! If his family gets involved, they won't let us off the hook afterwards, we need to consider this carefully..."

"Are you leaving yourself a way out, Wagg!" Mira's eyes were fierce, cutting off Wagg's words, "Just because that family is related to you? Afraid of facing the consequences later? Think about it, if you go to jail, will they spare no expense to get you out? Or will they treat you like a maggot, staying away to avoid tainting their reputation!"

Mira's sarcasm made Wagg frown and fall silent.

"Alger is also involved in this, if it weren't for him, you wouldn't have entertained the initial idea, right?" Mira continued, with a cruel smile on her face, "He's already an adult, he has to pay the price for his choices! Contact him and have him use all available resources to join this matter!"

Mira went on, "Even if we only find sixty thousand US Dollars worth of goods from that Bai Xiaosheng, even if it's hard to pin down, we must use the power of the media to make this matter sensational! As long as the public believes he's guilty, then he is guilty! We must ruin that Bai Xiaosheng's reputation, make the Huaxia people feel their reputation is damaged, and also isolate those big powers who want to help Bai Xiaosheng!"

"This is the only way we can have a sliver of hope!" Mira said fiercely.

These words made Wagg's face gradually become ferocious.

By now, this isn't a misunderstanding that can be stopped, it's a life-and-death struggle.

"Alright, alright. I understand!" Wagg gritted his teeth.

Unexpectedly, at such a critical moment, it was Mira who was more determined and ruthless.

No wonder he is the department head.

But Wagg had no time to lament, just as he was about to act, a tune rang from his phone.

Someone was calling in.

Wagg took his phone out, seeing the name displayed, his eyebrows raised immediately, he didn't rush to answer but exchanged a look with Mira, "It's Yang Xiaoyun!"

Mira was startled, then laughed, "Seems the Yang Family knows they have no way out! I hope he's calling to contribute, if not, if they still want to hold back or withdraw, I'll be the first to deal with them!"

Wagg just nodded.

Time is tight and the situation is urgent, wavering cannot be tolerated.

Wagg felt the same way.

After picking up the call, Yang Xiaoyun's voice came from the other end, "Is this Mr. Wagg?"

"It's me." Wagg put it on speaker, said solemnly, "Mr. Yang Xiaoyun?"

"Yes," Yang Xiaoyun replied.

After confirming their identities, they got straight to business, both knowing there was no need for pleasantries.

"Calling me this late, I hope you're calling to contribute!" Wagg said in a rather stern tone.

"That's exactly my intention!"

On the other end, Yang Xiaoyun didn't hesitate, "All the media resources of the Yang Family are mobilized, at your disposal!"

These words, unexpectedly, surprised both Wagg and Mira.

They didn't expect Yang Xiaoyun, known as a business trickster, to be so reliable.

"Both my father and brother strongly oppose the action against the Huaxia Business Group and want me to stop. But Mr. Wagg, you know that once we take the first step, there's no turning back, so I must solidify this while I have the power, so they can't stop it!" Yang Xiaoyun decided.

It seems he is also a ruthless character.

"That's excellent!" Wagg said with a deep laugh.

Next to him, Mira couldn't help but nod.

Now, they must act quickly, fight fast against slow.

Subsequently, Wagg and Yang Xiaoyun had a discussion over the phone, finalizing the media strategy for the next steps.

After reaching an agreement, they ended the call.

"I'll contact Alger right away." This time in front of Mira, Wagg volunteered.

Mira nodded, still listening from the side.

...

At this moment, in the Yang Family Ancient Castle, Yang Xiaoyun let out a sigh of relief, putting down the phone with an ugly expression. Yang Junluo was next to him, and even Yang Yishan was there.

What Yang Xiaoyun said just now, about going against his father's and brother's will, was complete nonsense.

In fact, this call was directed by Yang Junluo.

"From this moment on, Xiaoyun, this is all on you, nothing to do with the family," Yang Junluo said solemnly, "It's you, who, initially forced by Bai Xiaosheng, harbored a grudge and resorted to this plan, using your resources with no turning back. By tomorrow, when the media stirs things up, I'll personally contact the Huaxia Business Group, express shock and apologies, and then I'll announce your dismissal, but the media will continue as they are."

Chapter 2602 - The Eve of the Storm (Part 3)

Yang Junluo is indeed a seasoned veteran in the business world; this is clearly a two-pronged preparation.

"Dad, I understand." Yang Xiaoyun's usual smile was gone from her face, as she answered in a low voice.

"Grandpa, Dad, what you are doing is making a mistake worse." Nearby, Yang Yishan couldn't help but exclaim angrily.

She only found out about these matters after returning home; if she had known earlier that her father was going after Bai Xiaosheng, she would have certainly stopped him.

"Go back to your room!" Yang Xiaoyun glared at her daughter and scolded in a deep voice, "Whatever we do, you, a child, shouldn't meddle!"

"Do you really think anyone will believe you doing this?" Yang Yishan retorted fiercely.

"We don't need anyone to believe it! As long as it looks above board, there's room for maneuvering!" Yang Xiaoyun shouted loudly.

Yang Junluo remained silent, listening to the dispute between the father and daughter.

Yang Yishan wanted to say more, but Yang Xiaoyun interrupted her sharply, "Go back to your room! Now, immediately! From now on, all your duties are suspended. Stay home, and don't take a single step outside!"

Yang Yishan bit her lip and glanced at her grandfather, seeing him indifferent, she stomped her foot angrily, turned, and left.

"This child is spoiled!" Yang Xiaoyun watched Yang Yishan's back and let out a frustrated sigh through his nose.

Yang Junluo waved his hand, "Go do what needs to be done!"

Utilize the Yang Family's media resources to solidify the matter of Bai Xiaosheng's "bribery"!

Yang Xiaoyun immediately nodded and turned to leave.

Once the room was left with only himself, Yang Junluo couldn't help but massage his temples, frowning deeply, "This matter will be difficult to explain to Old Man Wei later on..."

Yang Junluo remained silent for a while, then angrily said, "Do I need to explain anything to him! When his future son-in-law fooled my Yang Family the last time, did he even say a word!"

...

Almost simultaneously, Hou Yuncheng was also on a call with Dong Tianlu.

Over the phone, Dong Tianlu told Hou Yuncheng in full detail about the Yang Family secretly giving gifts and Bai Xiaosheng distributing them among everyone.

"Although Mr. Bai Xiaosheng holds the title of business group leader, you know, he's not a public official, he's purely leading on a voluntary basis, without any special powers or benefits. Moreover, with his wealth, he wouldn't do anything for such a small amount of money. Regarding his behavior, his character, all of us, including Mr. Lu Yun, Mr. Jia Chengshan, and their half of the group, can vouch for him!" Dong Tianlu emphasized.

"I have never doubted Bai Xiaosheng's character, nor has anyone above ever doubted it."

Hou Yuncheng replied calmly on the phone, "However, what you all saw today was a clear targeting under the guise of an investigation. Even if this matter actually goes to court, we believe it won't reach a severe level."

"The real danger lies with those reporters present! Over here, we don't have the power of speech, and I believe you've all experienced the might of foreign media! I'm worried that tomorrow's news will lead to a very negative scene."

"I hope all of you are mentally prepared and don't have any extreme emotional reactions because of this; leave everything to us to handle!"

Hou Yuncheng was also concerned that any situation might affect the emotions of the business group members.

"Rest assured, we have already discussed it among ourselves. The key is Mr. Bai Xiaosheng; you must urge the other side to work on the basis of facts and clarify the matter as soon as possible," Dong Tianlu said.

"Don't worry, tonight we will notify Oshan's higher-ups!"

The conversation between Hou Yuncheng and Dong Tianlu wasn't long, and both felt that the next day would bring a storm in public opinion.

In fact, this storm had already begun brewing overnight...

Chapter 2603 - The Power of Public Opinion (Part 1)

From Bai Xiaosheng's residence, "high-value" items were found, and this news appeared on the front pages of several major Oshan media outlets that evening, quickly being reprinted by media of all sizes and spreading like wildfire.

Media dissemination works like this; once a hot topic gains simultaneous attention from top-tier entities in several industries, it is likely to become a "blockbuster."

Other peer media will rush to follow, to avoid missing out on traffic.

The major media outlets continuously published articles, with increasingly sharp writing. Those smaller media also sensed something unusual within and began organizing manpower and resources overnight to fabricate articles with their own viewpoints.

As such, the media frenzy intensified, and by dawn, a flood of articles and comments had emerged online.

Early the next morning, the Oshan public received an overwhelming amount of information.

"Huaxia Commercial Delegation leader Bai Xiaosheng demanded benefits from the West African Yang Family, conducting private transactions, transferring opportunities that should belong to Oshan to others..."

"Huaxia Commercial Delegation sharply reduced its itinerary in Oshan, suspected to be manipulated by the delegation leader Bai Xiaosheng..."

"Previously, Bai Xiaosheng was investigated by the Oshan business department, found to be involved in multiple commercial fraud cases..."

"Bai Xiaosheng is suspected of commercial fraud in Oshan, attempting to smuggle undue profits to Asia..."

"Bai Xiaosheng's personal actions severely damaged the interests of Huaxia Business Group members, with internal discontent already voiced..."

Various messages and guesses emerged continuously without end.

The attacks and criticisms against Bai Xiaosheng resembled an avalanche and tsunami, reaching its peak early in the morning.

As a result, members of the Huaxia Business Group faced pointing fingers when dining.

Dong Tianlu noticed something was amiss and immediately called Hou Yuncheng.

"I noticed too!" Hou Yuncheng's voice on the phone carried anger.

Hou Yuncheng not only noticed but had even discussed this with Dong Tianlu yesterday. Last night, he had contacted the Oshan high-level officials, who had been very accommodating and showed great concern, reassuring Hou Yuncheng temporarily and promising to report promptly to higher authorities.

Now it seems, clearly a good game of Tai Chi was played!

This incident erupted without any interventions!

As a result, Bai Xiaosheng's image was damaged, Huaxia Business Group's image was damaged, and even Huaxia's image would be affected!

Hou Yuncheng talked with Dong Tianlu for two minutes before hanging up.

He needed to report upwards and hold formal talks and communications with higher-level entities in Oshan to prevent the situation from worsening.

But, inevitably, this would involve many procedures and possibly take considerable time.

Hou Yuncheng was really worried; they didn't have that much time for this matter! Bai Xiaosheng didn't have that much time!

Also receiving the news in the morning was Milo.

He noticed the newspaper on the dining table while having breakfast.

Milo flipped through it, his face immediately showing anger.

"Utter nonsense, just sheer nonsense, these media have gone crazy!" Milo couldn't help but slam the newspaper down, speaking angrily.

Dining with Milo was a middle-aged man, seemingly ordinary at first glance, dressed simply, without an imposing aura, but his eyes had a special gleam in their warmth, compelling respect upon first interaction.

The man was Milo's father, Anlos, one of the greatest businessmen in the entire West African business scene.

At this moment, Mr. Anlos was peacefully and elegantly enjoying his breakfast.

About the news regarding Bai Xiaosheng, he actually knew it from early on.

"Father, regarding this matter, I think we should help Bai Xiaosheng. You also mentioned he's quite an extraordinary person; helping him might bring us unexpected gains in the future." Milo hurriedly said to his father upon seeing his apparent indifference.

His father had previously thought highly of Bai Xiaosheng.

Anlos set down his teacup, smiled, and looked at Milo, "Oh, are you so keen to lend a hand to this person?"

"I admire this person," Milo stated bluntly, "He has qualities that I respect!"

Hearing this, Anlos appeared pleased and softly said, "Unexpectedly, there's someone of your age you regard so highly; that's good, very good. Recognizing excellence in peers is a praiseworthy thing."

Milo cared little for his father's praise and urgently asked, "Then about this current situation..."

"This matter involves deep waters," Anlos said meaningfully, "Based on the information I received and my judgment, it's Oshan's business department vigorously taking harsh measures against that Bai Xiaosheng. I suspect they're trying to divert trouble from themselves and hope to seize this chance to become famous. Even the Oshan high-level officials silently endorse this. If successful, they'll gain benefits from Huaxia; if failed, they can simply replace this group of people. As you can see, it's a coordinated effort from top to bottom. Besides the political realm, the business sector also has traces of the West African Yang Family and other forces involved!"

Anlos didn't disclose all the details to Milo; it wasn't necessary.

Milo listened intently, feeling a chill.

"What I'm saying is, from now on, we should refrain from any actions," Anlos advised with a gentle smile.

Although his words seemed undecided, Milo knew once his father spoke, it was definitive and irrevocable.

"Could it be that our family fears those forces?" Milo couldn't help but ask.

He felt a certain grievance.

Standing by without helping wasn't in his character! How could he face Bai Xiaosheng and the beautiful lady beside him in the future?

Anlos laughed, "Those forces, even if doubled, our family wouldn't fear them."

This statement, said with casualness, conveyed ample confidence and composure.

"Then why don't you want to intervene in this matter..." Milo frowned immediately.

Anlos smiled, "I'm stopping you from getting involved because Bai Xiaosheng clearly told you he doesn't need assistance."

"But the situation now is different..." Milo reminded.

Back then, the trouble Bai Xiaosheng faced wasn't as pressing as it is now.

Anlos calmly said, "Deciding blindly without understanding the circumstances is unworthy of assistance. Likewise, once a decision is made, you must respect his choice."

In short, further intervention was not an option.

Milo heaved a long sigh, his gaze distant, "I sincerely hope he has a way to overcome this hurdle."

Anlos, expressionless, lifted his coffee and drank, his eyes flickering slightly: If Bai Xiaosheng cannot overcome this, it would be utterly disappointing; then having his son become friends with him would be a misstep!

As Mira and Wagg anticipated, the Milo family wouldn't intervene to help Bai Xiaosheng due to the media-fueled public opinion storm.

Similarly, other people and forces restricted by the public opinion were aplenty, unable to render assistance to Bai Xiaosheng...

Chapter 2604 The Power of Public Opinion (Part 2)

Mr. Brown received the news at noon, by then the media storm had intensified and was spiraling out of control.

Mr. Brown felt extremely shocked by Bai Xiaosheng's predicament and promptly contacted Dong Tianlu and the others.

Upon learning the whole story, Mr. Brown immediately arranged for the media under his group to join the storm and help Bai Xiaosheng retaliate through public opinion.

However, just after the first round of articles and comments were published, Mr. Brown received a message from the headquarters.

The Zhenbei Group's senior management issued an ultimatum, prohibiting Mr. Brown's involvement in the storm, to avoid causing any damage to the group's industries. If Mr. Brown did not comply with the orders, he would be suspended from his position.

This order, including Vice Chairman Morgan among others, was issued collectively by several vice chairmen and was personally signed by the acting chairman.

Mr. Brown was also extremely surprised when he received it.

Now, even if he wanted to help, he was powerless.

Helplessly, Mr. Brown instructed his media companies to pause their support and passed the message to Dong Tianlu.

"This time, I can't help Mr. Bai Xiaosheng either," Mr. Brown said on the phone, his voice rarely tinged with helplessness.

The highest-level group order could not be defied.

"It's alright, Mr. Brown, it was your group's decision, not yours for not helping. I believe Mr. Bai Xiaosheng will understand you," Dong Tianlu consoled.

However, Dong Tianlu felt a chill in his heart, along with some helplessness.

The Huaxia Business Group had exhausted all usable connections, but none could provide substantial effective support.

Hou Yuncheng's side was delayed by the Oshan higher-ups, and it seemed unlikely to have results in the short term.

Just when the Zhenbei Group was lending a hand, it was unexpected that their senior management chose to preserve themselves and abandoned Bai Xiaosheng.

Right now, it's like everyone is watching Bai Xiaosheng sink into the quagmire, bit by bit, without any ability to help.

Such a situation truly made Dong Tianlu feel despairing.

Mr. Brown was similarly low in spirits on the phone.

In fact, at the Zhenbei Group headquarters, there was also an uproar today because of the matter concerning Bai Xiaosheng.

The senior management at Zhenbei Group headquarters was divided into two factions over this matter.

One faction, led by Vice Chairmen Lu Cheng'an and Li Yunyuan and the Compliance Department head Wen Yan, also included Jiang Kuo, the President of the Asia Division, and Soruns, the President of the Europe Division; they advocated for the group to intervene and help Bai Xiaosheng.

Meanwhile, the other faction comprised Vice Chairman Morgan, three other vice chairmen, Caroline from the North America Division, and the Presidents of the South America and Australia Divisions; they advocated for temporarily disassociating from Bai Xiaosheng, to avoid any losses to the group due to his personal actions, and based on the findings from Oshan, to take prompt action against Bai Xiaosheng.

The debate between the two factions went on from morning until noon, only reaching a conclusion when the acting chairman Bai Xuanyu intervened.

Bai Xuanyu, considering the group's interests, sided with Vice Chairman Morgan's faction.

With his involvement, the group's situation was immediately clear, and a resolution was passed to strictly forbid any group entity or individual from extending a helping hand to Bai Xiaosheng, completely cutting off the group's support for him.

At the moment the resolution was set, Wen Yan, Lu Cheng'an, and Li Yunyuan had difficulty controlling their emotions, but there was nothing they could do.

After the discussion meeting ended, Vice Chairman Morgan and others left the conference room with smiles, repeatedly praising the acting chairman's wisdom and prowess.

When Mr. Brown called Dong Tianlu, Vice Chairman Morgan was conversing with Caroline in his office.

With the door closed, the two spoke freely about the matter.

After all, they had discussed it countless times before.

"The progress of this matter so far is thanks to your arrangements and your exceptional subordinate!"

With no outsiders present, Vice Chairman Morgan couldn't help but praise Caroline's planning.

"You're too kind, Vice Chairman Morgan!"

Caroline smiled warmly, feeling immensely proud and satisfied.

"How should I put it, this matter really is about timing, location, and harmony! It's fate's design to ruin that Bai Xiaosheng, no one else is to blame!" Caroline laughed.

Although Lisa was there fanning the flames secretly, it was mostly due to Bai Xiaosheng's decisions that either offended various interest parties or misjudged some people. To Caroline, he was simply walking toward his own doom step by step!

Vice Chairman Morgan smiled and nodded, his eyes gleaming with sharpness, "All along, that Bai Xiaosheng has been a thorn not only to you but to me as well, and now there's finally a chance to remove him! It's truly a satisfying affair! This time, he hasn't just offended a person or a party, but an entire nation! Everyone from the business world to the public is expressing their anger towards him; under such circumstances, I really don't see how he can turn the tables!"

Not to mention Bai Xiaosheng being isolated and helpless, without any aid or resources on that side.

"Even their business group's senior management has been delayed by the Oshan higher-ups. This time, that Bai Xiaosheng is doomed; no one can save him!" Caroline laughed, "Any business force wanting to help him will also give up due to concerns about the public opinion and the interests of the Oshan business and political regions!"

Vice Chairman Morgan nodded with a smile, walked to the liquor cabinet to select the most expensive bottle, and lifted two crystal glasses in a gesture to Caroline, "Let's pre-celebrate the downfall of that annoying Bai Xiaosheng!"

Caroline nodded with a smile, "I think it's better to wish him straight to hell!"

Vice Chairman Morgan poured the wine with laughter.

The two were celebrating in advance.

By evening, the media storm at Oshan had reached its peak, with business people everywhere condemning Bai Xiaosheng, and even those on the streets discussing and cursing.

This situation naturally delighted Mr. Mira and Mr. Wagg.

The two held back their excitement throughout the night, and by the next morning, without receiving pressure from above or any calls from high-ranking individuals supporting Bai Xiaosheng, they were completely at ease.

In their view, the situation had reached a conclusion by now—Bai Xiaosheng had become completely isolated! He's finished!

Without even having breakfast, Mr. Mira and Mr. Wagg went enthusiastically to Bai Xiaosheng's residence.

From the previous morning until this morning, they had continually been informed of the situation's progress to Bai Xiaosheng, while allowing him to contact the Huaxia Business Group, ensuring his communication remained open.

This was done to make Bai Xiaosheng fully aware of the worsening situation and cause his psyche to completely collapse.

Early in the morning, Mr. Mira and Mr. Wagg wanted to witness Bai Xiaosheng's state of mind at the moment.

They intended to talk to him about how to resolve the current situation.

The two were full of confidence, believing Bai Xiaosheng would collapse and agree to all their demands.

But when they finally saw Bai Xiaosheng, both were slightly surprised.

There was no sign of collapse in Bai Xiaosheng; he seemed to be in good spirits.

"Gentlemen, you're here." Bai Xiaosheng even actively greeted them.

"Mr. Bai Xiaosheng, your attitude is truly commendable," Mr. Mira couldn't help but sarcastically remark.

"Mr. Bai, have you thought about how to amicably resolve this matter with us?" Wagg also smiled.

Confronted with their demeanor, Bai Xiaosheng shook his head, "I'm a person who is stubborn and won't admit defeat easily. You've dealt with me this way, and I won't end it unless I retaliate in kind!"

His eyes were like a wolf's when Bai Xiaosheng said this.

Indeed, he was very angry!

He hadn't slept all night, pondering strategies for retaliation!

Since the other side insisted on brewing a storm, then he intended to stir up a great upheaval!

Seeing Bai Xiaosheng's expression, Mr. Mira and Mr. Wagg suddenly felt an inexplicable chill.

Just as they were about to ask Bai Xiaosheng how he intended to proceed, an urgent knock on the door was heard.

Afterward, a subordinate peeked in, urgently saying, "Mr. Mira, Mr. Wagg, someone wants to see you!"

"What's wrong with you, can't you see we're busy?" Mr. Mira frowned and scolded.

Immediately, realizing it must be an important person for his subordinate to act so rashly, he added, "Who is it, are they very important?"

Wagg also looked towards the subordinate.

The subordinate's eyes concealed a hint of fear, and with a firm tone, he said, "That person... you both must meet!"

Chapter 2605 - Extraordinary Visitor

Mira, Wagg originally came with high spirits, intending to take advantage of the momentum of public opinion to "take down" Bai Xiaosheng and put an end to this matter once and for all.

To be honest, reaching this point, they are also bearing immense risk. Although there has been no indication from above, if they were to speak out, it would mean they must bring an end to it.

Looking at it this way, the time left for them is actually not much.

They must quickly achieve the results they desire.

Yet the two never imagined that Bai Xiaosheng, this Huaxia man, was truly tough! At this point, instead of yielding, he grew even more stubborn and unyielding!

Judging by his eyes, he'd rather see things end in mutual destruction than compromise with them.

As the two were troubled, they heard their subordinate report that someone wanted to see them, someone they both "must meet".

Mira and Wagg immediately exchanged a glance.

In the presence of Bai Xiaosheng, that subordinate definitely couldn't exaggerate or speak nonsense.

Does that mean someone from above has come down?

Mira and Wagg's hearts instantly tightened.

"Understood, we'll go there right away. You wait outside for a while!" Mira first dismissed the subordinate who came to inform them.

That subordinate retreated, carefully closing the door.

Wagg turned to Bai Xiaosheng, gently saying, "Mr. Sheng, we have some business to attend to and must leave you for a moment. Just as well, you can take some time to consider, rather than making a rash decision. The matter concerning you has become widely known, and the impact is extremely negative. Even if you can disregard it yourself, you must consider your trade group, your friends who have been tirelessly working for you—how can you leave them behind? And Mr. Hou Yuncheng, who has become thin and haggard because of your situation! This affair, on a larger scale, even affects the reputation of Huaxia people! So you must not act out of impulsiveness! Consider our suggestion carefully—it benefits both you and us!"

Wagg surprisingly "spoke earnestly," advising Bai Xiaosheng.

Mira listened from the side, nodding occasionally, and when Wagg finished, he added, "Indeed, Mr. Bai, this matter is not without room for maneuver! As long as you reach some 'agreement' with us! We can handle the media and all parties, ensuring your losses are minimal!"

Mira felt he had spoken quite directly.

Currently, he was unsure of the situation in the office and eagerly wanted to check.

Wagg felt the same.

The two spoke and were about to leave.

Unexpectedly, Bai Xiaosheng took a quick step and blocked their way.

"No need to rush off; I have something to say." Bai Xiaosheng calmly looked at Mira and Wagg and said, "From the beginning, I thought this sudden disaster was unusual! When I first arrived in Oshan and the donation procedures had no issues, I was somehow caught up in a fraud case."

"Mr. Wagg came to me three times a day, continually using so-called new evidence to 'threaten' me, attempting to persuade me to convince the trade group to cooperate with you."

"Later, the private gift from the Yang Family became so-called 'bribe' evidence—a mere few tens of thousand US dollars worth, yet the public opinion exploded to the heavens. Can you say there's no manipulative force behind this?"

"And now, you're coming to me saying that if I agree to your terms, you can settle everything for me!"

"This doesn't align with the positive image you have always presented to me!"

Bai Xiaosheng finished in one breath and then said, "So can you give me a straight answer, what exactly did I do to offend you two, making you resort to such tactics against me!"

"Or from the start, was it all about the benefit, and you came to frame me!"

Bai Xiaosheng's words made Mira and Wagg exchange a glance.

The two looked at Bai Xiaosheng with deep significance.

"You needn't worry; my phone isn't with me, so there's absolutely no chance for any recording or filming." Bai Xiaosheng spread his hands, sincerely saying, "Whatever the final outcome, I must understand the situation, right?"

Bai Xiaosheng seemed single-minded.

Nevertheless, it truly matched the stubborn nature he had just demonstrated.

Mira and Wagg even found him somewhat ridiculously obstinate.

There was no fourth person in the room, and no recording equipment; they were also eager to return to the office, yet Bai Xiaosheng stubbornly remained like a fool.

Mira smiled and said, "We have never had a personal grudge with you."

Wagg added from the side, "Mr. Bai, some matters are mutually understood, why insist on speaking them so openly."

Seeing the two persist, Bai Xiaosheng directly walked to the door and locked it.

Then, Bai Xiaosheng turned to look at them, calmly saying, "I am a single-minded person! I just want to hear you two 'confess' a bit. Maybe then I will reconsider and cooperate with you! But if you think it's completely unnecessary, treating my questions with disdain—well, that's disrespectful to me! Let me tell you, you won't be leaving here anytime soon!"

Bai Xiaosheng was clearly set on being stubborn.

Mira and Wagg both frowned.

At this moment, there was an important guest in the office that they were eager to see.

Bai Xiaosheng's refusal to let them leave—would they really have to resort to force, break out?

Despite the fact they were two people, they were not necessarily a match for this physically strong young Huaxia man. Moreover, as dignified top officials of Oshan Business Department, fighting with someone—if word got out, would they want to keep their reputation, still dream of surviving in politics?

Wagg glanced at Mira, and his look means distinctly: perhaps it's best to lay cards on the table with him; after all, no outsiders are present, and even if he hears it, no one would believe him if he spreads it.

Chapter 2606 - Extraordinary Visitor (Part 2)

Mira glanced around the room and, seeing no surveillance, approached Bai Xiaosheng.

When she was close enough that no third person could hear, Mira smiled and said—

"Mr. Bai Xiaosheng, since you want to hear it, I'll tell you."

"You are innocent!"

"We are also forced, needing a large amount of business cooperation to secure everyone's jobs in our department!"

"This turmoil can be calmed as long as your Huaxia Business Group offers substantial cooperation!"

"You can rest assured, at present, we can control everything!"

Mira only spoke five sentences.

Bai Xiaosheng listened quietly, nodded slightly, and stepped aside.

Mira expressed her appreciation for Bai Xiaosheng's "keeping promises" and "calm composure" and reached out to unlock the door.

Wagg also came over, smiled at Bai Xiaosheng, and said in a low voice, "Mr. Bai, are you satisfied now?"

Bai Xiaosheng blinked and unexpectedly smiled, "Incredibly satisfied."

"Then please consider our suggestion carefully, and when we return, we hope you can give us a satisfactory answer," Mira said, opening the door and walking out.

Wagg nodded at Bai Xiaosheng and followed her out.

Bai Xiaosheng watched them leave, looked at the door as it slammed shut, and slowly sat back down on the sofa.

Bai Xiaosheng stared straight ahead without blinking, and if one looked closely, they'd see something unusual in his eyes—

There were actually images of Mira and Wagg flickering inside.

"I am truly too satisfied with your response." Bai Xiaosheng muttered.

With Red Lotus, the artificial intelligence, even without any recording equipment, Bai Xiaosheng's eyes could serve as cameras, and his brain as the host. However, such "recording," "conversion," and "output" bring a great burden to his body.

Since knowing that Red Lotus has this function, Bai Xiaosheng had only tried it a little and never really used it.

But this time, under the pressing circumstances, Bai Xiaosheng had no choice but to go all in.

Mira and Wagg thought he was stubborn and obsessed, thinking he just wanted an "answer," but it was only a performance Bai Xiaosheng showed them.

And now, Bai Xiaosheng had the evidence.

Imagine, Mira and Wagg's words and faces exposed to the public, splashed across the media, what an effect it would have!

The current attention to this issue has already peaked, and no development will be overlooked.

This is also the best opportunity for Bai Xiaosheng to fight back.

"I can't be blamed for this, it was you who forced me..." Bai Xiaosheng muttered, "But after this, I must have thoroughly offended Oshan on this side..."

It was not Bai Xiaosheng's intention to cause a department in Oshan great embarrassment.

But, they were out to get him.

So he wouldn't need to hold back!

"Later, just send it directly to Weiwei and Lei Ying. All you need is to release it..." Bai Xiaosheng murmured to himself, raising a hand, forming a fist, then spreading his fingers wide.

"This explosive content will turn everything around!"

At this moment.

Mira and Wagg were on their way back to their office, unaware that just now, they had "released" Bai Xiaosheng and pushed themselves into a mess.

The two were still discussing who exactly this big figure was coming.

The subordinate who came to report only said that it was a high-level official from the Supreme Council, but that person was just the "advance guard."

Judging from this, the person coming must indeed be of significant status!

"We hadn't received any notification before, and now suddenly they're here, it must be for that Bai Xiaosheng," Wagg speculated.

"In the end, the higher-ups can't hold out either, especially since Hou Yuncheng from Huaxia has made multiple solemn negotiations. If this issue continues to escalate, it will affect bilateral relations, a result the higher-ups cannot afford!" Mira also said solemnly.

The two fell silent for a moment.

Mira continued, "No matter who it is from above, I will try to stall them, and you... after meeting them, come back quickly and finalize the result with that Bai Xiaosheng, as long as the matter is settled, there will be no problem!"

Wagg nodded and said seriously, "Rest assured, I will handle this well!"

There is no second chance for them with this matter, both fully aware.

The two inevitably fell silent once again.

Soon, Mira and Wagg arrived at the department building, and as they passed through the entrance they had gone through countless times, a sense of solemnity and weight settled in their hearts.

Finally, they reached the floor of Mige's office.

From a distance, they saw some security personnel standing outside the office.

Even without getting close, it was clear these were battle-hardened elites who had seen blood and taken lives; their eyes exuded a menacing aura from afar.

Their formal wear seemed ordinary, but the fabric was bulletproof.

Most notably, they all wore a golden emblem unique to Oshan on their chests, made of precious metals like gold and silver.

Upon seeing these people, Mira and Wagg's faces changed instantly.

The national-level, top-tier bodyguards of Oshan!

Whoever came must be of even higher status than they imagined!

In the Oshan Chieftaincy, the Supreme Council consists of several chieftains, and among them, only the most revered Supreme Chieftain has the privilege of having this guard!

Furthermore, the Supreme Chieftain's authority is enough to unite any differing opinions and voices.

...

Chapter 2607 - Extraordinary Visitors (Part 3)

Mira and Wagg exchanged a look, then almost broke into a run as they hurried over, not daring to delay even a second.

The guards naturally saw the two of them. Some recognized them and did not block their way, but they also did not step forward to greet them.

Only a high-ranking official at the door, upon seeing them, went up to meet them, nodded slightly, and helped them knock on the door.

"Come in." A warm and gentle voice sounded from inside the office.

Only then did Mira and Wagg push the door open and enter.

They saw that on the sofa in Mira's office, two people were seated.

The one facing the door, whose face could be seen clearly, was none other than Asgar, the son of the Supreme Chieftain; the other person had his back to the door.

The two were drinking coffee. The always stern Asgar actually had a smile on his face, as if he was chatting about something amusing with that person.

The arrival of Mira and Wagg made Asgar stop talking; his smile also faded slightly as he stood up.

The person opposite him also turned his head to look at the two of them and stood up with a smile.

Mira and Wagg gave a hurried glance and saw only that it was a young man, who looked utterly ordinary, without the royal aura that surrounded Asgar.

However, someone who could sit and drink coffee with Asgar, talking and laughing—how could such a person be ordinary?

Mira and Wagg both did not dare show the slightest neglect. Neither of them thought that man was a nobody, and both gave him identical, kindly smiles.

"You two, I'm very sorry to disturb you." Asgar said amiably, apologizing to Mira and Wagg.

After all, Mira and Wagg were the number one and number two of Oshan's Ministry of Commerce, with extremely high status and rank; it was only proper for Asgar to be courteous to them.

His extremely polished etiquette made this son of the Supreme Chieftain appear to have a very good temper, but those who knew him naturally understood that cultivated manners and whether he was easy to get along with were two entirely different matters.

"Mr. Asgar, I didn't expect it would be you—what a failure on our part to come so late to receive you!" Mira said quickly. "Please forgive us!"

Wagg also accompanied her with a smile. "Since you were coming, why didn't you inform us in advance, so that we could have made some preparations."

In the face of their courteous words, Asgar merely said mildly, "I also just received the message and came straight over."

Hearing this, Mira and Wagg couldn't help but feel their hearts tighten.

"May I ask, Your personal visit—what matter is it concerning?" Mira quickly ventured.

Asgar did not conceal anything and said bluntly, "The recent commotion has begun to affect our relationship with Huaxia. My father's view is that there must be a result as soon as possible; all the chieftains share this view."

Mira and Wagg's hearts clenched.

"As for how to handle this, does the Supreme Chieftain have any instructions?" Wagg asked cautiously.

The attitude of the Supreme Chieftain was the most crucial, gripping the hearts of the two of them.

Before Asgar could speak, the young man beside him presumptuously cut in, "Immediately release Bai Xiaosheng, apologize to him and to the Huaxia people, and calm the media storm."

This answer made Mira and Wagg's hearts sink.

"That... wouldn't be good. That Bai Xiaosheng is a problematic person, and the matter has blown up so much..." Mira naturally did not wish to agree.

Wagg, however, looked at the young man and tentatively asked, "And you are...?"

This young man looked unfamiliar to them, yet somehow vaguely familiar.

Before the young man could speak, Asgar raised his voice and said, "He is my younger brother. This time, he is the one conveying the will of the Supreme Chieftain; I am merely accompanying him."

These words gave Mira and Wagg a tremendous shock.

Mira stared at the young man in astonishment and said, "You... you are the one studying abroad—Mr. Awak Wak Lakla."

Hearing such a tongue-twisting name, the young man seemed to get a bit of a headache, but he still forced a smile and said, "Perhaps you can call me by my Chinese name; it's easier to remember. I'm called Chen Feiqiu."

Chapter 2608 - Luckily I Arrived in Time

The son of the Supreme Chieftain, Awak Wak Lakla, or as he should be called according to his request, "Chen Feiqiu," his affairs are known by both Mira and Wagg.

Although Asgar is the eldest son, yet from the moment Chen Feiqiu was born, he was surrounded by an aura, as his birthdate coincided with that of a prophet from several hundred years ago!

This has led to the calls for his succession ceaselessly echoing since his infancy, and even the education Asgar has received all along has been aimed at assisting him.

But contrary to expectations, Mr. Awak Wak Lakla is particularly "rebellious," having traveled abroad in modest anonymity for so many years, causing Mira and Wagg not to recognize him at first.

Having learned of Chen Feiqiu's background, Mira and Wagg were no longer doubtful about his personal arrival and his spoken words, "release the person, apologize, and calm the tide."

Those words certainly define the final decision!

This means there's absolutely no room for maneuvering or "manipulation" for the two of them in this matter.

No matter how much they have done before, no matter how close they were, they almost had Bai Xiaosheng bow his head and achieve the redemption they sought.

A tiny margin separates heaven from hell.

It was precisely because of that margin that made Mira and Wagg feel particularly unwilling.

"Gentlemen, although this decision is from the Supreme Chieftain, it is truly difficult for us to explain this to the public, and it's hard to account for to the media! If mishandled, it may lead to major domestic protests! After all, Bai Xiaosheng, in the eyes of the outside, gravely harmed the commercial interests of our country! We must give the public an explanation, which is also to uphold the order of Oshan and maintain the prestige of the Supreme Chieftain!"

Mira simply put everything on the line, appearing loyal and devoted, and pleaded fiercely.

At this point, Wagg naturally couldn't fall behind either.

After all, the two were in the same boat, living and dying together, advancing and retreating together.

Wagg echoed, "Yes, gentlemen, currently that Huaxia person Bai Xiaosheng is considering exchanging cooperation between their business team and us to calm the storm! As long as we achieve this result, we will have something to explain to the public! From Huaxia's side, there's no reason for them to continue to be aggressive! Otherwise, our economic loss is secondary, but the loss of public trust is immeasurable!"

The two emphasized national interest and the honor of the Supreme Chieftain, "enabling them with reasoning," persuading Asgar and Chen Feiqiu.

Asgar frowned and said, "So, what you mean is not to execute the decision of the Supreme Chieftain and other chieftains, and report back to them like this?"

Mira and Wagg didn't dare accept such heavy responsibility and immediately shook their heads like rattle drums.

They weren't seeking to persuade these two people but merely seeking a little more time.

"That's not what we mean! The decision of the Supreme Chieftain must ultimately be implemented... No, it must be carried out shortly!"

"It's just, can we delay for two... no, just one hour, in that case, Bai Xiaosheng can present a reconciliation method, and we can use this opportunity to step down gracefully, giving a proper account both above and below, wouldn't that be perfect for everybody!"

The two hurriedly conveyed this layer of meaning to the sons of the two chieftains.

If they truly could proceed like this, they'd achieve what they wanted, and would not lose their jobs when reporting after the storm...

Asgar glanced at Chen Feiqiu, seemingly asking him with his eyes.

Chen Feiqiu shrugged slightly and said to Asgar, "I'll go meet Bai Xiaosheng first, you handle things here."

Asgar nodded with a smile and said, "Go ahead, I'll play the bad guy, you be the good guy."

Mira and Wagg immediately felt a tightness in their hearts.

If Bai Xiaosheng discovers Chen Feiqiu's identity and intentions, things would change, and their efforts would go down the drain.

"Mr. Chen Feiqiu... You don't need to personally meet Bai Xiaosheng, considering your status! I'll bring him to you!" Wagg busily smiled at Chen Feiqiu.

Regardless of whether the two agree to their suggestions, Wagg's intention was to go over and coerce Bai Xiaosheng into compliance.

As long as Bai Xiaosheng signed some documents, it would be settled, and Huaxia would have to acknowledge it, and the sons of the two chieftains would have nothing to dispute.

Even if engaging with Bai Xiaosheng took up some time, it would've pushed the issue onto Bai Xiaosheng.

Wagg thought this plan was perfect.

"Yes indeed, Mr. Chen Feiqiu, just let Mr. Wagg go and bring the person here, after all, he is just a businessman, no need for you to personally go meet him." Mira also smiled and chimed in, knowing well what Wagg was plotting.

Chen Feiqiu simply smiled at them.

"I appreciate both of your good intentions, but I prefer to meet him in person. After all, he is my friend. When in Huaxia, he even saved my life!"

The words from Chen Feiqiu stunned the smiles of Mira and Wagg instantly.

Was Bai Xiaosheng, a friend of Chen Feiqiu?

He even saved Chen Feiqiu!

Saved the future Supreme Chieftain!

Based solely on this, Bai Xiaosheng could receive the highest level of amnesty, not to mention, he has committed no wrong...

Once the public knew he was the benefactor of the future Supreme Chieftain, their attitude would change...

Mira and Wagg were seemingly dumbfounded.

Chen Feiqiu looked at them, then at Asgar, smiled lightly, and stepped towards the door.

Mira and Wagg didn't even react, nor had the time to say a word, before he had already left.

As the door closed, Asgar walked up to the two and looked at them meaningfully, saying in a low voice, "Gentlemen, you thought you were acting cleverly, but since the very first day, the highest council has known the truth! You really shouldn't have caused this matter to turn into such an unmanageable situation as it is now! I pity your deeds!"

Chapter 2609 - Fortunately, I Arrived in Time (Part 2)

Mira and Wagg heard this and couldn't help but have their eyes contract, a hint of fear appearing in their gaze.

"I believe in the entire matter, you were momentarily confused. You should voluntarily resign, then serve a year and a half in prison, and there won't be more serious consequences," Asgar said. "This also serves as Oshan's explanation to Huaxia!"

Lost their job, and also had to go to prison.

Mira and Wagg immediately felt weak and exhausted.

Asgar continued, "Did you really think that Huaxia's business leader would allow someone to tarnish their reputation at will, and then just bow down to keep the peace? Do you realize that the directive Huaxia has given us has used such severe language as 'this is intolerable'? You failed to handle this appropriately! No matter the initial false accusations against Bai Xiaosheng, if at that time you could have persuaded him to agree to cooperate, cleared his 'injustice', and even promoted him, everyone would have been happy! But you didn't and instead let the media make this such a big issue!"

"This is seeking your own doom!"

Asgar finished, sighed, shook his head, and started to walk out, his voice drifting off, "The people who will replace you will arrive soon, make sure to hand over everything properly. Don't make any more mistakes, otherwise, it won't just be a mere year and a half in prison!"

Asgar spoke while leaving the office, the door slammed shut with a bang, the sound shook Mira and Wagg's hearts into disorder.

The two each found a seat, slumped down, their faces pale as paper, as if all the strength in their bodies had been drained, as if they had no bones left.

They thought they had set up a trap, thinking they were in control, clearly overestimating themselves and underestimating the true person in power...

If they succeed, everyone would be happy, but they take the blame...

If they fail, both sides reconcile, yet they still take the blame...

...

When Chen Feiqiu appeared in front of Bai Xiaosheng, Bai Xiaosheng was truly taken aback, surprised to see this guy here.

"Surprised, aren't you?"

Chen Feiqiu grinned cheekily, spreading his hands and teasing Bai Xiaosheng.

"I really didn't expect you to come!" Bai Xiaosheng admitted his surprise with a big laugh.

"You once saved me, it's my turn to save you now," Chen Feiqiu chuckled. "It's my fault, I ran to East Africa a few days ago to get some local specialties for you and just got back yesterday. But on the way, I heard the news about you. Tsk tsk, it's blown up quite a bit!"

Chen Feiqiu spoke with a teasing tone.

This guy being here shows his background is extraordinary, no need to say more.

Bai Xiaosheng didn't rush to ask, instead, he smiled bitterly, "If I said I was wrongly accused, would you believe it?"

"Of course you were wronged; it was those two bastards Mira and Wagg causing trouble. I've investigated it thoroughly," Chen Feiqiu laughed. "I said I'd host you at home, didn't expect you to suffer injustice on my side, that's on me."

For Chen Feiqiu to be able to get here, to scold Mira and Wagg casually, and to frequently mention "home", his background is almost evident.

"Which one of the great chieftains of Oshan is your father, Chen Feiqiu?" Bai Xiaosheng asked.

Chen Feiqiu chuckled and pointed upward, "The highest one."

Supreme Chieftain!

Bai Xiaosheng couldn't help but marvel.

"You're Awak Wak Lakla, aren't you?" Bai Xiaosheng asked.

He had even found this name and searched for photos before.

But back then, Chen Feiqiu was darker and less plump than now.

It seems that during his years in Huaxia, Chen Feiqiu not only gained weight, but also became lighter...

"Just call me Chen Feiqiu, that name is too clumsy," Chen Feiqiu laughed.

Bai Xiaosheng heard this and burst out laughing.

"So, how should my matter be handled, future Supreme Chieftain?" Bai Xiaosheng asked again.

"The first thing I did upon returning was to see my father, to tell him of the kindness you showed me. He is a person who values gratitude the most. Just because you saved me, even if wrong, you would be protected. Moreover, you were framed. My father said to release you, apologize to Huaxia, calm the storm, and incidentally investigate Mira and Wagg, holding them accountable for the public. Anyway, they wouldn't have passed the supreme council's performance review," Chen Feiqiu said lightly yet one couldn't help but marvel at the power of the Supreme Chieftain of Oshan.

Bai Xiaosheng nodded.

"Actually, to be honest with you, the upper echelons of Oshan knew you were wronged, they just didn't expect Mira and their audacity to make such a big mess! Oshan's economy has been sluggish in recent years, and the top brass wanted to collaborate massively with the Huaxia Business Group, that's why they turned a blind eye to Mira and Wagg's antics! But they would definitely give an account to Huaxia Business Group afterwards, those two wouldn't escape!" Chen Feiqiu revealed to Bai Xiaosheng, speaking frankly.

Bai Xiaosheng sighed softly, "Those two worked in vain, ultimately not understanding their own weight."

The Huaxia-experienced Chen Feiqiu used a more fitting phrase, "Machination and excessive cleverness end up harming your own life."

Chen Feiqiu then laughed and said, "Now they should know what they're facing. My brother Asgar will explain it to them clearly, he'll play the bad guy, while I come here to play the good guy with you."

Bai Xiaosheng felt this guy still loved to joke around.

But then, Bai Xiaosheng suddenly thought of something, urgently said, "Find my phone, quickly, if we're late, it'll be disastrous!"

Chapter 2610 - Fortunately, I Arrived in Time

Bai Xiaosheng handed over the video evidence of Mira and Wagg to Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying, asking them to disseminate it.

Although Chen Feiqiu didn't know Bai Xiaosheng's purpose, seeing him so urgent, he quickly called his subordinates outside to bring Bai Xiaosheng's phone as quickly as possible.

Bai Xiaosheng took the phone and immediately called Lin Weiwei.

Afraid of being late.

"Xiaosheng, did they return your phone?" Lin Weiwei exclaimed with surprise when the call connected.

"Weiwei, have you sent out the items I gave you?" Bai Xiaosheng went straight to the point, having no time for chit-chat.

Lin Weiwei was direct as well, "Right away! Just hold on, we'll send it immediately! We've already gotten the emails of editors from over a dozen major media outlets; the mail is ready, just need to click send."

"Don't send it! Pause! Do not perform any operation!" Bai Xiaosheng shouted urgently.

Beside him, Chen Feiqiu watched Bai Xiaosheng with curiosity, uncertain of what Bai Xiaosheng wanted Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying to send, or why he was so fervently calling for a stop.

On the other side of the phone, Lin Weiwei was also startled, but quickly understood and yelled stop as well, seemingly speaking to Lei Ying nearby.

After calling for the halt, Lin Weiwei puzzledly asked Bai Xiaosheng, "Xiaosheng, has the plan changed?"

Lin was thinking Bai Xiaosheng might have found a better use for those items than handing them to the media.

She didn't doubt that at all.

After all, Bai Xiaosheng managed to get Mira and Wagg to admit their slander against him, record it, and sent it to their inbox even under isolation, achieving a string of impossibles.

Adding more impossibilities wouldn't surprise Lin Weiwei.

Hearing Lin Weiwei's question, Bai Xiaosheng looked at Chen Feiqiu beside him and smiled, "It's no longer necessary to send those items."

"What do you mean?" Lin Weiwei asked in visible amazement over the phone.

"My trouble is resolved, I've encountered an acquaintance here," Bai Xiaosheng said with a smile.

"Acquaintance?" Lin Weiwei was stunned even more.

Bai Xiaosheng's trouble resolved, acquaintance?

What old friendship ties does Oshan have that are so powerful?

Lin Weiwei couldn't think of any.

"Hey, Weiwei, how are you? It's me, Chen Feiqiu! Dinner tonight, I'll treat you all!"

Chen Feiqiu leaned beside Bai Xiaosheng, greeting with a smile.

"Ah, Chen Feiqiu? How come he's there Xiaosheng, he..." Lin Weiwei became somewhat tongue-tied.

Ultimately, Lin Weiwei asked in shock and suspicion, "Can he help you resolve your trouble?"

Bai Xiaosheng glanced at Chen Feiqiu and said with a smile, "He is the Chen Feiqiu you all know, also the son of the Supreme Chieftain of Oshan Chieftaincy, Mr. Asgar's brother, whose real name is Awak Wak Lakla!"

Lin Weiwei was completely flabbergasted on the other end of the line.

Bai Xiaosheng could also hear Lei Ying's exclamation of surprise.

There was no time to explain now. Anyway, Chen Feiqiu was going to host them for dinner, and they could talk then; Bai Xiaosheng wrapped up the call with a few instructions.

Chen Feiqiu curiously asked Bai Xiaosheng, "What exactly did you want them to stop?"

With a smile, Bai Xiaosheng told Chen Feiqiu about Mira and Wagg's admission to framing him, and the video he was prepared to release.

Chen Feiqiu was taken aback, looking at Bai Xiaosheng in disbelief.

Bai Xiaosheng could grasp the critical evidence amid such circumstances, yet those fools knew nothing!

Luckily, he stopped it in time, or else Oshan's political face would be lost before the media!

Who would care about Bai Xiaosheng then, a stir of uncertainty could cause endless trouble and loss.

Chen Feiqiu remarked with lingering fear, "Lucky I arrived in time! Otherwise, all of Oshan would pay for wronging you!"