

Two Trillion 2611

Chapter 2611 - Cleared of All Charges

At noon, all official media of Oshan Chieftaincy simultaneously released a major announcement.

Previously, while Mira and Wagg dared to incite numerous domestic media to collectively voice and slander Bai Xiaosheng, they never dared to borrow the official voice.

Because its significance is completely different!

They also do not dare.

This time, Oshan's official media released a series of announcements—

The announcement stated that, after verification by Oshan's Supreme Council, the allegations of "fraud" and "bribery" involving Bai Xiaosheng of Huaxia Business Group are unsubstantiated!

Bai Xiaosheng has not violated any laws of Oshan.

The Bai Xiaosheng incident is a conspiracy by an international commercial fraud group, with Yang Xiaoyun of Yang Corporation having personal grievances against Bai Xiaosheng, suspected of taking the opportunity to falsely accuse him, and is currently detained!

The announcement also stated that the highest officials of the commerce department, Mira and Wagg, had serious negligence, significant oversights in their work, leading to a series of preventable problems occurring one after another, causing immeasurable reputational damage to the Huaxia Business Group and Bai Xiaosheng personally, adversely affecting relations between the two countries, and they will be dismissed and prosecuted.

The entire commerce department will collectively step down!

Finally, the announcement solemnly declared that the relationship with Huaxia is their most cherished and valued, not allowing anyone to desecrate or smear it!

Not only that, the official media also released a piece of news unrelated to this event but equally eye-catching—

Huaxia Commercial Delegation Leader Bai Xiaosheng once saved the son of the Supreme Chieftain, Mr. Awak Wak Lakla, is a good friend of Oshan Chieftaincy, and even in times of difficulty, he never thought of using this relationship to extricate himself from trouble, and he cooperated with requirements during the investigation, abiding by Oshan's laws, and decided to award him an honor medal.

The release of this news by Oshan official media not only exonerated Bai Xiaosheng from charges and suspicions, but also soothed the public, while elevating Bai Xiaosheng's image.

In an instant, major Oshan domestic media unanimously shifted their stance and began to lavish praises on Bai Xiaosheng.

Various medium and small media also didn't want to lag behind, scrambling to report.

It can be said, where media previously wanted to dig dirt on Bai Xiaosheng, now they want to praise this Eastern friend...

Various publicity, pervasive...

The Huaxia high-level came forward timely, expressing appreciation for Oshan's fair, timely, and effective investigation to clarify facts, stating that Huaxia and Oshan have been friends for years, hoping to advance hand-in-hand, planning to organize another wave of business inspection delegation to visit Oshan in the second half of the year, to enhance bilateral friendship...

Bai Xiaosheng received the statement issued by Oshan official media while dining with Chen Feiqiu in the Oshan commerce department's restaurant.

Of course, the food wasn't prepared by the department cafeteria's chef but brought in by Asgar's top chef, with materials also brought along, borrowing just a venue.

Asgar originally intended to accompany them as a sign of respect, but was dismissed by Chen Feiqiu.

After all, dining alone with Bai Xiaosheng allows for unrestricted conversation, speaking freely.

Asgar naturally agreed to the request and returned alone.

In the department cafeteria, just Bai Xiaosheng and Chen Feiqiu were there, with a table filled with fine wine and gourmet food, looking sumptuous and spectacular, its aroma tantalizing, making one's mouth water.

The two didn't sit but held wine glasses with one hand and chopsticks with the other, eating and chatting along the way.

Having studied in Huaxia for many years, Chen Feiqiu used chopsticks more skillfully than Bai Xiaosheng.

The two disregarded appearance, eating and laughing, even the serving staff witnessing this scene had strange looks, but dared not criticize Chen Feiqiu, the son of the Supreme Chieftain.

After reading the statement copy, Bai Xiaosheng set it aside, laughingly told Chen Feiqiu, "With this sort of promotion, I feel like a heroic figure, and it's somewhat overwhelming."

Chen Feiqiu laughed heartily, "You did save the son of the Supreme Chieftain and indeed suffered an undeserved injustice... With these matters in black and white, where is the exaggeration? It's all truthfully spoken, you can comfortably accept it. I estimate you'll soon become a popular figure among Oshan's public, these days, you shouldn't go out unnecessarily to avoid being mobbed by Oshan beauties. I also instructed the media to avoid disturbing our Oshan friend."

Facing the tease, Bai Xiaosheng rolled his eyes.

"By the way, my father also wishes to meet you to express his gratitude personally," said Chen Feiqiu, "My father has been in poor health recently, hence not promptly attending to this matter; otherwise, he wouldn't have allowed some people to run wild."

The Supreme Chieftain wishes to meet!

Upon hearing this news, even Bai Xiaosheng couldn't help but click his tongue.

"The meeting is set for tonight, a banquet at the palace," Chen Feiqiu continued.

"So when you mentioned inviting Weiwei and Lei Ying for dinner, that was the implication. Is it suitable for them to attend?" Bai Xiaosheng inquired.

Bai Xiaosheng was not doubting Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying's stature but was concerned that some Oshan high-level individuals might mind, causing unnecessary disputes.

"There's nothing inappropriate about it; you are my friend, and so are they. This isn't an official banquet, but a private family feast," Chen Feiqiu said nonchalantly.

"That's good, then I thank the Supreme Chieftain for the invitation on their behalf," Bai Xiaosheng replied.

After eating some dishes and drinking some wine, Bai Xiaosheng suddenly looked up.

"By the way, I know your Oshan needs more commercial cooperation to drive economic development; in this regard, I can indeed lend a small hand," Bai Xiaosheng said, "There are some super families in Europe and America with whom I have substantial connections, and I can help establish bridges. Additionally, over in Huaxia, I have many strong corporate allies."

Chapter 2612 - Cleared of Charges (Part 2)

Listening to Bai Xiaosheng, Chen Feiqiu immediately perked up.

"That's great. You should talk with my father tonight. Hmm, if your friend can help out, doesn't that mean I'm contributing to Oshan as well? I definitely have to ask my father for a reward!"

Chen Feiqiu chuckled.

This guy is sometimes serious, sometimes not, quite like Milo.

Bai Xiaosheng shook his head in amusement.

However, thinking of Milo, Bai Xiaosheng's mind wandered, and he couldn't help but ask, "The Yang Family of West Africa is within your territory, and most of their business too. I've also heard that Anlos and Brady, renowned figures in the business world, frequently visit Oshan. Supposedly, you shouldn't lack business here."

Bai Xiaosheng's remark led to a cold hum from Chen Feiqiu, who sneered, "I've looked into those people as well. Actually, Oshan has been in continuous negotiations with them, but those two giants have great patience. They've noticed our eagerness for development and have intentionally slowed down the progress, clearly trying to stretch us for maximum profit! Our political high-ups are very annoyed by this but have no choice. They've pinned hopes on the Huaxia Business Group to break through the negotiations with them. See, those businessmen who are as rich as nations sometimes even the government has to tolerate them a bit!"

Bai Xiaosheng listened and felt a sense of admiration.

Chen Feiqiu took two big gulps of wine, suppressing his frustration, and then seemed to think of something. He paused his chopsticks, smiled at Bai Xiaosheng.

"Hey, hey! I know something related to you that's quite interesting! Want to hear it?"

"What is it?" Bai Xiaosheng asked curiously, looking at Chen Feiqiu.

This guy seemed a bit overly excited.

"There's a woman named Lisa, an outsourced senior manager of LLK Company; you know her, right?" Chen Feiqiu said with a grin.

Bai Xiaosheng nodded.

This woman he remembered, and quite vividly.

Frankly, between you and her, is there some emotional entanglement? Did you do something 'bad' but don't want to take responsibility, and dumped her...?" Chen Feiqiu used a knowing male expression and chuckled.

Bai Xiaosheng's face darkened, "Are you 'Chen Shimei', can you speak properly? What nonsense is this!"

Being well-versed in Huaxia, Chen Feiqiu knew what "Chen Shimei" meant, and laughed, "Just joking, why so serious? Just joking. I just find it quite strange. If it's not a love debt, how come a woman does that to you."

Chen Feiqiu's words made Bai Xiaosheng even more curious.

"What exactly happened to Lisa?" Bai Xiaosheng asked.

Chen Feiqiu then got to the point, "According to investigations by the highest council, this woman is close to Wagg, his nephew Alger, and even the Yang Family's Yang Xiaoyun. Speaking of which, let me interject, Wagg we dealt with, he's a public official, and that Mira. As for Yang Xiaoyun, accused of slander, is detained by the authorities. About Alger, sorry, the high-ups feel he shouldn't be touched because his family is large, and their business is vast; we need stable business partners. Someone will step in to use Alger as a bargaining chip, to have a good talk with his father."

When it involves interests, acting like this is quite common, Bai Xiaosheng wasn't surprised.

"Of course, if you use your power to teach Alger a lesson, Oshan will certainly not interfere, I'd be the first to cheer." Chen Feiqiu checked around and whispered to Bai Xiaosheng.

Bai Xiaosheng was more concerned about the matter related to "Lisa" mentioned by Chen Feiqiu.

"You should talk about that woman again. From what you implied, it seems that this woman is deeply involved in these events." Bai Xiaosheng squinted slightly and murmured, "I'm intrigued too!"

As for Oshan's top officials being able to investigate to this extent, Bai Xiaosheng was not surprised.

After all, for a nation's highest authority to thoroughly investigate a matter or a person is incredibly easy.

Chen Feiqiu returned to the topic about Lisa.

"There are signs that your series of encounters, including Wagg and others' framing and the Yang Family's accusations against you later, are related to her. In hindsight, this woman is practically the mastermind behind the scheme!"

Chen Feiqiu's words made Bai Xiaosheng's eyes sharpen.

This incident was almost a death trap for him, such things couldn't be plotted out without deep-seated hatred.

So, Chen Feiqiu suspected Bai Xiaosheng emotionally hurt her.

Chen Feiqiu tentatively asked, "Seriously, you didn't emotionally hurt her...?"

Bai Xiaosheng snapped out of it, mocking, "Nonsense, I only knew Lisa when I arrived in Karan, how could I have any entanglement with her."

"Speaking of..." Bai Xiaosheng contemplated, "I did have some business friction with her in Karan, but certainly not to this extent..."

Bai Xiaosheng suddenly paused, recalling Milo mentioned the woman gave him advice for a heroic rescue, almost causing friction between both sides.

Chen Feiqiu watched Bai Xiaosheng in a daze and asked, "What are you thinking?"

Bai Xiaosheng snapped back, laughed, "This woman is really interesting, from Karan to Oshan, she's secretly tripping me up, and I haven't noticed it at all!"

Chen Feiqiu watched Bai Xiaosheng, took a big gulp of wine, muttered, "In this world, there's no love without reason, nor hatred without reason... what exactly did you do to her."

Chapter 2613 - Clearing the Charges (Part 3)

Bai Xiaosheng was at a loss for words regarding Chen Feiqiu's point of interest.

"How about I get someone to look into her thoroughly?" Chen Feiqiu suggested.

"No need for that," Bai Xiaosheng shook his head.

Personal vendetta, definitely not, but if it's not a personal grudge, could it be a public feud?

Bai Xiaosheng couldn't help but murmur, "Is she from LLK Company?"

In Bai Xiaosheng's mind, he swiftly searched for all the internet information about this company, which was as easy as pie for him.

After a moment, Bai Xiaosheng squinted slightly.

LLK Company is controlled by a big corporation, and behind this corporation is a small consortium, which surprisingly has significant ties with the family Caroline is part of.

It's a branch of the Caroline Family.

Looking at it step by step like this, it became completely clear!

"So that's it!" Bai Xiaosheng understood.

That Lisa is most likely Caroline's person!

I made it impossible for Caroline to have political ties, obstructing the group's interests. This kind of grudge that ruins one's future is irreconcilable.

In this way, Lisa's actions can be explained!

Chen Feiqiu, seeing that Bai Xiaosheng seemed to have figured something out, immediately asked, "Did you figure it out?"

"I figured it out," Bai Xiaosheng's eyes were clear as he nodded.

"What did you figure out?" Chen Feiqiu, with a gossiping look, pressed on.

"I'm going to have dinner at your place tonight, I need to bring a gift for the Supreme Chieftain," Bai Xiaosheng responded evasively, "Yang Xiaoyun gave me some gifts before, some of which have a strong Huaxia flavor, they're genuinely good things, just right for re-gifting. I need to go back and retrieve them from someone else."

Chen Feiqiu, with a baffled look, stood there stunned.

Since Bai Xiaosheng didn't want to say more, Chen Feiqiu naturally didn't press further.

The two chatted about other things, enjoying their drinks and food, feeling quite at ease.

After finishing the meal, Bai Xiaosheng bid farewell to Chen Feiqiu. He needed to return, as the business group only knew he was fine but hadn't yet seen him.

Chen Feiqiu understood and immediately arranged a car to take Bai Xiaosheng back.

He also needed to report back to his father.

In the car on the way back, Bai Xiaosheng's phone suddenly rang.

The call was from Lin Weiwei.

"I'm on my way back, what's up, are you guys anxious? Don't get too excited when we meet," Bai Xiaosheng thought Lin Weiwei was asking where he was, still wanting to tease the girl a bit.

"Mr. Bai, Miss Yang Yishan wants to see you, along with Mr. Yang Junluo."

On the phone, Lin Weiwei said earnestly, obviously having someone else nearby.

Hearing the names Yang Yishan and Yang Junluo, Bai Xiaosheng's smile slightly faded.

Bai Xiaosheng wasn't a petty person, but if someone wanted to harm him—to the extent of ruining his reputation—he couldn't just let it go.

It was clear why Yang Yishan and Yang Junluo wanted to see him.

To plead for Yang Xiaoyun!

Right now, Yang Xiaoyun was detained, accused of attempting to frame him, the leader of the Huaxia Commercial Delegation.

Whether Bai Xiaosheng forgave or pursued the matter had entirely different consequences for Yang Xiaoyun.

The Yang Family knew this as well, which is why they were rushing to plead for mercy.

"Weiwei, tell them I won't see them," Bai Xiaosheng said.

"Alright, understood!" Lin Weiwei promptly responded.

After hanging up, Bai Xiaosheng fell into deep thought.

Because of this matter, should he completely sever ties with the Yang Family?

It's heard that people like Dong Tianlu would rather bear losses than continue collaborations with the Yang Family. The daily losses are real money.

Even if Bai Xiaosheng despised the Yang Family's duplicity, how could he let his side suffer losses, especially when Dong Tianlu and others went all out to help him this time?

Bai Xiaosheng sat silently for a long time, exhaling a heavy breath, reaching for the phone.

But at that moment, a call came in.

Bai Xiaosheng thought it might be the persistent Yang Family, but upon seeing the number, he was taken aback.

"Sir Wei?!" Bai Xiaosheng was surprised, "Could it be that Yang Junluo asked him to intercede?"

Then, Bai Xiaosheng muttered to himself, "Even if that's the case, shouldn't I get some comfort for the grievances I've suffered, like reducing Xuelian's years in her term as Family Head?"

Chapter 2614 - A Heart of Mercy

During the days Bai Xiaosheng was trapped in Oshan, many prominent Huaxia families, including the Wei Family, Bai Family, Luo Family, and Qin Family, all rallied to support Bai Xiaosheng.

Among them, the Wei Family was the most resolute in attitude and took the strongest actions.

If Bai Xiaosheng were truly involved in Oshan's media storm and faced a disaster of destruction, the Wei Family would spare no costs to help him out of trouble.

From this point of view, the Wei Family indeed treated Bai Xiaosheng as one of their own.

Bai Xiaosheng was deeply moved after knowing this.

At this moment, a call came in from Wei Tianhe, presumably knowing that Bai Xiaosheng was out of danger.

Before answering the call, Bai Xiaosheng actually felt a bit guilty; he should have called the old man first to assure him of his safety.

When the call connected, a bright and vigorous voice came from the other side, full of care.

"Sheng, is everything resolved?"

This simple and straightforward question was filled with endless concern.

Bai Xiaosheng felt warm in his heart and smiled, "It's all resolved, Sir Wei."

"That's good, good!" Wei Tianhe laughed heartily, "Actually, I've already learned about your situation from the news, thinking perhaps you might still need to go through some procedures, or it might be too early to catch you on the phone, so I didn't call you."

"No, no, I should have been the one to call you!" Bai Xiaosheng hurriedly said, "It's my fault! A friend pulled me aside to catch up, and I lost track of time, I'm still not back at the Business Group's residence."

Bai Xiaosheng apologized sincerely, while Wei Tianhe didn't mind and laughed, "For you not even having time to return to the Business Group, that friend of yours must be someone very extraordinary. The news mentioned it should be the son of Oshan's Supreme Chieftain, what's his name—Awak Wak Lakla."

"It's him." Bai Xiaosheng confirmed.

Wei Tianhe laughed, "Then naturally, you were too preoccupied to attend to anything else. I say you, kid, really are lucky, to actually have done a favor for Oshan's Supreme Chieftain; I imagine you won't have any trouble in Oshan in the future!"

This statement is by no means an exaggeration; as long as Bai Xiaosheng doesn't commit any unforgivable acts that harm Oshan in the future, he will be Oshan's most honored guest.

Bai Xiaosheng humbly replied with a few words.

After finishing this conversation, Wei Tianhe continued, "Just now, that old thing Yang Junluo called me."

Bai Xiaosheng was somewhat expecting this and promptly responded, "It's about Yang Xiaoyun, isn't it."

Wei Tianhe laughed cheerfully, "Correct, it's indeed about him."

Wei Tianhe continued, "That old thing Yang Junluo was quite straightforward, telling me his son Yang Xiaoyun had issues with you in business, and in his remorse, he colluded with outsiders to claim the gift he sent you as a commercial bribe, causing you unjust suffering. Upon learning this, he was extremely angry and immediately contacted the Huaxia side to report the matter and suspended all of Yang Xiaoyun's duties. He said he originally wanted to testify for you."

"Then I really should thank Old Mr. Yang." Bai Xiaosheng said.

"Hmph, that old thing, his words are not completely truthful, half true, half false." Wei Tianhe snorted.

Calling him an old thing repeatedly, it seems Wei Tianhe was quite annoyed with Yang Junluo.

"I've heard that Yang Xiaoyun has already been taken away by the corresponding departments in Oshan, on suspicion of framing the Huaxia Business Group leader, who is also the benefactor of the Supreme Chieftain's son, estimating that the punishment will be severe, a few years in prison would be considered light! Yang Junluo now comes to me begging for his son, asking me to ask you to let Yang Xiaoyun off." Wei Tianhe said, "Sheng, what do you think about this matter? How are you going to handle it?"

Wei Tianhe spoke, and Bai Xiaosheng naturally said, "If not for your call, I would not ask Oshan to heavily punish Yang Xiaoyun, but I would certainly ignore Yang Family's plea."

Bai Xiaosheng's tone shifted, "But for your word, I'd be willing to speak a few words on Yang Xiaoyun's behalf."

As Bai Xiaosheng said this, he also mused to himself: Old man, even without your call, I would give the Yang Family some face, at least to trade some benefits for Dong Tianlu and the others, but wouldn't let Yang Xiaoyun off lightly, he'd need to suffer a bit, teach Yang Family a lesson!

Wei Tianhe seemed quite pleased to hear Bai Xiaosheng say that.

"Good child, I know you've been wronged in this matter." Wei Tianhe said on the phone, "To be honest, I too am annoyed with that old thing Yang Junluo, don't fancy his two sons. But after all... I have decades of friendship with that old thing, and can't really bear to ignore his plea. Of course, we must not suffer any loss for the sake of us men! I told Yang Family's old thing that me speaking on his behalf is just one side, he also has to convince you! So, you can name your price with Yang Family, don't be too polite!"

Since Wei Tianhe said it like this, Bai Xiaosheng naturally agreed.

"However, Sir Wei..." After finishing the business talk, Bai Xiaosheng's tone slightly changed, a bit as if he's sweet-talking, "With your word, my grudges dissipate, but truthfully, I felt really wronged, and I know our Wei Family has been truly good to me this time, I've kept it in my heart. But don't you think some extra incentive would be appropriate, as a consolation for my injured little soul..."

Knowing what kind of person Wei Tianhe is, Bai Xiaosheng's manner of speaking already gave him an inkling, causing him to laugh and scold, "You rascal, have you already planned this, thinking to sell me the old man a favor, and then exchange for some leniency in Xuelian's Family Head term reduction."

With a chuckle, Bai Xiaosheng replied, "You are wise, clever and astute, alive wizard, rival of Zhuge..."

"Enough, enough, cut out the flattery!" Wei Tianhe feigned anger but laughed, "You've brought business to my doorstep, well done! Since I mentioned it, and you've indeed had a hard time, here's what I'll do: I'll reduce Xuelian's Family Head term by five years for you."

Chapter 2615 - A Benevolent Heart (Part 2)

Wei Tianhe opened by suggesting reducing Wei Xuelian's term as family head by five years, truly feeling for his granddaughter and her future husband.

Bai Xiaosheng was overjoyed but joked, "Only five years, maybe reduce it by two more."

"Kid, don't push your luck!" Wei Tianhe laughed and scolded, "Alright, we've talked enough, I need to take a nap now, I'm hanging up."

Bai Xiaosheng immediately said sincerely, "Sir Wei, have a good rest."

As the call ended, a smile appeared on Bai Xiaosheng's lips, feeling unprecedentedly comfortable these days.

...

Soon, the car Bai Xiaosheng was in arrived at the business group's residence.

Downstairs, the members of the Huaxia Business Group were already waiting, eagerly anticipating his return.

Among the waiting crowd were Yang Junluo and Yang Yishan.

From afar, Bai Xiaosheng saw through the car window, smiles beaming on the faces of the business group members.

He also saw how everyone was ignoring the Yang Family grandfather and grandson duo.

Yang Junluo, the former head of a huge financial group, now appeared so humble with his smile at this moment.

Even Yang Yishan, usually a proud girl, was showing some degree of meekness.

No matter what, Yang Xiaoyun's situation greatly exceeded the Yang family's expectations, leaving them little choice but to beg for forgiveness voluntarily.

Feeling sentimental, Bai Xiaosheng, as the car came to a stop, adopted a serene yet smiling demeanor and got out of the car.

Dong Tianlu, Lu Tiandao, Lin Weiwei, Lei Ying, and others quickly gathered around him, their faces filled with enthusiastic smiles.

"Mr. Bai is back!"

"Mr. Sheng!"

"You're finally back!"

The greetings from everyone carried genuine warmth.

Before speaking, Bai Xiaosheng solemnly bowed to them, expressing heartfelt gratitude.

Standing tall again, Bai Xiaosheng smiled at everyone and said, "I'm back, thank you all for your concern!"

With just that, applause erupted.

Grateful people are the most heartwarming and delightful.

Everyone surrounded Bai Xiaosheng, escorting him to his residence.

"Mr. Sheng." At this moment, Yang Junluo led Yang Yishan forward with a smile.

The previously joyful atmosphere instantly turned slightly cold.

However, everyone present was an adult, a seasoned businessperson, extremely adept at controlling emotions.

Although outwardly no one showed anything unusual, the mood clearly manifested an unwelcome attitude toward Yang Junluo.

The dignified former head of the West African Yang family, when had he ever faced such coldness, yet Yang Junluo still maintained a smiling face.

Yang Yishan looked a bit sad, watching Bai Xiaosheng.

After this, regardless of the outcome, Bai Xiaosheng, the man she had an affection for, was destined to have no connection with her.

In front of everyone, Bai Xiaosheng maintained his initial smile and said warmly, "Old Mr. Yang, let's go upstairs and chat."

With just that sentence, Yang Junluo's lips trembled slightly.

"Alright, alright." Yang Junluo smiled even more.

Everyone went upstairs together.

On the way, Dong Tianlu and others exchanged intimate words with Bai Xiaosheng, especially when talking about how Bai Xiaosheng was the life-saving benefactor of the Supreme Chieftain's son, their admiration was palpable.

At the end of the group, Yang Junluo carried a slightly bitter smile.

If he had known this earlier, he would never have agreed to Yang Xiaoyun's foolish actions even under threat.

"From now on, Bai Xiaosheng will be an honored guest at Oshan; unless the Yang family moves away completely, we cannot oppose him!" Yang Junluo sighed in his heart.

Of course, the ancestral estate was here, and such a large family had long been rooted here, it's not something that can just be walked away from easily...

Everyone surrounded Bai Xiaosheng back to his room, had a brief conversation, and then dispersed.

Yang Junluo certainly wished to have a private conversation with Bai Xiaosheng, and everyone gave Bai Xiaosheng some space, regardless of their feelings.

After seeing everyone off, only Yang Junluo and Yang Yishan remained as the only outsiders.

Bai Xiaosheng smiled and said to Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying, "Weiwei, Lei Ying, take Miss Yang downstairs for a cup of coffee, I need to discuss something with Old Mr. Yang."

This time, Bai Xiaosheng took the initiative to get to the point, which made Yang Junluo nod repeatedly.

Yang Yishan silently glanced at Bai Xiaosheng before stepping out without a word.

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying also followed Bai Xiaosheng's instructions, leaving and closing the door properly.

"Old Mr. Yang, your visit this time is for Mr. Yang Xiaoyun's matter, isn't it?"

With only the two of them left in the room, Bai Xiaosheng straightforwardly said, "On the way, Sir Wei called me. Frankly, I didn't want to see you to discuss this matter, because I don't trust you! Also, because I'm very angry!"

Bai Xiaosheng's blunt words made Yang Junluo a little embarrassed.

Yang Junluo forced a smile, "Mr. Sheng, this matter was because Yang Xiaoyun got confused and was instigated, it was that Lisa, who used Wagg's identity, forcing Xiaoyun to agree to conspire against you."

Yang Junluo thought, revealing this shocking inside story would surely surprise Bai Xiaosheng.

However, unexpectedly, Bai Xiaosheng was unmoved, as if he was already aware of it all.

Yang Junluo felt a chill within.

Of course, Bai Xiaosheng was the life-saving benefactor of the Supreme Chieftain's son, Awak Wak Lakla, as the person involved, knowing the hidden details of this event seemed entirely reasonable.

"But, no matter how you slice it, this was Xiaoyun's fault, the Yang family owes you an apology!" Yang Junluo's tone shifted, from trying to deflect blame to honestly admitting fault, "We only ask for your help to get Xiaoyun out of this jail disaster, and our Yang family will agree to any condition! With your understanding and statement as the person involved, I believe there is a window for change!"

Chapter 2616 - A Benevolent Heart (Part 3)

There were no outsiders here. Yang Junluo pleaded, "I'm asking you, for the sake of a father, please help Xiaoyun!"

Facing an old man with hair white as frost begging him so earnestly in person, no matter what, Bai Xiaosheng couldn't help softening a little.

"For Sir Wei's sake, and also for your sake as a father and an elder, I can agree to this request. I can speak to my friend!"

Bai Xiaosheng said in a deep voice, "This way, it should be possible to reduce some of the sentence, but I can't guarantee that Yang Xiaoyun won't be punished at all, and I absolutely can't interfere with Oshan's judicial system. Also, because of Yang Xiaoyun, my business group's people suffered losses. The Yang Family needs to show some attitude!"

Bai Xiaosheng could not let his own people swallow a dumb loss.

Bai Xiaosheng's words already made Yang Junluo immensely pleased.

The old man nodded repeatedly and said, "Mr. Sheng, being able to get your forgiveness is really wonderful. As long as you open your mouth with your friend, that's enough. As for Yang Xiaoyun, I, this old man, swear on my character that as long as I draw breath, he is not allowed to touch the family business, and he cannot use a single cent of the Yang Family's money. That is his punishment. As for the losses your business group suffered this time, we will compensate. On top of the original contract, we are willing to yield another ten percent of the profits! That way, it can be considered making up for their losses. What do you think, will that do?"

Bai Xiaosheng thought for a moment.

Calculated like this, in business between the Yang Family and the Huaxia Business Group, they would only be barely making a slim profit, while letting Dong Tianlu and the others make up their losses and even earn another sum.

That was appropriate.

"Alright." Bai Xiaosheng said.

Right afterward, in front of Yang Junluo, Bai Xiaosheng called Chen Feiqiu and asked him to convey his forgiveness of Yang Xiaoyun to the relevant departments.

Chen Feiqiu readily agreed, and even said that in this way, Yang Xiaoyun could be spared ten years in prison.

Yang Junluo was immensely satisfied with this outcome, and thanked Bai Xiaosheng, who had just hung up the phone, again and again.

Once the matter was settled, Yang Junluo naturally took his leave.

After seeing Yang Junluo off, not long after, Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying also rushed back.

Miss Yang Yishan also asked them to pass along a "thank you."

Bai Xiaosheng once again told Weiwei and Lei Ying about Chen Feiqiu's invitation.

When they heard that the dinner that night would be at the Supreme Chieftain's family banquet, Lin Weiwei and the other two were all extremely shocked.

However, before they could talk much, Bai Xiaosheng's phone rang.

At first, Bai Xiaosheng thought it was just a single call, but as it turned out, he didn't have a free moment for the next hour or so.

The first to call was Wen Yan.

After that, Lu Cheng'an, Li Yunyuan, Jiang Kuo, Soruns—one big shot after another called in succession.

Bai Xiaosheng expressed his thanks one by one, all from the bottom of his heart.

Over the phone, Bai Xiaosheng also learned about the group headquarters' situation from Jiang Kuo and Soruns.

After the situation flipped, those who supported Bai Xiaosheng were all greatly encouraged, while the camp of Vice Chairman Morgan was depressed and dejected.

It was said that from Caroline's office there even came faint sounds of smashing; afterward they swept up a big pile of porcelain and glass shards...

Besides that, Bai Xiaosheng also heard another piece of news.

This time, when they were voting on his matter, things had originally been at a stalemate, and it was precisely because of acting chairman Bai Xuanyu's stance that the group chose to abandon him.

The reason Bai Xuanyu gave was that they could not let Bai Xiaosheng affect the interests and reputation of the entire group.

"Bai Xuanyu, huh!"

Hanging up the phone, Bai Xiaosheng murmured that name, and a trace of coldness appeared in his eyes.

This person truly had no consideration for him whatsoever.

But that was fine too; it saved him the trouble of having any scruples about him!

Even if that was the person Bai Zhenbei had raised, from now on he would no longer show him any courtesy!

Chapter 2617 - Supreme Chieftain

After Yang Junluo left, Bai Xiaosheng informed everyone in the business group of the agreement he had reached with him. Upon learning that Bai Xiaosheng had gained more benefits for everyone, and that he had even forgiven the actions of the Yang family, everyone was deeply moved.

Bai Xiaosheng mentioned to several friends that he would be visiting the Supreme Chieftain's home in the evening and hoped to borrow some of the gifts that had been distributed earlier.

Without hesitation, those friends not only gave him the items sent by the Yang family but also voluntarily offered some of the pieces they carried with them to Bai Xiaosheng.

Small jade carvings, wooden sculptures, playful porcelain pieces, copybooks, and personal writing notes were all exquisite and elegant.

Initially, Bai Xiaosheng refused, but he couldn't resist their enthusiasm, so he selected some gifts.

Everyone felt it was an honor to present these gifts to the Supreme Chieftain of Oshan.

Moreover, with Bai Xiaosheng being so considerate, they felt naturally compelled to be generous.

Bai Xiaosheng thanked them repeatedly.

After conversing with everyone, Bai Xiaosheng returned to his room with a "full harvest," contacted informed family and friends, reported his safety one by one, and also expressed his gratitude.

Some thank-yous were verbally expressed, but Bai Xiaosheng also kept them deeply in mind, hoping to find opportunities to reciprocate heavily in the future.

In life, gratitude and proper repayment are essential for expanding connections worldwide.

...

At dusk, Bai Xiaosheng received a phone call from Chen Feiqiu, informing him that the car picking them up would arrive in an hour.

After hanging up, Bai Xiaosheng informed Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying, asking them to change clothes and prepare.

As night fell and the first lights appeared, the people Chen Feiqiu sent to pick up Bai Xiaosheng arrived.

After meeting them, they were extremely respectful, helping Bai Xiaosheng, Lin Weiwei, and Lei Ying with their gifts and accompanying them downstairs.

Downstairs, a large, heavy, somewhat classical car was parked. Before and after it were several riders on sleek black motorcycles.

At first glance, the scene from the Supreme Chieftain's home wasn't all that grand.

However, Bai Xiaosheng recognized the unusualness of the setup.

Thanks to Red Lotus, he had been scanned and "educated" about this.

Just the custom-made, classical-style, heavy-duty bulletproof car was worth more than a dozen sports cars combined, with road safety comparable to a tank.

Moreover, the motorcycle riders had bikes priced equivalent to luxury cars, equipped with weapons inside the fenders, wearing bulletproof jackets, and black Kevlar helmets. They weren't just for show but also practical. Their chest badges commanded the respect and avoidance of knowledgeable dignitaries.

Only a very few in all of Oshan enjoy such a setup.

Among business people, Bai Xiaosheng enjoyed a unique privilege.

It was possibly because Bai Xiaosheng saved Chen Feiqiu, the most beloved son of the Supreme Chieftain, and future Supreme Chieftain, allowing him such privilege.

In short, Bai Xiaosheng and his companions got into the car, feeling that the interior was spacious, comfortable. Once the door closed, music surrounded them, creating a separate world from outside.

The convoy set off, leaving the place.

The residence of the Oshan Supreme Chieftain is not in this city, and it takes over an hour to reach.

As they left Oklandt City, the convoy started speeding up, moving smoothly, with checkpoints along the way having been notified in advance to allow free passage.

Thus, over an hour later, the convoy entered another city.

Inside the vehicle, Bai Xiaosheng glimpsed the situation outside through the front windshield—the whole city was brightly lit, resembling daylight. The city appeared built on a rising terrain, with buildings growing taller layer by layer, progressively higher inside, resembling bamboo shoots.

Bai Xiaosheng had checked records and knew that this city was built on a mountain, with the summit flattened for the palace, the residence of the Supreme Chieftain.

The car carrying the trio proceeded along a gradually ascending road, creating a mystical feeling of soaring into the sky.

Soon, Bai Xiaosheng felt the car seemed to level out.

From the side window view, he saw some buildings lying beneath.

After several such occasions, Bai Xiaosheng and his companions finally arrived at the square in front of the palace on the mountaintop.

The night did not hide this place's glory—under the bright lights, numerous figures lined the paths to welcome them. Among them, the leader was Chen Feiqiu in regional attire.

As the vehicle stopped, Bai Xiaosheng and his companions disembarked; Chen Feiqiu approached them with a smile.

Following Chen Feiqiu, Asgar was present. The normally stern-faced son of the Chieftain bore a faint smile.

"Bai Xiaosheng, my friend, finally awaited your arrival. Welcome to my home!"

Chen Feiqiu stepped forward, smiling, and gave Bai Xiaosheng a big hug.

"The honor is mine," Bai Xiaosheng responded with a smile.

After they parted, Bai Xiaosheng turned to Asgar with a friendly handshake and greeted, "Mr. Asgar!"

"Welcome, Mr. Bai Xiaosheng!" Asgar smiled back.

Chen Feiqiu then greeted Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying warmly using Oshan etiquette, and Asgar followed suit, treating Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying with the same courtesy, regardless of their apparent status.

"Come, my father is inside waiting to meet you," Chen Feiqiu invited Bai Xiaosheng to join him with a smile.

Chapter 2618 - Supreme Chieftain_2

Bai Xiaosheng readily agreed.

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying carried the gift for the Supreme Chieftain and followed behind Bai Xiaosheng.

Everyone walked in, and the servants lining the path bowed their heads, showing immense respect to the three of them.

Soon, they entered the magnificent palace, which differed from European palaces and was full of exotic features, making one want to take a few extra glances.

Seeing Bai Xiaosheng's interest, Chen Feiqiu walked alongside him, providing various introductions, also for Lin Weiwei.

He explained the stories behind the murals and the historical significance of the statues.

Chen Feiqiu was brimming with knowledge, and the three of them nodded continuously as they listened.

The distinguished Asgar accompanied them with a smile.

Soon, they arrived at a large hall, where in the center stood an enormous long table adorned with flowers, fine wine, and fruits. On both sides were exquisite chairs with backs as tall as a person.

Not only were the backs high, but the chairs themselves were quite tall, especially for a child.

Shortly after Bai Xiaosheng and the others entered, someone announced, "The Supreme Chieftain is here!"

Footsteps were heard approaching from one side.

Bai Xiaosheng and his companions immediately looked over, seeing a group of people entering from another hall entrance, with the servants inside respectfully bowing.

At the front of the group was an elderly man in a wheelchair, with an elderly woman pushing it.

Sitting in the wheelchair was an elderly Black man, with gray hair, a peaceful demeanor, and a gentle smile, but his complexion was slightly pale. Although his gaze was calm and serene, everyone treated him with the utmost respect.

The Black elderly woman pushing the wheelchair had relatively fairer skin, and despite her age, she was elegant and poised, likely a beautiful woman in her youth.

Behind the two elders followed some young men and women, seemingly their children, with some holding toddlers.

Are these the Supreme Chieftain and his wife? Bai Xiaosheng wondered silently.

Chen Feiqiu and Asgar stepped forward quickly, and naturally, Bai Xiaosheng, along with Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying, followed closely.

"Father." "Mother."

Though Chen Feiqiu had a certain disposition outside, he was proper and respectful to the elders at home.

Asgar, too, was extremely respectful in both words and demeanor.

The Supreme Chieftain and his wife smiled at their two sons, nodding warmly, then naturally gazed at Bai Xiaosheng.

Bai Xiaosheng immediately stepped forward and greeted them, "Chief Ogade! Lady Daliya! I am Bai Xiaosheng, and it is an honor to receive your invitation!"

Chief Ogade in the wheelchair examined Bai Xiaosheng with a smile, saying warmly, "Mr. Bai Xiaosheng, you are too kind."

Lady Daliya also smiled and said, "We should be thanking you, Mr. Bai Xiaosheng, for saving Awak Wak Lakla. You are our most esteemed guest!"

The atmosphere upon meeting was extremely harmonious and friendly.

Bai Xiaosheng gestured for Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying to present the gifts, and he addressed the Supreme Chieftain and his wife, "These are special gifts from Huaxia, presented by my friends and me to the Chieftain."

Chen Feiqiu and Asgar readily took the items from Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying's hands and showed them to the Supreme Chieftain and his wife.

The jade carvings and calligraphy pieces were all exquisite and grand, exuding an Oriental charm.

The Supreme Chieftain and his wife, being connoisseurs, nodded in praise.

Lady Daliya showed great interest in examining a piece of Suzhou embroidery, her eyes filled with admiration.

"That's very thoughtful, Mr. Bai Xiaosheng, and thank your friends as well," Chief Ogade said with a cheerful smile to Bai Xiaosheng. "Come, let us sit over there, Mr. Sheng, please sit next to me."

This was indeed an honor, and Bai Xiaosheng happily accepted.

By the table, Chief Ogade stood up from his wheelchair, and Lady Daliya personally pulled out his chair and helped him change seats.

Bai Xiaosheng noticed that the Supreme Chieftain's legs seemed fine, as he was able to move without issue.

Seeing Bai Xiaosheng looking over, Chief Ogade gestured with his hand, saying with a smile, "My legs are fine, but I've had recurring ailments recently, with severe back pain, so I've been using the wheelchair."

Bai Xiaosheng smiled and nodded, retracting his hand.

Around the massive table, more than twenty people took their seats.

Behind each chair stood a beautiful servant, ready to assist with chair movements and await orders, as well as to serve dishes.

Bai Xiaosheng sat to the right of Chief Ogade, with Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying beside him.

To the left of Chief Ogade was Lady Daliya, followed by Asgar and Chen Feiqiu, and then the young men, women, and children.

Chief Ogade, noting Bai Xiaosheng's earlier instinctive concern, felt a sense of closeness and quite liked this young man from Asia, pointing to everyone around the table with a smile, "These are all my family — my daughters, sons, sons-in-law, daughters-in-law, and their children."

Bai Xiaosheng followed Chief Ogade's gestures, looking at each person, smiling, and nodding.

Those people also smiled politely in return to Bai Xiaosheng.

Since their father treated Bai Xiaosheng with such regard, they naturally showed him kindness as well.

"Awak Wak Lakla insisted on going to Huaxia back then, which I originally didn't support. But he learned many things there that couldn't be learned from those in the West, gaining humility, etiquette, and wisdom," Chief Ogade said to Bai Xiaosheng with a smile. "And he made a friend like you, which brings me enormous comfort, proving that his choice was indeed the right one."

Chapter 2619 - Supreme Chieftain_3

"Mr. Awak Wak Lakla is a very intelligent and eager learner. We have discussed many fields together, and he knows a lot. I am proud to have such a friend," Bai Xiaosheng said with a smile.

Bai Xiaosheng's praise was skillful, focusing not on Chen Feiqiu's background, but on his personal qualities.

Which parent wouldn't be pleased with such a compliment?

Lady Daliya immediately asked with interest, "Is that so? What have you exchanged ideas about?"

"Indeed, I would like to hear it as well," Chief Ogade also said with a smile.

Bai Xiaosheng wasn't reserved and began to speak right away, causing the chief and his wife to nod repeatedly, their smiles broadening.

Being openly praised like that, Chen Feiqiu couldn't help but make a playful face.

Among the peers at the table, only he dared to show such an expression; the rest sat upright, smiling as they listened, adhering strictly to etiquette without exaggerated actions.

Of course, some young children inevitably maintained a playful nature, especially the very young ones, who always had trouble sitting still.

At the end of the dining table, a three-year-old boy squirmed constantly, at times reaching for fruit, at others seemingly wanting to jump off his chair.

Faced with the Supreme Chieftain and the presence of esteemed guests, the boy's mother naturally held onto him tightly under the table, occasionally giving him a stern glance to curb his excessive energy.

Despite the boy's young age, he was taught some self-restraint, but soon his nature prevailed, and he began to fidget.

The mother incessantly pulled at him and gradually became impatient, unknowingly using more and more force.

And so, with a lapse in attention, an accident suddenly occurred.

Accompanied by a scream of "ah," the boy fell from his chair, his shoulder hitting the floor.

Bai Xiaosheng and Chief Ogade were in the midst of a pleasant conversation when they were suddenly interrupted by the scream, instinctively stopping to look over.

Chief Ogade and Lady Daliya also turned their gaze in that direction.

Everyone at the table shifted their attention.

"York, what happened to you?" the boy's mother exclaimed in alarm.

The boy's sharp crying filled the air, sounding particularly harsh.

The father beside him immediately scolded in a low voice, "York, stop crying!"

The father thought it was merely a fall and that the child was just being troublesome.

In front of the Supreme Chieftains and the esteemed guests, how could they display such a lack of decorum?

Yet, the boy paid no heed, his cries becoming increasingly wrenching.

Chief Ogade couldn't help but frown and demand, "What's going on?"

Lady Daliya also stood up, "Don't scold young York. Did he hurt himself!"

Bai Xiaosheng also focused his attention in that direction.

Soon, a doctor was called over, and after a brief check, the doctor wiped his brow and said, "It seems to be a dislocated arm! We need to take Master York for an X-ray, possibly a CT scan, and further observation is necessary. It's best to take him to the hospital for treatment!"

With these words, the scene became somewhat chaotic.

What was initially a nice banquet now looked like it had lost its atmosphere.

Chief Ogade furrowed his brow, while Lady Daliya, feeling a pang of compassion, walked over.

Bai Xiaosheng discreetly left his seat and made his way over.

"May I take a look at young Master York?" Bai Xiaosheng inquired as he approached.

The doctor, who had insisted on a hospital visit, looked skeptically at Bai Xiaosheng.

Seeing others being courteous to Bai Xiaosheng, he remained polite, saying, "Sir, what are you looking to do... Are you a doctor as well?"

"I know a bit about traditional Chinese medicine," Bai Xiaosheng replied with a smile, speaking as he began examining the howling young York.

The child's parents fixed their gaze on Bai Xiaosheng.

Lady Daliya, holding the child's other little hand, watched Bai Xiaosheng with concern.

Chief Ogade, from afar, also turned his gaze towards Bai Xiaosheng.

Chen Feiqiu also rose from his seat and approached.

"Are you a Chinese medicine practitioner?"

The doctor seemed startled, then maintained some composure, "Regardless, I believe we must first take young Master York to the hospital for urgent treatment. There's no time to lose!"

At this moment, the child's parents also appeared anxious to follow the doctor's advice.

After finishing his examination, Bai Xiaosheng directly pulled the father's hand to press down on young York, instructing, "Hold him down, Lady Daliya as well!"

Young York's father and Lady Daliya instinctively complied, both looking at Bai Xiaosheng with puzzled expressions, unsure of his intentions.

"Sir, please don't fool around!" The doctor was somewhat exasperated.

Bai Xiaosheng grabbed hold of young York's arm with both hands, smiling at the boy, "Hold on, young one! It will only hurt for a moment, it will soon pass, you are the Supreme Chieftain's grandson after all!"

With that, Bai Xiaosheng suddenly exerted force.

The people around heard the boy let out an unprecedented scream.

"What are you doing?!" The doctor exclaimed.

Bai Xiaosheng, without time to respond in detail, released the boy's arm with a smile and kindly said to him, "Come, move it a bit, trust me, it's as strong as it was before."

Chapter 2620 - Palace Family Banquet

Under Bai Xiaosheng's encouragement, the little boy York cautiously moved his arm, then looked at his grandmother, Lady Daliya, and his parents in surprise.

"My arm is fine!" Little York exclaimed in disbelief, "I thought it was broken!"

The wailing scream he had earlier was completely different from his current joyful expression.

The surrounding crowd looked at Little York in astonishment, but they were also immensely relieved.

With the child being fine, everyone finally let out a sigh of relief.

The crowd once again looked at Bai Xiaosheng with eyes full of wonder.

They had heard that this young visitor from the East was an outstanding businessman, but they didn't expect him to have extraordinary medical skills as well. This was truly a blessing.

"He's my friend!" Chen Feiqiu proudly announced from the back of the crowd, leading them in applause for Bai Xiaosheng.

Even Lady Daliya and Chief Ogade, who was seated from afar, joined in and applauded with smiles on their faces.

With these two leading, everyone present applauded Bai Xiaosheng, giving him a thumbs up repeatedly.

Lin Weiwei beamed with joy, clapping continuously.

Lei Ying was more reserved, yet couldn't hide his pride.

"Thank you, Mr. Bai Xiaosheng!" Lady Daliya was the first to express gratitude to Bai Xiaosheng once again.

"It was a trivial matter, Lady Daliya, no need for formalities." Bai Xiaosheng replied humbly.

The boy's parents also expressed their thanks repeatedly, and little York thanked Bai Xiaosheng with great courtesy.

Bai Xiaosheng nodded with a smile to York's parents and gently advised York, "Little one, be careful in the future."

Little York nodded repeatedly.

Bai Xiaosheng then turned to the doctor beside him and said, "Doctor, York's arm will be a bit swollen in the coming days. Please prescribe some medication for him to reduce the swelling."

The doctor nodded repeatedly, giving Bai Xiaosheng a thumbs up in appreciation, and beckoned to take York for his medication.

Subsequently, Bai Xiaosheng, Lady Daliya, and Chen Feiqiu all returned to their seats.

"I didn't expect Mr. Bai to have such superb medical skills." Chief Ogade commented with a smile after seeing Bai Xiaosheng sit down, "In comparison, my medical officer might have overreacted, which made the guest laugh."

Bai Xiaosheng laughed at these words, "Chief Ogade, in fact, your medical officer's treatment was flawless, and he was very responsible. Compared to Western medicine, our Huaxia medicine has its own characteristics and techniques. We have a profound study of human bones and meridians, and the bone-setting technique I just used to treat the dislocation has a history of thousands of years."

Bai Xiaosheng didn't forget to promote his own culture without belittling others, speaking with confidence yet humility.

This made Chief Ogade nod repeatedly, looking at him with increasing favor.

"I told you Huaxia medicine is amazing, and now you all see it!" Chen Feiqiu couldn't help but say from the side.

Lady Daliya also laughed, "I've long heard from Awak Wak that Huaxia's medicine is remarkable. We've also wanted to invite a Huaxia doctor here as a medical officer to take care of Chief Ogade's health."

Chief Ogade's eyes also lit up as he looked at Bai Xiaosheng and asked, "Mr. Bai, what do you think?"

Bai Xiaosheng pondered for a moment before kindly suggesting with a smile, "In our Huaxia, if you only talk about ancient Oriental medicine, a doctor might need a long time to truly master the skills. Such doctors are usually quite elderly, with strong ties to their homeland, which might make them unwilling to travel far across the sea to a foreign land. However, the new generation of Huaxia doctors today advocate for the integration and thorough understanding of both Western and Eastern medicine, embracing the advantages of both. If the chief is interested, you could invite such a versatile and well-studied doctor here."

Bai Xiaosheng also considered that purely herbal medicine might make the chief regret today's decision. If the invited doctor's skills weren't up to par, not only would it damage the name of Huaxia medical practitioners, but it might also harm the friendship between both sides...

Chief Ogade nodded repeatedly to this straightforward suggestion.

"Mr. Bai, earlier I saw your extraordinary skills, but I wonder, do you know an amazing type of Oriental medicine technique called..." Chief Ogade thought it over, glanced at Chen Feiqiu, and tentatively asked Bai Xiaosheng in Huaxia language, "Hao Mai..."

Bai Xiaosheng was taken aback, unable to help but look at Chen Feiqiu.

"Pulse diagnosis, it's pulse diagnosis!" Chen Feiqiu hurriedly corrected.

"Yes, yes, that's it." Chief Ogade clapped and laughed.

Bai Xiaosheng pondered slightly and replied with a humble smile, "I know a little bit."

Pulse diagnosis is a skill that even a real Huaxia doctor needs to work hard to achieve a level of mastery.

Bai Xiaosheng naturally was not skilled in this.

However, with the support of Red Lotus, a super AI, he could conduct a series of tests and scans while feeling the pulse, ultimately achieving even better results.

Since Chief Ogade asked about pulse diagnosis with such great interest, and looked at him expectantly, Bai Xiaosheng naturally didn't want to disappoint him. He also thought about strengthening their friendship and laying the groundwork for future discussions, so he agreed to it.

"Then, could you diagnose my pulse?" Chief Ogade looked at Bai Xiaosheng with immense anticipation.

Lady Daliya, Asgar, and everyone present also looked on with hopeful eyes.

Chen Feiqiu, unaware that Bai Xiaosheng had such a skill, was also intrigued.

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying looked at Bai Xiaosheng with some degree of concern, worried that if Bai Xiaosheng made a small mistake after taking the pulse, it might affect his impression in front of the chief.

"Certainly."