

U. CEO Daddy 241

Chapter 241

Suxi didn't listen to him. She immediately walked to Wu Tao in a respectful manner and said politely, "Hello, Mr. Wu. I'm Suxi, the artist of your company. It's a great honor to meet you here."

Wu Tao also hurriedly got up, very guest airway, "Hello Miss Su."

Su Xi was flattered by this. Wu Tao stood up to say hello to her, which gave her face.

"Then I won't disturb your meal." With that, Susie nodded and smiled at the lady beside him, then walked to her place.

Sushi's face can hardly hide the excitement and excitement of the big boss. Usually, she is an artist who has no chance to see it.

Wen lichen looked at her happy expression and her eyes narrowed slightly. If this woman knew that the person sitting in front of her was the real boss of Tianmu group, what would she react to?

However, Wen does not want to tell anyone his identity, even her.

Because if he speaks his identity, even if this woman has any good feelings for him, it must be based on his identity as her boss.

He didn't care about that feeling of interest.

Suxi Dynasty Wen lichen slightly leaned forward, "that person is Wu Tao, the CEO of our Tianmu group."

"What? Do you want him to know you? " Wen lichen raised his eyebrows and asked.

Sushi immediately heard the meaning of his words, she stared at him, "where do you want to go? I'm just surprised to meet my big boss. I have no other ideas! Besides, don't think our boss so bad. "

Susie's eyes were full of remorse for his presumptuous speculation.

"You think Wu Tao is the big boss of your company. As far as I know, there is a bigger boss behind him."

Susie immediately opened her eyes slightly, "what? There's a bigger boss behind it? "

"A man named bio!" Wen lichen reveals his English name. He just doesn't like it. She looks respectful to Wu Tao.

Susie blinked. "Right? What kind of man is that? "

"That's a very strong man of course!" Wen lichen speaks confidently.

Sushi puffed her cheeks and said, "I may not know such a big boss anyway. I just want to be an artist under Tianmu group and concentrate on acting."

Wen lichen immediately frowned and stopped.

Wu Tao comes first. He has finished eating with his wife and children. When he left, he bowed his head to Wen lichen at some distance. Wen lichen blinked at him in response.

Susie didn't notice the eye contact. She lowered her head and ate a coconut cake.

Just eating, suddenly a sneer came from the head, "yo! Isn't this sushi? "

When sushi heard the voice, she immediately looked up, and yelala came over with his assistants.

Susie didn't care about her.

"Sushi, I heard that you joined the training group of aidiyue. You are really skilled! I don't know which golden thigh you're holding! "

"Shut up, I don't want you." Susie's voice cooled immediately.

"If you want to go in, I don't think it's clean." After that, ye Lala also found that Wen lichen, who had dinner with her, was immediately charming and charming. She flirted with her hair. "Hello, handsome boy, my name is Ye Lala. Nice to meet you."

Then she reached out and wanted to shake Wen lichen.

Wen lichen did not give face very much. Her eyes were shining with cold light. She glanced at her lightly and ignored.

Under this, ye Lala immediately blushed with embarrassment. She didn't expect that this handsome guy would ignore her so much.

Susie immediately felt happy and said to her, "don't disturb us for dinner here."

"Susie, you may not know! I've also joined the cast. I've replaced a position. I'll see you later. " With that, ye Lala picked up her eyebrows proudly. Before she left, she took a look at Wen lichen's handsome face.

"See you later, handsome boy." Although Wen lichen ignored her, she was always very friendly to handsome men.

When ye Lala left, sushi looked at her with a kind of angry eyes. However, she thought that if ye Lala had not stepped on her skirt and tripped her, she would not have collided with the man opposite.

What's more, it's impossible to have so many things with him. At the moment, sushi steals a joy from the bottom of her heart.

"Who are you playing with?" Wen lichen's elegant persistent tea cup inquiry.

"Oh! And Ji Yuhao. " Su Xi replied, and then, wondering, does he know who Ji Yuhao is?

A man of his status will not pay attention to the entertainment industry.

Wen lichen's face changed a little. Unexpectedly, the woman who cooperated in the program seemed to be his cousin.

"Do you know each other?" Sushi asked curiously.

"Well! Yes," Wen lichen said. Sushi thinks that Ji Yuhao is a superstar. It's no surprise that Wen lichen has heard his name.

"I can join the cast, but I still rely on his help! Without him pleading for me, I would not have been able to enter." Sushi said one more word.

"What did he do for you?" Wen couldn't help but think of the picture of their hot conversation at the party.

"When my agent went to see the director of this production group, he was just there. He said something for me. I went in. Another day, I found a chance. I have to thank him very much." Sushi murmured to himself.

Wen lichen's eyebrows on the opposite side are tightened directly. Does cousin have any special idea about this woman?

"I'm full. I'll go to the office this afternoon. Can you take me there?" Suzy asked him.

"Good!" Wen lichen answered.

Sushi said with a smile, "I just paid. Now I owe you nine meals. I will invite you to dinner from time to time if I have a chance later!"

"First." Wen lichen got up, there was a kind of heart that didn't want to be finished by her so soon.

Susie thought about the card. She thought, let him know tomorrow!

Wen lichen sent her to the door of the company. After Suxi got off the bus, he waved at him and smiled, "thank you last night!"

Wen lichen looked at the sun, her bright eyes and bright teeth, which made people want to hug her and make her smile cry.

"Remember, no more junk food." Wen lichen gave a warning.

Susie was embarrassed at once, but he agreed, "OK, I won't eat any more."

With that, Susie turned and strode into her office elevator, her heart beating faster than before.

He even cares about her. Doesn't he want her to bother him any more? Susie smiled bitterly. How could she always trouble him?

Chapter 242

Tang Siyu and Xing liehan's family have been here for a week unconsciously. Tang Siyu has had a very full and happy time. The most important thing is to watch the little guy have a good time. As her mother, she feels everything is going well.

Of course, there seems to be some subtle emotional change between her and Xing liehan, and the Xing family are very friendly to her.

Xing Yinuo calls her Siyu sister sweetly. It feels like she is the real big sister.

Tang Siyu really can't help but dislike Xing's family. She can also calculate the time difference. She calls her father in China to ask him about his health. Tang Xiong is in good health recently. Let her play to her heart's content. Don't worry.

In China, Tang Xiong's physical condition is not as good as before. Since he fainted that time, he often felt that his heart was not strong enough to deal with the company's affairs. His brain didn't work well. If he used his head a little to think about more complicated work, he would feel chest pain and poor breath. His medicine was also taken more and more frequently.

He can only rely on the medicine to maintain the continuous operation of his body. At the moment, his close aide, Lao Xu, is collecting the materials just approved for him. After sitting for more than an hour, Tang Xiong just stood up and felt dizzy. He quickly held the table top and rubbed his temples.

"Mr. Tang, what's the matter with you? Is there anything uncomfortable? "

"Nothing, just a little dizzy. I'll be fine after a rest!"

"Mr. Tang, you can't go on like this all the time. You should go to the hospital for a general examination."

"Do you know? The older people get! The more afraid I am of going to a place like the hospital, the more afraid I am of checking anything Tang Xiong sat down and rested with his eyes closed.

Old Xu sighed, "you are worried too much. Although madam is also a shareholder of the company, she is now focusing on the business of the diamond shop and can't help you."

"She still owes a lot of time for my business. She can manage the diamond business well." Tang Xiong replied with his eyes closed.

"President Tang, your health is also important! You can't always drag on like this. You should go to the hospital to have a look. Yesterday, when you were chatting with the eldest lady, you had just finished your medicine, but you lied to her and said, you are very good! Why do you suffer like this? "

"Siyu has a good time abroad, so I won't disturb her. Anyway, I have nothing to do with her. She seldom plays with her son. If she knows that I'm not in good health, she won't have a good time."

"At present, only the eldest lady often cares about you. It seems that the second lady has more fun." Lao Xu is Tang Xiong's close friend, so he also participates in some Tang family affairs.

Tang Xiong sighed heavily, "between my two daughters, only Siyu is a sensible person, depending on or not growing up. She only cares about playing. If she has no money, she asks for it from me or her mother. Siyu never asks for money from me! I think I owe her. "

"That's the eldest lady. She is considerate of your happiness and suffering."

"So! I intend to give her all the shares I hold, plus her mother's 30% shares, so that she can own half of the company's assets in the future, and I have such a good daughter. "

Xu nodded. "You're right!"

"Lao Xu, let's press the platoon! I have to go to the hospital in the afternoon. In order to think about the care of rain every day, I can't live with my own body. Go to the platoon and check it. "

"Is it the nearby hospital?"

"Yes, no long way."

At 4:30, Tang Xiong got on his special car and went to the nearby hospital. He was keeping his eyes closed and heard the old Xu saying, "yo! It seems that the car belongs to my wife. How could she Park in the hospital? "

After hearing this, Tang Xiong decided to have a look. Sure enough, in the parking lot, a white BMW car was parked there, which Qiu Lin usually drove.

"Isn't Arlene feeling well, too? I haven't heard of her. "

"Do you need to call madam?"

"Well, if she's having a physical examination, don't tell her first. Let's finish the examination first." Said Tang Xiong.

Xu finds a parking space to park the car. He opens the door of the back seat and helps Tang Xiong get off the car. Tang Xiong looks at his wife's car again, wondering what happened to her.

Old Xu mixed with Tang Xiong into the hospital, hung the expert clinic number of Li De in cardiology department, and went up.

As soon as Xu got out of the elevator, the phone rang. He said to Tang Xiong, "Mr. Tang, I'll take a call. It's my wife's."

"Take it! My wife's phone is still important. " Tang Xiong nodded. When Xu walked to the side to answer the phone, Tang Xiong took the initiative to find Li De's office.

He asked a passing nurse, and he went over, knocked on the door, and then, naturally, pushed the door in.

Tang Xiong just pushed the door, there was no one on the seat, but there was a voice coming from the room next to him.

Tang Xiong wondered if Li De was in it. He could not help but lean over to ask. However, when he saw it, his face changed. He saw his wife sitting on his lap on the sofa behind the door. They were hugging each other. His wife's front was open. The button of his shirt was untied to the third one, and Li Degang was just buried in it.

Tang Xiong shuddered suddenly and shouted angrily, "a Lin You... "

Qiu Lin, who was sitting on Li De's body, was so scared that she bounced away. She hurriedly buckled the button and said to Tang Xiong, "Old Tang Why are you here? "

Looking at his wife's front shirt, Tang Xiong thought of their intimacy just now. Suddenly, his brain fainted, his eyes darkened and he gave a hand to the wall, but he fainted on the ground.

"Old Tang What's the matter with you? " Qiu Lin was shocked.

And Li De is also full of panic. Tang Xiong is still the head of a big company. He and his wife were kissing me just now. He saw them. If he woke up again, where would he let him go?

He immediately calmly held Qiu Lin, "he was stimulated and passed out with a heart attack."

"Then what? Save it! "

"What are you doing to save him? He knows about both of us. Do you think he will let us go when he wakes up? " Li Deli said calmly.

Qiu Lin's eyes were shocked and she looked at Li De, though she turned pale with fear, but she nodded, "you are right. If you let him wake up and our affairs are exposed, then we are finished. Then I can't get anything in the Tang family. What should I do now?"

"Go and see if he has brought anyone here. I'm here. If I don't rescue him for the time being, let him faint! It's better to save it later. " Said reed coldly.

Chapter 243

Li De's calmness also made Qiu Lin calm down quickly. As long as she thought that Tang Xiong would have nothing if she woke up, she was heartless and watched her husband die.

He Lin hurriedly arranged her clothes and went out. When she saw Xu on the balcony of the corridor answering the phone, she immediately felt a little nervous. Her husband would take this assistant when he went out. Now, she only asked him to answer the phone a little longer.

And Li De is also in the office, looking at Tang Xiong, who faints on the ground and looks blue and white. He squats down to check him, but never rescues him.

Xu happened to meet his wife's phone again. The wife was complaining to him that his useless son-in-law had moved his hand on his daughter. As a father, Xu was very angry. He had been discussing with his wife how to deal with the matter on the phone.

So, unconsciously, he called for more than ten minutes, and he didn't even think of what happened in the office behind him.

His boss, Tang Xiong, is dying in the office, while Qiu Lin is hiding in a corner, watching Xu's movements.

Finally, Xu finished his story, and he thought that he was coming to see the doctor with his boss. He hurried to come here. At this time, Qiu Lin hurried out and pretended to be surprised and ran into him, "eh! Why are you here, Xu? "

Xu is really surprised when he meets Qiu Lin here. He quickly says, "president Tang is not feeling well this afternoon. I came to check with him."

"Check? What's his matter? Is there anything uncomfortable? " Qiu Lin immediately pretended to care.

"Mr. Tang has dizzy hair. Oh! He's in the front office! What's the matter with you, madam? "

"I just did a check from the front. Why didn't you go in with Tang?" Qiu Lin immediately thought about the topic and pestered him to enter the office slowly.

"It's just something at home." It's hard for Lao Xu to say.

"Every family has a scripture that is hard to read. You are such a good old man. What else can happen to your family?" Qiu Lin continues to talk.

"I'm my son-in-law. Don't mention it. It's hard to say! Madam, let's go to see president Tang! " Xu is still attached to the boss.

"Good! Let's go and see him! " When Qiu Lin turned around, her face was tense. When she came to Li De's office door, she said in a loud voice, "Old Tang, old Tang Are you there? "

And Li De in the office, immediately heard her voice, pretending to rush out of the office.

He called out into the corridor, "come on, I have a patient here who fainted."

"What? Who fainted? " Qiu Lin immediately asked in surprise.

"It's a patient named Tang Xiong!" Li Deli pretended to be unfamiliar with her.

"Tang Xiong? My God? It's Old Tang. "

"President Tang....." Xu rushes in, too.

I saw Tang Xiong sitting on the patient chair opposite the office, lying on the table, fainted.

"Old Tang Old Tang Are you okay? What's the matter with you? " Qiu Lin immediately pretended to be sad and worried.

Xu is also a face of heartache, "when the wind just came, Tang is still good, how can you faint in the past!"

And he didn't know that Tang Xiong had fainted for more than 15 minutes, which was not a good thing for a heart attack patient.

At the door, no matter how long Li De delays, he still calls the nearby doctors. They immediately push the cart and put Tang Xiong on it.

At this time, Qiu Lin immediately grabbed Li De's hand. "Director Li, please, help my husband. No matter what means you use, you must make him safe."

However, only Li De can understand Qiu Lin's meaning. What Qiu Lin wants to express is the opposite meaning.

It is hoped that Li De will not let Tang Xiong live any longer.

And Li De promised, "don't worry, I will do my best to save your husband! Trust me. "

"Good! I believe you. " Qiu Lin couldn't help but reply.

Li De and a group of young hospitals pushed Tang Xiong to the operating room, while Qiu Lin and Xu hurriedly followed and waited outside the operating room.

At this time, Xu immediately thought of calling Tang Siyu who was abroad.

"Madam, we should contact the eldest lady to let her know that president Tang has passed out again."

As soon as Qiu Lin heard this, she quickly stopped him and said, "I know Siyu is on vacation. Forget it. I'll stay here. It's OK. Don't disturb her."

"But If the eldest lady knew, she would be worried. "

"What can I worry about? Didn't old Tang wake up last time and be ok? It's a heart attack. He's old. It's OK. He'll wake up tomorrow. " Qiu Lin pretended to be natural.

However, only she knew that her husband would never wake up.

In the operating room, Li De personally operated for Tang Xiong. When he found that Tang Xiong's condition was more serious than he thought, he was secretly pleased. It seemed that Tang Xiong really couldn't live.

In his calculation, even if Tang Xiong is given a cardiotonic needle, it's too late at the moment. Tang Xiong will fall into the final trance, and then his heart will weaken, and finally, stop."Come again." Li De Chao, a young doctor, said that he was doing pacemaker treatment.

But Tang Xiong has been cured again and again, but he still doesn't wake up. His stimulation this time is too big to bear his heart.

Xu, who was waiting outside, really wanted to call Tang Siyu, but Qiu Lin stopped him, and he also believed that Tang Xiong would be OK, so he endured.

Qiu Lin was in a hurry to wring her hands. To others, she was worried about her husband. However, only she knew that she was cursing her husband to death.

At the same time, she thought that her husband's legacy should have no legal effect, so she was thinking about how to change the legacy and take the whole Tang Group as an existing one!

She thought that the best way is to bribe Tang Xiong's lawyer, who runs a firm. Every year, Tang family company's lawsuits are for him, so he also made enough money.

Now, Tang Xiong is dead. If this firm wants to win the Tang family's lawsuit, it must keep Tang's company intact.

Only when Qiu Lin took over, could he continue to make money.

Of course, Qiu Lin also used to give him extra benefits. Yes, she had to get this thing done tonight!

Tomorrow, we will pay close attention to what we left behind. In this way, there is no way for Tang Siyu not to admit it.

This is really a good chance given to her by heaven. Qiu Lin is calculating.

She believed that Tang Siyu could not get Tang family's property this time. She looked at the old Xu beside her and said, "old Xu, you go back to the company and see what happened to the company. You can tell me right away! I'll take care of it. "

Chapter 244

Xu didn't think much, nodded, "OK! Then I'll go back to the company first. If there's anything I need, I'll come right away. "

"Go! I'll call my assistant to help in a moment. Besides, don't tell Siyu about it first, or she will be worried about it abroad. "

"But if you don't inform the eldest lady, she will be angry when she returns home."

"All right! Let me talk! You just have to work on the company. " Qiu Lin takes this opportunity. She doesn't want Xu to carry her back to inform Tang Siyu.

As soon as old Xu heard that she would inform him, he was relieved. He was sure that Qiu Lin, as the hostess of the Tang family, would be more suitable than him to inform Tang Siyu.

"Then I'll go first." With that, Xu took a worried look at the direction of the emergency room. He wanted to stay. However, two executives of the company were in the hospital. He had to stare at important documents.

The company is also the lifeblood of Tang Xiong. Nothing can happen.

As soon as Xu left, Qiu Lin immediately called her assistant and asked her assistant to immediately inform Chen Feng, the director of Tang Group's royal law firm, to come over. She immediately informed one of her heart's closest assistants to go back to Tang's house and take the left-wing attention drafted by Tang Xiong for her.

Qiu Lin immediately called Tang Yiyi and asked her to come over. At this time, she must be present as a daughter, so that Tang Siyu would be cold and merciless, and even her father would not come back soon after he died.

Hearing this, Tang Yiyi hurriedly rushed to the hospital from his friend. After two hours of rescue, the light in the operating room finally went out. Qiu Lin's breath was smothering and her heart was still aching for a few seconds. This must have been her husband for so many years. She still had feelings.

But now, for her, feelings are not equal to the interests of Tang's group. She can't let Tang's group fall into Tang Siyu's hands. Now she has climbed on Xing liehan and stepped on them. She doesn't want to be trampled by Tang Siyu for the rest of her life, so she won't suffer from this kind of fire.

Qiu Lin looks at Li De and leads him out. She and his eyes meet. She knows that everything is going in the direction they want.

"How is it? How is my husband? Tell me What happened to him? " Qiu Lin immediately put on a sad expression and looked at Li De with worry in her eyes.

A woman doctor beside shook her head and comforted her. "Mrs. Tang, you should be prepared in your heart. Mr. Tang's situation is not optimistic this time."

"That is to say, he is still saved, isn't he?" Qiu Lin's eyes immediately shifted from the female doctor's face to Li De's face. Li De looked at her, sighed and replied, "at present, she is still in a state of dizziness. We have tried our best to save her, but unfortunately, we can only use drugs to maintain Mr. Tang's vital signs."

"Then rescue! No matter how much it costs, I will Help him! Please help him... " Qiu Lin performed the sad expression of his wife's loss of her husband.

The doctors and nurses on one side were silent and did not know how to comfort her. Behind her, two young male doctors pushed Tang Xiong, who had just had an operation, out.

Tang Xiong's face was blue and white, and the whole person seemed to be in a state of lifelessness, even without breathing.

"Old Tang, old Tang You can't die, you can't leave me! " Qiu Lin clutched her chest and helped her on the cart. The whole person knelt down and held the cart without the doctor pushing it away.

"Madam Tang Will you let go first and let Mr. Tang go back to the ward to have a rest? "

Qiu Lin had to let go. Then, she said to Li De, "director Li, can you tell me about my husband's illness peacefully?"

"Sure, come to the office with me!" Li De nodded and told the nurses and doctors around him, "take good care of Mr. Tang."

Qiu Lin follows Li De into his office. As soon as the door is closed, Li De embraces Qiu Lin and says, "ah Lin, do you really worry about Tang Xiong?"

Qiu Lin immediately wiped the corner of her eyes and mouth with a piece of paper. "How can I worry about him? But externally, my play still needs to be fully performed, otherwise, let people see through the relationship between us, what can we do? "

With that, Qiu Lin immediately looked up and asked seriously, "really, is my husband still saved?"

"Almost no help! Now, I have a waiver contract for treatment in my hand. Would you like to sign it?"

"Then can I sign it?"

"You can sign it for the reason that the patient's operation is too painful. When we do the operation again, we will consider it and then give up the rescue."

"Really? All right! I'll sign it. " Where does Qiu Lin refuse?

Now she wished Tang Xiong would die thoroughly, so her heart would not have to hang any more. At this time, there was a knock outside the door. Qiu Lin's assistant came with Chen Feng, Tang Xiong's personal lawyer.

"Let me have a good chat with Lawyer Chen! Lawyer Chen, let's talk in the lounge next door. " Qiu Lin immediately showed a hostess's attitude.

Lawyer Chen is also a smart man. He immediately knows that Tang Group is about to face a very important checkpoint! He nodded. "OK!" Qiu Lin and Chen Feng spent more than an hour in the lounge. Even after Tang Yiyi arrived, Qiu Lin did not see her.

When she and Chen Feng came out, their eyes had revealed that they had reached an agreement and became a grasshopper on the same rope.

"Lawyer Chen, it's up to you! Next, we have a good cooperation.

Chen Feng nodded at once, "OK! Madam, I will do as you tell me. "

Finish saying, Chen Feng left, with the rich conditions Qiu Lin gave him, and a large reward to leave in the future.

Qiu Lin is finally satisfied. Now, Chen Feng immediately goes back to get a copy of the contract. That contract can produce formal legal effect tonight. Even if Tang Siyu knows that Tang Xiong can't do it, she can't change it tomorrow.

"Mom, how's dad? Is he really hopeless? " Tang Yiyi, as Tang Xiong's daughter, still has father daughter feelings. Now her eyes are red with tears.

Qiu Lin goes to cry by her daughter, which, in the eyes of outsiders, is more lifelike.

"Your father's condition is very serious. He has been rescued. He is still waiting for the recovery room. I will accompany him tonight." Qiu Lin finished, patted her daughter, but there was no sadness in her eyes, but a sneer.

Tang Xiong didn't expect that he would leave the world before his official attention was established!

Chapter 245

At seven o'clock in the evening, Lao Xu came here uneasily. He looked at Tang Xiong after the operation. Where is he still alive! I can't bear to look pale. Moreover, the whole person has no blood and is extremely old.

"Have you informed the eldest lady, madam?" Xu can't help but mention a sentence, he thought, president Tang at this time, must hope that his favorite big daughter is also around him.

Qiu Lin immediately pretended to have an expression that just came to her mind. "I was in a state of emotional instability, and I forgot it."

"Then call the eldest lady now! It will take a little time for the eldest lady to return home. President Tang is so ill. The eldest lady knows that she must be very sad. " When Xu finished, he wanted to inform Tang Siyu himself.

"Good! I will inform her, Xu, you are tired too. Go back! I'll keep it here. " Qiu Lin said thoughtfully.

Xu also knows that he is only a subordinate. Qiu Lin's mother and daughter are Tang Xiong's most important relatives. He can't help him here. He nods and says, "OK, I'll go back first. If there's anything I need to do, just call me."

"There is nothing to do this evening." Qiu Lin sighs and holds Tang Xiong's hand to show her worry about him.

After Xu came out, he felt that Qiu Lin would not call Tang Siyu, because she did not like the daughter of his ex-wife, and at this time, Xu could not see it.

He thought that when he came out just now, he also brought Tang Xiong's mobile phone. There must be Tang Siyu's number in his mobile phone.

Old Xu sits on the car, he picks up Tang Xiong's cell phone, unlocks it and finds Tang Siyu's number. He pulls it out without hesitation.

At that end, a sweet voice called, "Hello, Dad! Have you eaten yet? "

Old Xu heard the voice of Tang Siyu. He hurried out and said, "Hello! The first lady? I'm not Mr. Tang. I'm Mr. Xu, Mr. Tang's assistant. "

"Uncle Xu, how are you? Where's my dad? " That end Tang Siyu asked curiously.

"President Tang Mr. Tang is in the hospital! He He's dying! " Lao Xu said with a choking voice.

On the windowsill of the villa by the sea, the light just lit up. At the moment, Tang Siyu's frightened white face was reflected. Her eyes were wide eyed, and her voice was full of tears. "What's wrong with my dad? What happened to him? "

"The master came to the hospital for examination at noon. He suddenly fainted again. Now he has been rescued, but he still hasn't woke up."

Tang Siyu breathed, "OK, I'll go back to China."

"Now Mrs. Tang and the second miss are taking care of Mr. Tang. Please go back to China as soon as possible! Tang always wants you to be with him. "

"Good! I'll go back now! " After hanging up the phone, Tang Siyu's mind was buzzing for a few seconds. She hurriedly checked the ticket at the first time. However, the ticket is only for today's noon. She doesn't want to wait for a moment now. She needs to go back to her father's side to take care of him immediately.

Tang Siyu thought of Xing liehan's private plane. She quickly opened the door and rushed to Xing liehan's door. She even forgot to knock on the door, so she unscrewed the door and rushed in.

Her action was a little big. She woke up the sleeping man on the bed. Xing liehan saw Tang Siyu standing in the room in the gray light. He sat up immediately and asked anxiously, "what's the matter with you?"

"Xing liehan, my father is very ill. Can you send me home now? I'm afraid it's too late I will never see him again. " Finish saying, Tang Siyu just bear the tears, at this moment, from her beautiful face up and down.

Xu 's voice frightened her. He said that her father was dying.

Xing liehan immediately got out of bed and hurried to her side. "Don't worry, I'll fly in line now. You go back to your room and change your clothes. We'll go out together in ten minutes."

"Well!" Tang Siyu nodded. At the moment, Xing liehan's voice gave her an incomparable peace of mind.

As if as long as he said, he would do it.

Tang Siyu hurriedly took a big step out, and Xing liehan also quickly copied up the mobile phone on the desktop, unplugged the assistant Hanyang's phone, "immediately inform the airline, I want the fastest return route."

"Yes, Mr. Xing, I will fight for it immediately."

"Not to fight, but to be the fastest!" Xing liehan drops the words, he strides to the cloakroom, takes a suit of clothes from it and puts them on, then goes to the bathroom to wash them quickly.

In the next room, Tang Siyu went out as soon as possible. Just in time, both of them pushed out the door at the same time. Tang Siyu looked at the well-dressed man and felt a little moved.

Xing liehan firmly clasps her arm, "let's go! The plane is ready to take off in an hour! We have to get to the airport as soon as possible. "

"Good! Ozawa will stay here first! " Tang Siyu can't take care of her son now. She follows Xing liehan to go out quickly.

Xing liehan drives out a sports car from the garage. Tang Siyu opens the door and sits in. After a look at the time, he has just arrived at six in the morning.

On the seashore road, there is also a light fog, but Xing liehan's speed has stepped on the bottom, straight to the airport. The time to arrive at the airport is only ten minutes from the departure. Xing liehan leads Tang Siyu and rushes to the airport where there is no one. Tang Siyu follows him and looks at his firm back. Her eyes are moist.

Xing liehan runs to the entrance. He takes the lead in standing up. When the inspector inspects him, his eyes are firmly and profoundly locked on the girl beside him.

Tang Siyu breathed and looked at him. At the moment, it seems that only when she looked at this man, her heart would not be disordered, and she could decide to think.

After Tang Siyu finished checking, the two men ran straight to his private plane. Two minutes later, the plane slipped into the runway and immediately flew into the sky.

On the plane, Tang Siyu fell into a kind of anxiety and uneasiness, as if she felt cold around her arm.

Xing liehan took a blanket from the side, and after covering it on her, he put his arm around her and pressed her tightly into his arms. His chin gently touched her forehead. "Don't worry, your father will be OK."

"But His assistant said on the phone Say he's going to die! " Tang Siyu's tears slipped down again. Now it's her father who is lying in the hospital. She can't be strong.

Xing liehan gently presses her small face to her chest, and Tang Siyu buries her whole face. She uses his high-grade shirt to absorb her tears and feel his temperature. Suddenly, she reaches for his waist and begins to sob in his arms.

Xing liehan gently stroked the back of her head with a gentle gesture of appeasement!

Chapter 246

Tang Siyu cried for a long time. When she calmed down, the time had passed, and the stewardess had prepared breakfast to deliver it. Tang Siyu had no appetite at all. Xing liehan could not help persuading her, "if you don't eat something, you can't keep your strength and take care of your father after you return home."

With that, Xing liehan cuts the lower bag and delivers it to her mouth. Tang Siyu opens his mouth and eats it.

Xing liehan continues to feed her. After eating, he hands the milk in front of him to her mouth. Tang Siyu reaches for it and drinks it on his own initiative.

Indeed, she is too pessimistic. She should think in a good direction. She should keep her strength and go back to take care of her father.

In the hospital.

Qiu Lin predicted that Lao Xu might contact Tang Siyu. However, whether Tang Siyu returns to China or not will change nothing. Everything has become a foregone conclusion. However, Tang Xiong's current situation has no possibility of waking up at all.

Tang Siyu can only send him an end when he comes back.

Qiu Lin goes to Li De to confirm Tang Xiong's condition. Li De is already an expert in this field. Of course, he knows that Tang Xiong is weak now. Even if he is sent to other hospitals, he will never be able to wake up.

He just has one last breath left. I don't know if he is unwilling to swallow it all the time. Therefore, he has been hanging.

In a word, Qiu Lin was very satisfied after she got the answer. She received the news from Chen Feng again and noticed that everything had been finalized. Moreover, Chen Feng, a lawyer, did everything perfectly.

However, in the distribution of the heritage, Qiu Lin gave Tang Siyu all of Tang Xiong's properties at home and abroad. However, the inheritance right of the company was in her hands, including the diamond company she ran, which belonged to her, and Tang Yiyi only got several houses.

This is also fair. Neither daughter got the company, while Qiu Lin owned all the shares of the company. Even Tang Siyu's mother's shares that had passed on to Tang Xiong's have become her.

In order to make sure, Qiu Lin called Lao Xu at 10 o'clock. Sure enough, Lao Xu said to call Tang Siyu at that end.

"I will fight if I fight! I've been busy and didn't expect to call her. What's her reaction? " Qiu Lin pretends to be grateful.

"As soon as the eldest lady heard that the master was seriously ill, she said she would return home immediately."

"Good! Thank you for calling her. Otherwise, she will blame me. " With that, Qiu Lin hung up, but her face changed.

Tang Siyu's coming back is good, so she won't blame her at that time. Now, when she comes back, she just looks at Tang Xiong.

On the plane, Tang Siyu looks out of the window at the clouds that are constantly floating behind her, but still feels that the plane is flying very slowly, because her heart is too anxious.

Xing liehan sits beside her, and her whole heart falls on her. All her emotions are infecting him at the same time. The anxious color of her fundus also makes his fundus a little worried.

The stewardess brewed two cups of coffee, Xing Lihan took one and handed it to her first. "Drink a cup of coffee to refresh your mind. There are eight hours left. You have to learn to calm down. At this time, all you can do is to have a good rest and go back to take care of your father."

"Well! Can you call here? " Tang Siyu suddenly turned to him and asked.

"What's the matter?"

"I think I want to contact Murphy. I want him to see my father first! " Tang Siyu doesn't feel at ease that Qiu Lin is by his father's side. Although she doesn't have any evidence to prove that Qiu Lin has a bad heart, she has a feeling of uneasiness.

Xing liehan's eyes slightly raised. "Are you sure you want to call him?"

"Yes! I want him to go to the hospital first to see my father, otherwise, I'm upset! " At this time, Tang Siyu really hopes that someone can visit her father for her, and mufei is very suitable.

The two Mu Tang families are friends again. When he goes to see his father, Qiu Lin will not stop him. Although she knows that Suxi may be in China, Qiu Lin does not like her friends all the time. What if she does not allow her to see his father?

Just now, she had to worry about mufei once.

Xing liehan was reluctant to let her contact mufei, but at the moment, he put his personal feelings aside first, and asked the stewardess to take a satellite phone, "this phone can be used."

Tang Siyu took over and said, "thank you!"

"Don't be polite to me." Xing liehan immediately frowned and retorted.

Tang Siyu was stunned for a second, then lowered her head. She just thought a little, and then directly pulled through the number of mufei.

Xing liehan looks at the number she memorizes in her heart. His heart is tightly held by an invisible wire. Does she remember the number of mufei clearly?

Did she remember his number?

"Hello!" Murphy's voice came from that end.

"Murphy is me! My father is in hospital. Can you go and see him? I'm on the plane back home now.
" Tang Siyu speaks to Mu Fei."Uncle is in hospital? When did it happen? "

"I'll be in the hospital in the afternoon! I don't know much about it. Can you go to the hospital for me first? " Tang Siyu's voice line is full of pleading color.

Then Murphy immediately said, "OK, Siyu, don't worry, I'll go to the hospital now!"

"It should be the one near my father's company. You can go!"

"I'll contact Yiyi to determine which hospital, and I'll go there immediately." There was no hesitation in Murphy's voice.

Tang Siyu is silent on the phone for a few seconds. She says softly, "mufei thank you!"

"Don't be polite to me, you know I'm willing to do anything for you!"

Murphy's voice was loud through the microphone in the quiet cabin. Xing liehan listened directly, and his face was slightly strained.

But at this time, no matter how jealous he is, he can't attack it, because he knows that Tang Siyu's concern for Tang Xiong is absolutely the most important thing.

Tang Siyu hangs up the phone. She gives a little sigh of relief. When she hands the phone to the stewardess, she turns her head and sees Xing liehan sitting on the side with an unpredictable look. She bites her lips and doesn't know what to say.

At this time, Xing liehan's big palm held her hand in a domineering way. He didn't say anything, but his nervous mood made Tang Siyu feel it.

Don Siyu blinked and said to him, "I'm just worried about my father."

"I didn't blame you!" After Xing liehan finished, he gently took her into his arms. "Everything depends on your father's illness."

Then he lowered his head and kissed her hair. "Your business is my business."

Chapter 247

In the hospital, Qiu Lin is standing beside Tang Xiong, who is unconscious. Suddenly, there is a knock outside the door. When Murphy pushes the door in, she can't help but be shocked. How is he coming?

Mu Fei looks at lying on the bed, with oxygen mask, and there are a lot of working equipment beside him

Qiu Lin immediately raised a pair of boiled red eyes, shook her head very painfully, "he has been sleeping." Then she said in surprise, "did Yi call you?"

"No, Siyu asked me to come here." Murphy left all relations between him and Tang Yiyi.

"Isn't she on the plane?" Qiu Lin said, and continued, "she and Xing liehan's family took her son on vacation."

Mufei's handsome face flashed a flash of consternation. When Tang Siyu called, he was with Xing liehan.

"What does uncle's doctor say?"

"He prepared us for it." After Qiu Lin finished, she looked at Tang Xiong again. After a night, Tang Xiong's face became more ugly, and he seemed to die at any time.

Murphy took a chair and sat down. Looking at Tang Xiong, Murphy was very worried. At the same time, he was also thinking about one thing. Tang Group is also a big company. Tang Xiong is in a coma. So does the management power of the whole company fall on Qiu Lin.

Murphy can't help but worry for Tang Siyu. Qiu Lin is a powerful character.

Time has never been so hard for Tang Siyu on the plane. Even if she has only one hour to arrive at city a international airport, she feels too long.

In the hospital, the doctor came to check for Tang Xiong from time to time, and her face was very dignified. Mufei also stayed in front of the bed. When Tang Yiyi came, she thought that mufei represented Tang Siyu, and she was very stuffy.

All of a sudden, Tang Xiong, who has been sleepy, suddenly has a reaction. He coughs suddenly in the oxygen mask. Moreover, his hands are still instinctively grasping, as if something is blocking his windpipe, making him unable to breathe.

Qiu Lin was startled. She hurriedly said to her assistant, "go and ask Dr. Li to come here. Go."

Qiu Lin only believes in Li De now, so she must let Li De come to check Tang Xiong's condition as soon as possible.

After a while, Li De hurriedly came over. He took two of his young assistants with him and came to take down Tang Xiong's oxygen mask. Tang Xiong closed his eyes and looked pale. As he coughed too hard, blood suddenly overflowed from his mouth and coughed up blood.

"My God! What's going on? What happened to Old Tang? What happened to him? " Qiu Lin covered her mouth with fear and sobbed.

"Push the patient into the operating room for emergency surgery." Li De immediately told his assistant. Li De was also worried about whether Tang Xiong would wake up. He had to make sure that he would not see anyone again before he died.

Murphy was also frightened. He wanted to help, but the doctors were enough. He could only stand by and watch Tang Xiong being rushed into the operating room at the end of the corridor.

"Old Tang, old Tang must not have an accident!" Qiu Lin stood at the door with a worried expression.

Murphy glanced at her, and he felt that Qiu Lin was not really worried or sad, because she did not shed any tears in her eyes except for her exaggerated expression.

Murphy saw Tang Xiong like this, but he was still in a hurry. He stepped aside and took out his mobile phone to call Tang Siyu. He thought that if she got off the plane, maybe she could get through.

As it happens, Tang Siyu just got off the plane. When she was passing the aisle, she started the plane. After a while, Murphy's phone came in.

As soon as her heart strings tightened, she quickly picked up, "Hello! Murphy! "

"Siyu, where are you! Come to the hospital! Uncle is dying. " Murphy's voice was very anxious.

Tang Siyu's eyes were filled with grief. "OK, I'll come right away."

Xing liehan, who is standing beside her, takes the initiative to take her bag to her hand, then takes her hand and strides to the gate of the airport, where his bodyguard has parked his car.

At the gate of the airport, Xing liehan personally drove with Tang Siyu to the second hospital in the city center.

Xing liehan drove the car into the hospital at the fastest speed. At the gate of the hall, he said to Tang Siyu, "you go up first, I'll stop and come up right away."

Tang Siyu nodded, grabbed the bag and ran into the hall.

At the moment, Tang Xiong is still in the operating room. Tang Siyu runs to the corridor outside the operating room and sees mufei and Qiu Lin's mother and daughter. Her eyes are on the bright ice blue operating room door.

Her heart was tight, and she said to Murphy, "what's wrong with my dad? Why are they still in surgery? "

"Your father has been dizzy, but an hour ago, he coughed up blood, the situation is very crisis, now is in the operating room rescue." Murphy said, seeing her coming alone, he was stunned.

Xing liehan doesn't come with her at this time?Qiu Lin sees her coming back, and her heart strings are also strained. Now, what she is most afraid of is Tang Siyu. If it was her before, she would not have to worry about it. But now Tang Siyu has given birth to Xing liehan's child, and suddenly there is a big tree to rely on behind her.

"Aunt Qiu, how can my father do this?" Tang Siyu went to Qiu Lin and asked her.

Qiu Lin looked at her and complained, "you ask me, who do I ask? Your father's heart is not good. You are still running out of the country. Don't you say to be with him? "

Tang Siyu's inner self reproach. At this moment, Qiu Lin's words make her more remorse.

Yes, she shouldn't have gone abroad!

At this time, a cold voice behind her sounded, "it's no wonder that Siyu, when she left, her uncle's body had recovered."

Tang Siyu turns around and Xing liehan steps from the corner of the corridor.

Qiu Lin watched Xing liehan come, and her eyes immediately turned defensive. She took back her eyes and remained silent.

"Elder sister, you are so capable! Are your predecessors and incumbents coming and not afraid of their fighting? " On one side, Tang Yiyi was even interested in mocking her.

Tang Siyu's eyes shot coldly at her. "Shut up!"

"I Why should I shut up! My mouth is on me. I'll say what I want to say. " Tang Yiyi immediately disagreed.

Qiu Lin didn't want her daughter to fall into the trap at this time. She could not help but scold her, "Yiyi, at this time, say less!"

Tang Yiyi immediately bit his lips and chopped his feet, but his eyes secretly went to glance at Xing liehan.

Chapter 248

It must be that this man is ordinary, but she didn't have a chance to see him. However, she looked at Xing liehan more often, but found that his eyes fell on Tang Siyu gently and worried, and she was secretly angry and bitter.

Tang Siyu went to the door of the operating room and asked mufei, "how long has my father been in?"

"Almost an hour." Murphy answered.

Qiu Lin's eyes also stared at the door of the operating room. She only begged Li De inside to make Tang Xiong never wake up, otherwise, everything would be ruined.

After ten minutes or so, the lights in the operating room went out. Then, the door opened, and Li De and his disciples came out together. They were wearing operating clothes and their chests were still stained with blood. Tang Siyu looked at them, and his heart almost jumped out.

"Doctor, how is my father?" Tang Siyu asked quickly.

Li De turns around and sees Tang Xiong's eldest daughter coming back. His face is tense under his mask. He says in a deep voice, "it's not very good. It's not optimistic. Your family should be prepared for future affairs."

When Tang Siyu heard this, her body shook. Xing liehan, who was standing behind her, grabbed her shoulder and hugged her.

Li De's eyes met Qiu Lin's, and he continued in a heavy voice, "Madam Tang, I'm sorry."

"It's life, Dr. Li. We didn't blame you." Qiu Lin immediately covered her chest and said sadly.

Tang Yiyi is silent. No matter how headstrong she is, her father is going to die and she is quiet.

At this time, Tang Xiong put on the ventilator after the operation and pushed it out. Tang Siyu looked at her father on the bed. Her tears flowed out. She held on to the bed and watched him in the gray suit. Suddenly, he became skinny and bony, and her heart felt like pain.

"Dad Dad Tang Siyu's low cry of grief.

Behind him, Xing liehan's heart ached too. He was not only in love with this woman, but also worried that Tang Xiong would really leave her.

Qiu Lin also hurriedly pulls Tang Yiyi over. She can't let Tang Siyu be filial alone. She also wants her daughter to behave in front of the public. Although she knows that her daughter doesn't care much about Tang Xiong's father and daughter.

"Dad..." Tang Yiyi is also crying.

Corridor, full of a solemn breath of grief.

Mufei has become a fist by Tang Siyu's side. But now, Xing liehan is the only one who can comfort Tang Siyu.

Xing liehan stands in Tang Siyu's two steps. He will never be too far away. He is afraid that this woman will faint at any time. He can firmly catch her and prevent her from being hurt.

Tang Xiong is pushed to the ward. Tang Siyu sits in front of the bed. Qiu Lin and Tang Yiyi are also there. Xing liehan is outside the corridor. Opposite him, mufei doesn't leave either.

The two men are speechless. At the moment, both of them are converging their relative rage.

Tang Siyu calmed down a little. She got up and walked out of the room. She wanted to talk to the attending doctor about whether her father was saved or whether she needed to change the hospital.

"I'll talk to the doctor." Tang Siyu looks at Xing liehan with tears in her eyes. Her eyes are strong.

"I'll go with you." Xing liehan has his head.

Tang Siyu looks at mufei and says, "mufei, thank you."

"Don't mention it. My uncle is also my respected elder." Murphy shook his head.

Tang Siyu walks to Li De's office. Li Degang just takes off his surgical suit and sits at his position. He looks up and sees Tang Siyu coming in, accompanied by a young man of extraordinary momentum for a year. He usually likes reading commercial newspapers and magazines. He will be able to see the young man's appearance clearly.

He was shocked immediately. Is it Xing liehan, the current president of Xing group, standing beside Miss Tang?

"Dr. Li, I want to know the specific condition of my father now." Tang Siyu asked Li De seriously.

Li De immediately made a heavy look and stared at her with his hands clasped. "Miss Tang, your father's condition has reached an incurable place. His heart has undergone two operations. In a short time, he can't afford the third operation. In that case, the operation itself is a strong risk."

"Then he When will he wake up? " Tang Siyu's heart ached because of Li De's words.

"It's hard to say that Mr. Tang was suffering from myocardial infarction at first, and it's still a serious type. When he sent it this time, he was already suffering from heart failure, which is also prone to sudden death."

"How could my dad suddenly faint? Didn't you say last time that it would only be triggered by serious stimulation? "

Li De's heart trembled, but his face remained calm. "Yes, it's possible, but I don't know what caused your father to faint. I only do what a doctor should do."

Xing liehan said in a voice, "Mr. Tang's condition, can you change to a hospital?"

"Mr. Tang has been treating me. I know his condition better. Moreover, the equipment in our hospital is first-class and advanced. I don't think it's necessary. If you insist, I have no opinion! However, I would like to say that Mr. Tang has just undergone surgery, he is not suitable for moving, because his cardiovascular wall is very thin, if anything happens on the road, none of us can be responsible. " Li De wants to get rid of the idea that they want to transfer Tang Xiong."Doctor, I beg you, you must save my father, no matter how much money, no matter what kind of medicine you use, please help him." Tang Siyu pleaded.

Li De nodded, "I will try my best! I'm a little tired. I want to have a rest. My assistant doctor will look after your father's condition at any time. "

Tang Siyu comes out of Li De's office. She needs to know something urgently. What is it that causes her father to faint under the stimulation.

She opened the door of the ward and said to Qiu Lin, "aunt Qiu, may I have a word with you?"

Qiu Lin's eyes were reluctant, but she still wanted to know what Tang Siyu wanted to say. She got up and walked with her to the corridor next to the ward.

"Aunt Qiu, I'd like to ask you, do you know what kind of stimulation my father suffered when he fainted this time? What stimulated him to faint suddenly? " Tang Siyu asked directly.

Qiu Lin's face changed. She immediately pretended to sigh, "I don't know. You should ask Xu more clearly. He came to the hospital with you."

"What's going on in the company?" Tang Siyu asked again.

"Maybe! Your father is really worried about the company's recent loopholes. " Qiu Lin wants Tang Siyu to put the reason on the company.

"Where were you then, aunt Qiu?" Tang Siyu asked again.

Qiu Lin's face immediately became ugly and fierce. She asked around her arm, "what do you mean, Tang Siyu? Where do I need to report to you? "

Tang Siyu is stunned. Qiu Lin's reaction shocked her for a few seconds. She just asked about it. Does she need such a big reaction?

Chapter 249

"I'm just asking." Tang Siyu stares at Qiu Lin.

Qiu Lin's face is even worse because of her lack of heart. "Don't argue with me, Tang Siyu, if you care about your father, you should care about your father! Don't mess with me. "

Finish saying, Qiu Lin hummed to leave, Tang Siyu stood in situ to ponder for a few seconds, Qiu Lin's reaction was excessive.

Tang Siyu asked for Lao Xu's phone number from the company. She dialed it directly. Lao Xu said everything that happened yesterday afternoon. Tang Siyu was most shocked, "you said Qiu Lin was in the hospital at that time?"

"Yes! My wife was in the hospital. She arrived first. We saw her car in the parking lot. "

"What is she doing in the hospital?"

"She said to have a check-up. I was on the phone. I turned around and saw her."

"OK! Thank you Uncle Xu. "

"How's president Tang?"

"My dad hasn't woken up yet." Tang Siyu sighed.

Back in the ward, Tang Siyu is guarding Tang Xiong's side. She looks at her father's thin face. Her tears are still falling silently. At this time, a paper towel is handed over.

Tang Siyu looks up at Xing liehan standing behind her. She takes the paper towel and stays behind with tears. At the moment, she really doesn't know what else to do for her father.

Li De's people are also coming to check on a regular basis. However, Li De is not worried. Tang Xiong only takes one last breath. Either tonight or tomorrow, he will leave the world.

Tang Siyu accompanied Tang Xiong until 8 p.m., but she couldn't eat anything. Xing liehan accompanied her, and he didn't leave, let alone go to dinner.

Mufei left first. He knew that there was Xing liehan here, and he could not do anything.

At about eight o'clock, suddenly tangxiong fell asleep and his body convulsed violently, which frightened Qiu Lin and her daughter. Tang Siyu cried happily to his back, "please call the doctor."

At that time, there was only Xing liehan in the room, who immediately opened the door and rushed to Li De's office.

Tang Siyu feels that her father is hard to breathe, and her heart is more painful than anything else.

"Dad Dad How are you doing? What's wrong with you? " Tang Siyu was in a hurry to cry.

At this time, Tang Xiong, who had been closing his eyes, suddenly opened his eyes. His eyes were radiant. When he saw the three faces in front of him, he raised his hand with the last strength and pointed his fingers at Qiu Lin. He seemed to want to say something, but he only sent out the difficult "er Er... " Sound.

Tang Siyu is about to cry. Her eyes look at her father's hands. Her father's fingers point to Qiu Lin. He seemed to be eager to say something to Qiu Lin, but his eyes widened, as if there were some strong resentment in them.

Qiu Lin is confused by Tang Xiong's finger and his resentful eyes. She holds Tang Xiong's hand and says, "don't talk, old Tang. I know what you want to say. Don't talk I know that. "

Tang Siyu looks at his father's expression and finds that after Qiu Lin finishes speaking, his father's eyes are more full of resentment, as if he is very angry

Tang Siyu looks at Qiu Lin and sees that Qiu Lin's expression is not grief, but a kind of panic and fear. Tang Siyu's heartstrings pull hard. What does his father want to say? What did Qiu Lin do to her father?

However, Tang Siyu heard Tang Yiyi scream, "ah Dad's out of breath... "

Tang Siyu hurriedly looked at his father, but Tang Xiong's eyes were still staring, but his hands fell heavily on the quilt, and his expression at the last moment was still like death in peace.

Tang Siyu's head went blank. At this moment, the most intense grief seized her. She knelt down in front of the bed and cried out, "Dad Dad

When Xing liehan pushed the door open and came in, he was followed by Li De and his doctors. However, what they saw was the most sad scene in the room.

Tang Xiong died.

Xing liehan's handsome face also flashed strong pain. He looked at Tang Siyu who knelt on the ground and cried. He walked to her side, squatted gently on her side, reached out to support her shoulder and comforted her silently.

"Old Tang, why did you leave! Why did you just leave me like this! You are so cruel, you are so cruel Leave my son and mother behind! " Qiu Lin also lies on Tang Xiong's quilt, crying deeply.

Tang Yiyi finally understood that her father had left and would never be in the world. She also sobbed.

When Li De came here, he saw Tang Xiong's face that he didn't want to die. His heart was still shaking. After he reached for his breath, he closed Tang Xiong's eyes.

He thought that this matter, Tianyi seamless, he and Qiu Lin's matter, this life will not be found, on the contrary, he looked at Qiu Lin, the bottom of his heart filled with an idea, in the future, he and Qiu Lin can be together in the right light.

Her husband died anyway. When she went to see her father's face again, she saw the stiff expression of her father, the clenched teeth, her tearful eyes, and a touch of resentment staring at Qiu Lin in the opposite direction.

She knew that she had a strong pain. Was Qiu Lin responsible for her father's death?

My father's last finger is definitely for a reason. In his radiant eyes, I can see his anger clearly. What stimulated him when he fainted?

She must find out. She must know why her father was stimulated.

"Madam Tang, Miss Tang, Miss Tang Er, by the way! Now the most important thing is to arrange the family's affairs. Death, old age and death are normal. We still have to choose to face it. " Li De said that.

Tang Siyu shook her head. She didn't want to leave her father. "I don't want to I don't want to leave my dad. "

"But the patient has passed away. We still need to move him to binyi hall. We can't let him in the hospital!"

"If the man has already gone, let him go!" Qiu Lin said, holding Tang Xiong's stiff hand, "Old Tang, I will deal with your affairs well. You can go safely!"

Tang Siyu looks at Qiu Lin in grief and finds that Qiu Lin has only a few tears. Her expression is as fake as ever.

She is so familiar with her fake expression. She didn't expect that at the last moment of her father's departure, she could act out. How cruel is she?

She looked at her father. She felt that before he died, he absolutely wanted to say something. Tang Siyu tightly clenched his fist. She would never let his father die in an ambiguous way.

Chapter 250

When Tang Xiong's body was sent out of the hospital, Tang Siyu almost fainted. She wanted to go and pull the cart. They were not allowed to send her father away. But she had a pair of hands and pressed her tightly on a chest, which made her unable to pass. She could only watch her father's body being sent to the car and watched the car drive away.

"Dad Dad Tang Siyu hissed.

Xing liehan's arm encircles her and refuses to let her do some irrational things. No matter what, Tang Xiong has passed away. Tang Siyu must bear this thing, even if it is cruel or sad.

The facts are settled.

"Why did you stop me Why? " Tang Siyu clenches his fist and beats it on the man's chest, as if blaming him, blaming him, but where does her fist have a trace of strength?

It is soft and even more painful for Xing lie. He holds her shoulder in one hand and lets her vent her emotions at the moment. At the moment, if beating him can help her eliminate some pain, he is willing to.

However, Tang Siyu is beating, but at last he throws it into his arms. His teeth are clenched tightly into his fists, and he can't cry.

"Don't cry, uncle will leave, let him go at ease! He must not want to see you like this. " Xing liehan comforts her.

When Tang Siyu heard his words, she cried even more. She knew that her father was not at ease when he left, and he was very resentful. Thinking of this, Tang Siyu felt his heart was broken.

But at the moment, she can't tell anyone about it, because her current mood can't calm down, and she can't even speak completely.

She was buried in the grief of the loss of a close relative.

Qiu Lin led Tang Yiyi and said, "Yiyi, let's hurry to accompany your father."

"Well!" Tang Yiyi said with red eyes.

Next to Qiu Lin's assistant, Qiu Lin and Tang Yiyi drive in and chase the funeral home car.

Tang Siyu also inhaled his nose, and with a thick cry, he went to Xing lie's cold path. "Can you send me there?"

"Of course, let's go!" Xing liehan finished, took her hand and walked to the direction of his car.

Tang Siyu sat in the car and said nothing but tears like broken beads, which came out of her eyes in series and could not stop.

Xing liehan takes out several pieces of paper. He leans over and gently wipes them for her. Tang Siyu reaches out to take over his paper and says, "let's go!"

Xing lie nodded, started the sports car and rushed out of the gate.

Along the way, even though Tang Siyu stopped her tears, she was still silent. Her mind was full of memories of her father's last waking moment. In a few seconds, her father told her something. Her father died of hatred, which became her greatest grief.

She couldn't think of it. What was my father's last word? He pointed at Qiu Lin to say, what did Qiu Lin do to her father?

His father had a heart attack, and his assistant, Lao Xu, accompanied him to the hospital. So, in the middle of this, what else happened, we can only find Lao Xu to understand.

Xing liehan's eyes, always worried about the girl's face, looked at her like a lifeless doll, and his heart was stuffy and aching, but Tang Xiong said to leave.

As his daughter, Tang Siyu does not have any ideological preparation, and will be in agony for anyone.

Along the way, Tang Siyu's silence, coupled with her sad expression, had some complex emotions that he could not understand, which made Xing liehan worry about whether she was too sad and had bad thoughts?

"If you want to cry, cry again!" Xing lie's voice was low and cold.

Tang Siyu sighed, and his eyes got wet again. "My father's body can't have an accident so soon! Something must have happened in between. I want to know what caused my father's heart attack. "

Xing liehan is shocked a little. Tang Siyu is so calm that he can't believe it.

"And who do you think your father's death is related to?" Xing liehan asked with a slight frown.

"I think there's something about Qiu Lin. you were not there. My father was briefly awake for more than ten seconds when he finally died. He looked up and pointed at Qiu Lin at that time. His expression was full of resentment, but he couldn't speak. He clearly wanted to say something, which must be the cause of his death." Tang Siyu finished, the calm expression collapsed again, she closed her eyes, a line of clear tears fell on her cheek, it seemed extremely painful.

Xing liehan's heart strings vibrated. He believed Tang Siyu's words directly, because he also paid attention to Qiu Lin's expression. Instead of losing her husband's sadness, he was more like acting.

Based on his understanding of the Tang family, Xing liehan is not hard to imagine Qiu Lin's ambition. She wants to take the whole Tang family group as an existing one, and Tang Siyu's existence is a threat.

If she has such a mind, then, she killed Tang Xiong by hand, it may not happen.

"If it's true, I'll find it out for you when your father is settled." Xing liehan said firmly. Tang Siyu closed his eyes and opened them. His long wet eyelashes were glistening. They were pitiful.

"Thank you! I have to find out about it. " Tang Siyu said, biting his teeth.

"If so, you can first stop your father from cremation, in case your father's body can't find out why?" Xing liehan proposed.

Tang Siyu suddenly realized, "yes, maybe it's my father's health."

Xing liehan's speed was speeded up immediately. He chased the car ahead and stopped before the cremation.

Tang Siyu doesn't want to let go of any place where she can find out the cause.

Qiu Lin's car was also behind her. Soon, she saw a overtaking car passing by. Tang Yiyi immediately called out, "it's Xing liehan's car. They catch up."

Qiu Lin's eyes flashed with anxiety. She didn't expect Tang Xiong to wake up for more than ten seconds before he died. Besides, his fingers still pointed at her and said what he wanted to say. Fortunately, he couldn't say anything. But his expression and fingers must have made Tang Siyu find something.

Qiu Lin was a little uneasy about this. However, she thought that Tang Xiong saw her affair with Li De with his own eyes, but no one else knew about it except him and Li De.

"Speed up and keep up." Qiu Lin gave an order to the assistant.

In front of the funeral home, Tang Xiong's body was carried down covered with a layer of white cloth. Tang Siyu came out to see this picture, and his heart collapsed again. Tears poured out like a water halter.

"Mr. Tang's remains need not be cremated. We want to freeze them first." Xing liehan said to the chief executive.
