

U. CEO Daddy 531

Chapter 531

Suqin steps down the elevator, breathes a little, and walks to the office. She sits down for a while, but she doesn't get a call from Xuanyuan Chen. She is thinking about whether to send a cup of tea in now.

However, in general, he would press the internal line directly when he needed to. Suqin went into the tea room and began to wash the old cups carefully.

Suqin back to the direction of the door, she did not know, in the direction of the door, there is a shadow running through the window, quietly staring at her back for a few seconds to go by.

It was xuanyuanchen who came back to his office with a smile of good mood on his lips. He followed Li Sen. Li Sen's heart was filled with surprise. It seems that some things are developing completely beyond his expectation.

Ten minutes later, Suqin's inner line rang, her heart pounded a little, calmly picked up, "Mr. President, what do you need?"

"Bring in two cups of tea!" Xuanyuanchen's voice line, gentle as if in order to her, call her, listen to people comfortable.

Suqin naturally heard that, she chuckled, "OK!"

Hung up the phone, Su Qin sent a few seconds of Zheng, hurriedly to brew two cups of tea end to his office direction.

In xuanyuanchen's office, there are only two people, he and Li Sen. Su Qin first put tea in front of xuanyuanchen, and then put it in Li Sen's place. When she bent down, she felt a pair of eyes staring at her.

She knew who it was, but she didn't dare to meet it. "Please use it slowly."

Su Qin said with a smile in her eyes and left with the tray.

Xuanyuanchen is slightly lost. He can feel that since he kissed her last night, Suqin has a more distant feeling towards him.

Suqin has left. Li Sen looks up at the president beside him and says with a smile, "Sir, let's continue to customize the itinerary!"

Xuanyuanchen seems to have a kind of feeling of returning to God. He gently nods, "OK! What's the date? "

"We have just changed the itinerary of your overseas visit next week, and have advanced your time to five days later. Do you have any opinion?"

Xuanyuanchen took a look at the itinerary and replied, "No."

"That is to say, we will make all preparations in advance and fly to country D. besides a few cabinet ministers, who else do you need to take with you? If you have any, let me know now, so that I can make arrangements. "

Xuanyuanchen narrowed his eyes and thought, "I still want to take someone."

"Who is it?"

"Suqin, take her with you." Xuanyuanchen's eyes had a smile. When he saw Li Sen's surprise, he smiled and explained seriously, "I'm used to letting her stay with me now. I'll be more comfortable with her."

Li Sen is funny. Mr. President, you really don't need to explain. If you explain further, it will change the flavor.

You want to take Miss Suqin's mind, I know it very well! However, in this way, Li Sen can only say a few words in his heart, how dare he really kill and wear the paper that the president fell in love with!

However, he dare not say whether this is a good thing or a bad thing. The identity gap between Mr. President and Suqin is too wide.

Suqin returns to the office. Half an hour later, Li Sen knocks on the door and informs her that she will accompany xuanyuanchen on her trip abroad in five days. Suqin can't help but be shocked. She is going?

However, Li Sen is very sure that she must go, and there is no room for refutation.

In fact, Suqin didn't want to go, but it was strange that she would be invited together.

In the office of the Ministry of Commerce on the fourth floor, Duan Zixuan's work mood was still troubled by Su Qin's indifference, which made him not even focus on his work before. He always thought of the past with Su Qin, so beautiful, so sweet, Su Qin's smile and frown, so precious for him, he really hoped to have such a love again.

But Suqin was here, but he felt her coldness and distance.

Duanzixuan can't help but open the previously saved photos. In the photos, Suqin is more green, but her smile, her eyes, are still unchanged. Now she is more mature, and has a charm that men can admire. Duanzixuan's spirits are more fallen.

Duanzixuan breathed a sigh. He felt that his mind was gone, and his mind was full of Suqin's face. He was so mad that he wanted to go upstairs to find her immediately, to make it clear to her, and to recover her feelings.

As long as Suqin gives him even a chance, his heart will have expectations, not so restless.

Duan Zixuan immediately stood up and said to his assistant, "I'll go out for a while."

With that, he walked very firmly to the direction of the elevator.

Suqin is looking at some news of the internal mail in her office. Suddenly, there is a knock outside the door. Only two knocks, and the people outside the door can't wait to push the door in.

Suqin can't help but look up and see duanzixuan come in with a little gasp and her eyes are burning.

Su Qin stood up from his position and looked at duanzixuan's figure. "You What are you doing here?" Suqin was also shocked by his eyes, because duanzixuan's expression had a kind of fanatical atmosphere that made her uneasy.

"Suqin, I have something to tell you." Duanzixuan can't suppress his desire to express. He wants to let her know how hot his heart is and how much he loves her.

"It's working time. I don't have time to chat with you." Suqin looked at him calmly and didn't plan to talk.

"It only takes you ten minutes. I only need ten." Duanzixuan only needs two minutes. He hopes that Suqin can listen to him carefully.

Suqin shook his head. "Not for a minute. Hurry back to work!"

Duanzixuan looked at her cold attitude, and his face changed. He thought of the gossip he heard about her and Mr. President in his office in the last two days. At this moment, duanzixuan suddenly felt uneasy. Is that true?

Suqin really can't help but secretly like Mr. President? Otherwise, why such a refusal to him!

"Suqin, I really have something to tell you." Duanzixuan said, immediately reached forward and clasped Suqin's wrist, pulling her out of the door.

"Duanzixuan, what are you doing? You let go of me, do you hear me! " Suqin warns him in a low voice. However, she wants to struggle. Duanzixuan holds her tightly. She can't open it. She can only be forced out of the office by him.

Duan Zixuan knows that there is a free conference room at the other end of the corridor. He wants to go there and have a good chat with Suqin.

At this time, the conference room is very quiet and empty. There are no people. It's a good place to chat and talk. Duanzixuan pushes open an empty conference room and leads Suqin in.

Chapter 532

"Duanzixuan, don't mess around. Are you crazy? I said let me go. " Suqin is a little angry. Duanzixuan presses her on the chair and holds her arms on the armrest of the chair, which makes her unable to get up.

"Listen to me, Suqin. I won't hurt you." Duanzixuan at the moment, just want to wake up Suqin, let her not to do those unrealistic ideas.

Suqin a pair of clear water eyes, pan angry, looking at this once loved face, she found that maybe really do not love it! So, the anger in her heart is really angry.

"If you have anything to say, I need to work." Suqin said coldly to him.

Duanzixuan just pulled Suqin in. He just kicked the door of the conference room with his feet. The door was closed, but there was still a gap left.

At the moment, outside the corridor, xuanyuanchen and Li Sen just came out of the next meeting room. Just after they came out, they heard the voice of people coming from the next meeting room. They both stopped at the same place.

"Suqin, I really can't forget our past." Duanzixuan's voice came out.

Outside, xuanyuanchen's eyes narrowed slightly. The voice was duanzixuan's, and inside, Suqin was also there?

"What else do you want to express?" Suqin's voice sounded.

When Li Sen saw the president standing still, he did not leave.

"These days, I have heard some rumors in my office. Can you tell me about you and Mr. President, is this true? Do you really like Mr. President? " Duanzixuan's voice was very hurt, as if she had betrayed her.

In the conference room, Suqin suddenly heard duanzixuan's words, his face was slightly red, and his tone was a little flustered. "Who did you listen to?"

"A lot of employees are secretly discussing this matter. I believe that it should not be something out of nothing, right? Suqin, I want you to tell me whether you are really chasing the president. "

Duanzixuan's eyes were fixed on her, asking for an answer.

This is probably the last rumor Suqin wants to hear now. She grins her teeth and replies, "of course not."

Duanzixuan sighed, "Suqin, although I don't know why you come here to work, I used to know you as a girl who knows what she wants. Are you confused now? Confused enough to dream unrealistic dreams? "

Suqin really didn't know what duanzixuan was going to say. She bit her lip and said, "what do you want to say?"

"I can't believe that the rumors are true. I just want you to be sober and not fall in love with the man who can't fall in love with you. Who is Mr. President? He's not a man who any woman dares to provoke. There's a big gap between you and him. " Duanzixuan wanted to wake her up with more cruel words.

Suqin eyes slightly, duanzixuan's words are really like a whip in her heart. Can you love a man you can't love? Identity dangzhu, can not provoke, Suqin from last night to now, she has been very upset.

At the moment, duanzixuan dug out some things she didn't dare to touch, which made her wake up.

Like to refute duanzixuan's words, Suqin said with a very firm voice, "you're wrong, I didn't fall in love with anyone."

"Really? You're not in love with the president? You didn't want to get close to him, either? "

Duanzixuan asked happily.

Suqin didn't know why she wanted to answer him, but she seemed to be alerting herself. She said calmly, "no! I just want to do my job well. "

Standing outside the door, Li Sen glanced at the man around him involuntarily. He felt something cold emanating from him, and the expressionless but narrow eyes, as if there were some emotions in the depression.

In the conference room, duanzixuan breathed a sigh of relief. "I thought you were like those employees who said that you had to go out of your way to catch up with Mr. President and try to be the first lady in the future!"

Suqin's face turned red. She didn't expect that she would be said to be such a power hungry woman in the hearts of those employees. She retorted, "I know how much I have."

"Suqin, can you come back to me? You know I think you're going crazy these days. I'm worried that you're really addicted to power. I'm worried that you're going to go into an emotional abyss where you can't turn back. I'm worried that you're going to approach Mr. President with unrealistic dreams, and finally you're beaten back to your original shape and nowhere to live. I love you very much. " Duanzixuan's voice is full of uneasiness and tenderness.

Suqin didn't hear his tenderness, but he heard his cruel words. Duanzixuan presented the things she didn't dare to think deeply, so frankly in front of her.

To fall in love with Mr. President is an act beyond our capacity. It is an unrealistic dream.

So that kiss last night doesn't mean anything at all! She can't lose herself.

"Suqin, are you listening to me?" Duanzixuan saw her as if in trance, some excited asked.

"I'm going back to work." Suqin didn't react in duanzixuan, pushed his hand away, got up from the chair and strode to the door. At the door, hearing her footsteps, xuanyuanchen quickly pulled Li Sen, and the two retreated back to the back of the conference room door.

After Suqin left, duanzixuan's figure seemed to be chasing her.

Li Sen looked up at the president beside him in a complicated mood. At this moment, he found that he didn't know what to say.

"Go back!" But xuanyuanchen said in a deep voice, his long legs stepped out quickly, as if they were going somewhere.

Li Sen hurried to follow him.

When Suqin walked quickly to the office, duanzixuan couldn't help chasing him. "Suqin..."

Suqin is at the door of her office. Duanzixuan clasps her wrist again. Suqin struggles for a moment. "Let me go, please leave."

"I won't let it go unless you promise to be with me again." Duanzixuan can't help but use the tone of childish threat.

Suqin hasn't answered yet, and a low, unhappy voice rings behind her. "What are you doing at work?"

Su Qin was so scared that he broke away duanzixuan's hand. Duanzixuan was so scared that he stood up straight and called respectfully to the man walking behind him, "Mr. President, I I'm just going to talk to assistant Su about something. "

Xuanyuanchen's eyes swept Suqin's slightly blushing face and bit his teeth. "If it's a private matter, please talk after work."

With that, he took Li Sen over the two of them to his office.

Chapter 533

After xuanyuanchen left, Suqin's eyes looked angrily at duanzixuan, "don't disturb my work again."

Finish saying, she walked into her office, duanzixuan at the moment, there are thousands of words can only press first, because he just clearly heard xuanyuanchen seems very angry.

Xuanyuanchen is famous for being strict with his subordinates. Therefore, when he and Suqin talk about personal matters at work, he will certainly be angry.

Even if duanzixuan has the ability, he can't live with the most noble man in this country, so he has to leave bitterly.

When Suqin returned to the office, her heart was more disordered at the moment. Duanzixuan, those ugly gossip, and other things that had not yet been straightened out, made her mind seem mixed and difficult to calm.

In the eyes of those employees, is she a woman who is greedy for power? Suqin smiled bitterly. She had never had such a dream. Even if she had a better chance to approach xuanyuanchen than other women, she would never have unrealistic ideas about him.

Suqin used to be a very self-control person emotionally. Otherwise, she has been pursuing her for many years. If she is really not rational about her feelings, she would have chosen some men to spend her life together.

She also tasted the taste of being abandoned, tasted the pain of being abandoned, how could she be so stupid that she fell into a relationship without a future at all?

Xuanyuanchen is like the flower of kaolin on the snow mountain, which can't be picked. But she is just a lot of ordinary plants, which can't match at all.

In xuanyuanchen's office, Li Sen stood quietly beside him for a long time. He had just discussed the documents in the meeting room, but the man at the desk had not yet signed them.

He just looked down at one place, as if immersed in his own mind, as if he had forgotten that he was waiting for documents.

Li Sen wanted to remind him, but he thought it was beyond his authority, so he had to continue to be an invisible and transparent person! When will you remember to sign it!

At last, the man on the desk seemed to be back to his senses. He glanced at the standing Li Sen, reached for the document in front of him, held up the pen and signed it very neatly. He handed the document to Li Sen, "go to work!"

"Your Excellency, are you all right?" Li Sen can't help but want to care.

"How could I have something?" Xuanyuanchen doesn't take it for granted and answers. Reaching for a document, it looks as if Li Sen doesn't bother and walks to the door.

Xuanyuanchen took the document and just opened it, but his eyes were fixed on it and he found that he didn't even read a word.

In his mind, it's all the words that Suqin just answered duanzixuan, "no!"

What a firm and absolute sentence.

No, from the beginning to the present, even after the kiss last night, this woman has not fallen in love with him, no, no sense of him!

Xuanyuanchen never felt that his male charm had been so ignored, which made him feel angry for no reason. It seemed that there was a strong depression in his heart, which could not be let out and dissipated.

He bit his thin lips, reached out and pressed Suqin's inner line.

"Mr. President, what can I do for you?" The sound of Suqin was quiet.

"Give me a cup of coffee." Xuanyuanchen asked for a sentence, then hung up the phone.

After su Qin answered the phone, she felt that xuanyuanchen must be in a bad mood at the moment! Did he get angry at work?

Suqin gets up to make a cup of coffee that he usually likes to drink, carries it in the tray and walks to xuanyuanchen's office door. She knocks on the door.

"Come in." A very heavy male voice.

When Su Qin pushed the door into his office, he was the only one sitting on the chair. Su Qin stole a glance at his face, which was not as pleasant as in the morning. It was gloomy, as if there were some unhappiness in it.

"Your coffee, Mr. President." Suqin carefully placed his coffee in front of him, and she picked up the tray to leave.

"Wait a minute, and pack up the table for me." Xuanyuanchen stopped her.

Suqin put the tray on the tea table beside the sofa, and came to sort out some misplaced materials beside him. There was a low pressure in the whole office, which made Suqin's heart string tense and didn't know who offended him.

She rarely saw such a bad time for him, so she found that when he was in a bad mood, it was a very stressful thing to stay by his side.

"Do you remember what your dream is?" Xuanyuanchen holds the coffee and drinks it while looking up at her.

Suqin is gathering up the materials. Lengbuding hears him ask. She pauses for a few seconds, and then thinks about it carefully. Only then can she find that she has no dream for a long time.

"I can't remember for a moment." Suqin smiled helplessly and answered him.

"Do you think dreams matter?" Xuanyuanchen continues to ask. "Of course it's important! Dream is a kind of spiritual sustenance, and also a goal for people to strive for. " Suqin answered him in a very general way, but she didn't know what was bothering him and why he asked her this.

"So, one should have a dream. What if it comes true?" Xuanyuanchen's eyes are burning and pressing, which is meaningful.

However, Suqin didn't know what he was going to express at all. She was stunned, and then she smiled, "yes, that's right."

"So, no matter what dream you have, just let go and pursue it. Maybe the result is different from what you think."

"Eh? OK, I see. " Suqin blinked, today's Xuanyuan Chen is something wrong!

"In the future, don't let me see you chatting with your ex boyfriend when you are at work. You should kiss me and do my business after work." Xuanyuanchen's cold warning.

Suqin's pretty face was a little red, and could not help explaining, "we didn't..."

"It's not good to talk about personal matters." Xuanyuan Chen squints Mou to warn again.

Suqin found that the explanation was useless, so she nodded seriously, "OK, I know."

Xuanyuanchen took a piece of information and said, "go out!"

Suqin had to pick up the tray and clean up the two tea cups on it. Xuanyuanchen's eyes fell on the figure she left and became more and more mysterious.

When Suqin returned to the office, she went to wash the cups. In her mind, xuanyuanchen suddenly mentioned her dream. She thought about it carefully. It seems that she really forgot the word dream recently. Does she have any dream? I don't think so.

If she has any dream, it is to do the job well, get the recognition of xuanyuanchen, and hope that her own and his words can disappear.

Chapter 534

At noon, Suqin is going to eat in the canteen. Suddenly, she receives a call from xuanyuanchen, asking her to accompany him back to his home for lunch. Suqin thinks it's better not to eat in the canteen. She really doesn't want to hear someone whispering behind her.

Su Qin accompanies Xuanyuan Chen to return to his bedroom from his private channel. Ye Dong has prepared lunch for two people. It seems that Xuanyuan Chen said hello before he made lunch.

Suqin thought more and more firmly in the bottom of her heart that she must do this job well, otherwise, she would be too sorry for xuanyuanchen's special care for her.

"Miss Su, this is a bird's nest specially made for you. It can help you to get back to sleep and calm down." Ye dong put down the bird's nest, briefly introduced a sentence, and hurried back to the kitchen, even Su Qin's beautiful grateful smile, did not dare to accept it.

In case of being stared at by the president again, he feels that his job is hard to protect.

"Thank you, brother Ye." Behind him, Suqin still chased his figure and thanked him.

Xuanyuanchen is eating elegantly. Her eyes don't look here. Suqin has a little fear in her heart. She eats so well here every day and has a bird's nest to drink. Does Mr. President have any opinion?

Although xuanyuanchen didn't look at her, he seemed to guess that she was holding the spoon and didn't go to drink the bird's nest. He looked up and said, "this is what I told him to cook. You don't have to worry about it."

"Er?" Suqin can't help but be frightened. What did he order? Suqin is a little hard to believe.

"Thank you, Mr. President." Suqin's face was a little hot, and she thanked him.

Xuanyuanchen didn't say that he continued to eat him, and Suqin had to drink it impolitely, which was very good.

"Mr. President, would you like to go to the office this afternoon?" Suqin asked curiously.

"No, this way."

"Oh! All right! "

He is not far from the office, so he is free to choose where to work, as long as he is comfortable.

In the afternoon, Li Sen sent a visit abroad. As an assistant, Suqin needed to pay attention to and introduce some of the work she had to deal with, so that she could have an ideological preparation. She must go abroad to represent the image of a country.

Suqin picked up the report very seriously and saw that ye Dong would undertake all the work of feeling the house when she was working here, so she became very idle.

"The red date tea for you, Miss Su." Ye Dong has not forgotten to prepare one for her, which makes Suqin sitting in the small garden beside the living room very grateful.

"Thank you, elder brother Ye. You are busy! Don't say hello to me. "

Ye Dong smiled and went in without saying anything.

Suqin used to go abroad to do diplomatic work. So, in terms of language, she was very relaxed. She was proficient in four languages. However, she read the report again and again.

Time unconsciously arrived at night. At dinner time, xuanyuanchen's Junyan was tired and came out of the study. Suqin looked at him with some heartache. His work pressure was really great. Moreover, his state affairs were not as easy and simple as his daily work.

During dinner, Suqin looked at him several times, and xuanyuanchen would also look at her, but every time Suqin looked at him, she turned her eyes first.

After dinner, xuanyuanchen went back to his study, and Suqin brought him a cup of tea.

"Mr. President, can I help you with the data processing?" Suqin saw a pile of messy information on his desk. She asked.

"Good!" Xuanyuanchen nodded. He was sitting on the sofa, leaning lazily. Suqin bent down to clean up for him. Suddenly, a gust of wind blew in from the window, and several pieces of information on the table which were not pressed suddenly fell to the ground. Suqin hurriedly reached out and pressed them, waiting for the wind to pass.

Suqin bent down to pick up the data on the ground. She had finished two pieces. She saw another one under xuanyuanchen's leg. She could not help squatting down from the side and reached out to pick it up. Suddenly, the data blew again and reached the middle of xuanyuanchen's leg.

"Mr. President, may I have some information?" Suqin asked awkwardly. It must be under his feet. He had to move her to find it.

Xuanyuanchen opened her legs to the side and let her come in to pick them up. Suqin couldn't help but step over his legs and crouch in the middle of her legs to pick them up. He didn't know that the piece of information had to go with her and was blown under the sofa by a thin wind.

And Suqin was thinking that he could find it, but she didn't know how to lean and hit it. Her whole face hit the man's belly.

Xuanyuanchen immediately looked down, and Suqin was embarrassed to a certain extent. She blushed and stood up quickly. "I'm sorry, Mr. President, that information has blown into the sofa."

Xuanyuanchen's body is also tense for a few seconds. Now he doesn't care about the information at all. Instead, what this woman did just now, what her face pasted to him.

"I'll pick up this one. Please clean it up first!" Xuanyuan Chen Junyan also slightly flashed a touch of warmth, he bit his teeth, legs gracefully overlapped together. Suqin went to the window and closed the big open window a little, so as not to blow up the information. She sorted out all the things that should be sorted out. The one under the sofa was really not easy to pick up. However, Suqin thought that as long as she bent down, she could still find it.

"Mr. President, can you sit on the sofa next to me and read the documents? I'll try to pick it up. " Suqin felt that if he could pick it up, he would definitely move away from the sofa, which was very heavy.

Xuanyuanchen saw that she still wanted to pick it up, and he sat next to him. At this time, Suqin knelt on the carpet and reached down to pick up the information.

When she stooped down like this, she could see her white clavicle from the perspective of man's vision under the slightly open shirt on her chest And the place that makes people think.

Xuanyuan Chen swallowed pharynx saliva, the data that the eyes touched, where can still see to enter the heart?

After Suqin picked it up, she took a quick look at the contents of the materials, put her in a folder, and said to xuanyuanchen, "Mr. President, I won't disturb you. I'll go out first."

When Suqin left, xuanyuanchen could not read the information for several minutes.

Suqin came out and wiped a cold sweat. She felt that she could always do something embarrassing in front of this man.

Time, a little bit past, the night can not help but deep, Suqin in the sofa because of sleepiness, all played for a while, waiting for her to see the time, eleven o'clock.

And the man in the study hasn't come out yet. Is he still working?

Chapter 535

Suqin got up from the sofa, walked to the direction of the study, stood at the door, she knocked on the door, there was a low male voice, "come in."

Su Qin pushed open the door, only to see the crystal light adjusted to soft yellow, the slender figure of the man was still sitting there, still signing in his hand, Su Qin's heart suddenly tightened.

"Mr. President, haven't you finished?" Suqin asked with concern.

"Well! It's going to be a while. Go to bed first! " Xuanyuanchen looked up. Under the shadow of the light, his brow was obviously a little tired.

Su Qin blinked his eyes and said, "then you should have a rest earlier."

Xuanyuanchen curved his lips and chuckled, "OK! Go! "

Suqin pushes the door out. Instead of going upstairs to the room, she brings him a glass of clear water. Xuanyuanchen looks at the clear water on the table. He smiles, "why not give me a cup of coffee? Or tea? "

"Don't drink coffee or tea at night."

"Why?" Xuanyuanchen languidly reclines in the chair back, asks again.

Suqin thought for a moment and smiled, "because I hope that when you are tired, you will rely on these things to refresh yourself, but to have a good sleep."

Xuanyuanchen's heart suddenly became extremely soft. Suqin's face was slightly scalded by his deep eyes. She turned around and left, but she didn't know. If she stayed for a while, even for another five seconds, the man would hug her and forbid her to leave.

However, xuanyuanchen looked at the closed door, but the impulse could not be suppressed for a long time. Some people really care about it, or they pretend to care about it, which can be reflected in a word.

Suqin went back to the room, took a bath and lay on the bed, but she couldn't sleep, because thinking downstairs, xuanyuanchen was still working there, she was worried, she took out her mobile phone, opened his schedule for tomorrow sent by lisen, he spent all day in the meeting tomorrow, so he had to have enough sleep to deal with the meeting tomorrow.

However, she can't persuade him, because his work is not shared by others, and he can only make decisions by himself. If he is the boss of a company, he will earn less if he is tired. However, he is not the president of a country. He has no reason to push responsibility. All he does is for For the people, he can't let himself make mistakes.

Su Qin sighed. For the first time, she was so upset about a person who was not so intimate with herself.

She can't help but think of duanzixuan's questions, which makes her want to answer him ridiculously, not without love. Some people dare not love, afraid that their feelings will become his burden, afraid that they will disturb his life, afraid that they are not good enough to stand beside him.

He will meet better people, he will have better people.

Suqin didn't know when to fall asleep, but she woke up in the middle of the night. Her first thought was to go downstairs to see if the man was still working overtime!

Suqin really had to do this. She went downstairs lightly. She just stood in the corridor and looked at the door crack in the study. If there is no light, it means he went upstairs.

Fortunately, it's dark in the study. He should have had a rest.

Although this kind of behavior is superfluous, for her, she will feel at ease only when she is sure that he has a rest.

In a private hospital in a city, there has always been a place of more pain than happiness. In the quiet ward, a girl carefully tucked in the quilt for the man on the bed. Under the dim yellow light, the thin face of the man is hard to conceal a trace of fatigue.

And the girl's look is also a little haggard, but she is very happy, also very happy, her clear eyes carefully flow in the face of men, the corner of the mouth curved up a smile.

She stepped out of the ward gently. It was 12 o'clock in the morning, but she didn't go to find a place to rest, but she was going to take care of another person. Just a week ago, her Dean finished the operation in this hospital. The operation was very successful, and the whole cost of the operation was mufei's. He said that all the money was paid in advance to her workers. However, she went quietly to ask the nurse for information. The operation cost of the Dean was more than 800000 yuan this time, plus the recuperation cost in the later period, at least 2 million yuan.

Because Murphy has told the hospital to use the best imported drugs, not just ordinary drugs, so the cost will be very expensive.

At that moment, Shu Chun hid in the bathroom and cried her eyes red. Her most beloved people were treated like this. She was moved and grateful. She really didn't know what else to do for mufei.

From the time she saved her life to the time he gave her the job, he has moved her so much.

But why did god treat him so much for what he did? There are many times, Shu Chun is secretly praying in the bottom of her heart. Heaven take away her ten-year Yang Shou! He can change his legs for twenty, thirty years, or even one life for her.

But God didn't hear her plea, and Murphy's legs remained the same as before. Even, she secretly heard doctors discussing Murphy's condition in the corridor, which may make him sit in a wheelchair all his life, and there is no way to stand up. At that moment, she hid aside to wipe her tears, which was very painful.

Murphy's strong, hard work these days she has seen, he is actively doing rehabilitation training every day, with medication, if the final result is like this, it will be a devastating blow to him.

Shu Chunshou is beside the president. At the age of 50, she is also very thin. Because she has been walking outside for many years and has adopted new orphans, her face has been exposed to very serious age spots, which makes her look older.

The dean is a very respectable person. Some people say that she used to be a versatile person. But later, after she took over the orphanage, she never thought about her future. She was unmarried all her life. Her youth, age and talent were all delivered to the orphanage.

She is the mother of all the children in the orphanage. Even if she is ill, she hides it from everyone. Shu Chun accidentally learned that she gave up her studies and went out to work to earn money without her knowledge. So the salary for playing the piano in the restaurant last time is very precious to her.

Now, she met a dignitary and a helper.

Now, in her heart, she has never had peace of mind. She only prays to the dean to get better. Everyone is safe and sound, and there will be no more pain.

Chapter 536

At about four o'clock in the morning, the nurse came in, looked at her who was still in the hospital bed, and felt sorry for her. "Go and have a rest! I'll take care of you. "

"Thank you, sister." Shu Chun got up tired and shook her. The nurse helped her. "You really can't go on like this. If your Dean gets better and you fall ill again, Mr. Mu will blame us. Go to sleep!"

Shu Chun takes a look at the Dean, and then goes out. She has a rest room, but she doesn't go there. Instead, she goes back to mufei's bed. She gently moves a chair to his bed and lies in front of his bed, which is her favorite way of rest.

Shu Chun didn't fall asleep. At this moment, she heard a painful gasp. She got up quickly, and a thin layer of cold sweat appeared on mufei's forehead. His face seemed to be very painful, and he fell into a nightmare.

Because he took medicine will have negative effects, in recent days, he often have nightmares.

Shu Chun looks at his hand tightly grasping the quilt. Instinctively, she reaches out and holds his hand. Immediately, Murphy's hand holds her two hands tightly, as if she is unwilling to loosen them for a moment. Shu Chun's soft palm hurts when he holds it, but she doesn't utter a word. She just looks at his expression anxiously, accompanies him, and waits for his nightmare to pass.

Murphy's face recovered slowly, and his breathing slowed down. However, in the end, he grabbed Su Chun's hand, but he didn't want to let it go. It seemed that the palm of her hand gave him the power to dispel the nightmare.

Shu Chun sits on the edge of the bed and looks at him gently. She only hates that she does not have three heads and six arms. She can wipe it for him. But now, she is clasped by him. She can only look at his sweaty face.

After nearly half an hour, Murphy fell asleep again. Shu Chuncai gently took back her hand, which was not as sour as her own. However, she was very happy and had never been happy.

She picked up the tissue on one side and gently sucked away the sweat from his forehead. She held her chin and gazed at the face quietly, as if it also gave her infinite strength, which made her never tired, even tired.

Shu Chun looks at him like this. At five o'clock, she is in a dream. In the dream, she dreams of Murphy. In a beautiful seaside, he is wearing a dark suit and walking towards her.

She looked up slightly, only to find that he was so tall! The sun hit his handsome and warm face. He smiled at her, reached out his hand and asked her, "would you like to walk with me?"

"Good!" Shu Chun laughs in her dream.

But she didn't know that the time had come quietly in the morning. She fell asleep on the edge of mufei's bed, and mufei on the bed had woke up. He was leaning back against the pillow, and had looked at her for a while. Suddenly, he saw her saying a good word in a dream, and then, the corners of her mouth were raised.

The morning sun in the late autumn is particularly warm. Shining on her smile, it is so sweet that it can't help following her mouth.

Murphy gently bent his lips, he suddenly thought about the past, Tang Siyu is as pure and lovely as she is, but those beautiful memories can only be memories.

But now, he seems to see the beautiful side of memories, so, at this moment, his heart is extremely satisfied, Shu Chun's company, for him, it should be the best medicine.

Maybe the girl didn't know that he tried to recover every day, he took medicine on time every day, all his efforts were to one day, he could stand in front of her, without her bending down every day, squatting down to talk with him, which was probably his purpose, the most dream thing!

Once upon a time, he felt that something he did in a normal way, but now, for him, it was especially difficult, and became his biggest dream.

When the nurse pushed the door in, Murphy's eyes immediately swept to stop her from coming in. The nurse immediately understood that when she went out, she closed the door gently.

Maybe in this hospital, there is no one who doesn't know that Shu Chun has become the most important person of mufei. Maybe, only Shu Chun himself doesn't know it!

Shu Chun falls asleep. The biological clock gives a warning. She can't help but open her eyes. A pair of long butterfly like eyelashes open, and then her eyes are as clear as jewels. She is still young. After a short rest, she can recover her vitality.

When she looked up to see mufei, she didn't know that one pair of eyes had been looking at her for half an hour.

"Er! You're awake! " Shu Chun immediately stood up and wiped her eyes. She had a lovely manner.

Murphy chuckled, "just woke up, why don't you go back to your room to have a rest? I don't have to be here every night

Shu Chun's pretty face is a little red, but she says firmly, "I want to stay here."

Murphy knew this and couldn't persuade her. He asked, "how is your Dean?"

"She's in a stable condition, no problem."

"Well, I'll take care of the doctor and try my best to take care of your Dean."

"Thank you!" Shu Chun's eyes are especially sincere. Murphy chuckled and said the same thing in the bottom of his heart. Thank you too. Because of your company, Murphy has the power to keep going in such a tough time.

"Are you going to get up?"

"Well!"

"I'll find you a suit." Shu Chun went to the next cloakroom and offered him two suits to choose from.

Murphy chooses a khaki sweater with linen trousers. Shu Chun comes to him with his clothes. Murphy reaches out to take off his pajamas, and Shu Chun stoops down to help him. Murphy is also used to doing this for him by herself. If there was a nurse before, he would scold him very much. However, Shu Chun feels very comfortable. Even in front of her, he is so fragile. The weak side, also willing to open to her, because she will not laugh at him, will not look down on her, her eyes let him know that no matter what he becomes, she will respect him.

And for him, at this time, nothing is more important than equality and respect. He doesn't need sympathy, compassion and other people's care.

At this moment, Shu Chun is facing him. Although she is a little shy, she is doing everything carefully. She carefully folds his collar, slightly covers his long hair with a hint of moustache, slightly looks pale, and makes him a few years younger than his actual age.

The pants are replaced by Murphy himself. Shu Chun doesn't go out. She stands beside him with her back to her side. If he needs anything, she will help him at the first time.

Chapter 537

Outside the rehabilitation room, Murphy asked Shu Chun to go to her Dean's side. He was going to do rehabilitation exercises. Soon, a nurse passed by and said to him, "Mr. Murphy, your parents are here. They are in the dean's office."

"Well!" Murphy answered. He wanted to go to Tang Fu's room. Immediately, he turned his wheelchair around and went to the dean's office.

At this time, the corridor of the dean's office was very quiet, and Murphy's wheelchair was walking on it, which was also very light and silent. Just as he was about to arrive at the door, he saw his mother's cry coming from the open door.

Murphy's brow twisted, and his hand, which was about to push the door, stopped. At this moment, he heard his father's voice from the door, excited and choked, "Dean, how can this be possible? How could my son not have a chance to stand up again? You said there was hope. "

"There is hope, but the hope is very small. We have made the most effective plan for him. The treatment course is one month. If there is no improvement in one month, then we can only accept the reality, your son's leg, I'm afraid this life will be Of course, we can find other ways, but we failed to use the most advanced way in the world Really, we can only let you have a thought preparation first. "

Outside the door, Murphy's originally pale handsome face was as white as paper in an instant. He grasped the wheelchair hand tightly in an instant, and the blue tendons on the back of the whole hand were protruding, which showed the intensity of his mood at the moment.

No hope of recovery? Can't stand up again? Is he destined to be a cripple in his life?

Murphy can hardly bear this reality. He tried so hard and cooperated with the treatment attentively. He thought there was hope

It turns out, it's impossible.

Murphy turned the wheel and walked very fast in the corridor. In a quiet corridor, he hit the wall with his fist, which made the back of his hand hit the blue purple, even some broken blood.

He clenched his teeth and ignored the blood on the back of his hand. He took a deep breath, as if all the hopes of life were suddenly extinguished, and his life became a dark world.

Just then, a clear voice called after him, "Mr. mu."

Murphy's heart pulled hard. He quickly put away the right hand that hit the bloodstain and hid it under his sleeve. Behind him, in his wheelchair, Shu Chun bent down and asked, "how are you here? Didn't you go to rehab? "

"I won't do it today." Murphy smiled, pretending to be calm.

"Why? Did not sleep well last night, tired? Do you want me to push you to relax? " Shu pure gentle care.

"Good." Murphy let her push.

Shu Chun pushes him to the garden downstairs. The garden is very quiet and the air in the morning is very fresh. But at this moment, Murphy's heart is pessimistic and disappointed. His eyes suddenly see a couple in the distance.

The boy is holding the girl's hand. The girl is smiling and holding his arm. The two people look at each other and smile. The love in their eyes shows.

The man suddenly squatted down in front of the girl with a smile and said to her, "come on, I'll carry you back."

"No! I just have a cold. I can still walk. " The girl shook her head.

However, the man was very firm waiting, and the girl finally leaned down to let him carry her, and she happily and sweetly nestled her face on his shoulder, enjoying the moment.

Murphy's heart was severely stabbed. As a man, he can't even recite the woman he likes. What qualification does he have to love another person?

Shu Chun also saw the two lovers, her eyes gently staring at the man in the wheelchair. At this moment, she can push him for such a walk, which is the happiest thing in the world.

Murphy's hand shook, and the back of his hand under his sleeve suddenly appeared. Shu Chun saw it immediately. She crouched down and shook his hand in shock. "What's wrong with your hand? How did you get hurt. "

Murphy took a puff, and some of his heart felt guilty and explained, "it's nothing. Maybe it was accidentally scratched."

But Shu Chun felt that it was not a scratch. It was just a hit wound. She looked at him heartily. "I'll send you to apply medicine. It's not easy for you to recover."

Murphy took back his hand, smiled and said, "I'm not so vulnerable, it doesn't matter."

Shu Chun's eyes are a little red. Her heartache and concern are all revealed in her eyes. Even when she looks at xiangmufei, the color of love in her eyes is hard to cover up. She knows that she is not qualified to like this man at all, but she has been together for a long time.

Some feelings are produced involuntarily.

Murphy touched her tender and concerned eyes. He dodged and dodged. In his mind, it was the words of the president just now. He would never need a wheelchair. He would never stand up.

If so, then, what qualification does he have to fall in love with anyone?

Shu Chun looks at his eyes and turns them away. She looks down a little flustered. Mufei's eyes also stare at her. He looks at her beautiful and pure face. His heart is bitter. This girl is so beautiful, even if she knows that she loves him, how can he accept this feeling? Leave her life to him? She should be worth a better man, at least a man with good legs, who can take care of her and protect her.

"Shuchun." Murphy called her in a low voice.

"Well!" Shu Chun immediately smiles and looks up, hiding the loss of her eyes.

"I'm going abroad for treatment." Murphy made a sudden noise.

Shu Chun's eyes are suddenly shocked. He wants to leave here?

"So, after I leave, take good care of your Dean! When she leaves the hospital, you go back to take care of her. I will leave you a sum of money. At least you don't have to worry about money for a year. "

"And you? Don't you want me to take care of you? " Shu pure eyes, is full of reluctant.

"No need. Someone from abroad will take care of me. I may go these days." Murphy said lightly, that is, if domestic governance is not good, then he can at least hide abroad to recuperate.

"But..." Shuchun's tears burst out in a flash, "I don't want you."

Murphy's heart was pulled hard, and his eyes showed a cold color on purpose, "Shu Chun, you should remember that we are Huo servant relationship. Now, I will release your Huo servant relationship, you don't have to give up me, it's just a job for you."

Shu Chun's body quivered slightly. Obviously, she was hurt by this sentence, but she still wiped her tears and asked in a low voice, "can I go abroad to find you later? To see you? "

Chapter 538

Murphy's face was calm, but he felt a sense of distance. "No, let's end our relationship! You are better than your own life

Shu Chun's tears fell down again. At this time, mufei saw that not far away, his parents and the Dean came to him, and he said to Shu Chun, "you go first."

Shu Chun bit her lip and took a look at the couple behind her. She left.

When Murphy's parents approached, he didn't wait for them to speak first. He had already said, "Dad, mom, I want to go abroad for rest."

"Son, what's the matter with you? Why do you suddenly want to go abroad? " Asked the Mu Mu, holding back her sadness.

Murphy chuckled and said bitterly, "I don't want to cure it. Let it be! I want to go abroad tomorrow and live abroad for a while. "

The Dean could not help proposing, "if you want to go abroad, you can go to the country with the most developed medical treatment! There may be other treatments. "

"Well, then go abroad! No matter how much money, dad will cure you. " "My father," he said, holding his hand.

Murphy looked aside. Suddenly, he had no hope for the treatment. He looked up at Shu Chun, who was sitting on the rest chair not far away. Her figure was sitting there alone. She tightly twisted her hands and looked this way, even though it was a little distance away.

Murphy can still feel her sad breath. Murphy didn't think she liked herself before, but he gradually found that Shu Chun fell in love with him. He used to enjoy her love, and worked hard for this. He wanted to recover and be with her.

Now, he has only one idea, as if the leg is no longer good, but he can not stop her from enjoying the right to happiness. Only let her leave, let her forget him, she can find the happiness of her life.

Just like before, she can find a man who squats down and carries her when she is ill.

"Son, have you decided? Do you really want to go abroad? "

"It's up to you, in line! Tomorrow morning. " Murphy looked at the girl not far away, and his tone was very firm.

In a huge and majestic conference hall in city a, this is a very important meeting of a country. From the morning to the afternoon, xuanyuanchen, sitting in the most prominent position, has delivered two consecutive speeches.

Su Qin, who was waiting beside the conference hall, walked to him for the third time with the tea made for him. Su Qin's steps were smooth and elegant, and shuttling in the conference hall was a very pleasant scenery.

Xuanyuanchen looked up at the information, and saw the girl coming this way. His mouth was hooked.

Suqin put the teacup on his desk and replaced the one he had drunk. Suqin's eyes were aching at xuanyuanchen. From a close distance, his brow was very tired. However, in the two speeches just now, his thoughts and expressions were very clear and powerful, giving full play to the best state.

Xuanyuanchen looked into her worried eyes, he blinked his eyes, handed her a soothing smile, and Suqin left again.

At this time, Xuanyuan Chen saw a foreign guest looking at Suqin's back. The foreign guest touched his chin, and his eyes showed a trace of appreciation. Of course, such appreciation eyes, falling in Xuanyuan Chen's eyes, were visual violations.

His eyes were sharply fixed on the man. The foreign guests took back Suqin's eyes, looked up coldly and gave a warning to xuanyuanchen. In an instant, the pen in his hand fell off the table.

Then, he is very frightened to hang down the head, dare not with opposite Xuan Yuan Chen to contact the eyes.

But he didn't understand. The president of this country is too strict! He just admired his assistant.

Finally, the meeting ended at 4:30, and xuanyuanchen left under the escort of six bodyguards. When he came out, he saw Suqin waiting there. Suqin welcomed him up. "Mr. President, I'm very sorry."

"Let's go back!" Xuanyuanchen said, let Suqin follow him, to his car.

Generally speaking, the position beside xuanyuanchen belongs to his special help, but when Li Sen comes over, he immediately says, "Suqin, you accompany Mr. President back, I have to deal with some things."

Suqin nodded, opened the door from the other side and sat in. As soon as xuanyuanchen sat down, his long fingers pinched his eyebrow, soothing his mental state.

"Mr. President, are you tired! Take a good rest on the way. " Suqin said with concern.

Xuanyuanchen turns his head and just touches her concerned eyes. He suddenly smiles, "OK, I'll squint for a while."

When Suqin saw that he had hit up the middle coffee rack, he said to Suqin, "sit over here."

"Well?" Suqin sat a little confused. The back seat of the car was very spacious. However, the man thought that she was still a little far away from her. He ordered again, "come here a little more, get close to me."

Suqin had to sit close to him. When she was going to ask him what he was going to do, she saw that the man's head suddenly leaned on her shoulder and asked, "can you lean on it?" Su Qin's body a stiff, swallowing saliva, nervous way, "yes."

When he got the answer, xuanyuanchen closed his eyes, and the motorcade drove smoothly out of the conference hall to the presidential palace.

Suqin felt that the pressure on her shoulder was a little heavy, but she didn't make any pit sound. When the car was slightly bumpy, she carefully blocked it with her hand for fear that he would slide down when he fell asleep.

Because her shoulders are thin, even if he sleeps against her, he will not be very comfortable.

Xuanyuanchen is really asleep. He is really sleepy. In addition, Suqin's body sends out the natural female fragrance, which helps him sleep even more. Xuanyuanchen's even breath is just beside Suqin's ear. A trace of it, like a feather, blows around Suqin's neck and ear.

Make her face slightly hot, but dare not push him away.

The meeting hall is only a 20 minute drive to the presidential palace, and soon it will arrive. At this time, Suqin doesn't know whether to wake up the man.

However, xuanyuanchen is alert. When the car stops, his thick eyelashes are lifted and his deep eyes are opened. He asks in a mute voice, "is it here?"

"Here you are, go back to your room!" Suqin whispered to him.

Xuanyuanchen looked at her, and suddenly reached for his shoulder, rubbing it for her. His broad palm rubbed Suqin's shoulder across the suit fabric, and there was warmth coming in.

"Thank you. I'm fine. Get out of the car!" Suqin hid a little shamefully.

Xuanyuan Chen hook lips a smile, bodyguard opens the door, he takes the lead to get off.

The bodyguards didn't come in. They left directly. Xuanyuanchen went into the hall. He took off his suit. After that, Suqin immediately came to help him take off and hung it on the hanger beside him.

Xuanyuanchen looked back at her and said, "I'll go to sleep first. Li Sen has come to call me."

"OK." Suqin nodded, hoping that Li Sen would come later and let him sleep more.

Li Sen arrived an hour later. It's said that Mr. President worked overtime last night. He went to sleep now. He asked Suqin to call him before supper.

Suqin hoped that he could sleep longer, because this man is really lack of sleep.

Ye Dong's dinner is scheduled to start at 7:30. Ten minutes ago, ye Dong hoped that Su Qin could call xuanyuanchen up.

"Well, I'll call him." Suqin had to hurry.

Su Qin pushes open the door of Xuanyuan Chen's master bedroom, only to see Xuanyuan Chen's side, his slender body covered in the quilt, or wearing his white silk shirt.

Suqin suddenly felt that it was a cruel thing to disturb his sleep. No one wanted to be awakened when he was sleeping soundly!

Suqin went to bed, she bit her lips, or leaned down and gently called out, "Mr. President, wake up."

"Mr President..." Su Qin thought he couldn't hear him, so she leaned over to call him with her hands on the bed.

At this time, the man suddenly turned around, and his back hit Suqin's hand. Suqin had no time to pull out his hand, and her arm was unable to be hit. The whole upper part of her bent body lost its support, so embarrassed she fell on the man's chest.

This bump woke up the man directly. Xuanyuanchen opened his eyes. Before he thought of it, he saw Suqin lying on his chest.

"I'm sorry, Mr. President I'm sorry. " Suqin hurriedly stood up on his chest, with some torn clothes on his chest.

Xuanyuanchen put his hands behind his head and looked at her thoughtfully. "This is the way you wake me up? It's very special. "

"Sorry, I didn't mean to offend you Please forgive me. " Suqin stuttered a little, because she was really embarrassed!

"No, I like it that way." Xuanyuanchen said, sitting up, and then asked, "what time is it?"

"It's almost seven." Suqin replied, biting her lips.

Xuanyuanchen sword eyebrow again twist, "why don't you call me earlier?"

"Because I'm afraid you're tired. " Suqin told the truth.

Xuanyuanchen hooked hook lip Cape, "next time need not consider me, should call me to get up when, do not hesitate." After that, he thought for a moment and said, "don't worry, I didn't get up and I won't blame you."

Suqin could not help but smile and nodded, "OK."

Xuanyuanchen went to wash, and Suqin hurriedly quit his room.

At dinner, xuanyuanchen just got up and had no taste. After eating a few, he went to his study. Li Sen sent him a stack of documents to see. Suqin made a cup of tea and brought them in.

Xuanyuanchen sat on the chair attentively and seriously. It was cold in the late autumn night, but he was still wearing a white shirt. Suqin was worried that he would catch cold. She came to the hall and brought in his suit during the day.

When xuanyuanchen didn't look, she gently draped on his shoulder.

Xuanyuanchen is slightly stunned. He looks over, and Suqin steps back. "Do you want to put it on! It's going to get cold. "

Xuanyuanchen is not cold, however, Suqin's thoughtfulness warms him. He shakes his head, "if you don't wear it, you should wear it first! You go to bed first, don't wait for me. "

"I'm not sleepy. I'm out there. What can I do for you?" After su Qin finished, he did not disturb his work.

Ye Dong left, the whole hall, only her figure, she made a cup of warm tea, holding in the palm of her hand, patiently waiting for the man in the study.

Suqin suddenly exclaimed that she was used to the life here. Although she was lonely, it seemed that everything she had done had become meaningful. Even such things as waiting for others would not be boring.

Time flowed away from 8:00 to 11:00. Suqin couldn't help sleeping. When she squinted her eyes, she almost forgot everything around her. Only when reality and dream were connected, she fell into a dream.

Xuanyuanchen came out and saw the woman curled up on the sofa, sleeping by her arm. She said clearly that she was not sleepy. At this moment, she was still sleepy and fell asleep here. She didn't know it was cold.

Xuanyuanchen shook his head. He took off his suit, went to Suqin's face, and reached out to cover it.

Suqin woke up immediately, and in the next second, she was held up by the man's hands. Suqin was shocked and instinctively hugged his neck, only to find that he was still covered with his warm suit.

"Mr. President Are you finished? " When Su Qin was flattered, he asked.

"I'm done. I can sleep." Xuanyuanchen finished saying, so holding her upstairs.

Suqin hugged his neck nervously and pleaded, "Mr. President, please let me down. I can go I'm not sleepy" You're not heavy either."

"Well?"

"I'm heavy!" Suqin retorted, afraid of tiring him. Besides, let the president hold her upstairs. What's the style?

It's like he's holding her for the second time.

"Mr. President, you'd better let me down!" Suqin watched him carry him to the third floor. She was worried that he would be tired.

However, the man was not tired at all. He went to the third floor easily, and then he put her down. Suqin hurriedly took down his suit and wanted to give it back to him. The man pressed his hand on her shoulder, and some domineering orders said, "wear it, and give it back to me tomorrow."

"But..."

"Go to bed early." Xuanyuanchen finished, turned to his master bedroom, and Suqin stood behind him in his suit.

Suqin went back to the room, took off her suit and hung it on the hanger. She reached out and stroked it. It was not sure whether it was her temperature or his, but it was still warm.

Suqin thought of being carried upstairs by him just now, and her face was a little pink, but she thought that she would never let him do it again. As a subordinate of him, she was not entitled to such treatment.

What can be held by him must be his future wife! Suqin suddenly thought that xuanyuanchen's age should be the age of getting a wife. Isn't his family in a hurry? When will you find him a wife?

Suqin could not help but smile bitterly. His future wife must be an excellent woman.

Maybe it's a young lady of a political aristocrat, or the granddaughter of a head of state with great military achievements. In a word, this country will not lack such a girl. He can make a good choice.

In the hospital, Mu Fei, who has been in hospital for nearly half a year, suddenly decides to go abroad for treatment. For doctors, this is a very encouraging thing. The two elders of Mu family also agree with his son's practice.

However, no one knows why Murphy made this decision, just to leave a person, just to let her choose a better life.

Sometimes, to love someone is not to have them, but to make them happy.

Shu Chun's tears have never stopped since she heard that he was going to go abroad yesterday, but she pretends to be calm in front of others. When she is alone, she is always sad and weeping. She never thought that when she left him, she would come so soon.

But he paid her in advance. She didn't have enough money. She owed him money. She didn't know how to pay him back. He was leaving!

However, his leg has to go abroad for treatment, which is something she has no way to stop. Shu Chun has been suppressing her feelings, not showing too much sadness in front of mufei.

Mujia's preparation work is very fast. Mufei will leave at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

At the moment, it's 10 o'clock in the morning, Shu Chun is sorting out his clothes for Murphy, as well as his usual personal belongings.

Finishing, her tears fell on the clothes, her eyes were fascinated by tears.

She sat in the cloakroom and cried like a child. She held her fist in her mouth and stopped her voice. Silent crying was the saddest moment.

Murphy said goodbye to the Dean outside, and the Dean patted him on the shoulder, full of hope for him. "Murphy, you will be better, believe in yourself."

"Well, thank you for your care. I won't give up." Murphy nodded.

When the Dean left, Murphy looked at the direction of the cloakroom. Shu Chun had been in for nearly half an hour. She had not come out yet.

His wheelchair slid gently to the door and watched the girl sitting there, wiping tears with her hands.

Murphy's eyes flashed a thick sadness and reluctance. He lowered his head and looked at his legs. In the past six months, he had forgotten what it was like to walk, what it was like to run.

It's so easy and self-sufficient, and what you want to do is so simple.

But now, he can't do without the help of others. He needs the help of others to do something. Even he needs the care of others. It's just a burden to love her.

She may be sad for a month, half a year or even a year, but she will not be sad for too long.

She will forget him. Shu Chun is simple and kind. She will meet the man who loves her.

Murphy didn't go in to disturb her. He left. There was an hour left before he would rush to the airport from the hospital.

Ten minutes later, Shu Chun stood behind him with red eyes, staring at the back of the scenery as he sat on the railing.

"Mr. mu, your clothes are ready." Shuchunsheng said hoarsely.

Murphy raised a smile from the corner of his mouth, turned around the wheelchair and looked at her. "Thank you Shu Chun, thank you for taking care of me during this period of time. You have done a very good job."

"Mr. mu, then you pay me in advance. When can I continue to serve you?" Shu Chun asked her what she wanted to ask most.

At least she wanted a future where she could see him.

"The salary in advance, when I donate to your welfare home! You don't have to work for me anymore. Maybe within ten years, I won't go back to China. " Murphy's eyes couldn't bear to touch those eyes which were filled with tears again. He looked at the distant scenery and forced himself to feel uncomfortable.

Shu Chunzhen cried and choked, "but you gave me the money and I will give it back to you."

"No need to pay it back, Shu Chun. I'm gone. You take good care of the dean and take good care of yourself."

"You are our benefactor. We must thank you I... " Shu Chun would like to say that she can wait for the dean to finish, and she used to work for him abroad.

Murphy knew what she wanted to say, and interrupted her, "your care for me in this period of time should be regarded as a reward for me. I am a person who is a business enterprise, and I attach great importance to charity. Later, your welfare institution will be included in one of the projects funded by our company's charity, so you don't thank me, I just serve the people." Between Murphy's words, the relationship between them is very polite.

Shu Chun's heart shook fiercely, and she suddenly felt the gap between herself and him. He is a big boss of a company, and she is just an ordinary girl. What qualification does she have to disturb him and pester him?

Shu Chun's heart is in sorrow. She holds her hands tightly and tries to suppress her feelings for mufei.

"Mr. mu, do you have anything else I can do?" Shuchun asked with a deep breath.

"Shuchun." Murphy's voice suddenly called her gently.

Shuchun's heart immediately quivered, and her heart was expecting. She blinked, "Mr. Mu!"

"Take good care of yourself. I'll give you a phone number to connect with my company. If you have any difficulty, you can call my company. There will be someone to help you." Shu Chun's expectation directly turned to loss. She bit her lips. "Thank you, Mr. mu."

Murphy had been listening to her Murphy's call. Suddenly, she wanted to hear his name.

He smiled and looked up at her. "I'm not your boss now, and you're not my servant. You can call me mufei."

Shu Chun is flattered to look at him, and then she chuckles and gently calls him, "mufei."

Murphy was stunned after listening. She called his voice. It was very nice.

Mr. Mu and his wife arrived in the hospital ahead of time. Now they came over from the elevator.

"Master mu, madam mu." Shu Chun greets them.

"Shu Chun, it's been a hard time for you. Mufei is going abroad." Madame Mu came forward and said hello to Shu Chun.

"I don't work hard." Shu Chun shakes his head.

"Xiaofei, it's time for us to go. The car is ready. Your salute bodyguard will pick it up. Let's go downstairs!"

Shuchun wants to send him. At this time, Madame Mu says to her, "Shuchun, don't send him. We'll leave right away. Take care of your Dean!"

Master Mu pushes mufei. Mufei looks back at Shuchun. Shuchun also looks at him. She dare not keep up with him. She bites her lips and resists the fierce sadness and tears in her heart. She covers her mouth and waves to him.

At this moment, Murphy's heart was seized severely, but he sighed softly and stopped looking at the girl behind him.

After the mufei family entered the elevator, Shu Chun seemed to lose all her strength. She squatted on the ground and cried uncontrollably.
