Chapter 18: Sever all Ties from Now On!

"You unfilial daughter!" Ye Fengtian was both shocked and furious as he looked at his cold-hearted daughter. He raised his palm at her with a fiery passion. However, he was a Mystic King!

A Mystic King's cultivation was far above a Mystic Soldier's! A Mystic King could crush countless Mystic Soldiers—like Su Qin—like ants.

Boom!

Therefore, the moment Ye Fengtian raised his palm, the entire main hall felt as if thousands of horses were galloping and thousands of troops were sweeping across. In just a moment, the main hall of the Southern Palace actually exploded on the spot.

Boom! Boom!

Violent explosions rang out incessantly. Not only did it cause the residue of the palace hall to scatter in all directions, but the private guards of the nearby guardians also couldn't dodge in time and were blasted far away.

"Is there an enemy attack!? Is this an enemy attack?!" Such a huge commotion caused everyone in the Southern Palace to panic. Many people still did not know what had happened.

The rest of the people in the palace were also alarmed! Many people rushed over, thinking that the Southern Palace had been attacked. Even Rong Mo came to the scene as soon as possible.

However, what he saw was not the scene of the attack, but...

What he saw was a father and daughter confronting each other in the original main hall of the Southern Palace. That girl who had fallen down from climbing through a window last night and revealed an embarrassed expression was now standing 30 feet away from her father with such an upright and stubborn countenance.

She was holding a Nine Phoenix Sky Ornament in her hand. He had heard of this dangling ornament before; it should belong to her grandmother and was a spirit artifact.

It was said that it could accumulate killing intent and could even detect it. It was a protective talisman and also a deadly weapon.

Crack, crack. However, this piece of dangling ornament was currently shattering and slowly disappearing from Ye Qianli's hand. In the end, nothing was left behind.

This was the power of the Mystic King's palm strike. Even if he hadn't used his full strength yet! However, it was obvious what sort of outcome she would face if this palm really struck onto the body of the 'trash' Ye Qianli.

However...

The person in question, Ye Qianli, was not shocked; neither did she show any signs of panic. She looked at Ye Fengtian with such calm eyes and said, "Three lives are enough to offset the grace of the two of you bestowing life onto me."

She added, "From now on, I, Ye Qianli, and Ye Fengtian will no longer have a father-daughter relationship, and I will no longer have a mother-daughter relationship with Su Qin! I, Ye Qianli, am only Ye Qianli."

After saying that, Ye Qianli turned around and left. She did not look at her parents again nor did she give another glance to her surroundings. She simply walked straight out.

This swivel of hers was firm and decisive! It made all those who saw her feel that she would never turn back again. Never again.

"You wicked daughter, stop right there!" Ye Feng was so angry that he was about to go crazy, especially when he sensed that there were advancing outsiders nearby. Not only was he furious, but he was also extremely embarrassed.

However, why would Ye Qianli still listen to him? Of course, she would not stop.

"Believe it or not, I'll break your legs!" Ye Fengtian roared.

Ye Qianli still did not stop. Even if Ye Fengtian really wanted to break her legs, she would not stop.

"Leave! As long as you leave this place, you'll never have a place in the Ye family ever again! You don't have to bear the surname Ye either!" Ye Fengtian was really so angry that he was about to explode.

When Ye Qianli heard this, her footsteps paused for a moment. However, just when Ye Fengtian thought that she was giving in, she said coldly, "My surname has never been 'your' Ye. Your daughter's name is Su Lianhua. Su Lianhua who eats the Innate Talent Pill and Jade Dew Pill. Not me, Ye Qianli."

As soon as these words came out, Ye Fengtian—who was originally still furious—was stunned. His entire body stiffened. He probably didn't expect Ye Qianli to know these things and reveal them at this moment, too.

However, it was undeniable how unfair this was to Ye Qianli! She was the Eldest Young Lady of the Ye family, but the treasure of the Ye family, Innate Talent Pill, and Su Qin's dowry, Jade Dew Pill, was not given to her... but to Su Lianhua.

How could there be such a huge difference between a younger female cousin and a legitimate eldest young lady of the family? Who was the real daughter; who was the real cousin? It was unimaginable.

"Rebellious daughter, unfilial daughter trying to kill her mother..." Su Qin, whose aura was weak, was weeping blood and pointing her fingers angrily. She looked quite miserable too, making the onlookers feel that things were very complicated.

Perhaps the reason why the biological daughter didn't get treated like one wasn't that the royal Ye couple was biased, but because this Eldest Young Lady of the Ye family was really disobedient. After all, she looked like she wanted to kill even her mother. With such disgraceful behavior, it seemed normal for her to be disfavored like this.

However, no matter what outsiders thought or how they saw it, Ye Qianli didn't stop anymore nor did she refute anything. She simply walked out of the Southern Palace step by step, with her back ramrod straight, heading towards the exit of the Sky Harmony Palace.

The view of that embroidered white back was so obstinate and arrogant that it raised the eyebrows of many people.

From then on, the news that the only daughter of the Ye Clan—Qianli—rebelled against her mother and committed matricide, severing her relationship with the Ye family on her own and leaving the Ye family with nothing, flew towards the eyes and the ears of those paying close attention to the Ye family.

"Sigh, children with a bit of talent are always more impetuous and rebellious; they are also unable to withstand setbacks." The white-haired silver-browed elder—who had been personally requested by Rong Feng to investigate the talent cultivator of the Nine Mystical Extraordinary Fire and check on the Ye Clan's daughter in passing—looked at Ye Qianli with a rather sorrowful expression.

Although he came late, the white-haired silver-browed old man had already heard the news that Ye Qianli was crippled while the cultivator who awakened the Jade Rabbit Talent last night was Prince Ye's niece, Su Lianhua.

Therefore, in his view at this moment, these kinds of actions by Ye Qianli were merely because she could not stand the difference of turning from a genius into a useless individual and a goddess turning into a lowly chicken. She was just venting her rebelliousness, that was all.

After suffering hardships outside, this child would return to the Ye residence obediently on her own and seek her last protection. After all, as a rather pretty girl who was a good-for-nothing, it would be very difficult for her to survive alone.

"What a pity, what a real pity..." At this moment, Doctor Jiang, who stood beside the white-haired silver-browed old man, shook his head and sighed in pity.

"Let's go and take a look at Prince Ye first. We'll have to check on that Su Clan's daughter in the end. Since she ate the Jade Dew Pill, she should be fine," said the old man with white hair and silver eyebrows.

"Please," Doctor Jiang nodded. Although he felt that it was not a good idea to meet the Ye family's heir now, the safety of the talent cultivators was more important. He still had to prioritize the country.

"Elder Jiang, please."

Not long after Ye Qianli left, the two elders entered the messy Southern Palace. However, the moment the two of them entered, that white-haired, silver-browed elder immediately looked up as though he detected something.

Upon looking up, he immediately revealed an expression of shock. That was because he actually saw the Crown Prince Rong Mo—who was wearing a wide-sleeved embroidered robe, looking like a celestial being—on a rooftop somewhere in the Southern Palace.

"Your Highness, the Crown Prince?" The elderly man almost thought he was seeing things.

"Your Highness?" Elder Jiang noticed that something was wrong with the old man beside him. Indeed, he looked up and saw Crown Prince Rong Mo, too. His face was also extremely shocked.

After all, this crown prince had never given much attention to irrelevant matters. He never gave superfluous attention! However, he had appeared here now! Could it be that he was still paying attention to the Ye family?

How could this be...

Didn't the crown prince look down on the daughter of the Ye Clan? Also, didn't the engagement between the crown prince and the daughter of the Ye Clan fall through because the daughter of the Ye Clan was crippled?

Since he no longer had anything to do with them, then why did His Highness, the Crown Prince, come here? Moreover, he even came personally, this...

Chapter 19: The Beautiful Prince Blocks Her Way

Not only were the two elders a little confused, but Ye Fengtian—who had also discovered Rong Mo after hearing the noise—was even more confused. He thought that this high and mighty crown prince would no longer pay attention to his Ye family.

Could it be that the crown prince was only paying attention to his Ye family again because his niece had awakened to become a talent cultivator? The more Ye Fengtian thought about it, the more he felt that this was the case. Aside from this, he couldn't think of any other reason.

However, as the three of them continued to speculate endlessly and come up with their own deductions and arguments, the high and mighty Rong Mo seemed to be riding the wind as he left by stepping on air from the rooftop of the Southern Palace. The direction he headed in was actually the same as the direction Ye Qianli left in?!

Furthermore...!

He seemed to have been looking in that direction the entire time. He did not even glance at Ye Fengtian, much less Su Lianhua, before leaving.

This...

"Exactly what's going on?" Ye Fengtian was a little dumbfounded. However, as of this moment, he did not feel that Crown Prince Rong Mo had gone after that rebellious daughter of his, Ye Qianli.

The coincidence in direction was just a coincidence. Even the other two elders thought so, too. No one felt that Crown Prince Rong Mo would pay attention to a useless person.

"Prince Ye." The two elders, who had come to a conclusion inwardly, had already walked in the direction of the original main hall. They acted as if they didn't notice the mess here, and their expressions were quite gentle.

However, Ye Fengtian didn't hide his embarrassment and said, "I've made a fool of myself in front of the Senior Grand Secretary and Doctor Jiang. Wicked daughter... Sigh, it's the misfortune of our family. I hope that Doctor Jiang can feel the pulse of my wife."

"You're too polite, Prince Ye. It's only right." Doctor Jiang walked forward and asked Ye Fengtian to put Su Qin down before immediately taking her pulse.

"Doctor Jiang, how is it?" Ye Fengtian immediately asked once he saw that Doctor Jiang had finished taking her pulse.

"There's no harm. Some of her meridians were only injured by the killing intent. She just needs to recuperate," Doctor Jiang said in a placating manner before casting his gaze at the pale-faced Su Lianhua. "This person..."

"Please take my niece's pulse, too, Doctor Jiang. She's the child who awakened her Jade Rabbit Talent last night and was also injured by that rebellious girl just now. I do not know if she's fine," Ye Fengtian hurriedly said. He could also tell that Doctor Jiang valued Su Lianhua.

Otherwise, with Doctor Jiang's status as the Chancellor of the Imperial Hospital, why would he deign to lower himself to greet a junior?

"Doctor Jiang, cough..." Su Lianhua was overjoyed inside, but there was a charmingly pitiful expression on her face. She even lightly coughed out blood.

However, she was not pretending to vomit blood. She had not recovered from her serious injuries to begin with, and yet she still came to watch Ye Qianli get into trouble. During this period, not only was she slapped by Ye Qianli, but the aftermath of the Nine Phoenix Sky Ornament and of Ye Fengtian's palm confrontation also caused her quite a lot of damage.

"Oh, it's Miss Su." Doctor Jiang revealed a look of enlightenment at the right time. He immediately checked on Su Lianhua, but his forehead soon scrunched up.

When Ye Fengtian saw this, he revealed a grave expression instantly. Su Qin—who was already so weak that she was feeling faint—was still looking at Master Jiang's expression and became even more anxious. Her breathing became chaotic, and she almost vomited blood again.

"Doctor Jiang..." Ye Fengtian quickly steadied Su Qin and could not help but ask at the same time.

However, the white-haired silver-browed old man immediately shook his head and signaled Ye Fengtian not to make a noise and disturb them. As such, the latter and Su Qin could only shut up and wait anxiously for the diagnosis outcome.

At that moment, Su Lianhua herself was no longer in the mood to be cocky anymore. She was also panicking as she looked at Master Jiang with an even more miserable gaze.

After a long while, Doctor Jiang released Su Lianhua's wrist with a solemn expression.

"Doctor, how is it?" Ye Fengtian hurriedly asked. Su Qin and Su Lianhua were extremely nervous.

"I'm afraid it's not good." Doctor Jiang indeed gave him bad news.

"It must be that evil creature's fault! I told you that she would only harm my Ye family. She, cough..." Upon hearing that, Su Qin was so furious that she coughed out mouthfuls of blood.

Doctor Jiang quickly fed her a pill and helped her to suppress her injuries before saying, "Princess Consort, you have wronged your daughter this time."

"That is not my—Su Qin's—daughter! How can a daughter abuse her mother like this? That is my enemy!" Su Qin uttered resolutely with a pale face.

"..." Doctor Jiang found it difficult to respond. He changed the topic and said, "Miss Su's injury is in her elixir field. She awakened her talent last night and was injured by the power of the Nine Mystical Extraordinary Fire. Although she would not lose her life because she swallowed the Jade Dew Pill, it left behind the root of her illness."

"How can she be cured?" Ye Fengtian asked hurriedly.

"It's not easy to treat. Unless we find that talent cultivator of the Nine Mystical Extraordinary Fire and ask them to draw away the fire aura in Miss Su's elixir field, then use the Arctic Ice Black Crystal as the main ingredient to concoct an efficacious pill refined together with the Tian Yu Night Queen Flower," Doctor Jiang explained.

"..." Ye Fengtian didn't say anything after hearing that. Putting everything else aside, just this Arctic Ice Black Crystal alone was a natural treasure that wasn't that easy to find.

"Fengtian..." Su Qin tugged on Ye Fengtian's clothes, with tears falling before she had said anything.

"If it isn't cured completely, will there be any future troubles? Will it endanger her life?" Ye Fengtian asked instead.

"It won't endanger her life in the short run, but it will have some effect on her talent. If she doesn't cure it completely for a long time, she won't be able to awaken her second talent, and the power of her first talent will be weakened, too. As Prince Ye should know, for a talent cultivator, their elixir field is the most important thing. If there's a problem with the elixir field, there will be problems with their innate talent as well," Doctor Jiang explained.

"Uncle, this is too tough for you. Hua'er doesn't need to be cured completely. It's already very good that I can awaken my first talent. It's the Ye family's greatest gift to Hua'er," Su Lianhua said miserably.

"Hua'er, don't talk nonsense. How could your talent be wasted because of this? You will definitely be cured!" Su Qin immediately promised weakly as soon as she heard that.

"That's right. As long as I can fulfill the prerequisites, Uncle will definitely do his best to let you recover completely. There's no need to say anything else. This talent of yours can be considered the talent of our Ye family as well. How can we let you weaken like this?" Ye Fengtian promised, too.

Su Lianhua was over the moon when she heard that. Who would have thought...

"I'm afraid that it can't be cured. We can't find that Nine Mystical Extraordinary Fire talent cultivator. I'm afraid that he is a capable individual of foreign origins; he has already left our Vermilion Bird Dynasty." The white-haired, silver-browed elder dampened their enthusiasm instead.

Ye Fengtian, Su Qin, and Su Lianhua were all dumbfounded. However, Doctor Jiang said yet again, "Perhaps, with the help of a talent cultivator of the same level or higher, I can combine the use of the Nine Mystical Fire Needle with that wonder pill to draw out the aura of the Extraordinary Fire."

At this point, Doctor Jiang stopped talking. Everyone present immediately thought of Crown Prince Rong Mo! If there was anyone else in the Vermilion Bird Dynasty who had awakened a talent above the fifth level, it would be Crown Prince Rong Mo.

However, would Crown Prince Rong Mo undertake this task?

The few people present had their own guesses. Little did they know that the Crown Prince, Rong Mo, who had no idea that he had been 'targeted' by them, had completely exceeded their expectations and was blocking the front of Ye Qianli.

"Please move aside." Ye Qianli expressed that she was very unhappy now. Therefore, even if it was a handsome man blocking her way, she was not in the mood to admire him at all.

However, just as she spoke coldly, her chin was being lifted again!

Chapter 20: Return with the Title of a King

"You..." Ye Qianli was so angry that she was about to flare up. However, a certain pretty crown prince, who was pinching her chin, stuck his cold and fair jade-like fingers into her mouth.

Ye Qianli's pupils constricted, and she bit down without hesitation. Unfortunately... She didn't manage to bite down because her biting muscles were roughly pinched to a halt.

Not only that, but her lips were also forced open even bigger!

Ye Qianli became even angrier in an instant. Her pair of glossy, crystal-clear eyes was burning with tiny flames. However, just as she was about to explode completely, the pretty crown prince sensibly withdrew his hand.

"Other people bite their tongues to commit suicide while you bite your tongue to extract blood. This act is so realistic." After Rong Mo pulled out his fingers, he even seemingly wiped them on Ye Qianli's body in particular disdain before taking out a handkerchief to wipe them again...

Ye Qianli: "..."

However, in her fury, she did not realize that, under Rong Mo's long eyelashes resembling butterfly wings and that pair of eyes of his hidden by shadows, there was the flickering of a dark light.

"Your Highness, the Crown Prince, if there's nothing else, please make way." Ye Qianli endured again and again until she finally managed to calm down after much difficulty. After all, she couldn't win against this beautiful crown prince in a fight for the time being so it was better not to humiliate herself.

Unfortunately, long after she finished speaking, the beautiful prince in front of her—who was blocking her way—didn't have the slightest intention of moving his long and noble legs away; neither did he even make the faintest movement.

Ye Qianli raised her eyebrows and then walked around this dear crown prince. Surprisingly, she wasn't obstructed! Since that was the case, she didn't say anything else and left.

This time, she walked very smoothly without being called to a stop or blocked again. It was as if the crown prince had stopped her just to confirm the situation of the bleeding in her mouth.

"Ridiculous." The more Ye Qianli thought about it, the more she felt that he was unreasonable. However, she did not forget to reflect if there was anything wrong with her reaction and if she had exposed herself.

After all, this crown prince had still been investigating her until last night! Her 'counterattack' last night might not have been able to completely remove his suspicions of her.

"How much longer am I going to be bothered by him?" Ye Qianli rubbed the center of her eyebrows. She felt that being watched by this beautiful crown prince was really not a comfortable thing.

This person's eyes were too mysterious. If she wasn't careful, she felt that he would be able to see through her. She was also someone with small and huge secrets. It was really torturous.

However, Ye Qianli—who was tormented and worried—did not know that Rong Mo had slowly put away the handkerchief that he used to wipe his hands, with lowered lids. His gaze became increasingly dark.

"Ye Qianli, you'd better pray that the results that Xiao Bai discovers don't point to you. Otherwise..." Rong Mo lifted his eyes and looked into the air. The cold air around him grew thicker and thicker.

Ye Qianli, who had already walked far away, suddenly shivered involuntarily. She only felt a chill crawl out from the bottom of her heart. It was so cold!

"What's going on? Has the temperature dropped?" Ye Qianli had a stunned expression. Why did she feel cold out of the blue? After all, she had already fused with the Nine Heavens Mystical Fire last night. Logically speaking, she should not feel cold at the very least.

However, this cold kind of feeling disappeared in an instant. Other than feeling baffled, Ye Qianli really couldn't find any other reason. Hence, she didn't dwell on this matter anymore and continued walking back to Vermilion Bird City.

Yes, she wanted to go to the royal capital's Vermilion Bird City. She wanted to participate in the Prodigy Convention. She wanted to take back everything that belonged to her... Not through that sc*mbag father or that sc*mbag mother, but by herself.

Moreover, although she had cut off all ties with her parents, she had never said that she wanted to cut off all ties with the Ye family and that grandfather of hers.

Grandpa...

Actually, in Ye Qianli's memories, she had only seen this grandfather when she was very young. However, the Heart Protecting Jade on her body was really given to her by her grandfather.

Her grandfather had indeed given her quite a number of good pills, but she could not bear to eat them herself. Instead, she gave them to this 'good' younger cousin of hers, Su Lianhua.

That Ye Qianli... She wasn't actually stupid. She actually knew that this cousin of hers also had her own 'little' thoughts, but she did not know that her cousin had held 'major' schemes to kill her.

It was just that there was no one around her to talk to. She only yearned for kinship so she had always chosen to indulge Su Lianhua's little schemes. She was not stingy with her gifts, only wishing to maintain this 'sisterly relationship'.

"What a silly girl," Ye Qianli shook her head and sighed lightly in her heart. Afterward, she smoothly entered the capital city. Even though many people were actually watching her in the dark along the way, none of them stopped her.

Until she entered the capital city and walked into this unfamiliar and bustling city where people came and went, she came face-to-face with a basin full of smelly unknown objects hurled at her.

Swoosh—

The smelly water filled with excrement unmistakably splashed onto Ye Qianli's original location. If she had not dodged, all this excrement would have landed on her right now.

"Ye Qianli, you're shameless. You committed adultery and got caught in the act."

"Ye Qianli, you huge piece of trash. You disobeyed your parents and attempted matricide. You are just a chicken that has been swept out of the residence."

"Bleugh, bleugh, bleugh..."

At the same time, there were also children's rhymes prepared by people looking to dirty her reputation; these were sung by a group of dirty little beggars. They were so professional that they didn't even forget to accompany their singing with funny faces of contempt.

Of course, it was inevitable that there was also a group of onlookers pointing at her.

"Look, this is the shameless Eldest Young Lady of the Ye family in the Northern Territory. What genius goddess? What noble lady of a dynasty? Pah! She's actually a piece of trash! Worse, she's a piece of trash—who had illicit sexual relations with the guards."

"Yes, yes, yes, I heard about it, too. I didn't expect it! Such an utterly shameless and disgusting person actually dared to covet His Royal Highness? Where's her face?"

"The most important thing is that she even refused to accept being disciplined after the incident. She even attempted matricide! How can her character be so terrible? It's so infuriating."

With a random bunch of tattletales talking one by one to expose Ye Qianli's matter, they quickly added fuel to the fire. As for Ye Qianli...

She was standing in the middle of the crowd of onlookers, not far from that basin of manure water, listening to the rumors of small children and the verbal abuse of passers-by. Her face was calm and unperturbed.

It was only when the crowd grew larger as more gathered that the guards of the city gate—who were slow to arrive—came to disperse these people before she swept her gaze over to a large batch of people who were about to leave.

Some of these people were manpower specially hired to fan the flames. Some of them were really just here to watch the fun. Another portion really 'couldn't bear to watch' her moral conduct anymore. All types of people were present...

"Hurl at her!"

It was not known who shouted first, but a few unidentified objects suddenly smashed towards Ye Qianli. However, In an instant, before anyone could clearly see what was happening, those things that were hurled towards Ye Qianli had all disappeared?!

All disappeared...

At the same time, Ye Qianli raised her voice, "Am I shameless, or am I being slandered? Am I a great piece of trash or a true genius? During the Prodigy Convention three days later, I—the granddaughter of the Northern Territory King—Ye Qianli, invite you to wait and see."
