Chapter 196: Change Postures!

"Senior Sister, be careful!" Red Knife, who was closest to Ye Shang, subconsciously pushed Ye Shang away with his palm. He was naturally swept away by the ice wave.

"Young Master Hong!" Ye Rui and the others' expressions changed. After all, Ye Qianli had told them to take good care of Red Knife before she left.

In the end...Red Knife also entered the ice pond, but neither his aunt, Ye Qianli, nor Rong Mo knew about it.

However, this ice pool was indeed a different world. After the fluorescent light in front of the people who jumped down dissipated, they were all stunned by a magnificent ancient building.

Even though Ye Donglin and the others had seen the magnificent winding corridors and pavilions on the snowy peaks, they were simply incomparable to the main palace hall in front of them.

"!"At this moment, almost everyone was shocked by the majestic building that towered into the sky.

This was because everyone felt as if they were floating in the world. This made them subconsciously feel very small and humble.

Only Rong Mo was as calm as ever, as if he was used to it and was not worth mentioning.

However, Rong Mo was not pretending. Especially when he walked towards the main door of the palace, his aloof indifference was like the calmness of his home. It was simply eye-catching!

Even Ye Qianli was stunned. She felt that Rong Mo was different from his usual self.

It was as if...

It was as if when he pushed open the door to the palace, he would lift the blue clouds up into the sky and return to the world that originally belonged to him.

This feeling was very subtle, but it made Ye Qianli's heart tremble. Without thinking, she quickly followed him and called out, " Your Highness, Your Highness, wait for me. "

Rong Mo, who was walking slowly, paused for a moment and turned to look at the little fiancée.

Seeing that she was as quick as a leopard, his beautiful eyebrows relaxed slightly. Then, his hand was tightly grabbed by the leopard, and his entire body was quickly brought forward.

"Behave yourself." Rong Mo couldn't help but pull her back. Then, he pulled her forward, changing from the passive to the dominant.

" How am I not being honest? Your Highness, you're the one who's not kind. You were hugging me just now, but you let me go the moment you came down. You only cared about running forward. You're too much! " Ye Qianli expressed her displeasure.

"Who was the one who wanted to come down?"

" That's because you weren't hugging me in the right position, so I didn't see anything. All I saw was the group of people who followed behind. They were all looking ahead like idiots. Of course, I wanted to see them too. " Ye Qianli was not convinced.

"Who was the one who did this?" Rong Mo raised his eyebrows and asked back. She wrapped herself around his waist like a little leopard, and she blamed him for not being able to see the palace in front of her due to the poor posture?

"It's me." After Ye Qianli answered honestly, she realized that something was wrong. Then...Then, she lowered her head in embarrassment.

Oh my god!

How did she hug Rong Mo? She actually used such a shameful action. Her legs wrapped around his narrow waist and her hands wrapped around his neck. The key was that this was not the first time!

It was the same last time, when he was escaping! She also hugged the beautiful prince like this. Aiyaya! Why didn't she realize it? This posture...

".."The more Ye Qianli thought about it, the more she lowered her head. She couldn't face the beautiful prince beside her. Even her hand that was held by him felt so embarrassed that it was burning. She wanted to pull it back.

Seeing that she was about to bury her head in her chest, Rong Mo continued to expose her, ""Now you know how to be shy?"

"..”Ye Qianli really wanted to break free from his grip and quickly walked forward. She didn't want to walk with a certain crown prince and didn't want to talk to him.

"Your movements are quite skillful." However, Rong Mo still wanted to say it.

"Your Highness!" Ye Qianli was extremely embarrassed. Wasn't that her instinctive reaction in a moment of desperation? As for settling scores now?

Besides, he didn't object to it previously. Perhaps he was quite happy in his heart! Otherwise, would she have succeeded? She had gotten a bargain and was still pretending to be good.

"You're not allowed to say it even after you did it?" Rong Mo clenched his fist tightly. The little hand that he wanted to secretly wring away from him thought to himself, With her current abilities, she still wants to escape from his grasp?

"I did it! If you want to do it again in the future, bite me!" Ye Qianli was furious. What was wrong with her hugging him like that? Wasn't he her fiancé? Was it illegal for her to hug her fiancé?

Rong Mo was speechless.

Seeing that he was silent, Ye Qianli lifted her head in a relaxed manner. The more she thought about it, the less shy she felt. She stared at the beautiful prince beside her and said arrogantly, "I'll hug you like this again next time! "

"!"Rong Mo looked at her from the side and saw that she was so proud that her tail was sticking up. If she had a tail, he could not help but pinch her face.

"Ai!" Ye Qianli was instantly in a bad mood. The key was that there were still people behind them. If he pinched her face like this, she...She had lost so much face!

However, what Ye Qianli didn't notice was that although Rong Mo had raised his hand to pinch her, his body had also covered her without leaving a trace. The people behind didn't see that he was pinching her cheeks.

At this moment, Ye Qianli, who was about to explode, heard Rong Mo say coldly, ""I can let you hug me, but you can only hug me like this."

"!..”Ye Qianli was dumbfounded.

"Nodding." Rong Mo ordered.

Although Ye Qianli was still confused, she nodded instinctively. She didn't intend to hug someone else like this. Speaking of which, hugging Rong Mo like this must be the aftereffect of raping him. She couldn't help it.

"Be good." Satisfied, Rong Mo held her hand and continued to walk forward. Although the two of them talked a lot of nonsense, their speed did not slow down at all. They had already reached the door of the palace.

Moreover, the two of them walked as if they were walking on flat ground, but the people behind them walked extremely hard! Some of them were even sweating profusely as they walked, looking so weak that they would collapse at any moment.

"What happened? Why did they leave so easily?" The Verdant King quickly realized the problem. Although he could still walk and it was not particularly difficult, it was definitely not as easy as the two people in front of him.

"Most likely, it has something to do with them meditating by the ice pond." Although Auntie Hong seemed to be walking with ease, the sweat on her forehead also revealed her difficulty.

"..The Verdant King's expression turned ugly. However, he knew that they had been delayed by the Black Tortoise for so long outside. There was no reason for it to just sit there and wait for them.

But ...

"Rumor has it that the Ye family's ancestor had once received the favor of the Black Tortoise Divine Treasure and had the secret key to the divine treasure. Looks like it's all true." The Verdant King thought about the information he had gathered earlier and felt very uncomfortable.

After all, although the Ye family was extraordinary in the past, they had never been extraordinary beyond the ordinary. They were just a normal martial arts family, so the Verdant King had never taken this information to heart.

However, the current Ye family was not only "extraordinary" but also a legend! And all of this seemed to be because of the little girl in front of him, Ye Qianli.

Could it be...
