Chapter 197: They Were All Swindled!

Although the Ye family's ancestor had obtained the favor of the divine treasure and obtained some opportunities! However, due to his limited talent, he had not been able to display it to its fullest. It was only until Ye Qianli appeared that everything began to change.

"!"When the Verdant King thought of this, his pupils constricted. He stared at the silly girl who was being held by the Vermillion Bird Crown Prince and thought about everything that had happened to her in the past six months.

First, during the Vermillion Bird Prodigy Meet, the Vermillion Bird God had performed a miracle for her. Later, it was proven that the Vermillion Bird God had given her a Vermillion Bird tail feather that was imbued with great divine power!

Furthermore, in the Genius Academy freshmen assessment, she, who had scored 1,001 points, had directly broken all the records of the previous students of the Genius Academy.

Then, in the competition between the new and old students of Genius Academy, she was brave and resourceful. First, she eliminated the Black Tortoise super genius Purple Spirit, and then she killed the Black Tortoise First Prince, Xuan Tianqi, on the spot.

Furthermore, she had awakened the Sky Wolf Flag in this competition, causing the Sky Wolf's voice to ring out! It roared across the Four Symbols Continent, rekindling the blood of the Heavenly Wolf Army and condensing the spirit of the Northern Region Army.

Finally, she used her extraordinary Nine Heaven Obsidian Flame talent in Xuanwu City! Detonating the magma beneath the Xuanwu Mountain Range and destroying an imperial city with his own strength.

".."The more King Qing thought about it, the more he felt that not only him, but everyone in the Blue Dragon Dynasty seemed to not have a comprehensive understanding of the newly risen Crown Princess Consort of the Vermillion Bird Dynasty.

They had always believed that Ye Qianli was able to rise to prominence because of Rong Mo's support.

The Vermilion Bird God had performed a miracle for Ye Qianli because of Rong Mo.

The Genius Academy had gone easy on Ye Qianli because of Rong Mo.

It was because of Rong Mo's strategy and the support of the Vermillion Bird Dynasty that Ye Qianli was able to accomplish such a feat.

In terms of politics, the Blue Dragon Dynasty had always believed that Ye Qianli's rise was because the Vermillion Bird Dynasty urgently needed someone to support the Northern Territory after Ye Wuji's defeat.

That was why the Vermillion Bird Crown Prince spared no effort to promote Ye Qianli, making her shine like a comet and blinding the eyes of the entire continent.

As for Ye Qianli's strength, she might have it, but it was difficult to live up to her reputation...

"Motherf * cker, I've been tricked!" The Verdant King suddenly cursed angrily. He had already figured out the crux of the matter. He felt that Rong Mo, this sly fox, was still young! His ability to calculate people's hearts and the overall situation was simply terrifying.

It was actually this little black fox who created the illusion for the world! This was especially so for the Azure Dragon Dynasty, White Tiger Dynasty, and other major factions.

Their purpose was to protect Ye Qianli and let her grow up in all aspects. By the time they realized it, it was already too late!

After all, after leaving the Black Tortoise Divine Treasure, everything that the little black fox wanted, including everything that the Ye family could obtain, would definitely be obtained, just like now! Weren't they walking ahead?

If they had paid attention to it from the beginning and focused on investigating it! How could he be so passive...

"Damn it! Little bastard, you're simply detestable." The more the Verdant King thought about it, the angrier he became. It should be said that he was embarrassed. After all, he had been tricked.

"What's wrong?" Auntie Hong was confused by the sudden agitation and anger of the Verdant King. She did not understand why a person who was fine just now would suddenly go crazy.

Could it be that the two little ones were walking too happily and easily, and they were so agitated that they became silly? Then his psychological quality was too ordinary...It was completely different from the rumors about the shrewd and powerful Verdant King.

"You don't understand!" The Verdant King didn't say too much to Aunt Hong. After all, even though Aunt Hong was a Divine Inscriptionist employed by the dynasty, the Hong Clan was still a clan that didn't belong to the secular world. They didn't know anything about the matters of the dynasty, so it would be useless for him to say anything.

"Yes." Aunty Hong nodded, indicating that she really didn't understand. She only felt that it was indeed difficult to live up to one's reputation. The Verdant King was just an ordinary person.

At this moment, the Verdant King was paying special attention to the two little ones in front of him, so he paid special attention to them! The two little ones who seemed to have been blocked in front of the palace door had somehow managed to open the door a crack?

"++!"The Verdant King couldn't help but curse again. He still had a long way to go. If they were about to enter, what good things would be left when his men entered?

"Your Highness, please pay attention to your influence." Aunt Hong couldn't hold it in any longer. She felt that she had to remind the Verdant King that his constant swearing was not in line with the image of the Azure Dragon Imperial Family.

"You don't understand!" The Verdant King waved his hand impatiently. In the past, the Vermillion Bird Dynasty had a pervert Rong, but the Azure Dragon Dynasty did not care too much about him. However, now there was another similar pervert! The situation was very bad.

".."The speechless Aunty Hong did not say anything. She felt that it was better not to work with the Verdant Prince next time. This person was unpredictable and spoke rudely. It was detrimental to her style.

"Buzz!"

At this moment, Ye Qianli and Rong Mo had successfully opened the door and disappeared under the envy of the people behind them.

"Bang!"

The grand palace door, which was originally open, was closed again after the two of them disappeared...Everyone who was still struggling felt as if a bucket of ice water had been poured on them in the cold wind. It was simply chilling.

F * ck!

It was fine if he left first, but why did he close the door again!

"President Ye, aren't these two little ones with us?" The people around Ye Donglin wanted to cry. They felt like giving up because their teammates had completely forgotten about their existence.

"Yes." Ye Donglin felt bitter as well, but what could he say? Besides, although they were on the same journey, now that the principal leading the team was no longer around, it was normal for them to do it alone.

However, they had some friendship. Couldn't he give them some convenience...So sad, so sad, so depressed...He was not happy to be abandoned by his awesome teammate.

Seeing that the team was not very energetic, Ye Donglin, as the temporary leader, had no choice but to boost their morale." Cheer up, everyone. At least after we go in, we might get a hint that we've picked up something! "

"..”The fourteen silent people thought for a moment. It seemed to make sense! After all, they were on the same side. If there was really something good, the two little ones wouldn't be able to move it all. They had to give them a hint. It was better than letting the enemy and strangers benefit.

"Go, go, go, hurry up!" The more they thought about it, the brighter their eyes lit up. They advanced at a rather fast pace, leaving Bai Ying Xiong and the rest of the White Tiger Dynasty speechless.

"General, what should we do? Don't tell me we don't even have the chance to pick up the leftovers?" He Dongliu felt even more bitter in his heart. He felt as if he was here to play.

"What nonsense! Disrupting the morale of the army, you deserve to be beheaded!" Bai Ying Xiong's face darkened. He would never admit that he did not even have the chance to pick up the loot. That would be too embarrassing.

"..”He Dongliu didn't say anything, but no matter how he thought about it, he felt that this time, he really did come to play. If he had known earlier, he wouldn't have come. He was so tired.

At the same time...

Chapter 198: Pushing Down the Beautiful Prince!

Ye Qianli's eyes lit up as she entered the hall. In the middle of the hall, there was a large bronze object that looked like a wine cup.

Unfortunately ...

They weren't digging for antiques, so although this thing was priceless in a certain century, Ye Qianli didn't know about it in this world.

Ye Qianli's eyes lit up, and she looked at Rong Mo and asked, ""Your Highness, what is this?"

However, as soon as she finished her question, Rong Mo grabbed her and jumped onto the top of the wine bottle. In this huge wine bottle, there was obviously an unknown liquid that was 80% full.

"!"Ye Qianli sensed it carefully and found that the liquid was extremely cold. It was clearly several times colder than the ice pond water.

However, the cold air in the liquid did not leak out, so if one did not study it carefully, they would only think that it was warm water and there was nothing special about it.

"Your Highness, could this be the legendary Extreme Ice Holy Water?" Ye Qianli asked. She remembered that in the ancient legends, the Black Tortoise drank the Icy Holy Water and became a god with the God-washing Dew.

But whether it was the Icy Holy Water or the Divine Dew, they only appeared in legends. No one had ever seen it, let alone drink it or wash it.

"Yes." Rong Mo replied with certainty.

Ye Qianli couldn't help but take a deep breath. She looked at the beautiful prince beside her in disbelief. It was too unreal.

Extreme Ice Holy Water, a legendary existence, this ... Ye Qianli couldn't stay calm anymore. She felt her legs go weak. Luckily, the beautiful prince was holding her. Otherwise, she would have fallen into the holy water.

".."Rong Mo, who had clearly sensed the changes in her body, looked at her with a distracted look. He saw her staring at the Extreme Ice Holy Water below with a serious expression, as if she had a deep hatred for him.

This was different from what Rong Mo had imagined. He had thought that his little fiancée would be drooling like Little White Meow when she saw the holy water.

"What's wrong?" Rong Mo asked softly.

"There's so much, I can't finish it!" Ye Qianli replied bitterly. After all, the wine bottle was as tall as seven or eight people and as wide as four or five people. Even the utensils in her Universe Bag were not enough.

It was as if she had seen a mountain of gold and silver, but she did not have the strength to move back home. She did not have the chance to move back in the future. Her heart felt stifled.

Hearing this, Rong Mo couldn't help but smile. However, this was indeed a problem because he had already seen that once the Extreme Ice Holy Water left the wine bottle, it would lose its effect within fifteen minutes.

"Forget it. Let's bring them first. We'll take as much as we can." Ye Qianli was about to take out some bottles, but Rong Mo stopped her.

"It's useless to bring it out. You can leave." As Rong Mo spoke, he had already grabbed the person in his arms and jumped into the wine cup. Ye Qianli was so shocked that she immediately hugged him like a leopard.

"Plop-"

However, there was the sound of water entering as expected, but the feeling of being frozen to death was not there? Ye Qianli, who had activated her defensive instincts, was a little confused.

"Although the holy water contains an extremely dense chill, as long as you don't absorb it, the chill won't enter your body." Rong Mo explained. However, holy water has the ability to temper the body and increase one's talent. The more you absorb, the greater the benefits. However, you have to be able to withstand it. "

Ye Qianli understood everything after hearing his explanation. However, she didn't absorb the holy water recklessly. Instead, she asked, "Is there anything I should pay attention to during the absorption process? "

"No, it's based on your physique. If you can't take it, stop." Rong Mo had already pushed Ye Qianli away from him.

".. "Ye Qianli was stunned for a moment. She was feeling a little lost when she saw Rong Mo close his eyes, preparing to absorb the holy water.

However, Rong Mo's temperament changed completely when he closed his eyes. He went from a cold and noble prince to a delicate and soft prince.

Looking at his long and thick eyelashes, she felt as if there were two little butterflies flying into her heart. They tickled her so much that she wanted to touch them.

Forget it, she could still tolerate it!

However, his eyebrows were also very beautiful. They were meticulously drawn like a painting. People couldn't help but want to get closer and take a closer look to see how they were drawn. Why were they drawn so perfectly? The arc was just right and very seductive.

There was also a tall nose, sexy thin lips, and a perfectly angular face. Aiyaya...The more Ye Qianli looked at him, the more she felt that he was too good-looking.

However, at this moment, Rong Mo, who noticed her lecherous gaze, suddenly raised his eyebrows and opened his eyes. "What are you daydreaming about? People are coming."

"!"Ye Qianli was afraid of his deep eyes. She lowered her head and adjusted her breath, preparing to absorb the holy water.

However, Ye Qianli praised him from the bottom of her heart, ""Your Highness, you are so beautiful."

Rong Mo was speechless. He expressed that even if she didn't say it, he would naturally know. Otherwise, she would be dumbfounded by what she saw. Wasn't she in a hurry now? What a stupid leopard.

"Your Highness," Ye Qianli tried to adjust her state of mind, but she couldn't help but look up at Rong Mo, only to find that he had closed his eyes again.

"Yes." Rong Mo, who had his eyes closed, responded and waited for her to continue.

".."However, Ye Qianli did not respond.

Rong Mo waited for a long time but did not hear any movement from her. He was about to open his eyes to see what was going on with her, but...He was about to open his eyes.

"Crash!" The sound of water splashing could be heard, and then...

When Rong Mo opened his eyes, Ye Qianli had already thrown him onto the wall. This was not a problem. The problem was that Ye Qianli had kissed him on the lips!

Rong Mo was speechless.

"Your Highness..." After Ye Qianli kissed him and was not hit, she continued to kiss his thin lips. God knows how long she had wanted to do this, but he refused every time! He even pinched her face.

Yes, she seemed to have gotten her way when she was in a daze, but that didn't count. She just wanted to wake up and kiss him...

That was exactly what Ye Qianli was doing! She had always known that she liked him. Now that he was kissing her, she liked him even more.

The beautiful prince's lips were so soft and sweet. She really wanted to snatch more, but unfortunately...Rong Mo turned his head away.

However, Ye Qianli wouldn't let him go. She had finally mustered up her courage, so of course, she had to kiss him to her heart's content! Therefore, she simply hugged his head and stopped him from twisting it around. She continued kissing him.

Rong Mo was speechless. He wanted to raise his hand to pinch this perverted little leopard, but his hand was actually caught by her long legs and body!

Chapter 199: Your Highness, I Like You!

Rong Mo narrowed his eyes. He was about to "beat" this naughty little leopard up and teach her a lesson.

"Your Highness, oh, Your Highness, I like you..." Ye Qianli was muttering to herself, as if she was telling her heart. She was very serious and sincere.

Rong Mo, who was very clear-headed, felt his heartbeat slow down and his breathing slow down, causing him to be in a trance for a moment.

Many, many years ago, there were also many close relatives who were so sincere to him and loved him so seriously. Although they were different, they made him care more about them.

However, his absent-mindedness only lasted for a moment. Meanwhile, the leopard in his arms had also restrained itself. It intended to pretend that nothing had happened and continue to quietly shrink in his arms.

Those who didn't know better would think that she was very obedient! But he had seen her baring her fangs and brandishing her claws. How could he be fooled by her acting strange?

So ...

Although Ye Qianli was already very obedient, her face was still pinched in a lecturing manner. It hurt so much that she wanted to bury her head and hide, but unfortunately, she was robbed.

"Your Highness, uh..." Ye Qianli wanted to cry, but before she could finish, her face was pinched again.

"Do you still dare?" However, Rong Mo still looked at her coldly and threatened her in a very serious manner.

However, Ye Qianli's answer was to knock her forehead on his chin with such force that Rong Mo frowned.

Rong Mo was speechless. This reaction wasn't right. She was too bold. Was she not afraid of him anymore?

However, what made Rong Mo even more speechless was that Ye Qianli was already quietly absorbing the holy water.

".."Rong Mo looked at his fiancée in his arms speechlessly and did not push her away. After all, she had already started cultivating. What else could she do? He could only start to absorb the holy water.

However, Ye Qianli, who was in his arms, smiled secretly when he closed his eyes. Then, she focused on absorbing the holy water.

Anyway, she had thought it through just now. She had been wrong in the past. She could not push the beautiful prince out just because she was afraid of being held accountable.

The key was that she couldn't push it out either! After all, he obviously did not intend to let her go, so it was definitely not good to keep feeling guilty, dodging, and facing it passively.

She had to be brave enough to win the beautiful prince's heart and make him want her! Even if he was discovered in the future, would he be willing to pinch her to death?

Hahahaha ...

"!"Ye Qianli thought that this was a good idea. She was so stupid in the past. The beautiful prince liked her very much. Otherwise, why would he ask her to hug him?

However, this was not enough. He actually did not lose his mind from her coquettishness and could even teach her a lesson seriously. She had to work harder in the future!

With this hope and confidence, Ye Qianli happily absorbed the water, so she didn't feel that the terrifying coldness was unbearable at all. Instead, she felt sweet inside.

"What an idiot..." The magic box, which had the honor of watching the entire process, was speechless. Although it didn't know why its stupid master was so proactive, it was still very gratified in its heart.

After all, although it couldn't change its master, its master was still quite capable to take down this unpredictable beautiful prince.

Thinking of this, the magic box felt that its stupid master was not too stupid. He knew how to hug this big and thick leg. He was worthy of being taught.

Four hours later, when everyone finally entered the hall, they naturally saw the huge wine bottle, but at the same time, they also saw the faint purple qi swirling around the mouth of the wine bottle.

"This is..." The Verdant King frowned slightly. He realized that he couldn't tell what was so special about this purple breath. It seemed to be just ordinary purple qi? But this purple breath appearing in this kind of place shouldn't be ordinary purple qi, right?

"Sou!" At this moment, Xuan Tianyan was the first to jump into the mouth of the bottle. There was a flash of purple in his eyes.

"Swoosh, swoosh, swoosh..." The people from the Black Tortoise Dynasty followed suit.

"General!" When He Dongliu saw this, he was about to urge Bai Ying Xiong, but he saw Bai Ying Xiong staring at the mouth of the bottle with vigilance. At the same time, the people from the Ghost Realm retreated to the door of the hall.

At the same time!

"Not good!"

Xuan Tianyan exclaimed.

"Bang!"

A burst of purple light shot out from the huge wine bottle like a fountain, directly sending Xuan Tianyan and the others flying.

"Puff!" Violet Spirit, who had the lowest cultivation level, vomited blood on the spot. If she hadn't been very careful and had only followed at the back, she would definitely have been seriously injured and died.

At the same time, the purple light that soared into the sky had already silently bloomed into a huge flower in the hall. It was quiet and peaceful...It was not aggressive at all.

"Aunt Hong, do you know what flower this is?" However, the Verdant Emperor could not figure out what kind of flower it was. Therefore, he could only ask Aunty Hong.

"I don't know." Aunty Hong stared at the huge flower that was gradually fading away and was also confused.

However, because of this unforeseen event, no one dared to rush to the mouth of the bottle rashly. After a long while, Ye Donglin nodded to the person beside him.

After that, they carefully climbed up the bottle and carefully checked the inside of the bottle. However, before they could see the situation clearly, they had to wait for a long time.

"Sou!" A gust of wind burst out from the bottle, startling Ye Donglin and the others into hurriedly dodging into the air. How could they still dare to stand at the mouth of the bottle? However...

"Rong Mo, Ye Qianli." The Verdant King could tell that the person who broke out of the bottle was a familiar person. However, Ye Qianli was still in Rong Mo's arms. She seemed to have fainted.

However, Rong Mo only glanced at the crowd before carrying Ye Qianli to the door. When he passed by Ye Donglin, he whispered, " Extreme Ice Holy Water. "

These four words were like lightning and thunder that struck Ye Donglin. However, his reaction was also fast. He immediately jumped into the wine cup. Of course!

Bai Ying Xiong and the Verdant King were not slow either. They had been paying close attention to Rong Mo's words since a long time ago. Therefore, no matter how soft Rong Mo's voice was, they could still hear him.

In that case...

Chapter 200: Divine Treasure Map!

"Plop! Plop!" No one cared about Rong Mo and Ye Qianli. They all jumped into the wine goblets. After all, it was the Icy Holy Water!

Although it felt surreal and he didn't know if he had been deceived, who cared? He would jump in first! What if it was true? That would be a huge profit.

In the end...

"++! "It really is the Extreme Ice Holy Water! Heavens!" An excited roar that could shake the heavens and the earth rang out from the wine cup. No one had expected the legendary Holy Water to really appear at this moment.

Especially when they absorbed the holy water into their bodies, the obvious feeling of tempering their bodies made everyone extremely excited.

"Your Highness, it's really the Extreme Ice Holy Water!" Violet Spirit was also very excited. Furthermore, there was quite a bit of holy water, about half the volume of a wine cup. It was enough for everyone here to absorb.

"Not bad." Xuan Tianyan nodded. Although he pretended to be calm on the surface, his heart was surging. He did not expect that there was really Extreme Ice Holy Water.

Even if Rong Mo and Ye Qianli came in first, so what? He could only look at the remaining holy water and could not take it away.

He had seen this wine bottle. Although it looked simple and unadorned on the outside, it was full of mysteries on the inside. Presumably, once the extreme ice holy water left the wine bottle, it would lose its magical effect. Otherwise, how could it be left behind?

However ...

"Your Highness, this Extreme Ice Holy Water should have been 80% full." Auntie Hong's mental strength was extraordinary, so she was the first to notice this unusual detail.

"..The Verdant King immediately calmed down. He knew what Auntie Hong meant by her words. It meant that the two little ones had already absorbed half of the holy water in the past four hours!

Although they probably couldn't use up the remaining half, that was the problem! There were 40 to 50 people from all four sides, but they couldn't use up the remaining half of the holy water.

However, just the two of them had absorbed it! What did this mean? It meant that the talent of the two of them could crush 40 to 50 of them.

"Perver!" The Verdant King did not know how to express the complicated feelings in his heart other than this word. He felt that he had to discuss with his royal brother about his new attitude towards the Vermilion Bird Dynasty after he returned.

When everyone jumped into the wine goblet and absorbed the holy water, Rong Mo carried his little fiancée in his arms and walked to an inconspicuous place in the hall.

If the dean was here, he would have noticed that Rong Mo's steps were very regular. The result of this rhythm was that his and Ye Qianli's figures gradually faded away until they disappeared.

When Rong Mo reappeared, he was already standing on a long corridor that seemed to stretch to the end. However, he did not walk forward immediately. Instead, he said in a clear voice, "Still pretending to be asleep?"

Don't think that he didn't know that the little leopard in his arms had already woken up when he carried the holy water out. At that time, there were many people, so he didn't expose her.

However ...

"Yes." Ye Qianli answered straightforwardly.

Rong Mo was speechless. Why did he feel that his little fiancée had changed? He was so cowardly before, so why was he so bold now? Was she really not afraid of him?

The truth was, Ye Qianli was definitely braver than Rong Mo. After she had answered him, she changed from being held horizontally to being held by an octopus and entangled Rong Mo.

Rong Mo's eyebrows twitched as he said, "'Holy Water to boost your courage?'"

"Yes." Ye Qianli was sincere, and she covered her face and ears subconsciously. This was the advanced "preparation" state.

However, Rong Mo didn't show any signs of making a move. Moreover, Ye Qianli had been preparing for a long time, but he didn't show any signs of teaching her a lesson. This was a little unbelievable.

".. "Ye Qianli raised her head carefully, wanting to see Rong Mo's expression so that she could prepare a countermeasure. However, when she raised her head, she realized that something was wrong.

Rong Mo's eyes were extremely dark at this moment. They were like two quiet universes. They looked peaceful and calm, but in fact, they were surging with dark waves! It was ready to go.

There was a situation!

"!"Ye Qianli's breathing suddenly became weak and even gradually disappeared. She was on high alert.

She wasn't the only one. The Magic Box had noticed that something was wrong earlier than her. However, it was still a little later than Bi Mo, which made it a little unhappy.

It was the Primordial Demon Box. Even if its owner was too weak and had a certain restriction on its strength, an ordinary person's perception could not compare to it.

What was wrong with this Crown Prince? His five senses were too sharp...

"Buzz!"

At this moment, a weak spatial fluctuation spread out about 30 feet away! Rong Mo quickly hid behind a stone pillar in the corridor.

Not long after, a group of people appeared silently! And this group of people was definitely not Ye Donglin, the Verdant King, and the other four groups, because their auras were completely different.

However, Ye Qianli didn't dare to probe them, not even to scan them with her Soul Consciousness. The experience of being locked up made her more vigilant than before.

Therefore, she didn't dare to spread her divine sense, and even her heartbeat was hidden by her. If it weren't for her body temperature, Rong Mo, who was hugging her, would have suspected that she was "dead."

"Brother, how is it?"

"Just like the Divine Treasure Map, the end of the corridor should be the Divine Martial Pavilion. Let's go and take a look. I hope that no other forces have gotten there before us."

"I don't think so. Our Dongfang family got the Divine Treasure Map by chance. No one else knows that Huo Donglai and the others are still fighting for the divine egg."

"Not necessarily. Didn't you say that the Saint Child is here?"

"Uh ..."

"Let's go quickly and end this battle quickly. Otherwise, if the Misty Immortal Palace gets involved, even if we obtain the treasure, I'm afraid that they will have no choice but to spit it out if they insist on it..."

Ye Qianli listened to the conversation between the young man and woman. Her tense nerves, breathing, and heartbeat gradually relaxed, but her face was unprecedentedly solemn.

Her previous experience in that godforsaken place had made her guess that this trip was unusual. There was a force that she did not recognize joining. Now, it seemed that it was indeed the case.

She had never heard of the Dongfang family or the Ethereal Immortal Palace.

Thinking of this, Ye Qianli couldn't help but look up at Rong Mo, but she didn't expect him to be looking at her too. She fell into his dark eyes and her thoughts drifted away.

Then, she was kissed, causing her heart to tremble and her thoughts to drift even further! However, her little face was pinched. It was so painful that she almost sucked in a breath of cold air. However, she still maintained her vigilance and quickly covered her mouth! He could only glare at the disgraceful Crown Prince in front of him with resentment.

Despite all his defenses, he still fell for it!

"Do you want to follow?" Rong Mo pursed his lips and asked, seemingly trying to hold back his laughter.

However, Ye Qianli was seduced by his words. She only nodded her head and forgot to be angry. Rong Mo pinched her face again when he saw her silly look. Ye Qianli was so angry that she was about to retaliate.

Rong Mo had already taken action, so she could only hold back her anger and think about settling the score later! Unfortunately, she forgot about it, especially when they entered the Divine Martial Pavilion.

Because the moment they entered the Divine Martial Pavilion...

"Buzz!"
