Chapter 59: I Want to Fight You All Night!

" Exactly five buckets of water, exactly half an hour. Did that guy calculate this before? " Ye Qianli felt her scalp tingle as she thought about it. She felt that this perverted Crown Prince was too good at scheming.

However, no matter how much she cursed, the moment she knocked on the door, she still smiled and shouted into the room, " Your Highness, I'm here. Open the door. "

"Enter." Rong Mo replied indifferently.

Ye Qianli pouted and cursed, ""Pretend!" Then, she put on a smile and pushed the door open. As expected, she saw the beautiful prince sitting on a chair by the table.

Well, except for the time when she pulled him out, no matter what time it was, she would always see him in his well-dressed clothes. There was not a single wrinkle on his clothes. Even when she brought him through the wilderness, swamps, and forests, she had never seen him in a sorry state.

From this, it could be seen why he was so angry back then. A person like him, who was so stubborn and powerful, was actually...

It was definitely the nightmare of his life!

Every time Ye Qianli thought about this, she couldn't help but feel happy. It was a kind of perverted venting. Who asked this bastard to torture her so much? His vicious methods made even the most perverted instructor in the modern Hunter Training Camp admit defeat.

Of course, she had to admit that the results of her training were great! Now, even if she did not need to borrow the Vermillion Bird tail feather, she had a certain degree of confidence to mediate with the old master.

From this point of view, she was grateful to Rong Mo. He had made her stronger. If she had a choice, she would still follow him, but this did not stop her from continuing to complain about him.

"Hehe ... Your Highness, why are you looking for me?" Ye Qianli sat down and asked with a cheeky smile. She was actually prepared to be tortured. She just hoped that she would smile brighter so that this pervert would be more gentle.

"What an ugly smile." Rong Mo said.

Ye Qianli was speechless.

" There are still three days before the freshmen assessment begins. You have three days to familiarize yourself with the map. " Rong Mo said as he handed a document to Ye Qianli.

"Alright." Ye Qianli accepted the letter without a word and continued to listen. She knew that Rong Mo had more to say. As expected...

" The academy is divided into four classes, Heaven, Earth, Black, and Yellow, " Rong Moyi said. " The main purpose of the freshmen assessment is to divide the freshmen into these four classes. "

"How many tests will it be divided into?" Ye Qianli asked humbly.

"No,"

"Then how do you test?"

"I'll put you in the assessment field. Whoever can get full marks the fastest will enter the heaven class. Those who score 95 and above will enter the earth class, those who score 90 and above will enter the mystic class, and those who score below will enter the yellow class. As for you, I hope you can take all the full marks." Rong Mo said.

Ye Qianli widened her eyes and asked after a while, ""How many full marks do you usually get?"

"Ten."

"There are only ten people in the heaven class?" Ye Qianli was a little shocked. She had a bad feeling. After all, the fewer the number of people, the harder it would be to get a perfect score. It also meant that it would be more difficult for her to " snatch points from the tiger's mouth ".

"Yes." Rong Mo nodded. " So, you'd better do your homework. If you fail, you won't be able to complete the Class A mission. "

"That's impossible!" Ye Qianli retorted and opened the document, ready to burn the midnight oil to figure out the terrain.

"Go back to your room and take a look."

"I won't!" Ye Qianli crossed her legs on the chair. If she didn't sleep, how could the perverted Crown Prince sleep soundly? If she couldn't sleep, he couldn't sleep either.

However-

This time, Rong Mo replied to Ye Qianli in a soft and gentle voice, " Good girl. "

"!"Ye Qianli felt her hair stand on end, and she felt like she was about to break out in cold sweat.

However, her hair stood on end and she quickly froze because the perverted crown prince had even reached out to pinch her face! Face pinching! Still gently pinching...

"Go back obediently." Rong Mo said gently.

"Yes." Ye Qianli immediately stood up and disappeared.

As a result, the magic box was sent out to her as soon as she entered the room."Hahahahahahahahaha..."

Ye Qianli was speechless. What could she do? She was just a coward in front of that guy! Damn it, don't let her catch him weak again. When that time comes, she'll...Well, she was thinking about what to do with him.

On the other side, after Ye Qianli disappeared, Rong Mo's hand slowly landed on the edge of the table. His slender fingers tapped on the edge of the table.

Not long after, a red shadow flashed and landed on the seat where Ye Qianli had sat before. Then, a red-robed man with red hair! The androgynous beauty had suddenly appeared.

Moreover, the moment this beauty appeared, a cold light flashed in her hand and shot towards Rong Mo's face. With a light clang, a cold and shiny star shaped hidden weapon was caught by Rong Mo's two fingers above the edge of the table.

"F * ck! I didn't even hurt a single strand of your hair. My summer vacation was wasted again." This made the red-clothed beauty who had ambushed him curse on the spot.

From his voice, it could be heard that this beauty dressed in red should be a pure man. After all, he had a duck-like voice of a teenager, and it was shockingly recognizable...

"This set of hidden weapons is good, forge one for me." Rong Mo said.

"Yes, my ass! He couldn't even touch a single strand of your hair, and this was considered alright? Senior Brother Rong, you really know how to mock people." The duck-voiced beauty was extremely dejected.

"If you really hurt a single strand of my hair, you won't be able to see the sun tomorrow." Rong Mo put away the hidden weapon on his finger, his calm tone filled with unquestionable certainty.

"..”The duck-voiced beauty didn't speak immediately.

However, he couldn't help but think of a legend in an academy. I heard! It was said that when Senior Brother Rong participated in the freshmen assessment, he killed his opponent in the friendly competition after the venue assessment. He was a super talented person who was three years older than him.

The reason was simple. That person had chopped off a strand of Senior Brother Rong's hair...

That was fine. Normally, Senior Brother Rong, who killed people in the academy, could only end up with a life for a life. At the very least, he would be expelled from the academy! However, two years had passed. Senior Brother Rong was still fine, but that legend had almost been forgotten.

"Give me this set of hidden weapons in three days." While the duck-voiced beauty was immersed in her memories, Rong Mo had already given her a time limit.

"F * ck! I spent the entire summer vacation forging this set of hidden weapons. There are a total of 108 pieces in this set. Do you think I can finish it in three days? You can do it. " The duck-voiced beauty almost jumped up when she heard "three days".

However, he didn't jump now. He jumped next because Rong Mo said, ""Then give me this set first."

"You..."

"I'll give you three days to soak it with poison." Rong Mo, however, added another task for him when the duck-voiced beauty jumped up.

This wasn't the end...

Chapter 60: I'll Give You My First Time Again

"The poison will be the toad poison of the Six Eyed Golden Toad." Rong Mo even had a requirement for the poison. Hearing this, the beautiful woman with the duck voice, who was already jumping on the chair, turned pale.

After a long while, he suppressed his shock and heartache and regained his ability to speak. "Senior Brother Rong, can you be any more shameless? What you want is the best thing I have. Does your father know that you're so shameless?"

"Do you agree?" Rong Mo's usual style was not to waste words and was very direct! He was no exception to anyone, but he was very patient with Ye Qianli and had explained a lot to her.

Although Ye Qianli didn't feel it at all and Rong Mo himself didn't notice it...

"Agreed." Facing such a direct demand, the beautiful woman with the croaky voice, whose heart was in pain, was even more cowardly than Ye Qianli when she was being oppressed.

"However..." The duck-voiced beauty sat down again. Although she accepted her fate, she could not help but ask curiously, "What do you want these for? Hidden weapons and poison are not your style."

Your style has always been brutal and direct destruction.

The duck-voiced beauty didn't say this out loud, but everyone in Genius Academy knew that this fellow surnamed Rong and given name Mo was definitely one of the freaks in the academy that couldn't be provoked! This person looked like a beautiful young master who was aloof from the mortal world, but in reality...

He was a ruthless character who would kill people the moment he made a move! The key was that his strength was outstanding. Whoever he wanted to kill could only admit that they were unlucky and had no chance to take revenge.

If such a person was an enemy, he would definitely make people unable to sleep or eat in peace! The duck-voiced beauty did not want to be Rong Mo's enemy, so she chose to be his friend.

"Say something. Since you want me to give you something, you should at least let me know its use, right? It can't be that you're giving it to someone, right? But you've never given anything to anyone, right?" The man with the croaky voice was really curious.

Rong Mo did not ask for much from him, and it was basically for his own use. However, every time he asked for something, he would dig out his heart...

"Yes, give it to someone." Rong Mo nodded in response, satisfying the curiosity of the man with the croaky voice.

"Wow! Who was he giving it to? I've been with you for so long, but I haven't seen you give me anything. Tell me, which lover did you give it to?" The voice of a duck showed surprise, and then it became more and more plaintive.

As soon as he finished his sentence, he was kicked out of the door by Rong Mo. The commotion was so loud that the waiter and the owner of the inn came over to look at him. Some of the guests could not help but poke their heads out of curiosity, such as Ye Qianli.

Originally, she was not a gossipy person, but when she heard the commotion, it seemed to have come from the door of the Crown Prince's room next door. This made her unable to not gossip.

He didn't expect to see a beauty in red lying on the ground when he opened the door! Forget it...

"Senior Brother, you ... You're really too hurtful. You kicked me away after using me. Do you still have a conscience? I can't accept it. I ..." The red-clothed beauty even revealed shocking "secret information"?

However, before Ye Qianli could continue, the red-robed beauty changed the topic and shouted, ""What are you looking at? What are you all looking at! I didn't break anything. Get lost."

Unfortunately, this red-clothed beauty was too delicate and did not have much of an aura to begin with. In addition to that duck-like voice of his, it made him seem even more like a tender little bird. Therefore, after he finished shouting, no one left at all. Everyone even pointed at him.

"Ugh, this child looks to be only sixteen or seventeen years old. He is actually already having an ambiguous relationship with senior brother. Indeed, all the beautiful boys nowadays have gone astray..."

"Accidentally entered your head! "Get lost!" The man with the croaky voice stood up and cursed angrily after being ignored. A layer of terrifying sharpness suddenly surged out.

"Buzz!"

The formless pressure of a powerhouse instantly suppressed the pointing and gossiping in the surroundings! A moment later, everyone in the corridor disappeared.

What a joke, this was obviously not a " little white rabbit " that could be provoked, but a genius that could claim lives! As expected, geniuses were everywhere in Genius City. Even a random farce was caused by geniuses...

"You! Why aren't you getting lost?" In the deserted corridor, Ye Qianli, who was still staring at the duck-voiced beauty with the door open, was undoubtedly very eye-catching.

Ye Qianli immediately nodded and said, "Yes, Sir. Please continue." After saying that, she closed the door and went back to her room. After all, she was very busy.

However, the reason why the beautiful prince was so disgusted with her just now was because he wanted to meet this young man with the croaky voice! Tsk tsk...Taste, huh? That's not right. Omnivorous? Men and women alike?

That can't be...

This duck-like voice looked like a little bear, but although the perverted crown prince had the ability to attack, his technique was not good. He did not look like an experienced player. It seemed that this little bear could not get what he wanted? Tsk tsk...As expected of a beautiful prince, he was all-encompassing!

“..”

Ye Qianli thought for a while and then continued to look at the map. She knew that this exam might be a test of fate for others, but it was definitely a test of life for her.

Others could make mistakes as long as they did not fail, but she could not! She had to get full marks, and in this assessment, she had to be the only one who got full marks.

Perhaps this wasn't fair to the other geniuses who could have gotten full marks! However, how could the strong prey on the weak? When that old Daoist wanted to kill her, did he spare her because of her strength, cultivation, and age?

No, he didn't.

So ...

Ye Qianli, you have to work hard. " Ye Qianli quietly looked at the map and encouraged herself. Her eyes were focused on the document.

On this document, not only was there a detailed geographical and location introduction, but there were also special descriptions of "points" and "dangerous points".

In modern times, this would definitely be a very valuable set! It was a true simulation information from a famous teacher. It must be memorized before the exam.

Ye Qianli knew that Rong Mo must have spent a lot of effort to give her such a " secret " document, so she couldn't let him down.

However, Ye Qianli also knew that if Rong Mo could get this thing, others might be able to get it too. Therefore, she had to look at it more carefully and remember it more thoroughly than others.

After a night and a day, when night fell again, Ye Qianli closed the document and gradually recalled the topographic map in her mind. After about fifteen minutes, she found the notes in the room and started drawing.

After an unknown period of time, a brand-new map that looked exactly the same was drawn by Ye Qianli! He drew it perfectly from memory, and what shocked the Magic Box even more was...
