Chapter 61: Affection?

On the new map, Ye Qianli had clearly added a strategic note that was missing in the previous document.

"Let me see!" When Ye Qianli stopped writing, the magic box couldn't help but place the new map next to the old one and make a detailed comparison.

Then, it realized that Ye Qianli had memorized everything that was marked on the scroll! Not only did she not miss out on anything, but she also analyzed the points and danger points on the map.

Magic Box studied it and found that the first 50 points on the map had all been marked by her and set up a strategy to win points.

However, this was only the first step. She also added the last hundred points to the list! It was obviously a backup score for the first 50 points, just in case they didn't get a grand slam.

However ...

"Why did you choose the Magical Beast Plain?" the Demonic Box asked. "Although this place and the Fire Abyss both have the highest percentage points, it's much harder for you to get the Beast King's Beast Core and get 100 points than it is for you to get 100 points from the Fire Abyss. "By the time you take the Beast King Pill, I'm afraid you won't be able to keep the Fire Essence Crystal. Instead, if you take the Fire Essence Crystal first, you will still have the chance to fight for the Beast King Pill, right?"

Ye Qianli didn't explain but asked, ""Do you think that if I can't catch up to the Fire Essence Crystal after snatching the Beast King Pill, I still have the chance to get at least a thousand points in one day and one night of the assessment period?"

"..The magic box stopped talking.

"Although the assessment time is 24 hours, I have to sweep through the first 10 points in the first six hours. Only then will I have a chance to dominate the entire arena. Otherwise, I'd better go to bed early. "Ye Qianli said.

According to the additional explanation on the paper, the two points, the Magical Beast Plain and the Fire Abyss, would take one day to complete based on the genius battle works of the previous freshmen of the Heaven Class.

The remaining eight points, each with 50 points, would each take half a day to complete! This was also an accurate measurement based on the abilities of the previous freshmen of the day class.

In other words, Ye Qianli was prepared to complete all the missions that would normally take six days for the previous freshmen of the heaven class in six hours.

"Let's go in and see how difficult it is." The Magic Box didn't want to hurt Ye Qianli, but it knew that even though she had been trained by Rong Mo for more than a month, judging from the "danger" index on the map, hmm...

Truth be told, it was impossible for Ye Qianli to get the first ten points in twelve hours.

However, Ye Qianli still planned to take it down in six hours. This ... Mm, he was too ambitious! However, he had to admit that if he could get the magic box within six hours, everything would go smoothly.

"Yes." Ye Qianli knew that her plan only had a 10% chance of success, even if she had to sacrifice the Vermilion Bird's tail feather! There was only a 50% chance.

However, she did not plan to use the Vermillion Bird tail feather because she planned to keep it to save her life. Ever since she was almost killed by the old Taoist priest last time, she always felt that she had to keep a trump card to save her life.

She would never use the Vermilion Bird tail feather unless it was absolutely necessary! She would never let anyone know that she had such a life-saving trump card.

"There's still time. What do you plan to do?" The magic box asked again.

"Let's discuss it with the Crown Prince first and let him see my plan. This guy is so good at scheming, he should be able to help me perfect my plan." Ye Qianli stretched her waist. She was actually a little tired, but she still decided to talk to Rong Mo first. She felt that she would gain something.

However, when she went to knock on the door, there was no sound coming from Rong Mo's room. It was as if he was not there. She knocked on the door for a while more before the kind-hearted waiter came to tell her that Rong Mo, who was traveling with her, had indeed gone out.

"Do you know where he's going?" Ye Qianli didn't expect to get any useful information.

"I don't know." As expected, the waiter did not know Rong Mo's whereabouts.

" Yes. " Ye Qianli nodded. " Tell me about the places worth visiting in the city. "

"This little one is good at it. If we are to talk about the most valuable place in Genius City, it would definitely be..." The waiter who was asked about the profession immediately introduced Genius City from top to bottom.

Ye Qianli didn't lose her patience and gave him a crystal coin as a tip. The waiter was so happy that he smiled and was about to introduce Genius City's snack street to Ye Qianli.

However, Ye Qianli's sharp eyes noticed that the man who had been " forced to tell stories " to Rong Mo had also come up to the second floor and knocked on Rong Mo's door as Ye Qianli had expected.

Unfortunately, Rong Mo wasn't around, so Ye Qianli couldn't find him. However, Ye Qianli stopped listening to the waiter's introduction and followed him.

" Uh, Little Brother Red at the door, wait for me. " Ye Qianli ran to the entrance of the building in a few steps. Seeing that the man with the croaky voice was about to leave the inn, she was afraid that he would disappear once he left, so she shouted.

Her voice attracted the attention of all the people eating on the first floor of the inn because she had a nice voice!

After all, she had a favor to ask of someone. Ye Qianli's voice was sweet at this moment. To put it crudely, it was a little flattering...

"You called me?" The man with the croaky voice, who was about to leave, suddenly stopped and looked back at Ye Qianli. He recognized her as the " busybody onlooker " who lived next door to Rong Mo.

"Yes, yes." Ye Qianli quickly walked up to him and asked directly, " Do you know where your senior brother is going? "

"My senior brother?" The man with the croaky voice was obviously startled by Ye Qianli's question, and then his expression changed, especially when Ye Qianli said, ""Yes, I was brought to Genius City by him. Now that I have something to look for him, I found that he isn't in the room. Do you know where he went?"

"Senior Brother Rong?" The man with the croaky voice asked again for confirmation. His long and narrow phoenix eyes were already showing interest. His intuition told him! This " busybody " beautiful girl in front of him was very likely the one Rong Mo wanted to give him a gift. Tsk...

Young lady!

Gifts!

Tsk tsk...

He really didn't expect Rong Mo, who was cold and abstinent, to like such a delicate little noble girl. He thought that Rong Mo would like Eldest Senior Sister's queen-like beauty.

However, the feeling that this little girl gave him yesterday was different from the pure little noble girl today. In that case...

After Ye Qianli nodded and confirmed that she was indeed looking for Rong Mo, Duck Man said with a smile, "If I'm not wrong, he should have gone to look for Big Sister. After all, they are in love."

"Big Sister? Are you in love?" Ye Qianli's expression changed when she heard that! A small flame of anger burned in his eyes.

Not only that!

Chapter 62: Caught in the Cheating Scene!

"Where is it? Take me to see it!" Ye Qianli asked directly, as if she was going to catch the adulterer! Duck Voice almost laughed to himself.

But what he didn't know was that Ye Qianli was really going to catch him in the act because she was engaged to Rong Mo! The imperial edict had decreed a marriage. She had been worried about what to do if she could not break the contract.

In the end...

The man with the croaky voice had happily given her an excuse. How could she not use it? Ye Qianli wished she could catch him red-handed.

"Alright, I'll bring you there now." The man with the croaky voice seemed to have not seen Ye Qianli's anger and walked in front of her. In fact, he was laughing so hard that he felt like flowers were blooming in his heart.

Rong Mo, oh Rong Mo, you'd better not be with Eldest Senior Sister. Otherwise, your little lover will tear you apart! I just don't know how you're going to coax her.

Hah! Hah! Hah! Hahaha ...

Mr. Duck thought about the scene in his mind and felt that it was too beautiful. He almost couldn't hold back his laughter in front of Ye Qianli.

However, when he saw Ye Qianli who was standing not far away from him, he couldn't help but burst out laughing.

I can't hold it in! I can't hold it in!

Rong Mo's little girlfriend was really innocent and cute! Did she really believe what others said? Hahahaha ... Why was he so innocent?

"What are you laughing at?" Ye Qianli didn't understand. She could tell that the man with the croaky voice was trying to frame Rong Mo and get him involved in the "love dispute".

However, she did not mind being set up because she needed this design! That was why she was very cooperative and angry. Could it be that her acting was too bad and someone had seen through her?

"No, nothing. I just thought of a joke from yesterday. Do you want me to tell it to you?" Duck man voice explained with a smile, but Ye Qianli didn't believe him at all.

However, she still shook her head cooperatively and said, "No, I'm not in the mood to listen to jokes now."

"Uh ..." The man with the croaky voice thought about it and agreed. How could he be in the mood to listen to jokes when he heard that his sweetheart had another sweetheart? There was nothing wrong with it.

Just like that, one of them thought that they had met a little pure, and the other immediately hit it off and pretended to be a little pure. The two of them arrived at the most iconic building in Genius City, the Treasure Pavilion.

The Treasure House was not only a place with a lot of treasures, but it also represented a famous place! An organization that spanned across the Four Symbol Continents-the Divine Pattern Master Guild.

What was a Divine Inscriptionist Guild? To put it simply, it was the home of an Armament Master and Alchemist! In other words, the Armament Masters and Alchemists in the Four Symbol Land were all nominal members of the Treasure House.

From this, it could be seen that the Treasure House must be a very awesome place! In fact, it was indeed very impressive because it still had an annual income that could rival a country without opening a branch.

"The Big Sister you mentioned is from the Treasure House?" When she walked into the Treasure House, Ye Qianli realized that the Big Sister she was talking about must have an extraordinary identity.

However, before the man with the croaky voice could answer her question, Ye Qianli was attracted by a huge painting of a blind master playing the zither in the middle of the hall.

To put it more accurately, he was attracted by the zither of the blind master in the painting! Ye Qianli noticed that the strings of the zither seemed to be moving.

Oh no! It didn't seem to move, but it really moved. Moreover, it moved very rhythmically, making people feel as if they could hear the tune when they saw it.

"!"Ye Qianli narrowed her eyes and used her magical right eye to look inside carefully. Then, she realized that the sound waves produced by the zither strings seemed to be slowly merging with the lake in the painting.

As the sound waves entered the lake, the originally calm lake slowly rippled, as if it had been wrinkled by the spring breeze. The sparkling waves were beautiful.

However, when she looked at the wrinkles on the lake, Ye Qianli realized that they were moving strangely, as if they were gradually gathering into some kind of symbol.

Because the waves were so gentle, they gathered very slowly. Ye Qianli became more and more fascinated. She wanted to know what the sound waves of the zither would condense on the surface of the lake.

The man with the croaky voice, who had been walking forward, turned around and realized that the little noble girl he had brought with him was gone. He looked around! Only then did he see the girl standing at the entrance, looking foolishly at the center of the hall.

"Hey, what are you looking at? Are you still leaving?" Mr. Duck shouted, but Ye Qianli didn't seem to hear him. She was still staring at the center of the hall.

He couldn't help but follow her line of sight. Naturally, he saw the painting that never changed. He didn't know what was so good about it.

However ...

Wait a minute!

Duck man's voice suddenly saw that in the corridor on the right side of the hall, there was a young master in luxurious clothes with a cold temperament and a graceful figure! A woman in gorgeous clothes walked out one after another.

And these two people were Senior Brother Rong and Senior Sister! This ...

F * ck!

It can't be such a coincidence! Actually, he was not sure that Senior Brother Rong was in the Treasure House. He did not expect that he would really bump into him. In this case ...

"Uh ..." The man with the croaky voice was certain that the little noble girl he brought with him was not looking at the painting, but at the man and woman who had walked out. They were both in a daze.

"Cough!" Mr. Duck coughed dryly and couldn't help but look like he was waiting to watch a good show. Anyway, he wasn't wrong! Big Sister had always admired Senior Brother Rong, but she couldn't pull down her woman's reservedness to chase after him.

As for Senior Brother Rong, although it might be because of the Treasure House, Big Sister was definitely the woman who had interacted with Senior Brother Rong the most, so ... There was nothing wrong with him saying that the two of them were in love.

Junior Brother Hong, why are you here? " At the same time, Big Senior Sister Ye Shang, who was speaking in the voice of a duck, had also seen him. She could not help but walk over and ask curiously.

" Didn't you say that you'll be in seclusion for the next three days? Why did you come out in less than a day? Did you encounter any problems? " Ye Shang obviously knew that her junior brother had something on recently.

" Isn't that so? I wanted to ask Senior Brother Rong about it, but he wasn't at Yuelai Inn. I came over to take a look at you, Senior Sister. I didn't expect Senior Brother Rong to be here too. " The man with the croaky voice explained as he stared at Rong Mo closely.

At this moment, Rong Mo naturally saw not only the croaky voice but also Ye Qianli who was standing not far away. He unconsciously frowned.

This made the man with the croaky voice who was staring at him seriously feel as if he had discovered a new continent. His eyes shone brightly, and he was shouting in his heart: "Wow! He frowned! Frowning!"

That was not all. The man with the croaky voice was still excited when he saw Rong Mo walking towards the little noble girl...

Chapter 63: How To Coax?

"!"Duke Duck's heart was in his throat. He couldn't help but think, 'How is Senior Brother Rong going to coax his little noble daughter?'

A hug?

Walk out the door holding hands?

Carry it back and have a chat behind closed doors?

Reprimanding others in cold air?

However, reality told the man with the croaky voice that what he had thought was not the case! Because Rong Mo didn't do or say anything after he approached Ye Qianli. Instead, he just stared at her?

"What's going on?" The man with the croaky voice felt that all the novels about love and romance that he had read were all lies. In reality, things did not develop according to the novels at all!

Didn't you say that when a girl is angry or sad, I will give her a hug? Or to explain it? Or bring him home and talk about it?

The above is a situation where both parties are in love. If I don't like the girl, then let the girl be angry, sad, or directly scold her.

However, Senior Brother Rong's actions did not fit any of the possibilities. What did that mean? Could it be that everything would be fine just by watching?

"Who is that little girl?" While Duck Man Voice was indulging in all sorts of wild thoughts, Eldest Senior Sister Ye Shang also saw Ye Qianli and the way Rong Mo was looking at Ye Qianli.

How should he put it? He looked very carefully. Although it was still impossible to guess what thoughts were hidden in his eyes that were as deep as the starry sky, it was certain that he had seen through her.

Ye Shang believed that she understood Rong Mo quite well. She also knew that very few people could catch his eye. Even she, Ye Shang, was not sure if she had caught his eye.

However, this white-robed young lady was definitely something that caught his eye...

" She seems to be Senior Brother Rong's little lover. " Ye Shang's heart skipped a beat when he heard the hoarse reply.

Lover?

Was he tempted?

Ye Shang turned to look at Rong Mo carefully, but she could not see the word " moved " on his face. However, a person like him did not show any emotions, so who knew what he was thinking?

But was he really tempted? To this little girl?

".. "Ye Shang turned to look at Ye Qianli, who was indeed beautiful in her eyes and had an unspeakable nobility in her bones. She was obviously not an ordinary woman. Her pupils could not help but shrink.

" What's wrong with her? Did she misunderstand Junior Brother Rong and me? " Ye Shang asked again.

"It seems so, but what's wrong with Senior Brother Rong? Can he solve the problem by just watching?" The man with the croaky voice, who had been oppressed and thought that there was a good show to watch, was a little depressed again.

What happened to the supposed "love dispute"? What happened to the big show? There was nothing...Wasn't he working for nothing? He might even be beaten up later because of this.

"Uh ... No way! Junior Brother Rong and I didn't do anything. Should we leave now or go over to say hello and explain?" Ye Shang said again.

However, before she could reply, she had already made up her mind and walked towards Rong Mo and Ye Qianli. When she approached the two of them, she even reached out her hand to pat Ye Qianli's shoulder as if to greet her and opened her mouth to say something...

"Da!"

However, Ye Shang's outstretched hand did not manage to hit her at all. She did not even have the chance to say anything when she realized that her hand was blocked in mid-air by the document that Rong Mo was holding.

"Don't touch her." Rong Mo said.

Ye Shang's face stiffened slightly, and then he revealed a bright smile and asked, ""What's wrong? What's wrong with you, little girl? You look so lost. Don't tell me you misunderstood us?"

"No." Rong Mo replied, but he had been looking at Ye Qianli the whole time. Even though he had stopped Ye Shang from disturbing Ye Qianli, he did not look up at her.

"This..." Ye Shang's smile froze on her face again, and there was even a trace of paleness in it, for no other reason! It was because Rong Mo did not refute her when she said " your little girl ".

Perhaps it was because of his personality that he did not bother to explain to others, but his non-denial and the fact that he still only had eyes for this little girl made Ye Shang feel very hurt.

Yes, Ye Shang admitted that she had always admired Rong Mo. In her opinion, if she had to find someone to spend the rest of her life with, the person in her heart would be Rong Mo.

But now...

Ye Shang took a deep breath in her heart. Just as she was about to suppress the deep disappointment in her heart and speak again, she saw Rong Mo suddenly frown.

"What's wrong?" Ye Shang asked subconsciously.

Rong Mo didn't answer her at all. He didn't even hear what Ye Shang said because he saw Ye Qianli's right eye turning slightly red.

Her body was still trembling slightly, and her breathing was a little chaotic. Her condition was obviously not good! She...

Rong Mo's frown deepened. He knew that Ye Qianli was looking at the paintings in the hall, and he knew that she must have seen something. He also knew that the more she saw, the better it would be for her.

However, there was a limit to how much one could comprehend. Ye Qianli's current state showed that she had reached her limit, but she was still holding on. She was unwilling to give up.

Rong Mo knew that he should have woken Ye Qianli up by now. However, when he thought of her stubborn and straight back when she left her parents' place, and how she still managed to hold on until everything was over after being severely injured by the Black Tortoise Taoist priest...

He felt that she hadn't reached her limit yet. She could still continue watching. He shouldn't interrupt her now. She was far more tenacious and stubborn than she looked.

Senior Brother Rong, what's wrong with her? " However, he could sense that something was wrong with Ye Qianli's voice, so he couldn't just stand there and watch.

When he got closer, he found that Ye Qianli's body was trembling! This ...

"Don't block her." Rong Mo, however, kicked Ye Qianli aside when he approached with his croaky voice and tried to block her view.

" Hiss! " The force of the kick was so strong that the man with the croaky voice gasped in pain. Only then did he realize that Ye Qianli was really looking at the painting in the middle of the hall!

She had been staring at that painting that didn't seem to be anything special since she entered the house? Wasn't it because he had seen Senior Brother Rong and Senior Sister?

"She's looking at a painting?" Ye Shang also realized that Ye Qianli was looking at the painting and not arguing with Rong Mo.

Rong Mo still didn't answer. He stared at Ye Qianli's right eye and found that her pupil was getting redder and redder...Her breathing became more and more rapid.

Finally!

"Enough." Rong Mo suddenly raised his hand and covered Ye Qianli's right eye with his palm, blocking the red light that was about to burst out.

However, Ye Qianli, whose right eye was suddenly covered, instinctively pushed Rong Mo's hand away! And the moment she raised her hand to push, Ye Shang and the man with the croaky voice felt a strange rhythm!

However, before they could sense it, they saw Rong Mo's other hand grab Ye Qianli's hand. He also ...

He even pulled her into his arms! He pulled her into his arms...He actually pulled her into his arms! This ...

Chapter 64: It's Your Crown Prince

"Oh! Oh my god..." After the man with the duck voice who seemed to have been struck by lightning reacted, he immediately began to scream in a strange tone. Coupled with his originally hoarse voice, the effect was naturally shocking.

Therefore, all the people who were rushing to and fro in the hall of the Treasure House quieted down and looked over at them. Therefore, they all witnessed this scene.

"Aiyo, f * ck! You finally hugged me. " Not only did Duck Voice continue to dub, but he also stared at the two people who were "hugging" in an exaggerated manner, giving people the feeling that these two people had experienced twists and turns and had a very good story.

And then...

"Pa Pa Pa!" It was unknown who clapped first, but many people in the hall followed suit. Some even nodded with a smile and said, " Such a handsome man and a beautiful woman are pleasing to the eyes. I'm very happy to eat this dog food. "

"Yes, yes, yes. A handsome man and a beautiful woman hugging in public feels like a scene. It's not like the pig man and dog woman I saw a while ago. That was really eye-catching."

" .. "

The vast number of people who came and went to the Treasure Pavilion applauded and cheered enthusiastically for the matchless couple who seemed to have "parted the clouds and seen the moon" and finally got together!

However, they did not know that they were all thinking too much. It was mainly because of the duck voice that they were thinking too much. However, no matter how much they clapped and cheered, Rong Mo, who was absolutely sober, did not care at all. He did not let go of the person in his arms just because everyone had " misunderstood ".

After all, whatever he wanted to do, he would never care about what others thought or said. What he needed to do now was to wake Ye Qianli up. He knew that she was bewitched.

"Ye Qianli." Rong Mo, who had pulled Ye Qianli into his arms, immediately whispered into her ear. His voice carried a special sound wave that entered Ye Qianli's ears.

However...

"Oh!" At this moment, Ye Qianli, who only wanted to finish reading the second symbol, shook her head, trying to shake off the darkness that had suddenly enveloped her. It was as if she wanted to push away the unknown ghost that was blocking her way. She wanted to see! She wanted to see! She wanted to...

Rong Mo frowned even more when he saw her like this. He called out to her in a louder voice, and the sound waves he released were much stronger. " Ye Qianli, wake up! " I am Rong Mo, your Crown Prince."

The reason why he said " Your Crown Prince " was not without reason. He had not forgotten that Ye Qianli would often shout " Beautiful Crown Prince ", " Perverted Crown Prince ", " Crown Prince ", " Rong Mo " through gritted teeth when she had nightmares.

Other than that time in the side hall, she had shouted in panic. After that, she had practically shouted through gritted teeth. She was probably hitting him in her dreams. Sometimes, she would laugh like a retard when she was happy.

What happened next proved that Rong Mo was right! Especially when he was struggling after saying " Your Highness the Crown Prince "! However, Ye Qianli, who had been unable to struggle because of his embrace, had stopped all her little movements. She was as obedient as a kitten.

At the same time, the magic box that was also calling Ye Qianli flashed her screen quickly. ""I'm awake, I'm awake! Wake up, you idiot, your spring is here! Your crown prince is hugging you."

"..”Ye Qianli finally realized that something was wrong and gradually regained her senses. However, she also saw the flashing scene of the Magic Box being unextinguished.

Then, her mind was a little dazed, but her eyes clearly saw a piece of jade-like skin right in front of her...Hmm, it seemed to be the part above the beautiful prince's collarbone.

Of course! This wasn't the most exciting part. The most exciting part was that the breath she breathed in was the cold and snowy aura unique to the beautiful prince! In addition, she could clearly feel the warmth from his chest and his steady heartbeat.

Ye Qianli was speechless. This threefold attack on her senses, which was eye, smell, and touch, was still quite a big impact on her. She would not be able to recover for a while.

However, Rong Mo could clearly feel that she was waking up, so he relaxed his grip on her, but he did not let go completely. Instead, he stared at her other eye that was not covered and asked, " Are you awake? "

After all, he didn't know if Ye Qianli was completely awake.

"You're awake." Ye Qianli replied foolishly.

Rong Mo let go of her without any hesitation. However, he did not immediately remove his hand from her right eye. Instead, he asked, ""How are your eyes?"

"Ah?" Ye Qianli was shocked to realize that he was still covering her right eye. It was still a little painful and swollen. It must be the aftereffect of looking at the symbol just now.

With this thought, she was completely awake. She couldn't help but reach out to cover her right eye, very naturally overlapping with the hand that was already covering it.

However, just as she touched the back of his hand, the handsome prince pulled his hand away and even covered her own hand. " If you're not feeling well, then cover it yourself. "

"Oh." Ye Qianli rubbed her eyes. She felt that it wasn't good yet, but she wanted to let go of her hand to see if her vision was affected.

However, just as her hand showed signs of letting go, it was pressed back!

"Cover it." Rong Mo said.

"Ah?" Ye Qianli didn't understand why she couldn't let go. She wanted to see if she could still see. Although she felt that it was fine, she felt like she had used her eyes too much and was a little tired and sore.

"Cover it." Rong Mo emphasized.

Ye Qianli was speechless. Alright, let's cover it up.

"Wow! Senior Brother Rong, please introduce us. What's the name of this little beauty? Who are you?!" At this moment, the curious Duck Voice couldn't help but interrupt.

"That's right, Junior Brother Rong. This little beauty's Mental Energy seems to be extraordinary. Is she an alchemist?" Ye Shang also asked with a smile. However, if one looked carefully, one could see a trace of paleness in her smile.

No matter what, it would be weird if he was really happy to see his 'crush' hugging another girl in front of him.

"Eh?" Ye Qianli had to cover one of her eyes. When she saw Ye Shang, her remaining eye lit up. " You must be the Crown Prince's eldest senior sister. You're really beautiful!"

Ye Qianli was not lying. Ye Shang was indeed beautiful, very flamboyant! Her facial features were deep, and she had a very sexy beauty. Especially her figure! If she was in the world before her rebirth, she would definitely be an international model.

In comparison, Ye Qianli felt that she was a little short. Her height only reached the chin of her senior sister. But it was okay. She was still young, so she could grow taller.

He was only sixteen years old, so he could definitely grow!

" Yes, I am Junior Brother Rong and Junior Brother Hong's Senior Sister. My name is Ye Shang. What about you? " Ye Shang, who was praised, could tell that Ye Qianli was sincerely praising her, so she finally revealed a sincere smile and introduced herself generously.

"Ye Qianli." Ye Qianli smiled, but she was thinking, "She seemed to have missed something. What happened to catching her in the act? The situation was so normal now. How could they catch him?"

Chapter 65: Ye Qianli, Fiancée!

The man with the croaky voice, who was supposed to bring Ye Qianli here to catch her cheating, said enthusiastically, ""Hello, Ye Qianli. You can call me Little Brother Hong. You call Senior Brother Rong Crown Prince, so you're also from the Vermillion Bird Dynasty, right? Senior Brother Rong, you didn't even reveal any information. When can you hold your wedding banquet?"

"Yes..." Ye Qianli revealed a mysterious smile. She felt that this little brother had changed so quickly! Didn't he instigate her to cause trouble just now? Why did she feel like a matchmaker now? Moreover, his surname was really Hong...

However, before Ye Qianli's mysterious smile faded away, she had to reveal a new mysterious smile because Rong Mo had already spoken briefly.

" He is called Red Knife, a second rank Armament Master. "

"Her name is Ye Shang, the daughter of the pavilion master of the Treasure Pavilion."

Ye Qianli, fiancée. "

..

When Rong Mo introduced them, the atmosphere between the four of them was obviously...Rong Mo was as cold as usual, and Ye Qianli was shocked by the word "fiancée".

Of course, the ones who were even more shocked than her were Duck Voice and Ye Shang! However, their shock was different. The one with the croaky voice was purely shocked because this news was too sudden.

Ye Shang, on the other hand, was shocked with mixed feelings and disbelief. She had never expected that the best candidate for a husband in her heart would bring a fiancée to Genius City in just one summer vacation.

"Oh my god, oh my god ... Oh my god! Senior Brother Rong, you're engaged just like that? Oh my god ... Oh my god ... Let me wait for this news."

Duck man voice originally thought that these two people were at most in the discussion stage. He did not expect that they were already engaged fiancées!

"Actually, not yet. I have to wait for my grandfather to come back." Ye Qianli explained, but after she finished, she added, " But the marriage has already been bestowed. "

"Then it's a done deal! Senior Brother Rong, please drink. If you don't drink on such a joyous occasion, be careful that you won't be able to get up in the bridal chamber!" The male duck said flirtatiously.

"Cough..." Ye Qianli almost choked to death, but she subconsciously added in her heart, " He didn't have immobility even when he was so crippled. I guess this curse is a little difficult to succeed. "

" Cough cough, I'm sorry. I forgot that there's a pure little girl here. I can't say this, I can't say it. " Duck Man Man saw Ye Qianli's reaction and thought that she was embarrassed. He scratched his head and explained awkwardly.

"I'm not treating you, I'm not drinking." Rong Mo, who had been cursed, obviously knew that he had no worries about this, so he rejected it directly. This made the face of the man with the croaky voice turn gloomy.

"Is the poison ready?" Rong Mo asked.

"Of course not. The poison of the Six-Eyed Golden Toad is too strong. My new hidden weapons can't withstand it enough. Eight of them have already been corroded. I don't think there's a way to dip it in the toad poison. I want to tell you to change to another poison." The man with the croaky voice explained.

However, Rong Mo raised his eyebrows in dissatisfaction when he heard that. However, his duck-like voice indicated that he was facing a technical difficulty. He shook his head and said,"There's really no other way. Moreover, you want it so urgently."

"The Six Eyed Golden Toad is a Class 3 Magical Beast. Junior Brother Hong, you're only a Class 2 Armament Master, so of course you can't be poisoned by a Class 3 Magical Beast. There's no need to try." Ye Shang said from the side as soon as he heard it.

" Isn't that so? But I originally wanted to give it a try as well. After all, the Six Eyed Golden Toad is the lowest grade third ranked Magical Beast and I'm already a peak second ranked Armament Master so I wanted to give it a try but it really didn't work. " The man with the croaky voice said dejectedly.

"That shouldn't be the case. Your hidden weapon has Silver Spirit Iron, so it can withstand the poison of the Six-eyed Golden Toad." Rong Mo said, but as soon as he said that, his croaky voice rang out, " How did you know that I added Silver Spirit Iron?!"

Rong Mo gave him a look that said, " You're talking nonsense. " Ye Qianli suddenly said, ""Can you show me the hidden weapon you mentioned?"

As soon as she said that, the three of them looked at her, but Rong Mo nodded and said, ""Show her."

"Oh." Mr. Duck nodded and handed a hidden weapon to Ye Qianli."When did Senior Brother Rong become so obedient?"

When Ye Qianli received the hidden weapon, the complete symbol that had been jumping in her mind became more and more intense, which made her feel a little lost.

"Idiot, try to burn this symbol into this hidden weapon." The Magic Box's bullet screen prompted that as long as it wanted to! It could see everything that Ye Qianli was thinking and seeing, but it was immoral to keep peeping at its master. The magic box showed that it was a good box.

If it wasn't for the fact that he sensed something wrong with Ye Qianli, the magic box wouldn't have entered her brain. However, he was still surprised by the symbol that appeared in her mind.

Because that was the symbol of a god! It was a symbol that carried divinity once it was formed. This symbol itself had extraordinary power and had the effect of turning decay into magic.

"Alright." Ye Qianli pondered for a moment after being reminded by the magic box. She then released a wisp of flame from her hand. However, Rong Mo grabbed her wrist as soon as the flame was released.

"Senior Sister Ye, I need to borrow a tool refining room." Rong Mo said.

"She's an Armament Master?" Ye Shang was shocked. She had asked Ye Qianli if she was an alchemist, but she had asked casually because Ye Qianli had come to the Treasure House.

But now...

" What refining room? Come to my refining room. I'm not fully equipped! " The voice of a male duck said, not to mention anything else! As a blacksmith, he could tell that the fire seed that Ye Qianli had released was extraordinary.

"Let's go." Rong Mo didn't refuse, so the group of them walked towards the refining room with the croaky voice.

As a second rank Armament Master, Duck Man Voice was the nominal Armament Master of the Treasure House. Having his own Armament Room in the Treasure House was a benefit that he ought to enjoy.

However, just as he walked into the refining room, Rong Mo looked at the duck-croaked man and Ye Shang and said, " You two go out first. "

"What?" The man with the croaky voice was displeased when he heard that. After all, this was his territory.

"Get out." Rong Mo, however, did not stand on ceremony as he shouted, as if he was the owner of this place. He was so angry that his croaky voice wanted to punch him! However, he didn't dare.

"Junior Brother Hong, Armament Masters usually don't show their weapons to others. Let's go out first." Ye Shang said, reminding the duck man, but...

"Bang!" After the two of them were " blasted " out, Rong Mo suddenly lifted Ye Qianli's chin. Before she could protest, he had already reached out and removed Ye Qianli's hand that was covering her right eye.

His eyes were fixed on Ye Qianli's right eye. The latter couldn't help but ask, ""What are you doing? I...Mmmm-"

Chapter 66: Other Than Me, No One Is To See It (1)

Ye Qianli's mouth was covered by Rong Mo's palm. His action was obvious, he wanted her to shut up. His hand that was holding her chin turned into a pinch, and he hooked it upwards. Ye Qianli had no choice but to stand on her tiptoes and look up.

Rong Mo also moved closer and stared at Ye Qianli's right eye. Then, he saw a tiny rune jumping in her right eye.

"Oh?" Ye Qianli herself did not know that the symbols that were jumping in her head were also floating in her right eye. Therefore, she did not know what Rong Mo was looking at, but she wanted to ask!

"Pa!" Ye Qianli wanted to ask, but she couldn't. She patted Rong Mo's hand that was covering her mouth in annoyance. The latter ignored her because he was so focused that he didn't even feel the slap.

Ye Qianli tried a few times and glared at him many times, but it didn't work, so she closed her eyes! Let's see how you're going to look!

"Open your eyes." Rong Mo was indeed defeated by her "unique skill".

"Oh!" Ye Qianli patted Rong Mo's hand that was still covering her mouth, saying, " I can open my eyes, but you have to move your hand away. Otherwise, I won't open my eyes."

Rong Mo looked at his hand that was slapped and loosened his grip. Ye Qianli immediately asked, ""What are you looking at?"

"Open your eyes." Rong Mo frowned when he saw that Ye Qianli still had not opened her eyes.

"What are you looking at? No, I'm stupid. I can look at it myself." As Ye Qianli spoke, she took out a mirror and opened her eyes to take a look.

Unfortunately, the mirror was swept away. Rong Mo said impatiently, ""Shut up and wait for me to finish reading."

Ye Qianli was speechless. These were her eyes! Her eyes.

However ...

This guy's lips were so close to hers. As he spoke, his breath was so thick! It was so strong that it lingered in her breath.

His lips looked especially sexy and alluring, as if they were peach petals that had bloomed in spring and were moistened by rain and dew. There was a soft and sweet feeling that assaulted her senses.

"Gulp..." Ye Qianli subconsciously swallowed her saliva. She knew what it tasted like. It was indeed very sweet! At the thought of this, she quickly covered her mouth with her hand.

However, because she felt a little guilty, her eyes flickered unconsciously. In the end...

"Don't move." Rong Mo said.

Ye Qianli glared at him in displeasure, but Rong Mo said with satisfaction, ""That's all."

"Are you done?!" Ye Qianli couldn't help but let go.

"It's over." Rong Mo let go of her jaw and moved away. The clean and cool air also disappeared from Ye Qianli's breath.

"Refine it." Rong Mo continued.

"What?"

"Didn't you want to forge? Try to refine the seal scripts you see for me to see." Rong Mo pointed at the tool beside him.

It was only then that Ye Qianli saw a "stove" in the room. There were bits and pieces of stones, iron blocks, and so on. There were also rows of tweezers, hammers, knives, sharp weapons, and so on. It was like a blacksmith's shop in the cold weapon era!

However...

"What should we do?" Ye Qianli was dumbfounded.

Rong Mo was speechless.

"Besides, I'm not going to forge a weapon." Ye Qianli said again. She even touched the star-shaped hidden weapon in her hand, "I just want to put the symbol I saw on this thing."

"Then you do it." Rong Mo said.

However, as soon as Rong Mo finished his sentence, he saw Ye Qianli making her move. Her hands were once again lit up with the flame of her talent. Then, something that shocked him happened!

"Tsk."

"Chi chi..."

The surface of the small hidden weapon was soon carved with patterns by Ye Qianli's fire. She burned and forged the patterns orderly, and the outline of the rune in her right eye was slowly carved.

However, just as the rune prototype was formed, she paused, and the star-shaped hidden weapon that she had burned immediately emitted a gentle light.

For a moment...

"..This star-shaped hidden weapon seemed to have been "beautified". It was countless times more shiny than before. If one looked carefully, one could even see a star-like light shining from the surface of the hidden weapon! However, the lines carved by Ye Qianli had disappeared.

"This..." Ye Qianli touched the hidden weapon and looked at Rong Mo in confusion. She was actually confused and did not know what her actions meant. What kind of future would she have?

However, although she didn't know anything, she also knew that this hidden weapon was very different from before after she burned the embryonic form of the symbol. She seemed to have sublimated the quality of this weapon?

"You didn't get the rest. Did you forget it or didn't get it?" Rong Mo asked. His voice sounded calm, but his heart was no longer calm.

He knew that there were people who gave birth to geniuses because he himself was one. However, other than himself, this was the first time he had met a true genius who gave birth to children.

Ye Qianli's talent had been refreshed again and again.

"If I can't carve it, it means that if I really want to, I won't be able to carve the next line clearly. But what did this symbol mean? Can it upgrade the quality of weapons?" Ye Qianli asked.

Rong Mo nodded and said affirmatively, " Yes, what you have comprehended from that picture is obviously a Divine Pattern for Artifact Refining. It is only in its embryonic form, but it can already fully stimulate the Silver Spirit Iron property of this hidden weapon, making this hidden weapon truly reach the level of a Quasi-third Tier Spirit Tool. "

Even though it's still not a perfect third tier spirit tool, but this is the hidden weapon's own composition material that limits it. Its hardness has already completely reached the third tier low grade standard."

"So magical? I just casually drew a few strokes and it leveled up?" Ye Qianli found it unbelievable. Although she didn't understand many things, she knew the difference between a Grade Two and Grade Three Spiritual Tool.

In terms of strength, a second-tier spirit weapon was equivalent to a great mystic cultivator, while a third-tier spirit weapon was equivalent to a mystic king or a first-tier talent! In layman's terms, this was equivalent to the difference between a stronger ordinary person and a talented person.

However, what Ye Qianli didn't know was that the two strokes she mentioned weren't just random strokes. Rong Mo obviously didn't want to be the commentator of a hundred thousand whys, so he only said, ""Because the two strokes you drew are Divine Inscriptions. As for what a Divine Inscription is, I'll get Red Dagger to give you a 'Divine Inscription Encyclopedia' later. Take a look for yourself."

Ye Qianli was full of questions, so she was suppressed into an " oh ".

"But remember, other than me, you are not allowed to show this pattern to anyone else. You are also not allowed to show anyone else the process of engraving. Also ..." Rong Mo paused for a moment, then suddenly reached out to hold Ye Qianli's hand.

Ye Qianli was used to being ambushed, so she didn't feel anything when she was suddenly " held " by Rong Mo. However, when Rong Mo's cold index finger touched her palm, she couldn't help but flinch.

Rong Mo held her hand tightly and did not let her shrink away. He wrote on her palm, " If anyone asks you what you saw in that picture, you are not allowed to tell them. "

"You can't do it either?" Ye Qianli blurted out, not realizing that her words had clearly distinguished the person in front of her from the others.

Therefore, she asked!

Chapter 67: Minor Divine Inscriptionist, Hide!

Rong Mo looked up at her and replied, ""I know."

"That's impossible, right? Then tell me, what did I see?" Ye Qianli didn't believe him. At most, he knew that she saw a symbol. He definitely didn't know that she saw the other half of the symbol. To be precise, it was the prototype of another symbol.

".."Rong Mo didn't answer, but his eyes were filled with the meaning of " I know, I just know ". Ye Qianli couldn't help but wonder if he really knew!

However, compared to this, Ye Qianli felt that another question was more important. " You kept looking at my right eye because you saw my talisman appear in it, right? Can others see it too? " Then even if I don't say it, won't others see it?"

"It scattered." Rong Mo explained, " The divine pattern has divinity. When you comprehend it, its divinity is also stimulated. Therefore, it will float in your mind and not dissipate, giving you the urge to carve it. At this time, you need to conform to it and calm down the divinity that has been stimulated. Only then will it be quiet. "

"Oh!" Ye Qianli suddenly understood why the symbol disappeared from her mind after she finished burning it.

"The next time you inscribe a shen glyph, you must use your spiritual energy to stimulate the divinity of the shen glyph. As for how to stimulate it, you can read it yourself later." Rong Mo continued.

"Alright." Ye Qianli understood what was going on, but she still had a question, " Am I a refiner now? "

"Of course not." Rong Mo said.

Ye Qianli was speechless. Then didn't she upgrade a second tier spirit weapon to third tier? Why wasn't she an Armament Master? Then what was she doing?

"You are a Divine Inscriptionist." Rong Mo continued, emphasizing, " As for what a Divine Inscriptionist is, you can read it yourself. "

"Oh." Ye Qianli pouted and nodded. She knew that she had asked too many questions. The beautiful prince was not a magic box. Even if he didn't have the patience to explain to her, he had to.

"Why are you looking for me?" Rong Mo asked when he saw that she had finally become obedient and stopped asking him questions.

"Ah?" Ye Qianli was confused by his sudden question. However, after a while, she quickly nodded and said, " Yes, yes. I need you to help me take a look. "

As she spoke, Ye Qianli took out her hand-drawn topographic map from her sleeve pocket and handed it to Rong Mo. Rong Mo opened it and looked at it, his clear eyes narrowing slightly."You remember everything?"

"Yeah, I just wanted to ask for your opinion." Ye Qianli said.

"Let's talk when we get back." Rong Mo said as he kept the map.

"Oh." Ye Qianli nodded again. She also felt that it was better to go back and sit down. After all, there was not a single chair in the room. It was not a good place to talk.

"Do you have anything else to do?" Rong Mo asked again.

"No more." Ye Qianli lowered her head and replied. She remembered that she was here to catch him in the act! It was a pity that she didn't catch anything. She saw that Rong Mo and that senior sister were just ordinary senior sister and junior brother. There wasn't any feeling of adultery.

Red Knife's croaky voice was really too good at lying about military intelligence! Her perfect cooperation was really wasted. Fortunately, she did not come in vain. At least she picked up a divine talisman that felt very awesome.

" Oh? " Ye Qianli asked, " But can I see that picture again? "

"Wait until you can draw that divine talisman completely." Rong Mo opened the door and was about to leave when he saw the red knife almost lunging at him. He instinctively kicked it.

"Hiss!" Red Knife gasped in pain again, but he did not forget to ask, ""How is it? How is it? What was going on? What grade Armament Master is Miss Ye? She managed to produce a finished product in such a short time, let me take a look!"

"Follow me." Rong Mo's reply was only three words.

Red Knife was speechless.

Seeing that he had shut up, Rong Mo added, ""Bring your 'Encyclopedia of Divine Inscription'."

"What?! " When Red Knife heard this, he was shocked and blurted out, "Could it be that she saw the shen glyph in that picture? I've watched it hundreds of times, but I didn't see anything."

"You're stupid." Rong Mo could only say.

Red Knife was speechless.

"You really saw through the Divine Inscription? Does this mean that Miss Ye is a Divine Inscriptionist?" When Ye Shang heard this, she could not help but ask in surprise.

"Not really." After Rong Mo replied, he said directly, ""Senior Sister Ye, you don't have to send me off." In other words, you can leave now. I don't want to bring you along.

Ye Shang was speechless. She had thought that she would receive a positive answer, and had even thought of lending the Myriad Treasures Pavilion's < < Basics of Divine Inscription Cultivation > >, and using the excuse of explaining to them as an excuse to hang out with them, but Rong Mo had said that it didn't count! He even made it clear that he did not want her to follow him.

As such, she could only reply, ""Alright, then I won't send you off. Next time you come to the Treasure House, you can come to me if you need anything. "

"Yes." Rong Mo nodded. When he turned around and saw that Ye Qianli had followed him out, he did not waste any more time and left first. Ye Qianli and Red Knife also followed Rong Mo after bidding farewell to Ye Shang.

However, what they did not know was that not long after the three of them walked out of the Treasure House, Ye Shang had instructed her subordinates to go to Yuelai Inn to keep an eye on them.

But even if they didn't know that they were being 'stalked' by Rong Mo, who would be able to get any valuable information when Rong Mo was obviously on guard? Of course not.

Hence, Ye Shang was naturally unable to find out anything at the Yuelai Inn. However, this made her even more curious. Was Ye Qianli a Divine Inscriptionist?

If so, why did Rong Mo say that it didn't count? If not, then what did Ye Qianli learn from the map? Even Rong Mo, who had his eyes on the top of his head, thought so highly of him.

However, no matter how curious she was, she was destined to not get an answer for the time being...

However, Ye Shang quickly shifted her curiosity to Ye Qianli. She focused on investigating Ye Qianli, and then she found out that Ye Qianli was the only one from Genius Academy this time! He was a special enrollment student and had been personally accepted by Feng Lihuan as his only student.

The only ...

This only made Ye Shang even more curious about Ye Qianli! Therefore, she spent nearly two days collecting information about Ye Qianli from various channels.

"Ye Qianli." When Ye Shang finished reading all the documents about Ye Qianli, she heard the bell outside the Treasure House ring.

The Prodigy Academy's new student assessment had already begun with her investigation and research on Ye Qianli.

"Clang!"

Clang! Clang!

It was only early in the morning, but everyone in Genius City was already being informed! The heart-shaking and rhythmic sound of the bell woke him up, but he was already used to it.

Everyone in the city knew that the once a year examination for the new students of Genius Academy was about to begin. However, who would be the most dazzling top ten geniuses of the heaven class this year?

"Ye Qianli?" As Ye Shang murmured, she suddenly stood up and walked out of the room. She wanted to see how Ye Qianli would stand on the test platform.

Chapter 68: Good Su, Good Su (1)

At that time, an hour before the bell for the new student assessment of Genius Academy rang, Ye Qianli, who was completely unaware that she had been investigated by Ye Shang, was shocked by the words of the red-voiced duck.

"According to what you said, with my talent, wouldn't I be directly teleported to the Fire Abyss when I get on the test platform?" Ye Qianli, who was originally full of confidence, felt that she was in a bad mood at this moment.

One had to know that in the past two days, she had already added shen glyphs to her "new hidden weapon set"! The red knife had even helped her apply the poison of the Six-Eyed Golden Toad. She had thought that she could go to the Magical Beast Plains to show off her skills! The original plan of getting the first ten points in three hours had increased from 10% to 30%!

In the end...

According to Red Knife, before the freshmen of Genius Academy entered the assessment field, they had to go to the test platform first. Then, the test platform would send the freshmen to the most suitable points according to their talents.

"Of course! With your talent flame's level, you're definitely going to the Fire Abyss! "I estimate that you will only need half a day at most to return from the Fire Abyss with a complete victory. Then, you will be my junior sister in the sky class. Are you happy? Hahahaha..." Red Knife didn't see anything wrong with Ye Qianli and explained excitedly.

"I'm not happy." Ye Qianli replied listlessly. How could she be happy? Although she could understand the original intention of the Genius Academy doing this, it was to give the geniuses a better platform to showcase their strengths.

However!

She remembered the map very clearly. The Magical Beast Plains and the Fire Abyss were very far apart. It could be said that one was in the north and the other was in the south. With her speed, it would take at least two hours to get from this point to that point.

In other words, if she was transported to the Fire Abyss, then she could only snatch the Fire Essence Crystals in the Fire Abyss first. Otherwise...

If she spent two hours to go to the Magical Beast Plains to deal with the Beast King, then settle the six top ten points in between the two places and the east road, and then ran back to the Fire Abyss, perhaps the daylily would have already turned into ice shards, and there would be no fire essence crystals for her to snatch. Not to mention completing the plan of sweeping the top ten points in the first six hours.

However, if she completed the mission to obtain points in the Fire Abyss first and then swept through the points in reverse according to the original plan, she would lose the initiative in the Magical Beast Plains. For her, who did not have the talent to control beasts and did not have much experience in group battles, it would be very difficult for her to compete with the geniuses who were already waiting here!

If there was a super beast taming genius in the Magical Beast Plains, then she would be even more of a melon ball. She could just wash up and sleep. Stop fighting...

Thinking of this, Ye Qianli became even more depressed. However, Red Knife didn't understand. He asked curiously, " Why? "As long as you go to the Fire Abyss, you'll definitely be one of the top ten geniuses of the heaven class. Moreover, you're very likely to become the number one freshman of this year! You're still not happy?"

If it was someone she didn't know, Red Knife would have slapped Ye Qianli awake. After all, she had achieved so much! Was there anything that was not worthy of his satisfaction?

However, just because Red Knife couldn't understand Ye Qianli, it didn't mean that Rong Mo couldn't either.

Rong Mo and Ye Qianli had discussed and perfected Red Knife's plan when she was going to be poisoned. Therefore, he knew why she was so listless. After all, if she was teleported to the Fire Abyss, her plan would be ruined.

So ...

"I'm not denying your plan. It's feasible." Rong Mo said slowly when Ye Qianli was about to die.

Hearing this, Ye Qianli immediately perked up and shouted angrily, ""Since it's possible, why didn't you say so earlier?" She was so disheartened that she thought she was done for! This bastard! Can't you speak more smoothly? She had to say it at the end. How annoying!

"Did you ask me?" Rong Mo asked.

Ye Qianli was speechless. I am a goddess! He couldn't be angry, he couldn't be angry! Was there a need to ask such a thing? Of course, he would say it out loud!

It wasn't like she didn't know how much she wanted to participate in the Class A mission and find out what was going on with her grandfather!

Bullying her like this was too much!

"Alright, get up and follow me." Rong Mo could feel Ye Qianli's anger, so he stood up and spoke in a gentle tone.

He didn't notice the change in his voice, and neither did the angry Ye Qianli. However, Red Knife felt it! It felt very good!

The first time!

Red Dagger expressed that this was the first time he had heard his abstinent Senior Brother Iceberg speak with a gentle voice. Aiyo...

Good Su!

Good Su, good Su!

If Tian Er was here, he would probably hit it off with Red Knife and immediately go to the back to gossip! The two of them had a keen sense of smell for Rong Mo's unusual changes!

If the Saint Emperor Rong Feng, who was also very concerned about Rong Mo's love life, was included, the three of them would probably be able to talk about Rong Mo alone for three days and three nights...

However, Red Dagger, who was waiting for Su to explode, finally recovered from his shock! When he came back to his senses in disbelief, he was the only one left in the small room of Yuelai Inn. Rong Mo and Ye Qianli were long gone.

"F * ck! Wait for me, where are you going?" Red Dagger jumped up in shock and could not run out, but he did not detect anything. Where did the fiancée and fiancée go?

"F * ck! It's a standard way of burning bridges after crossing the river." Red Knife's heart ached. He heard the conversation between the two of them and there seemed to be some insider information. He wanted to know! In the end, she was gone. It was heartbreaking.

..

At the same time, Ye Qianli, who was brought out of the inn by Rong Mo, was still showing her dissatisfaction with her head lowered. After all, she could not defeat Rong Mo, and she needed to rely on him. Other than protesting, there was nothing else she could do.

However, just as she lowered her head and followed Rong Mo out of the inn, she suddenly felt a tight grip on her neck. She was lifted up, lifted up...

"You!" Ye Qianli could no longer hold back her anger. Unfortunately, before she could vent her anger, she was dragged away!

As for Rong Mo himself, he naturally disappeared on the spot.

By the time Ye Qianli felt that she was released, it was already ten minutes later.

Perhaps it was because she was being " carried ", she had difficulty breathing, or perhaps it was because she was angry. When Rong Mo let go of her, her face was as red as a delicate flower. It was gorgeous and beautiful.

"You, the best! Give me a reasonable one! Explain." Ye Qianli gritted her teeth as she stared at Rong Mo, who was still calm and collected. She wanted to slap him with her claws, but even if she didn't do it immediately, she still couldn't.

Rong Mo, who was being stared at by her, also knew that if he did not give her a reason to extinguish her anger, she would probably hit him. Regardless of whether she could win or not, she would definitely hit him! Because she was really angry.

"Speak!" Rong Mo did not explain himself and even looked back at her with an immortal's grace. Ye Qianli felt that she could no longer control the tiny person that had exploded inside her body. She wanted to...

"Buzz!"

Chapter 69: Your Highness, Why Are You So Handsome!

Ye Qianli felt like her anger had exploded like a volcano. She was about to beat him up, but she felt like she was being lifted up again! He was pulled into a strange circle of power.

Then...

Everything in front of her had changed. Although she was angry just now, she did not notice that she was surrounded by barren mountains. But now, she was standing in front of a huge "stone mill"?

"This..." Ye Qianli looked at the building, which was at least one story tall from where she stood! The large platform that was shaped like a stone mill couldn't help but have a guess in his heart.

"Testing platform. I'll send you to the Magical Beast Plains first." Rong Mo's usual cold voice finally gave a "reasonable" explanation.

"What?" Ye Qianli wasn't angry anymore. She was shocked!

Because she knew that it was still very early and the sky had just turned bright. There was still at least an hour before the start of the new student assessment!

There was more!

Wasn't the testing platform teleported based on talent?

"I originally had a 30% chance of success. With the addition of an hour of opportunity, I should have at least a 50% chance of success." However, Rong Mo, who had shocked Ye Qianli, looked at her calmly.

"Yes, yes!" Ye Qianli nodded, but she was still confused. She didn't understand why he could send her to the assessment ground in advance and even send her to the Magical Beast Plain that she wanted to go to! Instead of being assigned to the Fire Abyss?

While Ye Qianli was still in a daze, Rong Mo pointed at the test table and said, "Go up."

However, Ye Qianli didn't listen to him and went up to him. She looked at Rong Mo and asked seriously, ""Why? Why can you do this?"

"Because I am one of the examiners this time." Rong Mo said.

Ye Qianli's eyes lit up, wondering if this was the so-called "going easy" That was too cool, but...Wait a minute ...

"If you go easy like this, will my results be invalid?" Ye Qianli was still afraid that something might go wrong.

"I won't." Rong Mo replied firmly.

Ye Qianli took a deep breath when she heard that. She was a little excited! But she still asked, "Will you be okay?" Could he continue to be an examiner? The examiner will also enter the venue, right?"

After she asked three questions, Rong Mo was not annoyed by her questions. He even glanced at her and explained, "I'll be fine, and no one can remove me from my position as an examiner. Don't worry, I'll continue to go easy on those who can. "

"Wow!" Ye Qianli was excited when she heard that. She felt that Rong Mo was extremely handsome at this moment! As expected of her beautiful crown prince, oh, oh! He was too handsome.

"However, whether you succeed or not depends on yourself." Rong Mo seemed to be affected by Ye Qianli's excitement, and his voice carried a hint of a smile.

"No problem! Watch me, I'll go up now!" After Ye Qianli said that, she dashed up to the so-called test table like a little female leopard that had its eyes on its prey.

However, she didn't stand in the middle immediately. Instead, she turned around and looked at Rong Mo, who was standing not far away. Even if she was dressed in a gorgeous brocade dress, she could not help it! She looked at him seriously and asked, ""Why are you helping me like this?"

Yes, ever since the chaos in the Vermillion Bird City, ever since the Ye Residence was in trouble, he had always been helping her. Even though his way of doing things had many flaws, Ye Qianli knew that he was really helping her.

But ...

Why?

Even though he was the crown prince of the dynasty and had the responsibility and obligation to help her save her grandfather, he did not have to take extra care of her.

"Let's go in." However, Rong Mo didn't answer this question. Ye Qianli understood what he meant, but she was also disappointed. She could only walk to the center of the test table.

She knew that Rong Mo had hidden himself too deeply. He was like his unfathomable and ever-changing eyes, as if he was a dark universe that could never be seen clearly. He was a person who would discover more secrets the more they interacted with him.

Such a person would never tell others his intentions, especially when he had his own overall plan. He would never say anything, not to anyone.

"If you can succeed, I will tell you." However, when Ye Qianli walked into the testing platform with disappointment, Rong Mo gave her a promise.

However, Ye Qianli did not feel anything. She acted as if she did not hear anything and stood in the corner of the big " millstone " without Rong Mo's guidance.

"Buzz!"

For a moment, there was a flash of fire! From the bottom of her feet, it spread to her entire body! It shot up into the sky and exploded into a sea of fire! It was gorgeous and magnificent.

This was Ye Qianli's talent. She had activated the power of the testing platform, which caused a fire phenomenon! With such a phenomenon appearing, the examiners of this year's freshmen assessment were naturally all alarmed.

But ...

Without waiting for the examiners to rush over, " Swoosh! " This strange phenomenon disappeared on the spot with lightning speed, as if it had never appeared.

However, as the examiners of the Genius Academy, they were certain that even if this phenomenon was short-lived and disappeared like a shooting star, it was definitely real!

Therefore, even though there was still an hour before the freshmen assessment began, they had already rushed over to the testing platform! However, by the time they arrived, they only saw a light shadow on the test platform that was gradually blurring. It was obvious that it was about to be teleported away.

"Nonsense! What nonsense!"

"Bastard! Who did this?"

When the three elderly examiners who had arrived first saw this, they exploded on the spot. They all knew that only they, as examiners, had the ability to open the test platform. Then, the person who had done this was definitely one of the eight examiners of this year's new student assessment. Who was that?

Who dared to do such a thing?

Who would dare to ignore the authority and power of the Genius Academy and actually commit such an obvious violation of the rules and regulations? Was he courting death?

Who was it?

"Rong Mo? You..."

However, when the three of them saw that the troublemaker was Rong Mo, who had a "history of causing trouble", they felt that no words could describe their frenzied feelings at that moment.

But no matter what!

"Quick, stop him first and kidnap him!" The three examiners, who were obviously very capable of dealing with emergencies, immediately thought of the most effective way to curb the sudden change. They attacked the test platform from three directions at the same time, wanting to stop the transmission of the test platform.

Unfortunately ...

When Rong Mo was doing things, how could he give others the chance to interfere?

Thus, when the three of them attacked, his deep and boundless eyes that seemed to be evolving endlessly flashed with a bright light!

"Swoosh!"

At the same time, Ye Qianli, who was in the ancient teleportation array on the testing platform, could feel a powerful invisible force enveloping her! This change gave her a feeling that she was about to be teleported away.

But was he really alright?

From what she heard from the three old men, why did she feel that he was making a big mistake? However, before she could think of anything else, a cold and familiar voice rang in her ears. " Come on, I need you. "

Chapter 70: Pretty Prince's Skills Are Not Bad!

"Buzz!"

At the same time, Ye Qianli felt dizzy, and then...

The scene in front of her changed again. She saw a boundless plain.

Ye Qianli knew that this was the Magical Beast Plain. It looked peaceful and quiet, but in fact, there was a group of terrifying magical beasts living on this plain filled with small flowers and green grass. They were chameleons.

"I really didn't see any beasts here." Ye Qianli gazed at the plain before her and couldn't help but sigh.

Chameleons were similar to the chameleons that Ye Qianli had seen before. They had the ability to change the color of their bodies to match the color of their surroundings, and their ability to change color was obviously more advanced.

In addition, there was also a huge chameleon! They were usually the size of two or three people. This was only the lowest level of a Rank 1 chameleon. Rank 2 chameleons were usually the size of an adult Tyrannosaurus Rex! Not to mention their Beast King.

What was even more torturous!

Magical beasts were also the most uncontrollable, brutal, and belligerent of all beasts! Not only were their combat strength bursting, but they were also more vigilant and murderous than spirit beasts of the same level.

Therefore, magical beasts were usually not tamed. They would only die in battle! Or eat the opponent.

However, no matter how difficult it was to deal with the demonic beasts, Ye Qianli knew that she had to deal with the Beast King in an hour! She had to make full use of the hour of opportunity that Rong Mo had given her.

Rong Mo...

"You need me..." Thinking of his voice before she was teleported, Ye Qianli knew that it was his last explanation to her. Why did he help her? Because he needed her.

No matter what he needed from her, someone as strong as him naturally needed her to be strong too! Therefore, she really had to work hard. So ...

Ye Qianli didn't waste any time even though she was thinking about something. She focused on her right eye, carefully checking the whereabouts of the chameleon.

Very quickly!

She could see three clusters of moving " grass " about 500 miles away from her. She focused her attention on them! As expected, they discovered that these were three chameleons!

"Good fellow!" Ye Qianli's eyes lit up. She also knew that chameleons lived in groups. The three chameleons were proof that there was a large group of chameleons nearby.

Perhaps the chameleon beast king was inside! Then she wouldn't even have to look for him. It would save her a lot of time! However, this also made her suspicious. " Sending me to the vicinity of the chameleon group, this shouldn't be a coincidence, right? "

The words that the Magic Box said next made Ye Qianli even more certain! This was definitely the water that the beautiful prince had given her again...

"Idiot, I can feel the aura of a Class 3 Magical Beast about a thousand miles away from you! Be careful. Your beautiful prince's skills are not bad. He teleported you to the point in an instant. Let's go! Let's hurry up and take down this Beast King." The magic box flashed excitedly.

When Ye Qianli was looking around, it had also been scanning its surroundings. It had managed to catch a trace of a Class 3 Magical Beast's aura, which made it a little excited!

"Which direction?" Ye Qianli was even more excited. She didn't expect the Beast King to be nearby! The beautiful prince had given her too much water. This teleportation technique was amazing!

"West!" The Magic Box quickly sent bullet comments.

Ye Qianli looked to the west and saw seven or eight clusters of " colorful " chameleons about six hundred miles away from her. They were only a hundred miles away from the three clusters of " grass " she saw earlier, as if they were forming a pattern.

" As expected of a highly vigilant magical beast that lives in groups. Let's hide there first. We can't be detected by them. Otherwise, we definitely won't be able to get close to the Beast King. " Ye Qianli continued to communicate with the magic box.

"You hide, I'll conceal my aura." The Magic Box's super cooperative bullet screen said.

Thus, one person and one magic box, they moved very quickly! However, he was able to approach the herd of beasts that had been brought out by the Magical Beast, the Color Changing Dragon King, in a soundless manner.

Fifteen minutes!

In just 15 minutes, with the help of the magic box, Ye Qianli had already passed the 10 monster minions 'warning points and saw the chameleon beast king that was only 200 miles away from her.

However, Ye Qianli was shocked by the size of the beast king. In her own words, she said, " Damn it, it's as big as three adult tyrannosaurs! "

"What the hell is a tyrannosaurus rex?" The Magic Box humbly asked.

"It's also a type of magical beast." Ye Qianli said. The magic box only recognized ancient battlefield magic beasts, and this chameleon magic beast was only recently recognized by it.

"Oh, very powerful?"

"That's not the main point. The main point is that this big guy can kill me with just one tail! You have to be more reliable this time. I might only have one chance to attack. If you're not reliable, I'll die." Ye Qianli said earnestly.

She was not afraid of anything else, but she was afraid that the magic box would turn into a morning glory again...

"Cough..."

"That won't happen, that won't happen..." The Magic Box's bullet screen was filled with guilt.

Ye Qianli felt the guilt in the magic box. She was afraid that it would really screw up, so she urged, " You have to promise me that you won't! " Otherwise, if I die, you'll be finished too, right?"

"That's not necessary. At most, I ..."

"Cough, no! I'm almost done, so don't worry, I'm very reliable!" The magic box indicated that it would really be reliable.

What a joke. It was not easy for it to meet a living person in the ancient battlefield and come out to have some fun. It did not want to go back to that gray world that was like a day for ten thousand years.

"But it's useless just because I'm reliable! There are eighteen Class 2 Magical Beasts beside it, and all of them have the same combat strength as you. If we don't alarm them, it's impossible to ambush the Beast King, right?" The Magic Box said.

Ye Qianli said casually, "" It's just eighteen. I can handle that. However, we need to come up with a little trick to confuse them so that they can gather together. Only then can I take them all out! "

"You have a way?" The Magic Box was a little excited again! After all, Ye Qianli only had the combat strength of a peak Tier 2 Magical Beast. She only dared to fight a Tier 3 Beast King because of its strength.

Even if she used that new hidden weapon, she could at most kill two or three second rank chameleons in an instant. However, it sounded like she was very confident in dealing with these eighteen big guys in an instant!

"Of course." Ye Qianli was indeed confident, but she still needed to get a hundred miles closer to the Beast King. There were too many Level 1 chameleons in this area, which made it a little difficult to deal with.

After all, she did not know how to turn invisible. She had only relied on her well-trained and superb stealth skills and the magic box's aura shielding skill to avoid the previous ten " beast police " points. Now ...

Ye Qianli stared at the nearest phase-1 chameleon and became even more cautious! He was also more patient and slowly went into hiding.

A moment later...

"Swoosh!"

Suddenly, a rustling sound was heard in the grass where Ye Qianli was standing, which attracted the attention of countless chameleons. Their eyes turned from green to scarlet in an instant!
