

The Divine Urban Physician Chapter 16: Is a life worth 60 million?

Shen Mengjia was relatively calm, although she couldn't accept this fact at first, but she knew it wasn't a dream!

At this moment, my father's eyes are full of life, as if the rest of his life.

This is a human emotion!

Father really woke up!

She suddenly thought of the young man's back.

Aloof and indifferent.

"He...he was actually cured...how could it be..."

Until this moment, Shen Mengjia didn't know how naive she was.

From the beginning, the man didn't lie!

But she kept seeing him as a liar.

He didn't stand up when he needed it most!

Shen Mengjia covered her mouth and controlled herself not to cry. Her eyes were wet, and tears fell down her cheeks on the floor drop by drop.

At this moment, in the ward, Shen's mother and Shen's father were hugging tightly together.

"Haihua, wouldn't I be dreaming? Are you pinching me?"

Shen Haihua stretched out her hand and wiped her mother's tears: "Yanfang, this is not a dream, I have really come alive! By the way! Where is that genius doctor? Where is he? I must thank him well, if not for him, I guess I'm already dead..."

Although Shen Haihua was in a coma, he felt the existence of Ye Chen and the whole process of Ye Chen's rescue.

It's amazing work!

It's like a * descending to earth!

This kind of person, even if they don't get along well, they mustn't get along with each other!

He controls your destiny! Take control of other people's lives!

This kind of person is destined to only be above power!

But no one answered Shen Haihua's question, the whole room was so silent, you could even hear a needle falling on the ground.

Father Shen realized something was wrong, and his face darkened instantly: "You guys, who can give me an explanation!"

Finally, Shen Mengjia stood up and explained what happened just now.

When he heard all this, Father Shen ignored the injury, stood up directly, used all his strength, and slapped Shen Menglong in the face!

"You bastard! You bastard! You... you actually took away the magician! You bastard! Do you want me to die before you are willing! Starting today, don't even think about taking a penny from Lao Tzu, you No longer my son of Shen Haihua!"

Shen Menglong panicked, really panicked!

Father's anger is simply not something he can bear!

His sports car, his woman, all his extravagances are in his father's hands!

But now, because of a word from his father, he has nothing!

"No, Dad, I know I'm wrong!"

Shen Haihua ignored his son and looked at Qiu Shenyi, who lowered his head.

"And you!"

He kicked Divine Doctor Qiu directly!

"You group of dogs who look down on people, dare to insult the genius doctor like this, I tell you, if you can't find this genius doctor, I swear, all of you will die!"

Shen Haihua is really angry!

Although he woke up, he knew he wouldn't survive three days!

If the genius doctor doesn't take action, he will surely die!

The most important thing right now is to find the magician!

“Look, find them all for me! Search Jiangcheng and find me too! Except for Yanfang, get them all out of the Shen family! If you don’t find the little magician, don’t come back!”

This sentence is not only for Shen Menglong and Qiu Shenyi!

It was also for Shen Mengjia and Xiao Min!

If someone had stood up and believed in the genius doctor, it would be a different ending now!

A life, is 60 million expensive?

Not expensive!

It’s so cheap!

Because he Shen Haihua can earn 100 million a month!

But now!

He, Shen Haihua, can only live for three days!

Meanwhile, the Huamei Group conference room.

The atmosphere is particularly solemn.

Because just a few hours ago, the stock price of Huamei Group plummeted, which is the biggest dilemma Xia Ruoxue has encountered since she founded Huamei.

After an investigation by the public relations department of Huamei Group, it was found that the reason for the sharp drop in the stock price was that the competitor Lixing Beauty Group launched a beauty oral liquid. As long as you take a course of treatment, there will be significant changes in both skin and appearance.

Although the beauty oral liquid has not yet been launched, some reporters took samples at the on-site press conference, and there were slight changes.

How important this seemingly minor change is for a woman!

It is predicted that Lixing Beauty Group is enough to change the rules of the beauty industry, and it can even leave Huamei Group, the current number one in Jiangnan Province, behind.

At the beginning of its establishment, Huamei Group relied on beauty oral liquid to be the leader, and in the past few years, the main source of profit has also been beauty oral liquid. Now Beijing rivals have developed a set of better products, which is simply pushing them to No way!

Sun Yi arrived early and learned about the general situation in the WeChat group on the way. She looked around and found that the executives who were sitting on the left were rarely seen, and Huamei was sitting on the right. A core member of the Group's R&D department.

This group of core members is not ordinary. Some are professors of Capital Medical University, some are from a family of traditional Chinese medicine, and some are medical leaders!

But at this moment, these experts are all serious, because they are very clear that once Xia Ruoxue comes to the conference room, they will be the first to be held accountable!

The whole conference room was noisy, and there were constantly people talking to Sun Yi, but Sun Yi had no interest at all. Her mind was full of Ye Chen's back, and she didn't know if Ye Chen would come back tonight.

Suddenly, Sun Yi thought of something and took out the napkin that Ye Chen gave him from his pocket.

A few lines of characters were written crookedly on it. She couldn't understand it. It seemed to be medicinal materials.

She wanted to laugh a little when she thought that this piece of paper was said by Ye Chen to be worth tens of millions.

Marven Ye even asked her to show this piece of paper to the R&D department, she was really speechless.

Everyone in the R&D department is a leader in the medical field. How can they see this inexplicable napkin?

Maybe, Sun Yi will become the laughing stock of the entire Huamei Group.

"Alas, this guy is good everywhere, except that it is unrealistic to be a man." Sun Yi said to himself.

"Yo, Sun Yi, you're thinking about a man, you look like you can't let go!"

Suddenly, a female voice sounded in Sun Yi's ear, startling her.

Sun Yi glanced at the source of the voice, her face instantly displeased, because it was Su Na, the PR director of Huamei Group.

She has been in Huamei for so long, and she gets along well with everyone, except for Suna in front of her.

The two are like water and fire, and they have to quarrel every time they meet.

Su Na talked about a wealthy businessman a few days ago, but she showed off in front of Sun Yi all day long, and even asked Sun Yi in front of everyone in the company why she didn't fall in love, whether she was being cared for or being a chicken, and so on. People even had a fight before.

Sun Yi rolled her eyes at Su Na and snorted: "I don't want a man, what's your business? Just do your own thing."

Su Na responded unceremoniously: "Yo, you are still qualified to call me? You are so rude all day, I don't know how many people have done it."

"You – bastard!" Sun Yi stood up angrily, just about to scold, but found that the napkin in her hand was snatched by Su Na!
