Chapter 2228 - 2228 Infinity Domain, Nine Ways Mountain Gathering, Mingyue Wuxia

“The Thousand Weapon Heart allows the cultivator to master all weapons in the world, and that’s where the Divine Weapon Seal got its name from. Weapon smithing is just one of its functions. Controlling all weapons is its true purpose.

He executed his thought immediately.

He spent some time trying to refine the Dragonslayer.

The Ultimate Supreme Treasure had restriction seals unique to the Dragon Hunters, and it was difficult to refine. Since it was also an Ultimate Supreme Treasure, people with a weaker cultivation base would suffer repercussions if they tried to forcefully refine it.

Hence, Chu Kuangren tried refining it with the Thousand Weapon Heart.

The Dragonslayer buzzed, and the restriction seals on the blade started to break down.

“It works!” Chu Kuangren widened his eyes.

A while later, he wielded the Dragonslayer, and its blade shone brightly.

“Swoosh!”

The whole saber entered his body.

When the Infernal Dragon energy in his body sensed the Dragonslayer's entry, it grew restless as if it was rejecting the saber.

Chu Kuangren then spent some time to calm the energy down.

"I've finally refined it," Chu Kuangren muttered.

The mystical Thousand Weapon Heart did not disappoint.

If he could further cultivate the Thousand Weapon Heart, he could snatch people's Supreme Treasure with a thought, which made it a powerful tool.

"If the Divine Weapon Seal holds the Thousand Weapon Heart, what does the Divine Void Seal hold inside?" he wondered.

Due to his previous cultivation schedule, he could not completely comprehend the Divine Void Seal.

Now, he could give it another try.

As he started to comprehend the Divine Void Seal, he saw a transparent ball of light in the vast void. When his consciousness approached the ball of light, endless mystical knowledge gushed into his mind.

“Infinity Domain!” he muttered.

He who expanded the Infinity Domain shall control all.

All places would be his own domain, and that power was terrifying.

Chu Kuangren’s closed-door meditation allowed him to master two Ultimate-level cultivation techniques — the Thousand Weapon Heart and Infinity Domain.

He even refined the Dragonslayer.

It was quite the harvest.

A while later, he exited his closed-door meditation. He found out that Lan Yu, Shang Honghua, and the others had broken through to the Grand Dao Realm and was happy for them.

At the same time, visitors had arrived at the Pan Gu Sect.

They were once the members of the Heavenly Roundtable.

Through Long Shuijing's recommendation, they all joined the Pan Gu Sect.

Chu Kuangren was not overly concerned by the addition except for Heaven Maiden You.

The changes in her captured his attention.

Heaven Maiden You's eyes were closed all the time, and she exuded a profound yet vague and unpredictable aura.

“Interesting. It's the Six Eyes' energy.”

Chu Kuangren identified the energy on Heaven Maiden You with just one glance.

Its origin was from the Six Eyes Tribe, which was closely related to the Destiny Dao.

The Six Eyes Tribe was one of the most mysterious tribes throughout the entire Infiniverse as they had the ability to grasp destiny.

Chu Kuangren once fought the Six Eyes God King from the Central Heaven Universe and managed to kill him in the River of Fate.

That was why he was no stranger to that energy.

“It is the Six Eyes’ energy.” Heaven Maiden You nodded.

“I got lucky and got the inheritance of an elite from the Six Eyes Tribe, which gave me the eyes of Destiny.”

She slowly opened her eyes.

Her eyes shone with divine light as six pupils in her eyes glimmered brightly.

However, when she saw Chu Kuangren, her eyes hurt, and it forced her to close her eyes again. She was frightened.

If she forcefully looked at Chu Kuangren or deduced his fate, she would suffer powerful repercussions.

“The Six Eyes Tribe is indeed mysterious, but there are things in the world you can’t see,” Chu Kuangren said.

Heaven Maiden You nodded. “I understand.”

“Alright, you can stand down now.”

“Yes, Sect Leader.”

She breathed a sigh of relief.

Now, Chu Kuangren was her superior.

“Swoosh!”

A bird arrived.

“I am the messenger bird, here to invite Human Divine Bachelor, Chu Kuangren, to attend the gathering of the Nine Ways Mountains Human Tribe.” The bird spoke as it hovered above the Pan Gu Sect.

It was an invitation.

“Oh? A gathering at Nine Ways Mountains Human Tribe? Please elaborate,” Chu Kuangren said.

The bird flew down to him and explained the invitation in detail.

The gathering invited some of the Human Divine Bachelors and Divine Maidens.

Everyone would gather to know each other, spar with each other, and occasionally explore some Spirit World or whatnot.

Some Human Guardians would also be attending the gathering.

Chu Kuangren was intrigued when he heard the bird's explanation.

“The Human Guardians would be there as well? I wonder if I can find some clues about the Nine Humanity Treasures or Human Ancestors' inheritance.

“I will be there.”

“In that case, I will wait for you at the Nine Ways Mountains.”

After that, the bird flew away.

Nuwa then went up to Chu Kuangren. She had heard the conversation, and it gave her some thoughts. “Sect Leader, I'd like to attend as well.”

“You want to meet the other Human Guardians?”

“I do.” Nuwa nodded.

“Sure, let’s go together,” he said.

He glanced at the Spirit World Leaderboard in the sky.

The Spirit World ranked eleventh was a place named the Nine Ways Spirit World, but it had yet to open.

It was located at Nine Ways Mountains.

Since there was still time until the gathering, Chu Kuangren stayed back to make some arrangements before heading off.

He headed to the Nine Ways Mountain with Nuwa.

Lan Yu did not follow. Since she and the others had just ascended to the Grand Dao realm, she thought she should probably focus on strengthening their powers.

Meanwhile, on the Nine Ways Mountains, a group of Human Divine Bachelors and Divine Maidens gathered, and the atmosphere was lively.

They were from different human forces, and all of them were the sky-prides and Prodigies of that era, who possessed endless potential.

The top ten Divine Bachelors and Divine Maidens captured the most attention.

Among them, a couple became the highlight of the entire gathering.

The man had white robes on and handsome looks, and his aura somehow merged in harmony with the world around him. It was as if he was one with the world.

The woman, on the other hand, was extraordinary as well. She had a tulle that veiled her face, but it did not conceal her beautiful looks. Her eyes were sharp as stars, and she was a beauty.

“These two are something else. Are they Daoist Partners?”

“No. We all come from the same place, the Heavenly Human Sanctuary. It is one of the three Human Sanctuaries.”

“The man is ranked sixth on the Divine Bachelor Leaderboard, Lu Wuhen, and the lady is ranked first on the Divine Maiden Leaderboard, Mingyue Wuxia.”

“Ranked first? That explains her extraordinary and transcendent presence.”

“Lu Wuhen pales in comparison.”
