Chapter 2236 - 2236 Eliminate Elder Blackwood, Doomsday Darkness Consume Each Other, Doomsday Sect

The Doomsday Darkness appeared again in the Jiufang Tribe, and Chu Kuangren's arrival caused the energy of the Radiant Seed inside his body to gush out uncontrollably.

Elder Blackwood became fearful when he sensed the energy, and the Doomsday Darkness energy inside him grew restless.

"W-Who are you?"

"Oh? You have the Doomsday Darkness in you, but you haven't heard of the Child of Light?"

"Child of Light..."

Elder Blackwood's eyes widened in shock. "No. This is impossible. The Child of Light is just a legend. How could it be real?"

"If the Doomsday Darkness exists, why can't the Child of Light?" Chu Kuangren asked.

"Even if you are the Child of Light, your cultivation... Haha, Grand Dao Supreme God? How dare you stand against me?" Elder Blackwood cackled and calmed down instantly.

He was a Grand Dao Supreme Honorable who possessed the Doomsday Darkness. There was no way a mere Grand Dao Supreme God could rival him in terms of strength.

“Today shall be the day the Child of Light dies!” Elder Blackwood said.

The Darkness energy erupted from his body and manifested a pitch-black ball in the air that was hurled at Chu Kuangren.

The black ball devoured everything in its way.

Chu Kuangren pointed his sword hand sign, and the Radiant energy converged into a sword shadow.

“Kaboom!”

The Darkness energy was slashed in half.

“How is this possible?”

Elder Blackwood was shocked.

A Grand Dao Supreme God possessing that level of power?

Not only him but even the Supreme Saints of the Jiufang Tribe were shocked.

Elder Blackwood had been a bane to their tribe. Their tribe leader sacrificed himself to seal Elder Blackwood away, but he ultimately escaped the seal.

“Hmph! I refused to believe this!”

“A bunch of useless attacks.”

Chu Kuangren simply threw a punch forward.

The Radiant energy fused with the energy of three thousand Daoist laws manifested into three thousand worlds.

It was the Radiant Three Thousand Worlds technique!

“Bang!”

The barrage of Darkness cultivation techniques was stopped and dispersed by the Radiant energy.

Elder Blackwood was blasted away by the impact.

“How are you so strong?”

Elder Blackwood was in disbelief. How could a Supreme God unleash a power that overpowered himself, a Supreme Honorable?

“You can take your question to the afterlife.”

Chu Kuangren’s figure flashed and appeared above Elder Blackwood.

Once the Radiant Great Dao’s energy was channeled to the limit, he raised his fist and threw a punch downward.

“Great Judgment of Light!”

“Kabaam!”

Following a loud explosion, Elder Blackwood’s body was crushed to bits, and a streak of black qi came out from it.

The black qi was darker than black, devouring the light around it.

It even released a rampant energy fluctuation, which was much more terrifying than the Darkness energy around it.

It was the Doomsday Darkness.

The Doomsday Darkness flew further away, trying to flee the field.

“Hmph. Run? Don’t even think about it!” Chu Kuangren grunted coldly.

He stepped forward, and a mystical energy expanded from his feet, forming a massive energy domain that blanketed the field.

Everything caught inside the domain was frozen.

It was the Infinity Domain technique!

“Come over here,” he said coldly and dragged the black qi to him.

Compared to the Doomsday Darkness he saw at the Radiant Tribe, this one was less than one-hundredth of the previous, yet it was still enough for a Grand Dao Supreme Honorable to unleash ridiculous power.

On top of that, the Doomsday Darkness at the Radiant Tribe was less than one-tenth of the real Doomsday Darkness.

One could only imagine how powerful the real Doomsday Darkness was.

While Chu Kuangren was observing the Doomsday Darkness, the one inside him buzzed and devoured the one in his hand. The two Doomsday Darknesses fused into a stronger energy.

The Radiant energy grew restless as it tried to suppress the newly formed Doomsday Darkness.

“The Doomsday Darkness can consume each other?” Chu Kuangren muttered.

“But why is the Doomsday Darkness here?” Chu Kuangren was baffled. Then, he looked at the Jiufang Tribe Leader and the others.

Maybe the answer to his question lay with them.

“Outsider, what are you trying to do?”

A strong man stood in front of the Jiufang Tribe Leader.

The young men whom Chu Kuangren saved earlier stepped up as well.

“What are you guys doing here?” the young man with thick brows said.

The two of them had been following them, so they must have ulterior motives!

“Stand down,” a weak voice said.

It was the Jiufang Tribe Leader.

He looked at Chu Kuangren and Nuwa and bowed. “Thank you for helping us.”

Chu Kuangren smiled. “You’re welcome.”

Be it of sincere gratitude or not, they were impressed and amazed by Chu Kuangren’s powers. On top of that, they finally met someone who could have a proper conversation with.

“I wonder what you two are doing here?”

“I sensed the Doomsday Darkness’ energy. It’s extremely evil, and if it’s not eliminated, it will grow into a great disaster in the future. So, I came here to kill it,” Chu Kuangren said righteously.

With the Nature Formation, there was no way he could sense the Doomsday Darkness.

It was purely an excuse for his intrusion.

“I see.”

The acceptance of his lousy excuse rested the tension on everyone's expression.

They viewed him as a man of justice.

Chu Kuangren then looked at the Jiufang Tribe Leader and sensed the heavy injuries he sustained.

He took a pill out and said, "This pill can help you recover. If you don't mind, please take it."

"Thank you."

The Jiufang Tribe Leader accepted it.

Judging from the battle with Elder Blackwood, Chu Kuangren could wipe them out easily if he wanted to, so there was no point for him to resolve in trickery.

After taking the pill, the Jiufang Tribe Leader's injuries recovered rapidly.

In addition to the herb that the thick-browed young man and his crew brought back, his injuries were almost recovered. He had not felt so relaxed in a long time.

"I have used my body to seal Elder Blackwood for so many years, and now I'm free."

“Who is this Elder Blackwood exactly?”

“He’s an outsider who trespassed into our tribe with other outsiders many years ago. They were here to plunder and raid our treasures. I was no match for him, so I sealed him in my body,” the Jiufang Tribe Leader explained.

“In that case, do you know anything about the Doomsday Darkness?”

“I do not.” The Jiufang Tribe Leader shook his head.

Chu Kuangren was more baffled than before. “So it was just a coincidence that Elder Blackwood was here? Where did he get the Doomsday Darkness in him?”

“When I had him sealed in my body, I sometimes heard him talking about an organization named the Doomsday Sect,” the tribe leader explained.

“Doomsday Sect...”

Chu Kuangren marked down the name in his mind.

Judging from its name, it must be closely related to the Doomsday Darkness.
