Chapter 2261 - 2261 Battling the Apocalypse Martial Ruler, is Anyone Else Coming? Utter Nonsense

Dense waves of Carnage aura filled every corner of the land.

Chu Kuangren, holding the Dragonslayer, looked at the Apocalypse Martial Ruler with surprise. “It’s about time you showed up.”

“Chu Kuangren, I’ve come to kill you. This time, no one else can save you,” the Apocalypse Martial Ruler said coldly.

The scimitar in his grasp instantly unsheathed itself.

A chilling saber ray immediately tore through the void. The three other Monarchs were a little surprised to see the Carnage Daoist laws contained within it.

“When did the Apocalypse Martial Ruler become so powerful?”

“What the hell did he do?”

The three of them looked at each other with slight surprise.

Meanwhile, Chu Kuangren held the Dragonslayer tight and swung it.

When the two energies collided, Chu Kuangren was forced back despite being armed with the Dragonslayer.

“What’s going on? Why has another Monarch appeared?”

“By the heavens, do they really think three Monarchs aren’t enough? I can’t believe another one has shown up. Has the standard of Monarchs fallen so far? Are four Monarchs necessary to defeat Chu Kuangren? His lineup is simply ridiculous.”

Wine Honorable was about to give a toast when he saw Chu Kuangren gaining the upper hand. However, he choked at the Apocalypse Martial Ruler’s arrival.

“My my, are you guys really that afraid of him...”

Of course, they were. Otherwise, why had so many Monarchs shown up?

Chu Kuangren looked at the Apocalypse Martial Ruler, noticing the power inside his body, and came to a realization. “I see. It’s the God of Slaughter.”

He remembered the cave inside the Blazing Flame Volcano.

No wonder the Apocalypse Martial Ruler took so long to show up. It seemed like he had gone and robbed Chu Kuangren of the inheritance.

“Interesting. In that case, let me have a taste of that so-called God of Slaughter’s power.”

Chu Kuangren chuckled, his eyes lighting up excitedly.

The Apocalypse Martial Ruler’s scimitar also contained a supreme murderous intent. The moment the two sabers collided, the surrounding void shattered into pieces like a broken mirror.

He had gained a lot during that excursion of his.

Besides obtaining the God of Slaughter’s inheritances and gaining an increase in his cultivation level, he also had a chance to become a top-tier Monarch or a being that could surpass a Monarch. Now, he even had an Ultimate Divine Weapon ready for the taking!

Not to mention the various secrets contained within Chu Kuangren’s body, but the way he saw it, they all belonged to him now!

“Clang! Clang...”

As the two sabers clashed continuously in the void, dense surges of murderous intent and ferocious qi collided, spreading everywhere.

The space continued shattering into fragments that formed a huge area of chaos.

“Sword Twenty-four!”

Chu Kuangren cast Sword Twenty-four, and destructive intent spread everywhere.

“Apocalyptic Demon Martial Art, Heavenly Bloodstorm Strike!”

The Apocalypse Martial Ruler held his scimitar that had blood-colored light flowing within.

It was as if the terrifying Carnage intent within it was manifesting, and a blood rain poured heavily.

The two ultimate techniques clashed, forcing both Chu Kuangren and the Apocalypse Martial Ruler back.

The dense energy resulted in a pillar of light that shot into the sky.

Due to that, the Purple Cloud Miasma Formation suffered a tremendous impact.

The Formation King’s expression shifted. “This is bad. Both of them are too powerful. If this continues, I’m afraid the Purple Cloud Miasma Formation will eventually be destroyed.”

He needed that formation to close off the Feng Domain from the outside world.

If the formation was destroyed, everyone in the outside world would notice what was happening in the Feng Domain.

Then, the Radiant Goddess and Devil King would also sense it. If their forces hurried over, it would be even more difficult to kill Chu Kuangren.

“Let’s attack together and finish this quickly!” said the Black Dragon King as he picked up his arm that was cut off by Chu Kuangren and forcibly stuck it back on his shoulder. He was using his Great Daoist law energy to reattach his arm.

His gaze was as cold as ice, sending shivers down everyone’s spine.

The Dragon Hunter Leader and the Formation King nodded.

They had put aside whatever pride they had left as a Monarch.

The four of them had only one thought in their minds: to kill Chu Kuangren!

So what if they ganged up on him?

With that, a very terrifying sight soon unfolded before everyone’s eyes.

Four Monarchs had joined forces to defeat a Grand Dao Realm cultivator, and an incident like that had only happened less than a handful of times in the history of the Infiniverse.

“Chu Kuangren, you will die today!”

“No one else can save you now!”

“Lightning Destruction Formation!”

The Formation King channeled his remaining Great Dao Sources and merged them with his Great Daoist law energy. The Lightning Destruction Formation was activated once more.

Meanwhile, the Black Dragon King also ignored his injuries and proceeded to unleash various Dragon Tribe cultivation techniques.

“Dragon God Dominion!”

“Black Dragon Heaven Destruction!”

“Black Dragon Rampage!”

Vast surges of dragon qi swept everywhere.

A single strand of those dragon qis was powerful enough to kill a Supreme Honorable.

“Dragon Hunter Slash!”

“Nine Heavenly Destruction Slashes!”

The Dragon Hunter Leader also channeled his energy to the limit.

A variety of killer techniques erupted, one after another.

“Apocalyptic Demon Martial Art, Thousand Martial Zenith!”

The Apocalypse Martial Ruler swung his scimitar.

Several cultivation techniques were unleashed one after another, eventually consolidating into one powerful attack. That attack was the embodiment of the gatherings of thousands of techniques, a combination that symbolized the zenith of power!

The four Monarchs continued blasting Chu Kuangren with their attacks.

The power of their techniques was shockingly horrifying, and it frightened everyone.

They felt as if the entire domain was about to collapse from the impact of the battle.

It was simply terrifying.

“Boom!”

Amidst the seemingly endless energy explosions, a figure was sent flying, crashing through several mountains.

It was Chu Kuangren.

Despite having the Dragonslayer, he was facing the Apocalypse Martial Ruler, who had obtained the God of Slaughter’s inheritance, and the attacks of the other three Monarchs.

He eventually fell into a disadvantage.

“Chu Kuangren, there’s no Tempest King here to save you this time! After killing you, I will settle the score with her too!” the Apocalypse Martial Ruler said coldly.

Feeling the energy coursing through his veins, he was full of confidence.

With the God of Slaughter’s inheritance, he would surely surpass the Tempest King one day.

When that time came, he could be rid of the humiliation she inflicted on him.

“If you want to look for my disciple for trouble, you’ll have to get through me first,” Chu Kuangren said nonchalantly.

“Ha! You can’t even protect yourself.” The Apocalypse Martial Ruler sneered.

“Is anyone else coming?”

“What do you mean?”

“I’m asking you if anyone else is coming, like a few more Monarchs, for instance.” Chu Kuangren said calmly.

What he said made people think he had actually gone mad.

The Apocalypse Martial Ruler believed so too. “It looks like you’re scared out of your wits. Now, die!”

He held his scimitar and channeled his Carnage Daoist law energy.

“It looks like no one else is coming. I suppose all the Monarchs involved in this attack are here, right? If that’s the case, I shall send you guys to your deaths together,” Chu Kuangren said.

“What utter nonsense.” The Black Dragon King snorted coldly.

However, before he could say further, Chu Kuangren took out a dazzling bundle of Immortal Sparks. There seemed to be one half of a heart inside it.

Countless mysterious runes were also flowing within it.

“Is that my Monarch’s Heart?”

The Apocalypse Martial Ruler narrowed his gaze.

Chu Kuangren had taken out a portion of the Apocalypse Martial Ruler’s Monarch’s Heart, which the Tempest King obtained after killing him.

Chapter 2262 - 2262 The Monarch’s Heart, The Water Nation Warring Map, Crossing Into the Monarch Realm

When the Monarch’s Heart was taken out, the Apocalypse Martial Ruler became displeased.

It made him recall the time when the Tempest King defeated him.

More importantly, it was only a clone of the Tempest King that killed him back then.

“Crack!”

Chu Kuangren shattered the Monarch's Heart in his hand.

Just like how the Supreme Honorable's Heart he previously used could allow his cultivation level to increase temporarily, the Monarch's Heart had the same effect too.

Suddenly, Chu Kuangren's power grew steadily.

It quickly surpassed his current cultivation level, and he was incredibly close to breaking into the Monarch Realm!

Having been strengthened by that newfound power, the Dragonslayer in his hand hummed and trembled, releasing never-ending waves of ferocious qi everywhere.

The Apocalypse Martial Ruler's gaze turned cold. "Chu Kuangren, with the help of my Monarch's Heart, you are truly capable of fighting us head-to-head."

"Head-to-head?"

Chu Kuangren chuckled and said, "I never intended to fight any of you guys head-to-head. Instead, I want to... wipe all of you out once and for all!"

Immediately after, the winds in the sky picked up.

Dense surges of murderous qi surged from the surroundings, and countless blood-colored patterns started appearing amidst the purple clouds in the sky.

Murderous qi began pouring out from the blood-colored patterns and into Chu Kuangren's body.

His power skyrocketed once again!

"This is... a formation technique?"

The Formation King immediately identified the essence of the blood-colored patterns in the sky, and his eyes widened at the formation technique. He had never seen anything like that before!

"All of you have made a terrible mistake since the start, which is trying to kill me in my own territory! All of you are too arrogant!"

Chu Kuangren reached his hand out, shattering the void.

As the endless murderous qi continued strengthening him, Chu Kuangren's power surged wildly. Coupled with the power boost he gained by absorbing the Monarch's Heart fragment earlier, the Great Dao within him started to manifest into Great Daoist law energy!

"This formation technique is enhancing his powers!"

The Formation King's eyes were wide with shock. Even he could not set up a formation that could lead to such a rapid increase in the user's power. What kind of formation was that?

Was the first place on the Formation Leaderboard so powerful?

“Ha! As I expected.”

Amidst the crowd, Armament Destruction chuckled.

He was one of the few who knew about the Water Nation Warring Map Formation and the fact that it was being set up all over the Feng Domain as one of Chu Kuangren’s trump cards.

That was why he was not as worried as the others.

“The Water Nation Warring Map Formation is capable of absorbing murderous qi and converting it into the user’s power. Being one of the regions with the densest murderous qi, I can’t even begin to imagine how much murderous qi has been accumulated from the entire Feng Domain. However, the moment this power erupts...”

Armament Destruction let out a wicked smile as he looked at the Monarchs. “Are you guys ready to face the wrath of history’s most terrifying Monarch?”

“Boom, boom, boom...”

Surges of murderous qi poured out from the blood-colored patterns in the sky like a never-ending waterfall.

The power contained within it even frightened someone like the Apocalypse Martial Ruler.

“Attack!”

He immediately swung his scimitar without hesitation.

“Bam!”

His Carnage Great Daoist law manifested into an unparalleled saber ray!

However, Chu Kuangren simply opened his hand, spreading his fingers, and closed it in the void.

That overpowered saber ray was immobilized in mid-air.

“Shatter!”

Following a soft utter, that saber ray instantly exploded. To the horror of the Apocalypse Martial Ruler and others, the Great Daoist law energy within it immediately shattered.

“This formation is capable of strengthening him to such an extent?”

“His cultivation has reached the Monarch Realm!”

Up in the air, with the double-enhancing effects of the Monarch's Heart and the Water Nation Warring Map Formation, Chu Kuangren's power reached an unprecedented height.

He had broken through to the Monarch Realm!

After sensing his newly gained power, he looked at the Apocalypse Martial Ruler with a smile. "Be prepared to die!"

"Quick! Attack!"

Not wanting to let down their guard, the four Monarchs immediately attacked with their full power.

"Apocalyptic Demon Martial Art, Thousand Martial Zenith!"

"Lightning Destruction Formation!"

"Dragon Hunter Slash!"

"Black Dragon Heaven Destruction!"

Four blasts of Great Daoist law energies were launched straight at Chu Kuangren.

The Chu Kuangren of the past would have a very hard time resisting such an attack. However, he appeared very calm now.

With the Dragonslayer in hand, he said, “Sword Twenty-four!”

An ultimate murderous sword intent instantly erupted!

“Boom!”

The dense energy from his attack swept forward like an unstoppable tide and erupted!

The entire Feng Domain was soon illuminated by the saber ray the Dragonslayer unleashed!

Saber qi, formation energy, dragon qi...

The most intense and devastating collision occurred as several energies clashed, forming an earth-shattering energy light pillar that shot straight up into the sky.

The gigantic barrier formed by the Purple Cloud Miasma Formation was immediately pierced open!

With the boundary formation shattered, large amounts of Great Daoist law auras leaked out.

More than half of the Monarchs in the Great Hongmeng Universe eventually detected the presence of that energy.

“What a tremendous Monarch energy. Who is it?”

“Who did this?”

“The source of this aura seems to be coming from... the Feng Domain?”

“Isn’t that Chu Kuangren’s territory?”

Shocked, everyone looked toward the Feng Domain and started to sense what was happening.

“Huh? There seem to be traces of a formation technique here.”

“Has this area been closed off from the world by some sort of formation technique?”

“I see...”

Noticing the gradually dispersing purple clouds and mists in the sky, everyone realized that the domain was previously sealed off with a formation technique.

After that, they followed the Great Daoist law aura to its source. When they saw the terrifying battlefield landscape, everyone gasped.

“F*ck! What the hell is happening here?”

“The Apocalypse Martial Ruler, Black Dragon King, Formation King, and the Dragon Hunter Leader... What are these four Monarchs doing in the Feng Domain?”

“And they’ve brought a large army. It looks like they intend to invade the Pan Gu Sect.”

With just one glance, the other Monarchs had an idea of what was happening over there.

The fact that four Monarchs were dealing with Chu Kuangren, a mere Grand Dao cultivator, was simply unbelievable.’

“Damn. This is such a huge invasion.”

Everyone could not help but lament the situation.

Inside the Holy Radiant Church, the Radiant Goddess’s gaze turned grim, and her face became pale with rage.

“Well, well, well, Formation King! You’ve done it this time!”

“Ming Fei, assemble our forces! We’re going to the Feng Domain!”

She was enraged.

The Child of Light was her hope to defeat the Domsday Darkness in the future.

However, there were always those who sought to extinguish her hopes, and she could not stand it anymore. Even if she had to put up a bloodbath, she would do everything in her power to make the Formation King, the Apocalypse Martial Ruler, and others pay!

“Your Holiness, the situation may not be as bad as it seems,” said Ming Fei, who was beside her, with a somewhat strange expression on her face.

Upon hearing that, the Radiant Goddess turned to look into the depths of the battlefield, and a look of astonishment appeared on her face.

She was not the only one; everyone, too, was so shocked that their jaws were hanging open.

On the battlefield, waves of Daoist Law energies went rampant everywhere, shattering the void.

The surroundings were reduced to chaos.

Amidst that chaos, the Apocalypse Martial Ruler and the others were seen with wounds on their bodies. They looked like a mess.

Standing proudly opposite them was a figure in white, with dazzling Immortal Sparks lighting up around him.

It was as if he was an unparalleled god on the battlefield!

That person was none other than Chu Kuangren!

The aura emitting from his body even frightened some Monarchs. They found it unbelievable.

“A Monarch? Chu Kuangren has become a Monarch?”

Everyone was dumbfounded.

The situation on the battlefield seemed different from what they thought.

Chapter 2263 - 2263 None of You Can Escape, Killing the Black Dragon King, The Terrified Monarchs

Chu Kuangren was holding the Dragonslayer on the battlefield as terrifying surges of Great Daoist law energy swirled around him. His strength had surpassed the level of an ordinary Monarch.

All of their faces had turned pale.

The Great Daoist laws inside their body and even their Monarch Hearts were trembling.

Everyone who saw what happened gasped.

Even the Radiant Goddess looked surprised.

“He’s become so powerful already?”

“No, something’s not right.”

The Radiant Goddess quickly noticed that Chu Kuangren had not reached the Monarch Realm but had achieved that level of strength by using some unknown means.

However, that was evidence of how extraordinary he was.

“I can’t believe Chu Kuangren has reached such a level. How did he do this? By the heavens, this is simply terrifying.”

“This guy... I can’t believe he can overpower four Monarchs.”

“What a monster.”

The Monarchs who noticed what was happening were all dumbfounded.

Even the Devil King, who was observing the event from the Devil Territories, was stunned.

“Ha! It looks like I don’t need to help him anymore.”

Now, she was even more impressed by Chu Kuangren.

Only someone like that could be her future comrade in battle and be worthy of fighting beside her.

When she thought of the inevitable battle that would come in the future, a grim look flashed across the Devil King’s face.

...

“How is this possible?”

In the Dragon Tribe, the Elder Dragon King was watching everything unfold in the Feng Domain. His mouth twitched uncontrollably. He, too, was aware of the invasion taking place in Feng Domain.

Hence, how did things escalate to this point?

“He isn’t even a real Monarch yet. When he becomes one, how terrifying will he be?” The Elder Dragon King wondered.

Although he had regarded Chu Kuangren as a threat to the Dragon Tribe, he believed that the Dragon Tribe, with its vast resources and foundations, was capable of dealing with Chu Kuangren.

However, he had no idea if they could right now.

Was the Dragon Tribe capable of dealing with a monster like that?

“I must stay calm. If things go sour, the Dragon Tribe still has the Elder Forefathers.”

The Elder Dragon King took a deep breath.

The thought of the Elder Forefathers made him feel a little more relief.

Meanwhile, in the Celestial Divine Tribe, the Celestial Divine Tribe Leader also witnessed the great battle happening in Feng Domain. He pondered. “To think such an overpowered Prodigy exists in the human race. If this person doesn’t die in this era, he’ll surely become a Monarch — one that may surpass the Tempest King!”

At that thought, a cold glint flashed in his eyes.

Much like the Dragon Tribe, the Celestial Divine Tribe was very ancient too.

Compared to the human race, they had appeared far earlier in this world. However, the human race's advancement surpassed theirs, eventually making them the masters of the universe.

That fact displeased him.

During the previous era, the Tempest King reigned supreme.

Now, this era had produced someone known as Chu Kuangren.

The more talented individuals the human race produced, the more upset he was.

"We failed to kill the Tempest King in the previous era, and as for this era, we can't allow Chu Kuangren to remain any longer. The Monarch Seeds of the Celestial Divine Tribe must be ordered to take action. It's time to summon them to the Great Hongmeng Universe," the Celestial Divine Tribe Leader thought.

...

In Feng Domain, Chu Kuangren, armed with the Dragonslayer, looked at the Martial Ruler indifferently.

“Die.”

“Whoosh!”

As soon as Chu Kuangren said that, he instantly disappeared. When he reappeared, he was already in front of the Black Dragon King, whom he swung his Dragonslayer at.

“B*stard!”

He unleashed a strike with his claw!

However, his dragon claw was nothing before the likes of such tremendous energy. After it was torn apart, the attack immediately enveloped him.

As dragon scales shattered, dragon blood spilled everywhere.

The Great Dao inside the Black Dragon King’s body blew up.

His Monarch’s Heart also started to crack.

That attack he suffered immediately plunged him to the brink of death.

“What?”

The Black Dragon King looked horrified.

At that moment, the Apocalypse Martial Ruler attacked. He channeled his power to the limit and slashed his scimitar at Chu Kuangren. That attack was filled with nothing but a murderous aura.

Despite that, Chu Kuangren did not evade or dodge.

“I no longer take you seriously,” Chu Kuangren said indifferently.

Then, he swung his Dragonslayer.

The instant the two weapons clashed, the Apocalypse Martial Ruler felt a power he had never felt before from the Dragonslayer.

From just that instant, the Carnage Great Dao inside his body was already showing signs of breaking down.

He was only forced back by a single saber strike, but the bones in his arms were almost shattered from the impact.

There was also a huge hole in the scimitar he was holding.

“Myriad God Striking Lightning!”

“Divine Eightfold Dragon Hunter Slash!”

The Formation King and Dragon Hunter Leader unleashed a combined attack.

The might of his formation technique transformed into thousands of lightning bolts, each containing surges of Great Daoist law energy. That attack struck the surrounding void.

Eight saber rays locked onto various parts of Chu Kuangren’s body.

“Infinity Domain!” Chu Kuangren uttered indifferently.

Suddenly, a terrifying surge of spatial energy spread from him.

That energy instantly surrounded the entire battlefield and formed an invisible barrier in Chu Kuangren’s surroundings, causing the space within that area to distort.

The combined attack from the two Monarchs did him no harm because that spatial barrier blocked it.

After forcefully increasing his cultivation level to the Monarch Realm, it was no surprise that the extent of spatial energy capabilities had also reached an unprecedented level.

“What?”

The Formation King and the Dragon Hunter Leader’s eyes widened in shock when they released how easily Chu Kuangren blocked the combined attack of two Monarchs.

They had no idea how it was possible.

“His combat power is getting incredibly close to the Second-class Monarchs!” The Dragon Hunter Leader gulped and said.

“I’m not a match for him! I must escape right now!”

That thought suddenly popped up in the Formation King’s mind.

Even the Dragon Hunter Leader and the Apocalypse Martial Ruler were thinking of escaping.

“Hmph! None of you can hope to escape!”

Chu Kuangren chuckled, and his gaze turned cold as he took out the Timespace Treasure.

With the Infinity Domain, Timespace Treasure, and Chu Kuangren's current Monarch-level capabilities, the surroundings were instantly transformed into an impenetrable prison. Even a Monarch would find it hard to escape.

"Now, tear him apart!"

Chu Kuangren swung his Dragonslayer again, locking his attack on the already severely wounded Black Dragon King.

That weapon was already a natural counter for all dragons, but when paired with Chu Kuangren's current level of strength, the power he unleashed was nothing short of terrifying.

The Black Dragon King's body was immediately sliced in half!

Large amounts of Great Daoist law energy leaked out.

Chu Kuangren's eyes lit up. He quickly activated the Heavenly-devouring Technique, forcibly absorbing the Black Dragon King's Great Daoist law energy. He was trying to extend his peak state by force.

He might even be trying to become more powerful!

The Monarchs secretly observing the battle felt their scalps go numb.

"Is the Heaven-devouring Technique capable of devouring one's Daoist laws too?"

“By the heavens, this cultivation technique the Tempest King created is too terrifying. I wonder what level of cultivation she is at now.”

“I’m afraid she’s already a First-seat Monarch.”

The onlookers were shocked.

As for the Apocalypse Martial Ruler and others battling Chu Kuangren, they had started to feel terrified too.

Chapter 2264 - 2264 Ming Fei’s Arrival, The Radiant Goddess Takes Action, The Dragon Hunter Leader’s Pride

“Damn it! Apocalyptic Demon Martial Art, Thousand Martial Zenith!”

However, his attack was not aimed at Chu Kuangren.

It was aimed at the surroundings instead.

He wanted to break through the restrictions imposed by the Infinity Domain.

“What a fool!” Chu Kuangren uttered coldly.

Then, he raised his hand, gathering the surrounding spatial energy toward him.

When the palm attack was unleashed, a spatial power akin to the might of millions of divine mountains crushed forward, shattering the Apocalypse Martial Ruler's technique and hitting his body.

Following that, a saber ray shot out from Chu Kuangren's Dragonslayer.

It tore the Apocalypse Martial Ruler's body apart on the spot, and the Monarch's Heart inside his body was trembling violently.

"Damn it!"

"Chu Kuangren, I'm killing you no matter what it takes!" the Apocalypse Martial Ruler yelled.

A powerful surging burst of murderous aura erupted from his Monarch's Heart. He was activating some sort of secret technique to increase his power!

Suddenly, screams and cries were heard all over Myriad Arms City.

Chu Kuangren turned to look at what was going on.

He noticed that the people affected were the remnant survivors of the Apocalypse Martial Society who cultivated the Apocalypse Demon Martial Art. Their power was forcibly absorbed and devoured by the Apocalypse Martial Ruler!

“I knew it. You tampered with the Apocalypse Demon Martial Art,” Chu Kuangren commented.

“Everything they’ve achieved was bestowed upon by me in the first place. I’m simply taking back what’s mine,” the Apocalypse Martial Ruler replied coldly.

With his cultivation level increased, he released a powerful Carnage Daoist law light ray from his scimitar. That attack shot toward Chu Kuangren with overwhelming power.

“Just die!”

Chu Kuangren raised his hand and swung his sword down.

While Chu Kuangren was busy fighting the Apocalypse Martial Ruler, the Formation King and Dragon Hunter Leader looked at each other. After exchanging a gaze, both of them fled.

The allied troops from the respective forces also started escaping when they saw the Monarchs fleeing.

“It’s over. It’s all over. Let’s get out of here. Even our Monarchs have escaped, for heaven’s sake.”

“That’s right. We’ll be done for we don’t leave right now.”

While everyone was panicking and frantically escaping, a powerful burst of Radiant energy suddenly erupted in the void.

A huge bridge appeared and extended forward from the void. It was the Radiant Bridge, and on it stood a person.

With her golden hair fluttering in the wind, the figure clad in silver armor exuded a majestic presence as her powerful Supreme Honorable aura surged mercilessly. That person was none other than the Radiant Right Sky King, Ming Fei!

Her gaze was ice-cold, and the army of Holy Knights behind her charged into the battlefield.

“Chu Kuangren is the Child of Light chosen by the Radiant Goddess, yet all of you have been targeting him, defying Her Holiness’s authority time and time again! This unforgivable crime shall be punished with death!” Ming Fei said coldly.

She unleashed a great slash with her sword, effortlessly slicing Yinglong Feng in half.

Wine Honorable was amazed by her.

“This person, Ming Fei, should have just ascended to the Supreme Honorable Realm recently, but to think that she can unleash such high levels of combat strength and have already conjured her Daoist Law power. Her talents and abilities are almost on par with the Radiant Goddess back in the day.”

Following Ming Fei’s arrival, the coalition armies of the enemy were gradually wiped out.

Naturally, the Pan Gu Sect cultivators would not stand by and do nothing either. They quickly joined the fray, killing as many as they could, and the allied troops fled in panic.

“After this battle, the foundations and strength of Pan Gu Sect will increase significantly!”

Seeing the enemy troops being killed on the battlefield and the countless treasure items dropping from them, Li Jun smiled with delight.

“Perhaps this was what the Sect Leader was planning in mind. He knew earlier on that such a battle was inevitable, so he decided to use this battle to strengthen the Pan Gu Sect,” the Heavenly Grandmaster said.

Upon hearing that, the others’ admiration for Chu Kuangren grew.

“The Sect Leader’s plans and intentions are truly unpredictable.”

“Under his leadership, Pan Gu Sect will surely prosper and become well known throughout the Infiniverse.”

On the Radiant Bridge, Ming Fei watched the battle between Chu Kuangren and the Apocalypse Martial Ruler with shock. “I can’t believe he has become so powerful in such a short time. Is this the legendary Child of Light who is destined to fight the Doomsday Darkness? How extraordinary.”

She then turned her gaze toward somewhere else.

It was the direction the Formation King and Dragon Hunter Leader were fleeing in.

“There’s no way you both can escape,” she mumbled.

Two figures had traveled thousands of kilometers.

They were the Formation King and the Dragon Hunter Leader.

While Chu Kuangren was battling the Apocalypse Martial Ruler, both of them took the chance to leave Feng Domain. With their Monarch cultivation level, they could have covered thousands of kilometers in the blink of an eye.

Traveling across entire domains within moments was nothing to cultivators like them.

However, they realized that no matter where they went, they were still in Feng Domain!

It was as if an invisible energy was trapping them.

“It’s the space itself!”

“Chu Kuangren is controlling the space here. The entire Feng Domain is under his control. I’m not sure how wide of an area he has covered, but it won’t be easy for us to leave now,” the Formation King said grimly.

That level of spatial cultivation technique was too extraordinary even for him.

He was afraid that it might be an Absolute Dao cultivation technique.

However, he could not understand where Chu Kuangren got his cultivation techniques from.

Ultimate divine weapons, Absolute Dao cultivation techniques, formation techniques, weaponsmithing... How did Chu Kuangren have so many techniques, and why were all of them so terrifying?

“Since we can’t leave, let’s destroy this place!” the Dragon Hunter Leader said coldly.

He held his long saber and started channeling his Great Daoist law energy.

At that moment, a dazzling light suddenly erupted from the surroundings. Endless light descended from the skies, forming a vast Radiant path.

A divine figure could be seen approaching them from the end of the great Radiant path.

She was in an immaculate white robe and holding a scepter in her hand. Her entire body was shrouded in radiance, and she had a cold and majestic expression on her gorgeous face.

Her divinity was simply inviolable.

“The Radiant Goddess!”

The Formation King was horrified when he saw who it was.

However, he had expected it.

With the Purple Cloud Miasma Formation already destroyed, there was no way the outside world would not notice the battle going on in the Feng Domain. Besides, Chu Kuangren was the Child of Light, whom she highly regarded. How could the Radiant Goddess possibly stand idly by?

“Are you ready to face the judgment of light, Formation King?” the Radiant Goddess asked.

She lightly tapped her scepter in the air, and her dense Radiant aura poured out like a raging ocean, slamming into the surroundings.

The Radiant aura put a serious look on the Formation King and Dragon Hunter Leader’s faces.

“Well, it’s two against one, so we do stand a chance,” the Dragon Hunter Leader said.

He took out a Dragon’s Heart, looking hesitant. However, he crushed it in the end and absorbed its energy into his body.

In an instant, the injuries from his fight with Chu Kuangren rapidly healed.

“To think you’re using the Dragon Heart’s power as a Dragon Hunter. It looks like you’ve forsaken your dignity,” the Radiant Goddess said calmly.

“You’ve trampled on my dignity so many times today. The only way I can reclaim it is by surviving this!” The Dragon Hunter Leader harrumphed.

As a Dragon Hunter, he joined forces with the Dragon Tribe, and as the Dragon Hunter Leader, he could not take back the divine weapon that belonged to the Dragon Hunters. As a Monarch, he joined forces with other Monarchs just to kill a young junior cultivator and was even beaten and forced to flee...

Now, in order to survive, he was willing to harness the power from a Dragon’s Heart, which he detested so much.

The Dragon Hunter Leader’s pride had been reduced to almost nothing.

All he wanted was to survive.

When there was life, there was hope. Being alive was the only way he could regain everything.

“Attack!”

The Dragon Hunter Leader grunted as he swung his long saber toward the Radiant Goddess.

Domineering surges of Daoist law energy swept forward.

However, at that moment, a black vortex appeared in the void.

A charming and captivating voice sounded from inside that vortex. “I can’t believe two Monarchs are ganging up on a little young lady. It seems to me that the both of you really have no shame.”

Chapter 2265 - 2265 The Celestial Dzi Bead Self-destructs, Four Monarchs, All Wiped Out

I can’t believe two Monarchs are ganging up on a little young lady. It seems to me that the both of you really have no shame.” A charming voice sounded from the vortex.

A giant hand made from black Daoist law energy reached out from the black vortex, shattering the Dragon Hunter Leader’s attack effortlessly.

It sent him flying in the next instant, causing him to crash into the ground like a meteor strike. The crash formed a huge crater in the ground.

With just that single attack, the Dragon Hunter Leader, who had recovered from most of his injuries after absorbing the Dragon’s Heart, was more heavily injured than before.

The Formation King was shocked.

“This power...”

Inside the black vortex, a woman with a pair of wings on her back and dressed in black lavish robes slowly walked out. Her breathtaking appearance was seductive, captivating all who laid eyes on her.

She also carried the pride and majesty of a ruler.

The person who was none other than the Devil King.

“Little young lady?”

The Radiant Goddess raised her brows at the Devil King’s words.

She, the Radiant Goddess and a Monarch-level being, was referred to as a little young lady?

For that, the Radiant Goddess thought the Devil King was too much.

However, the Devil King was here to help her, so she should keep herself calm.

Although the Devil King seemed to notice the Radiant Goddess’s displeasure, she did not show any sign of restraint. Instead, she doubled down. “Little young lady, as long as you call me your ‘elder sister’, I’ll help take care of these two for you.”

“No need.”

The veins on the Radiant Goddess's scepter-wielding hand popped out.

She hid her displeasure and replied calmly.

"What a shame. I've always wanted a younger sister to take care of," the Devil King lamented with regret.

The Radiant Goddess did not bother to reply.

The Radiant Goddess and Devil King were two of the three Monarchs who had Chu Kuangren's back. The Devil King, especially, possessed unpredictable and unfathomable strength.

With the arrival of those two, the Formation King and Dragon Hunter Leader's chances of survival were almost completely wiped out!

...

Meanwhile, Chu Kuangren was still battling the Apocalypse Martial Ruler.

The instant their ultimate attacks collided, both of them were forced back. However, Chu Kuangren then made a surprise move by throwing out a bead-like object.

It was a Hongmeng Supreme Treasure!

It was the Celestial Dzi Bead that he obtained from Ou Chen, the weaponsmith, in the past.

Upon seeing that, the Apocalypse Martial Ruler quickly unleashed an attack, striking the Celestial Dzi Bead.

The instant his saber made contact with the bead, an inexplicably terrifying energy suddenly erupted from the Celestial Dzi Bead. Even the Apocalypse Martial Ruler was afraid of the energy.

“Oh no!”

The Apocalypse Martial Ruler immediately pulled back his saber and quickly retreated. However, it was too late. Waves of dazzling energy poured out from the Celestial Dzi Bead, swallowing him within it.

Upon witnessing the scene from afar, Wine Honorable and Ming Fei were amazed.

“Did he just make a Hongmeng Supreme Treasure self-destruct?”

“What a guy! That takes guts...”

A Hongmeng Supreme Treasure was something that even Monarchs valued highly, but the same could not be said for Chu Kuangren, seeing that he made one self-destruct.

However, when the two of them recalled the Ultimate Divine Weapon in Chu Kuangren's hand, they no longer felt surprised. After all, a Hongmeng Supreme Treasure was inferior to an Ultimate Divine Weapon.

Waves of energy poured out everywhere.

Amidst it all, a disheveled figure walked out from within.

"Oh, still alive, huh?" Chu Kuangren asked indifferently.

That figure was the Apocalypse Martial Ruler.

Even if he survived, he was not in a good condition.

He was bleeding all over while the Great Dao inside him had crumbled. Strands of Daoist law energy were leaking everywhere from him, and his Monarch's Heart was critically injured. He was like a porcelain pot riddled with cracks. With just a little touch, it would immediately shatter into pieces.

Seeing him, Chu Kuangren immediately raised his hand and activated the Heavenly-devouring Technique.

He absorbed all the Daoist law energy leaking from the Apocalypse Martial Ruler.

Not only did Chu Kuangren intend to kill him, but he also wanted to absorb his Daoist laws before killing him.

That was just too cruel.

“Chu Kuangren...” The Apocalypse Martial Ruler gritted his teeth.

However, before he could finish his sentence, Chu Kuangren had appeared before him. Having channeled an overwhelming power in his Dragonslayer, he swung it forward.

“I can’t be f*cked to listen to your obituary.”

“Whoosh!”

A saber ray shot out, shattering the Apocalypse Martial Ruler’s Monarch Heart completely!

Chu Kuangren absorbed all of the fragments into his body. A Monarch’s Heart fragments were extremely invaluable as the Great Daoist laws inside them could be studied and even used to obtain a temporary boost of power.

After killing the Apocalypse Martial Ruler, Chu Kuangren noticed a black ring on the man’s finger, and it piqued his interest.

Almost nothing remained on the Apocalypse Martial Ruler after the Hongmeng Supreme Treasure self-destructed. Even his scimitar, which was a Hongmeng Supreme Treasure, was broken into pieces, yet that ring was unscathed.

He took the ring and looked at it.

The fact that the ring could resist the destructive power of a Hongmeng Supreme Treasure meant it was made from extraordinary material. Many very ancient patterns were also inscribed on it, with a horrifying power emanating from them. “This is... the God of Slaughter’s Ring! ”

The moment it entered his possession, Chu Kuangren understood the name of the ring.

He kept the ring, planning to spend some time studying it properly in the future.

“Alright, it’s time to deal with the other two,” Chu Kuangren said nonchalantly.

He looked toward the direction where the Formation King and Dragon Hunter Leader fled.

The power of the Water Nation Warring Map was almost depleted.

He must finish things as quickly as he could.

“Whoosh!”

His figure instantly disappeared.

The entire Feng Domain was enveloped by the Infinity Domain. Due to that, he could sense where everything was and appear wherever he wished.

...

“What’s that energy?”

While the Formation King and Dragon Hunter Leader were facing the Radiant Goddess and Devil King, a sudden eruption of energy appeared in the distance.

That energy was created by the self-destruction of a Hongmeng Supreme Treasure.

They could not help but shudder.

“Oh, he’s here.” The Devil King chuckled.

The moment she said that, a figure in white appeared in front of the Formation King and Dragon Hunter Leader. It was Chu Kuangren.

The outcome of the battle was already decided following his arrival.

“Chu Kuangren!”

There was a look of horror on the Formation King and Dragon Hunter Leader’s faces.

“The Apocalypse Martial Ruler is dead? How did he die so quickly?”

“It’s that energy earlier.”

Chu Kuangren was not in the mood to explain anything either.

He raised his Dragonslayer high, and with a swing of his sword, the Formation King and Dragon Hunter Leader were sent flying away.

“Tsk. An Ultimate Divine Weapon, huh? Not bad,” the Devil King uttered with amazement.

She looked at the Dragonslayer, and there was a hint of nostalgia in her eyes. “I wonder where my Ultimate Divine Weapon has ended up.”

A very long time ago, she possessed an Ultimate Divine Weapon too.

However, she eventually lost it.

The Devil's Edge she possessed was forged later on after that.

“Chu Kuangren, don't get too pleased with yourself. The tallest trees catch the most wind. Things will never end well for you!” the Formation King yelled angrily at Chu Kuangren.

By then, his body was already covered with wounds.

All Chu Kuangren did was swing his sword forward again, and the Formation King was dead.

His next target was the Dragon Hunter Leader.

Seeing the Dragonslayer piercing his chest, the Dragon Hunter Leader was filled with resignation. “This Dragonslayer belongs to me... It belongs to me...”

He met his unwilling end on the Divine Weapon that he had long sought after.

With his death, it meant that the four Monarchs who came to attack the Pan Gu Sect were all wiped out!

Chapter 2266 - 2266 Just The Doomsday Darkness, Devil King's Joke? Close Brother In Arms

After wiping out all four Monarchs, Chu Kuangren collected the fragments of their Monarch's Heart. At the same time, the effect of the Water Nation Warring Map Formation dissipated as well.

He could not help but feel disappointed and frustrated.

After getting a taste of the Monarch's power, he felt that his current Grand Dao Supreme God cultivation level was too weak. He even felt disgusted.

“Master, please get your thoughts right. Your ascension to Monarch was purely made possible by external factors. It's not your real cultivation realm,” Lil Ai said.

Chu Kuangren nodded. He was not that weak to be affected by a sudden mood swing.

It was just the Monarch Realm. If he could kill four Monarchs today, he could break through to the Monarch Realm soon.

After the battle with the four Monarchs, he felt like he should ascend to the next stage.

“He's really just a Grand Dao Supreme God...”

“One Grand Dao cultivator killed four Monarchs. Am I going insane, or is this world insane? This is outrageous!”

The cultivators who sensed the commotion at Feng Domain and came to have a look were shocked. They all gasped when they sensed Chu Kuangren's true cultivation level.

All the Monarchs of the Great Hongmeng Universe were silenced because they just witnessed a nearly impossible miracle happening before their eyes.

“If Chu Kuangren doesn’t die, he will definitely overpower everyone in this era.”

The voice came from a certain corner of the universe after a while.

The Monarchs who heard the voice pondered deeply, but some Monarchs from the older forces were aggrieved.

“He’s not even a real Monarch. He just got to that height with external help. If he’s trying to overpower us all in this era, there’s still a long way for him to go.”

“That’s right. It’s still too soon to say he’s the one. We still don’t know who will ascend to the Monarch Realm first this era and be blessed by the fortune energy of this era to overpower all.”

“That’s right...”

“The Tempest King rose to prominence after she became a Monarch and got the fortune blessing of the era. It’s still too soon to determine the final winner.”

The ancient Monarchs raised their voices.

They represented the oldest and strongest forces across the Infiniverse.

They would never surrender the chance, even though Chu Kuangren displayed terrifying talents and power. They still wanted to compete.

“Thank you for your help.”

“You shoulder the future of the Radiant Tribe. You don’t need to thank me for this,” the Radiant Goddess said.

It was then that Chu Kuangren thought of the Doomsday Sect, so he informed her of the mysterious sect in hiding.

The Radiant Goddess frowned when she heard of the mysterious sect. “An organization that has control over the Doomsday Darkness’ energy? I have never heard of it before.”

“I’m just afraid they have a deep connection with the Doomsday Darkness.”

“I’ll investigate this,” she said.

The Devil King yawned when she heard the conversation. She said, “It’s just the Doomsday Darkness. Why are you so afraid?”

The Radiant Goddess furrowed her brows. “Once the Doomsday Darkness awakens, it will bring endless disaster to the Infiniverse. It shouldn’t be underestimated. The Radiant Tribe has suppressed his power for countless years, and we know how terrifying it could be. Devil King, please don’t take this lightly.”

She was unhappy with the Devil King's frivolous attitude.

The Radiant Tribe had been everywhere because of the Doomsday Darkness, and many sacrifices had been made.

Yet, the Devil King made it sound like the Doomsday Darkness was nothing of concern, which displeased the Radiant Goddess.

It was as if the efforts the Radiant Tribe invested in were nothing but a huge joke.

"Terrifying? I've seen things that are countless times more terrifying than the Doomsday Darkness," the Devil King said softly.

"Nonsense. You make it sound like you can fight the Doomsday Darkness." The Radiant Goddess scoffed and said.

The Devil King shrugged. "Not now."

"Nonsense indeed."

"But if you call me dear sister and the Doomsday Darkness awakens in the future, I will help you to protect the Radiant Tribe. What says you?" the Devil King said cheekily.

“I dare not accept such an offer.” The Radiant Goddess declined coldly.

To her, the Devil King was spewing nonsense and taking her as a fool.

She did not believe a word that came out from the Devil King.

“Chu Kuangren, I have to head back to the Radiant Church, but I will tell Ming Fei to stay behind. If you need help, just let her know.”

With that, the Radiant Goddess left.

As he looked at the Radiant Goddess disappearing from his sight, Chu Kuangren shook his head and then looked at the Devil King. “The Goddess devoted her life and put her entire tribe to fight the Doomsday Darkness. What you said was a little harsh.”

Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes at her. She did not seem like she was joking either.

If so, it would be unbelievable.

Chu Kuangren had seen the power of the Doomsday Darkness. The Radiant Tribe had only sealed one-tenth of its power or less than that.

Yet, such power was already far stronger than a common Monarch.

How terrifying would the Doomsday Darkness be if it was at its prime?

However, the Devil King said she had seen things countless times more terrifying than the Doomsday Darkness.

What could that be?

Chu Kuangren's heart suddenly felt heavy.

On another note, the Devil King did not seem concerned about the Doomsday Darkness. Did it mean she was more terrifying than the Doomsday Darkness?

Was she only a Monarch?

Yet, she said she could not beat the Doomsday Darkness.

Wait a minute! The Devil King said not now, so did it mean she could beat the Doomsday Darkness in the future?

The more Chu Kuangren thought, the more mysterious he found the Devil King.

“Little one, don't think so much. I don't like you frowning.”

Then, a waft of aroma blew on his face.

The Devil King was a few inches away from Chu Kuangren as she stroked his furrowed brows gently. Her slender fingertips felt icy cold.

The touch was brief.

When Chu Kuangren regained his composure, the Devil King had retreated.

She chuckled. “Little one, grow stronger. I’m sure you will be my most intimate ally.”

She emphasized the word ‘intimate’ and teased him.

Then, a black vortex appeared behind her.

Before Chu Kuangren could say a word, she jumped in and left Feng Domain.

“Devil King, Doomsday Darkness, something more terrifying than the Doomsday Darkness, ally... Will there be a war in the future?”

Chu Kuangren pondered, but he did not have any clues either.

The Devil King left him with a bunch of questions and left.

How annoying.

Chu Kuangren shook his head.

He could not do anything about the ancient Devil King, but fortunately, she was not hostile.

“Does she want the eye back?” Chu Kuangren chuckled helplessly as he touched his left eye.

Then, he returned to the Pan Gu Sect.

The battle was still ongoing.

The Pan Gu Sect, the Holy Knights, and some Devil Soldiers were fighting the coalition army.

Even without the Monarchs, the coalition army was from the Monarch-class forces. Among them, there were some Grand Dao Supreme Honorable elites.

It would not be easy trying to fight them all, but it was a piece of cake for Chu Kuangren.

Chapter 2267 Drunk Chu Kuangren, Outrageous Thought, Wine Honorable Plans to Settle Down For Good

Chu Kuangren arrived at the battlefield, and it scared the coalition army, who had not left. They freaked out and started scuttling away. “No! No! He’s back!”

“Damn it!”

The soldiers of the coalition army turned pale. Chu Kuangren raised his hand, activating the Infinity Domain. The space around him was instantly locked, and those who were caught were trapped.

“Kill them!”

Lan Yu, Shang Honghua, and the others were delighted by the sudden turn of events. They attacked, and with the help of the Infinity Domain, they used the least time to wipe out the coalition army.

After a brutal massacre, the battlefield was blanketed with dead bodies.

All the cultivators of the Pan Gu Sect exuded strong rage qi. That unique battle had provided them with a form of growth that could never be achieved through conventional cultivation.

The battle gave them good training.

“Next would be to collect the spoils of war,” Chu Kuangren said.

After wiping out the coalition army, the dead soldiers left behind many good things.

There were countless treasures on the battlefield, and they were all crucial resources to the Pan Gu Sect.

“Master!” A figure arrived before Chu Kuangren and bowed.

Chu Kuangren glanced at the familiar figure. It was Heavenly Shadow.

After the Purple Cloud Miasma Formation was destroyed, not only did the Devil King come to his aid, but her Devil Soldiers came as well, and Heavenly Shadow was the leader of them. “You’re improving quite well,” Chu Kuangren said with a nod. He found out that Heavenly Shadow was already a Grand Dao Supreme God.

“It’s all because the Devil King trained me well,” Heavenly Shadow said. While he was training in the Devil Territory, he ran into the Devil King, who took him in and raised him. Chu Kuangren reacted strangely to that information.

“Does she know about you and me?”

“She hasn’t said a word about it, but I believe she knows.”

Heavenly Shadow once possessed the Devil Edge. There was a weapon spirit inside the Devil Edge, and it knew Heavenly Shadow quite well. Hence, there was no doubt it knew about his relationship with Chu Kuangren as well.

There was no way the Devil King did not know about that.

Chu Kuangren pondered. The Devil King knew Heavenly Shadow served him, yet she trained him closely.

Why? Was she training Heavenly Shadow for him?

No. She was training her future ally.

Chu Kuangren thought of the ally that the Devil King mentioned. He believed there would be a war in the future, and she was raising her own allies.

As for who her allies served, she did not care.

“The Devil King is really unpredictable.”

Chu Kuangren shook his head and then looked at Ming Fei.

It was their first meeting after she ascended to the Grand Dao Supreme Honorable Realm.

Even he admitted that Ming Fei was talented. She was a lot more talented than the Radiant Left Sky King.

The moment she ascended to the Grand Dao Supreme Honorable Realm, she ranked in the top ten on the leaderboard.

“It’s been a while,” Chu Kuangren greeted.

Chu Kuangren smiled. “Care for a drink?”

He took a jar of A Fleeting Dream out.

“That’s...” Ming Fei’s eyes gleamed with interest. Her gut told her it was a good wine, if not the best. “Sure.” she nodded.

“Hahaha! How can you leave me out when there’s wine?”

Wine Honorable came.

“Senior, you are, of course, invited.” Chu Kuangren chuckled.

He then left Li Jun and the others in charge of cleaning up the battlefield.

As for him, Ming Fei, and the Wine Honorable, the three of them went drinking in a quiet place.

A Fleeting Dream was a strong wine, and the three of them enjoyed it a lot.

Chu Kuangren had just finished a battle, so he drank a lot. He was so happy that he did not use his cultivation to suppress the drunkenness. He allowed the wine to take over.

When Lan Yu got to him, he was already drunk.

As for Ming Fei and the Wine Honorable, they were also tipsy. Ming Fei took two jars of unopened A Fleeting Dream and smiled charmingly. “This is good wine. I’ll bring some back for the Goddess.”

“Hey! Don’t touch my wine!” The Wine Honorable got grumpy and wanted to take the jars of wine away from her, but Ming Fei kicked him away.

Lan Yu was speechless when she saw the drunken trio.

She went to carry Chu Kuangren and then told the others to help clean up the mess.

“Geez. He just finished a battle, and he has gotten himself drunk,” Lan Yu said as she looked at the drunk Chu Kuangren.

“Lan Yu...”

Chu Kuangren sensed her presence and did not reject her. He even hugged her waist. “Do you want to drink too?”

“No, thank you. If I’m drunk, who’s going to take care of you?” Lan Yu said helplessly, but she had an affectionate look on her face.

“Please, let me be drunk for a while,” Chu Kuangren begged with a grin.

It was rare for him to feel light and comfortable; it was intoxicating.

In addition to Lan Yu’s embrace and her aromatic scent, he even had the thought of hugging her for life.

“It’s okay.” Lan Yu looked at Chu Kuangren in her arms. She stared at his red cheeks and tipsy look gently. “You can count on me for life.” Soon, Li Jun and the others arrived.

At that moment, Lan Yu disappeared with Chu Kuangren. She did not want others to see Chu Kuangren drunk because she wanted to be the only one. “Huh? Where’s Lan Yu?”

Li Jun and the others were confused.

Then, they saw Ming Fei and the Wine Honorable collapsed on the floor, drunk.

The two of them were the strongest cultivators beneath a Monarch, one ranked first and the other ranked seventh on the Supreme Honorable Leaderboard.

However, both of them were drunk.

Li Jun and others were baffled, wondering what they should do with the two of them.

“Let’s bring them back first.”

“Yeah.”

...

“My head hurts...” Chu Kuangren woke up slowly. When he saw the familiar ceiling, he realized he was in his own room.

“A Fleeting Dream is really strong.”

That would be the effect of him not suppressing wine with his cultivation.

He would have been drunk for years.

“Master, you’re awake.”

Lan Yu came in when she heard a noise inside the room.

“Lan Yu, how long have I been asleep?”

“Two years.”

“Not too long. I thought a few thousand years had passed.” Chu Kuangren smiled.

After all, A Fleeting Dream was strong enough to make one drunk for a thousand years.

Lan Yu then updated Chu Kuangren about what happened in the past two years.

Two years were a blink of an eye to a cultivator, so nothing really happened.

The battlefield had been cleaned up, and all the collected spoils of war had been arranged and categorized.

As for casualties, since Chu Kuangren prepared them well for the war, and with the help of the Wine Honorable and Ming Fei, the Pan Gu Sect barely suffered any casualties.

They won a beautiful battle.

“Hmm. Next, I would have to get myself together and digest what we got from the battle. Oh, where’s Ming Fei and Wine Honorable?” Chu Kuangren asked about his drinking buddies.

“Ming Fei left after she woke up. As for Wine Honorable, he’s still in the Pan Gu Sect, and he seems to be thinking about settling down.”

“Settling down? Really?”

Wine Honorable was ranked first on the Supreme Honorable Leaderboard. With him settling down in the Pan Gu Sect, it would be a great help to Chu Kuangren.

What a steal!

Chapter 2268 Gu Linglong and Yu Ling, Mr. Fortune Teller, Fate of a Benefactor

After the fierce battle, all of Pan Gu Sect rested and regrouped.

Chu Kuangren was also planning to enter closed-door meditation.

It was a harvest fighting the four Monarchs. He gave a part of the Monarch’s Heart to Lan Yu so that she could distribute it to the others.

However, he kept the Apocalypse Martial Ruler’s Monarch’s Heart for himself.

“You could come back to life back then, but can you do it again now?”

Chu Kuangren chuckled as he looked at the fragmented Monarch’s Heart. Then, he used the Heaven-devouring Technique to absorb it and forcefully refine it.

Even though the Dao that the Apocalypse Martial Ruler cultivated was not Chu Kuangren’s main Dao, it was able to provide some reference for studying.

Even if he could not accept the Apocalypse Martial Ruler’s Dao, the Heaven-devouring Technique could convert it into pure Great Dao energy to boost his cultivation. Despite losing a lot of the Monarch’s Heart energy, he was able to stay loyal to his Dao.

After all, his Dao was the best for himself.

“After this battle, my Invincible Self-empowering Dao should level up. Maybe I can reach Supreme Honorable in one go,” he thought to himself.

He was in the Grand Dao Supreme God Realm and wanted to jump straight to the Grand Dao Supreme Honorable Realm.

It was an unimaginable miracle to other cultivators, but it was possible for him. It was also proof that his battle with the four Monarchs was a huge harvest.

While Chu Kuangren was in closed-door meditation, the Pan Gu Sect progressed in an orderly manner. In the blink of an eye, a hundred years went by.

In those hundred years, other major forces did not move against the Pan Gu Sect anymore.

Four Monarchs died in the Feng Domain.

The news was enough to scare off all the other forces.

In fact, the impact of that battle was much more than one could imagine.

The news of Chu Kuangren killing four Monarchs spread like wildfire across the Great Hongmeng Universe. Countless cultivators were shocked.

Even the Pan Gu Sect's name became well-known by many. Millions of cultivators came to the Feng Domain and wanted to join the Pan Gu Sect.

Everyone believed the Pan Gu Sect would be the next Monarch-class force.

In fact, with Chu Kuangren around, the sect would grow beyond a common Monarch-class force.

Since the Pan Gu Sect was still growing, it would be a great time to join.

Myriad Arms City was lively and bustling with people. Most people had come to the city to take the entrance exam.

Two feminine figures walked on the bustling street together.

The two girls looked beautiful.

One of them wore a long dress and had a graceful temperament. Every move she made carried a hint of nobility to it. The other girl looked energetic with her delicate facial features.

“Myriad Arms City is amazing!” the energetic girl exclaimed as she looked around the bustling street.

“It is.” The graceful girl chuckled. “Sister Linglong, do you think we can join the Pan Gu Sect?” the energetic girl said worriedly.

The girl’s name was Yu Ling, an independent cultivator. She had come to the Great Hongmeng Universe from her universe for Opportunities of Fortune, but due to her lack of background, she was a target for bullies.

Without connections, it was difficult for her to join the bigger forces.

Yu Ling was confident in her talent, but she was worried that she might not be accepted into the Pan Gu Sect.

“Ling’er, you need to have some confidence in yourself,” Gu Linglong said with a smile.

‘Sister Linglong, don’t worry. If I can join the Pan Gu Sect, I will recommend you to them! Then, we can be together.’

“Thank you, Linger, but I think I can join without any sort of recommendation.” Gu Linglong smiled as she looked in the direction of the Pan Gu Sect.

“Sister Linglong, you are so confident! We’ll see about that!”

As a matter of fact, Gu Linglong’s cultivation level was lower than Yu Ling’s, and she was not that talented.

If Yu Ling lacked the confidence to pass the entrance exam, it was unlikely that Gu Linglong would be accepted without a recommendation. However, Yu Ling kept her thoughts to herself. She swore to clear the entrance exam and bring Gu Linglong along so that they could live better lives.

For many years, she has been wandering in the Great Hongmeng Universe. Even though she was pretty strong, she was without background and had been bullied by many major forces.

She ran into Gu Linglong, and they helped each other out until today. They were as close as real sisters.

“Sister Linglong, there’s a fortune teller. Let’s go have a look!”

Yu Ling spotted a stall that provided fortune-telling services.

Hence, they went over to have a look.

The fortune teller's eyes were closed, and he had Daoist robes on him. When he sensed their arrival, he asked, "What do you girls want to know?"

"Can you tell me if I can pass the Pan Gu Sect's entrance exam?" Yu Ling asked.

The fortune teller was not surprised. Many visitors had asked him the same question in the past couple of days.

"One hundred Primordial Crystals."

"That's so expensive!"

"I specialize in Destiny Dao, and I assure you it's worth every crystal."

"Fine."

Yu Ling paid the man one hundred Primordial Crystals.

The fortune teller started to channel his energy to summon Destiny's Gate. His closed eyes opened up into a creek and glanced at Yu Ling.

There seemed to be six pupils circling inside his eyes.

“You are a Six Eyes?”

Yu Ling was surprised, but it also increased her confidence in the fortune teller.

The Six Eyes Tribe was closely related to the Destiny Dao.

They were ancient and mysterious.

“Miss, your entrance exam will have some troubles, but you will pass it without any major problems. There’s also a benefactor ahead waiting for you,” the fortune teller said.

Yu Ling was worried at first, but she breathed a sigh of relief after.

Then, she moved closer to Gu Linglong and asked, “Mister, can you tell my sister’s fortune as well? Tell me if she will be accepted into the Pan Gu Sect.”

She paid the man another one hundred Primordial Crystals.

She called the service expensive just now, yet she was spending it without a second thought on Gu Linglong.

“Ling’er, I don’t need it,” Gu Linglong said.

“This fortune teller is something. Let’s just get him to tell our fortune!” Yu Ling whispered in her ears.

“Okay. Fine.”

“Let us begin.”

The fortune teller opened his eyes into a creak to glance at Gu Linglong.

Suddenly, he saw a burst of elegant and graceful qi from Gu Linglong and a blast of radiating divine light around her. The light was so bright that it was blinding.

“Gasp!”

The fortune teller gasped in shock and quickly closed his eyes.

“Miss, please take the Primordial Crystals back!”

He pushed the two hundred Primordial Crystals back.

“Mister, what’s wrong?”

“Let’s just say fate brought us together and consider it a service for today.”

“Mister, you haven’t told me if my sister will be accepted into the Pan Gu Sect.”

The fortune teller hesitated for a moment and said, “This young lady here has a noble destiny, which is rare. I can’t read anything, but if the Pan Gu Sect had people specializing in Destiny Dao, they would never miss a benefactor like her.”

“Really?”

Yu Ling looked at the man and gave the two hundred Primordial Crystals back to him. She said, “This is the price we agreed upon. Take it.”

The fortune teller was surprised, but he then chuckled. “Miss, you’re a smart one.”

He wanted to make an acquaintance with the girls using the two hundred Primordial Crystals, and Gu Linglong would be karmically in debt to him. However, Yu Ling saw through his trick and rejected him.

Chapter 2269 Yu Ling Joins the Exam, Gu Lingling Reunites With the Others

“Come on, Sister Linglong. Let’s go.”

Yu Ling brought Gu Linglong away from the fortune teller's stall. The fortune teller saw them off. He took an extra glance at Gu Linglong and shook his head in awe.

"It's rare to see such a benefactor in the Infiniverse, but from the looks of her talents and cultivation level, she's not the best. How could her fate be so noble? "I also sensed that her fate is closely related to something else. I tried having a glance, but my heart was pounding wildly already. Could it be that her fate is noble because of someone else?"

It was not entirely impossible.

Fate and destiny were ever-changing.

Some were born with a poor life, but with the right opportunities, such as having a benefactor in their lives, their fate would ascend to nobility or more.

It was also the reason why the fortune teller wanted to make an acquaintance with Gu Linglong.

Knowing someone with such a noble fate was only beneficial.

"If she's noble because of someone else, how powerful is that person to affect her fate to this extent?"

The fortune teller was astonished.

Not even a Monarch's fate was capable of that.

...

“Ling’er, you’ve been staring at me for a while now,” Gu Linglong said with annoyance.

Since they left the fortune-telling stall, Yu Ling had been staring at Gu Linglong.

“Sister Linglong, the fortune teller said you have a noble fate. Are you some powerful figure of some powerful force?” Yu Ling asked curiously.

“I used to be the empress of a country, but the strongest person there was only a Primordial,” Gu Linglong said.

She was not lying.

Ever since the Great Hongmeng Universe opened up, most of the elites of the Pan Gu Universe came here, and only the Primordials were left back home. They were the most common Primordials as well.

“Is that so?” Yu Long thought for a while and decided to put the question to rest.

If she called Gu Linglong her sister, no matter what her fate was, be it noble or cheap, she would still be her sister.

“Come on. Let’s go join the Pan Gu Sect’s evaluation exam.”

“Alright!”

Gu Linglong nodded and looked forward to it.

...

Cultivators from all over the universe came to the Pan Gu Sect, wanting to join.

As such, the examination venue was lively and crowded.

Yu Ling saw the venue flooded with people, and it scared her. “My goodness, can I really pass the exam?”

She felt defeated already.

Gu Linglong said with a smile, “Believe in yourself. The fortune teller told you that you will get the help of a benefactor, so you will surely make it.”

“Yeah, I wonder who the benefactor is.”

Gu Linglong pondered and smiled. “Maybe.”

“Sister Linglong, you sure know how to joke.” Yu Ling did not take it to heart.

There were a few invigilators present for the entrance exams. Yu Ling had done her homework before she arrived and started to introduce Gu Linglong to the invigilators.

“Sister Linglong, you see that woman with silver hair and armor? She’s Lan Yu, a Grand Dao realm cultivator. She’s beautiful, right?

“The one beside her is Nuwa, one of the Human Guardians who is also a Grand Dao cultivator. That old man with white hair is Yang Mei, who is good with Space Dao and unpredictable means. I heard he’s one of the strongest in the Pan Gu Sect...”

Gu Linglong simply smiled at Yu Ling’s introduction. As a matter of fact, she knew them better than Yu Ling.

Lan Yu looked at the people who came for the exam. When she spotted Gu Linglong from the crowd, she was delighted. She wanted to welcome her, but Gu Linglong shook her head.

Lan Yu froze and stopped. She spotted Yu Ling beside Gu Linglong, and it made her think that Gu Linglong had a new sister.

Soon, the exam started.

Yang Mei opened up an artificial forest realm and let the examinees go in. Inside would be the true venue for the exam.

“Yu Ling, I’ll wait for you outside.”

“Sister Linglong, aren’t you coming?”

Yu Ling was slightly baffled, but a sudden realization struck her afterward. “I know! Don’t worry, Sister Linglong, I’ll go in and see what the exam is about, and I’ll tell you afterward. Then, you will have a greater chance at it!”

Gu Linglong simply smiled.

Then, Yu Ling entered the forest realm.

After the examinees entered the forest realm, Lan Yu and the others came over to welcome Gu Linglong.

“Sister Linglong, you’re finally here in the Great Hongmeng Universe!”

“Everyone, it’s been a long time.”

Gu Linglong missed Lan Yu and the others.

“Sister Gu, nice to see you again.”

Li Jun and the others bowed at her. They knew who she was and dared not be disrespectful.

“Greetings, everyone.”

“Sister Linglong, who’s that girl?”

“A companion I met here. She wanted to join the Pan Gu Sect, so I tagged along,” Gu Linglong said.

“If that’s the case, we can accept her directly. She doesn’t have to pass the exam,” Shang Honghua said.

Gu Linglong shook her head. “It’s okay. We can’t break the rules for her. Besides, I believe she can pass the exam with her own abilities.”

After spending some time with Yu Ling, Gu Linglong got to know her personality and abilities.

If Gu Linglong got her into the Pan Gu Sect through nepotism, the girl would not be happy.

Why not let the girl try her best at the exam and join the Pan Gu Sect openly?

Then, she asked about Chu Kuangren.

“Master is in closed-door meditation.”

“I see...”

They chatted, and time flew.

Soon, the exam was over, and as expected, Yu Ling passed the exam. However, Yu Ling did not see Gu Linglong after coming out from the forest realm, which confused her. “Where’s Sister Linglong?”

“Miss, I believe you’re Yu Ling. Am I right?” Li Jun went up to her. “Yes, I am.”

Yu Ling bowed to Li Jun with a fist salute.

Li Jun was a Grand Dao cultivator, someone who ranked high on the Grand Dao Leaderboard, while she was but an Embodier.

“Sister Linglong is a little busy with something, but she will contact you when she’s free. Now that you’ve joined us, let me bring you to your place.”

“Oh, okay.”

Yu Ling was still confused.

Li Jun was one of the higher-ranking members of the Pan Gu Sect, yet he was the one who welcomed Yu Ling. It overwhelmed the girl. She believed she did not stand out in the exam whatsoever.

Besides, the fortune teller said she would face problems in her exams, but it had been a smooth sail until now.

What about her benefactor?

Yu Ling remained confused when Li Jun brought her to the residential area for the new recruits. After she settled down, she sent Gu Linglong a message. When she got to know that Gu Linglong was fine, she breathed a sigh of relief.

On the second day, Yu Ling woke up and started her cultivation.

“Pan Gu Sect is really different. To think a new recruit can enjoy such a beautiful environment!” Yu Ling said gratefully.

Her place had some formations set up for her that would boost her cultivation speed.

“The people inside, listen up! Surrender this place immediately!”

Then, a loud voice came from outside her door.

Yu Ling was confused. “What’s going on?”

She went out to have a look and saw several cultivators standing at her door. They looked hostile. The leader had a jade fan in his hand, seemingly a gentleman but with a vicious gaze.

“What are you guys doing?” Yu Ling asked with furrowed brows.

“It’s simple. Surrender this place to us.”

Chapter 2270 Pan Gu Sect Leader’s Wife, Pros and Cons of Pan Gu Sect

Lan Yu gave Gu Linglong a tour of the Pan Gu Sect.

On the second day, she thought of Yu Ling and went to visit the girl.

She asked Li Jun about Yu Ling’s place and headed to the new recruit’s residential area.

Since Yu Ling knew Gu Linglong, Li Jun had arranged for the girl to stay in probably the best place in the area. She was the only one among the new recruits to enjoy the perks.

However, when Gu Linglong arrived at the place, she saw a group of people in front of Yu Ling's door. The group of men seemed to be threatening the girl to surrender her place. Gu Linglong was infuriated by the scene.

"Who gave you the audacity to start a scene here?" Gu Linglong bellowed.

The group turned around and noticed Gu Linglong was just a common Embodier. The leader grunted and sneered, "You're just an Embodier. Who gave you the confidence to talk back to us?"

"Yeah!"

Yu Ling quickly went over to Gu Linglong. "Sister Linglong!"

"It's okay. I'm here." Gu Linglong consoled the girl.

The leader of the group grunted coldly and said, "My honorable teacher is the executive elder of the Pan Gu Sect. I like this place, so from today onward, this place belongs to me. You people must leave!"

"Executive elder? I wonder what his name is?" Gu Linglong asked.

"You two Embodiers are not worthy of knowing his name." The man with the jade fan scoffed.

"Oh? What about me?" A frosty voice came from outside.

A woman with silver hair walked into the yard.

“Elder Lan Yu!”

“What? What’s Elder Lan Yu doing here?”

The group of terrified men immediately bowed at Lan Yu.

Lan Yu looked at the leader of the group coldly and said, “Am I worthy of knowing your honorable teacher’s name?” “Elder Lan Yu, my honorable teacher is Master Daoist Yu.”

“Master Daoist Yu...”

Lan Yu pondered for a moment. The name did ring a bell. “The Grand Dao cultivator who joined the Pan Gu Sect a while back?”

“Yes.”

“Hmph. It seems like he has quite the disciple.” Lan Yu grunted and bellowed, “Scram!”

“Y-Yes!”

The group scuttled away immediately.

Gu Linglong frowned as she watched the group of bullies scuttle away. “Are the disciples of the Pan Gu Sect such bullies?” “The Pan Gu Sect has been expanding rapidly in the past decade, and many people have joined us. It’s difficult for us to control their personalities,” Lan Yu said as she shook her head.

“If Kuangren came out from cultivation and saw the Pan Gu Sect infected by vermin, what would he think?” Gu Linglong asked.

“I-It’s not that serious, I think.”

“Lan Yu, we cannot be careless about this matter. You have to know huge damage is from a moment of negligence. The development of the Pan Gu Sect cannot be hindered because of those people.”

“Sister Linglong, what are you going to do?”

“I understand.”

Yu Ling was stunned when she heard the conversation.

She had no idea what was going on. Elder Lan Yu seemed to obey every word that Gu Linglong said. Who exactly was Gu Linglong?

Yu Ling was baffled.

“Ling’er, are you okay?”

“Sister Linglong, who are you?” Yu Ling asked curiously.

Gu Linglong chuckled and said, “Let me officially introduce myself. I’m Gu Linglong, the wife of the Pan Gu Sect Leader.”

Pan Gu Sect Leader’s wife?

Yu Ling gasped in shock. She had a hard time believing the words that came out of Gu Linglong’s mouth.

The Pan Gu Sect Leader was the legendary man who killed four Monarchs! Hence, the fact that Gu Linglong was her wife was astonishing!

Yu Ling was stunned, and the words of the fortune teller rang in her mind.

Gu Linglong was the so-called benefactor of her life! “Sister Linglong! You lied to me for so long!”

“Ling’er, I didn’t want to lie to you, but if I told you I was the wife of the Pan Gu Sect Leader, would you have believed me?” Gu Linglong asked with a smile.

Yu Ling pondered and shook her head awkwardly. “Probably not.”

To her, any elder of the Pan Gu Sect was a towering figure, and the Sect Leader was nothing short of a legend.

Who would have thought that the lady she called sister was the legend’s wife?

Yu Ling immediately put her playful attitude away and looked serious when she learned about Gu Linglong’s true identity. Suddenly, she felt an invisible barrier between her and Gu Linglong.

Gu Linglong saw through the girl’s mind and patted her head.

“Right? And, no matter who I am or what I become, I will always be your Sister Linglong.”

Yu Ling felt relieved, but she needed time to get used to Gu Linglong’s drastic change of identity.

A month later, a group of people gathered at the meeting hall of the Pan Gu Sect.

They were all the executive elders of the Pan Gu Sect.

Other than the original cultivators from the Pan Gu Universe, many Grand Dao cultivators had joined the sect in the past century.

“What’s going on? Why did Elder Lan Yu gather us all here?”

“Yeah. What’s going on?”

“I have no idea.”

Then, two feminine figures stepped into the hall.

It was Gu Linglong and Lan Yu.

The elders were curious when they saw Gu Linglong, wondering why a mere Embodier would appear in the meeting hall.

Could she be Lan Yu’s new servant? Gu Linglong then headed to the main seat of the table, which was Chu Kuangren’s seat, and sat on the main seat before everyone’s probing gaze. The entire room was silenced as they were all stunned.

“How audacious!”

An elder got up and bellowed, “Where did this ignorant girl come from? Why are you sitting in that seat?”

Gu Linglong, however, was not concerned. She said, “I believe no one is more fitting than me to sit in this seat.”

Her words caused the elders to clamor.

“How dare a mere Embodier speak so loudly?”

“Who is she?”

“Silence!” Lan Yu shouted, silencing and frightening everyone else. “She’s the Sect Leader’s wife, and she represents the Sect Leader!”

“What?” The cultivators from the Pan Gu Universe already knew who Gu Linglong was, but the new cultivators were astonished.

The Sect Leader’s wife? They had never heard of the Sect Leader having a wife.

However, since it was Lan Yu who announced Gu Linglong’s identity, they had no choice but to believe it.

“I’ve summoned everyone here for one thing, which is to stop the development of the Pan Gu Sect immediately,” Gu Linglong said.

“What?”

“Madam, are you trying to hinder the Pan Gu Sect’s development?”

“Yeah, did you get the permission from the Sect Leader?”

Everyone clamored. Li Jun, Nuwa, and the others pondered her words carefully.

Gu Linglong continued, “The number of Pan Gu Sect’s cultivators has grown ten times in the past century, but they are a mix of good and bad. Some are terrible with a poor attitude. If they continue to be part of the sect, it will only tarnish the sect’s reputation. “Master Daoist Yu, your disciple is a bully in the sect, and it has caused many problems for the other disciples.

“Six Art Heavenly Ruler, you used the Pan Gu Sect’s reputation to force the weaponsmith of Myriad Art City to forge your weapons. Do you know that’ll hurt the relationship between us and the weaponsmiths? If conflict happens, will you take responsibility?” “And Hundred-Eyed Yokai Daoist, should I tell everyone how many Great Dao Sources you have secretly kept?

“And these...”

Gu Linglong tossed several jade talismans to Li Jun and the others.

They recorded all the downsides of the rapid expansion of the Pan Gu Sect in the past century.

Everyone reacted grimly to what Gu Linglong said, especially the few whom Gu Linglong called out. They looked flustered.
