

Unparalleled 1021

Chapter 1021 Golden Dragon Young Master Becomes An Immortal, True Dragon and Godly Phoenix Wants To Get Married

Slumbering Sword Ocean, Holy City, Golden Ridge Temple, and Holy Divine Fire Cult were all destroyed. The news of all four immortal orthodoxies' demise spread throughout Planquilon Immortal World like wildfire.

Chu Kuangren's notoriety shook the entire Immortal World for quite some time.

Not one but four immortal orthodoxies were destroyed in his hands!

In just three short days, Chu Kuangren had successively destroyed four immortal orthodoxies. The incident shook countless people.

"Brutal! He's merciless"!

"Four immortal orthodoxies gone, just like that. Chu Kuangren really did it this time. He's a crazy devil."

"No one would want to be on his bad side from now on."

The entire Immortal World trembled at the mention of Chu Kuangren's name.

On the other hand, the one who put the entire world through turmoil finally returned to Hundred Academy to prepare for his breakthrough into an Immortal.

The Sword Crown also went into closed-door meditation, trying to break through into the Earthen Immortal Realm.

Lan Yu and Lil Fox were also busy with their own cultivation.

Time flew by quickly. It seemed like the process of breaking through to an Immortal was much more difficult than he thought.

Maybe it was because of the different source energies within him.

In the whole year that Chu Kuangren was in closed-door meditation, many things happened in the outside world.

For one, Yuan Xu, the Fated One of the Great Yuan Divine Dynasty, got the attention of an ancient immortal orthodoxy, the Holy Judgement Sect, and joined the sect as one of their Daoists.

The other Fated One, Lin Yan, also made a name for himself. After the Holy Divine Fire Cult was destroyed, he went on training around Planquilon Immortal World, and with his outstanding courage and luck, he swiftly rose to the spotlight.

Rumor had it that Lin Yan mastered a set of pill refinement techniques. With his alchemy mastery, he was given the VIP treatment and admired by many wherever he went.

Shang Honghua and Lan Yu also gained a reputation for themselves, and as their reputation grew, they were known by the masses as two of Planquilon Immortal World's Four Beauties.

Lately, another huge piece of news reached the ear of the masses.

The Fated One of Divine Dragon Island, the Golden Dragon Young Master, successfully went through the Three Disaster Nine Dooms and became an Immortal.

The news shook the world quite a bit.

Although the Golden Dragon Young Master rarely showed himself in public, given his strength, one could only imagine how powerful he was.

The Golden Dragon Young Master of Divine Dragon Island was at least a King Immortal Progeny and a Fated One!

If he could breakthrough to become an Immortal, how powerful was he really?

Quite a number of people even started to compare him to Chu Kuangren, who rocked the world with his notoriety a year ago. They were curious who would be stronger.

Some said it would be Chu Kuangren. After all, he had killed tens of Immortals before. His combat strength was strong, and the entire Immortal World had seen it with their own eyes.

However, some said it should be the Golden Dragon Young Master because of the sayings about Chu Kuangren forcefully pushing himself to the Immortal Realm with some hidden technique. Since he did not go through the traditional Three Disasters Nine Dooms trials, he could not be considered an Immortal.

The Golden Dragon Young Master, however, was a genuine Immortal!

Discussions were heated for quite a while. Both sides were confident in their beliefs, and neither side could convince the other. Hence, there was no exact answer to the argument.

After the Golden Dragon Young Master became an Immortal, another explosive news followed and shook the world before it had the chance to settle down.

It was the union between Divine Dragon Island and Sycamore Mountain.

On the groom's side was the famous Fated One, the newly ascended Immortal Golden Dragon Young Master, who was considered the rising star of the Immortal World.

The bride's side would be the Sycamore Mountain's Phoenix Maiden.

The union between the two strongest Yokai Tribes shook the world, no less than Chu Kuangren's infamous battle back then.

A lot was involved in the marriage.

Meanwhile, in Sycamore Mountain...

"I don't want to get married!"

A girl was throwing a tantrum before the two rulers of Sycamore Mountain.

The rulers were a couple, the strongest Daoist companion in Sycamore Mountain.

“Feng Hong, this...”

“My surname is Chu!” the girl said firmly.

The handsome man of the couple frowned at the girl. A hint of annoyance flashed over his eyes as he said, “You are a Godly Phoenix. Your surname should be Feng!”

“It’s Chu!” Chu Hong insisted.

“Okay fine, Chu Hong. This isn’t child’s play. The Golden Dragon Young Master is the most outstanding Dragon Bachelor of the younger generations in Divine Dragon Island, and he’s also a Fated One. Apparently, he is on the verge of evolving into a pure-blooded Dragon, and you are also a pure-blooded Godly Phoenix. The union between you and him will only benefit us all...” At the side, a lady in a traditional outfit who was the Huang Mountain Ruler tried to persuade Chu Hong.

“No, I said I don’t want to marry him!”

“This isn’t your decision to make,” the Feng Mountain Ruler said coldly.

“You...” Chu Hong was furious but helpless against it.

Then, her figure transformed into a ray of light that dashed into the distance, wanting to leave Sycamore Mountain.

However, before she could fly far, a red light shrouded the sky and stopped her.

“It’s futile. The whole mountain is isolated by the Flame Divide Enchanted Boundary. Without my permission, you can’t leave the mountain,” the Feng Mountain Ruler said.

“Even if you imprison me here, I will not marry the Golden Dragon Young Master!”

“Chu Hong. We brought you back to Sycamore Mountain and awoke your pure-blooded Godly Phoenix bloodline. We even made you a Phoenix Maiden. We just want you to do something for Sycamore Mountain, and you are declining it?” the Feng Mountain Ruler asked.

“I’m grateful for what you guys have done for me, and I’m willing to do whatever to repay Sycamore Mountain, but not this,” Chu Hong said.

She had never seen the Golden Dragon Young Master, yet the rulers wanted her to marry him. It would be more depressing than killing her on the spot.

“You...” The Feng Mountain Ruler sounded furious.

“My dear, let me talk to her,” the Huang Mountain Ruler said.

“I’ve invited the Golden Dragon Young Master to Sycamore Mountain. Why don’t you spend some time with him first? If you both are not for each other, we’ll discuss it then.”

“I don’t care. I won’t marry him.” Chu Hong took a deep breath and left.

A hint of coldness appeared in the Feng Mountain Ruler's eyes. He said, "She's not a Godly Phoenix from Sycamore Mountain, hence this disobedience. No matter what she says, the union with Divine Dragon Island must happen."

"My dear, are you really doing this?" Huang Mountain Ruler sounded helpless.

"Divine Dragon Island has developed rapidly in the past ten thousand years, and outstanding Dragon Bachelors are appearing one after another. Before we know it, they have surpassed us, Sycamore Mountain. With the Fated One on their side now, it's not an exaggeration to say that the heavens sided with the dragons."

The Feng Mountain Ruler sighed and added, "Don't forget about the Honorable Yokai Hall as well. With the Yokai Ruler's lead, I have a feeling that he's trying to conquer the whole Yokai Tribe. Remember they caught Qing Feng a while ago? Do you know what that means? It means they already have their eyes on us, on Sycamore Mountain.

"Sycamore Mountain is in an awkward situation now. If we don't team up with Divine Dragon Island, in time, the Honorable Yokai Hall will definitely take over Sycamore Mountain."

Upon hearing her husband's words, the Huang Mountain Ruler became afraid as well. "Fortunately, Qing Feng managed to return safely with Chu Kuangren's help, and he even awoke her Azure Phoenix bloodline. It's definitely something good among the misfortunes."

"But Chu Kuangren has also killed one of our Phoenix Bachelors," Feng Mountain Ruler grunted.

"The Azure Phoenix has clairvoyant abilities, and Qing Feng said that the opportunity to turn Sycamore Mountain for the better is with Chu Hong. Are you really going to marry her off?"

"Don't forget that when Qing Feng said Chu Hong was the opportunity, the Divine Dragon Island came proposing. In my opinion, the opportunity must refer to the union between Chu Hong and the Golden Dragon Young Master. Until then, with the combined powers of Divine Dragon Island and Sycamore Mountain, we will assist the Golden Dragon Young Master to become the Heavenly Champion," the Feng Mountain Ruler said.

Chapter 1022 Golden Dragon Young Master Visits Sycamore Mountain, Not Even Chu Kuangren Can Take This Away

Depressed, Chu Hong went back to her room. She resented the arranged marriage because all she had in mind was Chu Kuangren. "Brother, where are you?"

Chu Kuangren's name was already well known throughout the Immortal World.

However, Chu Hong had been in Sycamore Mountain to awaken her bloodline until recently. She had very little knowledge of what was going on in the outside world, so she knew nothing of what Chu Kuangren had done.

"Phoenix Maiden."

A voice came from outside the palace.

A girl with lapis lazuli eyes and a green dress came in with two other maidens behind her. All of them were matchless beauties.

Upon hearing the voice, Chu Hong came out to welcome the guest and quickly kept her depressed look away when she saw the girl in green. "Qing Feng, you're here."

"Chu Hong, I heard you are getting married. We are here to congratulate you. The Golden Dragon Young Master of Divine Dragon Island is a highly sought-after gentleman by many of the girls in Planquilon Immortal World," said one of the maidens behind Qing Feng with a ridiculing tone.

The girl was Huang Yan, one of the Phoenix Maidens of Sycamore Mountain. The jealousy in her eyes was visible when she mentioned the Golden Dragon Young Master.

"Why don't you take my place instead?" Chu Hong grumbled. "Hmph! Everyone knows the Golden Dragon Young Master wants to marry you specifically. I would gladly take your place if I had the chance," Huang Yan said with a soft grunt.

She had met the Golden Dragon Young Master once and fell for him at first sight. Ever since then, she had been fantasizing about marrying him and moving to Divine Dragon Island together.

Now that Divine Dragon Island and Sycamore Mountain were finally getting together, the bride was not her.

In Huang Yan's opinion, Chu Hong was lucky to be given the opportunity. Yet, not only did she show no appreciation, but all she did was despise the marriage.

Her reaction fueled Huang Yan's jealousy.

"Let's put that aside first. Chu Hong, I heard the Golden Dragon Young Master would visit Sycamore Mountain in two days. Why don't you meet him first? If you really don't like him, it's not too late to reject him then," Qing Feng said.

"I won't marry him no matter what. I already have someone I like." Chu Hong pouted.

"You already have someone you like? Who's that?"

Qing Feng, Huang Yan, and Huang Yinghong were surprised by the revelation.

"I don't want to talk about it."

"Then tell us what race. You can at least tell us that, right?"

"He's a human."

"Human? That would be difficult. Throughout history, there are only a handful of human and Yokai marriages, let alone a pure-blooded Godly Phoenix marrying a human. It's unheard of!" Qing Feng said with a frown. "I don't care. I like him," Chu Hong said.

Her feelings for Chu Kuangren were pure. It was like a brand new life showing affection to its maker.

It might not have to end in marriage, but as long as she could stay by his side, she would be happy. “What a joke. Who else in this world can rival the Golden Dragon Young Master? What’s more, a mere human!” Huang Yan ridiculed her.

Huang Yinghong shared the same thought.

The Golden Dragon Young Master was an Immortal. Having shown extremely high talents, only a handful in the Immortal World could rival him, let alone a human.

“I wouldn’t be so sure,” Qing Feng mumbled as if she had suddenly thought of something.

“What?” Huang Yan asked.

“There’s a sky-pride Immortal Progeny in the human race, and he might be able to rival the Golden Dragon Young Master,” Qing Feng said with a smile.

“Are you referring to Chu Kuangren?” Huang Yinghong blurted.

Chu Hong widened her eyes at the name. “What did you say? Chu Kuangren? Where is he now?”

The girls were slightly confused at Chu Hong’s excitement.

“What’s wrong, Chu Hong?”

“Tell me what’s with this Chu Kuangren first.”

Qing Feng briefly updated Chu Hong on all of Chu Kuangren’s recent achievements.

The more Chu Hong heard, the more excited she got.

Both Huang Yan and Huang Yinghong finally realized what was going on.

Chu Hong, Chu Kuangren... Both of them shared the same surname, and rumor had it that Chu Kuangren could control Phoenix’s Flame. It was difficult to piece it all together.

“The one you like, it’s Chu Kuangren. Am I right?” Qing Feng asked.

Chu Hong nodded with a blush.

A strange reaction flashed over Huang Yan’s face, seemingly plotting something in her mind, while Qing Feng reacted with a troubled look.

“I once predicted that Sycamore Mountain’s opportunity resides in you, and I thought it was the marriage between you and the Golden Dragon Young Master. Now, it seems like there is an unexpected variable,” Qing Feng exclaimed helplessly.

Chu Kuangren, the one whose fate surpassed all? Such fate was even more unpredictable than the Fated One.

“Does it mean if I tell the Mountain Rulers now, they will give up on the marriage?” Chu Hong asked with anticipation.

“I’m afraid that’ll be difficult.”

Qing Feng knew her parents well enough to know that their actions would place Sycamore Mountain's benefits above all.

The union between the two tribes was the decision they took to maximize the benefits of Sycamore Mountain.

It was nearly impossible for them to give up on the marriage now.

In fact, in order to discourage Chu Hong, her father, the Feng Mountain Ruler, might even do something extreme to Chu Kuangren.

"Let's just wait until you meet the Golden Dragon Young Master."

A while later, several True Dragons swooped down to Sycamore Mountain from the sky. The leader of the bunch was a golden dragon covered in dazzling glare and a powerful aura that swept everywhere.

Once the dragons entered Sycamore Mountain, they transformed into their human form.

The leader of the bunch transformed into a handsome young man in golden robes. Every move that he made was screaming with elegance, and he possessed the demeanor of a king

The man was none other than the Golden Dragon Young Master.

"He's so handsome."

"Is he the one? The Golden Dragon Young Master? He's really something else."

"I heard he's the first Fated One to become an Immortal."

A lot of the Phoenix Maidens and female cultivators of Sycamore Mountain were drooling over him.

Both the Feng Mountain Ruler and Huang Mountain Ruler came out to welcome him as well.

"Young nephew, how have you been?"

"Greeting, Mountain Rulers."

"Go and get Feng Hong out to greet our guests."

A while later, Chu Hong walked up. The moment the Golden Dragon Young Master laid eyes on Chu Hong, his eyes gleamed, and his blood boiled.

"This feeling... The Godly Phoenix bloodline. It's so pure!

"I am almost a pure-blooded True Dragon, but it still pales in comparison to her. This girl is not just a common pure-blooded Godly Phoenix. If I am to marry her, I will definitely be able to cultivate the Dragon Phoenix Immortal Physique!" the Golden Dragon Young Master said, his gaze on Chu Hong scorching

However, Chu Hong barely reacted. She simply gave the Golden Dragon Young Master the cold shoulder as if he was invisible before her.

The Feng Mountain Ruler was unhappy with her attitude. Just as he was about to say something, the Huang Mountain Ruler said with a smile, "I believe we are being the third wheel here. The young ones are a little uncomfortable with our presence. My dear, let's leave them be for a while."

After that, the mountain rulers left.

In their absence, Chu Hong yawned and said, "Um, there are quite a few sceneries here in Sycamore Mountain to see. You can get someone to guide you around."

Not wanting to stay for another moment, she turned around and left.

She disliked the way the Golden Dragon Young Master looked at her.

The Golden Dragon Young Master frowned at her words. As he knew she was not fond of him, he did not try to stop her.

"Feng Hong, you will be mine sooner or later!"

To cultivate the Dragon Phoenix Immortal Physique and achieve merits, the Golden Dragon Young Master would not give her up easily. "Hm, too bad. Our Phoenix Maiden here has already fallen for someone else."

A slender figure appeared behind the Golden Dragon Young Master. It was Huang Yan.

Her words attracted a cold look from the Golden Dragon Young Master.

"Who?"

"Chu Kuangren!"

"Chu Kuangren... It's him."

The Golden Dragon Young Master was slightly surprised. However, a proud look soon appeared on his face. "Not even Chu Kuangren can stop me from getting her."

Chapter 1023 Feng Mountain Ruler's Decision, Immortals Gather At Divine Dragon Island

The Golden Dragon Young Master thought of knowing Chu Hong better by visiting Sycamore Mountain himself. However, he was given the cold shoulder.

Chu Hong was not interested in him at all.

If it were not for Huang Yan's attentiveness and flattery, he might start to suspect that he was not charming enough.

Chu Hong's cold shoulder agitated him, and in addition to what Huang Yan told him earlier, it left him restless and anxious.

"Chu Kuangren... Huang Hong likes him... Does it mean that to her, I am inferior to Chu Kuangren?!" bellowed the Golden Dragon Young Master.

He had always been at the top since he was young. No matter what he sought, he would always get his hands on it.

Now, he was being overshadowed by a human, and what was more frustrating was that he had not even met Chu Kuangren in person.

“Dragon Bachelor, calm down. Chu Hong is a foreign Godly Phoenix. It’s always like that with them from the outside, captivated by the temptations of the outside world. The temptation clouds their judgment and blinds their eyes, preventing them from telling the good from the bad,” Huang Yan tried to console the Golden Dragon Young Master.

Further away, both the Mountain Rulers saw everything

“Huang Hong has no appreciation for what we’ve done for her,” Feng Mountain Ruler said with his brows furrowed.

“It seems like she really opposes this wedding. Why don’t we cancel it?” the Huang Mountain Ruler said with a frown. She felt uneasy about Chu Hong’s resistance.

“The world now knows the union between the dragons and phoenixes. If we cancel it now, we will become the joke of the world,” the Feng Mountain Ruler said.

“But Huang Hong-“

“I know what to do about it,” the Feng Mountain Ruler said.

At that moment, Qing Feng came to them.

“Father, mother, I have something to say.”

“What is it?”

Qing Feng briefly told her parents about Chu Kuangren and then added, “I have a feeling that the opportunity of Sycamore Mountain is not referring to the union with Divine Dragon Island.”

“Are you saying that Chu Kuangren is the opportunity?”

“In that case, here’s a question: is Chu Kuangren a Fated One?”

“I... I heard the other Fated Ones did not react to Chu Kuangren when they saw him, so no. He’s not a Fated One.”

“The second question: is he an Immortal?”

“He hasn’t gone through the Three Disasters Nine Dooms.”

“Okay. Is he anyhow fit to inherit an ancient immortal orthodoxy?”

“He’s a Master of the academy, but it has only been a few short years since he joined. If he were to inherit the academy and be the next dean, I’m afraid it’s impossible.”

“If he’s not a Fated One, not yet an Immortal, and not even in line to inherit an ancient immortal orthodoxy, how is he our opportunity? The only way to go is the marriage between Huang Hong and the Golden Dragon Young Master.

“The union will unite the powers of two ancient immortal orthodoxies, and it will assist him to become the Heavenly Champion. He is our opportunity!” Feng Mountain Ruler said.

“But-“

“That’s enough, Qing Feng. I’ve decided.”

Qing Feng wanted to continue, but the Feng Mountain Ruler stopped her.

Discouraged, she stepped down, but she still felt anxious

Three months later, the news of the marriage between Huang Hong of Sycamore Mountain and Golden Dragon Young Master of Divine Dragon Island spread across Planquilon Immortal World.

Due to the union, the two greatest Yokai Tribes invited all the famous cultivators to attend the wedding, not only limited to the Yokai Tribes.

Even some human ancient immortal orthodoxies received the invitation.

The Dean of Hundred Academy held the big red invitation card in his hand and mumbled, “The union between dragon and phoenix, huh? This is huge. Is Sycamore Mountain teaming up with Divine Dragon Island to assist the Golden Dragon Young Master to become the Heavenly Champion?”

“I’m afraid so. It’s a huge investment.”

“Since we have some time to spare, let’s go have a look.”

Meanwhile, in a certain mountain peak of the academy, the Sword Crown was training with Lan Yu, or more precisely, guiding her cultivation.

Lan Yu had developed the Radiant War Immortal Physique to a certain extent, and she was just a step shy from becoming an Immortal.

Nevertheless, her strength could already rival an Immortal.

“Mmhm, not bad. Your Radiant War Immortal Physique is powerful. I believe it’s at least going to be a top-notch King Immortal Physique,” the Sword Crown exclaimed.

“King Immortal Physique or higher...” Lan Yu mumbled.

There were five grades of Immortal Physiques — Common, Mystic, King, Emperor, and Supreme.

She had a strong feeling that her Radiant War Immortal Physique still had room for improvement as she had not developed it to the fullest or brought out its full potential.

“Hah! You are going to achieve more than me in the future,” the Sword Crown chuckled.

He may have broken through to the Earthen Immortal Realm, but a top-notch King Immortal Physique had a lot more potential for growth, and an Earthen Immortal was definitely not the limit.

On top of that, Lan Yu has not yet fully developed her Radiant War Immortal Physique.

In the Sword Crown’s opinion, Lan Yu’s potential would be greater than the Divine Beasts of Planquilon Immortal World, almost comparable to the top pure-blooded Divine Beasts.

“I’m still far away compared to Master,” Lan Yu said with a shake of her head.

“Master is an anomaly. You can’t compare yourself with him. In my opinion, the Master has high hopes to achieve Arch Gilded Daoist Nirvana or even breakthrough to Primordial Daoist Nirvana to become the strongest among the Immortals,” the Sword Crown lamented.

An Arch Gilded Daoist Nirvana was considered a rare existence even in the complete Immortal World, let alone Primordial Daoist Nirvana, which was one rank above.

The Sword Crown viewed them as legends.

“Lan Yu, Lil Fox.”

At that moment, Shang Honghua arrived.

“Lan Yu, have you heard? The Divine Dragon Island is uniting with Sycamore Mountain, and my Master is bringing me to the wedding. Wanna go have a look?”

“A wedding? Sounds lively! Let’s go!” Lil Fox was captivated. Lan Yu thought for a while and said, “The union between the dragon and phoenix is definitely a gathering for all sky-prides and Immortal Progenies. I think it would be great to have a look as well.”

A few days later, Lan Yu, the Sword Crown, and the others headed to Divine Dragon Island.

Before they departed, they left a message for Chu Kuangren.

All sky-prides and Immortals gathered at Divine Dragon Island for the event of the century.

The sky above the island was blessed with auspicious Immortal Sparks. It was so grand that it almost resembled the phenomenon of a myriad Immortals coming for a pilgrimage.

“Snowy Moon Immortal, you’re here as well.”

“I was invited by Divine Dragon Island.”

“Oh, Lady Leng, It’s been a while.” “Greetings, fellow Daoist.”

The Immortals who barely showed themselves in public showed up to the grand event, and their presence surprised many of the sky-prides and Immortal Progenies, leaving them in awe.

“Divine Dragon Island is really influential.”

“As one of the ancient immortal orthodoxies of Planquilon Immortal World, they are undoubtedly influential. Plus, it’s the union between dragon and phoenix. A lot is involved. How could the Immortals not show up?”

The guests were in a heated discussion.

It was then that Immortal Sparks shone a distance away.

The Dean of Hundred Academy and Gong Yue of Jade Clarity Immortal Sect arrived with Lan Yu and the others. Their arrival attracted many's attention. "It's the Dean and Jade Clarity Immortal Sect Master!"

"Oh, they are here too?"

"Look at those two girls. They are the two of the Four Beauties, Lan Yu and Shang Honghua. They are the most outstanding female cultivators of their generation, especially Shang Honghua, who is a Fated One."

"I heard they are related to Chu Kuangren."

Their arrival sparked another round of heated discussion.

Lan Yu and Shang Honghua had made a name for themselves now and were almost as famous as the past Twelve Kings of the Immortal Progenies.

Among the crowd, a young man in black robes glanced at Shang Honghua, and surprise flashed across his eyes.

"Shang Honghua's energy is a lot stronger than she was a year ago. Interesting."

The young man was none other than the last of the Holy Divine Fire Cult, Lin Yan.

Chapter 1024 Unexpected Changes To The Wedding, Chu Hong Being Controlled Like A Puppet

Immortals gathered on Divine Dragon Island for the grand wedding. Among the crowd, Lin Yan could not help but glance at Shang Honghua.

As a fellow Fated One, they shared a unique connection.

Lin Yan could tell that Shang Honghua was a lot stronger than before, and similar to him, she was also a step shy from becoming an Immortal.

Shang Honghua also sensed Lin Yan's presence. When she met eyes with him, she grinned. "It's him."

Gong Yue noticed her disciple being distracted. She, too, looked in the same direction and saw Lin Yan. Then, the several figures behind Lin Yan caught her attention.

"Oh, that's the Ancient Immortal Lin clan."

The Ancient Immortal Lin clan, similar to Jade Clarity Immortal Sect, originated from the ancient immortal times, and the wisdom and resources the clan accumulated throughout history were not to be underestimated. Their clan members rarely appeared in public.

"It seems like they are prepared to join the Battle of Destiny, and the one they have chosen is Lin Yan. Interesting," Gong Yue said with a grin.

It was then a flare of golden Immortal Sparks shone from further away.

A massive golden battle ark came from the sky.

The battle ark seemed to be forged out of gold, and the Daoist patterns that circulated its body resembled a three-legged Golden Crow.

The arrival of the battle ark left many cultivators in awe.

“Honorable Yokai Hall!”

“The Honorable Yokai Hall is here!”

Several figures came out from the ark. The leader of the bunch was covered in golden Immortal Sparks as dazzling as the sun. The man was none other than the Yokai Hall Ruler.

“My lord, how have you been?”

A voice came from within Divine Dragon Island.

Several figures walked out from the deeper parts of the island. All of them had different hair colors, which were gold, white, red, green, and yellow.

The five men were the Five Element Dragon Rulers of Divine Dragon Island.

The weakest among them was a Higher Third-grade Earthen Immortal, and the leader of the bunch was obviously the Golden Dragon Ruler.

“Dragon Rulers, congratulations. After the union of dragon and phoenix, Divine Dragon Island might very well be the leader of the whole Yokai Tribe,” the Yokai Ruler said with a faint grin.

“You are too courteous, Yokai Ruler. The Honorable Yokai Hall rules over a myriad of yokai, and it is not our place to think of that,” the Golden Dragon Ruler said with laughter.

“Heh.” The Yokai Ruler did not want to continue the conversation. Everyone else knew that he must be in a terrible mood.

The Honorable Yokai Hall had grown rapidly in recent years, and some felt it had surpassed the Divine Dragon Island and Sycamore Mountain. It even showed signs that it wanted to rule over all the Yokai Tribes.

Now, with the union between dragon and phoenix, it would definitely impact the Honorable Yokai Hall’s influence. Not to mention all the great ambitions they had, even the idea of taking over Sycamore Mountain was ruined because of that union.

It would be strange if the Yokai Ruler were in a good mood.

Hearing the sarcastic comments from both tribes, the Dean and Gong Yue could not help but giggle.

A year ago, the Azure Dragon Ruler and Yokai Ruler prevented them from saving Chu Kuangren, and they still remembered it until this day.

Now, seeing the bickering between the two tribes only fueled the delight in the Dean and Gong Yue.

“Speaking of which, why hasn’t the bride or the groom arrived yet?” Shang Honghua looked around.

“Relax. It’s not yet time for the ceremony,” Gong Yue said with a smile.

Following the arrival of all the important guests, the ceremony finally began.

The Mountain Rulers of Sycamore Mountain, Feng and Huang, the Golden Dragon Rulers, and others sat down at the host seats. In front of them was a path of gold built entirely out of golden bricks. It looked as lavished as it was shiny.

At the other end of the golden path were a couple, the bride and groom, stepping into the hall.

The young man was in golden robes, looking handsome and energetic. Every step he took screamed of royalty.

“That’s the Golden Dragon Young Master? This presence, he really is something else. He’s not just a common Dragon Immortal.”

“I think his combat strength can rival a Higher Third-grade Immortal.”

“You must be exaggerating. He had just become an Immortal. It’s not that easy to challenge someone above his rank.”

“He’s a Fated One. You can’t judge his strength level with common sense.”

The crowd was in a heated discussion.

Lin Yan and Yuan Xu were also among the crowd, staring at the Golden Dragon Young Master, who had become an Immortal before them. The look on their faces sank.

‘Such strong energy. If I were to fight him, I might not even be able to hold on for ten moves. It seems like I must refine the Scorching Silent True Flame and become an Immortal when I go back. Only then can I compete with the Golden Dragon Young Master,’ Lin Yan thought.

On the other hand, Yuan Xu also shared a similar thought.

“I must make a breakthrough in the Holy Judgement Codex. With my past life experience, and the will of the Immortal World that I got this life, becoming an Immortal is certain. Until then, I will be able to overtake the Golden Dragon Young Master.”

The two Fated Ones were deep in their own thoughts when they saw the Golden Dragon Young Master.

The others also paid close attention to the bride and groom, but some of them quickly noticed that something was wrong.

“The bride seems strange.”

The bride, seemingly only a girl of fifteen, sixteen years of age, had pink lips, fair skin, and delicate facial features. However, her eyes did not complement her beauty as the gaze felt dull as a puppet.

Something must have happened prior to the wedding “It’s... Lil Hong!”

In the crowd, Shang Honghua was shocked.

Lan Yu also wore a bitter look on her face. She bolted up and shouted, “Chu Hong, what are you doing?”

She was furious, not at Chu Hong but at the wedding.

She could tell that Chu Hong was not herself. Chu Hong might have been forced to agree to the wedding

Her figure flashed and appeared before Chu Hong. "Chu Hong, wake up! Do you remember me?"

Chu Hong glanced at her but barely reacted. There was a hint of struggle in those dull eyes of hers.

"What did you do to her?!" Lan Yu questioned the Golden Dragon Young Master.

"Hmph. Who do you think you are to cause a scene here? Guards, take her away," the Golden Dragon Young Master bellowed.

The guards of Divine Dragon Island came rushing in and wanted to take the intruder away.

At that moment, Shang Honghua jumped out and released her source energy, blasting the guards away immediately.

The sudden occurrence left everyone confused.

The Divine Dragon Island's Dragon Rulers reacted bitterly to the commotion. They looked at the Dean and Gong Yue, demanding an explanation for the intrusion because they knew the girls came from the academy.

"Dean, Jade Clarity Sect Ruler, please explain this!" bellowed the Golden Dragon Ruler.

"Um..."

The Dean looked at Lan Yu with a troubled gaze.

Lan Yu took a deep breath and said, "She's Master's sister, and she will never agree to marry the Golden Dragon Young Master. Something must have happened."

Her words sparked a commotion among the crowd.

Many of them knew who the Master she was referring to was.

"The bride is Chu Kuangren's sister?"

"This is going to be interesting. Divine Dragon Island participated in the siege against Chu Kuangren, and many still remember it like it happened yesterday. Now the Golden Dragon Young Master wants to marry his sister? What is going on?"

"Interesting. Will Chu Kuangren show up now?"

The Feng Mountain Ruler took a step forward and bellowed, "Nonsense! Chu Kuangren is a human, and she's a Divine Phoenix. How could they be brother and sister? If you two continue to cause a scene, don't blame us for taking you out by force."

"Hmph! Chu Hong might not be related to Master by blood, but they are as close as brother and sister. Besides, you guys must have done something to her to control her. Otherwise, she wouldn't stay quiet like this. It's like she's a walking puppet under someone's control!" Lan Yu argued, refusing to step down.

"Nonsense!"

Chapter 1025 The Dean And Gong Yue's Attitude, He Becomes An Immortal

"Nonsense!"

It was the Golden Dragon Ruler who stepped out this time. His powerful aura gushed out like a torrential wave, suppressing everyone in its way.

That was the Immortal's Core aura of a Heavenly Immortal!

Such a terrifying aura would instantly knock out those who were not Immortal. Just when Lan Yu and Shang Honghua were about to lose their consciousness, the Dean and Gong Yue could no longer stay put.

Their figure flashed and appeared before Lan Yu and Shang Honghua. With a swing of their sleeves, they released a powerful aura that mitigated the pressure.

"Hmph. Bullying a junior, I see? Don't you think you are a little too much?" Gong Yue grunted coldly. "You people are causing trouble on my island. Don't you think you're a little too much as well?" the Golden Dragon Ruler bellowed.

"It's obvious that something is wrong with the bride, and it appears that she is the sister of a Master of my academy. Therefore, the academy cannot just sit back and turn a blind eye to this matter," the Dean explained with a stern attitude.

Then, he used his Immortal Consciousness to check on Chu Hong and found out that a strand of energy in her mind was controlling her.

The energy seemed to be blocking Chu Hong's sensory and stopping her from feeling or hearing anything from the outside world.

"This is... the Spirit Sealing Mantra?!" The Dean was a knowledgeable person, and the tomes and scriptures in the academy could form an ocean by itself. That was how he could identify the source of why Chu Hong was acting weird at a glance.

"Feng Mountain Ruler, what is the meaning of this?" the Dean questioned.

"This is Sycamore Mountain's internal affairs. It has nothing to do with the academy and Jade Clarity Immortal Sect," Feng Mountain Ruler said coldly.

If it were not for Chu Hong's resistance and disobedience, he would not have to resort to using the Spirit Sealing Mantra. "Hundred Academy and Jade Clarity Immortal Sect, we sincerely invited you to the wedding as guests, yet you came causing a scene. Is war the result you sought?" the Golden Dragon Ruler asked with a grim look on his face.

The other forces, too, kept quiet as they watched, especially the Honorable Yokai Hall. They never wanted the union of dragon and phoenix anyway. Now that someone was causing trouble on their behalf, they were more than grateful.

The Dean's and Gong Yue's faces looked solemn.

They were on Divine Dragon Island. Should they go to war here, even if the Dean and Gong Yue used to be the strongest Immortals of their age, they held no advantage at all.

Would it be worth it to risk it all for Chu Hong?

The two hesitated.

“Chu Hong is Master’s most important family, and now that Master is still in closed-door meditation, I beg you, Dean, to see this matter through,” Lan Yu pleaded.

Shang Honghua also looked at Gong Yue with begging eyes.

“Sigh. Fine. I guess my bones will go rusty if I don’t exercise anymore,” the Dean said after a long sigh.

Gong Yue patted Shang Honghua’s head. “You really are a troublemaker, and I just can’t seem to do anything about it. If that’s the case, let’s give it a go.”

se

The two greatest Immortals of Planquilon Immortal World made their stances clear.

They wanted to stop the wedding.

“It seems like war is inevitable,” the Golden Dragon Ruler said coldly.

The guests swiftly rose to the sky or retreated, considering that things were about to lose control. They drew distance from the scene, afraid of being caught in the fight.

Just as the fight was about to break loose, a white pillar of light suddenly shot up into the sky a distance away.

The pillar of light swept the clouds clean, and terrifying energy emanated from within. The aura even shrouded half of Planquilon Immortal World, rumbling the heavens and earth.

vens

All the Immortals on Divine Dragon Island were surprised. “This energy... What happened?”

“That direction, it’s... Hundred Academy?!”

The Dean was confused as well.

Then, a sudden epiphany hit him.

“Could it be...”

At Hundred Academy, the pillar of light that shot up into the sky swept over everything with its vast and powerful energy, shaking heaven and earth.

All the Masters of the academy came out in a hurry.

Then, they stared at the pillar of light in awe.

“This energy... It’s Master Chu?”

“Master Chu’s energy? Does it mean that he has finally become an Immortal?!”

All the Masters present were stunned.

One thing worth noting was that Chu Kuangren was able to kill an Immortal before he even reached the ranks of an Immortal. After that, having consumed the Immortal Ascension Pill, his strength level was temporarily boosted to an Immortal level, and he destroyed three immortal orthodoxies.

Back then, he relied on the pill to achieve it, but now, he has finally become an Immortal!

Everyone stared at the pillar of light with great anticipation.

“I wonder what Master Chu’s Immortal’s Core is like,” the Fourth Master asked.

Those who become an Immortal must transform one’s source energy into an Immortal’s Core, and since every Immortal cultivated a different Dao, everyone’s Immortal’s Core varied from one another.

The Seventh Master cultivated the Lightning Dao, so his Immortal’s Core was a bolt of lightning with massive destructive powers

“Hold on. I suddenly thought of something. As far as I know, Master Chu did not go through the Three Disasters Nine Dooms, right?” the Seventh Master asked.

His words left everyone confused.

In fact, Chu Kuangren had never released any energy or aura containing the presence of the Three Disasters Nine Dooms.

He might have been in closed-door meditation for a whole year, but there were no signs or energy presence of the Three Disasters Nine Dooms around his cultivation ground.

Did he not need to go through the trials?

If so, what would it be then?

“Master Chu’s cultivation method is unique. Maybe he really has a special way to skip it,” the Eldest Master said, surprised.

“This unique cultivation method is a little too much.”

The Three Disasters Nine Dooms were the trials that all who wanted to become an Immortal must go through.

No one has ever heard of one skipping the trials and becoming an Immortal. Chu Kuangren might be the first case throughout the entire history of Immortal World.

However, Chu Kuangren had created many miracles in the past. On second thought, the Masters started to believe that it was not entirely impossible.

Then, something happened within the white pillar of light.

As the Immortal’s Core fluctuation got stronger, a white figure slowly emerged from within.

The figure was wearing a white robe, his black hair draped over his shoulder. His eyes were shut while he was surrounded by a surge of supreme and transcendent energy.

The other Masters had a feeling that their own Immortal's Core was trembling as if they were scared by what they saw.

Could an Immortal's Core feel fear?

The Masters were baffled, but the feelings were real.

"Is that Master Chu?"

"Something feels off."

The Eldest Master noticed that Chu Kuangren's figure looked a little blurry and that the energy his figure emanated felt like... an Immortal's Core!

A ridiculous thought appeared in the Eldest Master's mind. "Could this be... Master Chu's Immortal's Core?!"

His words caused everyone else to gasp in shock.

Master Chu became an Immortal's Core?!

That was not right.

Master Chu's Immortal's Core was himself!

What exactly did he cultivate!?

The Masters were now more confused than ever.

They swore they had never seen another situation like that before even if they went through the entire Scripture Sea.

It was then that Chu Kuangren in the light pillar suddenly opened his eyes.

His eyes shone brightly as if they contained the sun and moon, life and death, the interchange of Yin and Yang. Every bit of glimmer from his eyes would leave one in awe.

The already terrifying Immortal's Core fluctuation became even stronger as Chu Kuangren opened his eyes. It felt like a typhoon had ravaged everything within tens of millions of kilometers.

More than half of all the cultivators of the Immortal World felt it, especially the Immortals as they were able to sense better.

Back at Divine Dragon Island, the Immortals also sensed the energy.

"W-What the... This Immortal's Core fluctuation... Who has become an Immortal? How could it be so terrifying?"

"Gosh... It must be Chu Kuangren! Other than him, no one else in the academy can do something like this!"

“What a monster...”

The look on Lin Yan’s, Yuan Xu’s, and the Golden Dragon Young Master’s faces turned dark because they realized they were shaking before the energy.

Their Immortal’s Core was shaking because of the energy they felt!

“He has finally become an Immortal!”

Chapter 1026 Battle at Divine Dragon Island, Gu Wuqing’s Rune, Are You Prepared to Pay the Price?

At the Hundred Academy, Chu Kuangren had truly become an Immortal, and his Immortal’s Core was vastly different from ordinary Immortals’.

That was because he was his own Immortal’s Core!

The Immortal’s Core formed by his Invincible Self-Empowering Source was himself!

Chu Kuangren’s Immortal’s Core hovered in the air, its eyes gazing far and wide into the universe. While that was happening, conjurations of the sun and moon switching places, yin and yang alternating, the cyclical change of nature appeared.

After a while, Chu Kuangren’s Immortal’s Core fluctuations receded.

His Immortal’s Core turned into a ray of light and returned to Chu Kuangren’s body.

Once he had familiarized himself with the Immortal’s Core inside him, Chu Kuangren found it very interesting. It was as if he had cultivated a Nascent Soul instead.

“I’ve finally become an Immortal.”

Chu Kuangren uttered.

After all, he had lived in the Immortal World for a few years now. Upon recalling his journey from creating his own Source to becoming an Immortal now, he could not help but feel a little emotional.

However, he held back his emotions and started feeling the newfound power inside him.

Compared to when he used the Three-day Immortal Ascension Pill, Chu Kuangren had become much stronger now that he became an Immortal by relying on his own power.

Besides, his Invincible Self-Empowering Source could never be formed just by using the Immortal Pill, which was to temporarily strengthen his Source to the level of an Immortal’s Core. Hence, he did not really become an Immortal at that time.

Now, he has truly become Immortal, the real deal.

Other than his Immortal’s Core, many other aspects of his abilities had grown stronger, such as his raw physical strength. However, since his Stellar Undying Body was already so powerful, that little increase in strength did not mean much.

There was also his Immortal Soul.

Similar to his physical strength, it did not gain much improvement there.

After all, he had cultivated an Immortal Soul long ago and even three Immortal Souls, thanks to the Nine-Cycle Trinity Soul Refinement.

Compared to his Immortal Soul and raw physical strength, there were more noticeable changes to his physiques instead!

His Immortal Body!

His Immortal Body had six states — Rapid Regeneration, Enhanced Rapid Regeneration, Undying Decapitation, Blood Drop Revival, Atomic Reconstruction...

The sixth state would then be... Single Thought Reconstruction. As long as a single thought of the user exists, their body would never die!

As of now, Chu Kuangren's Immortal Body has reached an Expert stage, meaning that his consciousness could merge into every cell within his body. As long as his consciousness exists, no matter how severely damaged his body was, he could still be revived!

That level of his Immortal Body had exceeded the limits of his physical body!

It was the embodiment of idealism itself!

It felt as if he would stay alive as long as he believed that he would not die.

Regarding that, only one word could be used to describe Chu Kuangren — terrifying!

If another word were to be used, it would be... bad*ss!

"In this vast Planquilon Immortal World, I could go anywhere I wish with this Immortal Body even if it's to those ancient immortal orthodoxies!"

"Ha."

Chu Kuangren chuckled. He was very pleased about his breakthrough.

Following that, he noticed a bundle of light on the table nearby. Judging from its aura, it was left there by Lan Yu.

"A message for me?"

With a flick of his mind, Chu Kuangren's Immortal Consciousness approached it.

Lan Yu's voice then appeared in his mind.

"Master, a union between dragon and phoenix is being held on and by Divine Dragon Island. They've invited every Immortal in this world to attend the ceremony. By the time you're reading this, Lil Fox, Sword Crown, Honghua, Jade Clarity Immortal Sect Leader, the Dean, and I have gone there to join the fun. Regards."

"So they've gone to the Divine Dragon Island..." Chu Kuangren mumbled.

'A union between dragon and phoenix, huh?'

For some reason, Chu Kuangren could not help but frown upon hearing the news. He had a hunch that it had something to do with him.

It was a cultivator's hunch.

Now that he had become an Immortal, that ability had become more pronounced.

"Dragon and phoenix... Phoenix... Could Lil Red somehow have something to do with this?"

"Perhaps. I should go there and take a look myself." Chu Kuangren's gut feeling was getting stronger.

He walked out of his room and bowed when he saw the Eldest Master and others. "Greetings, fellow Masters. I hope everyone is doing well."

The Eldest Master laughed. "Master Chu, you've caused quite a commotion with your breakthrough, I see. I suppose most of the Immortals would've known by now."

"Oops. My apologies for the trouble caused."

He then looked into the distance and said, "Fellow Masters, I'm afraid we'll have to catch up next time, for I need to travel to the Divine Dragon Island now. My apologies."

After that, he disappeared on the spot.

With his Spatial Conveyor Skill activated, he covered millions of kilometers in a blink of an eye.

On Divine Dragon Island, the pillar of light in the distance from the academy had receded.

However, all the Immortals present still had not recovered from the great shock they felt.

"Hmph. Let us settle things here first." The Golden Dragon Ruler looked at the Dean and Gong Yue coldly.

"Bring it on!" the Dean said calmly.

Without a minute to lose, the Dean and Gong Yue got into a battle with the Divine Dragon Island and the two Sycamore Mountain Rulers.

The five Divine Dragon Rulers and the two Sycamore Mountain Rulers, all seven of them, were the best Immortals in their own right. Even the weakest among them was an Earthen Immortal in a Higher Third Grade.

However, as two of the strongest individuals in Planquilon Immortal World, both the Dean and Gong Yue held their own against the seven opponents. Their terrifying Immortal's Core energy swept throughout the Divine Dragon Island.

The cultivators from the other forces had to retreat further away as they feared that they would be caught up in the battle.

"Hmph. The two of you, get out of my way!" The Golden Dragon Young Master looked at Shang Honghua and Lan Yu before he snorted and attacked.

Having become much stronger ever since becoming an Immortal, a grim look appeared on the faces of Lan Yu and Shang Honghua as they tried to resist his attacks.

At that moment, a figure immediately appeared before them.

It was the Sword Crown. He released a surge of Immortal's Core energy, which sent the Golden Dragon Young Master flying backward with his Earthen Immortal powers.

Injured, the Golden Dragon Young Master's face turned pale.

However, his injuries were not severe.

The Sword Crown was surprised. "Oh, not bad for a Fated One. So you can take on an attack from an Earthen Immortal, huh? That is truly commendable."

"I can't believe you've broken through to an Earthen Immortal, Sword Crown." The Golden Dragon Young Master was equally surprised as well.

Earthen Immortals were beings who stood at the peak of power in Planquilon Immortal World.

"Hmph, I didn't expect you to have regained your strength after losing to the Saber Crown. This is indeed news to me. But don't you think you're tarnishing your reputation by attacking a junior?" said a crimson-haired Dragon Immortal as he stepped forward.

That Dragon Immortal was extremely powerful and also an Earthen Immortal. He was an elder from the Divine Dragon Island, second only to the Dragon Rulers in power.

Following his appearance, one after another Immortals of the Divine Dragon Island soon came out from the void. There were as many as thirty of them.

Any one of those individuals was powerful enough to start an immortal orthodoxy on their own. That was a testament to the strength and foundation of the Divine Dragon Island.

The Sword Crown's face became stern.

He was a Sword Immortal that specialized in offensive techniques, so he would still stand a chance if he were against one or two Earthen Immortals. However, it was impossible for him to face so many of them all at once.

"Leave this to me, Sword Crown."

That was when Gu Wuqing stepped out.

"You?" The Sword Crown was a little surprised. 'How could a mere King Immortal Progeny face off against so many Immortals?'

He then saw Gu Wuqing take out a square-shaped jade order with countless weird patterns engraved on it that formed a mysterious rune!

After that, Gu Wuqing tossed the rune into the air.

The rune radiated brilliantly as it spun in the void before finally forming a runic barrier of light, protecting Lan Yu and the others within.

“This is...”

The Sword Crown was stunned.

At that moment, one of the Dragon Immortals unleashed a punch on the light barrier but found it to be ineffective. The light barrier was unaffected at all, shocking everyone at the scene.

“It looks like this guy has something interesting in his possession.”

“This item must be crafted by at least an Earthen or Heavenly Immortal rune caster. It’s too fascinating.”

Everyone started engaging in a heated discussion.

Upon seeing that, the Sword Crown laughed. “Very well. You guys can wait here while I’ll go out and have some fun!”

The Sword Crown walked out of the runic light barrier and started battling the Dragon Immortals.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Countless energy blasts landed on the runic light barrier, one after another, until Gu Wuqing’s face turned pale.

Although that rune was powerful, with his current cultivation level, he would not last long against that barrage of attacks from so many Immortals.

“Let us help you!”

Lan Yu, Shang Honghua, and Gu Liufang walked up to Gu Wuqing’s back and channeled their source energy into his body. They were helping him to maintain the rune.

It was then that a powerful draconic strength qi suddenly appeared from the distance and landed on the runic barrier, causing the body of Gu Wuqing and the others to tremble. There was blood dripping down the corners of their mouths.

A gold-haired dragon Immortal was charging toward them. With a powerful aura emanating from his body, he was clearly an Earthen Immortal and a Middle Third-grade Earthen Immortal at that!

“Hmph, even if you have the rune protecting you, how long can you guys last?!” the gold-haired Dragon Immortal said coldly.

Gu Wuqing and the others started to feel hopeless.

Suddenly, an incomparably cold, ruthless, and menacing aura appeared from the void.

“Oh, what about you guys then? Is the Divine Dragon Island prepared to pay the price for injuring them?!” An indifferent void sounded.

A white figure walked out from the void. Every step he took rumbled the heavens and earth!

Chapter 1027 Critically Injuring the Golden Dragon Young Master With a Mere Glance, the Divine Dragon Island Goes All Out

At the Hundred Academy, Chu Kuangren had truly become an Immortal, and his Immortal's Core was vastly different from that of an ordinary Immortal.

Chapter 1028 Facing off Against the Dragon Immortals, Eight Celestial Demonic Chords Versus the Five Ways Earth Qi Formation

Chu Kuangren leaped into the air to face off against every Dragon Immortal of Divine Dragon Island!

In the sky, where winds and clouds billowed, Chu Kuangren stood in the air with his hands behind his back. He made a sword hand sign and pointed to the ground as he looked over the world. In front of him, at least thirty Dragon Immortals were approaching him.

Even the five senior elders of the Divine Dragon Island, who were second only to the five Dragon Rulers in strength had made a move.

The five of them were all Earthen Immortals!

Besides the Heavenly Immortals like the Dean and Gong Yue, who stood at the peak of power, no one else in the Planquilon Immortal World could face off against such a lineup, let alone someone like Chu Kuangren, who had just become an Immortal.

However, he was not at all afraid.

On the contrary, he was as arrogant and confident as ever!

His eyes lit up like a torch as he locked onto one of the Dragon Immortals. Having already formed a sword hand sign, he immediately attacked his target, surrounding that Dragon Immortal with his sword aura. "I'll start with you!"

His target was a Dragon Immortal from the line of the Golden Dragons.

The moment Chu Kuangren said that, a seething chill overwhelmed that Dragon Immortal, plunging him into immense terror.

"This is not good!"

"Gold Dragon Shield!" he roared while activating the defensive technique with his full strength.

Daoist patterns intertwined to form a golden shield!

Whoosh...

A purple sword ray then shot across the skies, tearing apart that golden shield like it was nothing and instantly killing that Dragon Immortal!

"Quick, attack!"

"Gold Dragon Claw!"

"Flame Dragon Howl!"

The Dragon Immortals attacked. Their terrifyingly powerful Immortal's Core energy and draconic qi rumbled the void as it headed towards Chu Kuangren one after another.

However, Chu Kuangren did not dodge or evade. With his Dao Proclamation Seals surrounding him, he quickly channeled his Immortal's Core energy and mind power simultaneously to form several vortexes around him.

"Ultimate Chasm of Convergence!"

The invisible vortexes of that defensive technique swirled once again!

When the attacks of the Dragon Immortals landed on it, they dispersed at once. Meanwhile, Chu Kuangren remained standing, his white robes unstained and his very being unscathed!

"Is that all the Divine Dragon Island has?" Chu Kuangren said indifferently.

Then, he unleashed the Thousand Lotus Sword Intent with his sword hand sign. Countless purple lotuses appeared in the void and turned into countless sword rays that were launched in all directions!

The Dragon Immortals tried to defend themselves from it but were inevitably injured.

“D*mn it!”

“True dragon form, activate!” Along with the sound of dragon chants, the surrounding Dragon Immortals turned into their true dragon forms. Dozens of kilometer-long dragons soon appeared in the air, their terrifying draconic might instantly envelop the skies as lightning flashed and thunder boomed!

“Roar!”

Multiple roars sounded as the dragons charged toward Chu Kuangren.

“Single Thought Series, Absolute Silence, Planetary Destruction!”

Chu Kuangren channeled his Immortal’s Core energy and mind power, turning them into purple and red bands of light that spread out in all directions. The incoming dragons were immediately blasted in the air. Their huge bodies were damaged, and blood rained down from the sky.

Some of the cultivators could not hold themselves back upon seeing those dragon blood.

After all, dragon blood was a priceless item.

It could be used to refine pills and even forge weapons. However, if anyone were to blatantly collect the dragon blood on Divine Dragon Island, they would be skinned alive.

“He’s more powerful now compared to the battle at the Slumbering Sword Ocean last year,” said one of the cultivators as he lamented.

“Back then, he was just forcefully increasing his cultivation to an Immortal’s level through some means. However, now that he has actually become an Immortal, his combat strength is visibly much greater. Even so, his strength is ridiculous.”

“If he’s so strong when he has just become an Immortal, won’t he be invincible in the Planquilon Immortal World in due time?”

“This is terrifying!”

“The Divine Dragon Island is in real trouble this time.”

Everyone could not help but feel shocked as they watched the battle in the skies unfold.

An uncontrollable killing intent also appeared in the Honorable Yokai Hall Ruler’s eyes.

“This person will surely become a great threat to my Yokai Hall!”

Although he did not wish to see the Divine Dragon Island and the Sycamore Mountain unite in marriage, he would hate to see Chu Kuangren growing stronger with time.

“I’ll continue to observe the situation.”

“Once he has worn down the power of the Divine Dragon Island, I shall let him meet his end here!” the Yokai Ruler said coldly.

By then, Chu Kuangren had taken out the Cloud Nine Insignia to battle the Dragon Immortals.

He placed the Immortal guqin before him.

With a pluck from his fingers, the tune of the Eight Celestial Demonic Chords reverberated in the realm. Its power was almost on par with Immortal Techniques like the Thousand Lotus Sword Intent.

However, it was now strengthened by the Cloud Nine Insignia, which was a top-tier Heavenly Immortal Weapon and a fragment of a Source Supreme Treasure.

Within the Planquilon Immortal World, only a few could rival its power.

Guqin music echoed through the skies.

Under that attack, the Dragon Immortals fell one after another, and that terrifying power stunned everyone watching.

Somewhere far away, the five Dragon Rulers' hearts broke to see that.

Those Dragon Immortals were the backbone of Divine Dragon Island!

Yet, they were now slaughtered by Chu Kuangren like mere cattle!

With the Dean and Gong Yue, who were both Heavenly Immortals, holding the five Dragon Rulers back, none of them could go and help.

"Would all the Dragon Immortals of Divine Dragon Island end up dead in Chu Kuangren's hands?" someone commented.

"No, look at the five senior elders."

Someone noticed something.

The five senior elders of the Divine Dragon Island did not join the battle. Instead, they stood in the air with many colorful surges of draconic qi swirling around them. It was as if they were preparing to do something.

All of a sudden, the whole Divine Dragon Island started to rumble. "What's happening?" "What's going on?"

Amidst everyone's shock, a huge roar came from the skies above.

"Great Five Ways True Dragon Earth Qi Formation, activate!" the five senior elders said loudly.

As the Divine Dragon Island rumbled, a vast surge of earth qi rose into the sky!

The five of them joined forces and channeled the earth qi from the Divine Dragon Island to create several gigantic earth qi pillars, forming a huge formation that trapped Chu Kuangren within.

Besides that, the earth qi of the Divine Dragon Island merged with the draconic qi of those five senior elders into five gigantic dragon figures of different colors — gold, green, white, crimson, and yellow.

Five dragon figures each represented the five ways and the five lineages of the divine dragons!

"Attack!"

"Chu Kuangren, die!"

The five elders channeled surges of earth qi towards Chu Kuangren. It was a powerful attack on the level of a Middle Third Grade Earthen Immortal.

At that, Chu Kuangren's expression turned serious.

All ten of his fingers started dancing on the guqin, plucking its strings.

"Synchronous Overworld Anarchy!"

Terrifying guqin music reverberated the realm once again and shook the heavens and earth!

As the Synchronous Overworld Anarchy faced off against the five dragon figures, the two different forces collided violently in the void, causing portions of the void to shatter one after another!

"To battle!"

The five divine dragon elders roared as they channeled their draconic qi.

Chu Kuangren's guqin music had also reached its final chord!

"Eight Celestial Demonic Chords, Grand Melodic Void!"

The silence of the guqin music was followed by silence in the realm!

There was an overwhelming terror within the silence!

Along with surges of Immortal's core energy, the silent guqin music instantly destroyed the five dragon figures, and the guqin music became noisy. As a result of the collision, blastwaves spread everywhere, pushing back all the clouds within a hundred-kilometer radius.

The five divine dragon elders were sent flying backward with blood spewing from their mouths.

Chu Kuangren was also hit by the blastwaves.

However, he recovered effortlessly due to his Immortal Body.

Between both sides, one side was heavily injured while the other was unscathed!

The outcome was as clear as the sky!

"How can this be? Why couldn't we kill him even with the Great Five Ways True Dragon Earth Qi Formation?!"

"What kind of monster is he?"

The five elders were shocked and in utter disbelief.

"I don't believe it. I refuse to believe it!"

The Golden Dragon elder stood up with a grim expression. Then, he took out an Immortal Pill and consumed it, instantly recovering most of his injuries.

The other four senior elders also used their respective healing items.

Soon, the auras of the five elders gradually recovered.

Everyone was amazed.

“As expected of an ancient Immortal orthodoxy. They really do have a lot of treasures.”

Chapter 1029 A Dragon Ruler Joins the Battle, Falling Into a Disadvantage, Can You Survive This?

Chu Kuangren held the Cloud Nine Insignia with an indifferent expression.

Armed with that guqin, he battled the Dragon Immortals of the Divine Dragon Island alone.

The five senior elders had channeled the Divine Dragon Island’s earth qi to create the Great Five Ways Earth Qi Formation, but that was not enough to stop Chu Kuangren.

After the elders recovered from their injuries, they channeled the power of that formation once again and resumed battling Chu Kuangren. The remaining Dragon Immortals also did not hold back and unleashed all their trump cards while taking advantage of the formation’s effects against Chu Kuangren.

Everyone else was shocked at the battle’s progression.

Although Divine Dragon Island had resorted to using everything in their book, it seemed like Chu Kuangren’s power was limitless. It was as if nothing could stop him.

The Yokai Ruler frowned. “Things will not end up well for the dragons if this continues, and if Chu Kuangren were to leave after this, things will get worse for us soon.”

He pondered and looked into the distance.

After that, he dashed in the direction of the Dean and others and yelled upon arrival. “I shall lend you a hand, Dragon Rulers!”

Following that, a vast surge of a yokai Immortal’s Core energy gushed forth. As it headed towards the Dean, that energy shone brightly like a golden crow covering the sun with its light.

The Dean snorted and flung his sleeves. A similar burst of Immortal’s Core energy was released at the incoming golden crow energy.

“Yokai Ruler, are you going to meddle with this matter?”

“The Yokai Hall, Divine Dragon Island, and Sycamore Mountain are part of Yokai Tribes’ orthodoxies in one way or another. An enemy of them is an enemy of mine. As the Yokai Ruler, how can I not interfere?” said the Yokai Ruler righteously as he stood in the air with his hands behind his back.

Those words instantly lifted the morale of the yokai present, and they all looked at the Yokai Ruler with admiration and amazement.

“As expected of the Yokai Ruler. Well said!”

“That’s right. The Yokai Ruler is awesome!”

“All hail the Yokai Ruler!”

“The Yokai Ruler is truly a real leader. What an excellent person.”

The Yokai Ruler remained calm as he listened to those words of praise from around him. However, deep down, he was really happy. 'I've gained support from my people once again.'

"We're deeply grateful for your help, Yokai Ruler. Please hold back the Dean and the Jade Clarity Sect Leader for us. Once I've dealt with Chu Kuangren, we shall make both of them pay!" the Azure Dragon Ruler said before he dashed towards Chu Kuangren.

A terrifying draconic might soon burst through the clouds and spread everywhere.

A Dragon Ruler has taken action against Chu Kuangren!

Moreover, the Azure Dragon Ruler was a Heavenly Immortal!

The Dean and Gong Yue's faces turned grim. They both wanted to stop him but were stopped by the other Yokai Rulers, the other four Dragon Rulers, and the two Sycamore Mountain Rulers.

"D*mn it. You'll have to watch out, Brother Chu."

Despite how confident the Dean was in Chu Kuangren's abilities, a Heavenly Immortal was very powerful. Even he was not sure if Chu Kuangren could survive battling such an opponent. After all, he had just become an Immortal not long ago.

Meanwhile, still inside the Great Five Ways Earth Qi Formation, Chu Kuangren soon sensed the presence of a tremendous draconic qi looming over him, and his gaze turned serious.

"Oh, it's a Dragon Ruler."

Roar!

Following a sharp roar, an azure dragon emanating a terrifying aura appeared.

Its aura rumbled the entire universe.

Chu Kuangren's gaze narrowed. As the Immortal's Core energy within him surged, he plucked the guqin strings. "Grand Melodic Void!"

The most powerful movement of the Eight Celestial Demonic Chords landed on that dragon.

After a tremendously loud explosion erupted, Chu Kuangren was blasted hundreds of meters back by the shockwave, and his body exploded into pieces.

However, it was restored by the Immortal Body within seconds.

"Is this a Heavenly Immortal's combat strength? Daoist techniques that reach the heavens, huh? Those words are true, it seems," Chu Kuangren mumbled as he looked at the dragon.

In the air, that dragon transformed back into an azure-haired Dragon Immortal with draconic qi swirling around him. He was looking at Chu Kuangren with rageful eyes.

It was the Azure Dragon Ruler.

Looking at the pile of Dragon Immortal corpses on the ground, a fit of unprecedented anger welled up within him.

“God d*amn you, Chu Kuangren! I shall reduce you to dust for killing the Dragon Immortals of my Divine Dragon Island!” the Azure Dragon Ruler sneered. His chilling killing intent spread forth like a cold wind, instantly enveloping the whole area.

“You guys focus on trapping him in this great formation, and I’ll kill him!” the Azure Dragon Ruler said to the other Dragon Immortals.

“Very well.”

Boom!

After that, the Azure Dragon Ruler immediately attacked. His Immortal’s Core energy and Daoist patterns merged into a gigantic dragon claw.

Chu Kuangren, on the other hand, unleashed the Grand Melodic Void once again.

However, he was still blasted away!

Since he had just become an Immortal, he was two levels beneath a Heavenly Immortal!

How could he fill such a huge power gap?

“It looks like Chu Kuangren is going to die soon.”

“Now that the Heavenly Immortal has taken action, there’s no way he can fight back.”

Everyone shook their heads.

None of them were confident in Chu Kuangren’s survival.

Despite that, everyone saw Chu Kuangren as an incredible person for having achieved something as extraordinary as that. No one in history could ever come close to him.

“Phew... Is that person finally going to die?”

The Fated Ones like Lin Yan and Yuan Xu sighed in relief.

Chu Kuangren’s existence had given them too much pressure, and they would forever be unable to step out of his spotlight as long as he lived.

“It’s a shame I can’t kill him myself. If only I could, perhaps that trauma I had from back then would be erased,” Lin Yan said to himself.

Yuan Xu, who was nearby, nodded as well. “It’s a shame that I won’t be the one to kill him. Otherwise, I could learn all of his secrets that would make my Immortal Path much easier.”

Inside the runic barrier of light, Lan Yu, Shang Hong Hua, and the others looked anxiously at the sky.

“Master will definitely be fine. I’m sure of it...” Lan Yu mumbled.

‘Isn’t he always in highly dangerous situations?’

'He has come out at the top and unscathed every single time.'

'It will surely be the same this time.'

Lan Yu continued cheering Chu Kuangren on from the bottom of her heart.

That was the only thing she could do. Even the Sword Crown could not interfere with the battle.

Up in the sky, Chu Kuangren was continuously forced back due to the Azure Dragon Ruler's attacks. He was at a complete disadvantage now. Furthermore, his escape route was blocked by the Earth Qi Formation, with the Dean and Gong Yue held back by the other Dragon Rulers as well.

With a Heavenly Immortal seething with killing intent in front of him and a formation blocking his path from behind, no help could reach Chu Kuangren at all.

It seemed like he had run out of options.

However, his expression remained unchanged despite being in such a situation.

"The Heavenly Immortal's power is truly extraordinary. It really does precede its reputation. However, it'll still take more than this for you guys to kill me!"

Then, he took something out.

It was a blood-colored Buddha Statue with three heads and six limbs.

A boundless light emitted from the blood-colored Buddha, with blood-colored Buddhist Lights swirling to form an apparition of a gigantic blood-colored Buddha in the void.

"Oh, an Immortal Weapon?"

The Azure Dragon Ruler was not threatened at all by it. Instead, he sneered. "You are powerless against me even with the Cloud Nine Insignia, so what makes you think that this Three-Headed Six-Limbed Resentful Buddha can?"

"Chu Kuangren, it looks like you've run out of ideas!"

A grin remained on Chu Kuangren's face. "Oh really?"

The Buddhist Light coming from the Three-Headed Six-Limbed Resentful Buddha grew increasingly brighter as if a surge of unimaginable energy was going to erupt from within it.

"This energy... Are you going to..."

Seemingly having thought of something, the Azure Dragon Ruler's gaze suddenly narrowed, and he looked terrified.

"Now I wonder, can a Heavenly Immortal survive a blast from a self-destructing Heavenly Weapon?"
Chu Kuangren chuckled.

Chapter 1030 Dragon Immortals Falling Like Dead Leaves, Chu Kuangren Is Dead? Nope, He's Alive
he power of a self-destructing Heavenly Immortal Weapon?!

Everyone present gasped upon hearing that, and they felt a chill running down their spine. They were immediately overcome by an inexplicable shock and... terror!

“We must get out of here! Now!”

“F*cking hell, this guy is a lunatic!”

“Fall back!”

Everyone immediately fled from the area in all directions.

Even the Azure Dragon Leader wanted to escape.

However, a crimson lasso suddenly appeared and caught onto him, immobilizing him in the process. It was the Dragon-Binding Lasso, a True Immortal Weapon!

The Dragon Binding Lasso was so powerful that even Chu Kuangren could not summon its full strength at his current level.

Escaping right away would not be easy for the Azure Dragon Leader, even if he was a Heavenly Immortal.

Besides, Chu Kuangren only needed to hold him in place for an instant, so it was enough.

The Three-Headed Six-Limbed Resentful Buddha started to crack before the blood-colored Buddha avatar exploded, blasting endless surges of resentful Buddha energy everywhere like a violent tsunami.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The void exploded, and the whole Divine Dragon Island rumbled.

The self-destructing Immortal Weapon was undoubtedly terrifying. If a normal Immortal Weapon were to self-destruct, even an Earthen Immortal would have to watch out for it.

However, even the Heavenly Immortals would have to stay away if an Earthen Immortal Weapon were to self-destruct, let alone a Heavenly Immortal Weapon!

The amount of power released was just too terrifying!

The resentful Buddha energy wiped out everything in its path. As the one to take the brunt of that explosion, the Azure Dragon Ruler was critically injured, and his body exploded into bits.

That Great Five Ways Earth Qi Formation also crumbled at that very instant.

The remaining Dragon Immortals escaped frantically. However, because they were in the heart of that Immortal Weapon's explosion, none of them could escape the fate of being caught up in the blast.

One by one, several destroyed corpses of the Dragon Immortals fell from the sky. Along with remnants of rage qi, colorful dragon blood rained down.

The blood of the crimson dragons scorched the earth dry, the azure dragons' blood accelerated the growth of life in the area, while the blood of the yellow dragons created countless craters upon landing on the ground...

Following the death of so many dragons, conjurations appeared one after another on the Divine Dragon Island.

Boom!

A gigantic azure dragon's corpse fell from the sky.

The corpse of that azure dragon was completely destroyed, with blood flowing profusely from every wound. Having been showered by that azure's dragon blood, the surrounding mountains brimmed with greenery and life.

Everyone was stunned speechless at that sight because that was the Azure Dragon Ruler's corpse!

It was a Heavenly Immortal's corpse!

Everyone fell silent.

The Dean and others from afar also stopped fighting

The remaining Dragon Rulers were red with anger when they saw that. The four of them were consumed by rage, but at the same time, another feeling, one they had never felt before, soon overwhelmed them. It was the feeling of... fear!

The self-destruction of a Heavenly Immortal Weapon had caused the Divine Dragon Island to suffer huge casualties. More than half of the Dragon Immortals were killed in that explosion, including a Dragon Ruler!

The Divine Dragon Island was almost decimated!

"They're dead..."

"All of them are dead. The Dragon Ruler is dead, and even Chu Kuangren is dead."

Some people amidst the crowd soon recovered from the shock.

However, the others were still silent.

The horror of a self-destructing Heavenly Immortal Weapon was evident. To think a Heavenly Immortal like the Azure Dragon Ruler was blown up to death, let alone Chu Kuangren, who had just become an Immortal.

That power was enough to kill him a dozen times over!

"What a freaking madman. I can't believe he would do something so crazy."

"Even in death, he wanted to drag the Dragon Ruler along? That guy is very crazy, for sure. It's a shame he was too foolish."

"If he were to survive, he'd undoubtedly be one the most powerful people in this Immortal World. Unfortunately, he chose to act according to his emotions. He is truly a fool for doing something like this."

Everyone was sure that Chu Kuangren did not survive the blast.

Some were sad because of his parting, while some were angered by his foolishness.

However, most of the people present — the sky-prides and Immortals — breathed a sigh of relief.

Chu Kuangren's existence had always made them uneasy. After all, no one knew what an uncontrollable person like him would do the next second.

It would benefit them greatly if an anomaly like him were to be eliminated.

"He's finally dead." Lin Yan breathed a sigh of relief.

Then, his spirits lifted. "With Chu Kuangren's death, this world shall finally belong to the Fated Ones like me!"

The Honorable Yokai Hall Ruler, who was far away, grinned as well. "This is wonderful. Chu Kuangren, you've done well taking down the Divine Dragon Island. I can't believe you even resorted to self-destruction. Now that most of the Divine Dragon Island and one of their Dragon Rulers are dead, it's only a matter of time before I take over the Divine Dragon Island.

"You've really done a good job." The Yokai Ruler could not help but grin. If not for so many people here, he would have burst out in laughter.

The battle had resulted in Chu Kuangren's death and the Divine Dragon Island's decimation, and it was more than anything that the Yokai Ruler could ever hope for.

"Look! What's that?"

Suddenly, some of the more keen-eyed cultivators noticed something. A crimson rope was still bound to the Azure Dragon Leader's corpse, and that item was gleaming with Immortal Sparks.

It was Dragon-Binding Lasso, the True Immortal Weapon.

"That's the True Immortal Weapon Chu Kuangren obtained back on Penglai Island. That is, no doubt, a True Immortal Weapon. I can't believe it wasn't damaged by the explosion earlier."

"A True Immortal Weapon..."

Every cultivator had a coveting gaze. From their perspective, that True Immortal Weapon was now free to take following Chu Kuangren's death.

Besides, how could anyone resist a True Immortal Weapon? As such, many cultivators soon took action to snatch it.

"This True Immortal Weapon is mine."

"Hmph, this item belongs to me!"

"Do you think you deserve this True Immortal Weapon? F*ck off now!"

Several types of energy and attacks were unleashed as a messy battle broke out. Even some of the Earthen Immortals from the immortal orthodoxies also could not help themselves from fighting over it.

Meanwhile, somewhere far away, the Sword Crown, Lan Yu, and others were a little dumbfounded at the scene.

“Is Master truly dead?” The Sword Crown was still in disbelief. ‘Is Master truly dead? Is that arrogant and fearless person really dead?’

He felt like he was dreaming.

How could that be?

Then, he looked at the bunch of people fighting over the Dragon-Binding Lasso, and a chilling killing intent seethed from his eyes. “Do you think Master’s possession is yours to touch?”

He felt that if Chu Kuangren was dead, the Dragon-Binding Lasso would be considered his inheritance. How could just anyone touch it?

Just as he was about to take action, ripples and a white light suddenly appeared in the void.

That conjuration instantly attracted everyone’s attention, including the Sword Crown.

There were countless Daoist patterns intertwining within it, and then the figure of a human started to show.

“Can it be...”

A crazy idea popped up in everyone’s minds.

The next instant, as if to prove everyone right, that white light suddenly dispersed, and a white-robed man appeared before everyone.

It was Chu Kuangren!

Everyone’s eyes widened with disbelief.

Chu Kuangren was still alive!

“I knew it. Master is fine.” Lan Yu’s tense face suddenly relaxed, and a smile spread across her face.

Shang Honghua also breathed a sigh of relief. “Phew, that was quite a scare.”

“Boss, you’re a freaking b-b-bad*ss!” Lil Fox was so emotional that she stuttered.

On the other hand, Yuan Xu, Lin Yan, and the other sky-prides were stunned. At the same time, they felt extremely dissatisfied!

“W-Why is he still alive?!”

“If that doesn’t kill him, what kind of monster is he?!”

Planquilon Immortal World would have been theirs, but Chu Kuangren’s recovery shattered that fantasy of theirs.

The world was still Chu Kuangren’s to dominate and reign supreme!
