Chapter 1051: Immortal Qing Song Fled, Stellar Undying Physique Perfected

Meanwhile, on Firmament Star, all the others stared blankly at the arriving warships and the Yokai Tribes cultivators that they ferried. They were overwhelmed by the scene.

Chu Kuangren told them there would be reinforcements coming, and they thought it might be some Pseudo-Immortal. If it was any better, the reinforcement might even be an Immortal.

However, who could have thought they would welcome the arrival of not one, not two but a whole group of Immortals?

“What has the King been doing out there all these years? How did he get so many Immortals to come? It’s amazing!”

“As expected of the King.”

“We are going to win this!”

The Sword Daoist Celestial, Transcendental Daoist Celestial, and the others were unusually excited.

Back in space, Immortal Iron Saber and Immortal Qing Song exchanged a quick look before they flew further away to escape the scene.

“Oh, trying to run, are we?”

Immortal Hao Feng narrowed his eyes and reached his hand out. A tremendous amount of Earthen Immortal’s Core energy erupted and transformed into a gigantic hand.

The terrifying aura locked on to the two fleeing Immortals.

Immortal Iron Saber unleashed a furious strike, trying to resist being apprehended. However, his powers were too weak before an Earthen Immortal.

His strike did nothing, and he was crushed by the gigantic Immortal’s Core hand, squashing him into a cloud of blood mist.

Immortal Qing Song was horrified by the scene. His face turned pale, and without another word, his body disintegrated into a cloud of bloody mist. However, amidst the bloody mists, tens of thousands of blood-colored rays scattered away.

“Oh, is this some kind of fleeing technique?” Immortal Hao Feng was slightly surprised.

He could sense that each of the tens of thousands of blood-colored rays contained a trace of Immortal Qing Song’s consciousness.

He reached out to the blood-colored with his Immortal’s Core energy and stopped most of them from fleeing. Nevertheless, some managed to slip away.

“Lucky dog.” Immortal Hao Feng grunted in dissatisfaction.

He had just broken through to the Earthen Immortal Realm and had yet to completely master his newfound powers. Otherwise, Immortal Qing Song would not have escaped.

Immortal Hao Feng looked at the troops Immortal Qing Song had left behind.

The others already knew what was going on without him having to say anything. They, too, launched their final attack on the troops.

Following the fall of the two Immortals, the troops’ morale collapsed, and they lost the will to battle. Since Gu Wuqing and the others were also far stronger than them, the troops were all killed in a while.

Then, Gu Wuqing and the others entered Firmament Star.

When they laid eyes on the Daoist Celestial and sensed the cultivation level of the planet, they were very impressed.

“I can’t believe a cultivation civilization that doesn’t even have an Immortal has given birth to someone as astounding as the Master.”

“Even though this cultivation civilization isn’t considered strong now, the Heavenly Dao in the stars was surprisingly strong. With the Master’s guidance, I believe that, in time, Firmament Star will rise to the top among all the billion civilizations out there.”

“That’s right. The growth potential is high.”

Gu Wuqing and the others shared the same thought.

It was then Gu Linglong and the others came to welcome them.

“Did the King request for you to come to our assistance?” the Transcendental Daoist Celestial asked reluctantly.

At that question, Gu Wuqing quickly explained, “It’s the Master’s order, and we dare not disobey. There is no need for him to ask or request for our assistance as it is the right thing to do.”

The Transcendental Daoist Celestial and the others could not believe what they heard.

They could tell that Gu Wuqing and the others obeyed Chu Kuangren wholeheartedly.

It was difficult for Transcendental Daoist Celestial and the others to imagine that it had only been a few years since Chu Kuangren left Firmament Star as a mere Daoist Celestial, and now he had achieved many great things.

How powerful had he become?

“The King, has he become an Immortal?” the Transcendental Daoist Celestial asked curiously.

"Of course." Gu Wuqing smiled plainly. In fact, not only had Chu Kuangren become an Immortal, but he had even turned the entire Planquilon Immortal World upside down.

"Hahaha, great. That's great to hear." The Transcendental Daoist Celestial cackled in laughter.

To him, the most important thing for a civilization to strengthen its position among the stars was to have its own Immortal.

Now, hearing that Chu Kuangren was an Immortal, the news excited him more than anything.

"This is great!"

"I knew he'd make it!"

Daoist Celestial Luo Shui, the Chaos Daoist Celestial, and the others were over the moon as well.

"You guys must have traveled far to get here. I bet it must be tiring. I have told the men to prepare a feast to welcome your arrival," Gu Linglong said.

"Thank you."

...

Among the stars of Violet Gold Galaxy, a blood-colored ray arrived and converged into an elderly.

It was Immortal Qing Song, who had just escaped from Immortal Hao Feng.

He was at his weakest at the moment, with almost no Immortal powers, not even one of a thousandth of his prime.

"D*mn it! D*mn it! How could this happen? Where did that tiny Firmament Star get so many Immortals to their aid?" Immortal Qing Feng was both furious and baffled.

A cultivation civilization, which had never given birth to any Immortal, suddenly had a bunch of Immortals to their aid. It was inconceivable.

"They came on their Master's order? Who's their master?"

Despite having no answers to all his questions, he could notice and confirm that Firmament Star had very powerful support behind them.

"So what if they have powerful support? In this universe, no support is stronger than our Heavenly Dao Sect. This defeat has damaged my Immortal body, Immortal's Core, and even my Immortal Consciousness. I won't let this go this easily. It seems like I have to ask for the Daoist's help," Immortal Qing Song mumbled.

However, Heavenly Daoist Kun was too far away from Violet Gold Galaxy, and it would take a long time for him to reach here.

"I can only use the Heavenly Daoist Projection to summon the Daoist's clone. It might not be as powerful as his real self, but it should be enough to deal with those bastards. However, in order to use this technique, I must first use the Heavenly Dao as a catalyst and offer a massive amount of lifeforce as sacrifice..."

Immortal Qing Song stared at a Living Planet, and a hint of coldness appeared in his eyes.

“I’ll take that planet as the sacrifice to summon the Daoist’s clone.”

After Immortal Qing Song was almost recovered, he flew towards the Living Planet like the devil bringing an apocalypse.

...

Back at Jade Emperor Galaxy, all that was left of the star was a planet-size fireball.

It was on this day that the fireball imploded in the air, and a massive amount of flame was devoured.

A fiery figure stood in space, emanating massive heat and strong light that shone across planets and stars, shaking even the universe.

The sudden change of the star attracted the attention of many cultivators, and they could not help but stare at the fiery figure with a grave look in their eyes.

“He has come out of closed-door meditation.”

“I did not expect that he’d swallow an entire star. How terrifying.”

Amid the crowd’s gaze, the fire on the figure slowly extinguished to reveal his white robes — it was Chu Kuangren.

His skin was as fair as white jade, and Immortal Sparks surrounded him. His blood flowed like the strongest torrent, and every piece of flesh, muscle, and bone was imbued with mystical Daoist patterns.

He looked and felt indomitable.

“I have finally perfected my Stellar Undying Physique¹!” Chu Kuangren grinned happily.

He simply threw a punch into the void without using any kind of energy.

For a moment there, a violent storm ravaged the stars, and several planets further away were destroyed by the wind from the punch.

1

Chapter 1052: Stellar Undying Physique’s Strength, Heavenly Daoist Kun’s Arrival

Kaboom!

A map of planets was destroyed by a simple punch from Chu Kuangren. Its rampant power trembled countless other cultivators who were there to watch.

The unbelievable scene forced a terrified look on their faces.

“What kind of power is this?”

“What a terrifying physical body. Did he absorb the star just to cultivate that body of his? What kind of cultivation method is this?”

Everyone was in awe, including Chu Kuangren as he stared at his own fist.

“This power is a lot stronger than the Expert Stellar Undying Physique. It’s on a completely different level!

“So this is the power of an Immortal Physique, huh? I have a feeling that I can now kill an Earthen Immortal by solely relying on this body.

“And this is just the offensive part, considering the Stellar Undying Physique excels in defense rather than offense,” Chu Kuangren mumbled.

As the Perfected Stellar Undying Physique’s highlighted his defense, he felt that every cell in his body had become a star, and countless stars combined to form his ultimate body.

Was he a star? No, he felt more like a galaxy!

1

Destroying his body would be like destroying countless stars or eliminating an entire galaxy at once!

It was a little exaggerating, but it was the best way he could think of to describe the most terrifying thing about the Stellar Undying Physique.

On top of that, he had a feeling that he had not reached the limit with the Stellar Undying Physique.

Albeit perfected, it still had space for improvement.

“If I continue to absorb stars, my body should be able to continue growing,” Chu Kuangren said with anticipation.

By then, the cells in his body would be stronger than a star, a planet, or even a galaxy. He might become the universe itself!

“Now, it’s time to head back.” Chu Kuangren stared coldly into the distant galaxy.

With a step forward, he disappeared on the spot. Spatial Conveyor Technique was cast multiple times as he headed toward Firmament Star.

...

Back at Violet Gold Galaxy, a certain planet harboring countless lives was facing a catastrophe that they had never encountered before.

Immortal Qing Song stood on top of a pile of scraps, surrounded by countless dead bodies as if he was standing in purgatory.

As he chanted rhythmically, a large amount of life force rose from the dead bodies like steam and converged into a bloody bead in the air.

“The Myriad Spirit Heavenly Blood Bead is completed!” Immortal Qing Song grinned.

He reached out to the bead. “With this item and the Heavenly Dao here, I will be able to summon Heavenly Daoist Kun.”

Without further ado, he started what needed to be done.

A moment later, the planet was shrouded in dark clouds, and thunder rumbled. The Heavenly Dao's energy emerged and turned into a bloody bolt of lightning that struck Immortal Qing Song, trying to stop him.

Alas, it failed. The Heavenly Dao was not strong enough to stop an Immortal.

Although the Immortal's power had been weakened to the level of a Daoist Celestial, his fate was not something the Heavenly Dao of that planet could control.

"Myriad Spirit Heavenly Blood Bead, go!"

Immortal Qing Song tossed the bead into the sky.

The bead shone brightly, and mystical Daoist patterns started to intertwine. Then, a terrifying energy fluctuation spread from the bead and shattered all the lightning in the sky.

Not only that, but the Heavenly Dao of that planet started to tremble as its power was being absorbed by the bead.

Following the weakening of the Heavenly Dao, the planet soon fell weak, and even its planetary glow started to dim out.

Toward the end, a crimson light pillar shot up into the sky from the bead.

A blood-colored vortex started to appear in the light pillar, and in the center of the vortex emerged a man in golden robes.

The man's eyes were as keen as a bolt of lightning, and the aura he emanated was powerful. The moment he descended, the Heavenly Dao of the planet started to tremble as it was absorbed into the man's body.

The man was Kun Tian, Heavenly Daoist Kun of the Heavenly Dao Sect.

"Why did you summon my Heavenly Daoist Projection?" Heavenly Daoist Kun asked.

"Daoist, the situation is this..."

Immortal Qing Song then informed Heavenly Daoist Kun of what happened.

After the brief explanation, a hint of surprise appeared in Heavenly Daoist Kun's eyes. "Oh, this is interesting."

"Daoist, there must be a huge secret hidden in Firmament Star. That is why I took my chances to summon your projection."

"I thought you were unwilling to accept your defeat, so you summoned me to avenge you," Heavenly Daoist Kun said.

"I dare not." Immortal Qing Song lowered his head.

He believed if he told Heavenly Daoist Kun to avenge him, Heavenly Daoist Kun would definitely slap his soul into pieces.

“You wouldn’t dare even if you have the guts to. Let’s go. Bring me to Firmament Star and let’s see what is so special about it,” Heavenly Daoist Kun said.

Soon, Immortal Qing Song led Heavenly Daoist Kun to the outer rim of Firmament Star.

“This place is really something else.”

Heavenly Daoist Kun’s eyes shone as he gazed upon Firmament Star. He had seen a lot of Heavenly Dao, but the one before him was a special one. It had a huge potential for growth, or rather, the planet itself had huge potential.

“Interesting.”

Heavenly Daoist Kun then looked at the Human King Seal that protected Firmament Star, and it piqued his interest.

“Humanity Fortune Treasure? I can destroy this tiny star with a swing of my hand, let alone this tiny Humanity Fortune Treasure.”

He threw a punch, in which the force precisely landed on the Humanity Fortune Treasure, blasting it away into space. The item that was closely related to the fate and fortune of the people of Firmament Star was blasted away just like that.

Back on the planet, all the Daoist Celestial, Gu Wuqing, and the others sensed the commotion.

They flew up to space only to see Heavenly Daoist Kun as if they were looking at their greatest enemy.

“This man is different.”

Immortal Hao Feng tried sensing Heavenly Daoist Kun, but the latter shocked him. He could not see through the man in golden robes.

“You have two options now: bow down to me or die,” Heavenly Daoist Kun said proudly with his hands behind his back.

“Bow? Dream on!” Immortal Hao Feng grunted coldly. After that, his Immortal’s Core energy gushed out of his body and transformed into a giant hand that tried to seize Heavenly Daoist Kun.

“It’s rather surprising to see an Earthen Immortal in this galaxy, but your strength is still not good enough.”

Heavenly Daoist Kun raised his hand and channeled a strand of Immortal’s Core energy inside him. Although it was just a strand, it contained an unimaginably massive Heavenly Dao energy within.

A single punch from him crushed Immortal Hao Feng’s giant hand. It even blasted Immortal Hao Feng almost a few hundred meters away.

“This power... He’s definitely an Earthen Immortal, an Earthen Immortal who has mastered a very powerful Heavenly Dao power!” Immortal Hao Feng’s face was ashen.

Gu Wuqing and the others gulped nervously as well. They did not expect Firmament Star to deal with such a powerful opponent.

“Regardless, we must stop him.”

“We cannot let him set foot on Firmament Star!”

Gu Wuqing, Fox Tribe Forefather, and the others looked determined.

They might not have a direct connection to Firmament Star, but they were heavily in debt to Chu Kuangren. They had to protect Firmament Star on his behalf, even if it cost them their lives.

“Go!”

Gu Wuqing attacked first. He took out the Yin Yang Ancient Talisman and channeled the Yang Talisman’s power to fire a golden beam.

The scorching beam perforated the void. Even though Gu Wuqing was still not an Immortal, with the talisman, he could unleash the power that could rival an Immortal.

Chapter 1053: Heavenly Daoist Kun’s Power, Time Lock, Just In Time

“Oh? A strange Runic Immortal Weapon.”

Heavenly Daoist Kun glanced at Gu Wuqing with surprise before he punched the scorching beam and shattered it.

The Ying Yang Ancient Talisman was an Immortal Weapon with outstanding power. However, Gu Wuqing was not strong enough to utilize it to its full potential.

The other Immortals also joined the battle after Gu Wuqing’s preemptive strike.

The Fox Tribe Forefather, Gu Xing, and the other Immortals attacked altogether.

However, they were only common Immortals who were no match for Heavenly Daoist Kun as the man easily blasted them away with a swing of his hand.

“Haoran Gale!”

Immortal Hao Feng attacked again. He gathered the earth’s qi from the surrounding planets to himself and transformed them into a tornado before directing it at Heavenly Daoist Kun.

“Hmph! Petty tricks.” Heavenly Daoist Kun was not impressed.

He channeled his Immortal’s Core energy, and with the Heavenly Dao energy acting as a trigger, his divine aura spread across the surrounding planets, shaking them.

“Mighty Divine Heavenly Seal!”

Immortal Sparks shone brilliantly around Heavenly Daoist Kun. The combination of his Immortal’s Core energy and Heavenly Dao energy formed a massive seal high above them.

Then, it started crashing down on them as if the galaxy was falling.

Standing no chance against the seal, Immortal Hao Feng’s technique crushed and disintegrated upon contact.

The terrifying shockwave from the impact spread, blasting Immortal Hao Feng, Gu Wuqing, the Fox Tribe Forefather, and the others away.

“Wolf Blood Sword!”

At that moment, a Wolf Tribe Immortal bellowed as he drew a crimson-colored Immortal Sword that had runes swirling on its blade.

It was one of the Runic Immortal Weapons that Chu Kuangren got from Jade Emperor Treasure, and the Wolf Tribe Immortal got it from him.

He channeled his Immortal’s Core energy to the limit and imbued it into the sword. The sword’s runes glowed before it was thrust forward, releasing a rainbow-like sword qi at Heavenly Daoist Kun.

“Another Runic Immortal Weapon? You people have quite the tricks under your sleeves,” Heavenly Daoist Kun said.

He threw a punch at the sword qi. The eruption of his Heavenly Dao energy blasted the crimson sword away.

Then, several green pillars came from above and cut off all his escape routes. It was also from one of the Runic Immortal Weapons.

The Fox Tribe Forefather finally made his move. He had imbued his Immortal’s Core energy into a bead as big as his fist that released the green pillars.

“Hmph. There’s no end to this.” A cold glint appeared in Heavenly Daoist Kun’s eyes. His Immortal’s Core energy and Heavenly Dao energy were activated to their limits as they repeatedly crashed toward the green pillars.

With that, the green pillars started to crack under the powerful blast before crumbling into pieces and disintegrating into light particles.

The powerful blowback sent the Fox Tribe Forefather flying backward.

The Chaos Daoist Celestial and the others were horrified by the scene.

To them, an Immortal was the goal of all cultivation, but now, Heavenly Daoist Kun was displaying strength that easily overpowered an Immortal. It shook not only their minds but their understanding of cultivation as well.

“The universe is vast. Maybe an Immortal is not the goal of cultivation, or maybe it is our limited understanding that makes us think so,” the Transcendental Daoist Celestial said with a bitter look on his face.

“Everyone, get behind me!” Gu Wuqing shouted.

Then, he used the Yin Yang Ancient Talisman’s Yin Talisman’s protective effect to conjure a runic barrier to shield all of them.

“Hmph. Do you think that’s enough to stop me?” Heavenly Daoist Kun scoffed.

He threw another punch forward, and a massive fist crashed down on them.

Unparalleled power shook even the stars. Upon colliding with the barrier, a loud explosion went off.

Gu Wuqing's face turned pale all of a sudden. "This man is as strong as a Middle Third-grade Earthen Immortal. Even with the Yin Talisman's protection, I won't last long with my current cultivation level. Everyone, lend me a hand!"

Immortal Hao Feng stepped up to channel his Immortal's Core energy and imbue it into Gu Wuqing to help boost the barrier's tenacity.

With the help of an Immortal, the runic barrier shone brightly. Countless mystical runes rose to the air and shed light around the group.

"I would like to find out how long you people can hold on," Heavenly Daoist Kun said.

The combination of Immortal's Core energy and Heavenly Dao energy was released continuously to form the image of his fist that fell on the barrier like a meteor shower.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The barrier trembled violently.

"Lord Daoist is really amazing! He's really powerful! If a Heavenly Dao Projection of his possesses so much power, I believe his real body should be at least a Higher Third-grade Earthen Immortal," Immortal Qing Song exclaimed in a distance.

"There are eight bloodlines of Heavenly Dao — Tian, Di, Xuan, Huang, Ri, Yue, Qian, and Kun. If Heavenly Daoist Kun is only the eighth out of the bunch, I wonder how powerful the other seven Heavenly Daoists are, especially the first Heavenly Daoist Tian..."

Crack!

While Immortal Qing Song was carried away by his thoughts, the runic barrier started to crack, and the runes started to break one after another.

Immortal Qing Song grinned at the scene. "As expected. No matter what they have under their sleeves, they are not a Heavenly Daoist's opponent!"

"Mighty Divine Heavenly Seal! Break!" Heavenly Daoist Kun bellowed. The Heavenly Dao energy converged once more into a giant seal and then crashed on the barrier.

A loud bang later, the barrier finally exceeded its endurance threshold and broke!

Gu Wuqing, Immortal Hao Feng, and the others were blasted away with blood gushing from their mouths.

"D*mn..." Immortal Hao Feng started to feel a sense of hopelessness. He had gone through the mill to ascend into an Earthen Immortal. Yet, before he could fully experience the power and privilege of that status, here he was facing what might be the end of his life.

Gu Wuqing, Gu Xing, the Fox Tribe Forefather, and the others were also unsatisfied, especially Gu Wuqing.

He was a King Immortal Progeny, and given his talents, as long as he could make it out alive, he would eventually ascend into an Immortal.

However, before he could even get close to that achievement, someone more powerful came to destroy him. How could he accept that?!

“Die!”

Heavenly Daoist Kun raised his hand to form another seal with the Heavenly Dao energy. As though he moved the stars, the massive energy crashed down on Gu Wuqing and the others, shrouding them with immense pressure.

That killer move could easily kill ninety percent of everyone present.

Just as everyone was on the brink of despair, heaven and earth shook.

A mystical Dao energy fluctuation suddenly scattered in the void.

Shining starry sparks, violent energy torrents, the Heavenly Dao seal that came crashing from above — everything started to slow down to an eventual pause as if someone had hit on the stop button.

Heavenly Daoist Kun narrowed his eyes as he sensed something.

“Time! Someone has stopped the time of this space!” He was stupefied.

Time was deep and profound. No matter how powerful a cultivator was, without sufficient chances or opportunity, it was impossible to even comprehend the concept.

Throughout the history of the universe, the cultivators who could comprehend the Time Source and affirm one’s Dao with time were less than a handful, yet Heavenly Daoist Kun had sensed the power of time.

“Who? Who possesses such power?!”

Heavenly Daoist Kun channeled his Heavenly Dao energy to stop the invading power of time around him.

He stared into the distant stars and saw a young man in white approaching closer. He looked handsome and transcendent. Every step he took felt out of the universe, and his presence alone outshone the stars.

The thing that bothered Heavenly Daoist Kun was the source of time that came from the young man.

“It seems like I’m just in time,” Chu Kuangren said.

His figure flashed and appeared before the Heavenly Dao seal. The power of time slowly faded.

At the next moment, everything returned to normal.

Before they knew it, Gu Wuqing and the others saw a white figure before their eyes.

Chapter 1054: Heavenly Daoist Kun Self-Destruct, The King’s Return

Gu Wuqing and the others were engaging with Heavenly Daoist Kun outside Firmament Star. As the Heavenly Dao Seal attacked them, a white figure suddenly appeared before them.

It was Chu Kuangren!

He used his time-locking ability to stop the Heavenly Dao Seal attack before he arrived in front of the group to end the attack himself.

Faced with the Heavenly Daoist Kun's attack, which had seemingly endless energy, Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes and threw out a punch.

Terrifying wind from his fist carried a cataclysmic force that clashed with the Heavenly Dao Seal.

A massive explosion later, the Heavenly Dao energy crumbled.

Chu Kuangren stood firmly in the air.

"Master!"

"My King!"

The crowd was over the moon when they saw Chu Kuangren. Suddenly, they felt a sense of safety.

Chu Kuangren's appearance was the light of hope that shone through the darkness.

"Phew..." Gu Wuqing sighed a breath of relief.

"It seems like you're their leader," Heavenly Daoist Kun said to Chu Kuangren with a hint of caution in his eyes.

After all, time cultivators would usually resolve in strange, unfathomable methods, and they were even more unpredictable than soul cultivators.

"Tell me. How do you want to die?" Chu Kuangren asked.

"Fool. Even though you are a time cultivator, I notice you are just a common Third-grade Immortal. Do you think you are my match?" Heavenly Daoist Kun scoffed.

"Just a mere projection clone and you dare speak like this to me?" Chu Kuangren threw him a punch.

The violent gale from his punch enveloped the Heavenly Daoist Kun whole.

"This power... How could it..." Heavenly Daoist Kun was slightly surprised. However, he quickly channeled his Heavenly Dao energy up for defense.

A massive amount of Heavenly Dao energy and Immortal's Core energy combined into a shield, but following a loud bang, the punch blast broke the shield and sent Heavenly Daoist Kun flying several hundred kilometers away. He even crashed onto a planet.

At the next moment, Chu Kuangren's figure flashed and reappeared before Heavenly Daoist Kun. He grabbed the man by the head and pressed it against the ground.

The whole planet caved in before it imploded. Waves of flame currents swept across everything, lighting the dark and cold galaxy bright.

Chu Kuangren then flew out from the blazing flames with his hand over Heavenly Daoist Kun's head, and they crashed towards another planet.

Bang! Kaboom! Boom!

A series of deafening explosions later, Chu Kuangren slammed Heavenly Daoist Kun's head through a dozen planets.

The explosions of planets were as bright as fireworks, and it was spectacular to look at.

"Using the Heavenly Dao energy? Interesting." Chu Kuangren raised Heavenly Daoist Kun into the air as he stared at him with a playful gaze.

That would be the first time Chu Kuangren met someone like Heavenly Daoist Kun, who could utilize a large amount of Heavenly Dao energy.

In fact, the Heavenly Dao did not recognize Heavenly Daoist Kun. It felt more like he was forcefully conjuring the energy and enslaving the Heavenly Dao with his cultivation, which was a ruthless one.

"D*mn it! D*mn it!"

Furious, Heavenly Daoist Kun shouted madly.

After all, someone had just grabbed his head and crashed through a dozen planets.

"I will kill you!" Heavenly Daoist Kun said with his teeth gnashed. He raised the Heavenly Dao energy to its full potential and blasted it at Chu Kuangren's chest.

If it were others facing such an attack from Heavenly Daoist Kun, they would release him to avoid the attack.

However, Chu Kuangren stood firm and endured Heavenly Daoist Kun's attack, which did not even tickle him!

"H-How is this possible?!" Heavenly Daoist Kun was stunned.

His strike was so powerful that it could kill an Earthen Immortal if the target was defenseless.

However, not only was Chu Kuangren fine, but it did not even budge him.

He felt like he had just hit an Immortal Metal.

'What is going on? Did he affirm his Dao with Immortal Metal?'

"Are you trying to tickle me?" Chu Kuangren said before he slowly closed his fingers.

"Argh!" Heavenly Daoist Kun screamed in pain. It felt like Chu Kuangren could crush his head open at the next second.

What happened after was even more terrifying.

The Heavenly Dao energy inside Heavenly Daoist Kun was being sucked out and absorbed by Chu Kuangren.

“W-What are you doing?!” Heavenly Daoist Kun was truly afraid.

The Heavenly Dao energy was an important part of his powers. It was safe to say that it was the foundation of his strength.

Chu Kuangren did not say a word as he activated his Heavenly Devouring Daoist Art. To him, Heavenly Daoist Kun was nothing but a piece of big fat meat.

The vast Heavenly Dao energy inside Heavenly Daoist Kun was the best source of energy to strengthen the Firmament Star and himself.

“Stop! Stop right now!”

Heavenly Daoist Kun continued his attacks at Chu Kuangren using his Immortal’s Core, but he could not break free.

The fingers above his head felt like the ancient mountains, locking him in place and forbidding him from escaping.

As the Heavenly Dao energy was slowly sucked away, Heavenly Daoist Kun started to feel himself weakening.

If that continued, his projection clone and even his real self would be affected.

“Explode!”

Heavenly Daoist Kun made the decision to detonate his projection clone.

With a loud bang, Heavenly Daoist Kun’s projection clone exploded, and the terrifying shockwave spread out to a million kilometers.

Some of the smaller planets were crushed by the shockwave alone.

After the dust settled, one man stood in the epicenter like a monolith.

“Self-destruction? Whatever. I’ll suck him dry when I see him next time,” Chu Kuangren mumbled.

‘The Heavenly Dao Sect, huh?’

It seemed he would have to pay extra attention to that sect in the future.

If everyone in the sect possessed the Heavenly Dao energy like Heavenly Daoist Kun, it would be the best supplement for Chu Kuangren.

Further away, Immortal Qing Song was completely stunned.

“The Heavenly Daoist detonated himself?!”

He dared not believe that someone could force Heavenly Daoist Kun to self-destruct and even escape the blast unscathed.

"I-I must run..." Immortal Qing Song wanted to flee. However, before he could take his first step, a vital force locked on to him, forcing him to tremble uncontrollably.

He strongly believed that the owner of the vital force could easily kill him a hundred times over if he were to escape.

"Tell me everything you know about the Heavenly Dao Sect."

Chu Kuangren's voice echoed in his ears.

Immortal Qing Song dared not hold secrets against Chu Kuangren, so he blurted out everything he knew before Chu Kuangren killed him with a single punch. It was considered merciful as Chu Kuangren granted Immortal Qing Song a quick death.

Then, Chu Kuangren turned to Gu Linglong and the others. His lips curled into a grin, and he said, "Everyone, I'm back."

All the other Daoist Celestials could no longer hide their emotion.

The Transcendental Daoist Celestial took a deep breath before he got on his knees.

"Welcome back, my King!"

"Welcome back, my King!"

"Welcome back, my King!"

They had never knelt even before the strongest force. Yet, they willingly got down on their knees before Chu Kuangren and submitted to him wholeheartedly.

Chapter 1055: Giving Out Feathered Immortal Pill, If You Guys Are Not Worthy, No One Is

Meanwhile, on a certain ancient Living Planet, a furious roar reverberated through the air, and the terrifying energy of an Immortal's Core blasted out, crushing all the other neighboring planets.

A man in golden robes wore a bitter look. He was none other than the true body of Heavenly Daoist Kun.

"Who are you?! Who the hell are you? Violet Gold Galaxy, Firmament Star, I'll remember you! Just you wait! I, Heavenly Daoist Kun, will avenge the insult I received today!" Heavenly Daoist Kun said coldly.

As the Heavenly Daoist of Kun Bloodline in Heavenly Dao Sect, Heavenly Daoist Kun had never faced any hindrance in his path of cultivation. For many years, no matter where he went, everyone respected and revered him. Even the older generation of Immortals tend to be polite in front of him because he was a Heavenly Daoist of Heavenly Dao Sect!

He was one of the most outstanding sky-prides of this corner of the universe, and Heavenly Dao Sect was one of the strongest ancient immortal orthodoxies in the known universe.

However, his projection clone was sullied by a nameless cultivator in a tiny galaxy. Not only that, but the nameless cultivator even grabbed his clone and crashed through a dozen planets, ultimately forcing him to detonate his clone.

He could never let that insult slip.

He took a jade order and sent the message to his men, telling them to destroy Firmament Star of the Violet Gold Galaxy.

However, a moment later, he sent another order.

Firmament Star must be destroyed, but the cultivator who insulted him had to be captured alive.

“That person can absorb the Heavenly Dao energy from my clone. This kind of direct absorption ability has never been recorded even in the history of Heavenly Dao Sect. If I can master this ability, I might be able to exceed the other Heavenly Daoists of other bloodlines.”

A glint appeared in Heavenly Daoist Kun’s eyes.

...

Back at Firmament Star, Chu Kuangren’s return enlightened the whole Firmament Empire. All the Daoist Celestials cheered and held a feast to welcome the return of their King. The feast went on for three days and three nights.

After three days and three nights of endless fun, Chu Kuangren went to Gu Linglong and Elder Ruyan to get some updates on the empire’s development.

The Firmament Empire was a lot better and stronger compared to when he left. Although he may still be the only Immortal on the planet, the powerful potential of its Heavenly Dao has improved the environment for cultivation since then.

Young Emperors had been emerging one after another to write their achievements in the history of Firmament Star.

Chu Kuangren scanned the planet with his Immortal Consciousness, and more or less grasped the entirety of the planet’s situation.

There were many talented younger generations across the planet. Some of them could even be considered a rare Immortal Progeny.

He was delighted, to say the least.

“Thank you, Linglong. You must have been through a lot.”

Chu Kuangren said as he put his hand on Gu Linglong’s hands. He often felt guilty for not treating her well.

He had always been caught up in reaching the peak in cultivation, so he put Gu Linglong in charge of the whole empire by herself.

Sometimes, he felt it was a selfish request.

“My dear, it’s okay. You know my biggest dream is to build a peaceful empire, so watching the Firmament Empire grow stronger with our effort is really fulfilling and satisfying,” Gu Linglong said sincerely.

She was an ambitious and career-minded woman. Compared to being madly in love, she preferred to devote herself to building the empire.

"Is that so? That's great." Chu Kuangren smiled. Her consolation worked.

He hugged her tightly and whispered, "I love you to death."

"My dear, it's starting to get embarrassing."

"I don't care. I love you."

"Ahem..."

Elder Ruyan had to clear his throat to remind them of her presence.

She rolled her eyes at them.

'They should really get a room or wait until I'm gone.'

Gu Linglong blushed and glared at Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren was not bothered at all. He smiled at Elder Ruyan and said, "Elder Ruyan, it has been years since we last met. I see your cultivation level is progressing smoothly. Look! You are already a Daoist Celestial."

"It's nothing compared to you, my King."

Some chit-chats later, Gu Linglong asked about Lan Yu and the others, so Chu Kuangren updated her on how they were doing.

Several days later, Chu Kuangren went to Gu Wuqing.

"Wuqing, about the herbs that I asked you to prepare, how are they coming along?"

"Master, they are ready."

Back at Jade Emperor Galaxy, before Chu Kuangren started to absorb the energy of a star, he had told Gu Wuqing to search for ingredients to refine the Feathered Immortal Pill.

As of now, Gu Wuqing has made great progress.

After getting the ingredients, Chu Kuangren went to a lifeless planet just outside of Firmament Star for closed-door meditation. Only then did he start to refine the pills.

Feathered Immortal Pills were still Immortal Pills, and the energy fluctuation from the refinement process was quite powerful. As such, Chu Kuangren had even set up heavy restriction seals to contain them.

A month later, Chu Kuangren managed to refine all the materials into Feathered Immortal Pills with his skillful refinement techniques. He was able to refine a total of thirteen pills.

Thirteen Feathered Immortal Pills could reignite the cultivation ability of thirteen cultivators who had exhausted their potential and allowed them to reach new heights.

“Thirteen pills... I’m a little short,” Chu Kuangren mumbled.

Never mind the others, but the Chaos Daoist Celestial and Transcendental Daoist Celestial must get the pills because of their contribution to Firmament Star.

They, too, deserved the chance to seek new heights in their cultivation level.

Other than the mentioned, Chu Kuangren had several friends in the Violet Gold Galaxy who needed the opportunity.

“As for the herbs, I’ll settle them at Three Thousand Firms later. I have to give the pills to Chaos Daoist Celestial and the others first.”

Back at Firmament Star, when Chaos Daoist Celestial and the others got the pills in their hands and listened to Chu Kuangren’s explanation, their eyes widened in shock.

However, the shock was soon replaced with delight.

“Can the pill really reignite our cultivation potential and allow us to thread on the Immortal Path?” Innate Ferocious Daoist Celestial asked excitedly.

“Why? You don’t believe me?” Chu Kuangren teased mischievously.

“Of course not. I’m very excited!” Innate Ferocious Daoist Celestial exclaimed as he rubbed his head.

All the Daoist Celestials were excited except for Transcendental Daoist Celestial and Chaos Daoist Celestial.

The two of them stared at the pill on their palm.

“What’s wrong?” Chu Kuangren asked curiously.

“My King, it’s not easy refining these pills, right? The ingredients alone are a problem in itself. Rather than using these pills on us old men whose potential has been exhausted, why don’t you give them to the empire’s sky-prides who have bigger promises?” Transcendental Daoist Celestial said after taking a deep breath.

The others were shocked. They did not expect him to say something like that.

The Daoist Celestials looked at each other awkwardly and in silence. Then, they put the pills back into the vial.

“Transcendental is right. We are old men now. The pills should be given to the promising sky-prides, not us.”

“Yeah, they are the future of our empire.”

Why? Were they not longing to achieve a higher cultivation level?

No, they wanted to. However, when they put their personal benefit and the empire’s future on the scale, their decisions tended to tip toward the empire’s favor.

“Take them.” Chu Kuangren grunted. “I refined these for all of you. Those sky-prides will have their own opportunities, so they have no use for the pills now. As for the future, the empire will provide them with the appropriate resources as long as they are worthy.

“All of you here are the elders of the empire. Every one of you has bled for the empire and for your people. These pills are for you, and you deserve them. If you claim that you are not worthy, no one else is,” Chu Kuangren said sternly.

1

His words warmed the hearts of all the Daoist Celestials.

“That’s it. I’ve made it clear. Take the pills now, or I’ll feed them to the dogs,” Chu Kuangren said. He sounded slightly annoyed in the end and even slammed the table.

Since he had made himself clear, the Daoist Celestials quickly got up and took the pills back.

“Thank you, my King.”

“With the King by our side, we will never have to worry about the pills. I will take this now.”

Chu Kuangren nodded happily. “Now that’s what I’m talking about.”

Chapter 1056: Danger Approaches the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal, I’ve Come To Fulfill My Promise

In Violet Gold Galaxy, somewhere on Dusty Sky Planet, Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal was studying a runic scripture when a menacing aura suddenly appeared. It was so powerful that the surrounding air seemed like it had frozen.

“A hostile aura.”

The Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal narrowed his eyes.

Following that, he saw clouds rolling in the sky as strong winds billowed, and a man in long black robes armed with a long saber descended from the sky.

His powerful Pseudo Immortal aura spread everywhere, causing the whole planet to tremble.

“It’s you, Black Shark!”

The Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal looked at him with surprise.

An apathetic look appeared on the Black Shark Pseudo Immortal’s face. “I bet you never expected me, huh, Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal? Today shall be the day you die!”

As soon as he said that, several figures soon walked out from the void. The weakest of them all was at least a Great Daoist Celestial.

There were even a few Heavenly Daoist Celestials among them.

Those people gathered and formed into a formation, which covered the sky with a black-colored enchanted boundary. The Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal was quickly trapped within it.

"The Black Shark Pirates, I see. It looks like even your higher-ups have all come out of your nests today just to kill me. I am very honored." The Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal chuckled.

"This is the price you have to pay for rejecting my offer back then," the Black Shark Pseudo Immortal said indifferently.

Many years ago, he sought out the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal to make him a Daoist Weapon, only for the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal to reject his offer knowing that he did not have good intentions.

Now, the Black Shark has come to take his revenge.

"I should've killed you with a punch back then. Otherwise, I wouldn't have to deal with this mess today," the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal said as a sword appeared in his hand.

A terrifying sword aura swept out.

"Attack!" the Black Shark Pirates yelled. Subsequently, it prompted the surrounding Daoist Celestials to activate the formation and unleash a terrifying wave of pressure at the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal.

The Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal could feel that his powers were being suppressed under that surge of pressure, and his expression turned grim.

"This formation has an effect on me!"

Before he could come to his senses, the Black Shark Pseudo Immortal attacked with a swung his saber, unleashing a powerful Pseudo Immortal energy toward his opponent.

The Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal blocked it with his sword. After a loud bang, he was forced back hundreds of meters, his arms trembling non-stop.

"With this formation and this Pseudo Immortal power of yours, it looks like you've come prepared today," the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal said coldly.

"How would I kill you otherwise?"

The Black Shark Pseudo Immortal grinned and attacked once more.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The saber and sword clashed in the void again and again, about to tear the void apart.

The suppression from the formation rendered the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal incapable of exerting his full power. It did not take long before he fell to a disadvantage, and more wounds began to appear all over him.

"Haha, you'll certainly die today, Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal!" The Black Shark Pseudo Immortal laughed.

The higher-ups of the Black Shark Pirates were also very delighted.

Since the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal was well-known in Violet Gold Galaxy for being skilled in weaponsmithing and formations, he would surely possess many treasures. If they killed him, they would get a hundred or even a thousand years' worth of fortune.

“Even if I’m going to meet my end here, I’m going to take you all with me!” The Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal shot out a cold glare.

Blood-colored source energies emerged from his body the next moment, strengthening his aura.

“Oh, activating a secret technique to increase your power by force. I see, but so what if you did? How long can you last against all of us?”

The Black Shark Pseudo Immortal snorted and continued attacking. This time, his attacks were not as aggressive as before.

He was focusing more on the defensive right now because he knew that there was a limit to any technique strengthened by force.

Hence, he was waiting for his opponent to reach that limit, and sure enough, the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal’s strength began to decrease soon after.

“Now!”

The Black Shark Pseudo Immortal’s eyes lit up. He immediately took the opportunity and unleashed a powerful attack on the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal, injuring him critically with a single slash.

“D*mn it!

“If this continues, I’m definitely going to meet my end here today.”

The Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal put up a helpless and bitter smile as blood trickled down his mouth.

“Now die!”

The Black Shark Pseudo Immortal’s energy surged, and he imbued it into his long saber before unleashing a powerful attack that conjured a huge saber shadow!

However, at that moment, the whole Dusty Sky Planet started rumbling, while the saber ray that the Black Shark Pseudo Immortal unleashed was shattered by an invisible force!

Besides that, the formation that the other Black Shark Pirates had activated was also destroyed by the impact of that invisible force.

One by one, those Daoist Celestials were sent flying from the full blow of that impact.

“What?!”

The Black Shark Pseudo Immortal’s expression changed.

‘An elite! A top-notch elite!’

The Black Shark Pseudo Immortal knew that the cultivator of the invisible energy earlier was certainly an elite far more powerful than him!

“Retreat!”

Without another word, he retreated with his men.

However, they all slammed to the ground the moment they turned around. It was as if thousands of planets were weighing on all of them.

“Who’s there?!”

The Black Shark Pseudo Immortal was horrified.

The Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal was incredibly shocked as well. He had never seen anyone who could suppress a Pseudo Immortal and a crowd of Daoist Celestials to such an extent before.

That kind of power was truly incredible.

“It’s been a while, Brother Dusty Sky.”

That was when a gentle voice sounded.

From a distance, a figure in white robes was slowly walking toward everyone with a light and slow gait.

Meanwhile, the Black Shark Pseudo Immortal and his men were still slammed into the ground by that invisible aura, as if they were welcoming the arrival of a majestic king!

“Brother Chu!”

The Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal was overjoyed to see Chu Kuangren.

“It’s him!”

The Black Shark Pseudo Immortal and his men fell into despair.

Chu Kuangren...

That name was a legend throughout Violet Gold Galaxy. Although that person had only become well-known for a few years, he had turned the whole galaxy upside down during that time. He even destroyed one of the two immortal civilizations of this galaxy, Planet Zi.

In the face of someone like him, the Black Shark Pirates were nothing.

“I haven’t seen you in quite a few years, Brother Dusty Sky, and you seem to be in quite a mess.”

Chu Kuangren joked as he walked up to the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal and healed the latter using the Spring Breeze Healing Technique.

The Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal was back in good shape in no time.

“You’re still amazing as always, Brother Chu.” The Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal chuckled.

He was relieved by Chu Kuangren’s arrival. After all, he no longer feared those puny Black Shark Pirates now that Chu Kuangren was here.

“How do you plan on dealing with these people?” Chu Kuangren asked.

“Kill them, of course. What’s the point of keeping them alive?”

“True.” Chu Kuangren nodded. It may seem like he was doing nothing as he mobilized his Immortal Consciousness, but all of the Black Shark Pirates then exploded into mists of blood.

They did not even have the time to scream.

That scene amazed Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal. "Brother Chu, didn't you head to the Immortal World? Why did you return?"

"I'm here to carry out some errands." Chu Kuangren smiled. "Besides coming here to catch up with you, I've brought you something."

He took out the Feathered Immortal Pill and handed it over.

The Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal knew a little about alchemy, so he gasped when he saw the Feathered Immortal Pill.

"T-This... It's an Immortal Pill!

"It's the Feathered Immortal Pill, to be precise."

Chu Kuangren nodded gently. "I once said I would repay your kindness when I become an Immortal. Now it's time I fulfill that promise."

Before he could recover from the shock of the Immortal Pill, Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal was shocked again.

He finally understood the meaning behind Chu Kuangren's actions. "Brother Chu, did you say you're an Immortal?!"

Chu Kuangren nodded.

The Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal could not believe it. 'But it's only been a few years since we last met!'

Chapter 1057: A Meeting Is Held, the Rapid Unification Begins, the Firmament Galaxy

'It has only been a few years since we last met! Since then, he has become an Immortal from a Daoist Celestial?!'

The Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal believed that Chu Kuangren would become an Immortal in the future. However, he never expected Chu Kuangren to become one so quickly!

The speed of his progress was simply unbelievable.

It took the Dusty Sky Immortal quite a while to digest the fact that Chu Kuangren had become an Immortal before he looked at the pill in his hand and said, "Thank you very much!"

He did not refuse it.

After all, did he not help Chu Kuangren back then so earnestly just so that he could regain the opportunity to embark on the Immortal Path? There was no way he would say no to the pill.

"Besides coming to fulfill my promise today, I've also come to request your help with something, Brother Dusty Sky." Chu Kuangren said.

"Just speak your mind, Brother Chu."

"I wish to have my Firmament Star establish several communication channels with the major civilizations and orthodoxies of Violet Gold Galaxy. I'll be honored to have someone like you helping Firmament Star on this." Chu Kuangren chuckled and directly explained his plans.

An odd look flashed across the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal's face.

He naturally knew what Chu Kuangren meant. Establishing communication channels was just a good way to put it.

Frankly speaking, Chu Kuangren intended to unify all of Violet Gold Galaxy.

"Ha! Count me in." Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal accepted that offer.

Now that Chu Kuangren had become an Immortal, it meant he was now the most powerful being throughout Violet Gold Galaxy. Hence, when it came to unifying the whole galaxy, he alone could have done it by force.

If the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal could stand to gain reputation and some benefits by joining his plan, how could he possibly refuse such a wonderful offer?

"Very well. I'll be counting on you from now on, Brother Dusty Sky." Chu Kuangren smiled.

Since the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal was very reputable in Violet Gold Galaxy, his help would speed up the process of the Firmament Star unifying the whole galaxy.

After that, the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal sought out a few more people.

Those people were the ones who owed him favors in the past. Under the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal's recommendation and the fact that Chu Kuangren had become an Immortal, all of them willingly submitted and pledged their allegiance to the Firmament Star.

The Godly Moon Daoist Celestial was one of them.

Looking at the young man who still needed his help a few years ago, the Godly Moon Daoist Celestial could not help but lament, "It still feels like yesterday when Brother Chu was still an esteemed guest back at my Ancient Godly City. Time does fly, huh? I can't believe he has become an Immortal in such a short time."

The remaining Daoist Celestials and Pseudo Immortals knew what he was trying to do. He was obviously trying to show off his friendship with Chu Kuangren!

'What a shameless b*st*rd.'

"That's right. I can still remember the glorious scene of Brother Chu slaying his foes while reciting line after line of his poem back when Planet Zi was attacking the Ancient Godly City. Oh, yeah. I was in that battle too."

"He's well-deserving of the Sword Poem Immortal title."

"Yeah, I remember being in that battle too."

Everyone talked.

Meanwhile, Chu Kuangren laughed and took out a few items, which he distributed to everyone. "Since everyone is willing to join Firmament Star, please accept these as a token of my appreciation. I hope everyone here can do their best to contribute to the Firmament Star's progress in the future."

Those items and treasures were, in fact, insignificant to him.

However, they were extremely priceless treasures to everyone present. All of their eyes lit up, and their loyalty to Chu Kuangren grew.

"Alright, I shall take my leave first. I'll hold a meeting in a few days, and I hope everyone here can attend it," Chu Kuangren said to the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal and others.

After that, he turned around and left, leaving the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortals and others in a heated discussion.

"I still can't believe Brother Chu became an Immortal in just a few years and that he wants to unify the Violet Gold Galaxy."

"With Brother Chu's power, I bet it wouldn't be hard for him to unify all of Violet Gold Galaxy. However, we have to help him as best we can."

"That's right. I heard Firmament Star's civilization is not that advanced and that they only have a handful of Pseudo Immortals with them. If we join their ranks, we'll surely become their main support, greatly valued by Brother Chu."

"I agree with you. If we are valued by Brother Chu, we'll surely get a lot of benefits in the future."

The benefits and help that a powerful orthodoxy could provide to its cultivators were self-evident, and Firmament Star had the potential to become the most powerful force not just in Violet Gold Galaxy but also in the neighboring galaxies.

If they worked hard after joining, they might be able to raise their social standing on par with that of a forefather level figure. Then, the benefits they stand to gain would be plenty.

The Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal, Godly Moon Daoist Celestial, and others soon traveled to the Firmament Star with that idea in mind.

However, at the sight of people like Gu Wuqing, the Fox Tribe Forefather, and others, they could not even be more shocked.

They thought that other than Chu Kuangren, they would be the most top-notch cultivators among everyone on Firmament Star and that they would be highly valued. However, it seemed like things were not as they expected.

Gu Wuqing, the Fox Tribe Forefather, Gu Xing, and even the commanders of the Five Ways Divine Shadow Army — any one of those people could beat them up. The Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortals and others were no match to them at all.

The Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal, Godly Moon Daoist Celestial, and others looked at each other with bitter smiles. Then, Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal said, "It seems like Brother Chu is not lacking any manpower. I think he intends to take advantage of our reputation in the Violet Gold Galaxy and speed up the unification of the forces in the galaxy.”

“Wow. There are so many elites here, with even a few Immortals among them. Most importantly, I can’t believe they are all loyal followers of Brother Chu. Just how powerful has Brother Chu become? This is simply unbelievable.”

“We can’t address him as Brother Chu anymore. He’s our King now.”

“That’s right. After all, rules are rules. We can’t disobey them.”

The Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal and others’ respect for Chu Kuangren grew even more. They could not imagine what Chu Kuangren must have gone through in the Immortal World in the last few years to become so strong so quickly.

Having gathered the higher-ups of Firmament Star, Chu Kuangren held a strategic meeting on the rapid unification of the entire Violet Gold Galaxy.

The meeting lasted for three days and three nights. The agendas discussed included how each of the major forces was distributed throughout the galaxy, the number of elites they had, the path of advancement for troops, how to organize the territories and civilizations after they had pledged allegiance, and more.

After the meeting ended, the entire Firmament Star had seemingly turned into a well-oiled machine, operating with high efficiency as the rapid unification plan proceeded.

With the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal and company’s reputation, the Sword Poem Immortal’s name, and the strength of Gu Wuqing’s group, the unification process was mostly a smooth sailing one. Wherever their warships went, all major forces and orthodoxies would pledge their allegiance without fail.

After Chu Kuangren had laid out and formulated that plan, he assigned the task in full authority to Gu Linglong, Elder Ruyan, and others to handle.

He then went into closed-door meditation on a barren planet somewhere. This time, his goal was to break through to the next cultivation realm.

He had previously obtained many treasures from the Jade Emperor’s palace in the Jade Emperor Galaxy. Those items and treasures could help him raise his cultivation level a lot. Just those hundreds of Earthen Immortal Herbs alone were an unfathomable resource for ordinary people, and they were sufficient for him to break through to the Earthen Immortal Realm.

As time went by, three years passed.

The Firmament Star’s territory had expanded rapidly during those three years, and they had gained control of most of Violet Gold Galaxy.

In the face of an Immortal like Chu Kuangren, even an immortal civilization like Planet Jin had pledged their allegiance.

As of now, the Firmament Star was undoubtedly the ruler of the entire galaxy. Its rate of expansion and unification had truly made history in Violet Gold Galaxy.

Many felt that the Violet Gold Galaxy should now be known as the Firmament Galaxy instead.

Chapter 1058: Closed-Door Meditation Complete, Breaking Through as an Earthen Immortal, the Chaos Celestial Demon Physique

The Violet Go— No, it should be called the Firmament Galaxy.

Today, on a nameless ancient barren planet somewhere in the Firmament Galaxy, a pillar of light suddenly rose into the sky, followed by a terrifying Immortal's Core energy fluctuation.

A young man in white robes walked out from a cave on that planet.

That young man had handsome brows and a sharp gaze on him.

It was Chu Kuangren who had been in closed-door meditation for three years.

Upon sensing the Immortal's Core inside him, he smiled with satisfaction. "The Earthen Immortal Realm, huh? Not bad from the looks of it."

Having been in closed-door meditation for three years and consuming dozens of Earthen Immortal Herb, Chu Kuangren had finally broken through to the Earthen Immortal Realm, which was a drastic increase in strength.

Currently, Chu Kuangren could easily channel the earth qi from nearby planets with his Immortal's Core to unleash Earthen Immortal Techniques.

Furthermore, due to his extraordinary Immortal's Core, the amount of earth qi he could control far exceeded that of his peers. It was extremely terrifying.

Besides the improvement in his cultivation level, he had also gone through all of the codices left behind by the Jade Emperor Immortal. As such, his rune techniques and weaponsmithing skills had also improved tremendously.

In any case, he had gained a lot from the closed-door meditation session this time.

"Let's do a daily gacha from the Fantasy Roulette."

Chu Kuangren wanted to draw a prize from the Fantasy Roulette to celebrate completing his closed-door meditation.

"Congratulations. Host! You have obtained a God-tier Daoist Physique — Chaos Celestial Demon Physique!"

'A God-tier physique...'

Chu Kuangren's eyes lit up. It was rare for him to obtain Daoist Physiques from the Fantasy Roulette. He had gotten the Indestructible Body¹, the Exquisite Nine Orifices Sword Heart, and the Stellar Undying Physique before, and they have helped him tremendously on his cultivation journey so far.

Now, he has gotten another God-tier Daoist Physique again.

'The Chaos Celestial Demon Physique...'

He looked at the information regarding the Daoist Physique.

At the birth of the universe, there was only chaos. From the chaos, the Celestial Demons were born. The Celestial Demons wielded power to control the heavens and earth, as well as the creation of life and death itself...

The Chaos Celestial Demons were ancient beings that existed during the infancy of the universe. As the universe grew and expanded, the Chaos Celestial Demons gradually disappeared as time went on, replaced by many newer beings of their existence.

Then, the dawn of immortal civilizations followed.

Although the Chaos Celestial Demons were gone, some remnants of their “Daoist legacies” managed to be preserved. Seeking to find those “Daoist legacies”, the Immortals of the ancient times created what was now known as the Celestial Demon Tribe, who once reigned supreme for countless epochs.

The Chaos Celestial Demon Physique was a Daoist Physique unique only to the cultivators of the Celestial Demon Tribe, which had gone extinct as of this current epoch.

“Interesting.”

“This Chaos Celestial Demon Physique is more interesting than I thought.”

Chu Kuangren smiled as he retrieved the Daoist Physique.

However, he immediately felt an incomparably ancient, barren, and powerful force erupting inside his body! It was as if that power was coming from the vast chaos in space itself.

His body started to undergo some transformation. His bones and flesh were ripped apart and reconstructed as strands upon strands of chaotic qi intertwined within him.

A vast surge of chaotic qi spread everywhere in his body.

If the universe itself was a calm lake, Chu Kuangren’s act of retrieving the Chaos Celestial Demon Physique was akin to throwing a huge rock into that lake.

Like ripples on the surface of the lake, that aura immediately spread everywhere, wave after wave. It spread far and wide, covering countless galaxies and even most of the known universe.

...

“This aura... It’s chaotic qi, and it’s not some ordinary chaotic qi either. I-It’s a Chaos Celestial Demon qi!”

“What’s going on? Did someone awaken the Chaos Celestial Demon Physique? How can the Chaos Celestial Demon Physique exist in this era? What the hell!”

“According to known texts and records, it is classified as a Supreme-grade Immortal Physique and can even be an Honorable Supreme-grade Immortal Physique! If someone with this physique were to mature and get stronger, they would stand at the peak of power in Immortal Dao. This is simply terrifying.”

“Who is it? Who has awakened such a powerful physique?”

“No, the Chaos Celestial Demon Physique’s aura covers a huge area. It’s hard for me to pinpoint its exact source. Only a cultivator from the Celestial Demon Tribe can track it by sensing with their own Daoist Physiques. Sigh. What a shame...”

That commotion startled all of the Great Ones in the universe.

That Chaos Celestial Demon qi was just too rare, so rare that it had only appeared a handful of times ever since the previous epoch.

1

On an ancient planet Living Planet somewhere, a black-haired man suddenly rose into the sky with horrifying surges of chaotic qi erupting from his body, shattering thousands of nearby planets around him.

However, the aura was released only because he could not control his excitement.

The black-haired man looked into the distance with great delight. “A new Chaos Celestial Demon Physique has been born. How many years has it been? Was it a thousand eras or two thousand eras back? I can’t remember when the previous Chaos Celestial Demon was born. Haha. This is splendid news indeed.”

“Finally, my Celestial Demon Tribe has gained some new blood.”

The black-haired man tracked the source of the Chaos Celestial Demon Physique’s aura before positioning himself in a certain direction and dashing into space.

Tens of thousands of light-years passed in the blink of an eye.

Meanwhile, in Firmament Galaxy, Chu Kuangren was acclimating to the Chaos Celestial Demon Physique. Once he was done, that powerful Chaos Celestial Demon qi gradually receded.

“What an experience. This Chaos Celestial Demon Physique is way more powerful than the Stellar Undying Physique and Godly Phoenix Physique.”

“The only thing I have on par with it is the Indestructible Body, I guess,” Chu Kuangren could not help but utter with amazement.

After fully acclimating to the Celestial Demon Physique, his raw physical strength — which had already been strengthened due to the Stellar Undying Physique — grew even stronger.

He felt as though he had the power to destroy planets with the flick of his finger.

“The Chaos Celestial Demons were born when the universe was at its infancy, during the chaos when the Great Dao had not manifested. If a strand of chaotic qi has the power to destroy planets, I bet the Celestial Demons back then must have developed incredibly powerful bodies to survive that harsh environment,” Chu Kuangren mumbled.

However, he was still not used to the sudden increase in raw physical strength. Hence, he changed his plans and decided not to return to the Firmament Star but to stay a while longer and get familiar with his power instead.

Otherwise, if he were to accidentally slip and fall, the Firmament Star would be wiped out.

1

While he was busy familiarizing himself with the newfound strength, he suddenly sensed a bunch of incomparably powerful auras approaching the Firmament Galaxy.

He mobilized his Immortal Consciousness into the distance, and a view from afar soon came into his mind. He could see a huge group of warships sailing in space. Those warships were quite similar to the ones led by the Immortal Qing Song back then.

“Oh, are those cultivators from the Heavenly Dao Sect again?” An ice-cold look flashed across Chu Kuangren’s face.

Those Heavenly Dao Sect cultivators were obviously there to seek trouble with the Firmament Star again.

“In that case, I might as well test this Celestial Demon Physique on you guys,” Chu Kuangren said indifferently.

...

Countless warships were approaching the Firmament Galaxy. The warships numbered in the tens of thousands, while their cultivators numbered in the millions. It was a gigantic party.

There were even some Immortals among them, and their combined power was enough to dominate countless galaxies.

The ones leading were three men and one woman, who were all Immortals, with three of them Earthen Immortals.

There was also an elderly man with white hair and brows whose aura had reached the Heavenly Immortal Realm. Someone like him could easily be an elite in any corner of the vast universe.

Those people were under the orders of Heavenly Daoist Kun to destroy the Firmament Star and capture Chu Kuangren.

Chapter 1059: The Road Ahead Is Closed, Channeling the Earth Qi, Battling a Heavenly Immortal Again

“I can’t believe three high-grade Planet Hunters and even a Heavenly Dao Envoy has been dispatched just to attack a small planet like the Firmament Star. Is the Master Daoist taking things a little too far?” an armored man complained.

The other two Earthen Immortals beside him also seem to agree with him.

“There must be a reason for the Daoist to do this. Let’s just focus on destroying the Firmament Star and capturing that person back alive,” said the white-haired Heavenly Immortal.

"We're just curious, that's all. Is a tiny Firmament Star that interesting to the Master?" one of the Earthen Immortals asked.

They continued chatting. However, the white-haired Heavenly Immortal suddenly sensed something, and he looked to the front of the army.

The next instant, an incomparably powerful surge of energy spread, causing the warships and cultivators at the front to perish right away!

A white-robed figure walked out of the void. He emanated a powerful aura, and a powerful wave of Immortal's Core energy immediately trembled the surrounding space.

"Everyone, the road ahead is closed!" the person who appeared said. He put up a sword hand sign, transforming his Immortal's Core energy into sword qi and unleashing them as far as thousands of kilometers away. A huge number of warships were immediately destroyed!

"You b*stard! Take this!"

At that sight, the dozens of Ninth-grade Immortals were enraged beyond belief. They quickly attacked, unleashing a barrage of attacks that tore through the void towards Chu Kuangren.

"Shatter!" Chu Kuangren said indifferently and gently pointed his sword hand sign forward.

A dazzling purple sword ray shot out.

Boom, boom, boom!

One explosion after another erupted in the void, where the sword ray easily destroyed their attacks. Those Immortals who attacked exploded into mists of blood the next instant!

"An Earthen Immortal! He's an Earthen Immortal!"

"How can there be an Earthen Immortal in such a small galaxy?!"

Some of the ordinary Immortals were so shocked that they immediately stepped back.

The three leading Planet Hunters, who were all Earthen Immortals, looked at Chu Kuangren. Their eyes widened a little as one of them took out a portrait.

It was a portrait of Chu Kuangren.

"That is the person Master Daoist wants us to capture!"

"Well, I'll have to thank him for bringing himself to us. This saves us the time to go looking for him later."

"Hmph, an Earthen Immortal, huh? You're certainly strong, but before the likes of us, the only thing you can do is to be captured!"

After that, one of the Planet Hunters attacked. He was armed with a long saber and golden-red armor.

His figure disappeared in a flash, covering thousands of kilometers, and reached Chu Kuangren in the blink of an eye. Then, he let out a ferocious slash.

The edges of his saber were razor-sharp and filled with countless Daoist patterns. That attack he unleashed was powerful enough to tear the space in half.

However, Chu Kuangren raised his eyes and glanced at his opponent. He formed a sword hand sign and released a huge amount of Immortal's Core energy that turned into a strand of sword qi.

The sword and saber collided with a clang.

Following that, blood splattered around, filling the space with red!

That attacking Planet Hunter and his sword were brutally sliced in half, shocking the other Earthen Immortals.

"How is this possible? Judging from his aura, he has only broken through to the Earthen Immortal Realm recently, while old man Zhao over there is already a Middle Third-grade Earthen Immortal. How could he be killed in a single attack? This is simply unbelievable."

"It's the Immortal's Core. There's something weird about his Immortal's Core."

They would never have thought that the Invincible Self-Empowering Source that Chu Kuangren cultivated was the greatest outlier throughout the whole universe. Hence, the Invincible Self-Empowering Immortal's Core that was produced as a result was naturally not on the same level as ordinary Immortal's Cores.

Chu Kuangren was undoubtedly undefeatable when compared to cultivators at the same cultivation level!

"D*mn it!"

"Channel the earth qi now!"

The remaining Earthen Immortals exchanged glances before they rose into the sky. With their Immortal's Cores activated, they gathered earth qi from dozens of planets around them and combined it with their Immortal's Core to unleash their Earthen Immortal Techniques at their fullest potential.

"Slash of Doom!"

"Solar Dragon Slash!"

"Windbreaking Godwake Spear!"

Various powerful Immortal Techniques were unleashed with the surrounding earth qi as they headed toward Chu Kuangren with overwhelming might.

In the meantime, the other cultivators had also activated the offensive formations on their warships, releasing a rain of devastating light beams one after another alongside the barrage of Immortal Techniques.

Even a Heavenly Immortal would have to be careful in the face of such an attack.

However, Chu Kuangren's gaze was calm as usual.

He gestured a sword hand sign, channeling the sword qi around him. "Channeling earth qi, huh? Do you think you're the only ones who know how to do that?" He chuckled while activating his Earthen Immortal Techniques.

At that, all the earth qi from hundreds of surrounding planets within a million-kilometer radius gathered towards him. It was as if thousands of torrential waves were all converging towards one spot.

Everyone was shocked.

The amount of earth qi an Earthen Immortal could channel was usually limited. The higher tier the Earthen Immortal, the larger the amount of earth qi they could control.

Although Chu Kuangren had only just become an Earthen Immortal, the amount of earth qi he could channel far exceeded the combined amount of all Earthen Immortals present!

It was the first time they had ever encountered anything like that.

'W-What kind of freak is he?'

A tremendous amount of earth qi surged forth, and Chu Kuangren pointed his sword hand sign at the sky. A gigantic purple sword shadow that was thousands of kilometers long immediately appeared as if it was going to tear apart space itself.

As the sword shadow came crashing down, countless purple lotuses formed from the combination of Immortal's Core energy and earth qi. The lotuses soon covered the surrounding space and turned it into a gorgeous display of flowers.

Boom!

Following a huge explosion, the surrounding planets trembled, and countless warships exploded one after another under that terrifying blastwave.

The Immortals and Earthen Immortals who attacked were the first to get caught up in that attack. All of them were sent flying with blood spurting from their mouths, their Immortal bodies were injured.

On the other hand, Chu Kuangren remained standing on the spot. To him, that terrifying impact energy was like a tiny gust of wind, and it did not bother him at all.

"This is impossible!"

"How is he so powerful? Is he really a cultivator who just became an Earthen Immortal?"

"No wonder Master Daoist is so interested in him."

Everyone was astounded.

Meanwhile, Chu Kuangren stood with his hands behind his back. His expression was indifferent as he looked at the white-haired Heavenly Immortal. "Aren't you going to attack?"

The white-haired Heavenly Immortal had never looked so serious before. "You truly are a freak."

"I'll take it as a compliment, but that doesn't mean it'll save your life anyway. You still have to die."

“Hmph! How arrogant. The difference between an Earthen Immortal and a Heavenly Immortal is not something you can possibly fathom.”

As soon as the white-haired Heavenly Immortal stepped forth, his mighty Immortal’s Core energy erupted, and he sent a punch into space. A palm sign then appeared in the air and headed quickly towards Chu Kuangren.

“Heavenly Immortals are said to be so powerful that their Daoist Techniques can transcend the heavens itself. Let’s see how transcendent your Daoist Techniques are then.” Chu Kuangren laughed as his Descendant Self Sword unsheathed itself and released a powerful purple sword ray at its opponent.

The sword qi and palm sign clashed, sending terrifying shockwaves everywhere.

The palm sign was torn apart by the sword qi, which subsequently lost power and dispersed.

Chu Kuangren channeled his Immortal’s Core energy and let out a few more strikes. The white-haired Heavenly Immortal also attacked continuously, crushing all of the incoming sword qi. As the momentum and rate of attacks increased, even the white-haired Heavenly Immortal could not help but feel shocked.

“This person’s strength is out of this world. How can he, an Earthen Immortal, go head to head with a Heavenly Immortal?!”

“His Immortal’s Core is incredibly peculiar. It seems to have a suppressing effect on my Immortal’s Core. How did he achieve this?”

The white-haired Heavenly Immortal was baffled.

Nevertheless, he steadied himself and let out a low grunt. Following that, he started channeling his Immortal’s Core energy to its full potential, while a surge of Heavenly Dao energy suddenly appeared.

“Mighty Divine Heavenly Seal!”

Chapter 1060: Overwhelming the Heavenly Immortal, the Yin Yang Life and Death Symbol, the Heavenly Rage Technique

“Oh, is this the Heavenly Dao Envoy’s Heavenly Dao energy?” Chu Kuangren chuckled as he tightened the grip on his sword. A powerful burst of Immortal’s Core energy surged forth once more before he unleashed the Thousand Lotus Sword Intent.

However, his sword qi seemed to have fallen to a lower hand.

With a terrifying bang, Chu Kuangren’s sword qi shattered. The gigantic seal sign formed from Heavenly Dao energy and Immortal’s Core energy soon came crashing toward him.

“He’s certainly going to die!”

Almost everyone believed that.

Although the difference between a Heavenly Immortal and Earthen Immortal was in one word, they were worlds apart in terms of strength. Even the most powerful Earthen Immortal could never be a match for a Heavenly Immortal.

That was common knowledge in the world of cultivation.

Even Chu Kuangren, who was the one facing the seal attack, could feel a pressure that was dozens of times more terrifying than before.

Despite that, he remained calm.

The next instant, he gently raised his hand before everyone's eyes, closed his fingers, and threw a punch at that incoming seal.

That punch was nothing special.

He did not even use any Immortal's Core energy at all.

However, that one punch sent incredibly powerful cosmic winds blasting throughout space. That inexplicably terrifying punch blast burst forth with dazzling Immortal Sparks, brutally crushing the Mighty Divine Heavenly Seal into pieces!

Surges of Heavenly Dao energy and Immortal's Core energy were blasted away in every direction, turning into terrifying storms as they spread. The smaller planets and asteroids in their way were all engulfed and destroyed.

Chu Kuangren stood unmoved. His white robes were still speckless, with bright Immortal Sparks radiating from his body — so bright that it made the surrounding planets look dim.

"How many of my punches can you take, Heavenly Immortal?" Chu Kuangren's voice rang in everyone's ear. It sounded so clear and arrogant that it made people afraid.

The white-haired Heavenly Immortal's expression turned grim. "This raw physical strength... It looks like that's your strong suit."

Chu Kuangren did not say another word.

He stepped forth, instantly crossing a huge distance through space, and arrived before the white-haired Heavenly Immortal. Then, he threw out a punch!

The white-haired Heavenly Immortal grunted. Channeling his Immortal's Core energy and merging it with his Heavenly Dao energy, he formed another Mighty Divine Heavenly Seal in his palm and unleashed it.

The punch and seal from both sides collided, reducing all of the warships beneath them into ashes. The surrounding cultivators could not escape in time and were caught up in the blast. All of them, too, were instantly reduced to nothing.

With his punch blocked, Chu Kuangren threw out another even more powerful punch.

The white-haired Heavenly Immortal roared as he channeled his Immortal's Core energy and Heavenly Dao energy to their limit. Then, he unleashed another Mighty Divine Heavenly Seal. However, because Chu Kuangren's attack power was stronger than his, the white-haired Heavenly Immortal was immediately pushed back!

Following that, Chu Kuangren approached his opponent in closed combat. He unleashed a myriad of closed-combat techniques in quick succession, while his Descendant Self Sword also switched into different weapons. From saber to spear to sword to halberd, it kept on switching forms, making it extremely lethal and hard to guard against in battle.

Under Chu Kuangren's barrage of attacks, the white-haired Heavenly Immortal was beaten to a disadvantage. Even if he used his Immortal's Core energy to shield himself, he still could not avoid sustaining injuries.

Meanwhile, Chu Kuangren's attack power continued increasing!

It was as if there was no limit to his strength!

Under the succession of attacks, Chu Kuangren began to display his newly acquired Chaos Celestial Demon Physique.

Every single attack he made contained traces of Chaos Celestial Demon qi.

"Hah! I shall try this technique on you then!"

With Chu Kuangren's Chaos Celestial Demon Physique activated, a huge burst of Chaos Celestial Demon qi erupted from his body.

"Creating life in one hand!" A bright, white light appeared in his left hand, brimming with endless living energy.

"Grasping death in the other!"

A black bundle of flame appeared in his right hand. This time, an air of death and destruction seeped everywhere, as if it would plunge the whole area into a never-ending death.

"Chaos Celestial Demon, Yin Yang Life and Death Symbol!"

After that, Chu Kuangren clasped his palms together, forming a mysterious seal symbol.

The white light and black flame intertwined, gradually forming a rotating Yin Yang symbol. The Yin Yang Life and Death intent within that symbol erupted at the white-haired Heavenly Immortal!

That was the Chaos Celestial Demon Physique's additional divine ability, the Yin Yang Life and Death Symbol!

Boom!

The white-haired Heavenly Immortal's Immortal's Core shield shattered with a loud bang, and he was immediately sent flying with blood spewing from his mouth.

At that, Chu Kuangren stepped forth and arrived in front of him.

The white-haired Heavenly Immortal's expression changed. "This is bad!"

He quickly tried to channel his Immortal's Core energy for self-protection.

He fully understood the danger of facing someone like Chu Kuangren, who was a closed-combat fighter. If he did not have an Immortal's Core shield protecting his body, things would end terribly for him!

His body would be torn apart into pieces at any moment.

Unfortunately, he was a moment too slow.

Chu Kuangren seized the moment when his opponent's Immortal's Core energy was destroyed. His Descendant Self Sword turned into a heavy hammer, and with both hands, he brutally smashed it onto his opponent's chest.

Sounds of bones breaking echoed in space. That attack was so powerful that the white-haired Heavenly Immortal's chest immediately caved in. A mixture of broken bones and flesh spattered out from his mouth, causing him to faint right away.

The white-haired Heavenly Immortal was sent crashing through dozens of planets. His perfect Heavenly Immortal's body was in a bad shape.

Everyone was dumbfounded to have witnessed that.

To their surprise, a Heavenly Immortal was overpowered by an Earthen Immortal!

That was simply unbelievable.

'This guy's power is terrifying!'

"Did I see that right? Is he really an Earthen Immortal?"

"What kind of f*cking Earthen Immortal have strength like that? Is this guy an ancient monster pretending to be a weak Immortal?"

"But his cultivation level is indeed an Earthen Immortal's!"

"Besides, what the hell was that Yin Yang symbol? I could sense a life and death intent within it. Even from afar, it gave me chills. It's too frightening."

Everyone discussed as they were very shocked, especially with the Yin Yang Life and Death Symbol Chu Kuangren used.

That divine ability had truly horrified all of them

After all, that technique could allow an Earthen Immortal to bridge the gap in power and shatter a Heavenly Immortal's protection shield!

They could not describe it as anything less than horrifying.

At that moment, Chu Kuangren arrived before the white-haired Heavenly Immortal.

His opponent was lying in the debris of some planets, with blood constantly spurting out from his mouth.

Chu Kuangren walked forward to him and placed his foot on his opponent's chest. Then, he said with a condescending tone, "You have been defeated."

The white-haired Heavenly Immortal was slightly dazed. He had lost. He, a Heavenly Immortal, had been defeated by an Earthen Immortal!

At that thought, rage overcame him, and a look of determination appeared in his eyes. "I'll f*cking kill you!"

A powerful surge of Heavenly Dao energy erupted from his body. This time, it carried an extremely dense and menacing rage qi within.

That rage qi was powerful beyond comprehension because it was not the rage of man but the rage of the heavens itself!

"Heavenly Rage Technique!"

Following a roar, the white-haired Heavenly Immortal's heavenly rage qi grew more violent and devastating. It instantly shattered the surrounding void.

That was the Heavenly Dao Sect's secret technique. It enabled the user to set aflame their Heavenly Dao energy in exchange for an increase in power.

Chu Kuangren's eyes lit up when he saw that. "Well done. Right on time."

Without another word, he unleashed the Heavenly Devouring Daoist Art!

Although the white-haired Heavenly Immortal had become much more powerful after using the Heavenly Rage Technique, he had lost control of his Heavenly Dao energy as a price. Before the likes of Chu Kuangren's Heavenly Devouring Daoist Art, he could not even fight back. All he could do was watch as Chu Kuangren absorbed and devoured his Heavenly Dao energy.

"With your cultivation as a Heavenly Immortal, I might not have been able to devour your Heavenly Dao energy if you hadn't used the Heavenly Rage Technique. Alas, now that you have, you've lost control of your Heavenly Dao energy. In that case, don't mind if I do. This power shall belong to me now!" Chu Kuangren chuckled.
