Chapter 1141: I Call It Blue Star (Finale)

From a county to the top of the world, many people couldn't achieve it in their entire lives, but that man had achieved it.

Perhaps, that man could reverse the situation.

Thinking of Xu Bai's miracles, everyone's despair was reignited with hope.

In the video, the Absolute Saint was still slaughtering. His strength had already recovered to its peak.

"When I destroy all the worlds, I will create a new world, a world without resistance."

Sensing the destruction of countless worlds, the Absolute Saint was also carrying out his ideals, but he couldn't be happy.

Xu Bai didn't die, nor did he appear. He was like a thorn stuck in his throat.

If this thorn was not pulled out, he would not be able to sleep or eat in peace.

Not far ahead, a brand new world turned into a wasteland in the blink of an eye.

The Absolute Saint took a deep breath and turned to leave. He still had many things to do.

Although he could make a large area with a wave of his hand, he didn't want to waste time here. He had stopped just now because he was thinking about Xu Bai.

However, just as he turned around, he suddenly stopped. His gaze focused on the figure in front of him. There was a figure dressed in ordinary clothes that was rapidly approaching. Distance seemed to be non-existent to this person. In the blink of an eye, he was in front of him.

"Xu Bai!" The Absolute Saint's face gradually darkened.

"As expected, you didn't die. You seem to have become much stronger."

Xu Bai smiled." This is the first time we've officially met. The previous time doesn't count. Are you ready to die now?"

The Absolute Saint opened his mouth and was about to speak, but Xu Bai didn't give him a chance to speak. He raised his hand.

This time, the attack did not have any dazzling white light. It was like a casual wave.

However, as he waved it, the ability to do as he pleased suddenly descended from the sky.

The pressure was so great that even a tiny bit of it could destroy a world.

"Boom!"

Booms rang out as the entire void shattered. The worlds that had yet to be destroyed seemed to sense it, and they all looked up. Even the world where Xu Bai was from could see what was happening.

The Absolute Saint was sent flying, and his body became tattered.

"Just this?"

But even so, the Absolute Saint didn't seem to feel anything. He stood up again. The moment he stood up, Xu Bai suddenly felt a pressure. In the next moment, his body gradually turned into ashes.

"It's indeed very strong, but who do you think you are?"the Absolute Saint said slowly.

"Boom!"

Explosions sounded one after another, and more and more worlds were destroyed.

"Xu Bai, you will never understand. The world is controlled by me. You are only using the resentment of the world that I destroyed. How can they defeat me? They can't live, and they can't die."

At this moment, Xu Bai had already turned into ashes, but the Absolute Saint was still talking.

The world began to despair.

When Xu Bai came out, they thought they would win, but the result was not satisfactory.

Without the thorn in his throat, the Absolute Saint seemed to be even more presumptuous. He began to speed up.

The speed of world destruction continued to accelerate, and more and more worlds were destroyed.

There were many worlds. When the last world was destroyed, everything seemed to have returned to the beginning of the world.

The Absolute Saint stood in the air and looked at what he had done with satisfaction.

“From now on, I will create a world that belongs to me, a world that will submit to me, and a world that will not resist.”

He was prepared to proceed according to the original plan. In fact, he had already begun.

But at this moment, the surrounding scenery suddenly changed.

The Absolute Saint suddenly reached out and touched his chest.

A large hole appeared in his chest and was gradually expanding.

“What is this?” the Absolute Saint said in shock.

“My hand.”

Xu Bai’s voice suddenly sounded.

The Absolute Saint turned his head with difficulty and said, “Didn’t you already...”

“Didn’t you already say that I’m a combination of resentment? As more and more worlds are destroyed by you, my power will naturally grow.”

“Does it hurt?” Xu Bai said lightly as he withdrew his hand.”

The Absolute Saint lowered his head and looked at the big hole in his chest. He smiled bitterly and said, “”No matter how much I calculated, I didn’t expect this.””

He really didn’t expect Xu Bai to be waiting for him here.

“Actually, I just realized my role now.”Xu Bai said, ” I really died just now. If you had stopped here and never did these things again, perhaps I wouldn’t have been resurrected because I didn’t have enough resentment. I think this was the beginning.””

“Beginning?” When the Absolute Saint heard this voice, he sounded nostalgic.

At this moment, time seemed to have started to reverse. The worlds destroyed by Absolute Saints were gradually recovering at a speed visible to the naked eye.

“In the end, he won.” The Absolute Saint didn’t say anything and turned into ashes.

At the same time, an image appeared in front of Xu Bai’s eyes...

At the beginning of the world, two species were born. They were the beginning and the end.

One represented the beginning of all things, and the other represented the end of all things. The two did their own things and did not interfere with each other.

However, one day, the Final One attacked Shi and seized the position of Shi, completely controlling countless worlds.

Then, he began his own atrocity.

He knew that when the world developed to a certain extent, it would recover and take everything away, so he destroyed the world at the critical moment.

His method was correct and there was no problem, but he had miscalculated. The world would resist.

He had come out and planned everything. He had finally achieved his goal.

The beginning had already died, and the Absolute Saint that represented the end of the end had also dissipated. The beginning and the end had withered together, and they would not be revived.

“Then what am I now?” Xu Bai felt the power in his body. It seemed that he could change everything with just a thought.

He was still formed from countless resentful energy, and there was no change at all.

Closing his eyes, Xu Bai carefully sensed his surroundings. A moment later, he opened his eyes.

“I think I understand now.”

The beginning and the end had disappeared. Every world had its own development and was no longer constrained by the beginning and the end.

These were the variables.

It was constantly changing, and there were always surprises.

He was a variable. With him around, every world would be brilliant.

“I see. This doesn’t seem too bad.”

As long as he thought about it, Xu Bai could sense the changes in the world. This kind of wonderful moment filled him with a sense of freshness.

“Compared to the previous world, this should be called a real world.” Xu Bai thought to himself.

“But before that, I need to live my own life.”

Xu Bai’s figure disappeared.

In the blink of an eye, he had already appeared in another void.

In front of him was a world, the place where he was first born.

With a thought, Xu Bai appeared in the barbarian land.

Countless people were waiting here.

They had witnessed Xu Bai’s scene. When Xu Bai appeared, cheers rose and fell, echoing continuously.

Xu Bai let them cheer.

The cheers lasted for a long time until they gradually disappeared. Xu Bai looked at the familiar faces.

” Now, the world has truly become a world. It is no longer controlled from the beginning to the end. Although everything will rise and fall, with variables, everything will be truly wonderful.”

“This place will be the ancestral land of all variables.”

After Xu Bai said that, the world began to change.

There was no change in their appearance, but as long as they were in this world, they could sense that their world had become the center of countless variables.

“Your Majesty, I’ll have to trouble you to supervise me in the future.” Xu Bai said with a smile.

“You...” The Chu Emperor was slightly stunned, not understanding what was going on.

Xu Bai said, "I only need to sense it and I can come over at any time. However, I still need everyone to do the daily maintenance. It's very simple. His Majesty will understand when the time comes."

"You want to leave?" The Chu Emperor understood Xu Bai's meaning.

Xu Bai nodded his head, his gaze landing on Chu Ling and the other women. He waved his hand and said, "Of course, I want to take them to a place, the place before I came to this world."

"What's your name?" The Chu Emperor asked.

Xu Bai had a smile on his face, and his eyes slowly deepened...

"A world as blue as the sea."

"I call it..."

"Blue Star..."
