

Unparalleled 1201

Chapter 1201: I Refuse To Believe I Can't Block a Single Slash, Killing the Blooded Nine Crow, Back to the Hundred Academy

A figure was slowly walking out of the Kunlun Secret Realm's entrance.

He, dressed in white robes, had long black hair, as well as an ancient sword and scroll at his waist.

His handsomeness was unparalleled, while his demeanor was nothing short of otherworldly.

It was none other than Chu Kuangren.

Everyone was talking about the Evil Immortal Valley at that time. However, when they saw Chu Kuangren, they were all so terrified that they started shuddering.

"It's him!"

"He has come out."

Everyone looked at Chu Kuangren fearfully. Especially those who witnessed that great battle that day were much more frightened to see him.

They looked at him as if he was a monster.

Besides Chu Kuangren, Lan Yu, Lil Fox, and many others were following him out.

"Oh, it's them."

Chu Kuangren naturally saw Tushan Fei Yu and her party under attack as he walked out of the secret realm, to which he was a little surprised.

What a coincidence.

"Hey, boss. Can you..."

Lil Fox tugged Chu Kuangren by his sleeves anxiously.

She did not want to sit back and do anything. Besides being from the same tribe, Tushan Fei Yu might possess some information about her father too.

"Don't worry. I'll handle it."

Chu Kuangren caressed her head and smiled.

"Alright."

After having his reassurance, Lil Fox nodded happily as if a weight had been lifted off her shoulders.

Inside the runic enchanted boundary, Tushan Fei Yu was struggling in her battle against the Blooded Nine Crow. Although his cultivation level was similar to hers, he had the help of the Permanent Spatial Rune, and she soon fell to a disadvantage.

"Now die!"

The Blooded Nine Crow threw out a brutal punch!

His terrifying fist energy swept across everywhere and enveloped Tushan Fei Yu. If that punch hit her, she would be critically injured.

However, ripples started to appear on the runic enchanted boundary at that moment.

Before the Blooded Nine Crow could figure out what was going on, a white figure suddenly appeared before him and blocked that fist energy he unleashed.

The figure in white gently raised his hand.

Boom!

Before the terrifying fist energy was a meter away from him, it seemingly made contact with an indestructible barrier and was repelled. That fist energy could not advance further at all!

“How is this possible?!”

The Blooded Nine Crow was horrified.

In the next instant, the person who appeared gently gestured a grab in the void.

With a boom, the Blooded Nine Crow’s fist energy brutally shattered into pieces!

Besides that, a terrifying wave of rebound energy was sent back toward him, sending him flying hundreds of meters away. As a result, the Blooded Nine Crow coughed up a mouthful of blood, and his face turned pale.

“W-What is happening?!”

“This power!”

The Blooded Nine Crow looked at the person who appeared.

He was shocked upon seeing who it was and began shuddering uncontrollably. “It’s you, Chu Kuangren!”

Furthermore, he noticed an opening had been torn open in his runic enchanted boundary.

Chu Kuangren had tore open his enchanted boundary, which was created by the most top-tiered Gilded Immortal Rune!

‘H-How is this possible?!’

The Blooded Nine Crow was astonished by Chu Kuangren’s power. Still, he collected himself and said, “Chu Kuangren, I have no grudge nor ill-will to you. Why do you want to risk angering the Evil Immortal Valley by interfering with my matters?”

He quickly mentioned the Evil Immortal Valley’s name in an attempt to scare Chu Kuangren.

Alas, Chu Kuangren was not intimidated at all. Instead, he raised one finger and said, “I only need one slash.”

“What do you mean?”

“If you can block this slash, I shall let you live.”

“You...”

The Blooded Nine Crow’s face turned grim. “You better watch yourself, Chu Kuangren. I have nothing to do with you, so why are you trying to cause me trouble?”

Chu Kuangren did not answer his question.

He pointed his sword hand sign forward, gathering sword qi at his fingertips.

The Blooded Nine Crow had already seen him as prey when he first stepped foot into the Kunlun Secret Realm. That in itself was an act of insolence to Chu Kuangren.

Back then, Chu Kuangren was considered kind enough not to kill him right away.

Besides, seeing that the people from the Evil Immortal Valley had been committing crime after crime, it did not matter to him even if he killed one of them. He would just regard them as a pest. Would anyone require a reason to exterminate pests?

“D*mn it!”

The Blooded Nine Crow was starting to panic.

He knew that Chu Kuangren was determined to unleash that slash no matter what.

“Very well. One slash it is!”

“I refuse to believe I can’t block a single slash!”

The Blooded Nine Crow took a deep breath, and a resolute look appeared in his eyes. He, too, was a top-notch Heavenly Champion.

He refused to believe he could not handle a single slash from Chu Kuangren while inside his own runic enchanted boundary!

“Heavenly, Sword-like Intent!”

At that moment, the sword qi that Chu Kuangren had gathered unleashed as his sword hand sign slashed in the air!

As soon as he attacked, the Blooded Nine Crow had already channeled the enchanted runic boundary’s power to weigh upon Chu Kuangren!

He wanted to use the enchanted boundary’s energy to resist his opponent’s sword qi!

However, a buzz sounded while ripples began to form in the void.

Right there and then, the runic energy shattered!

It could not stop Chu Kuangren’s sword qi even for a second!

In the form of sword qi, mighty heavenly intent enveloped the Blooded Nine Crow whole.

‘I can’t block it!’

'I really can't block it!'

The Blooded Nine Crow was overwhelmed with despair. That was when he finally understood how terrifying Chu Kuangren was.

He was a forbidden being that in terms of strength and power, far exceeded his peers!

Following a loud boom, the Blooded Nine Crow's body was reduced into a mist of blood, immediately killing him!

Everyone gasped at that scene.

Many of them had only heard rumors about Chu Kuangren and had yet witnessed his strength firsthand.

Yet, as of now, they finally saw him in action.

Most of them were stunned and speechless, whereas the cultivators who witnessed the great battle previously were not too shocked.

"The combined efforts of many top-notch Heavenly Champions like Chi Zhan, Zhuo Donglai, and Zhi Lei are nothing in the face of Chu Kuangren, let alone the Blooded Nine Crow himself. He's just too weak."

"He had no idea what kind of person he was fighting."

The mist of blood erupted in the air like fireworks.

Then, a will of the Immortal World entered Chu Kuangren's body.

Chu Kuangren had already lost count of how many wills of the Immortal World he had collected, but the Planquilon Immortal World's Will inside him had grown much stronger compared to the start of the Immortal World Convergence. Its power had reached a terrifying level.

Besides the Immortal World Will, Chu Kuangren's attention was on a rune that was hovering in the air. It was the rune left behind by the Blooded Nine Crow after he died.

With that, he took the rune and looked at it.

"Hm. This rune is quite interesting. It'll make a great item for me to study," Chu Kuangren mumbled.

That spatial rune was a top-tier Gilded Immortal Permanent Rune. If he could learn its secrets, his proficiency in Runic Dao would surely improve.

Although he rarely used runes in battle, he would never give up on any opportunity to improve himself.

With the Blooded Nine Crow dead, his cultivator goons also took off like headless chickens.

"I'm deeply grateful for your help, Brother Chu."

Tushan Fei Yu came to thank Chu Kuangren with a fist salute.

"No worries."

Chu Kuangren shook his head. "I'll be bringing Lil Fox to visit the Tushan Mountain a few days from now. I'll be counting on you to take care of our stay there, Sister Tushan."

“Definitely, Brother Chu.”

Tushan Fei Yu looked at Chu Kuangren with a serious expression.

‘Having an overpowered Heavenly Champion like him visit the Tushan Mountain is no small matter.’

‘I must notify the higher-ups about this as soon as I return.’

‘There must not be any delays regarding this.’

Following that, Chu Kuangren and his party went back to the Hundred Academy.

Several days later, inside the Hundred Academy’s Planquilon Academy, Chu Kuangren was standing beneath the Fusang Tree, looking at its red trunk and golden leaves, while pondering something.

He pointed out a sword hand sign and slashed toward the Fusang Tree. Then, the number of leaves and branches he sliced off immediately hovered in the air.

“Now, I shall try out this Wooden Puppet Refining Technique,” Chu Kuangren said with excitement.

Chapter 1202: Refining A Puppet With A Heart, Heading To The Great Ten Thousand Mountains, The Luo Hou Ancestral Land

The Wooden Puppet Refining Technique was a cultivation technique he drew from the gacha some time ago. It was a technique combining various spiritual woods with blood essence to make a puppet equivalent to a clone, which was very mysterious.

Chu Kuangren was going to experiment with it now.

He pointed out a sword hand sign and slashed it down at the Fusang Tree he obtained from the Honorable Yokai Hall, causing many leaves and branches to fall.

Then, Chu Kuangren took out some of its spiritual power.

Under his control, the Fusang Tree and other spiritual woods gradually transformed into a human-shaped puppet that had no facial features.

After that, Chu Kuangren pointed his sword hand sign at his chest, where a large amount of blood mist spurted out, and dug out his heart abruptly. The scene was horrifying.

“In terms of blood essence, nothing can compare to blood at the heart.” Chu Kuangren smiled.

1

While speaking, the big hole in his chest rapidly recovered, and a new heart had grown.

Such was the power of the Indestructible Physique!

3

Unless Chu Kuangren had lost his spiritual will, even an Arch Gilded Embodier would not be able to destroy his body.

“Go!”

Chu Kuangren threw out his heart, which was still beating in his hand and gleaming with Immortal Spark, to merge with the human-shaped puppet.

Immediately, an incomparably mysterious energy fluctuation emanated from the human-shaped puppet. It gradually took the appearance of Chu Kuangren.

The moment Chu Kuangren applied a strand of Immortal Consciousness onto the puppet, it opened its eyes, and a powerful Immortal's Core energy spread from it.

Its power was even higher than that of a Higher Third-grade Heavenly Immortal!

Generally, the strength of a refined puppet depended on the power and quantity of blood essence invested by the refiner, and the blood essence of an ordinary cultivator was limited.

After all, it was about lifespan, foundation, and so on.

Losing ten percent of the blood essence was extremely serious for a cultivator. Therefore, although the Wooden Puppet Refining Technique was powerful, other cultivators feared that losing too much blood essence, which would, in turn, affect their future.

As such, having ten percent of their true forms' strength was considered good enough for a refined puppet.

However, nobody had ever, like Chu Kuangren, refined a puppet with a heart.

Only Chu Kuangren, a freak with the Indestructible Physique, could do so.

In fact, his refined puppet had extremely powerful combat strength as it possessed thirty percent of his strength!

"Hm. It's not enough."

"This puppet can't fully activate my blood from the heart. Logically speaking, the Wooden Puppet Refining Technique has a limitation. It can only make a puppet with fifty percent of the true form's strength."

"It seems to be due to the ingredients," mumbled Chu Kuangren.

Although the Fusang Tree before him was a rare Immortal tree, it was only a branch of the real Fusang Tree and was very much different from it.

"Perhaps the effect of the Wooden Puppet Refining Technique can only be brought into full play by finding a real Fusang Tree or an Immortal tree that is no weaker than it." There was a hint of excitement in Chu Kuangren's eyes.

He was very optimistic about the Wooden Puppet Refining Technique.

Others were afraid of losing their blood essence, but he had no such scruples at all. As long as he had sufficient Immortal wood ingredients, he could refine puppets infinitely, including puppets with half his strength!

It was incredibly impressive!

Even ten percent of Chu Kuangren's strength could put him at the top among the Heavenly Champions, let alone half his strength.

Except for those monstrous Heavenly Champions such as the Young Imperial Commanders and Embodier successors, none of the Heavenly Champions could compete with someone who had half his strength!

Chu Kuangren could mass-produce such puppets.

That thought was a terrifying one!

It could only be achieved by combining the Indestructible Physique and the Wooden Puppet Refining Technique, which was beyond the imagination of countless people!

"I'll take Lil Fox to the Great Ten Thousand Mountains tomorrow while you go to the Demonic Dao's Luo Hou Ancestral Land to check the situation first."

The Demonic Dao's Luo Hou Ancestral Land was a place he learned from the Soul Vanquisher's memory, and he was very interested in it.

After all, he might find something from there since Luo Hou was called the founder of the Demonic Dao in the ancient Immortal times.

"Alright, my Lord," said Chu Kuangren's puppet.

There might be some danger as the Demonic Dao had the Luo Hou Ancestral Land under their territory, so it was better to let the puppet explore the situation first.

It would not be a big thing even if it were destroyed anyway.

...

The next day, Chu Kuangren took Lil Fox to the Great Ten Thousand Mountains while Chu Kuangren's puppet departed to the Luo Hou Ancestral Land.

The Great Ten Thousand Mountains, where the Immortal World's yokai lived, was off the beaten track. Even those top-notch Immortals would not set foot here unless it were necessary.

Although humans and yokai were not antagonistic, their thoughts differed due to their different tribes. As such, they would still guard against each other.

Swish!

Two figures emerged in the sky above the Great Ten Thousand Mountains.

It was Chu Kuangren and Lil Fox.

"It looks like I'll have to ask someone where Tushan is," mumbled Chu Kuangren.

The Great Ten Thousand Mountains were vast, and any of the mountains here were of the scale of a star. Therefore, searching for Tushan's location with Immortal Consciousness was not an easy thing.

Moreover, Chu Kuangren was a human cultivator. If he were to blatantly use his Immortal Consciousness on a large scale in the Great Ten Thousand Mountains to spy on other territories, it would undoubtedly serve as a form of provocation to the Great Ten Thousand Mountains' yokai.

Although Chu Kuangren was not afraid, there was no need to cause trouble.

Boom, boom!

At that moment, two different yokai clans were fighting in one of the Great Ten Thousand Mountains.

It was not an uncommon sight. There were countless clans within the Yokai Tribes in the Great Ten Thousand Mountains, and because they, more than the humans, believed in the survival of the fittest, conflicts occurred frequently.

Right now, two ordinary beast clans were battling it out, and their strength was relatively weak.

The strongest leader among them was only a Ninth-grade Heavenly Immortal.

"I shall ask them for directions," murmured Chu Kuangren.

With that, his figure flashed and disappeared along with Lil Fox.

The two beast clans, who were fighting in full swing, suddenly felt a terrifying aura enveloping themselves and others.

"This strength... What's going on?!"

"What a horrifying and domineering aura. Who is this?"

All the beasts were slightly startled.

Soon after, they saw Chu Kuangren fluttering before them.

"A human?"

"It is a human!"

"He's very young. He must be the top-notch sky-pride among the humans, and the force behind him is probably no weaker than those of the Ancient Immortal Beast Ruler clan," A dog-headed beast said in a trembling voice.

Most humans divided beasts into divine beasts, wild beasts, and the like. However, in the Great Ten Thousand Mountains, the beasts divided their forces into the Ordinary Beast clan, Great Beast clan, Giant Beast clan, and the top-notch Beast Ruler clan!

For example, manticore, sabertooth, nine-headed Snakelet... They were all under the Beast Ruler clan.

Their bloodline was far stronger than ordinary beasts and had better cultivation conditions than other beasts since they were born.

Chapter 1203: Settling The Tauren With A Sword Attack, He Is Chu Kuangren

Chu Kuangren's sudden appearance shocked the two Ordinary Beast clans and stopped them from fighting.

"How can I help you?" asked someone from the Tauren Yokai Tribe.

He knew Chu Kuangren's strength and background were not ordinary, so he dared not ignore him.

"I'd like to go to Tushan. Do you know how to get there?" asked Chu Kuangren.

"The Beast Ruler clan, Tushan?"

"Yes."

Chu Kuangren nodded.

With Tushan's strength and background, being part of the Beast Ruler clan was nothing.

"Tushan is at least three thousand mountain ranges from here, and it is located in the depths of the Great Ten Thousand Mountains. It's not easy getting there."

"No worries. Just show me the way."

"I have a map of the Great Ten Thousand Mountains, which is my clan's treasure. With this, you'll be able to reach Tushan as soon as possible. I hope you like it." The Tauren Yokai Tribe gritted his teeth.

Then, he took out a vintage pale yellow parchment scroll.

Chu Kuangren grinned upon hearing his statement.

"You've made a wise choice."

The moment he took the parchment scroll in his hand, it instantly transformed into countless orbs that entered his mind. Then, it turned into a map of the Great Ten Thousand Mountains.

The names of various mountains and rivers emerged, including the route to Tushan.

"Hmph. Tauren, do you think you can get his help by simply offering a treasure? Don't be naive. Humans are despicable, and they won't help you."

"Even if he's willing to help you, so what? He is only a Heavenly Immortal. It is simply ridiculous for him to turn the tide." A Kobold sneered.

He was prejudiced against humans.

Although he knew some powerful force in the human race might be backing Chu Kuangren, no matter how great they were, they could not intervene in the Great Ten Thousand Mountains' matters.

As for Chu Kuangren, so what if he was a powerful Heavenly Immortal?

Could he possibly reverse the outcome of the battle between these two beast clans?

The Tauren smiled bitterly. He knew the Kobold was right, but they had already fallen to a disadvantage in the battle. Unless a miracle happened, they would be completely wiped out by the Kobolds today.

That was why he thought he would take the chance to exchange a treasure for the mysterious human's help.

“Since I’ve taken something of yours, I have to return the favor. Today, I’ll help you avert this calamity,” said Chu Kuangren.

As he raised his hand, an incomparably cold and powerful sword intent gushed out, causing all of the yokai’s expressions to change.

“Such an aura...”

“That’s bad! Stop him now!”

Soon after, countless Kobolds rushed toward Chu Kuangren, and bursts of yokai qi erupted!

“What can you ants do?”

A chuckle sounded.

Chu Kuangren pointed his sword hand sign forward and made a slash at the void.

Instantly, the sword intent turned into sword qi that raged outward.

The incomparable sword qi enveloped all the Kobolds before mists of blood exploded in the air.

In the blink of an eye, the ground was covered in Kobolds’ corpses.

The scene of the broken limbs scattered about was horrendous!

There were even several Heavenly Immortals among the Kobolds.

Having been critically injured by the sword qi, the Kobold leader collapsed to the ground, shivering in fright and disbelief.

After all, he had spent countless efforts to annex the Taurens, and after planning it for a long time, he could finally eliminate them.

Yet, all his efforts had gone down the drain with Chu Kuangren’s sword attack.

“I’ll leave it to you to solve it yourself,” said Chu Kuangren.

After that, he left with Lil Fox.

Helping the Taurens to settle the Kobolds was an easy matter for him.

Those Taurens were still in shock, trying to accept the fact that Chu Kuangren killed countless Kobolds with one sword attack.

“With that strength, is he just a Heavenly Immortal?” A Tauren could not help but ask in shock.

“It looks like it is worth a shot,” the Tauren leader said excitedly.

...

At a lakeside in Tushan, a charming woman dressed in white looked sadly at the lake before her. She was Tushan Fei Yu.

“Sister Fei Yu, are you still worried about the matter?”

At that moment, a Fox Tribe lady with fox ears who had yet fully transformed approached and asked with concern.

"The matter is related to Tushan's future. I have to be cautious," Tushan Fei Yu lamented while shaking her head.

"Hmph. The Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain's Crown Prince is to blame. If it wasn't for him, you wouldn't have to worry so much, Sister Fei Yu," said the fox-eared lady.

"The Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain is the best Beast Ruler clan in the Great Ten Thousand Mountains. Even Tushan is slightly inferior to them. They are very ambitious and have always wanted to unify the Great Ten Thousand Mountains to establish a Supreme Yokai Hall!"

"This time, they've chosen us as the first target for the operation. If I agree to the request of the Golden Crow Crown Prince and marry him, Tushan will inevitably become the Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain's subsidiary in the future. However, if I don't, they will take this opportunity to attack and occupy Tushan to deter other Beast Ruler clans," said Tushan Fei Yu.

Then, she glanced at the confused fox-eared lady and smiled. "Forget it, Lil Yu. There's no point in telling you this because you don't understand much yet. I think you should concentrate on cultivating."

"I'm powerful too! I'm almost an Earthen Immortal now."

"Sure you are."

"Sister Fei Yu, in your opinion, if Tushan and Emerald Hill join forces, could they go against the Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain?" Lil Yu asked as she thought of something.

Tushan Fei Yu's eyes lit up but then turned dim again. "Although Tushan and Emerald Hill are Fox Tribes, there has always been a gap between us. Hundreds of years ago, the Emerald Hill Fox King and Tushan Queen tried to close the gap but failed due to an inexplicable disaster."

"Since then, the Tushan Queen has fallen into a deep sleep, while the Emerald Hill has locked the Emerald Hill Fox King away because of his madness. Instead of solving the gap between the two Fox Tribes, that matter has deepened our estrangement. How can we possibly join forces?"

Lil Yu became slightly frustrated.

"Well, let me tell you something interesting I encountered while gaining experience in the outside world this time." Tushan Fei Yu said with a smile.

"Yeah."

Lil Yu's face immediately lit up. "Sister, did you meet someone compelling in the outside world this time?"

The Yokai Tribes worshipped elites, and their children were no exception.

They loved listening to some stories about the human or Yokai Tribes elites.

"Someone compelling, huh?"

Tushan Fei Yu thought of Chu Kuangren.

"Yes, there was a compelling person. He's probably the most powerful sky-pride I've ever met."

"Is he more powerful than you, Sister?"

"I'm far worse than him," Tushan Fei Yu said with a bitter smile.

Although she was also a Heavenly Champion sky-pride, her strength was a world apart compared to Chu Kuangren's, and she was unqualified to compare herself with him.

"Oh. He's that awesome. Who is he?"

Lil Yu's jaw dropped, her face full of surprise. In her view, her elder sister was already a powerful person.

What was someone more powerful than her like?

"He's Chu Kuangren..."

Chapter 1204: Confess To Him Since You Like Him, Lil Fox's Parents

"This is Tushan."

Chu Kuangren followed the map in his mind and came to Tushan with Lil Fox. His arrival attracted many from the Fox Tribe's attention.

Soon, a few of them came forward.

They were all handsome men and beautiful women but not comparable to Chu Kuangren.

His facial features were almost the perfect humanoid creation.

"This human being looks better than the best-looking male fox in the Tushan clan. That's incredible."

All yokai foxes were astonished upon seeing Chu Kuangren.

Some female yokai foxes even secretly gulped.

Chu Kuangren was incredibly good-looking not only to men but also to women.

"Who are you?"

Although they were impressed by Chu Kuangren's appearance, they did not neglect their duties and immediately questioned him.

"I'm Chu Kuangren, and I'm here to visit Tushan with Moonlight Fox. It's an agreement between Tushan Fei Yu and me."

"What? An agreement with Maiden Sage?"

Some yokai foxes were slightly surprised.

"Bring him in."

At that moment, a voice sounded from the depths of Tushan.

It was a Tushan Tribe's Elder.

"Alright."

...

"Chu Kuangren killed hundreds of Heavenly Champions and sky-prides in that battle. Some of them were no weaker than me. He's extremely powerful, and I'm afraid none among the younger generation in the entire Immortal World can compare to him," Tushan Fei Yu said by the lake.

Before her, Lil Yu listened with fascination and lamented. "If I were to get married in the future, I must marry such an unparalleled hero. It doesn't matter even if he is a human."

"Indeed..." Tushan Fei Yu lamented.

She thought of Chu Kuangren, about how he had killed a group of enemies with one sword attack and how he had saved her from the Blooded Nine Crow.

She even thought of his extraordinarily handsome appearance...

Everything about him was unrealistically perfect.

"It must be great to marry such a person," mumbled Tushan Fei Yu.

Then, she shook her head. "How is that possible? Unless a miracle happens, I'm afraid I'll have to marry the Golden Crow Crown Prince."

She knew Tushan could not defend themselves against the Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain now.

In order to protect Tushan, the elders would want her to marry the Golden Crow's Crown Prince no matter how reluctant they were, even if it was a temporary measure.

At that thought, a bitter smile appeared on her face.

"Fei Yu, Chu Kuangren is here," a yokai fox reported.

"Alright."

Tushan Fei Yu was stunned for a moment before she nodded.

"Is it Chu Kuangren for real? I want to have a look too," said Lil Yu.

It felt as if she was going to meet an idol.

"Let's go."

...

Tushan was not in nature as Chu Kuangren imagined.

There were many buildings here, which were no different from the cities where humans lived, except that yokai foxes lived here.

At that moment, a few of Tushan's elders were meeting Chu Kuangren in the Tushan's great hall. They had long known about Chu Kuangren's visit, so they dared not slack.

After all, he was an unreasonably powerful sky-pride. They had, more or less, heard about the battle in the Kunlun Secret Realm. Some of the Fox Tribe's great ones even spied on the battle.

However, compared to Chu Kuangren, they were now more interested in Lil Fox as they could sense her strong Celestial Fox bloodline.

"A Moonlight Fox is a rare and strange Celestial Fox."

"There haven't been many Moonlight Foxes in Tushan's history, but it's the first time a Moonlight Fox has returned from the outside world."

All yokai fox's elders looked at Lil Fox with great interest.

A yokai fox's elder furrowed his brows while staring at Lil Fox. "Do you think Lil Fox looks familiar?"

At that, other elders reacted and looked at Lil Fox in amazement.

"Yes. She does look familiar."

"Could she be an illegitimate child of one of our higher-ups in Tushan? That's really something."

"No, she looks a little like the Queen," an elder suddenly said.

As soon as he said that, everyone was stunned. Then, their gaze on Lil Fox gradually turned solemn.

"They do look somewhat similar."

"What the hell is going on?!"

Lil Fox was slightly frightened by the yokai fox's elders staring at her and could not help but hide behind Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren rubbed her head to comfort her.

"Brother Chu, I've sent someone to get the Bloodline Crystal. Then, we can identify her bloodline."

"Alright."

Soon after, Tushan Fei Yu showed up before the Bloodline Crystal did.

She nodded at Chu Kuangren. "Greetings, Brother Chu."

"Greetings, Miss Fei Yu."

Chu Kuangren greeted her with a smile.

Then, he noticed a small head sticking out from behind Tushan Fei Yu and was looking at him curiously.

She was a cute young lady with fair and smooth skin.

"Lil Yu, come and meet Chu Kuangren, whom I mentioned earlier," said Tushan Fei Yu.

"Greetings, Brother Chu."

Lil Yu walked forward and bowed politely.

Chu Kuangren smiled. "Greetings, Sister Lil Yu."

"Brother Chu, you're the same as my sister described."

"Oh, what did your sister say about me?"

"She said you're an awesome and good-looking sky-pride who's much more powerful than her. She even said it would be great if she could marry you—"

Before Lil Yu could finish her sentence, a blushing Tushan Fei Yu covered her mouth.

"She's just a child spouting nonsense. Please forgive her, Brother Chu."

Her ears turned red, and her cheeks felt so hot that she was almost smoking.

"Sister, I'm not a child. I'm two hundred and thirty years old."

Lil Yu finally broke free from Tushan Fei Yu's hand and said with dissatisfaction, "Confess to him since you like him."

"Repeat it, and I'll kill you," Tushan Fei Yu said while gritting her teeth.

Chu Kuangren smiled and did not take Lil Yu's words seriously. However, he noticed the elders beside him reacting weirdly.

All of them were taciturn, and their expressions were grim.

It seemed to have started when Lil Yu said Tushan Fei Yu liked Chu Kuangren.

Could their reaction be due to that?

Was it because humans and yokai were different, so they disallowed Tushan Fei Yu liking Chu Kuangren?

Or could there be some other reasons?

"Sigh. How despicable. If it weren't for the Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain, I would support Fei Yu even if she likes an ordinary man." An elder sighed.

'Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain?'

'It must be the Golden Crow Tribe...' Chu Kuangren thought to himself.

After a while, a yokai fox brought in the Bloodline Crystal and began to examine Lil Fox's bloodline.

The outcome was exactly in line with the conjecture of all yokai fox's elders.

"She is indeed the Queen's descendant!"

"How is that possible? When did the Queen have a descendant, and why was she left out?"

"The Emerald Hill Fox King. If the Queen has a descendant, it is likely that she and the Emerald Hill Fox King gave birth to her."

The elders looked at Lil Fox with a conflicted expression.

Chapter 1205: Healing The Tushan Queen, The Seven Needles Against Fate, The Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain's Visitor

Lil Fox was the Fox Tribe Queen's descendant?!

Chu Kuangren was astonished. 'Aren't you here to find your father? And now you've found your mother too?'

Lil Fox was also a little confused. 'Mother?'

The Fox Tribe that adopted her only mentioned her father and nothing about her mother.

"Where's my mother?" asked Lil Fox.

"She is in a deep slumber."

"A deep slumber?"

"Yes. She was severely injured, and her body almost stopped functioning. In order to save her life, we had to put her into a deep slumber," said a Tushan elder.

Lil Fox got a little anxious. "What about my father?"

"Your father should be the Emerald Hill Fox King. I think the Emerald Hill has sealed him away," said the Tushan elder.

"Isn't he the Emerald Hill Fox King? Why did they seal him?"

"It's a long story."

Then, the Tushan elder started to recall the past.

There had always been a gap between Emerald Hill and Tushan.

Hundreds of years ago, the most impressive and talented Emerald Hill Fox King fell in love with Tushan Queen, and they planned to bridge the gap between both tribes with marriage.

The higher-ups of both tribes argued over the marriage for a long time until they finally agreed.

Unfortunately, the Emerald Hill Fox King and Tushan Queen encountered an inexplicable disaster in some ruins when they were away gaining experience.

The queen was severely wounded and nearly died, hence she was forced into a deep slumber.

On the other hand, something also happened to the fox king. From time to time, he would fall into a state of madness, so Emerald Hill had to seal him away.

Such an incident was a massive blow to both Emerald Hill and Tushan.

Eventually, the marriage failed, and the matter aggravated their estrangements. Both tribes believed that the other party had harmed their ruler.

"They have never mentioned you," the Tushan elder said while looking at Lil Fox.

"I see. Can I visit my mother?" asked Lil Fox.

"Of course."

Following that, the Tushan elder brought Lil Fox to the slumbering place of the Tushan Queen, which was a cave filled with life.

In the cave, a woman was sleeping in a crystal coffin.

Chu Kuangren noticed that most of Tushan's spiritual qi were gathered in the cave to maintain the woman's life.

The Tushan Queen was the ruler of Tushan.

For hundreds of years, the Tushan elders had done everything they could to sustain the queen's life.

Unfortunately, the queen's life was like a candle in the wind that could go off at any time.

"Mother..."

Lil Fox looked at the woman in the crystal coffin and suddenly felt a bloodline connection to the woman. At that moment, tears began to well up in her eyes.

"Lil Ai, analyze Tushan Queen's injury."

"Alright... Analysis initiating... Completed. The Tushan Queen's internal organs have been severely damaged, and her Immortal's Core is almost shattered..."

"She's indeed in critical condition."

Troubled by such an injury, Chu Kuangren furrowed his brows.

"Boss, can you save my mother?"

Lil Fox looked at Chu Kuangren.

She knew Chu Kuangren was highly capable of medical skills, so she could only pin her hope on him.

Beside her, the Tushan elder shook his head.

He did not put much hope in Chu Kuangren. After all, if it were that easy, Tushan would have found someone to cure the queen long ago.

"I'll try my best."

"Forget it, Brother Chu. It's hard to even sustain the Queen's life right now. It won't be good if something goes wrong during the treatment." The Tushan elder tried to stop Chu Kuangren.

"Let me try."

With that, Chu Kuangren took out an Immortal Herb.

Immediately, a terrifying life force filled the entire cave.

"I-It's the..."

The Tushan elder gulped while looking at the Immortal Herb in Chu Kuangren's hand. He had already guessed what the Immortal Herb was.

"Should there be any accidents during the treatment, I'll use this Undying Elixir immediately," said Chu Kuangren.

The Immortal Herb he took out was the West Ruler Matriarch's Undying Elixir!

Once consumed, one would gain an unlimited lifespan and quickly recover from any injury before the consumption.

"Is it really the Undying Elixir!"

"You're willing to save the Tushan Queen with the Undying Elixir?!" the Tushan elder exclaimed in disbelief.

The Undying Elixir was the most precious elixir in the universe, and even the most ancient immortal orthodoxy might not be able to obtain it.

Having an Undying Elixir was almost equivalent to being given another life with an endless lifespan!

Yet, Chu Kuangren was willing to use it to save the Tushan Queen, who was a yokai?

"Boss..."

Lil Fox was also stunned for a moment. However, it warmed her heart knowing that Chu Kuangren was only willing to do that for her.

"Can I treat her now?" asked Chu Kuangren.

The Undying Elixir meant little to him. Hence, he might as well use it to save people. It would be a good deal if it could be exchanged for Tushan's friendship.

"Yes, please."

The Tushan elder nodded.

With the Undying Elixir as a guarantee, he worried no more.

If the Tushan Queen's condition persisted, it was almost impossible for her to recover. Since there was now an opportunity for the Queen to recover, he must not miss it.

Following that, Chu Kuangren began treating the Tushan Queen.

He started it off by using his medical skills instead of the Undying Elixir, which proved to be a challenge for him.

Ten days later, endless life forces gathered at Chu Kuangren's fingertips and transformed into seven slender emerald needles that pierced into Tushan Queen's body.

Slowly, her lost life forces were restored.

“These Seven Needles Against Fate is the highest-level Medical Dao Technique recorded in the Emerald Sac Scriptures. But if these seven needles don’t work, I’ll have to use the Undying Elixir,” Chu Kuangren thought to himself.

It would take seven days for the Seven Needles Against Fate to take full effect, and Chu Kuangren was not in a hurry.

On the third day, an Immortal Consciousness fluctuation spread from the Tushan Queen’s body.

“Something’s happening. The Queen’s Immortal Consciousness has reacted, and she is observing Tushan now,” the Tushan elder said with great excitement.

“Senior Elder, what happened to me?”

A gentle voice resounded in everyone’s mind.

It was the Tushan Queen’s voice.

“My Queen...”

The Senior Elder briefly explained the matter.

Upon mentioning Lil Fox, Tushan Queen’s Immortal Consciousness fluctuated violently. “My daughter...”

Lil Fox looked at the Tushan Queen anxiously.

“She’ll be awake when the Seven Needles Against Fate has taken full effect. Lil Fox, you should stay here and accompany her during this time.” Chu Kuangren chuckled.

Then, he turned around and left the cave.

Over the next few days, the Tushan elder treated Chu Kuangren as a significant guest.

However, on the seventh day, Tushan had a visitor.

In the eyes of everyone in Tushan, the person who came was a devil!

“Tushan Senior Elder, I wonder if you have considered my request,” a man in a gorgeous robe said in the great hall.

He was the Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain’s Crown Prince.

Beside him were several cultivators in golden armor similar to guards, and all of them were top-notch Heavenly Immortals.

“Oh, Golden Crow Guardians.”

Chu Kuangren walked into the great hall and looked at those people with surprise.

Chapter 1206: Killing The Former Yokai Ruler, Forget About The Marriage, Tushan Queen Awakes

Chu Kuangren had come across the Golden Crow Guardians back in Planquilon Immortal World.

However, the ones he came across were the Honorable Yokai Hall’s Golden Crow Guardians, who were all fake Golden Crow Guardians consisting of a group of flying beasts.

Yet now, all Golden Crow Guardians in front of him were of pure bloodline, which could not be compared with those he had met previously.

“Chu Kuangren!”

At that moment, an angry voice sounded from the Golden Crow Guardians.

A figure then emerged among the Golden Crow Guardians. His angry eyes glared at Chu Kuangren, wishing to rip him off.

Chu Kuangren glanced at him. “Oh, it’s you.”

That Golden Crow Guardian was the former Honorable Yokai Hall Ruler of Planquilon Immortal World, but now, he had become one of the Golden Crow Guardians.

With that said, his bloodline must have evolved and made him a pure-blooded Golden Crow. It was very interesting.

“I didn’t expect to meet you here, Chu Kuangren,” the Yokai Ruler said coldly with murderous intent surging in his eyes.

After escaping from Chu Kuangren back then and the Immortal World merged, he returned to the Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain. That was when his bloodline finally evolved, and he became a pure-blooded Golden Crow after many trials and tribulations.

Besides, he had also obtained a huge Opportunity of Fortune and became a guardian of the Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain’s Crown Prince.

“Chu Kuangren, I have no idea why you are here, but don’t you even think about leaving since you’re here.”

The Yokai Ruler turned around and said to the Golden Crow Crown Prince, “Crown Prince, I have a blood feud with him. Please allow me to take action.”

He knew Chu Kuangren was connected to Tushan since he was here.

However, in his opinion, Tushan was almost in the bag for Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain. As long as he was under the protection of the Golden Crow’s Crown Prince when he made a move and killed Chu Kuangren, Tushan would not dare to say anything.

How deep could the bond between a yokai and a human be anyway?

“I can fulfill your wish to die,” the Golden Crow’s Crown Prince said indifferently.

The Yokai Ruler was a little bewildered. ‘What’s going on?’

“You think you can kill him, huh? You think too highly of yourself,” the Golden Crow Crown Prince continued saying.

The Yokai Ruler had no idea about Chu Kuangren’s strength because his status was too low. Moreover, he had been living in the Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain for a long time and lacked information sources.

However, the Golden Crow Crown Prince was different. As the most outstanding sky-pride of the Golden Crow Tribe, he knew of Chu Kuangren, whose battle in the Kunlun Secret Realm had gained him a reputation among the Heavenly Champions.

“How is that possible?” The Yokai Ruler was in disbelief.

He was already a pure-blooded Golden Crow and a top-notch Heavenly Immortal. Yet, why did the Golden Crow Crown Prince regard him as thinking too highly of himself for killing Chu Kuangren?

What has Chu Kuangren done over the years?

Swish!

At that moment, a surge of sword qi burst out.

Before the Yokai Ruler could react, he was already torn in half, and mist of blood splattered everywhere.

The scene shocked everyone, especially the Golden Crow Crown Prince. He stared at Chu Kuangren with a grim expression. “You best give me an explanation!”

“Explain? Why do I need to explain myself for killing a person who wanted to kill me?” Chu Kuangren asked calmly.

The Planquilon Yokai Ruler should have died a long time ago.

Since they had met again, and he had the guts to express his murderous intent, Chu Kuangren had to kill him.

“Chu Kuangren, you really are mad. You’re now in the Great Ten Thousand Mountains. Believe it or not, I can make you stay here forever with a command!” the Golden Crow’s Crown Prince said coldly.

He had never seen a human dare to behave arrogantly in the Great Ten Thousand Mountains.

“Well, believe it or not, as long as I’m willing to, I can easily flatten the Great Ten Thousand Mountains and even destroy the Golden Crow Tribe,” Chu Kuangren said in a cold tone.

Were there many elites in the Great Ten Thousand Mountains?

Yes. There were a lot of them, including Arch Gilded!

However, not all of them would follow the Golden Crow Tribe’s orders. With Chu Kuangren’s background, not only could he act wildly in the Great Ten Thousand Mountains, but he could also destroy the Golden Crow Tribe if he wanted to.

For being one of the oldest forces in the universe, the Celestial Demon Tribe was no joke.

“You...”

When the Golden Crow Crown Prince thought of Chu Kuangren’s background, his face turned ashen, and he could not find the words to say.

“An Arch Gilded can’t interfere in the Battle of the Heavenly Champions. There is no exception even though you’re from the Celestial Demon Tribe.” The Golden Crow’s Crown Prince thought about it for a while before saying.

Chu Kuangren laughed out loud. “If it’s only the Battle of the Heavenly Champions, why should I be afraid even if all the Great Ten Thousand Mountains’ Heavenly Champions come forward?”

There was a hint of confidence in those words.

Next to Chu Kuangren, Lil Yu was looking at him with admiration.

“Hmph. It’s all just big talk.”

“Would you like to try?”

“I’m not here to seek trouble with you.”

The Golden Crow’s Crown Prince did not want to argue with Chu Kuangren any longer. Although one of his Golden Crow Guardians had been killed, he must endure it.

After all, he may be confident in himself, but he knew he was not yet Chu Kuangren’s opponent.

He would not gain any benefits from starting a conflict with Chu Kuangren now.

“Tushan Senior Elder, please give me an answer now. Will Tushan Fei Yu marry me?!” The Golden Crow’s Crown Prince asked indifferently.

Tushan Fei Yu bit her lip, her face pale.

Several Tushan elders were put in a difficult position too.

Chu Kuangren remained silent as well.

He had thought about the matter over the past few days. However, he did not want to interfere as it was a matter between Tushan and the Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain.

At the end of the day, he was not close with Tushan Fei Yu.

If it were not for Lil Fox and her relationship, he might have become enemies with Tushan because of his identity as the Heavenly Champion.

“Forget about the marriage!” A woman’s cold grunt suddenly sounded.

The next moment, a surge of terrifying yokai qi swept out from a distance and enveloped the entire Tushan. All of Tushan’s yokai foxes became extremely excited when they sensed their bloodlines resonating with the yokai qi.

“That aura... It’s the Queen!”

“It’s the Queen!”

Further away, a stunning white-robed woman with her hair pinned and nine white fox tails swaying behind her approached.

The woman was so beautiful that it seemed like she was the only color in the universe.

Her aura was mighty, and her yokai qi swept across the universe, shaking heaven and earth!

She was the Tushan Queen!

“Forget about the marriage! Tushan doesn’t need to compromise through marriage,” Tushan Queen said indifferently while walking into the great hall.

Meanwhile, Lil Fox followed beside her obediently.

“Greetings, my Queen!”

All Tushan elders bowed excitedly.

The Golden Crow’s Crown Prince looked at Tushan Queen with his brows furrowed.

‘What’s going on?’

‘According to rumors, isn’t the Tushan Queen in deep slumber?’

‘Why is she suddenly awake?’

The Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain targeted Tushan because the Tushan Queen was in a deep slumber and had lost her top-notch combat strength. Although Tushan was a Beast Ruler clan, it was much inferior to the Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain.

However, the queen’s awakening had disrupted the Golden Crow’s Crown Prince and the Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain’s plan.

“Go back and tell the Golden Crow King that you can marry anyone in Tushan as long as there is love between both parties. But, if the marriage is for something crooked, dream on!”

“If he wants to fight, bring it on! Tushan is never afraid to fight!”

Chapter 1207: The Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain’s Attack, Yokai Tribes Besiege, We Are Your Opponents

“We’ll come back another day since the Tushan Queen is unwilling,” said the Golden Crow Crown Prince.

The Tushan Queen’s appearance was beyond his expectations, and he had to return to inform the Heavenly Golden Crow Mountains’ higher-ups.

“Please,” said the Tushan Queen indifferently.

After the Golden Crow Crown Prince left, the Tushan Queen’s aura instantly faded.

“Are you alright, my Queen?”

Several Tushan elders hurriedly went up to her and asked.

“I’m alright. It’s just that I’ve just recovered, and I can’t use my strength,” Tushan Queen said with a bitter smile.

Although Chu Kuangren's medical skills were incomparable, Tushan Queen's injury was too severe. Therefore, even though her injury could be cured, it would take some time for her to recover to her heyday.

Just now, she deliberately exuded a powerful aura to deter the Golden Crow Crown Prince so that he would retreat.

"Queen, what shall we do now?" asked the Tushan Senior Elder.

Now that the Tushan Queen had awakened, they seemed to have found their backbone again and wanted to seek her opinion.

"Tell me everything that has happened over the years."

"Alright."

Soon after, Tushan's elders told the Tushan Queen everything that had happened over the years.

"It looks like a lot of things happened when I was in deep slumber. Even the Immortal World has merged," the Tushan Queen lamented.

Following that, she looked at Chu Kuangren before bowing and greeting him sincerely. "I'd like to express my gratitude to you, my human friend. Lil Yue has told me a lot about you, and she said you've been taking good care of her. It's also because of you that I'm awake. From now on, you're my most honored guest and friend."

"Don't sweat it, Queen."

Chu Kuangren smiled.

The Tushan trip this time was well worth it for Chu Kuangren. Not only did they find Lil Fox's parents, but he also gained Tushan's friendship.

"I wonder what's your plan, Queen? Are you confident in dealing with the Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain?"

"No matter what, we'll never sacrifice our Maiden Sage's happiness."

In the yokai world, Tushan yokai foxes were known for being affectionate and bold, so Chu Kuangren was not surprised by Tushan Queen's action.

"Queen, I'm afraid that with our current strength, competing with the Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain won't be easy," an elder said worriedly.

"Queen, why don't we promise the Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain? You've just awakened, and you still need time to regain your strength. As long as we can buy some time until you've recovered, we won't have to be afraid of the Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain. My sacrifice will be worth it," Tushan Fei Yu said through clenched teeth.

"Nonsense. There's no way I'm allowing this to happen."

The Tushan Queen bellowed and continued. "With regards to confronting the Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain, I've decided to visit the Emerald Hill."

At the mention of Emerald Hill, she patted Lil Fox's head and said, "I should give them an explanation about the incident back then to heal the relationship between Emerald Hill and Tushan. There are many powerful clans in the Great Ten Thousand Mountains. If we, the Fox Tribe, don't unite, other powerful clans besides the Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain will have their eyes on us sooner or later."

"We fully support your decision, my Queen."

"If it's you, Queen, perhaps we can heal the relationship between Emerald Hill and Tushan."

"However, there may be a danger during your trip to Emerald Hill, so it's best to get someone to go with you."

"I want to go too," said Lil Fox.

"Since that's the case, I'll tag along too. I'm quite interested in Emerald Hill's yokai foxes," Chu Kuangren said with a smile.

The Tushan Queen set off after deciding on the candidates to go to Emerald Hill with her.

Meanwhile, at the Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain in the Great Ten Thousand Mountains, the Golden Crow Crown Prince had already informed the Golden Crow's higher-ups about the Tushan Queen's awakening and Chu Kuangren.

"Tushan Queen... I didn't expect she would suddenly wake up after so many years. Now that's a real pain in the neck."

"Indeed. However, if we don't explain ourselves, I'm afraid it'll affect the Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain's dignity."

"The Tushan Queen has just awakened, and she can't return to her heyday so quickly. If we can deal with her, our plan shall remain the same. I'm guessing she'll seek Emerald Hill to join forces. Let's get the Yokai Tribes who have joined us to get rid of her along her way."

A few of Golden Crow's higher-ups were communicating with each other.

"What about Chu Kuangren? What shall we do if he tags along and stops us?" asked a Golden Crow higher-up.

Unlike Tushan Queen, Chu Kuangren was a Heavenly Champion with a fortune and the Celestial Demon Tribe's backing. Therefore, the Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain dared not mess around.

"The Heavenly Champions should deal with their matters themselves. Let all Yokai Tribes' Heavenly Champions who belong to us take action, and no matter what, we must stall Chu Kuangren and not let him affect us. It'll be great if we kill him. The Celestial Demon Tribe can't do anything if he dies in the Battle of the Heavenly Champions."

1

"Understood."

...

"Your father is the King of the Emerald Hill. We met in a competition when we were Bachelor Sage and Maiden Sage..."

On the way to Emerald Hill, Tushan Queen told Lil Fox about her relationship with the Emerald Hill Fox King, Lil Fox's father.

There was a nostalgic look on her face when she brought up the past.

Suddenly, the Tushan Queen's gentle expression disappeared and was replaced by an icy look.

Several figures walked out of the void, each with a powerful Immortal's Core fluctuation. They were yokai of different races like the tiger yokai, snake yokai, eagle yokai, and many more.

"What? Is the Golden Crow Yokai King so afraid of me to have sent you guys here?" the Tushan Queen asked indifferently.

"Hah! Tushan Queen, I heard you've awakened, so I came to greet you," a snake yokai with long and narrow eyes said in a ridiculing tone.

"Greet me? You all should get out of my way instead."

Boom!

A terrifying aura erupted from the Tushan Queen's body. The eruption of the yokai qi made many yokai weak, and they fell from the sky and landed on their knees.

"Is this Tushan Queen's strength? It's horrifying!"

"We shouldn't underestimate her strength. According to the rumors, Tushan Queen was close to the Embodier Realm in her heyday. I wonder if it is true."

"Although her yokai qi is scary, it is somewhat vague, which means her strength has yet to recover."

Some Gilded Immortal yokai exchanged glances with each other.

Just as they were about to make a move, a figure in white suddenly stood before them. It was Chu Kuangren.

Dressed in white and his robes billowing in the wind, he looked at the group of True Immortals and even Gilded Immortal elites. His expression remained unchanged as he said indifferently, "Are you sure you want to attack?"

"Chu Kuangren!"

A strange look emerged in all yokai eyes.

They knew about him and his terrifying background.

The Hundred Academy and the Celestial Demon Tribe...

Besides those two major forces, Chu Kuangren's identity as a Heavenly Champion was not something they could not get involved with as it was related to the will of the Immortal World, which involved great karma.

"Chu Kuangren, we're your opponents!"

At that moment, countless figures emerged from the void and surrounded Chu Kuangren. Although their auras were not comparable to other True Immortal and Gilded Immortal yokai, they were all Heavenly Champions!

1

Chapter 1208: Thirty Percent of Strength, You All Have Underestimated Me, Fighting A True Immortal

"Chu Kuangren, we're your opponents!"

Countless Yokai Tribes' Heavenly Champions walked out of the void.

Each of them emanated the aura of a Heavenly Immortal.

Among them were beasts from the Beast Ruler clan, such as manticore and sabertooth.

"Are you using the Heavenly Champions to deal with me because you're afraid of getting the consequences of interfering with the Battle of the Heavenly Champions?"

"Hah." Chu Kuangren chuckled and said, "How foolish of you to send a group of Heavenly Champions to their death."

"Chu Kuangren, don't be arrogant. It's still too early to know that."

A Heavenly Champion from the Sabertooth Tribe took out a bronze mirror and threw it into the air.

The bronze mirror immediately radiated with Immortal Spark before forming a white enchanted boundary in the air to envelope Chu Kuangren within.

An incomparably powerful suppressing force pressed down on him.

"This is the Prohibitory Immortal Mirror. If this mirror covers you, your strength will be restricted to thirty percent as long as your cultivation level is not in the Gilded Immortal Realm. How can you compete with us with only thirty percent of your strength?" The Sabertooth Tribe's Heavenly Champion sneered, looking like winning was already in the bag for them.

Every single Heavenly Champion had long known of Chu Kuangren's strength. Therefore, they all came well prepared.

"Is this all you've got?" Chu Kuangren asked indifferently.

Even though his cultivation base was restrained, his expression remained as calm as ever.

"To deal with all of you with thirty percent of my strength... That's too much!"

After that, his aura erupted, and a terrifying Immortal's Core fluctuation gushed out like a tide and crashed against the void.

The expressions on all Yokai Tribes' Heavenly Champions' faces changed.

"How could this be?"

"How is this possible?"

"He only has thirty percent of his strength left, but why does he still possess such might?!"

Chu Kuangren stood in the air, emanating a powerful aura and surrounded by his Immortal Spark, like a high and mighty Immortal King. "I know you have investigated me, but haven't you heard a saying that words are but wind, but seeing is believing? It's better to experience it yourself than rely on your collected information!"

At that, he pointed out a sword hand sign and slashed it down at the void.

Boom!

The void tore apart!

With the Sword-like Heavenly Intent cast, Heavenly Intent transformed into a sword intent, which then turned into sword qi!

Countless sword qi swept out and tore the sky apart. Having taken the brunt of the impact, all the Yokai Tribes' Heavenly Champions were torn apart by the sword qi!

Further away, the expressions of Yokai Tribes' True Immortals and Gilded Immortals sank.

"How is he so strong?"

"What a terrifying fellow."

Upon seeing such a scene, even the Tushan Queen was impressed. "He's indeed a rare anomaly throughout history. What amazing talent and strength! "

She thought Chu Kuangren had fallen into a desperate situation when she saw so many Yokai Tribe's Heavenly Champions besieging him and knew his cultivation was restricted by an Immortal Weapon that left him only thirty percent of his strength.

Unexpectedly, the desperate situation she thought was nothing to Chu Kuangren.

"Yin Yang Life and Death Symbol!"

At that moment, Chu Kuangren controlled the power of life and death, and the two peerless physiques suddenly activated.

Even with thirty percent of his strength, the Yin Yang Life and Death Symbol's power was terrifying. In the blink of an eye, the life-death reincarnation intent gushed toward the void, crushing the Heavenly Champions into mists of blood!

There were broken wings, snake scales, sabertooths' brains...

Yokai's broken limbs were scattered everywhere. The ground was dyed red, and a bloody scent filled the air.

As no one was controlling the so-called Prohibitory Immortal Mirror, it fell to the ground, and its Immortal Spark dimmed. Now, it looked just like an ordinary bronze mirror.

Chu Kuangren stood in the air with his life-death reincarnation intent gradually subsiding. At that moment, he looked like a mighty Demon God.

“So these are all your tricks to deal with me? You have underestimated me too much.”

Chu Kuangren stared at the group of True Immortals and Gilded Immortals indifferently.

Upon hearing that, the expressions of the True Immortals and Gilded Immortals turned grim. They wanted to use those Heavenly Immortals to hold Chu Kuangren back, but they did not expect that his strength would be far beyond their imagination. Moreover, they had yet attacked the Tushan Queen, and Chu Kuangren had killed all their Heavenly Champions already!

“D*mn it! You, go and stop him!” a Gilded Immortal said to a True Immortal.

The True Immortal was even more displeased.

“Are you planning for me to take the Heavenly Champions’ karma?”

“You can stay alive if you stop him, and the karma won’t be great either if you don’t kill him. However, if you refuse to go, I’ll take your life and destroy your entire clan. Don’t forget that this is a task given by the Golden Crow Yokai King,” the Gilded Immortal said in a cold tone.

The True Immortal grimaced, but he could only bite the bullet in the face of such a situation.

“Chu Kuangren, have a taste of my True Immortal’s power!”

The unlucky True Immortal who had been selected snorted and immediately dashed toward Chu Kuangren.

The power of a True Immortal exploded, almost shattering the entire void with just one punch!

“A True Immortal? Interesting!”

A hint of intrigue appeared in Chu Kuangren’s eyes.

It was his first time fighting with a True Immortal.

“Bring it on!”

Instead of stepping back, he unleashed a fist attack, and the strength of a Great Perfected Ninth-grade Heavenly Immortal erupted.

With that, both fist attacks collided with each other.

To everyone’s surprise, both their strengths were equal!

“Oh, is that all True Immortal’s strength possess? Don’t be a coward. Go all out!” Chu Kuangren laughed out loud.

The unlucky True Immortal furrowed his brows.

Although he did not go all out with the fist attack, no Heavenly Immortal could have defended against his True Immortal fist. Yet, Chu Kuangren could stand equal to him!

“His strength is even more terrifying than in the rumors!

“He’s a monster!” the unlucky True Immortal secretly exclaimed.

In the meantime, those Yokai Tribes’ True Immortals and Gilded Immortals had attacked the Tushan Queen.

However, dozens of figures suddenly emerged in the void. They were the guards that the Tushan Queen brought along to Emerald Hill.

“Hmph. Sure enough, they’re well prepared.”

“As expected!”

Everyone was not surprised by the sudden appearance of those guards, and they soon fought with them.

Suddenly, the battlefield was divided into two sides.

One side was the battle between the True Immortals and Gilded Immortals, with Gilded Immortal against Gilded Immortal and True Immortals against True Immortals. The energy was incomparably mighty, and the terrifying Immortal’s Core fluctuation that spread shattered the surrounding mountains.

Countless Daoist patterns flowed in the void. They were splendid and dazzling.

On another side was the battle between Chu Kuangren and the True Immortal. The movement of that battle was much smaller but not less astonishing than the other battle!

It was a battle between a Heavenly Champion and a True Immortal, whose difference in cultivation level was one whole realm!

As the battle progressed, the unlucky True Immortal realized just how terrifying Chu Kuangren was.

Being a Heavenly Immortal, not only could Chu Kuangren fight on a par with him, but he did not seem exhausted as the strength of his attack had not weakened in the slightest.

On the contrary, he was getting more powerful, while on the other hand, the unlucky True Immortal dared not attack with all his strength for fear of karma.

However, having intervened in the Battle of the Heavenly Champions, the karmic energy still found him and made its way into his body, eroding his power.

“D*mn it! If this continues, not only can’t I stop him, but the corrosive power of that karma will weaken me. I’ll die in his hands eventually!”

“I can’t hold back anymore!”

Chapter 1209: The Mini Universe Energy, Killing A True Immortal With Nine Province Cauldrons

“Chu Kuangren, I’ll show you the real power of a True Immortal!”

The unlucky True Immortal grunted and revealed his full True Immortal cultivation.

Although he could not fully exert his strength due to the erosion of the karmic energy, he still had sixty to seventy percent of his strength. Such power in itself was not something that a Heavenly Immortal could resist.

With that, he unleashed a fist attack!

Chu Kuangren's eyes narrowed, and the Yin Yang Life and Death Symbol instantly activated!

The huge Life and Death Symbol enveloped half of the universe before it attacked.

When the two forces collided, Chu Kuangren was sent flying a few hundred meters away, crashing into a mountain range.

"Chu Kuangren, I'm a True Immortal. How can you, a mere Heavenly Immortal, compete with me?" the unlucky True Immortal said coldly as he stood in the sky.

Although he managed to suppress Chu Kuangren, his expression was ugly.

He could sense that the karmic energy in him was getting stronger. Even if he could complete the task given by the Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain today, it would be difficult for him to progress in his cultivation because of the karmic energy. He would enter the realm of Heavenly Deterioration Stage Five earlier than he intended to, becoming old and weak.

Whether the mission succeeded or failed this time, it was a loss for him.

"Ha! Is this the real power of a True Immortal? It looks like I shouldn't hold back too."

Chu Kuangren dashed out from the mountain.

As he stared at the unlucky True Immortal before him, an unparalleled aura erupted from his body.

His four peerless Daoist Physiques, namely the Chaos Celestial Demon Physique, Heavenly Samsara Physique, Ultimate Almighty Source Physique, and the Green Leaf Sword Vision, erupted all at once!

On top of that, in his body, there was a supreme p that surpassed those four Daoist Physiques.

That energy did not seem to exist in this world or universe. It was an indescribable and transcendental energy!

The moment the unlucky True Immortal sensed the energy, he felt something trembling in the depths of his soul.

"What is this energy?"

"The Mini Universe!" Chu Kuangren chuckled.

What he was calling upon right now was the Mini Universe's universe energy from the Pocket Universe!

"Mini Universe? What is that?"

The unlucky True Immortal looked puzzled, but at the same time, he had never felt so threatened before.

Deep in the universe, in the Land of Chaos, a white-haired elder in a purple robe suddenly opened his eyes.

In an instant, chaos swept across the land.

There was an Immortal Consciousness fluctuation within the chaos, and it seemed to have sensed something.

“This energy is one that is beyond this universe. It’s transcendent!”

“What’s going on? Why would such energy exist?”

The purple-robed elder had countless mysterious Daoist patterns flowing around his body, and his Immortal Spark shone through the chaos.

He was trying to deduce the source of the transcendental energy!

Unfortunately, he could not get an accurate result no matter how he deduced.

“Although this energy is within the Universal Dao’s observation, it is beyond the Universal Dao’s control. It is indeed energy beyond the universe.”

“It seems like it’s related to the Immortal World’s Battle of the Heavenly Champions.”

“Interesting. It’s probably from the anomaly...”

At the Great Ten Thousand Mountains in the Immortal World, Chu Kuangren activated the mini universe energy.

Then, he raised his hand to take out five bronze cauldrons representing the five of the Nine Province Cauldrons, namely the Xuzhou Cauldron, Qingzhou Cauldron, Jizhou Cauldron, Jingzhou Cauldron, and Yanzhou Cauldron!

With the emergence of the five Nine Province Cauldrons, a surge of unparalleled energy that was more terrifying than that of stars erupted!

On top of Chu Kuangren’s mini universe energy, the void shattered!

“Such energy... D*mn it!”

The expression of the unlucky True Immortal was grave.

As he yelled, his Immortal’s Core gushed out like a flood, and countless Daoist patterns emerged with Immortal Spark flickering. In the blink of an eye, Immortal’s Core, in the form of a torrent, swept out all directions.

Then, True Immortal energy and the Nine Province Cauldrons energy collided.

As a result, the torrent of Immortal’s Core began to shatter inch by inch!

The five Nine Province Cauldrons’ energy and Chu Kuangren’s mini universe energy were already at the level of a True Immortal, so he was even more powerful than an ordinary True Immortal.

“No!”

Following a loud bang, the five Nine Province Cauldrons crashed into the True Immortal, who exploded into a must of blood!

Soon after, the Nine Province Cauldrons crashed into the ground and created a huge crater!

The entire earth trembled while dust rose from the ground.

All the Gilded Immortals and True Immortals who were fighting witnessed the scene.

Stunned, their pupils widened in horror.

The Tushan Queen's eyelids twitched. "His talent and strength can't be measured by common sense."

Killing a True Immortal with Heavenly Immortal was dozens of times harder than an Earthen Immortal killing a Heavenly Immortal!

Moreover, the True Immortal that Chu Kuangren killed was not an ordinary True Immortal as his strength was very close to the Middle Third Grade.

"Monster!"

"How on earth did he do that?"

The rest of the Gilded Immortals and True Immortals looked at Chu Kuangren in disbelief.

Meanwhile, Chu Kuangren raised his hand gently, and the five of the Nine Province Cauldrons rose into the air and surrounded him.

With the Nine Province Cauldrons around him, he was bathed in Immortal Sparks, and countless Daoist patterns were under his feet. His domineering aura far exceeded the level of a Heavenly Immortal.

"I don't mind adding a few more True Immortals corpses here if you still want to fight," said Chu Kuangren.

He sounded so arrogant as if he was invincible.

The crowd could not believe that a Heavenly Immortal was threatening a group of True Immortals and Gilded Immortals, but none doubted his strength because he had proven he had the power to kill a True Immortal!

He was not mad but confident!

"Since a True Immortal can't stop Chu Kuangren, we shall let a Gilded Immortal do it if we want to continue the fight. However, it'll be even more difficult to kill the Tushan Queen if we take a Gilded Immortal out of the group. The concern is, can a Gilded Immortal stop Chu Kuangren under the karmic possession?"

"Or should I say, is there any Gilded Immortal willing to take the risk of bearing that karma to stop Chu Kuangren?"

The Gilded Immortals exchanged glances with each other, each dwelling over that idea.

However, none of them dared to take the risk.

They were only gathered here because of the Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain's order, so they were not of one mind.

Although they were a group of Gilded Immortal elites, they were a group of rabble unwilling to make sacrifices.

"There are too many uncertainties. Retreat," said a Gilded Immortal in the lead.

"Okay. Let's go!"

Instantly, these people transformed into bird beasts and left.

The Tushan Queen's guards wanted to chase after them but were stopped.

"There's no need to go after them. It's more important that we get to Emerald Hill first."

After that, she looked at Chu Kuangren and said with admiration, "I didn't expect you to have the Nine Province Cauldrons, Brother Chu."

"I do possess some human fortune."

Chu Kuangren retracted his mini universe energy fluctuation and kept the Nine Province Cauldrons away.

The Nine Province Cauldrons were Humanity Fortune Treasures, and only someone with a human fortune could use them.

After all, Chu Kuangren was the King of Firmament Star that now ruled over dozens of galaxies and led countless human races. The vast human fortune that Chu Kuangren possessed was no longer the same as he used to have.

"The Nine Province Cauldrons bring back memories," Tushan Queen said wistfully.

Chapter 1210: The Emerald Hill Fox King, An Unknown matter, The Nemesis of All Cultivators

"I found the Nine Province Cauldrons' Jizhou Cauldron in some ruins, and I gave it to Qing Jun as our token of love. Unfortunately, we couldn't use it because we didn't possess human fortune. Now that it's in your hands, I can't think of anyone better to have it," Tushan Queen said with a smile.

After that, the crowd continued their journey and soon arrived at Emerald Hill.

Knowing that the Tushan Queen had come to visit, Emerald Hill's higher-ups showed great concern, and the current Emerald Hill Senior Elder came forward to welcome her.

"I've come to form an alliance with you and better both our tribes' relationship. The merging of the Immortal World has put the Great Ten Thousand Mountains in a complicated situation. There are many powerful clans, and if the Fox Tribes don't unite, other powerful clans will likely defeat us in the future. The Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain targeting Tushan is one example, and they might target Emerald Hill next..." said the Tushan Queen.

The Emerald Hill Senior Elder thought about it.

Being one of the most prestigious yokai foxes in the Fox Tribes, the Tushan Queen's words were so convincing that the Emerald Hill Senior Elder and others wavered.

Suddenly, he noticed Lil Fox next to Tushan Queen. "She's..."

"She is Qing Jun's and my daughter."

Qing Jun was the Emerald Hill Fox King's name.

The Tushan Queen was not shy to admit it.

"What? The King's daughter?"

"No wonder I feel a familiar aura from her."

The Emerald Hill Senior Elder looked a little conflicted. "I never thought you and the King would have a child."

Then, he said, "We can form an alliance."

The meeting went on for a long time.

Both parties understood the Great Ten Thousand Mountains' situation very well, but with the Tushan Queen's return, the alliance was a nail in the coffin.

"Can I take Lil Yue to meet Qing Jun?"

The Tushan Queen requested after the meeting ended.

"Certainly."

The Emerald Hill Senior Elder nodded after pondering for a while. Then, he brought them to a sealed and enclosed space.

A handsome man dressed in emerald robes was sitting on a stone platform, which countless mysterious runes surrounded it, and his body was tied up in chains.

"This aura... It's you, Yan."

The Emerald Hill Fox King opened his eyes and looked at Tushan Queen and Lil Fox.

The sight of the Emerald Hill Fox King immediately triggered the memories in Lil Fox's mind. She quickly went forward and said with a trembling tone. "Father!"

"Lil Yue!"

"Father, I've finally found you..."

"I'm sorry, Lil Yue. How have you been all these years?"

"I've been well. Sanniang and others have been good to me."

The Tushan Queen then approached with reddened eyes.

Just like that, the three of them began to catch up on the past.

The Emerald Hill Fox King and the Tushan Queen already had Lil Fox when they were out gaining experience. Later, while they were exploring some ruins, the Tushan Queen was severely injured, and some cursed matter eroded the Emerald Hill Fox King's body. Since then, he would fall into a state of madness from time to time.

The Tushan Queen gave birth to Lil Fox while she was severely injured, but because of that, she entered into a deep slumber. The Emerald Hill Fox King then took the Tushan Queen back to Tushan. However, he concealed Lil Fox's existence because the estrangement between Tushan and Emerald Hill was unresolved at that time. If he brought Lil Fox back to the Immortal World when the Tushan Queen was asleep and the Emerald Hill Fox King had gone mad, she would be used by people with an agenda.

Therefore, she was left temporarily in the outside world.

Chu Kuangren listened from the side and began to analyze the Emerald Hill Fox King's condition.

He realized that the Emerald Hill Fox King was in good condition, healthy, and free from disease or illness. Moreover, his cultivation level was at the pinnacle of Arch Gilded Immortal Realm...

However, there was an extremely strange black qi in his body.

The black qi was neither Immortal's Core nor toxic qi.

Even Lil Ai took a while to analyze it. Analyzing the black qi was much more laborious than analyzing the Emerald Hill Fox King.

"It is an unknown matter that has the effect of eroding one's mind. This matter contains some kind of Universe Source energy. For the cultivators in this universe, it has a nemesis-like effect. Although its power isn't strong, its essence is superior to all energies known in this world..."

The information Lil Ai analyzed emerged in Chu Kuangren's mind, and he could not help but frown.

It was an unknown matter that had not been recorded in the universe.

The nature of that matter was surprisingly powerful and could even surpass all known energies.

"That's weird. Is there a way to deal with this thing?"

Chu Kuangren had a strange premonition that he might need to deal with this matter in the future.

If that were the case, it would be better for him to learn how to deal with it now.

"Analysing Master's energies. Trying to find the answer..."

"Master, you possess two energies which can resist the black qi's energy. One is the Invincible Self-empowering Dao while another is the Mini Universe energy."

"Oh."

Chu Kuangren was a little surprised.

According to Lil Ai's analysis, the nature of the black qi was ridiculously powerful. Even an existence like the Emerald Hill Fox King could not resist its erosion.

Hence, he would not be surprised if he did not have a way to deal with it.

However, Lil Ai told him that he possessed two energies that could resist the erosion of the black qi, which he found intriguing.

“Why can these two energies erode the black qi?”

“The black qi contains some kind of Universe Source energy, so cultivators who cultivate the Universe Source energy will be eroded by it. However, your Invincible Self-empowering Dao isn’t energy derived from this universe, and so isn’t the Mini Universe. That is why the erosion of the black qi will not affect you, Master.”

1

“But judging from its energy, only the Mini Universe energy will be effective if you want to deal with the black qi now.”

After listening to Lil Ai’s explanations, Chu Kuangren fell into deep thought.

In other words, the black qi was all cultivators’ nemesis in this universe but not his!

How incredible was that?

“F-Father, are you alright?”

At that moment, Lil Fox’s panicking voice sounded.

On the stone platform, the Emerald Hill Fox King’s suddenly twisted as if he was trying to suppress something.

“Q-Quick, leave now!” the Emerald Hill Fox King said painfully.

As if recalling something, the Tushan Queen’s expression changed, and she took Lil Fox out immediately.

A black qi was rising from the Emerald Hill Fox King’s body, and his eyes were gradually dyed with a layer of ink-like color.

Once the white parts of his eyes were all dyed black, he let out a long howl. Then, a surge of violent yokai qi that contained a destruction intent swept out.

In an instant, the runes on the stone platform bloomed with dazzling brilliance while the chains were instantly taut, sealing the Emerald Hill Fox King firmly in place.

“Father! Father, what’s happening...”

Lil Fox looked sadly at the Emerald Hill Fox King, who was in a state of madness.

“It’s all my fault. If I could’ve prevented Qing Jun from exploring the ruin, perhaps things wouldn’t have turned out like this,” the Tushan Queen said remorsefully.

“Mother, what should we do now?”

“Alas, we can only wait until Qing Jun has exhausted the energy in his body, and he will calm down slowly.”

“That might not necessarily be true,” said Chu Kuangren.

Following that, he lifted his feet and walked toward the stone platform.
