

Unparalleled 1291

Chapter 1291: The Power of Radiant War Immortal Physique, Where Is It?

Lan Yu stared at the demonic and sword cultivators with stern battle intent overflowing from her eyes.

She was eager to discover how powerful the ultimate state of her Radiant War Immortal Physique was, and now would be a great chance to test it out.

“Bring it on!”

Lan Yu’s battle intent rose to the sky as though she was an indomitable valkyrie.

She took a step forward to one of the demonic cultivators. With her Heavenly Skylight Scepter raised, she swung it down strongly.

The swing contained immense power from the Radiant War Immortal’s Core!

The demonic cultivator was horrified by the incoming attack. He raised his sword as an act of defense, but after a loud clunk, he and his sword were smashed into a cloud of blood mist by the Radiant War Immortal’s Core. Nothing was left of him.

Gasp!

Everyone else gasped in fear.

“Team up if you want to live!”

“Lan Yu is not to be underestimated, and Chu Kuangren is behind her!”

The cultivators from Sword Demon Tribe and Langya Sword Sect were forced to put their conflict aside and temporarily join forces against Lan Yu and her immense power.

“Ha! This is what I am here for!” Lan Yu chuckled.

She could only test and find out the Radiant War Immortal Physique’s true strength with a powerful opponent.

“Sword Qi, Thudergale Slash!”

The demonic cultivator cast a Gilded Immortal Technique, unleashing rumbling demonic qi containing the power of thunder and wind at Lan Yu.

On the other hand, the sword cultivator from Langya Sword Sect also channeled his Immortal’s Core to the limit.

“Smoky Snowy Star!”

Freezing qi gushed from the sword and swiftly formed a giant star.

The Thudergale Slash from the Demonic Dao and the giant star containing immense freezing qi from Langya Sword Sect were launched at Lan Yu together. The combined might shook even the stars.

“Heavenly God Ray!”

Lan Yu wielded the scepter in her hand and unleashed surges of Radiant War Immortal’s Core energy. Countless Daoist patterns intertwined with the energy, forming a scorching white light.

The space in front of her exploded, and the explosion destroyed countless sword qi.

The Holy Radiant energy gained the advantage and blasted all the demonic and sword cultivators away.

The weaker ones spat out a mouthful of blood and suffered cracks on their Immortal Bodies.

“She’s so powerful!”

“A Prodigy! She’s definitely a Prodigy!”

The sword cultivators were in disbelief by Lan Yu’s attack.

A Prodigy sky-pride was not rare, but Lan Yu had made a name for herself after spending the past two years exploring the Interstellar Arena.

However, she was not a Prodigy before, so what happened?

What made her power surge so fast?

“It’s the physique!”

“Legend has it that the Winged Human Tribe possesses amazing Immortal Physiques. The Radiant War Immortal Physique can even be evolved into its ultimate state to rival an Honorable Supreme Immortal Physique!” said one of the sword cultivators who figured it out.

Honorable Supreme Immortal Physique was rarer than a Prodigy sky-pride.

Almost all who possessed an Honorable Supreme Immortal Physique were Prodigy sky-prides. That made Chu Kuangren, who possessed multiple Honorable Supreme Immortal Physiques, the prodigy among Prodigies.

“Let’s end the battle with this,” Lan Yu said.

She stood in the air with her wings expanded, and endless light intent overflowed from her body.

The power of light formed a river in the sky with waves crashing into the void. Each wave possessed powers that could crush planets.

“Radiant River!” Lan Yu shouted.

Radiant River was one of the added divine skills of the Radiant War Immortal Physique’s ultimate skill.

Its power could even overpower a certain Arch Gilded Technique.

The divine skill would get stronger following Lan Yu’s growth, and it was one of the perks of divine skill.

“This power... It’s the Radiant War Immortal Physique’s ultimate state!”

“No! No!”

The demonic and sword cultivators were terrified by that attack.

None of them could match the power of the Radiant River.

Kakroom!

The Radiant River crashed onto all of them with domineering might. It even shook the space around them.

Under that power, the demonic and sword cultivators were obliterated in a blink of an eye, with no way of resisting. All of them were crushed into bits.

Lan Yu retracted her Immortal's Core and slowly descended from the sky. The attack did not even mess up her breathing, as if obliterating a bunch of demonic and sword cultivators was a piece of cake to her.

It was indeed an easy task for her after acquiring the ultimate state of her Immortal Physique.

Everyone looked at her sternly.

"If Lan Yu is that powerful, what about Chu Kuangren? How strong is he now?"

The thought sent chills down everyone's spine.

Further away, a pair of frosty eyes stared at Lan Yu after watching the entire battle. Jealousy overflowed from the frosty gaze.

"Damn it! I risked my life and went through all that suffering to enhance my Primordial Sun Immortal Physique to Duality Rites Immortal Physique, yet Lan Yu is on the same level as me!? Why?! How? What made her worthy of possessing an Immortal Physique that could rival the Honorable Supreme Immortal Physiques?"

Both Primordial Sun Immortal Physique and Radiant War Immortal Physique had great potential to reach new heights. That was what made them powerful.

Zhuo Donglai went through a lot to enhance his Primordial Sun Immortal Physique. He even sacrificed his body to cultivate with You Ying and risked his life to kill his partner so that he could use Blooded Heart Melting Technique to achieve his goal.

However, Lan Yu achieved the ultimate state of the Radiant War Immortal Physique with almost no effort.

It sparked jealousy in Zhuo Donglai.

He went through hell to get what he got, yet others achieved the same with little to no effort, especially Chu Kuangren, who possessed many Immortal Physiques that could rival the Honorable Supreme Immortal Physiques.

It fueled Zhuo Donglai's jealousy and almost drove him mad.

"Chu Kuangren, Lan Yu, I won't allow either of you to continue living in any part of the universe," Zhuo Donglai said with a grim look on his face.

However, he knew Chu Kuangren's strength remained unpredictable. He could not afford to be reckless against his arch-enemy even though he had achieved the Duality Rites Immortal Physique.

In the meantime, others also watched the battle unfold.

They were Wu Tian and Huijue.

"I sensed a hint of Buddhist presence in Lan Yu's Immortal's Core. If I'm correct, she must have refined the Sarira," Huijue said.

He, too, was jealous. He believed Lan Yu must have absorbed the power of the Sarira to achieve her physique's ultimate state.

The Sarira was supposed to be his, yet the woman had refined it all!

"Lan Yu's Radiant War Immortal Physique has been upgraded to its ultimate state, and with Chu Kuangren by her side, it would not be easy going after her," Wu Tian said with a frown.

Then, he saw Zhuo Donglai on a mountain peak further away. "Oh, it's him."

He had heard of Zhuo Donglai before, including the latter being defeated by Chu Kuangren multiple times.

After all, he ought to know his enemy's enemy better to get revenge.

"He might be able to help us in this." Wu Tian smiled.

...

"How are you feeling, Lan Yu?" Chu Kuangren asked.

"The Radian War Immortal Physique's ultimate state is extraordinary, and I feel like I haven't brought out its full potential."

Lan Yu was awestruck by her own power.

"It's okay. There are many other sky-prides here at the Sword Immortal's Tomb, so don't worry about not finding a worthy opponent."

Chu Kuangren smiled before looking further away with a deep gaze. "I wonder where my worthy opponent is?"

Chapter 1292: Ye Zhu Refines the Green Leaf Sword Vision, the Scoundrel Among Immortals, a Daoist Sect in Trouble

Looking at the little golden sword in his hand, Chu Kuangren crushed it!

A huge amount of information immediately flooded his mind.

Those were information about the Arch Gilded Sword Immortal's inheritance. If a True Immortal were to obtain that, their understanding of Sword Dao would increase by leaps and bounds.

Then again, Chu Kuangren's understanding of the Dao was already at a very high level.

His level of understanding could be said to be on par with an Arch Gilded Immortal!

Sword Dao was also one of the categories of Dao.

Most of the inheritance he gained insight into just then did not help him much. At most, it would serve as a reference to him.

However, the part that benefited him the most was an Arch Gilded Sword Dao Technique in the inheritance. That technique was known as the... Godfearing Daoist Sword Technique!

Besides Sword Dao divine abilities like the Grass Sword Art, there were also the twenty-four most well-known techniques in the swordsmanship world. They were known as the Twenty-four Sword Dao Techniques!

The Twenty-four Sword Dao Techniques were highly sought after by sword cultivators from all corners of the world.

The Godfearing Daoist Sword Technique was a top-tier Arch Gilded Technique and one of the Twenty-four Sword Dao Techniques!

"Although the Godfearing Daoist Sword Technique isn't ranked high among the Twenty-four Sword Dao Techniques, it's ranked somewhere in the middle. Apparently, the top four Sword Dao techniques among the Twenty-four Sword Dao Techniques are all Embodier Techniques!"

"The Xuanyuan Sword Qi that Human Emperor Xuanyuan came up with back in the past and King Zhou's Blade of Zhou series are two of those Embodier Techniques!"

"With the Godfearing Daoist Sword Technique, I've obtained two of the Twenty-four Sword Dao Techniques," Chu Kuangren murmured.

Although he did not have a goal to collect all twenty-four sword techniques, he surely would not mind learning more of them.

After all, those techniques would benefit him greatly in creating his personal cultivation technique.

After mastering the Godfearing Daoist Sword Technique, Chu Kuangren and Lan Yu continued exploring the Sword Immortal's Tombs in search of more Opportunities of Fortune.

Along the way, they met many elites. With that, Lan Yu's mastery of her Radiant War Immortal Physique also increased steadily throughout that time, and she eventually got the hang of her new physique's capability.

Meanwhile, Cao Yun, Wang Chentian, and others also went through many challenges and improved.

One month had passed.

"I heard a scuffle has broken out between the Three Clarity Daoist Sect cultivators and the Sword Demon's Linghu Zun. Quick, let's go take a look."

"D*mn. Linghu Zun? That cultivator who's almost as strong as Prodigy?!"

“We must go and see it.”

Many cultivators were talking about that and turning into rays of light, quickly heading toward that location.

Since Chu Kuangren’s Immortal Consciousness had a large range, he also picked up on the Immortal Consciousness conversation between the other cultivators.

He was surprised.

“Cultivators of the Three Clarity Daoist Sect, huh? I wonder if Honghua is with them.”

Although Shang Honghua had always respected him, Chu Kuangren considered her one of his few close friends.

She was a sky-pride from the Three Clarity Daoist Sect.

Now that something had happened with the people of the Three Clarity Daoist Sect, there was no way he would stand by and do nothing. He must certainly go and see for himself what was happening.

...

A giant green sword stood upright between the heavens and earth.

A chilling aura was emanating from it, spreading across the land, while strands of sword qi circulated in the void to prevent people from approaching.

That giant green sword was formed by the purest form of sword qi!

Meanwhile, within that giant sword was a young man in green robes, meditating with endless surges of sword qi shuttling around him.

What was more note-worthy was the pair of green orbs hovering in front of that young man!

Endless strands of sword qi emanated from those orbs. They were the source of the sword qi forming the giant green sword!

More importantly, two leaf-like patterns could be seen in the two orbs. Anyone who saw them would undoubtedly think of the Honorable Supreme Immortal Physique, the Green Leaf Sword Vision!

In fact, that pair of orbs were indeed the Green Leaf Sword Vision!!

Outside the giant sword, countless sword cultivators gathered around. All of them looked at the figure within the giant sword with eyes of jealousy, admiration, and greed.

“I can’t believe Ye Zhu is so lucky to have found such an Opportunity of Fortune. To think he found the complete Green Leaf Sword Vision. If he manages to refine it, he’ll surely restore the flaw in his Green Leaf Sword Vision and obtain its complete power. That’s enough to make him one of the most top-tier Prodigies out there!” a cultivator could not help but exclaim.

“Well, he’ll need to succeed in merging with those orbs first. With so many sword cultivators here eyeing them, I don’t think they’ll just watch as Ye Zhu continues getting stronger!” said another sword cultivator who was already on the brink of taking action.

He looked at a place nearby. Wanting to ensure that Ye Zhu could refine the Green Leaf Sword Vision smoothly, the Three Clarity Daoist Sect cultivators were engaged in battle with some sword cultivators who wanted the Green Leaf Sword Vision.

The most troublesome person for the Three Clarity Daoist Sect to deal with among that bunch was undoubtedly Linghu Zun from the Sword Demon Tribe!

His strength was already reaching the level of those Prodigies.

The person battling Linghu Zun was Su Yun, a sky-pride from the Three Clarity Daoist Sect's Supreme Clarity branch.

A clang was heard, followed by bursts of sword qi that swept out.

The impact from the sword qi scattered the clouds in the sky!

Having forced Su Yun back with a single attack, Linghu Zun looked at Ye Zhu inside the giant green sword with a coveted gaze.

"If I can refine that pair of Green Leaf Sword Vision, I'll surely become stronger even if I end up getting an incomplete version of that Immortal Physique, let alone the complete version. With the Sword Demon's inheritance I've previously obtained, I believe I can even win against Prodigies!"

"By then, I'll certainly catch up to Shi Tianxuan and stand on the same level as him!"

The more Linghu Zun thought about it, the more excited he became.

However, Su Yun and the other Three Clarity Daoist Sect cultivators would not let him get his way that easily.

They were all guarding Ye Zhu by stopping any sword cultivator seeking to get the Green Leaf Sword Vision for themselves. The Three Clarity Daoist Sect cultivators were even willing to fight to their deaths!

"Wanting to steal Brother Ye's Sword Vision, huh? In your dreams!"

"That's right. If you want to get the Green Leaf Sword Vision, you'll have to step over our dead bodies!"

Armed with a green Immortal Sword, Su Yun had a determined look on her face as she confronted Linghu Zun in battle.

"Stepping over your dead body? Is that supposed to be a hard thing to do?"

At that moment, an indifferent voice sounded.

An incredibly powerful surge of saber qi erupted somewhere nearby!

The terrifying saber qi surged forward like a violent storm, wiping out a few of the Three Clarity Daoist Sect cultivators in front of it!

It was so powerful that even Linghu Zun could not help but narrow his gaze upon seeing it.

Everyone looked toward the source of the saber qi.

A young man with long brows who was dressed in black and armed with a black saber was approaching them!

He emanated a brutal and tyrannical aura that made everyone shudder in fear.

'This guy is no joke. He's certainly an evil person! A murderer!' Everyone automatically arrived at that thought.

"It's him, the bully among Immortals, Wang Tianba!"

"He's the Young Valley Lord of the Evil Immortal Valley, the Prodigy who's also known as the bully among Immortals!"

"D*mn. If he's here, it looks like the Three Clarity Daoist Sect guys are in more trouble now."

Wang Tianba was the bully among Immortals and the Young Valley Lord of the Evil Immortal Valley.

Possessing extraordinary combat strength, he was a Prodigy. He was mostly known for his indifferent expression while engaging in barbaric and tyrannical behavior, sowing fear in the eyes of everyone.

"The Green Leaf Sword Vision, huh? How interesting. I must have them!" Wang Tianba sneered.

He spoke as if the Green Leaf Sword Vision already belonged to him.

Although he specialized in Saber Dao, he believed that with his talents and cultivation level, he could cultivate both Sword Dao and Saber Dao if he got his hands on the Green Leaf Sword Vision!

"You shall not take away this item."

Another indifferent voice sounded.

In that instant, solemn Buddhist Chimes reverberated throughout the whole area.

Chapter 1293: The Gentleman Attacks, the Buddhist Monk's Killing Intent Ignites, Someone Powerful Is Approaching

An indifferent voice sounded, followed by sacred Buddhist Chimes reverberating throughout the realm.

A young man in gold armor slowly approached. Wherever he went, golden lotuses bloomed as if the Buddha himself had arrived.

"It's him, the Buddha's Sword!"

"He's the most powerful Sword Dao cultivator among the younger generation Buddhist cultivators, the Buddha's Sword!"

Upon recognizing that person, some could not help but exclaim in shock.

Buddha's Sword was a well-known Prodigy!

"The Buddha's Sword is a master in Sword Dao. Although he's a Buddhist cultivator, he'll surely not miss this opportunity to obtain the Green Leaf Sword Vision."

“With the Buddha’s Sword, Wang Tianba, and the almost-Prodigy Linghu Zun, it looks like the Three Clarity Daoist Sect cultivators are really in deep trouble now.”

“Did you forget about everyone else? Just look at all the other sword cultivators standing around here. All of them are just waiting to take advantage of the situation.”

Even the bully of Immortals, Wang Tianba, turned serious at the sight of the Buddha’s Sword.

“What’s the matter? Are the Buddhist cultivators joining this mess as well?”

“The Green Leaf Sword Vision must never fall into the hands of those who come from malicious orthodoxies like you,” the Buddha’s Sword said to Linghu Zun and Wang Tianba in an indifferent tone.

Wang Tianba sneered. “True, but in the end, you just want the Green Leaf Sword vision like us!”

“It makes a world of difference when I’m the one who gets the Green Leaf Sword Vision. You people will use it to conduct evil, while I’ll use it for good and protect the innocents!”

The Buddha’s Sword clasped his hands together while his body radiated with Buddhist Light, adding a sense of righteousness to his appearance.

“The Buddhist Master is right. The Sword Vision must never fall into the hands of the Demonic Sects or the Evil Immortal Valley criminals.”

Then, a gentle voice sounded.

A ray of sword ray swept in from the distance.

It was a young man dressed in white and holding an iron fan. He had a very gentleman-like appearance.

Many female cultivators immediately got excited and googly-eyed upon his arrival.

“It’s him, Gentleman Langya from Langya Sword Sect!”

Gentleman Langya was the strongest sky-pride in the Langya Sword Sect. Similar to Linghu Zun, he was a top-notch sky-pride second only to the Prodigies.

Rumors said that he was a very upright and honest person who possessed a splendid character unlike any other, hence the title of Gentleman.

“Gentleman Langya is such a handsome person.”

“With his pleasant demeanor, swordlike brows, and starlit eyes, it’s like he walked out from a painting.”

“Rumor says that Chu Kuangren is also an unusually handsome man. I wonder how handsome he is compared to Gentleman Langya.”

A bunch of female cultivators looked at Gentleman Langya with brightly lit eyes.

“Greetings, benevolent cultivator.”

The Buddha’s Sword greeted Gentleman Langya with a fist salute.

Gentleman Langya greeted in kind as well.

Meanwhile, Su Yun and the other Three Clarity Daoist Sect cultivators looked even more hopeless now.

They already had their hands full dealing with Linghu Zun.

However, now that Wang Tianba, Buddha's Sword, and Gentleman Langya — Prodigies and top-notch sky-prides — their chances of winning were seemingly non-existent now.

"A Gentleman and a monk, huh?"

"Hmph, how funny to see you guys acting all virtuous and righteous when it's obvious you guys are here just for the Green Leaf Sword Vision." Su Yun took a deep breath and said.

Upon hearing that, Gentleman Langya chuckled. "The Sword Vision belongs to those strong enough to wield and obtain it. Although I believe that Brother Ye Zhu is a very kind and capable person, he must also know that the Sword Vision is highly sought by many, including evil people like the Sword Demon and Wang Tianba. Judging by Brother Ye Zhu's current strength, I'm afraid he won't be able to prevent others from stealing it."

"Why don't you guys hand it over to us? I'll make sure to deal with it properly and prevent it from falling into the hands of evil people."

Before Su Yun and the others could reply, Linghu Zun, who was beside them, sneered. "What a gentleman you are. To think you can sugarcoat the act of stealing so well! Compared to us demons, you truly are worse or, if not, similarly evil. At the very least, we demons are brave enough to admit it!"

"How dare you demons compare yourselves to the likes of me!"

Gentleman Langya's eyes turned cold. Then, he waved his iron fan, and strands of chilling sword qi started circling in front of it.

At a closer look, the structure of that fan was, in fact, made up of many Immortal Swords.

"No point in talking any longer. Why don't we fight it out and see? I've been longing to find out who's the strongest person among us Prodigies!" Linghu Zun sneered.

The black Immortal Sword in his hand trembled while letting out a blood-devouring intent. For a moment, faint blood-colored light radiated from that sword.

"I say, if we continue bickering about this for too long, Ye Zhu, over there, is going to fully refine the Green Leaf Sword Vision soon," Wang Tianba said while looking at the giant green sword in the distance.

Ye Zhu's aura had gotten more powerful as time went by, so he should be able to fully refine that pair of Sword Vision in due time.

Since he already possessed the incomplete Green Leaf Sword Vision before this, it was no surprise that he would be faster in refining the complete Sword Vision than other cultivators.

Upon realizing that, Gentleman Langya and Linghu Zun, who were about to fight, quickly retracted their auras. There was a hint of urgency in their eyes.

“Cultivators of the Three Clarity Daoist Sect, stop this obsession and hand me the Sword Vision at once!”

Gentleman Langya immediately dashed toward the giant green sword.

Strands of sword qi containing a heart-piercing chill erupted from his body, causing the space to turn into ice.

“Want to steal the Sword Vision? You’ll have to go through me first!”

Su Yun immediately charged toward Gentleman Langya, channeling the power of his Supreme Clarity cultivation techniques to its fullest potential.

Although he managed to hold back Gentleman Langya as their sword qi clashed, Su Yun was immediately sent flying, and he spat out a mouthful of blood. He was already severely exhausted from the fight against Linghu Zun earlier.

The Buddha’s Sword stepped forth, seeking to snatch the Sword Vision away.

However, the remaining Three Clarity Daoist Sect cultivators rushed toward him with determination.

Some even set their life essence aflame to increase their strength just to hold the Buddha’s Sword back for an instant.

“Cease this obsession at once!”

The Buddha’s Sword frowned as the gold Buddhist Light-formed lotuses shattered, their petals each turning into strands of sword qi that swept out in all directions.

One by one, the Three Clarity Daoist Sect cultivators were all torn into shreds by the sword qi.

The Buddha’s Sword moved to kill, though his body still emanated a benevolent aura. However, under his sword qi scenes, a hellish scene broke free.

Wang Tianba and Linghu Zun also attacked.

The four of them were Prodigies and top-tier sky-prides. Even though the Three Clarity Daoist Sect cultivators put their lives on the line to stop their advances, the cultivators were still killed.

Su Yun was overcome with pain and sorrow to see her comrades falling.

“All of you deserve to die!” Su Yun roared while setting his life essence on fire. He unleashed a barrage of sword qi from his body, forcing Gentleman Langya back several meters.

“Even if you set your life essence on fire, you’re still as insignificant as an ant to me!” the Buddha’s Sword said indifferently. Without even taking out his sword, he gently raised his hand. A look of compassion suddenly appeared on his face. “Great Compassion Slash!”

Using his palm as a sword, endless Buddhist Light gathered and formed a giant golden sword that emanated compassionate intent everywhere!

At the same time, Su Yun channeled his Immortal’s Core energy to the limit and attacked in return.

However, despite putting his life on the line, his efforts were futile in the face of the Prodigies!

His sword qi was shattered!

The Great Compassion Slash landed on his body, leaving a wound so deep that his bone was visible. It almost slashed him apart into two!

“Is this the power of the Prodigies?”

Gentleman Langya looked at the Buddha’s Sword cautiously.

If it were him facing the Buddha’s Sword, it was very likely that he would not last ten moves from his opponent.

Meanwhile, the Buddha’s Sword looked into the distance and took that attack directly. Looking at Su Yun who was struggling to fight, a strange look appeared on the Buddha’s Sword’s face.

“Still alive, I see. Then again, you’re only prolonging your suffering by struggling too much.”

After that, he lifted his hand, intending to end Su Yun’s life.

However, at that time, the Buddha’s Sword suddenly stopped. His gaze narrowed as he looked into the skies. “This aura... Someone powerful is approaching!”

1

Chapter 1294: Slaying Demons and Shocking Gods With a Single Slash, Cultivators of Different Levels

The Buddha’s Sword was so powerful that it made Su Yun fall into despair.

Just when the Buddha’s Sword was about to kill him, the former suddenly stopped and looked into the distance with a serious gaze.

He was not the only one!

Wang Tianba also felt something and quickly looked into the distance. “An extraordinary aura!”

Hum...

Sword chants suddenly reverberated in the realm.

A white ray of light suddenly swept in from nowhere. Containing endless sword qi, it landed and stuck itself into the ground in the middle of the battlefield.

It was a sword — a jade-like sword carved with countless Daoist patterns!

As it stood upright on the ground, an incomparably dominating sword aura erupted everywhere like a raging tide, enveloping everyone within it at once!

The sword aura was so terrifying that countless sword cultivators felt suffocated by it.

“What a terrifying sword aura!” Gentleman Langya uttered grimly.

“This sword... It looks familiar!”

Meanwhile, Linghu Zun's pupils shrank as he looked at the white-jaded sword. It was like he suddenly thought of something. "It's him! He's here!"

The moment he said that, an overwhelmingly domineering aura erupted from the sky and spread everywhere!

A white-robed figure gradually descended from the sky. He exuded an otherworldly demeanor and looked as handsome as a real Immortal as his robes fluttered in the air!

The person was light on his feet!

However, the moment his feet touched the ground, the ground could hardly bear his weight!

As if a meteor had struck, the ground within a thousand-kilometer radius rumbled. Countless gigantic cracks began to spread everywhere, and the surrounding landscape changed drastically as mountains crumbled!

Even that giant sword that stood upright shook!

Although it was a person and his sword, their aura was so overwhelming that even the heavens and earth had no choice but to submit!

Many people were shocked at that scene.

"Chu Kuangren!"

Someone said his name out loud. It was a name so well-known that it could shock the whole Interstellar Arena.

"He's here!"

"Is he here for the Green Leaf Sword Vision too?!"

"What a horrifying aura. Is that the power of the most top-tier Prodigy?!"

Many were shocked, and some female cultivators could not help but look at Chu Kuangren with admiration and yearning in their eyes.

If Gentleman Langya was a righteous and gentle person, Chu Kuangren would be akin to an otherworldly and real Immortal who lived in the heavens.

The two of them could not be compared at all.

In the presence of Chu Kuangren, Gentleman Langyu was no different than an insignificant side character. Whether it was appearance or demeanor, he was no match to Chu Kuangren at all.

"Chu Kuangren..."

Su Yun also noticed Chu Kuangren's arrival. He looked at Chu Kuangren surprisingly, hopefully, and anxiously.

He was unsure whether Chu Kuangren was here to help him or get the Green Leaf Sword Vision for himself like the Buddha's Sword and others.

“I still owe you a favor, fellow cultivator. How about letting me return that favor today?”

Chu Kuangren chuckled while looking at Su Yun.

He raised his hand to cast the Yin Yang Life Death Symbol and injected it into Su Yun’s body to help heal his wounds.

Back when Chu Kuangren had just entered the Interstellar Arena, Su Yun went to find him to inform him about Lan Yu surrounded by the Evil Immortal Valley cultivators.

Due to that, Chu Kuangren owed Su Yun a favor, so he had come to return that favor this time.

Su Yun was overjoyed upon hearing that. At the same time, he felt incredibly grateful as well.

Never did he expect that his little act to build good relations with Chu Kuangren back then would result in such tremendous help for him.

He did not even expect Chu Kuangren would be willing to go against the Buddha’s Sword, Wang Tianba, and others just for a small favor like that.

After all, they were Prodigies and top-tiered sky-prides.

Each of them possessed an incredible background, with powerful beings behind their backs.

“Chu Kuangren! It really is you!”

Linghu Zun looked at Chu Kuangren seriously, with fear in his eyes.

Back when Chu Kuangren turned the whole Luo Hou Ancestral Land upside down, he witnessed all of it firsthand from afar, so he knew how terrifying Chu Kuangren was.

For someone like Linghu Zun, becoming as strong as Shi Tianxuan was his lifelong goal.

However, Chu Kuangren was nothing short of a lingering nightmare in his mind!

He would never forget how the whole Demonic Dao was plunged into chaos and how countless demonic sky-prides died just because of a single person.

“Since you know who I am, why haven’t you kneeled, begged for mercy, and scuttle off right away?” Chu Kuangren said indifferently.

1

Upon hearing him, Linghu Zun’s face immediately turned red with anger. The fear within him was immediately replaced by rage.

“Don’t be so arrogant, Chu Kuangren! Back when you turned the whole Luo Hou Ancestral Land into chaos, I was still not strong enough. However, I’m no longer the weakling I used to be!”

“I, inheritor of the Sword Demon’s legacy, can go against even a Prodigy like you!!”

Then, he roared and rose into the sky with demonic qi emanating from his body. As his demonic qi and Daoist pattern intertwined, a dark sword shadow formed among the clouds!

“Chu Kuangren, behold the power of the Demonic Nine Heavens Annihilation, one of the Twenty-four Sword Dao Techniques!” Linghu Zun yelled.

With a single slash, bursts of sword qi erupted from that terrifying dark sword shadow, seemingly hell-bent on destroying the world!

The Twenty-four Sword Dao Techniques were the most advanced among the Sword Dao cultivation techniques, and the Demonic Nine Heavens Annihilation was one of them!

It was so powerful and profound that most Arch Gilded Immortal Techniques paled in comparison!

“The Twenty-Four Sword Dao Techniques, huh? Why are you speaking as if no one knows them?” Chu Kuangren chuckled.

After that, he gestured a sword hand sign. The Descendant Self Sword beside him rose into the air, its Daoist Proclamation Seals lighting up one after another.

“Godfearing Daoist Sword Technique!” said Chu Kuangren indifferently to unleash his newly acquired Godfearing Daoist Sword Technique, which was also one of the Twenty-Four Sword Dao Techniques!

An endless stream of Daoist patterns gathered all over the Descendant Self Sword. Then, a white sword ray emerged and broke out in the form of a devastating ray of light!

That attack was chilling and bright at the same time!

It was akin to a meteor shooting across the night sky. Even the gods and deities in heaven were awe-struck!

The Descendant Self Sword’s Daoist Proclamation Seals flickered as the Godfearing Sword ray shot directly into the looming demonic qi in the sky!

Two of the Twenty-Four Sword Dao Techniques clashed!

However, the white sword ray brutally tore apart the demonic qi and continued moving forth! It was unstoppable.

As it headed toward Linghu Zun, its immense sword aura locked onto him!

“Impossible!”

Linghu Zun’s pupils shrank, and a look of horror appeared on his face.

Before he could even react, the white sword ray had gone through his chest,mercilessly crushing and mincing his internal organs!

Boom!

Linghu Zun’s body exploded into a mist of blood the next instant!

That one sword attack slayed the demon and shocked the gods!

Every sword cultivator who witnessed it could not help but gasp. A cold chill ran down their spine, and they started shuddering!

Gulp...

Some sword cultivators gulped. “H-How is that even possible? Both of those attacks are one of the Twenty-Four Sword Dao Techniques, yet why is the difference between them so big?!”

“That’s right. I can’t believe it. Linghu Zun can’t even take on a single attack from him!”

Some sword cultivators took a deep breath and said, “The difference is not in the Sword Dao cultivation technique but the person using them!”

Cultivation techniques that were similar in power, if unleashed by cultivators with different levels of strength, would result in a world of difference between them.

Undoubtedly, the Godfearing Daoist Sword Technique and Demonic Nine Heavens Annihilation were cultivation techniques of the same level!

However, Linghu Zun and Chu Kuangren were not cultivators of the same level!

“Is... Is he even human?”

“He’s a monster!”

Chapter 1295: The Four Cultivators Join Forces, All to Defeat a Single Person, This Favor I Owe Is Just Too Huge

Moments after his arrival, Chu Kuangren had killed a demon cultivator with a single attack, shocking even the gods themselves!

Everyone present was instantly stunned by his incredible strength!

Even the eyes of the Buddha’s Sword and Wang Tianba twitched, revealing a hint of fear they had never felt before.

At that time, swirls of blood-colored lights remained in the void.

Within the light, countless Daoist patterns intertwined in the blood-colored light and turned into a young man with black hair.

It was Linghu Zun, the person who Chu Kuangren killed!

He was holding a mysterious blood-colored wooden puppet, which was inscribed with several mysterious runes containing a life and death intent.

With a crack, the wooden puppet crumbled into pieces!

A hint of surprise flashed across Chu Kuangren’s face. “Oh, that’s quite a nice life-saving item you got there. It seems this wooden puppet has died in your place.”

Linghu Zun looked at the wooden puppet with a sorrowful expression.

That wooden puppet was an Opportunity of Fortune.

It was his life-saving trump card.

However, he did not expect Chu Kuangren to destroy it in a single attack.

At that thought, he looked at Chu Kuangren cautiously. Then, he said to the others, "Everyone, if you want a chance to get that Green Leaf Sword Vision, I suggest we join forces right now. All of you have seen how powerful Chu Kuangren is. We can't defeat him alone!"

The remaining three cultivators looked at each other with serious looks in their eyes.

That was true.

Chu Kuangren's sword attack earlier was so powerful that even a Prodigy like the Buddha's Sword was not sure whether he would survive unscathed.

On top of that, Ye Zhu was about to refine the Green Leaf Sword Vision completely.

If they wanted to get the Sword Vision, they would have to deal with Chu Kuangren the fastest way possible, and the only way now was to join forces.

"I heard some of the disciples from my Langya Sword Sect had no grudges with you, yet they were still killed by your follower, Lan Yu. As the Senior Disciple of the Langya Sword Sect, I'll bring justice for my fallen brothers and sisters!" Gentleman Langya said coldly while holding his iron fan.

"Word says that you've obtained a Sarira from the Terraglyph Planet. That item belongs to the Buddhist orthodoxies and should not remain in the hands of others!" said the Buddha's Sword as he gradually unsheathed his Gold Demon Slaying Sword.

A benevolent and compassionate aura containing a razor-sharp sword intent emanated everywhere!

Chu Kuangren grinned a little upon sensing that aura. "This aura... It looks like he's thirty percent more powerful than that Buddhist Disciple Huijue."

"Chu Kuangren, the Evil Immortal Valley's Fei Long, my foster brother, and the Blooded Nine Crow all died in your hands. For that, I shall avenge them today!"

Killing intent erupted from Wang Tianba.

The long saber trembled slightly in his hands as it released a saber ray, conjuring a scene of countless ghouls and Ashuras.

"Ha! Can you guys keep me entertained?"

Chu Kuangren chuckled as his Descendant Sword returned to his grasp. Then, mysterious Daoist patterns flowed through his sword and unleashed a sword ray that shattered mountains!

At that instant, the Buddhist monk, the bully, the Gentleman, and the demon cultivator joined forces just to defeat a single person!

"Ghoulish Ashura Slash!"

Wang Tianba was the first to attack. As a Prodigy, he was already a True Immortal, so he swung his saber and unleashed a terrifying chilling saber ray!

Within his saber ray, the image of countless ghouls and Ashuras screeching and screaming played out!

That single saber attack could also affect one's mind!

"Amitabha, Great Compassion Slash!"

Following that, the Buddha's Sword also attacked.

His Golden Demon Slaying Sword radiated with colorful light, and countless gold lotuses bloomed in the void.

The moment his sword ray was released, a compassionate intent erupted.

It was unlike Wang Tianba's saber ray, which exuded an endless dread.

The two Prodigies unleashed two different attacks — a sword and a saber — at once!

Each of their attacks was powerful enough to shatter planets!

Despite seeing that, Chu Kuangren did not move. Instead, the countless runes on his Descendant Self Sword lit up.

"Blade of Zhou, Berserking Torment!" Chu Kuangren uttered indifferently.

The moment he unleashed that slash, his Berserking Sword attack swept forward like an endless storm.

When the compassionate sword attack and the ghoulish saber attack collided with the Berserking sword ray, the surrounding void began to crumble.

Terrifying shockwaves spread everywhere like an unyielding wave, shocking the sword cultivators spectating the battle who quickly moved back.

"Oh no. We better get back!"

"They are definitely Prodigies. To think that the shockwaves from their battle already contain so much power!"

Meanwhile, Su Yun and the other Three Clarity Daoist Sect cultivators gathered at a single spot. Having gone through a tough battle earlier, they could no longer defend themselves against the immense shockwaves.

Just when they thought they were going to die, a pure and divine silver figure appeared before them.

"Holy Light Barricade!"

That person was holding a scepter and emanating a Holy Radiant Intent. Her dazzling light enveloped the area and turned into a barrier that blocked the incoming shockwaves with her silver hair swaying and her armor shining.

Just her back alone could make anyone feel a sense of sacredness and majesticness.

She was akin to a Valkyrie who had descended from the heavens, protecting the weak and innocent.

That person was none other than Lan Yu.

“Wait, Brother Ye Zhu is still over there.”

Su Yun suddenly thought of Ye Zhu and quickly looked at the giant green sword.

Ye Zhu was still refining the Sword Vision. If the shockwaves from that battle got to him, it would affect him and ruin his efforts.

However, when Su Yun looked toward the giant green sword, several figures were already standing there.

It was Cao Yun, Wang Chentian, Zhao Fangfei, and the other Hundred Academy Heavenly Champions.

Wang Chentian had activated his Despot Thousand Troop Shadow while Cao Yun unleashed his Golden Rule Order to block the incoming shockwaves, protecting Ye Zhu from being hit.

Su Yun breathed a sigh of relief.

Then, he shook his head and laughed. “It looks like I owe them a huge favor now.”

Although Chu Kuangren said he was here to return the favor, the Hundred Academy Heavenly Champions owed Su Yun nothing.

All of them had come because of Chu Kuangren, and they were protecting Ye Zhu just on Chu Kuangren’s behalf.

However, Su Yun and the Three Clarity Daoist Sect could not ignore that huge favor they had done.

Boom!

Countless Daoist patterns intertwined and flickered as they collided in the void.

With every clash, those Daoist patterns leveled the surrounding landscape. Even the giant swords in the Sword Immortal’s Tomb were affected.

Some giant swords that were not strong enough shattered one after another.

Somewhere far away, some of the spectating sword cultivators were horrified as they watched the battle.

“The remnant shockwaves from that battle are strong enough to kill ordinary sky-prides.”

“That’s right. It’s truly terrifying.”

“So that’s what a battle between Prodigies is like!”

The battle continued.

Besides the Buddha’s Sword and Wang Tianba, both Linghu Zun and Gentleman Langya also joined the battle. Although they were not as powerful as the two Prodigies, they were still formidable cultivators!

“Langya Sword Art, Great Frost River!”

Gentleman Langya grunted as he waved his iron fan. An avalanche of snowflakes appeared as if winter had arrived!

Following that, the snowflakes — formed by countless Daoist patterns — condensed into a mighty river that gushed toward Chu Kuangren!

The Langya Sword Art was also one of the Twenty-four Sword Dao Techniques.

“Demonic Nine Heavens Annihilation!”

Linghu Zun unleashed his strongest demonic sword technique once again!

As two of the Twenty-four Sword Dao Techniques unleashed together, their immense power shook the whole area.

Chu Kuangren stood proudly without moving, and a green light flashed across his eyes. “Don’t you want the Green Leaf Sword Vision? Why don’t I let you guys experience its power firsthand?”

Chapter 1296: Zhuo Donglai Appears, the Demonic Sword’s Might, the Maddest Man Throughout Eternity

“Why don’t I let you guys experience its power firsthand?”

A green light flashed within Chu Kuangren’s eyes. Following that, a chilling aura erupted, and a green sword grass appeared behind him.

The sword grass was brimming with endless sword qi.

The moment the leaf of the grass moved, a surge of sword qi as thick as a mountain range erupted as if it wanted to slice the nearby planets in half!!

That was the Green Leaf Sword Vision’s divine ability, the Grass Sword Art!

Boom!

Two Twenty-four Sword Dao Techniques collided with the Sword Dao’s divine ability.

The demonic sword qi and Langya Sword Art were eventually destroyed. Like a merciless typhoon, the Grass Sword qi sent Gentleman Langya and Linghu Zun flying immediately.

“The Green Leaf Sword Vision!”

“The rumors are true. It seems that Chu Kuangren does possess the Green Leaf Sword Vision. However, where the hell did he obtain it?”

Linghu Zun and Gentleman Langya were jealous.

The Green Leaf Sword Vision was the most supreme Sword Dao physique and the most highly sought-after physique by countless sword cultivators.

“How long are you guys going to stay in hiding?” Chu Kuangren said calmly and looked at the void nearby.

He could sense several powerful auras in hiding over there. Those auras were quite familiar to him too.

“Chu Kuangren!” A cold voice rang out.

Then, a figure slowly walked out from the void, with powerful Yin Yang intent emanating from his body, shocking all who were present!

The person was Zhuo Donglai, Heavenly Champion of the Eastern King School!

“What a powerful aura. How did he become so much stronger?”

Zhuo Donglai was quite well-known even among the Heavenly Champions.

Some cultivators noticed there was a world of difference between the current Zhuo Donglai and his past self as he was now in the True Immortal Realm.

Besides that, his eyes had turned black and white, akin to a pair of Yin Yang koi fish circling each other. They released a frightening aura.

“Can it be that he has upgraded his physique into the Duality Rites Immortal Physique?!” Another cultivator guessed.

That was the only reason they could think of to explain why Zhuo Donglai’s aura had become so powerful all of a sudden.

“Chu Kuangren, the power of my Duality Rites Immortal Physique shall bring about an end to your life today!” Zhuo Donglai said coldly.

His words solidified everyone else’s guess.

At that moment, a look of admiration flashed in many cultivators’ eyes.

Possessing any one of the Ten Honorable Supreme Immortal Physiques could allow a cultivator to become a top-tier Prodigy.

Although Zhuo Donglai’s original Primordial Sun Immortal Physique was quite strong, it still paled in comparison to the Duality Rites Immortal Physique.

“Well done. You really didn’t disappoint. It looks like you’ve come to me, serving the Duality Rites Immortal Physique on a silver platter.” Chu Kuangren chuckled.

The Duality Rites Immortal Physique was one of the Honorable Supreme Immortal Physiques.

If Chu Kuangren could analyze and integrate it into his arsenal of physiques, it would surely benefit him greatly.

Then, he looked into the void somewhere else.

Under his gaze, two figures walked out of the void. One of them was dressed in Buddhist robes, holding a cane and radiating with Buddhist Light.

The other was surging with yokai qi, frightening anyone who sensed it.

Those two possessed completely different auras.

They were Buddhist Daoist Huijue and Wu Tian of the Sky Centipede Tribe — both of who had a grudge against Chu Kuangren.

“Huijue, so you’ve come.”

The Buddha’s Sword was a little surprised upon seeing Huijue.

“Yes. I’ve come to lend you a hand.”

“Very well.”

The Buddha’s Sword nodded gently.

Although he and Huijue were from different Pure Lands, they were still friends as fellow Buddhists.

“Chu Kuangren, the King of my Sky Centipede Tribe has died because of you, and I shall avenge his death today!” Wu Tian said coldly.

He had been wanting to defeat Chu Kuangren for quite some time and felt that now would be the best opportunity to do so.

Buddhist Daoist Huijue, the Buddha’s Sword, and the bully of Immortals were all Prodigies. Adding Zhuo Donglai who was the host of the Duality Rites Immortal Physique possessing the Immortal Dissolving Poison, Gentleman Langya, and Linghu Zun who knew one of the Twenty-four Sword Dao Techniques...

With that lineup of opponents, their chances of winning were high!

They could reign undefeated within the whole Interstellar Arena!

Even Chu Kuangren was no exception to that!

“Come, everyone, unleash your full strength. Let me see what you’ve got and whether you can keep me entertained!”

As Chu Kuangren held his Descendant Self Sword, a gentle breeze blew past.

He had to admit that it was very difficult to find an opponent that could keep him entertained!

However, if he were to find a group of people who could at least make him fight seriously for once, it would not be such a bad thing either.

He might as well lower his standards for the time being.

“Everyone, stop holding back and unleash your full power. Our opponent is none other than Chu Kuangren here. Besides, if we continue wasting time here, the Green Leaf Sword Vision will soon be completely refined by Ye Zhu over there,” Wang Tianba said coldly.

“Very well!”

Linghu Zun nodded. A blood-colored light emanating a bloodthirsty intent radiated from the black sword in his grasp.

At that instant, as if that demonic sword had come to life, tentacles protruded from the sword, wrapping, and piercing into Linghu Zun’s arm.

The tentacles sucked Linghu Zun's blood like a straw.

Linghu Zun let out a muffled groan, and a look of pain slipped through his eyes. He looked at Chu Kuangren with a scowl. "Your blood will surely satisfy my Bloodthirsty Demonic Sword!"

The Bloodthirsty Demonic Sword was an Arch Gilded Weapon left behind by a great one from the Sword Demon Tribe.

It was a very powerful weapon indeed but a very frightening one too.

That sword could increase the power of its sword qi by consuming its user's blood. However, once the user could not satisfy the demonic sword, they would be sucked dry of blood and turned into a corpse.

It was rumored to be one of the most frightening demonic swords in the Sword Demon Tribe.

"Attack!"

Linghu Zun attacked once more. With the help of his demonic sword, the power of his sword qi increased even more.

Every slash he unleashed contained a very terrifying power of destruction.

On the other hand, Chu Kuangren remained calm as he unleashed his Blade of Zhou techniques.

His Berserking Sword qi swept forward, shattering Linghu Zun's sword qi.

Meanwhile, the other sky-prides also charged forth and attacked.

Armed with his long saber, Wang Tianba released a terrifying saber ray that seemingly contained countless ghouls and Ashuras that stirred up the spiritual qi of the whole area.

"Three Affirming Bodhi, Benevolent Bodhisattva!"

Huijue clasped his hands together while Buddhist Light circulated him.

Soon, a Bodhisattva Avatar appeared.

The Buddha's Sword tossed his sword high up in the air. At that moment, the sword started radiating with endless Buddhist Light, lighting up the land.

"Sword of Buddha, Merciful Slaughter!"

His endless Buddhist Light turned into a golden sword shadow, and sounds of Buddhist Chimes reverberated everywhere.

It was compassion versus destruction — slaughter but with mercy!

As that attack was unleashed, the golden sword shadow shattered the void, and countless intertwining Daoist patterns enveloped the land.

Chu Kuangren remained calm despite facing attacks from all sides. The Three Great Conjurations of the Hundred Academy appeared above him.

"Blade of Zhou, Berserking Torment!"

Chu Kuangren held his Descendant Self Sword and activated all its runes.

Then, he cast an attack with his Tyrannical Ascension technique!

That attack was indomitable and unyielding, like a Tyrant King descending upon the world, conquering every enemy out there!

As the Tyrannical Ascension attack swept forward, it went through the Bodhisattva Avatar and shattered the sword made out of Buddhist Light.

It went through the ghouls and Ashuras without trouble as well!

The tyrannical aura of that attack sent most of the sky-prides flying immediately.

Within the torrent of energy, a white figure stood proudly and looked down on everyone with the poise of an arrogant tyrant. Everyone present was shocked!

“This is still not enough to entertain me!” An indifferent voice sounded.

Everyone still could not injure Chu Kuangren despite having joined forces.

In fact, they were frightened by what they had just witnessed.

“Is that Chu Kuangren’s power?!”

“He truly is a monster!”

The sky-prides were all shocked and dumbfounded.

Meanwhile, Cao Yun, Zhao Fangfei, and the others could not look any prouder.

That person was their Chief, the maddest man throughout eternity!

Chapter 1297: Duality Rites Yin Yang Symbol, Wu Tian’s Sneak Attack, Immortal Dissolving Poison Source

The yokai, Gentlemen, demons, evil immortals, and all forces’ sky-prides fought against Chu Kuangren. However, even though they went all out, they could not move the Maddest Man Throughout Eternity!

The terrifying strength made everyone present afraid.

“He’s a monster,” Linghu Zen said after taking a deep breath.

Hum!

At that moment, the void shook as a large area of Daoist patterns containing majestic and endless Yin Yang intent interweaved.

Everyone looked at the source of the Yin Yang intent.

Over there, they saw Zhuo Donglai take one step forward, with many Daoist patterns spreading from him and interweaving to form a huge Yin Yang Symbol that covered the sky!

“Chu Kuangren, taste the might of this Duality Rites Yin Yang Symbol!” Zhuo Donglai said loudly.

His aura was surging intensely like a Supreme Immortal King who had mastered the Yin Yang energy, and each of his moves messed up the Yin and Yang energies!

Upon seeing that, a strange look shone in Chu Kuangren’s eyes. “Duality Rites Yin Yang Symbol. So this is the Duality Rites Immortal Physique’s divine ability, huh?”

He smiled faintly as he took a step forward.

Soon, countless Daoist patterns intertwined on his body with white light flickered in his left hand while death qi emerged in his right.

As he pressed his palms together, Celestial Demon qi and life-death energy merged. Then, a gigantic black and white Yin Yang symbol appeared.

However, it was different from Zhuo Donglai’s intense Yin Yang energy as it contained more life-death energy!

“In that case, let’s give it a try to see if your Yin Yang Symbol can affect my Life and Death Symbol!”

Chu Kuangren then punched out with his two hands. In the sky, the Life and Death Symbol hovered while the life-death energy shattered large swaths of space.

In an instant, the Yin Yang Symbol formed from two completely different energies, Yin Yang energy and life-death energy, collided in the void.

The black and white interweaved in the void, filling the sky with those two colors as if alternating between night and day.

Soon, the Yin and Yang energies were in chaos while life and death energies alternated!

The incomparably tyrannical Daoist patterns, mixed with immense Immortal’s Core energy, circulated in the air. Even an escape strand was sufficient to shatter the mountains, rivers, and earth!

“What powerful might! Is this the Supreme Immortal Physique’s power?”

“It’s incredibly powerful!”

Above the sky were Yin and Yang, life and death!

When the two forces collided, the life-death energy gradually gained the upper hand. Soon, a figure flew out of the chaotic energy. It was Zhuo Donglai.

At that time, his robe was messy, and his face was pale. Even his Immortal’s Core aura was quite unstable.

“So this is the Duality Rites Immortal Physique? It has disappointed me.”

Above the sky, a man in white stood proudly, looking down on Zhuo Donglai.

Zhuo Donglai’s expression was terribly unpleasant. He clenched his fists tightly with furious eyes.

“D*mn it. I’m not his opponent even though I’ve mastered the Duality Rites Immortal Physique!”

“Which level is his strength at?!”

Zhuo Donglai became unhappy at the thought of it.

In order to defeat Chu Kuangren, he had done everything he could to improve himself to his fullest potential. He even mastered the Supreme Immortal Physique.

Unfortunately, he was still not Chu Kuangren’s opponent.

The strength gap between them was huge, and it seemed to be growing further apart instead of reducing.

“If these are all you have, I can only send you to hell,” said Chu Kuangren.

As he raised his hand, his majestic Immortal’s Core soared and interweaved in the void, transforming into countless terrifying and ferocious yokai beasts!

The Avarice, Manticore, White Tiger, Nine-Headed Snakelet...

Countless wild beasts emerged in the void and looked very lifelike. It was as if real wild beasts had descended the earth!

It was the Divine Myriad Yokai Mimicry Technique, Myriad Yokai Diagram!

“What kind of cultivation technique is this?!”

“My goodness. Chu Kuangren has conjured so many wild beasts, and they look too real.”

“It’s frightening!”

All cultivators present gasped upon seeing Chu Kuangren conjuring countless wild beasts.

Even the Buddha’s Sword, other sky-prides, and Prodigies were horrified.

It was too terrifying!

The power was simply too terrifying.

At that moment, a stream of light dashed toward them at a rapid speed and landed behind Chu Kuangren.

It was Wu Tian!

At that moment, a faint gray light shrouded his body, and it almost concealed his aura to the point it was almost non-existent.

The gray light was a treasure that could conceal one’s aura!

As Chu Kuangren had been focusing on the Buddha’s Sword and others, he did not notice Wu Tian in time.

Boom!

Wu Tian came to Chu Kuangren and slammed his palm forward!

The earth-shattering palm attack, which was enough to smash ten great stars, hit Chu Kuangren's body!

With a loud bang, ripples of shockwaves spread from Chu Kuangren. Inch by inch, the void exploded into countless spatial fragments!

"Master!"

"Chief!"

"Brother Chu!"

Several people exclaimed.

The expressions of Lan Yu, Cao Yun, Wang Chentian, Su Yun, and others changed. No one had expected Wu Tian would make such a move!

After the blow, the Divine Myriad Yokai Mimicries that Chu Kuangren conjured slowly dissipated.

At that scene, all sky-prides could feel their eyelids twitching. Was Chu Kuangren going to lose?

The Buddha's Sword and Zhuo Donglai were delighted, and their eyes were filled with anticipation.

"It works!"

Wu Tian was a little excited too.

However, he was dumbfounded the next second because he found that Chu Kuangren, who had been hit hard by his palm attack, merely trembled and did not even move.

To everyone's surprise, he did not even take a step back!

Furthermore, that palm attack felt weird, as if he had hit a piece of Immortal Metal, and his palm was numb from the shock.

"Have you not eaten? What's the use of such a gentle palm attack?"

An indifferent voice sounded.

As Chu Kuangren looked at Wu Tian with an indifferent gaze, the latter shuddered, and his scalp tingled.

'D*mn it! What kind of monster-like raw physical is this?! The attack didn't even harm him!'

"Try this!"

Soon, a surge of black toxic qi gushed out from Wu Tian's palm and entered Chu Kuangren's body.

It was the Immortal Dissolving Poison!

Chu Kuangren's eyes lit up. Instead of rejecting, he absorbed the Immortal Dissolving Poison into his body, activating the Demonic Omnitoxin Technique!

Chu Kuangren transformed a large amount of toxic qi into nutrients that nourished his internal organs!

"Give me more."

Chu Kuangren chuckled. Daoist patterns interweaved on his body while he mobilized the Demonic Omnitoxin Technique to its limit.

Shortly after, Wu Tian felt that the Immortal Dissolving Poison in his body was pouring out uncontrollably toward Chu Kuangren.

“How is this possible?!” Wu Tian was stunned.

It was the first time he encountered someone absorbing the Immortal Dissolving Poison proactively!

One could not do such an act even if he was immune to toxins, so what kind of monster was he?

‘A nemesis!’

Wu Tian would only perceive Chu Kuangren as his nemesis now!

He was the nemesis of all poisons in the universe!

“Retreat! Quick!”

Wu Tian wanted to leave as quickly as possible.

Unfortunately, Chu Kuangren did not allow him to. Instead, he grabbed Wu Tian’s hand, rendering it useless for the latter to struggle.

“Since you’re here, leave all your poisons behind,” said Chu Kuangren.

He could sense that there was a source for the Immortal Dissolving Poison that Wu Tian had released, and the source would be of great use to his Demonic Omnitoxin Technique.

Chapter 1298: Killing Wu Tian, Divine Samsara Overworld, The Cycle of Life And Death

“I want the Immortal Dissolving Poison Source in your body!” Chu Kuangren chuckled.

Then, his Immortal Consciousness locked on to the Immortal Dissolving Poison in Wu Tian’s body, and he reached out to grab it!

His five fingers turned into claws surrounded by countless strands of lightning energy.

As the terrifying energy erupted, it pierced Wu Tian’s chest effortlessly and grabbed a dark green pearl with a surge of terrifying toxic qi!

A sliver of it was enough to poison hundreds of millions of living beings. Even True Immortals would find it difficult to resist!

However, it was merely the toxic qi that had escaped from the pearl, so it had yet to exert the purest toxic qi contained in it.

“Lil Ai, analyze this for me.”

“The Immortal Dissolving Poison Source was probably refined by using the toxic heart of the Sky Centipede Tribe’s Yokai King, an Arch Gilded Immortal...”

Information about the toxic pearl flooded Chu Kuangren's mind.

Meanwhile, Wu Tian looked at Chu Kuangren with a terrified expression. "H-How is that possible?"

How could he have grabbed the Immortal Dissolving Poison Source with his hand?!

"I initially wanted to wait for you to mobilize the Immortal Dissolving Poison to its fullest potential and use it to kill you. However, it seems I'll just take this toxic pearl now." Chu Kuangren chuckled.

After that, incomparably majestic lightning energy suddenly erupted!

The Daoist patterns on Wu Tian's immortal body exploded, and the horrifying lightning energy smashed him into a mist of blood!

That marked the fall of the Yokai Tribes' sky-pride, Wu Tian!

Chu Kuangren toyed with the toxic pearl in his hands before keeping it in his Enchanted Sleeve.

"Now, it's your turn," said Chu Kuangren.

The Buddha's Sword, Huijue, and others started to panic.

"Benefactor Chu, are you sure you want to be the energy of the Buddhist world?" the Buddha's Sword asked solemnly.

He knew he was not Chu Kuangren's opponent, so he planned to suppress him with the entire Buddhist world.

"That's right. Chu Kuangren, although you have the Hundred Academy and the Celestial Demon's backing, they'll also be in trouble if you offend all of us. I advise you not to make things worse," said Wang Tianba.

"Chu Kuangren, let's just leave today's matter at that."

"We haven't revealed all our trump cards yet. If we continue fighting, no one knows what the outcome will be."

Gentleman Langya, Huijue, and others said, feeling extremely aggrieved.

Although they, as sky-prides and Heavenly Champions, had joined forces, they were forced by Chu Kuangren to use such a way to show compliance.

It was utterly humiliating.

Upon hearing what the Buddha's Sword and others said, Chu Kuangren's expression was extremely calm. He said, "Are these your last words? If it is, prepare to die!"

"Chu Kuangren, do you really want to make things worse?"

"D*mn it. You're making us all look bad, huh?"

Everyone's expressions changed, and there was a hint of annoyance in their eyes.

"If that's the case, we'll fight as hard as we can, even if it costs us our lives!"

Everyone looked at each other with determination.

Linghu Zun mobilized his Demonic Sword to its fullest potential, and a flash of bloodthirsty demonic ray flickered while the demonic qi wreaked havoc in the void.

The Buddha's Sword held the Gold Demon Slaying Sword in his hand, and countless Daoist patterns appeared on his armor, showing that he had mobilized his armor to its fullest potential.

"Buddha's Sword, Slaying Sins!"

When he raised the Gold Demon Slaying Sword in his hand, Buddhist Light shot into the sky and transformed into the apparition of a tall Buddha.

The Buddha glared while holding a sword in his hand. It was as if he was going to kill all those who had sinned in the universe!

When he unleashed a sword attack, Brahmic Chime sounded while golden lotuses blossomed!

With that, the rest of the people also activated their final trump cards.

Gentleman Langya threw the iron fan in his hand forward, causing the ribs of the fan to disintegrate and turn into countless sharp swords suspended in the air. Then, they surrounded Chu Kuangren to form a sword formation!

"Chu Kuangren, you're too arrogant!"

"Today, we'll join forces to end your path to invincibility!" Zhuo Donglai said with a gloomy expression.

Although he was not Chu Kuangren's opponent, he believed that with the joint forces of so many sky-prides and Prodigies, they would eventually defeat him!

He took a step forward before channeling the Duality Rites Immortal Physique energy to its fullest potential.

The power of the physique was mighty.

Even though he had not fully mastered it, the combat strength he could exert was no weaker than that of most Prodigies.

"Yinyang Cycling, Invincible Divine Light!"

There were black and white rays of light flickering on Zhuo Donglai's body that merged with countless Daoist patterns, turning into a huge black and white beam of light!

Soon, the beam of light shot through the sky and pierced through the void!

Even a True Immortal, who was one or two grades stronger than Zhuo Donglai in terms of cultivation level, would not be able to resist such a blow!

That was the Duality Rites Immortal Physique's second divine ability, Divine Yinyang Rejuvenation Light!

"Ashuran Ghouls, Three Thousand Purgatories!"

With a long saber in his hands, a tyrannical intent shone in Wang Tianba's eyes.

As he slashed forward with his saber, a black saber ray soared through the skies as if to turn the Three Thousand Worlds into a boundless purgatory!

The ghouls' wail and Ashurans' roar resounded throughout the universe!

After that, a colorful Lapis Lazuli heart lit up on Huijue's body. It was the Bodhi Heart!

"Three Affirming Bodhi, Benevolent Bodhisattva!"

With the Bodhi Heart giving the Bodhisattva Might a boost, Huijue mobilized his Immortal's Core and Buddhist Light to their limits.

Furthermore, as Daoist patterns gathered on his body, his skin and bones became crystal clear, as if his body was made out of Lapis Lazuli.

It was the Buddhist top-notch body strengthening technique, Phaseless Lapis Lazuli Exterior!

With the Lapis Lazuli Exterior, Bodhi Heart, and Bodhisattva Might mobilized all at once, Huijue was already at his strongest!

As those energies blasted outward together, the Buddhist Light interweaved with the demonic qi while the saber ray and sword qi roared. Then, they transformed into a majestic and endless sea of energy, engulfing everything between heaven and earth.

However, Chu Kuangren's expression remained unchanged. In fact, he faced the blow indifferently.

"What an interesting scene. Now, I'll let all of you taste my strength."

The moment Chu Kuangren took a step forward, the power of samsara flowed around his body, and mysterious Daoist patterns spread from him, forming a terrifying energy field!

There were colorful rays of light circulating within the energy field.

Each type of light represented a type of samsara power!

The vast Heavenly Dao energy, the ever-changing Human Realm, the tyrannical Ashura Realm, the gloomy and treacherous Underworld Realm, the Animal Realm, and the Hungry Ghost Realm that seemed to devour everything... The six rays of light represented the energies in the Six Realms of Reincarnation!

It was the second divine ability of the Heavenly Samsara Physique — the Divine Samsara Overworld!

The Six Realms of Reincarnation were endless!

In the energy field, the sword formation that Gentleman Langya cast was the first to be broken!

The endless sword qi gushed back out and sent Gentleman Langya flying instantly, directly injuring him...

Following that, various attacks entered the energy field.

Six realms cycled through like a giant and invisible wheel spinning in the sky, wiping out various attacks!

Meanwhile, Chu Kuangren stood in the sky like a deity who controlled the cycle of life and death.

As for the other sky-prides who were enveloped in the energy field, they felt the endless power of samsara from all directions crushing their bodies.

Everyone looked at the scene in horror!

“W-What technique is this?!”

Huijue may have relied on the Phaseless Lapis Lazuli Exterior to resist the Six Realms of Reincarnation energy, but unfortunately, his Lapis Lazuli Exterior had begun to crack.

In the world of reincarnation, facing Chu Kuangren was like facing a supreme deity.

“You’re surprised by that?”

“Well, what about this?” Chu Kuangren said indifferently. Then, the Celestial Demon qi gushed out from his body and evolved the life-death energy in the void into a black and white circle that was filled with a monstrous power!

It was the Chaos Celestial Demon Physique’s Universal Life-Death Cycle!

Chapter 1299: Killing Sky-prides With Two Great Divine Abilities, The Fall Of Zhuo Donglai

As the Divine Samsara Overworld was activated, the cycle of rebirth was enabled.

The energy of Chu Kuangren’s two newly acquired divine abilities erupted, filling that particular space with unparalleled divine might.

The sight of it horrified all sky-prides that faced the two great divine abilities, and they gasped in disbelief.

Even those sky-prides and Heavenly Champions, who were far away, were shocked to sense the aura of the two great divine abilities.

“W-What energy is this?!”

“My goodness. I feel that even if there were ten of me, I’d still be easily killed in that invisible energy field!”

“Is this energy displayed by a sky-pride?!”

The Buddha’s Sword, Huijue, Wang Tianba, and others channeled their Immortal’s Cores to resist the Divine Samsara Overworld with their full strength.

Unfortunately, they were still overpowered.

They were not Chu Kuangren’s opponents in the first place, let alone with the Divine Samsara Overworld overpowering them now.

When they noticed the black and white Life-Death Cycle gleaming with Immortal Spark in the void, formed by countless Daoist patterns, they could not help but feel fear.

They felt as if they could not control whether they lived or died!

“All you should be honored to be my first batch of sky-prides who died under the two great divine abilities!”

Chu Kuangren’s voice resounded throughout the universe.

He stood on the Life-Death Cycle with the power of samsara circulating him, like an intimidating Supreme Immortal King who controlled life and death.

“No. I won’t die here!”

“Ashuran Ghouls, kill him!”

The bully among Immortals, Wang Tianba, was unwilling to die here. Hence, he mobilized his Immortal’s Core to its limit and then unleashed an attack with his saber. Soon, the saber ray turned into countless ferocious ghouls.

Suddenly, the realm felt as if it had transformed into a purgatory.

However, Chu Kuangren stood still. As the Life-Death Cycle on his head turned gently, a terrifying and boundless life-death energy spread.

With that, the saber ray broke while the ghouls dissipated, and the rakshasas fell!

The life-death energy was like a vast ocean, crushing toward Wang Tianba with a might that could destroy heaven and earth.

Boom!

The space shattered into pieces!

Accompanied by Wang Tianba’s scream, his Immortal body started to crack before the life-death energy!

“N-No...” Wang Tianba shouted in horror.

It was hard to imagine that he, who was known as the bully among Immortals, would be so frightened.

Bang!

A mist of blood exploded in the air!

In the face of life-death energy, Wang Tianba had no strength to resist at all!

Upon witnessing that scene, all the sky-prides felt chills down their spines.

At that moment, Chu Kuangren made another move. His Immortal’s Core surged, and the Universal Life-Death Cycle activated again!

Endless Immortal Sparks lit up the land, and along with that, immense life-death energy was released as if to destroy heaven and the universe!

Linghu Zun activated the Demonic Sword in his hand at its fullest potential. The Demonic Sword almost sucked dry all his blood in exchange for more powerful energy.

Unfortunately, no matter how great his effort was, it was no avail.

As the cycle of rebirth activated, the Sword Demon fell!

All that was left was the clanging of the Demonic Sword as it impaled into the ground.

“Chu Kuangren, I’m willing to pay anything if you can spare my life! I-I’m willing to follow you!”

Gentleman Langya lost his composure and hurriedly begged for mercy.

“You don’t deserve it.”

Chu Kuangren raised his hand and waved, enveloping Gentleman Langya in the life-death energy.

Just like that, another top-notch sky-pride had fallen!

“D*mn it. D*mn it!” Huijue roared and activated his Bodhi Heart.

Then, a solemn Bodhisattva Avatar emerged as Buddhist Light soared into the sky!

Unfortunately, the life-death energy crushed him in the next moment!

His Phaseless Lapis Lazuli Exterior cracked like a piece of porcelain. With a snap, his body shattered into pieces.

Instantly, his physical body and Immortal Soul were dead!

“Buddha’s Sword, Merciful Slaughter!”

With the Gold Demon Slaying Sword in hand, the Buddha’s Sword released his sword qi and Buddhist Light to their limit!

Crack!

The Buddhist Light shattered while the sword qi dissipated. Although the armor of the Buddha’s Sword was of a high grade and could remain intact under the power of the Divine Samsara Overworld, he could not take the blow himself!

Inch by inch, his body collapsed under the force of the impact!

“Chu Kuangren, I may not be your opponent, but the Buddhist world will never let you go for killing Huijue and me!”

“The Bodhisattva’s successor and Ancient Buddhist Child will avenge us!” the Buddha’s Sword said in a cold tone.

“Let them come, and I’ll grant them death, just like all of you!” Chu Kuangren chuckled.

Eventually, the armor and the Gold Demon Slaying Sword fell to the ground as the Immortal body of the Buddha’s Sword broke apart, leaving only a Sarira.

“You’re the only one left. It’ll be your turn next.” Chu Kuangren looked at Zhuo Donglai and said with a smile.

At that moment, Zhuo Donglai had activated the Duality Rites Immortal Physique to resist the attack of the life-death energy.

The Duality Rites Immortal Physique was no doubt a Supreme Immortal Physique. Even a Prodigy like the Buddha's Sword could not hold on for long, yet Zhuo Donglai could.

"Why?!"

"Chu Kuangren, how could you get so much love?!"

Zhuo Donglai stared at Chu Kuangren with resentment.

He had worked so hard to become more powerful, only to still end up vulnerable before Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren's strength was simply beyond the scope of a sky-pride!

Why?!

He hated heaven's injustice for giving all the rich resources in the universe to Chu Kuangren.

"Why? Because I'm more powerful than you and all the people here," said Chu Kuangren.

Immortal Sparks shrouded him while the boundless life-death reincarnation intent filled the universe!

"No. You're just luckier than me!"

"If you and I were to exchange positions, I would be more powerful than you," Zhuo Donglai said dissatisfiedly.

"Do you think it's possible? I've gone through ten thousand battles without being defeated. Even heaven and earth can't make me surrender. Can you?"

"If you and I were to exchange positions, you would die sooner," said Chu Kuangren.

As the Life-Death Cycle behind him spun, the life-death energy suddenly intensified.

Followed by a boom, Zhuo Donglai's body exploded!

In the void, all that was left was the beating heart that radiated in black and white Immortal Sparks.

Chu Kuangren had deliberately spared it to analyze the ingredients needed for the Duality Rites Immortal Physique.

So far, the Buddhist, the bully, the Gentleman, the demon, the yokai beast...

All Prodigies and sky-prides that besieged Chu Kuangren were dead, and not a single one remained!

On the other hand, Chu Kuangren stood in the sky. His white robe was spotless and as white as snow.

As his robe fluttered in the wind, the Immortal Sparks his body radiated shattered the mountains and rivers!

At the sight of him, the sky-prides cowered, with disbelief, shock, and awe reflecting in their eyes.

Some female cultivators' eyes lit up, and their hearts began to race.

"What an amazing man!"

"He's so powerful that he's invincible, and that strength of his can crush anyone's spirit. And his Immortal looks... He's simply unstoppable!"

Some of the great ones observing the Interstellar Arena could not help but lament.

"Is Chu Kuangren invincible among the young generation?!"

"I wonder if the top-notched Prodigies and Heavenly Champions have ways to defeat him. If he continues to grow, I'm afraid the Immortal World will be his."

Chapter 1300: Ye Zhu Is Out From Closed-door Meditation, The Heroic Chu Kuangren, I Want A Drop Of Your Blood Essence

In the Sword Immortal's Tomb, Chu Kuangren cast his Divine Samsara Overworld and Universal Life-Death Cycle for the first time and shocked many by killing a group of Prodigies and sky-prides.

At the same time, everyone had a doubt. How many percent of Chu Kuangren's strength was that?!

They did not see him stressing during the whole process, from the time the sky-prides joined forces to him killing all sky-prides.

Not once was he pushed back.

It was too easy for him.

With that, everyone assumed that it was not his full strength, which made them feel even more hopeless.

If the rest of the people could barely catch up to the Prodigies and sky-prides, they had no chance with Chu Kuangren. He was like a mountain peak high up in the clouds, and no one could see where the peak ended.

In that case, how could they catch up to him?

How could they even surpass him?

"He is too perverted!"

"I've never seen a sky-pride like him. He's simply a monster."

The crowd was engaged in a discussion. With regards to Chu Kuangren, countless sky-prides felt an overwhelming sense of despair.

When they looked at Chu Kuangren, they only saw one word... Unsurpassable!

Chu Kuangren ignored the crowd while he looted the battlefield.

Most of those sky-prides and Prodigies possessed good items. Since they were all dead, their treasures naturally belonged to him.

“The Buddha’s Sword’s Gold Demon Slaying Sword, the Arch Gilded Immortal’s golden armor, Huijue’s Bodhi Heart, Wang Tianba’s Arch Gilded Immortal Saber, Linghu Zun’s Demonic Sword...”

“Hm, not bad. I really have to thank people who have come all the way to give me these treasures.” Chu Kuangren lamented.

He had gained a lot from the battle, and making the trip here to Sword Immortal’s Tomb was worth it.

Just analyzing and refining Zhuo Donglai’s Duality Rites Immortal Physique made it a fruitful trip.

“Besides the Duality Rites Immortal Physique, there’s also... the Green Leaf Sword Vision!”

Chu Kuangren looked at Ye Zhu in the giant green sword further away with an unfathomable smile.

Since he had provided great help to the Three Clarity Daoist Sect, it should not be too much to ask Ye Zhu for a drop of his blood essence.

Ye Zhu had the complete Green Leaf Sword Vision, so it meant that he had the complete Green Leaf Sword Vision too.

On this trip alone, he managed to obtain two Supreme Immortal Physiques.

He reckoned no one would believe that one could have such good luck. Only Chu Kuangren, who had the Tome of Physiques and activated all physiques, could do it.

Boom!

At that time, a shocking sword intent suddenly flooded heaven and earth.

Ye Zhu, in the giant green sword further away, suddenly opened his eyes. Green leaf patterns emerged in his eyes, and the released sword qi was so sharp that it could easily tear the space apart!

After that, the giant green sword started to shatter!

As Ye Zhu got up and walked out, his sword qi was like an endless gust of wind sweeping out and rumbling the universe!

Countless giant swords around resonated by humming, and sword chants echoed in the sky!

It was as if they were welcoming the Myriad Sword Supreme!

“Ye Zhu is out of the closed-door meditation and has mastered the complete version of the Green Leaf Sword Vision!”

“Such a terrifying sword qi. It really lives up to its name as the most powerful Sword Dao Immortal Physique!”

All sky-prides exclaimed in amazement.

At that scene, a strange look flashed across Chu Kuangren’s eyes. “This aura is much more powerful than Zhuo Donglai’s.”

He did not mean that the Green Leaf Sword Vision was more powerful than the Duality Rites Immortal Physique.

No matter how powerful an Immortal Physique was, it was merely auxiliary. What was more important was its host!

Ye Zhu originally possessed an incomplete Green Leaf Sword Vision, so now that he had refined and mastered the complete version of the Green Leaf Sword Vision, he was much more familiar with the energy. However, Zhuo Donglai only upgraded the Primordial Sun Immortal Physique to the Duality Rites Immortal Physique. Therefore, his Immortal Physique's mastery was far less than Ye Zhu's mastery of the Green Leaf Sword Vision.

If Zhuo Donglai had a little more patience to wait a little longer to gain full control the Immortal Physique and then looked for Opportunities of Fortune to improve himself for a few minor realms, he might be able to take a few more attacks from Chu Kuangren.

After Ye Zhu left the closed-door meditation and mastered the complete Green Leaf Sword Vision, he did not need to keep his eyes closed anymore. He scanned his eyes across the battlefield. When he noticed the Three Clarity Daoist Sect's cultivators who had sacrificed themselves for him, a trace of sadness emerged in his eyes before they turned cold.

"Evil Immortal Valley, Buddhist world, and the Demonic Dao... I swear I will fight you to death!"

Then, his sword intent rose to the sky and shook thousands of stars.

The giant swords around all vibrated, as if they were responding to his threat.

"Tsk tsk. The Buddhist world and Demonic Dao have provoked a tough one this time."

"Besides Chu Kuangren, they have to face Ye Zhu, who has mastered the complete Green Leaf Sword Vision too."

All sky-prides were stunned.

In the Interstellar Arena, no one dared to act recklessly upon facing an angry Supreme Immortal Physique host.

Not to mention, there was Chu Kuangren, whose power was even more perverted than a Supreme Immortal Physique.

"Senior Brother..."

Su Yun and others approached Ye Zhu with excitement on their faces.

"It has been tough for you all. I will take revenge for our junior brothers," Ye Zhu said solemnly.

"Senior Brother, as long as you're safe, they will rest in peace," Su Yun said with her eyes red.

Cao Yun, Wang Chentian, and others secretly lamented how high Ye Zhu's prestige was in the Three Clarity Daoist Sect.

His status was almost equal to Chu Kuangren's status in the academy.

If they were in Su Yun and the rest's shoes, they believed they would be willing to sacrifice everything for Chu Kuangren because he was their pride!

He was the one they vowed to follow their entire lives, and he would be the Supreme Immortal King who would ascend the Nine Heavens!

"Everyone in the academy, and Brother Chu, thank you," Ye Zhu said gratefully to Chu Kuangren.

Although he was refining the Green Leaf Sword Vision just now and could not stop halfway, he could sense what was going on outside.

He knew that without Chu Kuangren, Su Yun and others would not have survived. In addition, he would not have been able to complete refining the Green Leaf Sword Vision.

"I'm here merely to repay Su Yun a favor," said Chu Kuangren.

"Oh?"

Ye Zhu was a little surprised as he did not know that Su Yun had something to do with Chu Kuangren.

As such, Su Yun briefly explained how he crossed paths with Chu Kuangren.

Ye Zhu was even more surprised when he heard about it.

"Just in exchange for a warning, Brother Chu was willing to fight against so many Prodigies and Heavenly Champions for Su Yun..."

Ye Zhu took a deep breath, and a look of admiration appeared on his face.

He regarded Chu Kuangren's action as righteous and heroic!

Apart from Chu Kuangren, who would go against so many Prodigies and Heavenly Champions for such a simple favor?

No one because there was only one Chu Kuangren in the universe!

"For Su Yun, it was merely a simple warning, but for me, it wasn't."

Chu Kuangren was not sure whether he would be able to find out Lan Yu's situation in time and arrive in time to rescue her without Su Yun's warning.

If something went wrong with Lan Yu, not even killing everyone in the Evil Immortal Valley could not dispel the hatred in his heart!

"No matter what, I must thank you for this time, Brother Chu. From this day onward, if you need anything from me, I'll be sure to help!"

"Heh. I do need your help right now, Brother Ye."

"Oh, please say it."

"I need a drop of your blood essence."

"Ha! What's so hard about it?"

Ye Zhu smiled faintly. Then, he formed a sword hand sign and pointed it to his heart. Without saying another word, he took out the most precious Blood of Heart from a drop of his blood essence!
