

Unparalleled 1331

Chapter 1331: The Flame Tinder of Kumadhi Divine Flame, Rejuvenation Light Breaks Kumadhi

“Tell me, how am I trying to make myself look brave?” asked Chu Kuangren.

A Yin Yang intent, which was similar but different to the Fusang energy, flowed around Chu Kuangren’s body!

When the two Yin and Yang energies combined, a gigantic black and white Yin Yang symbol appeared in the void!

It was the Duality Rites Immortal Physique’s divine ability, the Duality Rites Yin Yang Symbol!

The emergence of the Duality Rites Yin Yang Symbol covered the sky in black and white colors, and its terrifying pressure immediately enveloped the land in all directions.

Even Fire Boy felt an overwhelming pressure.

He gulped and looked at Chu Kuangren in disbelief. “I-It’s the Duality Rites Immortal Physique’s divine ability! You have the Duality Rites Immortal Physique?!”

As soon as he said that, it caused an uproar among the crowd.

Everyone’s eyes widened as they looked at Chu Kuangren like he was a monster.

They could not believe that Chu Kuangren possessed the Duality Rites Immortal Physique!

“What’s going on with his physique? How could he possess the Duality Rites Immortal Physique?!”

“T-That’s weird!”

“The Green Leaf Sword Vision, Heavenly Samsara Physique, Chaos Celestial Demon Physique, and now the Duality Rites Immortal Physique? I-Is he going to defy the heavens?!”

In space, some of the great ones had also noticed the scene. However, they all remained silent as their previous conjecture had just been confirmed.

“The path of Dao that Chu Kuangren pursues, especially for physiques, integrates all kinds of physiques!”

“Such a Dao is terrifying. He has surpassed everyone throughout history who has wanted to pursue this path of Dao. What’s more, he has integrated three Honorable Supreme Immortal Physiques solely with his power. He even possesses the Chaos Celestial Demon Physique, which is comparable to the Honorable Supreme Immortal Physique. What a monster!”

“Logically speaking, with so many powerful physiques in his body, they should’ve clashed long ago. How did he resolve these conflicts?”

The great ones were astonished, and the sky-prides had more or less guessed what Chu Kuangren was doing.

“Didn’t the Duality Rites Immortal Physique belong to Zhuo Donglai? However, since he has it now, it means he stole Zhuo Donglai’s Duality Rites Immortal Physique!”

“Think about it. Not only does he have Zhuo Donglai’s Duality Rites Immortal Physique but also Ye Zhu’s Green Leaf Sword Vision. Can he take others’ Honorable Supreme Immortal Physiques as his own?!”

“What kind of ability is that?!”

All sky-prides looked at Chu Kuangren and felt like they were looking at the most incredible object in the universe.

His Duality Rites Immortal Physique was a great shock to them.

However, it was not the Duality Rites Immortal Physique that shocked them but the secret cultivation technique that Chu Kuangren had never revealed behind the Duality Rites Immortal Physique!

On the other hand, Chu Kuangren did not care that his secret ability to analyze physiques was exposed. After all, it would eventually be revealed once he used various physiques.

Besides, although his Physique Dao was terrifying, it was not his only trump card.

Therefore, the exposure of one trump card would not hurt him too much.

“Can your Fire God Avatar resist the combination of the Duality Rites and Fusang Tree?” asked Chu Kuangren.

Suddenly, the Duality Rites Yin Yang Symbol that covered the sky crashed downward!

It was not the pure Duality Rites Immortal Physique but a Duality Rites Yin Yang Symbol that combined the Fusang energy, which was even more horrifying than a single divine ability!

After sensing the powerful energy, Fire Boy started to panic. He yelled and channeled his Immortal’s Core to its limit. In response, the Zhurong Avatar, which was formed by the Kumadhi Divine Flame, raised its palms to the sky and stood proudly to stop the Duality Rites Yin Yang Symbol!

Boom!

An explosion erupted in the void, and the shocking impact led to the explosion of a planet in space!

The Zhurong Avatar could not help but kneel when the Yin Yang Symbol landed on him!

“D*mn it. D*mn it!”

“How could this happen? I’ve successfully cultivated the Kumadhi Divine Flame. How could you still overpower me?!” Fire Boy roared with dissatisfaction.

However, Chu Kuangren ignored him and pressed his palm lightly in Fire Boy’s direction!

In an instant, the Yin Yang energy surged, and the Duality Rites Symbol radiated with billions of Immortal Sparks!

Under the impact of that attack, the Zhurong Avatar’s body cracked while countless Daoist patterns broke. With that, the Zhurong Avatar began to collapse!

“Block it!”

Fire Boy roared and channeled his Immortal’s Core. Unfortunately, although he was much stronger than before, he was still defeated by the Duality Rites Yin Yang Symbol!

With the Zhurong Avatar collapsing, the Yin Yang energy crashed onto Fire Boy. His entire body was smashed into the void, and his body was almost broken!

“We shall end here,” Chu Kuangren said calmly.

As he raised his hands, Yin Yang energy appeared in his palms, and a black and white-interweaving light beam was ready to be released!

It was the Duality Rites Immortal Physique’s second divine ability, Divine Yinyang Rejuvenation Light!

“This is bad!”

Fire Boy’s expression changed as he knew that he would not be able to resist the attack.

He immediately mobilized the Kumadhi Divine Flame, which contained an even more terrifying might this time.

The colorful divine flame burned in the air like a colorful fireball with countless Daoist patterns surrounding it, which was dazzling.

“This is the flame tinder of the Kumadhi Divine Flame!”

King Dushi’s successor was surprised.

“This can be regarded as the source of Fire Boy’s strength. If this flame tinder dies, then his painstaking cultivation of the Divine Flame Art will be in vain,” King Songdi’s successor said while looking at Chu Kuangren with fear and amazement.

To be able to force a Prodigy to that degree, Chu Kuangren’s strength reminded him of the most powerful King Yanluo’s successor of the Ten Hellion Temple Kings!

“Even if King Qin’guang’s successor faces Chu Kuangren, I’m afraid he will lose to him. Perhaps only the powerful King Yanluo’s successor can defeat Chu Kuangren.”

Although King Qin’guang’s successor and King Yanluo’s successor were both Prodigies, the latter was more powerful.

However, King Songdi’s successor did not know that the Chu Kuangren before him was merely a clone. Otherwise, he would not have said so.

“Chu Kuangren, I’ll fight you to death!”

Fire Boy controlled the Kumadhi Divine Flame and unleashed it toward Chu Kuangren.

The flame tinder’s might of the Kumadhi Divine Flame was so frightening that just a sliver could make the void collapse and distort.

Even Chu Kuangren’s clone also felt a little intimidated.

“Not bad. It seems like giving you so much time to grow your strength was a good decision. Now, the Kumadhi Divine Flame has finally caught my eye!”

With a smile, Chu Kuangren released the Divine Yinyang Rejuvenation Light from his hands!

The Rejuvenation Light flooded out while the black and white light illuminated the sky in all directions!

Wherever the Rejuvenation Light went, Daoist patterns interweaved while the Yin Yang energy surged in the universe. Everyone was amazed!

In just an instant, the Rejuvenation Light collided with the flame tinder of the Kumadhi Divine Flame!

The terrifyingly loud noise reverberated in the sky while the flame currents and Yin Yang energy swept out, turning a radius of ten thousand kilometers into a frightening sea of Yin Yang flames!

That energy made all the sky-prides retreat!

The moment the Rejuvenation Light collided with the divine flame, the Kumadhi Divine Flame erupted, and nine different types of divine flames spread out!

Those were all kinds of divine flames that Fire Boy had collected over the years.

Among them, the most powerful was undoubtedly the Violet Emperor Burning Heavenly Flame that he had just refined.

Unfortunately, those divine fires were now separated.

“Chu Kuangren, don’t you want divine flames? I’ll give them all to you!”

Fire Boy attacked Chu Kuangren by manipulating the nine scattered divine flames toward his opponent while he turned around and escaped!

“Heh. What a quick decision you’ve made.”

Chapter 1332: Disappointing, Holy Violet Emperor Planet Opening

The Fusang Tree’s branch in Chu Kuangren’s hand extended into a wall and blocked the divine flame from all directions.

Then, he released his own golden red Phoenix Flame from his body.

If it were the real Kumadhi Divine Flame that consisted of nine different divine flames, the clone’s display of the Crimson Lotus Phoenix Flame would not be enough to overpower it. However, it was more than enough to overpower the Kumadhi Divine Flame, which had been separated.

The Phoenix’s Flame overpowered the Kumadhi Divine Flame and engulfed it whole before it was absorbed into the Enchanted Sleeve’s space.

As for Fire Boy, Chu Kuangren did not give chase.

“I’ll leave you to find the locations of all thirty-three divine flames from the map.” Chu Kuangren smiled.

He believed that with Fire Boy's persistent personality, the latter would not give up that easily. Fire Boy would definitely go after the other divine flames, acquire them, and then come back for revenge.

Until then, Chu Kuangren's Phoenix Flame would be able to absorb more fodder to power up.

To Chu Kuangren, Fire Boy was just a mere tool.

"As for you..." Chu Kuangren looked at Huang Yuyi coldly. "You're useless now."

Huang Yuyi was still engaged in a battle with Fu Yin when she sensed Chu Kuangren's killer gaze. Frightened, her face turned as pale as snow, and when she realized Fire Boy had fled, she lost the will to continue the battle.

"Retreat!"

She pushed Fu Yin away with a palm strike and tried to flee.

However, escaping from Chu Kuangren was impossible.

Countless silver Daoist patterns spread and scattered from Chu Kuangren, enveloping the realm in seconds. Then, powerful spacetime energy emanated from the Daoist patterns and sealed the void.

The powerful boundaries sealed all of Huang Yuyi's escape routes.

"No!" Overwhelmed by fear, Huang Yuyi reverted to her true form.

A huge Godly Phoenix soared to the sky and expanded its wings, which spewed immense Phoenix Flame and burned everything that it touched.

When the Phoenix's Flame attacked the silver Daoist patterns containing the spacetime energy, the collision released powerful shockwaves that rippled across the void like a rock hurled into a calm lake.

Surprisingly, the silvery Daoist patterns started to shake.

"Your powers have definitely increased after absorbing all that divine flames, but alas, you have no power to resist before me," Chu Kuangren said nonchalantly.

The moment he cast the Divine Yinyang Rejuvenation Light, black and white light gushed forward like a tidal wave and perforated Huang Yuyi's heart.

A devastating cry later, Huang Yuyi's Immortal body cracked.

Various streams of divine flames escaped from her cracked body. They were the divine flames that she refined earlier.

There were a total of six divine flames that escaped, and all of them were sucked into Chu Kuangren's Enchanted Sleeve.

"Chu Kuangren! The Phoenix Maidens and Phoenix Bachelors from the Phoenix's Nest won't let you go so easily!" Huang Yuyi cried out unwillingly.

After that, the Godly Phoenix fell from the sky and died.

Chu Kuangren was not at all bothered by her threats. He looked at the dead Godly Phoenix and said, "I wonder if you can go through Nirvana again this time."

The Godly Phoenix's Nirvana only had a very slim chance of happening.

If Huang Yuyi could perform Nirvana for the second time, even Chu Kuangren would have to acknowledge her luck.

He used his Immortal Consciousness to scan the void carefully but did not find any traces of Huang Yuyi.

It seemed like she was truly dead this time.

Chu Kuangren kept her pearl and sword once more. He put the pearl and sword for auction a while ago, and now they were in his possession once more.

In that case, he might as well put them for auction again.

Aside from the pearl and sword, Huang Yuyi and Fire Boy also searched for the divine flames for him, which granted him a harvest.

"Well then, anyone else?" Chu Kuangren said while looking at the starry sky.

The successors of the Underworld, as well as cultivators from the Heavenly Dao Sect and Demonic Dao Sect, all heard him.

They were all from forces that had grudges against him, so he would not be surprised if all of them decided to team up against him.

Although only a clone, Chu Kuangren was not afraid of fighting all of them.

However, the Heavenly Champions and sky-prides exchanged a cautious look among themselves, deterred from fighting him.

They might resent Chu Kuangren, but neither one of them dared to act recklessly.

It was hard for them to admit that Chu Kuangren's strength had far surpassed theirs, but it was the fact.

"Now is not the time. We have to wait for King Qin'guang's successor before we fight him."

Both King Dushi's successor and King Songdi's successor shared the same thought.

Heavenly Daoist Di stared at Chu Kuangren with her beautiful eyes. Her killing intent tried to take over, but she managed to suppress her urge and not act recklessly.

"I might be a Prodigy, but Chu Kuangren is definitely stronger than me. Both Huang Yuyi and Fire Boy are not his match even when they teamed up. I'll have to wait for Heavenly Daoist Tian before doing anything crazy."

The Underworld's successor and Heavenly Daoist Di dared not be rash.

In the meantime, the sky-prides from the Demonic Dao Sect were horrified as well. They might have the advantage of numbers, but numbers alone were not enough to fuel their battle intent.

All the sky-prides feared the figure in white.

Chu Kangren stood under the starry sky, gazing up into space nonchalantly. After no one decided to make a move on him, he scoffed. "Disappointing."

Then, he glanced at the girl in the center of the sea of equinox flowers with a hint of surprise.

She had a unique yet outstanding aura.

He stared at the girl named Hua Wuai and somehow had a feeling that he would lose if he fought the girl with his clone.

"Interesting. A sky-pride that my clone can't defeat? It seems like she's a terrifying existence among the Prodigies, but why have I never heard of the girl before this?"

"Equinox flower... Is she from the Equinox Tribe? I once heard about a Maiden Sage in the tribe. Could it be her?" Chu Kuangren was intrigued.

Unfortunately, his true self was not around, or he could use Lil Ai to scan her from top to bottom.

While Chu Kuangren sized up Hua Wuai, the girl also looked at him with her ruby eyes.

Chu Kuangren looked away after a quick glance and wanted to leave.

That made the Underworld's successors a little disappointed.

"Too bad. I was looking forward to their fight."

"Yeah. Hua Wuai can probably defeat Chu Kuangren."

"We just have to sit back and watch."

The two of them lamented.

At the same time, an ancient planet one lightyear away started to shine with violet light.

Countless Daoist patterns formed on the surface of the planet, and they emanated a noble energy fluctuation.

Many sky-prides noticed the fluctuations.

"What is that?"

"That planet... Has an Opportunity of Fortune emerged?"

Chu Kuangren also noticed the planet shining in violet before he left, and he was intrigued. "It seems like there might be more to this trip."

The ancient planet shone brightly, lighting up the space around it.

It also became the brightest star in that corner of the galaxy.

A never-before-seen energy fluctuation spread from the center of the ancient planet and shrouded the sky.

Its light captivated everyone's attention.

Some of the ancient great ones noticed the phenomenon as well.

“The Holy Violet Emperor Planet is opening!”

Chapter 1333: Shi Tianxuan’s Ambition, All Prodigies’ Actions

Holy Violet Emperor Planet had opened!

Boundless violet light shone across every corner of the galaxy, lighting up the entire Interstellar Arena, and every cultivator saw that blinding purple light in the sky.

With the opening of Holy Violet Emperor Planet, the entire Interstellar Arena was abuzz.

Unlike Terraglyph Planet or Heavenly Celeste Star, the Holy Violet Emperor Planet had many titles to it, such as the Emperor’s Planet, the Lord of Stars, the Unchanging Galaxy, and more.

All the titles given to the planet showed how special it was.

One of the Six Royals of the ancient Immortal Hall, the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor, named himself after the planet, and it was said that he was the embodiment of the planet itself.

In short, the Holy Violet Emperor Planet was the noblest in all of the Immortal World.

Now, with the planet opening up, no one knew how many or what kind of Opportunities of Fortune lay hidden on its land. The temptation was undeniably deadly to all of the cultivators in Interstellar Arena.

“Holy Violet Emperor Planet has finally opened up!”

“Hahaha! The oldest and noblest planet, huh? I wonder what kinds of Opportunities of Fortune lie there. It’s exciting.”

Somewhere in the galaxy stood a man in violet robes. Every action he performed screamed of nobility, and he looked at the Holy Violet Emperor Planet showed a hint of curiosity.

“Holy Violet Emperor Planet has finally opened up. I have searched the galaxy and returned fruitless, so it seems that the thing I seek lies within that planet... The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor’s Embodier Artifact will be mine!”

The man was the Holy Violet Imperial Commander, who was also the successor of Holy Violet Immortal Emperor.

In order to rival Chu Kuangren, he had been searching every corner of the galaxy for the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor’s Embodier Artifact, and there was a high chance that it lay within that planet.

After all, both men shared the same name and had unsevered ties.

The jade talisman at his waist suddenly buzzed with a message.

“Oh, Fire Boy has been defeated and has lost the Kumadhi Divine Flame.”

The Holy Violet Imperial Commander pondered and then shook his head. “It seems like I have to deal with Chu Kuangren myself.”

...

Meanwhile, a violent murderous qi shot up into the sky on another ancient planet and shook the universe.

A man in black robes enveloped in rumbling demonic qi and wielding a black spear stood above the mountain of bodies.

He was Shi Tianxuan, the strongest Heavenly Champion of the Demonic Dao Sect.

He glared in the direction of Holy Violet Emperor Planet and murmured, "The Emperor Planet has opened. I believe the oldest and noblest planet will attract your presence, Chu Kuangren."

Killing intent overflowed from his eyes when he thought of Chu Kuangren.

The black spear in his hand was trembling, releasing a terrifying and unmatched murderous qi that felt like it could slay gods and deities.

"Godkiller Spear, I see you're excited as well. You'll be reunited with the Black Annihilation Lotus once we kill Chu Kuangren. Then, the two biggest treasures of Demonic Forefather Luo Hou will be in my possession, and the Demonic Dao will reign supreme over all realms!"

Shi Tianxuan's eyes shone with ambition.

He had a grand ambition to create a kingdom where the Demonic Dao reigned supreme. It would house all the Demonic Dao in one place, and with their help, he could conquer planets.

...

In a certain Immortal mountain was a woman with a voluptuous figure and porcelain skin bathing in a pool shimmering with Immortal Sparks.

The shimmering pool was the legendary Jade Pool, while the beautiful woman in the pool was the Maiden Sage of Jade Pool Sacred Land, Yu Zhi. She was also one of the well-known Prodigies in the Interstellar Arena.

"The Emperor Planet has opened up."

As Yu Zhi stared at the violet light shimmering in the sky, a hint of unusual emotion flashed in her eyes, and her lips curled into a smile.

"The West Ruler Matriarch's inheritance stated that she left a certain Opportunity of Fortune on Holy Violet Emperor Planet, and it might be able to help me complete the Holy Golden Jade Pool Physique that is written in the Jade Pool's Immortal Scripture!"

Holy Golden Jade Pool Physique was a powerful cultivation physique and also one of the ten Honorable Supreme Immortal Physiques.

It was the advanced version of her current Holy Jade Pool Physique.

Originally, it would be difficult for the Holy Jade Pool Physique to reach its advanced state even if she spent her life cultivating it. However, with the West Ruler Matriarch's inheritance and the Opportunity of Fortune hidden in the Holy Violet Emperor Planet, it was possible!

"Having the West Ruler Matriarch's inheritance made me a Prodigy, and if I can achieve the Holy Golden Jade Pool Physique, I can become one of the top-notch Prodigies! Until then, even if I'm still not Brother Chu's match, the gap between us will shorten."

The thought of Chu Kuangren aroused anticipation in her.

"Brother Chu will surely go to the Holy Violet Emperor Planet. I wonder how he's doing now?"

...

Kaboom!

A deafening bang echoed in space as a planet exploded.

A three-legged golden crow emerged from the rubbles of the planet, and the cosmic flare from the explosion was absorbed into its body.

The terrifying planetary flame could burn a Heavenly Immortal into crisp upon contact, yet they were absorbed into the golden crow's body.

Not only did the flame not burn its body, but it also refined the absorbed flame.

Some sky-prides passing by noticed the explosion and gasped in shock.

"What a terrifying golden crow!"

"If I remember correctly, this golden crow is the Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather of the Golden Crow Heavenly Mountains!"

"I heard he was created with a drop of blood essence from the Golden Crow Forefather, hence the name Pseudo-Forefather. He is as powerful as the Kunlun Immortal Hall's Imperial Commander and the Divine Daoists of Eastern Sovereign Immortal Hall. He's said to be one of the most powerful Prodigies in the Interstellar Arena, and I believe he lives up to the rumor."

Amidst the shocking gasps, the Golden Crow shone in a golden light and transformed into a man in golden robes.

The handsome man had a ring of golden light on his back that shimmered with Immortal Sparks. Its light traveled across millions of kilometers, granting him a holistic presence.

The cultivators who saw the blinding scene could already feel the pressure coming from the light.

"The Emperor Planet has opened, and I have mastered the Rising Sun Ring. Then, it's time I go after Chu Kuangren," murmured the Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather.

The Golden Crow King had used the bodies of a hundred Golden Crow sky-prides to forge that particular vessel for him, and he promised the Forefather that he would deal with Chu Kuangren.

Now, it was time to keep his end of the promise.

...

A black light soared across the starry sky.

It left a trail of eerie darkness in its wake, turning the space into ghastly domains.

Upon closer look, there was a handsome man within the flying black light, and he was shrouded in powerful samsara energy.

"He's the successor of King Qin'guang from the Underworld Palace!"

Some sky-prides recognized the man in the black light and reacted with a grim expression.

The successor of King Qin'guang was also a Prodigy.

"He's going to the Holy Violet Emperor Planet as well!"

"Every Prodigy is restless now that the Emperor Planet has opened up."

...

Blazing Heavenly Dao energy shook the starry universe while a man in white robes and rigid features made his way to the Holy Violet Emperor Planet.

Each step he took released a surge of powerful Heavenly Dao energy, and smaller planets caught in its energy fluctuation crumbled.

His power was immeasurable!

"Chu Kuangren, it's time to settle the debts between you and the Heavenly Dao Sect once and for all."

The man was the strongest Heavenly Champion of the Heavenly Dao Sect, Heavenly Daoist Tian.

On his trip to the Holy Violet Emperor Planet, other than searching for Opportunities of Fortune for himself, he was also there to kill Chu Kuangren to avenge the Heavenly Dao Sect and the fallen Heavenly Daoists.

Chapter 1334: Entering Emperor Planet, Golden Scale King, Take It Away

Back at Heavenly Ancient Heavenly Planet, Chu Kuangren's true self also noticed the opening of Holy Violet Emperor Planet.

"Holy Violet Emperor Planet, huh? It seems like a lot of sky-prides are going there."

"Brother Chu, Three Clarity Daoist Sect requires my presence there, and I'll have to head to the Holy Violet Emperor Planet," Ye Zhu said as he bowed with a fist salute.

Not all of the Three Clarity Daoist Sect was with Ye Zhu, so now that the Holy Violet Emperor Planet had opened up, all forces would definitely send someone there, including the Three Clarity Daoist Sect.

All the disciples and sky-prides were heading to that planet, and as the Elder Senior Brother, Ye Zhu must be there to guide and lead his juniors.

“Be careful, Brother Ye. May fate bring us together again at the Holy Violet Emperor Planet.” Chu Kuangren smiled.

After Ye Zhu left, Lin Qiu, Ming Yifeng, and the other Pseudo Celestial Demon cultivators planned to leave as well.

“Now that the Holy Violet Emperor Planet has appeared, the other cultivators from the Celestial Demon Tribe must be rushing there for Opportunities of Fortune. My King, we’ll make a move first and open the way for you,” Ming Yifeng said respectfully.

After being defeated by Chu Kuangren, he was completely convinced by the former’s strength and held the utmost respect for the man.

He was arrogant and proud before because he had never witnessed Chu Kuangren’s strength and refused to simply recognize his identity based on his Immortal Physique. Now that he had acknowledged Chu Kuangren’s strength, he respected the man more than anyone.

“Very well. Please be careful.”

Chu Kuangren did not hold them back. He, too, had to bring Cao Yun and the others from the academy to the Holy Violet Emperor Planet.

After all, he was still the Hundred Academy’s Chief.

“My clone is quite close to Holy Violet Emperor Planet, so I can send him there first,” Chu Kuangren murmured.

...

The opening of Holy Violet Emperor Planet attracted various forces. All the sky-prides and even Prodigies made their way there.

Chu Kuangren’s clone and Fu Yin would never let the chance to secure more Opportunities of Fortune slip either as they were closer to the planet.

Chu Kuangren and Fu Yin performed multiple spatial jumps using his Spatial Conveyor Skill and arrived above Holy Violet Emperor Planet.

The shimmering light had dimmed, but its surface remained covered in countless mystical Daoist patterns.

The planet was many times bigger than Heavenly Celeste Star and Terraglyph Planet.

The sheer size alone dwarfed its neighboring planets, making them look like specks of sand.

“Let’s go.”

Chu Kuangren and Fu Yin transformed into a stream of light and flew toward one of the continents on the planet.

They flew past countless Daoist patterns before arriving on the planet’s surface, where the land was filled with spiritual qi and mystical Dao fluctuations.

The Holy Violet Emperor Planet's environment was much better for cultivation than other planets. Aside from other benefits, cultivating in this planet's environment alone could already produce many Opportunities of Fortune.

"Should I say as expected of the Lord of the planet?" Chu Kuangren chuckled.

He utilized his Immortal Consciousness, covering millions of kilometers of ground.

"Let's go."

Chu Kuangren brought Fu Yin to a waterfall.

The gigantic waterfall felt like it was pouring down from heaven. The deafening crashes from the water could be heard a thousand kilometers away.

Aquatic beasts were swimming in the rapid current.

However, the deep blue Immortal Crystal hidden in the waterfall was the Opportunity of Fortune in the area.

The Immortal Crystal that floated in the waterfall contained intense water energy fluctuation. In fact, the crashing water did not dampen its shimmering Immortal Sparks. It even released its noise of crashing waves as though it contained an ocean within itself.

Chu Kuangren had found his target.

'This Immortal Crystal's water energy can benefit my clone,' he thought.

The clone of his was forged using the Fusang Tree's wood.

According to the Five Ways, the Fusang Tree's wood attribute would greatly benefit from the water element.

In that case, the Immortal Crystal could nourish the Fusang Tree-made body and elevate his strength closer to his true self's level.

With that thought in mind, he channeled his Immortal Core's energy to form a giant hand and reached out to grab the Immortal Crystal.

It was then that a pillar of water shot up from the lake underneath the waterfall and crushed his Immortal's Core energy.

"How dare you reach out for the treasure of the waterfall?"

A cold voice sounded.

A fish-headed beast emerged from the water and glared at Chu Kuangren. Judging from the dense yokai qi it emanated, its power should rival that of True Immortal.

Following the beast's appearance, more fish-headed beasts came out from the water and stared at Chu Kuangren. Their combined yokai qi filled the sky.

"Human, this is an act of provocation!"

“Hmph! The Immortal Crystal belongs to the Golden Scale King! How dare you want it for yourself?”

The Golden Scale King was the strongest yokai beast and the ruler of the lake.

It had been eyeing the Immortal Crystal for a while now.

“You’re just a few yokai, and you dare to stop me?”

Chu Kuangren was not bothered by the aquatic yokai. Hence, he raised his hand and activated the Duality Rites Immortal Physique’s divine ability.

Following that, black and white intertwined in the air and transformed into a giant Duality Rites Yin Yang Symbol.

The Yin Yang Symbol circulated in the air and overpowered all the aquatic yokais’ yokai qi.

Bang! Bang!

The smaller aquatic yokai were either crushed by the Yin Yang energy or blasted back into the water.

“He’s so powerful! He must be a sky-pride!”

“D*mn it! Why is this human so powerful?”

Fear made their already ferocious looks even more terrifying.

“How audacious!”

Suddenly, the lake trembled.

A huge pillar of water shimmering in gold shot up into the sky.

Amidst the golden light, a golden carp fish jumped out from the pillar of water and transformed into a formidable-looking man in golden armor.

His eyes were lightning sharp, and his yokai qi instantly shadowed heaven and earth.

His cultivation level had reached the Second-grade True Immortal Realm.

Even Fu Yin, who possessed the Fusang Tree’s power and the Mystical Nether Flame, felt pressured by the man’s presence.

“Oh, it looks like you’re the Golden Scale King,” Chu Kuangren said.

“Human, this treasure is mine. How dare you reach out for it? Are you not afraid of death?” the Golden Scale King said coldly.

After that, he lifted his hand and launched a palm strike forward. His intense yokai qi transformed into a golden palm sign that blasted toward Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren continued channeling Duality Rites Yin Yang Symbol and negated the palm strike. “Oh, if it’s yours, why don’t you take it away?”

“You...”

Upon hearing that, the Golden Scale King's expression changed, and he was soon rendered speechless.

It was obvious that he could not take the Immortal Crystal away.

"There are restriction seals around the Immortal Crystals, and you can't get it with your current level. If you can't get it, how could it be yours?"

Chu Kuangren stood with his hands behind his back. "Leave now, and I shall spare your life."

"Don't even think about it!"

The Golden Scale King's face was reluctant to let it go. He had been eyeing the Immortal Crystal for many years, so how could he allow some outsider to just take it away from him?

A golden spear appeared in his hand, and his yokai qi erupted to a higher level. He was prepared to fight Chu Kuangren with his full strength.

"Fool!"

Chu Kuangren raised his hand and summoned countless images of other beasts around him, such as the chimera, avarice, sabertooth, Kui bull, and more.

The presence of the summoned beasts made the place a paradise for the wild beasts, while Chu Kuangren was the supreme Yokai King that commanded countless beasts with a single thought.

"How is this possible?!"

The Golden Scale King was awestruck and deeply astonished by the scene.

Chapter 1335: God Is Merciful, The Academy's Heavenly Champion, Shi Ying

Astonished by the countless yokai beast mimicries, the Golden Scale King plunged into disbelief.

A human having the ability to conjure so many yokai beasts in such liveliness was beyond comprehension. Not just one or two, or a hundred, but there were almost tens of thousands of yokai beasts behind him.

What was more, some of them were ancient mythical and wild beasts.

It was inconceivable even as a thought.

It was the Divine Myriad Yokai Mimicry Technique, Myriad Yokai Diagram!

The terrifying yokai beast mimicries brought forth an endless stream of yokai qi, of which its terrifying might shook the heavens and earth.

At that moment, the void shattered.

The Golden Scale King was blasted into the bottom of the lake, and the impact almost crushed him.

However, the Myriad Yokai Diagram did not stop there as its terrifying might and indomitable force proceeded to attack the Immortal Crystal in the waterfall.

Boom!

A loud explosion broke the restriction seals around the Immortal Crystals, but the inner layer of restriction seals remained.

It was no wonder the Golden Scale King could not get the Immortal Crystal even with his Second-grade True Immortal cultivation level. The restriction seals around the Immortal Crystal were powerful.

Moreover, when Chu Kuangren attacked the restriction seals, it countered with a blast of blue light. The blue light agitated the spiritual qi in the area, absorbed them, and transformed them into a tidal wave as big as a tsunami that crashed onto Chu Kuangren.

A splash from the tidal wave shattered the void!

It turned out that the restriction seal had the capability to counterattack!

“Hmph. Just a restriction seal and you dare to defy me?”

Chu Kuangren chuckled. Then, Yin Yang energy rose to the sky and intertwined in the void, forming the mighty and vast Divine Rejuvenation Light.

It was the second divine ability of Duality Rites Immortal Physique, Duality Rites Divine Rejuvenation Light!

The divine light was blasted at the blue light, which it perforated before crashing onto the Immortal Crystal’s restriction seal.

Crack!

The restriction seal cracked, and the blue light faded.

Chu Kuangren transformed his Immortal’s Core energy into a giant hand to grab the Immortal Crystal and put it into the space within the Enchanted Sleeve.

“Let’s go,” Chu Kuangren said.

The remaining yokai were so astonished and horrified by the scene that none of them dared to stop Chu Kuangren from leaving.

After Chu Kuangren left, someone else arrived at the lake.

The yokai of the lake had yet to recover from their fear of Chu Kuangren, so the second person who arrived startled and shocked them.

However, when they had a clear look at the person, they sighed a breath of relief.

It was a beautiful woman in white robes holding a porcelain white vase.

The woman had fair skin and delicate facial features that emanated a peaceful aura. Her innocent presence made the yokai think that she was harmless.

“Hmph! Another human? Do you really think this is a place where you can come and go as you wish?”

“Go away!”

One of the yokai wanted to vent his grievance that he felt from Chu Kuangren on the woman, so he threw a palm strike at her.

The woman stood still and allowed the yokai to attack freely.

At the next moment, golden Buddhist Light radiated around her body.

The powerful yokai qi from the yokai melted away like snow in spring, and the Buddhist Light purified the yokai whole.

The yokai's eyes shrunk in fear.

He could not believe it.

Before he could wrap his head around the situation, the Buddhist Light had enveloped him whole and disintegrated him into nothing. Not even his corpse was left.

Everything went quiet for a moment.

The other yokai were stunned by the scene. Everything that had happened today felt surreal and unbelievable.

The humans looked harmless, yet one was stronger than the other.

The handsome man in white robes just left after taking the Immortal Crystal, and now the woman in white who resembled a Bodhisattva obliterated one of them with Buddhist Light.

Had some calamitous luck befallen them?

"Amitabha. Did someone else pass by this lake?"

A quick pause later, the woman felt like she was not being clear enough, so she added, "The man would've left an impression on you if you saw him."

One of the yokai said, "Does the man wear white robes, control the power of Yin and Yang, and conjure mimicries of countless yokai beasts?"

"Conjure the mimicries of countless yokai beasts? That sounds like him."

The woman in white knew Chu Kuangren's Divine Myriad Yokai Mimicry Technique and had seen it before with her own eyes. Other than him, she had never seen someone else use it.

"Where did he go?"

"There," the yokai said as he pointed in the direction where Chu Kuangren left.

"Alright. Thank you." The woman nodded politely.

A golden figure then emerged from the lake; it was a dying golden carp.

The woman narrowed her eyes at the scene. "The carp seems to possess some of the True Dragon's bloodline, and it has quite the talent. Fine. God is merciful, I shall save you this one time."

She waved, and the Golden Scale King's body turned into a stream of gold light that was absorbed into the porcelain vase in her hand.

After that, she continued her search for Chu Kuangren.

"Chu Kuangren, I shall determine if you're the one who will destroy us Buddhists."

...

Chu Kuangren and Fu Yin had been exploring the planet for a while now, but they had not run into any noteworthy Opportunities of Fortune.

As such, he decided to settle down and refine the water-elemental Immortal Crystal first.

Fu Yin was in charge guarding him while he entered close-door meditation.

Half a month went by.

On that particular day, Fu Yin, who was on guard duty, sensed something further away.

She sensed energy fluctuation coming from far away, seemingly from a battle.

Moreover, the energy fluctuation was approaching her rapidly.

"Who's that?"

Surprised and curious, Fu Yin mobilized her Immortal Consciousness, only to find that a beautiful woman in white was being chased by two yokai beasts.

The woman was quite powerful herself as a Ninth-grade Heavenly Immortal, but the beasts chasing her were much more powerful, almost nearing the level of a True Immortal.

The woman was fleeing in the direction of Fu Yin and Chu Kuangren.

"Should I help?" Fu Yin hesitated.

She was not a busybody, but if she left the matter unattended, the beasts might disturb Chu Kuangren's cultivation.

At that thought, her figure flashed, and she flew toward the beasts. She said coldly, "Leave now!"

The Fusang Tree's power erupted and terrified the two beasts, sending them scuttling away.

"Oh my god! Where did that Prodigy come from? She can control the Fusang Tree's power!"

"Scary!"

The two beasts grumbled as they fled for their lives.

The woman in white sighed a breath of relief after escaping danger. Then, she expressed her gratitude by saying, "I'm Shi Ying from the Hundred Academy. Thank you for saving me."

Fu Yin originally planned to send the woman on her way. However, when she learned her identity, she furrowed her brows.

"You're from the Hundred Academy?"

"Yeah."

After that, Shi Ying suddenly spat a mouthful of blood. It looked like she was injured from fleeing earlier.

"Take this pill. It will help you recover," Fu Yin said as she offered Shi Ying a pill.

If Shi Ying was from the Hundred Academy, Fu Yin could not just leave her.

Chu Kuangren was the Hundred Academy's Chief, after all.

"Thank you."

Shi Ying took the pill.

For safety's sake, Fu Yin did not bring Shi Ying back to where Chu Kuangren cultivated. Instead, she brought Shi Ying to a nearby yet seclusive spot and settled her down.

Chapter 1336: Demonic Bull Revenge, Shi Ying Guarding With Her Life, The Chief?!

After Fu Yin helped Shi Ying settle down, she immediately returned to her guarding duty.

She and Chu Kuangren had set up restriction seals around the place, so even if she was absent for a while, no harm could get to him.

Nevertheless, seeing the restriction seals intact when she returned relieved her concerns.

Three days later, Fu Yin suddenly sensed a vigorous yokai qi coming toward her, and its power somehow pressured Fu Yin.

Mountains started to shake as a green demonic bull charged forward, leaving a dust storm in its trail.

Behind the demonic bull were several other yokai, two of which were the ones who chased Shi Ying a few days ago and were scared off by Fu Yin.

Fu Yin knew that they were back for revenge.

"This is troublesome." Fu Yin frowned.

"Outsider, how dare you hurt my kin! You have a death wish!" The demonic bull roared and unleashed a stronger surge of yokai qi forward that crashed onto Fu Yin.

Many races lived on Holy Violet Emperor Planet, and they were the natives who deemed people like Fu Yin, Chu Kuangren, the sky-prides, and the Heavenly Champions who came to search for Opportunities of Fortune outsiders.

"You're the one with the death wish!" Fu Yin stepped forward and unleashed her Fusang Tree's power to form a golden-red ancient tree in the void that was bathed in Immortal Sparks. The Yin Yang's energy erupted from the tree and trembled the land.

"The Fusang Tree's power? And this aura... You are a Heavenly Champion!"

The demonic bull's eyes lit up as it looked at Fu Yin before it cackled. "This is great! If I get the will of the Immortal World from you, I will be a Heavenly Champion as well! I will use it to join the Battle of the Heavenly Champions and become the ruler of the Immortal World!"

The natives of Holy Violet Emperor Planet knew about the Battle of the Heavenly Champions, but not a single race could produce their Heavenly Champion because the planet had been sealed off until now.

Now that the sky-prides and Heavenly Champions had access to the planet, it also gave the native sky-prides a chance to become Heavenly Champions.

If they could acquire the will of the Immortal World from the foreign Heavenly Champions, they could break free from the shackles of the planet and join the Battle of the Heavenly Champions for a chance to become the ruler of the Immortal World.

"You will have to give it your best shot to take the will of the Immortal World from me."

Fu Yin could not care less about the will of the Immortal World because to her, the future ruler of the Immortal World could only be Chu Kuangren.

Having or losing the will of the Immortal World did not matter to her. However, it did not mean she would give it away willingly.

"Let's find out!" The demonic bull roared and unleashed its yokai qi at Fu Yin.

The Fusang Tree behind Fu Yin countered with powerful Yin Yang energy.

As the two different energies clashed, the mountain ridges in the area were crushed.

Even Chu Kuangren's cultivation ground was affected, but fortunately, nothing too serious happened to the restriction seals

"Haha. You seemed to care about the person inside. Who is that? Is that another Heavenly Champion?" the demonic bull cackled.

Then, it sent the other yokai into Chu Kuangren's cultivation ground.

Fu Yin tried to stop the yokai, but the demonic bull held her back.

"I'm the opponent you're looking for!"

The demonic bull's cultivation level had broken through to the True Immortal Realm, and it would be undeniably considered a Prodigy in the Interstellar Arena.

It would not be easy for Fu Yin to take it out instantly. However, since Chu Kuangren was in closed-door mediation, she had to give it her best even if he was just a clone.

"I must stop them before they break the restriction seals!"

Terrifying killing intent shot out from Fu Yin's gaze. With help from the Fusang Tree, a ball of gray fire appeared on her palm.

It was the Mystical Nether Flame!

Fu Yin utilized both the Godly Tree and mystical flame, unleashing the full combat strength of a Prodigy to fight the demonic bull.

“You’re really powerful! Hahaha! Roar!”

As the demonic bull roared, its eyes turned red, and its yokai qi surged.

It had activated its divine ability, Bloodline Berserk, which could strengthen his combat strength temporarily.

The clash between two Prodigies shook heaven and trembled the land.

Meanwhile, a group of yokai charged toward Chu Kuangren’s cultivation ground. They blasted their yokai qi forward, attempting to break the restriction seals.

However, before they could break through, someone descended from the sky and stopped them.

It was Shi Ying, whom Fu Yin saved a few days ago.

The Immortal Sword that Shi Ying wielded waved about, and her sword qi soared in the air to stop the advancing yokai.

“Oh, it’s you!”

One of the yokai was surprised by Shi Ying’s appearance, but the surprise on its face was quickly replaced by a ferocious grin. “Great. You got lucky the other day, and now I will kill you to make up for the loss!”

The group of yokai unleashed their yokai qi and blasted Shi Ying away. The attack injured her, but she did not back away.

“You shall not pass!” Shi Ying shouted determinedly.

1

She had no idea why Fu Yin wanted to protect the place, but she knew it must be something important to her.

Since she was in debt to Fu Yin, she ought to help protect the place.

“Hmph! You alone?” the yokai mocked.

They channeled their yokai qi in their body and cast multiple yokai techniques.

“Three-layered Sword Barrier!” Shi Ying shouted as she swung her sword in a flurry.

Sword qi intertwined in the air and formed three layers of barriers.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

When the yokai qi crashed onto the sword qi barriers, the barriers shook violently.

Unfortunately, her barrier lasted for less than a second before they were shattered and crumbled into multiple sword qi that scattered in all directions.

As a result, the yokai qi hit Shi Ying and blasted her backward with blood gushing out from her mouth.

“Shi Ying!”

Fu Yin was worried about Shi Ying, but the demonic bull prevented her from helping. Enraged, she channeled her powers to the limit and attacked the demonic bull furiously.

Outside the cultivation ground, Shi Ying was on her last breath as she swam in her own puddle of blood.

Despite being severely injured, she grasped onto her sword tightly and refused to step down.

Suddenly, a glimmer of Buddhist Light appeared on her body.

Although it was just a tiny glimmer, it scared the group of yokai present.

“Something is wrong with this girl.”

“Who cares. Just deal with her!”

The yokai attacked with their yokai techniques again, which shadowed the realm.

Just as the Buddhist Light in Shi Ying felt like it was bursting out for a second, it suddenly shrunk back into her body as though it was a mimosa leaf being touched.

Shi Ying was reaching her end when a vast Immortal’s Core energy blasted out from inside the cultivation ground.

In an instant, the countless yokai techniques dissipated.

“What happened?”

“Who’s that?”

The yokai were shocked.

As footsteps came from inside the cultivation ground, the restriction seals started to fade, and a figure in white emerged from within.

He had sharp eyes, handsome features, and an elegant and charming demeanor. It was as though he was a deity walking out of a painting.

“Who are you?” one of the yokai shouted.

The man in white did not answer.

However, the yokai that questioned him burst into a cloud of bloody mist in the next second.

Chu Kuangren had come out of closed-door mediation!

He walked to Shi Ying and looked at the unfamiliar girl who risked her life protecting him. He was rather shocked, to say the least.

On top of that, he could sense a strange aura in her.

Shi Ying was delighted to see Chu Kuangren. “Chief?”

The delight lasted for a second before she fell unconscious into Chu Kuangren's arms.

Chapter 1337: Chu Kuangren's Little Fan Girl, Am I Overthinking? The Nine-Layered Sword Barrier

A strange look appeared in Chu Kuangren's eyes as he looked at Shi Ying in his arms.

He sensed something weird from the woman.

She was surely not just a Ninth-grade Heavenly Immortal. However, that heartfelt joy she displayed upon seeing him could not be faked either.

Besides, how many people in the world would be willing to put their life on the line like her to protect someone else?

"What happened while I was in closed-door meditation? Where did this woman come from? Is she hiding something from us?" Chu Kuangren murmured.

Soon, he stopped thinking about it. The next time he met his true self, all her hidden secrets would all be exposed before the Omniscient Spirit anyway.

At that time, Chu Kuangren looked at the crowd of yokai before him coldly. "Do you have anything to say for disrupting my closed-door meditation?"

Every yokai cultivator shuddered with fear under Chu Kuangren's domineering aura!

Only one thought remained in their minds, and that was they had incurred the wrath of someone powerful!

"We have no choice but to fight him!"

"Attack!"

The crowd of yokai cultivators charged toward Chu Kuangren, unleashing a variety of their most powerful yokai techniques!

However, Chu Kuangren remained still.

He raised his hand and released the Yin Yang energy in the air to form a gigantic Duality Rites Yin Yang Symbol!

Under the might of the Yin Yang Symbol, the surges of yokai qi disintegrated, leaving Chu Kuangren unscathed!

On the contrary, the moment the Yin Yang Symbol crashed downward, its power crushed one yokai cultivator after another until they all exploded!

Countless yokai cultivators were crushed into dust!

Having defeated the bunch of yokai cultivators with one move, Chu Kuangren looked at the demonic bull that was battling with Fu Yin. He casually raised his arm, and as Yin Yang energy circulated in the void, it transformed into a colorful Divine Yin Yang Rejuvenation Light!

“Oh no!”

The demon bull became terrified upon sensing something while the battle was ongoing. Then, he turned and looked in Chu Kuangren’s direction.

A light beam formed by two intertwining black and white demonic lights were approaching him at lightning speed!

Soon, the light was everywhere, and its immense power made the demon bull shudder in fear!

“I must block this attack with my full power!”

The demon bull roared while channeling his Bloodline Berserk technique to its limit. Then, he punched forth, unleashing bursts of yokai qi that formed a giant black fist!

Boom!

The void was blasted open with a loud bang!

The divine light destroyed the black fist before heading straight toward the demon bull!

Feeling an unprecedented pressure engulfing him, the demon bull saw the black and white divine light heading toward him, filling his field of vision, until an immense pain spread all over his body!

The next instant, the demon bull lost consciousness!

From Fu Yin’s point of view, she saw Chu Kuangren releasing a divine light, which broke through the demon bull’s attack and blew him up into a mist of blood!

She had used up most of her strength while fighting that demon bull, yet Chu Kuangren defeated her opponent with one move.

‘He’s just too terrifyingly strong!’

Fu Yin gasped as she looked at Chu Kuangren with shock and horror.

“But he’s even stronger now!”

Compared to before the closed-door meditation, his clone had gotten a lot stronger after absorbing that Immortal Crystal.

‘Oh yeah, that’s just his clone...’

Fu Yin gasped. Only then did she remember that the Chu Kuangren before her was just his clone!

‘If his clone is so scary, how powerful is the real Chu Kuangren right now? He’s a monster!’

Fu Yin recalled that many sky-prides in the Interstellar Arena called Chu Kuangren a monster!

‘He truly lives up to that nickname!’

“Fu Yin, where did you find this woman?” Chu Kuangren asked Fu Yin.

He was talking about Shi Ying, who was laying in his arms.

“Master, she told me she’s from the Hundred Academy...”

Fu Yin then told Chu Kuangren everything.

Upon hearing that, Chu Kuangren started pondering. ‘How did a Hundred Academy cultivator appear here?’

“Oh well, I guess I’ll ask her when she wakes up.”

Chu Kuangren activated his Yin Yang Life and Death Symbol.

The Life and Death Symbol had a damage-reversing effect, so it instantly healed most of Shi Ying’s injuries. As to the remaining and more serious wounds, Chu Kuangren dealt with them with his advanced physician skills.

It did not take long before Shi Ying regained consciousness.

She was stunned for a moment when she saw Chu Kuangren, but after that, her face beamed with joy. “It really is the Chief. A-Am I dreaming?!”

It was no different than a fan girl meeting her idol for the first time in her life.

Chu Kuangren observed her expression the entire time and concluded that Shi Ying’s feelings of joy and excitement were genuine.

“So, your name is Shi Ying? You’re from the academy too?” Chu Kuangren asked.

“That’s right.”

“Why have I not seen you before in the academy?”

“Chief, I used to be an ordinary, nameless nobody back then in the academy. It’s no surprise that you didn’t know about me,” Shi Ying said while looking at Chu Kuangren with admiring eyes.

From her memories, she was a student at the academy. However, her talents were not particularly outstanding and were worlds apart compared from the Hundred Academy’s Heavenly Champions.

Meanwhile, as the academy’s Chief, Chu Kuangren was an unrivaled genius among his peers.

She had always wanted to catch up to him or just enough to follow behind him. That was why she came to the Interstellar Arena alone, seeking to become stronger on her cultivation journey.

She has had a near brush with death countless times throughout that whole time, which, in turn, made her so strong in her current state.

Chu Kuangren was a little suspicious as Shi Ying seemed to be speaking the truth.

‘Is she really from the Hundred Academy?’

‘Am I overthinking this?’

‘Seeing that there are so many students in the Hundred Academy, I can’t even say I know every one of them. I guess it must be normal then if I don’t recognize her.’

“Since you’re from the academy, you can stay by my side for the time being,” Chu Kuangren said with a smile.

As the academy’s Chief, he had no intention of abandoning Shi Ying. Besides, she was willing to risk her life to help Fu Yin, who once saved her. That was proof that she had a pure heart.

Even in the worst-case scenario that Shi Ying was truly hiding something, he could still observe her behavior by keeping her at his side.

Once he met up with his true self, every one of his doubts would be answered through the Omniscient Spirit.

“Is this for real? Am I really allowed to follow you, Chief?!”

Shi Ying got excited. It was as if she was surrounded by nothing but pure bliss and happiness.

“Cultivators from the academy should stick together. That way, we can have each other’s back.”

Chu Kuangren nodded gently.

Along with Shi Ying and Fu Yin, Chu Kuangren continued traveling across the Holy Violet Emperor Planet.

Besides displaying a great deal of enthusiasm and excitement to Chu Kuangren, there seemed to be nothing strange with Shi Ying’s behavior. It was as if she was just a super fangirl obsessed with Chu Kuangren.

“Seven-layered Sword Barrier!”

Somewhere in an open area, Shi Ying cried out as she unleashed her sword qi technique!

Her sword qi swept forth and intertwined with Daoist patterns, forming seven layers of sword qi barrier in the void!

After a while, the sword qi dispersed.

“Awesome! The Sword Barrier technique I’ve cultivated has always been at three layers, yet I’ve now reached seven layers thanks to the Chief’s guidance!”

Shi Ying looked at her Immortal Sword in shock.

Chu Kuangren was surprised as he watched her from the sidelines.

Shi Ying’s Sword Barrier technique contained a total of nine layers. It was a top-tier Arch Gilded Technique that was one of the Twenty-Four Sword Dao Techniques.

However, she had only been cultivating its three-layer form up until now.

Under his guidance, she managed to improve the technique to seven layers!

As for him, he also took the opportunity to learn that technique, making it a new addition to his growing collection of the Twenty-Four Sword Dao Techniques.

Furthermore, he also noticed something interesting while guiding her. Although Shi Ying was not very talented, her level of understanding was exceptionally good.

Chapter 1338: Someone Has Taken the Emperor Seal, No One Else but He Could Do So, Northland's Chen Clan

While Chu Kuangren was helping out Shi Ying with her sword technique, he suddenly sensed something and looked in a certain direction.

"This aura..."

There was a strange look in his eyes.

He then traveled to the source of that aura with Shi Ying and Fu Yin.

It was coming from a ruined city shrouded within a powerful Yin qi, with countless dead souls wandering around.

The location was the Fengdu Underworld City! To be precise, it was a fragment of Fengdu Underworld City.

"What a surprise. To think there's a fragment of Fengdu Underworld City here."

With a grin, Chu Kuangren headed to the depths of the Underworld City to explore it with Shi Ying and Fu Yin.

However, after some time, he arrived at a palace named Heng Palace!

Chu Kuangren thought for a moment before identifying the location as one of the Ghost Emperors of the Five Cardinal Directions, Zhang Heng's palace.

However, he could not find the Samsara Emperor Seal there.

"The Emperor Seal is not here?"

Chu Kuangren was quite surprised. Had someone come here earlier than him and taken away the Emperor Seal?

"Roar!"

Just then, a bone-chilling roar came from outside the palace.

Unbeknownst to them, a large number of resentful dead souls had surrounded the palace.

With that, Chu Kuangren and his two followers walked out of the palace.

The leader of the dead souls was wearing black armor, with messy hair over his shoulders and bursts of rage qi emanating all over him. His aura was on par with a Gilded Immortal, and even a trace of it could shatter the surrounding void.

Under that aura, both Shi Ying and Fu Yin became afraid, and they started shuddering with fear.

It was a dead soul at the Gilded Immortal level!

“Insolent humans, for trespassing here time after time and even taking away the Emperor Seal, all of you deserve death!” the armored dead soul said in a cold voice and was about to attack.

Despite that, Chu Kuangren’s expression remained emotionless.

Just as the thousands of dead souls charged toward him, he commanded, “Kneel!”

Within an instant, an incomparably powerful aura erupted from his body, shocking every dead soul present!

The countless dead souls felt an intent of surrendering from the bottom of their hearts and immediately fell to the ground involuntarily!

Even the armored dead soul who was on par with a Gilded Immortal shuddered as he looked at Chu Kuangren in disbelief. His knees turned weak, and eventually, he was kneeling on the ground like the other dead souls.

“This is the Ghost Emperor’s authority!”

“Y-You’re the Ghost Emperor!”

The armored dead soul was shocked.

Although Chu Kuangren’s cultivation level was lower than his, he could sense a frightening aura coming from Chu Kuangren from the very depths of his soul!

Only the Ghost Emperors of legends would possess such an aura.

Standing with both hands behind his back, Chu Kuangren did not deny the armored dead soul’s claim.

He may just be a clone, but he still possessed the Ghost Emperor’s authority. Hence, none of the dead souls in the Fengdu Underworld City could harm him.

“Now, tell me. Who took away the Emperor Seal here?”

“They’re cultivators from the Northland’s Chen clan.”

‘Northland’s Chen clan?’

“Tell me more about this.”

The armored dead soul immediately told Chu Kuangren everything he knew.

Northland’s Chen clan was a native orthodoxy on the Holy Violet Emperor Planet, but among the forces on the planet, there was nothing worth noting about them.

The strongest in the Chen clan was only a Gilded Immortal, and they were the ones who took away the Emperor Seal.

Besides that, the Chen clan had been coming here from time to time to capture the dead souls in Fengdu Underworld City. Word had it that they were being used as materials for making Immortal Weapons.

Although the armored dead soul was very angry about it, he could not do anything about it.

For one, his enemy — the head of the Chen clan — was a Gilded Immortal who obtained their Emperor Seal. Although he had not fully refined it, he could already use it to hold back the dead souls in the city.

Secondly, a restriction placed upon Fengdu Underworld City prevented the dead souls, including him, from leaving.

“Using souls in weaponsmithing, huh? This seems like a Demonic Dao technique to me.”

“Interesting. To think there’s an orthodoxy that specializes in Demonic Dao techniques here on the Holy Violet Emperor Planet, and they’ve killed the dead souls of my Fengdu Underworld City!”

A chilling grin appeared on the corner of Chu Kuangren’s mouth.

As Fengdu Underworld City’s Ghost Emperor, every single dead soul within the city was akin to his subjects.

He could kill them!

However, no one else but him could do the same!

At that thought, a terrifying aura spread everywhere from Chu Kuangren.

He looked at the armored dead soul and others before saying indifferently. “Bring me to the Northland’s Chen clan you speak of. Demonic cultivators who sacrifice souls for weaponsmithing have no right to have the Emperor Seal!”

“But, your majesty, we can’t leave the vicinity of this Underworld City.”

“You can now!”

As soon as Chu Kuangren said that, his Ghost Emperor authority activated!

When the restrictions placed against the dead souls of Fengdu Underworld City disappeared, the armored dead soul and others felt as if a weight had been lifted off their shoulders.

They had never felt so relaxed before.

“Thank you, Ghost Emperor!”

The armored dead soul was jumping with joy, and then he thanked Chu Kuangren respectfully.

“What’s your name?”

“Ao Yue.”

...

Northland was the name of a continent on the Holy Violet Emperor Planet.

Compared to the rest of the Holy Violet Planet, that continent was like a drop of water in the ocean, and it did not stand out much.

However, the Chen clan was one of the most powerful orthodoxies here in the Northland. They were so influential and powerful that no one would dare to provoke them.

At that moment, inside the Chen clan.

The Chen Clan Leader — one of the most powerful figures of Northland — was entertaining a few young cultivators.

If any cultivators from the Northland saw that, they would surely be shocked.

As a Gilded Immortal, the Chen Clan Leader was a very powerful cultivator. Meanwhile, the strongest among those young cultivators was only a True Immortal, so why was he treating them with so much respect?

“I can’t believe I’d have the chance to meet sky-prides from the Demonic Dao,” the Chen Clan Leader lamented.

There was something about the Chen clan that many did not know about, and that was they were actually a branch clan of the Demonic Dao’s Soul-Vanquishing Tribe.

As for his guests, they were Demonic Dao sky-prides from the outside world.

Although their cultivation level was lower than his, the Demonic Dao forces they belonged to were many times more powerful and terrifying than the tiny Chen clan!

Any one of their Demon Kings could kill the Chen clan thousand times over just with one attack.

In that case, how could he not treat them respectfully?

It was especially since the Battle of Heavenly Champions was still ongoing, and the Holy Violet Emperor Planet had opened to the outside world.

“A very long time ago, the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor from the Kunlun Immortal Hall captured many races, orthodoxies, and tribes from all over the universe. Then, he settled them down here on Holy Violet Emperor Planet to diversify the population. Ever since that day, every generation of the Chen clan has been living their lives on this planet, suffering the restrictions of the planet left behind by the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor, and aren’t allowed to leave this place forever.”

“Not many natives of this planet know that the Holy Violet Emperor Planet they were born on is actually a cage built by the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor,” the Chen Clan Leader lamented.

Then, he looked at the Demonic Dao sky-prides before him with excitement.

All of them were Heavenly Champions with bright futures. Perhaps when they become stronger in the future, they could help the Chen clan break free from this cage!

“I’ve prepared a banquet for all of you. Please enjoy yourselves today.”

The Chen Clan Leader held that thought and treated the Demonic Dao sky-prides with a much friendlier attitude.

“Thanks a lot, Chen Clan Leader.”

Chi Yue, a sky-pride from the Chiyu Tribe, chuckled.

At the banquet, many of the Chen clan disciples were very curious about the Demonic Dao sky-prides from the outside world.

“Check it out. That guy over there is from the Sword Demon Tribe. What a chilling sword qi he has.”

“That’s right. And take a look at that Soul-Vanquishing Tribe cultivator. I heard our Chen clan is a branch clan of their tribe.”

Many Chen clan disciples were looking at the Demonic Dao sky-prides with admiration.

For people like them, those sky-prides were cultivators they could never dream of becoming. Meanwhile, the Demonic Dao sky-prides had a prideful look on their faces.

“Come, here’s a toast to everyone!”

The Chen Clan Leader raised his glass and was about to make a toast.

However, he suddenly sensed something coming from afar. As he looked into the distance, a conflicted look appeared in his eyes.

Chapter 1339: The Great Dead Soul Army Attacks the Chen Clan, Will You Guys... Dare to Help?

“That’s a powerful aura. What’s going on?”

The Chen Clan Leader mobilized his Immortal Consciousness as he looked into the distance and detected an immeasurable burst of rage qi coming from the outside!

Besides him, the Demonic Dao sky-prides present also sensed it.

“Oh, those are the aura of dead souls!”

“These are the dead souls from Fengdu Underworld City who have a grudge against my Chen clan. However, how did they break free from the Underworld City’s restriction?”

The Chen Clan Leader chuckled as if he was not bothered by what was happening.

As a Gilded Immortal who had a newly-completed Immortal Weapon and the Samsara Emperor Seal, those dead souls would only meet their end in his hand.

“It turns out they are all dead souls. Since they have come to seek trouble, please allow me to help you to settle this.” Chi Yue smiled. He was not threatened by the horde of dead souls at all.

“That won’t do. How can I possibly trouble my guests with such a bothersome matter? There’s even a Gilded Immortal among them too, so I shall be the one to deal with this.”

“Please allow us to assist you then,” Chi Yue said calmly.

He and the other Demonic Dao sky-prides wanted to take that opportunity to display their strength. They hoped that by doing so, the Chen clan would be even more loyal to them and would further support their every move on the Holy Violet Emperor Planet.

Soon, an endless horde of dead souls arrived above the Chen clan. They were like a gigantic dark cloud that covered the whole area.

Every Chen clan disciple started to feel great pressure weighing upon them.

At that very moment, several figures walked out from the Chen clan's great hall, immediately filling the surroundings with bursts of demonic qi.

It was the Chen Clan Leader, Chi Yue, and the other Demonic Dao sky-prides.

"How dare a rabble of dead souls intrude my domain? I shall end your very existence once and for all!" Chi Yue said coldly, and his demonic qi surged to form a terrifying demonic apparition behind him!

Beside Chi Yue, a cultivator wielding a demonic sword also put up the same prideful look. Bursts of razor-sharp sword qi gushed out from him and rose into the air.

That sky-pride was from the Sword Demon Tribe.

Following that, the sky-prides from the Soul-Vanquishing Tribe, the Yin Underworld Tribe, and others walked out, their powerful auras erupting one after another.

The space above the Chen clan was soon filled with terrifying demonic qi, which clashed against the rage qi from the dead souls!

Many Chen clan disciples were stunned to witness the scene, and a look of admiration flashed in their eyes.

"Are they the sky-prides from the main Demonic Dao branch? They're so powerful!"

"Each of them is as powerful as a top-tier Heavenly Immortal. Compared to our clan's most remarkable sky-pride, they're dozens of times stronger!"

"They're just too strong."

The Chen clan disciples were amazed.

Even the Chen Clan Leader could not help but lament, "As expected of the Demonic Dao's rising stars. With these sky-prides around, the Demonic Dao will only prosper!"

"You Demonic Dao sky-prides are just everywhere, huh?"

Just then, an indifferent voice rang out.

Just as that voice sounded, the demonic qi that filled the sky suddenly froze, seemingly trembling in fear.

At the very same moment, the Demonic Dao sky-prides, hailed by the Chen Clan Leader as the Demonic Dao's rising star and admired by countless Chen clan disciples, became horrified!

"This voice..."

"Why is he here?"

The Chen clan was confused to see the Demonic Dao sky-prides trembling with fear and looking terrified as if they had encountered the most frightening being in their lives.

‘What is going on?’

The Chen Clan Leader started to panic.

‘Who is that person? How can someone make these peerless and unruly Demonic Dao sky-prides shudder with fear?!’

He looked toward the source of that voice, only to see a young man dressed in white robes and with an otherworldly appearance approach elegantly while surrounded by countless dead souls!

Every step he took crumbled the mountains and flooded the rivers!

However, the moment he arrived above the Chen clan, his incomparably terrifying aura enveloped the whole area.

Under that aura, the overwhelming demonic qi immediately dispersed like a deflated balloon!

The terror that the Demonic Dao sky-prides felt soon reached a breaking point.

“It’s really him!”

“Chu Kuangren!”

The person who arrived was none other than Chu Kuangren!

He was the one who turned the whole Demonic Dao upside down with a mere clone and became a lingering nightmare for countless Demonic Dao cultivators ever since that dreadful day!

“Hand over the Samsara Emperor Seal and kneel before me to face your death!”

Chu Kuangren glanced at the Demonic Dao sky-prides and ignored them as he said to the Chen Clan Leader in an indifferent tone.

Upon hearing that, the Chen Clan Leader raised his brows, and his gaze gradually turned cold. “How dare a mere True Immortal command me? Are you sick of living?”

His Gilded Immortal aura instantly erupted and swept across the land!

Although the Chen Clan Leader sensed a Karmic effect from Chu Kuangren’s body and knew he was a Heavenly Champion who should not be harmed, the Chen Clan Leader was not afraid!

If he, a Gilded Immortal, was afraid of a True Immortal, he would surely become a joke.

“You insolent fool. Now die!”

Without another word, Chu Kuangren raised his hand, signaling the hordes of dead souls behind him to attack the Chen clan right away!

The number of dead souls was just too great.

They were ten times more dead souls compared to everyone in the Chen clan. Back then, they were trapped in Fengdu Underworld City, and because they did not have a capable leader, the Chen clan could bully them all this time.

The Chen clan cultivators would enter Fengdu Underworld City and leave after they killed a bunch of dead souls, which angered the dead souls of the city.

However, with Chu Kuangren as their leader, the dead souls were no longer restricted!

Their combined power, when fully unleashed, could wipe the Chen clan off the face of the planet!

However, the Chen Clan Leader was the only exception!

“I’m going to f*cking kill you!”

The Chen Clan Leader’s expression changed as his Gilded Immortal aura erupted. He unleashed a palm attack, and his Immortal’s Core energy swept out like a violent tide!

Without him, the Chen clan would not be able to survive such a huge-scale attack from the dead souls!

However, because the Chen clan had him, one Gilded Immortal was sufficient to fend off millions of those dead souls!

Boom!

Following a huge bang, the Chen Clan Leader’s palm attack was blocked!

It was Ao Yue who did it.

He was the strongest among the dead souls for being incredibly close to reaching the Gilded Immortal Realm. Besides, seeing that he could go against a Gilded Immortal in battle, he must have been a very talented person when he was alive!

“What? Even Ao Yue has pledged his allegiance to that young man?”

“Who the hell is he?!”

Many Chen clan disciples knew Ao Yue was the strongest dead soul in the Northlands. Seeing that the Chen clan had many encounters with the dead souls, how could they possibly not recognize him?

However, even a dead soul like Ao Yue had become Chu Kuangren’s follower.

“That young man... Just who the f*ck is he?”

The Chen Clan Leader was more confused now.

‘To think his arrival has terrified the Demonic Dao sky-prides so much, and even Ao Yue has submitted to him... He’s certainly no ordinary True Immortal.’

“Fellow sky-prides, please help me fight that person!”

Seeing the countless dead souls battling the Chen clan disciples, the Chen Clan Leader sank, and he hurriedly asked Chi Yue and the others for help.

Those sky-prides were quite powerful, after all. If they were to help, they could halt the dead souls’ attacks for the time being. Once he dealt with Ao Yue, he could focus on the rest of them to decrease the Chen clan’s casualties as much as he could.

Upon hearing him, Chi Yue and the other Demonic Dao sky-prides' faces immediately turned grim, as if they were hesitating about something.

Or perhaps, they were afraid of something.

Meanwhile, a chuckle came from the sky.

Looking at Chi Yue and the others, Chu Kuangren said playfully, "Didn't you hear? He's asking for your help now. So, what's it going to be? Will you guys... dare to help?"

Would you guys... dare to help?

That single question made all the Demonic Dao sky-prides freeze in their places. None of them dared not to move an inch as a feeling of fear instantly crept up within them.

Chapter 1340: The Thousand Ghoul Banner, Summoning the Underworld General, Killing the Chen Clan Leader

"Will you guys... dare to help?"

Chi Yue and the other Demonic Dao sky-prides had never felt so humiliated before, but none of them moved a muscle.

It was because none of them dared!

The moment they attacked, Chu Kuangren would do the same as well. With his power, they would not stand a chance against him.

Although the Chen Clan Leader was a Gilded Immortal, he might not necessarily attack because of the Battle of Heavenly Champions. Hence, he could not attack Chu Kuangren directly.

"D*mn it. Why are these sky-prides so afraid of this young man?"

"What the f*ck is happening?"

All the respect the Chen Clan Leader had for Chi Yue and the others was now replaced with contempt.

'As a sky-pride, one should attack without fear of anything! Unlike these fools. To think they're so scared that they don't even dare to attack! What a bunch of useless cowards!'

The Chen Clan Leader secretly cursed.

Seeing Ao Yue attacking him, he exploded with rage. "How dare a mere True Immortal go against me?!"

With that, he channeled his Immortal's Core energy and unleashed a golden palm attack into the air!

The attack seemed to contain an incredibly mysterious power that specially targeted the dead souls!

Chu Kuangren, who was watching the battle, felt a familiar throbbing in his heart.

"That's the power of the Samsara Emperor Seal!"

The Chen Clan Leader had activated the Samsara Emperor Seal.

Due to that attack, Ao Yue was forced back, and his astral body was so close to shattering.

The fact that he, who was not yet at the Gilded Immortal Realm, could push the Chen Clan Leader so far was already a tremendous feat.

“Thousand Soul Banner, release!”

Then, the Chen Clan Leader took out a long black banner carved with ominous-looking runes. Countless dead souls were also attached to it, and their mournful wails and shrieks reverberated the realm.

“You captured the dead souls to create this Immortal Weapon?” Ao Yue said with a grim expression, for he could already guess what had happened.

“That’s right!”

Without another word, the Chen Clan Leader activated the Thousand Ghoul Banner.

Countless dead souls were released from that banner in an instant, and they charged toward Ao Yue’s dead souls, trying to tear them apart!

“With the Samsara Emperor Seal and the Thousand Ghoul Banner, you dead souls are nothing but mere prey on the cutting board. There’s no way you can defeat me!” The Chen Clan Leader burst out laughing.

“Fool!”

An apathetic voice sounded.

The Chen Clan Leader looked at Chu Kuangren and said in a harsh tone, “I don’t care who and how powerful you are. So what if you can control millions of dead souls? In the face of my Thousand Ghoul Banner and my Samsara Emperor Seal, there’s no way you can win. Even if I can’t harm you because of your status as a Heavenly Champion, there’s no way you can harm me either!”

“Is that so?”

Chu Kuangren took a step forward.

At that very instant, bursts of Immortal Sparks rose into the air as his authority as a Ghost Emperor erupted!

His Ghost Emperor’s authority was many times stronger than that of the Chen Clan Leader!

It was as if a supreme unparalleled Ghost Emperor had descended from the skies!

Under Chu Kuangren’s authority, the dead souls under the Chen Clan Leader’s control started shuddering with fear. They no longer looked as ferocious as before.

“This is the Ghost Emperor’s power!”

The Chen Clan Leader’s expression changed. “You’re the Ghost Emperor!”

As soon as he sensed Chu Kuangren’s aura, he quickly took out a large ancient black seal — his Samsara Emperor Seal!

The moment the Emperor Seal appeared, countless Daoist patterns intertwined, releasing surges of Samsara energy everywhere.

He wanted to repel Chu Kuangren's Ghost Emperor authority with the Emperor Seal and then gain control over every dead soul present.

However, the Ghost Emperor's authority he had upon activating the Emperor Seal was still nothing compared to that of Chu Kuangren.

"Take a look at yourself. You're dressed lavishly in dragon robes but look nothing like a ruler at all. Do you really think that just because you took the Emperor Seal, it makes you the Ghost Emperor? What a joke!" Chu Kuangren sneered.

As he channeled the maximum power of his Ghost Emperor authority, another surge of samsara energy appeared.

That was the Heavenly Samsara Physique's aura.

As if it was summoned by the aura, the Chen Clan Leader's Emperor Seal started trembling. It then released a huge burst of samsara energy that blasted the Chen Clan Leader away while the Emperor Seal automatically flew to Chu Kuangren.

"How can this be?!"

The Chen Clan Leader could not believe it. Ever since he obtained it, he had been supplementing it with his Immortal's Core day and night as if it was his precious lover.

It took a lot of hard work for him to refine it before he could wield a portion of the Samsara Emperor Seal's power.

However, with just a wave of his hand, Chu Kuangren had made the Samsara Emperor Seal abandon its master, the Chen Clan Leader.

The Chen Clan Leader was about to have a mental breakdown.

"Why? Why have things turned out this way?"

"What can he possibly offer as a True Immortal that I, a Gilded Immortal, can't! How could you choose him in the end?"

The Chen Clan Leader's eyes were red with rage as he was reluctant to accept his reality.

When Chu Kuangren held the newly arrived Samsara Emperor Seal, a burst of Immortal Sparks radiated from his body. He could wield the Samsara Emperor Seal without even needing to refine it!

"Because I'm the true Ghost Emperor! And you are nothing but a scum of the Demonic Dao!" Chu Kuangren said indifferently.

Upon saying that, his samsara energy circulated in the air, activating the Heavenly Samsara Physique's second divine ability, Divine Samsara Overworld!

Six surges of samsara energy filled the whole area to form countless Daoist patterns!

A force field made out of samsara energy appeared!

When he sensed the powerful samsara energy around him, the Chen Clan Leader's expression darkened. "This divine ability... You have the Heavenly Samsara Physique!"

He finally understood why the Samsara Emperor Seal would choose Chu Kuangren over him.

The Heavenly Samsara Physique was said to be the most suitable Immortal Physique in the universe to wield the Samsara Emperor Seal!

"So what if you have the Samsara Emperor Seal? So what if you have the Heavenly Samsara Physique? You're still a True Immortal at the end of the day. How can you possibly kill me!"

The Gilded Immortal energy in Chen Clan Leader's body surged to resist the corrosive effects of the samsara energy around him.

'As expected of a Gilded Immortal...'

'I can easily kill a Third-grade True Immortal with my Divine Samsara Overworld, but I guess there's quite a difference when it comes to a Gilded Immortal,' Chu Kuangren thought.

However, it did not mean he had run out of ideas.

With a thought from his mind, a samsara vortex opened in the void, followed by an incredibly powerful aura emanating from within.

Even Ao Yue could not help but narrow his gaze upon sensing that aura. "This aura... Can it be..."

A black figure walked out from the vortex.

Dressed in a long black robe and armed with a black sickle, the figure was the Underworld General, and his cultivation level had reached the Gilded Immortal Realm!

"Greetings, Ghost Emperor!"

The Gilded Immortal Underworld General knelt before Chu Kuangren with immense respect.

"End him," said Chu Kuangren apathetically as he pointed at the Chen Clan Leader.

"Understood." The Underworld General nodded.

"Oh no!"

The Chen Clan Leader's eyelid twitched. Suddenly, he did not dare to linger any longer and immediately fled into the distance.

To everyone's surprise, he had abandoned the whole Chen clan and escaped!

'He's just too terrifying!'

To think someone could summon a Gilded Immortal Underworld General at will, he finally understood why those Demonic Dao sky-prides would fear Chu Kuangren that much.

'This is just too crazy!'

All the Chen Clan Leader wanted now was to stay as far away from Chu Kuangren as he could!

However, he was one step too late.

A ghastly figure soon appeared before the Chen Clan Leader and unleashed a slash with his sickle. Then, a streak of black light shot across the void.

The Chen Clan Leader channeled all his power in an attempt to block that attack. Alas, the sickle continued moving forth until it sliced him into half!

It was an undeniable fact that the Chen Clan Leader was a Gilded Immortal.

However, he was just a normal First-Grade Gilded Immortal, while the Underworld General that Chu Kuangren summoned was a top-tiered Ninth-grade Gilded Immortal!

The difference in strength between them was worlds apart!
