

Unparalleled 1401

Chapter 1401: Killing the One-Eyed Dragon and the Third Dragon Crown Prince, the Iceworm Surrenders

The saber ray and sword shadow attacks headed toward Chu Kuangren from both sides in a pincer position!

From the One-eyed Dragon's perspective, now that Chu Kuangren was affected by his soul technique, there was no way Chu Kuangren could fend off those incoming attacks!

'There's no way he can evade!'

That powerful attack could severely injure even the most top-tier Prodigies. Once Chu Kuangren was hit, the three of them would not need to worry about finishing him off!

The only surprising thing was that the Iceworm Ru Xue did not attack.

Boom!

The instant those two terrifying attacks approached Chu Kuangren, his body trembled a little, followed by a vast and dense eruption of aura. Blood-colored lightning instantly spread everywhere!

The sword shadow and saber ray shattered!

"Impossible!"

Upon that sight, the One-eyed Dragon's eyes widened. He was horrified!

Was his final trump card ineffective against Chu Kuangren?!

"Not bad for a soul technique. Alas, it's still useless against me!" Chu Kuangren said calmly.

Having cultivated the Eighteen-Cycle Trinity Soul Refinement, he now had three souls in his body. Besides, each of his souls was now extremely close to the Gilded Soul level!

Although the One-eyed Dragon's soul technique was quite profound, it only managed to affect one of Chu Kuangren's souls. With one soul immobilized, the remaining two would not sit idly by either!

Assuming the worst-case scenario, even if Chu Kuangren were truly immobilized, the saber ray and sword shadow would have to be powerful enough to damage his physical body. Furthermore, he possessed the Indestructible Physique.

He was just too powerful.

After all, he had been undefeated throughout his cultivation journey and never been injured before.

1

That was why many cultivators overlooked his defensive and life-saving capabilities. Those two aspects were almost on par, if not stronger than, his offensive techniques!

“Now die!”

Chu Kuangren stepped forward and appeared before the One-eyed Dragon. With a single punch, his blood qi rose into the air, followed by blood-colored lightning that enveloped the whole area!

Boom!

That attack was no accident, and the One-eyed Dragon was blown into a mist of blood!

Only a purple gem-like eye was left hovering in mid-air.

Chu Kuangren purposely ensured that the item survived as he was pretty interested in the soul technique contained within that item.

He intended to preserve that item to be analyzed later on. Perhaps there might be something useful he could gain from it.

“This raw physical strength... You’re a monster!”

The Third Dragon Crown Prince looked at Chu Kuangren with horror.

As a True Dragon, he was well-versed in strengthening his physical body. However, even he, someone who possessed a True Dragon’s physical strength, still paled greatly in comparison to Chu Kuangren!

Chu Kuangren’s raw physical strength was incredibly close to achieving the Gilded Immortal Realm!

“Roar!”

Realizing there was no chance of survival, the Third Dragon Crown Prince decided to fight for his life.

He let out a long roar as his body expanded in size, taking the form of a thousand-kilometer-long True Dragon. His incomparably powerful aura emanated and covered the whole planet!

“Now die!”

The Third Dragon Crown Prince charged toward Chu Kuangren and attacked him with his dragon claws!

His dragon claws were so sharp that even the space tore apart wherever it touched. It tore open five massive spatial rifts!

However, Chu Kuangren remained calm and composed despite seeing that. He closed his hand into a fist and let out another punch. The modified Divine Thunder Fist technique was unleashed right away!

Boom!

Explosions erupted in space while the surrounding landscape crumbled!

Before the likes of that gigantic dragon claw, Chu Kuangren’s punch was as tiny as a speck of dust. However, that tiny punch of his soon released dazzling blood-colored Immortal Sparks. What followed were countless blood-colored lightning bolts slamming wildly onto the dragon claw!

The scales of the claw blew apart while dragon blood splattered everywhere!

The Third Dragon Crown Prince's Immortal body was continuously damaged. Before the punch, his massive dragon claw was reduced into countless blobs of flesh!

The painful cries of the dragon reverberated through the sky, and the sound of it made the countless living beings in the desert tremble.

'A True Dragon has cried out in pain!'

'What terrifying being could cause such a thing?!'

The living beings were terrified, to say the least.

Meanwhile, the Iceworm Ru Xue, who was watching it nearby, started shuddering with fear. Her face was already as pale as snow.

She did not dare to escape because she knew that the moment she turned her back, a surge of sword qi would come her way, instantly ending her on the spot!

She did not doubt Chu Kuangren's ability to do something like that.

After all, the best proof was the Third Dragon Crown Prince. He was a cultivator more powerful than her, yet he was being beaten to a pulp in front of her.

Boom! Boom!

Another two punches were unleashed. Blood-colored lightning and Immortal Sparks painted the sky, accompanied by the roars of a dragon.

Soon after, the massive body of the Third Dragon Crown Prince fell on the desert grounds. Wherever the dragon's blood flowed, its potent vitality would immediately transform that area into a lush field of flora.

Just like that, the Third Dragon Crown Prince had fallen!

"You, you're not escaping."

Chu Kuangren looked at the Iceworm Ru Xue.

"There's no way I can escape."

"Why didn't you attack with them earlier?" Chu Kuangren asked indifferently.

He was referring to the moment when the One-eyed Dragon's soul technique hit him.

"If you were truly affected, their attacks would be enough to critically injure you. But if that didn't work, there wouldn't be a point in me joining them and attacking you," the Iceworm Ru Xue answered honestly.

That was the reason she did not attack.

After all, when facing a being like Chu Kuangren, it did not matter whether she was involved in the attacks or not.

She did not attack because she was betting on something — betting on Chu Kuangren not to be affected by the soul technique so that he would realize that she did not attack and spared her life.

“You’re a smart woman. Alas, you’ve sealed your fate by attacking my subordinate earlier,” Chu Kuangren said indifferently. His sword hand sign was already brimming with endless sword qi.

Iceworm Ru Xue’s face turned pale, and she hurriedly said, “I have some information that might be useful to you.”

“Oh, is it? Now, speak.”

“It’s about the One-eyed Dragon you killed just now. Do you know where he came from?”

“Nope. I’ve never bothered learning anyone’s background when I’m killing them.”

“He’s from the Holy Violet Planet’s most ancient clan, the Violet Eye clan!”

The Violet Eye Family Clan was the most ancient family clan on the Holy Violet Planet. It was said that even the most powerful orthodoxy on the Holy Violet Planet, the Holy Violet Pavilion, did not dare to mess with them.

Besides being well-versed in soul-related techniques, that family clan was known for their strange techniques.

The most famous technique they had was an ocular technique known as the Purple Eye.

That ocular technique was terrifying because it could enable its user to immobilize one’s soul. Even those with powerful cultivation levels would still be affected if their soul level was insufficient!

“Well, thanks for the information, but I never intended to let you live anyways,” Chu Kuangren said calmly.

He did find the Violet Eye Family Clan interesting. However, Iceworm Ru Xue was naive to think that a sliver of information was enough for Chu Kuangren to spare her life.

Just when Chu Kuangren was going to end her, Iceworm Ru Xue did something that surprised him again.

She immediately knelt before Chu Kuangren and said, “I’m willing to submit to you and live by your every command. I only ask you to spare my life!”

She was willing to give up her pride as a Prodigy just to survive.

That move of hers surprised Chu Kuangren.

He retracted the sword qi from his fingertips and grinned. “You have a splendid character, shown by your flexibility in the face of death. However, the more you behave in such a manner, it means you’re a bigger threat than the other two I killed earlier.”

“No matter how huge the threat is, it is still insignificant before the likes of you. I believe you’re strong enough to handle someone like me.”

“Oh.”

Chu Kuangren chuckled and then said to himself. "Lil Ai, analyze her properly for me. I want to see whether she is useful to me or not."

"Very well."

Following Lil Ai's analysis, every piece of information about Iceworm Ru Xue soon appeared inside Chu Kuangren's mind.

"Huh..."

Chapter 1402: Reverse-Deduce Violet Eyes Cultivation Technique, Shang Honghua Out Of Closed-Door Cultivation

"Huh?"

As Lil Ai continued the analysis on the Iceworm Ru Xue, Chu Kuangren found something interesting.

"You're familiar with poison?"

Ru Xue was surprised that Chu Kuangren knew about it.

She had not used it since she made her entrance because the poison was one of her trump cards.

"Yeah."

"Can you use your Iceworm Poison on me?" Chu Kuangren said.

"Uh..." Ru Xue was baffled by Chu Kuangren's request.

"Come on. Do it," Chu Kuangren said with furrowed brows.

"Alright." Ru Xue clenched her teeth and channeled the toxin inside her to the limit. Iceworm Poison came out in the form of white mist and swiftly surrounded Chu Kuangren whole.

Chu Kuangren stood still without any intention of dodging. He took in all the Iceworm Poison using his physical body and even embraced the corrosion.

Suddenly, Ru Xue saw a thin line of hope. If Chu Kuangren was killed by the poison, she could be free!

The Iceworm Poison was one of her trump cards because of its acute toxicity. It was so deadly that even common Prodigies might not be able to withstand it.

Next, Chu Kuangren channeled his Immortal's Core and activated the Demonic Omnitoxin Body. The Iceworm Poison was immediately refined and absorbed into his body as nutrients.

"Not bad. It might not be as good as the Immortal Dissolving Poison, but you're just a True Immortal now. There's a possibility that you can surpass the Immortal Dissolving Poison in the future."

Chu Kuangren looked at Ru Xue. "You still have a little use."

The Iceworm Poison possessed a high growth potential and was likely to surpass the Immortal Dissolving Poison in the future. In other words, it would provide an endless source of energy for Chu Kuangren's Demonic Omnitoxin Body as a refinement material.

Chu Kuangren wanted the Iceworm Ru Xue to help him in his cultivation journey.

Ru Xue was deeply astonished when she found out her Iceworm Poison was ineffective against Chu Kuangren. Her beautiful eyes widened out of shock, and her jaw fell.

"I'll implant some restriction seals on you. Open up your mind ocean and don't resist me," Chu Kuangren said.

His words left Ru Xue pale, but she clenched her teeth in silence instead of resisting. She opened her mind ocean to Chu Kuangren because it was the only way he would let her live.

Chu Kuangren pointed his sword hand sign, and sword qi gushed into Ru Xue's head, planting a strong restriction seal in her mind.

Having read many books and mastered all kinds of cultivation techniques, implanting a restriction seal that could control one's life and death was one of the techniques he mastered.

From that moment onward, Chu Kuangren controlled Ru Xue's life, and it would only take him a thought to kill her.

"Master."

Ru Xue immediately knelt respectfully and addressed Chu Kuangren as her master. She was fully aware of the situation and knew she could not resist him.

That was when Shi Ying came over from further away.

She looked at Ru Xue, who was kneeling on the ground, curiously. "Chief, who is she?"

"A follower. Don't mind her."

"Oh..." Shi Ying put her curiosity aside and looked at Shang Honghua inside the Dragon's Well. "Is she who you're looking for?"

She looked at the golden Buddhist lotus that shrouded the entire well and somehow felt it familiar. She could not help but walk over for a closer look.

However, the Buddhist lotus did not react to her approach.

Chu Kuangren felt strange. She used Lil Ai to analyze the Buddhist lotus.

The Buddhist lotus was there to protect the Dragon's Well, and anyone that got close would be rejected by its vast Buddhist light.

Yet, Shi Ying was not affected.

"Oh... Is it because of the Buddhist Light in her?" Chu Kuangren chuckled.

He knew Shi Ying was not who she claimed to be. There was a mysterious and unknown existence hiding inside her, seemingly from the Buddhist world.

"Who left the Buddhist lotus here?" Chu Kuangren asked Ru Xue.

"I don't know. The Buddhist lotus was already here when we arrived. Maybe the Third Dragon Crown Prince knew because he was the first to arrive."

Unfortunately, nothing was left of the Third Dragon Crown Prince's corpse anymore.

Chu Kuangren glanced at the Buddhist lotus and then shifted his attention away.

The Buddhist lotus was there to protect Shang Honghua, and there was no reason for him to ruin it as his priority should be Shang Honghua's wellbeing.

"Lil Ai, how's Shang Honghua?"

"There are two countering energies in Shang Honghua's body, and they're clashing fiercely."

Information about Shang Honghua appeared in Chu Kuangren's head.

Chu Kuangren soon grasped everything about Shang Honghua.

"The Ancient Golden Dragon's blood is fighting the Ashura Blood Dragon..."

Chu Kuangren heard from Breeze Seeking Inn that Shang Honghua possessed the inheritance of the Ashura Blood Dragon and that she was being affected by evil qi, which almost dragged her into the demonic path a few times over.

Now, it seemed like she was using the Ancient Golden Dragon's blood to fight the demonic traits of the Ashura Blood Dragon. However, would it work?

"Lil Ai, analyze Honghua and see what are the odds of her getting rid of the evil qi in her body."

"Based on my analysis, the evil qi is deeply rooted in her bone marrow. Judging from the energy level of the Ancient Golden Dragon blood, she has less than a ten percent chance to completely rid her body of the evil qi."

Less than ten percent?

Chu Kuangren frowned. He had to come up with a way to help her get rid of the evil qi.

He pondered for a while before he thought of something.

While Shang Honghua was still in close-door meditation, he took the gem-like violet eye that he got from the one-eyed dragon.

The violet eye was covered with mystical Daoist patterns. It was forged by a cultivation technique practiced by the Violet Eye clan for generations.

After a thorough analysis, Chu Kuangren thought of using the violet eye to reverse-deduce the cultivation technique.

It was almost impossible for other cultivators because the violet eye was forged using the Violet Eye Cultivation Technique and not the cultivation technique itself.

It would be as ridiculous as to deduce the entire process based on the result alone.

However, with Lil Ai's help and Chu Kuangren's Single Qi Three Clarity Transformation, which could rival the cultivation technique itself, it was not entirely impossible.

Several days later, while Chu Kuangren was holding the violet eye in his hand, his eyes gleamed violet all of a sudden.

The violet flash frightened Ru Xue, and she called him a monster deep in her heart.

Performing reverse deduction on the violet eye to achieve the cultivation technique was an inconceivable thing to do, yet Chu Kuangren did it!

He was indeed a monster!

Suddenly, Ru Xue felt that following someone as powerful as Chu Kuangren was not entirely a bad idea.

"The Violet Eye Cultivation Technique is a decent soul-targeting technique," Chu Kuangren murmured.

Then, he thought of visiting the Violet Eye clan. If he had the chance, he might be able to find more cultivation techniques regarding the soul.

After that, he shifted his attention to the Dragon's Well.

Shang Honghua had almost absorbed all the blood in the Dragon's Well.

Her skin glistened like porcelain and had golden Immortal Sparks shimmering around her. It was the Gilded Trait!

She had acquired the Gilded Physical Body Trait!

Shang Honghua was never a body-strengthening cultivator, but after absorbing the dragon's blood, she acquired the Gilded Physical Body Trait!

On top of that, the Gilded Physical Body Trait was just one of many traits of the Ancient Golden Dragon's blood.

More importantly, now that Shang Honghua had strengthened her body with the Ancient Golden Dragon's blood, her growth potential and cultivation base had improved by leaps and bounds.

Buzz!

Shang Honghua opened her eyes all of a sudden, and they shimmered in gold! Following that, a domineering dragon's aura spread from her.

Chapter 1403: Heading To The Dragon Clan, Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist's Threats, Deity's Order

The domineering dragon aura spread and shook the realm.

The moment Shang Honghua opened her eyes, she jumped into the sky with the golden Buddhist lotus behind her. Immortal Sparks shimmered around her as she rose to the sky with the shadows of two dragons at her back — one golden and one crimson colored.

The golden dragon felt dignified and just, while the crimson dragon felt devilish and ruthless.

Having mastered the Golden Ancient Dragon and the Ashura Blood Dragon, Shang Honghua's combat strength could rival that of a top Prodigy.

"My King!"

Shang Honghua's figure flashed and appeared before Chu Kuangren the moment she spotted him.

"How are you feeling?"

"I'm feeling great."

Shang Honghua clenched her fists and savored the energy in her body. She felt extremely energized like she was powerful enough to achieve anything.

She knew it was the adrenaline rush from her rapid power-ups, but she was still a lot stronger than her previous self.

Shang Honghua turned around to the Buddhist lotus and swung her spear forward to release a domineering surge of spear energy with a hint of powerful draconic might.

The Buddhist lotus exploded when hit.

Meanwhile, the prayer beads flew and landed in her hand.

She stared at it and took a deep breath. "My King, I have to go to the Dragon clan."

"Is it related to the owner of these prayer beads?"

"Yes. I have her to thank because she helped suppress the evil inside me along the way, preventing me from falling into the wicked path. I'm the reason the Dragon clan caught her, and I have to save her."

A dash of crimson glint flashed in her eyes, and a hint of evil qi started emanating from her body.

"You still haven't gotten rid of the evil qi in you, and there is still a chance for you to fall into the evil path," Chu Kuangren said with a shake of the head.

"I will be careful," she said. She knew her condition better than anyone.

"The Dragon clan is one of the Eight Golden clans, and it's said they have an Arch Gilded Immortal there. What could you possibly do on your own? I'll go with you," Chu Kuangren said.

"Thank you, my King."

...

In the Dragon clan, one of the Eight Golden Family Sects, the current clan leader stared at Jing Hui sternly and said, "I didn't expect a Prodigy from the Buddhist world would be together with the Ashura Blood Dragon. How evil."

“Amitabha. Benefactor Shang isn’t evil. She’s just affected by the wicked Blood Dragon.”

“Regardless, she has killed a number of our men. The Dragon clan and the Third Dragon Crown Prince will never let this go easily. As for your punishment, I will leave it to the Third Dragon Crown Prince.”

“Amitabha.”

Jing Hui chanted to conceal the worry in her eyes.

It had been days since she parted with Shang Honghua, and she was worried about her friend’s condition.

Had she escaped danger? Or had she...

The latter worried her even more. All she could do was pray on behalf of Shang Honghua.

One of the Dragon clan disciples then took her to the dungeon and locked her up.

As for the Dragon Clan Leader, he frowned at the jade scroll in his hand. “It’s been days, but we still haven’t gotten any news.”

He had requested the Feng clan to gather information, and based on the Feng clan’s capabilities, they should have at least gotten the news of whether the Third Dragon Crown Prince had gotten the Ancient Golden Dragon’s inheritance or not.

Yet, nothing came in for days, which seemed a little out of the ordinary.

“It seems there’s only so much to the Feng clan’s capabilities,” he said with a grunt.

“Clan Leader, they’re here again,” said one of the Dragon clan elders.

The update put a heavy look on the Dragon Clan Leader’s face, but he nodded. “I’ll be right there.”

In the main hall, three people, two male and one female, were waiting patiently.

Each of them emanated a powerful aura, and it filled the entire hall with an indescribable yet terrifying pressure.

The Dragon clan disciples who got close even trembled unconsciously.

“They’re the top-notch Prodigies?” said one of the disciples who passed by the main hall and peeked inside cautiously.

If any other sky-prides were in the hall, they would be able to recognize one of the men who was missing an arm. He was the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist, labeled as almost unrivaled among his peers.

As for the other two, they were the Eastern Sky Divine Daoists and the Great Arbiter Divine Maiden, who both shared the same status as him.

Three out of the nine Divine Daoists from the Nine Houses of the Immortal Hall were in the Dragon clan.

Their arrival alone was enough to fill the Dragon Clan Leader with anxiety.

When the Dragon Clan Leader arrived at the hall after a while, he smiled and greeted the three of them.

“Greetings, Divine Daoists, Divine Maiden.”

“Dragon Clan Leader, let’s skip to the chase. I believe you know why we are here, so just hand it over.”

“I...” The Dragon Clan Leader hesitated before he continued, “The Third Dragon Crown Prince has yet to return, and since the item is of utmost importance, I dare not simply hand it over.”

“Dare not? Or refuse to?”

The Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist narrowed his eyes coldly. “We have limited patience. Even if you have the Dragon Palace as your support, a mere Dragon clan is no match for the Eastern Sovereign Immortal Hall. I’ve made it clear, so you people must hand it over today!”

The item they sought was important to their trip to the Golden Continent, so they were determined to get it.

“I...”

The Dragon Clan Leader found himself in a quandary.

The Dragon clan had no advantage against the Eastern Sovereign Immortal Hall. Like the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist said, even if they had the Dragon Palace as their support, they lackluster before the Immortal Hall.

“The Immortal Hall is being unreasonable!” said one of the disciples, attempting to start an argument.

However, as soon as his words subsided, a powerful Celestial Demon qi erupted from the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist and devoured the disciple whole in the blink of an eye.

The excessive Black Hole energy spilled and tore almost half of the Dragon Clan into shreds.

Many Dragon clan disciples were caught by the black hole and died on the spot.

“Unreasonable? So what?”

“Dragon Clan Leader! This is your final warning! You will hand over the Deity Order today, even if it costs you your life!”

The Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist rose to the air like an ancient demon terrorizing the land.

It was not that the Dragon Clan Leader was no match against the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist. In fact, as a peak Gilded Immortal, it was not difficult for him to kill the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist.

He was just afraid of the karmic repercussions and the fear of going against the Immortal Hall, hence the discouragement.

“Okay, I’ll hand it over!”

The Dragon Clan Leader bit the bullet and succumbed to the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist’s threads. He could only hand over the Deity Order.

“Hmph. I guess you’re not that stupid after all.”

After acquiring the Deity Order, the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist, the Eastern Sky Divine Daoists, and the Great Arbiter Divine Maiden left.

Shortly after they walked out of the gate, two dragons appeared in the sky, and their roars echoed through the realm.

The dragon roars became louder as the red and gold dragons approached majestically.

The dragon shadows then transformed into a lady in crimson armor who wielded the Crimson Dragon Lance.

The person with the unparalleled aura was none other than Shang Honghua.

The majestic dragon shadows caught quite the attention of the cultivators within the Dragon clan, and they looked up at her with astonished expressions.

“What a terrifying dragon aura! Who is she?”

“She seems to be coming toward us!”

The Dragon Clan Leader and the others also noticed Shang Honghua’s arrival.

“This energy presence...It’s the Ashura Blood Dragon and... the Ancient Golden Dragon!”

Upon realizing that not only was Shang Honghua alive and healthy, but she had also mastered the power of the Ancient Golden Dragon, the Dragon Clan Leader’s expression turned bitter.

Chapter 1404: Double Dragon’s Power, Shang Honghua Versus Dragon Clan, The Real Show Is Here

“How is this possible? How did she master the Ancient Golden Dragon’s power?”

“Has the Third Dragon Crown Prince failed?”

The Dragon Clan Leader was already in a bitter mood after the Deity Order was taken away, and after learning Shang Honghua had mastered the power of the Ancient Golden Dragon, his mood was even worse.

A bad feeling rose in his heart.

The Third Dragon Crown Prince had not been reporting back. Could it be...

He dared not speculate further because it would only make things worse.

The Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoists and company, who had just gotten the Deity Order, also noticed Shang Honghua’s arrival, and they were astonished.

“This energy... She’s something else.”

“She should be the one who has been garnering attention on the Golden Continent lately, the one Ashura Blood Dragon’s successor. But it seems like she doesn’t only control the Blood Dragon’s power but also the Ancient Golden Dragon’s power. With the power of two dragons, I think not even you’re her match,” the Great Arbiter Divine Maiden ridiculed the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist.

The Mountain Ghoulish Daoist reacted bitterly.

Prodigies had been starting to show up one after another recently, and it started to pressure him.

"Hmph! The Chaos Celestial Demon Physique fears nothing!" he said with a grunt.

The Great Arbiter Divine Maiden grinned. "He fears nothing but Chu Kuangren."

"You..." The Mountain Ghoulish Daoist's expression turned grim as the Great Arbiter Divine Maiden pried on his old scar.

"Stop it, you two. Let's see what she's doing here at the Dragon clan," the Emperor Sky Divine Daoist said.

With the power of two dragons, Shang Honghua rivaled the best Prodigies out there, and the three of them were curious why she would visit the Dragon clan.

Meanwhile, in the sky above the Dragon clan, Shang Honghua emanated a powerful dragon aura as she said, "People of the Dragon clan, handover Jing Hui!"

The Dragon Clan Leader was already furious about losing the Deity Order, and now with Shang Honghua causing trouble, it ruined his mood even more.

It seemed like everyone was trying to take advantage of the Dragon clan.

Kaboom!

A surge of domineering Immortal's Core energy shot up into the sky.

One of the Dragon clan disciples furiously shouted at Shang Honghua, "How dare you cause trouble at the Dragon clan? Do you have a death wish?"

The young man wielded a sword, and based on his energy presence, he was already a True Immortal.

His cultivation base was considered decent even among sky-prides.

After all, only a handful of cultivators could reach the True Immortal Realm, other than those sky-prides and Prodigies.

He released his sword qi, and it transformed into the shape of a dragon.

It was the unique cultivation technique of the Dragon clan, the Dragon Qi Sword Art!

However, Shang Honghua remained calm during the attack. The Crimson Dragon Lance shook and released a powerful lance ray that carried the power of the two dragons.

The golden and red dragons roared fiercely as they lunged forward.

It easily tore the sword qi in shreds and blasted the young man away, causing him to implode into a cloud of blood mist.

The Dragon clan sky-pride was killed in a single hit.

Shang Honghua's power shocked and horrified everyone who witnessed it.

“Oh my goodness! The power of the two dragons is ridiculously powerful!”

“The Dragon clan sky-pride is quite powerful, but he didn’t even last a hit before Shang Honghua!”

The Dragon Clan Leader was infuriated when the sky-pride was killed. “Shang Honghua! How dare you!”

Due to the restrictions placed upon the Battle of the Heavenly Champion, he could not attack Shang Honghua.

“I’ll say this again. Handover Jing Hui or there will be bloodshed in the Dragon clan today!”

Shang Honghua was stern in her request.

“Hmph! Even if you have the Three Clarity Daoist Sect as your support, you can’t do as you please here at the Dragon clan. Do not assume you can do whatever you want because of the karmic repercussions,” the Dragon Clan Leader grunted.

It was then that a pillar of golden light shot up into the sky.

Inside the pillar of light were the Dragon clan disciples. They had all teamed up to form a massive enchanted boundary to trap Shang Honghua inside.

“Even if you have the power of the two dragons, you’re alone.”

“Eliminate her!” the Dragon Clan Leader shouted.

With that, the Dragon clan disciples threw themselves toward Shang Honghua.

With the buff from the enchanted boundary, their powers were greatly boosted, and each attack they launched contained a massive amount of energy.

Even Shang Honghua started to feel overwhelmed by the attacks.

“Very well. I shall show you the might of the two dragons today!” Shang Honghua said coldly. A hint of evil flashed across her eyes.

Dragons’ roar came out from within her body as the golden and red dragon shadows circulated her, boosting her strength.

The lance she wielded shone brightly and ruthlessly.

Each thrust she performed contained unrivaled power, especially with the buff from the two dragons. Even the void tore apart.

When the thrust hit the enchanted boundary, it trembled violently.

Meanwhile, inside an inn sat a man and a woman, watching the battle unfold at the Dragon clan.

The woman’s voluptuous body and beautiful facial features made her a widely recognized beauty.

The man beside her was also a handsome one, and his aura alone made other female cultivators infatuated with him.

Their eyes glimmered as they looked at him.

“He’s the Second Young Master of the Feng clan.”

“And the Feng clan’s Young Lady! Why are they here?”

Their appearance sparked discussion at the inn.

“Sister, is this the show you’re referring to?” the Second Young Master Feng asked with a smile.

He was in awe of Shang Honghua’s valiant presence.

As the young master of the Feng clan, he had seen countless beauties in his life, yet rarely was there someone as captivating as Shang Honghua.

The saying that a woman was as capable as a man was fitting when used on Shang Honghua.

“The real show has yet to begin,” Feng Yu said with a smile.

A glint shone in her eyes as she said, “It has been so many years, and I think it’s time for a change. Someone else should lead the eight clans.”

“I knew you were the one pulling the strings behind the scenes.”

A voice suddenly sounded, followed by the appearance of two women and one man.

The man who led the little group of three wore white robes and bore a transcendental presence. His handsome looks made him look like a deity from heaven, and the Immortal Sparks around him made him look captivating.

The female cultivators, who were originally captivated by Second Young Master Feng, were attracted by the man’s presence as soon as he appeared.

It was just a glance, yet Second Young Master Feng paled in comparison to the man.

They were not on the same level, to begin with.

If Second Young Master Feng was the most handsome man on earth, the man would be the best-looking man from heaven.

In fact, not only the man in white but the two ladies behind him were also exquisite beauties.

One of them looked obedient and gently beautiful, while the other looked pure with a hint of coldness that would push people away with her presence alone.

They were none other than Chu Kuangren, Shi Ying, and the iceworm Ru Xue.

Feng Yu trembled when she heard Chu Kuangren’s voice, and she started to react unnaturally.

Chapter 1405: Full Of Himself, Feng Yu Submits, I Will Ask Him Myself

“What a handsome man!”

Even Second Young Master Feng was in awe at Chu Kuangren’s looks.

He even felt inferior before him.

The Iceworm Ru Xue and Shi Ying were also beauties themselves.

In fact, Second Young Master Feng even sensed threats from them despite their harmless looks.

‘They are definitely powerful people,’ thought Second Young Master Feng upon seeing them.

However, Feng Yu reacted unnaturally upon hearing Chu Kuangren. “I wonder what you mean by that, Master Chu?”

Master Chu?

Second Young Master Feng immediately realized the situation when his sister addressed Chu Kuangren as master. His pupils’ widened in fear the moment he finally realized who the man was.

Chu Kuangren was not bothered by Second Young Master Feng’s reaction.

Instead, he stared at Feng Yu blankly and said, “The Dragon clan requested the Feng clan to investigate Honghua. Am I right?”

“Yes.”

“But it seems they don’t know the Third Dragon Crown Prince is dead, or more precisely, they don’t even know about me. You hid it from them, didn’t you?”

“When you come to Breeze Seeking Inn, you wore a mask, so I assumed you didn’t want to expose yourself and took the liberty to keep it from the Dragon clan.”

“Is that so?” Chu Kuangren chuckled. “I thought you wanted to use me to deal with the Dragon clan and take them down from leading the Eight Golden clans. Didn’t you just talk about it?”

He heard Feng Yu’s words earlier.

Upon hearing Chu Kuangren say that, Feng Yu started trembling, and beads of sweat formed on her forehead.

As Chu Kuangren said, she did think of using him against the Dragon clan.

The Dragon clan placed an investigation request with the Feng clan, but she intentionally hid the Third Dragon Crown Prince’s death and Chu Kuangren’s existence from them just so she could create conflict between him and them.

Otherwise, if the Dragon clan knew Chu Kuangren was coming, they would not start a fight with Shang Honghua, hence weakening the conflict between them.

“Please forgive me, Master Chu. I took the liberty to alter the course of matter and hid your existence from them.”

Feng Yu immediately got down on her knees and kowtowed before Chu Kuangren.

Her body was still shaking, and her face was pale.

It was a pitiful scene to see a beautiful lady kneeling on the ground, so it attracted a lot of attention from the inn.

All the cultivators felt bad for her, and some even assumed Chu Kuangren forced her against her will.

“Hey, punk. What are you doing to this lady?”

A tall man stood up and questioned Chu Kuangren.

“Yeah. She knelt on her knees in front of you. Why are you giving her a hard time?”

“Lady, don’t worry. We’ll defend you. He won’t be able to do anything to you!”

A few more men stood up and voiced up.

The men were rather powerful, or they would not have had the guts to speak.

On top of that, Feng Yu’s voluptuous figure and beautiful looks aroused their deepest desire.

In their minds, they were already picturing the reward for rescuing a damsel in distress.

However, before they could make a move, a strong surge of freezing qi flooded the inn and pressured them. The cold was so biting that they could not help but shudder.

The cultivators who voiced up were shocked when they sensed the freezing qi poking into their bodies like countless tiny needles.

Before they realized it, they were numbed, and all their Immortal’s Cores, bones, and flesh froze. Their vitals faded, and soon, their consciousness.

The others in the inn watched as the cultivators who voiced up rapidly froze and corroded by the freezing qi.

As they crumbled into chunks of ice, only cold, hard ice chunks were left on the ground instead of a puddle of blood.

The others gasped in fear as they traced the freezing qi to its origin — the iceworm behind Chu Kuangren, Ru Xue.

Chu Kuangren glanced at Ru Xue.

“I’m sorry for taking the liberty to silence them. Please forgive me, Master,” Ru Xue said.

Chu Kuangren was not bothered about it at all.

Feng Yu did not even spare a glance at the cultivators who tried to help her. After hearing the brief conversation between Chu Kuangren and Ru Xue, the sweat on her forehead froze as soon as it formed because of Ru Xue’s freezing qi.

Soon, she was covered in ice, which left her in a miserable state, but she dared not wipe them off.

She knew the iceworm was considered a top-notch Prodigy, yet someone as powerful as her called Chu Kuangren master.

Chu Kuangren was much scarier than she thought, yet she was foolish enough to believe she could use him to her advantage.

She must have lost her mind back then!

"I don't dislike a smart woman, but I do hate a woman who tries to be smart. Do you really think hiding my existence from them is nothing important? You're wrong. The moment you thought of using me to help you achieve whatever goal you have is already a good reason for me to kill you," Chu Kuangren said.

Feng Yu lowered her head lower as she was overcome with fear. "I'm sorry to have offended you."

She dared not argue nor resist.

She knew resistance was futile because Chu Kuangren could kill her with a single thought, and she had no leverage against him.

"Get up."

Chu Kuangren sat down and watched the fight between Shang Honghua and the Dragon clan.

Feng Yu sighed a breath of relief after escaping death.

"I'm going to deal with the Dragon clan sooner or later because of Honghua. What you did was unnecessary."

"Yes, I understand. I shall never cross the line again."

"Once the Dragon clan is gone, I don't mind helping the Feng clan to lead the Eight Golden clans on the Golden Continent. However, what can the Feng clan provide me?" Chu Kuangren asked.

Feng Yu bowed. "The Feng clan hereby pledge our loyalty to you, and you will have access to our intelligence network."

"You should be grateful that you're a smart woman," Chu Kuangren said to Feng Yu, who chose to submit instead of resisting.

The Feng clan's intelligence network not only covered the entire Golden Continent, but it could also reach almost every corner of the planet. It would be a great help if he could use that network to his advantage.

It was the reason why he allowed Feng Yu to live.

As for whether the others in Feng clan would agree to the decision, it was not something he should worry about because they had no choice.

If they refused to submit, he would shuffle higher management of the Feng clan after he dealt with the Dragon clan.

"Maser, I have a piece of news that might interest you."

“Speak.”

“We spotted people from the Eastern Sovereign Immortal Hall at the Dragon clan in the past two days. One of them had a missing arm, and he was none other than the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist who lost to you.”

Chu Kuangren was rather intrigued by the news.

“Oh? The folks from Eastern Sovereign Immortal Hall? What are they doing at the Dragon clan?”

“We’re still investigating that.”

“It’s fine. I’ll ask them myself later.”

Chapter 1406: Leaving A Seed For The Dragon Clan, Find A Way Out Of The Impasse, The Bearing of A Clan Leader

Meanwhile, the battle above the Dragon clan continued most fiercely.

Both sides fought relentlessly, and raging energy overflowed from all the clashes, sprinkling a net of dazzling Immortal Sparks all over the city.

Amid the sky of dazzling Immortal Sparks, a golden dragon and a red dragon rose higher into the atmosphere, carrying boundless draconic might that wreaked havoc in the air. All living things that were caught in its aura trembled in fear.

Countless Dragon clan disciples even felt strong oppression against their bloodline, which prevented them from releasing their full power.

“Damn it! The power of the two dragons is overpowering our disciples!”

“We can’t release our full dragon qi against her!”

The Dragon clan took pride in their dragon qi, but it was rendered useless by Shang Honghua’s double dragon power.

The difference in power was intrinsic because the suppression came directly from the deepest part of their bloodline.

“Use the Dragon Lock Sword!” one of the Dragon clan elders said.

He swung his sleeves forward and released multiple golden daggers into the enchanted boundary.

As soon as the disciples caught the golden daggers, they started to chant incantations. As they channeled their Immortal’s Core energy, the dragon qi in them gushed out, and the golden daggers started to shine brightly.

The energy released was specifically used to counter the dragon qi.

“Go!”

The Dragon clan disciples chanted en masse and hurled the golden daggers forward.

The golden daggers danced and shuttled in the air, forming another dagger formation around Shang Honghua. They locked the two dragon shadows on the spot and prevented them from unleashing their full power.

“Hmph! Is the Dragon clan using the Dragon Lock energy? How ironic,” Shang Honghua scoffed.

While the disciples failed to comment, the Dragon Clan Leader reacted bitterly to Shang Honghua’s words.

No one, including the Dragon clan, would willingly be a subordinate or an appendage for a higher power.

The Dragon Lock Sword was a technique the Dragon clan developed as one of their trump cards.

Should the Dragon Tribe abandon them one day, they could use the Dragon Lock Sword to counter and secure their leverage. However, they did not expect they would be using it on Shang Honghua first.

“Die!” the Dragon Clan Leader shouted.

The disciples channeled the Dragon Lock Sword to the limit and restrained Shang Honghua’s double dragon power.

The dazzling energy spread and scattered over the horizon as though a colorful sea had flooded the sky.

With the Crimson Dragon Lance in hand, a hint of blood-red evil glare flashed in Shang Honghua’s eyes. It was a sign of her turning to the evil side to increase her cultivation level.

It was at that moment that a terrifying aura exploded in the realm. As though the Immortal King had descended, heaven and earth trembled before the intimidating energy.

A massive sword shadow rose from the inn and tore the heaven in half.

Boundless sword aura immediately crushed the enchanted boundary formed by the Dragon clan disciples and mitigated the dazzling energy that flooded the sky.

As a result, the Dragon clan disciples were blasted away, exploding into clouds of blood mist, one after another.

The sword shadow shook even the universe!

Everyone’s pupils shrunk in fear as they traced the sword shadow to its origin.

When the Mountain Ghoulish Divine Daoist, Eastern Sky Divine Daoist, and Great Arbiter Divine Maiden saw the sword shadow and sensed the energy behind it, their expressions sank.

“Damn it! It’s him!”

“We must leave now!”

The Eastern Sky Divine Daoist wished to leave immediately.

“Damn it!”

The Mountain Ghoulish Divine Daoist was reluctant, but when he glanced at his broken arm, he bit the bullet and agreed with the Eastern Sky Divine Daoist.

He was no match for Chu Kuangren with a missing arm.

Should he stay any longer and Chu Kuangren discovered him, he would be dead ten times over.

“Let’s go! When I get the Matriarch Ruler’s Undying Elixir and recover to my full strength, I will come back for you, Chu Kuangren!” the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist said with a strong grievance.

The Dragon Clan Leader, on the other hand, was astonished when he saw the astounding sword shadow.

“Who dares go against the Dragon clan?”

“That’s my question. How dare a mere Dragon clan go against me?”

An ice-cold voice sounded.

A figure in white slowly emerged from the inn. He had an ancient sword and some scrolls hanging around his waist. Surrounded by Immortal Sparks, he bore the demeanor of an otherworldly deity.

He traversed across the air, carrying a distinctive aura. It felt like he was the center of the planet, and everyone who saw him was captivated by his transcendental aura.

“It’s him!”

Those who recognized him gasped in fear.

Chu Kuangren walked over to Shang Honghua and peered down at the Dragon clan with a condescending gaze. “Hand over Jing Hui, and I’ll allow the Dragon clan to keep its seed.”

His words caused an uproar among the disciples.

He did not use words like ‘spare’ or ‘show mercy’ but ‘allow Dragon Clan to keep its seed’ instead.

In other words, Chu Kuangren was to destroy most of the Dragon clan except one or two people so that they could continue the clan’s legacy as tiny seeds that would sprout in the future.

He sounded unreasonable, and it sparked anger among the disciples.

“Who is this person? How dare he use such words against us?”

“You don’t know who he is? He’s Chu Kuangren, the one who has been gathering attention lately!”

“It’s him?”

“Damn! Seeing him in person is better than hearing rumors about him. He’s really bold with his words, isn’t he? I guess only he, among the younger generation, dares to say he’d destroy the Dragon clan.”

His words sparked heated discussions.

The moment the Dragon Clan Leader saw Chu Kuangren, it amplified the bad feeling in his heart.

Shang Honghua possessing the power of the two dragons, the Third Dragon Crown Prince not reporting back after so long, and now Chu Kuangren appearing before the Dragon Clan, everything pointed toward the worst possible outcome.

As he connected the dots, he soon came to a horrifying realization.

“What have you done with the Third Dragon Crown Prince?” the Dragon Clan Leader asked in a trembling voice.

“I accidentally killed him,” Chu Kuangren answered.

The Dragon Clan Leader’s face turned pale when he got the answer to the question in his heart. “I knew it!”

He did not even doubt Chu Kuangren for a second.

There was no reason for Chu Kuangren to lie, and based on the rumors, he was more than capable of killing the Third Dragon Crown Prince.

The Dragon Clan Leader was deeply discouraged after confirming the Third Dragon Crown Prince’s death.

After all, the Third Dragon Crown Prince was the Prodigy from the Dragon Palace.

Even though it was Chu Kuangren who killed him, the Dragon clan was responsible for protecting their master. If the Dragon Palace were to punish them for the negligence of duty, the whole Dragon clan would have to die ten times over.

The thought made the Dragon Clan Leader’s face turn pale.

“The only thing we can do right now is to kill Chu Kuangren and compensate for the mistake! That’s the only way to keep the Dragon clan safe!”

The Dragon Clan Leader finally came up with the decision.

On top of that, Chu Kuangren came bearing ill intentions. He must have been serious when he said he would destroy the Dragon clan.

Therefore, even if the Dragon Clan Leader willingly hand over Jing Hui, they would still suffer wrath from both sides.

The only way for them to escape that impasse was to fight back.

“Chu Kuangren, you killed the Third Dragon Crown Prince, and as the subordinates of the Dragon Tribe, the Dragon clan hereby label you as our enemy!” the Dragon Clan Leader shouted.

Then, he looked at the Dragon clan disciples. “Everyone, today will be the day you wield the fate of the Dragon clan. Kill Chu Kuangren, and you will be rewarded with a hundred Dragon Blood Pills!”

The Dragon Blood Pill was a rare medicinal pill developed by the Dragon clan, and only the core disciples of the Dragon clan were qualified to take it. Even then, they were only allowed one pill at a time.

Now that the Dragon Clan Leader was offering a hundred of them as a reward, the massive temptation boosted the disciples’ morale to a new high.

Everyone was eager to take down Chu Kuangren.

“Hmph! You dare not attack me because of the karmic repercussion, yet you send the younger ones to die. What a clan leader you are!”

Chapter 1407: True Immortals Attack Together, A Fool, The Entire City Is Shocked

What a clan leader you are!”

Chu Kuangren’s sneer echoed in the air.

However, the Dragon clan disciples, who were tempted by the Dragon Blood Pills, could not care much and dashed toward Chu Kuangren with desire burning in their eyes.

In their opinion, Chu Kuangren equated to the hundred Dragon Blood Pills at that moment.

“Let’s attack together. Don’t be afraid!”

“That’s right. He’s just rumored to be powerful. His real strength isn’t much stronger than ours.”

“With so many of us, I refuse to believe we’re not his opponents.”

“Indeed!”

Many Dragon clan disciples dashed forward like a swarm of locusts, but Chu Kuangren stayed in his spot and did not make any moves.

Instead, he slowly raised his hand, revealing a crimson flame swaying in his palm.

It was a Phoenix’s Flame with more than a dozen kinds of divine flames merged into it!

The surrounding space felt like it was about to melt as an incomparably scorching and domineering aura pervaded.

“Attack!”

Chu Kuangren casually waved his hand, and the Phoenix’s Flame that filled the skies suddenly roared, covering the sky and sun!

All cultivators caught within the Phoenix’s Flame screamed in pain and tried to expel it but failed. The flame was like gangrene attached to their bones!

Something on them was constantly burning their life energy, which dissipated into the air.

“It’s sinful karma!”

“This Phoenix’s Flame possesses the effect of burning sinful karma. Is this the Crimson Karmic Lotus Flame?!”

“Damn it. What kind of flame is this?!”

The Phoenix’s Flame not only contained the Crimson Karmic Lotus Flame, but it was also merged with more than a dozen kinds of divine flames and had the characteristics of various flames.

It was terrifying and much more tyrannical than the Phoenix’s Flame of an ordinary Godly Phoenix. Besides, it was no weaker than some Phoenix’s Flames that had gone through eight bloodline awakenings!

Coupled with Chu Kuangren's Ninth-grade True Immortal cultivation, the Phoenix's Flame was horrifying!

Some sky-prides shuddered in fear upon seeing the scene.

"I can't believe he possesses such a technique."

Not far away, Ru Xue looked at the Phoenix's Flame that Chu Kuangren cast with fear in her eyes.

She believed that Chu Kuangren could kill her with just the Phoenix's Flame, let alone his other techniques.

That man was like a bottomless pit — he was unpredictable.

"Damn it. Use the Dragon Sealing Sword. Quick!"

"Let's join forces to set up the formation!"

The Dragon clan disciples summoned the Dragon Sealing Sword to form a powerful sword formation that swept toward Chu Kuangren!

Although that sword formation was created to target dragon qi, it was an amazing offensive technique!

Hundreds of golden Dragon Sealing Swords shuttled back and forth in the air, releasing countless majestic sword qi. Their power was boundless and extremely horrifying!

In the face of such a sword formation attack, even the most top-notch Prodigy would find it difficult to defend against.

However, Chu Kuangren merely stood where he was with an indifferent expression, unmoved by the attack.

"It can lock onto the dragon but not me."

As he formed a sword hand sign, a green sword ray shot out from his eyes!

In an instant, surges of boundless sword qi spread from him rapidly, and like countless leaves, the green sword qi formed the Green Leaf Sword Ocean.

The Sword Ocean and Dragon Sealing Sword collided continuously, causing the universe to tremble and the space to tear!

Eventually, the Green Leaf Sword Ocean forced the hundreds of Dragon Sealing Swords to shoot out again!

Countless Dragon clan disciples died under the weapon they were proud of. As the Green Leaf Sword Ocean's attack covered a vast area, the impact affected the entire Dragon clan!

The sword qi destroyed numerous high-rise buildings in the Dragon clan!

The Dragon clan, who was known as the leader of the Eight Golden clans, was facing an unprecedented disaster!

Yet, the culprit was a young junior!

Such a scene made many people's eyelids twitch.

The whole city was shocked to see those Dragon clan disciples lose their lives under Chu Kuangren's sword qi!

"The Dragon clan aren't great, but they're nothing in front of him."

"Indeed. He killed them as if he was chopping vegetables. That's frightening."

"Is he Chu Kuangren?!"

"Yes indeed. He's a monster!"

Even Feng Yu, who had collected information about Chu Kuangren, became afraid upon witnessing the scene.

At that moment, she finally understood what it meant by the phrase 'seeing is believing'.

Having witnessed it with her own eyes, she now realized how terrifying the rumored Chu Kuangren was. To think she even thought about using him as a tool!

She must have been out of her mind.

However, she felt fortunate she survived because she was useful to Chu Kuangren. Otherwise, he would not care even if she was the Feng clan's young lady, and killing her was as easy as raising his hands.

"Damn it. All of the True Immortals, attack together!" the Dragon Clan Leader roared.

Countless True Immortal cultivators dashed out and surrounded Chu Kuangren.

As the leader of the Eight Golden clans, the Dragon clan was not short of True Immortals.

Most of those True Immortals were cultivators of the older generation.

Since Chu Kuangren was currently a Ninth-grade True Immortal, those older cultivators would not be affected by the karmic repercussions even if they made a move.

"Chu Kuangren, although you're powerful, you're merely a True Immortal! Look around you. There are no less than thirty True Immortals here. How can you possibly win?!" the Dragon Clan Leader said with a cold gaze.

"You judge my combat strength by my cultivation level? How foolish you are!" Chu Kuangren said while shaking his head.

In terms of Immortal's Core, he cultivated Single Qi Three Clarity Transformation, while in terms of cultivation techniques, he possessed the Embodier Technique that even Arch Gilded Immortals might not know. Moreover, in terms of raw physical strength, he was infinitely close to a Gilded Immortal...

Not to mention, he possessed many Supreme Immortal Physiques.

Each of the mysterious divine abilities he had was extremely rare, and none of the ordinary True Immortals could possess what he had.

As Chu Kuangren said, it was simply foolish to judge his combat strength by his cultivation level!

“Attack!”

Unfortunately, those True Immortals had no idea they had made such a foolish mistake.

Relying on their large numbers, they did not panic and wanted to kill Chu Kuangren there and then!

“Killing you will not only make up for the faults of my Dragon clan, but the Dragon Tribe may even praise us.”

“Indeed. Chu Kuangren, your legend will end here today!”

All the True Immortals cast their various cultivation techniques!

Surges of majestic dragon qi erupted in all directions and shook the universe!

The countless dragon qi enveloped Chu Kuangren as if they were going to tear him to shreds.

“Universal Life-Death Cycle!”

As Chu Kuangren raised his hands, Celestial Demon qi shot up into the sky, and billions of Immortal Sparks lit up the land!

It was the light of life and the qi of death!

The Celestial Demon qi and Life-Death intent flowed through the air. Among the endless Immortal Sparks, a black and white light wheel appeared out of thin air, and a dense Life-Death intent suddenly erupted!

Thousands of dragon qi exploded before the life-death energy!

Some of the True Immortals closer to the impact were even more powerless in the face of the energy. Soon, they turned into clouds of blood mists.

The True Immortals’ blood splattered all over the city!

Meanwhile, Chu Kuangren stood in the air with his robe fluttering in the wind. He was like a Supreme Immortal King that controlled life and death!

The scene was beyond shocking, and all cultivators in the city stared with their mouths agape!

Chapter 1408: A Gilded Immortal Attacks, Shocks A Gilded Immortal, You Can Give It A Try

As the Universal Life-Death Cycle emerged, all True Immortals fell one after another!

The powerful might shocked a large group of Dragon clan’s True Immortals. They were dumbfounded!

“My goodness. W-What kind of ability is this?”

“It’s the Chaos Celestial Demon Physique’s divine ability. Damn it. How can the Chaos Celestial Demon Physique’s divine ability be so terrifying?!”

Every True Immortal at the scene gulped.

However, Chu Kuangren did not stop attacking. His gaze was cold, and a swordgrass with nine leaves appeared behind him when he raised his hands.

As the leaves of the grass moved, a surge of sword qi, as strong as a mountain, shot across the air like it was about to slash down all stars in the sky!

It was the Green Leaf Sword Vision's divine ability, Grass Sword Art!

With the Grass Sword Art mobilized, the sword qi ripped the space apart and slashed the stars in half!

All the True Immortals looked at the sword qi dashing toward them with horrified expressions.

To resist the sword qi, they wielded their Immortal Weapons, cast their Immortal Techniques, mobilized their divine abilities, ignited the dragon blood in their bodies, and utilized all their techniques!

However, Chu Kuangren was simply too powerful.

His Ninth-grade True Immortal cultivation and the Supreme Immortal Physique's divine ability were not something ordinary True Immortals could resist. In fact, it was also difficult for a Ninth-grade True Immortal to resist it.

Only a few True Immortals could block the sword qi, but most were killed.

The entire city was dumbfounded seeing all the True Immortals fall from the sky like raindrops.

To Chu Kuangren, killing the Dragon clan disciples was like chopping vegetables.

'Why is he acting the same when killing True Immortals?'

'Just how monstrously powerful is he?!'

"He definitely didn't use his full strength when he fought us that day. I suppose he didn't even use half of his strength."

Ru Xue looked at Chu Kuangren, her beautiful eyes filled with shock.

Many of the Dragon clan's True Immortals were terrified by what was happening, and they all looked at Chu Kuangren as if he was a monster!

"I can't believe a Prodigy like him exists in this universe!"

"He's a Peerless Prodigy. To be able to kill True Immortals without any difficulty, he's definitely a Peerless Prodigy!"

"No one can be his opponent unless the person is also a Ninth-grade True Immortal Peerless Prodigy!"

Frightened out of their wits, the Dragon clan's True Immortals retreated and dared not make another move.

However, Chu Kuangren did not show mercy despite that.

At that moment, he had turned into the God of Death.

He formed a sword hand sign, and a surge of majestic sword qi swept out.

It was the Blade of Zhou, Berserking Torment, followed by the Blade of Zhou, Tyrannical Ascension, and the Blade of Zhou, Infinite Void!

The sword art of the Embodier Technique was cast one after another, with Immortal Sparks bursting out. The might shook the entire universe!

Chu Kuangren was like a Supreme Immortal King and an ancient Celestial Demon, wreaking havoc across the land!

Wailing sounded everywhere he went.

Although handsome, his actions were even more terrifying than an Ashuran Ghoul!

Even so, Chu Kuangren was unmoved. His expression was as calm as ever throughout the massacre.

“Damn it. Chu Kuangren, we shall never see eye to eye!”

In the Dragon clan, a Gilded Immortal was so furious when looking at the fallen Dragon clan disciples that he ignored the karmic repercussions and attacked Chu Kuangren!

The might of the Gilded Immortal’s attack shook heaven and earth!

The moment his palm attack was unleashed, a golden dragon shadow wrapped with Daoist patterns and containing a dense Gilded Trait tore its way through to Chu Kuangren!

The crowd was in an uproar at the scene.

“A Gilded Immortal has made a move!”

“Chu Kuangren is doomed!”

The strength difference between a Gilded Immortal and a True Immortal was day and night!

Since ancient times, there had been very few examples of a True Immortal defeating a Gilded Immortal.

Meanwhile, the Dragon Clan Leader was delighted. “Fourth Elder, the Dragon clan will remember your contribution!”

In his opinion, as soon as the Fourth Elder, the Gilded Immortal attacked, Chu Kuangren would surely die no matter how talented he was.

“A Gilded Immortal? Heh! You’re much more courageous than your cowardly Clan Leader,” Chu Kuangren said indifferently.

The Dragon Clan Leader dared not take any actions because he was afraid of the karmic judgment!

In the face of the Gilded Immortal’s attack, Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes, and then a long bronze halberd emerged in his hand. It was the Embodier Immortal Weapon, the Great Wasteland Halberd!

With the Great Wasteland Halberd in his hand, purple demonic patterns emerged on his face!

“Great Wasteland Halberd Technique, Great Wasteland Subjugation!”

Chiyou's Demonic Patterns and the Great Wasteland Halberd Technique were simultaneously cast. As Chu Kuangren swung the halberd, his battle intent and ferocious qi erupted into the sky. Its might shook the universe as if an ancient Demonic Forefather had reappeared.

It was the halberd against the dragon shadow!

With a bang, an explosion erupted in the sky!

As the violent shockwave swept out, Chu Kuangren was pushed back more than a dozen kilometers. With a wave of his sleeve, he kept Shang Honghua, who was beside him, in the dimension inside his Enchanted Sleeve to avoid her from getting injured.

His act of blocking the dragon shadow with his halberd made everyone's eyelids twitch.

Even the mouths of the great ones, who had been paying attention to him, twitched.

"He managed to block the Gilded Immortal's attack!"

"What is his limit?!"

After all, the Dragon Clan Fourth Elder attacked out of anger, so he showed no mercy in his attack at all.

In everyone's opinion, it was incredible that Chu Kuangren could block the palm attack.

Meanwhile, Chu Kuangren grinned as he sensed his body's condition.

Having blocked the Gilded Immortal's attack, his Immortal body absorbed the brunt of the backlash from the impact. However, it had little effect on him as his raw physical strength was strong.

Now, he was indeed qualified to fight a Gilded Immortal!

Spit...

Unlike Chu Kuangren, who was fine, the attacking Gilded Immortal suffered the karmic repercussion and spat a mouthful of blood. Due to that, the Gilded Trait in his body dimmed.

Surprisingly, although his aura was a little sluggish, he did not seem greatly impacted.

"So that is all the karmic repercussion does on a Gilded Immortal?!"

"Wait. Does this mean Chu Kuangren has the strength to fight a Gilded Immortal? That's why the karmic repercussions aren't that strong!"

When everyone saw that the karmic repercussions did not affect the Dragon clan's Fourth Elder much, they were even more shocked.

The karmic repercussion was a restriction the will of the Immortal World had set to deter the older generations from interfering in the battle.

A cultivator with more powerful cultivation would suffer a greater repercussion if he intervened in the Battle of the Heavenly Champions.

However, the effect was relative. If a Heavenly Champion's strength was powerful to a certain extent, the repercussion effect would be weakened accordingly.

After all, Heavenly Champions needed some challenges.

“If I were against another Heavenly Champion, the karmic repercussion I received would be enough to severely injure or kill me!”

“However, I’ve only suffered a minor injury after dealing with Chu Kuangren!”

“That means the will of the Immortal World judges that Chu Kuangren is qualified to fight me!”

The Dragon clan’s Fourth Elder looked at Chu Kuangren and felt even grimmer.

His eyes narrowed. “However, you’re only qualified to fight me. The fact is that I’m a Gilded Immortal while you’re a True Immortal, so it’s easy for me to kill you!”

As he yelled out loud, his Gilded Immortal’s Core spread outward like a tide!

Golden Immortal Sparks shone in all directions!

“Oh, are you sure? In that case, you can give it a try!”

Instead of dodging, Chu Kuangren held the Great Wasteland Halberd in his hand. Behind him, apparitions of a hundred saints, rolling snow mountains, and countless regulations and precepts emerged.

The Hundred Academy’s Three Great Conjurations were activated!

Following that, an arrogant battle intent erupted and shook everything in every direction!

The Battle Secret Technique was activated!

Coupled with Chiyou’s Demonic Patterns and the Embodier Immortal Weapon, the Great Wasteland Halberd, Chu Kuangren was far more powerful than other sky-prides of his generation!

Chapter 1409: Fighting Against A Gilded Immortal, A Close Combat, The First Gilded Immortal To Be Killed

With Chiyou’s Demonic Patterns, the Battle Secret Technique, and the Embodier Immortal Weapon, the Great Wasteland Halberd, Chu Kuangren’s current combat strength was far more powerful than other sky-prides of his generation.

He was fearless even if he was before an existence in the Gilded Immortal Realm!

“Attack!”

The Dragon clan’s Fourth Elder yelled and suppressed the karmic repercussion with his Gilded Immortal cultivation as he dashed toward Chu Kuangren.

Each of the moves shattered the space and trembled the mountains.

With the Great Wasteland Halberd in hand, Chu Kuangren cast one Great Wasteland Halberd Technique after another with unparalleled might!

Boom!

The Gilded Immortal's palm and Great Wasteland Halberd Techniques collided, causing an explosion in the air!

The gleaming Immortal Sparks flowed everywhere and were vast enough to cover the sky!

Chu Kuangren was pushed back more than a dozen kilometers while the Dragon clan's Fourth Elder took a few steps back too!

Chu Kuangren managed to push back a Gilded Immortal with his True Immortal cultivation!

That scene exhilarated the cultivators in the entire city and shocked them to their core!

Everyone was watching the battle intently.

"Golden Dragon Sword Qi!"

At that moment, the Dragon clan's Fourth Elder took out a golden Immortal Sword and cast the Dragon clan's Sword Art!

Sword qi interweaved into a golden dragon shadow in the air that swooped toward Chu Kuangren.

"Great Wasteland Halberd, Great Wasteland Subjugation!"

Chu Kuangren did not dodge or evade, and the final move of the Great Wasteland Halberd Techniques erupted with a bang!

The raging halberd shattered the dragon shadow!

Then, followed by a clunking sound, a sword chant reverberated throughout the universe!

The white-jaded Descendant Self Sword at Chu Kuangren's waist unsheathed itself, and its sword ray shrouded the nine heavens!

Countless runes reflected in the void, radiating with dazzling Immortal Sparks!

Chu Kuangren kept his Great Wasteland Halberd aside and held the Descendant Self Sword. Once he mobilized his Immortal's Core to channel it into the sword, Dao Proclamation Seals on the blade began to light up one by one.

"Blade of Zhou, Infinite Void!" Chu Kuangren yelled.

A huge sword shadow rose into the sky with countless Daoist patterns interweaved in it.

At the same time, a domineering and tyrannical aura filled the sky above the fort, making the air suffocating!

It was the Infinite Void Sword, which was a tyrant's sword!

The tyrannical and unparalleled sword attack made its way toward the Dragon clan's Fourth Elder!

Even though the Dragon clan's Fourth Elder was a Gilded Immortal, he dared not be careless in the face of the sword attack.

“Dragon Roars Nine Heavens!”

With a yell, the Dragon clan’s Fourth Elder cast his ultimate move!

Countless strands of dragon qis spread from him and interweaved in the air, where they transformed into nine golden dragon qis. As they intertwined, they turned into a huge sword shadow that slashed forward!

The moment the ultimate sword moves met, explosions erupted. The majestic energy spread like a tide, blasting a huge hole in the clouds!

In an instant, no clouds could be seen in the sky!

All they could see was the brilliant sword qis interweaving and colliding!

Meanwhile, the city below the sword qis was trembling non-stop from the energy of the terrifying collision.

Some cultivators gulped as they looked at the energy above them.

They could feel that a sliver of the sword qi in the sky was sufficient to kill them thousand times over.

“Dragon King Claw!”

After releasing the sword qi, the Dragon clan’s Fourth Elder cast his ultimate move again, and the vastness of his Immortal’s Core far exceeded what a True Immortal Realm should have.

Boom!

The golden dragon qi turned into a giant dragon claw as big as the sky. Then, the dragon claw grabbed forward and tore the void into shreds in the process!

Before the giant claw, Chu Kuangren was as tiny as an ant!

However, qi and blood suddenly erupted from Chu Kuangren’s body and into the sky, shaking the nine heavens!

“Divine Thunder Fist!”

He punched forward, and endless blood-colored bolts of lightning accompanied by flashing Immortal Sparks rumbled non-stop!

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Countless blood-colored bolts of lightning, formed by qi and blood, slammed on the dragon claws. The dragon scales blew into pieces, and the Daoist patterns wore down!

Eventually, the blood-colored bolts of lightning dissipated while the dragon claw shattered!

“Your raw physical strength is so powerful!”

The Dragon clan’s Fourth Elder could not believe his eyes.

Chu Kuangren’s raw physical strength was close to that of a Gilded Immortal!

Most Gilded Immortals became Gilded Immortals merely through cultivation, and their raw physical strengths were not much better than some True Immortals that specialized in body strengthening.

Since ancient times, not many Immortals had been able to become Gilded Immortals by refining the Gilded Physical Body Trait to its limit!

The path of body strengthening was much more difficult than cultivating the Immortal's Core.

"It's too early for you to be surprised," Chu Kuangren said indifferently.

Countless silver-white Daoist patterns, which contained majestic spacetime energy, started to spread from him!

It was the Spacetime Sealing Technique!

"The cultivation gap between you and me is huge. You must be dreaming to think you can bind me with spacetime energy!" the Dragon clan's Fourth Elder said coldly.

Then, his Immortal's Core surged out of his body and hit the silver-white Daoist patterns.

With his cultivation, he could get rid of the Spacetime Sealing Technique's influence with less than one-tenth of his breathing technique.

However, the one-tenth breathing time was what Chu Kuangren wanted.

Chu Kuangren took a step forward and appeared before the Fourth Elder. He mobilized his body's qi and blood and the fierce, unparalleled energy in his fists and feet before attacking!

He wanted to have close combat with the Dragon clan's Fourth Elder!

In fact, as a powerful body-strengthening cultivator, such a move was definitely a huge advantage for him.

Fists, feet, elbows, knees, fingers...

At that moment, every part of Chu Kuangren's body seemed to be transformed into the most terrifying weapon in the world as he went for the Dragon clan's Fourth Elder.

Chu Kuangren brought his exquisite close combat skill into full play!

The Dragon clan's Fourth Elder could only apply a layer of Immortal's Core on his body's surface to resist the continuous and terrifying attack!

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The fist-to-flesh collisions exploded one after another!

The Immortal's Core of the Dragon clan's Fourth Elder was constantly shaken under successive collisions.

With Chu Kuangren's proficient skill, he attacked the Dragon clan's Fourth Elder so hard that the latter was powerless to fight back and could only defend himself.

The Dragon clan's Fourth Elder felt extremely aggrieved!

He was a Gilded Immortal, but he was being beaten by Chu Kuangren!

For that, the Dragon clan's Fourth Elder was furious and ashamed.

"Damn it!"

He roared and gave up defending himself. Soon, his fists were wrapped with the majestic Immortal's Core, and he was planning to go against Chu Kuangren head-on!

"Ha!"

Chu Kuangren chuckled. In terms of close combat and raw physical strength, the Dragon clan's Fourth Elder was far inferior to him.

The moves of the Dragon clan's Fourth Elder were full of flaws as he attacked with anger.

Chu Kuangren grabbed onto one of his flaws and unleashed a fist attack. Soon, endless Blood Lightning gathered at one point before exploding and hitting the chest of the Dragon clan's Fourth Elder.

It was a destructive blow!

The Immortal's Core of the Dragon clan's Fourth Elder was already unstable after being repeatedly hit by Chu Kuangren.

Now, Chu Kuangren's fist attack had ripped off his body protecting his Immortal's Core. The impact sent him flying back with blood spurting out from his mouth, and he was smashed onto the ground like a meteor.

With a loud bang, the earth sank!

A huge pothole with a depth of thousands of meters was formed. Inside laid the Dragon clan's Fourth Elder with his face as pale as paper. The radiance on his Immortal body had dimmed, and the corner of his mouth was bleeding.

To think Chu Kuangren's attack had severely injured a Gilded Immortal!

"I can't believe he did that!"

"His combat strength is far beyond our imagination!"

"Even a Gilded Immortal isn't his opponent!"

Cultivators in the entire city and great ones in the starry sky were all amazed.

Then, Chu Kuangren made another move again.

"I'll take you as the first Gilded Immortal I kill!" Chu Kuangren said indifferently.

As his words subsided, nine True Emperor Dragons soared behind him!

Chapter 1410: Eighty Demonic Generals Attack, Dragon Clan Forefather, In Complete Despair

"I'll take you as the first Gilded Immortal I kill!" Chu Kuangren said indifferently.

Then, nine strands of dragon qi shot up into the sky, and the dragon's roar resounded through the universe!

Those nine dragon qis were different from the Dragon clan's dragon qi.

They were domineering, noble, supreme, and incomparable to all True Dragons!

They were True Emperor Dragons formed by human fortune!

With the True Emperor Dragons surrounding Chu Kuangren, he looked like a Human Emperor that had been resurrected. His every move screamed superior and nobility.

Following that, Chu Kuangren raised his hands, and seven huge bronze cauldrons flew out of his sleeves.

They were seven of the Nine Province Cauldrons!

The emergence of the seven cauldrons was like seven vast and boundless continents. Their horrifying might made a fort seem incomparably small.

"Land!" Chu Kuangren yelled.

The True Emperor Dragons mobilized the seven cauldrons and crushed down on the Dragon clan's Fourth Elder!

"No!"

The eyes of the Dragon clan's Fourth Elder widened as he was overwhelmed by the threat of death!

Ignoring his injuries, he mobilized his Immortal's Core and channeled his energy to its limit. As he slashed forward with the Immortal Sword in his hand, his dragon-shaped sword qi soared into the sky and collided violently with the Nine Province Cauldrons!

With a bang, the surrounding space shattered, and the dragon-shaped sword qi exploded!

The Nine Province Cauldrons broke past the dragon-shaped sword qi and slammed on the Dragon clan's Fourth Elder.

Bang!

During the first impact, the Dragon clan's Fourth Elder was sent flying backward.

Bang!

During the second impact, the Immortal Sparks of the Dragon clan's Fourth Elder's Immortal body turned dim.

Bang!

During the third impact, the Dragon clan's Fourth Elder's Immortal body cracked, and he spat a mouthful of blood again!

Bang! Bang! Bang!

During the fourth, fifth, and sixth impact, the Gilded Trait in the Dragon clan's Fourth Elder's Immortal body continued to break. It was like his body was a piece of fragile porcelain that could shatter at any time!

During the last impact, the Fourth Elder's bones were almost completely crushed, and his internal organs were all battered. He collapsed to the ground like a mass of mud and died!

Gilded Immortal blood with a touch of Gilded Trait flowed out from his body.

Seven of the Nine Province Cauldrons attacked as rapidly as arrows. By the time everyone came to their senses, the Dragon clan's Fourth Elder had already fallen!

A True Immortal had killed a Gilded Immortal!

All the cultivators that witnessed the incident shuddered in fear.

"Chu Kuangren, my Dragon clan will fight you to death!"

As the Dragon Clan Leader yelled, his Gilded Immortal's Core erupted. Some elders in the Dragon clan also started unleashing their attacks.

They were all existences in the Gilded Immortal Realm.

However, they could no longer care about the karmic repercussions. If they did not attack, Chu Kuangren would destroy the entire Dragon clan!

Seeing that scene, Chu Kuangren simply waved his sleeves.

Immediately, an ancient black three-legged cauldron crashed to the ground, and a surging demonic qi soared out from it!

The crowd noticed several ancient Demonic Generals emerge from the huge cauldron!

It was part of Chiyou's inheritance that Chu Kuangren had obtained, the Demonic General Cauldron!

Boom!

A black demonic ray shot out!

Several Demonic Generals' celestial souls walked out of the demonic qi, and their boundless demonic qi instantly shrouded the entire Dragon clan!

The Jiuli Eighty Demonic Generals were here!

"What?! How does he possess such a technique?"

"T-This is impossible!"

Everyone was horrified.

Nevertheless, the Jiuli Eighty Demonic Generals ignored everyone's fear.

As they scattered in all directions, countless demonic rays reflected in the sky, where countless Daoist patterns interweaved and turned into a gigantic enchanted boundary. Then, it shrouded all Gilded Immortals, including the Dragon Clan Leader, within.

It was the Eighty Heavenly Demonic Formation!

As soon as the formation was activated, even a Gilded Immortal like the Dragon Clan Leader would be suppressed!

Although the eighty Gilded Immortals were not in their heyday, on top of the cultivation experience that they had gained during their lifetime, their cultivation had greatly improved after cultivating the Ghost Dao cultivation technique that Chu Kuangren gave them.

Among them, some had even recovered to the Gilded Immortal level.

The Eighty Heavenly Demonic Formation, which they joined forces to cast, was extremely mighty, and its powerful demonic qi shocked the universe!

In the Heavenly Demonic Formation, eighty Demonic Generals were fighting with the Dragon Clan Leader and the Dragon clan's Gilded Immortals.

The situation of the battle was indistinguishable for a while!

However, in the depths of the Dragon clan, a tyrannical aura erupted, and an incomparably terrifying will hit the Heavenly Demonic Formation.

The expression of the eighty Demonic Generals shifted.

"It's an Arch Gilded will!"

"An Arch Gilded intent!"

The spectators of the battle were all in an uproar!

Everyone looked into the depths of the Dragon clan and saw a surge of dragon qi rising into the sky. Within the dragon qi, a spirited white-haired elder with an intimidating presence stepped out.

The domineering dragon might wreaked havoc across heaven and earth!

He was the Dragon clan's Grand Forefather, the only Arch Gilded Realm cultivator in the Dragon clan!

An Arch Gilded Realm cultivator could not intervene in the Battle of the Heavenly Champions. Moreover, with the Holy Violet Emperor Planet now opened to the public, the rules of Interstellar Arena also applied to the Holy Violet Emperor Planet. Therefore, an Arch Gilded Immortal could not fully exert his or her strength.

At such a sensitive time, the Dragon Clan Forefather did not want to make a move at first. However, he eventually did so because Chu Kuangren had pushed them too far!

If he did not make a move, the Dragon clan would be destroyed!

"Chu Kuangren, the Dragon clan has suffered severe casualties today because of you. It's time you stopped attacking us!" the Dragon Clan Forefather said aloud while staring at Chu Kuangren.

However, Chu Kuangren replied to him indifferently, "I said, hand over Jing Hui, and I'll spare some lives of the Dragon clan."

"You're an impudent fool!"

Having been provoked by Chu Kuangren, the mighty Dragon Clan Forefather's face was ashen.

Chu Kuangren had made himself clear. Even if they handed over Jing Hui, he would still destroy the Dragon clan!

Following that, the Dragon Clan Forefather mobilized his Immortal's Core, which turned into a gigantic Immortal's Core enchanted boundary that covered the entire Dragon clan.

In an instant, the demonic qi dissipated.

"Hmph. As long as I'm here, you can't hurt the Dragon clan!"

An Arch Gilded elite would also receive karmic repercussions, so he could not harm a Heavenly Champion.

However, it was also impossible for a Heavenly Champion to harm an Arch Gilded Immortal.

The Dragon Clan Forefather acted to protect the Dragon clan people but did not confront Chu Kuangren head-on because he believed that Chu Kuangren could not harm the Dragon clan anymore.

"I didn't expect the Dragon clan would be forced to use this way to defend against Chu Kuangren. That's really embarrassing."

"Yeah. Chu Kuangren has made a mess of the Dragon clan. Now, they can only survive under an Arch Gilded Immortal's protection instead of fighting back. Tsk tsk, that's utterly humiliating."

"That should end it."

No one thought Chu Kuangren could take any action against the Dragon clan when an Arch Gilded Immortal made a move.

"Master, do let the Feng clan take over the rest."

At that moment, Feng Yu said to Chu Kuangren through voice transmission.

With the Dragon clan damaged, Feng Yu believed that the Feng clan's strength was enough to put things to an end.

"Not necessary," Chu Kuangren said indifferently.

Following that, he raised his hands. Dark clouds suddenly emerged in the sky, and majestic Yin qi filled the land!

A towering gate fell from the sky!

The gate, which divided Yin Yang World, was Hell's Gate!

With the emergence of the Hell's Gate, a skeletal Yin soldier walked out of it, and a vast Arch Gilded intent spread everywhere!

The Yin Yang World shook together!

It was the Arch Gilded Immortal-grade Skeletal Yin General!

“What!”

The expressions of the Dragon Clan Leader and Dragon Clan Forefather sank.

“Attack,” Chu Kuangren summoned indifferently.

The Skeletal Yin General commanded the order by swinging the pitch-black sickle that had emerged in his hand at the Immortal’s Core enchanted boundary, which the Dragon Clan Forefather created, and shattered it!

Immediately after, the two Arch Gilded Immortals fought against each other.

Once again, the Eighty Demonic Generals formed the Heavenly Demonic Formation to envelop the Dragon Clan Leader and others.

Soon, countless Yin soldiers rushed out of Hell’s Gate. Among them, some were of Gilded Immortal existence!

With the emergence of the Million Strong Underworld Army, the Dragon clan was in complete despair!
