

Unparalleled 1571

Chapter 1571 Xue Kunpeng Versus Jue Wushen, Friends Around The World, Battle Royale

Jue Wushen confronted Xue Kunpeng amidst the chaos. Two drastically different Arch Gilded Intent collided, stirring up the Chaos qi current in the area. Suddenly, the atmosphere became intense and serious.

“Lan Yu, Chu Hong, go protect the King. I’ll deal with him,” Jue Wushen said.

Lan Yu nodded. Before she left, she added, “He’s Xue Kunpeng from the Subspecies Restricted Area. He’s fast, so be careful.”

“A speedy subspecies Kun Peng? I got it.”

Lan Yu, Chu Hong, and Shang Honghua flew toward the massive egg.

“Trying to flee in front of me? Stop dreaming!”

Xue Kunpeng grunted. He wanted to use his extreme speed to stop the three of them, but before he could, a powerful Celestial Demon qi erupted and stopped him.

The Celestial Demon qi intertwined in the void and formed an energy domain that trapped him inside.

However, the void energy filled the domain, forcing Xue Kunpeng to stop. That was when he dared not act recklessly anymore and started to take Jue Wushen seriously.

“How dare you look elsewhere before me?” Jue Wushen said indifferently.

He channeled his Void Celestial Demon energy and shot a light beam at Xue Kunpeng.

Xue Kunpeng countered with a punch.

However, his yokai qi was punctured by Jue Wushen’s Celestial Demon energy, and he was pushed backward a dozen meters.

“Celestial Demon Tribe?!”

Xue Kunpeng’s expression sank.

The Restricted Areas were one of the most terrifying forces in the universe, but before he came out, the ancient beings inside warned him about the Celestial Demon Tribe.

The Restricted Areas were never afraid of any forces except for the Celestial Demon Tribe!

“Hahaha! I shall see what the Celestial Demon Tribe can do!”

Xue Kunpeng shouted and channeled his yokai qi to the limit.

Kaboom!

It was a Celestial Demon versus a Subspecies!

On the other hand, the multiple layers of restriction seals were being stripped away by the Eastern Sky Divine Daoist, Great Arbiter Divine Maiden, Zhuangxun's successor, and others. At that moment, they were down to the last few layers.

"Chu Kuangren, I bet you never thought you would be in such a situation!"

The Eastern Sky Divine Daoist cackled as he channeled his Grand Solar energy to attack the restriction seals.

The other sky-prides and Prodigies followed up with their own attacks.

Following a deafening blast, the last restriction seals on the egg shattered.

Just when they were about to ram through the egg, a powerful energy presence erupted from the horizon.

"If you wish to lay a finger on Brother Chu, you'll have to go through me first!"

Yu Zhi approached with the Golden Jade Immortal Sparks circulating around her as though she was a superior deity. She blasted her Golden Jade Immortal's Core energy at the Eastern Sky Divine Daoist and the others, sending them flying backward.

"Jade Pool Maiden Sage, you alone cannot stop us," the Eastern Sky Divine Daoist said.

"She's not alone!"

More and more Celestial Demon qi erupted as the elites from the Celestial Demon Tribe joined the battle.

In fact, not only them but even Cao Yun and Wang Chentian from Hundred Academy, Luo Yan from Holy Violet Emperor Planet, the Iceworm Ru Xue, and many others joined the fight.

"Stop dreaming! You people are not allowed to lay a finger on Master!"

Immortal Sparks shot up into the sky.

Fu Yin came to everyone's assistance. Although she had yet to break through to the Arch Gilded Immortal Realm, she was infinitely closer than she was before.

"Haha! We're here to help Brother Chu as well!"

"Brother Chu has saved me before, so I'm here to return the favor!"

Another group of cultivators arrived.

The Eastern Sky Divine Daoist recognized none of them. "Where did they come from?"

Fu Yin glanced at them and realized they were the cultivators who previously got trapped by Ziyue Ming's illusion.

"Yeah! We're here to return the favor! Brother Chu has saved us before, and now that he's in danger, we must help him!" the leading cultivator with the big saber said.

"Going against the Master means going against Emerald Hill and Tushan!"

A bunch of yokai foxes came.

The leading yokai fox was a girl. She was not exactly powerful as she was only a Fifth-grade Gilded Immortal, but the other yokai fox behind her were all Gilded Immortals as well. The number would make up for their lack of strength.

“Emerald Hill and Tushan’s yokai foxes? What the hell? Why are they here?” The Eastern Sky Divine Daoist was shocked and confused.

“Hey, Lil Fox!”

Lan Yu recognized Lil Fox. She was the Moonlight Fox, a subspecies of the Fox Tribe that Chu Kuangren helped.

“Amitabha. Please, everyone, do not force this.”

Jing Hui put her hands together, and Buddhist light was circulating around her. Beside her was No-Knife Monk, looking ferocious and ready to fight. He, too, was on Chu Kuangren’s side.

Back when Chu Kuangren dealt with the Buddha Destroyer in Lapis Lazuli Land and helped suppress the Dao contamination qi, the Buddhist world owed him a big favor.

Even though Chu Kuangren possessed the Papiyas energy, they did not mind lending him a helping hand since he was proven to be not the Buddha Destroyer.

“The Buddhist world?”

Eastern Sky Divine Daoist, Zhuanxu’s successor, and the others were instantly disheartened.

Who the hell said Chu Kuangren offended many people?

The Celestial Tribe, the Jade Pool Sacred Land, Hundred Academy, Three Clarity Daoist Sect, the Yokai Tribe, and even the Buddhist world came to help.

There were other sky-prides from many other forces as well.

It would be more fitting to say Chu Kuangren had friends all over the world instead of making enemies throughout his journey.

“Damn it! Since when did Chu Kuangren have so many friends? Who the hell said he offended a lot of people?”

“Why do I feel like it is us who offended them?”

The Eastern Sky Divine Daoist and company wore a bitter look on their faces.

Even Lan Yu, who sent the rescue message, was shocked by the reinforcements. She did not expect that many people to turn up.

“Hmph! How dare a bunch of ragtag groups stand in my way?!”

A cold voice sounded.

Ziyue Changkong grunted as he stared at Lan Yu and the others in a condescending manner. Then, he performed a series of mystical hand seals, and a strange surge of soul energy scattered outward.

Strange flowers started to bloom in the realm.

“This technique again?! He’s from the Soul Restricted Area!” Yu Zhi’s expression turned grim.

She knew how terrifying the technique would be. “Everyone, protect your mental state!”

Unfortunately, it was too late. Many of them had fallen under the influence of the technique, and their consciousnesses were being sucked into the illusion.

“Roar!”

A dragon’s roar echoed.

A golden-red dragon charged toward Ziyue Changkong and interrupted his casting.

“Oh? You can withstand my illusion?” Ziyue Changkong stared at Shang Honghua in surprise.

“Hmph! Your illusion is nothing compared to the devil inside me!” Shang Honghua answered with a scoff.

She used to be affected by the Devil traits of the Ashura Blood Dragon and was badly tormented by it. However, she cultivated the Restful Mantra to help counter the Devil inside her, and it indirectly strengthened her soul. That was why she had a higher resistance to soul attacks compared to others.

“Go!”

Lan Yu, Shang Honghua, and Chu Hong teamed up against Ziyue Changkong. They had to prevent him from casting the soul technique again.

All the forces split up into two sides — one side to protect the egg and the other side to destroy the egg.

The scale of the battle grew incredibly massive as the fight went on.

It was considered one of the rarest scenes throughout history.

Chapter 1572 Cannot Retreat, Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather Attacks, The Egg Cracks

A rare battle broke out in the Chaos Fragment.

Prodigies from various forces, such as the Buddhist world, Yokai Tribe, Restricted Areas, and so on engaged in a fierce battle. Dazzling but dangerous energies scattered across the sky and intertwined with the Chaos qi in the area to form a beautiful scene.

However, behind the beauty was lethality.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

A series of explosions from the battle between Jue Wushen and Xue Kunpeng went off amidst the chaos.

The void energy and the subspecies yokai qi intertwined, which further exacerbated the already deadly blasts in the area.

“Celestial Demon qi is indeed terrifying, but you are lackluster!” Xue Kunpeng grinned.

The crimson yokai qi in him surged as he blasted it at Jue Wushen, dissolving his Void energy again and again.

“A Peerless Prodigy is indeed powerful. I have just broken through into the Arch Gilded Immortal Realm, and although I might be able to match him for now, I won’t last long,” Jue Wushen muttered with furrowed brows.

He believed that in time, he would grow to match Xue Kunpeng or even be stronger than him. Unfortunately, he did not have that opportunity.

He glanced at the massive egg behind him and had a look of determination in his gaze. “No matter what happens, I cannot retreat before the King comes out.”

He was almost certain that Chu Kuangren was inside the massive egg.

Otherwise, the commotion would have attracted Chu Kuangren’s attention, and he would have come to their aid.

Now would be the time for them to protect their King!

“Heaven-Shadowing Palm!”

A massive palm crashed down from the sky, carrying immense pressure that would crush all souls.

It was the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist using his avatar to unleash the palm attack!

The cultivators under the falling palm were forced to flee, except for a figure in green.

The man stared at the massive palm that was crashing with sheer determination. He wielded his bamboo sword, and his eyes gleamed with Immortal Sparks.

Sword qi surrounded him and soon formed a massive tornado around him.

“Immortal Destruction Sword Qi, Immortal Slaughter!”

The bamboo sword trembled and released a massive surge of sword qi into the sky.

All things fell before the sheer size and pressure of the sword qi.

It did not take long before the space around him started to crumble and collapse.

When the sword qi clashed with the massive palm, billions of Immortal Sparks exploded and blinded the area! It was as though doomsday had arrived!

“What a terrifying energy!”

“The fight between the host of an Honorable Supreme Immortal Physique and a Peerless Prodigy is really terrifying!”

Some of the cultivators were horrified by the sheer scale of the battle.

Bang!

A figure was blasted out of the blinding Immortal Sparks, and he coughed out a mouthful of blood.

On a closer look, it was Ye Zhu!

“Ye Zhu lost?”

Some of the Prodigies found the outcome unsurprising.

The Honorable Supreme Immortal Physique was strong, but as the one who ruled over the Nine Houses, the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist had the Immortal Hall as support. With his cultivation level, he should not be underestimated.

“Not only Chu Kuangren, but I will also erase your existence!”

The Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist stood in the air, overflowing Immortal Sparks that made him the spotlight.

A frosty glint flashed in his eyes. To him, Chu Kuangren and his friends were an obstacle, and allowing them to live would be a threat.

It would be wise to deal with all of them once and for all today.

“Hmph! We still don’t know for sure,” Ye Chu said with a smile. He wiped the blood off his lips, and from the look in his eyes, he refused to yield.

The battle between various forces continued.

Due to the fierceness of the battle, no one was aware of the Chaos qi in the area thinning rapidly.

The Chaos qi grew so thin that the great ones outside the Chaos Fragment could already peek inside with their Immortal Consciousness.

“The Chaos qi is thinning. Something is happening inside the Chaos Fragment!”

“What is going on!? Why is everyone fighting?”

Some of the great ones were shocked when they saw the battle royale.

What caused the sky-prides and Prodigies to fight?

“What’s going on?”

“What is that egg? Could it be some Celestial Demon again?”

The great ones communicated via their Immortal Consciousnesses and were baffled by the existence of the egg.

For some reason, they sensed a massive energy brewing inside the egg, as if something terrifying was hatching.

...

The battle between Ziyue Changkong and the three ladies continued.

Lan Yu and the other two knew that Ziyue Changkong excelled in the soul technique, so it would be best not to let him cast any of it. Otherwise, other than Shang Honghua, she and Chu Hong would be rendered defenseless.

Among the three of them, only Lan Yu had broken through to the Arch Gilded Immortal Realm, so she took the role of the main attacker while the other two supported her. They attacked with speed and various offensive methods, and all techniques were cast in succession, leaving Ziyue Changkong with no time to cast his soul techniques.

“How annoying!”

Ziyue Changkong’s violet eyes showed a hint of frostiness.

Then, he revealed a bronze mirror that had runes circulating on its surface. It seemed to contain some kind of mystic energy.

The moment the mirror shone, Immortal Sparks shimmered.

When being shone at, Lan Yu and Chu Hong froze on the spot, as if their souls were pinned.

Only Shang Honghua, who cultivated the Restful Mantra, managed to resist the mirror. She narrowed her eyes and channeled the Double Dragon energy to the limit. She stood in front of her comrades and bought them some time.

Lan Yu managed to recover with the time bought, but she had a grim look on her face. “Be careful of the mirror’s shine.”

“Okay!”

Chu Hong recovered shortly after Lan Yu and nodded to the advice.

Ziyue Changkong, who was holding the mirror high up in the air, scoffed and said, “You three can’t stop me, just like Ye Zhu and Jue Wushen can’t stop the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist and Xue Kunpeng.”

“Chu Kuangren!”

At that moment, the Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather shouted.

Having managed to break free from his imaginary battle with himself, he stared at the egg with determination overflowing from his eyes. “You must die today, or you’ll be the Demonic Blockade that will haunt me for the rest of my life!”

He had finally decided to act. After struggling with his thoughts for a while, he suppressed the fear he had for Chu Kuangren.

He knew if he remained still, Chu Kuangren would become the Demonic Blockade that would continue to traumatize him. His cultivation would then become stagnant, and he would never be able to break through to the Arch Gilded Immortal Realm.

“Great!”

“Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather, I was right about you!”

The Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist, Xue Kunpeng, and the others were delighted.

The Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather was definitely one of the best Prodigies present. As long as he could overcome his fear for Chu Kuangren, he would be a great aid to the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist and the others.

With Lan Yu, Jue Wushen, Ye Zhu, and the others engaged, no one was there to hold the Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather back.

“Golden Crow Nine Shining Rings!”

The golden ring behind Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather shone brightly and released endless Immortal Sparks. Golden Crow Flame burst out and formed a massive claw to attack the egg.

Bang!

The fiery claw was powerful! Not even an Arch Gilded Immortal could withstand it unscathed.

Bang!

The fiery claw landed precisely on the massive egg.

“No!”

“My King!”

Lan Yu and the others were shocked.

The Chaos qi on the egg’s surface rumbled and intertwined with the Golden Crow Flame before it dissipated.

The attack was not enough to break the egg, but it managed to erase half of the Chaos qi surrounding it.

“One more strike!”

The Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather narrowed his eyes and prepared for a second attack.

However, at that moment, the remaining Chaos qi on the egg’s surface disappeared completely, and cracks started to appear.

Following that, green light burst from the cracks.

Chapter 1573 Chaos Green Lotus, Great Dao’s Competition, Daoist Progenitor Attacks

As soon as the Chaos qi on the surface of the egg disappeared, cracks appeared and started spreading rapidly. Then, light burst out from within.

Mystical Daoist patterns intertwined from within, and Daoist chimes echoed across the chaos, shaking even the heaven.

The sudden changes in the egg silenced the entire battlefield as the sky-prides and Prodigies stopped fighting. All of them were staring at the cracking egg.

What was inside the egg?

Was it Chu Kuangren? Or was it the Innate Source Supreme Treasure that they hoped?

“Master...”

As the crack spread across the egg’s surface, Lan Yu’s heart pounded wildly.

She was right. The feeling was indeed from her master.

The light shone through the chaos, and a mystical energy fluctuation scattered outward. In fact, not only the Chaos Fragment but even the entire Immortal World was affected by the energy fluctuation.

All the great ones concentrated their attention on the Chaos Fragment.

When the Chaos qi and the egg shells completely dissipated, a shimmering green bud appeared before everyone’s eyes.

The oval bud waved along the Chaos qi current and released seemingly endless Immortal Sparks in the air.

Many cultivators who laid eyes on the green bud felt an unprecedented desire of owning it.

It was an Opportunity of Fortune, one of the greatest that they had ever seen!

“What kind of bud is this? Why would it give out such feelings?”

Even the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist and Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather were in awe.

However, when the great ones of the Immortal World laid eyes on it, they were shocked.

“T-This is...”

The Eternal Immortal Emperor of Kunlun Immortal Hall was deeply shocked.

On the other hand, the elderly in violet Daoist robes, who was also inside the chaos, was in awe when he saw the bud. “It’s that thing!”

The strongest of the Celestial Demon Tribe who guarded the void sensed the bud in the chaos as well, and he chuckled. “That kid always surprises me. I can’t believe he even got his hands on this. There’s no place for this item in the world, and it should have been destroyed by the Great Dao! Anomaly, he’s really an anomaly!”

“It can’t be wrong! The unusual Daoist Rhymes, the Chaos energy presence that not even the Great Dao can conceal... This is the Chaos Green Lotus!”

“Oh my goodness! Why is the Chaos Green Lotus here?!”

“Impossible! The Great Dao doesn’t allow its existence, so why is it here?!”

The great ones who recognized the Chaos Green Lotus were shocked.

The Chaos Green Lotus was a Supreme Treasure that existed during the late era of the Great Dao. It could be considered the strongest and most mystical treasure in the realm!

It trumped even the Innate Source Supreme Treasures because even the Great Dao feared that item.

It should have been destroyed when the chaos opened up into the current universe; it should not be able to reappear!

However, the green bud before their eyes was indeed the Chaos Green Lotus.

The great ones could somehow feel the Great Dao trembling and heaven and earth rumbling. It was as if the Great Dao of this world had locked onto the bud and attempted to destroy it.

“Is the Great Dao going to take action?” one of the great ones said.

At the end of the universe, the strongest of the Celestial Demon Tribe, Wu Han, reacted with a frosty expression. “Is the Great Dao acting?”

Then, endless Celestial Demon qi spread outward and swept across a dozen planets in the blink of an eye.

He stood up from the nameless planet. His tiny figure looked grand and majestic even when compared to a planet. It was as if an ancient Celestial Demon had awoken.

“Great Dao, do you really think it would be as easy as before?” Wu Han said indifferently.

Endless Celestial Demon qi swept across the universe and somehow resonated with the Great Dao’s vital force.

The ancient great ones across the Immortal World and even the entire universe looked up to the sky with serious looks on their faces.

“He’s fighting the Great Dao!”

“Terrifying!”

“His strength makes me believe that he’s not just someone with the Chaos Celestial Demon Physique but a real Chaos Celestial Demon!”

The Celestial Demon qi clashed with the Great Dao’s vital force.

The ancient great ones watched the battle using their respective methods.

The clash was but a moment. However, everyone watching felt like it lasted billions of years or even an eternity!

“The Celestial Demon qi is no match for the Great Dao’s vital force!” One of the great ones narrowed his eyes and said.

As Wu Han’s energy had fallen to a disadvantage, a violet Immortal Spark came to Wu Han’s aid and helped him fight back the Great Dao’s vital force.

Following the violet Immortal Spark’s aid, the declining Celestial Demon qi got revitalized and managed to overpower the Great Dao’s vital force.

“Someone else has acted as well?!”

“Who is it?! Who is powerful enough to fight the Great Dao’s vital force?!”

The great ones were shocked.

At the same time, some of them were aware of the mystical energy presence in the violet Immortal Sparks, which somehow shared the same energy presence as the Great Dao's vital force!

"I was right. Those ancient existences still exist, or at least some of them do. The Daoist Progenitor who acclaimed the Great Dao is still here!"

"The recluse behind Cloud Nine, the one who embraced the Daoist Truth, the one who transcended beyond the earth, he who be the master of Dao! Haha, this is amazing! The Immortal Dao's ancestor is still here!"

"Not only that, but he even resisted the Great Dao's vital force with Wu Han. Interesting."

The violet Immortal Sparks sparked a heated discussion among the great ones.

At the end of the universe, Wu Han conserved his Celestial Demon qi after withstanding the Great Dao's vital force. He then looked in the direction of where the Daoist Progenitor was and said, "Thank you for your help."

"This universe has no place for the Chaos Green Lotus, but it is undeniably a great boost for this current era. I'm doing this for the sake of the universe's future," the Daoist Progenitor said with a smile.

"Sure."

The two of them then continued to watch what was happening in the Chaos Fragment in the Immortal World.

Countless other sky-prides stared at the green bud with utmost desire.

Due to their limited cultivation level, they were unaware of someone fighting the Great Dao's vital force.

Instead, they were captivated by the green lotus bud.

"This is definitely a huge Opportunity of Fortune!"

"My god! My Dao is growing restless! It wants me to get this item!"

"Wait, someone is inside the bud!"

Then, they vaguely saw a figure in white within the green bud, sitting with his legs crossed. His handsome face looked calm and harmonious, and the Immortal Sparks he emanated intertwined with the bud's Daoist patterns.

"It's Chu Kuangren!"

Someone recognized him.

Although expected, they were still in awe.

The great ones of the Immortal World pondered deeply.

"Wait a minute. Chu Kuangren once displayed the transcendental energy. Could it have been the Green Lotus' energy?"

“Possible. The Green Lotus is a Chaos Supreme Treasure, which is stronger than a top-tier Innate Source Supreme Treasure. It has transcended beyond the Great Dao, which makes it the transcendental energy.”

“I see...”

Chapter 1574 Kill Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather In A Single Strike, Green Lotus Mark, Are You Afraid?

Many great ones of the Immortal World reached a sudden epiphany.

They had been wondering about Chu Kuangren’s transcendental energy, and now it seemed like it was all because of the Chaos Green Lotus he possessed.

It was no wonder his fate was empty. It was because the Chaos Green Lotus protected it.

It also explained why he was so talented, and him having the Chaos Celestial Demon Immortal Physique must also be related to the Chaos Green Lotus.

It seemed like they had finally found the answers to all the unanswered questions revolving around Chu Kuangren. It was all because of the Chaos Green Lotus!

The Chaos Green Lotus was a Chaos Supreme Treasure.

No one had ever seen it before, so no one knew what it could do or what use it had.

However, some were able to find clues and inklings from legends revolving around the lotus.

After the Chaos Green Lotus was destroyed, four of its seeds became the Black Annihilation Lotus, Gold Dharmic Lotus, Red Karmic Flame Lotus, and White Purification Lotus.

Its stem became the Godkiller Spear, and its roots became the Nine Heavens Living Soil, which contained creation energy.

Its biggest leaf became the River Chart Inscription.

Since the shattered Chaos Supreme Treasure produced so many top-tier Innate Source Treasures, it was not surprising that it possessed unimaginable power when it was intact.

“Chu Kuangren is absorbing the Chaos qi to get the Chaos Green Lotus.”

“I knew the Chaos Fragment couldn’t have produced such a treasure. It’s Chu Kuangren’s own treasure all along!”

“The Chaos Green Lotus is a Chaos Supreme Treasure. Maybe the lotus is a sentient being and left a backup plan of sorts in Chu Kuangren.”

“Apparently, when the Chaos Green Lotus shattered, other than the four seeds that became the Four Innate Lotuses, there was one more seed that had yet to sprout. Could Chu Kuangren be that seed?”

Following the great ones filling up the blanks with their own imagination, they seemed to have painted a clear picture of Chu Kuangren’s background.

They almost took him as the embodiment or manifestation of the Chaos Green Lotus.

Back in the Chaos Fragment, after the Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather saw the lotus bud, a fiery desire shone in his eyes.

Without further ado, he channeled the Golden Crow Flame, transformed it into a massive fiery claw, and grabbed the lotus bud.

Bang!

The massive claw landed on the lotus bud but did not even budge as the Daoist patterns on the surface were protecting the bud.

At the next moment, Chu Kuangren opened his eyes.

The lotus bud then slowly sprouted and bloomed into a beautiful lotus.

Each petal had mystical Daoist law engraved on it and a mix of Chaos qi interwoven in it.

The lotus shook, and a green light mixed with Chaos qi's vital force was shot at Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather.

"What?!"

The Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather's eyes widened in fear as he sensed a surge of destructive energy that he had never felt before from the green light. Images of cataclysm started to flash before his eyes.

The invisible pressure of death enveloped him whole.

"No!" the Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather shouted. With fear in his eyes, he channeled his yokai qi to the limit and infused it into the Golden Crow Nine Shining Rings.

The nine rings unleashed their vast power at the light, and it even contained a sliver of Daoist law power.

The Nine Shining Rings were a Source Supreme Treasure, and because its power matched the Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather's attributes perfectly, he was able to utilize its strongest power.

A deafening blast sounded when the green light and the nine rings clashed. However, it was the nine rings that were blasted away.

The green light moved forward with indomitable force and hit the Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather, who exploded into a cloud of bloody mist before he could even make a sound.

The Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather had fallen!

The scene left everyone speechless.

The Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather was already an Arch Gilded Immortal and even had a Source Supreme Treasure. Yet, someone as powerful as him was killed in an instant by a mere light beam from the Chaos Green Lotus.

The scene stunned many of the cultivators and struck fear in their hearts.

“What a lively crowd,” Chu Kuangren said as he scanned over the Prodigies within his sight.

As he slowly got up on his feet, the Chaos Green Lotus shrank into the size of a pea and infused into his forehead as the Green Lotus Mark.

The Green Lotus Mark looked realistic, and it even had mystical Daoist Rhyme surrounding it.

Chu Kuangren was already a handsome man, and now with the Green Lotus Mark on his forehead, it granted him an extra layer of Daoist Rhymes.

Then, he took a step forward. Vast Immortal’s Core energy flooded the area instantly.

A heavy pressure suffocated everyone at the scene.

Two beautiful lotuses bloomed above Chu Kuangren’s head. It was not the Chaos Green Lotus but two of the Trinity Flowers that represented the Arch Gilded Immortal realm — the Immortal’s Core Flower and Soul Flower.

The Immortal’s Core Flower had reached Fifth grade, whereas the Soul Flower had reached Sixth grade.

Xue Kunpeng’s expression turned solemn. “I can’t believe he already has two of the Trinity Flowers, and his Immortal’s Core Flower is the same as mine, at Fifth grade!”

Ziyue Changkong was also shocked. “The Soul Flower! He has manifested the Soul Flower, and it’s already in the Sixth grade!”

The cultivation techniques of the Soul Restricted Area were slightly more unusual than others. After manifesting the Immortal’s Core flower, Ziyue Changkong did not manifest the Life Flower like everyone else, but he manifested the Soul Flower first.

Since he excelled in Soul Dao, his Soul Flower was ranked in Third grade as soon as it appeared.

However, Chu Kuangren’s Soul Flower was in Sixth-grade, which was three grades higher than his own.

“He is really a weird one.”

“No wonder Ziyue Ming died in his hands. His soul is like mine. It has entered the Desolation state and manifested the Soul Flower,” Ziyue Changkong said.

Chu Kuangren scanned everyone at the scene. Although he was inside the lotus bud hatching the lotus earlier, he could clearly sense something was happening outside. He did not expect hatching the Chaos Green Lotus would cause such a huge commotion.

Even his restriction seals failed to isolate the noises and trembles.

“Now, it’s time to settle the score.”

Chu Kuangren looked at Xue Kunpeng.

Jue Wushen had sustained quite the damage, and his energy presence was a little weak.

“You were the one who saved Long Xuan back then, and for hurting Jue Wushen so badly, I will start with you.”

Chu Kuangren took a step forward and disappeared from the spot.

When he reappeared before Xue Kunpeng, he simply threw a punch at him.

“Damn it!”

Xue Kunpeng’s expression shifted. He could sense the power contained in the simple punch, and in response, he channeled all his yokai qi and countered with a punch of his own.

Bang!

A deafening blast sent shockwaves across the field and shattered space around them.

Xue Kunpeng was sent flying from the impact, and the Daoist patterns around his arm flickered before they shattered.

Blood covered his arm, and his bones were shattered.

“What?!”

All it took was one punch, and his entire arm was crippled.

Xue Kunpeng had seen Chu Kuangren fight Xuanyuan’s successor, Long Xuan, and Shi Tianxuan before.

He thought that even if he was no match, the difference in strength would not be that big. Yet, to his surprise, he was blasted away with just a single punch.

“You didn’t use your full power in the battle with Shi Tianxuan and the others?” Xue Kunpeng looked at Chu Kuangren in shock.

“Why? Are you afraid now?” Chu Kuangren said.

With Immortal Sparks circulating him, every move he made resembled an Immortal King who had descended on earth.

Chapter 1575 Speed Is Everything, Xue Kunpeng On A Killing Spree, Slash Kunpeng’s Wings

“What’s wrong? Are you afraid now?” Chu Kuangren said as Immortal Sparks circulated him. His murderous intent almost manifested.

For a moment there, all of them thought they saw a bloody image of Chu Kuangren standing in a sea of blood in his white robes, as though he was a God of Murder.

Chu Kuangren rarely used his full strength in battles, especially against his peers. He always obliterated them with ease, so there was no need for him to use his full strength.

The same thing happened in the battle with Shi Tianxuan and the others. Compared to Shi Tianxuan, who was ready to give his life to take down Chu Kuangren, Chu Kuangren simply toyed with him.

This time, however, it was different. He was angry!

“You’re lucky to be able to witness my wrath,” Chu Kuangren said.

Three beams of Immortal Sparks shot up into the sky from his body.

The Hundred Scholar Assemblage Diagram, Golden Rule Order, Scholarly Snowpeak Heart, all of the Hundred Academy's Three Great Conjunction appeared.

On top of those, Chiyou's Demonic Patterns and Battle Secret Arts were both cast to boost his strength further.

Chu Kuangren took a step forward to Xue Kunpeng with Arch Gilded Intent circulating his fingers, forming a distinguished Yin Yang Symbol.

Following that, his raging raw physical strength and the Duality Rites Yin Yang Symbol crashed down on Xue Kunpeng.

"What?!"

Xue Kunpeng's expression slightly changed. Then, a layer of crimson Celestial qi appeared on his body. It was one of his trump cards, the Kun Peng Divine Celestial.

It was rather similar to Xuanyuan's successor's Xuanyuan Celestial Sword.

However, after a deafening bang, the punch landed on the Celestial qi, and the Celestial qi exploded.

The endless fist energy blasted Xue Kunpeng away with blood gushing out from his mouth.

"How is he so powerful?!" Xue Kunpeng grunted and quickly consumed a pill, which was also one of his other trump cards.

As soon as the pill entered his body, his energy presence surged.

A mystic flower bloomed above his head. The Fifth-grade Immortal's Core Flower gained two more petals and was now in the Seventh grade.

"Kun Peng Divine Fist!" Xue Kunpeng growled as he unleashed a punch. The attack took the form of a crimson Kun Peng that had endless Daoist patterns on it.

Chu Kuangren stood in the air with no intentions of moving or dodging.

However, he punched forward with Yin Yang Arch Gilded Intent and Samsara Gilded Intent intertwining around his fist. From there, a massive amount of Immortal Sparks shot forward.

Divine Yin Yang Rejuvenation Light and Reincarnation Tribulation Light merged into a towering fist energy that stirred up a storm in its wake.

With a boom, the crimson Kun Peng energy was crushed by the stormy punch!

Chu Kuangren slowly walked forward. His vital force locked on to Xue Kunpeng as he said coldly, "That's all you've got? The Subspecies Kun Peng is really disappointing."

"Damn it! Damn it! You shall taste the extreme speed of Kun Peng!"

Xue Kunpeng growled once more, and the Celestial qi enveloped him whole. He transformed into a streak of light and circulated Chu Kuangren rapidly as though he was a bolt of lightning.

He was so fast that he transcended beyond time and space.

“Chu Kuangren, my speed is the fastest among all yokai. Can you keep up with my extreme speed?” Xue Kunpeng’s voice echoed.

Due to his ridiculous speed, no one could locate the source of his voice.

Xue Kunpeng raced around the realm as though he was the embodiment of speed.

He was confident in his speed.

There were a plethora of cultivation techniques in the world, but Xue Kunpeng believed that speed triumphed over everything else!

As long as he was fast enough, no one in the world could catch or harm him.

In fact, he had been relying on his extreme speed for many years to torture cultivators who were stronger than him.

“Jumping up and down like a monkey, I see,” Chu Kuangren scoffed.

He took another step forward, and thousands of silvery white Daoist patterns expanded, sealing the area around him.

It was the Spacetime Sealing Technique!

As soon as the chains appeared, Xue Kunpeng felt like he was carrying the weight of several mountains, and his speed drastically plummeted.

“No!”

By then, Chu Kuangren was already in front of Xue Kunpeng. With his fist raised, he punched Xue Kunpeng in the head.

Bang!

The loud bang left Xue Kunpeng’s mind buzzing. He was sent flying backward before blasting a crater on the ground upon crashing.

“Xue Kunpeng! Are you alright?!” The Green-Eyed Bull Demon’s expression turned bitter as he checked on his comrade.

However, Xue Kunpeng clawed toward the Green-Eyed Bull Demon’s body and punctured a hole through it.

“You!”

The Green-Eyed Bull Demon widened his eyes in disbelief.

Xue Kunpeng said coldly, “Give me your strength!”

The Green-Eyed Bull Demon’s sturdy body withered rapidly as if his blood and flesh were sucked away.

“Oh? It’s Xue Kunpeng’s exclusive blood-sucking technique,” Chu Kuangren said coldly.

As a subspecies of the Kun Peng, Xue Kunpeng was born in the bloody sea and cultivated the unique blood-sucking technique. Through it, he could absorb others' blood and flesh to strengthen himself.

Legend had it that there was another beast from ancient times that shared the same divine ability. It also came from the bloody sea and was said to be the first mosquito in the universe. However, it disappeared, and no one knew where it went.

"Come over here!" Xue Kunpeng shouted.

Then, some of the sky-prides started to feel something bursting out of their bodies.

Bang!

A number of them exploded into a cloud of blood mist, and a massive amount of blood essence flew toward Xue Kunpeng.

Ironically, those who died without knowing what happened were those who went to check on Xue Kunpeng and were all from the Subspecies Restricted Area.

Their blood essences were absorbed because they were closer to him.

"Xue Kunpeng has lost his mind!"

"Don't go near him!"

With that, the crowd retreated and drew distance from him. They were afraid that Xue Kungpeng might absorb their blood essence as well.

Chu Kuangren, on the other hand, stood in the air and watched coldly.

The Immortal's Core flower above Xue Kunpeng's head increased from Seventh to Eighth grade, and slivers of crimson light were circling around the petals.

"Chu Kuangren, die!"

Xue Kunpeng attacked again using the bloody Kun Peng energy, and it was stronger than before.

"You're still too weak."

Chu Kuangren countered with his punch. His fist energy, which contained the Golden Jade Immortal Sparks and the Arch Gilded Intent, easily destroyed the Kun Peng energy.

"Blade of Zhou, Infinite Void!"

The Descendant Self Sword unsheathed itself and unleashed a dazzling sword ray.

Once again, Xue Kunpeng was sent flying backward.

However, that was not the end yet.

Battle Secret Art, Blade of Zhou, Divine Yin Yang Rejuvenation Light, Divine Samsara Overworld, Great Black Hole Disintegration, and many other techniques were cast in succession.

Chu Kuangren used almost all his offensive techniques, and none of them were repeated.

Even after using his exclusive blood-sucking technique to forcefully raise his cultivation level, Xue Kunpeng was no match for Chu Kuangren. He was like a punching bag, receiving hit after hit.

His bones shattered, his blood splattered everywhere, and his flesh tore.

After a barrage of attacks, even though Xue Kunpeng had the Celestial qi as protection, not a single part of his body remained intact.

He no longer looked at Chu Kuangren with the arrogance he bore earlier. Instead, fear took its place.

“He’s not human! He’s a monster!” he shouted.

Then, his body expanded and transformed into a massive Kun Peng that shadowed the sky. He flew towards the horizon and wanted to flee from the battle.

“Do you really think you can run from me?” Chu Kuangren said coldly.

The runes on the Descendant Self Sword lit up one by one.

The Blade of Zhou, Infinite Void was cast!

A sword shadow of a few hundred meters swung toward Xue Kunpeng.

Slash!

An excruciating scream later, one of Xue Kunpeng’s wings was cut off.

Blood gushed out from the wound and rained down on the land!

Chapter 1576 Killing Kunpeng, Ziyue Changkong Escapes, Green Lotus Annihilating Might

A large amount of blood mist splattered everywhere like blood rain pouring down!

Xue Kunpeng, whose wing had been slashed, howled miserably, making everyone’s scalp tingle.

After all, Xue Kunpeng was the Subspecies Restricted Area’s Peerless Prodigy. Only a few of the younger generation could compete with his powerful strength.

However, Chu Kuangren ravaged him and broke one of his wings.

With no intention of sparing his life, Chu Kuangren stepped forward with a cold gaze. Then, he slashed his Descendant Self Sword forth, and a gigantic sword shadow of millions of meters tall emerged again to slash off Xue Kunpeng’s remaining wing!

“He’s too brutal.”

“Tsk tsk. What a pity that a mighty subspecies has been reduced to this state.”

It was obvious from the discussion that everyone was even more afraid of Chu Kuangren.

“Chu Kuangren, the Subspecies Restricted Area will never let this go easily!”

“Once the Restricted Area Young Overlord shows himself, he will surely tear you into pieces!”

Knowing that he could not live for long, Xue Kunpeng roared to express his hatred for Chu Kuangren.

A Restricted Area Young Overlord was the most powerful Prodigy in the Restricted Area.

Such an existence would not appear in every era, and each Young Overlord was undoubtedly a Peerless Prodigy who stood at the apex!

However, Chu Kuangren did not take Xue Kunpeng seriously. As he slashed the Descendant Self Sword forward, a gigantic sword shadow crashed down and instantly killed Xue Kunpeng!

A Restricted Area's Prodigy had fallen!

"You managed to save others but not yourself."

In the past, Xue Kunpeng rescued Long Xuan from Chu Kuangren's hand, but it was ironic now as he was crushed to death by Chu Kuangren.

After that, Chu Kuangren scanned his gaze over others.

Zhuanxu's successor, Eastern Sky Divine Daoist, Great Arbiter Divine Maiden, and other Prodigies and sky-prides who tried to kill Chu Kuangren quivered in fear.

"Run!"

Without any hesitation, everyone fled in all directions.

Unfortunately, countless silver-white Daoist patterns shrouded in all directions, turning the particular space into a gigantic cage.

Soon, under the space-time energy, everyone was like fish in a barrel!

Chu Kuangren's eyes glowed like lightning and locked on to the Eastern Sky Divine Daoist. Then, as he slashed his sword forward, the domineering sword ray covered in Daoist patterns shot out.

"Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist, save me!"

The Eastern Sky Divine Daoist screamed in horror.

"Eastern Sovereign Sky Shadow Palm!"

The Grand Emperor Avatar behind the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist raised his giant palm and slammed it toward the sword qi!

As the two energies collided, Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist was forced back a few steps. He looked at Ziyue Changkong with an ashen expression, and the latter understood what he meant.

After knowing Chu Kuangren's strength, they gave up the idea of killing him.

The most important thing now was to leave!

However, they must first break the seal that Chu Kuangren had set up around them!

"I'll find a way to stop him for a moment. Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist, you're responsible for breaking the seal," said Ziyue Changkong.

"Alright!" Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist nodded.

“Brother, I’m sorry I can’t avenge you for the time being,” Ziyue Changkong thought to himself.

Following that, the ancient bronze mirror in his hand released a burst of dazzling Immortal Sparks. Then, a soul-stirring light beam flew out and locked onto Chu Kuangren!

It was the soul attack that Ziyue Changkong had cast with all his strength!

Coupled with the Immortal Weapon in his hand, he believed that Chu Kuangren would be affected even if his Soul Realm was higher.

If Chu Kuangren was distracted, he would definitely neglect the seal, and they could defeat him in one fell swoop!

However, when the soul light beam got closer to Chu Kuangren, the Green Lotus Mark flashed on Chu Kuangren’s forehead, and it dissipated.

“How is this possible?!”

Ziyue Changkong could not believe his eyes.

His soul attack did not work on Chu Kuangren!

How could that be?!

“People from the Soul Restricted Area, do you guys think it’s fun to provoke me again and again?” Chu Kuangren said indifferently.

Without saying another word, he took a step forward and channeled his Immortal’s Core and Arch Gilded Intent to their limits. As he slashed his Descendant Self Sword downward, the vast sword qi immediately enveloped Ziyue Changkong!

Under the attack of the sword qi, Ziyue Changkong let out a shrill scream before his body exploded and turned into a mist of blood.

A ray of silver light flew out from the mist of blood, escaped into the void, and disappeared.

Chu Kuangren’s Spacetime Sealing Technique could not even stop the silver light.

“Interesting. Is this the Soul Escape Technique?”

“Reporting! He used some kind of Soul Escape Technique at the cost of his physical body.” Lil Ai’s voice sounded in Chu Kuangren’s mind.

“Heh. He was really determined to leave.”

Chu Kuangren smiled faintly. Ziyue Changkong knew that he was not Chu Kuangren’s opponent, so instead of resisting the sword qi, he used the sword qi to wear down his physical body and speed up the activation of the Soul Escape Technique.

“Attack!”

“We can’t just sit and wait for our turn to die!”

Zhuanxu's successor, Eastern Sky Divine Daoist, and others knew that if that continued, they would all be trapped and killed in Chu Kuangren's Spacetime Sealing Technique!

As Prodigies and sky-prides, they definitely would not wait to be killed.

"Nether Black Water!"

"Damage-reversing effect!"

"Nine Heavens Great Demon Slash!"

All kinds of Immortal Techniques and divine abilities erupted one after another. Together, the attacks turned into a monstrous torrent and swept out in all directions!

Chu Kuangren merely stood where he was with an indifferent expression.

"Have a taste of this new energy."

Chu Kuangren stood with hands behind his back, and his Immortal's Core swept out in all directions. There were also mysterious and extraordinary Daoist patterns flowing around the Green Lotus Mark on his forehead.

Then, a Green Lotus bloomed under his feet, and its brilliance illuminated the land.

"There is a Green Lotus in the chaos which stands side by side with the Great Dao, controlling the creation and destruction!"

"Green Lotus, Destruction Light!"

Chu Kuangren raised his hand gently, and as he pushed it forward, a green brilliance burst outward!

An unparalleled and destructive energy filled the realm!

The universe collapsed, and every living thing perished!

All kinds of Immortal Techniques and divine abilities disintegrated before the green brilliance!

The physical bodies of all the sky-prides and Prodigies turned into ashes before they could even scream!

"How is this possible?"

Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoists pupils shrank in horror as he felt an unprecedented fear of death from the green brilliance!

The people of the Nine Houses were extremely terrified at that moment!

"What a powerful destruction power!"

Ye Zhu was dumbfounded when he saw that from not far away.

He thought that his Immortal Destruction Sword Qi was already the best in the universe in terms of killing and destroying.

However, before the Destruction Light cast by Chu Kuangren, it was now inferior not only in terms of power but also the most essential Dao.

The Green Lotus contained an unfathomable Dao.

Chu Kuangren had probably displayed only a slight power in the Green Lotus, and it was already so astounding.

It was difficult to imagine how frightening would it be if the power of the Green Lotus was fully released!

“We are definitely not his opponents.”

“The Green Lotus is too terrifying.”

“This power simply doesn’t exist in this universe. How does he possess such a thing?!”

Those surviving sky-prides and Prodigies were horrified.

At that moment, Chu Kuangren looked at Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist calmly. Such a calm gaze made Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist shudder as if he had fallen into an ice cellar!

Chapter 1577 Immortal Emperor’s Thought Form, Deep Void, The Void Egg Reappears

“This is bad. He’s targeting me!”

The Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist started to panic.

Chu Kuangren was about to take action to get rid of the most powerful Prodigy present. “Those with the Immortal Hall deserve to die!”

Suddenly, an extremely powerful energy swept over him right when he was about to attack!

Before he could see the figure, a surging Immortal’s Core rushed forward and landed on the Spacetime Seal.

With a bang, the Spacetime Daoist patterns shattered one after another.

Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes. “That aura... Could it be an Embodier?!”

He could sense the energy presence of the Daoist law from the person.

However, people of the Celestial Demon Tribe should be aware if an Embodier attacked. Moreover, although that energy was powerful, it was far from the Embodier Realm.

“It’s the Immortal Emperor! He has come to rescue us!”

The Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist was overjoyed.

A middle-aged man approached proudly with surging Immortal’s Core. Everywhere he passed, huge black clouds formed in the sky!

‘Immortal Emperor?!’

‘Is he really in the Embodier Realm?!’

Chu Kuangren looked at the black-robed man, and Lil Ai’s analysis was within his expectation.

The person who came was merely an Embodier’s thought form.

“Interesting.”

While standing in the air and looking at Black Cloud Immortal Emperor, Chu Kuangren said indifferently, “No wonder no one else is alarmed. He is merely a thought form.”

The Green Lotus Mark on his forehead bloomed with brilliance, and the extraordinary Daoist Rhyme flowed.

Upon seeing that, everyone trembled in fright.

“He’s going to attack again!”

“This is bad.”

The crowd knew that Chu Kuangren was going to cast the Green Lotus Annihilating Might again.

As expected, the green light spread outward. Everywhere it reached, heaven and earth collapsed while all living things perished. The destruction energy and Daoist Rhyme filled the void, targeting Black Cloud Immortal Emperor!

There was a solemn look in the Black Cloud Immortal Emperor’s eyes as he did not have the confidence in dealing with the Chaos Green Lotus.

After all, it was a Chaos Supreme Treasure comparable to the Great Dao!

Moreover, he was currently a thought form, and he only showed up because the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist was in danger.

“Xuanmo Holy Divine Palm!”

Black Cloud Immortal Emperor channeled the energy of his thought form to its limit before unleashing a palm attack!

The ink-like palm strength, mixed with Daoist law, turned into a pitch-black palm, which then crashed downward like the sky was falling.

As the gigantic pitch-black palm and the Green Lotus’s destruction energy met, large areas of space exploded, and the entire Chaos Fragment fell into a turmoil.

Most of the Chaos qi that was absorbed by Chu Kuangren collapsed instantly.

Under the impact of the energy, a dark and deep spatial rift soon appeared between heaven and earth.

An incomparably terrifying void storm swept out from the spatial rift!

“This is the Deep Void!”

Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes. The conflict between him and Black Cloud Immortal Emperor had actually shaken the Deep Void.

The void had depths. When one broke the space, exposed the void, and broke the void again, it would reveal the Deep Void!

The power caused by the collision between Chu Kuangren and the Black Cloud Immortal Emperor tore the Void Barricade and revealed the Deep Void!

The void storm that came from the Deep Void was extremely frightening. Even a Gilded Immortal would be torn apart and turned into ashes by that energy.

As Chu Kuangren raised his hands, a Divine Genesis Source Orb flew out and came into the sky above Lan Yu, Shang Honghua, Jue Wushen, and others. Then, it turned into a colorful barrier to protect them.

Chu Kuangren looked at the Black Cloud Immortal Emperor, who was also looking at him with a solemn gaze.

Just when the two were about to fight again, a crisp clicking sound spread in the Deep Void, as if something had broken.

“What’s the matter?”

Chu Kuangren furrowed his brows. Soon, his gaze penetrated the void storm, and he managed to peek into the Deep Void through the rift on the Void Barricade.

A giant egg interweaved with black and white colors was standing upright in the void, with countless treacherous Daoist patterns flowing above it.

At this moment, a crack appeared on the giant egg.

“It’s the Void Egg!”

Chu Kuangren was surprised.

Xu Wu of Seven Celestial Demons once told him that there was a group of Void Eggs of unknown origin in the Deep Void!

Those Void Eggs were extremely weird and difficult to destroy. On top of that, they contained Dao contamination qi, which appeared in the catastrophe of the previous era!

Xu Wu said that once those Void Eggs hatched, they would cause an unprecedented impact on the universe!

“What’s going on? Have those Void Eggs hatched?”

Chu Kuangren frowned and ignored the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist and Black Cloud Immortal Emperor, wanting to enter the Deep Void to figure out.

The Black Cloud Immortal Emperor also discovered the existence of the Void Eggs. “Why is it here?”

He knew a little about the Void Egg, but he did not intend to know more about it as Chu Kuangren did. Instead, he took the opportunity while Chu Kuangren was attracted to the Void Eggs to leave with the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist and others.

Chu Kuangren ignored them and dashed toward the Deep Void.

However, the Void Barricade was healing rapidly at that moment, and the Void Eggs disappeared before Chu Kuangren could enter the Deep Void.

“Break it!”

As Chu Kuangren entered the void, his eyes narrowed, and he slashed his Descendent Self Sword toward the Void Barricade!

With a bang, the Void Barricade was split open!

The violent void storm swept out again, but Chu Kuangren ignored it and stepped into the Deep Void!

Unfortunately, there was no sign of the Void Eggs. However, a trace of aura was left in the void.

“Lil Ai, analyze the aura.”

“Alright...”

“This aura contains the breath of life and Dao contamination qi. Besides, it also contains an unknown energy.”

“Unknown energy?”

“Yes. What I can conclude temporarily is that this unknown energy is extremely aggressive.”

“Understood. Do record this aura.”

“Noted.”

Chu Kuangren looked at the Deep Void with curiosity as it was his first time here.

The Deep Void was different from the Shallow Void.

The Shallow Void was the same as the outside space, which meant that one would exit where he entered the Shallow Void.

However, the Deep Void was different.

Chu Kuangren could keenly perceive that the void here was flowing without an order.

“No wonder the Void Eggs disappeared the next moment I entered. The Deep Void flows on its own.”

“Wait. It flows on its own?”

Chu Kuangren was stunned for a moment. Then, he slashed at the Void Barricade with his sword, but it did not break!

“What’s happening?”

“Alert! This Void Barricade is more rigid than the barricade that you encountered when entering the Deep Void. You can’t break it with your current strength, Master.”

“A more rigid Void Barricade? Is there another deeper void after the Deep Void?”

The corner of Chu Kuangren’s mouth twitched.

After that, he released his Immortal Consciousness to look for the Void Barricade he encountered when he entered. Soon, he managed to find the relatively ‘thin’ barricade and slashed it with his sword.

With a flash, he disappeared into the Deep Void.

Chapter 1578 Going To The Far West Land Again, The Green Lotus' Growth Condition, A Wealthy Monk

After returning to the Shallow Void, Chu Kuangren shattered it and returned to the initial space he came from.

When he noticed the scene outside, the corner of his mouth twitched. That was because he was not in the Chaos Fragment but in another unknown place.

“Sure enough. I was brought to another place when I was in the Deep Void.”

The Deep Void's space-time was flowing constantly.

Therefore, Chu Kuangren was also flowing when he was in the Deep Void, and that was why he ended up in a different place when he was out.

At that moment, the Jade scroll at his waist shook.

It was Lan Yu and others contacting him.

“Master, where are you now?”

“I have no idea now, but you don't have to worry about me. I'm safe. Is everything fine at your end?” asked Chu Kuangren.

“We're all fine.”

Chu Kuangren heaved a sigh of relief after knowing Lan Yu and everyone were fine.

Then, he turned off the communication and looked at his surroundings. “Well, let's find out where I am now.”

As he mobilized his thoughts, his Immortal Consciousness surged and spread like a tide, covering a radius of hundreds of millions of kilometers.

Countless pieces of information flooded his mind.

Soon, he managed to figure out where he was.

It was the Immortal World's Far West Land, a place he had been before and was even familiar with.

“This place is very far from the Chaos Fragment. I didn't expect to come out here after entering the Deep Void for a while.”

Chu Kuangren shook his head.

He had heard before that the void was an unfathomable place. Most of the cultivators only roamed in the Shallow Void, so they could not understand the mystery of the Deep Void.

“Since I've come to the Far West Land, I shall pay Shi Ying a visit,” Chu Kuangren said after pondering for a while.

Shi Ying once sent him regards when he left the Bagua Furnace, and he thought he should visit her since he was here.

“I wonder how my little adorable Daoist Sister is doing now.”

Chu Kuangren chuckled, and his figure disappeared.

While on his way to the Euphoria Pure Land, where Shi Ying was located, he also familiarized himself with the Chaos Green Lotus Might in his body.

He had successfully incubated the Chaos Green Lotus with the help of the Chaos qi in the Chaos Fragment, and the Green Lotus was indeed extraordinary. Although it was still in the growing stage, it had given him a powerful defense and also the power of creation and destruction.

When Ziyue Changkong attacked him with the soul technique, he used the Green Lotus’ defense to resist the attack.

The power of creation and destruction were the fundamental abilities of the Chaos Green Lotus. Those two energies were extremely powerful and beyond the control of that particular Universal Dao.

Even Chu Kuangren only managed to master a small part of them.

“Although the Chaos Green Lotus has been incubated, it’s not easy for it to grow stronger.”

Chu Kuangren also thought about ways to encourage the Chaos Green Lotus’ growth while on the way to the Euphoria Pure Land.

In the past, a Chaos Green Lotus could grow to its peak because it absorbed sufficient Chaos qi at the start of Chaos before the Great Dao was born.

Hence, it was good enough that he could incubate the Chaos Green Lotus here.

Where else had sufficient Chaos qi that could allow him to nurture it to its peak?

“Perhaps there is another way,” mumbled Chu Kuangren.

He recalled an incident. When he was nurturing the Chaos Green Lotus in the Chaos Fragment, the Green Lotus absorbed the Black Annihilating Lotus, the Superb-grade Innate Treasure that he had refined, on its own!

With the help of the Black Annihilating Lotus, the Chaos Green Lotus managed to grow from a newly incubated bud to a growing lotus flower.

Otherwise, it would still be a flower bud now.

“It is rumored that the original Chaos Green Lotus of the previous era was so powerful that not even the Great Dao could completely destroy it. After it shattered, its energy was divided into various treasures, and the Black Annihilating Lotus was transformed from one of Chaos Green Lotus seeds. Could this be why the Chaos Green Lotus managed to absorb it?”

“If this is true, can the Chaos Green Lotus also absorb other treasures transformed by the seeds and provide nutrients for its growth?”

Chu Kuangren thought it was feasible, and those treasures transformed by the Chaos Green Lotus flashed in his mind.

The four lotus-seed transformed Four Innate Lotuses, the Chaos Green Lotus' root-transformed Godkiller Spear, the lotus pod-transformed Yin and Yang Cauldron, the lotus-leaves transformed River Chart Inscription, the Innate Five Cardinal Directions Flag, the Twenty-Four Oceanic Soothing Pearl, and more.

"After thinking about it, it seems like there are quite a few treasures that can contribute to the growth of Chaos Green Lotus."

There was a Ninth Grade Golden Dharmic Lotus in the Far West Land's Lapis Lazuli Earth, and it was one of the Four Innate Lotuses.

"If possible, I'll drop by the Lapis Lazuli Earth to have a look."

It was not because Chu Kuangren wanted the Ninth Grade Golden Dharmic Lotus.

After all, the Ninth Grade Golden Dharmic Lotus was currently suppressing the Dao contamination qi, and something might happen if he were to take it rashly.

The reason he wanted to have a look at the Lapis Lazuli Earth was mainly to prove whether his thought was right. If his idea was feasible, the Chaos Green Lotus would react to the Ninth Grade Golden Dharmic Lotus.

"Have you heard about it? The Holy Dragon Pure Land's Buddhist disciples have gone to the Euphoria Pure Land to debate Buddhism."

"Wow. The Holy Dragon Pure Land is amazing. They have developed rapidly over the years, and I heard that a Buddhist great one is supporting them."

"Cut that cr*p. How would they dare to repeatedly offend the Euphoria Pure Land if it were not for the Buddhist great one's support?"

While Chu Kuangren was on his way to the Euphoria Pure Land, he became curious when he heard someone discussing the Holy Dragon Pure Land.

He had never heard of it in the Five Ways Pure Land and wondered where its origin was.

However, he did not take it seriously as his intention of going to the Euphoria Pure Land was to visit a friend. Therefore, the Holy Dragon Pure Land had nothing much to do with him.

...

In the Euphoria Pure Land, bursts of Brahmic Chime sounded where a large group of young monks gathered.

Two monks were debating Dharma on a dais. One of the monks was wearing a simple green robe, while the other was wearing a gorgeous golden-red cassock made of extremely precious immortal silk with countless Immortal Crystals and gems. He was richly bejeweled.

He did not look like a monk but rather a wealthy and extravagant marquis.

However, that wealthy monk looked indifferent. He was able to read all kinds of Buddhist classics, and he either refuted or queried. He seemed relaxed but was closing in on his opponent.

Soon after, the green-robed monk debating him was sweating profusely.

“Y-Your words are contradictory, and you despise the Buddhist world. You are not worthy of calling yourself a Buddhist!” the green-robed monk said angrily while pointing at the wealthy monk with his trembling hand.

“Why am I not worthy of calling myself a Buddhist? Buddhas have no forms, and all living beings are Buddhas. Am I not worthy of entering the Buddhist world just because I look down on it? If so, it is contrary to the Buddha’s theory.”

The wealthy monk said confidently, “Is Buddha’s mind so narrow that he doesn’t allow others to question him?”

“Y-You...”

The green-robed monk was too angry to speak.

“Cut that cr*p. You have not cultivated sufficiently. Just step back!”

The wealthy monk waved his sleeve and sent the green-robed monk flying backward. Then, he scanned his gaze over the monks present. “Who else wants to come up and debate me?”

Chapter 1579 The Debate Between Shi Ying and Wu Cai, Why Can’t I Beat The Sh*t Out of You Here?

“Who else wants to come up and debate me?”

The wealthy monk scanned his gaze over the rest of the monks. Although the monks he stared at were furious, they dared not step forward to debate with him as he was very eloquent and knew the Buddhist classics well.

The most important thing was that even though he claimed to be a member of the Buddhist world, he scoffed at the Buddhas and did not have the slightest reverence for the Buddha. Besides being disrespectful with his words, all the questions he asked were highly tricky. It made those who debated with him speechless, and they were not his opponents at all.

“I heard Guanyin’s successor is in the Euphoria Pure Land and has profound in Dharma. If you guys dare not come forward, why don’t you ask her to come and discuss the Dao with me?” the wealthy monk said.

Those words put everyone in a difficult position.

Guanyin’s successor, Shi Ying, was the most outstanding person among the young generation of Euphoria Pure Land. If she could show up, she might be able to deal with the wealthy monk.

Unfortunately, Shi Ying was reflecting on her sins and could not be there.

“Amitabha, did you want to see me?”

At that moment, an indifferent voice sounded.

A woman in white with beautiful facial features was approaching slowly.

She was surrounded by harmonious qi, and white lotus flowers bloomed in her wake as a Holy Purity intent filled the entire space.

Many monks exclaimed when they saw that scene.

“It’s Guanyin’s successor. She has emerged.”

“Isn’t she supposed to be reflecting on her sins for a hundred years? Why is she out so soon?”

“Alas, since the debate on Buddha this time is related to the Euphoria Pure Land’s dignity, Guanyin’s successor is sacrificing herself by pardoning herself earlier.”

All the monks were engaged in a heated discussion.

As Shi Ying came to the dais, a white lotus bloomed in front of her. Then, she sat on the lotus seat with an indifferent expression, and her gaze was as calm as water. “Please!”

“Interesting.”

The wealthy monk put away his idle expression and said solemnly, “I’m Wu Cai. Glad to meet you, Buddhist Sister.”

“Wu Cai? I couldn’t have guessed,” Shi Ying said while looking at Wu Cai, who was richly bejeweled.

“They are merely worldly possessions.” Wu Cai smiled.

Soon, the two began to debate Buddhism.

For a moment, both of them were eloquent and knew the Buddhist classics well. Although there were no beacons and gunsmoke, their debate was no easier than battles.

In fact, the debate was far more dangerous.

The greatest thing about the battles between cultivators was not their Immortal bodies would be beaten to pieces but the injuries to the physical body.

On the contrary, the debate on Buddhism involved the cultivators’ fundamental Dao. If one was careless, his or her Daoist core might collapse.

“The Buddha says that all beings are equal, yet the Five Karmic Categorization exists. Isn’t this contradictory?” asked Wu Cai.

The philosophy of Buddhism was that all beings were equal, but the Buddhist world’s Five Karmic Categorization divided people into all beings, monks, Arhats, Bodhisattvas, and Buddhas!

That was simply contradicting.

Upon hearing that, Shi Ying said calmly, “The Buddhist world’s Five Karmic Categorization refers to changes in a spiritual sense, not status change. All beings are equal, and nobody’s life is more important than the other.”

“The Buddha says, repent and be absolved of one’s crimes. May I ask, if an executioner repents, does it mean he’s a Buddha?” Wu Cai asked again.

“Buddhas sit in one’s heart, so the person that realizes this can be a Buddha.”

“So, what do you mean is that as long as the executioner is enlightened, he will be a Buddha?”

“Yes.”

“That’s ridiculous. If an executioner becomes a Buddha, what about the innocent people he has killed? Do they die in vain?”

“Everyone can become a Buddha, but for those who become Buddhas, their evil obstacles cannot be eliminated. Becoming a Buddha is a spiritual realization. Repent and be absolved of one’s crimes means that as soon as one has become a Buddha, he must be responsible for his evil obstacles,” said Shi Ying.

“Can the unrepentant people in the universe be saved if they disregard the lives of common people and wantonly kill living beings?”

“All living beings can be saved, but it’s the same as the former. Becoming a Buddha does not mean those evil obstacles will be eliminated.”

“In that case, what if one is unrepentant? What if he cannot be saved? If he insists on turning the human world into Ashura Hell, do you still save him?”

As Wu Cai kept asking, his words became as sharp as knives.

Shi Ying sat down with her legs crossed, and her gaze was calm. “My Buddha has a compassionate heart and lightning technique. Those unrepentant people should be suppressed with lightning!”

Wu Cai’s heart shuddered, and he felt a chill down his spine.

However, he then sneered. “That will be a crime. Are you still a Buddha then?”

“If I don’t enter hell, who will? Killing one person to save more people is a great merit.”

The two continued debating and did not give in.

Soon, Wu Cai could not think of any question to embarrass Shi Ying with.

Shi Ying’s level was completely different from the opponents he met previously.

She was extraordinary.

At that moment, Wu Cai thought of something and said, “Dharma is about eradicating desires, but I heard that you voluntarily reflected your sins for a hundred years because your mortal heart was once moved. Is this true?”

“Yes, that’s true.”

Shi Ying did not hide the fact and admitted it.

“Heh, I heard the person who moved your mortal heart was Chu Kuangren. Is it true?”

“Is this related to the Buddhism debate?”

“Why is it not related? As far as I know, Chu Kuangren possesses Papiyas Might, which is the enemy of Buddhas. If your mortal heart is moved by the Buddhas’ enemy, you’re not worthy of being a Buddhist. What makes Euphoria Pure Land think they can send you over to debate with me? So, was your mortal heart moved by Chu Kuangren?” asked Wu Cai.

He wanted to use that matter to deal a blow to Shi Ying’s Buddhist heart as it was the reason why she decided to reflect on her sins for a hundred years.

It was her weakness!

Shi Ying furrowed her brows, not knowing how to answer.

“Buddhists do not lie. Shi Ying, don’t you try to deceive me. Even if you can deceive others, can you deceive your Buddhist heart?”

“Tell me quickly. Were you moved by Chu Kuangren?!” Wu Cai continued asking.

Shi Ying took a deep breath. Just as she was about to answer, an overwhelming burst of domineering might came from the sky, causing all monks’ expressions to change.

“This domineering might... Who is this?”

“What powerful might!”

Everyone looked in the direction of the source of the domineering might.

A young man dressed in white, with a handsome look and Green Lotus Mark on his forehead, was gliding across the air.

Shi Ying was astonished to see the young man, and there was also a hint of joy in her eyes that she did not even notice.

“It’s none of your business whom she’s attracted to!”

An indifferent voice sounded.

Following that, a gigantic palm formed by a violent Immortal’s Core descended from the sky and crashed toward Wu Cai!

“What?!”

Wu Cai’s expression changed. Then, a burst of Buddhist Light released from his body and turned into a golden flying dragon in the sky!

Boom!

As the gigantic palm collided with the flying dragon, the Immortal’s core energy spread in all directions.

Wu Cai was sent flying backward from the violent impact. Having been hit, his Immortal body shook, and he looked at the person who came with a terrified expression. “Who is it? Who dares to make a move here?!”

“Why can’t I beat the sh*t out of you here?”

The indifferent and domineering voice sounded again, and Chu Kuangren arrived above the dais, looking at Wu Cai with a condescending glare.

The surrounding monks, who recognize the person who came, were shocked.

“Chu Kuangren! Why is he here?”

“Isn’t he in the Chaos Fragment? Why is he suddenly here in Euphoria Pure Land?”

“The palm attack was so cool.”

Although quite a few people in the Buddhist world were hostile to Chu Kuangren, his palm attack that embarrassed Wu Cai made them feel proud.

Wu Cai’s expression turned grim after he recognized Chu Kuangren. “Chu Kuangren, why are you here?”

“Why can’t I be here?” asked Chu Kuangren.

“This is a matter between me and the Euphoria Pure Land. It’s none of your business,” Wu Cai said coldly.

“Well, this is indeed a matter between you and the Euphoria Pure Land. However, since Shi Ying is my Daoist Sister, this is my matter too. Besides, I don’t like how you look, so what if I beat you up?” Chu Kuangren said.

That was not the only reason he made the move. In fact, it was also because he felt an extremely familiar aura from Wu Cai’s body.

“Everyone in Euphoria Pure Land, are you guys going to sit back and watch Chu Kuangren act violently in the Buddhist world’s pure and calm land?!” Wu Cai said to a group of monks.

“Heh, act violently? You would be dead just now if I acted violently.”

After that, Chu Kuangren unleashed a fist attack.

The incomparably violent fist energy swept out and locked onto Wu Cai!

“Amitabha, you can’t do this, Benefactor!”

“This is a Buddhist world’s land. How can you act recklessly, Benefactor?!”

Some monks stepped forward and wanted to stop Chu Kuangren.

However, before these monks could make a move, their expressions changed, and they were sent flying backward.

“What powerful fist energy. I can’t even defend myself against it!”

“I’m not Chu Kuangren’s opponent, so I can’t stop him. Master Wu Cai, good luck to you.”

The group of monks who wanted to stop Chu Kuangren soon fell to the ground.

Those who did not know might think that the attack took up a lot of Chu Kuangren's energy when, in fact, that fist attack did not even consume ten percent of his energy.

Moreover, those monks were not as weak as they seemed to be.

There was a strange expression on Chu Kuangren's face as he knew that those monks were acting.

However, it was reasonable.

Wu Cai had come for the Buddhism debate on behalf of the Holy Dragon Pure Land, so even though the monks were quite annoyed by his attitude, they dared not make a move.

The lawless Chu Kuangren had arrived just in time to attack Wu Cai, which was what the monks were delighted to see. However, since he had cast the attack in Euphoria Pure Land, they had to put up a show.

Otherwise, if they turned a blind eye toward Chu Kuangren's act in Euphoria Pure Land, their reputation would be affected once everyone learned what they did.

"Y-You..."

Wu Cai knew that those monks were acting, but he was helpless.

Meanwhile, Chu Kuangren's fist energy was approaching, and the incomparably domineering energy terrified him. "Is this Chu Kuangren's strength? It's really frightening!"

He would probably be even more shocked if he knew that the attack merely consumed ten percent of Chu Kuangren's strength.

"Holy Dragon Magical Technique!"

Wu Cai formed a mysterious hand seal to unleash a technique. Vast Buddhist Light shot up into the sky and turned into a majestic golden holy dragon that attacked the fist energy.

Accompanied by a loud bang, an explosion erupted in the surrounding space.

Wu Cai was sent flying backward once again, and his face turned pale.

"No way. I must leave here as soon as possible."

Wu Cai's expression sank. He knew that he was not Chu Kuangren's opponent and wanted to leave.

Shortly after, he raised his hand to channel his Buddhist Light. As the golden brilliance erupted toward Chu Kuangren, Wu Cai grabbed the chance to flee.

"Do you think you can escape?"

Chu Kuangren waved his sleeves casually. Immortal's Core wrapped in golden-jade Immortal Sparks suddenly surged and crashed into the golden brilliance!

In the next instance, he appeared in the sky above Wu Cai.

He stepped forward and landed on Wu Cai's face.

Bang!

Wu Cai felt his nose bone crack and all his teeth flew out as if his entire face was about to be crushed to pieces.

As he was being stomped on, it smashed a huge hole in the ground.

'Well done!'

All monks in the Euphoria Pure Land felt relieved, and they wished they could give Chu Kuangren a thumbs up.

"Chu Kuangren, I have no enmity with you. Why are you against me?!" Wu Cai stood up and roared with blood all over his face.

Chu Kuangren's expression was indifferent. "Because I want to."

"Y-You..."

Wu Cai was close to going mad.

It was his first time encountering such an unreasonable person.

"Chu Kuangren, the Holy Dragon Pure Land isn't weaker than the Five Elemental Pure Lands. Do you really want to fight us?"

Wu Cai continued saying and mentioned the forces behind him.

However, Chu Kuangren remained fearless. His figure flashed and came before Wu Cai, where he raised his hand to unleash a palm attack.

"D*mn it. Holy Dragon Saber!"

With a roar, Wu Cai used his palm as a saber and transformed the Buddhist Light into a saber ray. With the saber between his palms, he slashed it down toward Chu Kuangren!

Chu Kuangren's slender and fair palm gained momentum and smashed Wu Cai's saber ray easily. Following that, Chu Kuangren's palm landed on Wu Cai's cheek with a loud slap.

Wu Cai was stunned by the slap.

After slapping Wu Cai on his right cheek, Chu Kuangren raised his hand and slapped Wu Cai's left cheek.

He grinned while looking at Wu Cai's swollen left and right cheeks. "Great. It's symmetrical now."

"Y-You!"

Wu Cai stared at Chu Kuangren with his body trembling.

After being stomped on and slapped, Wu Cai was so furious that his embarrassment and anger overtook him!

A bang sounded as if sounded had exploded.

It was Wu Cai who had lost his rationality.

“Chu Kuangren, I’ll fight you to death!”

As Wu Cai roared, violet phantom rays flashed in his eyes, and a blood-colored swastika symbol emerged in the air.

“Papiyas Eye.”

Chu Kuangren looked like he expected the situation.

A moment later, an incomparably frightening aura spread from Wu Cai. The initial sacred Buddhist Light, which was dyed blood-red, became violent and murderous!

Upon seeing that, Euphoria Pure Land’s monks stopped pretending. They got up from the ground and looked at Wu Cai solemnly.

“He possesses Papiyas Might!”

“That’s Papiyas Eye. He is a Buddha Destroyer!”

Everyone was astonished.

They did not expect the person who debated Buddhism with them was actually a Buddha Destroyer.

However, after thinking about it, they thought it was normal.

After all, Wu Cai kept slandering the Buddha and showed no reverence to him.

They initially thought it was just Wu Cai’s technique in debating Buddhism, but now, it seemed like it was because he was a Buddha Destroyer!

“Demonic Buddha Carnage, Heavenly Transcendental Burial!”

With a grunt, Wu Cai channeled the blood-colored Buddhist Light to its limit and turned it into a gigantic blood-colored handprint to crush Chu Kuangren!

Under Chu Kuangren’s humiliation, Wu Cai risked his life and revealed his identity as the Buddha Destroyer.

His only goal was to make Chu Kuangren pay for his actions!

The blood-colored Buddhist Light handprint was angry, like it could turn Dharma into nothing. It was mighty and frightening!

However, Chu Kuangren looked at it calmly and remained standing in his spot. As he raised his hands, his violent Immortal’s Core gushed out and destroyed the blood-colored Buddhist Light in the blink of an eye!
