

Unparalleled 1601

Chapter 1601 Who Agrees, Who Disagree? Convincing Four Great Demonic Generals By Force, Ashura Tribe Submits

Pluto scoffed and thrust his trident at Chu Kuangren.

The terrifying trident ray contained endless frosty intent and felt like it could freeze the world. However, Chu Kuangren did not dodge or flinch. He simply took the thrust head-on.

Bang!

The void exploded, and Chu Kuangren's body burst into a cloud of blood mist.

Was that it?

All of them were stunned.

Was the new Blood Ocean that weak? Did he die in one thrust?

"You call yourself the new ruler of Blood Ocean?" Pluto scoffed.

"No! He's not dead!"

Indra's pupils widened in shock as he suddenly sensed something.

The Blood Ocean rumbled, and Chu Kuangren emerged from it again, looking calm and frivolous.

"As long as the Blood Ocean remains, the Underworld River is undying!"

"He has become the new ruler of the Blood Ocean and mastered its power! He has gained the same power as the Underworld River Forefather!"

Indra's expression turned grim when he learned the situation.

The others could not believe it.

As long as the Blood Ocean remains, the Underworld River was undying, and the undying ability was tough to deal with!

"If we can't kill him, we'll seal him! Then, we can interrogate him about how he become the ruler of Blood Ocean!" the four-armed Vishnu said.

All four of his hands performed mystical hand seals and summoned a strange rune in the air. From it, a powerful sealing power emerged and attempted to overpower Chu Kuangren.

"Seal me away? It's a good idea." Chu Kuangren smiled.

He then raised his hand and threw endless Blood Divine Daoists from behind him forward. The overwhelming numbers shattered the strange rune upon contact, and even a perfected Arch Gilded Immortal like Vishnu was terrified by the raw physical strength.

"Not only has he become the ruler of Blood Ocean, but he has also mastered the Blood Divine Daoist?"

“The number of Blood Divine Daoists he commands is as many as the Forefather. Has he mastered all the Blood Divine Daoists the Forefather left behind? How could that have happened?”

The other Perfected Arch Gilded Immortals gulped nervously.

The endless Blood Divine Daoists had surrounded them from every direction.

The crimson murderous ray overshadowed the entire region.

All it would take was an order from Chu Kuangren and the Blood Divine Daoists would become the most terrifying murdering machines in the world, devouring everything in their path.

“Now, I will only say this once. I will be in charge of Nether Abyss Blood Ocean from now on. I’ll call the shots. Do any of you agree? Or disagree?”

Chu Kuangren’s voice echoed across the region.

All four Ashura Kings and the Four Great Demonic Generals exchanged a hesitant look.

Indra stepped forward and said, “It’s not that you can’t rule over the Nether Abyss Blood Ocean, but Sin Buddha defeated all of us in the past before he took over. Now that he has returned to the Immortal World and left the Blood Ocean, if you want to take over, you must defeat us all first.”

“Mmhm. Very well. That’s easy and straightforward. I like it,” Chu Kuangren said with a smile.

After that, he raised his hand and sent endless Blood Divine Daoists to Indra in an attempt to drown him.

Indra tried to resist, but the crimson murderous ray’s power was endless.

The murderous ray from the Blood Ocean was terrifying. Even an Embodier would have a hard time dealing with it.

Indra might be powerful, but he was no match for the overwhelming numbers.

The murderous rays soon left multiple injuries on Indra’s body.

“Damn it. If this continues, the murderous ray would grind me down completely!”

Indra’s expression turned grim.

“Indra, I’ll assist you!”

Pluto, Vishnu, and Tiamat all joined the battle to help Indra resist the endless Blood Divine Daoists.

Pluto wielded his trident in a flurry, shooting his trident rays at the Blood Divine Daoists.

Vishnu performed hand seals with all four of his hands and shot runes at the Blood Divine Daoists. Each rune blast that he shot contained the power to destroy a common Arch Gilded Immortal.

However, no matter how hard the three of them fought, they were overwhelmed by the infinite number of Blood Divine Daoists. Despite their efforts, they had only eliminated a very tiny portion.

“Go after the leader!”

Tiamat's eyes gleamed coldly and locked on to Chu Kuangren.

Her figure flashed and unleashed a massive black hand, formed by dead souls, at Chu Kuangren. The huge hand could destroy tens of thousands of planets in one strike.

Chu Kuangren was just a Trinity Flower-realm Arch Gilded Immortal, so there was no way he could withstand this attack.

Bang!

Chu Kuangren's body exploded into a cloud of blood mist again.

However, he emerged from the Blood Ocean once more and stared at the Four Great Demonic Generals. There was a grin on his face when he looked up at them.

"Damn it! He's not dead, just like the Blood Ocean! How are we going to fight this?"

"We can't win this!"

"Why? How could a Trinity Flower-realm Arch Gilded Immortal control four-hundred eighty million Blood Divine Daoists and become the ruler of the Blood Ocean?"

All four of the Ashura Kings and their tribesmen were in disbelief and shock.

The Blood Ocean was vast and boundless.

Under the endless siege of the Blood Divine Daoists, even the powerful Four Great Demonic Generals were defeated by the sheer number.

It did not take long before they were worn out and exhausted by the attacks.

Chu Kuangren remained calm and casual while standing on the Blood Ocean.

Countless Blood Divine Daoists were circulating him. Those who got killed were reformed by the Blood Ocean, and they attacked the Four Great Demonic Generals once more.

The Blood God Technique shocked even Chu Kuangren himself.

"We concede!" Indra said.

In the end, they accepted their defeat because they would eventually die of exhaustion if that continued.

"Very well. What about you guys?"

Chu Kuangren looked at the four Ashura Kings.

"We pledge our loyalty as well."

With the Four Great Demonic Generals conceding, there was no reason for the four Ashura Kings to resist anymore. As long as the Blood Ocean remained, Chu Kuangren, who had mastered the Blood God Technique, became the absolute force that no one could challenge.

No one in the Blood Ocean could kill him, not even an Embodier.

His undying traits were similar to the ones he had in the Underworld.

Now, the entire Blood Ocean had officially fallen under Chu Kuangren's control.

If Sin Buddha found out what Chu Kuangren had done, the man would probably lose his mind.

Sin Buddha spent countless years planning his takeover, and only after he got Yuan Tu and Avicii, he started to slowly conquer the different forces.

Yet, Chu Kuangren, who had just arrived in the Blood Ocean for a very short time, easily conquered it.

It was unbelievable!

"Now, find me a place to settle down," Chu Kuangren said.

"Sin Buddha has built a Buddha Hall as his base here. My lord, you can stay there for now," Po Yazhi, the Ashura King, said.

"Great." Chu Kuangren nodded.

The Buddha Hall was a grand palace erected in the middle of the Blood Ocean.

Chu Kuangren saw the signage hanging at the arch when he arrived. With a single thought, the signage broke and disintegrated into dust.

The news of Chu Kuangren becoming the new ruler of Blood Ocean spread like wildfire.

All the forces and experts in Blood Ocean came to pay their respect.

Chu Kuangren was not interested in them, so he sent the Ashura Kings to deal with them.

He was only intrigued when a certain person visited.

Chapter 1602 Make Shiva Divine Maiden Kneel, There Is A Hole On The Wall

"My Lord, Shiva Divine Maiden has requested a meeting."

Chu Kuangren had renamed Buddha Hall to Ghost Emperor Palace, and Po Yazhi came to inform him of the visiting request.

Chu Kuangren was studying a way to leave the Blood Ocean, so he originally wanted to tell Po Yazhi to send Shiva Divine Maiden on her way. However, a sudden thought rushed into his mind.

"Shiva Divine Maiden, the high priest of Ashura Tribe?"

"Yes, My Lord."

"I heard she's knowledgeable, and the divine eye on her forehead can see across the Blood Ocean and even peek into destiny to foresee the future. Is it true?"

"It is."

"Interesting. Bring her in."

Maybe the Shiva Divine Maiden could be of assistance.

A while later, the Shiva Divine Maiden in her glamorous robes and her beautiful looks that rivaled Tiamat entered the palace.

When she saw Chu Kuangren, one of the divine eyes on her forehead opened, but it was just for a second. The brief reaction of the divine eye was enough to surprise the Shiva Divine Maiden already.

“My Lord.”

Shiva Divine Maiden bowed and saluted humbly.

“Kneel!” Chu Kuangren bellowed coldly.

Shiva Divine Maiden could not help but frown when she heard Chu Kuangren. She was the high priest of the Ashura Tribe, which represented a noble status that was the Ashura King’s equal or higher.

However, the new ruler of the Blood Ocean wanted her to kneel at their first meeting, which triggered her emotions.

“I say kneel. Did you not hear me?”

Chu Kuangren repeated himself. A boundless aura expanded and filled the entire Ghost Emperor Palace.

The Green Lotus Mark on his forehead glimmered as well and released transcendental energy in all directions.

Shiva Divine Maiden’s body shook. In the end, she lowered his dignity and knelt before him. She then said stiffly, “My Lord.”

“You don’t sound convinced.”

“I wouldn’t dare.”

“I heard of you from Po Yazhi. You’re the youngest high priest of the Ashura Tribe with the best talents. You’re not even a thousand years old yet, and you’re already an Arch Gilded Immortal. You could be a Peerless Prodigy back in the Immortal World, but that’s not an excuse for you to disrespect me.”

Chu Kuangren’s tone grew cold as he spoke.

The little glance from her divine eye was so inconspicuous that it fooled even Po Yazhi, but it failed to escape Chu Kuangren’s eyes.

He felt like he was being watched, and although it was not an invasive one, it was enough to make him unhappy.

Shiva Divine Maiden’s body quivered. She did not expect Chu Kuangren to notice her little prying move.

“You know your action just offended the ruler of the Blood Ocean, and it’s enough for me to kill you,” Chu Kuangren said, disregarding her status as the high priest.

Po Yazhi was shocked. She wanted to plead on behalf of Shiva Divine Maiden, but she dared not.

“I’m sorry for my offensive behavior. Please forgive me,” Shiva Divine Maiden said.

“Speak. Why are you here? And be on your knees!” Chu Kuangren stopped her from standing up as soon as he saw her legs moving.

Shiva Divine Maiden helplessly knelt on the floor again and said, “As the high priest of the Ashura Tribe, it’s only natural that I would visit the new ruler of the Blood Ocean.”

“Oh. Now that you’ve seen me, what do you think?”

“My Lord, you’re young and capable, and you’ve achieved the Arch Gilded Immortal Realm at such a young age. You even have control over the Blood Ocean now. In time, you will be able to surpass the Underground River Forefather and bring the Blood Ocean to a new height.”

Nobody knew whether Shiva Divine Maiden was speaking honestly or with ulterior motives.

Chu Kuangren scoffed at her flattery. “Do you think you made up for your mistake by flattering me?”

“It’s flattery, but it’s also the truth.”

“Fine. I heard the Underworld River Forefather had four disciples — Papiyas, Brahma, Shiva, and Kamadhatu. Papiyas became the Demon Lord once he left and created the Desire World Sky; Brahma joined the Buddhist world, while Shiva and Kamadhatu were nowhere to be found.

“However, Shiva’s successor appeared in the Blood Ocean and had taken up the position of the high priest in the Ashura Tribe ever since.

“You, as Shiva’s successor, must know a lot about the Blood Ocean’s secret. Do you know the way to leave the Blood Ocean?” Chu Kuangren asked.

Shiva Divine Maiden did not answer his question directly. Instead, she said, “My Lord, did you know that the Nether Abyss was also part of the Immortal World a long time ago?”

“Oh? Interesting. Continue.”

“In ancient times, when the calamity befell, the Underworld River Forefather stood against it as one of the Embodiers. In order to protect the Blood Ocean from the calamity, he separated the whole Nether Abyss Blood Ocean from the Immortal World and sent it into the Deep Void.

“All Four Great Demonic Generals and the four Ashura Kings went into slumber while the Blood Divine Daoists protected the Blood Ocean. It was until Sin Buddha’s arrival, things changed, and he ruled over the Blood Ocean.”

“Why are you telling me all this?”

“The reason why the Blood Ocean couldn’t merge with the Immortal World was because of the restriction seals left behind by the Underworld River Forefather. If the restriction seals are broken, we can return to the Immortal World.”

“Couldn’t the Sin Buddha do it?”

“He couldn’t. He might be an Embodier, but he’s not as strong as the Forefather. However, you might be able to do it as the ruler of the Blood Ocean.”

Chu Kuangren pondered.

Ever since he ruled over the Blood Ocean, he had sensed a faint restraining force in the air.

It was a powerful one, much more power than the ones at the Holy Violet Emperor Planet.

There was also a strength difference between Embodiers, and the Underworld River Forefather was undoubtedly one of the strongest.

He was one step shy from achieving Primordial as well.

The restriction seals that he left behind must be something extraordinary, so it was natural that Sin Buddha could not break them.

“I might rule over the Blood Ocean, but my strength is far from reaching the Underworld River Forefather’s level. I can’t break his restriction seals... Wait, Sin Buddha almost merged the Blood Ocean and the Immortal World, so how did he do it?”

“Did he rely on the Power of Faith from the Far West Land? Was it so powerful that it rivaled the power of the Underworld River Forefather?”

Chu Kuangren pondered deeper.

The Power of Faith that Sin Buddha gathered was indeed powerful, and he had witnessed it himself before. However, it was definitely not at peak Embodier level.

How did he merge the Blood Ocean and Immortal World?

He must have done something.

“I have to go out for a bit,” Chu Kuangren said before his figure flashed and disappeared from the Ghost Emperor Palace.

Shiva Divine Maiden then looked at Po Yazhi with a bitter look. “Can I stand up now?”

“You have to ask our new ruler about that,” Po Yazhi said with a shrug.

On the other hand, Chu Kuangren appeared above the Blood Ocean.

His massive Immortal Consciousness spread out like an endless tide, covering every inch of water and land to gather information.

He spotted the islands, the Ashura Tribes that lived there, the four-hundred and eighty million Blood Divine Daoists, and the invisible restriction seals that shadowed the entire sky.

The restriction seals were everywhere, and they formed a massive invisible wall above the Blood Ocean, forcing it to wander into the Deep Void and never return to the Immortal World.

“Lil Ai, analyze that.”

“Yes...”

With Lil Ai’s analysis, Chu Kuangren found out that the invisible wall was not as sturdy as it looked.

“There’s, in fact, a hole in the wall!”

Chapter 1603 Blood Wing Black Mosquito, Blood Mosquito Island, A Tempting Chu Kuangren

“I knew it. The restriction seals left behind by the Underworld River Forefather have a flaw,” Chu Kuangren thought.

It was because of the flaw that could Sin Buddha use the Power of Faith to merge the Immortal World and Nether Abyss Blood Ocean.

Otherwise, the amount of Faith Power that Sin Buddha had gathered would not be enough to move Underworld River Forefather’s restrictions.

“If there’s a flaw, it’s workable. If I can find the flaw, I can exploit it and return to the Immortal World.”

Soon, he found something.

“I found it, but it’s a little strange.”

The flaw was located on an island deep in the Blood Ocean, but the island was shrouded in filthy qi, which was why the common Ashura Tribe could not have approached the island.

Then, he sensed a familiar but strange energy presence.

“This energy presence... Could it be...”

Chu Kuangren had a hunch.

He did not act recklessly but chose to return to Ghost Emperor Palace.

Now that he had found a way to leave the Blood Ocean, his mood was lightened up, and there was a smile on his face.

He came back into the main hall and saw Shiva Divine Maiden still kneeling.

“Get up.”

“Thank you, My Lord.”

Shiva Divine Maiden rubbed her sore knees and bowed at him.

She dared not simply offend the unpredictable new ruler of the Blood Ocean anymore.

In fact, she could now confirm that he was the tabooed existence that she saw in her vision previously. His fate was not of this universe, and it was strange.

After that, Chu Kuangren asked her about the island he found.

“Blood Mosquito Island? My Lord, why do you ask about that place?” Shiva Divine Maiden furrowed her brows.

“Just tell me about that place. That’s all you need to do.”

“Yes, My Lord.”

Shiva Divine Maiden then told him about Blood Mosquito Island and its long history.

Legend had it that Blood Mosquito Island produced many innate spiritual beings, including the Underworld River Forefather, who was the strongest of them all.

Other than that, it also housed a strange beast, which was known as one of the five ferocious beasts of ancient times, the Blood Wing Black Mosquito.

The Blood Wing Black Mosquito possessed the Devour Dao, which allowed it to devour the blood essence of all beings.

Even the Underworld River Forefather failed to kill it, so it was only expelled out of the Blood Ocean.

The mosquito also created the infamous Master Mosquito during ancient times, and he even caused trouble to the Buddhist world and even the Jie Sect.

Not even the Underworld River Forefather knew that Master Mosquito left behind his descendants in the Blood Ocean after leaving the place.

After the Underworld River Forefather disappeared, the descendants of Master Mosquito reproduced rapidly in the Blood Ocean and became a force to be reckoned with. They even occupied the island and named it Blood Mosquito Island, which was the island Chu Kuangren was asking for.

“The Ashura Tribe has been suffering from the Blood Wing Black Mosquito for many years, and many of our people have died. Please do us justice, My Lord,” Po Yazhi said with her fists together. He wanted Chu Kuangren to help them with that case.

“Why? The Ashura Tribe is the strongest tribe in the Blood Ocean, yet you can’t do anything to them?” Chu Kuangren asked.

“Blood Mosquito Island has elites that rival us, and they act in a strange manner. Once the situation turns against them, they’ll dive into the Blood Ocean and flee. The Blood Ocean is too big for us to search for them, so we can’t deliver the fatal blow,” Po Yazhi said helplessly.

The Blood Wing Black Mosquito was too cunning to fight the Ashura Tribe head-on.

Whenever the situation turned against them, they would flee into the ocean and stay hidden. Not even the Ashura Tribe could locate them.

“Interesting.” Chu Kuangren rubbed his chin.

Even if Po Yazhi did not tell him about the history of Blood Mosquito Island, he would visit it because the flaw of the restriction seal was there.

He was also intrigued by the strange but familiar presence there.

Just then, Po Yazhi’s blood-jade talisman buzzed, signaling that someone had sent her a message.

He glanced at the content, and his expression turned bitter.

“What’s wrong?” Chu Kuangren asked.

With a grim expression on his face, Po Yazhi said, "My Lord, the Blood Mosquito Island had just caught some of our people, including my daughter."

"Oh?" Chu Kuangren was a little surprised.

However, he said, "In that case, get some men ready. I'll go to Blood Mosquito Island to have a look first."

...

Meanwhile, on Blood Mosquito Island, the tribesmen of Blood Wing Black Mosquito had gotten news on Chu Kuangren becoming the new ruler of Blood Ocean as well, and it sparked a heated discussion among them.

"Have you heard? There seems to be a new ruler in the Blood Ocean."

"New Blood Ocean ruler? Is it the Sin Buddha?"

"No. It's an outsider who's only a Trinity Flower-prealm Arch Gilded Immortal. I managed to get a glance at him, and he was really young. His meat looks tender and juicy. I bet it's delicious."

A female Black Mosquito licked her lips as her eyes gleamed greedily.

The other Black Mosquitoes were rather concerned about the new ruler's cultivation level.

"Really? A mere Trinity Flower-realm Arch Gilded outsider became the new ruler of Blood Ocean? Has the Ashura Tribe lost their minds?"

"God knows."

"Tsk. Sin Buddha was an Embodier. He was powerful, and even he dared not call himself the ruler of Blood Ocean, so why would a mere Trinity Flower-realm Arch Gilded Immortal call himself the ruler? Why did the Ashura Tribe choose to pledge their loyalty to him? It's strange. Something fishy must be going on."

"Who cares? We just need to ensure there's blood for us to drink."

"Yeah. If the new ruler is only a Trinity Flower-realm Arch Gilded Immortal, let's go suck him dry."

Some of the stronger Black Mosquitoes already had their eyes on Chu Kuangren.

At the same time, a figure in white appeared in the sky above the Black Mosquito's island.

Some of the Blood Wing Black Mosquitos were aware of his arrival. When they looked up, their eyes widened in utmost desire and bloodthirst.

"It's so pure! His blood essence is so pure!"

"What a tempting smell! If I can suck his blood essence, I'll definitely ascend to the Arch Gilded Immortal Realm."

Blood was categorized into different grades according to the Blood Wing Black Mosquitoes.

The higher the cultivation, the more tempting the blood would be to them. However, there were also exceptions like Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren possessed all kinds of Immortal Physiques, including a number of Honorable Supreme Immortal Physiques.

Hence, to the Black Mosquitoes, his blood was the treasure of all blood. Once absorbed, they would definitely gain a huge increase in their strength and life force.

It might even awaken their bloodline and make them as powerful as Master Mosquito.

“I want to suck his blood! I must suck his blood!”

“He’s the most tempting human I have ever seen! I can’t hold it anymore!”

One of the Black Mosquitoes gave in to the temptation and flew toward Chu Kuangren.

It opened its mouth, and its powerful suction force attempted to devour Chu Kuangren.

“How rude,” Chu Kuangren said indifferently and responded with a simple punch.

Bang!

The Black Mosquito exploded into a cloud of blood mist.

In fact, that was not the end.

Attracted by Chu Kuangren’s ‘fragrance’, more and more Black Mosquitoes swarmed toward him. They all showed frenzied bloodthirst in their eyes.

Chu Kuangren took a sniff from his arm.

Was it really that tasty?

“I must suck his blood!”

“Go!”

Countless Blood Wing Black Mosquitoes transformed into their true form and swarmed toward Chu Kuangren as they submitted to their instinctive hunger.

“How annoying,” Chu Kuangren grunted and released his boundless Immortal’s Core energy.

He pointed his sword hand sign forward, and a green light glimmered in his eyes.

The Green Leaf Sword Vision’s divine ability, Green Leaf Sword Ocean was activated.

Endless sword qi gushed out violently, tearing apart everything in its path.

Chapter 1604 Princess Po Suolo, Blood Livestock, Black Dungeon Riot

Sword qi shuttled across the realm with unmatched sharpness.

Not even a Gilded Immortal could withstand such sword qi.

Soon, countless Black Black Mosquitoes were slashed and killed, bursting into clouds of blood mist.

More than ten thousand Black Black Mosquitoes were killed by a single shot of sword qi, including many Gilded Immortal.

The one who started the massacre stood firm on his spot.

“What a terrifying attack!”

“He’s at least in the Arch Gilded Immortal Realm!”

“Who is he exactly?”

Some of the Black Black Mosquitoes managed to hold their bloodlust back as fear took over them.

Chu Kuangren stood in the air and said, “I understand your bloodthirstiness since all of you are just some filthy Black Black Mosquitoes. Unfortunately, I’m not going to stand here and let you suck my blood. Smashing all of you to death is not that difficult for me.”

“Who are you? What are you doing here?!” one of the Black Black Mosquitoes asked.

“I heard you captured some people from the Ashura Tribe. Tell me where they are.”

“Do you think we’ll tell you?”

Chu Kuangren’s figure flashed and appeared in front of that Black Mosquito. A mini black hole formed in the center of his palm, and a tremendous distortion force exploded, crushing the Black Mosquito’s bones piece by piece.

Blood spurted and flesh burst out as his body was crushed.

“I have limited patience. Tell me where they are.”

“I will never tell you!”

Bang!

The Black Mosquito exploded on the spot.

“There are so many of you. I refuse to believe all of you have a similar unyielding spirit.”

With a single thought, the Spacetime Sealing Technique was cast, and the space was sealed.

Under his ruthless interrogation, one of them finally talked.

“They’re all locked in the Dark Prison!” said the horrified Black Mosquito.

“Bring me there.”

“There’s a powerful Blood Wing Black Black Mosquito on guard there. You alone cannot save them.”

“That’s none of your business.”

The Black Mosquito agreed and led Chu Kuangren to the Dark Prison.

After he left, the Black Black Mosquitoes that survived sighed a breath of relief.

“He’s so scary! Who exactly was that? I have never heard of the Ashura Tribe having such a monster!”

“I think he’s not from the Ashura Tribe. The Ashura men are not as handsome as him. He must be an outsider.”

“This won’t end well. We must inform the Black Mosquito King.”

The Black Mosquito Kings were the managers of Blood Mosquito Island, and there were a total of four of them, similar to their Ashura counterparts. They were all Perfected Arch Gilded Immortals as well.

Just when the Black Black Mosquitoes planned to leave, a fist-sized black vortex appeared above their heads, and a terrifying suction force erupted. All the Black Black Mosquitoes were sucked into nothingness.

“What is this?!”

“Black hole! It’s a black hole!”

“Why would there be a black hole here?!”

“It must be that guy! He never planned to let us live!”

Countless Black Black Mosquitoes fled in panic, but the black hole was too powerful. The suction force blanketed the entire area, and the Black Black Mosquitoes who were not even Gilded Immortals could not fight it.

After a while, they were all sucked into eternal death.

The black hole was, in fact, the divine ability of the Black Hole Celestial Demon Immortal Physique, Great Black Hole Disintegration.

Now that Chu Kuangren was an Arch Gilded Immortal, the black hole’s power was powerful enough to destroy half of the galaxy, let alone a bunch of Black Mosquitoes.

Inside the Dark Prison, a bunch of Ashura tribesmen was being held captive like how human held livestock on farms.

The Dark Prison was actually a feeding ground for the Black Mosquitoes.

“Princess, are you alright?” a man in broken armor asked a beautiful girl in glamorous robes.

Despite being in a terrible situation and wretched state, the girl’s delicate facial features carried a sliver of dignified aura.

She waved and said, “I’m fine. I won’t die yet.”

“Princess? You’re the princess?”

Some of the Ashura tribesmen were shocked to learn of the girl’s identity. They all knelt on the ground and bowed to her.

The girl immediately said, "Please, get up. All of you shouldn't be doing this in a situation like this. Let's just think of a way to escape."

The girl was Po Suolo, the daughter of King Po Yazhi.

She was on an outing to experience the life of her people when she was caught by the Blood Wing Black Mosquitoes as food.

If she knew it would be that dangerous, she would have brought a couple of experts on the trip.

She regretted her decision already. She thought it would be safe being in her own territory, but she underestimated the cunningness of the Black Mosquitoes.

"We are yours to command."

"I just scanned this place and noticed that the Dark Prison uses restriction seals to keep us here. I've learned a technique from a book before, and I think I can break it. When I break the restriction seals, General Tu will lead the way and bring everyone out here. I have already sent a hidden message to my father. They are on their way to save us," Po Suolo said.

"Great!" General Tu nodded.

With that, Po Suolo started to pay attention to the patrolling guards and took note of the time they used to finish a shift. After she identified the window, she started to break the restriction seals.

Soon, the restriction seals were broken, and the cell was opened.

The Ashura tribesmen escaped, but it also startled the prison guards.

"Hey! The prisoners are escaping! Stop them!"

"Go to hell!"

"Yeah! Damn you, Mosquito. Die!"

The people of the Ashura Tribe were all warriors regardless of age.

They were tortured when they were held captive, and now that they had regained their freedom, they vent their anger and grief on the prison guards.

The prison guards were soon killed by the wrath of the Ashura.

"Now!"

General Tu paved the way and led his people out of the Dark Prison.

The group pressed forward indomitably, and Po Suolo opened up all the restriction seals along the way.

Their prison break soon started a riot in the Dark Prison.

The Ashuras were released with endless wrath and ferocity.

"These damn Mosquitoes, I'll teach them a lesson!"

"They are dead!"

“Thank you, Princess.”

“We will level this Dark Prison to the ground!”

The prison break escalated into a prison riot, and the prison guards were all killed by the rioters.

“Look, there’s the exit!” General Tu was delighted when he saw the light at the end of the tunnel.

All the Ashura tribesmen were happy as well. They all charged toward the exit, but when they finally escaped the prison, the scene before their eyes threw them into despair.

A massive army of Black Mosquitoes surrounded them, and the leading Black Mosquitoes were Arch Gilded Immortals.

The joy of regaining their freedom was crushed mercilessly and replaced by endless despair.

“No...” Po Suolo collapsed on the ground feebly with a hopeless expression.

“You’re all just blood livestock. Don’t you know what this place is? Why would you think you could escape?” the leading Black Mosquito mocked them.

Chapter 1605 Po Suolo’s Despair, Chu Kuangren’s Arrival, You Are Safe Now

Countless Black Mosquitoes surrounded the prison’s exit.

The Ashura tribesmen who had just escaped their cells and fought their way to the exit were all thrown into despair when they saw the scene.

Po Suolo collapsed on the ground with a hopeless expression.

“We’ll fight them!” one of the Ashura tribesmen shouted and released a surge of explosive ferocious qi. He would rather fight to his death than wait for the Mosquitoes to drain their blood.

His determined shout resonated with his people, and it reminded them of the torment they received. It fueled their anger.

“Yeah! We’ll fight!”

“I don’t want to go back into that cell and wait for them to torture me!”

“My wife was sucked dry before my eyes! I want to avenge her!”

“These damn Mosquitoes! Let’s fight!”

The Ashura Tribesmen channeled their Immortal’s Core energy to the limit and charged forward.

One of them went over to Po Suolo and knelt before her. “Princess, we will pave the way for you. Please escape no matter what!”

“No! I can’t let you all die for me! My father will arrive soon, and we should seek shelter for now!”

“Princess, it’s useless. There are many elites among the Black Mosquitoes, and not even King Po Yazhi can guarantee our safety. It might be difficult for him to save us all, so please leave so that he can save you.”

"I..." Po Suolo stammered. She fell into a dilemma.

"Princess, don't hesitate. You're not like us. You are destined to be the pillar of the Ashura Tribe in the future, so remember to avenge us!"

Po Suolo nodded with her teeth clenched. "I will."

With that, she got up and prepared to leave.

The Ashura tribesmen and the Black Mosquitoes were already fighting, but the former was being overpowered by the overwhelming numbers from the enemy.

They had been locked up for so long in the Dark Prison, and being captive had robbed them of their fighting capabilities.

The Black Mosquitoes had the advantage of numbers, so it was easy to overpower them.

"Don't kill them all. They are our blood livestock, after all. I don't want to starve myself," said one of the leading Black Mosquitoes.

Then, he noticed Po Suolo's figure among the fighting Ashura. He was intrigued by her look and her outfit. "Oh? Interesting. This girl is wearing glamorous robes, so she must be different from the others."

His figure flashed forward and intercepted Po Suolo and General Tu.

"Princess, leave!" General Tu shouted. He stepped up and blocked the Black Mosquito.

"Oh? Princess?"

The Arch Gilded Black Mosquito was more intrigued than ever. "Who would have thought that we got ourselves a princess? Hahaha, this is great. I haven't tasted Ashura royalty before!"

"Desolator Lance!" General Tu shouted.

He transformed his Immortal's Core energy into a blood lance and shot it at the Black Mosquito.

However, the Arch Gilded Black Mosquito simply slapped the lance away. "How dare a mere Gilded Immortal dare to oppose me? You're dead!"

The might of an Arch Gilded Immortal erupted and shrouded the place.

Po Suolo, who was just a Gilded Immortal, felt like a mountain had crashed down on her and almost suffocated her.

Her legs turned weak, and she collapsed to the ground once more.

Helplessness, despair, and fear overcame her.

"Hehe! Don't worry, Princess. I won't suck you dry in one go. I'll capture you, feed you, and slowly enjoy you."

The Arch Gilded Black Mosquito licked his lips in a perverted manner.

Many of the Black Mosquitoes did the same. It was as though they were capturing a pet for themselves.

However, not all had the chance to capture royalty, not even the Mosquito King.

If others knew he got a princess, they would be jealous.

“Come with me!”

The Arch Gilded Black Mosquito unleashed his Immortal’s core energy and formed a massive hand to capture Po Suolo.

The terrifying aura rendered Po Suolo defenseless.

It was over!

“Princess!”

“No!”

The other Ashura tribesmen could not bear watching the fall of their princess.

It was at that moment, a boundless Immortal’s Core energy containing a strong Arch Gilded Intent came forth.

Kakroom!

Heaven and earth trembled.

The Arch Gilded Black Mosquito was shocked. He quickly retracted his Immortal’s Core and looked in that particular direction.

A surge of tyrannical sword qi that could sweep through all things and slash universes descended from the sky was locked onto him.

“Blood Gale Arch Gilded Palm!”

The Arch Gilded Black Mosquito dared not underestimate the sword qi, so he too channeled his Immortal’s Core energy to the limit and unleashed his most powerful palm strike.

Bang!

The void exploded. As energy and qi clashed and exploded, the stray energy from the collision killed some of the Blood Wing Black Mosquitoes.

The Arch Gilded Black Mosquito was blasted away.

“Who is that?!”

The Ashura tribesmen were all shocked as they looked in the direction of the sword qi.

A figure in white came walking over proudly. His Immortal’s Core energy fluctuated and scattered in all directions, shattering mountains and rivers.

The clouds rumbled, the ocean grew violent, and even the void cracked.

Terrifying Arch Gilded Intent shrouded the entire battlefield.

It was Chu Kuangren.

He glanced at the Ashura tribesmen outside the Dark Prison and landed his attention on the princess, Po Suolo.

His figure flashed and appeared before her.

“Are you Po Yazhi’s daughter?”

“Yes, I am.”

Po Suolo was baffled.

She did not know the man, and she was curious why would he call her father by name.

Not only that, but he was also extremely handsome.

“Great. You’re safe now,” Chu Kuangren said.

He made it just in time with the Black Mosquito leading the way.

As for the Black Mosquito’s reward for bringing him here, he swatted him to death. He hated mosquitoes a lot.

“Goddammit! This is the Dark Prison. This is the Blood Mosquito Island! Who do you think you are? Do you think you’re powerful enough to protect the Ashura Tribe?!” the Arch Gilded Black Mosquito shouted at Chu Kuangren coldly.

He also stared at Chu Kuangren with utmost desire as he could sense that Chu Kuangren’s blood was extremely precious, and it was tempting even to an Arch Gilded Immortal like him.

It was unbelievable to think that there was such tempting blood livestock in this world!

“You’re much more tempting than the princess. If I can suck you dry, or even just have a drop of your blood, I’ll definitely reach a new height with my powers,” said the Arch Gilded Black Mosquito as he gulped greedily.

Blood Wing Black Mosquitoes longed for blood because just by consuming blood alone, they could increase their cultivation level and life cycle.

Chu Kuangren, who had multiple Honorable Supreme Immortal Physiques and even an Ultimate Almighty Source Physique, was the biggest temptation for them in the world.

“Suck my blood? Are you even worthy of that?” Chu Kuangren said indifferently.

He pointed his sword hand sign forward, and the boundless sword qi swept over all directions.

The Blood Wing Black Mosquitoes were being killed one after another.

“Blade of Zhou, Infinite Void!”

The last sword attack was aimed at the Arch Gilded Black Mosquito.

“What?!”

The sword's power exceeded the Arch Gilded Black Mosquito's expectations. He channeled his full strength to defend against it, but he was still blasted away by the force.

The other Arch Gilded Black Mosquitoes joined the battle.

"Hmph! How dare a mere Trinity Flower realm raise his voice against us? You have a death wish!"

"I will kill him!"

Multiple Arch Gilded Immortals teamed up and released a terrifying aura. However, it did not scare Chu Kuangren.

"Great. I shall use you people to test my new strength."

Chapter 1606 The Four Great Mosquito Kings, The Four Great Ashura Kings, How Were They So Confident?

On Blood Mosquito Island, Chu Kuangren alone was facing the siege of several Black Mosquito Arch Gilded Immortals.

Soon, a ball of red flame erupted in his hand, and an extremely terrifying karmic flame energy that an Arch Gilded Immortal would be highly afraid of spread outward.

"This is the Crimson Karmic Lotus Flame!"

"How could he possibly possess the Crimson Karmic Lotus Flame?!"

The Crimson Karmic Lotus Flame was listed in the Divine Flame List, and its Karmic Flame energy would get more powerful when one's cultivation improved.

The Crimson Karmic Lotus Flame that Chu Kuangren had just cast contained the Red Karmic Flame Lotus energy, which was even more powerful than an ordinary one!

Wherever the crimson flame burned, the void distorted. No one could survive the flame, not even the Blood Wing Blood Mosquito Gilded Immortals.

Burned by the flame, countless mosquitoes lit up and turned into ashes, releasing the rancid burning smell into the air!

Chu Kuangren frown. "Sure enough, the smell of grilled mosquitoes is not very pleasant."

Then, he waved his sleeve to retract the Karmic Flame energy.

At that sight, several Arch Gilded Immortals seized the opportunity to attack him by releasing all kinds of powerful Immortal Techniques.

"Be careful!"

Po Suolo's pretty face sank, and she could not help but exclaim.

However, Chu Kuangren ignored what she said. The Green Lotus Mark on his forehead released a faint Immortal Spark, and an annihilating might gushed out like never before!

The Chaos Green Lotus gained huge energy after absorbing the Red Karmic Flame Lotus, which helped Chu Kuangren to release much more powerful energy in turn.

Soon, the surging Immortal Spark, which was contained within the green Immortal Spark, exploded and spread out in the shape of a fan!

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The Immortal Techniques cast by the Arch Gilded Immortals collided with the Green Lotus destruction energy, causing explosions to erupt in the void!

The Green Lotus destruction energy was an extremely terrifying power.

It beat all Immortal Techniques in the universe, and even the Embodier Technique was far inferior to it.

Moreover, the fundamentals of the energy were above all Daos.

Soon, the destruction light wiped out all the Arch Gilded Immortal Techniques and eventually enveloped a few of the Black Mosquito Arch Gilded Immortals.

“What energy is this?”

“B*stard. What has he done? What the hell is this?!”

They felt the unprecedented aura of death from the Green Lotus destruction energy.

Even an Arch Gilded Immortal panicked at that moment.

Shortly after, mists of blood exploded in the void. The Black Mosquito Arch Gilded Immortals were dead!

All the Ashura tribesmen were dumbfounded for quite a while.

Those were Arch Gilded Immortals, and they were all killed just like that?!

Who was the young man in white?!

Everyone had a lot of questions.

“Thank you for your help, Daoist Brother.” Po Suolo approached Chu Kuangren and said with a fist salute.

“Brother?”

Chu Kuangren glanced at her but did not pursue the way she called him.

Po Suolo should have addressed him as her master instead. After all, he was now the Blood Ocean Ruler!

“Daoist Brother, this is a Dark Prison, and we shouldn’t stay here for long. Let’s leave as soon as we can,” said Po Suolo.

Chu Kuangren looked into the distance and said calmly, “It’s too late. They’re already here”

“They?”

As if she had suddenly thought of something, Po Suolo’s expression changed.

Further away, several incomparably terrifying auras dashed over rapidly. The violent Arch Gilded Intent that contained the presence of blood covered the entire Dark Prison.

Many Ashura tribesmen trembled upon sensing the Arch Gilded intent.

“Such an aura... I-It’s the Mosquito King!” Po Suolo said with a pale face.

The Mosquito King was a nightmare to many Ashura because he brought disasters and was synonymous with unfortunate!

Only the Ashura Kings could fight against him because the rest of the Ashura Tribes were not his match no matter how powerful and brave their generals were.

“The Mosquito King is here. You’re doomed, lad!”

“The Mosquito King will never let you go for killing so many elites. You’ll be dead!”

The rest of the Blood Wing Black Mosquitoes were extremely excited. It was as if they had met a savior, and they even clamored at Chu Kuangren.

“What’s this noise?”

As Chu Kuangren put up a sword hand sign, countless sword qi spread from him and killed some clamoring mosquitoes.

“You’re courting death for killing my tribe!”

A roar sounded.

Soon, a figure glided across the air with a bloodthirsty and brutal Arch Gilded intent enveloping the universe.

He was a brawny man that looked to be in his thirties and wore a blood-colored royal robe. His brows were long and narrow, looking vicious and treacherous.

Besides him, several bursts of incomparably powerful auras erupted from other directions of Blood Mosquito Island.

All the Mosquito Kings arrived one by one.

They stared at Chu Kuangren with a gaze that revealed the same eagerness as other mosquitoes.

Meanwhile, the rest of the mosquitoes were astonished.

“My goodness. The Four Great Mosquito Kings are here.”

“What a scene. The Four Great Mosquito Kings have come because of a Trinity Flower-realm Arch Gilded.”

The Ashura Tribe, who were hopeful, once again fell into despair because of Chu Kuangren’s emergence.

With the Four Great Mosquito Kings coming, they were in danger unless the Four Great Ashura Kings were also here.

“Such a luring scent. Is he an innate living being?”

“It is unlikely that an innate living being was born in the Blood Ocean. His aura seems to be that of a human tribe.”

The Four Great Mosquito Kings were engaged in a discussion while looking at Chu Kuangren.

Although their cultivation had reached the Perfected Arch Gilded Immortal Realm, they were attracted by Chu Kuangren upon seeing him.

They even suspected that Chu Kuangren was an innate living being who was born adhering to the Heaven and Earth Dao. If not, why did he possess such a luring blood aura?

They felt that if they could devour Chu Kuangren, they would most likely gain the same achievement as their father, Master Mosquito.

“I don’t care if you are human or Ashura, and I want the Supreme Blood on your body!”

A Mosquito King said coldly.

Chu Kuangren shook his head. “You’re merely a mosquito even though you are the king of mosquitoes.”

“Hmph. Cut the cr*p and go to hell.”

The Four Great Mosquito Kings could hardly hold back and wanted to rush up to suck Chu Kuangren’s blood.

However, at that moment, several extremely terrifying auras erupted and soared between heaven and earth.

The powerful ferocious qi and murderous intent almost formed into a substance.

“The Ashura King has come!”

In the distance, Po Yazhi glided across the air with the other three Ashura Kings.

As the Four Great Ashura Kings arrived together, a horrifying aura swept across heaven and earth.

At that, the expression of the four mosquito kings changed slightly.

“Does the Ashura Tribe want to start a war?”

“How are they so confident?”

Over the years, Blood Mosquito Island and Ashura Tribe seldom had large-scale wars even though they were at odds with each other.

That was because both parties were unsure that they could wipe out the other party.

Once they started a war, they would fight with each other to the death, and that was why no one dared to take the risk.

It was the first time the Four Great Ashura Kings came together to Blood Mosquito Island.

Chapter 1607 Die Together! You Guys Are Not Worthy, Destroying Blood Mosquito Island

“It’s the Ashura Kings. They have come to rescue us.”

“That’s great. The Kings don’t abandon their people. The end for Blood Mosquito Island is here.”

Many of the Ashura tribesmen were so excited that they knelt on the ground and looked at Ashura Kings enthusiastically.

On the other hand, the Four Great Mosquito Kings’ expressions darkened.

However, the next scene stunned all Ashuras and the Blood Wing Black Mosquitos present.

Po Yazhi and the other three Ashura Kings came up to Chu Kuangren and bowed. “Greetings, Blood Ocean Ruler!”

Ashura Kings were unruly and arrogant, yet they willingly bowed to the same person.

Everyone was shocked, to say the least.

“W-What’s going on?”

“Are they the Ashura Kings? Could someone be pretending to be them?”

“How could someone pretend to be them? Such a powerful aura must belong to the Ashura Kings. By the way, did they address the young man as Blood Ocean Ruler?!”

“Has the Blood Ocean gotten an owner?”

Po Suolo looked at Chu Kuangren with shock, surprise, and curiosity in her eyes.

She had heard about the Blood Ocean Ruler who was said to be extremely mysterious. After taking over the position, leaders of various forces went to visit him, but he refused to meet them.

She did not expect that Chu Kuangren was the one who saved her.

For a moment, her heart raced.

The Ashura had always respected those who were powerful.

Besides being powerful, Chu Kuangren was the Blood Ocean Ruler, and he even saved her. How could Po Suolo’s heart not be moved by him?

“Ashura King, Blood Ocean Ruler? That’s ridiculous. Is a Trinity Flower-realm Arch Gilded Immortal worthy to be called the Blood Ocean Ruler?”

The Mosquito King regained his senses from the shock and said disdainfully.

Chu Kuangren ignored him and said to Po Yazhi beside him, “Have you gotten everything ready?”

“The Ashura army has surrounded this area, and not a single mosquito can escape,” Po Yazhi said coldly.

“It seems like you guys really want to have a war against us. However, that’s no big deal. We’ll just die together!”

The Mosquito King’s face darkened.

“Die together? Do you think you’re worthy to do so?”

Chu Kuangren rose into the sky with a hint of contempt in his eyes.

“Hmph. Blood Ocean Ruler? Prove your capabilities to me.” One of the Mosquito Kings made a bold move, and a terrifying fist energy suddenly erupted.

Bang!

Chu Kuangren immediately exploded into a pool of blood.

Everyone was stunned.

Countless Blood Wing Black Mosquitoes could not help but laugh mockingly.

“That’s it?”

“Is he the Blood Ocean Ruler? How ridiculous!”

“Haha. That is ridiculous.”

The laughter spread.

However, the Mosquito Kings’ expressions were ashen as they dared not be careless.

“What weird situation is this?”

“He’s not dead yet. The blood doesn’t have his aura.”

They wanted Chu Kuangren’s supreme blood very badly, but the blood on the ground did not have the luring aura.

Boom! Boom!

At that moment, the sky above the entire Blood Mosquito Island suddenly darkened.

Everyone took a deep breath upon seeing the scene.

It was blood!

Gallons of blood-colored seawater rose into the sky like huge and tall walls on four sides, covering the Blood Mosquito Island whole.

In the blood-colored seawater, countless Blood Divine Daoists with different appearances stared at the Blood Wing Black Mosquitos with ferocious intent in their eyes.

Soon, a figure in white stood in the air below the seawater.

It was Chu Kuangren, whom everyone thought had turned into blood. Besides being unscathed, he was surrounded by immortal Sparks, with frightening blood-colored murderous rays interweaving around him.

At that moment, he had merged with the Blood Ocean, and the air was filled with terrifying murderous intent and ferocious qi!

It was an aura that even the Mosquito King feared.

“Blood Ocean Ruler!” the Mosquito King said in disbelief.

It turned out Chu Kuangren did not become the Blood Ocean Ruler because he was revered, but because he literally controlled the entire Blood Ocean!

No wonder the Four Great Ashura Kings bowed down to him.

The Blood Ocean was the core of the Nether Abyss Blood Ocean’s Otherworldly Realm.

Who could resist an existence that had mastered the Blood Ocean, even if he was merely a Trinity Flower-realm Arch Gilded Immortal?

“Damn it. Let’s fight him to death!”

Knowing that they could not escape, the Four Great Mosquito Kings became ferocious.

Soon, the combat strength of a Perfected Arch Gilded Immortal erupted!

Despite that, Chu Kuangren stood where he was and said, “I said you guys are not worthy to fight with me!”

Boom! Boom!

In an instant, the countless Blood Divine Daoists appeared in the sky and dashed toward the Four Great Mosquito Kings.

In the face of that force, the Four Great Mosquito Kings were helpless like ordinary people facing floods and tsunamis. They could not resist the force, and their struggle was just in vain.

“Hurry! Run now!”

“How is this possible? How could someone be able to control the entire Blood Ocean?!”

“This is impossible.”

“I must be dreaming.”

The Blood Wing Black Mosquitoes, who could not believe what was happening before them, fled while resisting.

Unfortunately, they failed to escape because the four hundred and eighty million Blood Divine Daoists had surrounded the entire Blood Mosquito Island.

Even if some lucky mosquitoes managed to escape from the Blood Divine Daoists’ siege, they had to face the countless Ashura army outside of the island!

Under the double siege, Blood Mosquito Island was destined to be completely destroyed!

They had no choice but to die!

“I didn’t expect that after ruling the Blood Ocean for so many years, my Blood Wing Black Mosquito Tribe would be defeated by a little-known lad. I’m dissatisfied with the outcome!” the Mosquito King yelled with dissatisfaction.

After unleashing an attack with full strength, he managed to hurt countless Blood Divine Daoists, including Chu Kuangren. However, it did not help the situation at all.

As long as the Blood Ocean was not dead, Chu Kuangren would be indestructible!

Even though his figure shattered, it would be reformed in the Blood Ocean in the next moment.

On top of that, he possessed the Indestructible Physique, which made him wonder whether there was someone in the universe that could kill him now.

Perhaps a Primordial could do it.

How could the Four Great Mosquito Kings kill him when they were not even Embodiers?

Under the attack of countless Blood Divine Daoists, the three Mosquito Kings were eventually wiped out by the blood-colored murderous rays. They were dead!

The remaining Mosquito King knelt on the ground and begged for mercy. “I-I’m willing to surrender, Blood Ocean Ruler. I’m willing to be your slave. Please spare my life.”

“I’m sorry. I hate mosquitoes,” said Chu Kuangren.

The murderous rays soon devoured the Mosquito King in the blink of an eye.

Being bloodthirsty was the nature of those mosquitoes, and that trait was difficult to wipe out. However, that was not the reason why Chu Kuangren must kill them.

He killed them because the hatred between Blood Wing Black Mosquitoes and Ashura Tribe was too intense. It had reached the point where they could not go back to being peaceful with each other.

Although the Ashura Kings would not voice out if he spared the life of those Mosquito Kings, they must hold grudges in their hearts.

Moreover, the other Ashura tribesmen would have hard feelings about that, which would bring hidden problems to Chu Kuangren in managing the Blood Ocean in the future.

Therefore, Blood Mosquito Island had to be destroyed for him to establish his supreme prestige among the Ashura tribesmen and gain the Ashura Kings’ loyalty!

Chapter 1608 The Dao Contamination Qis in the Blood Pool, Where Are You From?

A massacre was going on in Blood Mosquito Island.

With Chu Kuangren’s four hundred and eighty million Blood Divine Daoists, the Blood Wing Black Mosquitoes were powerless to fight back, and they were instantly killed.

None of the Four Great Mosquito Kings survived.

The Four Great Ashura Kings gulped with disbelief at Chu Kuangren’s terrifying power.

With the Blood Wing Black Mosquitoes almost wiped out, Chu Kuangren began to look for the hole in the Underworld River Restriction.

“I’ll leave the rest of the matters to you guys,” Chu Kuangren said to the Four Great Ashura Kings.

Following that, his figure flashed and came to the depths of Blood Mosquito Island, where there was a huge Blood Pool.

The Blood Pool was bubbling and spooky.

More importantly, bundles of black qi were being suppressed in the Blood Pool.

“Sure enough, it’s the Dao contamination qi,” said Chu Kuangren.

The Dao contamination qi was the root cause of the ancient Immortal catastrophe, and even the Embodiers stayed away from it.

Although the Underworld River Forefather kept the Nether Abyss Blood Ocean in the Deep Void to avoid the impact of the ancient Immortal catastrophe, he failed.

Some of the Dao contamination qis managed to invade the Nether Abyss Blood Ocean!

The Underworld River Forefather’s restriction may have suppressed it, but it caused a loophole in the restriction.

As if it had sensed Chu Kuangren’s arrival, the Dao contamination qi under the Blood Pool began to grow restless.

“Back when I was yet a Gilded Immortal, I could already absorb the Emerald Hill Fox King’s Dao contamination qi. Now that I’m an Arch Gilded Immortal, logically, I can absorb these Dao contamination qis, even though they are many times more powerful than the previous one,” Chu Kuangren thought to himself.

Following that, his figure flashed and dashed into the Blood Pool.

Buzz...

As the entire Blood Pool started to get restless, the Dao contamination qis scurried around in the Blood Pool. Unfortunately, it failed to escape because of the Blood Pool’s suppression.

“Where do you think you can escape to?”

Chu Kuangren snorted while forcing the Dao contamination qis to a dead end.

Immediately after, he cast the Heavenly Devouring Daoist Art!

Boom!

He already had some understanding of the Dao contamination qi. It was a product of the Great Dao, so Heavenly Devouring Daoist Art was perfect to deal with it.

Soon, billowing black qi gushed into his body.

The Firmament Star's Heavenly Dao energy in his body trembled as if it was afraid of the Dao contamination qis and avoided them.

Chu Kuangren comforted it before activating his Mini Universe power.

As terrifying and domineering erupted, the Dao contamination qis curled up in one corner of his body and shivered. They were extremely frightened by the colorful light wisp that represented the Pocket Universe.

The Dao contamination qis were merely a product of the Great Dao, whereas the Pocket Universe was a complete one, where Chu Kuangren was the Great Dao of the universe. That was why he could oppress them!

"Something isn't right."

Chu Kuangren suddenly noticed that when he was absorbing Dao contamination qis, the flaw in the restriction left behind by the Underworld River Forefather was recovering rapidly.

With that, he could not absorb the Dao contamination qis further and decided to stop.

Those Dao contamination qis immediately moved away from Chu Kuangren and curled up in one corner of the Blood Pool.

"If I absorb all these Dao contamination qis, the loophole in the restriction left behind by the Underworld River Forefather will recover, and it'll be even more difficult for me to leave the Blood Ocean."

"I must keep these Dao contamination qis first," mumbled Chu Kuangren.

Following that, he left the Blood Pool.

"Who are you?!"

At that moment, a Black Arch Gilded Immortal Mosquito that was guarding the place rushed in.

Chu Kuangren simply glanced at him, and the Green Lotus Mark on his forehead released a dazzling brilliance that unleashed the Green Lotus Destruction energy.

Bang!

The Arch Gilded Immortal turned into a mist of blood and exploded on the spot.

Following that, Chu Kuangren walked out of the Blood Pool. By then, the Blood Divine Daoists that he released had made their way to him.

He only needed to hand over the rest of the matters to the Four Ashura Kings.

"It's almost time for me to leave the Blood Ocean."

Since he had figured out a way to leave the Blood Ocean, he decided not to stay here any longer.

Although he could dominate the Blood Ocean, he had limited room for achievement here.

He had greater ambition.

However, the Blood Ocean energy that he had mastered was extremely powerful. It was a great force second only to the Underworld and was even more powerful than the Holy Violet Emperor Planet.

No matter what, the Four Ashura Kings and the Four Great Demonic Generals were well-known elites in the Immortal World.

Before he left the Blood Ocean, he had to make sure things were arranged accordingly.

After solving the matter of the Blood Mosquito Island, the Four Great Ashura Kings knelt before Chu Kuangren in the Ghost Emperor Palace.

“Master, thank you for helping the Ashura Tribe to settle the Blood Mosquito Island!”

Chu Kuangren waved his hand and did not take it seriously. “It’s just a small matter.”

Upon hearing his words, the corners of the Ashura Kings’ mouths twitched.

The Ashura Tribe had been fighting with the Blood Mosquito Island for a very long time, but it was just a small matter to Chu Kuangren.

Sure enough, whoever controlled the Blood Ocean in the Nether Abyss Blood Ocean was the boss!

“Since the Blood Mosquito Island has been destroyed, I shall leave the Blood Ocean for a while. All of you will stay here to regain your energy, and when I’m back, I will return the Blood Ocean to the Immortal World,” Chu Kuangren said confidently.

The Four Great Ashura Kings and Po Suolo immediately raised their heads in disbelief.

Did Chu Kuangren have a way to leave the Blood Ocean?

Po Suolo was reluctant to see him leave.

“Master, do you have a way to leave the Blood Ocean?”

“Do you mind telling us the way?” asked the Ashura Kings.

Instead of hiding it, Chu Kuangren told them about the flaw of the Underworld River Forefather’s restriction. Then, he took them to the Blood Pool to see the Dao contamination qis.

“My goodness. What are these?”

“What the hell? Why would these exist in the Blood Ocean?”

“It turns out the Blood Ocean couldn’t avoid the catastrophe in the end.”

The Ashura Kings lamented. After all, they survived the previous era, so they also had some understanding of the Dao contamination qi.

However, Po Yazhi was slightly puzzled. “Master, you must go through these Dao contamination qis if you want to leave the Blood Ocean. I’m afraid...”

They were well aware of the Dao contamination qi’s danger.

It was absolutely unbearable for an existence below the Embodier Realm to go through it. Even an Embodier would find it torture.

Although Chu Kuangren had control over the Blood Ocean, he was merely a Trinity Flower-realm Arch Gilded.

Before Po Suolo could finish her sentence, she noticed a pitch-black Dao contamination qi emerge in Chu Kuangren's hand.

That energy was circulating at his fingertips, and it did not harm him.

Everyone gasped!

Chu Kuangren could ignore the threat of the Dao contamination qi!

That was even more shocking than him being the Blood Ocean Ruler!

"M-Master, where are you from actually?" Po Yazhi gulped and asked.

"Me? I'm just an ordinary cultivator," said Chu Kuangren.

Meanwhile, Shiva Divine Maiden thought to herself, "As expected of an existence that cannot be glimpsed at. He really is impossible to measure with common sense."

"Shiva Divine Maiden," Chu Kuangren suddenly said.

"Yes."

"You will manage the Nether Abyss Blood Ocean while I'm away."

"What?!"

Chapter 1609 The Arch Gilded Godly Fist, Returning To the Immortal World, The Terrified Monk

"What?!"

Shiva Divine Maiden was stunned as she did not expect Chu Kuangren would make such a decision.

After all, she had offended him not long ago, yet he was giving her the authority to manage the Nether Abyss Blood Ocean.

She found it difficult to understand him.

Chu Kuangren took a deep look at her. "What's wrong? Do you have any concerns?"

"No, I don't. I will manage the Blood Ocean well for you, Master," said Shiva Divine Maiden.

She dared not disobey Chu Kuangren as she was afraid of his outlawed fate.

In fact, Chu Kuangren handed over the management rights to her because he knew that she was afraid of him.

Moreover, the Four Great Ashura Kings possessed about the same strength. If he handed over the management rights to one of them, the other three might disobey, and disputes would arise.

If he handed over the management rights to the four of them, they would fight when there was a disagreement, which was common in the history of the Ashura Tribe.

Only Shiva Divine Maiden, the Ashura Tribe's high priest with a superior status, could coordinate all forces and maintain Nether Abyss Blood Ocean's order with the management rights given by Chu Kuangren.

It was expected that the Ashura Tribe could develop rapidly without the threat of Blood Mosquito Island.

Therefore, he must hold the power firmly in his hand.

"Everyone, since I have handed over everything that I should, I'll leave the rest to you," said Chu Kuangren.

Then, he jumped into the Blood Pool and disappeared.

Po Suolo felt lost while looking at Chu Kuangren's back.

Po Yazhi knew about his beloved daughter's thoughts and said with a sigh, "Daughter, a person like Master can't be approached by an ordinary person. His ambition is too lofty."

He knew well that the entire Nether Abyss Blood Ocean was just one of the forces that could help Chu Kuangren.

Although it was useful to him, it could be sacrificed when necessary.

A person like him would definitely stand at the peak of Immortal World in the future. He was comparable to and even surpassed their forefather!

Therefore, Po Suolo should not take her feelings for Chu Kuangren seriously.

"I understand. I'll cultivate hard and hope that I can help Master one day to repay him for saving me!" Po Suolo said firmly.

An Ashura Queen was slowly rising.

...

After entering the Blood Pool, Chu Kuangren passed through the Dao contamination qis and came to the loophole in the restriction left by the Underworld River Forefather.

It was a blood-colored whirlpool filled with endless blood-colored murderous rays!

Without saying another word, he plunged himself into the whirlpool.

Soon, endless murderous rays swept in. Ordinary Arch Gilded Immortals might be torn apart and disintegrated into nothing under that force.

However, as the brilliance of the Green Lotus Mark on Chu Kuangren's forehead flashed, a green lotus slowly unfolded under his feet. It enveloped him and isolated the murderous rays around him.

He walked forward in the seemingly endless blood-colored passage, which was formed by the loophole in the Underworld River Forefather's restriction.

It was extremely peculiar as if it had no end. On top of that, it seemed like even the concepts of time and space were lost here.

Chu Kuangren could only use the daily gatcha roll to judge the lapse of time.

One gatch roll meant one day.

One day, two days, three days...

One month, two months, three months...

"Congratulations, Host! You've won a God-tier item, the Arch Gilded Godly Fist!"

Chu Kuangren obtained a God-tier item in his three hundred and seventy-sixth gatch roll, which was the twelfth God-tier item he had received that year.

He obtained Immortals herbs, Immortal Weapons, and cultivation techniques in the previous eleven gatcha rolls, but most of them were useless.

After reading the Arch Gilded Godly Fist's description, his eyes lit up, and he found it interesting.

"This Immortal Technique is interesting."

The Arch Gilded Godly Fist was a top-notch Immortal Technique, and it was not an Embodier Technique but an extremely peculiar Arch Gilded Technique.

Although Chu Kuangren possessed many types of Embodier Techniques and did not lack Arch Gilded Techniques, that Arch Gilded Technique managed to attract his attention.

The Arch Gilded Godly Fist was a fist technique that combined Arch Gilded Intent to exert a much more powerful force.

In other words, the force would be more powerful as long as more Arch Gilded intent was integrated into the fist technique!

Chu Kuangren laughed.

In terms of Arch Gilded intent quantities, Chu Kuangren dominated the younger generation!

"Although I have mastered many Arch Gilded Intents, they all remain at the first step of the seven steps of Arch Gilded Intent because they are merely tools I use to activate my Invincible Self-Empowering Arch Gilded Intent."

"Having said that, it will be an embarrassing defeat if I encounter some Second-step and Third-step Arch Gilded Intent. This Arch Gilded Godly Fist makes up my weakness."

Chu Kuangren thought to himself.

Since he could not win by the quality of Arch Gilded Intent, he could kill with the quantities of his Arch Gilded Intent!

'If one with the Second-step Arch Gilded Intent could oppress one with the First-step Arch Gilded intent, what if I combine several types of First-step Arch Gilded Intent?'

'What kind of terrifying power will that be if I combine ten, twenty, or even a hundred types of Arch Gilded Intent?'

Chu Kuangren was looking forward to it.

"However, I'm still some distance away from that realm. The Arch Gilded Intent that I've mastered are..."

Chu Kuangren calculated it in his mind.

Physical Body Arch Gilded Intent, Merciful Arch Gilded Intent, Destructive Arch Gilded Intent, Murderous Arch Gilded Intent, Guqin Dao Arch Gilded Intent, Yin Yang Arch Gilded Intent, Samsara Arch Gilded Intent, and Thunder Gale Arch Gilded Intent — there were a total of eight Arch Gilded Intent.

"It's still far from enough."

Looking at the blood-colored passage ahead that still seemed endless, Chu Kuangren decided to sit on the Green Lotus with his legs crossed to comprehend the Arch Gilded Intent.

After some time, he managed to master the Flame Arch Gilded Intent.

He was about to master the Flame Arch Gilded Intent after refining the Crimson Karmic Lotus Flame, but after some enlightenment, he finally mastered it smoothly.

Based on his physique, he then planned to comprehend the Black Hole Arch Gilded Intent and Life-death Arch Gilded Intent, which were represented by the Black Hole Celestial Demon Physique and Life-death Celestial Demon Physique.

However, it was not easy this time.

Even if Chu Kuangren possessed an Honorable Supreme Immortal Physique, he could not master Arch Gilded Intent without the help of external forces or reference targets.

For instance, the Thunder Gale Arch Gilded Intent was mastered by consuming the Thunder Gale Immortal Apricot, while the Yin Yang Arch Gilded Intent was obtained by battling against Hei Bai Wuchang.

Buzz!

Chu Kuangren felt a void fluctuation after some time in the blood-colored passage.

"Have I finally arrived?"

Chu Kuangren's eyes lit up.

A pitch-black whirlpool suddenly emerged before him.

After exiting the whirlpool, he came to the Deep Void. Once he found the barrier between the Deep Void and the Shallow Void, he unleashed a sword attack to break it and return to the Shallow Void. From there, he went back into the Immortal World.

“I’m finally back!”

Chu Kuangren took a deep breath, and his mouth twitched while looking at the endless mountains and rivers in front of him.

He then mobilized his Immortal Consciousness to judge the Illusory Realm where he was.

“What a coincidence. It’s still the Far West Land.”

Chu Kuangren was a little surprised.

He could sense the faint Buddhist Light aura circulating him.

“It seems like the Sin Buddha didn’t completely destroy this place, and his plan failed. I wonder what happened to the Five Ways Pure Land.”

Chu Kuangren intended to go to the Euphoria Pure Land to find out.

With that, his figure flashed and disappeared in place.

Not long after, he arrived at the Euphoria Pure Land, which was much more deserted than it was previously.

It seemed like it had not fully recovered from the Buddha Destroyer catastrophe.

“D-Demon!”

The moment the monk saw Chu Kuangren, he was so frightened that he slumped on the ground in horror.

Chapter 1610 A Vivid Carnage, Shi Ying’s Condition, The Great Thunder Temple

“D-Demon!”

The monk in the Euphoria Pure Land slumped on the ground and looked at Chu Kuangren as if he was the greatest horror in the universe!

Chu Kuangren was stunned too.

What had he done to scare a person to such an extent?

Many scenes flashed in the monk’s mind when he looked at Chu Kuangren. Those were the terrifying memories buried deep in his mind that he did not wish to recall!

It was a man in white, holding an ancient sword and a long halberd while murdering and destroying Buddhas all the way.

My goodness!

He could not believe that such a terrifying demon existed in the universe. Even the most horrifying and evil demon recorded in the Buddhist Scriptures was inferior to Chu Kuangren!

Countless Arhats and Bodhisattvas fell under his feet.

The blood stained the mountains, rivers, and earth, while the heaven wept blood, and myriad Buddhas wailed!

However, none of those could stop the demon's pace, end the killing sound and the sword rays...

Countless scenes replayed in the monk's mind, causing him extremely terrified. He slumped on the ground in a cold sweat and was motionless.

Soon after, someone led the crowd and dashed out after hearing the monk mention the word 'demon'.

"Where is the evil demon?!"

"Let's send him to hell!"

The crowd was furious, but their pupils widened in shock upon seeing Chu Kuangren.

Immediately afterward, they sat on the ground in panic, just like the monk.

"I-It's him."

"Why is the demon here again?"

Chu Kuangren shook his head helplessly, and he had already guessed something.

Those people should be the surviving monks that came to stop him from going to the Holy Dragon Pure Land.

"Amitabha."

At that moment, a mantra sounded, and an abundance of Buddhist Lights flowed past those monks.

Soon, their pupils gradually dilated, and they fainted one by one.

"Brother Chu, please come in."

It was Buddha Yun Lan with a pure, holy, and ethereal voice.

Without hesitation, Chu Kuangren's figure flashed into the Euphoria Pure Land and arrived at the Mahavira Hall.

Buddha Yun Lan sat on the highest lotus altar with various Bodhisattvas on both sides.

At that moment, those Bodhisattvas looked at Chu Kuangren with extremely complicated gazes. Some of them looked at him with gratitude, while some looked at him with fear.

All in all, they could not have peace of mind upon seeing Chu Kuangren's arrival.

Chu Kuangren was not surprised either.

He could still vividly remember the carnage, let alone those monks.

"Brother Chu, although the influence of the Buddha Destroyer Bell has been eliminated, the experience of that time has become their nightmares. It may be difficult for them to forget in a short period, so please don't be offended," said Buddha Yun Lan.

"It's okay. It's not my first time being called a demon anyway," Chu Kuangren said indifferently.

Buddha Yun Lan pressed her palms together and apologized to Chu Kuangren again. Then, she asked, "I haven't heard from you since you entered the Blood Ocean two years ago. How did you manage to come back?"

"It's a long story."

Chu Kuangren did not speak much. Instead, he just asked, "I'm just stopping by to pay a visit, and I'm curious. How was the battle with Sin Buddha two years ago?"

"I heard that..."

Buddha Yun Lan briefly told Chu Kuangren what happened.

Buddha Yun Lan and Buddha Jian Xing joined forces to fight against Sin Buddha for two years.

Later, Sin Buddha left the Far West Land after the Blood Ocean failed to descend. He was said to have shown up in the Demon Kingdom and created a force called the Blood Killing Sect.

Many responded to Sin Buddha, the Embodier's invitation, and the Blood Killing Sect soon grew to be a significant force in the Immortal World.

"I see."

Chu Kuangren nodded before mobilizing his thought. "I wonder how is Shi Ying doing now."

He was curious as he did not notice Shi Ying after chatting with Buddha Yun Lan for quite some time.

After all, they used to fight in battles together. Even if their relationship faded, she should not be avoiding him.

"Well..." Buddha Yun Lan sighed upon hearing Chu Kuangren mention Shi Ying. "Brother Chu, come with me."

Chu Kuangren furrowed his brows and could tell that something was off.

Buddha Yun Lan led Chu Kuangren to a golden lotus pool in the Euphoria Pure Land.

There was a golden Buddhist lotus in the lotus pond, and a woman in white was seen lying quietly on the lotus altar with a faint aura.

The lady was Shi Ying!

"What's going on?" Chu Kuangren asked with a frown, and at the same time, he got Lil Ai to start analyzing Shi Ying's current condition.

"Two years ago, Sin Buddha emerged, and I couldn't hold him back alone. Only Buddha Jian Xing could compete with him. Unfortunately, he was guarding the Spiritual Mountain and suppressing the Dao contamination qi, so it was difficult for him to make a move. In order to allow Buddha Jian Xing to attack Sin Buddha, Shi Ying sacrificed her life essence to temporarily suppress the Spiritual Mountain's Dao contamination qi on behalf of Buddha Jian Xing..."

Buddha Yun Lan told Chu Kuangren everything that had happened.

Shi Ying's sacrifice allowed Buddha Jian Xing to attack and resist Sin Buddha, and that was why Chu Kuangren could prevent the merging of two realms in the Blood Ocean.

Unfortunately, it almost killed Shi Ying.

"Although Buddha Jian Xing managed to return to the Spiritual Mountain in time, Shi Ying's life essence was almost burned out. Moreover, her soul was very exhausted, and she almost died. Only in this lotus pond can she survive."

Lil Ai's analysis was soon completed.

It was tricky indeed. Since Chu Kuangren possessed the Indestructible Physique and did not need the Undying Elixir, he could recover Shi Ying's physical body. The Undying Elixir could revive human flesh and bones, and its effect was powerful.

However, the most critical thing was Shi Ying's soul, which was very exhausted and on the verge of shattering. Once it left the physical body, it would completely dissipate, which meant Shi Ying's soul would turn into dust!

As the Underworld Ghost Emperor, Chu Kuangren realized that such a soul injury was extremely tricky because it was fragile.

Shi Ying was so fragile now that she could shatter with a touch.

Shortly after, Chu Kuangren put up a sword hand sign to form a sliver of Yin qi at his fingertips. Then, he released it into the lotus pond, and it penetrated Shi Ying's body.

Following that, Chu Kuangren took out the Undying Elixir. As his Immortal's Core surged, the Undying Elixir turned into a medicinal powder that filled the sky, and it was sprinkled on top of Shi Ying.

With the Undying Elixir's help, Shi Ying's physical body, which was about to shatter, was recovering. Even Buddha Yun Lan was amazed when she saw the scene.

"This is the West Ruler Matriarch's Undying Elixir. Its effect is indeed extraordinary."

"Even though its effect is extraordinary, I still can't save her. I have temporarily protected her soul from dissipating with the Ghost Emperor's authority, but I still need to find another way to wake her up," said Chu Kuangren.

"Thank you, Ghost Emperor," Buddha Yun Lan said gratefully with her palms pressed together.

"I'll do my best to save my junior."

"Heh. Jing Hui once told me the fate between Shi Ying and you, Brother Chu."

"Is she in the Pure Land?"

"No, she is not. She has been everywhere recently because of Shi Ying's injury. I wonder if she has managed to find a way." Buddha Yun Lan sighed.

"She really is loyal to her friend."

Chu Kuangren recalled how much Jing Hui went through to help Shang Honghua in the past.

After seeing Shi Ying, Chu Kuangren stayed in the Euphoria Pure Land for a few more days to discuss with Buddha Yun Lan the methods of rescuing Shi Ying. They finalized several plans, but none of them worked.

Moreover, on top of Shi Ying's matter, Buddha Yun Lan seemed to be bothered by other matters.

After inquiring, Chu Kuangren found out that a Buddhist world force emerged in the Euphoria Pure Land after the Buddha Destroyer catastrophe. That force attracted many worshippers and caused a huge impact on the Five Ways Pure Land.

The Buddhist World force was called the... Great Thunder Temple!