Chapter 2111: The Power of the Devil's Pupil, Killing Lang Sha With a Single Strike

Outside Hongmeng Spirit World, Chu Kuangren and Lang Sha's battle drew the attention of many cultivators. After exiting Hongmeng Spirit World, they were shocked to see such a huge battle unfold before their eyes.

"Is the Child of Light battling a Grand Dao Supreme God cultivator?"

"Holy cow. Why is it so intense?"

"Tsk, it's unbelievable to think that a mere Grand Dao Life Mastery is battling a Grand Dao Supreme God to such an extent. It seems like this young one will have a bright future ahead of him."

"He'll have to survive this battle first, of course."

A cultivator from the Apocalypse Martial Society sneered.

He looked at the billows of dust streaming from the mountain range, where various bursts of bright energy were being emitted occasionally, and said indifferently, "This battle is clearly in Master Lang Sha's favor. From the Grand Dao auras, I can sense that the Carnage Dao is overpowering the Radiant Dao!"

Sure enough, although the situation of the battle was unclear, it was clear from the clash between the Grand Dao auras which side was gaining the upper hand.

Between the Radiant Dao and Carnage Dao, the Carnage Dao was at an advantage.

Meanwhile, the Radiant Dao's power was gradually dwindling, seemingly on the brink of weakening.

"Judging by his age, the fact that he's a Grand Dao Life Mastery is already a feat worthy of an Outlier. However, how can he possibly compare to the likes of a Grand Dao Supreme God?"

"The difference between their cultivation realms is too big."

"From what I can tell, the Child of Light will fall soon."

The same Apocalypse Martial Society cultivator continued commenting eloquently on the battle.

Most of the people around him were also echoing his sentiments.

It was not only because of the difference in Lang Sha and Chu Kuangren's cultivation realms but because Chu Kuangren had killed a few Grand Dao elites from various forces to obtain the Hongmeng Divine Metal in Hongmeng Spirit World.

Those people did not wish to see Chu Kuangren's glory continue.

They were all waiting for him to fall.

Somewhere nearby, Liu Hu looked at the crowd that was speaking badly about Chu Kuangren. Although he could not hear them clearly, he could guess what kind of comments they were making.

He did not refute them.

However, he was worried about one thing.

If Chu Kuangren, the Child of Light, was killed in battle here, what would he do if the Radiant Goddess decided to blame it on him?

He could not help but feel a headache at the back of his head.

He could only secretly hope for something that could turn the tide to appear.

Inside the mountain range, Lang Sha unleashed a barrage of killer techniques, launching them mercilessly at Chu Kuangren.

The power of his Carnage Dao was channeled with great mastery.

"Die, die, die!"

"Apocalyptic Demon Martial Art, Skybreaking Divine Wolf Slash!"

Following a yell, Lang Sha attacked with a powerful slash, unleashing a terrifying giant wolf that broke through the void and charged toward Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren was sent flying away immediately.

"How can a puny Life Mastery cultivator like you fight against me?" Lang Sha said loudly. His gaze was cold.

However, Chu Kuangren did not answer.

Instead, he looked at his surroundings and then touched his left eye.

"Hmph. My next technique shall end you once and for all!"

Lang Sha's gaze turned cold.

He tossed his longsword high into the air and formed several mysterious sword hand signs with both his hands!

His longsword then turned into apparitions of thousands of wolves. Their endless and terrifying carnage aura instantly spread across the land.

Outside the mountain range, everyone soon noticed the surge of carnage aura.

Besides that, they also heard the resounding howls of wolves.

"The victor will be decided soon!"

Excited, they fixed their eyes on the mountain range.

Although they could not see how the battle would end, they did not look away. Everyone wanted to see who would be the one to walk out in the end.

"It'll be the Apocalypse Martial Society's Master Lang Sha!"

The Apocalypse Martial Society cultivators were confident in Lang Sha's skill.

Meanwhile, inside the mountain range, Lang Sha locked onto Chu Kuangren with thousands of his wolves breaking through the air.

"Apocalyptic Demon Martial Art, Ten Thousand Wolves Terror!"

The heavens and earth quaked as he unleashed his ultimate technique.

His attack tore countless rifts in the void.

Just when Chu Kuangren was about to be surrounded and torn to shreds by the ten thousand wolves, an ominous purple light suddenly flashed from his left eye!

As the ten thousand wolves' apparitions were about to reach him, a gigantic burst of Radiant Great Dao erupted from his body.

However, beneath the façade of light contained an incomparably terrifying aura of evilness.

Lang Sha suddenly found that Chu Kuangren, whose aura he thought was just and righteous like he was the embodiment of light, had transformed into the most sinister being in the world!

Endless amounts of evil intent surged out from his body.

It was as if he was the source of all evilness, an incarnation of calamities!

Countless strands of black qi gushed out from him, instantly shattering the ten thousand wolves' apparition as they approached Chu Kuangren!

A Grand Dao Supreme God's ultimate technique could not harm Chu Kuangren at all!

"W-What is the meaning of this?"

Lang Sha looked at Chu Kuangren in disbelief.

He could not stop himself from trembling.

There was also a hint of fear in his eyes.

He was afraid!

"You looked like you had quite some fun battling earlier, huh?" Chu Kuangren said calmly as he looked at Lang Sha.

His left eye had been dyed in a shade of purple, and it emitted a mysterious aura. It made Lang Sha feel as though he had fallen into an icy cellar, sending a chill down his spine.

"What kind of monster are you?" Lang Sha swallowed nervously and asked.

"Ha!" Chu Kuangren chuckled.

After that, his figure dashed toward Lang Sha. When he appeared before the latter in an instant, the palm of his hand reached out toward Lang Sha's head.

A terrifying surge of Devil energy instantly locked onto Lang Sha, which shook his Great Dao momentarily, rendering him unable to dodge.

With his hand on Lang Sha's head, Chu Kuangren immediately sent him crashing into a mountain peak.

"Bam!"

Lang Sha's head shattered the mountain peak upon impact.

He went through one mountain after another...

In a second, dozens of mountain peaks had been reduced to ruins.

Just like that, Chu Kuangren had sent Lang Sha crashing into the ground.

"Y-You b*stard!"

Lang Sha had blood trickling down all over his body, looking like a bloody mess.

Seeing that Chu Kuangren was not the same as before, he roared and channeled his power to the extreme, making a final stand!

He slashed his longsword forward and unleashed his sword qi that intertwined into a giant wolf apparition.

At that sight, a hint of tyranny flashed in Chu Kuangren's purple left eye.

As he raised his hands, a blast of Devil energy surged forward. There was no spectacular technique or superfluous move but only the purest suppression power!

"Boom!"

His Devil energy turned into a gigantic palm that descended from the sky!

The giant wolf's apparition exploded with a bang, dissipating like mist.

However, the palm sign was unstoppable.

It landed directly on Lang Sha's body. In the blink of an eye, every bone and muscle in Lang Sha's body was crushed. Even the Great Dao inside his body was shattered and eventually dispersed into nothing.

One attack was all it took to kill a Grand Dao Supreme God cultivator, Lang Sha!

Even Chu Kuangren was shocked by the Devil Pupil's power.

He looked at the Devil qi seething continuously out of his body and narrowed his gaze. The Devil qi immediately retracted back into his body at lightning speed.

He then closed both his eyes, and a lotus flower bloomed between his fingers.

As he placed that lotus on his forehead, the vicious qi in his heart quickly dissipated.

When he opened his eyes again, his left eye had returned to a pale gold color.

"This Devil's Pupil is quite powerful indeed. However, it will still have a considerable impact on me if I use it for a prolonged time, and I might be easily dominated by the vicious qi," Chu Kuangren mumbled.

He looked at the Radiant aura flowing in the surroundings. "While I was using the Devil's Pupil, I used the Radiant Great Dao as a cover-up to conceal the Devil's Pupil's aura. But how many people can I hide this from, I wonder?"

After all, the Devil's Pupil was one of his trump cards.

The longer he could keep it hidden, the better.

Chapter 2112: The Devil King's Futile Attempts, As Long As You're Happy

"How's the power of my Devil's Pupil, little one?"

The Devil King's seductive voice sounded in Chu Kuangren's mind.

Although her soul was sealed, her ability to communicate with him was preserved.

Chu Kuangren was slightly surprised to hear her voice.

"Well, little one, it doesn't seem like you're familiar with my power yet. How about this? Why don't you let me out, and I'll teach you how to use this power?"

"There's no need for that," Chu Kuangren said.

That was the first time he unleashed the Devil's Pupil, so it was not surprising that he was unfamiliar with it.

However, he believed that with his talent, it would not be difficult for him to fully master that power.

"Oh, how about this? You let me out, and I won't use your body as my host. All you need to do is to return me the Devil's Pupil, and I shall make you a Devil Archduke. From this day onward, apart from me, you will have the highest position in the Devil Tribe. How does that sound?"

"In your dreams."

"You don't seem to know what's good for you, little one. I'll have you know that there are currently only three Archdukes in the Devil Tribe."

"I said, I have no need for that."

"Hmph, just you wait. You're only trapping a fragment of my remnant soul with you. Once my true body awakes and returns, killing you will be as easy as flicking my wrist. I'm giving you a chance right now, and I suggest you appreciate it."

Seeing that Chu Kuangren was not convinced, the Devil King threatened him.

However, Chu Kuangren was not having any of that.

He merely said, "When that time comes, you might not even be a match for me."

"That's hilarious. I am the great Devil King—"

"Shut it."

Before the Devil King could finish her sentence, Lil Ai's indifferent voice appeared.

Chu Kuangren then heard a scream from the Devil King.

"F*ck! Why are you whipping me?"

"I told you to shut up," Lil Ai continued saying indifferently.

"B*stard, how dare you order me! I am the Devil King—"

"Crack!"

The crack of a whip rang out.

The Devil King screamed again.

"You... I'll..."

Chu Kuangren could not hear what the Devil King was saying clearly after that.

It was as if something was blocking him from hearing her.

"Master, I have adjusted the settings on the seal. She will not be bothering you anymore," Lil Ai said slowly.

"Oh, alright."

Chu Kuangren nodded before asking curiously. "What did you do to her?"

"Oh, nothing much. I just gave her a little education."

"Well... Um... As long as you're happy, I suppose."

Chu Kuangren shook his head helplessly.

After that, he walked out of the mountain range.

As the battle had ended, the Radiant Great Dao aura surrounding the mountain range gradually dissipated, and everyone quickly looked into the mountain range.

"Ha! It looks like Master Lang Sha has successfully killed the Child of Light." The Apocalypse Martial Society cultivator laughed.

Liu Hu's heart was almost beating out of his chest. If the Child of Light was dead, things would certainly not end up well for him.

Amidst the smoke and dust, a figure slowly walked out.

"I shall go and greet Master Lang Sha."

That Apocalypse Martial Society cultivator's figure flashed as he dashed toward that figure.

However, the closer he got to that figure, it became clearer who it was. When the person came into his view, his eyes widened.

"It's you, the Child of Light!"

The person who walked out from the smoke and dust was not anybody else but Chu Kuangren.

It was Chu Kuangren, who everyone thought was dead!

"No, no, no. How is this possible?"

"Where's Master Lang Sha?"

The Apocalypse Martial Society cultivator could not believe it.

However, when he looked behind Chu Kuangren, he saw a bloodied figure lying in a huge pit. It was Master Lang Sha!

"Master... Master Lang Sha is dead..."

That cultivator was so shocked that he slumped to the ground, his face as pale as paper.

Chu Kuangren, on the other hand, walked past him with a calm expression.

That cultivator was nothing to him.

The other cultivators also could not help but gasp when they saw Lang Sha's corpse lying on the ground. They looked at Chu Kuangren with faces filled with horror.

"What's going on?"

"How did the Child of Light kill Lang Sha? The difference between them is huge. How did he do it?"

"This is impossible."

Between the Grand Dao Life Mastery Realm and the Grand Dao Supreme God Realm was the Grand Dao Supreme Spirit Realm.

Those who saw the battle would surely say that Lang Sha's chances of winning were higher.

Moreover, everyone was looking down on Chu Kuangren earlier.

Yet, unexpectedly and remarkably, he managed to successfully kill Lang Sha when everyone had doubts about him. Besides, judging from his condition, he did not seem to have sustained any injuries.

It was a huge slap to everyone's faces.

The Radiant Church cultivators, on the other hand, were delighted.

"The Child of Light is the strongest."

"That's right. What could a mere Lang Sha do to him?"

Liu Hu breathed a sigh of relief. "Oh, thank the heavens."

If Chu Kuangren was fine, his life would not be in danger.

In the Holy Radiant Church, the Radiant Goddess frowned while looking at Chu Kuangren, who just killed Lang Sha. "What was that strange aura just now?"

Although Chu Kuangren could hide the Devil's Pupil from everyone by using his Radiant Great Dao as a cover-up, a Monarch-class Transcendentalist like the Radiant Goddess could sense something afoot.

She could not help but ponder as she looked at Chu Kuangren in the pool of water and mumbled, "You seem to be full of secrets."

He was only a Great Dao Life Mastery cultivator. However, from the first time she met him, even a Monarch class like her could not see through him, and it was even more so now.

...

Several black figures were heading toward the mountain range where Chu Kuangren and Lang Sha fought. They arrived very quickly.

By the time they came, Chu Kuangren had left already.

Only the Apocalypse Martial Society cultivators were left at the scene to clean up Lang Sha's corpse.

One of the cultivators who was bad-mouthing Chu Kuangren still could not believe that Chu Kuangren had killed Lang Sha.

After all, Lang Sha was one of the Apocalypse Martial Society's Ten Killer Stars!

That person was a revered cultivator amongst many members of the Apocalypse Martial Society.

However, that person was dead!

"How did you lose? How could you be dead?"

That cultivator became angrier the more he thought about it.

He looked at Lang Sha's corpse with hatred in his eyes.

He then took out his weapon and was about to vent his anger by mutilating and dismembering Lang Sha's corpse when a strand of black qi swept in from the side.

With a slash, the black qi killed the cultivator on the spot.

Several black figures arrived and surrounded Lang Sha's corpse.

They seem to be checking for something.

"This power... It's certainly Her Majesty's aura."

"Is it Her Majesty that killed this man?"

"Or perhaps, was it the host body controlled by Her Majesty that killed this man?"

"We must get to the bottom of this."

Those cultivators were from the Devil Tribe, hence their familiarity with the Devil King's power. Chu Kuangren might have succeeded in hiding it from everyone, but doing the same to them would be an extremely difficult task.

Truth be told, even Chu Kuangren did not know that the Devil Tribe cultivators were nearby.

Otherwise, he would be more cautious.

"Who the hell are you people?"

Seeing the group of cultivators appear out of the blue and start killing one of them, the other Apocalypse Martial Society cultivators were so enraged that they immediately attacked.

However, the Devil Tribe cultivators were swift. Their Devil energy erupted, eventually killing everyone, leaving only one survivor alive.

"Speak. What happened here?"

After some questioning, they finally understood the events that happened there.

"The Child of Light... Could this person be the King's host body?"

Chapter 2113: Feng Domain's Myriad Arms City, The Blazing Flame Volcano, Weaponsmith Master, Ou Chen

After leaving Hongmeng Spirit World, Chu Kuangren did not immediately return to the Holy Radiant Church. Instead, he chose to venture out into the world.

He thought he might as well use that piece of Hongmeng Divine Metal he acquired to upgrade his Descendant Self Sword.

With that thought in mind, he sent a message to the Radiant Goddess to inform her.

She did not insist that he return to the holy church either. After learning that he had acquired the Hongmeng Divine Metal, she even recommended him somewhere he could go.

The place was located in the Feng Domain and was known as the Myriad Arms City!

Regardless of territorial size or wealth of resources, the Feng Domain was undoubtedly one of the best among the many great domains in the Great Hongmeng Universe.

That was where a place known as the Myriad Arms City could be found.

Many weaponsmith masters of the Infiniverse gathered in that city, making it the best location for Chu Kuangren to forge a weapon with his Hongmeng Divine Metal.

The Feng Domain was located quite far from Chu Kuangren's current location.

Without using his Timespace Treasure, it would take him two to three years to get there. However, he was in no hurry.

The journey would be considered an adventure for him to gain experience.

He could also learn more about the customs and culture of various parts of the Great Hongmeng Universe.

"Congratulations, Host! You have won a God-tier reward, the Cloudmist Sword."

'A God-tier reward?'

Chu Kuangren took a look at it and lost interest quickly.

At his current level, God-tier rewards could no longer catch his eye.

"Congratulations, Host! You have won a God-tier reward, the Draconic Ember."

"Congratulations. Host! You have won a God-tier reward, the Celestial Immortal Metal."

"Congratulations, Host! You have won a God-tier reward, the Light-Splitting Sword Technique."

"Congratulations, Host! You have won a God-tier reward, the Heavenly Spiritual Jade Elixir."

...

For the next few years, Chu Kuangren did not miss a day of using his Fantasy Roulette. However, the rewards he obtained were not useful to him and were all chucked into his Yin and Yang Ring.

Sometimes, if the items took up too much space, he would sell them somewhere.

"Congratulations, Host! You have obtained a Transcendent-tier reward, the Frost Spirit Jade Essence."

'Oh.'

Chu Kuangren got a little interested.

Transcendent-tier rewards might still be of some use to him.

However, he shook his head in disappointment after seeing the Frost Spirit Jade Essence's item description. It was a frost-attribute Chaos Supreme Treasure.

Its level might even be close to a Hongmeng Supreme Treasure.

Unfortunately, it was not of much use to Chu Kuangren as he did not specialize in frost-attribute Dao.

However, seeing that it was still a Transcendent-tier reward, he decided to keep it.

Several years later, Chu Kuangren arrived at the Feng Domain. The power distribution of that domain was unstable, with great forces vying for control all the time. It was many times more chaotic compared to other domains.

Due to that, signal or beacon flames were commonplace, hence the name Feng Domain[1].

Not long after he arrived, Chu Kuangren encountered three robberies and five occasions of theft. He even almost got sexually assaulted ten times.

Although he managed to deal with all of them, it was evident how chaotic and crime-ridden the place was.

After talking to some locals, he soon had a general understanding of Feng Domain.

Many Opportunities of Fortune and treasures could be found hidden all over the Feng Domain. That was why many cultivators of the Infiniverse had gathered there.

Those cultivators would always fight over the treasures there.

That was one of the reasons why the Feng Domain was in such turmoil.

However, that was not the main reason.

The other great domains were also abundant with treasures, but they were not as chaotic as the Feng Domain.

Most importantly, there were two great forces in the Feng Domain.

One of them was the Apocalypse Martial Society.

Cultivators belonging to that group specialized in Carnage Dao and possessed a nature for killing. Due to the influence of that group, the Feng Domain's atmosphere became extremely tense and tough.

The second was the Myriad Arms City, the destination of Chu Kuangren's visit to the Feng Domain.

That force mostly consisted of weaponsmiths. For some unknown reason, those weaponsmiths seemed to favor the tumultuous chaos of the Feng Domain.

After all, it allowed them to continue forging weapons for cultivators on all sides and fuel the conflict from behind the scenes.

With those two great forces around, it seemed impossible for peace to come to the Feng Domain.

"The Apocalypse Martial Society, huh? So, they're here in the Feng Domain too."

Chu Kuangren chuckled mischievously.

Having killed Lang Sha, he had created a huge conflict with the Apocalypse Martial Society.

'I hope they don't come to me seeking trouble.'

He then headed to the Myriad Arms City.

Most of the weapons in the Feng Domain all came from that city.

That was how the Myriad Arms City got its name.

The first thing Chu Kuangren saw upon arrival was a grand giant steel city. The towering structures within it rose after one another, mostly emanating a shiny metallic glint luster. It gave off a sense of austerity and also a chilling aura to everyone who laid eyes on it.

Sure enough, the most common thing that Chu Kuangren saw the most there was weapons.

There were sabers, spears, swords, halberds, axes, tomahawks, hooks, staffs...

All kinds of weapons were on display, dazzling the eyes of many who arrived in the city.

There were even some peculiar weapons that Chu Kuangren had never seen before.

"I should find someone to help me forge this Hongmeng Divine Metal," Chu Kuangren thought out loud.

He then looked toward the center of that city and saw a volcano there.

Large amounts of flames were bubbling from the center of that volcano as clouds of smoke billowed into the sky. Due to that volcano, the temperature inside the Myriad Arms City was high.

The volcano was the most important place in the Myriad Arms City.

It was known as the Blazing Flame Volcano!

Most of the weaponsmiths in Myriad Arms City were based around that volcano.

Chu Kuangren came to the base of the volcano and saw many weaponsmiths. As he looked toward the top of the volcano, he noticed fewer weaponsmiths.

The higher it was around the volcano, the higher and more brutal the temperature of the flames would get. Only the best weaponsmiths were worthy of setting up camp near the peak of the volcano, using its flames to forge weapons.

Ordinary weaponsmiths could only absorb the leftover flames from the Blazing Flame Volcano to forge weapons, which were far inferior to the ones near the volcano's peak.

"This Hongmeng Divine Metal of mine must only be given to the best of the best weaponsmiths to forge the weapon I want," Chu Kuangren thought.

He had done his homework before arriving at the Blazing Flame Volcano.

The most famous weaponsmith in the Myriad Arms City was a person named Ou Chen.

It was said that he had the achievement of forging a Hongmeng Supreme Treasure under his belt.

That person lived at the peak of the Blazing Flame Volcano.

Chu Kuangren surrounded his body with a Radiant aura to protect himself from the Blazing Flame aura before traveling all the way to the volcano peak, where there was a palace.

Before he entered, a glimmering burst of treasure light erupted from that palace.

A crimson sword pierced through the air, emanating an extremely sharp aura. After that, it turned into countless strands of sword qi and struck the ground.

"This is a High-tier Chaos Supreme Treasure."

Chu Kuangren's eyes lit up in excitement.

Chaos Supreme Treasures were classified into Low-tier, Mid-tier, High-tier, and Superb-tier.

Ordinary Primordials would have been delighted to possess a Chaos Supreme Treasure.

As for the High-tier and Superb-tier Chaos Supreme Treasures, even the Grand Dao cultivators might not necessarily possess them.

"Haha! My Crimson Divine Sword has finally been forged!"

A figure leaped into the air and grabbed that sword with high spirits.

It was a person who appeared to be very young.

However, his cultivation level was very high as he was already in the Primordial Mystic Five Realm.

Chu Kuangren could sense a surge of Carnage Great Dao from him.

"Is he a cultivator from the Apocalypse Martial Society?"

He thought to himself.

At that moment, an elderly man with white hair walked out of the palace.

"Thanks a lot for your help, Master Ou Chen," the young man said to the white-haired elderly man.

He was none other than the most famous weaponsmith in the Myriad Arms City, Ou Chen.

"No worries. Your father and I go way back. Forging a new weapon for you is no big trouble for me." Ou Chen laughed.

That young man was no ordinary person.

He was the son of the Apocalypse Martial Society's leader. Due to that connection, Ou Chen forged a weapon for him and befriended him.

The two of them soon saw Chu Kuangren.

Upon seeing him, their eyes lit up.

After all, Chu Kuangren's appearance and demeanor were extraordinary.

"Greetings, my name is Chu Kuangren. I have come to find you, Master Ou Chen, hoping that you'd forge a weapon for me. As for the labor and material costs, feel free to name a price, weaponsmith master," Chu Kuangren said calmly.

The young man frowned a little. "Chu Kuangren... Your name sounds a bit familiar. I remember now. You're the Radiant Church's Child of Light!"

His eyes widened when the realization hit him.

Suddenly, a chilling killing intent erupted, locking onto Chu Kuangren.

[1] The "Feng" in Feng Domain refers to "烽火", which are beacon or signal flames that were lit in times of war

Chapter 2114: No One Will Forge a Weapon for You, Critically Injuring Young Master Yuan, A Weird Weaponsmith

A chilling killing intent instantly locked onto Chu Kuangren.

That young man glared coldly at Chu Kuangren.

"Child of Light, how dare you come to the Feng Domain after killing Lang Sha of the Apocalypse Martial Society? I have to say, you have some guts!"

The young man was holding the newly forged Crimson Blood Divine Sword.

His killing intent flowed, and he was about to attack at any time.

Chu Kuangren merely shot him a glance and said, "I suggest you stand down. Otherwise, you might regret it."

"That's hilarious. Where do you think you are? The Radiant Church? Take a look around. This is the Feng Domain, the territory of the Apocalypse Martial Society!"

The young man's sword emitted a crimson ray of light. Just as his cold killing intent was about to erupt, a figure suddenly appeared before him.

It was an elderly man in black robes.

The elderly man looked at Chu Kuangren warily.

Although Chu Kuangren did not reveal much of his aura, he gave that elderly man an indescribable threat.

The elderly man said to the young man, "Young Master, this person won't be easy to deal with. If he can kill Lang Sha, it means he's no ordinary cultivator. Please do not act rashly."

With a frown, the young man looked at Chu Kuangren, pondered a while, and slowly retracted his killing intent. He then snorted coldly. "Child of Light, if you want to forge a weapon in the Myriad Arms City, I'm afraid you've run out of luck."

After he spoke, the young man looked at Ou Chen beside him.

Ou Chen immediately understood the young man's meaning. He quickly turned toward Chu Kuangren and said indifferently, "You're not welcome here. Don't ever think about getting a weapon forged here. Leave this place."

"Sigh. To think the Myriad Arms City's most famous weaponsmith has to obey the Apocalypse Martial Society's orders. How disappointing."

Chu Kuangren shook his head, turned around, and left.

He did not like forcing others to get his way.

It was also evident that Ou Chen wanted to befriend the Apocalypse Martial Society.

Since that was the case, there was no reason for Chu Kuangren to stay.

With how vast the Myriad Arms City was, he could find someone else to do it for him.

"By the way, when I told you to leave, I didn't mean just leaving this place. I meant to leave the Myriad Arms City. With just a single command, none of the weaponsmiths in the Myriad Arms City will forge a weapon for you." Ou Chen's voice came from behind.

Chu Kuangren frowned a little and stopped walking.

He did not expect Ou Chen to take things so far.

Nevertheless, he ignored Ou Chen and left.

"Thank you for your support, Master Ou Chen."

The young man held up a fist salute to Ou Chen.

He laughed. "You're welcome."

"In that case, I shall take my leave."

With that, the young man turned around and left.

However, he did not leave the Myriad Arms City. Instead, he continued following Chu Kuangren.

After all, Chu Kuangren was the one who killed Lang Sha, and he was now in the Myriad Arms City. Although he possessed immense strength, that young man could not stand idly by.

"Elder Yun, please report this to my father."

"Yes."

The black-robed elderly man beside him nodded.

As for Chu Kuangren, after coming down from the Blazing Flame Volcano, he noticed that the weaponsmiths along the way had received some sort of message. They all looked shocked.

Some of the ordinary weaponsmiths immediately avoided Chu Kuangren as if he were a plague.

None of that acted that way before he went up the volcano.

It seemed like Ou Chen had notified all of the weaponsmiths in the city not to provide their services to Chu Kuangren.

As the most famous weaponsmith in the Myriad Arms City, his influence over everyone was undoubtedly massive. That gave Chu Kuangren a headache.

'Should I kill Ou Chen?'

'No, it's useless.'

'I'll only incur the wrath of the whole Myriad Arms City.'

'Should I use coercion or enticement then?'

'Hmm, there's no telling whether the weaponsmith I find will forge a weapon well for me. What if they tampered with it before giving it to me?'

"Greetings, Young Master Yuan."

"Ha! Long time no see, Young Master Yuan."

Chu Kuangren saw many weaponsmiths greeting the young man from the Apocalypse Martial Society. It was clear that the young man possessed quite a high position.

He seemed to be a high-tier figure in their society.

'Although the Myriad Arms City is a top-tier force in the Feng Domain, they still pale in comparison to the Apocalypse Martial Society. Is this why the weaponsmiths are treating this Young Master Yuan with so much respect?'

Chu Kuangren shot him a glance and then paid no heed to him.

However, the young man continued following Chu Kuangren as if conducting surveillance on him.

Chu Kuangren halted his footsteps and asked indifferently, "What do you want?"

"Nothing much. Just strolling around," Young Master Yuan said indifferently.

"I'll warn you one more time. Stop following me," said Chu Kuangren as he continued walking forward.

However, Young Master Yuan did not care and still followed him.

"Bam!"

A brutal surge of Radiant aura erupted from Chu Kuangren's back.

It swept out incessantly like a turbulent wave.

Young Master Yuan was powerless to resist. With a bang, he was immediately sent flying away before he landed on the ground and coughed out mouthfuls of blood.

The Primordial Dao inside his body was also affected.

He was now on the brink of death.

Luckily, he was equipped with protective body armor on him. Otherwise, he would have died from Chu Kuangren's attack earlier.

"What?!"

Seeing Chu Kuangren's sudden attack, Elder Yun, who was following Young Master Yuan, could no longer stand by and do nothing.

His expression darkened as he quickly rushed to Young Master Yuan's aid and protected him.

"You have gone too far, Child of Light," Elder Yun said with a grim expression.

However, Chu Kuangren did not say anything in reply. He did not even turn his head around as he continued walking, ignoring them as if they were invisible puffs of air.

The surrounding weaponsmiths became more afraid of making eye contact with Chu Kuangren.

"This man really doesn't know who he's messing with. To think he is bold enough to provoke Young Master Yuan, whom even Master Ou Chen is trying to befriend."

"This man's father is the ruler of the Apocalypse Martial Society, a Monarch-class Transcendentalist. How dare the Child of Light provoke someone like that?"

"What does he have to be afraid of? He has the Radiant Church behind his back. Besides, the Radiant Goddess is no inferior to the Apocalypse Martial Ruler."

"In other words, these are all extraordinary people."

"That's right. We shouldn't mess with them."

The weaponsmiths discussed softly.

Accompanied by words of criticism along the way, Chu Kuangren soon reached the base of the Blazing Flame Volcano.

Many weaponsmiths were gathered here as well.

However, the moment Chu Kuangren appeared, those weaponsmiths immediately extinguished their lights and shut their doors. Suddenly, the hustling volcano base fell silent.

It was evident that those weaponsmiths did not dare to entertain Chu Kuangren because of Ou Chen's orders.

"Burp..."

At that moment, a loud belch sounded.

Somewhere nearby, a middle-aged man in long black robes was standing beside a furnace, holding a flagon of wine.

A pile of weapons was on display in front of him.

Chu Kuangren walked ahead and checked on them. He noticed that they were all on the level of Arch Gilded Weapons, and they could be considered very high-grade weapons when compared to others in the same class.

He believed that even if a master like Ou Chen were to focus on forging Arch Gilded Weapons, he might not necessarily be able to forge them as well as the ones currently before Chu Kuangren.

"Are you the one who forged all these weapons?" Chu Kuangren looked at him and asked curiously.

"Who else could've done it? You?" the weaponsmith retorted.

Chu Kuangren was not annoyed. He picked up a weapon and said, "Your craftsmanship is certainly as good as Ou Chen's, but why are you wasting your time away here?"

"I like it. Do you have a problem with that?"

"Is that so?"

Chu Kuangren then told Lil Ai to analyze the weaponsmith standing before him.

He immediately received the conclusion from Lil Ai that the man was no ordinary person.

"I want you to forge a sword for me," Chu Kuangren said straightforwardly.

That weaponsmith sneered. "There are a bunch of weaponsmiths in this Blazing Flame Volcano. Why have you not gone to them but me?"

Chapter 2115: Weaponsmith Ou Yenuo, The Allure of the Hongmeng Divine Metal

"Their craftsmanship is nothing compared to yours."

Chu Kuangren picked up an Arch Gilded Weapon on the ground before taking out another Arch Gilded Weapon and striking them against each other.

"Clang."

The Arch Gilded Weapon in Chu Kuangren's hand immediately shattered.

Meanwhile, the one forged by the man was unscathed.

"Your weaponsmithing techniques are extraordinary. Can you forge a sword for me?" Chu Kuangren looked at him and asked once again.

The other weaponsmiths around soon noticed the both of them.

They poked their heads out one after another and started whispering.

"Check it out. This guy has found Ou Yenuo."

"Tsk, tsk. Has he not heard of the 'great' Ou Yenuo?"

"Ou Yenuo... What a shame. This person was a weaponsmithing genius and once studied under the same master as Ou Chen. However, I heard this person was heavily injured while attempting to forge a Hongmeng Supreme Treasure. As a result, his cultivation level dropped back to the Primordial Realm."

"That's right. It's such a shame."

There was a certain connection between a weaponsmith and his or her cultivation level.

Generally speaking, the higher the weaponsmith's cultivation, the more beneficial it would be for them when forging weapons.

Ou Yenuo was previously a Grand Dao Supreme God cultivator. However, he was heavily injured by the Blazing Flame while forging one time, causing his cultivation level to drop.

Now, he could only exert the power of a Primordial.

That also produced a significant impact on his weaponsmithing level.

Ou Yenuo looked at Chu Kuangren and chuckled. "It's not that I can't forge any weapons for you. However, I can only forge Arch Gilded Weapons as of now."

He took a drink of wine after saying that.

"I want you to forge me a Hongmeng Supreme Treasure."

Ou Yenuo immediately spat out the wine from his mouth.

'A Hongmeng Supreme Treasure?'

Besides Ou Chen, no one else in the Myriad Arms City had ever succeeded in forging a Hongmeng Supreme Treasure. Furthermore, Ou Chen only succeeded by luck.

Ever since then, no one had ever succeeded in forging such a divine weapon.

Yet now, Chu Kuangren was requesting for a Hongmeng Supreme Treasure?

How could it be done?!

"Alright. This guy is a madman."

"That's right. What does he take Hongmeng Supreme Treasures for, huh? Even the Monarch-class Transcendentalists may not even have a few Hongmeng Supreme Treasures in their possessions."

"This man must be mad for demanding a Hongmeng Supreme Treasure right at the get-go."

The other weaponsmiths assumed Chu Kuangren to be either a madman or a fool.

They no longer paid him any attention.

Meanwhile, Ou Yenuo looked at him with a strange expression.

"Do you realize what you just said?"

"Of course."

"Forging a Hongmeng Supreme Treasure requires very specific materials and, even more so, superb weaponsmithing skills. These two factors are crucial. Even with this, the chances of success are minuscule at best. There have only been a handful of successes in the history of the Myriad Arms City."

"Do you want to accept the challenge of becoming one of them?"

"Well..."

Ou Yenuo was hesitating a little.

If it were in the past, his answer would be yes.

However, he knew that he did not have that ability anymore.

As of now, even forging a Chaos Supreme Treasure was extremely difficult for him, let alone a Hongmeng Supreme Treasure.

Seeing that, Chu Kuangren took out a white metal ore with a jade-like surface.

The moment that item appeared, the surrounding spiritual qi started to churn.

Countless mysterious patterns were engraved onto that jade-like metal ore, and strands of purple Hongmeng spiritual qi could also be seen lingering all over it. It was extraordinary.

The instant he saw that jade-like metal ore, Ou Yenuo's expression froze with shock. His breathing also became a little heavy. "T-This is a Hongmeng-grade Divine Metal!"

Not only him but the other surrounding weaponsmiths were shocked as well. They all stared at Chu Kuangren's Divine Metal with burning gazes.

"A Hongmeng-grade Divine Metal! I can't believe this guy possesses something like this!"

"By the heavens, it's been so many years since I've seen such a priceless piece of metal."

Some of the other weaponsmiths were tempted by that divine metal.

Dozens of coveting gazes landed on Chu Kuangren.

However, he simply ignored them.

He just looked at Ou Yenuo and said, "I've fulfilled one of the two conditions you said earlier. As for the other one, it's all on you now."

Ou Yenuo let out a bitter smile. "You shouldn't take out this item. I was heavily injured in an incident and can no longer forge a divine metal like this."

"What if I tell you I can help you recover from your injuries? Will you be willing to forge a Hongmeng Supreme Treasure for me then?" Shocking words soon came out of Chu Kuangren's mouth.

Ou Yenuo looked at him with a somewhat suspicious and doubtful look.

For all these years, he had spent countless time and effort trying to heal the injuries in his body. However, he never recovered.

'Could this person help me return to my prime?'

Seeing the calm and seemingly wise Chu Kuangren, Ou Yenuo nodded slowly. "If you can help me recover, I won't even mind serving you for life, let alone forge weapons for you."

"Wonderful." Chu Kuangren smiled with satisfaction.

However, at that time, a ray of black light was suddenly launched at Chu Kuangren's back!

It contained an astonishing level of killing intent!

"Boom!"

The black ray of light landed on the Radiant barrier and was easily repelled.

With a wave of his sleeves, Chu Kuangren sent that ray of black light back, causing it to go through a weaponsmith's head. That person was the one who sent the attack.

However, that was not the end of it.

With a weaponsmith dead, dozens more appeared. They looked at the Divine Metal in Chu Kuangren's possession with coveting gazes.

"Hand us that Divine Metal, young man, and we'll spare your life."

"That's right. Otherwise, you can forget about leaving the Myriad Arms City peacefully."

Those people could no longer hold back their desire for the Hongmeng Divine Metal.

They were attacking Chu Kuangren out of desperation.

"Do you people realize what you're doing?" Chu Kuangren said indifferently with both hands behind his back.

An ethereal wisp of killing intent flowed out from him.

However, those people's greed had surpassed their fear of him, so they could no longer be persuaded.

"So what if you're the Radiant Church's Child of Light? This is the Myriad Arms City. There's no way your Radiant Church can interfere here."

"That's right. You have one last chance. Hand over the Divine Metal now!"

Chu Kuangren shook his head. "Sigh. The name Myriad Arms City does sound quite cool and domineering, but I can't believe it turned out to be just a den of bandits."

"Hmph! How dare you say that about us?"

Those people attacked.

They took out their weapons one by one.

There were swords, sabers, axes...

Various weapons appeared, each emitting endless Immortal Sparks.

They were mostly Primordial Realm cultivators. With their weapons swinging in their hands, they immediately charged toward Chu Kuangren and unleashed their various Primordial auras.

The power of their attacks could even rival that of an ordinary Grand Dao cultivator.

"It seems like all of you have chosen death.

"Great Judgment of Light!"

Chu Kuangren's gaze turned cold, and he raised his hand gently.

Radiant Great Dao energy burst forward like a raging torrent, instantly shattering all the incoming Primordial Dao.

Soon, the weaponsmiths were enveloped by the Radiant Dao, and their bodies blew up one after another.

Their corpses were then converted to gas and evaporated!

With their cultivation level, not even their corpses were left behind in the face of Chu Kuangren's powers.

"Clang! Clang! Clang..."

The weapons all fell to the ground after having lost their masters.

Just then, a chain appeared out of nowhere and instantly locked onto Chu Kuangren, entangling him tightly.

A Great Dao aura was emanating from that chain.

It meant that a Grand Dao cultivator had taken action.

Chu Kuangren looked up toward the other end of the chain.

He saw an elderly, gray-robed man holding the chain with one hand and stroking his beard with the other while looking at Chu Kuangren delightfully. "Even a Grand Dao cultivator will find it hard to break free from this God-binding Chain of mine. Young man, I suggest you hand me that Hongmeng Divine Metal..."

However, before he could finish his sentence, the chain in his hand started trembling violently.

Chapter 2116: Ou Yenuo Recovers, Preparation Before Forging The Supreme Treasure

"Who are you trying to restrain with these chains?" Chu Kuangren's voice echoed.

Then, the chains started to clunk, and cracks appeared on the surface.

"Clank!"

An explosion later, the chains shattered into countless metal pieces.

The elder wielding the divine chain was shocked. With his eyes wide, he looked at the shattered chains in disbelief. "W-What? How is this possible?"

Chu Kuangren was instantly filled with intense Radiant energy, including the energy presence of the three thousand Daoist laws.

He had gained perfect mastery in combining the two energies from the three thousand Daoist laws and Radiant Dao together.

He stepped out and appeared above the gray-robed elder. He raised his hand before pushing it downward.

A white palm seal containing the three thousand Daoist laws crashed down with terrifying force.

The elder was a Grand Dao elite, but his power paled in comparison to Chu Kuangren's.

"No!"

The gray-robed elder panicked and got anxious.

He revealed multiple life-saving treasures immediately. As a decent weaponsmith, he always possessed an abundance of treasures.

All the Supreme Treasures he revealed were Chaos Supreme Treasures.

Some were offensive, while some were defensive.

He used a golden bell to cover himself before using all the other treasures to attack.

Tens of thousands of sword qi with flames and bolts of lightning were dished out at the palm seal.

"Kaboom!"

Following a deafening blast, the collision happened.

However, the white palm seal crushed through all the attacks, including the Supreme Treasures.

When the white palm seal landed on the golden ball, a deafening bell chime rang out before it was crushed into pieces. The elder inside it was slammed into the ground before his body exploded into a pile of meat.

The Great Dao in his body was crushed immediately.

One palm was all it took to kill the gray-robed elder.

Such power shocked everyone at the scene.

"He's powerful!"

"The Child of Light is definitely not a common Grand Dao cultivator."

All the other weaponsmiths were numbed by the astonishing scene.

Those who were eager to fight Chu Kuangren were immediately discouraged.

Even Ou Yenuo was frightened.

After Chu Kuangren dealt with the others, he went up to Ou Yenuo and said, "Let's talk somewhere else."

"Alright."

Ou Yenuo packed his things and followed Chu Kuangren away.

They arrived at Ou Yenuo's place.

Without wasting any more time, Chu Kuangren revealed a jade vase. Inside it was a sky-blue, crystal-clear liquid.

When he took the jade vase out, a frosty aura flooded the place, freezing Ou Yenuo's house into ice.

Chu Kuangren immediately set up some restriction seals to stop the frost qi from spreading.

"T-This is the Frost Spirit Jade Essence!"

Ou Yenuo was stunned.

Chu Kuangren nodded. "It is."

"You knew my injuries?"

Ou Yenuo looked at Chu Kuangren in disbelief.

Chu Kuangren did not say a word, but his deep gaze revealed the answer.

"The Blazing Flame burns your body and your Great Dao. You need a strong frost-attribute Supreme Treasure to cool the flame and expel it from your body," Chu Kuangren said.

He was able to name Ou Yenuo's injuries clearly, which he credited to Lil Ai's analysis.

"I have been searching for many frost-attribute Supreme Treasures for many years, but my search has been fruitless. I was in despair, until today."

Ou Yenuo was thrilled to see the Frost Spirit Jade Essence.

He had used many frost attribute Supreme Treasures over the years to cure his injuries, but he was certain that none of those Supreme Treasures combined were as effective as one-tenth of the Frost Spirit Jade Essence.

With it, he could recover to his prime.

"How long do you need to recover?" Chu Kuangren asked.

"At least a year or two."

"Great. I'll wait two years."

At his cultivation realm, two years were nothing but a blink of an eye.

It would be over with just a short cultivation session.

Just like that, Ou Yenuo started his recovery using the Frost Spirit Jade Essence.

Chu Kuangren also started his closed-door meditation.

Inside a room filled with restriction seals, Chu Kuangren sat down with his legs crossed. His silver hair reverted to black, and his golden eyes returned to normal.

Most importantly, his cultivation realm had rapidly dropped back to the Embodier Realm.

He had reverted from his Radiant form to his true form and true cultivation realm.

"It's about time my true cultivation realm ascends to Primordial," Chu Kuangren muttered.

He then started to fuse the three thousand Daoist law energies inside him. A mystical and powerful Primordial energy formed inside his body.

...

On the mountain peak of Blazing Flame Volcano, Ou Chen frowned when he learned about Ou Yenuo and Chu Kuangren's interaction.

"How did the two of them get together?"

Ou Yenuo was his senior brother.

In terms of forging and refining skills back then, Ou Yenuo was better than him.

If not for that accident, Ou Yenuo would be the most famous weaponsmith with the best skills in Myriad Arms City.

The thought shifted Ou Chen's gaze to a cold one.

"Ou Yenuo, I don't care what happens to you. I am the strongest weaponsmith in Myriad Arms City now. There's no way you can make a comeback!

"And that Child of Light, he possesses the Hongmeng Divine Metal... It's quite surprising, but it will soon be mine." Ou Chen scoffed coldly.

Another weaponsmith asked curiously, "Master Ou Chen, I wonder what you're going to do to them?"

"We don't need to do anything. Someone else will deal with them."

In another closed room, Young Master Yuan was on the bed, recalling the scene where Chu Kuangren defeated him with ease.

His gaze was colder than Ou Chen's/

"Elder Yun, what did my father say?"

"He has sent someone here."

"Good. I will kill that guy. I will," Young Master Yuan said with gritting teeth.

...

Two years had passed.

On that day, a burst of freezing qi erupted from Ou Yenuo's house.

The freezing qi contained a hint of Blazing Flame.

Chu Kuangren, who was in closed-door meditation, sensed the presence. He opened his eyes, which gleamed with interest. "Oh, he did it."

He conserved his aura and exited his closed-door meditation.

"Hahaha! It's great returning to my best form!"

Ou Yenuo came out of his room.

He had recovered his cultivation back to the Grand Dao Supreme God Realm, which made him extremely powerful.

Chu Kuangren could even sense that Ou Yenuo was slightly stronger than Lang Sha.

"Since you're cured, can you forge my weapon now?"

"Don't rush it. It's not easy trying to forge a Hongmeng Supreme Treasure. I have to be fully prepared," Ou Yenuo said with a serious look.

He was hurt from forging a Hongmeng Supreme Treasure.

Hence, he ought to be more careful now.

Chu Kuangren was not in a hurry as well.

Ou Yenuo then took the Hongmeng Divine Metal from him and took out a ton of books to search for the best forging solution.

As Chu Kuangren watched from the side, he also started reading the books Ou Yenuo prepared. One of them intrigued him.

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 2117: Ou Yenuo And Ou Chen's Past, Blazing Flame Mountain's Origin, Someone Is Asking For Trouble

"Heavenly Thunder Weapon Quenching Technique? A forbidden technique?"

Chu Kuangren was surprised by the book that he was reading.

Ou Yenuo noticed the book in his hand. "This technique is a forbidden technique from my master. It remains a theory because it's too dangerous. No one has dared to test it out."

His explanation intrigued Chu Kuangren even more, and the latter continued reading.

Quenching was a necessary step in forging.

The energy or material used for quenching varied from many mystical options.

Some used the coldest ice, some used the hottest flame, and some used the clearest water.

That Heavenly Thunder Weapon Quenching Technique, as its name suggested, required the heavenly thunder, which was the lightning bolts from the Heavenly Tribulation!

The stronger the Heavenly Tribulation, the better, but that was not the most dangerous step.

The most dangerous step in the technique was that it required a person as a medium for the lightning bolt to strike.

In theory, a man as a medium and the lightning bolt to quench the weapon could forge a stronger bond between man and weapon.

It remained a crazy thought.

The Heavenly Tribulation was not a simple process because one misstep would kill the person.

Who would have the spare energy to quench a weapon at that time?

On top of that, one would need to use the body as a medium for the lightning bolt.

It was utter madness!

"Interesting."

However, Chu Kuangren found it interesting. The forbidden technique was theoretical, but he deemed it worthy to try.

Of course, even he could not guarantee its success.

It was an untested theory, after all.

After months of preparation, Ou Yenuo finally came up with the best solution for the forging.

"Now, all we need is one more thing — the fire to melt the metal!" Ou Yenuo looked at the volcano in the center of the Myriad Arms City.

With that, he and Chu Kuangren headed to the volcano peak.

Looking at the volcano peak, Ou Yenuo expressed his thoughts emotionally. "I didn't think I could come back here to forge something."

Ever since his cultivation dropped, he had never stepped close to the volcano.

"Oh, Ou Yenuo."

A voice spoke.

Ou Chen was there too, and when he sensed Ou Yenuo's recovered aura, he was shocked.

"You have recovered?"

"What's wrong? Are you disappointed?"

Ou Yenuo scoffed at Ou Chen.

The two of them had a fierce conflict in the past.

"I don't care whether you've recovered," Ou Chen scoffed.

"Is that so? Since I've recovered, do you think you can call yourself the strongest weaponsmith in Myriad Arms City?"

"Ou Yenuo, are you challenging me?"

"Why not?"

The two of them argued.

Then, another weaponsmith arrived and said, "Ou Yenuo, you are not worthy of challenging Master Ou Chen. You're just a loser. Master Ou Chen is the one who forged the Hongmeng Supreme Treasure."

More weaponsmiths arrived and nodded in agreement.

When Ou Yenuo heard the weaponsmith, he scoffed. "Him? That Hongmeng Supreme Treasure he forged was the one that I didn't finish. He caused that accident during my forging process to hurt me so that he could reap the harvest. He modified the unfinished product and got lucky. It was a success, and he claimed the credit for himself."

His revelation sparked astonishment among the crowd.

Everyone looked at Ou Chen dubiously.

Was the strongest weaponsmith in the Myriad Arms City such a deplorable person?

"Stop accusing me! I forged that Hongmeng Supreme Treasure myself! It's not your unfinished product! Ou Yenuo, no one believes you!" Ou Chen bellowed grimly.

"In that case, why haven't you forged another Hongmeng Supreme Treasure after so many years?" Ou Yenuo countered with his question.

"Hmph. What do you think the Hongmeng Supreme Treasure is? A toy? Something you can forge whenever you want to?"

"Whatever. I don't want to argue with you. I'm here because I want to forge another Hongmeng Supreme Treasure. I want everyone to know who is the strongest weaponsmith in Myriad Arms City!"

His words shocked the others.

All of them looked at him with anticipation.

Could the weaponsmith who had recovered to his prime forge a Hongmeng Supreme Treasure?

Ou Yenuo brought Chu Kuangren to the volcano crater, where they looked down. Boiling lava was below them, and a terrifying fire element energy erupted.

It even contained a hint of murderous energy.

"The Feng Domain is constantly at war, hence the murderous qi and anger. The volcano is connected to the nodes across the land, and a powerful formation has been set up to absorb the murderous qi from all over the domain and fuse it into the lava, hence the unique Blazing Flame.

"The Blazing Fire here produces the best result when used in forging. The weapons forged here are always the best weapon of destruction," Ou Yenuo explained.

Chu Kuangren finally knew why Myriad Arms City was located in Feng Domain and why it promoted conflicts around the place.

It was to gather murderous qi to boost the fire in the volcano.

"Alright. Let's begin," Ou Yenuo said.

He raised his hand and summoned a massive refining furnace. He performed multiple mystical hand seals and channeled the fire from the lava into the furnace.

The blazing fire surged and was absorbed into the furnace.

Ou Yenuo then tossed the Hongmeng Divine Metal inside.

As the fire started to melt the divine metal, all the weaponsmiths watched with full concentration.

Seeing that, Chu Kuangren set up restriction seals around Ou Yenuo to protect him during the process and keep everyone away from him.

"All of you, retreat a million kilometers or suffer the consequences!" Chu Kuangren bellowed as he rose to the sky.

The weaponsmiths were confused.

"This is the Blazing Flame Mountain, not your house. Why are you telling us to leave?"

"Yeah. You're being unreasonable."

The Blazing Flame Mountain was part of the Myriad Arms City's territory, and they were the weaponsmiths of the city.

Why must they take orders from Chu Kuangren?

"Bang!"

While they voiced their grievance, a blast of energy erupted from Chu Kuangren.

The Radiant Dao's energy gushed and swept across the volcano.

Some weaker weaponsmiths were blasted away.

"I won't repeat myself."

Chu Kuangren's silver hair danced in the air as he released his vast aura to pressure the weaponsmiths.

It even contained a hint of keen killing intent.

The weaponsmiths were deterred.

Some of them recalled how Chu Kuangren easily eliminated a Grand Dao elite, and it made them gulp nervously.

"He's not to be messed with."

"Fine. A million kilometers it is. We can still see."

"There's no point in going against this guy."

The weaponsmiths compromised and started to retreat.

Ou Chen pondered for a moment before he followed them away.

After that, Chu Kuangren returned to Ou Yenuo and watched his forging process.

The forging process would take longer than a day or two, so Chu Kuangren sat with his legs crossed and continued to fuse the three thousand Daoist laws in him.

He wanted to ascend to the Primordial Realm as soon as possible.

Time flew, and several years went by.

Chu Kuangren was progressing smoothly in his fusing, and his Primordial energy was slowly forming. He was one step shy from ascending to Primordial.

If he wanted it, he could ascend whenever he wanted.

On that day, multiple frosty killing intents came from outside the mountain, bringing chills to those who sensed it.

Chu Kuangren opened his eyes. "Someone is asking for trouble."

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 2118: Three Killer Stars, Devil Energy Again, Phoenix Killer Attacks

"Someone is asking for trouble."

Chu Kuangren opened his eyes and stared into the distant sky.

Intense killing intent came with an earth-shattering force.

The terrifying auras shrouded Chu Kuangren instantly.

A black warship came from the horizon, and three figures were standing on the deck, each wearing a frosty look.

When the weaponsmiths spotted the warship and the three figures on deck as well, they were shocked.

"It's them!"

"The Killer Stars of the Apocalypse Martial Society!"

"Oh my goodness! There are three of them! The Apocalypse Martial Society sent three Killer Stars here! How much do they despise the Child of Light?"

"This is going to be good."

"It's Hu Sha, Xiong Sha, and Feng Sha! The weakest among them is a Grand Dao Supreme God, and Feng Sha is a Grand Dao Supreme Saint, a few steps shy from Supreme Honorable!"

"The Child of Light is dead!"

The arrival of the warship sparked a heated debate among the weaponsmiths.

The Killer Stars' ferocious qi flooded the entire area.

However, Chu Kuangren was unfazed by their intimidation. He calmly got up and his black hair turned silver.

Then, boundless Radiant energy was released.

"Child of Light, you killed an elite of the Apocalypse Martial Society and hurt our young master. Only with your death can cure our grievance and anger!" said the buff man in black of the three.

The man was Hu Sha. He wielded a huge cleaver that released a domineering murderous aura, so intense that it distorted the void around him.

Beside him was another buff man, as huge as a mountain. He stared at Chu Kuangren viciously. He was Xiong Sha.

Behind the two buff men was a scrawny man with his hair tied up high. He stared at Chu Kuangren coldly as if he was looking at a dead person.

The killing intent from him was the strongest, which was also the most threatening.

He was Feng Sha, the top three of the Ten Killer Stars.

He was much stronger than Hu Sha and Xiong Sha.

Facing all three of them at once pressured even Chu Kuangren.

He looked at Ou Yenuo, who was still forging the weapon for him, and then rose to the sky.

"It seems like a few more Killer Stars will go dim today."

His words baffled the three Killer Stars, causing them to raise their brows.

Hu Sha chuckled. "I would like to see how capable you are to say words like that."

As soon as he said that, he zipped forward in a bolt of lightning and instantly arrived before Chu Kuangren.

The big cleaver he wielded was swung down at Chu Kuangren.

The glare from the cleaver cut an opening in the void. That slash alone was enough to kill most of the cultivators below the Grand Dao Supreme God Realm.

Unfortunately, Chu Kuangren was not a common Grand Dao cultivator.

He did not have any weapon he could use at the moment, so he pointed his sword hand sign and cast the Radiant Three Thousand Worlds.

He substituted his sword with his fingers and unleashed his Radiant energy and the three thousand Daoist laws.

"Bang!"

The glare from the cleaver was stopped, and Hu Sha was pushed back several steps. He looked at Chu Kuangren with disbelief. "Are you really just a Grand Dao Life Mastery cultivator?"

Chu Kuangren did not say a word.

He simply pointed his fingers forward, unleashing the Radiant energy and the three thousand Daoist law energies. A barrage of sword qi was unleashed at Hu Sha.

Hu Sha brandished his cleaver, breaking the sword qi from going his way. However, for some reason, he felt like he was being overpowered.

The scene shocked many of the weaponsmiths.

They all knew Chu Kuangren was not a common Grand Dao cultivator, but they did not expect him to overpower a Grand Dao Supreme God cultivator.

"Damn. Is he really just a Grand Dao Life Mastery cultivator?"

"How scary."

Back on the warship, Xiong Sha could no longer bear the embarrassment.

"Hu Sha, you're such an embarrassment! You can't even handle a Grand Dao Life Mastery cultivator? Watch and learn!"

He took a step forward, channeling his boundless murderous intent.

He lunged toward Chu Kuangren like a mountain crashing down.

Then, the murderous qi manifested into the apparition of a rampaging bear.

"Bang!"

Chu Kuangren threw a palm strike forward.

When the collision happened, both of them were pushed back.

"You are indeed something else for stopping my attack. Again!"

Xiong Sha was eager to continue the fight after his initial attack was negated.

He threw a barrage of punches at Chu Kuangren. Each punch contained the power to crush the galaxy or ruin the void.

In addition to Hu Sha's attacks, their combined attack became even more terrifying.

The terrifying murderous qi flooded the entire realm.

Even Chu Kuangren was overpowered by such force.

After all, he was just a Grand Dao Life Mastery cultivator.

"Haha! This guy is dead!"

Further away, Young Master Yuan and Elder Yun were watching the battle.

He was thrilled to see Chu Kuangren at a disadvantage.

"Hmph!"

Chu Kuangren grunted coldly. He narrowed his eyes as he concentrated and started to release a stronger surge of Radiant energy.

"Radiant Three Thousand Worlds!"

He cast his strongest attack again.

The Radiant energy and the three thousand Daoist law energies blasted out.

The terrifying power it contained blasted Hu Sha and Xiong Sha away.

However, the two of them responded with their respective ultimate attack.

"Apocalyptic Demon Martial Art, Grizzly Fury!"

"Apocalyptic Demon Martial Art, Tiger Roar!"

Their murderous qi exploded and transformed into the images of a bear and tiger.

As the two vicious beasts roared, the entire city shook violently.

Fortunately, the Myriad Arms City was built with the sturdiest metals, making it almost indestructible. If not for that, the city would have been leveled to the ground.

The two vicious beasts lunged toward Chu Kuangren.

The combined force blasted him away.

Hu Sha and Xiong Sha seized the chance to follow up with more attacks.

"Die!"

"This is the end, Child of Light!"

Further away, Feng Sha watched calmly as Chu Kuangren was overpowered.

"I don't think I need to do anything now."

He was aggrieved.

Why would the higher-ups send him here just to deal with a Grand Dao Life Mastery cultivator?

It was such an overkill.

However, that was when he sensed something that shocked him.

He looked in the direction of the battle, and his heart skipped a beat. His eyes also widened in shock.

"This feeling... No!"

By the time he tried to stop Xiong Sha and Hu Sha, it was too late.

"Kaboom!"

A blast of black energy swept across the field.

Even the sturdy metals of the city started to crack when hit.

Hu Sha and Xiong Sha were blasted away by a powerful attack. Blood gushed from their mouths.

"What?"

"What was that?"

The two of them looked at Chu Kuangren emerging from the dusty smoke.

His left eye glowed in an ominous violet, and a terrifying Devil energy emanated from his body.

Xiong Sha and Hu Sha were both afraid.

"Swoosh!"

Chu Kuangren vanished from the spot.

He reappeared beside Hu Sha with a palm strike that contained a large amount of Devil energy. Even the void shattered from the attack.

"No!"

Hu Sha raised his big cleaver to stop the attack.

"Clank!"

The cleaver broke instantly, and the power in the palm strike destroyed Hu Sha's body. Even his Great Dao was almost destroyed.

He was blasted away like a meteor.

Xiong Sha, on the other hand, was mortified. He could not believe what just happened.

When Chu Kuangren switched his attention to him, Xiong Sha felt chills run down his spine.

Chu Kuangren calmly channeled his Devil energy.

However, a sharp phoenix's cry echoed in the sky at that moment.

Rampaging flame and intense murderous qi gushed forward, stopping Chu Kuangren.

Feng Sha had joined the battle.

Chapter 2119: Fighting Feng Sha, Right Sky King Arrives, I Shall Judge

Feng Sha joined the fight.

He wielded a crimson spear and stood in Chu Kuangren's way.

The vigorous crimson flame that contained intense murderous energy clashed with Chu Kuangren's Devil energy. The collision between the two energies caused the void to crack like a web.

Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes.

The fact that Feng Sha could stop his Devil energy was solid proof that Feng Sha was stronger than Hu Sha and Xiong Sha.

A Grand Dao Supreme Saint, huh?

Chu Kuangren's purple left eye glowed even more.

"Whoosh!"

Even more terrifying Devil energy gushed forward.

The energy blast sent both of them sliding backward.

"How could the Child of Light possess such an extremely evil energy? What the hell are you?" Feng Sha stared at Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuang was strong but not enough to discourage him from fighting.

However, after the little clash with the Devil energy, Feng Sha somehow felt scared.

The true nature of the Devil energy was extremely terrifying.

"Why don't you come find out for yourself?" Chu Kuangren said.

Then, he vanished from the spot.

The terrifying Devil energy transformed into a massive palm seal that blasted toward Feng Sha.

Despite that, Feng Sha chose to face it head-on.

He grunted, and crimson flame rose from his body.

"Apocalyptic Demon Martial Art, Nirvana!"

He thrust the spear in his hand forward.

Followed by an explosion, the flame transformed into a lively apparition of a phoenix.

The phoenix rose to the sky and soared, leaving a blazing trail behind.

When the phoenix apparition and the palm seal clashed, the red and black energy clashed, painting the land in the same color. The two different energies collided violently on the horizon.

For a moment, both energies were evenly matched.

"You two, stay back!"

Feng Sha said to Xiong Sha and Hu Sha.

The two of them immediately retreated.

Feng Sha stared at Chu Kuangren grimly. Even though he was a Grand Dao Supreme Saint-realm Killer Star, he dared not be careless in fighting Chu Kuangren.

He gripped his spear tighter, and the murderous energy swirled.

"Apocalyptic Demon Martial Art, God Flame Dissolving Sky!"

Another powerful technique of the Apocalypse Martial Society was used.

The endless flame felt like it could scorch the realm to cinders.

Chu Kuangren's left eye glowed stronger, releasing even more Devil energy. He channeled the energy to the limit and unleashed it like a tidal wave.

The pitch-black palm grew as big as the sky before it crashed down.

Chu Kuangren and Feng Sha were in the center of the collision.

"Hmph. You're just a Grand Dao Life Mastery, yet you can utilize such power. I believe there's a cost for it — a hefty one at that. You can't use it for long, am I right?" Feng Sha spotted the flaw in Chu Kuangren's attack.

Chu Kuangren chuckled but did not reply.

He simply raised his hand for another attack.

The realm was instantly filled with Devil energy, and it felt like it had plunged into eternal darkness.

Endless malicious intentions swept across the land, giving people goosebumps.

Further away, multiple figures were watching Chu Kuangren's fight.

"This energy is definitely from the King!"

"Is he the King's vessel?"

"It must be."

As the group discussed, they exchanged a glance and saw the hesitation in each others' eyes.

"Should we help the King?"

"Why don't we observe him for a little longer?"

"Sounds good to me."

The group decided to stay put and observe further.

Meanwhile, the battle between Chu Kuangren and Feng Sha continued in the fiercest manner.

It was the Devil energy versus the Murderous Dao.

The clash of energies happened multiple times.

Feng Sha was a true Grand Dao Supreme Saint with a solid foundation.

Even though Chu Kuangren was using the Devil's Pupil, he could not secure an advantage over the man.

"Apocalyptic Demon Martial Art, Godly Phoenix Scorching Field!"

Feng Sha swung his spear, releasing a sea of flame to engulf Chu Kuangren.

If struck, it could really burn Chu Kuangren to ashes.

That attack was extremely powerful as it had started to reach a Hongmeng-level technique.

No matter how strong Chu Kuangren was, he was just a Grand Dao Life Mastery. In addition to the side effects of the Devil's Pupils and other aspects, he was overpowered by that attack.

He was blasted a meter away.

The crash destroyed an iron city next to the Myriad Arms City.

"Child of Light, you're no match for a Grand Dao Supreme Saint," Feng Sha said.

Chu Kuangren emerged from the rubble and decided to conserve his Devil energy.

He could not use that energy for long.

When Feng Sha saw Chu Kuangren put his Devil energy away, he knew he was right.

"Your powers have a time limit. Time is up for you. I shall see what else you have to fight me!"

The murderous qi on him erupted and swept across the field.

At that moment, everyone else believed Chu Kuangren was done for.

"He's dead meat!" Young Master Yuan chuckled.

Ou Chen, who was with the weaponsmiths, grinned as well.

"I knew it. The Apocalypse Martial Society won't let him go. They are there to kill him. The guy's power is a little surprising, but since Feng Sha is here, this battle is done for.

"Once he's dead, the divine metal will be without an owner, and I can take it for myself!" Ou Chen thought to himself

He was excited by the thought.

Then, he looked at Ou Yenuo, who was forging the weapon further away, and muttered, "I shall snatch you from your glory again!"

Ou Yenuo was right. His last forging failed because of Ou Chen.

Ou Chen was indeed a despicable bastard, and now, he planned to use the same trick again.

While he was carried away by his fantasy, a blast of Radiant energy erupted.

It was so bright and intense that it almost painted the realm white.

"This energy..."

Feng Sha's expression shifted to a more serious look.

Chu Kuangren sensed it as well.

The void at the horizon shone blindingly and intertwined with the void itself, forming a white bridge out of the sky.

The bridge was carved with countless mystical patterns that released a magical aura.

One end of the bridge landed on the Myriad Arms City, while the other end connected into the endless void.

The bridge shocked everyone.

On the void's end of the bridge, a figure emerged.

The silver-armored figure rode a pegasus, and her blond wavy hair complimented her beautiful face. However, her expression was cold, and she wielded a white greatsword.

The wavy hair danced in the wind, granting her a valiant look.

The pegasus galloped out of the void, and its neighs echoed across the realm.

Terrifying Radiant energy swept across the realm with force.

Chu Kuangren was rather surprised to see her.

Feng Sha, on the contrary, looked terribly bitter. He gripped his spear tightly as if that was the only sense of safety he had left.

"Radiant Right Sky King!" Feng Sha uttered her name.

It was indeed the Radiant Right Sky King, Ming Fei.

"I will judge whoever dares to lay a finger on the Child of Light appointed by the Goddess!" Ming Fei said.

The terrifying energy fluctuation from her Radiant Dao blanketed the field.

All three Killer Stars were overpowered by her alone.

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 2120: Three Killer Stars Retreat, Two Monarch Class Meets

The Radiant Right Sky King arrived outside the Myriad Arms City.

A blast of powerful Radiant energy erupted following her arrival, and her aura easily overpowered the three Killer Stars.

Even the strongest, Feng Sha, got nervous.

The Killer Stars had been alive for a long time as they were all from the previous Hongmeng Era.

During the previous Hongmeng era, the most eye-catching was the Tempest King, but there were also other amazing cultivators.

The Radiant Right Sky King, Ming Fei, was one of them.

She did not become a Monarch-class Transcendentalist during the previous era, but even so, there was only less than a handful of cultivators who made it.

Her current cultivation realm was at least at the peak of the Grand Dao Supreme Saint Realm. In fact, she was probably already reaching the Grand Dao Supreme Honorable Realm.

All three of the Killer Stars were not her match, even if they teamed up.

Chu Kuangren breathed a sigh of relief when Ming Fei arrived.

He then looked at the bridge behind Ming Fei and was curious about it.

"So, is this the temple's Radiant Bridge?"

He had lived in the Holy Radiant Church for a while, so he had heard that the church had a Radiant Bridge, which was a Spatial Dao Hongmeng Supreme Treasure. It allowed one to traverse across space at will.

With it, one could even travel across universes like the Timespace Treasure.

However, the bridge consumed a lot of energy, and the church would not activate it under normal circumstances.

He did not expect the Radiant Goddess to use that to send Ming Fei here because of him.

It seemed like the Radiant Goddess thought highly of the Child of Light.

Chu Kuangren was moved.

He promised the Dark Demonic Ruler to cure his injuries, thus receiving the Ruler Amulet. Yet, he had somehow gotten close to the Radiant Goddess.

Being sandwiched between the light and dark would put him in a difficult situation in the future.

"If you'd like to continue, I can play along with you," Ming Fei said as she glared at the three Killer Stars on her pegasus.

The three Killer Stars exchanged a quick gaze and saw the intention to retreat in each other's eyes.

They knew they were not Ming Fei's match and that they would lose if they fought her.

"Let's leave!"

With that, the three of them left.

Further away, Young Master Yuan was furious when he saw the scene. "Damn it! We're one step away from killing the Child of Light!"

"Young Master, we still have many chances in the future. Let's go back for now," Elder Yuan said.

The two of them left the scene as well.

Even further away, the group of Devil Tribe cultivators exchanged a baffled look among themselves.

"Is the Radiant Church related to the King?"

"Is the King planning on taking in the Radiant Church?"

"It's not entirely impossible. The Radiant Church is a Monarch-class force, so it's normal for the King to pay close attention to them."

"So, are we going to meet with the King now?"

"The Archduke's order hasn't arrived. Let's just wait it out."

The cultivators from the Devil Tribe looked worried.

...

"Thank you for helping, Radiant Right Sky King."

Chu Kuangren smiled at Ming Fei.

Ming Fei replied with a frosty look. "This is an order from the Goddess. I'm just carrying out the order. You can thank the Goddess if you want."

"You're really loyal to the Goddess," Chu Kuangren said with a chuckle.

After living at the Holy Radiant Church for some time, he found out the special traits of the Radiant Right Sky King.

She was cool, brave, powerful, and beautiful — the valkyrie of the church that everyone admired.

However, her life was bland. Other than the Goddess, she had no one else.

Chu Kuangren suspected that if the Goddess told her to kill herself, she would destroy her own Great Dao in a heartbeat.

After the three Killer Stars retreated, Ming Fei stayed behind to protect Chu Kuangren for a while.

It was the Goddess' order.

After all, they were in the Feng Domain.

Chu Kuangren's conflict with the Apocalypse Martial Society would only exacerbate from that point onward.

If Ming Fei left, the Apocalypse Martial Society would come back to hunt him down again.

"The Goddess said she will deal with your conflict with the Apocalypse Martial Society with the ruler himself. Before we get any news, I will keep my eye on you," Ming Fei said.

Chu Kuangren did not have any objections.

Who would say no to a powerful and beautiful bodyguard?

The two of them then returned to the volcano crest.

Ou Yenuo was finalizing the shape of the Hongmeng Supreme Treasure.

It was a white sword carved with countless runes. It was sharp and contained a terrifying murderous qi.

It was indeed a peerless weapon of destruction.

"The shape of this weapon is done, but it needs time to finalize. Ming Fei, please look after us for now."

Chu Kuangren then sat with his legs crossed and continued fusing his three thousand Daoist laws.

Ming Fei frowned when Chu Kuangren gave her the order. "Is he ordering me around?"

Despite the grievance, she stayed by his side together with her pegasus.

Meanwhile, at the bottom of the volcano, Ou Chen and the other weaponsmiths gathered.

When they saw Ou Yenuo finalizing the shape of the Hongmeng Weapon, it aroused their interest.

"Could he really forge a Hongmeng Supreme Treasure?"

"Ou Yenuo is really something else."

"It seems like he's the best weaponsmith in Myriad Arms City."

Ou Chen's expression turned grim when he heard his fellow weaponsmiths.

Incidents of the past appeared in his mind.

"Ou Chen, your sword is lacking."

"Ou Yenuo, you did great. You quenched it a thousand times and expelled all the impurities. I am proud of you."

"Honorable teacher, how's my saber?"

The young Ou Chen brought a saber he forged to his teacher.

After a few glances, his teacher said, "It has a thousand runes carved on it. It's good, better than last time."

Before Ou Chen could react, Ou Yenuo came with a dagger and got his teacher to appraise it.

The teacher was amazed when he saw the dagger. "One thousand five hundred runes in a tiny dagger? Yenuo, you're even more talented than me."

Ou Chen was unhappy with his teacher's praise of Ou Yenuo.

Why?

He had worked hard, yet he was no match for Ou Yenuo.

Why did his teacher prefer Ou Yenuo over himself?

The stroll down memory lane ended.

Ou Chen looked up at the volcano coldly. "Ou Yenuo, I will never let you surpass me! Ever!"

...

At a quiet and secluded area in space, messy starry spiritual qi swirled as manless asteroids floated around.

On that day, a terrifying killing intent erupted from the asteroid field. At the end of the starry space was a gray-haired man, looking disheveled, with a crescent cutlass at his waist. As he moved forward, the asteroids were destroyed.

The commotion shook the entire galaxy.

On the opposite end, eight white pegasus appeared, pulling a white wagon behind them.

A boundless Radiant energy followed.

The dark and quiet space was lit up immediately.

The curtain of the wagon was lifted by a slender hand, and a beautiful blonde woman emerged from inside.

The galaxy suddenly had two different Great Dao auras clashing with each other — one murderous and the other Radiant.

However, both were evenly matched.

One was the ruler of the Apocalypse Martial Society, and the other was the Radiant Goddess.
