

Unparalleled 221

Chapter 221: Clues Hit and Clouds of Doubt (3)

As he spoke, Xu Bai controlled Ghost Head Blade and broke all of Seven Ghost’s teeth.

“Begging for mercy should be like begging for mercy. You’re not the one asking me questions, understand?”

Seven Ghost was able to recover. He was really in pain.

There was a saying that toothache was not a disease, but it was really fatal when it hurt.

Moreover, Xu Bai had used Ghost Head Blade to crush all of his teeth. The pain was worse than digging his heart out.

A moment later, Seven Ghost returned to normal, but this time, he was terrified. He didn’t even dare to look Xu Bai in the eye.

Brother Yun,” Xu Bai turned his head and said,” I told you that no matter how evil a person is, they will be obedient after being beaten up.””

Yun Zihai’s mouth twitched as he walked forward. He looked at Seven Ghost, who was extremely afraid of them, and said,””Tell me what you know. I really want to know what kind of organization you are.”

“We are from the Great Yue State, members of the Dark Tower. “Seven Ghost said quickly.

There were similarities and differences. The most obvious thing was that the Dark Tower controlled more information than the Heaven Inspectorate.

Intelligence, assassination, undercover...

All of these things were done by the Dark Tower, and it was also because of this that they got this name.

“In other words, on the surface, Yunlai Prefecture is still part of Great Chu, but in fact, the Dark Tower has already infiltrated it internally. It can even be said that it is controlled by the Dark Tower.” Xu Bai stroked his chin and said thoughtfully.

Yun Zihai nodded without hesitation, indicating that this was indeed the case. If what Seven Ghost said was true, this place had very likely become one of the Dark Tower’s bases.

“You should know about the members of your organization and their distribution here.” Xu Bai asked.

Unexpectedly, Seven Ghost shook his head repeatedly, indicating that he did not know.

“For the sake of safety, we only contact certain people. The only one who really knows is the person in charge here, but we don’t know where the person in charge is.”

At this point, Seven Ghost did not forget to express that everything he said was the truth.

“Come, open your mouth.” Xu Bai said with a smile.

Ghost Seven was stunned and subconsciously closed his mouth. However, when he saw Xu Bai lift Ghost Head Blade, he opened his mouth again.

He threw out the medicine he got from Qing Xue to force a confession into Seven Ghost’s mouth.

Seven Ghost's eyes widened. Then, pain struck him. He couldn't help but twist his body to resist the pain.

The pain was like throwing a man into an ant's nest and letting the ants gnaw at him. The pain made him scream one after another.

Previously, when Thousand-faced Poison Lord saw this medicine, he had recognized it, but it was probably just that.

This was because Xu Bai had not discovered the formula of the Hundred Poison Quintessence after comprehending it. Clearly, this was a secret of the Imperial Family.

The antidote pill could not cure this poison, and it should not be considered poison. Other than pain, it did not cause any other harm.

Even with Seven Ghost's powerful recovery ability, he could not withstand the pain.

Xu Bai couldn't help but think highly of this pill. He thought to himself that if there was a chance in the future, he would have to get some from Qing Xue.

It was simply an essential item for traveling in the martial world.

The pain continued. During this process, Seven Ghost couldn't even speak. He could only wait until the pain disappeared before he trembled and stared at Xu Bai in fear.

"I really don't know. I really don't know anything. Please, don't torture me anymore."

At this moment, it was as if the roles had been reversed. Xu Bai felt that he was about to become the villain.

"I only know that Zheng Jin is one of my men, and those who ambushed you in the forest were also sent by me. I really don't know anything else."

As he said that, he even wanted to cry.

“Buy one, get one free. Give me another one.” Xu Bai was not moved at all. He took out another pill and prepared to let Seven Ghost eat it again.

However, before he could do anything, Seven Ghost shook his head crazily. Then, he was finally willing to tell the truth.

“I said, I know a family, the Chen family. They’ve already been bribed by us. Other than that, I don’t know anything else. Oh right, that family is run by a woman. Her name is Hong Fen. She’s best at seducing and plucking..”

Chapter 222: Clues Hit and Clouds of Doubt (4)

When Xu Bai heard this, he put the pill back into the bottle and said with a smile, “That’s right. I like honest people. Otherwise, you’ll have to waste another pill of mine.”

“Brother Xu, I know about the Chen family.” Yun Zihai frowned and said.

Xu Bai raised his hand and said, “We’ll find a quiet place later. We’ll talk slowly. Now, let’s get rid of this guy first.”

When Seven Ghost heard this, he opened his mouth wide and said, “Please spare my life. I know everything you want to know. Please spare my life. I promise to hide far away and never go against you again.”

None of the three people present replied.

Xu Bai tossed the Ghost Head Blade to Chu Yu and said, “Kill him until he can no longer be resurrected.”

Chu Yu took it in a flurry. She was stunned at first, then she took a deep breath and walked to Seven Ghost.

Throughout the entire process, he did not say a single word.

“Why aren’t you bargaining with me this time?” Xu Bai teased.

Chu Yu turned around and said seriously, “There’s no reason.”

Last time, she could still use the excuse that it was more complicated, but it was different this time. This time, she really couldn’t find an excuse. She was afraid that Xu Bai would glare at her.

“You have to know that everything I do is for your own good. Only then can you live well in this cruel world.” Xu Bai looked at Chu Yu’s expression and could not help but add in the end.

King Sheng You was a man of great talent, but his daughter was like a blank sheet of paper.

If not for the Emperor’s teachings in the Imperial Palace, there would be problems with killing people.

Since he had accepted someone else’s book, he would let Chu Yu learn more.

Chu Yu nodded vigorously and said emotionally, “I understand.” After saying that, he raised his Ghost Head Blade and slashed Seven Ghost’s head.

The Ghost Head Blade was sharp, and Seven Ghost’s head was cut off.

However, his recovery ability was indeed very strong. He began to recover quickly again. However, his chest was stepped on by Xu Bai and restrained by the layer of black light. He could not move at all.

“Again!” Xu Bai shouted.

Chu Yu gritted her teeth and raised the Ghost Head Blade in the end. She sliced Gui Qi's head again and again.

The entire process was extremely cruel, and the scene was also very crazy.

Chu Yu swung her saber again and again. She felt her nerves turning numb. At the same time, she felt that her personality had changed.

Seven Ghost's recovery power gradually weakened until the last slash. Seven Ghost could no longer recover and became a corpse.

Chu Yu placed the Ghost Head Blade on the ground and panted heavily. Her forehead was covered in cold sweat.

In the palace, the Emperor had taught her how to kill, but that was all done with a single slash. It was nothing like the repeated torture she was experiencing now, which had changed her worldview.

Xu Bai could also tell that Chu Yu only needed to stabilize her emotions and wait for her to absorb it slowly. The harvest today would be enough for her to transform.

As expected, practice was the best opportunity to test a theory.

"Let's go to a safer place and discuss how to find clues from that family." Xu Bai looked at the surrounding darkness and said.

Yun Zihai nodded and said, "We'll talk about it when we get back to the yamen.""

The few of them did not stay any longer and directly walked towards the government office.

Yunlai Manor.

Yun Zihai closed the door and lit the oil lamp on the table. He only poured a glass of water for Xu Bai and Chu Yu when the light from the oil lamp lit up the room.

“Brother Xu, what do you plan to do next?”

The information they had just received had confirmed that the Chen family was the source of the clues. Now, they had to discuss a plan.

Of course, everyone present knew that whether Seven Ghost was telling the truth or not was a question worth exploring.

If it was fake and the Chen family was just a burial item he wanted to bite out before he died, then he would have to find another plan.

If it was true, then it would be great.

“Actually, you don’t have to ask me.” “Brother Yun, don’t you have any ideas?” Xu Bai rubbed his chin.”

He was only here to help, not to lead. Why did she have to ask him for everything? It was as if his opinion was very important.

“Actually, my thoughts are the same as Brother Xu’s.” “But if it’s the Chen family, there’s another possibility.”

As he spoke, Yun Zihai told him the general situation of the Chen family one by one.

The Chen family was also a big family in Yunlai Mansion.

The businesses they operated were all over Dao City under Yunlai Mansion.

And this Chen family had a unique line of work, paper people.

The so-called paper binding had many different names in the folk, such as binding, paste paper, binding paper, binding paper warehouse, binding cover, color paste, and so on.

In a broad sense, paper bundles included colored doors, spirit shed, stage, shop facade decoration, horizontal boards, characters, paper horses, opera texts, dance tools, kites, lanterns, etc.

In a narrow sense, paper bundles referred to funeral paper bundles, which were mainly used to burn paper figurines, paper horses, money trees, gold and silver mountains, archways, gatehouses, houses, poultry, etc. in sacrificial and funeral activities.

What the Chen family did was to make paper bundles in a narrow sense.

Originally, the profits of doing this business were not very high, but once a certain thing formed a monopoly, its profits would rise along with it. It was the same for the Chen family's business.

"Paper..." "What's the difference?" Xu Bai thought of Liu Xu and asked."

"The man in white is dead." Yun Zihai said," If it's true, the Chen family will be alerted immediately. Whether it's an undercover investigation or an open investigation, we won't be able to find any specific information. So, we might as well wait for the rabbit..'"

Chapter 223: Clues Hit and Clouds of Doubt (5)

"You mean to wait?" Xu Bai frowned.'

Yun Zihai nodded and said, "If they want to cause trouble, they will definitely continue. This time, we will not be like before, without any targets. This time, we can narrow the scope to the Chen family. Once there is any movement, we will be able to quickly discover it."

Xu Bai thought about it carefully. It was not impossible.

After having a goal, he could concentrate on it, but now, it was the same as narrowing the target to the Chen family.

Judging from the current situation, the enemy was in the dark while they were in the light. They could only wait for the enemy to expose themselves first before they had the opportunity to attack.

"Then it's settled. By the way, have you recovered?" Xu Bai looked at Chu Yu and asked.

Chu Yu had been sitting at the side ever since she entered the house. She did not say anything and just lowered her head.

It was not until Xu Bai spoke that she raised her head, her face full of confusion.

"I think..I'm about to break through."

Xu Bai was speechless.

Yun Zihai was speechless.

"No, I've already broken through." The confusion in Chu Yu's eyes disappeared. She scratched her head and a strong aura rose from her body.

It was much stronger than before.

"Rank- 5?" Xu Bai's mouth twitched.

Yun Zihai looked at Xu Bai. His meaning was obvious. Where did he pick up such a talented person?

Chu Yu nodded vigorously. "I seem to have seen a lot more clearly after what happened today. It's all thanks to Young Master's patient guidance. Otherwise, I would have remained in this realm for a long time."

Xu Bai looked up at the ceiling and laughed awkwardly. "Don't be polite. You're quite talented. If it were another person, they might not have the same effect." Not only was her talent not bad, but her talent was like father and daughter.

As expected of the daughter of King Sheng You.

"Brother Xu, this girl's talent is really top-notch." Yun Zihai sighed. "I was stuck at the Sixth Stage Realm for so long. It was only when I took over the Yunlai Manor Token that I finally untied the knot in my heart and entered the Fifth Stage Realm. I didn't expect that this girl would become a Fifth Stage expert overnight."

"You're Rank-5 too?"

"Although I'm not as talented as Brother Xu," Yun Zihai said strangely, "I'm still a genius of the Academy. It's normal."

When he said this, he sighed and thought of what his teacher had said to him in the past.

In this world, there would always be someone better than you. Never be a frog at the bottom of a well. You must see the bigger and farther world.

At first, he thought that his teacher was afraid that he would be too proud.

It wasn't until the day he met Xu Bai that he finally understood that his teacher was right.

Able to fight, able to plot, and not indecisive at all.

Be it personality or strength, they were all above him.

From that day on, he felt that he had to be more humble in the future.

Of course, Xu Bai himself didn't know about this.

If Xu Bai knew, he would definitely find it funny.

No matter how talented you are, no matter how fast your cultivation speed is, can you compare to someone who uses cheats?

Xu Bai expressed that it was very normal.

Yun Zihai was a little absent-minded and unknowingly thought a little astray.

At this time, the sky was getting darker and darker.

"Brother Xu, since there are already signs, I think we should leave the Yin Posthouse to Liu Er for the time being. I'll call him back tomorrow and return your people to you. "The clouds came from the sea.

"Alright, but you can't charge me for my living expenses during this period of time." Xu Bai said with a smile.

As a girl who had grown up in the palace, she had long been used to the life of glory and wealth. The life of the Yin Posthouse was what she was most curious about.

Xu Bai patted Chu Yu's head when he saw her expression. "Don't reveal your thoughts at any time. At least don't show it on your face. Or rather, don't show the opposite expression. From now on, your happiness will become sadness, and your sadness will become happiness."

Chu Yu's face was filled with question marks. However, since Xu Bai had already given the order, he could only do as he was told and forced a smile. "I'm so happy."

Xu Bai was speechless.

In the government office, everyone was discussing.

In the Chen family far away from the government office, a seductive woman in pink was looking at the moon in the sky.

She held a wooden token in her hand, which was gradually turning into ashes.

This was the nameplate of a Dark Tower member. As long as the member died, the nameplate would turn into ashes. The holder of this nameplate was very particular.

For example, if she and Seven Ghost knew each other now, only the two of them had each other's nameplate. No one else did.

Their goal was to protect the safety of the other members. Now that Seven Ghost's nameplate was gone, it meant that Seven Ghost was dead.

"I knew I would go overboard." Pink sighed, her seductive eyes looking into the darkness.

"Men!"

Chapter 224: The Royal Family's Arrogance (1)

Pink spat out these two words in the dark night.

It was completely different from her seductive appearance. It was filled with coldness.

As she said this, an old man who was about 50 years old appeared in the darkness.

The old man bent his waist and held a walking stick in his hand. With every step he took, his body would tremble. Although he was nearly fifty years old, he already had the intention of dying.

“Master.”

“From now on, don’t do anything. Just do what you usually do and don’t have any other thoughts.” Pink looked up at the moon in the sky and said slowly.

The old man was slightly surprised, but he nodded and agreed without asking anything else.

He didn’t ask much about this matter, but there was another matter that had been lingering in the old man’s mind. The old man thought about it and decided to say it.

“Is there really no need to instigate the other members of the Chen family to defect?” The old man asked.

Pink retracted her gaze. The light veil on her body was blown by the wind. She slowly raised her hand and pressed it on the old man’s shoulder. “I’m not an idiot like Gui Qi. What I need is absolute safety. If the other members of your Chen Family really turn against me, that’s a good thing. If they don’t, that’s a bad thing. You’re the head of the Chen Family.”

When the old man heard what Pink said, he turned his head and looked at the fair arm on his shoulder. His eyes were burning.

Under the influence of gravity, the light gauze on her arm slid off slightly, revealing her fair skin, which extended all the way to her elbow. It was especially eye-catching in the dark night.

Pink noticed the old man's gaze and a smile bloomed on her face. This smile was filled with gentleness. "Don't worry. Once this matter is done, I'll be yours." The old man gulped and nodded.

This old man was the head of the Chen family. After being charmed by the red powder, he became the slave of the red powder,

"Go ahead." The red powder seemed to be waning and waved her hand. Having already given the order to leave, the Chen family head did not stay any longer. He turned around and left.

The red powder stared at the back of the Chen family's head until he disappeared into the dark night.

In the darkness, there was a trace of pink aura circulating and slowly returning to Hong Fen's body. Hong Fen's aura became even higher.

Charm was one of the abilities, and the other was the Plucking Technique.

The so-called plucking technique was not something that could be done in bed. As long as one was charmed by her, they would be slowly affected by her as time passed until all their strength was absorbed by her.

"This new Prefecture Magistrate is not a simple character. And that Xu Bai is definitely not as simple as he looks. The situation in Yunlai Prefecture is too delicate."

The red powder raised her head again and looked at the full moon in the sky. She was thinking about her plan.

She could only hold it in for now.

She and Seven Ghost knew about the people that Dark Tower had planted in Yunlai Manor, but they didn't know about the others.

Right now, she had no way to contact the other members. Unless the person in charge contacted her, she would not know the news of the other members.

Seven Ghost had died, and no one knew what he had said before he died.

Anyway, she had to keep a low profile now. At the very least, she had to wait for the storm to pass and everything to calm down before she could make a move.

The weather was still very cold at night. Thinking of this, Pink felt a little cold. She tightened her pink collar and walked in another direction.

Yunlai Manor.

In the blink of an eye, a few days had passed. During this period of time, Xu Bai did not have much to do.

Liu Er was arranged to enter the Yin Posthouse by him. Liu Er was in charge of the Yin Posthouse. If there was anything, he would inform him through the pigeon.

He stayed in Yunlai Mansion, waiting for the so-called Chen family to give themselves away.

While waiting, he took out another mental cultivation technique. It was the same as the Purple Cloud Imperial Technique and was also obtained from the royal family's treasure vault.

This mental cultivation technique is called the astral wind technique

When the progress bar was increasing, Xu Bai also roughly looked through it. He could understand a lot of things. After all, he was now a Rank-5 unspecialized.

The so-called Astral Wind Art was a particularly useful mental cultivation method. It was extremely important to martial artists below the Second Stage.

In fact, Xu Bai had more or less understood some basic knowledge about martial artists.

In this Jianghu, there were as many trades as there were hairs on an ox. All kinds of trades were constantly blending with each other, and it could be said that a hundred flowers bloomed.

However, in terms of combat strength, each had their own strengths. Among them, the melee combat of martial artists was the most outstanding.

However, for martial artists below Rank Two, what they lacked was long-range attack ability. Unless they used hidden weapons, they would be inferior in long-range attacks.

Of course, all of this could be compensated for by movement techniques, but such compensation would ultimately be weaker than direct attacks.

After reaching the Second Stage, the Genuine Qi would be able to penetrate the body when it reached a certain level. At that time, it would be the time to sweep across a large area.

Before this, for some long-range professions, martial artists could be said to be suffering.

In order to make up for the shortcomings of this one, those talented martial artists studied day and night. In the end, with their strong willpower, they came up with many solutions.

One of them was the Art of the Great Wind.

The so-called Astral Wind Art was actually a technique that simulated true qi flowing out of the body..

Chapter 225: The Royal Family's Provoke (2)

With a specific way of circulating true qi, he could create a violent gale with a wave of his hand. This gale could even produce a huge destructive force.

To a certain extent, this could make up for the problem of a martial artist's lack of attack range. However, it was only limited to those below the Second Stage because the power of the astral wind would be much weaker than the Genuine Qi Penetration.

But it's already very useful, especially for the second product before the warrior, the great satisfaction of their needs.

Did Xu Bai need it?

Of course he did.

Currently, the only thing he could completely call a long-range weapon was the hidden weapon technique of Maple Leaves Like Rain. However, this hidden weapon technique did not seem to be enough.

Maple Leaf Rain was only at the second rank. Even if the copper coin was wrapped in the dark light of the Diamond Heart Devil Body, its power would greatly increase, but its technique was still only at the second rank.

Therefore, this Astral Wind Art was extremely important to Xu Bai at the moment. It could allow his strength to increase substantially. Moreover, this was a mental cultivation technique that could also increase his intrinsic strength-

Looking at the progress bar,      was quite satisfied.

From the looks of it, if he was lucky, he could finish the progress bar of this mental cultivation method before the Chen family's abnormality occurred. At that time, he could add quite a few more methods.

Thinking of this, Xu Bai became even more excited.

At that moment, footsteps were heard outside the door. Chu Yu stuck her head out of the door and sized up Xu Bai's expression curiously.

"Young Master, today's morning class is about to begin!" Chu Yu shook the brand-new little notebook in her hand excitedly.

She had already used up the old one and carefully hid it away. She would take it out to revise every day. Now, she had a new small notebook from somewhere.

Every morning was the time for the routine morning class. At this time, Xu Bai would explain some ways of handling matters to Chu Yu.

Chu Yu's learning speed was also very fast. She would listen attentively to her studies every day and revise them well.

As time passed, Xu Bai's opinion of Chu Yu had changed drastically.

This young lady who had no experience in the martial world, at least when she was learning, her respect for others was obvious.

When she was studying, she did not question or make a sound. She listened attentively. Only when she was done would she raise her precious little notebook and ask the questions in her heart.

"Come in." Xu Bai put down the Astral Wind Technique in his hand and waved at Chu Yu. He then pointed at the seat beside him.

Chu Yu's eyes darted around as she skipped into the house and sat on it naturally.

Then, she took out a paper bag and handed it to Xu Bai.

"Young Master, these are hot buns. I just came back from breakfast."

Every morning, Chu Yu would go out for breakfast. She would go early so that she could bring her breakfast back as soon as Xu Bai woke up.

Other things aside, Chu Yu was very meticulous.

As for whether he would be poisoned if he was allowed to eat random food, Xu Bai was completely at ease.

One day, Chu Yu pointed out the Hundred Violent Poison smeared on Xu Bai's saber and told him that she was in the palace. Her uncle, who was also the emperor, often taught her these things. She already knew how to differentiate thousands of poisons.

From that moment on, Xu Bai was very relieved.

Moreover, he had a deeper understanding of the Emperor.

At the very least, judging from Chu Yu's performance, the Emperor's care for her had even surpassed his own children.

At the thought of this, Xu Bai took a glance at the oil stains at the corner of Chu Yu's mouth and smiled.

"You ate a lot again?"

"Three! A bowl of porridge!" Chu Yu danced around and answered excitedly, "It's better than the food inside!"

Inside, of course, was the palace.

Xu Bai shook his head and pointed it out, "It's not that it's more delicious than that place. It's just that you like novel things. For example, this market smell makes you feel that it's more delicious."

Chu Yu tilted her head and frowned as she thought about it. She felt that Xu

Bai's words made sense and replied, "Young Master is right."

Her expression made it seem as if she would nod and agree if Xu Bai told her that sugar was salty.

During this period of time, Chu Yu and Xu Bai had become more and more familiar with each other. Chu Yu was no longer as reserved as before. Every time the two of them were alone, she would reveal her thoughtless appearance.

In Chu Yu's opinion, everything Xu Bai taught her was very useful. Most importantly, Chu Yu realized that Xu Bai was not as scary as she had imagined. If he was one of her own, he would be nice and even kind.

With this discovery, Chu Yu let go completely.

"Hehehe." Chu Yu laughed foolishly. She stared at the paper bag with her big, clear eyes. "Hurry up and eat. It'll get cold later."

Xu Bai looked at the bun in his hand and said nothing more. After a few bites, he took a sip of tea.

"Buy, buy two more next time."

Compared to the steamed buns in Shengxian County, the steamed buns in Yunlai Mansion were more authentic and tasted better.

"Yes, yes!" Chu Yu nodded her head vigorously and then stared at Xu Bai with her big eyes.

He looked as if he had suffered some grievance.

“What’s wrong with you now?” Xu Bai said helplessly.

He finally understood one thing. As long as Chu Yu was looking at him like that, something must have happened..

Chapter 226: The Royal Family’s Arrogance (3)

“I... I have no money.” Chu Yu rubbed the corner of her clothes with both hands and put on a pitiful look. She said bashfully, “Eldest Uncle said that you have to be rich and gave me a lot of money. I originally had a lot of money, but my father said that his daughter must not be entangled with a luxurious life, so he only gave me some daily expenses and took away all my other money.” Chu Yu’s voice sounded even more aggrieved as she spoke.

Xu Bai raised his hand and rubbed his forehead.””Your Highness ‘teaching method is truly unique.”

Seeing Chu Yu’s pitiful state, Xu Bai took out some money from his pocket and handed it to her.

“Is this enough?”

“Enough, enough!” Chu Yu nodded her head as if she was a chick pecking at rice. She carefully took out a good-looking purse from her waist and put all the money into it. Then, she carefully hung the purse on her waist as if it was very precious.

“Alright, let’s start today’s class.”Xu Bai stretched his body, intending to finish teaching Chu Yu as soon as possible so that he could continue reading the progress bar.

Chu Yu picked up the small notebook and pretended to be fully focused as she prepared to start listening to the lecture.

Xu Bai picked up his teacup again and took a sip of tea. He was ready to explain today's lesson.

He cleared his throat and was about to start when a voice interrupted him.

"Plop..."

The sound of flapping wings could be heard. Xu Bai turned around and saw a messenger pigeon in the courtyard.

There was a ring tied to the pigeon's leg. Inside the ring was a piece of paper that was rolled into a long strip.

"Wait a moment." Xu Bai frowned. He got up and went to the backyard. He picked up the messenger pigeon, took out the letter from it, and placed it on the table.

This was a message from the Yin Posthouse. It was sent to him by Liu Er.

Previously, when Liu Er returned to the Yin Posthouse, had said that if there was any news, he would inform him in time by pigeon.

Xu Bai opened the letter. After reading the contents, he frowned slightly and placed the letter on the table.

"Seventh Prince? Another member of the royal family. How interesting."

According to the letter, the Seventh Prince's subordinate was at the Yin Posthouse. The purpose of his visit was to see Xu Bai and ask him to hurry over. However, Liu Er could not grasp the propriety of the matter and sent a letter by pigeon first.

Chu Yu looked at the letter on the table curiously. She frowned slightly and her face was filled with displeasure. "So it's that fellow."

“Oh? You know him?” Xu Bai rubbed his chin and asked.

“Among all the members of the royal family, this Seventh Prince is the most arrogant one.” Chu Yu said.

“Arrogant?” “Isn’t that courting death?” Xu Bai asked.”

The Emperor of Great Chu had nine children, and this so-called Seventh Prince was at most the seventh oldest. Why was he the most arrogant one?

If a member of the royal family was arrogant, it was very likely that at some point, he would lose something very important, such as his life.

The members of the royal family did not have an easy life at all. They were careful with every step, afraid that if they took the wrong step, they would never be able to recover.

The so-called arrogance was the key to making people step into the abyss.

Among all the members of the royal family that Xu Bai knew, the ninth princess was very shrewd and held great financial power. As for the sixth prince, it could be seen from the subordinate named Zhou Qing that he was not a brainless person.

As for the Eighth Prince, he was just an unlucky bastard.

Putting everything else aside, the Eighth Prince’s plans were indeed very perfect. Unfortunately, he was always led by the nose by the Emperor, and in the end, he walked towards destruction.

Now that Chu Yu had told him that the Seventh Prince was an arrogant person, there was something fishy about it.

He was an arrogant person and a member of the royal family, but he could still live until now. It was simply a wonder.

“He has a reason to be arrogant.” Chu Yu scratched her head and said, “The concubine who gave birth to him is already dead. Moreover, she died on the battlefield. Back then, my uncle doted on that concubine very much. Hence, he developed this kind of personality because of his love for the house and its crow.””

At the mention of this, Chu Yu gestured with her hand, her face showing a hint of admiration.

“At that time, uncle fell into a trap and was trapped on a mountain. He was about to lose his life when the concubine, alone with a sword and 3,000 armored soldiers, suddenly attacked and rescued uncle. However, he was also seriously injured. After returning to the capital, he died after three months of recuperation.”

“I heard that when that concubine died, uncle cried loudly.”

Xu Bai was speechless.

Why did he always feel that there was another special attribute in Chu Yu, that she loved to gossip about others?

When it came to the Emperor crying loudly, his face was filled with the flames of gossip.

“It shouldn’t be.” Xu Bai thought to himself.

As the saying goes, a tiger father would not have a dog son. The Seventh Prince’s mother was so brave and good at fighting. She could save the Emperor from a mountain of blades and a sea of flames with a sword and three thousand armored soldiers. How could her son be an arrogant person?

“Maybe he is pretending to be in the stage of ‘God’.” Xu Bai thought.

If it was an act, it was possible.

But no matter what, he had already thought of how to reply to the Seventh Prince’s subordinate.

Xu Bai took a pen and paper and wrote down the contents. He placed it on the carrier pigeon's leg and let it fly..

Chapter 227: The Arrogance of the Royal Family (4)

Chu Yu was peering at the side. She did not say a word when she saw what Xu Bai had written.

The content of the letter was very simple. It only took one sentence.

Chu Yu thought to herself, 'I'm always alive and kicking every day. How could I possibly be sick?'

He didn't even give a good reason. This reason was obviously fake, and it was ridiculously fake.

'Alright, let's continue. Xu Bai continued to teach Chu Yu as if he had just done something insignificant.

Yin Posthouse.

A middle-aged man in leather armor was sitting on a chair, drinking tea with a giant hammer at his waist.

Liu Er was also at the side, but he did not care about the man in leather armor.

Ever since the man in leather armor arrived, he had directly explained the main topic. However, the problem was that Xu Bai was not here, and Liu Er had to inform him in advance, so he sent a messenger pigeon to Yunlai Mansion. During this process, the man in leather armor didn't leave. He just sat there and took a sip of tea from time to time. He even automatically refilled his cup.

"A ninth-grade martial artist actually became the chief of the Fu Yin Posthouse. It seems that your relationship is very strongrrhe man in leather armor took another sip of tea and stared at Liu Er.

Liu Er did not answer and continued to do his own thing.

In his opinion, it didn't matter if he was the Seventh Prince's subordinate or someone else. He was following Xu Bai and didn't care about anyone else.

Xu Bai had asked him to entertain them well, so he would. If Xu Bai didn't like them, he wouldn't like them either.

No matter what line of work one was in, loyalty was a must. If one was not loyal, one would end up very miserable.

Seeing that Liu did not answer, the man in leather armor also felt that his interest had waned. He did not want to vent his anger here, so he put down the teacup in his hand, leaned against the back of the chair, and closed his eyes to take a nap.

Time passed slowly. After about n,vo hours, a messenger pigeon landed on the window of the room.

Liu Er had sharp eyes and quickly walked over. He grabbed the carrier pigeon and took out the letter inside.

He glanced at the contents and saw that there was nothing he needed to hide. He placed the paper on the table and let the man in leather armor take it himself.

The man in leather armor looked at Liu Er deeply, picked up the letter on the table, and scanned the contents.

When he finished reading it, his eyes were filled with anger, and the veins on his forehead were bulging.

“He’s not feeling well and refused to come over. This means that he wants me to go over and find him!”

“How dare you! You don’t even put the Seventh Prince in your eyes!”

“Good, good, good. That’s great. I’ll go meet him now and let me see what kind of person he is!”

A series of sounds came out of the man’s mouth. It was obvious that the man under the skin had become extremely furious after reading the contents.

He did not stay any longer. He stood up from his chair and walked out in large strides. He did not even want to leave a word.

Liu Er did not stop him. He looked at the back of the man in leather armor and smiled disdainfully.

Heh...

With such a temper , he dared to run over to look for Escort Leader Xu. Wasn’t he courting death?

He had seen too much. He had followed them all the way from Sheng County and had long seen through many things.

Anyone who offended Escort Leader Xu would not have a good ending.

It seemed that no one was still alive.

The man in leather armor was simply courting death.

Liu Er wiped the table in front of him clean and threw the bowl that the man in leather armor had drunk out. His face was full of disgust.

“Perhaps in a few days, he will be a dead man.”Liu Er thought.

At this moment, the man in leather armor who was rushing to Yunlai Mansion did not know what was waiting for him.

Yunlai Manor.

Recently, Yun Zihai could be said to have a headache.

He had to prevent the Chen family from making any strange movements, but he also had to act as if he had not discovered anything.

The whole process was very complicated, but he was still performing.

His body was already in poor condition, and he was coughing badly. These few days of hard work had made his body even worse.

If one’s health is not good, it will affect one’s mood. If one’s mood is not good, one will become especially irritable.

Although Yun Zihai usually looked like a weak scholar, he was actually an extremely strong person on the inside. Once he had a bad temper, sometimes his words would become very aggressive.

In the past few days, the runners in the government office did not dare to provoke him at all. They hid far away when they saw him.

Only when he was facing Xu Bai could Yun Zihai control his temper a little.

Today was another peaceful day.

Yun Zihai sat in the hall and flipped through the memorial in his hand. As he read, he arranged the things on it.

Not only did he have to monitor the Chen family, he also had to take time to understand the recent situation in Yunlai Manor so that he could manage it in the future.

Every day was arranged by him clearly. If he was not a Rank-5 scholar, he might have already felt exhausted.

"Sigh, Brother Xu is still the best. He lives happily every day." Yun Zihai put down the last memorial and stretched his back as he thought.

Compared to Xu Bai, he was like a busy man who worked tirelessly every day. The two of them had two completely different phenomena.

Of course, he was just complaining.

Everyone had their own dreams and pursuits. Since he had this dream and pursuit, he would not complain.

"Let's take a break today. We've finished watching. Next is the time to formulate the management plan. However, we have to wait until the Chen family's matter is settled.."

Chapter 228: The Arrogance of the Royal Family (5)

Thinking of this, Yun Zihai stood up and prepared to return to the backyard to rest.

After being busy for several days, he had some free time today. He wanted to seize the time to relax.

However, before he could take two steps, the sound of running came from outside the door.

A bailiff ran in and whispered into Yun Zihai's ear.

Yun Zihai was slightly taken aback, then he sat back down and waved his hand. "Let him in."

"Yes, sir!" The bailiff hurriedly left.

After a while, the man in leather armor was led in by the bailiff and stood in front of Yun Zihai.

After the bailiffs brought them over, they hurriedly left without staying for long.

The surroundings were silent, leaving only Yun Zihai and the man in leather armor. The two of them looked at each other.

"You're the Seventh Prince's subordinate, so what do you mean?" Yun Zihai asked.

As he spoke, he couldn't help but cough a few more times. His face was still as pale as before.

"I'm the Seventh Prince's subordinate, Zhangwang." Zhang Wang raised a token to indicate his identity and put it away. "I came here this time because I heard that Xu Bai is in Lord Yun's residence. I want to meet him."

"Oh?" Yun Zihai frowned and asked, "What do you want to see Xu Bai for?"

"I asked him to return to the Yin Posthouse to find me, but he didn't want to. He even said that he was sick. In that case, I came to see him." When Zhang

Wang said this, he raised his head, his face full of arrogance.

Other than arrogance, there was also a trace of anger mixed in.

This kind of emotion could be seen by anyone with discerning eyes, let alone

Yun Zihai.

Yun Zihai fell into deep thought.

Judging from the situation, it seemed that something had happened on the Seventh Prince's side. However, this guy was obviously very arrogant. He even wanted Xu Bai to go back and see him, but Xu Bai did not give him any face at all.

The most important thing was that this guy was obviously looking for trouble. "Xu Bai's health isn't good. He's been catching a cold recently." Yun Zihai waved his hand.

Since Xu Bai didn't want to see him, then he would disappear. Yun Zihai didn't need to bring this guy in.

As for the Seventh Prince, stop joking around.

Perhaps the Seventh Prince didn't know that Xu Bai was favored by King Sheng You. If he really considered his background, if King Sheng You lost his temper and slapped the Seventh Prince, His Majesty probably wouldn't say anything.

Zhang Wang was slightly stunned. After he reacted, his tone became low. "Lord Yun, what do you mean? Are you not even going to give face to the Seventh Prince?"

As soon as he finished speaking, the atmosphere between the two sides became more and more strange and solemn.

When Yun Zihai heard Zhang Wang's words, he was amused. He felt that this fellow was very interesting.

“What’s wrong? Don’t tell me you want to find trouble with me?”

“I don’t have such thoughts, but it’s hard to say if the Seventh Prince does.” Zhang Wang said meaningfully.

Yun Zihai slammed the table and stood up. “Men!”

Outside, five to six bailiffs walked in and bowed, waiting for Yun Zihai’s orders.

“If you don’t kneel when you see me, you’ll be beaten thirty times first.” Yun Zihai waved his sleeves and said.

“How dare you!” Zhang Wang glared at Yun Zihai.

In his opinion, he was the person of the Seventh Prince. In such a situation, the governor should be fawning over him. At the very least, he would not fight directly when they met, right?

“Let’s see if I dare!” Yun Zihai said, “Yunlai Manor is a manor governed by me. Even if the Seventh Prince came, he would still have to follow the rules of the manor. Even if he didn’t have to bow, he wouldn’t have shouted at me like this. As for you, who do you think you are?!”

These words made the surrounding bailiffs look at each other. They knew that their lord was really angry, so they swarmed up and prepared to take him down.

Zhang Wang grabbed the giant hammer at his waist and was about to subconsciously counterattack when he suddenly felt a chill run down his spine. When he turned around, he saw Yun Zihai holding a brush in his hand and staring at him coldly.

A murderous aura enveloped him. He had a feeling that if he counterattacked today, he would definitely die here.

Thinking of this, Zhang Wang let go of his hand and allowed the bailiffs to capture him and press him on the bench.

“Have you considered the consequences of your actions today?” Zhang Wang still didn’t give up.

“Fight!” Yun Zihai directly said one word.

Beside him, the bailiff raised the wooden cane in his hand and struck at Zhang Wang.

These bailiffs were all ranked experts. They also knew that Zhang Wang was also a ranked expert, so they used their strength every time.

The slapping sounds were endless. Zhang Wang gritted his teeth and his head was covered in sweat, but the hatred in his eyes when he looked at Yun Zihai grew.

The 30 strokes were quickly finished.

“Get lost!” Yun Zihai waved his hand.

The bailiffs looked around and threw him out of the government office like he was a dead dog.

When the surrounding pedestrians saw this scene, they all avoided it.

Zhang Wang struggled to get up, looked at the government office with hatred, and limped away.

After dealing with Zhang Wang, Yun Zihai waved his hand and let the bailiffs leave. Only then did he prepare to return to the backyard to rest.

It was as if he had dealt with a trivial matter. It did not bother him at all.

However, after taking two steps, he saw Xu Bai around the corner.

Xu Bai raised his hand and greeted him. Then, he put his hand on his neck and gently scratched it..

Chapter 229: The Longer and Longer Heart Technique (1)

Yun Zihai originally wanted to rest, but after seeing Xu Bai do this, he was stunned.

He stretched out his hand and gestured at his neck. As long as it was a human, he would be able to understand this action.

Murder.

“Brother Xu, are you going to kill him directly?” Yun Zihai asked subconsciously.

“What else?” “ Wait!” Xu Bai flexed his wrist.” Are we going to wait for him to return to the palace with hatred and exaggerate our actions with the Seventh Prince?”“

“But he is still a man of the Seventh prince. If he dies in Yunlai Mansion, it will be very troublesome.” Yun Zihai thought for a moment and still did not quite agree.

This guy called Zhang Wang was sent to Yunlai Mansion by the Seventh Prince, and the Seventh Prince knew the reason behind it.

If he died here, it would definitely arouse suspicion. No matter how clean he was, he wouldn't be able to come up with a good reason.

If the Seventh Prince were to use some tricks in the open or in the dark, it would really be difficult for them to resist.

Of course, Yun Zihai was not afraid. He just felt that there was no need to cause trouble for no reason.

“Who says there isn’t a legitimate reason? Think carefully, who are we dealing with now?” Xu Baiyi pointed out.

Yun Zihai was stunned for a moment before he quickly reacted, “1 sec. Brother Xu means to blame everything on the Dark Tower.”

“I didn’t do that. I didn’t touch him either. On the way back, he died in the hands of the Dark Tower. “Brother Xu shrugged, indicating that it had nothing to do with him.

“I didn’t hear anything or see anything either. It’s getting late today, so I have to go back to the backyard to rest. Then take your time.” Yun Zihai also knew this industry very well. He stretched and yawned. He immediately became sleepy and walked towards the backyard.

Xu Bai watched Yun Zihai’s back as he left. Only after Yun Zihai disappeared did he walk out of the government office with a smile.

This person couldn’t be left alive. He couldn’t walk out of Yunlai Mansion alive.

He had to die here.

The moment he came, he had planned to show Xu Bai his might and make Xu Bai run thousands of miles to see him. Now, he had been beaten thirty times by Yun Zihai.

At this time, he would definitely be furious. Once he returned to the palace, he could make up whatever he wanted. Then, the blame would be placed on Xu Bai and the other person.

Most importantly, there was no point in keeping such a person.

In the suburbs.

At this moment, Zhang Wang was rushing towards the Yin Jia.

As he hurried on, his expression was particularly ferocious, and he would occasionally mutter to himself.

“You two b * tches! He actually doesn’t put me in his eyes at all. I’m the Seventh Prince’s man.”

“You really think you’re somebody. This is your territory now. When I return to the palace, I’ll teach you a lesson.”

“When the time comes, I’ll go back and tell the Seventh Prince that you all don’t like him at all. With the Seventh Prince’s personality, he will definitely make you pay the price you deserve.”

After thinking about it for a while, Zhang Wang felt a little better. Although he still felt a little angry, it was better than the feeling just now.

The scenery around him was rapidly receding. All he wanted to do now was to rush to the Yin Posthouse to replenish his energy, and then immediately return to the Imperial Palace to exaggerate this matter.

The surrounding forest was dense and lush. As they ran, a cool breeze blew over, making them feel relaxed and relaxed, blowing away the trace of anger in Zhang Wang’s heart.

As they ran, Zhang Wang even imagined that the situation of these two people in the future would definitely not end well.

As he ran, he suddenly stopped. He felt that something was wrong.

The sound of footsteps could be heard in the dense forest. It passed his position and came to the front.

In front of them, Xu Bails figure flashed across the wide soil and stopped where he was.

Zhang Wang's reaction was very fast. When he saw the young man in front of him, he pulled out the giant hammer from his waist and stared at him warily without moving at all.

He didn't know why, but when this young man appeared in front of him, he felt a faint sense of oppression. That kind of oppression appeared inexplicably, like a heavy stone pressing down on his heart.

He was a Level Six expert. Although he was not famous in Jianghu, he was at least famous. The giant hammer in his hand was stained with a lot of blood.

In other words, he had come out of actual combat and had killed many people, so he could feel what that pressure was.

This young man was very terrifying. His entire body was filled with a cold killing intent. It was the kind of killing intent that came out inadvertently.

And this carelessness was the most fatal.

He had seen this kind of situation in some people before. Those people were very terrifying, so terrifying that he had to retreat.

"Who are you? Why are you blocking my way?" Zhang Wang thought about it and decided to ask first.

"Me? I heard that you were looking for me. I was resting in the government office just now, and then Lord Yun came over and told me about this matter. I thought I couldn't let the Seventh Prince's people suffer, so I rushed out." Xu Bai was very kind and explained patiently, as if he didn't want to offend him.

Zhang Wang was stunned on the spot.

This was really a deliberate arrangement of flowers that did not bloom, but an unintentional planting of willows.

He had spent so much effort just to see Xu Bai, but he didn't get to see him. He even got beaten up. He didn't expect to meet him on the way back..

Chapter 230: The Longer and Longer Mental Cultivation Technique (2)

Moreover, from Xu Bai's expression, it seemed that he did not want to become enemies with him. Instead, he was very kind and wanted to be on good terms with him.

Sometimes, the more amiable you were, the more the other party would think that you were easy to bully.

Just like now, Wang Zhang was certain that Xu Bai would not offend him, so he became a little arrogant.

"So you're Xu Bai. I've been looking for you for a long time, and I even got beaten up. Do you know what you did today really angered me?" Zhang Wang's tone became especially intense. He pointed at Xu Bai and almost cursed.

"Brother, calm down first." Xu Bai smiled. "Let's talk about business first. After that, you can blame me however you want. Why did the Seventh Prince send you here?!"

At the mention of this, Zhang Wang seemed to have just thought of the serious matter. He did not want to talk nonsense at this time, so he quickly said the serious matter.

"I'm here to make you submit to the Seventh Prince."

It was a simple sentence, and Zhang Wang finished it.

After Zhang Wang finished speaking, the surroundings became quiet. Xu Bai didn't answer, but stared at Zhang Wang with interest.

A slight breeze blew in the forest. Zhang Wang felt uncomfortable being stared at by Xu Bai.

“Why are you looking at me like that?” Zhang Wang couldn’t help but ask.

“Is that all?” Xu Bai said.

This question was very strange, and Zhang Wang was confused.

Other than this matter, could there be something else?

Moreover, this was considered a big deal, right?

But when Xu Bai asked, he could only answer.

“That’s right, it’s this matter.” Zhang Wang raised his head and faced Xu Bai with his chin, looking very arrogant.

“No.” Xu Bai laughed happily at the Grand Sect.

“What did you say?” Zhang Wang was stunned.

He wondered if he had heard wrongly. Xu Bai had rejected him so easily.

Then, he seemed to have thought of something.

Both the Ninth Princess and the Sixth Prince thought highly of Xu Bai and had even fought for him.

Could it be that this person did not know the immensity of heaven and earth because of this?

“Brat, being arrogant isn’t a good thing. You should know that it’s not like before. His Majesty has opened the original restriction to the royal family, and it’s not limited to Level Six experts.” Zhang Wang said disdainfully, “You have to know your identity. Don’t think too highly of yourself.”

In his opinion, the Emperor had opened up new conditions to the royal family, so some of the original rules were not applicable.

Some people were like this. They always felt that they were more popular.

“It’s your fortune to be able to take a fancy to her. Don’t be ignorant.” Zhang Wang continued to say disdainfully, “For a person like you to be able to hug the royal family’s thigh, that is a good opportunity to soar into the sky. Don’t be ungrateful.”

As he said that, he looked disgusted, as if he hated people like Xu Bai who asked for exorbitant prices.

Xu Bai touched his chin. “I thought it was something. So it’s this. Alright, I understand.”

These words were said lightly, as if it was a trivial matter.

“You know?” Zhang Wang was stunned. “Give me a straightforward answer. Are you going to agree or not?”

Xu Bai looked at the dog curiously. “Why should I talk about these things with someone who is about to die?”

Someone who was about to die?

Zhang Wang’s expression became even more sluggish, but he quickly reacted, and a sense of danger rose in his heart.

Did this mean that the other party wanted to kill him?

Just as this thought appeared in his mind, he noticed that Xu Bai was walking in a strange manner, filled with murderous intent.

“If you speak nicely, I will let you go back alive.”

A voice entered Zhang Wang’s ears. Then, he realized that Xu Bai had already arrived.

After all, he was a Level Six expert, so his reaction was quite fast.

Zhang Wang raised the giant hammer in his hand almost instantly and blocked his chest. At the same time, he stared at the long saber at Xu Bai’s waist.

He knew that Xu Bai’s saber technique was very powerful.

Therefore, he was always on guard.

But in the next moment, he knew that he was wrong, and it was an extremely ridiculous mistake.

A dark light of the Vajra Heart Devil Body appeared in Xu Bai’s hand. He pressed it against the giant hammer, and a loud sound was heard.

With Xu Bai’s hand as the center, it spread out along the giant hammer, bringing with it unparalleled destructive power.

“You!” Zhang Wang’s face was filled with shock. He raised his head and stared at Xu Bai in disbelief. “You’re a Rank-5!”

Judging from the thick power on it, it was much stronger than him. He had already figured out the other party’s true strength.

Impossible, absolutely impossible!

According to the previous information, the other party's strength was only at Level Seven at most. How long had it been? How could he become a Level Five expert?

Was he cultivating?

This was f * cking eating and drinking. His realm had increased so quickly, so he still had time to eat and drink!

Zhang Wang felt the rebound force and was instantly sent flying.

His back crashed into the tree, but the tree could not stop him at all. In an instant, it turned into debris that filled the sky.

His speed did not slow down. He crashed into the trees in the dense forest one after another. He was hit for nearly a hundred meters before he stopped.

The dense forest was instantly cleared of a terrifying area. The destructive power of a Rank-5 expert had already shown a very obvious performance.

Zhang Wang spat out a mouthful of blood. Seeing Xu Bai's approaching figure, he retreated in horror.

However, he was now seriously injured and his legs were weak. He could not even stand up..
