

Unparalleled 501

Chapter 501 - An Abnormal Phenomenon in the Nether Village Late at Night (3)

No need. Not only did he not need it, but he could kill him with one strike.

Therefore, Xu Bai thought that this person must have left such a wound on purpose.

“Could it be a special weapon?” Xu Bai rubbed his chin and thought to himself.

If a special weapon was used, it would cause such a wound. Then everything seemed to be very easy to explain.

Of course, this was only his guess.

Xu Bai used the Arithmetic Sutra of Feng Shui again, and a golden compass appeared on his finger.

This time, he planned to use the corpses in front of him as clues and count them again.

However, before he could make any calculations, a huge abnormality appeared in the next moment.

There were originally hundreds of corpses in the deep pit, but as he moved, these corpses quickly turned into ashes.

Not only that, even the corpse of the Gao family head on the ground turned into nothingness at the same time.

“What’s going on?”

This special situation made Xu Bai frown.

“Young Master, look at the bottom of the pit. It seems like something is growing out.” Ye Zi suddenly pointed at the deep pit on the ground and reminded him.

Xu Bai turned his gaze over and found that the soil in the deep pit was actually bulging.

It was like boiling water, densely packed with big bumps.

There was only one reason for this.

There was something under the soil.

“Be careful. Let’s see what kind of trash it is.” Xu Bai narrowed his eyes and said.

Everyone nodded and became alert.

In the next moment, the soil that was originally bulging suddenly shattered, and small bugs flew out from the big bags.

Each bug was at most the size of a thumb, but there were so many bugs flying out of the bags that it was impossible to count them.

The little bug had wings on its back, and its body was black and shiny. Its triangular mouthpart was disgusting, and its body carried a strong corpse smell.

“What the hell is this?” Xu Bai waved his black blade, Hundred Splits. The fragments exploded and crushed the bugs in front of him with endless starlight.

These bugs looked very scary and looked very scary. The sound of their wings flapping was especially ear-piercing, but their strength was not very good.

The shards scattered a portion of the bugs, turning them into ashes. On the other side, No Flower raised his hand slightly and shot out a ray of light, turning the remaining bugs into ashes.

However, No Flower's expression was very serious. Clearly, he had seen something from these bugs.

Xu Bai could tell at a glance that something was wrong with No Flower. He frowned and said, "Did you discover something?"

No Flower nodded his head and said with a serious expression, "If my guess is correct, these bugs should be from the Gu God Sect."

Gu God Sect?

This was the first time Xu Bai had heard of this name, so he could not help but feel curious. He turned around and sized up Ye Zi, only to see a trace of astonishment on Ye Zi's face.

"Have you heard of this name before?" Xu Bai asked.

As his personal expert in knowledge, Ye Zi was very sensible. When Xu Bai asked the first question, she already knew what Xu Bai wanted.

Ye Zi told him everything she knew...

"The Gu God Sect is an extremely evil organization. Their creed is to use humans as Gu worms to nurture the best Gu worms in the world."

"They have a unique characteristic. Wherever they go, not a single blade of grass will grow. As long as it's a human, they will suffer from their vicious hands. Regardless of whether there's hatred or not, they kill aimlessly."

"After killing people, they inject the Gu worms into the corpses and use the corpses to nurture the Gu worms. The goal is to nurture ferocious Gu worms."

“Now it seems that the hundred people in this family have all been used as tools to raise Gu.”

As she spoke, Ye Zi shook her head. Clearly, she felt that she had run into bad luck when she mentioned this so-called Gu God Sect.

Raising Gu?

This was understandable. There was related content circulating on the Internet in his previous life.

However, this was the first time he had heard of using corpses to raise Gu worms.

“Young Master, I’m afraid the only one here to deal with you is the Gu God Sect.” Ye Zi said.

According to legend, the people of the Gu God Sect never associated themselves with others. In their eyes, other than their so-called Gu God Sect, no one else was worthy of being with them.”

“If I were to force myself to be with them, I’m afraid I would have long become a tool for them to raise Gu. After all, there have been examples, and there are quite a number of such examples.”

No Flower added after hearing Ye Zi’s explanation.

“It is precisely because of this characteristic of theirs that up until now, they are basically at the level of being hated by gods and ghosts. No matter if they are righteous or evil, they are unwilling to have any interaction with them.”

Xu Bai touched his chin and said, “If that’s the case, it’s much simpler. At least it won’t involve more forces. Wait a minute. Anyone who is with them, as long as they are not from the Gu God Sect, will become their tool to raise Gu?””

He looked at the empty pit. The corpse was long gone, leaving only some bug fragments.

“If anyone who stays with them will become a tool to raise Gu, was the Gao family planning to harm me before?”

As I said just now, this group of Gu God Sect’s killers were only for the sake of raising Gu. They did not care who the other party was.

But now, it just so happened that the Gao family had fallen for the trick. The others were fine. Could it be that the Gao family was prepared to deal with him together with them?

Thinking about it this way, it seemed to make sense.

“Regardless of whether we deal with Almsgiver Xu or not, we seem to have lost our lead again. “No Flower smiled bitterly..

Chapter 502: An Anomaly Appears in the Nether Village Late at Night (4)

Everyone was already dead, and there was no follow-up result. It was no longer important what identity the Gao family played.

‘ No, there are clues in the country.’ Xu Bai smiled.

In his hand, the golden compass appeared again. This time, he used the bug fragments in the pit as a basis for divination.

Since the Gaos were gone, the only thing left was the bug’s fragments. Perhaps he could figure out something.

The golden compass slowly spun in the air, giving off a mysterious and strange feeling.

Gradually, the needle on it began to move. Xu Bai's eyes lit up. This was useful.

A moment later, the needle gradually stopped vibrating and pointed in a direction, as if telling them that this direction was the source of the clue.

"Let's go and take a look." Xu Bai said.

This Feng Shui Arithmetic Sutra was really a very good skill. If it was like before, without this skill, he could only go home and stop quietly. But now, he had the initiative.

Everyone did not hesitate and left quickly in the direction pointed by the

The needle pointed at a remote street. After they left the abandoned house, they followed the needle and left the Lingyun State.

The road ahead was no longer the official road, but a wilderness. There was no one around. Other than the moonlight, it seemed unusually deserted.

"Why did they bring us out? Could it be that they are hiding here?" Xu Bai thought to himself.

Although he was very confused, Feng Shui would not lie. Xu Bai continued to follow.

After the few of them walked for about the time it takes for an incense stick to burn, something strange finally appeared in front of them.

A small village appeared in front of everyone. Because the sky was too dark, the darkness enveloped the village, making it look abnormally strange.

"Village? Or is it a small village? Why is it here?" Xu Bai was getting more and more confused.

When they arrived at the village, they realized that it was already dark, so there was no one in the village. Even the lights were not lit.

“Do you want to go in and take a look?” No Flower asked.

Xu Bai thought about it carefully and nodded.

He had already come this far. If he didn't go in and take a look, he would feel especially at a loss.

Everyone raised their guard and walked into the small village. The surroundings were quiet. Other than the meowing of cats and dogs, there was only the sound of their footsteps.

Ye Zi suddenly whispered, “Young Master, I don't know if you've noticed, but there's actually no snoring here.” ”

The quieter the environment, the more subtle sounds could be heard.

This was just a run-down village, and the soundproofing of the rooms was not good. Everyone was an expert, but they could not hear the sound of snoring.

Xu Bai's frown deepened. He felt that this place was like a dead land. However, the clean streets told him that someone had cleaned this place before.

He stood there and thought for a while. Finally, he came to a house and knocked on the door gently.

She didn't have any other intentions. She just wanted to see if there was anyone living in this room.

He thought that no one would pay attention to him, but after he knocked on the door, he heard the sound of clothes being put on, followed by an old voice. “Who is it, knocking on the door so late at night?”

The old voice was very far at first, but it slowly approached. However, it did not open the door. It was obvious that it would not open the door rashly without knowing who was outside.

“Old man.” Xu Bai softened his tone. “We are traveling merchants passing by. Due to the rush at night, we lost our way. Can we stay in the village and rest for a while?”

“Squeak...

Following Xu Bai’s voice, the wooden door creaked slightly.

At this moment, Xu Bai saw the situation behind the door clearly.

Behind the door, an old man with an old face was holding a walking stick and wearing thin clothes.

“Trader?” The old man said warily, “Don’t lie to me. Let me tell you, everyone in the village is here. As long as I shout, they will come. Why are you traveling merchants coming here instead of the official post station?”

Xu Bai smiled and took out some money. He looked at the old man and said, “There’s no other way. In order to hurry up, after all, some goods have to be delivered as soon as possible. I didn’t expect that in order to hurry up, we lost our way and the goods accidentally dropped along the way. Sigh, now we only hope to go back early and not earn money.”

After receiving the money, the old man did not let down his guard- He still sized up Xu Bai as if he was checking if Xu Bai was lying.

In terms of acting, Xu Bai was an expert. There were no flaws on the surface.

The old man then looked at Ye Zi and No Flower beside him and asked curiously, “It’s normal for you to have a woman by your side, but why is there a monk?”

Ye Zi was covered with a veil. Although her appearance could not be seen clearly, it did not arouse any suspicion. Only No Flower made the old man feel very puzzled.

A monk? How could a traveling merchant have a monk?

As for the puppet of the Fourth Stage, since it was dressed like a human, it was at least much more ordinary than a monk.

Xu Bai explained, "Sigh..." This is my useless younger brother. He doesn't like to study, but he loves to worship Buddha. He just happened to be going to the temple in our place, so he accompanied me."

No Flower was speechless.

Good heavens, during this exchange, he suddenly dropped a generation.

When the old man heard Xu Bai's words, he looked at the winnings in his hand and then looked around. Finally, he pointed at a thatched pavilion not far away and said, "The houses in the village are all full, so I won't let you in rashly. You can rest in the pavilion. Tomorrow morning, I'll get someone to bring you to the nearest city."

Chapter 503: An Abnormal Appearance in the Nether Village Late at Night (5)

Xu Bai was speechless.

He did not expect the other party to be so vigilant. However, he still nodded when he saw the empty space.

"Squeak..

The door closed, and the surroundings fell silent.

Xu Bai led No Flower and the others into the pavilion and found some wooden tables and stools.

The pavilion was very crude, built with a few pieces of wood and some grass. It should have been built by some villagers themselves. He did not know what use it had.

Xu Bai sat on a wooden stool and looked at the dark night outside. "Benefactor Xu, did you find anything?" Wu Hua asked.

"No, what about you guys?" Xu Bai asked.

That old man was very normal. There was nothing wrong with him, and his behavior was normal.

Ye Zi shook her head.

No Flower also shook his head.

They also did not see anything different. On the contrary, they felt that it was very ordinary.

"The more normal it is, the more abnormal it is." Xu Bai said, "My math skills won't cheat me. Let's wait and see. Let's see if there's anything different tonight. Or maybe tomorrow morning. When those people wake up, we'll see the situation."

Everyone nodded. This was the only way.

Xu Bai raised his right hand again, and the golden compass appeared. After the needle entered the village, it kept moving around, sometimes up and sometimes down, sometimes left and sometimes right.

Xu Bai could understand this situation. This meant that the entire village was his target.

Since he was here, he would see what was going on here.

Xu Bai calmly took out his [Buckguard] skill and continued to check the progress bar.

The night was long, accompanied by the bright moon.

It was almost the end of autumn, and the temperature at night had suddenly dropped. Fortunately, they were unusual people, so the temperature did not affect them at all.

Under the moonlight, as the night deepened, even the barking of cats and dogs gradually stopped.

The few of them did their own things and did not disturb each other.

As the night deepened, the bright moon in the sky gradually disappeared into the clouds.

At this moment, Xu Bai's ears suddenly twitched as he looked in a certain direction.

Just now, his divine soul had sensed that there was someone there.

As Xu Bai looked over, a figure flashed past at the end of the street in the distance.

"Let's go!" Xu Bai put the book into his bag and walked toward that location.

That figure was not fast, so everyone followed him carefully.

Gradually, Xu Bai could see the figure clearly.

It was a person dressed as an ordinary villager. He was not old, probably in his thirties. At this moment, he was wearing tattered cotton clothes and was carefully looking around as if he was afraid of causing any commotion. Xu Bai and the others followed while keeping an eye on their surroundings.

At this moment, a melodious voice suddenly sounded.

The sound was not music. It sounded like the wind blowing through the forest.

In the wilderness, the sound of wind blowing through the forest was normal.

However, as soon as the voice appeared, Xu Bai saw the villager in front of him and his body suddenly froze.

“Hehehehe...”

A strange laughter came from the villager’s mouth.

The villager’s footsteps became stiff as he walked forward step by step.

“That sound is not right. It can affect a person’s soul, but it’s weak.” Xu Bai said.

“I once heard that the Gu God Sect has a type of Gu that can affect others through special syllables.” Ye Zi said.

Xu Bai nodded.” In short, be careful. If anything unusual happens, be more decisive.”

In front of them, the villager was still walking. After walking for about half an incense stick of time, he finally stopped.

The place where the villagers stopped was a huge tree. The tree was luxuriant and swaying gently. Clearly, the sound just now was very likely to have come from this tree.

"I'm coming, beauty, I'm coming. Come out quickly, I can't wait." The villagers sounded anxious, but their movements were very stiff, forming a strong contrast.

At this moment, something strange happened to the huge tree.

A crack suddenly appeared in the center of the tree trunk. Soon, a pale arm covered in livor mortis stretched out from the crack.

This arm was as white as paper, and densely packed livor mortis appeared on it. It looked extremely terrifying.

As the arm appeared, a naked female corpse crawled out.

The female corpse was covered in livor mortis, and some parts of her body had already begun to rot.

Most importantly, the female corpse did not have eyeballs. Instead, there were two empty holes in her eyes, which looked full of despair.

There were two strange Gu worms in the big hole, standing inside, flapping their wings and making rustling sounds.

Clearly, the sound that could affect the divine soul just now was emitted by these two Gu worms.

"Ding! "

At this moment, a crisp bell rang from the giant tree.

The ringing was crisp and pleasant to the ears.

Xu Bai raised his head and looked in the direction of the bell.. He saw a woman standing on a dense branch...

Chapter 504: Xu Bai Is Admirer

The forest itself was dark. In addition to the strange scene and the woman standing on the branch, it gave off a very terrifying feeling.

Xu Bai didn't say anything. He looked over.

The woman stood on the tree. Under the moonlight, Xu Bai could see clearly that she was an extremely beautiful woman. However, her clothes were different from ordinary people. Although the color of her clothes was not very bright, it revealed a strange charm.

Her long black hair was adorned with all kinds of silver jewelry. It gave Xu Bai the feeling that she was from a minority race in his previous life.

Under the giant tree, the female corpse covered in livor mortis moved at this moment. She slowly raised her pale arms and placed them on the shoulders of the villagers.

In the empty eyes, the two Gu worms flapped their wings, and their voices sounded in this dark land. The villagers muttered to themselves as if they had gone crazy.

"Hehehe, I'm here. Take off your clothes. I'll take off my clothes too."

"You're so beautiful."

"Let's start. Otherwise, my wife will come looking for me."

The villagers began to take off their clothes very quickly, as if they were in a hurry.

However, before he could finish, the woman on the tree suddenly raised her hand and shot out a ray of light. This ray of light was pitch-black in color and was abnormally obvious under the moonlight.

Xu Bai hid in the distance and saw it clearly. This black light was not its own, but through the reflection of the moonlight, it gave off a feeling of black light. In fact, it was a Gu worm with wings.

“Gu worms again?” Xu Bai rubbed his chin.

For some reason, this Gu worm gave him a different feeling. The ones he had seen before were all ferocious and terrifying, making his hair stand on end, but this one was not like that. Instead, it made him feel especially comfortable.

The Gu worm only shook in front of the villagers once, and the villagers screamed, their eyes rolled back, and they fainted on the ground.

The next moment, the two Gu worms that were originally hidden in the female corpse’s eyes let out a shrill scream and chased after the Gu worms that the woman had just shot out.

In less than a second, three Gu worms fought together, fighting fiercely in midair.

It was obvious that the two Gu worms were not a match for the other. In just a moment, they were torn into pieces by the Gu worm and swallowed into its stomach.

The woman hiding in the giant tree jumped down from the sky and landed steadily on the ground.

The Gu worm flying in the air flew towards the woman and stopped in her hand. The woman flipped her right hand and the Gu worm disappeared.

“Attack!” Seeing this, Xu Bai didn’t say anything else and rushed toward the woman.

Of course, before he rushed out, he added,

“I want him alive.”

The black blade, Hundred Rend, suddenly exploded into countless fragments that surrounded the woman. As long as Xu Bai gave the order, these fragments would turn into starlight that filled the sky and pierce the woman into a hornet’s nest.

Wu Hua and Ye Zi followed closely behind and surrounded the woman.

This scene happened too quickly, and the woman clearly didn’t react in time. Her beautiful face was filled with surprise, but it quickly darkened.

“I thought the Gu God Sect would not join forces with outsiders. It seems that my cousin did not follow the Gu God Sect’s wishes.”

The voice was crisp, but there was an indescribable coldness to it.

“Gu God Sect?” Xu Bai rubbed his chin. He seemed to have heard something.

Just now, this woman said something about cousin and that the Gu God Sect would not join forces with outsiders. Could it be that this woman was not his enemy and had other motives?

It was very possible, and the possibility was very high.

Thinking of this, Xu Bai prepared to speak.

He had to confirm the other party’s identity first. If he was not an enemy, then he was a friend. After all, the enemy of an enemy was a friend.

However, before he could say anything, the woman attacked him impulsively.

The woman raised her hand, and a ray of light appeared in her hand. The silver jewelry on her head made a tinkling sound, and then, dense Gu worms flew out of her sleeve.

“You’re in cahoots with the Gu God Sect, die!”

Gu worms covered the sky and covered the earth, sweeping towards Xu Bai and the others with a terrifying aura.

The sound of flapping wings came one after another. It sounded unusually chaotic in his ears and made him feel irritated.

At the next moment, the Gu worm in the air stopped moving, it was in a deadlock in the air, it did not move forward or backward.

On the other hand, the silver ornament on the woman’s head had also stopped shaking because her entire body was wrapped in fragments, especially her neck. Dozens of fragments of the black knife were wrapped around her neck. If she moved even a little, she would die.

“You’re too impulsive. Why didn’t you finish your sentence?” Xu Bai said with a smile.

This woman’s Gu worm was much more powerful, but this woman herself was very fragile and could not defend against his fragments.

How should he put it? It was just like the game he had played in his previous life. There was a Summoner class in the game. It was similar to this. Its strength was weak, but the things it summoned were very strong.

This type of person was more suitable for scheming and not for direct combat.

“Shameless brat, I’m going to fight you!”

This woman clearly knew that she was being held hostage, but she was not afraid at all. She was prepared to continue controlling the Gu worm, as if she wanted to compete with Xu Bai to see if the saber or the Gu worm was faster.

Things seemed to have gotten out of control. At this moment, No Flower spoke and took out the token in his hand..

Chapter 505: Xu Bai l s Admirer (2)

“Wait a minute! I’m the Heaven Overseeing Division’s Si Zheng Wuhua, we’re not from the Gu God Sect!”

This situation was already very obvious. No Flower naturally understood that this woman must have another origin. It was better not to fight at this time.

He was one of the people who understood Xu Bai the most, and he also knew Xu Bails character. Even if this woman was not from the Gu God Sect, if she wanted to fight Xu Bai to the death, Xu Bai would not mind fighting. At most, he would let this woman live.

Therefore, at the critical moment, the victor still took out his own token to ease the awkward atmosphere in front of him.

The surrounding Gu worms suddenly stopped. When the woman saw the token in No Flower’s hand, her willow-like eyebrows furrowed.

“You guys are from the Heaven Inspectorate, aren’t you from my cousin’s side?”

No Flower nodded.” Put these things away first. We won’t harm your life. After all, our goal is likely to be the same.””

The woman thought about it carefully, and in the end, she waved her hand and put all the Gu worms back into her sleeve.

However, Xu Bai's fragment was not taken back. He still maintained his original posture.

'What do you mean?' the woman asked.

She had already stopped, so why was Xu Bai still holding on?

Xu Bai smiled. "We've proven our identities. You should also prove yours. It's impolite not to reciprocate. If we can't prove it, it's better for us to maintain this state of communication."

His guesses about the woman's identity were just guesses. Without solid proof, these guesses would never be confirmed. Therefore, Xu Bai did not stop.

The woman was stunned on the spot. In the end, she gritted her teeth and was about to reach into her arms.

The next moment, a wooden box was taken out by the woman. Immediately after, the wooden box was opened, revealing a golden Gu worm.

The Gu worm was golden all over. Even if it was just a worm, it did not make people feel any fear towards the worm. Instead, they felt that it was very beautiful, with an indescribable glory and beauty.

"Golden Thread Gu, are you a direct descendant of the Miao Sect?" Wu Hua said.

The woman nodded, obviously admitting it.

Xu Bai nudged Ye Zi beside him and asked, "What is the Golden Thread Gu?"

Ye Zi quickly replied, "The Golden Thread Gu is the inheritance of the Miao Sect. Only the direct descendants can possess it. It can be used for both offense and defense. The Miao Sect is a huge inheritance. It is not inferior to the Titanium Temple of Wu Hua..."

She began to explain to Xu Bai. Although her voice was very soft, everyone present could hear her clearly.

After Ye Zi finished explaining, Xu Bai finally understood.

The Miao Sect was a profession that was good at using Gu. It was also a great inheritance. There were many experts in it, and they were best at controlling Gu worms.

But the method they used was normal, letting the Gu worms fight each other.

It was not the extremely cruel method of the Ancient Gods Clan, where Gu worms were raised in corpses.

And the most representative inheritance of the direct descendants of the Miao Sect was the Golden Thread Gu.

Golden thread Gu could be used for offense, it could break rocks and activate metal, it could be used for defense, it was impregnable.

Most importantly, it could prove her identity.

If the direct descendants of the Miao Sect betrayed the Miao Sect, they would lose the trust of the Golden Thread Gu and would not be able to use it again. The Golden Thread Gu would turn into ashes.

Xu Bai glanced at the woman. The meaning in his eyes was obvious. He wanted to use it immediately and let him see if it had this effect.

The woman gritted her teeth. She had no choice but to do as Xu Bai said.

A ray of light shot out and landed on the Golden Thread Gu. The Golden Thread Gu seemed to have woken up from its sleep and flapped its wings to fly out.

Two golden lights suddenly appeared. One of them landed on the woman's body and wrapped her up, while the other gathered on the Golden Thread Gu, giving off a sharp feeling.

"Now, is that enough?" The woman gritted her teeth.

He was too angry. This feeling of being threatened was not good at all. He kept feeling like a monkey being watched by others.

Xu Bai still didn't let go of those fragments. He asked, "You can attack or defend. Why didn't you use it in the beginning?"

The woman rolled her eyes and almost fainted from anger. "You're so fast. How can I react?"

Xu Bai was speechless.

What was going on? His shards were indeed a little fast.

However, there was something wrong with this woman's words.

He was not a happy person.

"Almsgiver Xu, let her go for the time being. There's no problem at the moment. No Flower cleverly tried to smooth things over and couldn't help but rub his bald head.

Look, if it were any other fellow disciple from the Buddhist Temple, who would be able to persuade Xu Bai? It would be me.

Xu Bai thought about it and waved the hilt in his hand. The fragments that filled the sky gathered into the blade again and were inserted back into his waist.

The woman heaved a sigh of relief. She touched her fair forehead and realized that it was covered in cold sweat.

The feeling just now was very terrifying. She knew that if she really took action, it might lead to terrifying consequences.

Now that he thought about it, he still felt a lingering fear.

However, she soon regained her composure.

“My name is Miao Xiao. I’m from the Miao Sect.” Miao Xiao introduced himself, “Are you all from the Heaven Inspectorate?””

“Compared to this, I want to know more about your cousin.” Xu Bai asked instead of answering.

From the woman’s conversation just now, he could hear that this woman’s cousin should be from the Gu God Sect.

Miao Xiao felt that this man was very strange. He didn’t speak reasonably at all. However, she looked at Si Zheng from the Sky Supervision Bureau in front of her. He seemed to have listened to this man and let it go. At the same time, he also told her his purpose..

Chapter 506: Xu Bai’s Admirer (3)

“It’s like this...

In the middle of the night, Miao Xiao’s voice rang out in the quiet forest. Accompanied by the chirping of birds, Xu Bai also figured out the ins and outs of the matter.

Miao Xiao’s cousin was called Miao Zheng, and he was an outstanding talent of the Miao Sect.

Although the Miao Sect raised venomous insects, they were recognized by the Great Chu State. After all, they did not harm anyone, and what they did was normal.

But the Gu worms they raised were not very efficient, because they had always used a particularly orthodox method of raising Gu.

The Gu God Sect was originally founded by people who betrayed the Miao Sect.

They used corpses to raise Gu worms and did heartless things, but their efficiency was indeed much higher than theirs.

Over time, many people with evil intentions entered the Gu God Sect.

The Gu God Sect grew stronger and stronger, and gradually emerged from hiding in the past.

Fortunately, Great Chu was decisive and caused them to suffer heavy losses, which was why they hid in the dark again.

However, there were some things that could not be removed by cutting the grass.

When there was a shortcut to something, many people were willing to take the shortcut. Even if the shortcut was not correct, it could not stop some people from leaving or staying.

Previously, although the Great Chu State had used all sorts of methods, they had still retained their roots. Therefore, they had been secretly absorbing these people with improper thoughts.

It was only recently that Miao Xiao's younger brother, Miao Zheng, betrayed the Miao Sect and joined the Gu God Sect. Things became serious.

In fact, many people had secretly left in the past, but this time, the matter was more serious than before. This was because the Gu God Sect had used some unknown method to let Miao Zheng take away a Golden Thread Gu.

As mentioned before, the Golden Thread Gu only recognized the direct descendants of the Miao Sect. Once the people of the Miao Sect had other thoughts or betrayed the Miao Sect, the Golden Thread Gu would not be able to control it and would even turn into ashes.

As for why this happened, it was a secret of the Miao Sect. Miao Xiao did not say anything.

Miao Zheng had used some unknown method to take away a Golden Thread Gu. If he used any tricks, the Miao Sect might be jointly responsible.

Therefore, the Miao Sect immediately sent people to kill Miao Zheng. They also sent many people, including many experts.

Unfortunately, they did not find any trace of Miao Zheng. On the contrary, they were obstructed by the people of the Gu God Sect, causing these experts to suffer heavy losses.

In the end, Miao Xiao was the only one left, and he had lost track of Miao Zheng.

Xu Bai touched his chin and said, "What is the highest realm of the experts you sent?"

"Half-Extraordinary." Miao smiled.

"Just this?" Xu Bai frowned. "The Golden Thread Gu is so important. You only sent people of this level to chase after it. Are you kidding me?"

According to the importance of the matter, Xu Bai estimated that he would have to send someone who was Extraordinary or extraordinary. He did not expect it to be someone who was half-step to Extraordinary.

Miao Xiao was stunned." Half-Extraordinary is already considered an expert for an inheritance."
Moreover... The Miao Sect was different.

" Although we are as famous as the Titanium Temple, that was only in the past.

Things are different now."

Xu Bai looked at No Flower, meaning that he had just mentioned the Titanium Temple.

No Flower rubbed his bald head. This was a habit he had recently developed.

He suddenly felt that his bald head was very comfortable to touch, and as time passed, he couldn't put it down.

Seeing Xu Bai's questioning gaze, he explained.

"The Miao Sect was assassinated by the Gu God Sect a long time ago. Many of their experts have already turned into ashes."

"Of course, because of that matter, both sides fought to the point where both sides suffered heavy losses."

"It was as famous as the Titanium Temple before this incident. However, even under such circumstances, the Miao Sect did not take a step back. The martial world still recognizes the Miao Sect's reputation."

Oh," Xu Bai replied and finally understood.

He walked back and forth, analyzing what Miao Xiao had just said.

A moment later, he stopped and said.

“How strong are you?”

“Third grade.” Miao Xiao said, “Although the experts who chased after us have already fallen apart, the Gu God Sect did not have an easy time either. They have also paid the price.””

“Have you ever thought about why I let you in?”” What you meant was that even a Half-Extraordinary expert died together with you,” Xu Bai suddenly said.”

You’re only a Rank-3, but you can go so far. Don’t you think there’s something wrong?””

Miao Xiao was stunned. It was obvious that she hadn’t considered this question. Now that she heard Xu Bai’s reminder, she finally thought of it.

“Could it be... What value do I have?”

If that was the case, he could only think so.

She had the value to walk in, and the other party had deliberately let her in.

Xu Bai nodded.” I think they’re here to kill me and suddenly let you in. You might become their helper. I’m not saying you’re bad. I just think they might use you. ””

This was Xu Bai’s idea. He had analyzed it carefully and combined it with his current situation to come to this conclusion.

Why did Miao Zheng run to Lingyun Continent and not somewhere else?

Don’t forget that Xu Bai was currently in Lingyun State, which was a route he had to take to the capital. Combined with the idea that those people in the dark would definitely deal with him, he specially let this woman in..

Chapter 507: Xu Bai 's Admirer (4)

Kill them?

Helper?

Miao Xiao, however, became more confused as he listened. He couldn't help but scratch his head, causing the silver ornaments on his head to make tinkling sounds.

How was this related to killing? She was only here to chase after the traitor.

"This..." Miao Xiao didn't know how to address Xu Bai, so he skipped the address and asked directly, "Who are you? Why is it related to killing you?" Xu Bai was about to speak, but unexpectedly, No Flower spoke first.

No Flower put his palms together and said loudly, "This is the Bloody Butcher, who is famous in Jianghu. His saber technique is very sharp. He is also a legendary multi-cultivation genius. Bloody Butcher, do you know..." Ah!"

"Boom!"

A crisp and dull sound echoed in the forest.

Xu Bai withdrew his right hand and touched the knuckles on his index finger.

It felt good.

No Flower covered his head and looked at Xu Bai in disbelief.

Just now, Xu Bai had knocked on his head.

It hurt!

“Benefactor Xu, I can’t bear to knock my head.”

“If you mention the name Bloody Slaughterer again, I’ll knock you again.” Xu Bai raised his hand.

Ye Zi covered her face.

This was simply a matter of calling someone who couldn’t be called a monk. Young Master hated this title the most in his life, yet this monk still dared to mention it. It was only because this monk had an extraordinary relationship with Young Master that he would have been beaten up by Young Master if someone else was here.

Previously in Fenghua State, the young master of the Jiang family had also addressed him as Young Master, and the head of the Jiang family had personally come to apologize.

From this, it could be seen that Young Master really hated this title.

Ye Zi thought, “I don’t know who took it first.””

It didn’t matter who called it, but who took it was the most important.

One night, Ye Zi asked Xu Bai what would happen if he knew who had taken it.

Xu Bai’s answer was simple-skin him alive.

Of course, No Flower didn't know the reason, but he knew that Xu Bai didn't seem to like this title, so he didn't mention it anymore.

"But... It sounded pretty nice when he knocked on it."

No Flower subconsciously knocked on it himself, looking very strange.

Miao Xiao didn't care about this. When she heard the words 'Bloody Slaughterer Swordman', she froze on the spot. Her big eyes were clear of black and white, filled with shock and disbelief.

Miao Xiao's scream rang out in the quiet forest.

In front of Xu Bai, Miao Xiao began to tidy up his clothes in a panic. At the same time, he adjusted the silver accessories on his head as if he was afraid that they would be messed up.

The whole process was very chaotic. Her fair and beautiful face had already turned red, as red as a burning cloud.

Xu Bai was speechless.

Was it because he had been living too peacefully recently that he opened it in the wrong way?

Just now, No Flower had knocked himself on the head, and now this woman was acting strangely again.

What the hell was this!

"You... Hello! Lord Lord Xu!" Miao Xiao cupped his hands with a flushed face and stammered, "I, I, I..."

He didn't finish the rest of his sentence because he couldn't find the answer.

Xu Bai pointed at his head." If you have a problem here, I suggest that you get it treated. I know someone called Yun Zihai. He has a congenital deficiency, which is the kind of kidney deficiency, so he has some achievements in medicine. Do you want me to introduce him to you?"

"No, no, no, there's no need." Miao Xiao continued to wave his hands. He could not hide his excitement at all.

At this moment, Ye Zi's expression became strange as she asked tentatively, ""Don't tell me you... Admire my young master, right?"

"Ah?" Miao Xiao was stunned. In the end, he lowered his head and stuttered without saying anything.

Xu Bai was shocked." Calm down first. Let's get down to business, okay?"

From what Ye Zi had said just now and the woman's behavior, he could already tell that it was pretty close. Perhaps Ye Zi was right.

I still have fans?

This didn't make sense.

Xu Bai thought that with his personality, most people would keep a respectful distance from him. He didn't expect someone to be his fan.

"Alright!" Miao Xiao took a few deep breaths before calming down. He did not hide the excitement in his eyes at all. "I finally see a living person!"

Xu Bai was speechless.

"I'm sorry, I was a little excited just now. "Miao Xiao stared at Xu Bai and said," Lord Xu, you may not know this, but among the young people of our Miao Sect, many people admire you. You rose from the bottom, but you are able to stand above everyone else. We admire you."

Xu Bai rubbed his forehead.” Let’s get down to business. By the way, don’t you think this village is strange?””

It was a good thing to have people admiring him. Although he felt that he did not have any special characteristics that could make others admire him, in this day and age, things like admiring him were also very ridiculous.

For example, in his previous life, when some people casually danced, no matter how ugly it was, there would always be one or two people who liked it.

Xu Bai recounted what he had encountered in the village.

He felt that since it was all taught by Miao Xiao, Miao Xiao would definitely have a way to find clues.

Miao Xiao finally calmed down, but her eyes never left Xu Bai.

It wasn’t a feeling, but a pure reverence. It was as if he had seen his idol and didn’t want to look away.

“I suspect that he was poisoned.”Miao Xiao explained,” Just now, this villager was tempted by the Gu worm. However, before he was tempted by the Gu worm, there must be a condition. He must carry the Gu worm with him. After all, although our Gu worm has some achievements in the soul, it is not high.

We can’t control it for no reason..”

Chapter 508: Xu Bai’s Admirer (5)

As he spoke, Miao Xiao came to the unconscious villager and raised his hand to shoot out a Gu worm. After the Gu worm appeared, it flew around the villager and made a strange vibration sound.

A moment later, the unconscious villager suddenly opened his mouth, and an ugly Gu worm flew out of his mouth. It fought with the Gu worm in the air, but it was quickly torn apart and eaten by the Gu worm.

“That’s right, it’s like this. I guessed correctly, they were all poisoned by Gu worms.” After Miao Xiao saw this scene, he was even more certain of his guess.

Xu Bai rubbed his chin.” Then, what’s the purpose of doing this? To harm people or to raise voodoo?””

“I don’t know.” Miao Xiao was very direct.” I’m not sure either, but it’s still raising Gu. After all, this is what the Gu God Sect does.””

“Let’s go back to the village first.” Xu Bai thought for a while and said.”

He raised his right hand, and the golden compass appeared once again. It was still pointing at the village, proving that there was still a problem with the village.

If there was a problem, he would solve it. If he knew where the problem was, he would just stay there.

Miao Xiao looked left and right, then nodded his head and followed Xu Bai. Now, he had no helper, and his companions were nowhere to be found. He could only follow Xu Bai. Besides, it was the greatest honor to be by his idol’s side.

The puppet of the Fourth Stage carried the villagers, and the group didn’t stop. They returned to the village and placed the villagers in a random corner. Then, Xu Bai and the others walked back to the pavilion.

Xu Bai took out the heavy sword technique and checked the progress bar.

There was definitely something wrong with this village.

He thought for a moment,”Can you take out these villagers Gu worms?!”“

Miao Xiao was sitting next to Xu Bai. He raised his head and stared at Xu Bai's face. After hearing Xu Bai's words, he nodded and said, "I can take them out."

These Gu worms don't seem to cause any direct harm to the villagers' bodies.

They are only used as a primer, just like the villager from before."

"Can you find any clues after taking it out?" Xu Bai asked again.

Miao Xiao shook his head and said, "I can't find it. This is just a primer. Any person who is proficient in raising Gu can make it. It's very difficult to find it."

Xu Bai fell into deep thought.

Ye Zi held Xu Bai's arm and said, "Since these villagers will not be directly harmed, why don't we keep them first and see what the other party wants to do with these Gu worms? Let's set a long line to catch a big fish. ""

Xu Bai agreed.

Waiting for the rabbit and luring the snake out of its hole might be able to find useful clues.

According to the Feng Shui Arithmetic, there was definitely a problem here. Therefore, if he stayed here, he would be able to find clues.

"Tomorrow morning, when these people come out, we'll see what's going on." Xu Bai said.

After saying that, he picked up the heavy sword technique and continued to look at it.

Everyone nodded and waited patiently according to Xu Bai's instructions.

Time gradually passed. Night passed, and the sky was covered in a layer of white.

The next day.

The villagers in the village woke up early. At this time, there were already people walking on the road.

Xu Bai realized that there was something wrong with these villagers. Their faces were pale, and they were all mysterious, as if they were hiding some secret that they didn't want others to know.

The paleness might have something to do with the Gu worms in his body, but the look of secrecy proved that there was something going on.

Xu Bai put the book back into his bag. Just as he was thinking about how to open the situation, he heard footsteps.

The old man he met last night walked up to him with a walking stick. There were two male villagers beside him.

"Gentlemen, I'll get someone to send you to the city today." The old man's face was also pale. His turbid eyes were evasive, and he didn't look at Xu Bai and the others.

Xu Bai touched his chin and said, "We won't be leaving today. Last night, a caravan sent a messenger pigeon saying that they were coming here on the way. We'll go with them. ""

When the old man heard Xu Bai's words, he was obviously stunned. It took him a long time to react. "This... That's not very good."

Xu Bai smiled. "There's nothing bad about it. We won't disturb the villagers. We'll just sit in this pavilion. ""

The old man opened his mouth, wanting to say something, but in the end, he stopped and turned around to leave.

The two villagers beside the old man looked at each other and left without saying a word.

The entire process was very short, and the conversation between the two was very straightforward. One wanted to send the other off, and the old man left very quickly.

“There’s something going on here.” No Flower rubbed his bald head and said.

Xu Bai looked at the old man’s back as he left. The corners of his mouth curled up slightly. “It seems like he doesn’t want us to know anything since he’s in such a hurry to let us go. After I rejected him just now, he didn’t try to persuade me again, which proves that he has already thought of a solution.”

There was something wrong with these villagers. It could be seen from their expressions.

He felt that this was the key to solving the problem.

“Almsgiver Xu, according to your thoughts, you will soon have a clue.” No Flower put down his hand and said.

Xu Bai stood up and came to the railing of the pavilion, leaning his hand on it.

“Perhaps tonight..”

Chapter 509: The Flying Gu

Xu Bai guessed that the other party wanted them to leave because they were worried about what would happen. But since they didn’t want them to leave now, they must have a countermeasure. Maybe tonight, maybe in the future, but it would happen sooner or later.

“This is getting more and more interesting.” Xu Bai looked at the villagers coming and going. Seeing their pale faces and fearful expressions, he returned to his seat and sat down. He took out the heavy sword technique and continued to work hard.

Ye Zi stood by Xu Bai's side and waited with him in peace.

No Flower continued to coil his bald head, as if the more he coiled, the more addicted he became.

Miao Xiao was staring at Xu Bai, his eyes shining.

Time gradually passed, and in the blink of an eye, the day had passed. During this day, Xu Bai saw many scenes in the pavilion, including the fear on the villagers' faces, as well as the disgust on their faces when they passed by Xu Bai's place.

The sky gradually darkened. A faint sunset glow lit up in the sky. From the distant horizon, it gradually dyed the entire sky red.

The village was lit up with smoke, and the fragrance of food echoed in the village, making people salivate.

Gradually, the sky turned completely dark. The sunset was gone, and the night sky gradually pulled apart. It was as if a brush was dipped in ink. A drop of ink dripped onto the Xuan paper and spread out layer by layer.

The village lit up with a weak candle flame. The sound of cats and dogs gradually echoed in the quiet village. Everything seemed normal and nothing strange happened.

Xu Bai had been looking at the progress bar in his hand for the entire day. It was only now that he put away the book and looked at the darkness not far away.

“You're finally willing to come.”

Everyone followed Xu Bai's line of sight and heard a series of complicated footsteps.

The sound of footsteps in the dark night, and there were many of them, was obviously enough to make one's hair stand on end.

"Squeak-"

The footsteps were accompanied by the sound of the door opening. The wooden door creaked, and it was especially terrifying in the dark night.

One by one, the villagers walked out of their rooms and gathered with the villagers in the distance. They came to Xu Bai's pavilion and surrounded it.

The leader was the old man they saw during the day. The old man held a walking stick. Clearly, he had a high status in the village. No one objected to him walking in front.

"Old man, what is the meaning of this?" Xu Bai said with a smile.

The villagers were still pale, but Xu Bai could see a hint of ferocity in their cowering eyes. They were like rabbits that had been forced to the end and wanted to jump over the wall to bite.

Murder?

Or kill someone.

"Men! Arrest them!" The old man changed from his usual kindness to savagery. He waved his hand and his tone carried a trace of ruthlessness.

The villagers looked at each other, but no one stepped forward.

They seemed to be afraid, but Xu Bai knew that they were not afraid of him.

There was no communication. The other party didn't know who he was, so of course he wasn't afraid. After all, there were not many people on his side.

The other party was afraid of this pavilion.

Xu Bai came to the edge of the pavilion and held the railing with his hand. He said with interest, ""Are you afraid of this pavilion?"

The villagers all took a step back. Although they did not say anything, this action had already revealed their thoughts.

"What are you afraid of?!" The old man shouted again. This pavilion was built by that demoness. She was taken down by us, and you're afraid of this pavilion!

Let me tell you, if this matter gets out, no one will have a good time. Hurry up and take them down now and stop this secret forever!"

As soon as these words were said, the originally cowering villagers seemed to have been injected with a shot of adrenaline. The fear in their eyes disappeared and was replaced by madness.

They were no longer afraid. With ferocious expressions on their faces, they surrounded Xu Bai and the others.

"Leave him alive." Xu Bai yawned and didn't even want to fight.

No Flower clenched his fists and prepared to take Xu Bai's place. However, he did not expect someone to be faster than him.

"Lord Xu, how can I trouble you to do this" Xiao looked at Xu Bai with admiration and gently waved his fair arm.

In the next moment, endless Gu worms flew out of her sleeves and flew in the sky, blending with the night sky, appearing abnormally terrifying.

“Weng...”

The Gu worms flapped their wings, and the sound was amplified. Xu Bai and the others were not ordinary people, so they did not feel anything. However, when the villagers heard this sound, their faces turned pale, and their eyes rolled back. They all fell to the ground.

The old man clearly knew his situation. He looked at the villagers lying on the ground and could no longer control his strength. His cane fell to the ground and he sat down.

“You guys! You guys!”

He didn’t know what to say anymore. It was obvious that this scene was beyond his common sense.

“Bring him here.” Xu Bai said indifferently.

The puppet of the Fourth Stage had a long saber strapped to its waist. After Xu Bai gave the order, it strode toward the old man, grabbed the old man’s sleeve, and dragged him into the pavilion.

“No, I don’t want to go to that witch’s pavilion!” The old man struggled frantically, wanting to escape, but it was useless.

“Bang!”

The puppet of the Fourth Stage directly threw the old man to the ground, and at the same time, stomped its foot on the old man’s chest, rendering him completely helpless.

The old man stared at Miao Xiao and said in fear, “You too, you’re also the witch who knows how to use bugs..”

Chapter 510: The Flying Gu

Miao Xiao was dumbfounded. He had no idea what was going on.

Right at this moment, the puppet of the Fourth Stage raised its right hand and slapped the old man's face. After slapping him a dozen times, it finally succeeded in calming the old man.

Sometimes, it was better to use physical methods to calm the other party down.

"Now, I'll ask you a question and you'll answer it." "The demoness you mentioned just now, what's your situation?" Xu Bai asked faintly."

At this moment, the old man's face was swollen like a pig's head. After hearing Xu Bai's question, he shivered and said in disbelief, "Aren't you the accomplices of those demonesses?"

"Pa! "

The puppet of the Fourth Stage slapped him again.

The old man finally understood. He could only answer that he was not qualified to ask questions. Looking at the light emitted by the long saber hanging on Xu Bai's waist, he was extremely afraid. He slowly told him what had happened...

"A long time ago...There was once a woman who came to the village. She was very beautiful, but she was injured."

"At that time, the village received her very warmly and let her recuperate here temporarily. "

“This woman is especially good. She often helps the villagers with their work, including this pavilion. She built it for some tired villagers to rest here.”

“But I didn’t expect that a group of bandits would come to the village one day...”

The old man’s voice rang out in the dark night.

Listening to the old man’s story, Xu Bai gradually understood what happened next.

After the bandits arrived, the woman immediately attacked and helped the villagers kill all the bandits.

However, because the injuries on his body had not improved to begin with, this time, he was even more injured and directly fell into a coma.

This was a good thing. His actions should have earned the villagers ‘gratitude. However, the problem was that the woman’s methods were not quite right.

The woman was actually controlling the corpses to fight against the bandits.

It was normal for a remote village like this to not have seen many businesses.

For a village, this was an extremely terrifying thing. A moving corpse was extremely terrifying.

Seeing that the woman had fallen into a coma, the villagers did not know what was going on. The old man suggested that the woman be tied up and prepared to report to the government the next morning.

It seemed that there was nothing wrong. Whether it was good or bad to send it to the government, everything was clear.

However, he never expected that something big would happen that night.

When the villagers who were guarding saw that the woman had fallen into a coma, their bestial nature erupted and they did something inhuman that night.

Early the next morning, some villagers were preparing to go to Lingyun State to report to the authorities. However, they did not expect such a big thing to happen.

What if this woman was good, and they all broke the law, especially the old man? One of the two villagers was his son.

Just like that, the old man hardened his heart and decided to kill this woman.

After this woman woke up and learned of her condition, she went crazy after being injured.

The old man was just about to kill the woman when a villager raised an objection.

They thought that this woman could manipulate corpses. If she died and turned into a ghost to look for them, they would not be able to escape.

They couldn't let her go or kill her, so they imprisoned this crazy woman in the ancestral hall.

Sometimes, when a person's beastly nature was aroused, it was uncontrollable.

That woman met all kinds of men every night.

The women in the village called her a demoness, and the man cursed as he entered the ancestral hall.

As time passed, there were more and more...

Until now.

Xu Bai's face darkened when he heard that. No one knew what he was thinking.

Wu Hua raised his foot and stomped on the old man's face, crushing the bridge of his nose. He said angrily, "Even the most vicious evil spirits of hell in this world are not half as vicious as you."

Ye Zi and Miao Xiao had the same expression. They were both extremely angry.

Help them to destroy the bandits, but in turn suffer from their harm, and even be humiliated.

This group of people was even more poisonous than the cold vipers.

The old man screamed and begged for mercy. "Let me go. I had no choice. That woman is too evil. She can control corpses..."

"Young Master, it should be a branch of the necromancer lineage." "This woman can help them eliminate the bandits, so she might be from the orthodox branch." "

Orthodoxy was recognized by Great Chu.

"That woman is still in the ancestral hall?" Xu Bai took a deep breath and asked. "

The old man nodded and quickly said, "The night before yesterday, the night before yesterday, the night before yesterday."

At this point, he did not dare to say anything else.

Take the channel to the top Xu Bai said.

The old man struggled to get up from the ground. He didn't dare to say anything. He quickly brought Xu Bai to the ancestral hall.

Xu Bai himself followed behind, but the puppet of the Fourth Stage was left behind by Xu Bai to guard the villagers.

Not long after, the old man brought them outside the ancestral hall. He pushed the door open and brought them to a hidden room. The door opened again.

The room was very dark. The old man lit the oil lamp in the room. Xu Bai saw the situation inside and his eyes widened.

In the room, a woman with wounds all over her body was lying on the ground, staring at the ceiling with lifeless eyes.

There were scratch marks, bite marks, and kicking marks on her body. Her face was dirty, but one could tell that she was a beautiful woman.

The woman's neck was tied to the windowsill with a thick chain. Her limbs were also bound by the chain.

Beside him was a dirty iron basin with leftovers..
