

Unparalleled 61

Chapter 61: I'm Not Willing

"The cause of the matter is like this..."

In the quiet alley, only No Flower's voice echoed. Xu Bai and Liu Xu were listening from the side.

About half an incense's time passed.

After No Flower finished speaking, Xu Bai fell into deep thought. According to what Wu Hua said just now, this time, the purpose of the game was to teach the game.

The Extreme Life Cult had been stirring up trouble recently. This small organization had not been eliminated so far because it was especially cautious, had special methods to avoid danger, and was smart enough to pick a remote place to stir up trouble.

However, having a way to avoid disaster and not finding it were two different things.

Who was the Emperor of the Great Chu State?

To be able to establish Great Chu in a chaotic world, one could imagine how bold he was.

In the Emperor's mind, if you were to secretly cause trouble and not form an organization, he would slowly deal with you. However, once you became an organization, the nature of the matter would change.

There are many families and sects in Great Chu, and they are all in my hands.

How can I allow your Extreme Life Sect to form an organization? If you want to cause trouble, fine, but you have to be able to withstand my blow.

Is there a way to seek good fortune and avoid evil?

It doesn't matter. I'll pay a big price, right?

The Emperor of the Great Chu State knew that it was better to suffer a short pain than a long one. He had long included the Extreme Life Sect in the list of people who must be eliminated. He wanted to get rid of it before he could be happy.

Therefore, they began to target the Extreme Life Cult in secret.

No Flower was sent to deal with Sheng County's Extreme Life Cult. The investigation of Iron Fortune Immortal was just to cover up his true purpose.

"Your meaning is that we three are dealing with the hidden Jisheng Sect in Shengxian." Xu Bai looked at No Flower's eyes as if No Flower's brain was damaged.

After all, it was a sect, why did it seem like it was easy to solve?

"Almsgiver, it's only a part of the sect, but the Extreme Life Sect has long been broken up. As far as I know, the Extreme Life Sect lurking around Sheng County is no more than Level Eight, and there's at most one Level Eight. "No Flower said with certainty.

"Looks like you have some information." Xu Bai said.

"The last branch of the Extreme Life Cult that was destroyed had a map of the distribution of strength. Although it did not indicate the exact location, it roughly divided the strength of each place. ""They don't dare to change it either, because if they do, it'll easily attract more attention.""

No Flower looked at Xu Bai expectantly.

There was only one Rank-8, and the rest were all small fries. Would he agree like this?

“No more? Is that all?” Xu Bai didn’t answer but asked again.

“Also, as far as I know, the Extreme Life Cult is going to make a big move after being chased and interceded.” Wu Hua said.

At this point, his emotions had already been stirred.

No Flower cleared his throat and said, “Many years ago, there was a Taoist temple called the Jade Face Temple. Although the temple master was a woman, she created a method called the Boundless Taoist Scripture.”

“This technique uses divine essence as a guide to imitate the abilities of others. Although it’s only at 80% of your current realm, it’s powerful with multiple abilities. However, the female Abbey Dean doesn’t know that the technique she comprehended is incomplete.”

“When ordinary people cultivate, they can only simulate two abilities of the same realm at most.”

“The more you imitate, the greater the conflict. The Abbey Dean is a genius, and her ability to imitate is as vast as the ocean, but there are also consequences.”

“In the end, the Abbey Dean lost her mind under the impact of multiple powers and disappeared. The Dharma method was obtained by the Extreme Life Cult by chance.”

“They took a different approach. They let people cultivate this technique, then killed them and fixed them in a special object, so that their resentment would not dissipate. Over time, it would turn into a strange thing and actually solidify the ability to imitate.”

At this point, No Flower put his palms together and chanted the name of Buddha.

After saying so much, his face revealed a compassionate expression. Clearly, the Extreme Life Cult had killed many people because of this.

Under the siege of Great Chu, the Extreme Life Cult wanted to play a game of life and death.

However, there was still a problem.

“The Great Chu is such a colossus, and the Extreme Life Sect is just a small fish. How can they fight to the death? The ones who are injured will always be the commoners.” Liu Xu sighed and said the essence of it, her words filled with helplessness.

“Everyone in the world is suffering. This little monk’s ability is low. I just want to solve the problem here as soon as possible and return the county to peace.” No Flower put his palms together.

Xu Bai touched his chin.”

“Then...Patron, are you willing?” No Flower was full of anticipation.

“I’m not willing.” Xu Bai answered decisively.

The alley fell into silence, so quiet that one could hear a pin drop.

In Xu Bai’s opinion, it was still the same. This matter seemed simple, but it might actually be dangerous. Was it worth it to take the risk?

Not worth it.

Putting everything else aside, he did not think that he was a noble person.

Revenge for Xiaoyue was another matter.

He often ate at a small stall, and that girl was silly and cute. At that time, Xu Bai had killed too many people. Even with the memories of this life, he still felt that there was a gap in his heart.

However, that little girl gave him a trace of comfort and helped him recover.

In the end...Xiaoyue was dead.

Of course, he couldn't tolerate it.

As for now, sorry, he had to think about his own matters.

He only had one life, so he had to be more stable.

"Sigh..." No Flower sighed, not knowing what to say.

"Everyone has their own choices. Their positions are different, and their responsibilities are different.

"Liu Xu said, not surprised.

When she said this, Xu Bai thought highly of her.

If it was a normal TV drama, the female character would point at him and scream, saying that if he didn't help, he would have no conscience.

He felt that Liu Xu was quite open-minded and had the thoughts of a normal person.

"In that case, I won't force you. "No Flower let go of his hand and said," Patron, are you free tonight? I lost the bet tonight, so I need to fulfill my promise as soon as possible. I have to do my own thing. "" “Sure, let’s do it tonight.” “How did you find out about me?” Xu Bai asked as if he suddenly thought of something.”

No Flower didn’t hide anything and told him everything he had done. “I see.” Xu Bai thought to himself, Looks like I have to be more careful in the future.”

This time, he had suffered a loss because he still did not understand this world well enough. The abilities of the people in this world were too strange. Even karma came out.

At this moment, what needed to be discussed had already been discussed.

Xu Bai and No Flower agreed on a time. They did not continue to argue about the Extreme Life Cult and left the alley.

After returning to the Bodyguard Agency, Xu Bai went on with his life as usual. When night fell, he no longer disguised himself. With Ghost Head Blade at his waist, he walked toward the Liu residence.

At this moment, the sound of a wooden fish could be heard from a room in the Liu residence.

Xu Bai climbed over the wall and knocked on the door.

The door was opened. No Flower was waiting with a smile on his face. On the table, there was a scroll of Buddhist scriptures.

Patron, are you ready?” No Flower invited Xu Bai to sit down and picked up the Buddhist scriptures on the table.

This was a Jianghu person who wholeheartedly believed in Buddhism. Even if he did not promise him anything, No Flower had to fulfill his promise.

Xu Bai glanced at No Flower's head from time to time. Seeing the progress bar slowly increasing, he was happy.

"Then...Let's begin."

The door closed and the oil lamp flickered.

No Flower picked up the scripture and flipped to the first page..

Chapter 62: I, Xu Bai, Have No Roots of Wisdom

In the dim room, only the oil lamp kept flickering. The light and shadow intertwined, adding a little atmosphere.

"Patron, do you know what Buddha is?" After flipping to the first page, No Flower asked.

Xu Bai sat across from No Flower and placed his elbows on the table. He crossed his fingers and stared at No Flower's forehead, pretending to meet his eyes.

"I don't know."

The progress bar was slowly rising, and it looked very satisfying.

"Then do you know the Buddhist Sect's purpose?" No Flower asked again.

"I don't know either." Xu Bai's eyes were fixed on her.

No Flower was at a loss for words. Even if it's just a word or a sentence."

He had never explained Buddhist scriptures to others before. According to his current qualifications, he really could not explain Buddhist scriptures to others.

Even though he was the center of attention in the Titanium Temple, he had only entered the temple for a short time. He did not have the qualifications.

In the words of his master, he was a hothead, so why should he mislead others?

However, he had no choice. He had lost the bet, and the other party didn't care if he had the so-called qualifications or not. Therefore, he began to explain the contents to Xu Bai according to what his master had explained in the past. At that time, his master had asked him these two questions, and he answered them one by one. In the end, he was beaten up.

"Silly, I don't know. What's the point of forcing an answer?" This was what his master had said back then.

Logically speaking, even if Xu Bai didn't know about it, he would have heard about it from others. But now, Xu Bai said that he didn't know.

"If I knew, I wouldn't need you to explain it to me. Isn't it better for me to teach you instead?" Xu Bai said.

Although he was talking, his gaze did not leave the progress bar.

At this moment, No Flower finally felt that something was wrong.

At first, he thought that she was looking at his eyes, but after a long time, he realized that she was looking at his head.

No Flower touched his head and asked, "Patron, are you interested in my head?"

“Did your master light that ???????? Bai asked.

Up until now, he had gradually figured out some of the rules of the golden finger. For example, there was nothing wrong with No Flower’s head now, but the ring scar on the top of his head was a little abnormal.

Jie Scar triggering the progress bar was very possible.

“This...It was the little monk’s order, and it was also the rule of the Titanium Temple. “No Flower touched his bald head and explained,” The Titanium

Temple uses the Buddhist Dharma to condense the protective Buddhist light. After entering the temple, I have to point nine Buddhist scars on my head. The deeper the Buddhist Dharma is, the faster it disappears. I am stupid. It has been so long, but I haven’t removed a single one.””

No Flower lowered his head in shame.

Hearing this, Xu Bails eyes lit up like a lonely lamp in the dark night.

If the progress bar was according to his guess, the quality of the skill obtained was closely related to the thing he observed, then if he could make a trip to the Titanium Temple...

Wouldn’t he be able to make a fortune?

When he thought of the bald heads in the temple, he had the idea of putting it into practice.

“No, I have to be steady.” Xu Bai thought to himself.

There was a legitimate reason for him to listen to the Buddhist scriptures now.

If he really wanted to get the liver purity bar when he arrived at the Titanium Temple, he would have to stare at the bald man every day. At that time, if he was discovered, it would not be good for him.

“Let’s finish this first.” After Xu Bai made up his mind, he stared at No Flower’s head.

No Flower seemed to have thought of something and said something unexpected.” Patron, if you want to enter my Titanium Temple and cut off your worries, I can introduce you.”“

He could feel that Xu Bai’s eyes were filled with passion and even excitement.

He recalled his previous guess about Xu Bai, thinking that Xu Bai was a person who yearned for Buddhism. Combined with the current situation, he thought that Xu Bai wanted to enter the Void Gate.

In short, he was thinking the wrong thing again.

Xu Bai coughed and went along with No Flower’s words.” If there’s a chance, I’d like to go m and take a 100K. But right now, It’S better to stay In tne mortal world.”“

“Sigh, as long as benefactor devotes himself to Buddhism, you will be cultivating wherever you are.”Speechless chanted the name of Buddha. Knowing that everyone had their own difficulties, she sighed and said,”“Let’s continue.”

Xu Bai nodded and raised his hand to make an inviting gesture.

In the room, only the light of the oil lamp flickered. Wu Hua’s Buddhist scripture explanation began.

Just as No Flower said, the Buddhist scriptures he was talking about were not secrets. They were all ordinary Buddhist scriptures.

Throughout the entire process, No Flower spoke very seriously and in detail. From time to time, he would ask Xu Bai if he understood.

Xu Bai was listening attentively, but he really couldn't understand.

Staring at the progress bar was very boring. Xu Bai felt that every time he listened to the progress bar, it was boring and unadorned. Therefore, time passed quite quickly when he listened to No Flower talk about Buddhist scriptures while listening to the progress bar.

In the blink of an eye, a night passed.

A hazy light appeared in the sky, and it was almost dawn.

"That's all for today. I'll come back at night." Xu Bai said.

This was already a violation of the rules he had previously set.

He had said before that he should not stay up late and always be in the most perfect state.

However, it also depended on time, such as now.

He didn't want to stay in the Liu residence during the day. He could avoid unnecessary trouble by coming over at night.

Hearing Xu Bai's words, Wu Yan knew that Xu Bai was leaving. He nodded expressionlessly.

Not long after, Xu Bai left the room and climbed over the wall, leaving No Flower with a numb face.

No Flower felt that he wanted to take back his thoughts from that night.

At first, he thought that Xu Bai was a person who was devoted to Buddhism and had the root of wisdom.

However, after a night of explanation, he admitted that he was wrong.

He talked for the whole night, but Xu Bai didn't even understand half of it.

That night, Xu Bai stared at his head with a strange look.

No Flower defined this gaze as envy.

"Perhaps...If it weren't for the chaos of the mortal world, you would have really gone into seclusion."

His gaze was so passionate that it was as if he wanted to shave his head immediately and find a temple to become a Buddha.

"What a pity. In the end, he doesn't have the root of wisdom. "No Flower put his palms together and muttered to himself. His tone was filled with admiration."Even if you don't have any talent, you can still work hard to improve yourself. Wuhua, oh Wuhua, you should also look up to this benefactor."

In this day and age, those who were not afraid of hard work were afraid of those who were better than you and worked harder than you.

In No Flower's eyes, Xu Bai was outstanding enough. Even now, No Flower still had an endless aftertaste of that stunning slash.

Yet, such a person was still working hard to learn the Buddhist Dharma.

"I really didn't misjudge him. I reckon Almsgiver Liu has the same thoughts as me. No, after I finish talking about the Buddhist Dharma, I must pull him in. "No Flower thought to himself.

At this time, Xu Bai, who didn't know that he had been imagined as an outstanding person, had already returned to the Bodyguard Agency.

The bodyguard agency was still the same, but the bodyguards were more motivated than before.

The reason was none other than the bag of silver from the Lin Manor..

Chapter 63: Liu Xu's Character Image Is Broken

In this world, there were two things that couldn't be rejected.

Discounts, free whoring.

As the saying goes, the party would never lose. Bai Piao's smile was always bright.

At first, the escorts were also worried about how to earn money.

However, the matter at the Lin Manor made them feel a little more at ease.

He got the money, but he didn't need to give anything. Wasn't this a free ride?

Although this seemed immoral, it didn't matter.

We've already done it, so it's just child's play now.

In the bodyguard's opinion, as long as they had no morals, they would not be kidnapped by morals.

Our Escort Master Xu has already said that it's not a big deal, so the escorts are very relieved.

With the income, there was a peace of mind, so the escorts were very motivated now.

“Hello, Brother Xu! ”

“Has Brother Xu eaten?”

“Good morning, Brother Xu.”

When the escorts saw Xu entering the courtyard, they greeted him enthusiastically.

In fact, sometimes, the escorts even had hallucinations and thought that Xu Bai was a very kind person.

For example, now, they could no longer greet each other while trembling. They seemed a little more normal.

Of course, the premise of all this was that Xu Bai did not draw his saber.

“Work hard, don’t get rusty. “Xu Bai instructed before entering the backyard.

The locust tree in the backyard was still the same. Xu Bai had already gotten the wool, so he did not pay much attention to it.

The power of confusion was still there, but it could not affect Xu Bai before, and it was the same now.

“When I finish the progress bar, I’ll deal with the problem of this tree.”Xu Bai stared at the locust tree for a while before entering the house.

He had to work on the progress bar at night, and there were too many people in the day. He thought that he would wait until the progress bar was done.

For the next five days, Xu Bai stayed in the Liu residence every day, checking the progress bar.

Liu Xu was also in the Liu residence, so this scene naturally could not be hidden from her eyes.

From the second night onwards, this woman with both temperament and beauty suddenly had an idea.

A single man and a single woman, staying in the same room all night.

Eh

Many images appeared in his mind. If he really drew them, they would not be suitable for children.

Miss Liu seemed to have awakened a special physique. She maintained a neutral attitude towards this and thought that she was normal.

This continued until the last day.

In fact, Xu Bai's estimation was very good. After all, he had experienced the progress bar a few times, so he was stuck on time.

On the last day, when the sky was hazy and bright, the progress bar in front of

Xu Bai's eyes was finally full.

In the room, No Flower looked like he had been played badly.

A light blue smoke that only Xu Bai could see appeared and turned into a line of words.

[You studied the Buddhist Scar and comprehended the Body of the Buddha.]

This time, there were no signs of fusion. When the light blue text appeared, it immediately disappeared.

All kinds of information appeared in Xu Bai's mind. After chewing it carefully, he had already absorbed it.

The so-called Diamond Body was really the specialty of the Diamond Temple, but...Because it was No Flower who watched, and no flower had chosen the ring scar herself, it was only level three.

With a thought, a light blue panel appeared in front of Xu Bai.

[Name: Xu Bai]

‘ Realm: Eighth Stage unspecialized.’

[Breaking One Style, Level 2: Maximum level.] [Reversal Heart Technique (Level 2.5):[Maximum level.] [Kidney Hammering Technique (Level 1): Maximum level.] [Maple Leaves Like Rain (Tier 2): Maximum level.] [Four-Xun Movement Technique (Level 1): Maximum level.] [Four Xun Formation (Level 1): Maximum level.]

[Body of the Vajra (3), max level.]

[Comprehension (max level)]

A Tier 3 skill was not considered a mental cultivation technique, but it had already reached the maximum level.

According to his understanding, transforming True Origin Power into golden light could be used to protect the body or cover Ghost Head Blade as an attack method.

As an attack method, it had a very obvious characteristic.

Hard!

No matter how hard it was, the Body of the Buddha was very hard.

I, Xu Bai, am extremely hard!

“Benefactor, benefactor?” No Flower came back to his senses from the expression of being played badly. When he saw Xu Bai in a daze, he subconsciously called out.

“Hmm?” Xu Bai reacted and cupped his fists. “Thank you.”

He had already gotten what he wanted and was satisfied.

“Patron, you’re too polite. I’m just fulfilling my promise.” No Flower shook his head.

Xu Bai suddenly remembered something and asked, “Are all the protective Buddha light of the Titanium Temple green?”

That night, he saw No Flower use it and even took a stab from him, so he asked.

No Flower nodded without hesitation. “That’s right. They’re all green. Don’t look bad, benefactor.”

He thought that Xu Bai was just a physiognomist, so he explained that the Buddha’s Light was not necessarily golden. Every temple had its own characteristics.

Xu Bai didn’t mean that. He just asked casually because his Diamond Body was golden.

From the looks of it, it was not impossible to use it.

He was still thinking that if he used it, it would not be good if the people of the Titanium Temple saw it. Now, the chances of it being seen were greatly reduced.

“If there’s nothing else, I’ll take my leave first. “Xu Bai prepared to leave. “Patron, are you really not going to consider that matter?” No Flower asked again.

Xu Bai shook his head, indicating that he didn’t have such thoughts. He opened the door after he arrived.

After Xu Bai left, No Flower sighed.

At this moment, Liu Xu walked in from outside.

“Aren’t you going to persuade him? With his help, the chances would be higher. ”

Ever since the two of them started talking about Buddhism, Liu Xu had been absent most of the time, except for appearing occasionally.

But every time it appeared, it would always hold a pen and paper, as if it was remembering something.

Not only that, even though she was wearing a veil when she was recording, everyone could see the excitement in her eyes.

At first, No Flower thought that Liu Xu also liked Buddhist scriptures. After all, she was a scholar, so she would definitely be interested in anything related to books.

But one day, Xu Bai ” accidentally ” peeked at the contents inside and told No Flower.

No Flower couldn't express the contents of the book, but he felt that as a monk, how could he read such a thing?

In Xu Bai's words, Fairy Liu Xu's persona had completely collapsed.

In the end, due to Xu Bai and Wu Hua's double threats, Liu Xu had no choice but to destroy the book that she regarded as her inspiration.

When he destroyed it, the scholar even cursed.

When No Flower heard Liu Xu's words, he shook his head, indicating that he would not give up so easily.

"Then how are you going to get him to join us?" Liu Xu asked.

Joining the gang was a new term she had heard from Xu Bai recently. She felt that it was very suitable.

"You can't beat him with your fists, and you can't even win a bet with him. Don't tell me you can use love to influence him?" Liu Xu added, excitedly raising her small fist.

No Flower put his palms together and said, "My master once said that besides using fists and breaking through domains, there is actually a third way. I want to try it."

"Which way?" Liu Xu asked in puzzlement..

Chapter 64: The Locust Tree in the Backyard (1)

From Liu Xu's point of view, Xu Bai was the type of person who would not be persuaded. Unless she wanted to do it herself, no one would be able to persuade her.

For example, Xu Bai wanted to kill County Magistrate Zhang and Lin Fu.

But now, No Flower said that he could change to a third method, and he said it so confidently.

As such, Liu Xu was very curious as to what method No Flower would use.

No Flower stretched out a finger and said something that couldn't be any more vulgar, ""Wealth!"

Wealth?

Even though Liu Xu was wearing a veil, she could feel the corners of her mouth twitch.

She never expected that No Flower would give such an answer.

One word.

Vulgar!

Was this something that could be solved with money?

If money could solve it, then it was not a problem.

"The wealth that I'm talking about refers to a large category. As long as you can pay a sufficient price, someone will definitely be tempted. "No Flower took out something from his bosom and said.

Liu Xu looked over.

It was a book without a cover, and there were no words on the surface.

There were deep creases on the pages, and it was obvious that they had been flipped through many times.

‘Liu Xu frowned slightly.

“The current abbot of the Titanium Temple hand-copied Buddhist scriptures when he was young. Although they are ordinary Buddhist scriptures, they are hand-copied.” “I got this Buddhist scripture from the Sutra Depository as a reward from the Titanium Temple for a mission,” No Flower explained.”

As he spoke, No Flower stroked the scripture with his hand, looking as if he was willing to part with it.

But in Liu Xu’s eyes, this expression was not worth mentioning.

“I heard that the current abbot of the Titanium Temple is unknown in the Titanium Temple. He copied Buddhist scriptures as a hobby. When he was young, he had already copied more than 8,000 books.” Liu Xu said disdainfully.

Some things were worthless if there were too many of them.

No Flower’s expression froze.

“This is different! When the abbot was young, he would only copy every Buddhist scripture once. Although it was unknown at that time, it was now the only copy!” He argued.

Liu Xu chuckled.” You can continue to make up stories. I understand that the Titanium Temple has entered the mortal world. Some of the Buddhist precepts are useless to you.”

No Flower was dejected and didn’t argue anymore. He said weakly,” “But this little monk is poor and has nothing. This scripture is really a treasure to those who love Buddhism.”

He was a disciple of the Titanium Temple, but he really had no money.

The Heaven Inspectorate gave him a lot of salary, but based on his understanding of Xu Bai, Xu Bai would not take risks for money.

He had no other choice. This was the only way.

“Maybe we can give it a try. Xu Bai’s way of thinking is different from others. He seems to like Buddhism very much.” Liu Xu paced back and forth and stopped after a moment.

“I think so too. I’ll go over tomorrow morning.” No Flower became spirited again.

When giving something, it didn’t matter if it was expensive, but rather, it was to cater to their preferences. Liu Xu walked to the door.”

After saying that, he left.

The room fell silent again. No Flower held the Buddhist scripture and thought about what to say tomorrow.

Night fell.

Xu Bai lay on the bed, feeling bored.

There were still quite a few days before the bookstore would be exchanging new books.

During this period of time, he had fallen into a situation where there was no progress bar.

To be honest, the liver progress bar was very boring, but after getting used to it, he became more and more addicted to it.

Now that he suddenly had nothing to do, he felt bored.

“Sigh, we have to think of a way. If we don’t have it, we’ll look for it elsewhere.” Xu Bai thought as he placed his hands behind his head.

At present, there was only a bookstore in Shengxian County, at least on the surface.

If this continued, he would have to go to Shengxian County to take a look. He would come back to the bookstore every month.

Thinking of this, Xu Bai felt that this plan was feasible.

“Find some time to go out and try. Anyway, the bodyguard agency is fine. After we go out, let Liu Er make the decision.”

After Xu Bai thought it through, he turned over and prepared to rest.

“Oh right, I’ve been busy for a few days and forgot about the locust tree.” He sat up and thought about the locust tree.

Just as he turned over, there was a sudden movement outside the door.

At this time, it was already late at night, and the escorts had all gone home. How could there be anyone?

That sound was like the sound of someone rubbing against the ground without lifting their feet.

Xu Bai got up and picked up Ghost Head Blade, which was beside the bed. He went to the window and quietly opened it a little.

Outside the window, the small courtyard was unusually quiet. Other than the moonlight, there was nothing else.

The noise he heard just now was definitely not an illusion.

Frowning slightly, Xu Bai silently pulled out the Ghost Head Blade and held it in his hand.

“Sha...Sha...”

The sound of friction rang out again. He turned around and retreated. At the same time, he pushed open the window with his back hand and aimed his long Imife outside the window.

There was nothing outside the window.

However, the rustling sound was still coming, and it was getting closer and closer.

Xu Bai didn't go out. He used Ghost Head Blade to pick up a stool in the room and threw it out of the door.

The stool fell to the ground and rolled far away without any abnormality.

At this moment, the rustling stopped.

In Xu Bai's line of sight, there was a trace of black below the window.

“Hair?”

With Xu Bai's current strength, he could clearly see that it was black hair, and it was moving up.

Black hair, forehead, eyes...

As it slowly moved up, a head appeared in midair.

His hair was disheveled, his eyes were round, and there was nothing below his neck. Blood was dripping from it.

His eyes were emotionless, filled with coldness and gloominess.

“County Magistrate Zhang?” Xu Bai raised his eyebrows.

This head looked exactly like County Magistrate Zhang, and it looked like County Magistrate Zhang before he died.

Becoming a strange ” Xu Bai looked at Magistrate Zhang’s head and thought to himself.

After a person died, there was a chance that they would become strange. This was the origin of the strangeness of Great Chu.

Seeing the hideous head floating in the air, Xu Bai subconsciously thought of something strange.

The head floated in the air, staring at Xu Bai with an extremely strange gaze.

From time to time, it would dance up and down, but it did not come in.

At this moment, Xu Bai suddenly felt something in his mind, but it was not too obvious.

He lowered his head and looked at Ghost Head Blade in his hand, slowly figuring out what had just appeared.

It was a consciousness.

A consciousness that was independent of his own consciousness was confusing his thoughts, causing him to have an emotion that told him that he had killed County Magistrate Zhang and felt guilty. He should pay with his life.

Guilt?

Pay with your life?

Does it exist?

It didn't exist.

This was an ability to confuse people, but he had the ability to turn things upside down.

In the past few days, apart from exchanging Buddhist teachings with No Flower, he would occasionally ask No Flower about strange demons.

When the commoners died, they would turn into strange creatures. That was an ordinary strange creature.

If a strange person died, there was a chance that they would turn into a strange person, and they might even carry the abilities of their previous life.

If County Magistrate Zhang died, he should have the ability of a scholar. How could he have such a confusing ability?

"The ability to confuse?" Xu Bai looked past County Magistrate Zhang's head and at the locust tree in the backyard. "Finally, you're moving."

The long saber swept across, and the moonlight shone on the saber light, making it extremely cold.

The head that was floating in the air met the blade light and instantly turned into a bubble.

Xu Bai used the Four Xun Body Technique. His figure was like a ghost and he had already arrived at the backyard.

He rubbed the blade with his fingers and smiled.””Let me see who you are. How dare you cause trouble in my territory..”

Chapter 65: Red Veil Strange Human-Faced Tree

The courtyard was quiet.

When Xu Bai climbed into the backyard, the locust tree was still standing in the yard, not moving at all.

The moonlight was the brightest at this time of the year. Although the night was dark, the moonlight shone down and illuminated the courtyard. Although it was not as hot as the sun, some silver splendor sprinkled down and covered the locust tree with a layer of silver frost.

The night was mixed with light, and the two blended together like glue.

Lonemoon, locust tree, human, and saber.

If one looked at it from a distance, coupled with the spacious backyard, it would look like a painting of a cold night wind.

A breeze blew, bringing with it a little coolness. Accompanying the coolness was the sound of leaves rustling.

The leaves intertwined with each other and kept colliding with each other. Under the gentle breeze, the entire tree seemed to be a little noisy.

In the breeze, Xu Bai heard the rustling of leaves and a strange sound.

As the leaves collided, a faint song came from the locust tree.

The song was very soft at first, like the sound of a mosquito. As the breeze blew, it gradually expanded, melodious, and carried an unknown bewitchment.

It was as if a beauty was singing, but also as if she was lying beside a pillow and whispering softly.

Accompanied by the song, a translucent figure appeared in front of Xu Bai.

Dressed in a red muslin, her eyebrows were delicate and her every move was charming.

But... It was only limited to those two eyebrows.

Below the eyebrows, there was no jade-like flesh, but there was no bone that was filled with Yin Qi.

“What a pity. If she could cover the lower half of her face, she would be a charming woman.” Xu Bai sneered.

There was something strange hidden in this tree, and it was only born today. To Xu Bai, it was actually a good thing.

If he discovered it too early, he would not be able to keep up with the progress bar if he destroyed the tree along with it.

Now was the perfect time.

After the red muslin appeared, the half of the skeletal face opened and closed gently. The melodious song sounded again, but this time, it was even more bewitching than before.

Putting aside the bewitching taste, this song was quite pleasant and intoxicating.

“Boring.” Xu Bai thought of himself as a rough man with no artistic talent. In his opinion, it was better to dance.

As for bewitchment...

I’m sorry, I’ve already learned your skills. In terms of bewitching people, you don’t seem to be as good as me.

I’ll max out after I’m done.

Xu Bai put his hand into the money pouch on his waist. Just as he was about to make a move, he seemed to have thought of something.

“Something’s wrong. Reversing Yin and Yang is not an illusion!”

After the fusion of Yin and Yang, it became the Four Directions Reversal.

However, the essence of reversing Yin and Yang was to use true essence energy to manipulate the aura. In every attack and defense, it was to the point where it could confuse the real with the fake.

It wasn’t an illusion, but why was it an illusion?

Bewitching?

Wait a minute!

Fake as real!

Thinking of this, he hurriedly used the Four Xun Movement Technique. His figure was like a ghost as he moved dozens of meters forward.

Just as he moved, he saw a strange red muslin appear behind him and missed.

"I see. It affects the aura, and its true attack method is similar to mine." Xu Bai thought to himself.

While he was thinking about this, the true essence energy in his body had already started to flow, circulating the Four Directions Disorder mental cultivation method.

Use the same method as the other party to return the favor.

At this moment, if there were anyone else present, they would have noticed a magical scene in the small courtyard.

Whether it was Xu Bai or the red muslin, they looked extremely weak, like a broken sack full of holes.

Both of them had the same abilities, but Xu Bai was at max level.

He took out a handful of copper coins and smiled. He did not intend to fight in close combat.

If you had both melee and ranged abilities, would you choose melee or ranged?

If Xu Bai was asked this question, he would say, why would he use melee combat when he had ranged combat?

Maple Leaves Like Rain was a second rank skill, and so was the Breaking Style. Why didn't he choose such a safe method?

As he circulated his True Core Strength, a layer of faint golden light surrounded his entire body.

At the same time, the golden light flowed along his finger and onto the copper coin.

The copper coin was wrapped in a golden light, like a sugar-coated fruit. It was round and beautiful.

Body of Diamond could be attached to Ghost Head Blade, and it was the same with the copper coin. However, after leaving Xu Bai, he lacked the supply of true essence energy, so the time was very short.

But would it affect the short time?

To Xu Bai, this time was meaningless, except for the fact that it couldn't be short.

I've already thrown out my hidden weapons, and I'll be there in an instant. It doesn't matter if it's short or not.

At other times, it was fine as long as it was very long.

As his True Core Strength flowed, Xu Bai raised the hand that was holding the copper coin and used the technique of the maple leaves falling like rain to scatter the copper coin.

The copper coin was wrapped in golden light and had a long tail flame as it sealed off every path of escape for the red muslin.

The maple leaves were like rain, and Xu Bai felt a strange sense of déjà vu. It was like a drama he had seen in his previous life, where there seemed to be such a technique.

"Oh right, it seems to be called the sky full of flowers and money."

There was a taste.

Xu Bai reached his hand into his waist again and pulled out a handful of copper coins. He used Maple Leaf Rain again.

When they were young, who didn't fantasize about being a hero and being proficient in all kinds of martial arts?

At that time, as long as Xu Bai was given a wooden stick, there would be no rape flowers within a radius of one mile.

At this moment, it somehow matched the memories of his death and activated a certain excitement in Xu Bai.

Money was scattered in handfuls, and the more he scattered, the more excited he became.

The golden copper coin hit the red muslin. The red muslin was expressionless, but her body was gradually becoming transparent.

It was strange and irrational, and there was no so-called pain.

This expressionless look of him enduring the attack, coupled with the sinister aura that was as cold as ice, made the strange feeling even more intense.

From the beginning to the end, when Xu Bai used Maple Leaves Like Rain, the situation was already overwhelming.

In fact, a handful of copper coins was enough, but you couldn't stop a man who was attacked by dead memories, such as Xu Bai, who was now at a certain point of excitement.

Under the sky full of money, the red muslin disappeared like a popped bubble.

At the same time, the bewitching feeling disappeared as if it had never existed.

Xu Bai turned around and looked at the locust tree behind him.

Locust Tree stood quietly in the backyard. When the moonlight shone on it, it did not change at all.

The breeze was still cold, but the locust tree looked normal now. It no longer had the bewitching feeling from before.

“Why is there something strange in the tree?” Xu Bai rubbed his chin and thought to himself.

He approached the tree and used the Ghost Head Blade to gently scrape the tree bark.

It was only then that he realized that there was a human face on the tree trunk above his head.

Due to the distance between them and the tree branches, they did not see it clearly. Now, they could see it clearly.

The human face looked very abstract and only had five facial features, but one couldn’t see the specific appearance. It was as if a few circles were randomly painted on a piece of paper to represent the five facial features.

He could understand it, but it was very abstract.

As Xu Bai looked over, his face changed..

Chapter 66: There Are Mysteries in the Buddhist Scriptures

The bark that belonged to the human face began to fall off and fell to the ground. It was like a withered old tree that was heading for extinction.

When he looked again, the position of the face had returned to normal, as if it had never appeared.

“If the strangeness dies, the locust tree will be normal.” Xu Bai thought.

The small courtyard returned to silence once again. It was no different from before. It looked ordinary, and this locust tree no longer had any bewitching effects.

If ordinary people came in again, they would not be affected by the locust tree.

Xu Bai stood there for a while, then turned around and went back to his room.

The next day.

When the first ray of sunlight shone into the streets of Shengxian County, people began their busy day.

The streets slowly became lively, turning from quiet to noisy in just an hour.

On both sides of the street, the commoners were still busy making a living, setting up stalls and opening shops.

Yesterday, County Magistrate Zhang was beheaded. This matter had caused a sensation in the entire county. However, life was still life. The most common thing was to chat during dinner.

Other than that, the impact on the people was minimal.

Ever since Magistrate Zhang's death, Sheng County lacked a parent officer, but it did not affect the daily activities of Sheng County.

According to the efficiency of Great Chu, the new officials were already on their way and would take office soon.

To the commoners, it was a lively scene at that time, but as time passed, they would slowly forget about it.

On both sides of the street, the sound of peddling could be heard from time to time. In the middle of the street, the green-robed monk, No Flower, was slowly walking.

Today, he was not here to shop, but to go to the Dragon Conqueror Bodyguard Agency.

There was no other reason. He wanted to persuade Xu Bai, and he had brought something with him.

The scripture that the abbot had copied when he was young was placed on his chest. To be honest, Wu Hua was still a little reluctant.

"Almsgiver Xu is a person who loves Buddhism. He will definitely like this Buddhist scripture."

With this thought in mind, Wu Hua walked even faster. Before long, he had already reached the entrance of the Dragon Conqueror Bodyguard Agency.

At this moment, the people from the escort agency were still training.

When someone saw No Flower enter, they thought that he had business and hurriedly went forward to ask.

"I want to see your escort master." Wu Hua pressed his palms together and said.

Even though he was still young, in the eyes of the bodyguard, this monk still looked kind.

Liu Er happened to be at the side. After hearing No Flower's words, he asked No Flower to wait in the front yard. He ran to the connection between the backyard and the front yard and shouted.

"Brother Xu, a monk is here to see you."

After saying that, he stood at the locust tree in the backyard with some fear.

At this moment, Xu Bai had just woken up and was about to go out for a walk.

Hearing Liu Er's shout and hearing that it was a monk, he knew who it was without guessing.

"Let him come to the backyard." Xu Bai said through the door.

"Alright." Liu Er agreed and told No Flower to go in by himself.

They did not dare to enter the backyard. That tree was very strange. Their lives were more important.

"Thank you." No Flower bowed slightly to thank him.

Liu Er waved his hand to indicate that it was nothing.

Only then did No Flower step into the backyard.

As soon as he entered, No Flower stopped and looked at the locust tree in the backyard with a hesitant gaze.

He seemed to have thought of something and stayed where he was for a while.

However, he remembered that he was here on official business. He did not stay long and went to the largest house in the backyard.

“Almsgiver Xu, I am here to disturb you.” No Flower knocked on the door.

No one opened the door for him, so the door opened automatically.

When No Flower walked in, he saw Xu Bai in casual clothes pouring water.

“I don’t have any good tea here. Just drink some water.” Xu Bai poured a cup and pushed it to No Flower.

Almsgiver Xu is polite, monks and nuns don’t pay attention to the desire of food and stomach.” No flower backhanded the door closed, walked to Xu Bai in front of them, picked up the boiled water on the table, drank a mouthful.

He had serious business to attend to, so he didn’t waste time on small talk. After putting down the cup of water, he took out a Buddhist scripture from his pocket and handed it to Xu Bai.

“What do you mean?” Xu Bai focused slightly.

In Xu Bai’s opinion, this book had no cover and no words. Other than the creases left by frequent flipping, it looked ordinary.

Normally, Xu Bai wouldn’t even look at him, but it was different now.

There was a golden progress bar floating above the book, which was very eye-catching.

Another golden progress bar?

Xu Bai pondered for a moment and pretended not to know anything.

It was really like a flower planted deliberately did not bloom, but a willow planted unintentionally made a shade.

He was now worrying about where to get the progress bar. He had even made up his mind last night to set his goal aside from upgrading the county.

He didn't expect to receive a progress bar today.

It was comfortable!

However, there must be a reason for everything.

There was no free lunch in the sky, so Xu Bai asked.

He also liked the idea of free prostitution, but there were very few people who could really do so.

"This is the Buddhist scripture copied by the abbot of the Titanium Temple when he was young. At that time, although the abbot was only a little monk, his Buddhist teachings were already outstanding among his peers. I saw that Almsgiver Xu liked Buddhist teachings." No Flower said slowly.

There was a hint of heartache in his tone.

This is not an act.

Just as Liu Xu had said, when the abbot of the Titanium Temple was young, he liked to copy Buddhist scriptures. There were thousands of them in the Sutra Depository, and there were many of them.

But that didn't mean it was worthless.

This thing was like an antique. Its function was not to do anything but to collect it.

This book was especially good for Buddhist disciples.

With the support of the status of the abbot of the Titanium Temple, everyone wanted it.

In fact, the Titanium Temple had even had the idea of using the abbot's scriptures to connect with other Buddhist sects, but the abbot immediately rejected this idea.

No Flower didn't know why, but he didn't understand why the host had such a strange expression on his face when he rejected him.

Just like... Awkward.

He couldn't figure it out, and neither did Xu Bai.

If Xu Bai knew about this, he would definitely tell No Flower that they almost killed the host club.

In this day and age, who didn't do something stupid when they were young? It was only when they were old that they regretted it.

For example, when he was in junior high school, he liked to post his own updates, and the updates he posted were extremely awkward.

For example, they would moan or complain about the heavens and earth, pretending to be depressed.

When they grew up and found out, they would spend the entire night deleting all the content.

“Now, your Titanium Temple actually wants to use the stupidity of the abbot in his early years to contact the Buddhist sect. The abbot didn’t give you a slap because he has a good temper.

“Tell me your conditions.” Xu Bai took the Buddhist scripture and caressed it lovingly.

The progress bar was too fragrant.

This appearance made No Flower confirm his thoughts. He secretly thought that the benefactor was indeed a person who worshipped Buddha.

Following that, No Flower said something that made Xu Bai confused.

“I didn’t expect Almsgiver Xu to be not only a person who worships Buddha, but also a person who keeps a low profile. It turns out that he has long wanted to destroy the Extreme Life Sect..”

Chapter 67: Hidden under the Ancient Tree

As No Flower finished his sentence, the room fell into silence.

There was an awkward atmosphere.

Xu Bai took a sip of water and put down the cup. The corner of his mouth twitched slightly.”What did you think of this time?”

He hadn’t expected this from No Flower.

He knew that No Flower would ask him for help, but this sudden question made him know that No Flower was overthinking.

They had long wanted to destroy the Extreme Life Sect?

He really didn't have such thoughts. Not only did he not, he couldn't even be bothered to care.

He killed Yun Xiang because Yun Xiang provoked him. If he didn't get rid of her, he would regret it.

How did he become the one who wanted to destroy the Extreme Life Sect?

"Almsgiver Xu, don't hide yourself anymore. I've already seen through you. I've already noticed you when I came in." No Flower smiled confidently, as if he were Master God -Diviner.

"Speak clearly. Don't speak in riddles." Xu Bai leaned back on the chair and said leisurely.

"Sigh, Almsgiver Xu, things have already come to this, yet you still want to hide. When I came in, I found traces of a fight here. There was also a locust tree, and there was a scar the size of a face on the trunk of the locust tree." "Didn't you just destroy the Extreme Life Sect last night?" Wu Hua said slowly."

"Oh?" Xu Bai placed his elbow on the table and narrowed his eyes. "I did destroy a freak last night, but how did you know that it was the Ultimate Life Sect?"

Exterminating the strangeness, this was true. The red muslin strangeness was riddled with holes by his maple leaves like rain, and it died a tragic death. Even the pervert shook his head when he saw this.

But this matter was related to the Extreme Life Cult? How could No Flower tell?

"Benefactor, do you still remember the big move I told you about the other Hua said.

Xu Bai pondered for a moment and rubbed his chin.

Of course he remembered this.

A beautiful female Abbey Dean had created the Boundless Dao Scripture, which could imitate other people's cultivation techniques.

However, ordinary people could only do two at most. The female Abbey Dean relied on her own talent to imitate it to the extreme. In the end, her cultivation technique backfired and she disappeared.

The Limitless Dao Scripture was obtained by the Extreme Life Cult by chance.

The Extreme Life Cult had people cultivate this cultivation technique. After they died, they would put it into an object, giving them a chance to produce strangeness.

And once this strangeness was born, it would completely transform into that ability, no longer an imitation.

"The object you mentioned earlier, is it a tree?" Xu Bai frowned.

If there was a connection between them, it would be the locust tree in the backyard. Xu Bai immediately thought of it.

As the two of them chatted about this strange moment, No Flower finally understood that Xu Bai really didn't know that he had killed the Extreme Life Sect.

Hence, No Flower began to explain the plan of the Extreme Life Cult in detail.

"Practicing the Boundless Dao Scripture, imitating an ability of the same level.

After death, it will turn into a strange ability and solidify into one's own ability. However, one needs to bury the person under a tree."

"The Extreme Life Cult named this ability Rebirth, which means a brand new beginning."

At this point, No Flower paused for a moment, picked up the cup on the table, and took a sip.

[illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible]

“For example, drowning people will only stay in the water they are in. As for others, I won’t give them an example.”

Xu Bai rubbed his chin and recalled the time when he first met the locust tree.

At that time, the locust tree's range of influence was only in this backyard. Even if it became strange, it was still in the backyard. As long as he left this courtyard, he would be fine.

"There are other schemes," Xu Bai said.

If he was from the Extreme Life Sect and there were no other schemes, he would just create the monsters and let them kill him. Why would he need to spend so much effort?

“Yes, we haven’t figured out why they did this yet. “No Flower smiled bitterly.

They really couldn’t understand. At the moment, they had too little information.

Other than knowing that the Extreme Life Cult wanted to fight to the death, there was no other news.

“This tree was planted by a prostitute. It was originally a courtesan of another county.” Xu Bai told him the news from before. “Hua Kui?” When No Flower heard this, his eyes widened.

This news was unexpected.

“Let’s not talk about this for now. Are you sure they are all made of trees?” Xu Bai temporarily changed the topic and returned to the right track.

No Flower was still thinking about what Xu Bai had just said and nodded subconsciously.

“They are all trees...” Xu Bai turned the cup of water with his fingers and fell into deep thought.

The locust tree in the backyard could trigger the progress bar. This was something that had already been practiced. There was no doubt about it.

And this pagoda tree was related to the Extreme Life Sect. It was caused by the Extreme Life Sect burying the dead under the tree. The dead had learned the Amitayus Daoist Scripture.

Then, he could calculate...

Learned the immeasurable daoist scripture + buried in the locust tree + strange locust tree = progress bar.

Xu Bai’s eyes lit up.

He seemed to have seen a way to make a fortune, and it was a huge fortune.

If he could find the Extreme Life Sect and take all the trees that they had tampered with, wouldn't he be rich?

The more he thought about it, the more he felt that this path would work. It could solve his current problem of not having a progress bar.

Looking at the still thinking, Xu Bai picked up the Buddhist scripture on the table.

"The purpose of you giving me the Buddhist scriptures is to make me attack, right?"

No Flower had been wondering who this Courtesan Belle was, but after hearing Xu Bai's question, he came back to his senses and nodded.

This was indeed what he thought. There was no need to hide it. Monks were open and aboveboard and never lied.

Xu Bai casually flipped through the book for a while and raised his head." As you can see, I do like Buddhist scriptures. This gift is very precious to me. I can consider it and give you an answer tomorrow.""

As he spoke, he pushed the scripture in front of No Flower, but halfway through, he pretended to be very reluctant.

No Flower saw the change in Xu Bai's expression and quickly said," Patron, you don't have to give me the Buddhist scriptures. You can read it for a night and give me an answer tomorrow. ""

"That's great." Xu Bai was just putting on an act. After hearing Wu Hua's words, he quickly put the Buddhist scripture into his bag.

No Flower was speechless.

Why do I feel like I've been cheated?

Was he deliberately acting just now?

However, things had already come to this, and the other party had also given him an answer. No Flower pressed his palms together and prepared to leave.

"Benefactor, I have to go back and consider the information you told me today.

I'll take my leave first."

"I have to read these Buddhist scriptures, so I won't send you off." Xu Bai said.

No Flower didn't let Xu Bai send him off. He turned around and left, closing the door behind him.

When No Flower closed the door, Xu Bai leaned back in his chair and flipped through the Buddhist scriptures.

"Buddhist scriptures and trees. This request is very difficult to refuse..." "But we'll have to wait until tonight. I still have to confirm something." With this thought in mind, Xu Bai looked at the backyard. In the backyard, under the moonlight, the locust tree stood alone..

Chapter 68: Give Me a Quick Death? 1

He needed to verify a fact about the locust tree.

"There are too many escorts during the day." Xu Bai thought.

From the time Wu Hua left until night time, Xu Bai did not leave the agency.

It was only when night approached and the escorts left one after another and returned to their own homes that Xu Bai walked out of the house.

Tonight was different from the other nights. There was no moonlight tonight, and the sky was dark.

Xu Bai carried an oil lamp in one hand, a hoe in the other, and a Ghost Head Blade at his waist. He walked out of the house and went directly to the pagoda tree.

During the day, he had been thinking about it. Under the temptation of the Buddhist scriptures and the Human-faced Ancient Tree, he felt that he could do business.

Especially the Human-faced Ancient Tree. He was very greedy for the progress bar.

Helping No Flower was equivalent to helping him. After all, it was equivalent to having two more helpers.

However, he had to confirm one thing in advance. Was what No Flower said true? Was this locust tree caused by the Human-Faced Ancient Tree?

If he wanted to verify the truth, he only needed to dig up the pagoda tree to verify what Wu Hua said.

The people of the Extreme Life Cult killed the people and buried them under the tree. There should be bones under the tree.

There were too many people during the day, so it was not suitable to operate. Now that it was night, it was the best time to operate.

Coincidentally, the farming tools he had taken from the Underworld Blacksmith were now in use.

Xu Bai put the oil lamp on the ground and held the hoe with both hands. Looking at the lonely locust tree in front of him, he raised the hoe without hesitation and began to dig the ground.

With the addition of his True Core Strength, his speed had increased significantly. Not long after, he had already thrown a deep pit under the locust tree.

Xu Bai threw the hoe aside. He seemed to have dug up something just now. He raised the oil lamp closer to the front and back before he could see the situation under the tree clearly.

Beneath the soil was a tree root, and in the middle of the root was a skeleton wearing red clothes, entangled by the roots of the locust tree.

It had been buried for a long time, and the flesh and blood on White Bones had long disappeared, leaving only the skeleton.

Judging from the size of the skeleton, it was a woman's skeleton couldn't help but think of the strange red muslin he had encountered before.

The red clothes matched the red muslin.

"There really is a corpse buried here. It seems that what No Flower said is right.

We really have to do this business."

When the rewards exceeded the risks by too much, it was hard to refuse.

Xu Bai did not think much of the Buddhist scripture. The main thing was the progress bar of the Human-faced Ancient Tree. If he could study it a few more times, he would definitely gain a lot.

It was already very late. He pondered for a moment. First, he started to bury the locust tree. Then, he planned to rush to the Liu residence to discuss this matter with Wu Hua and the others.

Thinking of this, Xu Bai was about to take the hoe and the oil lamp back to his room. However, he did not expect to hear a strange cry at this moment.

It was the cry of a bird, like an owl.

In his previous life, if this voice was translated into words, it would have a very special meaning and would make one's hair stand on end.

For example...Online novels.

If the author of a web novel typed the word " coo " in a post, there would be a lot of blades.

Xu Bai raised his head and looked in the direction of the voice.

On the wall of the escort agency stood a masked man in black. On his shoulder sat a black eagle.

At this moment, the masked man looked at him coldly and did not speak.

Xu Bai also looked at the masked man. His eyes narrowed slightly, but his expression did not change.

After a while, the masked man stretched out his left hand.

The black eagle on his shoulder flapped its wings and landed on the masked man's left arm, staring at Xu Bai.

Those eyes seemed to carry humanity, especially when paired with the current scene. It made one's scalp go numb.

“Extreme Life Cult?” Xu Bai pulled out the Ghost Head Blade from his waist and gently rubbed the back of the blade with his fingers. His gaze gradually became playful.

“I was just talking about the time. Why didn’t anything happen here? So there’s an expert here.” “You ruined my sect’s grand plan. I’ll choose a way for you to die.” The masked man said in a hoarse voice.’

“Oh? Choose a way for me to die?” Xu Bai touched his chin.” I’ve never heard anyone say this to me since I started working in this industry.” “Masked Man rolled over from the wall and said,” You can try it today.” “As he spoke, he took a step forward.

The black eagle in his left hand suddenly flew up and rushed toward Xu Bai. Its eyes were cruel and ruthless, as if it wanted to tear the person in front of it into pieces.

Xu Bai raised his eyebrows slightly.

This black eagle was unusual. It seemed to dare to charge up even when facing tigers and lions.

There were too many sects in the martial arts world. He did not know the specific ability of this masked man, but this did not stop him from making a move.

His right foot stepped to the side, and at the same time, he turned his wrist. Ghost Head Blade swept horizontally from bottom to top.

“Tsk!

The black eagle split into two.

However, the blood that he had imagined did not spill out. The black eagle that had been split into two suddenly turned into a black fog and attacked Xu Bai.

In the black fog, there were all kinds of roars and howls. Many faces appeared in the black fog. Although their facial features could not be seen clearly, they could still be heard together with the painful screams.

Xu Bai was already on guard. There was no such thing as contempt in his dictionary. When the black fog came, he staggered slightly and used the Four Xun Body Movements. He was already moving sideways to the left like a ghost.

However, the black fog followed Xu Bai like a shadow. Not only did it block the distance between Xu Bai and the masked man, but it also kept chasing after them.

“So he thought I was a martial artist and wanted to keep a distance from me.”

Xu Bai saw that the man in black refused to move forward and only controlled the black fog in front of him to attack. He already understood the reason.

The masked man hadn't said a word since he had attacked Xu Bai, as if he had already taken Xu Bai down.

However, in the next moment, his eyes revealed shock.

Xu Bai dodged the attack of the black mist and stomped his foot slightly. His True Core Strength flowed along his foot to the ground, and a golden array suddenly appeared.

Flames rose and shrouded the black fog.

In the flames, the black fog crashed left and right, but it could not come out at all. The shouts inside were even more intense.

“He's not just a martial artist!” The masked man was stunned for a moment before he turned around and ran without hesitation.

It was originally meant to block the explosive distance of a martial artist, but now that this person was not just a martial artist, it was a different plan.

Escape was more important!

The masked man jumped over the high wall in front of him and prepared to escape.

However, the next moment, a gust of wind came.

The masked man heard the sound of the wind and turned his head. He saw a round object wrapped in golden light hit his calf.

The pain was like a tidal wave. The masked man wanted to cry out, but in the next moment, three more sounds of wind could be heard.

His intact hands and feet were all pierced by copper coins. The masked man fell from the wall and screamed in pain.

Desperate footsteps sounded behind him.

There was also a voice that made his hair stand on end.

“Why are you so confident?”

Chapter 69: You Can ‘t Be soft-hearted When Dealing with the Enemy

At this moment, the masked man was lying on the ground and could not see what was happening behind him. However, when the voice came, it was like the low groans of hell from afar, making him feel cold all over.

Immediately after, he felt a grip on his neck as he was lifted up from behind and suspended in midair.

The masked man's feet kept moving, but this action was in vain and did not have any effect.

"So you can still move?"

The voice came from behind him again. At the same time, the masked man heard Xu Bai's words accompanied by a sharp pain.

"Crack! "

The sound of bones breaking could be heard. The masked man's limbs were in extreme pain. His bones had been crushed by Xu Bai.

He wanted to shout, but Bai's voice followed him like a shadow, so he did not dare to shout out...

"If you lure them out, I'll cut off your tongue, blind your eyes, and pierce your ears. "

His voice was teasing, but it was extremely threatening.

The masked man shivered and gritted his teeth, enduring the pain with great effort.

The sky was dark, and the commotion just now was not enough to wake up the sleeping commoners. Xu Bai carried the masked man and jumped slightly before returning to the backyard.

He threw the masked man on the ground and used his long knife to remove the mask.

A woman's face appeared in front of him. At this moment, her face was covered in sweat and had become extremely pale. It was obvious that she was in endless pain.

It turns out that the woman's voice was quite similar just now, and her looks were also quite good, but it's a pity that she's gone."Xu Bai smiled teasingly.

"If you're a man, give me a quick death."The woman spat out a sentence with difficulty. It was as if she used all her strength, and her head leaned to the side weakly.

She knew very well that this was a battle of life and death. If she fell into the enemy's hands, she would definitely not be able to live, so she would not beg for mercy.

Xu Bai placed his foot on the woman's shoulder and gently rubbed it.

If others saw this, they would think that he was playing some strange hobby.

Although his movements were light, Xu Bai had crushed the woman's limbs earlier. His actions now triggered the pain from before, and the woman's face became even paler.

The pain went deep into his bones, making him despair and unable to resist.

The woman's body trembled as she stared at Xu Bai with endless hatred.

"I won't be merciful. After you answer my question, I can consider giving you a quick death."Xu Bai's expression was very calm, and there was even a smile on his face.

However, he did not retract his foot. Instead, he pressed down even harder.

"There are no traitors in the Extreme Life Cult. There are only cult members who died in battle and no traitors who surrender."Although the woman's voice was trembling, it still carried a sense of determination.

"Pa, pa, pa..."

The sound was Xu Bai clapping his hands.

“Very good. I like people who are more stubborn. Let’s see who is more stubborn.”

Xu Bai dragged the woman into the house in the backyard. He took out a rag and stuffed it into the woman’s mouth.”

The woman stared at Xu Bai and straightened her neck, looking unyielding.

Xu Bai pulled out the Ghost Head Blade and tapped the back of the blade on the woman’s finger.

The sound of bones shattering rang out once again.

‘Woo!’

The woman couldn’t take it anymore. She whimpered, but her mouth was blocked and she could only groan in pain.

“There are hundreds of bones in the human body. Let’s take it slow. We can have a lot of fun tonight.” Xu Bai smiled gently.”

This smile was very kind, but it was extremely cold in the eyes of women.

The gentle smile and the cold feeling intertwined. The strong sense of difference made her hair stand on end. Xu Bai stopped talking and started moving.

“Crack! ”

The sound of bones cracking and whimpering interweaved in the room. His movements were slow and precise, and every time he knocked, a bone would be knocked off.

After the time for half an incense stick to burn, there was not a single intact bone in the woman's right arm.

During this process, the woman fainted several times from the pain, but it was useless. Every time she fainted, her consciousness would only become clearer. "Can you tell me now?" Xu Bai could see that the woman's eyes were filled with fear.

"Woo!"

The woman struggled furiously, maintaining her last bit of stubbornness.

"In this state, even if you can survive, you will end up as a cripple.""But have you ever thought about whether your companions are free and unfettered right now?" Xu Bai put Ghost Head Blade aside and said."

The woman trembled slightly.

She turned around and looked at Xu Bai as if she was looking at a demon.

Xu Bai expressed that since they were enemies and wanted his life, it was normal for them to go overboard.

"What an excellent foundation."

Xu Bai reached out his hand and brushed his fingers across the woman's cheek. Then, he pulled the woman's collar.

It was all white inside.

In this day and age, there were those with strong willpower who could withstand the cruel punishment.

Unfortunately, she was not that kind of person. She thought she could handle it, but when she really endured it, she realized that her thoughts were as fragile as a piece of paper.

In the face of pain, the woman chose to surrender and tell everything she knew.

“My position in the sect is average, so there are many things I can’t come into contact with. What I can tell you is what I know.”

Xu Bai nodded.” Tell me slowly. There’s no hurry. “”

The woman took a deep breath to relieve the pain before slowly recounting...

In the room, the light of the oil lamp flickered. Accompanied by the woman’s voice, the light and shadow kept intertwining.

After about half an hour, the woman told him everything she knew.

“I’ve already said everything I wanted to say. Please give me a quick death, I beg you!” the woman begged.

“Let me sort this out.” Xu Bai held his chin with his hand as he sorted out the information the woman had given him.

As this woman had endured the pain to speak, the content was a little messy, so it needed to be sorted out.

A moment later, he finished organizing all the information, and a rough framework appeared in his mind.

The entire process of the matter had to start from the Great Chu Country dealing with the Extreme Life Cult...

Chapter 70: The Mysterious Person (Thanks to Book Friend 20181003170427953 for the tip)

At that time, the Extreme Life Cult had surrounded the Great Chu State and had almost reached a desperate situation.

However, at the most critical moment, they encountered the help of a mysterious person. This person helped the Extreme Life Sect escape from the predicament and gave the Infinite Dao Scripture to the Extreme Life Sect.

The Extreme Life Sect was already at the end of their rope. They no longer had any hope of leaving Great Chu alive. Therefore, they decided to use the Boundless Dao Scripture to fight to the death.

At that time, the people of the Extreme Life Cult discovered that the power of the Boundless Dao Scripture was enormous. As long as they had this power, they could rise again.

As for why they had buried a living person under the tree, the woman did not know. She was just following orders.

Hence, a series of events happened.

The so-called Boundless Scripture was not obtained by the Extreme Life Cult by chance, but was given to them by a mysterious person.

"I originally wanted to see why there was no reaction from the strangeness here, and then I met you, so I wanted to kill you. "The woman's limbs were broken as she said in pain.

Xu Bai fell into deep thought. After a long while, he said, "You sold this house to the Dragon Conqueror Bodyguard Agency, right?"

The woman nodded.” After the strangeness takes shape, it can form a massacre here. It was the sect’s steward who asked me to do it.””

“You are an abandoned child.” Xu Bai suddenly said.

The woman didn’t answer after she said that. Her eyes were filled with gloom.

Xu Bai could tell from the words just now that there were some things worth pondering. For example, why did he make the Human-faced Ancient Tree in the county town?

If it were him, he would choose to make a diversion.

The true purpose of the Extreme Life Cult was to create a diversion.

The livelier the place, the easier it would be to attract attention if something went wrong, which would cover up the true methods of the Extreme Life Cult.

As for whether their own people would die, the Extreme Life Cult would not care about such things, such as this woman.

After a long time, the woman spoke again.

“You’re right. I’m an abandoned child. The cult wants me to be the sacrifice of this plan. The woman laughed self-deprecatingly and continued, “It’s not just me. There are many more.””

Xu Bai bent down and lifted the woman up.”

This action was very rough, making the woman moan in pain.

"I don't know. We haven't been in contact. Also, I've searched the county city, but there aren't any other Human-faced Ancient Trees."

"I've said everything that needs to be said. You should give me a quick death."

"I, Xu Bai, am a man of my word. I just want to verify whether what you said is true or false. "Xu Bai carried the woman and climbed over the wall.

It was already late at night. No one was passing by on either side of the street. Other than the sound of the night watch, there was no other sound.

In the silent night, this sound was especially terrifying.

Xu Bai brought the woman to a house and stopped. The woman looked at the house and felt uneasy. "This is...The Liu Residence?"

"Is there a problem?" Xu Bai asked with a smile.

"Are you related to the Liu family?" The woman was surprised.

They were from the Extreme Life Sect, so they would definitely get some important information in advance. Therefore, the woman was surprised at the first moment.

"Now is not the time for you to be surprised. Let's go in and talk." Xu Bai grabbed the woman by her collar and jumped over the wall.

After entering the backyard, Xu Bai first went to Liu Xu's room and knocked on her door.

When Liu Xu opened the door, she was surprised to see Xu Bai carrying a pale and injured woman.

"Are you kidnapping a commoner girl?" Liu Xu said.

Of course, this was just a joke. Anyone could tell that the woman in black had an extraordinary identity.

However, in Liu Xu's eyes, this woman was really too pitiful.

Her limp limbs were obviously broken.

The way Liu Xu looked at Xu Bai changed again.

This man was truly ruthless when he attacked, but this way of dealing with the enemy was really quite appropriate.

"Let's go to Wu Hua." Xu Bai didn't say anything else and left after saying that.

Liu Xu thought for a moment and followed behind Xu Bai.

At this time, even though it was late at night, No Flower was still chanting in his room.

The sound of the wooden fish was very soft. Only when one walked closer could one hear it clearly.

Xu Bai knocked on the door. Not long after, No Flower opened the door.

Just like Liu Xu, No Flower was also shocked. Patrons, come in and we'll talk."

He knew very well that things weren't that simple.

At this moment, the woman, who was covered in injuries, was already ashen.

She had not expected that there would be another expert in the Liu Residence other than Liu Xu.

Xu Bai walked into No Flower's room. After the two of them came in, he told them what had happened. Then, he added,

"Do you have a soul-searching method that can determine whether what she said is true or false?"

After hearing Xu Bai's news, the two of them were shocked. They were still digesting the news, but when they heard Xu Bai's words, they were stunned.

Soul search?

It wasn't just Liu Xu and No Flower. Even the woman covered in wounds was shocked. She stared at Xu Bai as if she was looking at a demon.

This man had spent so much effort to bring her here just to use that soul-searching method to determine whether she was real or fake?

Who was the evil path?

The injured woman could not believe it.

No Flower smiled bitterly." Benefactor, this little monk really doesn't have the method you mentioned. If there really is a way to search the soul, I reckon that we can only ask for help from others. However, we're now in Sheng County, so it's very troublesome.""

Liu Xu also shook her head, indicating that she would not do so either.

"In other words, there really are people who can search souls?" Xu Bai rubbed his chin."

He only had this thought. After all, he was an old bookworm in his previous life and had seen a lot of things. If he had not eaten pork, how could he have seen pigs run?

He didn't expect that there was really such a method.

"I think so..." Xu Bai thought.

One day, he would get one. It was a must-have for traveling in the martial arts world.

Liu Xu's eyes were filled with helplessness."

She really couldn't understand. Among the people she knew, this man was considered a dragon among men, but why was his mind always so strange?

Why was he so persistent in soul searching?

Shouldn't they be looking for their next step?

"What are the conditions for soul searching?" Xu Bai didn't know what they were thinking at the moment. He was immersed in his own thoughts and asked again.

Although he had killed many people, he did not understand this world.

The memories in his mind were not of much use, so he had to seize the opportunity to understand them.

"Almsgiver Xu, the difference between professions is like the difference between mountains." Wu Hua said.

"Alright then, let's get back to the topic. The mysterious person this woman is talking about is probably more powerful than the Extreme Life Sect." Xu Bai felt regretful that he couldn't take this opportunity to learn more.

The regret in his tone was obvious to everyone.

“Actually, we don’t need to judge whether she’s telling the truth or not. As long as we know that it’s related to the Extreme Life Cult, then the rest is simple. “Liu Xu selectively ignored Xu Bai’s obsession with soul searching and added.

“You mean... Azure lotus throne?” No Flower wasn’t stupid and quickly reacted..
