"Oh, f*ck it. I'll do it!"

Wang Hang gritted his teeth.

It was his chance to build good relations with Planet Zi, and he could not miss the opportunity. Although he was fully aware that he was not Chu Kuangren's match, all he had to do was act like he was fighting. He need not fight Chu Kuangren seriously.

He was confident. Although he was not an Immortal Progeny, he was still a top-tier sky-pride. He believed that he could at least ensure his survival by using special items during the fight.

"Chu Kuangren, don't you dare lay a finger on Brother Zi Ying!"

Wang Hang said aloud.

As soon as a long black saber appeared in his hand, he attacked, unleashing a brutal slash that cut through the darkness of the night and headed straight towards Chu Kuangren.

"Hmph. What an insignificant fool."

Chu Kuangren said.

He gently raised his hand and retaliated by striking Wang Hang's body with a great surge of Emperor qi, which sent his opponent flying immediately.

Wang Hang's long saber shattered and his clothes ripped in a blast!

In the process, it revealed the black armor on Wang Hang's body. It was the defensive Great Daoist Weapon that he bought from the auction for three billion and two hundred million spiritual marrows.

"This Daoist Weapon of yours is not bad, Chu Kuangren."

Wang Hang said.

That Great Daoist Weapon was the reason he dared to attack Chu Kuangren.

"It looks like that Daoist Weapon of mine has given you some courage."

Chu Kuangren said.

Then, his figure flashed and disappeared into the void.

Wang Hang's pupils shrank. 'Where has he gone to?'

"Brother Wang, behind you!"

Zi Ying shouted.

'This is bad!'

Without another word, Wang Hang immediately channeled his Emperor qi to its fullest potential. When his Daoist Celestial strength erupted, he unleashed a punch towards his back.

Boom!

His punch landed directly on Chu Kuangren's chest.

"I got him!"

Wang Hang said in delight.

However, his expression soon turned into that of horror.

He realized that his punch had seemingly struck an indestructible wall, and he could not injure Chu Kuangren at all!

"A defensive Heavenly Daoist Weapon!"

"This white robe is a defensive Heavenly Daoist Weapon!"

Wang Hang was instantly stunned.

He finally understood why Chu Kuangren was willing to put this defensive Great Daoist Weapon on auction.

It was because he did not need it at all!

'With that Heavenly Daoist Weapon around, this Great Daoist Weapon is nothing!'

"Retreat!"

Wang Hang wanted to retreat at that moment.

However, before he could take two steps, Chu Kuangren had gotten close to him. "Where do you think you're going?!"

Tightening his fist, Chu Kuangren punched forth ferociously!

Bam!

A loud explosion erupted in the void!

That punch dented Wang Hang's armor and broke parts of it off. The terrifying surges of fist energy soon went through his armor and landed on his body.

Spit...

Wang Hang immediately spat blood.

Following that, Chu Kuangren grabbed one of his arms and lifted his body up before slamming it into the ground brutally, back and forth.

As bursts of impact occurred, the whole Moon Gazing Platform rumbled.

Everyone could not help but gulp in fear upon witnessing that.

He was just too violent!

It was just too bloody!

After a while, Chu Kuangren casually tossed Wang Hang aside. By then, the latter's armor had already broken into pieces.

As for Wang Hang, he was already on the brink of death.

"Do you think you'll survive using that unwanted trash of mine? Don't you think that's a little too... ridiculous?"

Chu Kuangren said indifferently as he stepped on Wang Hang's chest.

"L-Let me go."

Wang Hang begged with a trembling tone.

He truly regretted it.

Never did Wang Hang expect Chu Kuangren to be so powerful, so much that he could not even last one second against him despite wearing that top-tier defensive Great Daoist Weapon.

"Be sure to make smarter choices in your next life."

Chu Kuangren said apathetically.

Bam!

Following a terrifying eruption of power, Wang Hang immediately exploded. His flesh and bones were scattered everywhere from Chu Kuangren's feet.

"No!"

An enraged yell was heard from afar.

A few figures soon flew over.

They were the Great Daoist Celestials from the Wang clan. All of them were glaring at Chu Kuangren with shock and deep hatred.

"You imbecile, how dare you kill our Wang clan's heir!"

One of the Great Daoist Celestials channeled his Emperor qi and unleashed it in the form of a gigantic golden palm at Chu Kuangren.

"I don't mind killing a few more."

Chu Kuangren grunted indifferently as he closed his fist gently. Then, his Emperor qi and Daoist patterns intertwined to unleash his Invincible Technique, the Inverted Universe.

His vast fist energy surged forth like a raging wave. In an instant, it destroyed that golden palm.

The Great Daoist Celestial's pupils shrank with shock as the raging fist energy engulfed him whole. Following a painful scream, he exploded into a mist of blood!

“What!”

The remaining Great Daoist Celestials were shocked and appalled.

‘He just killed a Great Daoist Celestial so effortlessly!’

‘He’s still a sky-pride, yet he has this level of strength! This is truly shocking!’

‘This is too much even for a top-tier Immortal Progeny.’

At that moment, an even more horrifying aura erupted from faraway, heading towards the Moon Gazing Platform like a crashing tsunami.

“Chu Kuangren, you must be sick of living!”

A cold and terrifying voice echoed in the skies.

The Daoist Celestials of the Wang clan were overjoyed when they heard it.

“It’s the Great Forefather!”

“Our Great Forefather is going to make his move now!”

The Wang clan’s Great Forefather was the only Heavenly Daoist Celestial in their clan!

“Hmph. Who’s looking for trouble, I wonder?”

From the Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom’s city hall, a gigantic sword shadow suddenly rose into the air and flew towards the Wang clan’s location!

A loud explosion erupted as the gigantic sword shadow collided with the frightening energy. The impact caused the whole Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom to rumble.

After that clash, the Wang clan’s Great Forefather’s aura rapidly deteriorated until there was no sign of it at all.

The Great Daoist Celestials of the Wang clan could not believe their eyes. ‘One move. One single move was enough to put our Great Forefather in his place!’

‘Although they are both Heavenly Daoist Celestials, this difference in power is just too drastic!’

“Is this the Godly Moon Daoist Celestial’s strength? He’s so powerful!”

“He really is one of the strongest Daoist Celestials in the Violet Gold Galaxy. Even if he fails to become an Immortal in the future, I bet he’ll still be a top-notch Pseudo Immortal.”

“He is a top-tier Immortal Progeny after all.”

The cultivators of the Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom were secretly amazed.

Meanwhile, on the Moon Gazing Platform.

Chu Kuangren smiled playfully at the Wang clan’s Great Daoist Celestials. “It looks like your greatest support is gone now.”

After that, he raised his arm to gather spiritual qi and unleash his Single Thought Series. Since Chu Kuangren was now a Great Daoist Celestial, the power of his attacks had increased to another level.

Thousands of spiritual weapons formed in the sky, and they locked onto the Great Daoist Celestials at the scene.

“Release!”

With an apathetic command, countless spiritual weapons rained down on the Great Daoist Celestials mercilessly.

“Quick! We must block this attack!”

“What a terrifying attack. How does he have such power?”

“Even if he is a Great Daoist Celestial, this level of power is just unbelievable. He’s a f*cking monster...”

Boom, boom, boom...

Bursts of energy erupted in the void. As the target of Chu Kuangren’s spiritual weapon bombardment, the remaining Great Daoist Celestials were soon injured one after another.

A figure dashed out from the barrage of energy blasts with a barrier of light surrounding him, repelling any spiritual weapons that got near.

It was no doubt a powerful defensive Daoist Weapon.

“Die, Chu Kuangren!”

Using that powerful defensive Daoist Weapon, that Great Daoist Celestial rushed towards Chu Kuangren and thrust forward with his spear!

Like a soaring dragon, a burst of freezing qi was released!

Hum...

At that time, sounds of sword chants rang out!

A purple sword ray illuminated the night sky as it flew across like a shooting star.

The sword ray slashed through and broke the spear attack!

After the long spear shattered with a clang, the sword ray cut through the Great Daoist Celestial’s defensive barrier like it was butter, immediately slicing him in half.

A mist of blood spurted out.

That Great Daoist Celestial was torn in half by the sword ray.

The Descendant Self Sword somehow unsheathed itself as it was already in Chu Kuangren’s hand by that time. Its white-jaded body and untainted appearance matched well with Chu Kuangren’s spotless and gorgeous white, wide-sleeved robes.

With the Descendant Self Sword in hand, Chu Kuangren's figure immediately flickered like a ghost in the void. As his sword qi surged, none of the injured Great Daoist Celestials were a match for him. In the blink of an eye, all of them were killed.

"It seems like you're the only one left now."

Chu Kuangren's calm gaze soon fell on the nearby Immortal Progeny, Zi Ying, whose face had turned as white as paper..

Chapter 862: Master in Swordsmanship and Poetry, the Sword Poem Immortal, Just A Little

"It seems like you're the only one left now."

Chu Kuangren said and looked at Zi Ying's pale face.

Zi Ying got increasingly horrified as he watched Chu Kuangren approach him with every step. He had been trying to leave ever since then.

However, a certain aura had locked onto him.

It would follow him whenever he moved.

There was no way he could escape!

The person standing in front of him was so powerful that it would be futile for him to escape. Both of them were on completely different levels.

"Chu Kuangren, I'll have you know that I'm a member of the great Planet Zi. If you kill me now, you shall suffer the deadliest repercussions from Planet Zi."

"Y-You should think this through," Zi Ying said with a trembling tone.

"Throughout my entire life, the one thing I can't bear the most is being threatened by others."

The tip of Chu Kuangren's sword moved.

A strand of sword qi was suddenly unleashed.

Poof!

Zi Ying's whole body and even his armor were torn to shreds by the sword qi. The Planet Zi Immortal Progeny had... fallen!

Everyone could not help but shudder upon witnessing that.

None of them expected Chu Kuangren to be this decisive, killing Immortal Progenies on a whim just like that without mercy!

"I can't believe this lunatic killed an Immortal Progeny of Planet Zi in public just like that. Is he not afraid that Planet Zi will take revenge on him?!"

"The Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom won't be able to protect him when that happens."

Everyone began their discussions.

Tang Haitang also looked at Chu Kuangren, feeling a little anxious.

'Zi Ying is an Immortal Progeny no matter what. With him dead, Planet Zi will never let Chu Kuangren off so easily.'

'No matter how strong Chu Kuangren gets, how can he fight against the full might of Planet Zi?'

"Planet Zi, huh? It looks like we're fated to be sworn enemies until the end."

Chu Kuangren mumbled.

The Moon Wheel Banquet soon came to an end.

It was an ending that was out of everyone's expectations.

The Immortal Progeny Zi Ying's death, the Wang clan Great Forefather taking action, the Godly Moon Daoist Celestial intervening... No one had ever expected something like that would happen.

However, what shocked everyone the most was Chu Kuangren's poem.

That poem lit up the darkness of the universe.

News about Chu Kuangren and his poem spread like wildfire following the Moon Wheel Banquet's end. Eventually, everyone in the Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom knew about it.

It was even circulated further in the Violet Gold Galaxy.

"When is the moon round and bright? Asking the blue sky with wine in sight... D*mn, that's a good line... Just those few sentences make me feel as if I'm a middle-aged man drinking while enjoying the beauty of a full moon night. It's truly a wonderful and splendid poem."

"That's right. This poem is certainly going down in history as one of the best."

"Don't forget the Moon Wheel Secret Realm's reaction to this poem too. Rumbling violently and releasing endless Moonlight? Even a great treasure like the Moonlight Essence appeared too."

"What a guy Chu Kuangren is. His talents truly know no bounds."

"His skill in poetry has truly stood out amongst the greats throughout history."

"This guy is nothing short of a Poem Immortal!"

Everyone in the entire Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom was talking about the recent Moon Wheel Banquet, including Chu Kuangren and that poem he recited.

No one knew who came up with the title of Poem Immortal.

However, everyone soon knew about Chu Kuangren, the Poem Immortal.

Countless cultivators and noblewomen were fascinated by his poem.

“You guys need to stop overlooking Chu Kuangren’s other skills, you know. Mind if I remind all of you, besides being greatly skilled in crafting poems, he’s also a top-notch Immortal Progeny. The sword technique he killed the Great Daoist Celestial with is a sight to behold!”

“That’s right. That sword attack of his is truly terrifying.”

“I heard he has an Immortal Sword Technique too. He once used that technique to defeat a group of Immortal Progenies altogether.”

Within a few days, the nickname of Poem Immortal was soon changed to the Sword Poem Immortal!

The master in swordsmanship and poetry, the Sword Poem Immortal!

Inside the city hall, the great Sword Poem Immortal, Chu Kuangren, was currently using Phoenix’s Flame to reforge the Descendant Self Sword. He was in the process of integrating the Purple Source Metal into it.

“It’s finally done!”

Chu Kuangren’s eyes lit up with joy as he retracted his Phoenix’s Flame.

At that moment, the Descendant Sword was shining brightly. Under the sun, a faint purple glow radiated from the sword’s white-jaded surface.

The Descendant Self Sword had been upgraded to a Heavenly Daoist Weapon.

With that sword, Chu Kuangren’s combat power would be further enhanced.

“You have a remarkable sword.”

A voice of praise and admiration sounded beside him.

Godly Moon Daoist Celestial walked up to him.

He looked at the Descendant Self Sword and said, “It seems like the Sword Poem Immortal is not just skilled in swordsmanship and poetry alone. I’m afraid only a handful of people in this world can match this weaponsmithing skill of yours.”

“Sword Poem Immortal?”

Chu Kuangren was taken aback.

He had been so focused on upgrading his Descendant Self Sword that he had not gone out or used his Emperor Thoughts to keep track of the outside news over the past two days.

When did he get the nickname of Sword Poem Immortal?

“Ha! Brother Chu, when you made the secret realm rumble with your poem during the Moon Wheel Banquet, making it release tons of Moonlight, and also killed a Great Daoist Celestial with one sword attack, you became a hit that night. The nickname of Sword Poem Immortal is truly a suitable one for you.”

The Godly Moon Daoist Celestial chuckled.

“The Sword Poem Immortal...”

Chu Kuangren laughed helplessly.

‘However, this nickname does sound kind of... cool!’

‘Alright.’

‘Although shame on me for stealing Su Shi’s1 poem, no one in this world would know about it, so it shouldn’t be a big problem, I suppose...’

“By the way, Brother Chu, I’m almost done preparing the materials that you’ve asked for the awakening of Haitang’s Immortal Physique.”

The Godly Moon Daoist Celestial suddenly said seriously.

“Oh, alright.”

Chu Kuangren’s expression turned serious too.

Soon after, the materials for awakening the Immortal Physique were almost ready.

Chu Kuangren refined a pill using these materials and then left the Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom for the time being with the Godly Moon Daoist Celestial and Tang Haitang.

On a planet fully covered in ice and snow all year round, Chu Kuangren, Tang Haitang, and the Godly Moon Daoist Celestial arrived.

Once they arrived on the planet, a white-haired elderly man in white robes appeared from the void. It was the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal!

“Greetings, Senior Dusty Sky.”

The Godly Moon Daoist Celestial and Tang Haitang greeted him.

Chu Kuangren, too, nodded gently.

Although he had known the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal for only a short time, the both of them had become close friends. Hence, there was no need for formalities between them.

“Senior, is the formation ready to go?”

Chu Kuangren said. He and the Godly Moon Daoist Celestial had requested the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal’s help to awaken Tang Haitang’s Immortal Physique.

“Yes, it’s ready.”

The Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal nodded.

After that, he led everyone to a snowy mountain peak.

“In that case, let us begin,” Chu Kuangren said and then took out a pill, which he handed to Tang Haitang. “This is the Heavenly Snowy Frost Pill. This will help you to absorb more freezing qi efficiently, Lady Tang.”

Tang Haitang nodded and took the pill.

The Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal was amazed. "I see you've kept this well-hidden, Brother Chu. I didn't know you were skilled in pill refinement too."

"Haha, just a little."

"Just a little?" The Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal smiled playfully before saying, "By the way, I've also read your poem from the Moon Wheel Banquet. It's truly magnificent. I can't believe you're that skilled in poetry."

"I only know a little. Hehe."

Chu Kuangren touched his nose.

He was being honest. In terms of poetry, he only knew a little. All he could do was memorize poems.

However, the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal would never believe him.

After Tang Haitang had consumed the pill, the surrounding snow and freezing qi immediately converged towards her violently like a raging tide.

Upon seeing that, the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal waved his sleeves to activate the formation technique.

Countless Daoist patterns appeared and swirled around the area, eventually enveloping the entire planet. Soon, large amounts of freezing qi rushed towards the snowy mountain peak.

In the blink of an eye, Tang Haitang was frozen into an ice sculpture!

Chapter 863: Immortal Physique Awakened, Moon Frost Immortal Physique, Challenge of the Second Seat

On a snowy mountain in Frost Planet.

Godly Moon Daoist Celestial was a little nervous when he saw Tang Haitang covered in frost.

Chu Kuangren said, "Please rest assured, Brother Godly Moon. I guarantee with my life that Lady Tang will be fine."

"Yeah. I trust you, Brother Chu."

Only then did Godly Moon Daoist Celestial feel a little relieved.

Cold air from all around constantly gathered and flowed towards Tang Haitang's body. Although her body did not seem alive, it looked like a bottomless pit that sucked in all the cold air.

Her vitality was frozen, but her body system was still functioning. How could such a contradiction happen in Tang Haitang?

Three days later, Tang Haitang had sucked almost all of the Ice Spiritual Power in the entire planet.

“Master, the time has come.”

Lil Ai, the Omniscient Spirit, reminded Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren nodded. “Understood.”

Then, he repositioned himself and spread his palm out.

A golden-red Phoenix’s Flame circulated on his palm and erupted outward, enveloping the ice cube that had frozen Tang Haitang whole.

“It’s... the Phoenix’s Flame!”

Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal looked on with shock.

Chu Kuangren had cast the flame that could only be used by the Godly Phoenix.

“Brother Chu is full of surprises.”

Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal looked at Chu Kuangren with admiration.

He was even more certain that Chu Kuangren would become an Immortal.

Under the flame and the ice, Tang Haitang reacted with a slight frown as if she was uncomfortable.

At the same time, a terrifying force that had been sealed in Tang Haitang’s body for a long time began to brew. It was ready to erupt under the stimulation of ice and flame!

Chu Kuangren activated the Tome of Physiques in his body.

In his field of vision, the power in Tang Haitang’s body turned into countless interweaving mysterious Daoist patterns, which he analyzed one by one.

“The blurry Daoist patterns have become clearer with the awakening of the Immortal Physique. Once Lady Tang’s Immortal Physique fully awakens, I can completely analyze it and keep it for my use!”

Chu Kuangren mumbled.

Time passed.

Under the dual stimulation of the Phoenix’s Flame and frost energy, the power in Tang Haitang’s body became more uncontrollable.

Upon seeing that, Chu Kuangren put away the Phoenix’s Flame and shattered the ice cube.

He made a sword hand sign, and a spark of light gathered at his fingertip before turning into a slender flaming needle and piercing Tang Haitang’s body.

To help Tang Haitang awaken her Immortal Physique, Chu Kuangren combined alchemy, formation, Phoenix’s Flame, and medical skills. Moreover, the requirements for each of them were very high. If one of them was not up to par, Tang Haitang’s Immortal Physique would not awaken.

It was extremely difficult to awaken an Immortal Physique.

That was why Tang Haitang’s Immortal Physique had not been awakened for so long.

Tang Haitang suddenly opened her eyes when the Phoenix's Flame needle penetrated her body. Her eyes were white like ice crystals.

"Ah..."

Accompanied by a long whistle, countless Daoist patterns appeared on Tang Haitang's body, and a terrifying freezing qi emanated from her.

The surrounding wind and snow gathered and froze as a result.

Freezing qi from the Immortal Physique shrouded the entire snow-covered planet, which felt like it had been turned into an iceberg floating in the universe, filled with freezing qi.

The Immortal Physique was awakened, and it froze the planet!

"It's an ice-type Immortal Physique!"

Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal was a little surprised.

His expression changed when he noticed that the Immortal Physique's powerful energy wave was still spreading outward. As such, he quickly enveloped the surroundings with Pseudo Immortal's power.

A white aura emanated and turned into a forcefield.

As the Immortal Physique's power hit the forcefield, the entire planet shook under the violent impact of the two peerless powers.

"It has only just awakened, yet it already has such power. No wonder it's an Immortal Physique," Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal exclaimed in awe.

That was also one of the reasons Chu Kuangren asked him to come.

Only a Pseudo Immortal's power could isolate the energy wave emitted by an Immortal Physique's awakening and prevent other forces from detecting it.

Otherwise, an Immortal Physique would cause the entire Violet Gold Galaxy to shake. By then, those civilizations would definitely make their move.

If they could not own the Immortal Physique, they would probably wipe it out to protect their status.

That was the cruelty of the universe.

"Analyze..."

Chu Kuangren was the nearest to Tang Haitang.

In his eyes, it was difficult to tell whether they were countless mysterious runes or Daoist patterns circulating within.

He could see the mystery of the Immortal Physique. Through the Tome of Physiques, he analyzed it and then integrated it into himself.

Very soon, a new and powerful physique began to take shape in the Tome of Physiques.

Four Chinese characters appeared on the page.

Moon Frost Immortal Physique!

It was the Immortal Physique Tang Haitang possessed.

It was also one of the physiques that Chu Kuangren would possess from now on!

“It worked!”

Chu Kuangren grinned.

Tang Haitang’s Immortal Physique energy wave gradually subsided, and her ice crystal-like eyes returned to their normal appearance.

She knew that something was different about her.

She could feel the power in her body.

It was a power that she dared not think about in the past.

“Heavenly Imperial!”

“I’ve broken through to the Heavenly Imperial Realm!”

Tang Haitang was extremely surprised.

Following the Immortal Physique’s awakening, her cultivation level instantly broke through from the ordinary Initial Emperor Realm to the Heavenly Imperial Realm. Moreover, she was a Greater Heavenly Imperial!

She had broken through several realms at once.

The Immortal Physique’s power made the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal and Godly Moon Daoist Celestial speechless.

“Is this the Immortal Physique? How terrifying.”

“I can feel the huge growth potential in that body. I’m afraid even Planet Zi’s and Planet Jin’s First Seat can’t beat it.”

The growth potential in each Immortal Physique was different.

Sometimes the difference was huge.

If the probability of other Immortal Progenies becoming Immortals was one, then the probability for Tang Haitang becoming an Immortal was more than ten.

Sometimes, the probability could even be more than dozens.

“What a joyous occasion this is.”

Godly Moon Daoist Celestial looked at Tang Haitang excitedly. After all, having an Immortal Physique was equivalent to having an infinitely bright future, and he was delighted for his daughter.

Then, he looked at Chu Kuangren and said solemnly, "Brother Chu, I'll forever remember your kindness. Don't hesitate to speak up if there's anything that I can do for you in the future. I'll never turn you down as long as it's within my ability."

"You're too kind, Brother Godly Moon."

Chu Kuangren smiled.

He had gained a lot from helping Tang Haitang to awaken her Immortal Physique as well. Perhaps even more than what Tang Haitang gained. Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal and Godly Moon Daoist Celestial would never be able to fathom the mystery of Tome of Physiques.

After helping Tang Haitang to awaken her Immortal Physique, Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal returned to Dusty Sky Planet while Chu Kuangren and the rest returned to Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom.

Chu Kuangren went for closed-door meditation upon returning.

He had to get acquainted with the Immortal Physique's power. Moreover, there was still a lot of Moonlight from the Moon Wheel Banquet that he had not absorbed, and he had to study the Moonlight Essence carefully.

In short, he had gained a lot.

For a moment, he was overwhelmed by them all.

Besides him, Tang Haitang also went into closed-door meditation. However, hers was much easier as she only needed to get used to her Immortal Physique.

During their closed-door meditation, a major incident happened in the outside world. Planet Zi's Second Seat sky-pride had successfully broken through to the Great Daoist Celestial Realm and challenged the First Seat.

As a result, he failed!

The battle astonished many veterans and elites.

However, Planet Zi's Second Seat Elite, Zi Tianhen, then challenged Chu Kuangren and caused an uproar..

Chapter 864: Refining the Moonlight Essence, Source Realm, Moon Source

"Have you heard about it? Planet Zi's Second Seat, Zi Tianhen, has broken through to the Great Daoist Celestial Realm. Not only that, but he has also challenged Chu Kuangren."

"Of course. This news is everywhere. I also heard that Zi Tianhen challenged the First Seat, Zi Xiao, but he was defeated. Tsk tsk. Although the Second Seat has broken through to the Great Daoist Celestial Realm, he still isn't the First Seat's match. Zi Xiao is too powerful."

"He's no doubt one of the strongest in the Violet Gold Galaxy'."

“Now, Zi Tianhen has challenged Chu Kuangren, whose previous records are also impressive. First, he defeated a group of Immortal Progenies, and then he killed the Fourth Seat, Zi Ying. Perhaps he can fight Zi Tianhen.”

“I knew those from Planet Zi wouldn’t let Chu Kuangren go that easily, but I didn’t expect them to take action so quickly and in such a way.”

The major forces in Planet Zi had set their sights on this battle. As soon as the challenge was issued, Zi Tianhen, as one of the duelists, already left for the Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom.

However, upon his arrival at the Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom, he was told by the Godly Moon Daoist Celestial that Chu Kuangren was in closed-door meditation.

“I’ll wait for him outside the Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom. Once he’s out, please tell him that no matter what, he must accept this challenge!”

Zi Tianhen said arrogantly.

After that, he turned around and left. He stayed on an uninhabited planet outside the Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom while waiting for Chu Kuangren.

At the same time, he also sent a few people to keep an eye on the city lord’s mansion.

Zi Tianhen would be notified once Chu Kuangren appeared.

...

In the city lord’s mansion.

Chu Kuangren was in closed-door meditation, refining the huge amount of Moonlight, which was enough to raise his cultivation to another level.

Besides the Moonlight, he was also trying to understand the Immortal Physique’s power.

The power of the Immortal Physique was indeed extraordinary. It gave Chu Kuangren the ability to manipulate freezing qi and made him uniquely endowed in the cultivation of Frost-type Dao. His cultivation speed was much faster than other cultivators.

However, Chu Kuangren did not intend to specialize in cultivating Frost-type Dao.

He had his own Dao.

The Moon Frost Immortal Physique was just an auxiliary means for Chu Kuangren.

Other than the Immortal Physique and Moonlight, Chu Kuangren was concerned with the Moonlight Essence.

“The Moonlight Essence that can sense the source energy? How can I not care about this?” Chu Kuangren fiddled with the Moonlight Essence.

Immortals had mastery of the source energy.

To become an Immortal, he must first sense the source energy. However, that was where ninety-nine percent of the cultivators in the world were intercepted.

In the universe, most treasures or methods that could help cultivators sense the source energy, such as the Moonlight Essence, were priceless.

Chu Kuangren held the Moonlight Essence in hand and began to refine it.

In a trance, his consciousness escaped from his body and came to a colorful yet peculiar space filled with all kinds of mysteries.

Chu Kuangren saw a flaming meteor fly past him, a snowstorm broke out, and a huge tree rose from the ground...

Every scene had its unique Daoist Rhyme.

"This is... the Source Realm!"

Chu Kuangren mumbled, seemingly understanding something.

The Source Realm was a conceptual world!

There was no fixed place, time, and form, but it existed among all things. For example, a flower and a grain of sand might have the existence of the Source Realm. However, it was extremely difficult to enter the Source Realm.

Even Immortals might not be able to enter it as they want.

"The Moonlight Essence brought my consciousness into the Source Realm. This is also the first step to understanding a source."

Chu Kuangren looked at the surrounding sceneries, which were all created by thousands of sources in the universe. He could sense the source energy through those scenes, but they were too mysterious for him to figure it out.

For example, Chu Kuangren stared at a volcano and wanted to understand its source energy. Yet, in the next moment, the volcano turned into an iceberg.

The scenes kept changing and were very confusing.

It was impossible to fix his attention on one thing and understand the source.

At that crucial moment, a ray of white light appeared in front of Chu Kuangren.

It was the Moonlight Essence dashing in a direction!

With a flicker of his mind, Chu Kuangren followed the Moonlight Essence.

Soon, his consciousness arrived at a mysterious place. It was an ocean, with a bright moon rising above.

As if alarmed by Chu Kuangren's arrival, the spectacular scene began to fluctuate like it was going to dissipate in the next second.

However, the Moonlight Essence fell on the bright moon and merged with it. In an instant, the bright moon, which was about to disperse, stabilized again.

Chu Kuangren's eyes lit up at the Dao fluctuation contained in the bright moon. Without delay, he started to gain insight from the bright moon.

Time went by, and three days had passed.

Chu Kuangren's consciousness had been in the Source Realm for three days.

Only when the Moonlight Essence was exhausted and when the spectacular view of the bright moon on the ocean in Source Realm dissipated did his consciousness return to him.

"So this is the source..."

Chu Kuangren mumbled. He opened his palm, where a ray of Moonlight with freezing qi was circulating. Unlike other Moonlight, that Moonlight contained an extremely powerful energy fluctuation.

It was not any ordinary Moonlight.

It was the Moon Source!

It may only be one ray, but that one ray of Moon Source could allow Chu Kuangren to kill any existence below Heavenly Daoist Celestial.

Moreover, Chu Kuangren could continue to gain more mysterious insights and Moon Sources based on the current Moon Source.

A Moonlight Essence enabled him to step into the Origin Domain.

That gain was no worse than obtaining the Moon Frost Immortal Physique.

"Thanks to my extraordinary cognizance, I could sense the Moon Source from the Moonlight Essence in the Source Realm and then master it. If it were other cultivators, gaining insight to the Moon Source would be their limit..." Chu Kuangren chuckled.

During that closed-door meditation, he had absorbed all the Moonlights in his body, allowing him to ascend to a late-stage Great Daoist Celestial from a new Great Daoist Celestial!

In addition to the Moon Frost Immortal Physique and Moon Source...

His combat level had risen to another level as well.

"Even the two First Seats in today's Violet Gold Galaxy may not be my opponents... No, even if you add up all Immortal Progenies in this galaxy, I am not afraid!" Chu Kuangren felt the strength in his body, and a hint of contempt appeared in his eyes.

All he had to do next was wait for the Fragmented Immortal World's appearance.

"I wonder how things are outside."

Chu Kuangren mobilized his Emperor Thoughts to cover the entire Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom.

Soon, he found out about the incidents that had happened during that time, including the challenge from Zi Tianhen.

“Planet Zi’s Second Seat?”

“I just killed the Fourth Seat, and here comes their Second Seat. What a nuisance!”

He shook his head and walked out of the room.

The moment he appeared, the elites who had been observing in the dark sensed it, and a glint flashed across their eyes.

“Chu Kuangren has shown himself!”

“Hurry. Inform His Highness.”

“Hmph. He has finally shown up!”

The news of Chu Kuangren coming out from his closed-door meditation spread across the city like wildfire, and Zi Tianhe was the first to get the news..

Chapter 865: Out From Closed-Door Meditation, Lazy To Deal With Him, Guqin Music And Sword Dance

Outside the Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom.

On a planet, a young man with sword-like eyebrows and a starry gaze was sitting cross-legged. His energy was flowing, and countless starlights surrounded him.

All of a sudden, the young man opened his eyes.

A ray of light flashed across the air, shattering countless starlights.

He stood up, looked in the direction of the Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom, and snorted. “Chu Kuangren, the Sword Poet Immortal, you’re finally out from your closed-door meditation!”

The young man was Zi Tianhen, Planet Zi’s Seat who challenged Chu Kuangren.

He knew Chu Kuangren was out from his closed-door meditation.

Not only him, but all the forces received the news as well. Everyone looked in the direction of the city lord’s mansion, keen to see how Chu Kuangren was planning to deal with it.

“It seems like this fight is imperative for Zi Tianhen.”

“That’s for sure. Planet Zi won’t give Chu Kuangren a break because he killed Zi Ying, and Zi Tianhen is taking revenge.”

“It depends how far Chu Kuangren’s strength has reached. Since Zi Tianhen has broken through to a Great Daoist Celestial, his strength is not as Zi Ying’s.”

“That’s right...”

Few Emperor Thoughts were communicating in the void.

The city lord's mansion immediately became everyone's focal point.

To be more precise, Chu Kuangren became the crowd's focus.

"Brother Chu, what are you planning to do?" asked Godly Moon Daoist Celestial upon seeing Chu Kuangren.

"Heh. What do you mean? Just ignore it."

Chu Kuangren chuckled.

"Just ignore it?"

"Yes. If I accept every Immortal Progeny's challenge, just how busy will I be then?" said Chu Kuangren.

He did not take Zi Tianhen seriously at all.

Moreover, he was too lazy to respond to the challenge.

For the next few days, he stayed in the city lord's mansion reading, drinking, and sometimes visiting the attractions in the Ancient Godly City.

To the others, it looked like he was living a relaxing and comfortable life.

In truth, only Chu Kuangren's Heaven Soul was relaxing. His Earth Soul and Hell Soul were battling in the Astral Illusory Realm, performing the two great Esoteric Arts.

However, nobody knew about that.

A few days had passed.

Chu Kuangren still did not respond to the challenge.

For a moment, the entire Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom began discussing.

"The Immortal Progeny Zi Tianhen has challenged Chu Kuangren, but Chu Kuangren is still so laid back. Does he not care about Zi Tianhen?"

"Could he be afraid?"

"Afraid?"

"Exactly. The one challenging him is Planet Zi's Second Seat, the Great Daoist Celestial Zi Tianhen. He's too afraid to accept the challenge but too embarrassed to say so. That is why he's using this way to cover up his weakness."

Some cultivators said with certainty. With the help of those who came up with it, the story of Chu Kuangren not responding to the challenge because he was weak spread throughout the Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom. Chu Kuangren's reputation almost fell to the bottom.

"Sword Poet Immortal? It's all fake and bullsh*t."

"Heh. He's an Immortal Progeny, yet he doesn't dare to accept the challenge. He has the poise of an Immortal, but not the heart of an immortal."

“Indeed. So disappointing.”

“Chu Kuangren? The name was for nothing.”

Rumors slandered Chu Kuangren from everywhere.

On that day.

Chu Kuangren was drinking in the largest brothel in the Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom, and a group of beautiful female dancers was dancing gracefully in front of him.

It was Breeze Lunar Mansion.

Besides being the largest brothel, it was also the largest gold squandering establishment in the Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom. However, Chu Kuangren had plenty of spiritual marrows and did not mind spending them.

He was not a poor cultivator.

Occasionally, he enjoyed moments of relaxation, just like what he was doing right now.

He was enjoying music with a glass of wine in hand and watching stunning beauties dancing in front of him. He found it very pleasing.

“Reward.”

Chu Kuangren chuckled.

With a wave of his hand, million catties of spiritual marrows were rewarded to the beauties.

“Thank you, Master. Thank you, Master.”

Beside Chu Kuangren, a plump and beautiful woman was smiling from ear to ear. She was the owner of Breeze Lunar Mansion.

She looked at the spendthrift Chu Kuangren with twinkling eyes.

Although she had heard about the rumors, none of it was important to her.

In Breeze Lunar Mansion, women cared about spiritual marrows and not any challenges or Immortal Progenies.

As a handsome man who had plenty of spiritual marrows and spent extravagantly, Chu Kuangren was Breeze Lunar Mansion’s perfect customer.

“Come, Master. Let’s have a toast again.”

Breeze Lunar Mansion’s Madam raised a flagon to fill Chu Kuangren’s glass up.

“Madam, your Boundless Breeze Lunar is simply the best in Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom.” Chu Kuangren looked at the wine glass in his hand and chuckled.

Boundless Breeze Lunar was the most expensive wine in Breeze Lunar Mansion.

Chu Kuangren fell in love with it the first time he tasted it. He even asked Lil Ai to analyze it so that he could brew it when he had the time.

It would be wonderful if he could have a couple of mouthfuls whenever he felt like drinking it.

“That’s for sure. Those who come to the Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom must do two things. First is to visit the Moon Gazing Platform to see the Moon Wheel Secret Realm, and second is to visit Breeze Lunar Mansion for a flagon of Boundless Breeze Lunar.”

Breeze Lunar Mansion’s Madam said proudly.

Then, she smiled and said to Chu Kuangren beside her, “By the way, Lil Yue and a few others have come up with a new dance. Would you like to see it, Master?”

“Oh, sure.” Chu Kuangren nodded.

Breeze Lunar Mansion’s Madam clapped her hand once.

In an instant, a new group of female dancers appeared on the stage.

They bowed to Chu Kuangren and then started dancing.

Each of the female dancers held a sword. Their movements were light and graceful like a swan’s. However, there was a boldness to it when the sword ray flickered and the sound of golden jade echoed.

“Nice dance, but where’s the music?” asked Chu Kuangren.

“Lil Yue and the rest have only just created this dance. They haven’t found suitable music for it yet,” said Breeze Lunar Mansion’s Madam.

“A dance without music is like a fly in the ointment. Let me add the last touch.” Chu Kuangren chuckled.

He lifted his hand and grabbed a guqin not far from him. As soon as his fingers plucked the strings, graceful guqin music rang out.

Beside him, the Breeze Lunar Mansion’s Madam’s eyes lit up.

Master Chu could play the guqin too?

The majestic guqin music blended well with the female dancers’ dance.

One played the music while the others danced.

Chu Kuangren and the female dancers complemented each other perfectly.

“This guqin music... I’m afraid Master Chu knows more than this!” Breeze Lunar Mansion’s Madam was infatuated by such a sight.

When she looked at his face, she could not help but become smitten with Chu Kuangren.

The guqin music echoed all around and spread out from Breeze Lunar Mansion.

Many people heard the guqin music.

“This guqin music... Who? Who is playing it?”

"It's from Breeze Lunar Mansion. Could it be Breeze Lunar Mansion's guqin master?"

"This guqin music is majestic and profound. It looks like Breeze Lunar Mansion has found itself a guqin expert. Let's go and have a look."

Many people were attracted by the guqin music, and they all headed toward Breeze Lunar Mansion.

In the Breeze Lunar Mansion, the female dancers danced along to the guqin music. With their swaying bodies and the sword ray everywhere, it was a dazzling and mesmerizing sight to behold.

The pitch of the guqin music was getting higher and higher while the movement of sword dance became bigger and bigger.

For a moment there, it seemed like thousands of troops were fighting and that the group of female dancers had incarnated as battlefield generals who were not inferior to men at all.

The cultivators that came to Breeze Lunar Mansion were shocked to see the scene.

The female dancers stopped dancing when the guqin music stopped playing.

Their faces were flushed, and sweat was dripping all over them. However, their eyes were brighter than ever. The dance just now was the most enjoyable and well-performed dance in their lives. It felt as if humans and nature were one.

"As dazzling as Yi shooting the nine suns and as graceful as a group of emperors riding dragons in the sky. The dance started with a breathtaking bang and ended calmly..."

Chu Kuangren's voice sounded.

He looked at the female dancers with admiration and then raised his glass of wine. "Fantastic dance.. Allow me to propose a toast to you all!"

Chapter 866: Zi Tianhen Came To Provoke, What a Closed-off Worldview, Where's Your Heavenly Might

"As dazzling as Yi shooting the nine suns and as graceful as a group of emperors riding dragons in the sky.

"The dance started with a breathtaking bang and ended calmly..."

Breeze Lunar Mansion's Madam mumbled.

Then, she looked at Chu Kuangren with admiration in her eyes and began to clap. "You, pour the ladies some wine. Please, allow me to propose a toast to you, Master Chu."

"Ha! A toast to you too."

Chu Kuangren chuckled and gulped down the wine in his glass.

"We propose a toast to you, Master."

The lady who headed the group of female dancers raised her glass toward Chu Kuangren and downed the wine in her glass in one gulp. Their eyes were bright as they looked at Chu Kuangren.

“Unbelievable, Master. Not only can you play the guqin, but you are also a very skilled player. What’s the name of the song just now?”

The lady who headed the female dancers, Lil Yue, asked.

“It has been a while since I last played. I’m a little out of practice.”

Chu Kuangren chuckled.

Upon hearing him, Breeze Lunar Mansion’s guqin master felt embarrassed.

“The song just now was played based on how I was feeling. Hence, there isn’t a name for it. It’s my gift to Breeze Lunar Mansion.” Chu Kuangren chuckled.

His Guqin Dao had reached the realm of the Great Daoist Stringless a few years ago, and the occasional inspiration from him would become a world-shattering masterpiece.

“So you created this music for us?”

The eyes of Lil Yue and the rest lit up.

“That’s right.”

“Thank you, Master.”

The female dancers were overjoyed and delighted.

They looked at Chu Kuangren with their eyes overflowing with admiration.

Breeze Lunar Mansion’s guqin masters smiled bitterly. To think that he made a brilliant song merely based on his emotion, Chu Kuangren’s Guqin Dao was much more skilled than theirs.

“I didn’t know Chu Kuangren could play the guqin. Moreover, he’s very good at it. What a surprise.”

“Did you hear his poem just now? He’s no doubt the Sword Poet Immortal to have come up with another legendary poem.”

“Tsk tsk. He is undoubtedly a hero through the ages.”

Those cultivators who were attracted by the guqin music were all in awe. As they looked at the female dancers surrounding Chu Kuangren, their eyes gleamed with jealousy.

“Hmph. No matter how good his poem and guqin skill is, he’s just a coward who’s hiding for a fight.”

One of the cultivators grunted, and the rest of the cultivators who were jealous of Chu Kuangren joined him upon hearing his statement.

“You’re right. He’s a coward who hides from a fight.”

“Hmph. Instead of thinking about making progress as an Immortal Progeny, he’s spending all day lingering in the redlight district? And he wants to become an Immortal? In his f*cking dreams!”

“Zi Tianhen is so much more powerful than him.”

All kinds of comments that belittled Chu Kuangren began to spread.

Chu Kuangren naturally heard them all.

However, before he could take action, Breeze Lunar Mansion's Madam's eyes turned cold. A surge of mighty Emperor qi rushed out from her sleeves and sent those despicable people flying out of the mansion.

"What nonsense. Don't ever think about entering Breeze Lunar Mansion from now on."

Breeze Lunar Mansion's Madam said domineeringly. She was not an ordinary lady. Without any techniques, she would not have been able to keep Breeze Lunar Mansion, the largest gold squandering establishment in the Ancient Godly City, running.

1

In fact, she had attained the realm of a Great Daoist Celestial a long time ago. Moreover, she was a peak-stage Great Daoist Celestial, second only to a Heavenly Daoist Celestial.

"Master Chu, my apology for the poor reception. I shouldn't have let those rotten tongues spoil your mood," Breeze Lunar Mansion's Madam apologized.

"It's fine." Chu Kuangren was not bothered at all.

"Music."

Breeze Lunar Mansion's Madam clapped her hand once.

Before the music could play, a domineering aura descended from the sky and locked onto the entire Breeze Lunar Mansion.

"Chu Kuangren, you really are enjoying yourself!"

A voice with a slight annoyance sounded in the void.

In the sky above Breeze Lunar Mansion, a purpled-clothed figure with sword-like eyebrows and starry gaze appeared out of nowhere. It was none other than Zi Tianhen.

Zi Tianhen's sudden appearance surprised everyone.

Chu Kuangren looked at him mischievously. "It's an Emperor Thought projection. How can I help you?"

The figure before him was not Zi Tianhen's original vessel but a projection of his Emperor Thought. Even so, it had such a strong poise.

It showed just how powerful Zi Tianhen was.

"Chu Kuangren, why didn't you respond to my challenge?"

Zi Tianhen asked coldly.

"Hmph. Why must I?"

Chu Kuangren chuckled.

“Are you afraid?”

“Don’t think too highly of yourself.”

“If you aren’t afraid, why are you avoiding the fight? Chu Kuangren, you killed my planet’s Immortal Progeny. Although the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal is backing you, don’t ever think that you’ll have peace of mind. I’m challenging you now for a fight between Immortal Progenies. If you have the guts, take my challenge, fight with me, and end the grudge!” said Zi Tianhen to Chu Kuangren coldly.

Then, a more powerful aura emanated from Zi Tianhen’s Emperor Thought projection.

“Such powerful energy. It’s only an Emperor Thought projection, yet it has such poise. The combat strength of his true form must be even more powerful.”

“The Second Seat is truly extraordinary.”

“Chu Kuangren’s power must be a close one if he wants to defeat Zi Tianhen.”

Everyone was secretly amazed.

Some people who had kept watch on the battle between Zi Tianhen and the First Seat, Zi Xiao, knew more about Zi Tianhen’s strength.

In their opinion, it would be very difficult for Chu Kuangren to win this battle.

On top of Chu Kuangren’s performance these days, many people had acquiesced that Chu Kuangren was not Zi Tianhen’s match.

“A fight with you?”

Chu Kuangren shook his head and chuckled upon hearing Zi Tianhen’s statement.

“What are you laughing at?!”

Zi Tianhen furrowed his eyebrows, feeling humiliated.

“What makes you think that you can fight me? Based on the fact that you’ve broken through to a Great Daoist Celestial? Or that you’re Planet Zi’s Second Seat? You’re just too insignificant. You don’t qualify as my opponent.”

Chu Kuangren remarked.

Everyone was astonished by Chu Kuangren’s arrogant statement.

“Crazy!”

“Does he know who he’s talking about?”

“Hmph. I’m sure he’s just fooling us. If he’s as powerful as he just mentioned, why hasn’t he responded to the challenge after so long?”

Some were shocked, while some snorted.

In the sky, the face of Zi Tianhen's Emperor Thought projection darkened. "You think you're invincible for killing Zi Ying? The strength of a Second Seat is different from a Fourth Seat!"

"All I did was use a little of my energy to kill Zi Ying, and all of you thought that was all the strength I had? What a closed-off worldview. Where's your Heavenly Might?!"

A powerful and terrifying aura erupted from Chu Kuangren's body.

With that, the entire Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom trembled.

As the one who took the brunt of the terrifying aura, the expression of Zi Tianhen's Emperor Thought projection changed. Then, the Emperor Thought projection fluctuated and collapsed!

On the planet far away, Zi Tianhen immediately opened his eyes and stared in the direction of the Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom. "Such might. How is that even possible?!"

In terms of might alone, Chu Kuangren was already a level above Zi Tianhen!

However, why did he release his energy over there?

Zi Tianhen could not understand.

As such, he mobilized his Emperor Thought towards the Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom.

In Breeze Lunar Mansion, an incomparable might was spreading continuously as Chu Kuangren soared into the sky with a flagon of Boundless Breeze Lunar in hand.

His might was still rising steadily.

"What is he planning to do exactly?"

"That momentum... is terrifying!"

Everyone was secretly stunned.

They had a feeling that they might have made the wrong assumption. Chu Kuangren had no reason to be afraid of Zi Tianhen with the might he possessed.

In the city lord's mansion, the Godly Moon Daoist Celestial had also sensed Chu Kuangren's might. He chuckled.. "He's finally willing to fight."

Chapter 867: Wrote A Poem And Raised His Sword, An Astonishing Sword Attack, Killing Another Planet Zi Seat

At Breeze Lunar Mansion in the Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom, an incomparable and terrifying aura was spreading continuously.

All elites were immediately alarmed by the powerful energy.

"Such powerful energy... Whose is it?"

“Could it be...”

Rays of lights shot out while Emperor Thoughts surged within the Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom. Soon, they had locked down on the source of the powerful energy.

All elites looked at the sky above Breeze Lunar Mansion with shock.

“It is him!”

“This energy is much more powerful than it was in the Moon Gazing Platform.”

“How did he manage to improve so quickly?”

“A late-stage Great Daoist Celestial!”

Everyone found it unbelievable. After all, it was difficult for one to make progress after reaching the Daoist Celestial Realm. Even breaking through a small stage required tons of effort and resources to do so.

It often took tens of thousands of years!

However, it only took Chu Kuangren a few months!

He had just only stepped into the Great Daoist Celestial Realm a few months ago, and a few months later, he had ascended into a late-stage Great Daoist Celestial!

Even if he was a top-notch Immortal Progeny, that rate of progress was unbelievable to all the Daoist Celestials.

“What is he trying to do by releasing such powerful energy?”

A Daoist Celestial was puzzled.

However, they soon knew the reason.

Everyone’s eyes lit up as soon as they knew that Zi Tianhen had come to provoke Chu Kuangren.

“Is he finally going to take action?”

“It looks like the duel is about to begin.”

Everyone was looking forward to the fight.

One of them was an Immortal Progeny who had risen to fame recently, and another was Planet Zi’s Second Seat. The fight would surely be interesting.

Nevertheless, the crowd waited for quite a while but did not see Chu Kuangren taking any action. He was suspended above Breeze Lunar Mansion, with a flagon in hand, and did not look like he wanted to battle Zi Tianhen.

Why did he release such terrifying energy if he was not planning to fight?

Was it just to scare people off?

“Found it.”

Chu Kuangren suddenly spoke.

He looked into the horizon in the distance and through many obstacles before he finally found Zi Tianhen on a planet outside the Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom.

On the planet, Zi Tianhen's eyes widened in fear.

'What is he going to do?'

Above the Breeze Lunar Mansion, Chu Kuangren raised the Boundless Breeze Lunar in his hand and gulped down most of it.

He felt nothing when he first tasted the wine. However, having drunk a few flagons of wine before and downed half of it now, the accumulated alcoholic qi in him instantly erupted.

Chu Kuangren could have expelled the alcoholic qi in him, but he did not. Suddenly, his face turned a little rosy, and his sight became hazy.

Everyone found it weird.

'Is this a drinking battle?'

"What exactly is Chu Kuangren trying to do?"

The crowd was puzzled, to say the least.

After a burp, the tipsy Chu Kuangren said loudly, "A poem and a sword is my greatest wish in life, and I am going to live up to the mad reputation I've built for the past forty years."

As soon as he said that, his terrifying aura reached its peak.

He took a deep breath, and the surrounding wind and clouds surged as he inhaled countless spiritual qi into his body.

All the powerful cultivators in Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom could feel their scalp turn numb, and they stared at Chu Kuangren in fear.

Daoist patterns flowed through Chu Kuangren's body. The second he opened his mouth and spat, spiritual qi, Emperor qi, and alcoholic qi turned into a murderous sword qi that swept out. Along with boundless wind and cloud qi, the sword qi shot towards the distance.

"Gulp..."

"You're qualified to fight with me if you can stop this sword attack."

Chu Kuangren said after another burp.

Upon hearing his statement, the crowd quickly looked toward the sword qi.

They had guessed something.

The sword qi was like a stream of light and flew out of the Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom in the blink of an eye, heading towards the boundless universe.

It was aiming at Zi Tianhen thousands of kilometers away!

The sword qi was so powerful that it could tear a planet apart!

Locked on by the sword qi, Zi Tianhen felt an unprecedentedly terrifying aura, which caused him to shudder in fear.

“Immortal Technique, Galactical Starlight Immolation!”

Chu Kuangren roared and channeled his cultivation to its fullest potential. Then, an Immortal Technique’s energy wave erupted and blasted away the sky full of starlight.

A galaxy that stretched for ten thousand kilometers emerged from the sky!

The galaxy and the sword qi collided in a bang!

An explosion erupted.

The galaxy exploded!

The sword qi emerged from the collision and headed straight towards Zi Tianhen!

“What the hell just happened?!”

Zi Tianhen was in shock.

He had put in all his strength into that attack.

However, it was destroyed by Chu Kuangren’s sword qi so effortlessly. Just how far had his opponent’s strength gotten?

“Will I die?!”

Facing the sword qi, the horrifying thought popped up in Zi Tianhen’s mind.

Planet Zi’s Second Seat began to panic.

Nevertheless, he suppressed his fear in an instant and roared, “Godly Netting Heaven Starlight Forcefield, activate!”

He raised his hand to unleash a golden light, which transformed into a golden forcefield.

Countless Daoist patterns were flowing on its surface, and there were conjurations of mountains and rivers, universe and galaxies, and more.

It was a top-notch defensive Great Daoist Weapon.

Moreover, it was only half a step away from a Heavenly Daoist Weapon.

Boom!

Sword qi blasted on the forcefield.

The terrifying explosion shook the surrounding planets.

The ground beneath Zi Tianhen's feet sank. Some of the escaped sword qi swept across the surface of the planet and created huge cracks on the ground. After a while, the entire planet was close to shattering.

"Ahh!"

Zi Tianhen roared while injecting his Emperor qi continuously into the forcefield.

However, the forcefield cracked inch by inch under the impact of sword qi. Followed by a loud bang, it exploded into countless light spots.

Having been hit by the sword qi, Zi Tianhen's bones and flesh were torn apart on the spot!

Planet Zi's Second Seat had fallen!

After killing Zi Tianhen, the sword qi hit the fractured planet, which could not withstand the impact anymore and shattered at last!

One sword attack was all it took to kill an elite and shatter a planet!

All the elites who witnessed the scene were dumbstruck.

In the Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom, above Breeze Lunar Mansion.

Chu Kuangren downed the remaining Boundless Breeze Lunar in one gulp and chuckled. "He couldn't even take one sword attack. Planet Zi's Second Seat? Rubbish!"

Planet Zi's Second Seat?

Rubbish?!

Upon hearing this, all the elites were so shocked that it took them a long time to recover.

"He wrote a poem before killing someone and even spat a mouthful of peerless sword qi. Chu Kuangren, a Sword Poet Immortal who's good at writing poems and sword techniques!"

"A poem and a sword is my greatest wish in life, and I am going to live up to the mad reputation I've built for the past forty years! My goodness. I just recalled that he's only forty years old. He hasn't even hit sixty! This is terrifying."

"He has such an earth-shattering strength for a forty-year-old. I'm afraid that given a few more years, he will become an Immortal!"

"Sword Poet Immortal... He deserves the name!"

All the elites were astonished.

Among them, there were elderly elites that had lived for countless years. However, it was their first time seeing such an amazing person like Chu Kuangren.

Those who had been belittling Chu Kuangren were also stunned.

A sword attack that traveled thousands of kilometers killed someone and destroyed a planet!

His ability was extremely scary!

What kind of monster had they been belittling!

“No wonder he was reluctant to accept the challenge. It was not because he dared not, but didn’t care! Zi Tianhen was not qualified to be his opponent at all! The gap in their strength was way too big!”

On that day, Chu Kuangren wrote a poem, raised his sword, and then killed a Planet Zi Seat!

The name of Sword Poet Immortal became sensational in the galaxy!

Chapter 868: Awaken God Wine, Aroma for a Hundred Kilometers, Even A Heavenly Daoist Celestial Is Drunk

At Breeze Lunar Mansion in the Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom.

Chu Kuangren returned to the mansion. “Madam, can I get a refill?”

“Alright, Master.”

At that moment, the ladies in Breeze Lunar Mansion were looking at Chu Kuangren with splendid eyes while the elites outside Breeze Lunar Mansion were secretly amazed yet shocked.

After the battle, Chu Kuangren’s reputation shook the entire Violet Gold Galaxy.

All of the forces found it a little hard to take in.

What an extraordinary Immortal Progeny!

After Chu Kuangren returned to the city lord’s mansion, a few of the forces approached him with the intention of recruiting him.

However, Chu Kuangren turned them down.

...

“This Moon Source’s strength is indeed different.”

In the city lord’s mansion, a white ray was floating on Chu Kuangren’s palm.

It was the Moon Source.

That source was the one that enabled him to kill Zi Tianhen so effortlessly in one sword attack.

He was very satisfied with the power of the source.

“It is only a strand of source energy now. I can’t imagine how powerful an Immortal who has mastered the complete source energy is.”

The complete source energy was also called Immortal’s Core.

Only Immortals could use the strength.

“I’ll master the energy one day.”

Chu Kuangren mumbled.

He then kept the source energy in his body.

After that, he started to do his gacha roll as usual.

In the recent months, he had drawn quite a few prizes. However, most of them were some Golden- and Starlight-tier items, which were of little use to him.

He got a few Legendary-grade Daoist Weapons as well, but since he had the offensive Descendant Self Sword and defensive Heavenly Daoist Weapon, he had no need for the rest of the Daoist weapons. Therefore, he sold them to the Three Thousand Firms for more spiritual marrows.

Spiritual marrows were a strong currency that could be used everywhere.

They could even be used during daily cultivation.

Now, Manager Li of Three Thousand Firms treated Chu Kuangren like he was a God of Fortune. He was very enthusiastic. He even offered Chu Kuangren a Three Thousand Firms VIP card that only a few customers had.

“Congratulations, Host! You’ve won a God-tier item, Awaken God Wine!”

Awaken God Wine...

Wine?

Chu Kuangren’s eyes lit up.

He had gotten many items, but this was the first time he got wine.

Moreover, it was a God-tier item?!

Chu Kuangren took out his reward, revealing a black wine jar covered with a red cloth above in front of him.

“It’s only a jar?”

Chu Kuangren removed the wine seal.

A pleasant smell of wine instantly wafted up to his nose.

The aroma of wine spread everywhere, covering a radius of tens of kilometers.

Any cultivators, including an Emperor, who caught a whiff of the wine felt dizzy and drunk.

“F*ck me. Where is the aroma of wine coming from?”

“How terrifying. What wine is this? Its aroma alone is enough to make me drunk...”

“Even the Drunken Dragon Chant that claims to be the strongest wine in the Violet Gold Galaxy is not as strong as this. How ridiculous.”

The aroma of wine spread several hundred kilometers out from the city lord’s mansion, making countless cultivators and commoners so drunk that they collapsed to the ground.

The Emperors with stronger cultivation bases, too, were staggering as they walked.

In the city lord's mansion, some maids' faces were flushed from the wine, and they fell to the ground, sound asleep. In the courtyard, as the one who unsealed the wine and got hit with the strongest aroma, Chu Kuangren also felt dizzy.

Chu Kuangren then activated Emperor qi and only then did everything return to normal.

"Tsk tsk. This God-tier wine is indeed extraordinary."

Chu Kuangren tutted in amazement. Once the alcoholic qi had almost subsided, he started to observe the Awaken God Wine carefully.

The wine was clear as spring water. After the initial alcoholic qi dissipated, it left a mild wine aroma behind.

He opened his mouth and drank a gulp. Soon, a strong alcoholic qi erupted and rushed to his brain.

With a bang, Chu Kuangren felt as if his senses had been extremely magnified. Everything in the world looked different in his eyes.

Awaken God Wine.

A drop could enlighten one's thought, and one glass could affirm one's Dao.

It was an extremely rare and epiphanic wine.

"Great wine!"

Chu Kuangren looked at Awaken God Wine like a treasure.

"If I finish the whole jar, perhaps my progress of deducing the two great Esoteric Arts will get a huge leap in improvement."

"Unfortunately, there is only one jar..."

All of a sudden, Chu Kuangren recalled something, and a glint flashed in his eyes. "Lil Ai, analyze the ingredients of the Awaken God Wine for me."

"Alright..."

Godly Moon Daoist Celestial walked in while Lil Ai was analyzing.

He looked at Awaken God Wine in Chu Kuangren's hand and gulped. "Brother Chu, what wine is this?"

Chu Kuangren chuckled and said, "It's Awaken God Wine. Daoist Brother, would you like to have a glass?"

"Haha, don't mind if I do. Thank you."

The Godly Moon Daoist Celestial laughed.

After that, Chu Kuangren took out two glasses and drank with the Godly Moon Daoist Celestial.

No more than a few drinks in, the Godly Moon Daoist Celestial slumped on the table with a flushed face. A Heavenly Daoist Celestial was surprisingly drunk from a few glasses of Awaken God Wine.

Chu Kuangren beside him also had a flushed face, and his vision was blurry.

"This wine is f*cking strong," muttered Chu Kuangren. If it were not for his powerful physical strength, he would have been no better than the Godly Moon Daoist Celestial.

Hence, he sealed the Awaken God Wine and threw it into the Yin and Yang Ring.

With a thump, Chu Kuangren, too, slumped on the table.

About two hours later, Chu Kuangren woke up and stretched his body. He could feel that his understanding of Dao had improved a little.

"Lil Ai, how's the analysis going?"

"It's completed."

"Great. I can now mass-produce the Awaken God Wine," said Chu Kuangren with delight and his eyes bright.

"The Awaken God Wine's ingredients include several kinds of rare spiritual fruits. Based on its limited resources in Violet Gold Galaxy, it's unrealistic to mass-produce them," said Lil Ai.

"Don't worry about it. It's good enough for my consumption for now."

Chu Kuangren chuckled.

After a while, the Godly Moon Daoist Celestial woke up as well.

"This wine is extremely strong."

Godly Moon Daoist Celestial shook his head.

Then, as if he had sensed something, his eyes widened. "My understanding of Dao has improved!"

Although not much, it was enough to amaze him.

He was a Heavenly Daoist Celestial whose understanding of Dao was one of the best in the galaxy for a long time now. However, it was very difficult for him to improve his Dao. Sometimes, it took dozens of millennia for it to improve a little.

Yet, a few glasses of wine had done the job of dozens of millennia's cultivation.

F*ck him!

What wine was it?

Did an Immortal brew this wine?!

"Brother Chu, what wine is this?"

Godly Moon Daoist Celestial looked incredibly puzzled.

“Heh, a jar of fine wine. I got it by chance.”

Chu Kuangren chuckled.

The next day.

Chu Kuangren came to Three Thousand Firms with the analyzed Awaken God Wine’s recipe. Along his way, many people were talking about the aroma of wine that came from nowhere, reminiscing the smell.

“An Immortal must have brewed that wine. I got drunk right after I smelled it. When I woke up, all the doubts in cultivation that I couldn’t figure out before were all solved. Who could do this besides a Wine Immortal?”

A cultivator said delightedly.

Many people beside him were also yearning for the wine.

Chu Kuangren smiled at the sight of that and did not explain himself. When he got to the Three Thousand Firms, he found Manager Li and entrusted him to look for Awaken God Wine’s ingredients.

However, those ingredients were extremely rare. Even the Three Thousand Firms could not guarantee how many ingredients they could get.

Chu Kuangren told them to get as many as they could. After all, he had plenty of spiritual marrows..

Chapter 869: Holy Violet Temple Lord’s Decision, Firmament Star’s Perils

On a certain purple planet in Violet Gold Galaxy.

Inside a palace.

A burst of terrifying and fury-filled energy erupted, causing all the cultivators on Planet Zi to look in the direction of the palace with shock.

“It’s been a long time since the Temple Lord got this angry.”

“Indeed. I reckon it’s because of recent events.”

“Well, it must be that. After all, the Seats have been slain one after another. No wonder the Temple Lord is so enraged. By the looks of it, he can no longer sit still and do nothing.”

Holy Violet Temple was the strongest cultivation orthodoxy on Planet Zi.

They were also the main driving force of Planet Zi, the pillar of the planet’s entire civilization.

At that moment, a purple light shot out from the palace and burst out in the air. Everybody who saw it could not help but marvel at it.

“The Temple Lord has summoned the Four Great Guardians.”

Whoosh, whoosh...

Several streams of light flew towards the palace.

Inside the palace.

A middle-aged man in a golden robe sat on the very top, with anger brewing in his purple eyes. That person was Holy Violet Temple's Temple Lord.

At the same time, he was also the ruler of Planet Zi!

"The Seats keep getting slain one after the other. How do you guys think we should approach this?"

Holy Violet Temple Lord asked in a cold voice.

Below him, the Four Great Guardians of Planet Zi looked at each other.

"We cannot allow the Sword Poet Immortal, Chu Kuangren, to remain in this realm. If he continues to live, the world will always remember him as the slayer of Planet Zi's Immortal Progenies. Besides, this guy has done too much bad to Planet Zi, so I suggest that we kill him before he gets any stronger."

A middle-aged man dressed in white said.

Planet Zi had four Guardians, namely the Sky, Earth, Dark, and Gold Guardian. The white-clad middle-aged man was the Sky Guardian and the strongest of them all, considering he was a late-stage Heavenly Daoist Celestial.

"I concur."

An old man in black robes said gently.

He was Earth Guardian, the second-ranked Guardian.

"Anything is fine with me. You can kill him if you want to," the young-looking Dark Guardian replied nonchalantly.

"Chu Kuangren cannot be kept alive!"

The last of the four, the Gold Guardian, also agreed with the proposal to kill Chu Kuangren.

Truth be told, the fact that the Holy Violet Temple Lord summoned those four into his palace showed that his patience with Chu Kuangren was at its breaking point.

"Chu Kuangren is not the only one we have to kill. We have to annihilate all those who are backing him as well! The Firmament Star civilization who supports him also needs to be destroyed so that the world can understand that whoever offends Planet Zi will suffer dire consequences!" the Holy Violet Temple Lord said coldly.

"The Firmament Star is just an ordinary high-level cultivation civilization. They only have like a few Daoist Celestials, so we don't have to be worried at all. Destroying such a civilization is a trivial matter. You can leave that to me." Gold Guardian chuckled and said.

There was a hint of tyranny in his eyes, and two sharp canine teeth at the corners of his mouth. A surge of yokai qi faintly emanated from his body.

He was a Planet Zi wild beast who had affirmed his Dao and was savage by nature. Back when Planet Zi was expanding its crusade, many civilizations were wiped out in the process. He was the one who single-handedly carried out most of those.

“Alright. We shall hand over the destruction of Firmament Star to the Gold Guardian. However, don’t forget that Chu Kuangren must not be spared after you destroy Firmament Star. Otherwise, once he grows stronger, the consequences we have to bear will be unimaginable. Hence, there cannot be any errors in our operation to kill Chu Kuangren this time!”

“Chu Kuangren’s biggest backing force is the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal. We can’t ensure that he will not interfere in this operation, so I will ask the Great Forefather to keep him occupied. I will leave the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal’s good friends, Godly Moon Daoist Celestial, and the rest, to you guys,” Holy Violet Temple Lord said.

The Holy Violet Temple Lord had rallied Planet Zi’s Pseudo Immortals and even the Great Forefather for the operation. That just showed how badly he wanted Chu Kuangren dead this time.

“Okay.”

The few of them nodded.

“I shall head to the Firmament Star now then.”

The Gold Guardian said rather impatiently.

“Hold on. “

The Holy Violet Temple Lord stopped him. “When you get to Firmament Star, follow up on Zi Wuhen and the agreement we had with the Blood Origin Star last time. Notify them that we will assist them in occupying Firmament Star. I’ve assigned Zi Wuhen to handle this, but I’ve lost contact with him quite a while ago. I suspect that something has happened to him.”

“You’re saying that they have beings who can harm an Immortal Progeny?”

The Gold Guardian was somewhat surprised.

“Hah. Have you forgotten that Chu Kuangren is from Firmament Star? In my opinion, there’s a very high chance that what happened to Zhi Wuhen has something to do with him.”

The Dark Guardian grinned and said.

“Possibly.”

“So that means three of our Planet Zi Seats have died in the hands of this person?” Sky Guardian asked with a gloomy face.

Every Immortal Progeny was precious to them.

In the current day and age, even the death of one Immortal Progeny would be extremely painful for them.

Now, three of them are dead.

Moreover, they were all killed by the same person!

That fact alone made their killing intent against Chu Kuangren intensify. Even though they knew Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal would be a deterrent, they could not hold back.

“Count me in for your operation to kill Chu Kuangren.”

At this moment, an indifferent voice sounded.

A young man slowly walked into the main hall. He was dressed in a gorgeous purple robe and had jet black hair up to his waist. Like Holy Violet Temple Lord, he also had a pair of purple pupils, but the purple he had was of a lighter shade.

“Your Royal Highness.”

“Your Highness, you want to come with us too?”

The person who just arrived was the First Seat of the Holy Violet Temple, Zi Xiao!

He was also the second most powerful Immortal Progeny in the Violet Gold Galaxy. It was said that his cultivation had reached the Heavenly Daoist Celestial Realm hundreds of years ago.

If so, his cultivation level today would be even more unfathomable.

“I’ll tag along. I want to have a look at this Sword Poet Immortal.”

Zi Xiao bowed his head slightly.

The Holy Violet Temple Lord pondered for a moment before he said, “That’s fine with me, but Chu Kuangren has extraordinary combat strength. Do be careful.”

“In the entire Violet Gold Galaxy, no one below the Heavenly Daoist Celestial level can hurt me!” Zi Xiao stood pridefully with his hands crossed.

...

The ancient Godly Moon Kingdom.

After having the Three Thousand Firms collect the materials for brewing the Godly Awakening Wine, Chu Kuangren returned to the city hall. He held that jug of Godly Awakening Wine he won from the gacha and stayed in his room all day.

When one of the city hall’s servants passed by the room, he recalled whiffing the famed intoxicating alcoholic qi. As soon as he went closer, he got so drunk that he passed out straight away.

When he finally came to, he found that his cultivation level had greatly enhanced.

The story made many people eager to give it a try too.

Later, after a strict prohibition from Godly Moon Daoist Celestial, the people finally avoided Chu Kuangren’s room and stopped bothering him.

Meanwhile, after setting up countless prohibitions around the room, Chu Kuangren drank half a jug of the Godly Awakening Wine all in one gulp. The overwhelming alcoholic qi made him lie down on the bed immediately. He felt so drunk that he could black out anytime.

A few cups of this Godly Awakening Wine would have been strong enough to knock out a Heavenly Daoist Celestial, not to mention half a jug.

Chu Kuangren could feel his soul getting so intoxicated that it was floating, as though it would break away from his body in the next instant and traverse out in the universe.

He barely managed to keep his head clear and urged the Universal Cauldron Physique to refine the alcoholic qi. With that, he entered an unprecedented state of epiphany.

"This time, I must deduce a higher level of the Single Thought Series and Invincible Technique!" Chu Kuangren thought to himself.

His three great souls now had the help of the Godly Awakening Wine.

Chu Kuangren's confidence soared to an unprecedented height.

While he was busy getting 'drunk', a crisis was fast approaching the Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom and Firmament Star.

...

Firmament Star.

A stream of light shot past.

Looking at the blue and white star in front of him, a hint of cruelty lit up in the Gold Guardian's eyes. "What a gorgeous planet. It would be very beautiful if it exploded in the universe again."

"But it's alright, no rush for that. I can wait. I will go down there and have some fun myself before I blow you up and turn you into a colorful display of fireworks in the universe!"

The Gold Guardian let out a hearty laugh and then turned into a stream of light, quickly making his way towards Firmament Star. On his body, a rigorous and brutal yokai qi also erupted instantly.. "Firmament Star, your doom has come!"

Chapter 870: Attack from Planet Zi's Gold Guardian, Heavenly Daoist Celestial Combat Unit Steps In

On Firmament Star.

Firmament Empire, Black Heaven City, the Imperial Palace.

Lan Yu, Gu Linglong, the Transcendental Daoist Celestial, and others seemed to have sensed something, and they all looked up toward the Extraterritorial Region with horror in their eyes.

"This energy... Is it yokai qi?!"

"It's an interstellar yokai qi that we have never seen before!"

“Judging by its qi, this approaching yokai qi seems pretty malicious!”

The Transcendental Daoist Celestial and the others gulped anxiously.

They felt that the strength of this yokai qi was unlike anything they had seen before. Even the strongest yokai tribe’s Daoist Celestial on Firmament Star, Lunar Daoist Celestial’s yokai qi was not even close to the one they were encountering now.

“It’s an enemy!”

The Sword Daoist exclaimed with a solemn expression. Everyone could feel a powerful tyrannical intent surging in that yokai qi.

“What did we do to have provoked such a terrifying being?”

“D*mn. We’ve only just solved the Blood Tribe, and here comes another powerful hostile being!” The Transcendental Daoist Celestial gritted his teeth and said.

“Don’t worry about it. Leave it to me.”

An indifferent voice came from the depths of the imperial palace.

With that, the crowd looked toward that sound.

A puppet slowly stepped out of the imperial palace.

“The King left that behind when he left us.”

“Is that... a combat unit?”

Everyone was stunned. The puppet had countless Daoist patterns intertwining and flowing on its body before it swiftly transformed into a person with Chu Kuangren’s appearance.

“King!”

“It’s the King!”

Chu Kuangren looked up into the sky with a cold expression in his eyes. “You guys stay here. I’ll be back in a minute,” he said gently.

The moment he finished his sentence, his body soared into the sky.

At the same time, a golden stream of light also shot out of the imperial palace.

Inside the stream of light was a big gold seal!

That was the Human King Seal!

On top of leaving the Heavenly Daoist Celestial Combat Unit in the Firmament Star, Chu Kuangren also left the Human King Seal as an additional combative means to deal with any enemies.

In the Extraterritorial Region.

The majestic yokai qi gushed frantically toward Firmament Star.

Suddenly, the Gold Guardian let out a gentle gasp when he saw faint golden Daoist patterns flowing at the atmospheric layer of Firmament Star.

“This is... a formation?!”

“A great formation that envelopes the entire planet. I didn’t think this little Firmament Star could come up with such a formation.”

“But do they really think that this formation can stop me? Bunch of fools!”

The Gold Guardian smirked coldly.

A surge of yokai qi then erupted in full force, and a punch was unleashed. The dark red yokai qi turned into a Giant Blood Wolf apparition and tore away at the atmosphere.

The power of this blow was so incredible that it was powerful enough to shatter a planet.

The Gold Guardian was confident that this Detaching Heaven Megaformation could not sustain this blow. Sure enough, the entire mega formation trembled under the Blood Wolf Aura’s blast.

“Get ready to be crushed!”

The Gold Guardian sneered.

Yet right at this moment, a golden stream of light suddenly shot out from the Detaching Heaven Megaformation and turned into a colossal seal that was as big as a planet.

With a loud bang, the Blood Wolf crashed onto the great seal.

The great seal quaked, and the Blood Wolf instantly disintegrated!

“That is... a fortune treasure!”

The Gold Guardian was slightly taken aback.

Fortune treasures were condensed from the cumulative fortunes of an entire civilization or race. The stronger the civilization, the stronger its fortune treasure would be.

Fortune treasures belonged to an extremely rare class of treasures among the universe.

“First, a mega formation that covers the entire planet, and now, a fortune treasure. This Firmament Star is really full of surprises.” The Gold Guardian grinned.

He stared at the big golden seal, only to see that it was rapidly shrinking into the size of a palm. Then, it levitated above the head of a white-clad young man.

“You are... Chu Kuangren?!”

The Gold Guardian’s eyes widened. He had seen an image of Chu Kuangren before, and it looked exactly like the white-clad young man right in front of him.

“No way. Chu Kuangren should be in the Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom now. How could he appear here? And your energy... There is no life force in you at all. The only thing I can sense is some strange energy. This must be a puppet, a combat unit!”

“His consciousness is attached to this combat unit!”

As a Heavenly Daoist Celestial of Planet Zi, the Gold Guardian had a vast understanding of the world. Hence, it did not take long for him to tell that the Chu Kuangren before him was merely a puppet.

“But this immense energy... It’s the level of a Heavenly Daoist Celestial!” How could such a powerful combat unit exist in the Firmament Star?!”

The Gold Guardian was a little uncertain.

Even back on Planet Zi, there were only less than a handful of Heavenly Daoist Celestial combat units on their planet. How was it even possible for Firmament Star to have acquired this technology?

“You’ve been talking to yourself since the beginning. Are you sure you’re not an idiot?” Chu Kuangren said indifferently.

The Gold Guardian’s face darkened. “You’re just a freaking puppet. What gives you the courage to be so cocky? Today, I shall annihilate both you and the entire Firmament Star!”

A mighty yokai aura erupted from his body, and the starlight all around him converged on him, forming a huge Blood Wolf apparition that struck out at his opponent once again.

However, with incantation from starlight, the Blood Wolf’s power this time became even stronger.

“Oh, this cultivation technique. You’re from Planet Zi.”

With the lift of his arm, Chu Kuangren unleashed the power within the combat unit, injecting it into the Human King Seal, which hit the Blood Wolf violently and smashed it into pieces.

Then, he held his hand into a fist and unleashed a punch.

Esoteric Invincible Technique, activate!

Inverted Universe!

The fist energy blasted across the sky and lambasted the Gold Guardian.

“Break it!”

Gold Guardian struck back with his claw.

The two types of forces collided violently, causing the void to explode!

Under this blow, the Gold Guardian’s clothes tore, and his entire body was forced backward. His pupils shrank slightly as he exclaimed, “How is this puppet so strong?!”

He howled and bent his body, which began to swell and eventually transformed into a blood-colored giant wolf that was a hundred meters tall.

An incomparably majestic yokai qi raged in the starry sky.

“Oh, he has reverted to his true form now.”

Chu Kuangren remarked.

“Roar!”

With a lengthy and menacing roar, the Giant Blood Wolf opened its jaw, and all the starlight around him gushed towards him madly. The large amounts of starlight energy compressed around him and condensed into a huge ball of light with brilliant starlight.

The ball of light burst out, leaving a dazzling trace of light in the starry sky. It looked like a meteor was heading in Chu Kuangren’s direction.

“Invincible Technique, Empyrean Maelstrom.”

Chu Kuangren raised his hand to induce the power within the combat unit. As Daoist patterns intertwined in the palm of his hand, it formed a vortex to block the ball of light.

The energy in the ball of light was constantly disintegrating and dissipating. Then, from within that whirlpool, a ray of starlight burst out and blasted toward that Giant Blood Wolf.

“He sent my power back?!”

The Giant Blood Wolf’s expression changed slightly.

He smashed the blood-colored ball of light with one claw.

“Hmph. The power of this combat unit of yours is at best equal to mine. If I attempt to destroy it with all my might, will you really be able to protect this entire Firmament Star?”

The Giant Blood Wolf sneered.

He channeled the yokai qi on his body to its limit and gathered massive amounts of starlight around him, turning them into balls of light. Although the power he produced now was not as strong as the previous blow, he could still overpower his opponent’s ball of light with his strength in numbers.

More importantly, the Giant Blood Wolf was not aiming at Chu Kuangren but at Firmament Star behind him!

No matter how strong Chu Kuangren was, it was impossible to stop so many attacks. However, Chu Kuangren did not look flustered at all.

“I alone may not be able to deal with this.

“But who says that I don’t have a helper?”

Chu Kuangren remarked gently. After that, a large number of golden light orbs amassed around him to form a small golden man who was half a person tall.

Seeing the little golden man, Giant Blood Wolf’s pupils shrank.

“This is the Heavenly Dao! Firmament Star’s Heavenly Dao!”

“You can actually control the Heavenly Dao. You are the Ruler of Firmament Star!”

A Planet Ruler was a cultivator who had the recognition of a planet's Heavenly Dao and could summon or utilize the power of the planet's Heavenly Dao. However, not every planet could produce its own Planet Ruler. In fact, only a handful of lucky people managed to obtain recognition from Heavenly Dao..
