

Unparalleled 921

Chapter 921: Force Buy and Sale, Scram, Leave the Yin and Yang Ring

"How about this? I am willing to pay up to three billion spiritual marrow. What'd you say?" Yun Qianliu made a huge offer.

Three billion spiritual marrow was more than enough to buy the best quality Grand Daoist Weapon, or maybe even a Heavenly Daoist Weapon.

Aside from its Moonlight Fox identity, Lil Fox's cultivation level was only a Minor Daoist Celestial.

"I said I'm not selling the fox."

Chu Kuangren was not even bothered by thirty billion, let alone three billion.

"Five billion!" Yun Qianliu increased the offer with furrowed brows.

Nevertheless, Chu Kuang was not moved.

"One piece of Immortal Crystal!" Hong Xue finally voiced his offer.

His offer surprised everyone else.

"An Immortal Crystal?"

"Oh my goodness. The offer is ridiculous."

An Immortal Crystal, as its name suggested, was a crystal that contained extremely pure spiritual power. A piece of Immortal Crystal would be more or less equal to tens of billions of spiritual marrow.

More importantly, it was called the Immortal Crystal because the crystal could be used to gain insights and strengthen one's source energy!

Albeit ineffective, it was a great temptation to those cultivators who were not Immortals and had yet to gain insights into their sources. Even the strongest Heavenly Daoist Celestial would be moved by the offer.

"I'll be frank with you, Daoist Brother. This Moonlight Fox is a rare beast, and I want to buy her." Hong Xue went straight to the point.

Chu Kuangren said, "When the Moonlight Fox grows up, it'll be worth more than a few million pieces of Immortal Crystal."

"I can only offer one piece of Immortal Crystal right now," Hong Xue said.

"Brother Hong, I think you should stop wasting your breath with him. No matter what, he has to sell the Moonlight Fox today," Yun Qianliu said with a scoff.

Jian Sanjue's and the others' faces turned grim upon hearing his words.

"Daoist Brothers, why argue over a fox? It's like children squabbling," Jian Sanjue said with a deep voice.

"What do you know? This is a Moonlight Fox!" Yun Qianliu said with a grin.

Some civilizations might even start a civil war because of that beast.

Moreover, they were heading into the Fragmented Immortal World. If they had the Moonlight Fox with them, it would be of huge help to them.

"It seems like you guys are going to force me to sell it. All I can say is..." Chu Kuangren chuckled before he showed an icy cold glare. "Scram!"

The look on Yun Qianliu, Hong Xue, and the others turned gloomy when Chu Kuangren shunned them away, especially Yun Qianliu. He argued coldly, "We can do it the easy way or the hard way, but it seems like you've chosen the hard way!"

He reached out to the Moonlight Fox behind Chu Kuangren, attempting to snatch it away.

At that moment, Emperor qi of a peak-stage Minor Daoist Celestial surged out from Lil Fox.

"A mere Minor Daoist Celestial and you dare be presumptuous in front of me?"

Yun Qianliu scoffed and simply threw a punch at Lil Fox.

A loud bang sounded, and a figure was sent flying backward. It was Yun Qianliu! He held onto his shaking arm with a look of fear on his face.

"That raw physical strength... You're a cultivator specialized in physical cultivation?"

Chu Kuangren pulled his fist back and was too lazy to answer the question.

Hong Xue, on the other hand, reacted with a serious look on his face. "I see you are strong and indeed a worthy opponent!"

Then, the energy on him started to surge, and a terrifying aura of a Daoist Celestial started to emerge.

His cultivation level was at the peak-stage Great Daoist Celestial Realm!

He was one step shy from entering the Heavenly Daoist Celestial Realm. Compared to Planet Jin's First Seat, Planet Zi's First Seat was a lot stronger. For a moment there, Chu Kuangren even sensed the ripple of the source energy from the man.

That meant Hong Xue had gained insights into the source.

An Immortal Progeny like him already possessed powers qualified to be conferred a title of a Supreme.

"Eight Desolate Tranquil Ocean Fist!"

Hong Xue shouted. As he raised his fists, an enormous amount of Emperor qi gushed out and shook the stars around.

The punch he threw felt like it could desolate the widest land and calm the roughest ocean.

On top of that, it even contained a strand of source energy.

It was enough to rival even a Heavenly Daoist Celestial.

However, Chu Kuangren reacted calmly to the punch.

Following a loud bang, a huge amount of Emperor qi and Hong Xue's source energy instantly dissipated, and Hong Xue was sent about a hundred kilometers backward.

"What?!"

"He is definitely a Supreme Immortal Progeny!"

The crowd was left in awe, and gasps rang out in succession.

The look on Hong Xue was grimmer than ever.

He used seventy percent of his strength in that punch, and yet Chu Kuangren fended him off so easily.

Chu Kuangren's strength was beyond his comprehension and his own strength.

"Brother Hong, let's take him together!" Yun Qianliu said loudly.

"No!" Hong Xue already knew the difference in strength between them, so he tried to stop Yun Qianliu. However, it was too late.

Yun Qianliu had activated some kind of Immortal Technique that allowed him to move toward Chu Kuangren like a bolt of lightning. He threw a fist at Chu Kuangren's head.

"You got ahead of yourself! This will be death!"

A hint of cold killing intent appeared in Chu Kuangren's eyes.

He, too, threw a punch. Rampant raw physical strength that surpassed his previous punch erupted and hit Yun Qianliu.

Bang!

The body burst into a cloud of bloody mist.

Yun Qianliu, an Immortal Progeny, was killed before he knew it.

The crowd gasped in fear.

Chu Kuangren had not used his full strength until now.

"A peak-stage Supreme Immortal Progeny!"

"I didn't expect this at all."

The crowd was left in awe and astonishment.

Hong Xue lost the mood to continue the confrontation. He inhaled deeply before saying, "Sorry for offending you. Please excuse me."

"Did I give you permission to leave?" Chu Kuangren's icy cold voice sounded.

He looked at the few of them and said, "You started this first, and you people want to leave when you realize the difference in our strengths? Who do you think I am?"

"What do you want?" Hong Xue took a deep breath and asked.

“What do I want? You should at least look the part if you want to apologize. Leave your Yin and Yang Ring, every one of you,” Chu Kuangren said.

“Impossible!”

“Dream on!”

The other Immortal Progenies behind Hong Xue got agitated.

Their Yin and Yang Rings contained the wealth and life-saving items given to them by their respective orthodoxies and civilizations for this trip to the Fragmented Immortal World.

They were not things that they could simply give away.

“Sure. If that’s the case, leave me your life,” Chu Kuangren said.

The energy on him started to surge, and his great poise shook everyone.

“Daoist Brother, live and let live. There’s no reason for you to burn all the bridges here. Why the extreme methods?” Hong Xue said with a deep breath.

“Ring, or life. Hurry up and choose.”

“You...” Hong Xue was deeply agitated, but he knew he was no match for Chu Kuangren. As such, he took the ring off and tossed it over.

The other Immortal Progenies saw it and did the same.

No matter how valuable their possession was, they had to be alive to make use of it.

After leaving the Yin and Yang Ring, a few of them left in a hurry. They went into Ascending Immortal Dao and wanted to enter the Fragmented Immortal World.

Deep down, each of them swore to find an opportunity in the Fragmented Immortal World and surpass Chu Kuangren so that they could take revenge on him in the future.

The moment Hong Xue entered the Immortal Ascension Path, the four white pillars started to react. The dragon and phoenix carvings on the pillars came alive in the form of apparitions and started to swirl above him.

It was an auspicious phenomenon of the blessing of dragon and phoenix. It was also a sign stating Hong Xue’s strong talents.

The crowd was in awe.

Hong Xue found consolation in the phenomenon. “Losing a battle doesn’t mean the end. Chu Kuangren, just you wait.. I will surpass you one day!”

Chapter 922: Immortal Ascension Path’s Dragon and Phoenix Blessing, Entering The Immortal World

As Hong Xue set foot inside the Immortal Ascension Path, the dragon and phoenix apparitions swirled around him.

The other cultivators were in awe, and so were the few cultivators behind him. They looked at him with faces filled with admiration.

“As expected of Brother Hong. You are really amazing!”

“Yeah, you are awesome!”

“They say the Immortal Ascension Path welcomed Immortals, but Brother Hong’s arrival has prompted the auspicious apparitions of dragons and phoenixes. This means that you will become an Immortal in the future! Congratulations, Brother Hong!”

The Immortal Progenies praised and flattered him.

Hong Xue laughed and said, “You guys are too kind.”

He continued down the path with the dragon and phoenix apparitions swirling above him. He looked as dignified as an Immortal who had just become one.

“Tsk. What’s there to be proud of? Boss, come one. Let’s show them what a genius can do.” Lil Fox clicked her tongue and tugged Chu Kuangren’s sleeve, signaling him to enter the Immortal Ascension Path.

Chu Kuangren said, “Be patient.”

The auspicious dragon and phoenix phenomenon and the Immortal Progeny title were all nothing but fancy stuff that he had long seen passed.

His own strength was the only insurance he could trust.

Lil Fox stuck her tongue out.

Meanwhile, Jian Sanjue and the others began to get excited.

“What do you think will happen when Brother Chu enters the Immortal Ascension Path? How would it react? How many dragons and phoenixes will appear?” Jian Sanjue asked.

“I don’t know, but one thing is for sure. It will definitely be more than Hong Xue’s.”

“I agree. Brother Chu’s talent and strength are much better than Hong Xue’s. I believe there will be at least a dozen dragons and phoenix apparitions.”

The discussion slowly gained heat. Even all Planet Jin’s First Seat had for Chu Kuangren was admiration and awe.

Aside from Planet Jin’s First Seat, who knew the power Chu Kuangren possessed, everyone also looked at Chu Kuangren excitedly.

After all, based on what Chu Kuangren had displayed, he was certainly at the level of a Supreme Immortal Progeny. He was destined to garner attention.

“I’ve been here for many months, and the strongest Supreme Immortal Progeny I’ve seen has drawn out around forty dragons and phoenixes.”

"I wonder how many will Chu Kuangren draw out?"

"I've been here longer than you to be lucky enough to see a King Immortal Progeny drew out a hundred dragons and phoenixes! The scene was so stunning."

"Do you think Chu Kuangren is at the level of a King Immortal Progeny?"

"Who knows? Can't say for sure..."

Countless cultivators were engaged in a heated discussion, but none caught Chu Kuangren's attention. He could not be bothered at all.

As such, he came to the entrance of the Immortal Ascension Path with Lil Fox and looked at the towering white pillars curiously.

The pillars were not real.

They were more like apparitions of some kind of Daoist pattern. No wonder all those cultivators were willing to stay here for months just to gain insights on the pillars.

"Let's go, Boss."

"Mhm." Chu Kuangren nodded.

Then, he set foot into the Immortal Ascension Path.

The moment he took his first step, the entire path trembled, and the pillars started to glow brightly.

"What's going on!?"

"What the heck? He hasn't even come in!"

Everyone else looked at Chu Kuangren with the utmost astonishment.

It was just his first step, and the entire path trembled.

If he entered the path fully, what else would happen?

The trembling path did not stop Chu Kuangren from going in. He walked forward slowly and entered the Immortal Ascension Path.

At that moment, all nine hundred and ninety-nine white pillars around the Immortal Ascension Path glowed in white all at once. The blinding light felt like a big bang lighting up the entire universe, and countless great ones throughout the universe sensed the commotion at the Immortal Ascension Path.

"What happened at the Immortal Ascension Path?"

"This commotion... It has never been recorded in history before. Does it mean a new King Immortal Progeny or even an Immortal has appeared?"

"Not even the Immortal Progenies, True Dragon, and Godly Phoenix could cause such a commotion. No, not even a real Immortal could cause this. What is happening at the Immortal Ascension Path?"

Countless great ones in the universe looked curiously at the direction of the Immortal Ascension Path.

Meanwhile, inside the Immortal Ascension Path, the entire path started to tremble the moment Chu Kuangren walked in. As the dragons and phoenixes on all the nine hundred and ninety-nine white pillars came alive, the roars and caws from the mythical beasts shook heaven and earth.

Apparitions of dragons and phoenixes rose to the sky, circling above him. Their auspicious glow lit up the sky.

On top of that, the dragon and phoenix apparitions of other Immortal Progenies started to flock over to Chu Kuangren as if they were being summoned.

Ten!

One hundred!

A thousand!

Nine thousand, nine hundred and ninety-nine dragons and Nine thousand, nine hundred and ninety-nine phoenixes!

At the end, all the dragons and phoenixes around the Immortal Ascension Path came alive.

All of a sudden, the entire sky above the Immortal Ascension Path was filled with dragons and phoenixes. The majestic scene complemented the figure in a white robe, making him look like the Supreme Immortal King.

The Immortal Ascension Path, the path that welcomed Immortals, reacted like it was welcoming the king of the Immortal World.

Everyone else was so in awe that their jaws dropped.

They were all stupefied by the scene.

Even Jian Sanjue and the others, who had witnessed Chu Kuangren's powers back at Violet Gold Galaxy, could not help but be stunned by the scene.

It was far beyond the level of an Immortal Progeny.

"Who... exactly is he?"

"Oh my goodness! He will definitely become an Immortal!"

"Nine thousand, nine hundred and ninety-nine dragons and phoenixes welcomed his arrival. According to ancient legends, this phenomenon will only happen when welcoming the Immortal King! Who exactly is he?!"

Among all the stupefied cultivators was Hong Xue.

He, too, shared the same look with others.

A moment ago, he was thinking about surpassing the man before his eyes.

Now, it felt like a joke.

He entered the path and was welcomed by several dragons and phoenixes, whereas Chu Kuangren's entrance trembled the entire path and all dragons and phoenixes came.

He was no match for Chu Kuangren.

None. There was no room for comparison.

He had lost thoroughly, and he was defeated before it even started.

Hong Xue could not help but feel despair. At that moment, the urge to surpass Chu Kuangren died off.

His Daoist core was at the brink of collapsing.

The only one at the scene who remained calm was Chu Kuangren himself. His white robes were as white as snow, and the look on his face was as calm as the sea.

The trembling of the Immortal Ascension Path and the astonishment on everyone's face did not seem to bother him at all. With countless apparitions of dragons and phoenixes above him, he took firm steps towards the end of the path.

"Boss, Boss! Wait for me!"

Lil Fox only regained her composure after Chu Kuangren went ahead, and she quickly gave chase to Chu Kuangren.

After seeing what happened, she was determined to follow Chu Kuangren more than ever.

She knew that Chu Kuangren was the real big boss here.

By following him, she would not have to worry about her future anymore.

Now, even if Chu Kuangren wanted to shun Lil Fox away with a broom, she might not leave.

Lil Fox chased after Chu Kuangren and held his sleeve. As she glanced at the majestic scene of endless dragons and phoenixes above the sky, it boosted her confidence and pride so much that she stuck her chest up and strutted forward proudly.

A while later, Chu Kuangren arrived at the end of the path, where a towering door was before him. He took a glance at it before going in.

After that, he found himself standing in the sky.

Below his feet were connecting mountain ridges, rivers and countless rare beasts traversing the land.

"Is this the Immortal World?" Chu Kuangren mumbled.

He could feel the abundance of spiritual power in the air and the faint but ubiquitous ripples of Dao.

He mobilized his Emperor thought, and the map of the terrain across a hundred million kilometers appeared in his mind.

Beasts, mountain ridges, spirit mine, Daoist herbs...

All kinds of scenes and treasures appeared one after another.

“So this is the Immortal World? Awesome!”

Lil Fox walked out from behind him.

She could not help but be astonished by the grand view of the Immortal World.

Chapter 923: Foreigner, Native, Old Sparrow City

The vastness of the Immortal World was awe-inspiring

While Chu Kuangren and Lil Fox were admiring the scenery, several beams of light flew over from afar and surrounded Chu Kuangren.

“Kid, handover your Yin and Yang Ring”

Chu Kuangren frowned. What was that?

A robbery?

Right after they entered the Immortal World?

“Who are you people? Lil Fox looked at the bunch cautiously.

“Hehe, you don’t need to know who we are. You two are the foreigners here, so hand over your Yin and Yang Ring. If I’m feeling it, I might bring you into our Divine Fire Holy Cult.”

The middle-aged man in a red Daoist robe with fiery sewing on it laughed at the two of them as if he had gotten control over them.

Chu Kuangren had activated the Omniscient Spirit the moment the group arrived and already analyzed almost everything about the group of men.

As such, he had a general idea of where they came from.

What intrigued him was the usage of the word foreigner. “It seems like there are natives in this Immortal World.”

The Immortal World shattered into pieces with countless souls in them.

Despite that, those living souls in the fragmented worlds somehow managed to continue developing

Those people who survived became the natives of the Immortal World.

To them, Chu Kuangren was a foreigner.

Lil Ai, the Omniscient Spirit, said, “On top of that, according to analysis, this particular Immortal World seems to be nurturing a kind of willpower similar to the Heavenly Dao.”

“The Immortal World’s willpower?” Chu Kuangren’s interest piqued.

“Stop standing there like a piece of plank. It seems like you’re not going to cooperate and hand over the ring. In that case, I guess we will have to do it the hard way.”

The middle-aged man scoffed and then took a step forward. A ball of crimson flame that scorched even the air around it appeared on his hand and hurled it towards Chu Kuangren.

On the other hand, Chu Kuangren simply raised his hand. That crimson fireball was negated by a powerful blast, disintegrating into countless sparks that scattered in the air.

Oh, this power. You are an Immortal Progeny.”

The middle-aged man’s eyes glimmered. Following that, he said, “Kid, since you’re an Immortal Progeny, join Divine Fire Holy Cult. Serve and I’ll spare your life. What’d you say?

“If you’ll make me the cult leader, I might consider it.”

“You have a death wish!

A cold glare appeared in the middle-aged man’s eyes.

A spear manifested in the man’s hand, and it was thrust towards Chu Kuangren. The thrust was so powerful that it whirled up a gale as it moved through space.

Back in the outside world, the thrust from the spear could tear even the void.

However, the space structure in the Immortal World was a lot more stable, so the spear only caused a gale without tearing the void.

Chu Kuangren took note of what he saw.

At the same time, he reached out and grabbed the head of the spear.

What!?! The look on the middle -aged man changed.

His powerful thrust was caught barehanded. What kind of powers could this foreigner possibly possess?

Chu Kuangren exerted his strength and pulled the spear closer before doing a reverse slap on the man's head.

With a bang, the man's head burst open like a watermelon.

The others were struck by fear when the scene happened.

"Sh t! We picked on the wrong guy! Let's go!"

D mn it. He's not just any Immortal Progeny."

Run!

The others wanted to flee.

One of them used a kind of technique and attained the most speed. His figure flashed and flew away like a comet.

Upon seeing the scene, Chu Kuangren hurled the spear out.

The spear flew across the air with supersonic speed, causing a loud bang to erupt

The one who fled the fastest died first because the spear perforated his chest.

The man then fell off the sky like a falling comet.

Nevertheless, the spear's momentum did not stop after perforating the man. It flew forward until it hit the peak of a mountain and plunged deep inside.

As for the others, Chu Kuangren activated his miniverse and trapped all of them, pinning them in mid-air.

"W-What are you trying to do? asked one of the cultivators with a trembling voice.

"Nothing much. I just want to ask you some questions," Chu Kuangren said.

Suddenly, ripples started to appear in the void.

The Immortal door behind Chu Kuangren disappeared.

Watching the scene, Chu Kuangren thought, "The door outside won't change, but in here, it seems like the entrance can appear and disappear anywhere."

However, he put his thoughts aside.

"My lord, what do you want to know? We will tell you everything that we know!" said one of the cultivators.

Chu Kuangren asked them about the Immortal World's situation.

Soon enough, he found out that this Fragmented Immortal World was named Planquilon Immortal World by the natives and was home to many factions and Forces

On top of that, Planquilon Immortal World remained drifting throughout the universe and would only appear at a certain interval. Whenever the entrance appeared, it would attract a lot of cultivators who wanted to seek Opportunities of Fortune in this world.

To the natives, those cultivators were foreigners.

The foreigners usually came to loot and plunder resources of the Immortal World, so the natives were never courteous toward them.

Hence, the foreigners would never have a good time in Planquilon Immortal World.

Those who managed to carve a new path in this world relied on the local factions and forces. As for the lone wolves, they were severely bullied and suppressed. Sometimes, they had it worse than outside the Immortal World.

"Heh. Survival of the fittest, huh? A rule fit for any kind of world at any time,"

Chu Kuangren said with a chuckle.

After getting the information, Chu Kuangren mobilized his thoughts and turned the cultivators from Divine Fire Holy Cult into several clouds of bloody mist without breaking a sweat.

"Let's go," Chu Kuangren said to Lil Fox.

"Boss, where are we going next?"

"There's a city ahead. Let's go and have a look first."

In the Planquilon Immortal World, other than the ancient orthodoxies, there were also a hundred and eight cultivator fortresses, and every one of them was as powerful as a top-notch cultivation orthodoxy.

If all hundred and eight cultivator fortresses teamed up, even the ancient orthodoxies would have to take them seriously.

Ancient Sparrow City was one of the hundred and eight cultivator fortresses.

"I heard the entrance to Planquilon Immortal World appeared again, and a bunch of foreigners came in."

Tsk. Just let them be. It's not the first time anyway. Other than those top-notch Immortal Progenies, how many foreigners can make it into Planquilon Immortal World? They are even worse than us."

"I know, right? There are a few foreigners in the guards, and they are given the most tiring work"

The guards outside Ancient Sparrow City were chatting on duty.

The disdain in their eyes was apparent when they talked about the foreigners.

That was when two figures approached the entrance. One of them was a cute girl with a pair of pink fox ears. However, she was not the reason why the guards were alarmed.

This aura It's a foreigner!"

Tsk! It's so obvious. I bet he's new here in Planquilon."

Every cultivator would more or less carry with them the scent of the planet or the civilization that they came from.

As a foreigner to Planquilon Immortal World, Chu Kuangren's aura had an obvious difference compared to the natives.

It would take hundreds or more than a thousand years for a foreigner to lose his or her original scent, and only then they could blend in the Planquilon Immortal World.

Chapter 924: Entry Fee, Malicious Intent Towards the Outside, Call the City Lord

"Foreigner, if you want to enter the city, you will have to pay spiritual marrow as entry fee!"

"Oh? How much?" Chu Kuangren asked.

"A million catty of spiritual marrow."

"A million, eh?" Chu Kuangren thought about it for a moment. It was not a ridiculous amount, so he simply tossed a Yin and Yang Ring to the guard. "Here."

"This amount is just for one pax. There's another one here," the guard said as he pointed at Lil Fox.

Chu Kuangren turned to her. "Do you have any spiritual marrow?"

Lil Fox widened her eyes and put on a pitiful look. "Boss, my Yin and Yang Ring was taken by those from the Beasthunter Planet. I don't have any with me."

"Fine." Chu Kuangren tossed another Yin and Yang Ring out.

The guard's eyes glimmered with greed when he saw Chu Kuangren's generosity. He clenched onto the two rings in his hand and said, "Tsk ts. Quite some spiritual marrow you got there."

"Can we go in now?"

"Can we go in now?"

"You're through, but remember, as foreigners, you must behave. Don't cause any trouble," warned one of the guards.

Chu Kuangren did not answer them.

It seemed like Planquilon Immortal World had nothing but malicious intentions for the foreigners.

"Hold up."

Just as the two of them were about to head in, a voice came. Then, a man in black armor came up to them.

"General."

"General, sir"

The guards saluted reverently.

The general took the rings from the guard and said, "if you want to go in, you two have to pay another hundred million of spiritual marrows."

Chu Kuangren frowned. "Why?"

"Because she's a yokai," the general said as he pointed at Lil Fox.

"Does it make a difference?"

"I don't like those ears and fluffs. If you want to go in, pay up or get the hell away from my sight.

"I saw you paying two million spiritual marrow like some small change, so I believe another hundred million for you isn't something difficult," the general said.

Further away, a young man riding a lion slowly entered the city before their eyes and was not stopped.

“Why is that guy allowed to go in? He’s riding a Yokai as well,” Chu Kuangren said with his finger pointing ahead.

“Shut up, and stop talking nonsense. Are you paying or not?” the general bellowed.

The guards grinned mischievously at the scene.

“You guys are trying to extort us. Being a Yokai is just an excuse.” Lil Fox was furious

“Cut the crap! Pay up!”

“You The little fox was so furious that she gnashed her teeth.

However, Chu Kuangren patted her head and said, “I don’t mean to cause any trouble, but it seems like someone is pushing it.”

The moment he said those words, his formless mind power gushed out.

The general was just a common Daoist Celestial, so there was no way he could defend himself against Chu Kuangren’s mind power. He was crushed into a pile of mushy meat and bones on the ground with all signs of life voided.

The scene terrified the other guards, turning their faces pale.

“H-How dare you cause trouble in Ancient Sparrow City: Foreigners, are you having a death wish?!” screamed one of the guards.

“I wonder who started it first? Chu Kuangren took the two rings from the dead general and then brought Lil Fox in.

The other guards were so stunned that they did not dare stop Chu Kuangren.

Their powers were incomparable to Chu Kuangren.

G-Go inform the city hall!!” said one of the guards.

After getting into the city, Chu Kuangren noticed many pairs of judgmental eyes on him and Lil Fox.

“Oh, look. The foreigner energy is strong with this one. He must be new in the Planquilon Immortal World.”

Tsk tsk, look that Lil Fox beside him. She’s cute. Judging from the energy, she’s also a Daoist Celestial”

“Daoist Celestial? My my, that’s really something”

Many talked about the two of them brazenly, but none did anything to them. They might not like foreigners, but they did not want to attract problems to themselves either.

Not to mention, Lil Fox was also a Daoist Celestial.

The people of this Immortal World are really unwelcoming,” Lil Fox said with a frown. She unconsciously walked closer to Chu Kuangren, trying to secure a sense of safety from his presence.

“It’s normal. Resources everywhere are finite, including the Immortal World, let alone a fragmented one. Well, aren’t we here for the Opportunities of Fortunes and resources as well?

To them, we are here to snatch the Opportunities of Fortunes and resources from them. It would be strange if they were welcoming,” Chu Kuangren said. The two of them then arrived at an inn.

After ordering two flasks of alcohol, they sat by the window seat. Chu Kuangren mobilized his Emperor Thought and spread it out across the whole of Ancient Sparrow City, scouring for all kinds of information.

Ancient Sparrow City, the city hall, the three main clans, immortal orthodoxy, Divine Fire Holy Cult, Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm, and more-all the information gushed into his head.

All the information he gathered would determine the next step he took.

“Foreigners, who allowed you to drink here?”

Suddenly, a young man led a group of men to Chu Kuangren’s table. The hostility in his eyes was intense.

“Don’t bother me. I’m gathering information.” Chu Kuangren did not want to be bothered.

As he raised his hand, the enormous mind power erupted and seized the group of men immediately. Then, they were tossed out of the inn.

“D*mn it. This foreigner is arrogant!”

“What the hell!”

“Such a powerful mind power.”

The group of men wanted to go back in to argue, but a loud march disrupted their intention. Hundreds to a thousand of soldiers, fully armed, appeared en masse and charged into the inn.

“What’s going on

“What are they doing”

The leader of the troops was a man in silver armor. He looked into the inn and shouted, “Listen, foreigner! You are surrounded! Come out with your hands up and surrender!

The cultivators in the inn were terrified.

The city guards came here to arrest this foreigner?

“Sh t! Let’s run! We don’t want to get caught in the crossfire!”

No one dared to stay after realizing what was happening

The lively and noisy inn quickly turned into a quiet place. Other than Chu Kuangren and Lil Fox, only a drunken old man with a jug of alcohol curled up in the corner stayed back.

“Boss, I think they are here for us,” Lil Fox said as she looked at the soldiers outside.

You don’t say.”

Chu Kuangren had killed a general at the city gate. It would be strange If the city lord did not take any action immediately.

“What are we going to do now?”

“Remain calm amidst the ever-changing situation.” Through his Emperor Thought, Chu Kuangren found out that the strongest person in Ancient Sparrow City was just a Pseudo Immortal.

Given his current strength, he could take on the Pseudo Immortal.

“Foreigner, you have one last chance to turn yourself in. If you refuse to cooperate, you shall suffer the consequences,” the general in silver armor shouted.

oh? Foreigner? You’re calling me a foreigner, but you’re from outside the Immortal World as well,” Chu Kuangren said after taking a glance at the General

He sensed a similar presence from the general- the presence of a foreigner. Albeit weak and faint, it could not escape his sharp senses.

It seemed like the general had been in this Immortal World for a while, or it would be impossible to lose that foreigner presence.

“You’re asking for it!

The general’s face darkened as if Chu Kuangren’s words made him angry. “Go! Go in and seize them!”

His command sent the soldiers inside, charging towards Chu Kuangren. Their energies erupted, and every single one of them possessed the cultivation level of an Emperor.

However, the next moment, the soldiers ran into an irresistible force, which blasted them into pieces and caused a bloodbath in the inn.

“You guys are too weak. If you want to kill me, tell your city lord to come over himself. He might stand a chance.

Chapter 925: Bai Clan Forefather’s Arrival, A Strange Old

Man

Translator: Endless Fantasy Translation | Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

“He’s so powerful!”

“He’s definitely a Heavenly Daoist Celestial!”

The cultivators on the street outside the inn gasped in awe.

As the one who started it all, Chu Kuangren remained calm on his seat by the window. He did not seem to be bothered by the number of people at all.

The general in silver armor grunted. Then, a rampant and powerful energy erupted from his body, and he charged into the inn for Chu Kuangren.

His strength was at the level of a Heavenly Daoist Celestial as well. The spear in his hand danced in the air as he swung it in a flurry, whipping up a strong gale that could tear through the void.

“Die, foreigner!” shouted the man.

“You know, as a fellow foreigner, listening to you calling me a foreigner feels funny,” Chu Kuangren said with a scoff.

Here in Planquilon Immortal World, in order to stay longer and not be discriminated against by the natives, a lot of foreigners worked hard to blend

1. Some even despised their original identity as foreigners.

They even tend to be harsher to fellow foreigners than the natives. It was as if being harsh at fellow foreigners would allow them to forget their identities.

There was only one word Chu Kuangren could say to them: ridiculous.

As he ignored the trusting spear coming closer to his face, his Emperor qi erupted and ravaged the silver-armored general like the tidal wave.

Bone-cracking noise sounded upon impact. The silver-armored general took the full blow and was sent flying backward, crashing into another building before everything went quiet.

“Boss, you’re awesome!” Lil Fox cheered excitedly.

Among the crowd, a pair of eyes, glimmering inexplicably, were watching Chu Kuangren and Lil Fox behind him.

“He’s too strong. We can’t take him on. We must call higher ranking generals here to deal with the matter!

“A Supreme Immortal Progeny?

The rest of the soldiers knew their strength. They knew that they were no match to Chu Kuangren, so they decided to call for help.

Further away, a surge of powerful energy erupted all of a sudden, and two rays of light flew over.

Judging from the energies, those two rays of light belonged to two late-stage Heavenly Daoist Celestials

A late-stage Heavenly Daoist Celestial was one realm lower than an Immortal, but they were the strongest in their own category.

Who dares cause trouble in Ancient Sparrow City?

“Hmph!

Two late-stage Heavenly Daoists arrived at the inn, and their energies allowed them to lock on to Chu Kuangren immediately. Their rampant auras enveloped heaven and earth.

“It’s a little tedious dealing with you people one by one. Why don’t I make my way to the city hall?” Cold killing intents filled Chu Kuangren’s eyes.

Right before Chu Kuangren could make a move, another ray of white light flew over and stopped the two late-stage Heavenly Daoist Celestial.

The person from the ray of light was an elderly in white robes and white hair.

He looked rather scrawny, but the aura around him felt extraordinary.

The two generals were surprised by the arrival of the elderly. They looked as if they were scared of the man. “Bai clan Forefather! Why are you here?

Bai clan Forefather smiled. “Generals, this young man here is an acquaintance of the Bai clan. I can’t just sit back and watch the two of you attack him.”

oh, is the Bai clan trying to go against the city hall blatantly?” one of the generals asked with a less friendly tone.

Throughout the years, the Bai clan had grown stronger and started to possess the strength to rival the city hall, which has been the city hall’s concern since then.

Although the generals knew it, they did not expect the Bai clan Forefather to defy them in public by offering protection to the person hunted by the city hall.

“My good sirs, you’ve misunderstood my meaning. I am not going against the city hall. I am actually here with the truth. One of the guards at the entrance started this and tried to extort spiritual marrow from my friend here, hence the misunderstanding. What he did was purely out of self-defense,” Bai clan Forefather said.

“Hmph! I don’t care what happened or who started it, but he killed a general and disrupted the order of Ancient Sparrow City. He must be punished for his crimes!

Bai clan Forefather thought for a moment before he took a Yin and Yang Ring out. “Here’s ten billion spiritual marrow. Take it as compensation for the inconvenience and trouble that my friend caused. The Bai clan will pay on his behalf. How does that sound?

The two generals’ eyes glimmered in greed when they saw the ring, seemingly moved. They thought about it for a while and did not accept the offer immediately.

Then, as though they had received an order in their head, their eyes shone brightly. One of them said, “Another ten billion.”

Bai clan Forefather clenched his teeth. “No problem!

He took out another ring with ten billion spiritual marrow, which totaled to twenty billion spiritual marrow, and handed it over.

“Now, can I bring my friend away?

“Hmph! Bai clan, you better watch yourself,” one of the generals said before he ordered a retreat.

“Why do you think the city lord let this guy off?

“Bai clan is growing stronger by the day, and the city lord wants an opportunity to stop that. Maybe this foreigner is a chance for an opening. Besides, the Bai clan won’t simply pay that much just to protect someone. This foreigner must have some secrets with him.”

The two generals whispered to each other as they retreated.

Chu Kuangren watched from inside the inn and ruminated over what happened. On the other hand, Lil Fox beside him was confused.

“Boss, what happened?”

“Well know soon,” Chu Kuangren said with a smile.

After that, Bai clan Forefather brought a young man to Chu Kuangren.

However, Bai clan Forefather did not lay his first glance on Chu Kuangren.

Instead, it was on Lil Fox

Chu Kuangren was deeply amused. ‘As expected

“Nice to meet you, Daoist Brother. I’m Bai Yeyue from the Bai clan,” the young man said.

Chu Kuangren took a quick glance at the young man. He was more of a teen rather than a young man, but his cultivation level had reached a late-stage Great Daoist Celestial Realm.

He seemed to be a peerless Immortal Progeny.

Nevertheless, Chu Kuangren did not take the young man seriously.

“I’m Chu Kuangren.”

“Brother Chu, you must be confused about why we would help you. Actually, we are trying to ask for a favor, and we hope that you can help us, the Bai clan, with the Moonlight Fox in your company.”

Bai Yeyue cut to the chase and stated his intention.

“What if I say no?”

“Brother Chu, we helped you. I’d suggest you appreciate our effort,” Bai Yeyue said coldly.

“Did I ask for help?”

If it were not for the Bai clan’s interference, he would have slaughtered his way to the city hall and put his sword at the city lord’s neck by now.

Rather than helping him, the Bai clan indirectly helped the city hall instead.

“You The look on Bai Yeyue’s face turned cold.

That was when the Bai clan Forefather reached out to him and stopped him.

Then, he smiled at Chu Kuangren, “Brother Chu, why don’t you listen to what our request is. Maybe it will benefit you as well.

“Oh? T’m all ears then,” Chu Kuangren said, his interest piqued.

This is not a place for discussion. Why don’t you come to our place? Bai clan Forefather said with a smile.

“of course,” Chu Kuangren said. He was not afraid of any tricks that the Bai clan could pull.

Given his current strength, unless facing a real Immortal, he could do and go whatever and wherever he wanted.

Back in the inn, the drunken old man with a jug of alcohol watched as Chu Kuangren left with the Bai clan. A hiccup later, he mumbled, “A Supreme Immortal Progeny with a lot of potentials. However, too bad the Bai clan had their eyes on him.”

Following that, he mocked himself with a scoff, “What does it have to do with me? I’m just a cripple.”

Chapter 926: Bai Clan Forefather’s Abacus, Refining Immortal Crystal

In the Bai clan, it was exceptionally lively in the Bai clan today.

The news that the Bai clan Forefather came forward to protect a person had long spread, and some elders in the Bai clan were quite unhappy about the matter.

After all, the Bai clan was at odds with the city lord’s mansion, yet they still had to protect a foreigner. Were they not adding fuel to the fire?

They could not say anything because the Bai clan Forefather did it.

However, Chu Kuangren was different.

They did not have a good impression of a foreigner like him.

“His face has been covered with a spiritual veil ever since he arrived in Bai clan. He doesn’t seem like a good person at first glance,” muttered a young man.

A few people beside him could not agree more and were preconceived. Chu Kuangren was an eyesore to them.

Nevertheless, Chu Kuangren was not bothered by their remarks.

“Brother Chu, I came to you mainly because of the Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm,” said Bai clan Forefather.

“Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm...”

Chu Kuangren's eyes lit up.

He had heard about the Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm when collecting information.

It was the residence of Master Daoist Heavenly Blaze, an ancient elite that had reached the level of an Immortal.

Unfortunately, Master Daoist Heavenly Blaze perished, and his manor that disappeared was not discovered until recently.

Bai clan was one of the discoverers besides the other forces, such as the city lord's mansion, Holy Divine Fire Cult, Blue Cloud City, and many more.

Those forces were in the midst of preparing to send some people to explore Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm's manor.

"As Master Daoist Heavenly Blaze's residence, the Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm is equipped with many restrictions. I hope you can explore the manor with Moonlight Fox for me, my lord. Of course, the treasures obtained will be divided among us — thirty percent for you and seventy for the Bai clan. What do you think?" uttered the Bai clan Forefather with a smile.

"I get thirty, and you get seventy? That's too much for you to take advantage of."

"Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm has been sealed off by several of our forces, and it is difficult for a foreigner to enter. Brother Chu, it's a great blessing for you to enter the manor and explore as a Bai clan's representative, let alone getting a share of the treasures. You should be happy to get this chance."

"I have to contribute my strength, while you guys only have to contribute a quota. All you have to do is sit back and enjoy. I don't think it's worth it for me."

"How about we divide the treasures equally?"

Bai clan Forefather said.

Chu Kuangren smiled calmly. "No, maintain as you said. We will keep the seventy-thirty split, but I'll get seven and you'll get three."

"Brother Chu, you're taking it too far. Don't forget who rescued you just now. Moreover, you won't be able to enter Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm without the Bai clan. Forget about the seventy-thirty split."

Beside him, Bai Yeyue said as his face turned grim.

"In that case, there's nothing much to talk about."

"Alright. As you wish, Brother Chu, you'll get seven, and we'll get three."

Bai clan Forefather said after taking a deep breath.

A weird look flashed in Chu Kuangren's eyes.

'Oh, he agrees?

"It's a deal then."

“There are still a few days before the agreeable day to explore the manor. Brother Chu, you can stay at the Bai clan for the next few days.”

Bai clan Forefather then appointed someone to take Chu Kuangren to his room for a rest.

After Chu Kuangren left, Bai Yeyue asked puzzledly, “Forefather, a seventy-thirty split is ridiculous. Why did you agree with him?”

“Hmph. A seventy-thirty split? In his dream.”

‘The benevolent-looking Bai clan Forefather suddenly turned vicious. “He’s powerful, and I can temporarily have him under my service. After the exploration of Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm is done, no matter if it’s the treasures in the manor or Moonlight Fox, the Bai clan wants all of them!”

“I see.”

Bai Yeyue sneered upon hearing Bai clan Forefather’s statement.

‘The Bai clan placed Chu Kuangren at a message.

He placed some restrictions on where he lived to prevent others, except Lil Fox, from roaming freely.

“Boss, the Bai clan doesn’t seem to have good intentions.”

Lil Fox reminded him.

“Heh. If you’ve noticed, do you think I can’t? But I’m interested in the Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm. Besides, they have bad intentions. Am I supposed to let them take advantage of me? We still don’t know whether it’s a sheep among wolves or a tiger among sheep.”

Chu Kuangren chuckled playfully.

Lil Fox could not help but think of the magnificent scenery of the dragons and phoenixes blessing on the Immortal Ascension Path. Then, she secretly mourned for the Bai clan for three seconds.

Those guys did not know what a terrifying person they were scheming on!

“Alright. I have to refine the Immortal Crystal, and you shall safeguard me,” said Chu Kuangren.

He took out a milky white, baby fist-sized rhombus-shaped crystal, which was an Immortal Crystal he got from Hong Xue.

“Safeguard?!” Lil Fox became so excited. She immediately stood up, patted her chest, and assured him.

“Don’t worry, Boss. As long as I’m here, no one can get near you.”

“Thank you.”

With that, Chu Kuangren began to refine the Immortal Crystal in his hand.

Lil Fox did not dare to disturb him as she guarded the surroundings.

She was a little excited.

Safeguard.

Generally, a cultivator would find someone he greatly trusted to protect him.

“Does it mean that Chu Kuangren has regarded me as someone he can trust, seeing that he needs my protection? Wait, no. A fox he can trust?”

Lil Fox was delighted thinking about it.

Her face turned a little red as she looked at Chu Kuangren, who was handsome and without a spiritual veil.

“No, no. Don’t overthink it. Boss trusts me so much. I must be cautious and prevent others from approaching.”

Lil Fox said while shaking her head.

At that moment, Chu Kuangren could still sense the outside world even though he was refining the Immortal Crystal. He had three souls, so he separated one of them to pay attention to the changes in the outside world, which was equivalent to safeguarding himself. Therefore, it made no difference with or without Lil Fox.

He would not rely on others for his safety, not to mention a fox he had not known for long.

“What’s Lil Fox thinking?” Chu Kuangren shook his head when he noticed Lil Fox’s expression change.

It did not take long for Chu Kuangren to refine the Immortal Crystal in his hand. He could feel that his source energy had grown slightly even though it was not noticeable.

“The role of Immortal Crystal is more in strengthening the existing source energy, but it’s unrealistic to rely on a few Immortal Crystals to explore new sources. Immortal Techniques and Immortal Physiques are still the key points of my future cultivation...” mumbled Chu Kuangren. After that, he got up to go for a walk.

“Oh? Boss, have you finished refining the Immortal Crystal?”

“Yeah...”

“T-That is so fast!”

Lil Fox was stunned. She glanced at the sky outside and realized it was dawn. Chu Kuangren had only taken a night to refine it all

‘Is Immortal Crystal so easy to refine?’

Lil Fox was a little confused.

In the end, she could only conclude that Chu Kuangren was different from ordinary people.

“As expected from the Boss. He’s extraordinary in all aspects!”

Lil Fox lamented.

Then, she tagged along behind Chu Kuangren.

“Brother Chu, are you going out?”

Chu Kuangren bumped into Bai Yeyue after walking a few steps. His eyes flickered upon seeing the direction Chu Kuangren was going in.

"Don't worry. I won't leave until the matter of Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm is settled," Chu Kuangren said while walking past him, leaving the Bai clan with Lil Fox.

"Hmph, get someone to follow him." Bai Yeyue snorted.

Soon, a few people were following Chu Kuangren.

"Chu Kuangren, Supreme Immortal Progeny? Hmph. You may be a Supreme Immortal Progeny, but you're still a foreigner. You'll fall once Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm's matter is over."

'There was a grim look in Bai Yeyue's eyes. He was a top Immortal Progeny but was miles apart compared to Chu Kuangren in terms of strength.

The disparity in talent made him jealous..

Chapter 927: A Sword Crown of The Past, An Alcoholic Today, Heading To Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm

At an inn in the Ancient Sparrow City, Chu Kuangren ordered a jug of wine with a waiter.

Due to his previous battle with the city guards, many people knew that Chu Kuangren was difficult to deal with and did not dare to provoke him.

As long as one was powerful in the Immortal World, he would be offered as a master wherever he went, even if he was a foreigner.

"Old beggar, you're here to steal wine again. Get out of here!" A screeching voice sounded not far away.

'An old man was chased out by the inn owner. A wine jar in his hand fell to the ground with a bang, spilling the wine all over the place.

The old man was drunk, lying on the ground with his face flushed and body smell of alcohol.

Most of the diners around were well dressed. They spat in disgust and took a few steps back in fear of getting stained by the old beggar.

Chu Kuangren glanced over with curiosity in his eyes.

"Waiter, let the old man in. Whatever he drinks is on me," said Chu Kuangren.

The waiter was a little stunned to hear that.

'The old man was quite surprised as well.

The waiter hesitated. "Master, this old man is scruffy. I'm afraid his existence will affect the other diners."

"Here's a hundred million spiritual marrows. I shall book the whole inn."

Chu Kuangren said while throwing out a Yin and Yang Ring. A hundred million spiritual marrows were more than most cultivators could spend in their lifetime.

'The waiter's eyes lit up as he took the Yin and Yang Ring.

Not far away, a manager approached with a flattering smile. "Master, of course, you can book the entire inn. I'll arrange it for you."

"What an arrogant foreigner. How can you book the entire inn and ignore us?!"

A cultivator could not help but shout.

"Indeed. Hey, foreigner, don't be too arrogant."

"I'm staying here today."

Many cultivators agreed.

Boom!

At that moment, a frightening murderous intent swept out in all directions like a raging wave, making the entire inn feel like an ice cellar in an instant.

Those clamoring turned speechless, like ducks strangled by their necks.

"I said I'm booking this inn! F*ck off!"

Chu Kuangren's shout almost made the terrifying murderous intent become a reality.

Everyone shuddered.

After the murderous intent subsided, the diners in the inn dared not stay any longer and ran as fast as they could.

'How many people has he killed to unleash such murderous intent?

'He's too frightening.'

'Has he massacred a civilization?!'

Everyone thought to themselves.

Compared to the frightened crowds, the old man who stole the wine seemed much calmer. However, he was surprised that Chu Kuangren would treat him to drinks.

He came and sat down in front of Chu Kuangren. "Thank you, Junior, but we don't know each other. Why are you treating me to drinks?"

"Many people can only dream to drink with one of the Seven Crowns. I won't miss the opportunity since I'm given a chance."

Chu Kuangren said.

It was the information that he analyzed by utilizing the Omniscient Spirit.

Seven Crowns was a renowned name in Planquilon Immortal World, referring to the Immortals who stood at the pinnacle of seven types of Weapons Dao!

The old man in front of him was one of the Seven Crowns, the Sword Crown!

He was the Sword Crown, Li Juexin!

Upon hearing Chu Kuangren saying his former name, a glint flashed across Sword Crown's eyes, and a terrifying sword aura started brewing in his body. Lil Fox turned pale with fright.

'The Sword Crown restrained his aura when the waiter returned with a jar of wine. He looked dejected. "Stop mentioning the Sword Crown. I've been crippled of my cultivation long ago, and now I'm just an old man lingering between taverns."

Lil Fox was secretly amazed.

'He's crippled but still has such a horrifying aura. How terrifying was his power before he was crippled? What an Immortal.'

Chu Kuangren did not speak as he knew about the Sword Crown.

The Omniscient Spirit's analysis also included Sword Crown's physical state. Although he was an Immortal, he was severely injured, and his Immortal Core was used to suppress his injury. Therefore, he could not use his strength.

Otherwise, his injury would worsen, and he would be dead.

In that case, he was regarded as crippled.

"Junior, are you a sword cultivator?"

Sword Crown suddenly asked.

He noticed the Descendant Self Sword hanging from Chu Kuangren's waist.

Chu Kuangren nodded. "I suppose."

"Suppose?"

"My techniques are not limited to Sword Dao."

Chu Kuangren said.

"Ise. Considering that you're treating me to drinks, I shall remind you that no matter what reasons the Bai clan has for looking for you, they definitely do not have good intentions. Be careful," said the Sword Crown.

"Heh. Me too."

Chu Kuangren grinned.

'The Bai clan wanted to gain some benefits through him, while he wanted to enter Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm through the Bai clan.

"It seems like the Bai clan has set themselves on fire."

"Let's stop talking about it and drink."

Chu Kuangren said.

Both of them had some drinks and chatted for a while.

The Sword Crown seemed to have found a shoulder to cry on, and he talked about how wonderful his life was in the past as he drank.

‘Crossing the ocean alone, killing thousands of dragons with a slash...’

‘Waving sleeves to accept all uncertainties, gathering qi into a sword to break through hundreds of cities...’

Not far away, the waiter and the manager sneered when they heard the Sword Crown’s statements.

‘Would you be as who you are now if you were so powerful?’

‘D*mn drunkard who’s only good in bragging’

“Unfortunately, I’m a useless old man who can’t even kill an enemy with a sword now...”

At the end of the drinking session, the Sword Crown slumped on the table with a flushed face, and he started crying like a helpless child.

Chu Kuangren sighed to himself while watching the man beside him. Even a high and mighty Immortal held many secrets that people did not know.

‘Who would have thought that the drunk old man, who was crying bitterly in front of him, was once a glorious Sword Immortal who was unrivaled in an era?’

“Here’s a billion spiritual marrows. Give him as much wine as he likes in the future until these spiritual marrows are all spent.”

Chu Kuangren threw a Yin and Yang Ring to the manager.

After that, he got up and left.

Before he left, he looked at the Sword Crown and mumbled, “Perhaps one day in the future, I may bring you back to the pinnacle.”

He did not make a promise immediately as he did not have the ability to do so yet now.

Moreover, he was only treating the Sword Crown to drinks on a whim. Perhaps there would not be a chance for them to meet each other again in the future after they parted.

As he watched Chu Kuangren leave, the Sword Crown murmured with drunken eyes, “Maybe he can inherit my Thousand Lotus Sword Intent.”

Chu Kuangren walked around the city after leaving the inn.

Then, he returned to the Bai clan.

About ten days later, the day for him to depart to Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm came. The Bai clan Forefather led the team along with Chu Kuangren, Bai Yeyue, and a few of Bai clan’s Immortal Progeny sky-prides to the location of Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm.

Not only the Bai clan, but the city lord’s mansion also sent many experts and troops to escort the city lord mansion’s Immortal Progenies.

Chu Kuangren calculated that besides him, there were twenty Immortal Progenies from the city lord’s mansion and the Bai clan going to the Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm.

“There are also Holy Divine Fire Cult, Blue Cloud City, and other forces. This trip to Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm is like a gathering of Immortal Progenies.” Chu Kuangren chuckled and looked forward to it.

It seemed like he was going to gain a lot of Opportunities of Fortunes and resources..

Chapter 928: Holy Divine Fire Cult’s Divine Bachelor, Entering The Forest Realm, Moonlight Fox’s Ability

There was an endless cave on a massive cliff, with faint rays of prohibitory seal flickering.

A group of people had already gathered around the cliff.

They looked impressive, especially the young sky-prides who looked pridefully at the cave on the cliff with anxious eyes.

“So this is Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm, the residence of an Immortal?”

“I’s extraordinary.”

“Indeed. I wonder what Opportunities of Fortunes are hidden in there.”

“Since it’s an Immortal’s residence, Immortal Pills and Immortal Crystals should be indispensable. I wonder if there are treasures like Immortal Scripture?”

“Immortal’s Scripture? That’s even more precious than Immortal Techniques. It’s the essence of an Immortal’s cultivation Dao and is very rare.”

A few people were discussing it.

Along time ago, there was no shortage of Immortals in the complete Immortal World.

Immortal Techniques, Immortals Scriptures, and the likes were not rare. However, in today’s Planquilon Immortal World, an Immortal’s Scripture was a priceless treasure.

Even an immortal orthodoxy was eager to obtain it.

Among the crowd, Chu Kuangren was there too.

He looked at Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm, trying to figure out if there were any hidden treasures by utilizing his Treasure Hunting Skill. However, there was not much feedback.

“It seems like the manor’s prohibitory seal is brilliant and can repel the Treasure Hunting Skill’s senses. This is indeed an Immortal’s residence.”

He mumbled.

The Treasure Hunting Skill no longer was useless to him now.

Most of the time, he could achieve similar effects to the Treasure Hunting Skill by relying on his mind power, which was even more effective.

Hum.

At that moment, dozens of flame currents were approaching from the distance with a whistling sound. Everyone looked at the flame currents with a solemn look in their eyes.

“It’s Holy Divine Fire Cult.”

“Tsk, Holy Divine Fire Cult is an immortal orthodoxy. I wonder which Immortal Progeny they’ve sent to explore the Forest Realm.”

“Could it be the Divine Bachelor and Divine Maiden?”

“How is that possible...”

The Holy Divine Fire Cult was one of Planquilon Immortal World’s immortal orthodoxies and one of the top-notched orthodoxies among all. There were even Immortals supporting them!

It was the most powerful force that had come to explore the Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm this time. Even Ancient Sparrow City was either one or two levels below it.

“Welcome, Divine Bachelor!”

Those flame currents floated in mid-air and turned into a figure.

The crowd bowed while forming a fist salute.

Shortly after, a more majestic momentum and sun-like firelight fell from the sky, causing the surrounding void to tremble.

As the firelight dissipated, a red-haired young man appeared before everyone. His eyes were as bright as torches, and his figure revealed an extraordinary aura.

The crowd looked at him in astonishment.

“Well, I’ll be d*mned. It’s the Divine Bachelor!”

“Tt really is the Divine Bachelor!”

“Holy Divine Fire Cult’s eight Divine Bachelors and four Divine Maidens make up twelve Supreme Immortal Progenies! Apparently, the first rank is a King Immortal Progeny who is usually in closed-door meditation in the God Cult Headquarters and is seldom seen roaming around.”

Everyone looked at the red-haired young man with awe in their eyes.

Other forces’ Immortal Progenies turned solemn.

“Holy Divine Fire Cult’s Divine Bachelor came in person. It seems like there really are hidden treasures in the Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm. Even the Divine Bachelor is tempted.”

“The competition is huge.”

Chu Kuangren glanced at the Divine Bachelor with an indifferent expression. He had analyzed the other party’s cultivation base and talent entirely.

“This Supreme Immortal Progeny is probably stronger than Hong Xue, so he’s not worth worrying about,” he thought to himself.

“I suppose most people are here.”

The red-haired young man, the Divine Bachelor, named Huoshen Xiao said.

“Yeah. Most should be here by now.”

A Holy Divine Fire Cult's elder said while glancing around.

"If that's the case, let's enter."

Huoshen Xiao uttered with anxious eyes.

After that, he took the lead. His figure turned into a ray of light and dashed towards the Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm, disappearing from everyone's vision in the blink of an eye.

"What an impatient Divine Bachelor."

Chu Kuangren said.

Then, he took Lil Fox with him and walked towards the Forest Realm.

Bai Yeyue and the other Bai clan's Immortal Progenies followed after him.

Next who followed was the Immortal Progenies from the city lord's mansion. The leader was a young man in golden armor who looked domineering and mighty.

All the Immortal Progenies entered the Forest Realm and disappeared from everyone's sight.

Outside the cave, older elites of the significant forces were tacitly safeguarding their Immortal Progenies and did not enter the Forest Realm.

Most of them were cultivators without much potential. Even if they got the treasures, they would not be able to make the most of them.

Only the younger generation of cultivators, who were advancing by leaps and bounds, could utilize all kinds of Opportunities of Fortunes and treasures to their fullest.

Their responsibility was to take care of these Immortal Progenies' growth.

Chu Kuangren and the rest had entered Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm.

The Forest Realm was just a cave from the outside. However, on the inside, it was vast, and it looked like a paradise with mountains and rivers.

It was a manmade miniverse.

"Look at those fruit trees!"

A cultivator exclaimed.

He pointed to the fruit trees ahead.

The lush fruit trees had ruddy, fist-sized fruits that flowed with Daoist patterns and smelled refreshing. They were all spirit fruits.

Moreover, there were uncommon spirit fruits.

"Judging from the appearance and aura, these are red-jade spirit fruits. It is rumored that it has the effect of purifying Emperor qi and enhancing one's cultivation base."

"It has a great effect for those below the level of an Immortal."

“One, two, three, four... Holy moly, there are no less than a hundred spirit trees here, all of which are full of spirit fruits. This is ridiculous.”

The crowd was envious.

A cultivator could not hold back anymore and dashed towards the fruit trees. However, before he could get near to them, he was thrown away by a powerful energy.

“Hmph. It’s merely a seal.”

Several cultivators attacked the prohibitory seal, which destabilized it.

At the critical moment when everyone was destroying the seal, Chu Kuangren took Lil Fox and walked towards the restriction.

A faint spiritual veil radiated from the crescent mark on Lil Fox’s forehead, enveloping Chu Kuangren and him.

The seals around did not affect them. Instead, they walked towards the fruit trees with ease and began to pick the spirit fruits.

“What’s happening?”

“Why doesn’t the seal work on them?!”

The crowd looked at Chu Kuangren and Lil Fox with confusion.

Not everyone could recognize the Moonlight Fox.

“Good job.”

Chu Kuangren said while petting Lil Fox’s head.

He could break the seal with violence, but Lil Fox could roam freely without triggering it.

Such Moonlight Fox’s ability was exceptional.

No wonder many cultivators flocked to him.

Chu Kuangren initially thought about analyzing the Moonlight Fox’s physique to see if he could control the magical ability.

Unfortunately, the ability was not from the physique.

However, it did not matter to him. As long as he brought Lil Fox along, the divine ability was equivalent to his and made little difference.

Chu Kuangren waved his hands and kept countless fruits into his Yin and Yang Ring. Upon seeing that, the expressions of the cultivators outside of the seal changed.

“Holy sh*t! We’ll lose our share if this goes on.”

“Hurry and break the seal!”

Chapter 929: Am I Your Father? Heavenly Blaze Treasury, Violet Heaven Radiant Flame

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor:EndlessFantasy Translation

Boom, boom, boom

A burst of powerful energy slammed into the prohibitory seal, causing it to tremble.

Soon after, the seal was broken.

The crowd rushed forward, surrounding Chu Kuangren and Lil Fox. However, both of them had already taken all the fruits.

The crowd was unhappy as they looked at the empty trees.

“You’ve taken all the spirit fruits. Hey, foreigners, don’t you think you’ve gone too far?!” a cultivator said.

The rest did not look friendly.

‘As natives, how could they possibly do nothing but watch as the two foreigners, Chu Kuangren and Lil Ai, took all the treasures?’

“If I don’t take all the treasures I see, that’s taking it too far.”

Chu Kuangren said.

“You! Hmph, hand them over!”

The cultivator said while dashing towards Chu Kuangren with majestic Emperor qi surging in his hands. Nevertheless, he was just a Minor Daoist Celestial.

“Foolish.”

Chu Kuangren raised his hand and unleashed a punch.

Along with a frightening band, the Minor Daoist Celestial died on the spot!

The rest of the people’s expressions changed.

“Such powerful energy.”

“This combat strength is at least at the level of a peak Great Daoist Celestial or higher!”

“Terrifying!”

Everyone began to fear Chu Kuangren a little more.

“Hey, foreigners. Hand over your spirit fruits. Otherwise, don’t blame us for being rude,” said the young man in golden armor.

He was the Ancient Sparrow City’s young city lord and an Immortal Progeny.

‘As soon as he spoke, Bai Yeyue stood forward, but he supported Chu Kuangren. “Whoever is capable can keep the treasures. They belong to whoever gets them first.”’

“Bai Yeyue, do you think you can have all of them to yourself?”

“Rather than arguing over the spirit fruits here, don’t you think it’s better to find more Opportunities of Fortunes elsewhere? Don’t forget, the Holy Divine Fire Cult’s Divine Bachelor came in too, but he has now disappeared.”

Bai Yeyue uttered.

Everyone frowned upon hearing his words.

Indeed, Huoshen Xiao had entered the Forest Realm ahead of them, but he did not take the spirit fruits. It seemed like he was looking for other Opportunities of Fortune.

‘Huoshen Xiao came well prepared.’

Everyone got a little anxious thinking about it.

“Hmph. Let’s go and look elsewhere.”

“The Forest Realm is big. What is a few spirit fruits anyway?”

With that, everyone left.

Bai Yeyue smiled at Chu Kuangren. “Daoist Brother, let’s move on. There must be more Opportunities of Fortune ahead.”

“Let’s go then.”

Chu Kuangren uttered.

The Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm was huge with many Opportunities of Fortunes. Most of them had prohibitory formations, which made it difficult for them to enter.

However, Chu Kuangren had Lil Fox. Therefore, those prohibitory formations were useless, and he obtained many good things.

Bai Yeyue and the rest who followed him felt jealous of him.

“Brother Chu, you’ve taken so many things. Give some to us, will you?” said a Bai clan’s Immortal Progeny.

“I was the one who got it. Why should I give some to you?”

“Brother Chu, we’ve been following you for the past few days. You should give us a taste of them.”

A Bai clan’s Immortal Progeny was dissatisfied.

Upon hearing that, Chu Kuangren felt amused. “Excuse me. Did I ask all of you to follow me? Can’t you find Opportunities of Fortunes and treasures on your own? I’m not your father. Why should I give the treasures I found to you?”

Chu Kuangren knew full well why the Bai clan’s Immortal Progenies had been following him. They wanted to monitor him as they were afraid he would run away.

“Y-You...”

The Bai clan’s Immortal Progeny was so angry that his face was flushed.

He wanted to refute, yet he could not say a word.

“alright.”

Bai Yeyue stopped the Bai’s clan Immortal Progeny and said, “Regarding the treasures obtained in Forest Realm, we’ll distribute them after we get back. Now that we’re in the Forest Realm and have a common enemy, we shouldn’t be infighting.”

“We understood.”

All the Immortal Progenies nodded.

“Let’s move on and explore.”

Ba Yeyue said as he turned around and left with the Bai clan’s Immortal Progenies.

The moment he turned around, a look of resentment flashed across his eyes.

“Chu Kuangren!

“I’ll tolerate your arrogance for a few more days. But once you leave the Forest Realm and return to Bai Manor, you’ll kneel on the ground and beg for mercy!”

Bai Yeyue thought to himself.

“Boss, you were awesome just now.”

Lil Fox looked at Chu Kuangren with admiration.

“Bai Yeyue and Bai clan? Heh, let’s see how long you can endure this.” Chu Kuangren thought while rubbing his chin.

Taking advantage of a few people who had gone ahead to explore, Chu Kuangren summoned Fantasy Roulette and made a draw.

“Congratulations, Host. You have received a God-tier Medical Scripture, Emerald Sac Scriptures.”

God-tier Medical Scripture?

Chu Kuangren’s eyes lit up.

He immediately retrieved the reward. Soon after, quaint, golden medical scriptures that filled with faint brilliance appeared in his hand.

‘When the brilliance dissipated, the three words “Emerald Sac Scriptures” were displayed on it.

Chu Kuangren flipped to the first page of the medical scriptures.

Immediately, countless mysterious runes, various incurable diseases, and medical practices flashed in his mind.

After a while, Chu Kuangren closed the scriptures and lamented, “I thought my medical skills were the best in the world. But little did I realize that there are more than I know!”

He had only glanced through the Emerald Sac Medical Scriptures, yet it already benefited him greatly. If he could fully master it, his medical skills would improve by several levels, and he would become a Medical Immortal!

He kept the medical scriptures, intending to comprehend them slowly when he had the time.

Soon after, Bai Yeyue and the rest returned.

“Brother Chu, there’s a great Opportunity of Fortune ahead.”

Bai Yeyue said solemnly.

“Oh, tell me. What is it?”

“Huoshen Xiao has opened the Heavenly Blaze Immortal’s treasury, and many people are heading there now,” said Bai Yeyue.

“The Heavenly Blaze Immortal’s treasury?”

Chu Kuangren’s eyes lit up.

In a magnificent palace, a large number of purple-blue flames were burning wildly. These flames were burning with a terrifyingly high temperature and domineering aura.

Various treasures were flying out from the flames.

Many cultivators were already in the palace.

“It’s Violet Heaven Radiant Flame!”

“It’s indeed Violet Heaven Radiant Flame, ranked eighty-one in the Immortal Realm Divine Fire List! Oh my god. How is it here in Master Daoist Heavenly Blaze’s manor? Wait, who released the flame?”
Everyone was shocked when they looked at the burning purple-blue flame.

Following that, they saw a red-haired figure in the flames walking towards the center of it.

There was a huge fire cauldron at the center of the flames.

Within the fire cauldron was a purple-blue light wisp flickering. The surface was covered with mysterious Daoist patterns, which caused waves of tyrannical fluctuations to spread.

“It’s Holy Divine Fire Cult’s Divine Bachelor!”

“That is... the Violet Heaven Radiant Flame’s tinder!”

Everyone’s eyes widened, and their eyes were filled with jealousy.

The Violet Heaven Radiant Flame was a type of powerful divine fire. After refining its tinder, one could control the flame, providing significant help to a cultivator’s combat strength.

Even Immortals dreamed of having the listed divine fire, let alone those who were not yet Immortals.

“No wonder Huoshen Xiao came straight here as soon as he entered the Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm. He knew that the Violet Heaven Radiant Flame’s tinder was here.”

“The Holy Divine Fire Cult is good at controlling flames. If Huoshen Xiao gets the Violet Heaven Radiant Flame, it’ll be akin to adding wings to a tiger.”

Chapter 930: All of You Should Attack Me Together, Defeating Hundreds Of Immortal Progenies With A Single Move

In the Heavenly Blaze Treasury, as the Violet Heaven Radiant Flame raged on, some treasures were constantly pushed out from the fire, causing many to go forward and snatch them. Huoshen Xiao ignored them as he was only keen on the Violet Heaven Radiant Flame's tinder before him.

"The records in ancient archives are right. The Master Daoist Heavenly Blaze was skilled in alchemy, and he had a furnace with a Violet Heaven Radiant Flame's tinder specially used to alchemy hidden in it. This is the biggest Opportunity of Fortune in the Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm. As long as I get the Violet Heaven Radiant Flame, my status in the cult will rise and surpass the rest of the Divine Bachelors and Divine Maidens!"

"I might even be second only to Huoshen Huang!"

Huoshen Xiao thought excitedly.

Then, he mobilized his Emperor qi and channeled the unique Holy Divine Fire Cult's defensive flame technique to resist the surrounding flames while approaching the tinder.

Outside the treasury, the rest of the Immortal Progenies looked at the Violet Heaven Radiant Flame's tinder. Although they were jealous, it would be difficult for them to get to it with their strength.

'The flame temperature on the periphery alone was not something they could resist, let alone the core where the tinder was located.

Only Huoshen Xiao, who cultivated Flame Dao and was a Supreme Immortal Progeny who had comprehended the Flame Source, could do it.

"although we can't obtain the biggest Opportunity of Fortune, other treasures in Heavenly Blaze Treasury are not bad too."

"Indeed. Our trip in here is well worth the effort with these treasures."

At that moment, a golden medicinal pill flew out from the flames.

The medicinal pill was filled with Immortal Sparks, and the fragrance was refreshing.

"Well, I'll be d*mned. It's an Immortal Pill!"

"Although this Immortal Pill has lost its medicinal properties, it's still an Immortal Pill. Hurry, don't let it fall in others' hands."

At the sight of the Immortal Pill, some observing cultivators could not help but rush to snatch it.

All kinds of energy erupted, making the scene chaotic.

"Get out of my way!"

A roar sounded.

Dressed in golden armor, the Ancient Sparrow City's young city lord radiated with a flash of dazzling, golden brilliance, and a source aura erupted from his body
In a bang, dozens of Immortal Progenies were sent flying away.

"What?! It's the source!"

"A peak Great Daoist Celestial and the source energy. I didn't expect the Ancient Sparrow City's young city lord to be a Supreme Immortal Progeny!"

"D*mn. He had hidden well."

After defeating the rest, the young city lord's eyes shone brightly as he immediately dashed towards the Immortal Pill.

"The Immortal Pill is mine!"

However, a figure flashed before him, raised his hand, and unleashed a punch on his golden armor.

'The Ancient Sparrow's young city lord was blown away with a bang.

A hole was smashed into his golden armor, and he looked a little frightened.

'It's a Heavenly Daoist Weapon'

'Punched a hole?'

'What is this power?

He looked up into the sky, only to see a figure in white, clasping and fiddling with the Immortal Pill in his hand before he put it into the Yin and Yang Ring.

It was Chu Kuangren.

"D*mn, it's him again!"

'The Ancient Sparrow young city lord's face darkened.

After Chu Kuangren got the Immortal Pill, he glanced at the rest of the treasures. However, not many things caught his attention.

He cast his Spatial Conveyor Skill with a big wave of his hand, brought the treasures to him, and then put them into the Yin and Yang Ring one by one.

"You bast*rd! What are you doing?!"

"You want to take all the treasures?!"

Chu Kuangren's act offended all the cultivators present. They could tolerate others getting treasures, but they would not allow anyone to take all of them.

"He's just too much."

Bai Yeyue and the Bai clan's Immortal Progenies were shocked to see Chu Kuangren taking all the treasures to himself.

In particular, Bai Yeyue's eyes were trembling in shock.

'The Bai clan wanted to take advantage of Chu Kuangren and Lil Fox's powers to get more treasures in Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm.

However, that was ridiculous

There were so many treasures, and he wanted them all to himself?

All the Immortal Progenies in the Forest Realm were furious and against Chu Kuangren. Could he fend himself against everyone's anger?

If he could not fend them off and got himself killed instead, it would be a great loss to the Bai clan for what they had done thus far. Furthermore, in order to protect Chu Kuangren, the Bai clan had given the city lord's mansion twenty billion spiritual marrows.

If Chu Kuangren died, and others robbed all treasures, the Bai clan would go for wool and come home shorn.

"What a foolish and reckless bast*rd. Can't he keep a low profile?!"

"Now that so many Immortal Progenies are against him, our help won't even help the situation. He's such a b*stard, *sshole, idiot..."

Bai Yeyue scolded Chu Kuangren in his heart.

On the contrary, Lil Fox was so excited that she waved her tiny fists and cheered for Chu Kuangren.

"Come on, Boss. Beat them all."

"Destroy them."

Bai Yeyue and the rest stayed away from Lil Fox.

'F*ck.

'Is Lil Fox asking for trouble?

'What if her act attracts others?!"

Chu Kuangren stood in the air while the cultivators around glared at him. With the Emperor qi flowing on his body, he could make a move at any time.

"Those who want to fight, all of you should attack me together."

"I still have to collect the tinder later."

Chu Kuangren looked at the furnace not far away.

"You don't have the chance to get the tinder!"

"Hmph, ridiculous!"

"Even if you're a Supreme Immortal Progeny, you're destined to be defeated with so many of us joining forces!"

Then, all Immortal Progenies attacked.

The first to attack was a sword cultivator. He struck forward toward Chu Kuangren with the longsword in his hand, unleashing a dazzling sword ray.

“Such a weak sword attack.”

Chu Kuangren unleashed a punch casually and shattered the sword ray. As a result, it blasted the sword cultivator thousands of kilometers away, where he smashed into a palace.

‘A few Immortal Progenies at the side dashed towards Chu Kuangren.

They had all kinds of weapons in their hands. However, when their attacks landed on Chu Kuangren, they could not hurt him at all.

Chu Kuangren raised his hand to release his Emperor qi.

Several Immortal Progenies blasted away on the spot.

“D*mn. His physical body is strong. Don’t attack him close combat!”

“Remote Esoteric Arts, Immortal Technique Attack!”

The Ancient Sparrow City’s young city lord shouted.

He took the lead in casting his Immortal Technique, and a tyrannical fluctuation erupted from his body. As soon as he unleashed a punch, a giant golden palm print appeared in the void with Daoist patterns interweaving like mountains and rivers.

The rest of the people also cast their techniques.

“Godly Moon Saber!”

“Great Demon Slash!”

“Beast Storm of Wrath!”

‘Wave after wave of strong fluctuations swept towards Chu Kuangren.

Not far away, Bai Yeyue gulped as he observed.

‘There must be hundreds of Immortal Progenies attacking altogether!

Even a Pseudo Immortal might not be able to resist them!

However, Chu Kuangren remained still and mobilized his mind power. Following that, purple and crimson-colored bands of light spread rapidly from him in all directions.

Single Thought Series, Planetary Destruction!

Boom, boom, boom!

Immortal Techniques clashed one after another!

The powerful force caused the entire Forest Realm to shake!

At that moment a terrifying shockwave ensued.

Every single Immortal Progeny was sent flying backward. Some fell to the ground in disgrace, while some spat mouthfuls of blood, their aura sluggish.

For some severe cases, they exploded into blood mist on the spot!

Hundreds of Immortal Progenies besieged Chu Kuangren, but he defeated them all with a single move!
