Chapter 931: The Phoenix Flame's Power, the Ancient Sparrow City's Young Lord Had It Coming

"Is this guy a... monster?!"

Bai Yeyue looked at Chu Kuangren in horror.

He was a little shaken.

'So that's the person the Bai clan is trying to manipulate?!"

"No. There must be a limit to his strengths, no matter how strong he is. We, the Bai clan, have a Pseudo Immortal to keep him in check."

Bai Yeyue reassured himself.

Meanwhile, the Immortal Progenies who were defeated by Chu Kuangren looked at him with a dumbfounded expression. It was as if they were dreaming.

However, the pain they felt was evidence that it was reality!

Hundreds of Immortal Progenies attacked just now, yet all of them were defeated in a single move. Furthermore, he had yet to use his full strength.

"What a monster. Is this guy really a foreigner?! Are all foreign sky-prides so terrifying?!"

"This guy is just crazy strong."

"That kind of power is beyond even a King Immortal Progeny's level."

Everyone was horrified by Chu Kuangren's strength.

At the same time, Lil Fox, who was watching the scene unfold nearby, started dancing with delight.

"My boss is such a bad*ss!"

Then, Chu Kuangren's figure flashed and arrived beside Lil Fox. He patted her on the head and said, "Wait for me here."

'As soon as he said that, his figure disappeared in a flash once more.

By the time he reappeared, he was within the depths of the treasury, the place where the Violet Heaven Radiant Flame was located.

He slowly walked towards the Violet Heaven Radiant Flame. Wherever his white-clothed figure passed, the surrounding flames automatically repelled.

"Huh? There is someone who can get near to the Violet Heaven Radiant Flame?"

Huoshen Xiao, who had gotten very close to the furnace, could not help but feel surprised when he noticed Chu Kuangren's approach.

"I don't care who you are. I order you to leave this place right now!"

Huoshen Xiao yelled.

"I'm taking this flame tinder."

Chu Kuangren said.

"You imb*c*le!"

Huoshen Xiao's face turned cold. He immediately turned and unleashed a fierce punch toward Chu Kuangren, his golden flames erupting into a gigantic sea of flames.

Alas, although Huoshen Xiao was a great and powerful Supreme Immortal Progeny to everyone else, Chu Kuangren found his strength not much different compared to the other Immortal Progenies. Chu Kuangren gently raised his hand, releasing a vast surge of Emperor qi like a raging tide.

Bam!

The sea of flame was immediately broken through by the Emperor qi, which continued heading toward Huoshen Xiao and slammed violently into him. He almost spat out a mouthful of blood due to the power of that attack.

"Such power! You're a Supreme Immortal Progeny!"

"I can't believe a sky-pride like you exists among the foreigners!"

Huoshen Xiao's expression changed. Then, he grunted and channeled his Emperor qi to its fullest potential, filling the surroundings with his Immortal Technique fluctuations.

"Divine Wrathful Flame Blast!"

Following a roar, Huoshen Xiao formed a mysterious hand sign with his hands and attacked. A wall of flame released from his body in the form of a flaming tornado that immediately engulfed Chu Kuangren. "Hmph. Have fun turning into ashes."

Huoshen Xiao sneered.

"I'm afraid your flames are not hot enough."

However, an apathetic voice soon sounded from within the flames. Following that, a peculiar aura emerged from it.

A flaming golden-red light suddenly appeared from the golden flames and devoured the surrounding flames.

Huoshen Xiao's pupils trembled crazily as if he had witnessed something unbelievable. "This... This aura... How is this possible?"

Chu Kuangren walked out from the flames.

Golden-red flames were burning all over him. Even Huoshen Xiao's golden flames and the surrounding violet-blue flames retreated before the likes of Chu Kuangren's flames. The Violet Heaven Radiant Flame inside the furnace also started trembling out of nowhere.

‘A Godly Phoenix could vaguely be seen soaring within the golden-red flames.

Its supreme might caused the surrounding area to rumble!

“P-Phoenix’s Flames!”

“Impossible. How do you have these Phoenix’s Flames? How can a mere human even gain control of a Godly Phoenix’s flames?!”

Huoshen Xiao uttered in horror.

Only a Godly Phoenix could wield the Phoenix’s Flame. Also known as the Essence of All Flames, it was ranked third on the Divine Fire List!

That meant it was several times more powerful than the Violet Heaven Radiant Flame.

However, with Chu Kuangren’s current strength, he still could not unleash the full might of the Phoenix’s Flame — the power that made it ranked third among all divine flames.

Nevertheless, Huoshen Xiao was more shocked by the fact that Chu Kuangren was a human! A human had surprisingly succeeded in wielding the Phoenix’s Flame!

“This is completely different from the Divine Fire Holy Cult’s manuscript records!”

“D*mn it. Who the hell are you?!”

Huoshen Xiao asked.

“There’s no need for me to answer that.”

Chu Kuangren gently raised his hand.

There was a ball of Phoenix’s Flame burning at his fingertip.

Whoosh.

That golden-red Phoenix’s Flame shot out!

For cultivators specializing in Flame Dao, the effects of the Phoenix’s Flames were just too powerful of a counter. As such, Huoshen Xiao’s expression changed in the face of that attack. He immediately summoned all his Emperor qi and unleashed a blast of flame. However, it was easily destroyed.

“This is bad. This guy can control the Phoenix’s Flame. With my current strength, there’s no way I can fight against him. I must leave now!”

Huoshen Xiao’s expression became stern.

Then, he yelled, forcefully absorbing the scattered Violet Heaven Radiant Flames in the surroundings into his body. “Take this. Divine Flame Clone!”

The Violet Heaven Radiant Flame that was absorbed into Huoshen Xiao’s body erupted into a clone that charged toward Chu Kuangren.

After that, his figure dashed into the distance in a flash.

'Wielding the Phoenix's Flame in his fist, Chu Kuangren immediately punched that flame clone and blasted it into countless flame sparks right away.

By now, Huoshen Xiao had taken the opportunity to escape.

"Heh, I'll spare your life for now. Let's hope you can bring me something more interesting in the future." Chu Kuangren chuckled.

It would not be hard for him to kill Huoshen Xiao. With his current power, not even ten Huoshen Xiao's could survive if he took it seriously.

However, it was just too boring for him to kill an Immortal Progeny right off the bat. He wanted to wait until they had gotten stronger instead. That way, killing them would be more meaningful as he would stand to gain more benefits too.

Chu Kuangren then looked towards the Violet Heaven Radiant Flame inside the furnace and grabbed it.

Most importantly, he was grabbing a flame tinder. If it were a cultivator who did not specialize in Flame Dao or possess unique techniques, the flames would have instantly turned them into ashes.

However, with his monstrous raw physical strength and the Phoenix's Flame protection, the Violet Heaven Radiant Flame was no threat to Chu Kuangren.

He grabbed that flame tinder and even found a few Immortal Pills inside the furnace. Although the medicinal effects of those pills had degraded severely, it was still a great haul for him overall.

"The Phoenix's Flame possesses the ability to devour all sorts of flames to strengthen itself. A divine fire like this is the most suitable choice for the Phoenix Flame to devour." Chu Kuangren grinned as he engulfed the flame tinder with his Phoenix's Flame, which immediately absorbed into his body. Then, he started looting the treasury.

Outside the treasury, Lil Fox had been watching everything that happened inside the entire time. "My boss is a bad*ss, alright. Even a Supreme Immortal Progeny is no match for him."

She was extremely happy, and she felt that she had made the right choice being by his side.

However, she did not notice an unfriendly and hostile gaze staring at her from behind. That person was the Ancient Sparrow City's Young Lord.

"This girl is a Moonlight Fox!"

"That person must have used the Moonlight Fox's divine ability to move through sealing restrictions as he pleased the other day!"

The Ancient Sparrow City's Young Lord had a coveting look. "This fox is only a Minor Daoist Celestial. With my abilities, I'll surely be able to subdue her in an instant. Seeing that the monster is now looting the treasury, I must move quickly and leave this place right after I take that Moonlight Fox!"

Chapter 932: Killing the Ancient Sparrow City's Young Lord, Do I Look Like a Mass-Murderer to You?

"If I can move fast enough, I'll surely be able to take down that little fox and then snatch it away before that monster realizes it!"

With that plan in mind, the Ancient Sparrow City's Young Lord took action.

His figure flashed as he dashed towards Lil Fox.

Although Lil Fox could sense that something was wrong, it was too late for her to do anything. The Ancient Sparrow City's Young Lord was already in front of her. He immediately attacked with both fists, rendering her immobile with his dense Emperor qi.

Lil Fox could only watch as the grim-looking Young Lord of the Ancient Sparrow City charged toward her. Her expression gradually turned into that of horror.

"Almost there!"

A look of happiness flashed across the Ancient Sparrow City Young Lord's eyes.

However, at that moment, a ray of sword ray suddenly shot out from Lil Fox's body.

It was an incredibly sharp and brutal sword qi!

'The powerful sword ray instantly tore through the Ancient Sparrow City Young Lord's Emperor qi, sending him flying and spurting a mouthful of blood.

"How is this possible? This sword qi..."

"This is very bad. I have to escape as fast as possible!"

'The Ancient Sparrow City Young Lord's expression changed as he did not expect something like that to happen. Hence, he quickly turned and fled into the distance.

"Do you think you can escape from me?"

'An apathetic voice sounded.

A huge purple hand made from Emperor qi and Daoist patterns suddenly appeared, grabbing the Ancient Sparrow City's Young Lord in mid-air. A Supreme Immortal Progeny like him could not even resist at all!

"pD*mn it, d*mn it..."

"Let me go right now! If you dare harm me, the City Hall shall never forgive the Bai clan!"

'The Ancient Sparrow City's Young Lord yelled and threatened Chu Kuangren.

From his perspective, Chu Kuangren was representing the Bai clan here. Since the Bai clan was one of the forces in the Ancient Sparrow City, they would surely fear retaliation from the City Hall. Even Bai Yeyue and others were also shocked.

"Brother Chu, you must not kill this person!"

"That's right. He's the City Lord's son. If you kill him now, we'll surely get into trouble with the City Lord when we return."

Bai Yeyue and others tried to persuade him.

However, Chu Kuangren grinned upon hearing that. "Oh, really?"

"Tf that's the case..."

'The Ancient Sparrow City's Young Lord became relieved and delighted when he heard what Chu Kuangren said. "Well? What are you waiting for? Put me down this instance!"
Boom!

A violent surge of Emperor qi swept out!

'The Ancient Sparrow City's Young Lord was brutally crushed into a mist of blood!

"If that's the case, then killing you is the only thing I can do!"

Chu Kuangren said.

'Who is he kidding?"

'Trying to use the Bai clan to threaten me?"

'If a war broke out between the Bai clan and the City Hall, what does that have to do with me?"

On the contrary, he was eager for something like that to happen.

Moreover, since the Ancient Sparrow City's Young Lord dared to attack Chu Kuangren's people, his fate was already sealed the moment he did that!

"Chu Kuangren, are you out of your mind?!"

Bai Yeyue yelled in anger.

Now that the Ancient Sparrow City's Young Lord had been killed, the City Hall would never let them go that easily. The Bai clan was not even prepared to go to war with them.

"L suggest you watch that tone of yours."

Chu Kuangren shot a glare at Bai Yeyue.

His contemptuous attitude angered Bai Yeyue even more.

"You *sshole!" Unlike Bai Yeyue, one of the Bai clan's Immortal Progeny could no longer hold back his anger. He scolded and pointed his finger right at Chu Kuangren's nose.

Before he could even say anything more, the Bai clan Immortal Progeny's arm was suddenly enveloped in a surge of terrifying energy. Then, it shattered into pieces!

"Argh! My arm!"

That Bai clan Immortal Progeny fell to the ground with a look of pain and horror on his face.

"I don't like people pointing at me."

Chu Kuangren's cold gaze swept across Bai Yeyue and the others. "I'll be frank with everyone. Saying that we're cooperating is just sugarcoating it. All we're doing here is using each other for our benefit, so don't expect me to care much about your Bai clan."

"You..."

Bai Yeyue was fuming in rage.

However, his temper soon dissipated when he saw the Bai clan Immortal still screaming in pain on the ground. All he could do was suppress his anger.

‘This madman...’

‘He’s not someone we should mess with!’

‘This guy just does whatever he wants!’

‘He’s so... ruthless and tyrannical!’

“Just you wait, Bai clan. Seeing that you have the guts to kill our young lord, I’ll certainly report this to the City Lord when I return. The Bai clan shall repay this in blood!”

One of the City Hall’s commodore said coldly.

A cold look flashed across Bai Yeyue’s face, and he said to Chu Kuangren, “Since you’ve done it, you might as well go all the way. These people should also be”

“Sheesh, are you listening to what you’re saying? Do I look like a mass murderer to you? I always deal with matters and people clearly. They did not even offend me, so why should I kill them?”

Chu Kuangren interrupted Bai Yeyue and chuckled.

After that, he stepped aside.

Bai Yeyue almost exploded with anger when he saw this.

‘Didn’t you kill the Ancient Sparrow City’s Young Lord, who was an Immortal Progeny, without any hesitation? Why are you pretending now?’

Although Chu Kuangren decided to do nothing, Bai Yeyue could stand by, not doing anything at all.

“Attack!”

Seeking to prevent the City Hall’s people from reporting the Bai clan, Bai Yeyue led the Bai clan’s Immortal Progenies and attacked the City Hall’s cultivators. He wanted to exterminate them all. As such, a great battle broke out.

“How dare you, Bai clan!”

“This is treason!”

“D*mn it...”

The City Hall’s cultivators were terrified and shocked.

However, how could Bai Yeyue and the others stay calm? Despite not being the one who killed the Ancient Sparrow City’s Young Lord, they had to clean after Chu Kuangren’s mess. The feeling was so humiliating that they almost coughed out blood out of rage.

They had no choice as Chu Kuangren was still representing the Bai clan.

Bai Yeyue truly regretted it.

He regretted inviting Chu Kuangren to the Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm. He should have killed him on the spot and captured the Moonlight Fox instead.

Chu Kuangren was uncontrollable!

He was a mystery, an unknown variable, and an outlier through and through!

Amidst the battle, one of the City Hall's cultivators activated a mysterious technique to escape and immediately rushed into the distance.

Chu Kuangren saw him escape.

He could have easily stopped that cultivator, but he did not want to do so. He simply watched and did nothing.

"Hey, Boss, what was that sword ray earlier?"

Lil Fox was still confused about the sword ray that pushed back the Ancient Sparrow City's Young Lord earlier.

"That was a sword ray I left on you. It's to prevent others from harming you," Chu Kuangren explained. Seeing that the Moonlight Fox was a beast that could rival even divine beasts, he knew that many would be drawn to it.

How could he not take some preventive measures against them?

"Thanks a lot, Boss. I didn't know you'd treat me so well. I'm thoroughly touched," said Lil Fox gratefully

"You're very useful to me after all."

Chu Kuangren said calmly while unknowingly petting her head. He felt that he had gotten used to petting Lil Fox now.

The corner of Lil Fox's mouth twitched.

'D*mn it, Boss. Reciprocate those feelings of mine!"

"Alright. There's still some stuff left inside the treasury. Wait here a second," Chu Kuangren said.

He dashed back into the treasury once more.

This time, no one dared to harm Lil Fox anymore. After all, what happened to the Ancient Sparrow City's Young Lord was still fresh in their mind.

It did not take long before Chu Kuangren came out from the treasury.

Ashe had gotten a great haul today, he was quite happy.

"Let's go."

He then left the treasury with Lil Fox.

"Follow him."

After Bai Yeyue settled the City Hall cultivators, he gritted his teeth as he watched Chu Kuangren and Lil Fox leave.

From then on, they must not let Chu Kuangren stir up any more trouble.

Otherwise, their Bai clan would suffer terribly..

Chapter 933: The Dumbfounded Bai clan Forefather, What the Hell Has He Done Inside There?

Chu Kuangren and Lil Fox spent almost ten days inside the Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm. After obtaining the treasures from the Heavenly Blaze Treasury, he discovered a place that resembled a pill refining chamber. Inside there, he found tons of pill recipes and research notes, which was equivalent to an Alchemist's inheritance in some way.

"Now that's the Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm I'm talking about. What a haul we have."

Chu Kuangren grinned as he looked at the jade scroll in his hand.

If he could absorb all the experience contained within these alchemy and pill recipes, he could probably create an Immortal Pill!

Then, he kept his loot. Having explored most of the Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm, he did not see any point in staying here any longer and soon left the area with Lil Fox.

Outside, the elites from different forces were waiting hopefully, looking forward to the treasure their sky-pride could find inside the Forest Realm.

At that moment, a figure rushed out. He was a soldier in armor that was covered in blood. It was as if he had gone through a bloody fight.

'The elites of the Ancient Sparrow City could not help but feel shocked at that sight. They quickly rushed forward to find out. "What happened?

"The Bai clan has revolted and killed the Young Lord!" said that soldier.

'The Ancient Sparrow City elites' expressions changed as they looked at the Bai clan Forefather and others, who were also dumbfounded.

"The Young Lord is dead?

'He was killed by one of our own?

'What happened"

'The Bai clan Forefather's face turned grim. "What the hell is Bai Yeyue and the others doing inside? Why did they kill the Young Lord?"

They were still not prepared to go against the City Hall yet.

'Hold on a second.'

'Was it Chu Kuangren?!"

'That's right. It must be him!"

“Commodore, the Bai clan has always been loyal to the City Lord. I’m certain that it’s the foreigner who killed the Young Lord. Don’t worry, commodore. I shall personally take him to receive his judgment from the City Lord.”

The Bai clan Forefather immediately expressed his deep loyalty.

However, the commodore did not seem convinced. “Do you really think I’ll believe a word you said? Listen carefully, Bai clan Forefather. This is a matter concerning the Bai clan. You’d better watch out. I hope you’re prepared to explain this to the City Lord when you return!”
Then, he left with his men.

The commodore did not wish to have any conflict with the Bai clan now.

After all, the Bai clan Forefather was a Pseudo Immortal. With his current strength, the commodore still could not defeat the Bai clan Forefather. If he were to start a fight hastily, it would not end in his favor.

A cold look flashed across the Bai clan Forefather’s face as he looked at the commodore’s leaving silhouette. One of the elders next to him quickly walked up and asked, “Great Forefather, should we make them stay?”

“No.”

The Bai clan Forefather pondered for a while before shaking his head. “There are too many people here. It’s not a good place to pick a fight. Besides, even if we attack with all we’ve got, I’m not confident we’ll be able to take down those City Hall cultivators. If we attack now, it’ll only make our revolt sound even more true.”

Although the Bai clan wanted to revolt long ago, now was still not the time for them to do so.

“But if they return and report this to the City Lord, he’ll never let us off the hook so easily,” said the elder with a frown.

“No, we can still turn the situation around.”

The Bai clan Forefather said, “The culprit for this is Chu Kuangren. If we can hand him over, it’ll certainly quell the City Lord’s anger. After all, we never planned to keep this person alive from the very start.”
cold look flashed across his eyes.

Whoosh!

At that moment, another figure rushed out from the Forest Realm.

It was the Divine Fire Holy Cult’s Divine Bachelor, Huoshen Xiao.

“It’s the Divine Bachelor!”

“The Divine Bachelor has come out.”

The Divine Fire Holy Cult’s elders quickly went up to greet him.

However, they soon noticed that Huoshen Xiao did not look too well.

“Order our men from the Divine Fire Holy Cult to seal off this area. We’re capturing the Bai clan’s foreigner when he comes out!”

Huoshen Xiao said coldly.

He would never let Chu Kuangren have the Phoenix’s Flame and Violet Heaven Radiant Flame. However, he was not a match for Chu Kuangren.

That was why he had chosen to rely on his men.

Upon hearing Huoshen Xiao’s words, the Bai clan Forefather and others were even more dumbfounded.

“What the hell?

“Besides killing the Young Lord, Chu Kuangren has even crossed the Divine Fire Holy Cult’s Divine Bachelor? What has he done inside the Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm?!”

“How much trouble is this guy going to bring to the Bai clan?”

The Bai clan Forefather’s expression was terribly unpleasant.

Compared to City Hall, the Divine Fire Holy Cult was even harder to deal with. If the Divine Fire Holy Cult wanted to wipe them out, the Bai clan would never survive.

“Are you going to intervene, Bai clan?” A peak Heavenly Daoist Celestial elder of the Divine Fire Holy Cult looked at the Bai clan Forefather and asked.

Although his cultivation level was lower than the Bai clan Forefather, there was an air of superiority in his tone. It was because he was representing the Divine Fire Holy Cult!

“You must be joking, honorable elder. That Chu Kuangren is just a mere foreigner. There’s no way we’ll offend you because of him.”

‘The Bai clan Forefather took a stand.

However, no one knew how much pain he was feeling!

‘What a loss.

“What a huge f*cking loss!”

From his point of view, Chu Kuangren would certainly die fighting the Divine Fire Holy Cult. However, his plans had failed terribly, seeing that he could not get the treasures inside the Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm and that Moonlight Fox. He could not get anything at all.

He even lost twenty billion spiritual marrows to the City Hall.

Furthermore, he would have to face the City Lord’s wrath once he returned.

“Very well. Now back off!” said the Divine Fire Holy Cult’s elder.

“Alright.”

‘The Bai clan Forefather looked unwilling.

Nevertheless, all he could do was leave the area with his men.

“Everyone, there’s nothing to worry about. We, the Divine Fire Holy Cult, will not attack the other sky-prides. However, I suggest that you guys leave this place as well.”

The Divine Fire Holy Cult’s elder announced loudly.

The elites from the other forces looked at each other and decided to listen to the Divine Fire Holy Cult. Everyone eventually backed out fifty kilometers from the area.

Soon, only the cultivators from the Divine Fire Holy Cult were left in the area.

Huoshen Xiao revealed a vicious expression as he looked at the Forest Realm’s entrance. “Chu Kuangren, is it? Let’s see how arrogant you can be before the likes of the Divine Fire Holy Cult?!”

Shortly after, the Immortal Progenies exited the Forest Realm one after another.

Everyone’s expression changed upon seeing the Divine Fire Holy Cult’s elites, not knowing what was going on.

Fortunately, those elites were not targeting them, so the Immortal Progenies quickly left.

However, they continued observing the situation from afar after leaving.

“It looks like the Divine Fire Holy Cult is planning to deal with the foreigner who obtained the Violet Heaven Radiant Flame. I knew it. Huoshen Xiao will never give up that easily. Tsk tsk. Things are about to get interesting from this point onwards.”

“Although that person is a powerful Supreme Immortal Progeny, I bet he’ll lose against so many elites from the Divine Fire Holy Cult. It’s a shame to see such a Supreme Immortal Progeny die.”

“Serves him right. That’s what he gets for acting so arrogantly.”

“Yeah...”

“What’s the point of obtaining so many treasures when they are all going to be snatched away in the end? Besides, he can only blame himself for being a foreigner. How’s a nobody like him, who has no forces having his back, going to deal with Huoshen Xiao?”

Everyone discussed the situation.

Soon after, a few people slowly walked out from the Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm.

It was the Bai clan’s Immortal Progenies.

At the sight of them, the Divine Fire Holy Cult’s elites quickly acted by surrounding them. Their powerful auras erupted one after another.

“W-What is the meaning of this?!”

Bai Yeyue gulped in fear with a horrified look on his face.

“People of the Bai clan, we’re only here for Chu Kuangren. If you do not wish to die, please leave this place immediately!”

Huoshen Xiao said coldly..

Chapter 934: The Flames of a Phoenix, the Freezing Qi of an Immortal Physique, Defeating the Elites From the Holy Divine Fire Cult

“People of Bai clan, if you don’t want to die, please leave right now!”

Huoshen Xiao said coldly.

The Holy Divine Fire Cult elites behind him were glaring at them too.

Greatly shocked by such a lineup of cultivators, Bai Yeyue and the others did not dare to stay even a second longer. All of them quickly left the area.

There was no hesitation at all.

“These people are just too shameless. Even that Bai clan Forefather is nowhere to be seen,” Lil Fox said in anger.

Chu Kuangren was not that surprised at that outcome. He placed his hand on Lil Fox’s head. “What’s the matter? Aren’t you going to escape as well?”

“There’s no way I’ll do that. I’ll fight with you until the end, Boss.”

Lil Fox said with determination.

Although they were now surrounded by the Holy Divine Fire Cult’s elites, she had no intention to leave. After all, she had full confidence in Chu Kuangren.

“Wise decision, Lil Fox.”

He then looked at the so-called elites from the Holy Divine Fire Cult and said, “These guys don’t seem like that much of a threat to me.”

‘The faces of the elites from the Holy Divine Fire Cult immediately turned grim upon hearing this.

“Arrogant bast*rd!”

“Still have the guts to say such that in front of us, huh? It looks like someone has a death wish!”

“No need to say more. Let’s capture him now!”

One of the Holy Divine Fire Cult’s elites instantly attacked. Golden flames swirled around him before turning into a gigantic golden flaming fist.

‘That attack was at the level of a Heavenly Daoist Celestial, and there were at least ten Heavenly Daoist Celestials currently surrounding Chu Kuangren.

“You need to be careful with that, or you’ll get burnt.”

Chu Kuangren said indifferently.

As surges of Phoenix's Flame instantly erupted from his body, golden-red flames burst into the surroundings, with a vague phoenix silhouette soaring within it.

The golden flaming punch was engulfed and instantly burnt away by the Phoenix's Flame.

That scene stunned most of the Holy Divine Fire Cult's elites.

"Those are Phoenix's Flames!"

"This person can wield the Phoenix's Flames!"

"D*mn it. What the hell is going on? How can a human control the Phoenix's Flame? How did he do it?"

They had heard about Chu Kuangren's Phoenix Flame from Huoshen Xiao.

Despite that, they were still incredibly shocked to see it for themselves.

According to what they know, they had always thought it was impossible for a human to control the Phoenix's Flame. However, Chu Kuangren's existence had truly shattered their viewpoint on that.

"Single Thought Series, Cataclysmic Pantheon Flame Lotus!"

Chu Kuangren unleashed that attack with a point of his finger.

A golden-red flame lotus soon swirled in the void.

Pairing his Immortal Technique with the Phoenix's Flame, that technique was even more powerful now that Chu Kuangren was unleashing it as a Heavenly Daoist Celestial. It was shockingly terrifying. When the flame lotus exploded, flame currents covered the entire area.

Its terrifying might engulfed a few of the Heavenly Daoist Celestials. Amidst a few screams and cries, they were all reduced to ashes within a few moments.

"This is very bad. The Phoenix's Flame is too overpowering. This guy is a Heavenly Daoist Celestial like us, yet we can't even do anything to hurt him!"

"I'm afraid this guy is not some ordinary Supreme Immortal Progeny. He might even be a... King Immortal Progeny!"

The elites of the Holy Divine Fire Cult were mortified. Even Huoshen Xiao did not expect Chu Kuangren's combat strength to be so terrifying.

Accultivator who was a King Immortal Progeny? Even the Holy Divine Fire Cult only had one such individual!

No. Even throughout the whole Planquilon Immortal World, there were only a handful of cultivators who could be considered a King Immortal Progeny.

Yet now, the Holy Divine Fire Cult has encountered one of these individuals.

"You guys, step back. I shall see what he's made off!"

At that moment, an elderly man said as he walked towards Chu Kuangren. Surges of source energy could be seen swirling around him, intertwining with his Emperor qi, resulting in an eruption of Pseudo Immortal energy!

He was the leader of the Holy Divine Fire Cult's current excursion.

"It looks like the Seventeenth Elder is going to make his move."

"The Seventeenth Elder is a powerful Pseudo Immortal. I bet Chu Kuangren won't be a match for him. This is wonderful."

Everyone suddenly felt relieved.

'The Seventeenth Elder waved his sleeves, and his Pseudo Immortal energy, which was formed from source energy and Emperor qi immediately, dispersed the Phoenix's Flame.

Chu Kuangren grinned a little upon seeing that. "Isn't that just a source energy? Stop acting like no one here has one."

Then, he gently raised his hand.

Flashes and flashes of brilliance began to radiate from within his body. One by one, his source energies surged forth, sending powerful energy shockwaves into the surroundings.

The Moon Source, Flame Source, Raw Physical Source

A total of seven source energies appeared.

Every cultivator who saw that became dumbfounded.

'Seven source energies, all with different attributes'

'How is this even possible?

The seven source energies radiated brilliantly, releasing Immortal Sparks everywhere!

"How is this possible? Who the hell are you?!"

The Holy Divine Fire Cult's Pseudo Immortal was stunned as well. 'Seven source energies, all with different attributes? How did he even achieve this?'

"Someone who's about to kill you!"

'Without another word, Chu Kuangren unleashed a punch forward.

The void exploded in a bang as the dense fist energy surged out, carrying with it terrifying air currents that rushed towards the Pseudo Immortal.

"This energy... Oh no!"

The Pseudo Immortal's expression changed. He quickly channeled his Pseudo Immortal energy to the maximum before he, similarly, unleashed a punch with a low grunt.

A tornado of flame erupted!

However, along with a sudden boom, the Pseudo Immortal's flame attack was brutally reduced into sparks by Chu Kuangren's punch. After that, he was sent flying away.

"For a Pseudo Immortal of the Holy Divine Fire Cult, that's all you got, huh?"

Chu Kuangren said indifferently.

Then, he channeled the Phoenix's Flames in the palm of his hand and released a golden-red flame lotus towards the Pseudo Immortal once more.

"D*mn you!"

The Pseudo Immortal cast an Immortal Technique to unleash a sea of flames into the surroundings.

However, he was still overpowered!

Once again, the attack blasted him away.

The elites of the Holy Divine Fire Cult were stunned to see that.

"A King Immortal Progeny... He's no doubt a King Immortal Progeny!"

"What a monster!"

'The expression of Huoshen Xiao, who was watching nearby, shifted. "Everyone attack at once. I refuse to believe he'll be a match for all of us together!"

No one dared to disobey a command from their Divine Bachelor.

'As everyone attacked, various bursts of flames unleashed into the void. For a moment, the surrounding area was seemingly transformed into a hellfire landscape.

While everyone was busy attacking, the Divine Bachelor, Huoshen Xiao, slowly retreated before he turned into a ray of light and fled into the distance.

The sea of flames engulfed the whole area up to a radius of fifty kilometers.

Rivers were scorched dry, while the ground cracked open

Chu Kuangren remained calm despite being trapped in the sea of flames. On the other hand, Lil Fox next to him had turned red due to the heat. She was sweating buckets.

"Hot. It's so hot..."

That was just the residual heat.

If Chu Kuangren did not use his Emperor qi to block off most of the flames, Lil Fox would have turned into a barbequed fox by now.

"Don't worry. It'll turn cold soon."

With a thought from his mind, he channeled his Emperor qi and mind power to their fullest potential. Following that, he activated the might of his Moon Frost Immortal Physique, causing an incomparably powerful wave of freezing qi to erupt. The frost spread everywhere like a raging tide, instantly freezing everything in its path!

Single Thought Series, Endless Subzero Decimation!

The sea of flames everywhere was instantly put out by the freezing qi.

Not only that but some of the Heavenly Daoist Celestials, who could not evade in time and were engulfed by the freezing qi, were frozen into ice statues in the blink of an eye.

Even half of the Pseudo Immortal's body was frozen. His face had turned pale, and he was now shivering like crazy. A look of horror gradually appeared on his face.

"This aura... It's an Immortal Physique!"

"That Phoenix's Flame as well. You can wield both ice and fire together!"

The freezing qi from an Immortal Physique, the flames of a Phoenix... Not to mention that he was already a Heavenly Daoist Celestial at such a young age. Any one of those facts was enough to make him a Supreme Immortal Progeny. Yet, Chu Kuangren possessed all three!

Besides, the seven source energies he had made his combat strength even more unfathomable. If Chu Kuangren were to go all out now, even a Pseudo Immortal would not be able to last long in a fight with him. Only an Immortal could stop him now..

Chapter 935: The Bai Clan Forefather's Guilt, A Cast of Movie Stars, Absorbing the Flame Tinder

"Cold... Very cold..." said Lil Fox while shivering next to Chu Kuangren.

"What's happening? Why is it suddenly so hot and then so cold?" Lil Fox muttered.

The moment Chu Kuangren unleashed the freezing qi using his Immortal Physique, he took the opportunity while the Pseudo Immortal was immobilized in the cold to arrive before him in a flash.

In a split second, a colorful beam of sword ray shot out!

The sword ray slid through the Pseudo Immortal's neck. Following a splat of blood, that Pseudo Immortal was... dead!

After killing the Pseudo Immortal, the remaining elites from the Holy Divine Fire Cult quickly fled, not daring to attack Chu Kuangren anymore.

Furthermore, they also noticed that the Divine Bachelor, Huoshen Xiao — the one who gathered all of them — had escaped long ago.

"So that's the honorable Divine Bachelor? Honorable, my *ss."

"D*mn it. Did the Divine Bachelor really escape long ago? I can't believe he left us behind as cannon fodder and ran off himself."

"This monster... Killing a Pseudo Immortal is challenging even for a King Immortal Progeny, yet he has just done it so easily. This guy is certainly no ordinary King Immortal Progeny. Let's get out of here."

"Such a terrifying sky-pride exists among the foreigners?!"

All of the elites fled in horror.

Chu Kuangren did not bother to hunt them all down. After all, killing these people would not benefit him anyway. It did not matter to him whether they were dead or not.

He went up to the Pseudo Immortal and took his Yin and Yang ring away.

Then, he retracted his source energies.

Lil Fox walked up to him with sparkling eyes, saying with great admiration, "You're too awesome, Boss. You killed the Pseudo Immortal like he was nothing back there. Are you close to becoming an Immortal?"

"Becoming an Immortal, huh?"

A look of surprise appeared in Chu Kuangren's eyes.

In reality, it would be far more difficult for him to become an Immortal compared to the other Immortal Progenies. That was because the Dao those Immortal Progenies specialized in already had their corresponding source energies.

However, no source energy existed for his way of Dao yet. Since he wanted to continue following his path of Dao, he would have to create a new source energy of his own.

That feat alone was several times harder than becoming an Immortal.

Throughout history, there had been no records of anyone creating a new source energy.

"certainly can."

Chu Kuangren replied.

No matter how hard it was, his Daoist core would remain unaffected.

"Certainly can?"

Lil Fox tilted her head, feeling a little puzzled.

She was asking whether Chu Kuangren was close to becoming an Immortal, and he replied that he could become one in the future? That seemed a little oxymoronic.

However, she paid no heed to that. Instead, she pulled Chu Kuangren's wide sleeves and asked, "Where are we going next, Boss?"

Chu Kuangren grinned a little. "Someone will come looking for us soon."

Sure enough, the Bai clan Forefather and his men soon came looking for him.

"Brother Chu, I did not expect you to be so powerful. What you did was very impressive." The Bai clan Forefather laughed.

"Don't you people from the Bai clan feel shameless? How dare you show yourselves before us now." Lil Fox was red with anger upon seeing the Bai clan members. Her sharp teeth gnashed together while a fuming rage seethed from her eyes.

Nevertheless, because of her extremely cute appearance, she was still not much of a threat when angry.

Chu Kuangren patted her head. "Quiet down."

Lil Fox held back her anger but still looked very annoyed. However, her gaze soon narrowed due to Chu Kuangren's touch.

"His hand is so warm..."

"Brother Chu, I'm terribly ashamed of what happened earlier."

The Bai clan Forefather put up a disappointed yet ashamed expression. "The Holy Divine Fire Cult is not a force that the Bai clan can stand up against. If they've decided to target you, we can't do a thing even if we tried. Besides, they also threatened to wipe us out if we helped you. I had no choice but to put the Bai clan's safety first. I hope you can understand my predicament."

He spoke sincerely, with guilt and frustration audible in the tone of his voice.

Lil Fox was a little uncertain when she saw his expression. "Is there really no way the Bai clan can help my boss?"

"That disappointed look of his is so real."

"Tsk. What a nice act."

Chu Kuangren secretly sighed before saying said, "I understand the difficult situation the Bai clan was in earlier. Don't worry. I won't blame you for this."

'Cut the act, old man.'

He was getting goosebumps just by watching the old man's act.

"It's great that you can forgive us, Brother Chu. I'll certainly compensate you graciously when we return. How about this? Since we agreed on a seventy-thirty cut, let's change it to an eighty-twenty cut instead. You can take this as a token of our apology. what do you think?" The Bai clan Forefather said honestly.

"I gladly accept this offer. Thank you very much."

"You deserve it," said the Bai clan Forefather.

Following that, everyone started to head back to the Bai clan.

Along the way, the Bai clan Forefather, Bai Yeyue, and others were extremely nice to Chu Kuangren, granting his every request. Their little act of being ashamed and guilty looked incredibly sincere. They could even be regarded as a cast of movie stars.

Chu Kuangren was tempted to give them an Oscar for their performance.

"Hey, Boss. These Bai clan people don't seem as bad as we thought, huh? Are they really guilty for what they did to us back there?"

That night, Lil Fox secretly asked.

Sitting with his legs crossed, Chu Kuangren said indifferently, "Say, Lil Fox. I suppose you've been with your tribe for hundreds of years and have rarely ventured out into the world, right?"

Lil Fox nodded. "My gosh. How do you know this, Boss?"

"It's written all over your silly face, you know. Now, there is one important thing you must know about us humans, and that is we humans are better at deception than any beast or animal."

Chu Kuangren explained.

"Huh, so it's all an act? But they look so genuine."

Lil Fox was shocked.

"After all, life is like a big play. Our skills of acting and deception are all that mattered."

Chu Kuangren chuckled. Then, he closed his eyes gently and started to refine the Violet Heaven Radiant Flame inside him that he recently obtained with his Phoenix's Flame.

Once he consumed the flame tinder, he could then exert more power with his Phoenix's Flame. Perhaps that could be his new trump card.

Come to think of it, how many tricks did he now have up his sleeve?

Only he would know, for there was no way anyone could ever find out.

Seeing Chu Kuangren closing his eyes to cultivate, Lil Fox stopped thinking about the Bai clan. She turned into a light pink fox and lightly hopped into Chu Kuangren's lap.

"The human world is full of dangers. I bet the only place where I can feel safe is by my boss's side. Hm... Then again, the boss is also a human, right?"

'No, my boss is different.'

Lil Fox looked at Chu Kuangren from the side, her gaze began to look a little obsessive.

'Boss is so much more handsome than other humans.'

Three days later, Chu Kuangren had completely refined the Violet Heaven Radiant Flame's tinder, which allowed his Phoenix Flame to become much stronger.

"Without using any other techniques, I can now battle a Pseudo Immortal with just this Phoenix's Flame alone," said Chu Kuangren as a golden-red flame appeared at his fingertips, his grin illuminated by the flame.

That was only one of his loot from the Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm.

There were still other treasures and items left for him to deal with. For example, the huge amount of spirit fruits, Immortal Pills, pill recipes, pill manuscripts, and more.

"Are you done with your cultivation, Boss?"

Lil Fox asked as she stretched her back.

For the past few days, she had been standing guard by Chu Kuangren's side. She also sent the Bai clan members away the few times they came looking for Chu Kuangren many times.

"This is for you, Lil Fox."

Chu Kuangren took out an Immortal Pill and tossed it over at her.

"This is... an Immortal Pill?!"

Lil Fox's eyes widened. "For me?!"

Although they had lost most of their medicinal properties inside the Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm, those Immortal Pills still possessed tremendous effects. That Immortal Pill in Lil Fox's palm alone was enough for her to break through and become a Great Daoist Celestial in one go.

"yup. You've contributed a lot during this trip to the Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm too. You deserve it," Chu Kuangren said calmly.

"Thanks a lot, Boss.."

Chapter 936: What Gives You The Confidence? Ancient Sparrow City's Move

Back at Ancient Sparrow's City Hall, the Ancient Sparrow City Lord had a gloomy look on his face. Beneath him were the generals who had just come back from Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm. He had gotten the news about the Young Lord's death.

"Bai clan! You asked for this!"

The look on the City Lord's face was as gloomy as the rainy day.

The moment he bolted up, his Pseudo Immortal aura erupted and enveloped the place. "Prepare the troops. I will bring the fight to Bai clan myself!"

Upon hearing his orders, the generals beneath him answered in unison, "Yes, sir!"

All of a sudden, a ray of white light flew over.

'The white light was a paper crane.

Ancient Sparrow City Lord furrowed his brows at the paper crane. "This paper crane... It's the Bai clan's communication technique. What else do they have to say now?"

He unfolded the paper crane, and several lines of words appeared before his eyes.

"Oh? The Bai clan Forefather has told me to rest my rage for now. He will give me a satisfying explanation. He wants to... kill Chu Kuangren!? And he will offer an Immortal Pill as compensation after the dust has settled?"

Ancient Sparrow City Lord went deep in thought after reading the message from the paper crane.

'The generals exchanged a confused look with each other.

"My Lord, are we still sending our troops out?"

"Send someone to watch Bai Manor's movement first," the City Lord said.

"Yes, sir."

"Bai clan Forefather, no matter what tricks you have up your sleeves, I will not let the death of my son go unavenged!"

Seven days later, Bai clan Forefather brought Chu Kuangren to the Bai clan.

The moment Chu Kuangren stepped into the manor, he sensed an odd presence from the premises. He curled his lips into a grin and whispered to Lil Fox, "No matter what happens later, don't leave my side."

1

Lil Fox nodded.

Soon, the few of them entered the inner hall.

Other than the Bai clan Forefather, Bai Yeyue, and a few respectable Bai clan elders inside the hall, no one else was there.

"Brother Chu, now can you please take the loot you got from Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm and distribute them?" Bai clan Forefather said with a chuckle.

"Here?"

"Yes, Don't worry. According to what we've agreed upon, eighty percent is yours and twenty percent is ours. We will not ask for a dime more," the Bai clan Forefather said.

"Oh, I'm not worried about that. I'm sure you know how tempting this could be to some people, and there are so many of us here. If I take the loot out, what if someone succumbs to their desires and tries to snatch it?"

His words angered two Bai clan elders.

One of them said, "Brother Chu, are you hinting that the two of us can't control ourselves? You might have underestimated us."

"I don't doubt you two, but what about the others?"

Chu Kuangren then stared at the void behind the elders and said, "Including you guys, there are seventy-two Bai clan Daoist Celestial here in this room. Are you sure every one of them can control themselves and not snatch the loot when I take it out?"

Upon hearing his words, the look on everyone's face turned sour, especially the Bai clan Forefather.

"Now!"

The Bai clan Forefather shouted before he and the other elders retreated immediately. Countless Daoist patterns suddenly swirled and converged into a giant net above Chu Kuangren and Lil Fox.

"I didn't expect him to notice us so quickly."

"His senses are not to be underestimated."

"Fortunately, we managed to capture him."

The two Bai clan elders sighed a breath of relief.

Chu Kuangren sized up the Daoist pattern net and then chuckled. Oh, a Daoist Weapon used to constrain targets? And it's even a top-notch Daoist Weapon? I have to admit that this is quite a rare item."

"Hmph! Chu Kuangren, now that we've captured you, what else can you possibly do?" Bai Yeyue sneered.

"Capture? With this Daoist Weapon?"

"Chu Kuangren, stop bluffing! This Heavenly Golden Silk Net is the best Daoist Weapon out there. Even a Pseudo Immortal would not be able to escape its constraints. You might be powerful, but it would not be that easy for you to escape this time."

Bai Yeyue scoffed and added, "Chu Kuangren, I'll give you a chance now. Kneel and beg us for your life. Then, maybe, we will consider it."

In the past few days, the few of them had been so severely overpowered by Chu Kuangren that it was embarrassing.

They were not his match, so they could not criticize him.

Chu Kuangren's arrogant and proud attitude enraged them countless times. However, they had to accept him with all smiles because they were afraid of exposing their plans to him, startling him, and causing him to put up his guard against them.

Now, with Chu Kuangren trapped in the net, Bai Yeyue and the others could not wait to see his defeat.

"Yeah, Chu Kuangren. Kneel and beg."

"Call my granddaddy and we, the Bai clan, might spare your life and even feed you."

"Hahaha! Chu Kuangren, you had it coming for you."

Chu Kuangren reacted calmly to the criticism and sneers. He looked at everyone as if he was looking at a bunch of clowns.

"You guys were so humble and putting yourselves down the entire trip. And now look at you, vicious tongues as if you were vipers. The difference is huge," Chu Kuangren said.

"D*mn you! It's all part of the effort to lower your guards!"

"How dare you talk about that? You bast*rd, I'll cut you into pieces later to vent my anger!"

Bai Yeyue and the others were even more agitated when they heard what he said. The look on their faces turned stiff.

"Kill me? I wonder what gave you the confidence," Chu Kuangren said.

With a clang, the Descendant Self Sword unsheathed itself from his waist.

The white-jaded sword flew across the air, and its violet sword qi swept over everything like a tidal wave.

The moment the violet sword qi collided with the golden net, the net shook violently.

"It's useless. You won't break it," Bai Yeyue said.

"Oh really?" Chu Kuangren grinned, and the source energy in his body erupted.

With the help of seven source energies, the sword qi's power amplified and slashed the golden net into smithereens.

The lingering sword qi continued to wreak havoc like a tornado, and those Bai clan members who got too close to the net were slashed in half.

"Not good! Retreat immediately!"

The Bai clan Forefather immediately pulled Bai Yeyue away.

At the same time, he activated his Emperor qi to defend himself against the sword qi. Following the rampaging sword qi, the entire Bai Manor was shaken up badly. The floor, the beams, the stone mountain outside... Everything was slashed by the dancing sword qi.

In the blink of an eye, the Bai Manor was turned into a desolated battlefield.

Countless Bai clan members were killed in the process, and those who survived were on their knees, wailing in pain.

Chu Kuangren remained standing, with the Descendant Self Sword in his hand and his white robes fluttering. He was not moved by the horrifying scene before him. Instead, he said coldly, "Since it's you, Bai clan, who attacked me first, then I'll have to send you people to... hell!"

Outside the Bai Manor, soldiers were already marching in under the leadership of a Daoist Celestial general. The whole manor was heavily surrounded.

Meanwhile, high up in the air, a pair of eyes was staring at the Bai Manor, watching what was unfolding inside the hall. The owner of the cold eyes was the Ancient Sparrow City Lord.

"My Lord, the Bai clan has made their move. It seems like they are really going to kill Chu Kuangren and make it up to you," said one of the generals.

"Hmph. Make it up to me? What a joke. They are getting rid of him because he has outlived his value to them. No wonder the Bai clan Forefather stepped up to protect him. This Chu Kuangren has a Moonlight Fox by his side. The forefather wanted to use him and the Moonlight Fox to get the treasures and Opportunities of Fortune in the Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm."

The moment Ancient Sparrow City Lord saw the Moonlight Fox, he already had a general idea of what Bai clan Forefather wanted, hence the grin on his face.

"My Lord, the outsider doesn't seem like a normal Supreme Immortal Progeny. The Bai clan seems to be at a disadvantage."

"Don't worry. There's more to the Bai clan than meets the eye. We will just watch, and when the time is right, we will slip in and take them both out.."

Chapter 937: Seventy-Two Hell Formation. What Makes You Think I Used My Full Strength?

Inside Bai Manor, Chu Kuangren unleashed a surge of powerful sword qi using his Descendant Self Sword and slashed the golden net into pieces. The floor was blanketed with slash marks.

A dozen Bai clan members were lying in their own puddle of blood, screaming in pain.

Bai clan Forefather's face sank when he saw the scene. "I can't believe the Heavenly Golden Silk Net has failed to capture this man!"

"Into the formation!" Bai clan Forefather shouted.

All of a sudden, all seventy-two hidden Bai clan Daoist Celestials rose up to the sky. Countless Daoist patterns swirled in the air and formed seventy-two vertices, with powerful ripples spreading outwards.

"Oh? A combined formation with seventy-two Daoist Celestials? Seems powerful," Chu Kuangren said with a grin.

"Hmph! Chu Kuangren! This is the Bai clan's true power — Seventy-two Hell Formation! This formation can allow us to unleash our full powers. Even though you can slay a Pseudo Immortal, you are no match for this formation!" Bai clan Forefather bellowed.

The formation was the Bai clan's strongest ace card.

He knew Chu Kuangren was powerful enough to slay even a Pseudo Immortal. That was why he held back at Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm. Instead, he sent a message back to the Bai clan to summon all the Davists Celestials and had them prepare the Heavenly Golden Silk Net and the Seventy-Two Hell Formation. All preparations were done so they could focus their powers on Chu Kuangren.

"With the combined power of all seventy-two Davist Celestials, today will be the day you die!"

"Only weaklings rely on numbers and combined strength. A powerful person can break through anything with a single blow. Besides, not even seven hundred of you ugly bastards can match my power, let alone seventy-two," Chu Kuangren said with a laugh.

Then, the source energy in him started to swirl and radiate brightly.

"Outrageous!*

The Bai clan Forefather bellowed and then channeled the energy in the formation, All seventy-two vertices had endless Emperor qi gushing out from them, and combined with the Daoist patterns, they converged to form an enormous golden hand so huge that it could cover the sky. It was coming down at Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren raised his sword to strike.

Like crashing tidal waves, the sword qi collided with the enormous golden hand. As a result, the whole manor trembled, and ripples spread through the void.

After the clash, the ground around Chu Kuangren sank tens of meters into the ground and cracks spread out like a spider web.

The whole Bai Manor was almost destroyed.

One thing worth noting was that the Bai Manor's structure and land were enforced by Daoist patterns, which made them extraordinarily rigid. Not even a Daoist Celestial could inflict heavy damage to any of the structures.

However, that clash ruined more than half of the manor. The ground even sank deep into the ground, which was proof of how powerful the collision was.

On a universal scale, the force was enough to destroy several planets at once.

The huge commotion attracted the attention of all the elites in Ancient Sparrow City. Emperor Thoughts rushed over as they tried to take a look at what was happening in Bai Manor.

‘When they saw the desolate state that the Bai clan was in, they gasped and gulped in astonishment.

“Holy sh*t! Who’s causing so much trouble at Bai Manor?”

“Wait, look at the vertices in the air. This... Can it be the rumored formation, the strongest attack of the Bai clan — Seventy-two Hell Formation?”

“Holy moly, Seventy-two Hell Formation? Gasp. Isn’t that the legendary peerless Immortal formation? How does the Bai clan possess it?”

“Bai clan’s Seventy-two Hell Formation is just a simplified version of the original. There’s a huge difference compared to the original, but it’s enough to turn heads. There are seventy-two Daoist Celestial casting this formation together. Who in the hell made the Bai clan pull out this formation?” The cultivators in Ancient Sparrow City were shocked.

Awhile later, they noticed Chu Kuangren, who was confronting the whole Bai clan. Everyone was incredibly shocked.

“This is the foreigner whom the Bai clan Forefather protected upon arrival. Why are they fighting?”

“Hah. I just knew the Bai clan wouldn’t run a charity. Something on this foreigner must’ve caught their eyes.”

“What the hell? Seven source energies with different attributes? Where did this monster come from? A King Immortal Progeny?”

As the cultivators were communicating through Emperor Thought, they were in awe to sense the energies from Chu Kuangren.

Back in Bai Manor, after the sword qi and enormous golden hand collided, the floor three meters away from Chu Kuangren was badly destroyed. However, the floor within those three meters remained intact as if it was an inviolable domain.

Lil Fox stayed close to him the entire time. She bore in mind his advice and was no more than a step away from him.

“Chu Kuangren, I’m surprised you can withstand the attack from the Hell Formation, but I have to tell you that the attack just now is not our best. That was not the full strength of the Seventy-two Hell Formation!” Bai clan Forefather scoffed.

“Alright, that was not your full strength, but what makes you think that was my full strength?” Chu Kuangren chuckled.

In the next second, Emperor qi began to surge on his body. Then, two streams of light flew out and revealed two Dao Proclamation Seals!

‘With the appearance of the Dao Proclamation Seals, Chu Kuangren’s combat strength rose to a whole new level. He grunted, and the Grand Avatar appeared behind him, with thousands of golden sword qi swirling in its palm, forming a gold sword shadow that struck out.

Imperial Monarch Sword Art, Cosmic Universal Conquest!

In the face of the sword attack, which had been boosted by the source energy and Dao Proclamation Seals, the Bai clan Forefather's expression changed, and his body trembled.

"You have more hidden powers?!" the Bai clan Forefather cried out strangely.

Then, he channeled the power of the hell formations to its limit and threw a powerful punch at the golden sword shadow.

'The energy from all seventy-two Bai clan elites erupted and clashed with Chu Kuangren's golden sword shadow.

Following a deafening explosion, the entire manor almost leveled to the ground. The terrifying shockwave burst in all directions, swallowing both Chu Kuangren and all the Daoist Celestials who cast the formation.

Chu Kuangren pulled Lil Fox behind him before his Emperor qi and mind power converged into a shield that blocked the shockwave.

As for the shockwave that slipped through his shield, he managed to block them with his powerful body.

On the other hand, Bai clan Forefather and the others did not possess Chu Kuangren's abilities. Under the impact, the powerful shockwave shook the entire formation, and another loud bang later, the whole formation crumbled.

The Bai clan Forefather and the others suffered the repulsion and were sent flying backward. Those with a weaker cultivation level exploded into a cloud of bloody mist on the spot.

"Impossible!"

"How powerful is he exactly?!"

The Bai clan Forefather was in disbelief as he stared at Chu Kuangren, who was unscathed. Fear rose in his heart. If that continued, the Bai clan would be wiped out.

"No! The Bai clan can't end with me!" The look on the Bai clan Forefather's face changed, and he shouted in a direction further away, "City Lord, this is the man who killed the Young Lord. What are you waiting for?!"

He could sense the City Lord and his troops nearby.

"This is between you and the foreigner. My son can wait after you settle your score with him," Ancient Sparrow City Lord said coldly.

He had decided to sit it out and only jump into the battle to reap the harvest once both sides were injured.

"It seems like the foreigner is at an advantage. Perhaps I can use him to eliminate the Bai clan. After that, I'll come in and kill him myself to avenge my son!" Ancient Sparrow City Lord mumbled coldly.

'The Bai clan Forefather's heart sank when he heard the City Lord. Seeing that Chu Kuangren was coming closer, he clenched his teeth and shouted, "My Lord, this man here possessed many treasures from the Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm. Kill him, and the treasures will be yours!"

"We, the Bai clan, will assist you, and we hereby pledge our loyalty to you. We will also offer all our properties and treasures to you!"

The Bai clan Forefather's words shocked everyone observing the battle..

Chapter 938: Ancient Sparrow City Lord Made His Move, Eliminating The Enemies With A Single Blow

The Bai clan was offering all of its properties and treasures to the City Lord?

Goodness!

Bai clan Forefather must have been forced into a difficult situation.

How could he propose such terms?

Those who heard him were amazed.

On the other hand, the Ancient Sparrow City Lord's eyes shone in greed upon hearing the offer.

Although eliminating the Bai clan would also allow him to get all the aforementioned properties and treasure, the fight with the Bai clan would be a fierce one.

The properties under the City Hall already filled his plate half full.

If he could gain control over all the properties and take the entire Bai clan under his wing, it would be a lot more worthwhile than eliminating the Bai clan.

The Ancient Sparrow City Lord was moved by the offer.

Besides, Chu Kuangren was really powerful. If he could eliminate the Bai clan, would the City Lord be able to take him on with his troops alone?

Further away in a certain im, all the cultivators were shocked when they noticed what had happened to the Bai clan. As such, all of them ran outside just to take a look at what happened, except for an old man drinking from the jug.

The man was none other than the Sword Crown. He burped and said, "Bai clan, you guys have messed with the wrong person this time.

"As for the Ancient Sparrow City Lord... Hmph, I hope you'll make the right choice. Or else, it would be a nightmare ahead for you."

"Very well. Since the Bai clan has decided to show sincerity, I'll accept your offer. We'll leave the discussion until after I kill this foreigner who murdered my son!"

The Ancient Sparrow City Lord had made up his mind.

His eyes on Chu Kuangren were overflowing with icy cold killing intentions.

A golden spear, with Daoist patterns on its body and peerless energy emanating from it, appeared in his hand.

Following that, a surge of Pseudo Immortal energy erupted.

“Listen, soldiers! Eliminate the foreigner!” shouted the Ancient Sparrow City Lord.

“Charge! Charge! Kill the foreigner!”

Deafening war chants sounded, and hundreds of thousands of soldiers surrounded Chu Kuangren.

“Great.”

Seeing the hundreds of thousands of soldiers around him, Chu Kuangren smiled instead of being afraid.

“I deal with you guys once and for all.”

The blade of the sword in his hand spun as he slashed out with it. The vast sword qi gushed towards the soldiers like a tidal wave.

At that moment, tens of thousands of soldiers exploded into clouds of blood mist.

Then, Chu Kuangren took Violet Immortal Bow out.

As soon as the string drew, his Emperor qi swirled, and the rampant Immortal Technique fluctuation erupted as the arrow shot out and turned into an apparition of the divine beast, Scarlet Phoenix.

A Scarlet Phoenix soared, and hundreds of thousands of fiery feathers rained down like the storm.

In the blink of an eye, the fiery features transformed into arrows!

A huge number of the soldiers were instantly killed!

On top of that, because the fiery arrows were formed by the Scarlet Phoenix’s flame, it scorched everything it touched, including the void and Emperor qi in its trail. Everywhere was turned into a sea of flame, and those with weaker cultivation levels were burned to cinders upon contact with the Scarlet Phoenix flame.

Tens of thousands of soldiers died in mere seconds.

Before the Ancient Sparrow City Lord and the other higher-ranking generals could even react to what was happening, the scene stunned them.

The soldiers were all elite troops of the City Hall, and a large number of resources had been invested into raising them.

Yey now, Chu Kuangren slaughtered them like ants.

The City Lord and the generals’ hearts stung.

The cultivators who came for a show were also terrified.

“This is terrifying! Too terrifying! He has even mastered such a large-scale attacking Immortal Technique!”

“That’s not all! That’s the Phoenix’s Flames! Flame is great for inflicting huge area damage, let alone this kind of holy fire. On top of that Immortal Technique? Tsk, this is very surprising.”

“Lbet the City Lord is furious right now.”

While Chu Kuangren was slaughtering the soldiers, the Ancient Sparrow City Lord finally lost his patience and threw himself towards Chu Kuangren with a spear in his hand.

The higher-ranking generals also joined the battle.

The Bai clan Forefather did not stand idle either. Considering that he was forced into such an awkward position, he should be the one who abhorred Chu Kuangren the most among the others. His hatred for Chu Kuangren even surpassed the Ancient Sparrow City Lord, who lost his son to Chu Kuangren.

The Daoist Celestials of the Bai clan and the City Hall, in addition to the two Pseudo Immortals, the Bai clan Forefather, and the Ancient Sparrow City Lord, all attacked Chu Kuangren at once. Their combined energy could shake the earth and heaven.

Behind Chu Kuangren, Lil Fox was so scared that she was shaking.

“Don’t worry. I’m here.”

Chu Kuangren’s voice echoed in her ears.

Strangely, his voice assured her and eradicated the fear in her.

All kinds of attacks poured in furiously and violently. Nevertheless, Chu Kuangren simply closed his eyes at the dangerous scene.

For a moment there, even Lil Fox felt that the noise from all the attacks and the painful wails from the injured members had disappeared.

The world became dead silent for a moment.

At the next moment, Chu Kuangren opened his eyes, which were void of all emotions. Instead, it was filled with endless Heavenly Might.

Everything paused the moment he opened his eyes.

The Ancient Sparrow City Lord, the Bai clan Forefather, and the others sensed something amiss, and fear slowly appeared in their gazes.

They wanted to dodge, but it was too late.

“Single Thought Series, Absolute Silence, Planetary Destruction!”

An emotionless voice sounded.

Chu Kuangren cast his Emperor qi and mind power to their maximum. Not only that, but his Immortal Physique’s Freezing qi and Phoenix’s Flames were also infused into this upcoming attack. With the multiple buffs from his source energy, Daoist Celestial energy, and also Dao Proclamation Seal, violet crimson bands of light burst in all directions.

Wherever the light ring reached, heaven and earth lost their color. Even the sun and moon turned dark.

The universe fell into turmoil, and heaven and earth overturned.

Even Daoist Celestials looked weak in the face of this blow. All of them were crushed into clouds of blood mist upon contact with the bands of light.

If a Daoist Celestial could not withstand the blow, no others below would escape alive.

The members of the Bai clan and the soldiers from the City Hall... Countless of them fell under the bands of violet crimson light. Life was like a speck of dust in front of that absolute power.

"No, no..."

The Bai clan's Immortal Progeny, Bai Yeyue, pulled out everything he got to try to save himself as the bands of light approached. Unfortunately, nothing he tried worked.

'When the bands of light caught him, Bai Yeyue burst into a cloud of blood mist like the others. Before that absolute power, even an Immortal Progeny's strength was as trifle as an ant's.

The violet crimson bands of light spread for only a few seconds, yet it felt like ages for those caught in it.

It was terrifying.

That power made everyone terrified!

The Bai Manor was leveled to the ground.

Tens of thousands of soldiers and all Bai clan members were all dead. Not a single body was left intact on the field.

Under that absolute power, most of them had burst into a cloud of blood mist.

In the air, only the stench of blood remained.

Amidst the blood mist that shrouded the sky stood a peerless white-robed figure. Even though he was standing in what looked like a living purgatory, he still stood out from the desolate scene.

"A monster, a monster..."

"Impossible! How can there be an Immortal Progeny like you... Unless... You've started on the Immortal Path?!"

'The Bai clan Forefather and the Ancient Sparrow City Lord were still alive despite standing in a sea of broken limbs. However, they were staring at Chu Kuangren, horrified.

They almost lost their minds.

There were countless elites present, yet Chu Kuangren's single blow killed them all.

If Chu Kuangren were an Immortal, it would make sense. However, Chu Kuangren was just an Immortal Progeny and a ridiculously young one at that too.

"Impossible? Why? Monster?" Chu Kuangren retracted his Heavenly Dao energy upon hearing them. He giggled and said, "You guys live under the well, so it's normal that you've never seen the Heavenly Might, let alone the heaven beyond heaven out there!"

He flicked his sleeves, and the golden Phoenix's Flame gushed out, burning the bloody scent throughout the field away.

Both Ancient Sparrow City Lord and Bai clan Forefather were also engulfed in the Phoenix's Flame and finally perished after a few moments..

Chapter 939: Taking The Sword Crown As Follower, Thousand Lotus Sword Intent

Both the Ancient Sparrow City Hall and the Bai clan teamed up against Chu Kuangren.

Yet, Chu Kuangren wiped them all out with a single blow, turning the two strongest factions in the city into history.

Predictably, a fight for power would soon land in Ancient Sparrow City. All the other strong forces would fight each other just to secure dominion over the city, but none of those would have anything to do with Chu Kuangren anymore.

He searched the rubles of Bai Manor for some treasures and then left the scene.

Along the way out, no one or forces dared to stop him.

"This foreigner is terrifying."

"That's the thing. He might be powerful, but he sure caused a scene. The folks from the Holy City won't simply let him off the hook."

"Throughout the entire Planquilon Immortal World, no one has been able to live peacefully after offending the Holy City. I bet he'd have to face endless pursuits from now on. Even if he's a King Immortal Progeny, he would have to face death eventually. Unless he can find himself a powerful backing, like those immortal orthodoxies..."

The crowd was engaged in a heated discussion.
However, none caught Chu Kuangren's attention.

He brought Lil Fox to an inn in the city.

All the customers left in a hurry when he arrived as they were afraid of getting involved with him and suffering the consequences.

Only the Sword Crown remained in the corner, drinking like nobody's business.

Since Chu Kuangren had left one billion spiritual marrows for him in this inn, no one would chase him out for drinking anymore. However, no one took him seriously either.

"Junior, that's some scene you caused. A foreigner killing the City Lord? The Holy City won't simply let you off this time."

In Planquilon Immortal World, all hundred and eight cities were interconnected, and the strongest of them all was Holy City.

Holy City was the one that governed over the other hundred and seven cities. Even though they usually stayed out of other cities' affairs, they could not just sit back and do nothing since Chu Kuangren, a foreigner, had killed the City Lord under their governance.

After all, it was considered an act of provocation to the Holy City.

"It's fine. Let them come," Chu Kuangren said. He was not afraid of the threats from the Holy City at all.

"Junior, Holy City has an Immortal's backing. He might not be interested in daily affairs, but once they get anxious and the Immortal decides to make a move, killing you would be as easy as turning their palms. My suggestion is to find an immortal orthodoxy and ask them for protection," the Sword Crown offered Chu Kuangren a piece of advice.

Joining other orthodoxies was one of the major reasons why the foreigners, the ingenious Immortal Progenies, could thrive in the Immortal World.

"I can recommend you to one, but I hope you will leave my name out of this when you are there," the Sword Crown said after a slight hesitation.

"Your previous cultivation orthodoxy, Dragon's Roar Sword Orthodoxy?"

Chu Kuangren looked intrigued. Dragon's Roar Sword Orthodoxy was one of Planquilon Immortal World's Immortal Orthodoxy, and its cultivators were experts in Sword Dao.

The Sword Crown came from that orthodoxy.

"Yes. I can recommend you there, but please don't tell them about my location. I don't want to see them now."

The Sword Crown's eyes looked bleak when he said that.

He was once unmatched during his time and was a well-known figure that reigned over his generation. Now, he was nothing but a drunkard.

He was ashamed to face his old peers.

Chu Kuangren saw through the Sword Crown's thoughts, but he was also surprised at the offer. Recommending him to Dragon's Roar Sword Orthodoxy would risk exposing the Sword Crown's whereabouts, and it was the Sword Crown's offer that gave Chu Kuangren the thought.

"Sword Crown, I don't need you to recommend me to Dragon's Roar Sword Orthodoxy, but I do have a question for you. Are you willing to be my follower?" Chu Kuangren asked.

The Sword Crown froze at Chu Kuangren's words. If it were in the past, he would have struck the person who asked him that question down with his sword.

He was once the person who stood at the pinnacle of Sword Dao. He was an Immortal!

No one in Planquilon Immortal World was worthy enough for him to turn himself into a follower, let alone a young Immortal Progeny, who was not even an Immortal.

However, the Sword Crown was just a piece of garbage, so getting angry would not help him at all. He looked at Chu Kuangren and said, "I'm just a piece of garbage. I am not worthy of your attention, Junior, let alone be your follower!"

"What if I say I can bring you back to the top?" Chu Kuangren said.

His words were like lightning that made the Sword Crown's heart and body tremble in surprise. The Sword Crown looked at Chu Kuangren in disbelief.

Then, he wore a bitter smile and said, "Junior, why tease me? I've sought after all the doctors out there, and even the one who is crowned King of Wonderful Medicine, Chun Fengzi, can't do anything about my injuries."

If he were not discouraged, the infamous Sword Crown would not stay in a tiny city like the Ancient Sparrow City and become a useless drunkard.

"Don't assume that I am like the others."

Chu Kuangren raised his hand and water qi started to gather at the tip of his finger. The water qi then transformed into water needles that poked into the Sword Crown's body.

He guided the water qi around Sword Crown's body until it reached the wound and injected itself inside.

The look on the Sword Crown's face changed.

He could feel that his injuries felt a little better.

"H-How is this possible?"

Not even the King of Wonderful Medicine whom he mentioned could do it, yet Chu Kuangren did it with ease.

At that very moment, his eyes glimmered hopefully. He stared at Chu Kuangren and said, "Can you really heal me?"

"I can!" Chu Kuangren nodded.

He was not loud, but his voice sounded confident.

He might not be able to do it before he got the Emerald Sac Scriptures.

However, given his cognizance and having the Emerald Sac Scriptures now, he could be a Medical Immortal in no time as long as he spent some time studying it.

Then, he would be able to heal the injuries on the Sword Crown.

The Sword Crown pondered for a while after Chu Kuangren assured him. After that, he took a deep breath before he got onto his knees. "If you can really heal my injuries, I am willing to be your follower." No one wanted to be a piece of useless garbage, especially the Sword Crown, who was once an Immortal who stood at the peak.

For the past few years, he looked like he was living a drunken dream, but deep down, he was suffering more than anyone else.

He even tried to take his own life a few times.

Now, Chu Kuangren's appearance reignited his ember of hope of returning to the peak, and he ought to seize the opportunity at all cost.

“Great. Go get yourself some clean clothes first. You look shabby, and you reek of alcohol. I don’t want to be embarrassed,” Chu Kuangren said.

The Sword Crown smiled awkwardly.

Awhile later, the Sword Crown changed into some fresh gray robes and cleaned himself up before he came back to Chu Kuangren.

Gray robes, black hair, grayish beard — the features made the Sword Crown look a lot more lively. He might have some wrinkles on his face, but his features assured that he used to be a handsome man.

“You look a lot better now.” Chu Kuangren nodded satisfyingly.

“Master, I can’t repay you enough for treating my injuries. I have an Immortal Technique with me, and it is called Thousand Lotus Sword Intent. Please accept it as a token of gratitude.”

‘The Sword Crown now sounded more polite in front of Chu Kuangren. He took out a white jade scroll for Chu Kuangren.

It was the Immortal Technique that he had spent time organizing in the past few days.

Chu Kuangren was slightly surprised at the offer. “You are giving it to me now instead of when I fully heal you?”

“I’ve plans to make you my heir, so giving it now or later does not matter anymore,” the Sword Crown said.

“The Thousand Lotus Sword Intent, the ultimate Immortal Technique created by the ingenious Sword Crown... This is going to be interesting. I’ll take it.”

Chu Kuangren did not reject it..

Chapter 940: Late-Stage Heavenly Daoist Celestial, The Sword Source, Holy City’s Enforcers

After taking the Sword Crown as his follower and acquiring Thousand Lotus Sword Intent, he did not leave Ancient Sparrow City in a hurry.

Instead, he headed towards his next destination — City Hall.

Everyone in the Ancient Sparrow City was baffled by his choice.

He had killed the City Lord, yet he did not leave right away. Instead, he did the direct opposite by going to the City Hall.

What exactly was going on?

Was provoking Holy City not enough for him?

“Arrogant! He’s full of himself!”

“Instead of leaving after killing the City Lord, he’s headed to the City Hall? Is he not afraid of the enforcers from the Holy City? Unbelievable.”

“He’s definitely an arrogant one.”

Chu Kuangren did not care about the discussion or commotion outside the City Hall. At that moment, he was in the City Hall for closed-door meditation.

There were two things he wanted to achieve through this closed-door cultivation.

The first one would be to refine the resources he got from the Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm.

The second one would be gaining insights into the Immortal Technique.

He had gotten some Immortal Techniques from the Bai clan and City Hall, as well as the Thousand Lotus Sword intent from the Sword Crown.

About ten days later, Chu Kuangren had refined most of the treasures he got from the Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm, and his cultivation level had risen to late-stage Heavenly Daoist Celestial Realm.

Next would be gaining insights into the various Immortal Techniques.

Chu Kuangren had comprehended many Immortal Techniques before this and had even created two whole new techniques on his own. As such, he was experienced in gaining insights into new techniques. Now, gaining insights into new techniques was not for his own usage anymore.

It was to apprehend the source energy hidden in the techniques.

However, he seemed to have run into an obstacle. He did not know if the Bai clan’s and City Hall’s Immortal Techniques were not up to standard, but he could not apprehend any source energies from them at all.

He placed his hope on the last one on the list — the Thousand Lotus Sword Intent.

“This is the Immortal Technique created by the Sword Crown himself, and it’s a lot stronger than the Bai clan and City Hall’s techniques. Rumor has it that the Immortal Techniques are related to the Immortals who created them. They are categorized as Common Immortal Techniques, Earthen Immortal Techniques, Heavenly Immortal Techniques, True Immortal Techniques.

“Most of the Immortal Techniques that I’ve comprehended in the past were Common Immortal Techniques. However, this Thousand Lotus Sword Intent might be at the level of Earthen Immortal Techniques.

“Earthen Immortals, the second realm in the Immortal Dao... Are there many in Planquiloan Immortal World?” Chu Kuangren mumbled as he pondered.

However, he did not want to linger on the question after thinking about it for a while. Hence, he concentrated on gaining insights on the Thousand Lotus Sword Intent.

That Immortal Technique was a Sword Dao Immortal Technique that was even better than Chu Kuangren’s current Imperial Monarch Sword Art.

Not only that but the Imperial Monarch Sword Art was not entirely a Sword Dao Immortal Technique.

In fact, the Thousand Lotus Sword Intent was a Sword Dao Immortal Technique in its purest form.

By following the Immortal Technique, he combined it with his Exquisite Nine Orifices Sword Heart and swiftly comprehended the eighth source — the Sword Source!

Meanwhile, in the other part of the City Hall, the Sword Crown and Lil Fox were hanging out in a yard. The Sword Crown had a jug of alcohol in his hand, gulping it mouth after mouth. On the other hand, the bored Lil Fox was playing with the grass and flowers.

“When is the boss coming out of his closed-door mediation?” Lil Fox said with a yawn.

She, too, had refined the Fragmented Immortal Pill and had broken through to the Great Daoist Celestial Realm.

“Although I can’t use my cultivation now, I still have my senses with me. I can feel that the master’s energy is growing stronger. Two days ago, I even sensed the Immortal Technique fluctuations. He must be trying to gain insights into the Immortal Techniques,” the Sword Crown said with a smile. In fact, he smiled because Chu Kuangren was gaining insights into his Thousand Lotus Sword Intent.

“How much longer will it take?”

“I guess at least a few years? After all, it’s not that easy to comprehend all of the Thousand Lotus Sword Intent,” the Sword Crown said.

He was not trying to deny Chu Kuangren’s talent, but he was confident in his Thousand Lotus Sword Intent. In Planquilion Immortal World, his Thousand Lotus Sword Intent was one of the best offensive Immortal Techniques.

“Huh? This is bad!”

The look on the Sword Crown’s face suddenly changed.

He looked in a faraway direction and sensed several powerful presences coming closer to the City Hall, bearing hostility.

“The enforcers from the Holy City are here?” he said with a heavy voice.

Not only the Sword Crown, but the other elites of Ancient Sparrow City also sensed the sudden arrival of the powerful presence.

Everyone looked at the soaring rays of lights in the sky, and many heated discussions were sparked.

“What a terrifying presence. The enforcers from the Holy City are here.”

“They are going to... the City Hall!”

“They are here for Chu Kuangren!”

Inside the City Hall, Lil Fox and the Sword Crown cautiously waited for the enforcers’ arrival.

“Lil Fox, I’d suggest you hide. The guests that we are expecting are not someone you can handle,” the Sword Crown said.

“I thought you were crippled. Can you handle them?”

“Uh...” The Sword Crown’s face twitched a little. Lil Fox was right, but being straightforward was somewhat hurtful to him.

“The point is, I’ll figure out a way to buy time,” he said.

Awhile later, several rays of light arrived above the City Hall. There were three people in golden armor above the building, bearing rampant and unmatched momentum.

Every single one of them was Pseudo Immortal!

They were none other than the enforcers from the Holy City.

“According to what we got, the foreigner who killed Ancient Sparrow City Lord is in this City Hall. Hmph. What an arrogant one.”

“This is actually the first.”

“Not bad I’d say.”

The three Pseudo Immortals chatted with a serious look on their faces.

Then, they saw the Sword Crown and Lil Fox in the yard.

“Oh, I didn’t expect to see someone else in this structure. Are they with the foreigner?”

“Let’s just take them all out,” one of the enforcers said as if his words could seal other people’s fate.

“Hehe.”

Then, a soft chuckle sounded.

The Sword Crown, with his jug of alcohol in his hand, said, “Enforcers from the Holy City, huh? What an impressive bearing.”

“Who are you?” One of the enforcers was slightly surprised at the Sword Crown’s calm reaction.

The other elderly enforcer beside him took a careful look at the Sword Crown. All of a sudden, he seemed to remember something, and his pupils shrank. He flew down to the ground and said reverently, “Please excuse our rude manners for not recognizing you, Sword Crown.”

The other two enforcers gasped upon hearing the words.

Sword Crown?

One of the Seven Crowns of Planquilon Immortal World?

Everyone was shocked by the name. Rumor had it that the Sword Crown had disappeared for many years.

Why would he be in the City Hall?

“The one you’ve come for is under my protection. You guys can leave,” the Sword Crown said.

The enforcers exchanged a quick look, looking slightly hesitant.

“If the Sword Crown is looking after this person, we won’t interfere. However, I heard rumors that your Thousand Lotus Sword Intent is unmatched. I am also a sword cultivator, and I’ve admired you for a while. I was hoping that you could enlighten me a little.”

The elder who recognized the Sword Crown said with his eyes glimmering.

Then, he drew a sword and unleashed a vast sword qi at the Sword Crown.

A loud bang later, the Sword Crown was sent sliding backward as blood spat out his mouth.

The other two enforcers were shocked by the scene.

“Is this the infamous Sword Crown?”

“A fake?”

The elder who attacked the Sword Crown smiled. “I heard from the City Lord that the Sword Crown once fought the Saber Crown and suffered irreversible injuries. He has since become a crippled person. It seems like that’s true.”

“If that punk Saber Crown did not resolve in tricks, I would never lose to him! Hmph!” The Sword Crown grunted coldly.

The Sword Crown had a complicated look on his face when the Saber Crown was mentioned. There was hate mixed with a little reminiscence in his eyes.

It seemed like the Saber Crown reminded him of someone else..
