Chapter 321 That's All You Are Chapter 321 That's All You Are : +10 Free Coins The moment Tracy learned Andrew was digging into Angelic Etiquette Academy , she guessed he must've heard something from Norris . It didn't matter what Andrew had heard . If he wanted to know what she went through at Angelic Etiquette Academy , Tracy didn't mind feeding his curiosity . With Tracy's silent permission , Ronald " accidentally " let slip a few details . That was enough for Andrew to uncover a rough picture of the academy . And even that broke him .

He never imagined the place he sent Tracy to was hell itself . No ... this isn't what I meant to do . For the first time , Andrew forgot about his image in public . He rushed to see Tracy like a man possessed . He appeared so suddenly that Tracy's bodyguards instantly blocked him , keeping him away from her . Andrew didn't care . His eyes locked onto Tracy . " Tell me this isn't true . Say you through that . Say Angelic Etiquette Academy isn't that kind of place ! " didn't go Tracy saw his panic and knew why he'd come . She met his eyes and spoke slowly , her voice sharp and cruel .

" Of course it's that kind of place . People there were treated like goods - forced to sell their bodies , even their organs . Life there was worse than animals in a cage . " You can't handle this ? Then know this - what you've found so far is nothing compared to the real darkness in there . " Andrew went pale . His legs gave out , and he sank to the floor . His perfect hair , always slicked back , now fell wild across his forehead . " I didn't know ... I didn't know it was like that ... " He repeated the words , but nothing else came out . Tracy cut him off with a cold laugh .

And you still dare to dream about that ? " +10 Free Coins Andrew's mouth opened , but no words came . Deep down , she was right - he had hoped for that . But seeing the scorn in her eyes , he couldn't bring himself to say it out loud . Raised in wealth , pampered his whole life , Andrew had never felt so humiliated .

After a long silence , his voice cracked . " What do I have to do for you to forgive me ? " Tracy honestly didn't understand why the Jackmans were so desperate for her forgiveness . If they abandoned her , they should've done it completely . Not toss her away and then come crawling back later , pretending to be noble . She stared at Andrew with a mocking smile . " You're a businessman , right ? If you want my forgiveness , you'd better stand on equal ground with me before you even think about asking . " She was never a saint .

Back when the Jackmans spoiled her , she wasn't the type to guilt herself or swallow insults . If someone crossed her , she fired back right away . People didn't hate her for it - because no one dared . Instead , they called her brilliant . They called her the golden girl . So now , if Andrew wanted forgiveness , he'd first have to suffer what she suffered . Only then could he even ask . Andrew understood her meaning , and his face turned chalk white . " I ... " His lips trembled , but no words followed . Of course , he knew she was right .

To ask for forgiveness , he had to experience the same hell she went through . But how could he ever set foot in a place like that ? Tracy noticed his hesitation and fear , and gave a soft laugh . 2/3 13:27 Mon , Sep 29 W Chapter 321 That's All You Are " So that's all you are . " Her words cut deeper than a blade . (68) +10 Free Coins Andrew's chest tightened . He couldn't meet her eyes anymore . Scrambling to his feet , he fled in shame . When he returned home , he fell sick . It's like a demon haunted his mind . He spent most days staring into nothing .

Sometimes he'd jolt awake from nightmares , drenched in sweat . Again and again , he heard her voice in his head - So that's all you are . The words tore away every excuse he'd built for himself . They exposed the side of him he despised most - selfish , cowardly , weak . But he wasn't that man . He truly regretted what he'd done . He truly wanted to make it right . He hadn't known what Angelic Etiquette Academy was . If he had , he never would've sent Tracy there . And besides , much of it had been a misunderstanding . Erin had poisoned their minds , twisted everything .

None of them had ever meant to hurt Tracy . Tracy knew that , so why wouldn't she forgive ? Meanwhile , ever since Andrew started investigating Angelic Etiquette Academy , Ronald had been watching his every move - terrified that Andrew's stupidity might drag Tracy into trouble again . 3/3

Chapter 322 All Gone Andrew found it ridiculous and was disappointed at the same time . Someone like him doesn't deserve Tracy's forgiveness ! He surely knew that the Jackmans were genuinely regretful and sincerely asking for forgiveness , but what right did they have ? (68 +10 Free Coins Tracy had suffered so much , so how could their regret and tears be enough to make up for all that ? At the very least , they should suffer as much as Tracy did . That night , Ronald took some measures and sent Andrew to the Angelic Etiquette Academy .

The academy didn't accept just anyone , so Andrew was admitted under Tracy's name . They knew that Tracy was slowly taking control of the Jackmans and were wary of the influence she had , so they didn't hesitate to take him in . They even promised to let Andrew experience the same treatment Tracy had in those two years . Upon hearing the news , Tracy simply replied , " I hope you keep your word . " She was no saint either . Merely regretting could never make up for the nightmares she had endured over the years . It would only be fair if they experienced the same pain .

Aside from Ronald and Tracy , no one knew where Andrew had gone . For years , Andrew had been in charge of the whole family , and with him missing , the Jackmans were thrown into chaos . They had no choice but to force Benjamin , who had long retired , to step back in . However , Benjamin had not managed the company for years and was out of practice , so he didn't notice the small moves Tracy made . With Daphne falling ill and Andrew going missing , Benjamin was swamped with work , leaving only Liam to hold the fort .

1/3 101 , Sep 23 673 Chapter 322 All Gone After Erin's secret was revealed , Liam was stabbed and his hand was ruined . +10 Free Coins Although he looked normal , he couldn't exert strength in his hand and couldn't even hold cutlery . Racing had been Liam's dream since his childhood . The fact that his hand was ruined put him in despair , but he eventually pulled himself together . Not only because his family needed him now , but he had another hand left . With his skills and enough practice , it wouldn't affect his racing . With that thought in mind , Liam got his act together .

He took care of his mother and searched for Andrew everywhere , Liam , who had always relied on his family's influence , had to support them for the first time . Only then did he realize how difficult it was . But he couldn't show his weakness . Only when it was late at night , he would think of going to Tracy to share his troubles . Just like when they were kids - whenever he went to her , he wasn't afraid of anything . But he went through his entire contact list and asked all his friends , yet he couldn't find her number .

He thought about going to the company like his mother had , but when he remembered how Tracy refused to forgive her , even suspected her of trying to use public pressure against her , he didn't dare to . Feeling heavy - hearted , Liam went to Tracy's room , hoping to find some comfort . The moment he opened the door , he saw a room full of clothes and shoes that hadn't even been packed away yet and suddenly remembered that Tracy's room had been turned into Erin's walk - in closet . It had happened on the same night they sent Tracy to the Angelic Etiquette Academy .

They couldn't even wait for another day and tore the room apart that very night . Just how many stupid things had they done ? Looking at all the brand - new and fancy clothes , Liam felt sick . 2/3 13:27 Mon , Sep 29 N Chapter 322 All Gone +10 Free Coins " Get rid of all these things ! The farther , the better ! From today on , I don't want to see anything related to her in this house ! " Everyone knew exactly who he meant . No one dared to hesitate . They hurried to pack up everything related to Erin and threw it all away .

After throwing everything out , the maids hadn't even had a moment to rest when they heard Liam's next order . " Turn this room back into how Tracy had it and bring all of her things back . " That way , when she came home , she would feel their sincerity . Their family could go back to how it was before . But the maids looked at each other , looking hesitant . Nobody moved . Just as Liam was about to get angry and demand an explanation , one of the maids spoke up , " Mr. Liam , it's not hard to restore the room to how it was , but as for her things ...

She paused , choosing her words carefully and continued , " All of Ms. Tracy's things were in the storage room , but then you told us to throw all of her things out . " Liam froze , suddenly remembering that he had indeed said that . His voice trembled as he asked , " Did you throw everything away ? " The maid nodded carefully and answered , " You were very angry at the time , Mr. Liam . You said that if you saw anything related to Ms. Tracy in this house again , you would fire us . " 3/3

Chapter 323 Too Late Chapter 323 Too Late : Liam's face went pale as his own words came back to him . He was the one who had given the orders , so he couldn't blame anyone else . +10 Free Coins How heartbroken was Tracy to be treated like that the very moment she returned from the Angelic Etiquette Academy ? Liam wanted to slap himself , but he didn't . " It can't be . Tracy lived in the Jackman Villa for 18 years . She had so many things , so there has to be something left . Go search . Even if you have to turn the whole villa upside down , you must find something of hers .

" Liam had given the order , but quickly stopped them . " No , I'll go myself . I'll definitely find something of hers ." Without waiting for a response , he rushed to the storage room and began to search . Even though he couldn't use his hand , he refused to let anyone help him , insisting on searching every single corner himself . He seemed to think that was the only way to find what he was looking for , to show Tracy how sincere he was , for their family could go back to the way it was as if nothing had ever happened . But Liam had made it very clear back then .

Under Walter's training , the Jackmans ' maids were meticulous and careful . If they were told to throw everything away , they left nothing behind . Liam searched from day to night , and from night until dawn . The storage room was slowly cleared , but he still found nothing . When he finally looked around at the empty room , he collapsed to the ground . His injured hand twitched uncontrollably , and blood seeped through the bandages . Sharp pain stabbed through the wound , but he didn't care . " How could this be ...

He repeated those words over and over , looking lost , helpless , and pitiful . The maids stood silently at the door , exchanging uneasy looks , but no one dared go up to comfort him . 1/3 $ 40 Chapter 323 Too Late They had all seen what kind of people the Jackmans really were . +10 Free Coins They had abandoned a daughter who had lived with them for 18 years . When Erin , whom they had adored , died , no one even claimed her body . Only people with cold hearts could do something like that . They were just maids and had no interest in getting involved in their employers ' family drama .

They watched as Liam sat in the dim storage room for hours until the blood on his hand had clotted . Only then did he slowly snap out of it . Because of that ordeal , Liam's hand was ruined for good . When his father came home tired from a full day of work and heard the news , he froze . For the first time , he felt completely lost . What had their family done to deserve such suffering ? He knew it was wrong to have doubted Tracy , but they had been tricked . They knew they were wrong now . It was just a moment of inner turmoil , so why couldn't they be given a chance to make it right ?

Unable to figure it out , Benjamin decided he would go ask Tracy himself . Maybe they just needed to have a good talk . If they sat down and worked things out , the knot in their hearts could finally be untied . But when Tracy heard why he was there , she refused to see him . She was tired of the Jackmans constantly showing up at her door . To get rid of the trouble once and for all , she sped up her plans for Jackman Enterprise . Outsiders thought she only had one project left - the one that would determine if she could stay on as vice president .

But the truth was , almost all of the recent projects the company had signed had been arranged by Ronald . With the shares she had already gotten from Andrew , the Jackman Enterprise could fall apart at any moment . Although everything was ready , it was still a difficult task . 2/3 17:42 Tue , Sep 30 Chapter 323 Too Late :. Luckily , with Ronald's help , things went smoothly . +10 Free Coins In just a few months , Tracy had completely taken over the entire Jackman Enterprise and even forced Benjamin out of his chairman position . Only then did she finally agree to see him .

Benjamin had once felt guilty toward Tracy , but the moment he saw her , rage consumed him . He stormed forward and raised his hand to slap her . " You ungrateful brat , you- " His slap was blocked by a bodyguard . Faced with the tall and intimidating bodyguard , Benjamin didn't dare push through . He glared at Tracy and said , " Tracy , I'm your father ! Do you know that what you're doing is so wrong ? " Tracy smirked and said indifferently , " You're not my father . You were the one who said you didn't have a malicious daughter like me . " Benjamin froze . He did say that , but still ...

" I was manipulated . That wasn't how I really felt . We've been trying to make it up to you , haven't we ? " His tone turned harsh , blaming her instead . " No parent is ever truly wrong. Everyone makes mistakes . " It's not too late . Can't you just give us one chance to make things right ? "

Chapter 324 A Line That Can't Be Crossed Benjamin let out a heavy sigh . " Tracy , if you're still upset , then I'll apologize . I'm now on , we'll make it up to you . Come home with me , okay ? " He spoke like a father trying to coax a rebellious daughter home . $ 400 +10 Free Coina sorry . From But watching him put on this act of kindness and forgiveness only made Tracy feel sick . If Erin hadn't been exposed and lost all value , and if her grandfather hadn't left her the company shares , would her family have ever cared whether she was truly one of them ? No. They wouldn't .

All they ever cared about was protecting their own interests and proving themselves right . Deep down , they were selfish and fake . Tracy's eyes were cold as she stared at Benjamin . Her voice was sharp and steady . " If you're trying to play the emotional card and get me back as your obedient daughter , then you'd better give that up . " Because even if all of you dropped dead tomorrow , I still wouldn't forgive you . " It was the first time she had ever spoken her hatred so openly . Benjamin stood frozen , stunned silent . " Y - You ... " he stammered , unable to form the words .

Tracy wasn't done . " Honestly , if it weren't for the twenty percent Grandpa left me , I wouldn't bother taking the company from your hands - I would've destroyed it completely . " It was only because Erin had all of you behind her that she dared to act so ruthlessly , pushing me to the edge over and over , even costing Walter and Grandpa their lives . " So tell me , how could you possibly think I'd ever forgive you for that ? " Benjamin's eyes widened . He knew Tracy resented them but never imagined the hatred ran this deep . They were blood , family .

If putting the company in your hands will calm you down , then I'm willing to step aside . " His tone softened , sounding somewhat fatherly . " I'm getting old . Andrew's missing , and Liam doesn't have the talent for business . You're family .

Handing the company over to you makes me feel at ease ." Tracy smirked , cutting straight through his hidden agenda . " I'm still a Jackman , so it's fine if the company's under my control for now . Once you win me over and Andrew returns , I'll just hand it back - right ? " Benjamin's flickering gaze said it all . He didn't need to answer ; the truth was obvious . Tracy felt nothing at this . She had long since seen through Benjamin . His moment of guilt quickly shifted into self - righteousness . After all , Tracy was a Jackman by blood . That was unchangeable .

She could stay mad , but the truth remained . And since Erin was gone and Tracy was still alive , why couldn't they just move past what had happened ? Tracy wasn't shocked by his reaction . Her eyes gleamed with mockery as she shattered Benjamin's last hope . " In a few days , I'll be holding a press conference to officially announce that Jackman Enterprise will be renamed to Yarwood Enterprise . " Benjamin shot up from his chair . " Are you out of your mind ?! " Tracy sat calmly , completely unbothered by his fury . If anything , the mocking glint in her eyes grew sharper .

His face turned red with anger . " You're a Jackmans ! Even if you deny it , our blood runs in your veins . Do you have any idea how disrespectful this is to the family's reputation ? It's outrageous ! " Tracy sneered . " If I had the choice , I'd rather not have a single drop of the Jackmans ' blood . It disgusts me . " 2/3 17:42 Tue , Sep 30 Chapter 324 A Line That Can't Be Crossed Benjamin stared at her in disbelief . " You " you ...

+10 Free Coins In that moment , he finally realized the truth - Tracy would never forgive them , and the family could never return to their harmonious and loving state . The realization filled him with a dull , endless ache . Still , he made one last attempt , his voice trembling . " Tracy ... do you really hate us that much ? " " Not really . " Her reply came quickly , steady , and calm . The simple word lit a spark of hope in his eyes . But it died just as fast when she continued , her tone as cold as ice . " Strangers don't deserve my hatred .

And that's all you are to me now ." Benjamin's knees almost gave out . No matter how hard he tried to deny it , the truth was clear : Tracy wanted to cut ties with them for good . Though his chest burned with pain , he forced down his emotions and let his voice harden . " If you're going to be this heartless , then don't blame us for being ruthless . That company is the legacy of generations . I won't allow you to change its name . " 3/3

Chapter 325 Broken Ties +10 Free Coins Benjamin's kind and gentle expression was gone . He barked out one last harsh line , then stormed away . Tracy wasn't surprised . She knew Benjamin would never agree and would definitely try something behind her back . She had prepared for it , so she wasn't worried at all . Just as she expected , the press conference went smoothly . There were a few small bumps along the way , but nothing that could stop the outcome . Legally and officially , Jackman Enterprise was renamed to Yarwood Enterprise .

At that exact moment , Benjamin , overwhelmed with anger , collapsed in front of everyone . His eyes rolled back , and he fainted in the middle of the crowd . The scene turned chaotic , but Tracy walked straight past him without even a glance . She didn't pay him any attention and had no idea what happened afterward . She was too busy with company matters . Taking over the company was rough . Tracy was inexperienced , and the company was at its most unstable stage . If it weren't for Ronald quietly supporting her behind the scenes , the whole thing might have fallen apart .

The truth was , Tracy didn't even like this kind of work . She planned to hand the company over to a professional manager once things settled down . But until then , she had to handle things herself - and keep an eye out for Benjamin . After all , she had lived with the Jackmans for 18 years . She knew exactly how much Benjamin cared about the company . Even though she now held the power and even though the company's name had been changed , Benjamin would never stop looking for ways to take it back . Tracy was fully prepared for his tricks . But time passed , and still , nothing happened .

She started to wonder why . Then Liam brought news . " Dad had a stroke . He's paralyzed ." When he was young , Benjamin sacrificed everything for the family , working himself into 1/3 $ 40 Chapter 325 Broken Ties exhaustion . That was why Andrew was forced to take over the family business so early . +10 Free Coins In recent years , Benjamin's health had improved a little , thanks to Andrew carrying the load , but the damage had already been done . Now bedridden , Benjamin relied on Daphne - who was still recovering from her illness - to care for him . Liam suddenly became the pillar of the family . Though they had lost the company , the Jackmans still held some shares . The dividends were enough to keep them comfortable , though they could no longer spend recklessly . Still , comfort wasn't enough for them . So , Liam came looking for Tracy . " CeeCee , could you come back with me and visit Mom and Dad ? " he asked carefully . Ever since Erin's true face had been exposed , Liam had treated Tracy with caution . He couldn't help it .

This time was no different . He had come to blame her for Benjamin's stroke , yet his tone was full of hesitation and a touch of pleading . All his life , Liam had depended on Tracy , and she had always gotten used to shielding him no matter what . Then Erin came along . She treated Liam like someone to look up to , giving him the thrill of being admired and relied on for the first time . That feeling was addictive . So whenever he stood between Erin and Tracy , his instincts pushed him to take Erin's side .

Now that Erin's mask had been ripped away , Liam - after tasting what it felt like to be needed - wanted to crawl back to the old days , when he could lean on Tracy . But life doesn't work like that . Tracy's voice was cold . " If that's all you came to say , then do me a favor - leave . Don't interrupt my work . " Liam wasn't an employee , so technically he had no right to walk into the office . But with company shares in his pocket , slipping past the front desk wasn't hard . 2/3 17:42 Tue , Sep 30 Chapter 325 Broken Ties 20 +10 Free Coins Tracy didn't waste time arguing .

She simply signaled her bodyguards to escort him out , sparing the building's security team the trouble . When the bodyguards started moving in , Liam's face paled . " Tracy , we really regret what we did . We're truly sorry . Why won't you forgive us ? " I know these past two years we've hurt you , but we were- " " -misled . You guys weren't acting on your own , " Tracy cut him off icily . " That's what you were about to say , right ? " Her laugh was sharp , and the scorn in her eyes stung worse than a slap . " You Jackmans really are family . Even your excuses all sound the same .

" Liam's expression twisted . He opened his mouth , but no words came . He wanted to claim they never meant to hurt her , that none of it was truly their intention . But Erin's words echoed too clearly in his mind . If they had trusted Tracy enough from the beginning , Erin never would have had the chance to wedge her way in . None of it would have happened . The truth was simple : they didn't trust her . Liam's throat tightened . He forced out a hoarse , " CeeCee ... 11 " Don't call me that , " she snapped again . " Haven't you heard ? I can't stand sharing the same you that ?

Chapter 326 Public Humiliation Tracy's words cut into Liam's heart like a sharp blade , draining the color from his face . " Why ? " His voice trembled . " Do you really hate us that much ? " +10 Free Coins It was the same question Benjamin had once asked , but Tracy no longer had the patience to answer . " If you have time to ask me about hate , maybe you should think about how to treat your father's stroke or wonder where your brother has gone . " At the mention of Andrew , Tracy finally allowed herself a smile . " When he comes back , you'd better ask him what happened to him .

Then you can ask me about hate again . Maybe I'll actually answer you . " Liam wasn't stupid . He might not have understood the details , but he caught one important thing . " Do you know where Andrew is ? " Tracy didn't deny it . " Of course I do . I personally sent him there . You're always blaming me for every kidnapping . Well , this time , I actually did it . Want to call the cops on me ? " She admitted it so boldly because she knew Liam had no proof . Even if he did call the police , she wasn't afraid . The kind of methods the academy used wasn't something the police could fix .

Besides , she was already planning to deal with the academy herself . If Liam stirred things up and made trouble for them , all the better . Liam never expected her to admit it so calmly , with that look of deliberate provocation on her face . He stood frozen , not knowing what to say or do . Tracy , indifferent to his confusion , simply ordered the guards to throw him out . The truth was , she had resented the Jackmans before , but she had never really hated them . Because they weren't worth hating . If it weren't for Erin , she wouldn't have bothered with the Jackmans at all .

He remembered how terrified she had been years ago , and his men had reported how shaken she looked when she first received the mask . And yet here she was , composed as ever . He snatched the tablet .

And just his luck - the video playing showed him drenched in blood , clutching a glass like he 2/3 8:20 Thu , Oct 2 Chapter 327 Raging Fury 95 +10 Free Coins was about to attack , only to be restrained at the last second by his assistant , edited into a mocking clip . Preston's face darkened instantly . With a furious swing , he hurled the tablet to the floor . CRASH ! Shards flew everywhere , but the anger in his chest only grew hotter . " Find out who did this ! I want a name - now ! " he roared . Never in his life had he suffered such humiliation .

His assistant , already anticipating the outburst , had ordered an investigation in advance . Carefully , he reported , " We've traced it back . It was Ronald . " He didn't dare call him Mr. Ronald under Preston's burning glare . The name didn't surprise Preston . Of course - it could only be him . That bastard had always been the one bold enough to scheme against him . Preston's eyes narrowed , his voice venomous . " I'll make him pay for this - ten times over , a hundred if I must . " The assistant lowered his head in silence . His assistant kept his head bowed , saying nothing .

He didn't dare admit the truth - that while they had traced the scheme back to Ronald , there was no real evidence to pin it on him . In fact , it was likely that Ronald had left the trail on purpose , making sure Preston would find it . The real goal wasn't just to frame him . It was to humiliate him even further . But that was something the assistant couldn't say now . Not unless he wanted to splash gasoline on an already raging fire .

Chapter 328 Preston's Image Shatters Chapter 328 Preston's Image Shatters The truth was exactly what Preston had suspected . Ronald had done it on purpose . +10 Free Coins He'd even seen those viral parody videos online and still wasn't satisfied . He spent a wad of cash on promoting them . Money wasn't a problem for him anymore . Whatever amount Preston spent trying to bury the hype , Ronald matched it or doubled down to keep the buzz alive . The situation was already weird enough to grab attention .

The topic kept appearing and disappearing across platforms , which only made people more curious . With all that attention , even Tracy , who hadn't been online much lately , caught wind of it . She didn't know the full story , but she immediately knew it was Ronald's handiwork . When she saw Ronald emerging from the kitchen with a freshly cooked meal , she couldn't contain her curiosity . " How did you pull all this off ? " Even though they lived in a bigger house now and could afford hired help , Ronald still loved cooking for Tracy every day . Tracy enjoyed it too .

She always finished everything when he cooked . To both of them , it was a simple , heartwarming routine that brought them joy . Ronald set the plate down and untied his apron before sitting across from her . He shot Tracy a mischievous look . " Want to take a guess first ? " He knew that even though Tracy had opened up about what happened at the Angelic Etiquette Academy , she hadn't completely healed from the pain . Getting her involved in Preston's downfall might help ease some of that hurt . Tracy could tell what Ronald was trying to do . She played along and thought for a moment .

" That guy who splashed the fake blood was part of your setup , right ? To make Preston look like an idiot ? " Ronald raised an eyebrow with a smug expression . " Pretty brilliant move , right ? " Tracy had to give him credit for that . 1/3 8:20 Thu , Oct 2 Chapter 328 Preston's Image Shatters 1959 +10 Free Coins There were countless ways to embarrass someone , but dousing a guy who thought he was better than everyone else with fake blood in public was definitely unique . Not many people could come up with that angle . But it seemed so obviously staged . How could it really damage Preston in any meaningful way ? Ronald noticed her confusion and grinned . " Preston and I grew up together . As someone the Wests kept around as Preston's stepping stone , no one knows him better than I do . " Preston acts all cool and refined , like he's untouchable . But really , he's a complete narcissist . He even dresses perfectly just to sleep . " And he refuses to use any bathroom outside his own room , like his divine ass can't possibly use a ' commoner's ' toilet .

" Ronald's voice dripped with contempt . " That guy values his image more than his life . " Back when he was 18 , a girl tried to get close to him . She playfully smeared birthday cake on his face . He completely lost it and shoved her whole face into the cake . " Another time , he had stomach problems at school . His face turned green from holding it in . But he wouldn't use the bathroom with everyone around , especially not a shared one . He held it until school ended and could get home to his private bathroom . " Thinking about that incident , Ronald's eyes lit up with amusement .

" You have no idea how loud he was or how awful the smell got . " Afterward , he came out looking furious and fired all the maids . He even threatened and bribed everyone to forget what happened . " It was just a normal bodily function , but Preston's reaction made it impossible to forget . Ronald had been right there watching the whole thing . God , he'd wanted to burst out laughing . Preston even tried to get rid of him too , but Mateo still needed Ronald around , so Preston couldn't touch him . That incident made Preston hate him even more , and he started targeting him every he got .

" 10 Free Doing " You know me so well , Tracy , " Ronald said with a grin . " I didn't do much . I just stood outside the bathroom door and recorded the sounds he was making . " Then I hired a professional writer online to describe in detail how he held it all day at school and finally lost control at home . I posted the whole story across every platform I could find .

" When he did that , Ronald didn't bother hiding his tracks . He hadn't gained real power yet , so even if he tried to cover it up , Preston would have discovered him easily . So he didn't hide at all . That way , it infuriated Preston even more . Just like this time , Preston knew it was him but couldn't find proof . It was bound to drive him crazy . Tracy hadn't expected Ronald to pull something so underhanded . But damn , it was executed perfectly !

She could already picture how furious Preston , who cared so much about his reputation and image , would be after getting doused with fake blood in public and labeled a homewrecker .

The man's wife happened to spot him during one of these appearances . Preston's face was honestly better - looking than a lot of male celebrities . Naturally , she fell for him . She had to be pretty , good at painting , gentle in personality , resilient even through hardships , and he wouldn't care about her background .

In a law - abiding society , Ivy wouldn't kill him and pay with her life . She knew Tracy wouldn't allow that anyway . She just wanted Shawn to experience what it was like to be betrayed and used ! Shawn wasn't the only son among the Sanders .

He had a sister who was two or three years younger , plus seven or eight half - brothers from his father's affairs . Ivy managed to strike a deal with Shawn's sister . Tracy didn't interfere with Ivy's plans . But she arranged things behind the scenes to keep her safe and help out . While Tracy was busy , Ronald wasn't idle either . He'd sworn to destroy the Angelic Etiquette Academy .

He needed to find a weak spot first to strike . His target was Norris , who was already in the psychiatric hospital . Whether this choice was purely strategic or personal was something only Ronald knew . Even though Norris was mentally unstable , he'd once been a guest at the Angelic Etiquette Academy . To keep guests from spilling secrets , the academy always gathered compromising information first before letting them in fully . 2/3 8:20 Thu , Oct 2 Chapter 329 Angelic Etiquette Academy Under Siege But Norris was mentally ill now . Who could trust someone in his condition to keep secrets ?

So that night , rumors about the Angelic Etiquette Academy started spreading . 95 +10 Free Coins Normally , the ramblings of a psychiatric patient wouldn't get much attention . But somehow , the information reached the police . It tied into some missing persons and human trafficking cases . So the Angelic Etiquette Academy appeared on their radar . The academy had been doing shady stuff for years . They'd dealt with law enforcement many times and knew how to handle investigations . But this time , their usual tricks didn't work .

To avoid bothering Tracy , Ronald hadn't mentioned his plans , so she had no idea . Until someone from the Angelic Etiquette Academy showed up at her door . That's when she discovered Ronald had begun his attack using Norris . It wasn't time to go all out yet . So Tracy went to meet that " teacher . " The man apparently thought she was still the same pushover from before . He jumped right in with questions . " You promised to keep the secrets between us . Who did you tell ? " 3/3

Angelic Etiquette Academy's Fury Is Unleashed The sudden question made Tracy's heart skip a beat . She instinctively wondered if they'd figured something out . But seeing the " teacher's " scrutinizing gaze , she realized he was just bluffing her . She frowned . " What happened ? " She didn't deny it right away . Her eyes showed just the right amount of confusion , like she had no clue what was going on . The suspicion in the " teacher's " eyes faded a bit , but he still probed .

" Norris is babbling about the academy , and now the cops are onto us . You don't know about this ? " If he hadn't said it , Tracy really wouldn't have known . So the surprise on her face was genuine . After a short pause , she sneered at the man in front of her . " Norris was one of your guests . If he starts rambling after going crazy , how is that my problem ? " The " teacher " studied her expression closely and couldn't spot any cracks . Maybe he was wrong
, after all ? He suspected Tracy not just because of Norris's ramblings .

Norris had lost his mind right after becoming a guest , so it was normal for him to say random things . That was why they'd had people secretly monitoring him to prevent any information from getting out . But even with that , the information got out . Their cleanup attempts kept failing , clearly because someone was pulling strings behind the scenes . The Angelic Etiquette Academy had been around for years . The only one who'd slipped their control and could threaten them was Tracy . That was why they'd sent someone to test her . Now it seemed like it really wasn't her .

The " teacher " refused to give up and kept asking questions , trying to trap her with his words
 . But Tracy stuck to saying she knew nothing . In the end , the " teacher " got nothing out of her and had to leave . But before going , he gave a final warning . " You'd better keep your mouth shut forever ! " 1/3 Chapter 330 Angelic Etiquette Academy's Fury Is Unleashed Tracy
