Unchosen 191-200

Chapter 191

but the bank seat of the cat, a piece of gauze with faint bloodstains lay discarded to the side. The man gently held the girl's small hand, his gaze fi tral scar on her palm. His face was as calm as still water, but there was an undeniable tension in the air, a low aura surrounding him that mingled with nothing, the deeper than mere TEETE

Noelle noticed the unpleasant expression on Nick's handsome face and, unable to resist, leaned over slightly, tilting her head to get a better look at Janu: "Nick, are you angry now?" she asked

Nicolas looked at the silly latte girl in front of him and asked, "What do you think?"

"Tch" Noelle hesitated.

"It looks like he is mad," Noelle thought, reaching out her other hand and patting Nicolas's head, comforting him. "Nick, don't be angry. Look, I am Nicolas watched as the girl tried to comfort herself, her actions almost childlike. His lips pressed into a thin line, and with a quick motion, he grabbed her other hand, the one that had been playfully messing with his hair. Without warning, he hit her finger as a punishment.

"Ouch!" Noelle cried out,

Although it didn't hurt, Nick bit her. Hence, she still felt aggrieved.

She looked at him with watery eyes and asked, "Nick, what are you doing?"

"Being angry" Nicolas stared at her and spoke bluntly.

"Why are you angry?" Noelle asked and said, "I told you. My injuries have already healed"

"It's good this time, but what about next time?" Nicolas asked, his expression darkened.

Nicolas thought about Bennett cutting Noelle's palm. Though he hadn't done it on purpose, the whole situation left him uneasy. He couldn't shake the feeling that Bennett had ulterior motives, Moreover, Bennett was a doctor. Nicolas's intuition told him that Bennett was definitely up to no good.

Noelle saw that Nicolas was so vigilant and recalled what Charlie Anderson had told her. She chuckled and said. "Actually, Charlie told me to be careful today

When Nicolas heard this, he sneered, "See, even Charlie knows what kind of person Bennen is. So stay away from Bennett in the future."

"Lean't," Noelle said seriously. "Tm Bennett's sister. We meet frequently in the house. Besides, Bennett is kind to me, I think he is fine."

In Noelle's opinion, although Bennett was very ery strange, he was really nice to her

If everyone in Anderson's family was like Bennett, her mission would have been completed long ago. Noelle preferred people like Bennett "What? You were also bombarded by Bennett's sugar-coated bullets?"

Seeing that Noelle was not wary of Bennett and even thought he was nice, Nicolas was furious. Little fool! Didn't she know that some people can be evil

"Hmm. Noelle could not explain her reason to Nicolas

She couldn't mention her mission.

However, she did not want Nicolas to worry about fier, so she lugged Nicolas and said with a smile, "Nick, don't be angry. I know you're worried that Bennett will harm me, but I'll be careful! Besides, Bennett is very busy with work. He's only back for annual leave

"It won't be long before he goes luck, so I won't be able to spend much tune with him. Bennett won't have a chance to do anything even if he wants

Although it made sense. Nicolas was still worried.

He looked at Noelle in his arms and could only sigh and hug her. "Liule fool, if you were smarter, I wouldn't have to worry so much."

Noelle was unhappy when she heard this.

She puffed up her cheeks and raised her head to retort, "Nick, how am I a fool! I'm very smart"

"Your IQ is high." Nicolas flicked Noelle's head and sighed. "Unfortunately, the higher the IQ the lower the EQ"

Noelle had never interacted with normal people in the past.

"My LQ is low, but yours is hight" Noelle did not care much

She hugged Nicolay's neck and said with a smile, "You said you're my strategist. If there's anything, I can just look for you. Even if Bennen har any bad intentions, you will see through it at a glancer"

Nicolas thought, "Now she learned how to flatter me!

The corners of his lips twitched and he couldn't help but pinch her nose. He teased, "Are you trying to flatter me? I take bark what I said just new My Elly babe's EQ isn't that low

"Of course!" Noelle said proudly, "You are a great teacher. So I learn fast,"

Nicolas looked at Noelle's clever look. His heart melted even more. He bent down and hugged her tightly. He promised, "Elly babe, I will definitely protect you well."

JOkay!" Noelle also hugged Nicolas and buried her head in his chest. He snorted and said gloomily, "I believe you, Nick

The two of them cuddled in the car for a while.

Nicolas suddenly said, "Do you want to skip class in the afternoon? I'll bring you to eat something delicious

"Alright" Noelle could never say no to food.

She took out her phone and said. "Then I'll send a message to Harley and ask him to help me apply for leave"

Hearing Noelle mention Harley, Nicolas raised his eyebrows and asked, "Are you close with Harley?"

"Yup." Noelle nodded.

Then, as if thought of something, she looked away from the phone, tilted her head, and covered her mouth to snigger at Nicolas. Nick, are you jealous?"

Noelle had read in a book that men hated it when their girlfriends mentioned male friends in front of them.

Nicolas raised his eyebrows and asked, “Take a guess?”

“Another question? Noelle spared at Nicolas seriously for a while.

Seeing Nicolas’s calm expression, she pursed his lips and said dejectedly. “I don’t think so.”

She thought that Nick was mature, steady, elegant, and extremely smart. He must have seen through her intention to tease him at a glance, so he wouldn’t be jealous.

As soon as she finished speaking, Nicolas said, “Who said I won’t be jealous?”

“Huh?” Noelle was stunned.

was shocked again. “Nick, are you really jealoud”

“Yes.” Nacolas noilded affirmatively.

Noelle was still looking at him without blinking. I was just teasing you. I just wanted to see if you would be jealout”

“Yes, I know,” said Nick.

Then w

why are you jealoud Noelle was surprised.

Nicolas smiled faintly as he reached out and wrapped his arms around Noelle’s waist.

He looked into her eyes and said. “Didn’t I say? No matter how rational a nun is, he will be jealous when he bears his girlfriend say that she likes another man. This has nothing to do with rationality. It’s just that because he cares?

Noelle liked the answer.

She hugged Nicolas's neck with both hands and explained to him again with a smile, "Nick, I'm good friends with Harley! I like him as a friend. But I like you as a lover."

"Oh" Nicolas was a bit surprised that Noelle was able to differentiate the type of like.

Nicolas couldn't help but chuckle. He teased. "Baby, you know that there are many types of likes?"

"Of course!" Noelle raised her chin and said seriously. "Didn't I tell you! I'm very passionate about learning things that I'm not good at. You once said I was too young to understand what is like.

"Then, I found a lot of books to read. It said there's love between friends, love between lovers, and family love

Hearing the little girl's explanation, Nicolas smiled dotingly and asked, "Then can you tell which type of love you have with different people?"

"Sure," Noelle said to Nicolas with a smile, I saw a very easy to understand method of distinguishing them in a book!"

"How!"

Nicolas asked with interest

Noelle said seriously, "It's very simple! For example, I have no desire to sleep with Harley at all, but I have it for you! Therefore, I like Harley as a friend, and you as a lover. Useful, right?"

With that. Noelle even blinked as if she was waiting to be praised,

Seeing his baby say such words with an innocent face, Nicolas's emotions were rather complicated.

Indeed. Very useful.

She must have bought a lot of random magazines from the street stalls...

"Hahaha." Nicolas could not help but laugh out loud.

"Nick, what are you laughing at? Seeing that Nicolas was out of breath from laughing. Noelle was puzzled. I didn't tell a joke. Why is Nick laughing

After a while, Nicolas stopped laughing.

He hugged Noelle and rested his head on her shoulder. After taking a deep breath, he raised his head and smiles at Noelle again. "Baby, why are you so cute!"

“Huh?” Although Noelle also felt that she was super cute, she didn’t know why Nick suddenly said that

Before she could think clearly about this matter, Nicolas suddenly leaned close to her, kissed her cheek, and then said with infinite affection. “Your cuteness is killing me.”

Noelle was confused, thinking, “What? Am I so scary?”

She found it hard to understand Nick

On the other side. After separating from Noelle, Bennett rushed to their hospital’s branch in Reniam City.

Chapter 192

When he arrived at the laboratory, the medical staff inside immediately greeted him. “Doctor Anderson!”

Bennett also smiled and greeted him. Then, he asked, “I heard that the blood test results are out. How is it?”

James Brooks’s expression was usually excited as he said, “At first glance, this blood seems no different from regular blood, but when we tested it with advanced instruments, we found that its activity is more than a hundred times that of ordinary blood!

For instance, when typical human red blood cells are exposed to air, they lose their activity quickly. However, these red blood cells have a much higher endurance, maintaining activity for over ten times longer than regular cells?

“Heally” Bennett’s eyes flushed. I was right, Noelle is special.

Doctor An

Anderson, where did you find this blood? If this is published, it will cause a huge sensation in the world!”

Bennett glanced at him and lowered his eyelashes. Then he smiled.

1. “This is not stage and is a trade secret. I hope you can keep it a secret for now” the result of my research institute’s experiment. It’s still in the research “Hahaha, I understand” James was not stupid. He quickly said, “Doctor Anderson, don’t worry. I won’t tell anyone.”

“Yeah” Bennett smiled and asked, “What about the blood sample and the data report!”

James said, “The blood sample is in the freezer. The data report is on my lab table.”

“Very well” Bennett glanced at the documents on the experiment table and smiled at James. Til be staying in Reniam City these days. Dr. Brooks, can you lend me a laboratory?”

“Uh... We have to report this to the director first. It’s usually very difficult to approve it for a single doctor. However, if it’s you. Doctor Anderson, it’s just a matter of a word. I’ll tell the director. I should be able to assign you a laboratory today”

“That’s great” Bennen smiled. “Thank you.”

“Don’t mention it. It’s my honor to be able to help your As a genius in the medical field. Bennett had a high reputation James wished to build a good relationship with him

Bennett knew what James was thinking.

He knew that James was a smart person, so he handed this matter to him. He smiled. Til take the blood sample.”

“Alright, follow me,” said James.

At Atoraka–Nowedon Laboratory, the deputy manager was standing in Brandon’s office.

His expression was rather solemn as he reported, “Mr. Jones, just as you expected, there are some big problems with Bennett

“You asked us to send someone to keep an eye on him. Just now, our people reported that he had obtained the blood sample of test subject Noelle and had already sent it to the hospital for testing, Presumably, they already know the secret of Noelle’s blood.”

Brandon was sitting in his office chair, his chin on his hand.

He was twirling a fountain pen, looking relaxed

After a while, he said leisurely. “Bennett is very sharps. No wonder the laboratory wanted to recruit him back then”

Seeing that Brandon still had the mood to praise Bennett, the deputy deputy manager was extremely anxious.

He said, “If this continues, the secret of Experimental Noelle will definitely be exposed! Even if it will affect the mission, we have to kill Bennett prevent the secret of the laboratory from being leaked!”

Just as the deputy manager finished speaking. Brandon’s hand that was spinning the pen paused.

“Don’t do any thing to Henormt for now!

“Hal” The deputy manager was stunned and asked in confusion. “Mr. Jones, Hennett is already investigating Noelle’s secrets. Shall we let him

Brandon shed his braid slightly and rested his chin lazily.

Seeing that the depity manager was making such a fuss, he couldn’t help but smile and say leisurely, “Bennett is an elite genius that even the Laboratory wants. And according to the investigation, he’s currently specializing in biological brain research and development. If he can find al breakthrough research direction from Noelle, the laboratory will benefit from it.

WellThe deputy manager hesitated.

He said, “Indeed, even among the elites in the laboratory. Bennett is still a top talent. If he investigates Noelle, he might un uncover something new... However, isn’t this too risky? After all, Bermett isn’t from the laboratory. If he exposes the secret of Noelle’s body to the outside world, it could have a severe impact on the laboratory and violate the rules of the headquarters“:

“But he has to have a chance to publish it, right?” Brandon leaned against the back of the chair and crossed his legs.

The smiled and said, “Not to mention that Noelle is his sister, he has to consider the feelings of the Anderson family. Secondly, do you think that with his cautious personality, he would casually announce such an important thing? Unless he really reaches the last step, he can’t let outsiders know about Noelle existence in advance. And it is always easy for the laboratory to get rid of Bennell

The deputy manager let down his guard sligludy,

He smiled awkwardly and said, “Mr. Jones, that makes sense. Since you’ve made up your mind, we will let go of Bennett for the time being.”

“Yes, pay close attention to Bennett. Repon immediately if anything happens said Brandon.

“Yes, yes, I understand” said the manager.

“If there’s nothing else, you can leave,” said Brandon

Brandon stayed in the office. He held the communicates that connected to Noelle in his hand. After thinking for a while, he turned it on.

On the other end, after eating with Nicolas, Noelle’s stomach was full and she was satisfied.

Nicolas prepared to send Noelle back to school.

After Noelle got into the car, she hugged his belly and sighed. "Nick Tempura is really delicious. The food was fantastic:

Nicolas smiled and pinched her soft, pudding-like face. "If you like it, I'll bring you here again next time."

"Really!" Noelle's eyes lit up. She smiled at Nicolas and said, "Then it's a deal! I want to eat a lot more next time."

"As much as you want," Nicolas glanced at Noelle's round stomach.

She ate a lot. He found her out when her tummy was full. It made him want to touch

And he did..

"Eh?" Noelle looked down and saw Nicolas's broad palm on her stomach.

She blinked and looked up at him.

Nicolas teased, "People might think that you're pregnant with my child"

"Pregnant with your child?" Noelle thought for a moment. "If I want to have a child, we have to... Is Nick thinking about....

Noelle covered her mouth and sniggered, revealing a naughty expression, and said, "I know, you must be thinking about something now. You are so naughty"

Nicolas was lost for words, Baby. Come on!

At this moment, the necklace around Noelle's neck suddenly lit up.

Because the two of them were very close, Nicolas noticed that the necklace seemed to flicker with blue light.

(All) Noelle suddenly screamed and interrupted Nicolas

Then, she said to Bryan. "Bryan, please stop the car!"

Even so, she said. Parking was not allowed in this place.

Hayan hurriedly glanced at Nicolas through the rearview mirror, Nicolas acquiesced.

The car stopped by the road. Noelle quickly opened the door and said to Nicolas, “Nick, my stomach hurts a little. I need to use the toilet. I’ll be back soon. Don’t follow me.”

Nicolas looked away from the necklace on Noelle’s neck and smiled. “Go, I’ll wait for you here?”

Noelle said, “Okay!” As soon as she finished speaking, she disappeared with a swoosh.

Seeing Noelle’s speed, Bryan couldn’t help but sigh. “Mr. Sawyer, Miss Anderson’s speed is really amazing. She will definitely get a medal in the Olympics.”

Nicolas’s gaze was still fixed on the place where Noelle disappeared.

The corners of his lips curled up slightly as he said leisurely, “Just a medal? Then you underestimate her.”

“Huh?” Bryan was confused. “Have I underestimated Miss Anderson?”

Seeing that Nicolas had no intention of continuing the conversation, Bryan didn’t continue asking.

Even if Bryan did not know anything now, he could more or less sense that Noelle was different from ordinary people.

Don’t ask questions you shouldn’t ask. Curiosity killed the cat, he told himself.

Noelle ran into the jungle.

She looked around and after confirming that there was no one around, she took out the necklace from her neck and asked, “Who is it?”

Brandon chuckled and asked, “Noelle, who else do you think will contact you?”

“Brand!” Knowing that it was Brandon on the other side, Noelle immediately complained. “Why did you suddenly contact me! Nick was beside me just now. He probably saw the necklace on my neck flash!”

“Don’t worry.” Brandon smiled indifferently and said, “He is very s ly shrewd. If you don’t want to tell him, he won’t ask you.”

After Noelle heard this, she sighed and said, “That’s true,”

Nick was the most understanding. He never forced her to do any the next second, Brandon changed the topic.

He said with a smile in a very casual tone, “Besides, if he really keeps asking or tries to investigate the secret behind the necklace, you can kill him.”

hank god!...“When Noelle found this, she instantly heaved a sigh of relief.

Then Noelle pouted and complained, “Brand, seriously! Don’t scare me! I may have a heart attack”

Brambon slowly teased, “I don’t think an existence standing at the top of the human pyramid would have a heart attack?

Noelle sundled embarrassedly and said, “This is an analogy Brand, you have no sense of humor?”

With that, she asked curiously, “Speaking of which, Brand, why did you call me? Is there a new mission?”

“Yes, there is” Brandon said, “I want you to cooperate fully with Bennett serate with Bennen?” Noelle was puzzled. She asked again, “Why?”

Cooperate

Instead of answering, Brandon asked, “He cut your hand this morning, didn’t he?”

“Yup!” Noelle nodded. Then, she said in surprise, “Brand, you even know about this!”

“Are you very surprised?” Brandon said indifferently. “I know your every move, including when you and Nicolas were flirting...

“Ah!” Noelle screamed. ‘Oh no!

“Why are you screaming?” Brandon asked as if it was only natural. “You’re an important experimental subject in the laboratory. We naturally have to pay attention to your every move”

“Ugh. Noelle sounded gloomy.

Although what Brand said made sense, when she heard Itrand say that he knew that she was intimate with Nick, for some reason, she felt very uncomfortable.

Although she felt that something was wrong, Noelle could not resist.

She had been in the laboratory since she was conscious. The thought of “obeying orders” instilled in her by the laboratory was deeply ingrained.

“Never mind” She didn’t wa want to think about those unhappy things

Noelle shook her head and changed the topic. She asked, “Brand, why did you mention that Bennett cut my hand?”

Brandon continued to answer, “Do you remember what happened to the back of the knife that cut your hand?”

“Uh I didn’t pay much attention to that she had gone upstairs to change, and only Bennett was left downstairs.

Brandon said, “Bennett put the knife away and handed it over to the lab. Now they’ve run tests on your blood”

“What?” When Noelle heard this, her heart instantly jumped to her throat

She held the phone tightly and asked Brandon nervously, “Bennett tested my blood, to investigate the secrets of my body Brand, don’t tell me you want me to kill Bennett. Do you?”

Although Bennett was a little evil, he was her biological brother.

If Bennett suddenly died, her parents would be extremely sad.

Although she had interacted with the Anderson family just to complete the mission, Noelle felt that they were not had after spending a few months together.

If possible, she did not want to hurt her family.

Brandon immediately sensed the hesitation and retreat in Noelle’s words. He narrowed his eyes and smiled mysteriously. He asked softly. “Noelle, don’t you want to kill Bennen ?”

Chapter 194

Noelle pursed her lips and said in a low voice, “If the mission asked me to kill Bennett, I would do it, but..I prefer not to. Brand, must I kill Bennett Noelle was trembling with fear.

Brandon laughed and said, “Silly, Noelle, did you forget et what I said just now? I told you to cooperate with Bennett. Why would you think I want ho kill him!”

“Oh... Talmost forgot about that.” Noelle was so nervous just now that she forgot what Brandon had said at the beginning.

She exhaled and asked curiously, “So, Brand, are we going to let Bennett do whatever he wants? Aren’t you afraid that Bennett will I find out the secret of my body!”

Brandon said, "I'm worried, but he is your brother. Why would I ask you to attack him?"

"Brandon" Noelle was overjoyed. "Brandon is such a good person."

Brandon smiled and asked, "Noelle, do you like the Anderson family?"

"1... Hmm, I think I do. Noelle said, "Although they were quite cold to me at the beginning, they're all very good to me now! Mom and Dad care about me!"

"Although Eli is no

nosy,

he's very warm-hearted and takes good care of me.

Damon liked Leia more at first, but he is not especially biased now. If Leia did something wrong, he wouldn't help Leia target me anymore. Last time, I was injured. Later, I heard that he went all over the city to buy me tonics.

"Charlie is cold and indifferent, but he is the most reasonable person! He has principles, so it's easy to get along with him.

"As for Bennett... Well. I feel that I really can't understand him. I feel that Bennett is especially good and easy to get along with. But he even secretly took my blood for resting. As Nick and Charlie said. Bennett is super evil! But he's my brother after all, I'll try to make him a good person.

"I haven't had much contact with Adriel yet. I heard he is still overseas on a business trip. He won't be back for at least half a month. I'll see when the time comes!

Brandon patiently listened.

He closed his eyes slightly and thought to himself. The bond of kinship is gradually being established. The Anderson family is accepting Noelle. Noelle is also slowly approaching the Anderson family.

Noelle was very innocent. She would treat whoever was good to her well. And she never held grudges.

Brandon could not help but chuckle. It seemed that the time for the test was getting closer and closer. He was really looking forward to it

"Brandon?" Noelle spoke a lot, but Brandon did not respond. She could not help but ask "Why don't you speak

For some reason, in long in Brandon did not speak. Noelle would feel uneasy

Brandon came back to his senses and smiled at Noelle. "Noelle I'm very happy to see that you get along well with your family

“Although the Andersen family are not good people. In the beginning, they change gradually you are sincere to them, they will be the. I look forward to the day when you guys will be honed with each other”

Brandon told her, Noelle felt that Brandon would not order her to attack anyone from the Anderson family

She heaved a sigh of relief again and smiled at Brandon. Brandon, don't worry

I'll complete the mission

“okay” Brandon smiled, looking kind.

Noelle asked again. “Brandon, is there anything else!”

Brandon said. “No, I just wanted to inform you to do whatever Bennett asks you to do. The laboratory allows you to do so”

I know I cooperate with Bennett,” said Noelle.

“Alrich, go back then,” said Brandon.

“Okay, Goodbye. Brandon!”

“Goodbye. Noelle

After ending the call with Brandon, Noelle immediately returned to the car.

She smiled at Nicolas “Nick. Sorry to keep you waiting.”

“It's okay” Nicolas replied

gaze swept across and landed on the necklace around Noelle's neck. Then, he raised his hand as if he wanted to touch it.

This action frightened Noelle. She quickly blocked Nicolas and asked, “Nick, what are you doing!”

Seeing Noelle's nervous reaction, Nicolas was sure that there was indeed something wrong with this necklace. Perhaps it was related to

He smiled as he retracted his hand: “Elly babe I remember buying you some necklaces before, right? Why don't you wear them!”

“Necklace Noelle was stunned

She thought for a moment. That seemed to be the case gripped the necklace tightly and smiled awkwardly at Nicolas, saying. I still prefer this necklace. Hahaha..”

Oh!” Narolai raised his eyebrows.

“Yes” Noelle nodded crazily, as if the faster she nodded, the more credible it would be

However, in Nicolas’s opinion, her actions were simply trying to cover it up. Instead of dispelling his suspicions, it made it even worse. Little fool

He had taught her how to be calm but she failed to learn.

Since Noelle didn’t want him to know, Nicolas could only pretend that he didn’t know anything. He was afraid if he pressured her, she would avoid “Sigh. Nicolas sighed silently,

Then, he raised his hand and covered the top of Noelle’s head with his broad palm. He laughed and said, “If you like this necklace, wear it. I’ll prepare some earrings and rings next time

Chapter 195

“Okay.”“” Nerelle nodded and quietly looked at Nicolas

Seeing that Niskalad did not seem to pursue this matter anymore, she finally heaved a sigh of relief.

The next day.

After class Noelle was prepared to post the canteen with her classmates

Noelle, there’s a new chef in the canteen recently. The food is delicious. Yesterday’s crispy chicken was really amazing!

The girl who was walking beside Noelle described the food vividly, which made Noelle’s mouth watering, was about to drool. Her eyes lit up as she quickly asked. “Tina, is that crispy chicken really that delicious?”

“Of course!”

Tina Miller nodded heavily in affirmation. Then, she said regretfully. “But Noelle, you always go out to eat. You haven’t tried much food in the canteen. What a less!”

“Go go go! Noelle hurriedly said, “Let’s go to the canteen to cat today.”

Sure! Tina adjusted her glasses and said with a smile. “Til treat you today!”

“Aye!” Noelle was surprised. She looked at Tina and said, “Really? Thank you, Tina!”

As she spoke. Noelle went up to hug Tina.

Tina was one of Noelle’s first friends in the class. Previously. Noelle had a bad reputation and many students disliked her. But Tina had always been on her side. That was how they became friends

However, this time. Tina pushed her face to the side and said, Although I’m treating you to a meal, it’s not free”

“Huh?” Noelle was puzzled

Tina’s eyes sparkled as she said, “You’re good friends with Stanley from The Legend, right? Can you get him to sign some autographed photos for

“Again“” Noelle looked at Tina and asked, “Tina, you asked for a lot last time

Tina smiled and said, “Well, I’ve already given them away. Can I have more?

“Sure!” That was an easy task for Noelle.

Noelle said heroically, “Leave it to me. I’ll get you as many as you want?

“Really?” Tina’s

eyes lit up. I remember that. I’ll bring you a hundred postcards tomorrow. Remember to get him to sign all of them!”

Noelle’s mind was now on the crispy chicken. She smiled and said, “It’s a piece of cake! No problem!”

Stanley, who was still practicing his song in the recording studio, had no idea about this.

After eating in the canteen, Noelle was completely captivated by the crispy chicken

She said emotionally. Tina, you’re right. The crispy chicken is really delicious!”

“Of course, Why would I lie to you? Ta smiled and reminded her again, “Remember the autographes

“I know, I know!” said Noelle.

On the other end, Harley had just returned from a meeting at the

At this moment, a classmate teased, "Tina and Noelle are really close. They are together again?"

Harley had no impression of Tina.

Although Tina often surrounded Noelle, Harley's eyes were always glued to Noelle. He said, "That's nice. Noelle should have more friends in Harley did not have much of a reaction when he heard this. "So she made a little bit of money. What's wrong with that?"

"A little bit of money?" Hearing this, the student couldn't help but shake his head and smile awkwardly

Much for rich students like you, it's no big deal. Not for an average student, 3 thousand dollars is a lot of money. I heard that Tina's family background isn't good and she relied on the school's guarantee to be admitted to Exton University. The tuition fees, books, and accommodation fees are all waived, but even so, it seems that she still has sick relatives to take care of at home, so she thought of relying on this to earn money!

Harley even felt it was a motivating story.

He frowned and asked, "What are you trying to say? Can you just tell me?"

"Hey!" When the guy saw that Harley was still didn't understand, he did not know what to say.

He could not help but laugh. "Harley. Tina is a very utilitarian girl Noelle is innocent and naive. Money is:

is a small matter. Noelle treats her as a friend, but Tina is using her for money. Don't you think the problem is serious?"

The first few words did not attract Harley's attention, but the second part did.

He frowned and handed the notebook in his hand to the person beside him, saying "Help me take my things back to the dormitory. I'll be back later."

With that. He walked straight in the direction of Noelle.

Noelle was still reminiscing about the crispy chicken in the canteen and praised it again. The crispy chicken is so delicious! That skin was amazing!"

When Tina heard this, she smiled. "Noelle, do you miss it already? Then I'll treat you to another meal tomorrow!"

"Really!" Noelle smiled happily

However, very quickly, she looked at Tina warily and asked. Tina, are you going to make another request?"

"What are you thinking about Tina held Noelle's hand with a smile and said, "It's free this time."

After all, Noelle had promised to get 100 autographed photos of Stanley. In that case, she could earn at least 9 thousand dollars. Naturally, she had to serve Noelle well.

Noelle smiled, then stretched out two fingers and said, "I want to eat two chickens tomorrow

Tina asked, "Two? Can you finish them?"

Noelle was small, but her appetite was quite big

"Sure! Noelle said firmly.

Tim smiled. "Alright, as long as you can them

"Okay" Noelle had just agreed when her phone vibrated in her pocket. She took out her phone. It was a call from Bennett

Noelle was furious when she saw Bennett's name. 'Bad guy!'

She thought that he was easy to get along with, but he actually secretly took her blood for testing! Although Brandon said that it was fine, she was still angry just thinking about it. Since Bennett took the initiative to look for her, she had to settle the score with him!

As his sister, it was her duty to teach him. She must make him a good person.

She answered the call

Hennet's laughter came. "Noelle, are you at school now! I am at "Southern gate! Okay" said Noelle.

"Yes said Benneit

the stu

southern gate. I brought you a gift. Come over quickly."

Chapter 190

"Alricht, wait for me." Noelle hing tap.

She sand in Tina. "Tina, I'm going in the southern gate to meet Hennent. You can go back to the dormitory"

"Sure." Tus let go of Noelle's hand.

At this moment. Harley walked over and stopped Noelle. "Noeller"

"Harley!" When Noelle saw Harley, she also greeted him.

Harley said, "Norike, have something....

Before he could finish speaking. Noelle put her phone back in her pocket and said to him, "Harley, my brother is here. I need to go now. Let's talk

Imtec

She desperately wanted to settle scores with Bennett.

"Hub! Your brother?" Before Harley could Égure out what was going on, Noelle had already run away.

Harley and Tina stared at each other, The atmosphere was a little awkward.

Tina was the first to break the silence. She smiled at Harley and said, "Harley, I heard from Noelle that Bennett has something for her. So you need to wait for her. Ill leave now Tina Turned to leave.

However, just as she took a step forward, Harley said in an unfriendly tone, "Wait, I happened to be looking for you too

When Tina heard this, she turned around and looked at Harley in confusion. She pushed up the black-framed glasses she was wearing and smiled generously without any fear. "May I help you?"

Harley stared at her and frowned. He went straight to the point. “I heard that you’re selling autographed photos of the ‘the Legend“? Noelle treats you as a friend, but you’re using her to make money

Tina did not expect that Harley was here to stand up for Noelle.

She didn’t panic. Instead, she admitted frankly, “Yes, I asked Noelle to get me autographed photos of the ‘the Legend and then sold them. But I didn’t force Noelle. She volunteered to help me.

“Huh.” Harley sneered “You didn’t force her, but did you tell her that you made money with the autographs?”

Tina said calmly. “No.”

“Why didn’t you say anything? You don’t dare, right? Harley Sid foldly, Til tell Noelle about this. If you know what’s good for you, you’d better confess to her

He thought Tina would definitely leave in disappointment.

Unexpectedly, she smiled and said, “If you want to say it, go ahead! Do you think I’m afraid? Noelle is very innocent. As long as I explain to her, she will understand. Why should I listen to you and stay away from her? Harley, who are you to Noelle!”

Harley did not expect Tina to retort. His face darkened even more and he was about to speak.

However, Tina beat him to it. “You like Noelle, right?”

Harley was shocked

Tina smiled and said, “Do you want me to help you create opportunities for you and Noeller Of course, it’s not free. You need to pay”

“You...” Harley frowned. What a greedy girl”

However, Tina’s words had caught Harley off guard again. At this moment, he could not help but think. Should I cooperate with this woman!

Although he knew that it was hopeless, he had to give it a try

However, just as Harley was hesitating. Tina sneered, “Harley.

1. y. what were you

thinking about just now?”

Harley came back to his senses.

He saw Tina's delicate eyebrows raise and said teasingly, "Are you tempted! Do you want to work with me? Harley, you have your own selfish motives, so don't be a pot calling the kettle black. We're not innocent people, so don't use your moral standards to kidnap me.

"Tina. you..."

still have something on. Goodbye, Harley Tina left without looking back.

Harley lost completely

This was the first time he had been rendered speechless by a woman. He glared angrily in the direction where Tina had left and thought to himself. What the hell!"

Previously, Harley thought Tina was a bookworm. But to his surprise, she was sharp-tongued

He had underestimated her

Noelle ran to the south gate and saw Bennett

Noelle walked towards him angrily.

"What's wrong!! Who made you so good

Noelle was furious when she saw Bennett smile.

After taking a deep breath, she grabbed Bennett's wrist and led him in the direction of the car, She said, "Bennett, come over. I have something to tell you."

"What?" Bennett asked.

Noelle said, "Don't ask now. I tell you later

The two of them got into the car together. As they were not allowed to stop for a long time at the school gate, Bennett drove the car to a place where they could park

At this moment, he turned around and looked at the girl who had almost glared through him along the way.

Although he had a premonition, Bennett had never panicked since he was young. Therefore, he smiled and asked, “Noelle, can you tell me now??

Noelle went straight to the poin point. “Bennetil You took my blood for testing, right?”

Bennett was lost for words, “She knew it. But how? Did the organization behind her tell her Bennen pomered in his heart.

Noelle was angry because he did not respond for a long time. She stretched out her small hand in front of Bennett and shook it, saying, “Why are you in a dart Answer me! Am I right?”

Bennen also knew that this matter could not be hidden anymore.

But instead of being panicked, he managed to look innocent. He blinked at Noelle and said, “Norile, you already know. Why are you asking”

Noelle was speechless. Hour shameless! He admined it! He didn’t even bother to lie.

She angrily complained to Bennett, “Bennett, why did you do this? I trusted you so much, but you hurt me and even took my blood and tested it! You’re really too much! No wonder Charlie told me to be careful of you. You are not trustworthy.”

Seeing that, Bennett quickly took out the guilt he had prepared in advance.

He handed it to Noelle and said with a smile, Tim sorry, I’m sorry, Noelle, it’s my fault, okay! Look, I’ve realized that I made a mistake, so I brought this is for you “Really?” Noelle looked at the gift Bennett handed to her and asked doubtfully. “Bennett, do you really know your mistake?”

“Of course” Bennett nodded seriously and said, “It’s definitely wrong to secretly take your blood for testing without telling you in advance. Noelle. can you forgive me once?”

“Hmpl” Initially, Noelle was very angry.

However, when she s saw that Bennett apologized so nicely and even bought her a gif in order to apologize, half of her anger dissipated.

In addition, Brand had told her to cooperate with Bennett.

With this thought in mind, she seemed to have no reason to be angry.

Son't do such things without permission again. Bennett, you look like an honest guy. How can you do this? Noelle continued her lecture. Beameti apologized, "I am so so sorry. My little princess. Can you let me off?"

"Fine" Noelle took the gift from Bennett and said, "On account that this is the first time, I will forgive you

"Noelle. I knew you were the best," said Bennen.

"Don't flatter me!" Noelle continued, "In the future, you have to be an upright person, understand? Bennen"

you officially now,

"Okay, got it" Bennen narrowed his eyes and asked, "Noelle, you were angry just now because I didn't inform you. Then I'll tell you

That should be rosich, right?

"What?" Noelle was still busy opening the gift, so she asked casually.

Bennett's eyes flickered as he said, "Noelle, your blood is very helpful for our research. Do you think you can donate more blood to help my

Since the matter had already been laid bare, Bennett made his request openly.

He had secretly taken the blood for testing yesterday. And Noelle found out today. It was obvious the organization had planted spies around him. But they didn't kill him.

This meant that they had tacitly agreed to his research.

Since that was the case, he decided to make good use of the chance.

Noelle's hand that was opening the gift paused.

She looked up at Bennett and pouted. "I was wondering why you were so kind. Now I see!"

Bennett is very evil and utilitarian she thought.

However, Bennett looked innocent and sincere. "Noelle, what are you saying? Am I such a person in your eyes? I really want to apologize to you, so I bought you a gift."

“Really!” Noelle looked at Bennett with a probing gaze.

Bennett put on a bitter and helpless expression and said, “I know w that I have lost your trust, but Noelle, I really mean to apologize

Noelle stared at Bennett for a long time. She felt that if she didn’t believe him. Bennett would cry on the spot.

And it didn’t look like he was acting.

Hence. Noelle relented. “Alright, I understand. I’ll b

He was even worried she would be kidnapped.

Although he was worried, he decided to make the best out of the situation

Bennett asked Noelle with a smile, “So, Noelle, your blood

Because of Brandon’s reminder. Noelle agreed very quickly and said. “Sure. Since you want to study it, let’s draw blood. But do you have the tool?” She looked acrow. the car

She didn’t we any equipment.

Bennett was excited seeing that she agreed to readily.

He smiled cunningly and pushed his luck. “Since you are so cooperative, do you want to come to the research lab with me Mout 1” Noelle pouted unwillingly. She had classes in the afternoon.

However, Brandon asked her to cooperate with Bennett, so she posted and compromised. “Alright then. Bennett, is your research lab far away?”

Bennett smiled and said, “Not far. Well be there in 40 minutes.

“Okay” Noelle agreed. “Let’s go then.”

They arrived at the research lib.

Bennett quickly drew blood from Noelle.

He paid special attention to where the needle was inserted.

After drawing the blood, he realized that the mark left by the needle had completely disappeared. Some people would even have bruises after drawing the blood. Most people would at least have a small red dot

However, there were no marks on Noelle's body.

Benner's gaze moved down and landed on Noelle's right hand, where he had cut the previous morning.

He smiled and asked, "Noelle, can you show me your right hand?"

Noelle knew what Bennett was thinking.

She und

untied the gauze on her right hand and showed him her palm. She said, "Look, the wound is healed"

Bennet held Noelle's hand and looked at it. Sure enough, the wound had completely healed. There was not even a scar left.

This injury should take at least half a month to heal. And the scar would take few months to disappear Yet Noelle recovered within a day.

Noelle's healing ability was insane.

If this matter was discovered, Noelle would be taken away for research.

Bennet looked up at Noelle with a faint smile and said, "Noelle, were you with some organization in the past?"

Noelle didn't hide anything from Bennett.

She said truthfully, "Yes, ever since I was born and became conscious. I've been staying in Atoraka-Nowedon Laboratory. I was released when I was 17 years old"

Bennet guessed right.

He looked up at Noelle again, amused. "You told me about the organization so easily. Aren't you afraid that the organization will find trouble with you

"It doesn't matter." Noelle didn't care.

She even lectured Bennett instead, “Brandon asked me to cooperate fully with you. To be honest, Bennett, without Brandon’s permission, you could be killed if you investigate my secret so casually. You have to be careful!”

“Brand” When Bennett heard the name, he asked, “Who is Brand?”

Cliquer Ins

any boss and a good fiend”

Withine permission, you can tell ane your secret?”

Thow right. Brandon is the person-in-charge of the Asia-Pacific laboratory. He’s very powerful. Everyone has to listen to him?”

Tsee” A dark glist flashed across Bennett’s eyes

Noelle had been hiding from him the last time they met, but today, , she suddenly cooperated. It was because of the person behind her.

He wondered what was the person’s goal and why be allow him to investigate Noelle. “Maybe they encountered some problems and need my help in the investigation.

This reminded Bennen of the brain development project they hail set up at the beginning of the year, Since Moraka-Nowedon Laboratory knew that he was secretly investigating Noelle, they must hater investigated his identity thoughly. They must also know about his recent research.

Do they want me to use the brain technology to study Noelle? At the thought of this, Rennen felt a linle ironic.

The organization behind Noelle must have treated her as a “tool” or an “experimental subject“. Maybe they thought he would treat her the same way. That was why they trusted him.

i was impossible for Bennett not to let go of such a good resource. But it was weird to use her sister as a guinea pig.

Hennen, are you done?”

Noelle stared at Bennett and saw that Bennett had been sitting there in a daze. One moment, he was sinister, and the next moment, he was sneering. He looked as cunning as he could be.

For a moment, Noelle was having a headache.

one else in the Anderson family was as cunning as Bennett. She wondered if it was too late to correct him.

Bennell came back to his senses.

He saw that Noelle’s eyes were wide open and she looked a little silly, ignorant, and confused.

This little caf. She was supposed to be the little princess of our family. But she was used as a tool. It was probably because she had not established normal values when he was young that she was so foolish.

Maybe due to his remaining bit of conscience, Bennent suddenly leaned over and hugged Noelle. He touched her head and said pitifully. “Noelle. good girl. I will treat you well from now on “Huh?” Noelle, who was hugged, was shocked and suspicious.

Bennen was ugging and rubbing against her, which terrified her. “What is wrong with Bennett Why did he suddenly say such that?

Bennett hugged Noelle for a while. Then, he smiled at her and said, “Since you’re already here, why don’t you help me do another small experiment!”

“A small experiment?” Noelle blinked in confusion.

However, looking at Benment’s smiling face, Noelle felt that something bad was going to happen.

But she had no choice, because Brandon asked her to cooperate.

Therefore, Noelle agreed

After a w

while.

Noelle’s head was pasted with various special materials. She was quite familiar with them. When she was in the laboratory, the doctors in white couts had put many patches on her head.

It was such a torture that she wished she could die on the spot

Now that this thing was pasted on her head again, Noelle couldn’t help but recall the trauma of her childhood.

She shuddered violently

She looked at Bennett, who was busy with the equipment, and asked loudly, “Hennett, is this how you treat me?”

I hadn’t even been half an hour since he said he would treat her well.

“Different things” Bennett smiled at Noelle and said, “If you cooperate with any research, I’ll treat you well. These two things don’t conflict.”

““Yup” Noelle nodded honestly

At that time, Noelle was still young, so she cried and screamed when it hurt.

Her throat bled and she lost her voice. Her wrists, ankles, and neck were covered in blood-red ligature marks. Even the bandages were soaked in blood even so, she still couldn’t move,

At that time, she could only feel pain. Even death was too much to ask for.

Bennett saw that Noelle’s face had turned slightly pale. It was obvious that she had thought of something bad.

His eyes flashed. He let go of the device in his hand and walked to Noelle’s side.

He reached out and patted her head gently. He comforted her. “Be good, Noelle. Don’t be afraid. This doesn’t hurt. I am just giving you a simple

“Are you sure it doesn’t hurt? Noelle was skeptical.

Bennett nodded and smiled even more gently. “It doesn’t hurt. I promise you,”

After Noelle came down from the experiment table, she was still a little confused. Bennett walked to her side and said with a smile, “See, Noelle, I didn’t beat you, right?”

(“Yup!” Noelle’s anxious heart had just calmed down.

She exhaled and smiled brightly at him. She said with a smile, “It doesn’t hurt!”

“The experiment is over is over today, wait for me. After I pack the stuff, I’ll bring you to eat something delicious,” said Bennett, “want meat” Noelle immediately made her request.

Bennett smiled and flicked Noelle’s head. He said leisurely. “Of course, my little princess. Any meat you like. I can even get you human meat.

“Ah! Human, meat! Forget it... I don’t want prions” Noelle rejected him with a straight face, Seeing this. Bennett laughed out loud..

He pinched Noelle’s face again and said, “Noelle, why are you so cute!”

Noelle felt that her answer was quite serious. She didn’t understand why Bennett found it cute.

However, she never rejected compliments.

She raised her chin and said proudly. “Of course, I’ve always been very cute?”

“Hahaha. Bennett looked at Noelle’s smug expression.

He thought to himself. She is interesting!

On the other end. Noelle skipped class again,

It had only been two months since school started, and she had skipped up to 20 classes. Some students wanted to chat with her, but she wanted to be so envious. If it were anyone else who skipped class so many times, they would have long been criticized and expelled. Only Noelle is fine, isn’t this a privilege?” someone said with jealousy and envy.

However, after learning that Noelle was the arranger of “The Legend, many students became her fanatical fans,

So someone immediately defended Noelle, “If you can write a song that’s worth 30 million dollars commercially, you can also get so much preferential treatment from Noelle. Even the teachers turn a blind eye to it. So shut up.”

“That’s right, that’s right If you want to judge, you have to reach Noelle’s level first”

“I was just saying. You guys are on sensitive.” Then, that person left resentfully.

“Tina, do you know where Noelle went!” a student asked Tim

Many people knew that Tina had a good relationship with Noelle.

This afternoon, Tina brought Noelle to

Be to the canteen for lunch. So they thought perhaps she knew,

When Tina heard this, she looked up and adjusted her glasses. Then she said, “Noelle was taken away by her brother Hennest. Perhaps something happened at home.”

Leja, who had been eavesdropping, immediately lost her cool “What did you say? Nuelle was taken away by Bennet?” She suddenly stood up from her seat and questioned Tina.

Tina was shocked by Leia.

She calmed herself down and looked at Leia’s reaction. She regretted telling her classmate about where Noelle went, so she did not say anything to However, Lria was already certain that Noelle was taken away by Bennett, Bitch! Now she wants to take Hennett away from me. Is she trying to take imverything away from me?

Someone was dissatisfied with Tina’s words. “Tina, what do you mean? Aren’t you Noelle’s best friend? Why are you speaking up for Lear

Tina met the person's gaze. She said, "I'm just telling the truth. If your words reach Leia's ears, she would hate Noelle even more. You guys are really quick-witted. What did Noelle get except for hatred?"

Tina's words made sense. The students looked at each other for a while and left.

When they left, they even whispered indignantly. "Tina acted protective of Noelle. But she is just using Noelle to earn money?"

"Noelle is 100 stupid to be her friend"

"We need to let Noelle know."

Chapter 200

On the other side When Leia traced the comer, he immediately called Bennent.

She wanted to ask Bennett what was going i

mil if he was with Noelle

Initially, when she saw that many students were dissatisfied with Moelle's truancy, she thought that she could use it to make a fum. She didn't expect Norfle's brainless fans to utiquam. They didn't even give her a chance to speak. She never saw anyoor to aggressive

She hated Noelle for taking away what could have belonged to her.

She decided if Bennett suddenly treated Noelle well, she would never forgive him.

Soon, Bennett answered the call.

Bennett's gentle voice came through Leia, what's the matter?"

Bennen, are are you with Noelle now! Leia went straight to the point.

Bennett paused for a moment before he admitted with a smile, "Yes, Noelle is with me now. We're eating. Have you finished class? Do you want to come along!"

When Leia heard that the two of them were really together, she was instantly furious and could not listen to anything she

She questioned almost hysterically, Bennett, how could you eat outside with Noelle? Have you ever thought about my feelings

Bennett listened to Leia's shrewish roar. After a moment of silence, he laughed and said, "Lela, Noelle, and I are just having a meal outside. Do you have to make such a fuss?"

Now he is talking like a scumbag. Lela was angry and aggrieved.

She gritted her teeth and said. “Didn’t you say that I’m your favorite sister? Then why did you bring Noelle to eat without me? Bennett, do you still think that’s fair?”

Bennett was innocent. “But you were in class”

Leis asked, “Dons Noelle have no class!”

Bennett smiled. “But Noelle has special privileges. She’s the arrangement teacher of the popular band. Even the famous song of Reyna was written by her. No matter what she does, the school will turn a blind eye to it. What about you, Lela? Do you think they would treat you the same? I am doing this for your sake.”

She wondered if Bennet had said that on purpose, every word was an insult to Leia. She was so angry that her heart was bleeding.

If it weren’t for Noelle, Reyha’s career would be over.

If it weren’t for Charlie, she wouldn’t have been frozen by Lighting Media.

Leis thought it was all their fault. Without them, she would have been a famous pop star instead of being a nobody. Even her classmates looked down on her.

“Bennet, do you like Noelle more now!” After an unknown period of time, Leia suddenly asked.

Bennett smiled and said, “Leia, Noelle is my biological sister. How can I not like her? But this doesn’t mean that I don’t like you. I don’t like y Jealousy. I’m not your item. I have my own choler, right?”

On the other end. Bennett looked at the black screen of the phone, and his lips curled into a cold smile.

Beside him, Noelle was still eating happily. She had no idea what they talked about on the phone and she didn’t care.

Bennett turned around and glanced at her, “What a foodie! he thought.

Then Hennett approached Noelle and asked her with a smile. “Noelle, do you hate Leia?”

Yes Hearing this, Noelle glanced at him.

After swallowing the drumstick, she said frankly, “She’s quite annoying. She’s always targeting me and coveting my Nick. I don’t like her!”

Bennett uniled. He held his chin with one hand and looked at Noelle. He asked with a casual smile, “Twill help you get rid of her, okay?”
