

Uzumaki: I can comprehend anything

Chapter 10 - Element Enchantment Potion

"I can't still understand, how can they use such powerful Jutsu that require Blood limit with just having a corresponding Element?"

"Actually it's not that easy, Blood limit are DNA anomalies that allows people to have more powerful Element than the typical normal one." Xin said.

"All Blood limit can't pass or replicate, this is truth but not after I finish my Element Enchantment Potion."

Xin take out a colorful potion and place it on the top of the table.

"Each color represents one type of element, drinking will give you a huge boost on your own element."

"And if you asked how can those I choose use the Jutsu that need Blood limit? Well, they just need higher element level."

"Base on my study, there's five level of elements on each one type of element that our human body can have."

"The normal level is 1, this is the level when you can perform Genin Type Jutsu, at same time this is the highest level a Ninja can get for lifetime."

"Level 2 is Chunin and just like level 1, the highest achivmoyou can have in this level of elements is Chunin."

"Level 3 Jonin, and Special Jonin, this is the highest for all Non-Blood Limit person can reach, and for those lower Clan who only weak Blood in their veins."

"Level 4 Kage, or Shadow Level, the highest that any Human, Civilians or Blood Limit can reach, this is also the level of the Hokage right now."

"Lastly is the highest, Level 5, this is the level of elements God of Ninja, Hashirama Senju and Shura, Madara Uchiha has, on that level, Rank C Jutsu can become powerful as Rank A because of the level of the elements they have."

"Of course, that includes the Chakra reserve individual have, so even if you have level 5 Element but you only have Chunin Level Chakra, it was still useless."

"Then what about us Uzumaki?"

"Great Elder, it seems you have forgotten, we are Uzumaki, we have abnormal chakra reserve so this kind of thing is impossible for us."

They all look at the potion and can't wait to have a try, looking at them, Xin did not let them wait, he take out dozens of potion and distribute it to everyone.

Without single question, one by one they take it, this made Xin feel happy, this show they trust him unconditionally.

"This!?"

"Amazing!"

"My Chakra!"

Not even a minute past when they consume the potion, each of them feel the huge change in their body.

"Here take this, this stick can measure your element level."

Xin pass a dead branch to them.

"This? How can we use it?"

"Inject your chakra and add your element, the change to the branch will show the level of the elements you have."

One of them take it the fallows Xin description.

Swish!

The dead branch suddenly trun bright, this huge change made the elderly drop the branch.

"Hmmm.... The branch instantly turn into burning coal, it's level 4." Xin then take the stick, inject his own chakra and extinguish the burn form it.

"Who's next?"

"Let me."

Another one try and the branch start to become fresh again, it's like a newly cut branch from a tree.

"Water Element 4, there's also Earth Element 3."

"How can you tell?"

"See this small sprout? That's the indicator that the Earth Element is on Level 3, the moisture comes from Water, right now Second Elder has Mid Rank Wood Release, but in his condition he can only perform Low Rank Wood Release."

"... WHAT! WOOD RELEASE!!!"
