#Chapter 11: Training Program - Read Uzumaki: I can comprehend anything Chapter 11: Training Program

Chapter 11 - Training Program

"That's right, Wood Release is the product of Earth Release and Water Release, combined by huge amount of Life force and Chakra you can create Wood Release."

"Of course, this is the perfect combination of Senju Wood Release and all that is below the requirements is all directed version of Wood Release."

"But base on Second Elder's Level 3 Earth and Level 4 Water, at same time Level 4 Chakra and abundant amount of Life force, his Wood Release can categories as Semi Perfect Version."

"I see, but even I can't use Wood Release, the effect of two combine element gives me a huge amount of boost on my own Vitality." Second Elder said.

"Wood Release is not only for fighting, Wood Release is also not just the signature moves of God of Ninja but also the symbol of longevity, after all Wood Release User can live longer than us Uzumaki."

"Wood Release famous for its power to Manipulate, Suppress, and Absorb, and right now Second Elder got the Absorb Power of the Wood Release."

"That is enough for me, Absorb Power is something that even eight now don't know by everyone, we can use it as trump card in case of emergency."

"By the way, what is the level of your element Little Xin?" The Clan Leader curious asked, he cant feel anything from Xin except the abundant amount of Chakra in his core.

For sure with his knowledge he will not choose to become ordinary right?

"Me? I have rare Five Elements, and using my knowledge I managed to get level 4 to each of my elements... "

"..."

"... Level 4 on Chakra capacity... "

"....."

"... Level 4 in Vitality, that means if I don't die premature, I can live until 100+ years old without any problem."

"... What a monster." They all thought, with such qualifications, if he really doesn't drop bead in the middle, their Uzumaki Clan will surely give birth to another and more powerful God of Ninja.

"Okay, let's prepare the other clan members who don't have chakra for their own training."

"You mean Taijutsu?"

Taijutsu is a basic form of technique and prefers to any technique involving Martial Art it Hand to Hand combat.

Of course, only those who don't have qualification to become Ninja choose this kind of training as theirs no other options for them.

"Here is the Taijutsu Technique I prepare and the training program for them."

Grand Elder take the paper and start to look for it.

"Iron Man Body Building Technique?"

While looking at it, Grand Elder can't help but look pale seeing the process a person need to accomplish to complete the program, the process is bloody and super hard that not only test the physical strength of any individual but also the mental strength of each of them.

"Is this really good? I feel this training program is a way to die."

"Don't worry Grand Elder, the training program is tried and tested by the other so there's no problem with it."

"The only real challenge they will going to face is the hardship they need to experience, if they are not willing to undergo to such difficult challenge they are going to fail for everything."

"Only those who have will to move forward will be left behind while those who lazy is left to cultivate the field."

"And besides, they already chosen, I'm sure they will bite their lips to complete all the training program I prepare."

"And also, they will going to experience the Time House so there's no way they will not going to be strong."

"Can we also follow them?"

"Sure, follow them, but entering is same as accepting the training program so better be prepared."

"We are fine, by the way, this Uzumaki Taijutsu Technique?"

Chapter 12 - Preparation

War Game

This is not a kind of game that anyone can play, this is type of game huge countries like to play when the population is getting higher.

That's right population, one of the reasons why there's war and why country start war.

War in Thai world is not all about being conquer or being push but it's all about number of population and the number of resources a country or village has.

Base on Xin's observation, every 20 years war start, the reason is different but there's only thing that eliminate in process.

People, the higher and the large population a certain country and village has, the higher chance war start.

War is one of the way to eliminate the source of problem of every country.

The larger the population a single village has, the higher the resources consumption they need to pay.

And this consumption will get higher and higher until each village start to feel hungry and this will trigger a war.

War is not just showing the power of each country or group or a certain cult, War is a way to eliminate the source of problem for each village, at same time to eliminate any potential problem on their own village or group.

After all, a death on a war is nothing to anyone, there's no investigation or findings, death means your dead.

Right now Uzumaki Clan don't expirience such problem, and even they have problem with such topic, the abundant of resources around is enough to feed a huge nation easily.

At same time, the number of people in the country and the size of the country gives Uzumaki Clan huge advantage when it comes to war.

Because the smaller they have, the higher chance they can escape, the smaller the place they have, the smaller damage they will get

It just so happens that the country of Uzumaki is a small island country, because they have relatively small in population, they only occupied small island so defending will going to be easy.

"With this as the boundary, all the Ninja of the Hidden will be attracted here."

Putting to a In area on the map, the greenery here is good, and there are forest everywhere, which can be used as natural barrier to block the steps of the hidden Mist Village.

At the same time, hide the people, add camouflage clothes, use the new Jutsu they created, and the fantastic geographical advantage to fight them, this will eliminate any waste of resources and manpower while having the highest protection.

Moreover, residential area, commercial areas, and other place are emptied, they can demolished it at same time for the new plan they going to implement after the war

"I believe that after seeing you his scene, the Hidden Mist Village will realize that something is wrong and send someone to look for it, but it doesn't matter, the Shadow and CP will going to move to infiltrate them."

Uzumaki Xin pointed to the map of Uzumaki Kingdom and said." Everyone remember that the enemies advance is the signal when we going to retreat, when the enemies finish harassing us and get tired we start to fight."

"When they retreat we will chase, and use the familiar terrain to block their escape."

Looking at them he continues." I'm not going to use the Kage Level Ninja, this war will going to be our Kingdom War Building Exercise, the outcome of the war will dictate what kind of upgrade the whole Clan need to step in."

"What I want to see is to win, getting hurt is acceptable while getting killed is the last thing I want to see."

"I come up with such shameless tactics to see the overall cooperation of the whole family, This is a game but same time a test for each of you, and don't try to fail me or else you will get punished, something that no one every want to try."

"Is everything clear?"

"YES!"

"Good! Let's all start moving, based on the spy, the enemies will arrive five days later, they are coming from three directions so I'm hoping they will face not just the Uzumaki Clan but the newly improved Uzumaki Clan!"

"Yes!"

"Dismiss!"

Chapter 13 - Plan

Five days later, near the coast of the Uzumaki Kingdom.

"Where are they now?" Xin asked.

"Five nautical miles from us, the Hidden Mist Village will arrive first."

"Number of enemies?"

"There are ten ships they are using, each ship contained 67 people, based on the report, there are 450 Genin, 150 Chunin, and 7 Special Jonin or includes the chefs and captain of the ship."

"Do you have any information about those 7 Special Jonin?"

"They are the Seven Ninja Swordsmen of the Mist"

"Oh? They actually send their hidden force?"

The Seven Ninja Swordsmen of the Mist was an organization that the Hidden Mist produced. There can only be seven members at a time hence the name.

The swords of the seven swordsmen are passed down from generation to generation, and together, the Seven Swordsmen are capable of bringing down an entire nation, regarded as being the strongest Shinobi in the Hidden Mist Village.

There is a news that these seven swordsmen can kill a Kage Level Ninja with only using their sword, with their combination and the unique ability of their sword, they are considered deadly on the battlefield.

"Send ten CP0, don't let them step on our land, try to catch everyone and kill those who want to fight back."

"And also, tell Lucci to retrieve the Seven Great Swords, I want to see if we can replicate them using our current technology."

"Yes!"

"Next is the Hidden Sand that consists of 300 Chunin, and 5 Jonin and Special Jonin."

"Hidden Cloud have 500 Ninja with 10 Special Jonin Leader."

"The rest is just random Ninja Village who koin the fun."

"I see, what about the Konoha?"

"Base on the eyeliner of us in the Konoha Village, there's 5 people left days ago, they are mixed of Jonin, Chunin, and Genin. Base to their direction they are coming towards us."

"Monitor them, use the Vision Jutsu to record all their movement, call Shadow 9 to complete this mission, my only requirement is to see what their really mission coming to us."

"Copy."

Xin then look at the small army behind him.

"As I want you guys to train longer to gain more strength to survive but our enemy is already front of our door, remember, if you can't beat, just run, there's nothing to feel embarrassed in front of stronger than you, being smart can make you live even longer."

"Being alive is useful than a cold corpse in the morgue, so don't be proud, stay low, and use your head when fighting." Xin said solemnly, mainly the overall number of enemy is greater than their own population so they need to play smart.

Kushina come back with her new assistant, they follow by group of people who carrying boxes.

"Brother Xin, here is the goods."

"Open it."

They open it and the content finally show, a set of uniform and weapon.

"Adamantine Garment, a set of Ninja Costume, made from Metal Bending and put own unique Adamantine Chain, well you can consider it like Chakra Blade but armor and harder than chakra blade."

"The set of uniform consist of Long Pants, Long Sleeve, Under armor, Outer Armor, Shoulder guard, Arm Guard, Flat shoes, dark green jacket, mouth cover, and head protector."

"Each of you can take one sword, short or long samurai sword, ten kunai, the detonate talisman, first aid kit, and lastly is your own Life Stone that you need to leave before going out." Kushina proudly said.

"This?" The Precious Clan Leader take one box complete set of everything they need and weigh it.

"So light? How can all of this is lightweight?"

"Adamantine Metal is lightweight, super tough and durable, and lastly is you can withstand a full power B Rank Jutsu without any problem."

"This!"

"Isn't this to over power for a set of clothes?"

"Not really, this is the basic type of combat equipment I prepared, you can wash it after using it, can dry fast, at same time you can use different elements to change the color of the clothes to blend to different elements around."

Everyone get one each of set, they wear and try it, and to their surprised it's actually stylist and looks cool.

Wearing it makes them look like a elite group, the vibe they giving is so intimidating even those who see them feel fear.

"The enemies is near, go to your own position, follow your leade r command, and don't die for me, understand?!"

"Yes!!"

"Disperse!"

Swish!

Chapter 14 - Darkness of Konoha

"When you guys went ashore, buried all Detonating Talisman there, give them a good start, don't worry about our consumption, the last thing we need to worry is money and resources."

Dare to come to their country and invade, they really not afraid getting killed, only by showing their power will wake up those foolish people what kind of people they are facing.

More importantly, the Detonating Talisman of Uzumaki Clan is know for the abnormal amount of power that can easily injured any Genin Ninja.

"By the way father, did you brought the letter to Grandma Mito?"

"Yes."

"Did Grandma reply?"

"From the report of Fourth Elder, Master Mito want to send people to help us but Anbu stop them sending people, they said that the frontline need more people so they can't send anyone to help us."

"They can only send people after the army of other village dispersed, and they can only send couple of people to help."

"No need to talk to them, those hypocrite people only know how to hit and weakened their own village, Sarutobi become Politician so he will do anything to hold his power."

"What do you mean Little Xin?" Clan Leader confused asked, he can't understand what Xin talking.

"Simple, he want the whole Konoha for his self, see this." Xin take out stacks of paper and show it to him.

The Clan Leader took it and carefully read, after few minutes his expression is shockingly pale whole sweating.

"..... Is this true?"

"CPO already check, so what written on it is true."

"..... But.... Is Sarutobi is not afraid Mito-sama discover this?"

"Discover? That's impossible, and even Grandma Mito discover it, so what? It's already late right?"

".... Yeah.... It's already to late..."

Looking at the report, the Clan Leader know that it's already to late, the report is date back when the war is getting hotter and hotter, the same time when the Konoha asked for reinforcement.

"What about Princess Tsunade? I know her, she will blow out if she see this."

"She? Well, she is down right now, the last Young Patriarch died idiotically stepping on a Detonating Talisman, his organ even missing." Xin can't help but to smirk saying this.

Seeing his weird expression, the Clan Leader can't help but to slap his head and angry reprehend him.

"They still our friend, how can you smirk on someone's misfortune?!"

"I'm not." Xin retort.

"Then remove the smirk on your face first!"

"Well, I just remembered something funny."

"?" The Clan Leader can't still understand what he is thinking, maybe this is the way genius think, weird and confusing.

"The darkness of Konoha is nothing from what you seeing with your eyes, those gentle eyes looks good outside but deep inside they are viper haze waiting to trike."

"The Konoha of Senju is different from the Konoha of Sarutobi, that bad old man is not gentle as you think."

"Combine with his Elder friends, the four of them already control vast majority of Konoha."

"Really?"

"Do you know what I discover from Konoha?"

"What?"

"Sarutobi Family and the other Elder Clan actually have almost 6000 Ninja reserve on their own, and right now they are being keep in the Daimyo."

The Clan Leader's face turn shocked hearing such news, the Hokage asked for help because they having large casualty but who knows they actually hide their own major force.

Chapter 15 - Shadow First Fight

Two nautical miles away, the Hidden Mist Ninja discover a strange group standing on a top of huge floating ice.

They are looking at them as if they are waiting for their arrival, seeing this the Seven Swordsmen appear and look at them.

"Who are you? And why are stopping the Hidden Mist Village expedition!?" One of the leader arrogant shout.

"Can't you see this? Are you blind?" The twin jump in front and pointed the Uzumaki Clan Mark on their shoulder.

"Captain, thats theatk of Uzumaki, it seems they want to ambush us here."

"Ambush us with only ten people?"

"Did you come here just to send your head of?"

"No, we come here to meet you guys." Kizaru lazy said

"Captain I don't like the look of that stupid man, he looks like a monkey."

"Alala, that's bad, you can't just calling anyone Stupid Monkey ~." Aokiji helpless said.

"Aokiji I feel that you cursing me!"

"Really?"

"Stop taking stupid things and leta start this!" Akaino push the two of them away and his arms start to melt turning into molten lava.

"Hey Akaino, please hold back okay, the ice will melt by your lava!"

"Shut up!"

"Magma Release: Meteor Volcano!"

Bang!

Bang!

Bang!

Akaino pinch upward sending bunch of lava rock in the air creating a trail of black smoke up in the sky.

"Hey! Is that Molten Release? Is that new Blood limit? But even it look cool the user seems stupid."

But he did not expect what comes next, up above the molten rock the Akaino send start to fall down like Meteor.

The molten lava start to rain down towards the ship of Hidden Mist Village.

"Not good! Block it!"

"Water Release: Water Ball!"

"Water Release: Great Waterfalls!"

"Water Release: Water Spray!"

Different kind of Water Release fly above the sky hitting the meteor above to try to block it, but it's useless, the meteor comes from above and being pull by the gravity so the power comes from it easily destroy all Water Jutsu.

"Jump in the water!"

Seeing this, everyone jump down to escape, and what comes next is great catastrophe.

Bang!

Boom!

The meteor above hit the ship instantly sinking half of them killing so many of the Genin who fail to jump.

Kizaru look at them jumping in the water, seeing this he can't help but to shake his head.

"This idiot, did you know mo lten rock can boil water?"

"Want to invade us? What foolish idea."
