

Uzumaki: I can comprehend anything

Chapter 16 - Light Release

Five minutes later only the Seven Ninja Swordsman left standing in the water, but even though they escape, there's countless of burn mark on their body showing how powerful the attack just now.

"It seems your capable, i thought I can kill you with just one move." Akaino disdain said making the swordsman burst in rage.

"It seems our name is not so famous that a country bumpkin like you don't know us."

"He? Do we still need to know the name of dead people?"

"Arrogant! Let's do it! Kill them!"

"Kill"

With same gesture, they perform a super long and powerful Jutsu.

"Water Release: Water Dragon Bullet Technique!"

"Oh? They actually choose which long casting Jutsu consist of Fourth four hand seal?"

"They are good, they can release it using only fourteen hand seal."

"Let me deal with this."

Aokiji deeply sight creating a cold air around his body, looking at the five great water dragon, he pointed his finger forward.

"Ice Release: Ice Age!"

Crack!

From the top of his finger, a frozen ice come out and lunch towards the dragon, and when his ice touch the dragon it instantly frozen it creating a five huge lifelike dragon.

"What! How can you create a Jutsu without hand seal!"

"And you! That Ice Release! Are you from Yuki Clan!?"

"How can you defect!"

"Kill him? Bring his head back to village!"

"That's right!"

"Alala~ Yuki Clan? Sorry but I'm pure Uzumaki Clan, and I don't have any relationship to the Ice Clan."

"Do we look stupid! You clearly using the Ice Blood limit!"

"Nevermind, let's move, we still have a clan need to exterminate!"

"Yes."

"How scary ~ did you ever kick by speed of light?"

Kizaru out of nowhere appear behind them and with shining leg he lock one of them hitting the head and bursting it like rope tomato.

"Ah~ so weak? How can your head so fragile like biscuit?"

"Ah! Miyamoto! Damn you!"

"Water Release: Sword of Draining!"

"Water Release: Water Sword!"

"Water Release: Choking Fog!"

"Water Release: Hidden Mist Skill"

"Ah? Do you want to gank me? So scary ~" Kizaru's annoying voice made the remaining Swordsman angry.

Pointing his finger on one of them, his finger shine.

"Light Release: Laser!"

Psst!

The light come out from his finger and hit the youngest of the swordsman killing him in process while he escape using pure speed.

Chapter 17 - First Encounter

"Captain Ren, so you think the Young Patriarch's method is really useful?" One of the Ninja asked with face full of worry.

Now that the situation is like this, can they really protect the Uzumaki Clan? You have to know that the other party comes from different bigger village, they have several or more powerful Jutsu.

Although they are prepared, they can't still feel confident, after all they know that the Ni ja from the five great village is more powerful than them.

"It possible!" Uzumaki Ren said seriously." Because we can't lose, and we never going to lose."

Yes, they can't lose this war, absolutely can't lose even once.

Family, relatives, and the people will die if they lose, and everything they have will get by the other village as loot.

Everyone was silent.

"Don't be discourage, pull up your face." Uzumaki Ren slightly smile.

"Believe in Young Master, he is the Patriach now, and on his name we will definitely win."

Seeing the serious look at their Captain, they can't help but to feel less nervous, they prepared for couple of days for this, and now they need to face the greatest test for them.

Ether lose and die or win victorious.

"Now, did everyone of you Master Multiple Shadow Clone Technique? And how about the Detonating Talisman the other prepared?"

The Captain looked at each other asking, this is the only thing they can Master for such small period of time so they need to not to fail.

Under the arrangement of Xin, each team leader first translate ninjutus to each of them, they need to teach everything they need to know and ensure that every will know even though they don't Master it.

"We will use the Art of War that Young Master told us, I'm face of number, brain should be the first thing we need to use."

"Being hot-blooded idiot is dangerous in our situation, use everything you have to defeat the enemies, try to minimize the lose or if possible try not to lose."

"The resources you have is your great asset, use it wisely and try to follow the command to prevent any misshapen."

"Yes!"

"According to the information sent back by the spy couples of day's ago, the other Village fleet is coming towards this direction, and it is estimated that it will start within tow days."

Uzumaki Ren take out a tube like object and put his right eyes into it while start searching.

"The spy is right, they are preparing to camp, I can see they are putting their resources down whol other start to create their base."

"Captain, they are already step on our island, are we going to start now?"

"Shut up DiGa!" Ren angry said." Remember, as a Ninja, you need to be aware and ready on any mission, you need to gather information first then prepare a proper plan to execute the task."

"Okay, I know, anyway there is no one else here, no one will hear us."

"Attention!" Captain Ren warn.

Everyone suddenly become stiff and hols their own weapon.

"We start the first raid, be ready."

"Go!"

"Multiple Shadow Clone Technique!"

"Multiple Shadow Shuriken Technique!"

Suddenly the sky turn black, because of the amount of Shuriken flying above the whole place seems become dark.

And because of the change, the enemies finally notice them.

"Enemy attack!"

"Too late, explode for me!"

Boom!

Chapter 18 - War Map Jutsu

Inside of the Clan Building, Xin and the other Elder is closely looking at the map on the top of the table.

On the map is the detailed information of the whole Uzumaki Kingdom, and on the top of it is two different colored dot.

Green and red

Green represent the Uzumaki Clan, and the number of green around the map represent the number of Uzumaki.

On the other side is the red dot, repressing the enemies position and the number of the enemies left.

What more amazing is how such complete and detailed map can show this kind of situation.

"Amazing, how did you make this?"

Xin reply." The green dot is simple, each one of the clan members bind their blood into the life crystal that I created."

"The Life Crystal is a device to monitor the friendly target position at same time report the owner of the crystal the current condition of them outside."

"With this, we can check who need help, the position, and the amount of damage they got from the encounter."

"While the red dot is pretty hard, they are live being spy by the drone that I created on a figure of small paper bird."

"Controlling the paper bird need to have level Yin and Yan Element, at same time Grandmaster Rank Detection to create such perfect view of the whole field."

"Amazing, such sophisticated ninjutus with such great usefulness, if anyone can get this, the whole war will going to become more easy."

"That's right, but also the nemesis of anyone who want to invade us, such well design and accurate map can dictate the whole movement of the war."

"This is best if we can send information into the field using what we seeing right now, we can prevent more sacrifice if that's the case." The Clan Leader said.

"We can send some of our fastest Ninja to send messages back to the war zoi, it's sadly that we never try to tame or get summon beast that can fly fast."

"No need to think, I already come up with a solution for this kind of problem." Xin said to them.

"What solution?"

"Using Code, combination of Wind and Thunder Release, I create a high frequency ninjutus that send code that all leader of each group can understand."

"Amazing! A one time call to any part of the field!"

"It's not that great, there's still limitation, I can only send to a certain amount of distance, and at same time you need to have e Grandmaster Rank Chakra Control or else you will send nothing back to the people on the field."

They all look at Xin like a monster, Grandmaster Rank Chakra Control is something that not easy to accomplish, not even the Clan Leader can perform such amazing thing.

Much more he going this while doing something different.

"By the way, how many group still not arriving?"

"Actually all the Ninja from five Great Ninja Village is not here right now, of course except for the Hidden Mist Village who being ambush by the Shadow."

"And also the fight on the other side is already ended."

"So fast!" They was shock, how can a fight so fast, normally it takes long hours or even day just to finish a fight.

"What's the result?" One of the elderly curious asked.

"Everyone died, some of the enemies are wounded but they choose to sink in the bottom of the sea than getting caught by us."

"From ten ship we got 3 that is partially damage, 2 that is still good, with huge amount of resources that is never been used."

"Amazing!"

"Casualty 0, we also retrieve the Seven Ninja Sword as spoil of war."

"Good! Good!"

Chapter 19 - Konoha Reinforcement

"What the hell happened?"

A Ninja wearing Konoha's head protector frowned and looked at the island across the sea and whisper." Why is there always a loud noise here?"

"Master Nata, don't you really need to send troops to help Uzumaki Country?"

One of the Konoha Ninja said unbearable." Didn't we have agreement made by Master Mito?"

Nara Suzo stretch out his hand and said lightly." It's not that I don't want to help, but it's not time, wait a while."

As for the real situation is like, he doesn't care to say it directly.

The Elder of Konoha want to inherit the legacy of the Uzumaki Clan, do they wait until Uzumaki Clan is almost dead before they take action, even...

Glancing a few masked people in the dark, he can feel it, they are from Root, and he fully understand what kind of mission this Root Ninja do, and that's so dark that he don't want to get involve.

These people are here to kill!

Once the Uzumaki Clan escape with too many people, they will take action. Because there are too many people, how can Konoha inherit all of the property of Uzumaki?

As long as there are few children left by the Uzumaki Clan, Konoha can adopt them in the name of being friend of Uzumaki Clan, and then use the Uzumaki Clan Orphan to keep the legacy of Uzumaki.

That's the reason.

Yes, it is worth of being able to become Village Ninja, to take up the position of the Hokage, one need to do everything even if you need to betrayed the person who help you

Nata Suzo sighed and shook his head helplessly.

He don't know if Konoha was doing it right, but as a Ninja, he had to obey orders, because too smarrh people always die faster, so he still plays stupid.

Yes, he have a family member to raise, and the clansmen to manage. If you can be lazy, be lazy, and of need, try to be stupid, by doing this, you can prevent getting into trouble.

"But the Senju Clan seems to want to act immediately."

Konoha Ninja pointed to a group of people next to them and whisper." In this case, won't they effect out mission?"

He didn't dare to day it out loud, as Konoha's big family, especially the First Generation and Second Generation adult come from Senju Clan, and even the third Generation Lots were also discipline of the Second Hokage, so no one in Konoha dared at all.

Easy to offend, but because the Senju Clan has a good temper and kind people, the people in the village like them very much. However today....

Why they look like different from the past?

"Don't worry about them." Nara Suzo shook his head and said." As long as they don't make a move, you can leave them alone."

What is this Calle?

Can Konoha carry such problem to pit their own teammates?

Otherwise, who would dare to ally with Konoha when they heard such scandal?

Konoha has always been committed to the concept of the Hokage, and had always been at the forefront of maintaining peace in the Ninja world, and has always made contribution.

So this problem is not big it small, just right, and suitable for those who indark and never see light.

Back to the village he see more of this so he already knows.

There still some group who want to help Uzumaki Country, such as Senju Clan who so anxious to move out to help that heir face almost turn green.

Isn't the Senju Clan not part of Konoha? You know that the First and Second Hokage comes from the Senju Clan.

Think about it, Nara Suzo sighed inward, what on earth they doing here. Are they want to eliminate all the influence of the First and Second Hokage just ot maintain their own status.

Isn't this so selfish to betrayed the people who help them.

He knows the Will of Fire, but as time goes by the Will of Fire starting to become a huge joke in the hand of their generation.

Chapter 20 - Senju Inner Struggles

"Leader, what should we do?" One of the Senju Ninja anxiously asked their Leader.

"Konoha doesn't agree at all to let us go."

Senju Hen sighed, staring sadly in the direction of the Uzumaki Clan.

"Remember, this is the Shinobi Village established by Lots Hashirama, and it is also our Shinobi Village."

How can't he don't know the decision of the Elderly.

But so what? He knew this was sleeping, as Konoha's number one allies, the Uzumaki Clan had never done anything to be sorry for Konoha.

Instead, they did their best, they give the barrier that protesting the Konoha, the Jutsu that osne of the Seal Class using, even right now there's couple of Forbidden Jutsu listed that they created.

But now they have fallen into dangerous situation. He is sure that Lord Hashirama will go and help them even the Village decision is same, but he knew it's impossible now, there's no one in the family can carry the Senju as whole and fight the Village.

Because he is the God of the Ninja World, the great and then kind Ninja who ended up he Warring States Period.

Now that the Uzumaki Clan has become a battlefield, the Uzumaki Clan has sacrificedbso much in the previous ear to help Konoha.

Although Senju Clan sacrifice a lot, the Uzumaki Clan is not Konoha people, as for Senju, they don't have any regrets when they sacrifice for Konoha as they should be, but the Uzumaki Clan sacrifice for Konoha but got such a fate.

"It's really chilling." Senju Hen said with a sight, wondering what you Hokage doing. Keep reducing the he Clan of Senju, they wont do anything bad to Konoha, and the matter of fact, how can Senju do bad things to Konoha when they are the founder of the he Konoha.

Perhaps they need to make decisions aftet they get back, it else it is estimated that th end of Senju is same as the Uzumaki Clan ending.

For the safety of his own people and family, he can only apologize to Lora Hashirama in the Pure Land.

Senju Hen gritted his teeth and look at to the clansmen behind him

"Prepare to go and help our friend, Uzumaki Clan."

"Yes!!"

All the Senju Clan shouted, recently, they are distressed. You must know that the friendship of the Uzumaki and Senju start back to when Senju Hashirama days.

Uzumaki is the strongest allies they have, and the only people that will help them in case they need, they can't keep sitting and waiting, they need to make a move.

If not, they will feel shame if ever they face Lord Hashirama in Pure Land and Bliss.

Actually, everyone happen here is clearly seen by Xin, he knows they already arrived but he did not call them..

He want to test them, he want to see if th Senju of the past is still the Senju of the present time, he don't care about the Root or Natw, what he care is the Senju's opinion.

And seeing this, Xin feel that he can't help the current declining Senju, they are worth to become a friend, they even disregard the highest command even thought they know the final decision.

"Maybe I should help that kid and that stupid woman later, maybe two Wood Release will do for their own safety."

"What happen Xin?" The Clan Leader asked seeing Xin look please.

"Nothing, I feel that the covenant of Konoha and Uzumaki should change."

"What kind of change you want?"

"I want to break free the covenant of Konoha and change to Senju, I feel that the Konoha can't represent the Senju anymore."

"I think so too, after all, the only people who really want to help us is Senju, while the Third Hokage and the Elder seems have bad intensions towards us."

"Draft a letter, I want two, one is breaking ties with Konoha and the second is strengthening the covenant with Senju, they are worth to be friend, they carry the legacy of Lord Hashirama even he is already died long time ago."

"I see, I will do that."
