

Uzumaki 191

Chapter 191 - Other Village Reaction

In the 50th year of Great Village, a revolutionary storm that will sweep the Ninja World quietly formed in the Uzumaki Kingdom.

However, not many people still know how the Uzumaki preform will affect the current situation of Shinobi World.

Because of them, only one county, and one village was established by the God of Ninja, ending the great disturbance of the Warring States Period.

Whether it is any Ninja Village or any Great Country, they do not think that if the Uzumaki Kingdom does not establish a Ninja Village, they still threaten everyone.

After all, Ninja is the mainstream of this world, and Sealing Technique is one of the most dangerous techniques that only one Clan mastered.

Hidden Mist Village

"The Uzumaki Kingdom?"

One of the Higher-ups looks to the other with a confused face.

"The Blood of Uzumaki?"

What the hell, that kind of team this Uzumaki Clan want to create, dis they know that the war just ended a not long time ago.

Is the trouble left by the war not enough for them to just stay still and keep quiet.

They want to create a special team, not like Anbu it other Shinobi but a strange team or group with unknown strength or goal.

Is this mean they want to go solo and abandon any kind of alliance with other villages?

What about Konoha Village, do they created such a team to stop involving their self with Konoha.

Is they are not wrong, Uzumaki Kingdom is having a problem with the Konoha Village Higher-ups, If that's the case, then maybe they have a chance.

"Pay attention to the movement of Konoha and Uzumaki Kingdom." The Great Elder said.

"If anything happens, you must report immediately!"

"Yes!"

This kind of trouble is only secondary for them, right now they are missing a Kage to lead the whole Kirigakure after the Second Kirigakure died from the war

"I only hope this is the opportunity for us, an opportunity for the Kirigakure to become stronger._

Hidden Stone Village

"Re-establish Uzumaki Kingdom? What are these people thinking?"

The Tsuchikage is thinking, but he can't understand why re-establish when they are fine now.

"Wait! Maybe they want to separate from Konoha!"

He heard the news, Konoha Village sent a chasing team to hunt the Young Master of Uzumaki Clan.

In the end, no one knows what happened but seeing that the Young Master of Uzumaki came back safe, it means the Konoha plan failed.

And this thing is not an easy thing, Konoha beat their friend to their own allies and without any news or response after that.

It's shocking if Konoha Village bows its head and accepts its own defeat or Uzumaki Kingdom sends a representative to fix the issues but no one ever moves.

Now Uzumaki Kingdom has suddenly re-establish, does this mean they will go solo and break the alliance between Konoha and Uzumaki?

If that's the case, there's a huge gossip that's going to come right now, and this may bring a huge setback to Konoha.

Hidden Sand Village

They are busy with their own problem, they don't have time to manage anything outside of their own Village.

Hidden Cloud Village

Same as Kirigakure and Sand Village, they still had a hard time after their Raikage passed away and left everything to his own son who was still young.

....

Chapter 192 - Uzumaki Kingdom Common Folks

New Uzumaki Kingdom

After the early morning speech, both the citizens of the Uzumaki Kingdom and the refugees who still not joining the Uzumaki Kingdom walked to their pat with excitement.

"Xiao Poo." Old Want looked at Poo who was planting seedlings not far away and shouted, he was sipping his pipe and wave his hand to him to come.

"Old Wang!"

Hearing someone calling him, Poo stood up and turned his head in confusion, he saw that the Old Pervert calling him.

He suddenly smiled lewdly and walked over." What's the matter Old Wang, you still want to peek at Auntie Yong on the other other side of the street again?"

"I said, you should choose who you going to look, I know you an 80-year-old bachelor while Auntie Yong is a 70-year-old widow but the gap is huge, it's improper."

"Auntie Yong is too young for you, you better find someone your age to pick, I heard that Grandma Sang is still strong, she can walk without getting help from others, and only one of her teeth falls down so she is still good.

Old Wang can't help but stand up and smack the head of Young Poo using his pipe.

"Stupid kid! Who said Auntie Yong is still young? And you white hair wolf! Falling Madam Sang Grandma while Auntie with Lady Yong! You really know how to choose don't you!"

"What's wrong with that? Auntie Yong gives meat sometimes while Grandma Sang only gives dry fruits when I visit her."

"Ha~ you stupid kid, by the way, before I forget, just now the leader came down to inform me that he can officially enter the Uzumaki Kingdom."

"How about you?" Young Poo looks at Old Wang.

"I have my plan, I'm still young to retire."

"What about you Xiao Poo, not going to work? Want to continue to farm here?"

"How can it be!" Young Poo said with a smile.

"I also have a plan, but for now, I need money so I will stay to earn more, anyway Uzumaki Kingdom pays more and feeds us so why not stay a little longer, or maybe I will get my family here to permanently stay here."

"That's good, by the way, I remember that you haven't applied for IR cards right?"

Young Poo nodded. "You just said it."

"I taking my Younger brother to register, I heard that Lady Kushina is the one who will sit in registrar so I think there are so many young boys willing to go."

Old Wang sips his pipe and blow smoke. "Young people, I don't understand why you like young fruits when there are so many ripe ones."

"Don't mention it, you Old Pervert!"

"There are so many Ripe but your favorite is the one that already drops and is rotten."

"Who said rotten you piece of shit! Go away before I use my broken legs to smash your one-inch stick!"

"You pervert! I will tell Old Bang that you were peeking at his wife while bathing last time!"

"As if I'm afraid of that stubborn old fool, with his broken arms, I'm sure I can kick him a hundred times before he can even land a punch on me!"

"What did you say, Old Lame!"

They then heard Old Bang's booming voice out of nowhere.

"Who's Lame! At least I can still use my hand to hold my weapon but you? You can only wait for dirt to cover it and rust!

"Dam you Old Lame!"

.....

Meanwhile, Xin was sitting on the Uzumaki Main Office while reading report.

"How is the search?"

Lucci comes out somewhere and reports," Young Master, we finally found them. They are staying in Snow County, hidden in the frozen mountain."

....

Chapter 193 - Black Zetsu's Report

Mountain's Graveyard

A mountain region located at the northmost region of the land between Takigakure and Otagakure.

It has sense forestry and the bones of many giant creatures can be seen jutting out of it. It contains an abandoned mine that is connected to Otsutsuki Clan's ruin.

"Master Madara!"

Black Zetsu said respectfully, looking at the Old Madara in front of him.

"Cough! What's the matter?"

Madara looked at Black Zetsu who woke him up in front of him, coughing twice, and asked." Wake me up suddenly?"

"Tell me, what's the matter?"

"The kid has become Shadow Level Shinobi." Black Zetsu said.

"...."

When Madara heard Black Zetsu said, he froze for a moment then snapped out of his delusions looking back at him attentively.

"How long have I slept?" He asked while trying to stand up.

"Less than half a year."

".... So fast." At this moment, Madara was shocked.

He can't understand, how that kid suddenly became Shadow Class when before he slept he only heard him as Special Jonin.

How can such a kid upgrade so fast, it's almost cheating, he still remembers clearly when he stepped into Shadow Class Shinobi.

He lost his important brother, he lost his friends, he lost his happiness, and great rage almost consumed him before he became Shadow Class.

But why that kid who is only ten years old can become Shadow Class in such a short span of time, as if he is cheating?

"What a monster... Maybe stronger than Hashirama when he was still a kid."

"Yes, Lord Madara."

On the other side, White Zetsu also nodded." It's like a monster.'

"Very strong."

"Oh~ ten years old, he is very strong, maybe he can become the God of Shinobi in the future." White Zetsu said.

He rubbed his bald head in distress." It's unbelievable.'

"Master Madara, do you want to kill him?"

"Hehe!" Madara suddenly laughed.' kill him? No need."

"Unexpected, after the death of Hashirama, there will be such strong power born, the Shinobi World is simply interesting."

"Why kill him if he can bring more excitement for me?"

"But Master Madara.... " Black Zetsu hesitated for a moment, and cautiously said." You are old, you can't lift your knife anymore.'

"Even right now, I don't know if I can kill him, much more in the future."

"..."

The whole cave suddenly became quite.

Looking at Black Zetsu, Madara starts to think about using Wood Release to create a coffin and bury this stupid thing.

He thinks too much and is almost irrational.

"..."

Chapter 194 - Old Madara

Madara who was laughing wildly seemed to be choked by Black Zetsu's words.

He stares at him fiercely and angry shouted." Get out!"

"Lord Madara, don't deny it, you are really old." Black Zetsu said unknowingly.

"You see that your hand are trembling from time to time, you can't lift your self from your chair anymore without our help, so I think you can't lift your knife anymore."

"I..."

Madara raised his hand pointing at Black Zetsu.

He suddenly wanted to burn that Spiral Face of him into ashes with art of fireball, but when he thought what they said.

Well it's hard to accept, the Shura of Shinobi World is already Old, no one can escape the curse of time even him, Madara Uchiha.

That's why he choose to reincarnated again on his peak as he know that his current body can't carry what his original plan.

After getting calm down, he sat down again, he take deep breath couple of times and finally he feel fine.

"Master Madara, what are we going to do?"

Ignoring Black Zetsu, White Zetsu respectfully said." What should we do next Master Madara.?"

"Do you want me to kill the kid?"

"No need." Madara shake his head.

"The strong possess the dignity of strong."

"I hope he can bring more fun to this illusionary world."

"Yes, Lord Madara!"

Although it is a good idea for the kid to die while he is still young, he might be better than Lord Madara in the future, but since Lors Madara said so, he definitely don't possesses danger to their plan.

"Take advantage of my deep sleep, continue to provoke war in the Ninja World."

Madara leaned against the back wall and close his eyes. "Now this Ninja World is already dirty, cleaning is needed."

"I will create a more beautiful and peaceful Ninja World in the future."

"... Tell me Hashirama..."

"... Is my goal is the ultimate solutions...."

"... To this cursed world...."

After Madara fall in deep sleep again, both Black and White Zetsu start to move, and it's seems another war is about to start.

"What are we going to do now?" White Zetsu asked

Black Zetsu though and finally sighed. "Let's go to Konoha first."

"Why?"

"Stupid, of course to create war, I heard both Uzumaki Kingdom and Konoha Village is having relationship problem, I think creating trouble between two will cause war."

"Hey! Your right!"

"Black Zetsu, why are smart, when you just black?"

"What's the problem of being black! So you have problem with my color!"

"Not really but... Is your poop also black?"

"..... Shut up!"

"Ca'm on! Just tell me~ is it black? Or maybe white? Hey Black Zetsu wait for me!"

Chapter 195 - Xin Plan for Uzumaki Kingdom

Uzumaki Kingdom

"There should be nothing wrong recently right?"

Uzumaki Xin asked the Uzumaki Shinobi next to him.

"If you find anything, you must report it immediately."

The spies in the Uzumaki Kingdom have not been resolved, even if the CP0 try to clean all the spies, there's brand new spies will join.

This continues until Xin decide to let them go, it's waste of time killing intent spies everyday making me them lose some valuable time that can use to more meaningful things.

"Everything is still very stable." Naga said while flipping out the memo in her hand.

"Everyone's emotion are also quite high."

"All are actively participating in the constitution if the Uzumaki Kingdom."

Uzumaki Xin nodded, it seems that the last speech he prepared was not in vain.

After returning to the Uzumaki Kingdom, Uzumaki Naga followed him against act as as secretary.

Kushina also want the job but knowing what kind of person she is, Xin gladly chose Naga out of the other.

While Kushina on the other hand take Yukihiime and Nono to train, it seems she planning to do something again base on how he rejected her to become secretary.

Alas, being a leader of huge Kingdom is really not easy.

"You know Naga, why not give my position back to father, I heard he is pretty open right now."

"You can't, Young Master, the Old Patriarch and the Elder decided that you will going to handle all the problem regarding the Uzumaki Kingdom."

"They will not going to intervene or help so better so your work properly."

"..... Ha, being leader is troublesome."

Looking at the paper in front of him, he still lucky, not like the mountains of paper work that he see on original time line like Minato or Tsunade

Then the military power of Uzumaki Kingdom, they need to expand and add new blood to the army but it will take time to do this.

The number of Ninja still quite small compared to the five Major ninja Village.

"When the time comes, I write some military rules."

It's just the mobility of the Ninja in this world is too strong, but if is not major war, they are all useless except being a guard.

They need to create new division, new type of job, it not necessarily that everyone is all Ninja, that seems monotone and not useful m

There's also new building, facilities and other new established, and all of this will take huge amount of time to accomplish.

The Uzumaki Kingdom wants to attract outside businessman to settle in, only to wait until the people become rich, their living standard elevates, and lifestyle improve.

They must have their own special products and characteristics of the Uzumaki Kingdom, otherwise the money will be only earned by the other, while the market of the Uzumaki Kingdom will not be circulating.

That is a losing business, and Xin don't want to create something that his own people will not going to get anything.

That's why he abolished of giving food to all workers, and replaced it with distributing wages so that the citizens and the refugees can put on their own wallet so that they have to ability to consume all goods form Uzumaki.

There's also taxes they need to put to them, it's not high or low, but enough and fair for everyone.

It's not Uzumaki Clan don't have money anymore so they need to use taxes to gather money, Xin just want the other to accustom paying regular taxes.

It will cause some Minot issue but eventually they will accustom to what they doing in the Uzumaki Kingdom.

Taxes is not new to them anyway, but the taxes of the Uzumaki Kingdom is relatively lower than any other place.

Chapter 196 - Development Plan

Because of the new way of paying salary, the goods around the commercial industry in the Uzumaki Kingdom start to move right.

Today's vegetables, rice, meat and other grains are produced from Uzumaki Kingdom, and because of the money they spending, the commercial industry move while the goods is being sell without anything waste.

"Oh, it would be great if more people buy our product."

Uzumaki Xin sighed, no matter how much products the people buy, this till not enough, they still need people outside to consume what left.

Based on the survey, only 10% of total food products is being consume by the Uzumaki Kingdom, while the 90% is send out to sell to other bigger village.

Because Ninja consume huge amount of energy, they required a lot of food, especially meat, grains and vegetables is good, but not super effective than meat.

And meat is the hardest type of food to produce, Uzumaki Clan can't just go out and hunt animal for meat right?

If that happens, then all animals around will going to extinct in no time, so Xin want to produce a type of animal that have huge meat production at same time with fastest growth.

Cattle need 12 months to become adult.

Pig, Boar need five to six months to age properly and gain enough weight to produce meat.

Goat is longest, it need 36 to 42 months for larger breed of goat to mature while small framed goats need 18 to 24 months.

Uzumaki Kingdom don't have such long time.

Xin also considering feathered animals as potential goods.

Chicken mature fast, they need 18 to 20 weeks.

Duck need 28 to 30 weeks.

Quail is small and they grow faster, they need 6 to 7 weeks to mature.

But even though that feathered animal grow fast, they need to place on proper land to cultivate, need huge amount of feeds to feed them, at same time you need to grow not just small batch but bigger to make the job more profitable.

Xin already start to do some experiment to create a new type of animal that gives huge amount of food, at same time it's delicious.

But it will take some time to develop, even with his God like understanding, developing something like this need huge amount of time for him.

While thinking, Kushina finally stop in front of a noodle shop.

"Welcome..." The boss who was dealing with noodles was surprised when he saw the visitor.

"Young Master!"

"En." Uzumaki Xin nodded with a smile and asked." A bowl if clear noodles soup."

"I want Tomato Noodles Soup!" Kushina said

"Good! Young Master, Young Lady, wait a minute please!"

Seeing that it was Xin and Kushina who he admired come to order,, the boss was suddenly excited.

He hurried beaten the flour and prepared to make the best noodles.

"How is the business these days?" Uzumaki Xin looked at the environment of the noodles shop, it was not big but it was very clean.

"Very good, Young Master!"

"Now that Uzumaki Taken Shop has become famous, many people come to eat noodles after getting off work, especially the single kid who don't like to cook."

"Good."

"What about you? How if you experience doing this kind of job?"

The boss is not ordinary noodle boss, he is one of Uzumaki Shinobi who don't have job to do and chose to open a shop to earn money.

"Me?" The boss said with grin on his face." Very good, I'm very happy every day."

"Good."

Chapter 197 - Danzo goes to Spy Mission

Root Base

"Master Danzo!"

A masked one eyed middle-aged man wearing a green vest kneeled in front of Danzo respectfully.

"That kid know how to brainwashed civilians like Haruzen, it seems it worked on their side too." Danze said.

He frowned as if he remember something bad happen recently then looked at the Anu in front of him.

He also went to see the speech, Danzo can say that kid literally knowledge is higher than him and Haruzen combined.

This made his jealous, it he know words also good convincing people, maybe he start learning like Haruzen in the past but now he think it's not to late.

But, the way the eyes Uzunaki Clan look at Xin with great respect and reverent makes him more scared.

The people with one heart, and one goal is the scariest type of people, he know it that's why his Clan join Konoha when Senju Clan founded it

But what he don't accept is the way they political power works, they actually opening such important position to civilians and refugees?

Are they insane, so they know that maybe there's chance a spies enter their own political power by incident and something bad happen.

"Child, it's a child after all." Danzo sneered in disdain.

Does this kid think that if they let ordinary people a change will come? Stupid, great change only come if the leader is great people.

Ordinary people, civilians, refugees?

They are just bunch of rice buckets who feed to others blood, they are only good by providing population.

It's just.

"What the hell does he want to do?"

Danzo was quiet puzzled in his heart.

What the hell can he get by raising the status of civilians while making Ninja same Level as them?

After all, this world mainstream is domain by Ninja.

"Master Danzo, we just received order form Lord Hokage that we need to go back to the Village now."
The Anbu said

"Haha?"

Danzo shook his head and said." It's not time yet, tell Haruzen, we will go back later after I found the reason of Uzumaki Clan."

Get to know what the Uzumaki Kingdom wants to do.

He is the Darkness of Konoha, a hero without name or fame, he who guard Konoha in the dark, he will never let anything hat danger Konoha unchecked.

"Yes!"

"Uzumaki Kingdom, ten years old Shadow Class Shinobi."

"Strange action trying to change Uzumaki Kingdom."

"Some strange Blood Limit appearing around him."

"The missing Root and Sarutobi Shinobi."

"I want to see what kind of secret this kid is hiding, and if he have, that thing should be used by Konoha."

"If he is dangerous, I will find right time to kill him."

Danzo who lead the killing order last time seems forgot the lost of Konoha, and he is the one who decided to go spy inside of the enemies territory.

Of course, Danzo know that he is being monitored, he just don't see them.

Chapter 198 - Confusing Decision

Konoha Village

"What the hell does this Danzo want to do?"

Sarutobi Haruzen take a sip to his pipe while frowning as he read the news about Danzo, what kind of expired tea did this person take?

The successor ceremony was over, although the policy of Uzumaki Kingdom seems strange and our of order, he really don't care.

What they doing don't bring any harm to Konoha at all.

What Danzo want to so by staying their and playing spy?

Did he already made so much trouble last time, is that not enough?

What's more, a Kingdom without Ninja Village is not a big deal after all, and their Konoha is not waste materials at all.

Can such Small Uzumaki Kingdom can destroy the Strong Konoha?

"And the Jinchuriki..... We still need to find a right vessel."

Sarutobi Haruzen shook his head helplessly, after the Uzumaki Clan give their answer last time, he know that they can't use them as perfect Jinchuriki anymore.

So he need to find a better solution, and maybe the solution they need also need a perfect person to carry.

You must know that he is a stalwart, bright, and a Hokage that brings hope to the Konoha Village.

He can't have any stain at all, this will makes the name of Konoha bad.

But the problem is, the perfect candidate is playing spy only he enemies territory, who can't he become angry.

You, Shimamura Danzo want to goes spy, what about the problem of the Konoha Village? Who will carry all the dirt?

*Ahem!

I mean the heavy responsibility? Can you just go back and fo your work properly?"

"Come here!" Sarutobi Haruzen put down his pipe and shouted.

"Master Hokage!" An Anbu appeared inside of the office.

"Order Elder Danzo to come back quickly and don't make any trouble outside." Sarutobi Haruzen said with blank expression.

"Yes! Lord Hokage!" Anbu Shinobi replied and immediately disappear.

Looking at the disappearing Anbu, Sarutobi Haruzen deeply sighed." What is that kid thinking? What on earth he want to do?"

The News that Uzumaki Kingdom spies bring back is confusing, he couldn't understand at all.

It was just a policy of no Great Ninja Village will accept, such thing will never accepted on any means for sure

You must know that the Shinobi World was like this fifty years ago and no one ever try to change it

And the result?

I'm the end, the people of the Ninja Village were basically educated by the Country Village.

We must know that there's only one country, one village policy was handed down by Lord Hashirama.

How could the system that almost perfect can casually change so easily?

Sarutobi Haruzen though for a while and found that he could not thing anything at all on this kind of situation.

He sat up again leaning his hand in the crystal ball in front of him.

"Or let's look the development of the girls of my Konoha Village?"

As always, the great Peeping Tom strike again, measuring the development of the Konoha futures.

Chapter 199 - Sarutobi's Suspicious

"First of all, condensed the chakra in your hands."

Minato showed tension on his face, his eyes were fixed on his right hand trying to gather something on the top of it.

"Then release the chakra steadily and continuously, at the same time let the chakra move in different directions."

"Then... "

However, just as Minato rubbed his hand back and forth, the chakra he collecting suddenly gone making him speechless.

"Failed again."

There was a distressed expression on Minato's face, Thai Ninjutsu called 'Spiralling Sphere' Rasengan, it was the mysterious gift that the red-haired kid who told him not to tell other and try to use it.

"The amount of Chakra is still too small."

Minato though guard, because he was afraid it being known by Third Hokage so he kept practicing sneakily, it was the only promise he accepted when he gets the mysterious gift.

So even the Third Hokage asked him last time about the mystery kid, he never tell anything, he feel that he betrayed the village and his people, but a promise of a man to a man is also important that's why he forgets everything and concentrate to what he doing.

What even more confusing is when he suddenly fell unconscious when he is about to get out of the Hokage Building.

He know that is not a coincidence, he know something happened when he feel unconscious, but he know even if there something happen to him that time, he can't do anything.

He is a Orphan, no strength, no money, and even power.

Without anything to depend on, he can only keep silent while trying to strive hard, maybe in the future it he got one of those 'no' he can change something.

But what he don't know is that, Sarutobi Hiruzen knew everything long time ago, after all, that Uzumaki Kingdom Imp is a Shadow Class.

How could I be possible to get the children he had been contact with hadn't been carefully examined.

As a result, Sarutobi Haruzen found that it was just a simple coincidence, and didn't do much, just take a look at him and give a unknown gift.

Well, maybe that Uzumaki Imp taken serious Minato's serious training.

But...

"Thai Ninjutsu?"

Sarutobi Haruzen frowned and looked at the Ninjutsu practice by Minato recently, but the problem is he never success.

Thai makes Sarutobi Haruzen confused, he don't know what kind of technique that kid give to Minato, but seeing that Minato is having hard time, it's understandable.

Minato just enter school, without even mastering gathering chakra, how can he perform Ninjutsu when you can't use Chakra?

The Ninja World attached great important to the inheritance of Shinobi, especially to the inheritance coming form old Clan.

But as Village Head, he would not grab something form a kid

Hokage also want face.

As long as you know Minato Namikaze is harmless to Konoha, and still an excellent kid who loves the village, everything is fine.

And this kid dream is still Hokage.

So Sarutobi Haruzen didn't care too much, but he was still very pleased to see this kid, so serious training, if everyone is like this, why worry that the village will become weak?

"Perhaps he is a genius?" Sarutobi Haruzen murmured.

Finally, he smiled and shook his head, how can a genip so easy to get?

Opportunity, talent, and will to become strong is need.

Maybe this kid have good will, but he still need to grow up and show what he really have.

Chapter 200 - Surprised Guest

Nowadays, the Uzumaki Kingdom is in great shape.

In other words, the spies hidden in the dark are all well hidden, and the Uzumaki Shinobi have not found anything except those few.

"It seems that these wandering ninja are going to be gradually unblocked."

Uzumaki Xin watched all the Ninja recruited in Uzumaki Kingdom Thai time, and saw that none of them were making trouble, some of them even have good relationship with the other neighbors.

Of course, relationship is not enough, some hide deeper form what they showing, so he asked CP0 to find some information about them.

And the result is pretty excellent, some of them are Spirit, some are bounty hunter, some are even wanted form different village.

So he clean each other me and left those who don't posses any danger to the kingdom.

While some starting to adapted to the life in the Uzumaki Kingdom.

If there are no problem at that time, they can be accepted by the Kingdom, and the Uzumaki Clan can tolerate them, non-discrimination, and non-ignorant.

Of course, all of them his news to wait until the end of investigation to see if there are any other spies from Great Ninja Village left.

No matter what, the stable development of the kingdom is the primary goal of Uzumaki Clan right now.

"This is absolute." Uzumaki Xin shook his head helplessly.

Does it take so long to report the kingdom current situation?

Of course not, with all gadget he created, reporting is as easy as opening a mobile phone.

Suddenly, Uzumaki Xin looked and frowned." This is?"

"Young Master!" Uzumaki Shinobi noticed the wrong expression of Uzumaki Xin, so he can't help but to asked.

"What happened Young Master?"

Uzumaki Xin mysteriously smile and said." Go back now."

"Yes!"

Without even waiting for the Uzumaki Shinobi disappear, Xin is already gone

"Interesting, they really come."

....

"Kamizuru Clan... " Looking at the land deed in his hand, Tsuchikage frowned and muttered." What's the matter?"

The Kamizuru Clan actually handed over such important thing in such simple way, without even leaving a words.

You must know that this will dictate the raise and destruction of a clan.

What do they want to do sending the Clan Deed?

Thanks to suddenly movement, all the plan become useless

Now he don't need to use to anymore.

"What's going on on the Kamizuru Clan recently?" Tsuchikage asked Anbu next to him." Is there's something wrong?"

"No!" Anbu said, kneeling down on one knew." It's just that recently the people of the Kamizuru Clan have rarely left the Clan, and they seem to be summoning the people of the Kamizuru Clan to come back."

"That it?"

"What do they want to do?" Tsuchikage frowned.

You must know that the First Tsuchikage come from Kamizuru Clan and this time the Kamizuru Clan fallen from their previous position.

So what's wrong at them?
