

Uzumaki: I can comprehend anything

Chapter 2: Betrayal

Before Xin walked into the meeting room, he heard the angry voice of his father.

"Damn Konoha! How can they be like this?!"

An Elder roared while angry slamming his arm in the table.

"How much we pay for Konoha in this war? What Lord Hashirama promise us back then?"

"Does the Senju Clan agree to advance and retreat together?"

"How can they do this?"

"Clan Leader, what did Hokage say?" One of the Elder calmly asked.

"Hokage said that after the war in the Ninja Village, the strength of the whole Village is not enough to help us

"Hehe, can't help us? If that's the case, how can the Hidden Cloud and Hidden Stone Village still have strength to attack us? Don't they have experience war like Konoha? You must know that they are still the defeated village."

"Konoha is really disappointing."

"Where is the Senju Clan?"

One of the Clan Elder still asked, but you can tell he is also angry as he clenched fist under his clothes.

"The Senju Clan wanted to help us but was blocked by Hokage, especially Elder Danzo. He said that although they regretted the experience of Uzumaki, they were not obligated to help the Uzumaki Village." "Damn, these bastards! I want to kill them!"

The conference hall is full of angry voices right now.

"We tried so hard to help them participate in this war, and they treat us like this?"

"Aren't they friends with us? How can they treat us like this, and now in the face of the enemies? Where's the promise of advance and retreat together?"

"From the war, we lose too much, and the only force we left is either disabled or wounded from the current war or the elderly and the children."

"Is there no way for us?"

"Of course there's a way."

Just when the entire conference room was in grief, a naive voice came over, everyone turned their head and look at the young Master come in at the door.

"Xin?"

The Patriarch saw Xin walking in and sternly said.

"This is not for children to participate, go back and help your mother."

"Little Xin, go back quick, this is not something you can participate in."

Xin walk beside his father and ignore everyone, he stand up in front of them and look at the face of his own family.

"Father, Elder, Uncle." Xin gently greeted everyone making everyone feel slightly good after the huge mess waiting for them.

But this did not last long.

Bang.

Xin's small feet step on the top of the table making those who not ready jump in shock.

"What are you doing!"

"Go down Little Xin."

"Little Xin how can you be disrespectful!"

Uzumaki Xin ignore all their voice and start speaking.

"When Konoha asked for our support, I advice you not to help them, they are not credible, but all fo you said I'm still young."

"When our family fall one by one in the war, I asked you to bring them. Ack but all fo you said that it's worth because we are helping out friend."

"And then what happen next? Of all people come to help out allied, only one third of the people come back, ut still it's fine because we fullfil our rope us friend."

"Right now we are in pinch, what happen to our friend? They ignore us just like what i said."

Everyone turn silent and start to remember the whole mess before they send their family into the wat.

Who thought that the firedn they help, is the one who will ignore us first, how ironic that they ignore the voice of the youngest when they did not expect that he is right.
