

Uzumaki 201

Chapter 201 - Kamizuru Clan Plan

"Young Master!" Naga who returned to the office frowned when she saw the bust Uzumaki Xin doing paper works.

"Let me help you, Young Master!"

"No need, sit down, I will be done right away."

Without raising his head, he said directly." These documents will be handed over my father at the he time, and there is this one..."

He raised his head, holding a document in his right hand with serious expression on his face looking at Naga.

"This one must handed over to the Great Elder, except for the scientific research department, they should let them open it."

"Yes!" Naga nodded seriously.

It seems that this is a confidential documents, especially with the Uzumaki Clan Seal engraved on it.

"I will personally hand it over to the hand of the Grand Elder."

"En!" Uzumaki Xin nodded with satisfaction.

"I'll be out for one days."

"Ah?" Naga stun hearing Uzumaki Xin's words.

She hurry shake her head." You can't Young Master, you need guards."

"No need, I don't need guards to look at me."

"You can't Young Master, the Old Patriarch and Great Elder order to never let Young Master alone."

"No, I'll be alone this time." Uzumaki Xin waved his hand and said." I'll be back on few days so dont worry."

"But.."

"Okay, go out." Uzumaki Xin said helplessly.

"I will leave a clone here, please pay attention otherwise if mother fins this, you will all get beaten.

Naga can't help but to shudder, of all high rank official, the only person they don't want to meet is the Old Lady Uzumaki, the mother of Uzumaki Xin.

It's not Lady Uzumaki is bad, but she is like Uzumaki Kushina on every personal aspect, even the Old Patriarch fear her when she gets angry.

Even Xin fear her, he don't want to encounter the highest rank in the family and get beaten in front of all of his people.

Reluctantly, Naga can only helpless nodded, she know that she can't hide the disappearance of Young Master for so long so she hoping he come back early.

"How should I receive the Kamizuru Clan?"

Uzumaki Xin ignored Naga's nervous text, touching his chin, thinking that you want to safely receive a family from the Great Ninja Village is not simple as getting the refugees join the Uzumaki Kingdom.

Maybe you will be discover, maybe after that, own of the Great Ninja Village will launch a crusade to Uzumaki Kingdom.

After all, the her is not Shinobi Village hope a clan left their own control, whatever they are strong or weak.

A leaving clan will only show that the village is weak that they can't hold a clan from leaving and joining other village.

Ninja World is all about honor and fate to village, and if those two disappear, you can only be a rebel or a wanted.

So he must think of a perfect idea to let that clan leave without getting into trouble.

Of course, he can use force if he wants, but to will only make everything more troublesome and escalated everything to something like wat.

So he need to come up with a plan, a perfect plan that you can keep them without provoking the other party.

Chapter 202 - Real Situation of Kamizuru Clan

"Patriarch!"

An Old man with the clan emblem of Kamizuru Clan slowly walked in, frowning while looking at the Kamizuru Patriarch.

He said." Why do you want to hand over the Clan Deeds back to the village?"

"Oh?"

The Patriarch sighed and suddenly asked." Elder, who do you think of our Kamizuru Clan now?"

"I.... " The Great Elder opened his mouth and about to answer but he stop, he daze for couple of second's and helpless sighed." Then what will you do?"

"What to do?"

The Patriarch shook his head with wry smile on his face." Nowadays, what else does my small Kamizuru Clan have to do besides leaving the Iwagakure?"

"No!"

Hearing the words of the Patriarch of Kamizuru, the Great Elder suddenly panicked." Don't you know that this will cause of our clan to fall into Iwagakure?"

At that time, even if chose to leave the Iwagakure, how many of them he Kamizuru Shinobi will be left?

Will there be another Ninja Village who will risk their ownofr and ignore one of the Five Great Ninja Village to take them in?

"Other than that, there is no other way."

"The civilians is looking at weirdly, as if we are sinner of the war."

"Some small clan start to move, some of our young Shinobi slowly go missing."

"The Tsuchikage don't even want to see us, so how can our Small Kamizuru Clan stand in this kind of place."

"Place that we don't seems belong?"

The Kamizuru Patriarch shook his head with wry smile." We...."

"We hindering the development of yh Iwagakure..."

This problem is not something a small clan like Kamizuru Clan can carry.

This is to much for them to bear.

It too big!

Too big that they can no longer stand outside without getting hateful look from the villagers.

"But.... What about the Village?" The Great Elder sighed when he heard the words of the Patriarch.

"How should the Kamizuru Clan deal in the future?"

"It's time tokk at him.x

The Kamizuru Patriarch stares at the outside with deep gaze.

"It there is not perfect solution, the Kamizuru Clan maybe disappear on my hand...."

"I.... " The Great Elder helplessly, he know that the situation of the Kamizuru Clan is dangerous, maybe they will disappear suddenly without anyone knowing.

"Thanks for your hard work, to Kamizuru Clan."

"Oh! I will look at the other tolde fellow below."

"As for the others, just... Just..."

"This old man is shame of Kamizuru Clan!"

With tears on his eyes, the Great Elder shook his head, lowered his head and turned around.

Seeing you he desolate back of the Great Elder, the Clan Leaders eyes were filled with tears, who could get sob know the real situation of the clan.

But eh is helpless, who can a Jonin like him help the Kamizuru Clan, they don't have strength not wealth to defend their self.

Chapter 203 - Uninvited Guest

Iwagakure, Kamizuru Clan!

"Come!"

Kamizuru Patriarch opened his eyes, staring at the space in front of him intently, with a wry smile on his lips.

He isn't know if this unknown Ninja is a friend or enemy, but he can only face him head on so at least he can be useful in the end.

Put on an indifferent expression, but his hand is gripping the armchair showing his true feelings, after all.

This will going to determine what will the future of Kamizuru Clan be

From the shadow, a young boy suddenly appear, wearing gorgeous dress while holding a golden paper fan.

"..."

It seems the look of the unknown person is different from what he is thinking.

Kamizuru Patriarch was shocked, frowning as looking at the young boy in front of him, he can't remember him at all, not even see this mysterious boy.

"Who are you?_"

Kamizuru Patriarch secretly pull a dagger below his table while attentively looking at the boy vigilantly.

Uzumaki Xin walk closer and sit in front of the Kamizuru Patriarch with calm expression, pulling a piece of paper.

"Do you perhaps want to go through immigration process?"

"..."

What the hell is he talking about?

Kamizuru Patriarch was taken back for a moment, then frowned and looked at Uzumaki in front of him.

His appearance seemed, somewhat familiar.

"Have you decided?"

Uzumaki Xin said, look at the vigilant Kamizuru Patriarch.

"Don't be confused, my hair color is natural, I did not dye it."

It seems his apprentice is so good that the Kamizuru Patriarch look dazed while looking at him.

"Uzumaki Clan?"

Kamizuru Patriarch stared at Uzumaki Xin.

"Ah? Yes, it's Uzumaki." Uzumaki Xin said.

"Are you going to follow me now? I can give you a discount for delivery."

"..."

"Who are you kid?"

Uzumaki smekld and said." The Current Leader of Uzumaki Kingdom, Patriarch of Uzumaki Clan, hello Uncle, I'm Uzumaki Xin, nice to meet you."

"What!"

The Kamizuru Patriarch can't help but to jump form his chair and step back violently, he even accidentally drop everything behind him.

"The Red Imp of Uzumaki Clan! The Youngest Shadow Class Shinobi!" Kamizuru Patriarch cried out in surprise.

You know this reputation is quite but in the Shinobi World now.

Whether it is defeating the Hidden Mist Village, and winning a war from other Village is pretty much known by everyone.

After all, Ten years old Shadow Class Shinobi is somehow that never seen before, much more this kid is also the ruler of the whole Uzumaki Kingdom.

Chapter 204 - Kamizuru Patriarch Feel Offended from Requirements

"Ah? You seem know me?"

Based on the expression of Kamizuru Patriarch, he seems know him.

But the problem is that the only and last time he comes out is when he visits Konoha, but that's not long. The whole visit and the recruitment only take a couple of days.

"You seems belittling the spies of the Great Ninja Village."

"Your information is all in the hand of every village."

"Not just Iwagakure but also the other Four Great Ninja Village."

"You can also buy your information form Gold Exchange Shop."

"You are Xin, the only son of the Old Patriarch, and also the Daimyo of Uzumaki Kingdom."

"Your birthday is in June xxx, start walking after a couple of weeks, and because you never cry or talk to anyone, your reaction is weird, everyone thought you she mental illness, but everything changes when you become three."

"Not only can you actually talk, but you can also read and write without anyone teaching you. At age three, you also start showing signs of Blood Limit Awakening."

"Except that particular year, no single information is available until this end of the Second Ninja World War when you finally show your fang to everyone."

"With your leadership, you win the war, and strange people start to appear around you with strange and new Blood Limit."

"As for anymore information, this is all everyone collected."

".... The spies is good...."

"So, when are you going to migrate?" Xin ignored all what he said, he don't really care about his information, what they know is just a strand of what Xin is hiding so what they collected is just the information he show.

Kamizuru Patriarch look at Xin and said." If the Kamizuru Clan join the Uzumaki Kingdom, what do we need to pay?"

"Some percentage of taxes, you need to also need to cultivate bee and produce honey for the whole clan, and just follow some rules and regulations."

"..."

Kamizuru Patriarch look weird, he is waiting to hear something like "Loyalty " or "Life" but what hell is he asking.

It's normal for Kamizuru Clan produce Honey, after all, they are Beekeepers Shinobi so this is a easy for them.

Taxes is also normal even in Iwagakure so this is also not a problem.

As for following up he rules of the Kingdom, isn't it normal for anyone who join to follow the rules?

You know this is Ninja World, something as Life and Loyalty is a must but his requirements is so easy.

"You seems confused?"

"Let me enlightened you."

"Actually, I don't need any help from your clan and I'm not asking for anything from you, what I like form your clan is the Beekeepers you train and the Honey you create, so don't think deeply."

For the first time, Kamizuru Patriarch feel useless, how can someone recruit anyone with just simple reason.

And his reason is so cheep making the Kamizuru Patriarch feel offended.

The Kamizuru Clan is not just a Beekeepers Shinobi, they also powerful Shinobi on their own respective right.

So hearing such answer makes him feel offended.

But anyway, his requirements is so easy and lacking with security, but still a perfect solution on the Kamizuru Clan problem.

"If we join, I can't promise you that Kamizuru Clan will deal the Ninja of Iwagakure."

"Not. Problem, anyway, I recruit you not to fight for Uzumaki Kingdom so don't worry."

"..."

Chapter 205 - Framup

Kamizuru Clan, Iwagakure

Kamizuru Patriarch looked at the script on his hand and stunned, he didn't expect this kind of operation.

No wonder people like to pretend someone to do something bad, frameup is not new things from Kamizuru Patriarch's eyes, this is normal and every evil ninja use such despicable mean sometimes.

And all the times, framup always become unsolved case to any kind of situation, from his understanding he never heard or seen frameup ever solve and found the right suspect.

Just....

Why Uzumaki Clan trying to use Uchiha Clan of all people.

So you know those red eyes people is war freak?

They never stop until they found or solve the problem, at same time they are the kind of Ninja that is hard to deal with.

He also heard from spies that this kid try to invite Uchiha Clan once but fail in the end for unknown reason.

Is this why he trying to use Uchiha Clan to take revenge of them?

If yes, then this kid have vengeful heart, if ever he try to decline him, maybe the Kamizuru Clan is next Uchiha Clan.

This kid is really bad enough.

"Okay, if something goes wrong, then take the Uchiha Clan to Uzumaki Kingdom too." Uzumaki Xin said casually.

"....."

Must keep away from this kid, who knows maybe someday he use Kamizuru Clan as scape goat.

"Sorry, I need to discuss this with clan Elders." Kamizuru Patriarch said with serious face.

"Okay, hurry up, you have to know that my time is tight, there still so much paper I need to finish today." Uzumaki Xin said while looking outside listless.

When Kamizuru Patriarch left, Xin muttered while shaking his head." Hehe, it's all surrounded.'

It seems that Iwagakure will not let Kamizuru Clan go easy, it seems they already decided the outcome of them.

Xin begin to worry if those stupid old fool will try to stop and chose to stay here, if yes, then there's only one way for the Kamizuru Clan left.

Path of destruction.

"I..."

Seeing the silence in the conference room, Kamizuru reopened his mouth as if he wanted to say something but he couldn't say anything in the end.

After all, this is the last sentence of the h Iwagakure.

"Do we really need to do this?"

"This... This is our home..."

"Shut up!" Ien of the Elder stared at him, scanning the he surrounding and helpless said." We ... "

"We can't go back anymore.... _

The Great Elder slumped in the chair.

"We finally become hindrance to the development of the village."

"Unless..... Unless we can give something useful, we can only wait here in the end."

Hearing the words of the Great Elder, everyone sighed and lowered their heads.

Of course, they know what the Great Elder want to tell.

Its just, giving something that is going to be useful to the village is hard to do, after all, Kamizuru Clan only left with low number of people and almost empty clan vault.

Chapter 206 - Kamizuru Last Madness

Let the Kamizuru Clan fall, reduce the Kamizuru Shinobi members, try to not participate to any kind of project of the Village, only in this way can other families in the village settle down.

After all, the Second Tsuchikage only died not long ago, and this period was the most chaotic time of Iwagakure.

Onoki wanted to quickly come to power, and he need to remove all the upper stream and downgrade them into lower level.

This is a must, after all, Kamizuru Clan even if they are declining still part of the Hokage Team, and that is the team of previous ruling.

Adding that they violated the rules and privately looking for Konoha to take revenge..

But the mission is useless, except from injuring some unknown Shinobi, they gain nothing at all from all the raid they did.

Of course, Kamizuru Patriarch know that this whole thing is just excuse just to deal with them.

"In that case, leave."

A Clan Elder closed his eyes with tears and choking said." Let the old man stay here for the last time."

"Haha, the Old Man is also old, I can't run away and carry anything." Another Clan Elder said while a smile.

"The future of the Kamizuru Clan is left to those young people."

"Hey Old Wang! Who said you're old? You are hundred years to young to stay here, let me stay here and guard our last home."

"... Clan Elder... "

Seeing this scene, tears can't help you to fall from the Patriarch's eyes..

He knows the end of staying here is only one thing.

That's death!

Of course, not in the hand of Iwagakure, but in the hand of Uzumaki Xin base on the plan.

How can people bit die when the clan is annihilated?

It's normal to see death when a clan is being exterminate, so they chose to be left behind and become props.

The clan Elders chose to stay, they all know either their situation they can't escape from the village so they chose to left behind.

They are all just heavy baggage if they try to join so they chose to stay behind.

At smart time they all wish to not be sentence by the village, they want to die on the hand of other to reduce their inner guilt towards the village.

"If everyone agrees.... "

The Grand Elder opened his eyes." The plan can be start now."

"Pay attention to secrecy, you have to know that there are many in the family who are loyal to the village, once the secret are leaked, were are all doom."

The Kamizuru Clan will die without burial place.

"These people just let them.... "

".... Let them stay here."

They can't bring those rebellious people, they will only stop the advance of the Kamizuru, they are hoping that Kamizuru Clan regain their glory back they need to remove anyone who will become hindrance of this.

Even if they are part of Kamizuru Clan.

"Yes!"

All the clan Elder knew this sentence, they're were mean to be told to them, the Elder want them to do, and didn't want the Patriach's hand to be stained with the blood of the same clan

Anyway, they are going to die so let this last madness being by then to hell.

Chapter 207 - Preparation

"Is everyone ready?"

Uzumaki Xin asked while lying in the nat in the lobby of the Kamizuru Clan, closing his eyes while yawning.

"If you are ready, hurry up, transporting people is quite troublesome."

Well, it's not trouble at all, Xin had develop a super long range Space-Time Ninjutsu on his free time so this time, it's going to be easy.

"How does the old man know that you will not deceiving our Kamizuru Clan?" An Old man with cane stood up and asked solemnly.

"After all, this is the entire life of the Kamizuru Clan."

"You have no other choice."

At this point, what else they do want? Any move they will do will only bring the destruction even faster and the result is the same.

Xin helpless said." I already give you my condition, it's up to you if you are going to accept it or not."

"And by the way, who are you?"

"This Old Man is the Great Elder of the Kamizuru Clan." The Great Elder said.

"I only hope what you said is true." His eyes condensed, releasing his chakra staring at Uzumaki Xin." Or else this Old Man won't let you of."

But even he try to intimidates Xin, Xin's expression did not change, for him, Special Jonin Chakra is same as Chunin and Jonin Chakra.

"Tsk, tsk, just Jonin Pressure?"

He feel disdainfully at them, how can they use such petty trick while knowing the gap is huge, he can't really understand what kind of mind this people have.

"..."

The Great Elder looked at Uzumaki Xin, who was still lying on the floor while waving his hand carelessly.

"He really is a Shadow Class."

Seeing this scene, Kamizuru Patriarch could only whisper in the ears of other Elders.

It's hard or even useless to scare Shadow Class with such pitiful amount of Chakra.

The Great Elder was shocked, looking at the Uzumaki Xin, it turned out that this is the Young Shadow Class that is making a lot of noise recently.

Well, he can't help it, why do they care what happening outside when their own clan is about to destroy so it's normal he don't have any news outside.

Just, this red hair kid look lazy like his own grandson, with rebellious looking face without any arrogant of a Shadow Clone.

Uzumaki Xin opened his eyes and look at them." So what now?"

"So how are you going to frameup the Uchiha Clan?"

"Easy."

Xin start to take out his props, Konoha Shinobi Vest, Konoha Shinobi Head protector, Uchiha Clan Jacket, a black wig and bunch of other items.

Xin then look at the Kamizuru Patriarch feeling him that he can start now.

Seeing this, the Kamizuru Patriarch take everything and change to the Konoha Standard Uniform.

"I never expect that hat in my whole life I will wear the Konoha Shinobi clothes." Kamizuru Patriarch helpless said but he still wear it.

"Kid, this is not enough, wearing this will only makes him look a Konoha Shinobi but not Uchiha Clan, the Jacket can also be fake so what are you going to do?"

Xin take out set of contact lenses and let the Kamizuru Patriarch wear it.

"Perfect, same as Three Tomie Sharingan."

"But something is missing." Xin then take out a glass tube and pass it to Kamizuru Patriarch." Here drink this, a special reagent that will change your Chakra Nature to same as Uchiha Clan."

"..."

Chapter 208 - Preparation 2

"This!?"

When the Kamizuru Patriarch drink the reagent, his aura start to change I, his calam and composed aura become evil.

An eerie, sinister, dark, cold, and heavy kind of aura is looking around Kamizuru Patriarch making everyone shudder just looking at him.

Adding the red scary eyes that can make anyone feel scared and freight makes the whole set even more perfect.

"Haha!"

The Great Elder laughed when he saw the great change eof the Kamizuru Patriarch, he admits that this is the best change he ever see in his whole life.

Even him feels that a Uchiha Clan is standing in front of them and not the Kamizuru Patriarch who they just speaking with.

"Nwo I believe it!"

"With such aura, the plan will going to become smoother!"

"If you want to destroy the Kamizuru Clan, you can do it directly!"

"..."

Hearing this words of the Great Elder Kamizuru, Uzumaki Xin suddenly narrowed his eyes, scolding the old fox secretly.

What a strong disdain to do this.

He know what kind of thinking old people like him have, he also have bunch of old fox back home so he know how they think.

But this is the only solution he come up, and besides, he strong but young, using such trick is something he willing to do.

"In that case, let's talk about when to start transporting people." Uzumaki Xin said helplessly." Hurry up and finish the show, hurry up!"

"..."

The Great Elder's face turn purple, how cant he understand that this kid is cursing them to die faster, but he don't care, he only care if his people is safe.

"Ahem!" Ignoring Uzumaki Xin nonsense, the Kamizuru Patriarch said with serious expression with fake cough.

"Tonight."

"There still something we need to solve."

His eyes condensed and stared coldly at the outside of the hall.

"Yes."

How can they don't know what he talking about, this is also the main reason why they accept the offer of Uzumaki Clan.

"Send the old, weak, sick, disabled, and normal people first, then children, woman and other second."

"Hearing what Uzumaki Xin said, the Kamizuru Patriarch and the Elder were tkane back, then a smile flashed across their face and nodded." Yes!"

"Then you go and prepare " Uzumaki Xin lay down again.

"If you are done, call me again."

"Sorry to bother you."

Kamizuru Patriarch took the elder out and start to move, tonight is going to be a busy night.

Xin on the other hand stop laying around, he start preparing special equipment and props to make everything more realistic.

Take corpse

Real blood

Dozen or more photography equipment that he created couple of years ago, and some other things to make everything more realistic.

With his plan, he is sure that before all the fake corpse burn, the Iwagakure will never noticed anything wrong.

Chapter 209 - Preparation 3

Midnight

Onoki frowned and stood in the top of the Tsuchikage's Building, staring at the direction of the Kamizuru Clan.

He don't know why, he always feels uneasy tonight, but the problem is, there's nothing suspicious found.

The village is quite and peaceful, everyone is slowly recovering from the wound caused by the war.

Iwakure is also located to the most perfect location in the whole Shinobi World, easy to defend and difficult to attack because of the mountain formation around the Iwakure m

Among the Five Great Ninja Village, Iwakure is know for it's solid defense.

Now it is the peaceful time, the war just ended, Onoki is pretty sure that no one will try to start another war again.

But still, what's the matter of this depressing feeling right now?

"How are the Kamizuru Clan?" Onoki asked his assistant next to him.

"Nothing particular happened." An Old man shook his head.

"Still staying in their clan these days and haven't come out."

"Oh." Onoki sighed and didn't say anything.

He thought of the first Tsuchikage that from Kamizuru Clan, that stubborn but bold and upright old fox who doesn't stick to any trivial matters.

It was also that day that the first generation Tsuchikage adult taught them the Will of Stone.

This will allow him and his Master, after being beaten down by Uchiha Madara so they can still stand on their feet.

Although Uchiha Madara released some water in the end and nothing bad happened.

But it was the Will of Stone that taught him to be strong, to be tenacious and persevering at all times.

"But this depressing feeling.... "

Onoki murmured while shaking his head with a smile on his lips. "Impossible, Uchiha Madara has already..."

What's more, he is also Tsuchikage now, even if he meets him....

Onoki can't help but to squeeze his fist behind his back and firmly said. "I won't retreat..."

However, Onoki didn't even finish his words something came first.

"Fire Release: Fireball Technique!"

A loud noise came from the direction of Kamizuru Clan.

"Have you Master it?"

Looking at the empty Kamizuru Clan, all the old men who stayed here now are waiting to die.

Of course, except for the two guys wearing Konoha Shinobi clothes on the background.

"Basically mastered." Patriarch Kamizuru nodded." I said you, at Thai time, what else do you want to do?"

Looking at the strange device on Xin's hand, he don't know what this kid thinking.

"Take mtie pictures while you are young, it's a souvenir for me." Uzumaki Xin looked melancholy at the dark night, lowering his head and with a smile." Remember to be handsome when I take pictures."

"Maybe this will become a promotional photo for our future recruitment."

Patriarch Kamizuru and the other can't help but to feel weird, it's hard to talk to this kid of kid who is also weird on his own.

"Are you ready?"

"Good, look at here, 'Eggplant'."

"Fire Release: Fireball Technique!"

Chapter 210 - Operation Start

"Damn!"

Onoki looked at the raging fire not far away, he did not expect that his guts is right, something bad is about to happen.

"Enemy attack!"

He immediately used the Super Light Weight Technique and floated towards the place where the attack occured, especially when he looked at the huge flames raging from afaw

His heart is full of nervousness and worries.

"Kamizuru Clan, what do they want to do?" Onoki's eyes narrowed as he muttered.

"Please don't make difficult for me."

You must know that Kamizuru Clan will neever use Fire Escape, and that fire is huge and it appear on their side

Was it because the land ilwas taken back made those old fools unhappy in the situation that they did not even get a compensation form them?

Then the people of Kamizuru Clan united and join to other enemy to launch a coup to take revenge of them?

If that's the case, then it's hard for him to keep them, no one want a clan who try to coup even once it even thinking about doing it.

At same time Thai Ninjui, this Ninjutsu is giving him strange palpitations as if he encounter thsinkins of fire in the past.

It's very familiar for him.

Onoki stared closely at the station if the Kamizuru Clan, want to see what they trying to do.

.....

On the middle of the night, when everything is quite and peaceful the entire Iwagakure was plunged into chaos.

The Iwa Shinobi began to sort out the civilians and quickly rushed to the station of Kamizuru Clan.

Watching the terrifying wave of flame, everyone was scared silly as they came closer to the Kamizuru compound.

They can also sense, something dangerous is inside of the Kamizuru Clan right now, it's a huge chakra making their movement slower than their normal movement speed.

Patriarch Kamizuru was frightened by the huge explosion just before, isn't this just a mere C Rank Fire Release?

How come the simple Fireball Technique creates such a huge explosion, and the raging fire, how can he create such a thing.

"Don't be lazy, add more fire, we are Uchiha Shinobi right now."

Seeing that the Kamizuru Patriarch standing stupid beside him, Xin can't help but to punch his waist calling his name.

"This!"

"What this? This is just a bonus of chakra and element level, don't worry you can also do it in the future."

"Really?"

"Of course, don't worry, even I'm scam you, I will never lie to you."

"....."

He really said it in the end.

"Let's start."

Xin bring all the fake corpse and give them to all Kamizuru Elder.

"Inject your chakra inside of this props then scatter it around the clan compound then start using Ninjutsu to looks like you guys are fighting with someone."

".... Yes!"

....
