

Uzumaki 221

Chapter 221 - Danzo, the Law Breaker

Seeing that no one want to come out and surrender, Xin nodded to the Uzumaki Shinobi, they need to use force now since they don't want to go out from their rats cave.

"Earth Release:..."

However, before they could use Ninjutsu, the ground began to crack slowly, it's like a huge monster that opening it's mouth.

From the crack, several silhouette emerged.

Danzo looked at the Uzumaki Shinobi in front of how with red face, especially when he saw the ten years old figure, his pupils can't help but to shrink.

He faintly asked." What are you looking for this old man for?"

How shameless, you made a secret base inside of Uzumaki Kingdom without any permission and sending bunch of spy to gather information about them.

Uzumaki Xin looked at Danzo's shameless face and can't help but to feel pity to Sarutobi Haruzen.

Having such shameless friends is surely hard, much more they both holding such important position in the village.

"You violated Uzumaki Kingdom's immigration regulations."

"Huh?"

Danzo heard Uzumaki Xin's words and his face suddenly looks weird.

"Hey." Uzumaki Xin sighed and helplessly said. "The Konoha Village didn't report to the relevant department and privately occupied the land of the Uzumaki Kingdom, which caused us serious losses."

Looking at his expression, it seems Danzo thinks that he can do everything like in Konoha.

Kidnapping

Extortion

Assassination

Illogical occupying of some important land

And even creating his own army that causes huge problems in the village.

But this is Uzumaki Kingdom, and there's no such privilege given to Danzo, and right now he's caught red-handed by them.

"In other words, you do not welcome this old man in the Uzumaki Kingdom?" Danzo started at Uzumaki Xin sharply.

However, it's useless, Xin never feels afraid of this bad old man.

"That is an illegal immigration, Uncle Danzo." Uzumaki Xin said casually. "This is illegal."

"Following the law?"

Danzo was taken back.

He don't know the law, not even the law of his own clan so heo can he know the law?

He is use to be the law so how can he know the law?

"Why this old man need to follow the law?"

See, he think he still in Konoha Village where he can play as king and break any law that the Konoha Village have.

"There is written in the constitution of the Uzumaki Kingdom, hasn't Uncle Danzo did nyo read it?"

"You know, I send bunch of it to you." Uzumaki Xin glanced at the several book behind him.

You know, he specifically left those book to let the Root take it but it seems Danzo don't have time to even care to read it.

Danzo's face can't help but to become green.

Now he understand why his people only take back weird books.

So that is the case they retrieve the books because Uzumaki Xin let them take it.

What a bunch of trash.

Chapter 222 - Danzo's Worthless Face

Danzo also saw the book behind him.

He originally thought that everyone has this kind of books, and there is no special boon, even if he read it, he will gain nothing.

No he feel hsi face is hot, are all of Root Ninja are silly and stupid?

What even more embarrassing is that the enemy see the evidence while the whole time they are being tease by them.

Danzo squinted his eyes and looked at Uzumaki Xin faintly.

He has been in the Ninja World for decades, he encountered note embarrassing things than today.

He feel that this incident is not but just a trivial matter.

Without changing his face, he said." This Old man doesn't know anything, since Konoha Shinobi is not welcome in the Uzumaki Kingdom, this old man will leave."

Hearing what he said, Uzumaki Xin's lazy figure suddenly become serious, a tremendous pressure suddenly press down to them.

He look at them coldly and said." This is the Uzumaki Kingdom and not Konoha Village!"

"It you break a kwo, you need to accept the punishment honestly!"

Turning his head to the Uzumaki next to him and said." Seal their Chakra, then bring them to the Immigration Office, they need to at least know what law they break and what kind of punishment they will get."

Then look at Danzo." Don't worry, the law you break is light, you just need to be imprisoned for couple of days, attend a seminars, and pay a small fine to get released."

"And also, because you come not as Konoha Elder but Konoha Representative, you can't represent your self so we will send letter back to Konoha so they know you are imprisoned."

"You!"

Seeing that this little devil didn't give him face, Danzo wanted to let Konoha Shinobi to come and fight but he know he can't because they are inside of the enemies territory.

He also know that Uzumaki Clan is people who can easily catch them and get sealed so it's useless to fight.

Escaping is also useless, they are standing in the middle of the Uzumaki Kingdom, they are in the pace where they can easily get encircle so trying to escape is wishful thinking.

"Don't try to fight back Danzo, you know that trying to fight back will only cause casualty. Maybe I can't stop my people and accidentally kill you in process so think properly before giving order.

"Uncle Danzo shouldn't be mess around."

Danzo gave a cold snort and didn't do anything, he felt the murderous aura just now, it's not just one but many, he don't know who they are but he is sure that if he try to move strangely he will drop dead first.

He hasn't become Hokage yet so how could he die so easily?

So if a big man can be d and stretch, he can become big in the future, and besides, after he come back he will take revenge to this kid sooner or later.

This moment, Danzo can't help but to touched his bandaged right eyes, his heart yearning for more strength.

When the other see their boss did not resist, everyone brop dron their weapon.

Seeing this scene, Uzumaki Xin nodded in satisfaction, as expected to be the rat generation praise by Dance King 'Madar'.

Uzumaki Xin suddenly remember something, he pull something form his pocket and give to Danzo.

"I forgit to give you a gift, Uncle Danzo."

He then handed more books.

"Kindergarten Working Book."

"Read this book more, it's good for you."

"After all, I think you have bad childhood memories so this is the best learning materials."

Xin smile then walk back to his office, he still need to do some works today, he can't waste all his time to tease Danzo, but he know that the Uzumaki Shinobi will handle this good.

Chapter 223 - Danzo taste Real Interrogation

Inside of the immigration office

Two hanging light is being flash on the top of Danzo while the interviewer's can only see thie shadow.

Of course, they are Kushina and Naga who chose to conduct the interrogation.

"Name."

"Danzo Shimura."

"Age."

"64."

"Gender?"

"What?"

"I'm asking you if you are a boy or a girl."

"..... So i look like girl to you Little Girl?"

Danzo's face look black, he never feel embarrassed like this, his quest is all normal but it also hurtful for him.

"Old man! You are so arrogant! Do you know why you here!"

"You are a criminal!"

"Dam you kid! My crime is only Illegal immigration! Is that thing heavy!"

"You still speaking! Guard!" Uzumaki Kushina shouted.

Bang!

The interrogation room sudden open, three Uzumaki Shinobi come in and stand beside Danzo.

"What are you doing to this Old man!?"

The two Uzumaki Shinobi grab his hand on both side while the other take a black stick and poke it to Danzo's stomach.

And then... Well...

*Zap!

The three Shinobi then come out leaving Danzo sitting in the chair while trembling from time to time.

"Everytime you said wrong, I will electrocuted you so better be honest to me!"

"Dam. You kid!"

"Let's continue." Kushina then look at the paper then asked.

"What's your profession?"

".. Shinobi."

"The real one."

"I said I'm a Ninja!"

"Are you sure?" Kushina gesture to Naga to show the black electric rod.

*Zip! Zip!

".... Elder of Konoha Village, Root Advisor."

"Good, then let's start." After writing everything he said on a piece of paper as procedure, she then look at Danzo carefully.

"Where are they?"

"What so you mean 'where'?"

"I'm asking you where did you hide those old sow that is missing?"

"Damn you #&$&#!"

*Zap!

Chapter 224 - Trouble that Spy Bring

Uzumaki Xin don't know what happened next to Danzo, but since he landed on the hand of Kushina, he surely get something that he will never forget.

He only hope Kushina not break Danzo in process, after all, he can't find any more perfect black pot for Konoha Village.

As for whether Danzo survive or not, it's up to him if his will to become Hokage is same as his will to survive.

A person who dig his own friends eye and use it to his own Clan is not a good person so getting early retribution seems not to much.

Uzumaki Xin hope after the his, Danzo change, become more smarter, humble and always fight Sarutobi Haruzen to Hokage position and start killing all genius faster.

Only this way, the Konoha Village progression will slow and give huge trouble to Hokage.

As for the result, whether it become a large scale Konoha Village scheming theater in the end, ehsee have nothing to do with him.

The purpose of the Uzumaki Kingdom now it to get rid of all the remaining spies, of course, these spies can be handled quite well.

As long as the Chakra is blocked, those Hokage will be notified to take money to redeem the people at that time.

What makes him excited is Danzo.

He don't know if Sarutobi Haruzen is will to pay huge amount of money to redeem hsi own friend.

After all, he discarded the Sarutobi Shinobi and Root Shinobi when he asked them to redeem them.

Even today, those people he get still working in the coal mine while there's no news about redeeming them.

As for the ge other Village Chief, if they willing to redeem their own people, Uzumaki Xin don't care at all

These have nothing to do with the Uzumaki Kingdom.

Just remember that Uzumaki Kingdom is place full of love and peace, treats never work on them because they have strength to fight back.

"What's the matter?" Uzumaki Xin frowned and looked at the noisy scene in for t of him.

Didn't they know that the law enforcement here is not easy to mess.

Much more that the head of the Law Enforcement is Uzumaki Kushina, landing on her palm is like asking for free beating.

"Young Master!"

Seeing Uzumaki Xin suddenly appear next to him, the Uzumaki Shinobi respectfully bowed.

"Something has gone wrong."

"Just grab someone directly."

"If they don't comply, you can just.._

What do you want to fight against the law?

Do you think this is your village?

"That's..." Uzumaki Shinobi hesitated and sighed, not knowing what to do

"Forget it, let me see it by myself."

Uzumaki Xin was curious.

What is going on here?

"Get out of the way!"

A spy who just discovered is trying to escape, but because of Old Ding's tip so everyone can't escape from Uzumaki Clan.

"What are you doing! You are making your crime heavier!"

"I don't care! I said let me go!"

"To much nonsense!"

Xin appear behind the Shinobi and deliver a powerful blow behind his neck, after rendition unconscious, Xin look at the Uzumaki Shinobi and said." Give him to Kushina, I want to know who this man and why he is brave enough to cause commotion here."

Chapter 225 - Law and Order

After the incident, Uzumaki Xin find that the Law Enforcement still have many problem that they need to aolvem

Such as.

The Uzumaki are not tough enough to enforce the law

They should take people away directly when they fins that Spy is dangerous and never going to back down.

This may turn into violent law enforcement it it is not handle properly.

"This may also be because I was care to mcu about my owon words." Uzumaki Xin rubbed his forehead with a headache.

He did not appear at the right time because when he appeared it was not just a simple arresting aof spies.

If you are too tough to let them take people away, maybe other will not say anything, but those newcomers may feel uncomfortable and cannot integratebinto the Uzumaki Kingdom especially some wandering ninja.

So when oneself appears, it is not a matter of law anymore.

But it's a matter need to be solved by words..

Once he arrested someone hard and is used by someone with bad motivation, this will cause huge problem in the future.

You can only use strong men to rule the Uzumaki Kingdom, but force that is on the right path.

But Xin didn't want to do this to them, you must know that Uzumaki Clan has ruled the country for a long time, so what is it that maintain the domestic stability?

It's blood and family relationship.

From certain point of view, the people of the former Uzumaki Kingdom and the Uzumaki Clan are related to each other.

After all, the Uzumaki Clan is not like other big family.

In order to maintain the purity of blood, they can only marry within the family. Look, everyone may be hundred of years old but they are all in one big family.

This kind of blood relationship is quite reliable at this time, and even stronger than any law of any Great Village.

Maybe Uzumaki Xin can rely on his own prestige to suppress Abt dissatisfaction in the country, but this is not conducive to him recruiting wandering ninja, or even other Ninja from other great village.

And if they did this when some of the Ninja defected and wanted to find a stable place to live their lives, they might consider Uzumaki Kingdom.

"You must find an opportunity to publicize this matter." Uzumaki Xin murmured.

Let other Ninja know that Uzumaki Kingdom doesn't care about your birth, as long as you abide the Uzumaki law and live your life honestly.

Then it still possible to become a citizen of the Uzumaki Kingdom.

So for. A certain point of view, not only those spies bit be punished too much, they must also not expirence discrimination from Uzumaki Kingdom.

In this case, when otbe ninjas are redeemed it not redeemed, and the they did not suffer like other place, it will create a good image for Uzumaki Kingdom.

One this emotion swept the entire Ninja Village.

It is estimated tha the Shinobi Version of Labor Movement will rise near the future.

"The Uzumaki Kingdom has the obligation to protect every citizens of the Uzumaki Kingdom."

A mysterious smell appeared at the corner of Uzumaki Xin's mouth.

His plan is good, maybe excellent, with this palm, not only they can catch all the spies but also have chance to pull them on their team.

This will solve the Shinobi problem at same time gather remote intelligence that othe Great Village hiding.

"Hand this over the spies, at the same time, they must treated gently."

"Remember, even they are spies, they are also member of Uzumaki Kingdom!"

Chapter 226 - Danzo Small Punishment

Konoha Village

Sarutobi Haruzen reluctantly took a cigarette, looked at Koharu Utatane and helpless asked._ what should we do?"

"Do you want to send someone to bring Danzo back?"

You know that both Konoha Village and Uzumaki Kingdom have any enmity with others, so why do you chose to stay on their side?

Well now, you got caught red handed, you just bring another trouble yo Konoha Village this time again.

Konoha Village need to redeem them back, you know that Sarutobi Hiruzen did not even try to redeem the Sarutobi Shinobi that Uzumaki Clan caught last time afraid that they discover their small move now an Elder caught in action.

"This Uzumaki Kingdom... "

Turning to Homura Mitokado looking at the report on his hand, he silent for a while and said." This is to much."

"You know Danzo is old, how can he stay inside of the prison? Do they know how to respect old?"

".... " Sarutobi

".... " Utatane

"No."

Sarutobi Haruzen shook his head.

"According to the information that come up, other Shinobi Spies were also arrested, no one escape."

"..."

So there's no favoritism, that's better.

Hearing this, Homura Mitokado think that Uzumaki Kingdom is look down to them, do they know that the most powerful village is the Konoha?

Where is your respect?

Where's out face?

If Xin heard this, maybe he spat on the face of old fool saying such embarrassing things.

Strong? Face? Are you fooling us?

Maybe Konoha Village can fool their own people but not Uzumaki Clan, Uzumaki Xin know the Konoha Village full strength, and that strength is not enough to be called the strongest Shinobi village.

"We are allies with Uzumaki Kingdom!"

Koharu Utatane said with sharp eyes." This is not an act of treating allies."

Hear such shameless words, this show how shameless Konoha Elder Group, they are old but still shameless.

"No, they have already said that although Danzo has brought heavy losses to the Uzumaki Kingdom during this period of time.. but."

"Danzo and other did not follow suit, other Shinobi Village were arrested and send you labor reform, only limiting their scope of activity."

"That's good, at least they did not send Danzo to mine, his old bone can't bear such heavy task."

"Yes, but they send them to the poultry farm, their job is to help the sow to give birth."

"....."

"This treatment... "

Koharu Utatane was speechless, what kind of thinking that kid have, sending Danzo to give Brit to a sow?

Do that kso want Danzo hate him to death? You know Danzo care his face more than anything else.

Chapter 227 - Uchiha Clan Trouble

"Don't worry, as long as we compensate for the loss if the Uzumaki Kingdom, we can take Danzo back."

"How much is it?_"

".... Thirty million."

"....."

Well, it's not many, just dozen or so S Rank Tasks.

"That's the case."

Homura Mitokado said helplessly." This money will be paid by the Shimura Clan, they can't let Danzo stay there any longer."

At least Shimura Clan willing to carry the huge amount.

"Oh." Sarutobi Haruzen took a deep breath." It can only be done like this."

This black spot, Konoha Village can't not carry it.

"So what's the situation on Uchiha Clan?" Homura Mitokado asked.

You know that the incident of the Six Treasure Tools being stolen from Iwagakure has not been resolved yet.

That Tsuchikage Big Nose always asking Konoha to give them an explanation but they can't, they can't just take out something that is never exist.

"Uchiha... "

Sarutobi Haruzen sighed sadly." I asked about it last time."

"They.... "

Uchiha Clan

"Father!"

Uchiha Fuku looked at his father, after returning from the Hokage Building, he seemed to be look worried.

As one of the young Master, he also has the ability and obligation to share the worries of his father.

"It's nothing." However, Chief Uchiha shook his head and said lightly. "Go down and train."

"... Yes."

Although he was curious about what was going on, Uchiha Fuku still obeyed his father's words honestly.

However, Uchiha Patriarch still dazed.

Isn't the Uchiha Clan no one else except the Ancestor Madara and Ancestor Izuna who opened his Mangekyo Sharingan?

What the hell is this new Uchiha Shinobi who have Mangekyo Sharingan that suddenly popped out?

Is it really Uchiha Madara.

That's impossible!

You must know that last Patriarch said that Uchiha Madara is dead, he thought that that is the end

But this time is different, there's a news that Uchiha Madara is not dead making him worry.

Patriarch Uchiha sighed, don't know what to do.

And because of their incident, the Uchiha Clan fell into huge whirlpool of trouble again.

The village didn't know that they are not the one who stole the thing from Iwagakure and slaughter the Kamizuru Clan and they can't stop the civilians having bad thought at them.

Now Uchiha Clan become the most evil clan, a family of killer, and a family of thieves.

This kind of trouble is hard to clean, much more that Uchiha Clan original don't have good reputation at all.

Chapter 228 - Inventor, Unpopular Profession

The production of the Chakra Storage can be said to be very important.

It mark the emergence of the new energy source in the production and life of Shinobi.

Through the entire Shinobi World, it can be seen that the technology inside is basically crook and outdated, maybe it is also because Ninja are more profitable to do tasks so Ninja are rarely used in production and manual labor.

The Ninja Job is basically for more convenient and faster than any other job

Therefore, the birth of the Chakra Storage can also represent what the Ninja has become a part of the future production.

"Is that thing been made yet?" Uzumaki Xin looked at the Great Elder who was still left behind him.

"For the Uzumaki Kingdom to become stronger and survive in this world, strong force is essential."

If there is no military capacity that can deter the Five Ninja Village, everything that Uzumaki has done will be useless.

Of course, Xin can also move as the other hidden force is needed, but he can't just casually use them everything there's a problem.

So Uzumaki Kingdom need a independent force that need to work to every problem appear in the Uzumaki Kingdom.

While the hidden force will only be used in time of war or is the force of Uzumaki Kingdom is useless against other.

"En!"

The Great Elder nodded and said helplessly." It is done, but the size is huge, the power is too small, and the consumption is serious."

"It's not very useful for wat."

Hearing the word of the Great Elder, Uzumaki Xin suddenly become curious.

Unexpected, it only took a few days to make it, but the effects does not seems meet the standard.

It is estimated to be the same, after all, the Ninja mobility is too strong, the chakra gun is too obvious for Ninja.

It is also convenient for them to move and avoid, after all, you can't see the small barrel facing you behind.

It is estimated that this is why when Chakra Cannon is made, they can only used it to hit the moon.

It easy until the emergence of scientific cutting tools that science develop, those tools can slowly apply to wat.

"Go on."

"Take it slowly, step by step, make it smaller, lighter and more durable."

Although it is time of peace, this oerjosuikf time nothing more than buffer time for the next war, Uzumaki Kingdom need to prepare, maybe not the amount of Shinobi but at least the strength of their own tools

If you want to protect the Uzumaki Kingdom, you must have a strong force, for now they can rely on him and the hidden force to frighten the Shinobi World.

But this is not a permanent solution, they need to develop to the extended that the Uzumaki Kingdom will not going to hurt even all the Village fight a war.

The Shinobi World doesn't want another agod of Shinobi to appear agosn.

So in the second word war, the Uzumaki Kingdom have dragged down by them anyway.

However, it is not possible to add too many Ninja in a short time, even if there are, they are just cannon fodder.

Intern if technology, well they are all lacking, so when the new invention appear, everything will change for isre.

"Well, will do that."

Thai hard but its needed, Great Elder know this is a must, and if they want to continue to be independent, they need to continue to improve.

"Also the Military Service is also need to carrier ou."

"Let those who are 18 to 49 years old start practicing in Military Training one day a week."

"At least they don't forget to train even everything is peaceful."

Chapter 229 - Danzo Missed Konoha

Danzo leaning back in his chair and quietly looked at the book in his hand.

He was not worried about whether Konoha Village would come to redeem him, if you know that he is the Leader of Root, how cma they let him wait.

He is sure his gay friend, Sarutobi Haruzen is doing everything just to take him out.

And besides, there something the Konoha Village can't know, Hokage cant work and only him can do it so he can't stay imprisoned for so long.

"It's silly."

Danzo muttered while looking at the book in his hand.

"He still showed his boss the he wanted to kill him so that he would be superior, hehehe."

If he dares to do this, he would be dismissed for the reason that he was stepped into the Hokage Building with his right foot next day.

Then he will reinstated in a few days.

After all, his role is indispensable and not one want to try to ake his job.

Darkness of Konoha is not just a simple job that anyone can take, they should become Danzo or Danzo only who can work in this kind of job.

"This book is useful to Old man?_"

Danzo closed the book with a sneer on his lips and said." It's ridiculous!"

Seeing that Root Ninja standing quietly beside him, he sighed helplessly.

How could he endure such an insult in secret?

That damn kid!

God of Shinobi Wold? Isn't that old fool die because of his stupid idea?

Ridiculous! So ridiculous!

He don't know when Haruzen will pick him up.

He start to miss Konoha.

"#666, come out you have job to do."

"Old Wang is particularly fond of you, he said he want you to help his sow to give birth!"

Danzo who feeling emotional can't help but to grit his teeth in anger.

That Old Wang is to much, just because he help his Old Sow to give birth with twenty fat piglet he think he is a Old Veteran in giving birth?

Do he think this Old man will not go out and kill him in anger!

And what those pervert look he giving making this Old ma's anis shivers, Danzo think that Old Wang have bad intentions to him.

"Haruzen, please be hurry, this Old man is scared my backdoor will broke before r you broke me out of here!"

"#666, let's go, you have a job.

"..... I see."

.....

If Uzumaki Kingdom want to go out of its own, they cannot occupy everything under the earth, after all, the Ninja World sill has its own advantage

Preparation is need, like a kind of airplane, Xin know that creating such aircraft need years of study to create one but threes alternative.

A simepla and easiest one, airship, you just need some simple components and the right people to sue to fly airship.

And adding chakra cannon, this airship will transform into flying fortress.

Just imagining everyone is fighting down while you stnsidn up safe and sound whole you can kill them without any effort is pretty good.

"I should create a draft for this, and let Kushina and Naga create it."

Chapter 230 - Uzumaki School

While thinking, Uzumaki Xin walked towards the Uzumaki Kingdom Affiliated Elementary School that is made.

Today is the official start of the school, after all, it's time for those little kids to go to school and ekar something.

But according to the elderly, there seems to be very few children enrolling in science majors and everyone wants to be chosen to be Ninja.

Well that is normal, knowing that this world only strong can be supreme, who wants to become scholars?

This is really a headache.

Of course, this is also because the famous people are basically all Shinobi, and in the Uzumaki Kingdom does not have a set of systematic scientific and technology knowledge that confirms to Uzumaki Kingdom.

Ninja World's technology is crooked and outdated

Therefore, Uzumaki Xin can only use his own knowledge of Physics and Chemistry from Elementary School to High School.

He hopes that the Clan Elders can compile a set of things suitable for the Shinobi World after they have learned it.

"How many people signed up today?"

Uzumaki Xin asked curiously, looking at the Old Patriarch in front of him.

Now that the Old Patriarch is not only the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, but also the Vice President of the Elementary and College.

Of course, the president is him, this is his plan and project, everything here is made by Xin, from tools to learning materials comes from Xin.

"Already nearly three hundred children have signed up." Old Patriarch helplessly said.

"But the number of the science major is only 2."

"They are Nono and Yukihome, while the teacher available is Kushina and Naga "

"...."

"There are some kids who are bit even talented to become a Ninja, and they still dot. Want to give up."

"..."

That is normal, school is free, learning is free, and even you don't have talent, you can still come and learn because it's free

Xin advocate that Learning is Free in Uzumaki Kingdom, this works on all age except infant who can't walk and understand words.

Uzumaki Xin also sight helplessly in his heart.

It seems that scientific honor aeat must be advanced, and the reputation of thr scientist must be raised to the level of Shinobi

Otherwise this profession will continue to become unpopular.

....

Uzumaki Xin walked slowly in the school, observing, thinking that that advance intellectual who received the sixteen years of compulsory education.

Two year's in preschool

Six year's in elementary

Four year's in highschool

Four year's in college

All the education that he learn from previous life is starting to appear iandineof his head, all important knowledge that human in this world still not comprehend.

This precious knowledge maybe not useful for now, but Xin know that in the future, this hidden knowledge will be treasure everyone want.

"But still, the school is huge but the number of students is few, it feel empty."

Just looking at the empty school makes Xin feel sad, in his previous life, school is the most crowded place he ever see except in Christmas Time.

This show that Uzumaki Kingdom still need population, the number of people in Uzumaki Kingdom is not enough.
