

Uzumaki 261

Chapter 261 - Hanzo's Dilemma

"Damn bastard!"

Hanzo can't help but to curse while looking at the information coming from below, Konoha, Iwagakure, and Sunagakure did not heed his warning at all and continue to increase the number of troops in the border of Hidden Rain Village.

"Damn you bastard! What are you trying to do! What!"

Did they see that the Hidden Rain Village is pinged into a period of war because of their move?

Now the whole place is in state of unrest, people start to run away leaving the whole village empty.

Just like when the three great village joined force to destroy the Uzumaki Kingdom.

It's just that Uzumaki Kingdom survive and give birth to the Youngest Shadow Class Shinobi, but his position is different.

Three great village is eyeing at the small Hidden Rain Village, and they made shot together without even warning.

Even he name his self as Demigod Shinobi, this is too much for him to take.

Although he is confident that he can just defeat any Shadow Class in the Five Great Ninja Village, it's different if five will join force and attack them.

Hanzo know he is in dangerous position.

Moreover, the overall national strength of the Hidden Rain Village is still too weak, and did not recover from the previous war

But even he know that there's no way they can with with only them, he still want to show his strength and famr

"Go and ask, Hokage, Tsuchikage, and that bastard Kazekage."

"Ask then what they want to do in Hidden Rain Village."

There's no such no reason when you start gathering troops around his village, but even he know the reason, at least he will not the one who will trigger the war.

After all, war cause so many deaths, and even he kill, he don't kil anyone who is not a Shinobi.

War is something that no one want to happen, at same time, no one want to be the reason to start a war.

Hanzo want to become famous for being a strong and not someone who cause huge death to the Shinobi World.

But even so, in the time they really tey to fight, he the Demigod Shinobi of Hidden Rain Village will not back down to anyone of them.

As long as the Hidden Rain Village doesn't change the rain weather suddenly, then his Black Salamander Summon will still existence as Demigod.

While thinking, a message form below come.

"Master Hanzo, two people in weird clothes come into the Hidden Rain Village." A Rain Shinobi walked in and knelt down on one knees.

"Jzutnlien the Mysterious Shinobi who try to robbed the Iwagakure and Kumogakure."

"What are you talking about?" Hanzo look at the Shinobi with confused look on his face

"What are they doing here?"

"The Land of Raid don't have Sage Tools at all."

You know, this mysterious group is hunting Sage Tools for more than two years now, so many people complain they missing something but no one know if this report is true or not.

But what is the reason this mysterious people comes from Uchiha Clan, and they are all Shadow Level Shinobi.

.....

"This place is so wet and cold, I don't know why this place is always raining." Kushina who is wearing black cloak can't help but to complain.

"From my observation, it rains here because of the strange atmospheric pressure coming from three direction."

"Hot air coming from Land of Wind, Cold Air coming from land of Fire, Warm Air coming from Land of Earth, cold mist coming from Hidden Waterfall Village making the Hidden Rain Village become the center point of all this atmospheric pressure creating rain all year around."

Chapter 262 - Two New Eyes

Konoha Village

"Emergency information come from the front line!"

Sarutobi Haruzen holding the pipe in his right hand frowned as he look at the group of elders representative.

"There are traces of mysterious organization in the Hidden Rain Village."

"And this time, they come in one huge group, from the information there are rice this time and all of them are on Shadow Class Shinobi."

This report made him feel uneasy inside, five Shadow Class Shinobi is something that Konoha Village can't fight.

Maybe he can hold two Shadow Class but he is not sure if three, this making his uneasy become insecurity.

"War is inevitable." Koharu glanced at the intelligence and said." You must know whether there will be accident later, you must be prepared for the war as first task."

This battle moved to the Hidden Rain Village, and the arrangements is already made.

After all, no one wants their own country to become battlefield, and the Hidden Rain Village is just right on the center of the three great village.

With this, they can easily control the losses to a very low range is something bad will happen.

At the same time, the Hidden Rain Village is not as strong as before because of constantly civil strike inside so they know that they should prepare any threats to them

"Haha." Sarutobi Haruzen shook his head with a wry smile on his face

"I'm afraid this will going to become hard for everyone, there's three strange people join with two different eyes."

"One is the Mangekyo Sharingan that we know, the second is with eye that looks like a Dragon, and the last is a Pure White Eyes like in Hyuga Clan."

"I don't know how they get the Hyuga Clan Byakugan but from the report, that person can actually give pressure without even looking at them."

"At same time, Byakugan suddenly fail to activate while that person appear, this eman this White Eyes maybe stronger ther Hyuga Clan Byakugan."

"A Pute White Byakugan?"

"You kidding me?"

"How Byakugan come out form out village without any of us knowing this?"

They all know what this means, blood suppression, Thai only work if you have lower percentage of blood purity than the other.

"No need to explain more, we need that thing to take back to Konoha."

"Byakugan is the property of Konoha!"

Of course, they don't care about what he said, unless he said that in front of Hyuga Clan that's the problem will start.

Sarutobi Haruzen took a deep breath while looking at Danzo." It's not time yet, we still don't know what heir goal is, I dont want trouble to come to use."

What rhye need to do is to figure out who is this people, they need to visit Hyuga Clan and Uchiha Clan again this time.

"At this time, please pay attention to the Uchiha Clan movement of."

"And also the Hyuga Clan, we don't know if own of them join that group."

Sarutobi Haruzen can't help but to deeply sighed, there's a problem outside and also inside, Danzo is wooing Uchiha Clan for almost two years and both party is getting close to each other.

This is not a good sign, Haruzen feel danger from oth of party.

And the unknown group that suddenly appear in the battlefield that they prepared, this is not really going to the plan they made.

Something bad is going to happen and they all need to prepare for the worse.

And because of them, every single village start to pen a emergency meeting.

Chapter 263 - A Deal

"This is!"

Hanzo looked at the eyes of the people who wearing mask in front of him, his pupils suddenly shrank when he see thos eye's.

"Mangekyo Sharingan!"

"Pure White Byakugan!"

"And the Legendary Dragons Eye!"

No one know that full capabilities of Dragons Eye, Hanzo know how powerful this eyes base on what he read form ancient text.

The Dragon's Eye is a power that synchronizes with the spirits of all things, thus it gives it user a type of prescience that allowed him/her to see anywhere past, present, possible futures, as well as seeing and hearing the dead.

Dragon's Eye can also be used to make astral project and psychometry, it has been known to overwhelm untrained users by bringing their unbridled instincts to new heights.

The Dragon's Eye is known for its capacity to consume chakra indefinitely, so sustaining it too long can cause the user to lose consciousness.

Even though Dragons Eye is dangerous to user, you can't still denied that the usefulness of this eyes is something everyone want to have.

But still, seeing one is amazing, because Hanzo know Dragons Eye user usually died in young age after awakening this Blood Limit having their Chakra sick dey by their own eyes.

Uzumaki Xin faintly look at the breath mask of Hanzo, this is the period when Hanzo is at his peak.

It is also the period when he is about to enter his old age and star to become paranoid to everything.

After the end of World War 3, because of Old Age and loss of willpower to fight, he died in Nagato's hand after treachery.

However, now he still the Ninja Demigod who fear from his swordsmanship and incurable poison.

"What are you doing here?" Hanzo asked while frowning.

"The Hidden Rain Village does not welcome people who hide their heads, showing their tails."

"Tsk!" Kushina feel offended, she went to reveal their face but she know their mission is more important than fighting this prideful person.

"Demigod Shinobi? Tsk! How shameless, you think becoming Shadow Class can make you Demigod?"

"If Hashirama come alive, I don't know if you can say that you are still Demigod after getting slap on the face."

"...."

Hanzo's face slightly twitch, of course he know hsi strength, the gap between him and Hashirama is not something his own Demigod Title can contend.

But who cares, the God of Shinobi is dead so he can call his self whatever he wants.

"So what are you doing here in my village?" Hanzo looked at this mysterious people on front of him with cold time.

"The Land of Raid don't have Sage Tools that you guys like to collect."

"Sage tools?"

Uzumaki Xin Sahel his head." We are not here to collect Sage Tools."

"We come here just to make a deal with the Hidden Rain Village."

Deal?

Hanzo frowned and said." The Land of Rian does not want to make deal with you people with unknown identity."

"If you want to.."

"Take off you mask first."

Uzumaki Xin look at Hanzo and turn around while saying." In that case, we will go to Land of Wind and I believe they will gladly take out offer, after all, they are the weakest own who will attack this small land..."

Chapter 264 - Hanzo Second Thought

Seeing them leaving, Hanzo suddenly panicked and quickly said." What do you think of Hidden Rain Village!"

"You can come if you want and leave if you want? Soy ou think my village don't want face anymore!"

When he said this, Hanzo feel that he just pushing them to become his enemy, you know that he already facing three Great Ninja Village and now this huge organization.

He want to slap his mouth for speaking to fast and rude, if he can go back in time, he will it said those words.

Everyone stop, they all look at Hanzo as if they looking at him like a fool, sis he think with his Demigod Title he can become Hashirama?

"You don't know what true strength is."

"Thats right, don't be blind because of all those praise that you getting from other."

"Pride need to have strength to maintain, if you only have pride without strength, you are just making your self look like a clown."

Hanzo can't help but to sit down to his chair feeling the powerful chakra pressing him down.

Sweat start to form into his forehead, he can feel cold on his back while his bones is start shaking.

He know they are strong but with just Chakras burst, they can easily pin him down without fighting back.

"Mr.Hanzo, you call your self a Demigod but it seems you don't know what kind of power God have."
Uzumaki Xin said while looking at his pitiful appearance.

Hanzo was stunned in place and snap out fast, this show how he can recover fast, he faintly said." This is Hidden Rain Village."

As the head of Hidden Rain Village, Hanzo is not afraid to anyone.

Whether it is the God of Shinobi, or someone who has strength of God, he don't even care if you are stronger than him because he believes that the poison sac can kill them easily.

"Tsk, tsk, what can you do? Release your poison in the middle of Hidden Rain Village?"

"Then better do this, at least your people will not going to expirence the cruelty of the war."

Hanzo snap out again, he realizes the huge problem after hearing this.

They are in thehe middle of the Hidden Rain Village, even with his knowledge in poison, he don't know if he can save everyone if they get poison.

At same time, he don't know if he can take them secretly if he poison them, and he don't know if he really can poison them all, if open or two survive, Hanzo know that there will be endless trouble waiting for him.

"Don't do it, you will only going to make this village more miserable." Uzumaki Xin said seeing hai reaction.

He know what kind of person he is, if he can take them down, he willing to gamble, of course if he really can take them down.

What he don't know if Uzumaki Xin already have antidote for the Black Salamander's Poison so he don't really care if really tey to poison them.

"We come here to do business and not to fight, if you don't we will leave silently, but take note, if you try something funny we will not going to stand here and do nothing."

"....."

Hanzo think carefully, if take the deal, nothing will missing to them, if he declined and somehow those group of people can take out something useful and used by the oth r village, that's a huge lost for him.

So the only thing he can do is to see if the thing s they want to sell is going to be useful or not.

"What do you have?"

Own of them walk in front and pull the huge scroll behind him and open.

Inside of the scroll is bunch of strang tools from blade, amsword, bow, talisman, round object and many more.

"Grenade, no need to sue Chakra to activate, you just need to pull this pin and throw it on your enemy, the explosion is ten times stronger than normal Detonate Talisman and it's waterproof."

"Flashlight, this tolls is good in searching at night, this provide light so you can see easily in the night."

"Binoculars, if you don't have any Sense Ninja, this tools can make you see on great distance, of course, only see not sense, but if you sensitive sense of chakra, this is also good combination."

"And this..."

Chapter 265 - Tools for Sale

"This is the Healing Talisman."

"Healing Talisman?" Hanzo look at the gree colored talisman that is strange to him, he only see Detonate Talisman that is Ted in color but not a green talisman.

"Healing Talisman can heal minor injury, cnlan stop bleeding just couple of minutes and the best tools while traveling outside."

"How this thing possible?"

"Combination of Yin Release and Unique Sealing Technique, we created such useful Talisman, how about that?"

"Is this really useful?"

The hooded man take out a sharp knife and cut his palm, he then grab the Talisman and lalce it near his wound and wait for the magic to happen.

The talisman glow in green light while the wound start to heal up, you can visibly see how fast the Healing Talisman works.

"Amazing."

Hanzo did not expect that he will find a useful things out of the things they selling, Healing Talisman is the perfect tools for then when they don't even have a single proper Healing Shinobi out of the battlefield.

"Ten piece for fifty thousand."

Fifty thousand is to small for such useful tools, but he did not buy straight, he need to look for more useful staff.

"What is this thing?"

Hanzo pointed the drown round object that looks like particular dangerous.

"Landmine, this is explosive, stepping on it means death or disabled, this thing done need Chakra to use, you just need to set this up somewhere out of the open field and wait for the enemies to step on it."

This is a good trap, no need to waste chakra and you only need to put it down on the path of your enemy.

"What about the strength?"

"B Class Ninjutsu."

Hanzo nodded, the strenis good, even Elite Jonin if they hit by B Class Ninjutsu will die of they are not prepared.

"How much?"

"Ten Thousand each."

Hanzo nodded then start to look around that looks like interesting.

"What about the bow? I think no one use such thing even now except for civilians hunter right? What's the difference between this bow and a normal bow."

"This bow is made for those who have strong arms, you need to have 75 kilograms of force if you want to pull this thing and use."

"And because of the draw weight of this bow, you can shoot down enemy from long range, and Thai thing also included three different arrow."

"Piercing Arrow that can pierce Chakra Armor and Metal Plate."

"Explosive Arrow will explode when hit the target, the strength of the explosion is B Rank."

"Poison Arrow is a special arrow that you can store poison inside, this is tailored made for you."

"What about the blade? Is this blade made from Chakra Metal?"

"Of course not." The hooded man pull the blade out of the casing and show him the whole thing.

"Can slice wood like cutting a mud, can easily cut chain armor, and almost indestructible material."

"This thing is made stronger than Sage Tools."

Hanzo grab the handle of the blade and try to use it, it's light and almost no air pressure, he is like holding a blade made from wind.

Looking at the blade, Hanzo seems understand why they collecting Sage Tools, so this where they sue those tools.

Chapter 266 - Sudden Betrayal

In the end, Hanzo ordered fifty set of Healing Talisman, 10 Recurve Bow, 2000 pieces of Explosive Arrow, 500 Piercing Arrow, 20 Poison Arrow, and 5 Adamantine Steel Blade.

All of this is almost cost half of Hidden Rain Village hidden wealth while Hanzo use his own money to pay to some items he want.

Hanzo feel hurt inside after paying huge amount of money just to fight the three Ninja Village, but he know this is must if he wants to win.

He only care to win and not the money they spend, of course the tools can also minimize the lost of people so this is a good trade for his side.

"If need, I will take my man and do some bounty hunting mission."

He then start to call for meeting, he need to allocate all the tools he just bought and teach them what they need to know.

When the three Ninja Village hear that the mysterious organization enter the Hidden Rain Village, the all though that he war is going to start so they start to send people in the border to get ready.

However, they are slow, Hanzo already start preparing for their actions, he have so many spies everywhere so he know what they currently doing.

But even if the three Ninja Village know this, they will never care, what they care most is the mysterious organizationsl.

Without knowing what the mysterious organization goat really is, the three Ninja Village dare not to move excessively.

So everything suddenly stop, the small fight suddenly disappear leaving everything in absolute silence.

All Shinobi Village are waiting.

Especially for the other three Ninja Village, they don't know if there are trouble waiting for them or this is just included to a bigger plan.

Then a news suddenly explode out of nowhere.

"What!" Onoki slapped the stone table with both hand seeing the report, then he look at his son who kneeling in front of him with incredible face.

"Hanzo said that the Uchiha Shinobi who have Mangekyo Sharingan comes from Konoha Village?!"

"And he already betrayed their organization!"

Onoki muttered in disbelief." So now that man become wanted by their organization?"

All of this is incredible and almost unbelievable, although he originally planned to dry Konoha's money and economy got a whole, but now it's different.

He have the reason to blackmail the Konoha Village again, you know, the Konoha Village only pay him fro the last of Kamizuru Clan and nothing more.

But now it's different, Sage Tools is priceless and you can find any of this tools out of the market.

Now he have the perfect reason to ask for more money so why not do it?

"By the way." Onoki frowned and asked his son who was kneeling in front of him.

"Do you know what they did in Hidden Rain Village?"

You know, only handful of people know that Sage Tools and no one know anything about this, at same time, this holder is the only one who know the full ability of their Sage Tools.

So losing one is same as losing half of the money of the whole village so he is trying to take rit back from that Organization but it's fruitless, he don't even know who they are but now it's different.

He already have the reason to point Konoha Village as the bad of the Organization and ask for more compensation.

"Continue to send more spies to explore the Hidden Rain Village."

"At the same time, ask Konoha Village to hand over that Uchiha Shinobi who destroyed the Kamizuru Clan and bring the Sage Tool back to village."

"Yes!"

"Let see how Sarutobi will deal with this problem." Onoki murmured while watching his son going out.

Chapter 267 - Reaction of all Village

The Mysterious Uchiha Shinobi is Konoha Village Hidden Card.

When this sentence came out from the mouth of Hanzo, it spread like wildfire to every Shinobi Village.

There's no stopping for it.

"Damn Konoha!" Third Raikage can't help but to smash his stone table in anger, he never expected that thief is actually a Konoha Shinobi.

"Dare to deceive me like this!"

"Rarw!"

He remembered the scene when that Damn Uchiha Shinobi was teasing them, looking at them like a playful monkey.

This thing can't easily be forgotten after the incident, hundred or so Hidden Cloud Shinobi were badly injured.

Dozen or so houses were destroyed, the forest where they keep their life stocks was burnt to dust, while the Sage Tools were missing.

All of this pile up making Third Raikage's rage almost burn the whole Hidden Cloud Village in to raging fire.

"Damn bitches!"

He hurried shouted." Let the Elder declare war to Konoha Village!"

"If Konoha Village doesn't surrender that Uchiha Scum and return the Sage Tools of the Hidden Cloud Village at the same time!"

"Hidden Cloud Village will officially declare war on Konoha!"

"We will destroy Konoha!"

It happens that the three major Shinobi Village have assembled their force in the boundary of Hidden Rain Village.

It seems that the Hidden Cloud Village will going to join the war this time.

"Hmph!"

Raikage sneered." Damn Konoha!"

.....

Hidden Sand Village

"There is a news from below that the Mysterious Uchiha Shinobi that invade the Hidden Stone Village and Hidden Cloud Village was actually a Konoha Shinobi."

Third Kazekage grabbed the intelligence in his hand frowning and looked at the people below.

"What do you think about this report?"

"The information is not necessarily correct." The Hokage Assistant shook his head.

"Although the Mangekyo Sharingan can only be produced by Uchiha but.. "

"The apprentice of Second Generation Hokage will definitely not let them produce a Mangekyo Sharingan."

Everyone know that only thing a family want to so is to step on the corpse of other family , this is how the relationship of Senju Clan and Uchiha Clan.

The two big families that created the No.1 Ninja Village in the world, but they also blocked the path of other family..

If a family want to become rich family, one must fall down.

The Senju Clan is impossible, they have strong heritage and the Jinchuriki is part of their own family.

In any case, it is a family of two generation Hokage so it's impossible for them to get defeated m

Not that they come from Hokage Lineage, the only target they can chose is Uchiha Clan.

"We still don't want to join this muddy water." Assist Hokage said with a sight.

"After all, we haven't recovered yet."

After the First Ninja War, the Hidden Sand Village is almost devastated, they can't even feed their own people while the Daimyo never send money because of their defeat.

"In this case, send someone to tell Konoha, condemn them for Konoha's behavior, and ask them to return the Sage Tools of Hidden Cloud Village and Hidden Rock Village, at least we join. The fun right even we will not going to fight."

...

Chapter 268 - Konoha Village Problem

"What the hell?*

When Uzumaki Xin heard what happening right now, he never expect that he really did something bad to Konoha.

"Why all of sudden, the Major Ninja Village declared war on Konoha Village?"

"And they asking for Konoha Village to return the Sage Tools?"

How can they return that when they don't have it to them, the Sage Tools is being study by the Blacksmith Guild for all year and no one know this except to hainwon people.

Uzumaki Xin can't help but to feel sad for Sarutobi Haruzen right now, he is now being pin down by all Village because of his fault.

"Well nevermind, Konoha Village can find solution for this problem, if they can't find Sage Tools, maybe they can pay but it will hurt a lot."

You know, Sage Tools is priceless, no one want to sell this thing even if they offered mountain of money.

After all, each Sage Tools have different used and strength base on what kind of Tools they are, just one tool can help seal Tail Beast thats ho strong this is.

For sure Konoha Village will bleed just to pay the price for sure, and the war will be faster if nothing happen.

"The war is about to begin."

He expected that the war will going to start couple of years ago and only start after Sasori killed the Third Kazekage but it seems he don't need to wait.

With huge lost of money, for sure Sarutobi Haruzen is itchy to start the war, after all, war is the most profitable job there.

This war is also a good thing for Uzumaki Kingdom, they selling arms and this arms into sell fast when wartime.

Now war is about to start, people will buy the item of them even if they sell it on high price for sure.

...

Konoha Village

Emergency Meeting!

Sarutobi Haruzen look melancholy sipping of his pipe on his hand.

He looked at the Konoha Elder group present and worriedly said." You have read all the information right?"

"Tell me, what should we do?"

The Three Great Ninja Village actually declared war on them Konoha.

Want Konoha Village to return those stupid Sage Tools at them then compensate them for their lost time.

What is going here?

Even him as the highest Konoha Leader, he didn't even know that Konoha had hidden so many Six Path Sage Tools.

And why they asking something that Konoha don't have?

Could it be that Konoha also hides the Legendary Sage Tools somewhere, but they haven't discovered it yet?

"There Three Ninja Village are bullying!" Utatane said with angry face.

"I think those mystery people is definitely deliberate doing this!"

However, everyone here shook their head with wry smile..

Don't everyone know it already?

Even Tsuchikage and Raikage knew better in their heart, but why did they still point at Konoha?

This is all about interest, of you something that you have better than other, the other will do everything to get that

This is not new.

"Danzo, have you found out who that person who have Mangekyo Sharingan?"

Sarutobi Haruzen frowned and looked at Danzo who looking thoughtful next to him and asked." Uchiha Water?"

"Has this name been found yet?"

"No." Danzo shook his head.

"I never heard such stupid name in Uchiha Clan, I even have all the name of Uchiha people from small kid to old foggy and I don't see that name at all."

"What I'm thinking is, maybe that man with Mangekyo Sharingan is not part of Uchiha Clan at all."

He only feel this, except for the current Uchiha Chief who have small chance to awake Mangekyo Sharingan, he don't see anyone who potentially have one.

The Uchiha Clan Thai generation is all rice buckets, they ont have pride but no strength at all.

Hearing this, Sarutobi Haruzen showed a disappointed look on his face, not only disappointed to Danzo indifference, but also disappointed in the sudden change of his good frit.

He don't know when his friend stop bothering him about becoming Hokage, he is now missing the Old Danzo who always do some outrageous thing.

Chapter 269 - Haruzen's Own Calculation

"Uchiha Clan..... "

Sarutobi Haruzen took his pipe and start to smoke.

"What should Konoha do this time?"

They are clearly targeting Konoha Village.

A person who's not paying attention to Konoha doesn't know anything at all

Who would say that the first generation and the second generation left them such large family background but don't have power to resist this three village.

The Konoha today is not the Konoha when it was founded, it's hard to admit it but the Elderly know that Konoha Village is not strong as they think.

Konoha Village is just lucky that there is a Genius born when time is needed that how they survive.

Now this different, it's not one or two but three great village, even a genius come out to this year, this is still not enough.

"They did it on purpose." Homura Mitokado frowned.

"In order to slow down Konoha in this war, they do such despicable mean."

Otherwise, if people say that Hanzo is from Konoha, why should they immediately believe it?

Isn't it because they think Konoha is too strong?

"What Konoha is facing now is not how to make other village believe us." Utatane said with squinting eyes.

"But it is time to prepare to resist the war of the three great village."

Because you can never wake up a group who pretending to be sleeping, the mysterious people who popped up suddenly said this.

How could they believe it so easily.

But all of this know that they using this a excuse to fight them.

"But how should we resist?" Sarutobi Haruzen worried said.

"Even if it succeed in the end, Konoha will probably lose a lot "

The people they fighting this time is not just random cat and dog.

They are same as them, Great Ninja Village!

"Alliance." Homura said with serious face.

"The three Ninja Village can form an alliance temporarily so why not do the same?"

Ony this way, they can decrease the lose of Konoha.

What's more, the alliance of the three Ninja Village will not last lost

Hearing Homura'd words, Sarutobi Haruzen suddenly narrowed his eyes.

He knew wat his old friend want to say

"Uzumaki Kingdom?"

Let Konoha find a few more allies to resist the rest of Ninja Village.

"I'll asked Mito-sama alter." Sarutobi Haruzen squinted, before raising his head to look at Danzo.

"You also pay attention to the recent movement of Uchiha Clan, and... "

"And don't get too close to them."

Danzo's hand slightly trembles when he heard Sarutobi Haruzen 's words, narrowing hie eyes and nodding." I see."

He know what he man to say that.

He need to give up everything this time.

'What a good calculation Haruzen... '

Chapter 270 - Situation in Uzumaki Kingdom

End of the Year is about to come.

Uzumaki Xin looked at the news coming from below and asked what to do with this festival?

What kind of question is that?

Isn't it normal to have red lantern on each home, bright light in the streets, and many colorful things hanging in the window in this kind of time?

Every year when New Year's Eve is approaching, the Uzumaki Clan will celebrate with ceremony that Xin hate most.

Not only it's useless, but also boring, you just need to sit down and listen to the teaching of those Elderly of the Clan about their experience.

On the other hand, they worship the God of Death, the belief the Uzumaki Clan, which has been passed down for unknown number of years.

Then pray for good weather, harvest, good health, and the luck for upcoming year.

This is also makes Xin confused, he know that God of Death is the God of Afterlife, and this God don't have any power to give all the wish they want because he is the God of Death and not Gos of Harvest or similar God.

Maybe this is the reason why the Uzumaki Kingdom is so weak and not even have single production.

Because the Uzumaki Kingdom was just a small country in the past, it was considered a closed county.

The only thing connected was Konoha Village, basically most of the materials were purchased form Konoha or in the Land of Fire.

Although the national resources is not much richer, fishing by the sea will not lead to starvation, but it is impossible for everyone to be able to eat.

After all, fishing skills of ordinary people are still too port, especially for catching marine fish.

Of course, apart from those who didn't starve to death, there are still a lot of people who freeze to death in the country of the Uzumaki Kingdom every year in the cold winter.

And to help Konoha Village resist the enemy, basically there is no money to do tasks, so Uzumaki Kingdom has remained on the poverty line for a long time.

Thinking of this, Uzumaki Xin had to ask money for the work the Uzumaki Clan did form the previous war, but the problem is Konoha Village never said anything about compensation."

Konoha Village treat Uzumaki Clan as free labor, and the most hateful thing is everytime they send people, not single one come back alive.

Therefore, for a place with many people, a small place that is greatly impact by the weather, the festival has become a big event for Uzumaki Kingdom.

And this time, because it was the time fo war again, the people below come to ask what they need to do to the festival this year

After all, the lat ear was also end of the year, and the Uzumaki Kingdom stopped holding festival because of the war just end.

"What is the current situation of the whole Kingdom?"

Although the Uzumaki Kingdom has been away from the mainland for a while, the country still feel the unusual atmosphere.

After all, there are quite a lot of foreign merchant here to do business in Uzumaki Kingdom every year, especially this time because of the gathering of soldier form the three Ninja Village.

In the Uzumaki Kingdom incident, more than half of these foreign businessman left making everyone feel something wrong.

"Well, although the people were a little uncomfortable at first because of the departure of the merchant." Naga said.

"But this thing didn't have much impact on Uzumaki Kingdom.,c

"Does the information about another war in Ninja World have been passed on to everyone all ready?" Uzumaki Xin asked dheile his hand is on his chin

"Hiding is not a perfect solution, it's only matter of time before everyone learn about the war."

Once the Uzumaki Kingdom really falls into war, it will be a nationwide war, because only by relying on the power of the entire Uzumaki Kingdom that everyone can survive the war

And the psychological problem of the war must be prepared in advance.

"Officials from all over the country have been notified." Naga said.

"Although they were surprised at the begging, everyone gathered to the relevant agency and asked if they could help."

"Even the elderly in their seventies were also trying to help."

"..... I want.. "
