

Uzumaki 271

Chapter 271 - Change in Uzumaki Kingdom

"I want to protect our Kingdom, I think the preparation we did for couple of years is enough for us to show our own position to this world." Uzumaki Xin smiled while thinking something.

"Are you going to start no Young Master?" Naga nervous asked.

"Be calm, you know that this thing will eventually happen anytime soon, I just made it earlier than we plan."

"But what about the others?"

"I will give them enough time to decide, if they leave, the Uzumaki Kingdom will never give them any position in the future."

"But they can still become regular civilians and that is, all the thing I promise when I founded the Kingdom only works to those who left behind to help us."

"As for those who is greedy for their own life, you just need to treat them as normal people, without any privilege like those who left behind to help us."

"Yes Young Master!"

Naga know that this is the time to test those people they taking, if they fail, there's no punishment, but failing doesn't mean you will not lose something.

The huge privilege that Uzumaki Xin said will be taken from them if they left before the war started.

You know that this privilege is huge, this will give you a chance to step to more higher status than they currently having.

"The Uzumaki Kingdom is strong, we just don't like to show off, but if they test us, we will reactant to hit their head to wake them up."

"Pay attention to not breaking the order of the Uzumaki Kingdom."

Uzumaki Xin stretched his waist and said, "As long as everyone still believes in the Uzumaki Kingdom, the Uzumaki Kingdom will never perish.,x

"I'm tired recently, so it's time for everyone to relax."

"But Young Master, you never do any paper works except reading it?"

".... Well nevermind, I will stay for few minutes before going out, you see, the weather is nice, it's wasteful if we can't use it to fullest."

"Aren't you just want to be lazy Young Master?"

".... Shut up."

Night

Tonight is an unusual night, although the sun has long disappear from the horizon, and the moon has been hung up in the sky, there is still light in the Uzumaki Kingdom.

The cylindrical things on both side of the road are called street lights.

Something that appeared suddenly last month, at first everyone didn't know what it was until that night.

This cylindrical thing suddenly lit up, bringing light to the originally pitch black Uzumaki Kingdom.

Now every household has this thing, but the tolls they have is not street light but a table lamp, the original oil lamp is abandoned by them.

Aftall, this table lamp is cheaper and more convenient, you don't need to buy wicks and lamp oil, just buy and check and get a batteries to sue the table lamp.

Not only that, there is also the ceiling light, it's large and can light the whole house with just only one.

It's more convenient than table lamp as table lamp can only light a small space and not the whole house
m

There's also the Heater that everyone use every cold night, electric fan in hot summer, refrigerator to store food to prevent spoilage and amny more.

This tools maybe costly but the usefulness is already know by everyone, and this is also open of the gossip in the town.

Not having one or two of this times makes you looks like lazy person, no one want to be called lazy even if it true.

So the appliances become hot commodity in Uzumaki Kingdom, having none makes you look like beggar even you own a house.

Chapter 272 - Holiday

"Is there a war?"

Nono Yakushi looked at the red haired boy sitting next to her with worried look

When she was brought back, she and the other children realize how dangerous war is, but now they are all mature after years of experience so they know what war means

Especially the boy next to her, he carry everything behind him while trying to move forward in this hurtful words.

And she just realized something, the small cute shota start to gian more height, his cute face start to turn more handsome and mature, of course you can still see that he is still not mature enough when it comes to age

He is same height as her back then and now he is head taller than her, and more importantly is he look more handsome.

Glancing at Uzumaki Xin, she turned her head blushing, she immediately said." The Uzumaki Higher Ups will not... "

"Don't worry." Uzumaki Xin who reading books look at No o with a smile making her steam like steamer.

The yellow haired girl who was malnourished at the time I'd now beocme beautiful girl, and he heard that her talent in Medical Jutsu is start to show up

Her progress is much faster than Kushina and Naga that time, only more time Nono can be said to same level of the other girls.

"There will be nothing wrong with Uzumaki Kingdom, just like I promised you that life in Uzumaki Kingdom will be very good and never change."

"Trust me, the Uzumaki Kingdom will be stronger and stronger, and eventually become No. 1 in the World."

"En!" Nono lowered her head replying, she don't need to ask, her eyes can see better than thsoe how same age as her.

The strength of the Uzumaki Kingdom maybe in the same level of those Great Ninja Village, and of Xin want, Uzumaki Kingdom can become No. 1 any moment.

But she know Xin don't want that kind of fame, he just want to silently wait until the right time come.

"I believe in you, I have always believe in you."

Uzumaki Xin didn't notice stenage from Nono, but smoked and looked at the two red haires girs running around happily holding a small mechanical pet on their arms.

"Don't think to much, enjoy what you have in front, let those problem come to me.".

"No... I just want to help you.... " Nono lowered her head peeking at Xin then look at Kushina and the other girl hmwho running around.

"Maybe... This is also good.,c.

Suddenly, Xin's pocket start to vibrate, sensing this Xin take out a strange device on that looks like a mobile phone and look at it.

"What's the matter?" Nono curious asked.

Xin touch her head and said." Chief of Police Department invite me to ahev tea."

"Eh? Did you destroy your hidden laboratory?"

This is not new to them, two or three time s a week, Xin always called back in Police Station because of what he did.

Of course, no one report Xin expect for Kushina, and his parents, after all, no one brave enough to report him.

"If you are busy, you can leave first, injsit going to explain to them."

"Sorry, I originally promised you today... "

"Play slowly, don't get to tired, I'll be back later."

It's a headache, originally it was his holiday today and promise to accompany the girls to play.

What the matter with them right now? Did they found one of his secret base again?

You know he hide his secret base so no one can find it but recently, his base start to come out one by one for some reason.

As if someone is targeting him, if he found who doing this, he promised that the punishment will be hilarious and embarrassing for the culprit.

Chapter 273 - Konoha Second Visit

"Konoha Shinobi representative is here."

Just when Uzumaki Xin was about to enter, the Old Patriarch said directly to him.

"Old Patriarch and the other Elder decided that you meet them."

Uzumaki Xin frowned and said." Didn't I say last time that if Konoha Village come ask for another alliance, just ignore them?"

He already said that Uzumaki Kingdom will never go into another all in with Konoha Village again, maybe if they are Senju Clan or Uchiha Clan, Xin maybe consider them but Konoha? He never be a fool like other.

Even the Uzumaki Kingdom already said that they will decline ant type or form of Alliance, they still have guys to come and seek for alliance.

Did they forgot that the Sarutobi Shinobi in the mining ground is still waiting for them to get redeem?

And not only that, everyone know that the Hokage send army just to kill them last time, it was still fresh for them having thousand Konoha Shinobi just to hunt them.

And still on the day of the Uzumaki Kingdom Festival?

Don't they know that this time can be said to be the most important day for Uzumaki Kingdom?

After all, the Uzumaki Clan can live so long, the concept that have been handed down for thousand of years if that they have been favored by the God of Death.

Especially the Uzumaki Clan has been using the Dead Demon Consuming Seal that is related to God of Death.

Even though Xin don't really care about his tradition, the older people respect this very much and coming to disturb them is a huge cause.

They are disrespecting the faith of Uzumaki Clan.

"Can't the Old Patriarch handle this?" Uzumaki Xin said.

Actually, he really don't care about Konoha Village, and he don't have idea to re alliance with them as they are just bunch of betrayer.

What they want him to do?

Beat them?

Xin is unskilled, maybe he accidentally kill them in process.

"The Old Patriarch and other don't want to face this so they send you."

"And they seems to have tkane a letter from Mito-sama and asked to hand it over to you."

Uzumaki Mito?

Uzumaki Xin suddenly frowned, feeling helpless, what else did she want to do?

Didn't she already know that Konoha was watching the watch them with cold and murderous eyes?

Asking her natal family to help those wolves?

Isn't this cheating?

"Forget it, I'll go and see." Uzumaki Xin said helplessly.

"No matter what, she also use to help us when we are in need."

Uzumaki Xin don't understand why they are so greedy, he already give them a perfect Jinchuriki Seal so that they can seal Nine Tails.

It seems they don't want to seal the Tail Beast, they also want to sue it so they don't like the Sealing Technique that they give to them

Xin estimate that they come to Uzumaki Kingdom to steal people.

Uzumaki Xin can't help it, Uzumaki Clan is the perfect container for Tail Beast so it hard for them not to choose them to become container.

But the problem is Konoha Village and Uzumaki Kingdom is enemy to each other so how can Uzumaki send people for them?

It's a wishful thinking, they think that the last inside is already forgotten by them but tis not, Xin and other is still waiting for the right time to strike them back.

Chapter 274 - Helpless Konoha Representative

To the group of Konoha Shinobi who come to seek alliance, the Old Patriarch and the Elder just nodded but once they asked for an alliance, they hurried Shok their head.

The current Uzumaki Kingdom seems to be more better than han before but they know it's only in front.

After the war, the Uzumaki Kingdom fight again for he Ninja Village, two of them at same time, they send people and not single come back alive

The current Uzumaki Kingdom is not recovered yet so the Uzumaki Kingdom can't help them.

And besides, Uzumaki Clan has not obligation to help Konoha Village, at same time, Konoha Village know that they are both in conflict.

It's already better that they did not arrested the Konoha Village Representative when they entered the Uzumaki Kingdom showing that even they are angry, they still can hold their emotion.

Then seeing th Konoha Village Representative's face being angry while trying to show a neutral expression, the Elderly and Patriarch fket burst of joy in their heart.

Remember when they went to ask Konoha Village for hel that says, didn't they also feel the same?

You can abandon the Uzumaki Kingdom for so called peace in Ninja World, but you forget that Uzumaki Kingdom can also abandon them with same reason.

"Patriarch Uzumaki..."

Konoha Village Representative' helpless said." If Konoha Village can't resist, Uzumaki Kingdom will be bad."

"It's okay, we can go and ask for Alliance to the winner of that time comes."

Xin who come heard this can't help but to said.

"And besides, Konoha Village is the No.1 Shinobi Village so how can they defeat easily?"

"I heard that Third Hokage is the Strongest Hokage in the wood so I think he can do what Hashirama did in Warrent State Period."

Uzumaki Xin walk while smiling at them.

The Konoha Village Representative can't help but to cursed inward, but they also helpless.

He didn't want to take on this task but the Hokage gave it to them specifically.

The Nara also get but for some coincidence all fo them have Food Poison next day and all of them need to stay at home to recuperate.

Of course, before he come here, he also for Nara's opinion and he only got the answer.

Impossible

He do t know why so he take some small research and fins everything the Konoha did to Uzumaki Kingdom.

He is still surprised what the Village did to them, 100% Death Rate to any mission, No Compensation, No Rescue when Uzumaki Kingdom need, getting hunt by Hokage Clan and so on.

Just from looking at the information, the Konoha Village Representative that this mission is impossible, maybe they will die before etheu can even see the Patriarch Uzumaki.

But who kwno they arrive successfully and meet the Old Patriarch and the New Patriarch, and when they answered he know it already the they will decline.

"Hello, Young Patriarch."

"Hello, Konoha Representative."

"I think you already know why we come here right?"

"And I think you know the answer already right? So why still brother to come?"

"It's a Secret Mission, we can decline this." Konoha Representative helpless smile at them.

Xin know that they can decline this, if they did, they will only get trouble by the Higher-ups, you know that those people don't like people who is useless.

"Where is the letter Grandma Mito want to give?"

"Here."

Chapter 275 - Mito's Pleading

Uzumaki Xin looked at the Uzumaki Mito's letter with weird look and sighed helplessly.

Sure enough, Mito still couldn't let Konoha go, so the letter pleading with Uzumaki Kingdom to help Konoha resist the Three Great Ninja Village and Hidden Rain Village.

There is also the long story of the so called peace left by God of Ninja.

The Konoha is eagerly for peace and has been committed to protecting the peace of the Ninja World, this time it was just forced to move

The so called Uzumaki Kingdom and Konoha Village watching each other's back is nonsense in the eyes of Xin.

Anyway, Uzumaki Xin's brain hurts.

Looking at the Konoha Village Represent, he can't help but to asked.

"They said Konoha Village is the one who maintaining the Peace in Ninja World but it seems that the report coming form below is different from what Konoha is doing.

"What so you mean Young Patriarch?" Konoha Village Represent asked.

"Base from the report, Hidden Sand, Hidden Rock, and Hidden Leaf Village send their own people in Hidden Rain Village borders."

"You and I are not fool to not to see clearly that Konoha Village is trying to provoke the Hidden Rain Village to start a war."

"Now tell me, as the member of the so-called Konoha Village for Peace, how can you said you maintain peace when your the one who eagerly to start war."

The Konoha Village Representative is speechless, how can't he knows the plan of the Village official.

He is from bigger clan so he know the movement of the Konoha Shinobi and the troops send in the border to provoke war.

He know that World Peace that the Konoha Village Higher-ups taking is all just words without action so he don't know how to answer this.

"And last time, the troops we send died while some survive, but the Shinobi survive is send to become experiment object, now tell me, how can I send people to help you when you guys eagerly to kill all of us."

Another question that he can't answer, not many know this thing, even him only heard this somewhere but he never expect that it's true.

If this is true, then they come her with shameless face, not only the other help them, they also try to kill those who help them.

From the eyes of other, this is huge scandal that can make Konoha's reputation down to drain, and standing alive right now maybe the greatest tolerance of the Uzumaki Kingdom.

"And the last thing, when Sarutobi Clan will pay the ransom for their own people? You know that feeding hundred their people is huge cost for Uzumaki Kingdom, can you please redeem them and stop trying to blind eye to us?"

"You know that those people they sent sos all people from Sarutobi Clan, and if they want to gian out trust, tell your Shameless Chief."

"We will never be Allie to shameless people, but we can take mission, this is mission and you need to pay."

"If you think using us to be Cannon fodder, think again, we are not begging you, you are the one who begging us."

"Tell Sarutobi, the condition of Uzumaki Clan is to pay us for our job, redeem their stupid people, and stop using Mito to get my people, if he wants I can transfer the Tail Beast to his son, after all he want to pass that Hokage position that he can't release to his people."

This time, the Konoha Shinobi around can't help to feel embarrassed.

Just know this kind of thing really makes anyone feel embarrassed, they heard how the Higher-ups treat Uzumaki Clan but they never heard this so much discrimination.

And they also discovered that the Uzumaki Kingdom is actually imprisoning the thousand of Sarutobi Shinobi making them confused.

How can the Hokage Clan have such big reserve army when they are trying to squeeze even a single drop of Shinobi in the last war

The Konoha Village Representative also stunning, after all, he also know the condition of Sarutobi Clan right now.

He don't know when Sarutobi Clan have thousand Shinobi when the report is they only have rive hundred at most.

This news make him feel chill, he know some of the Shinobi striker hat join the mission come form Sarutobi Clan, if they know that they learn this important mission, maybe they can't go back alive.

Chapter 276 - Hiring Uzumaki Clan

"What kind of payment Uzumaki Kingdom want?" Konoha Village Representative asked.

"First they need to pay for the help of Uzumaki Kingdom fro World War 1 and 2, after all, they did not send any help when we are getting attack by the other village, this is not acceptable when we Uzumaki Clan send people in instant when you guys need help."

Thinking of it, they just realized today, Konoha Village never pay Uzumaki Clan for their help, not even a single help from them.

While Uzumaki Kingdom help them when they ask, they did not even ask why they need to help them.

Paying is normal for anyone, after all, the family of Shinobi ninja who died in war also get payed, what about the people who help them?

Is it fine just to receive their help without paying anything?

Of course not, much more they never send any real help when Uzumaki Clan asked for help, they even heard that they keep the Uzumaki Clan Representative couple of days before saying that they can't help.

The Konoha Village Representative accept this request, actually this is not a request at all but asking for bill they never paid.

"Next is to Sarutobi Clan to redeem their people, there are thousands of Sarutobi Shinobi in the mining ground that need to feed, so you know how much they eat for two years staying with us?"

"Ask your Strongest Hokage that they need to pay for the food of their own clan people at same time redeem them or else I will sell them all to other Kingdom as Slave."

The Konoha Shinobi are kind can't help but to broke in sweat, thousand Shinobi? How much money they need to pay to redeem all of them.

But still, they come from Sarutobi Clan so the one who will going to redeem them is the Sarutobi Clan only.

But what makes Konoha Representative nervous is if the Hokage will use the Village fund to help his clan to redeem their people.

After all, the Village is also having problem with money so they can't just use it to redeem such huge amount of people.

"I will asked Hokage-same."

"Good, next is I want you Konoha Village to draft a Special Mission hiring us, Uzumaki Clan to fight for war."

"I just want to have a hwrdr copy of mission to prevent having trouble asking money in the end."

"But, the highest rank we can give is S Class Mission."

"It's fine, but we will only send 1 group consist of 5 people for each S Class Mission you send."

"You mean?"

"If Konoha Village want people to help the war, they need to hire people, not group."

This made the Konoha Representative start thinking.

S Class Mission is the highest and the hardest mission is hat a Shinobi can get, the rewards on Thai mission is different and precious.

From money, title, storm Ninjutsu and special technique.

If they send dozen or so S Class Mission, he think that they can empty the whole Konoha Village for paying them.

"I think the Hokage will nyo accept this."

"Don't worry, tell them that only Special Jonin can accept your request, five or six S Class Mission is enough I think."

"All of them are Special Jonin?"

"Yes, of course, if you want to hire Shadow Class Shinobi, you need to pay more, after all, Shadow Class is rare and not cheap to hire "

Konoha Village Representative nodded, he is right, Shadow Class Shinobi can be hired using money, but you need to pay higher if you want them to work for you.

He heard there are Shadow Class Shinobi doing bounty missions so it's normal for them to hire Shadow Class Shinobi of the Uzumaki Clan.

But there is one problem, who can they command Shadow Class Shinobi when they are stronger than their own commander?

Chapter 277 - Konoha Accepts the Offer

Konoha Village

"What do you think?" Sarutobi Haruzen took a deep breath and asked. "Do you want to agree to the terms of the Uzumaki Kingdom?"

He sighed deeply, there have been many meetings recently, and the Uzumaki Kingdom added to their own problem right now making him feel breathless.

"The conditions of the Uzumaki Kingdom are really....." Utatane put down the documents in her hand and frowned.

"Konoha Village is absolutely impossible to agree to "

"At that time, the amount of money we need to take out is so much even if we want to redeem the people from Sarutobi Clan."

"As for the payment for Uzumaki Clan help from the two previous wars, how can we pay them, we are both allies?"

It's shameless to say this but she is right, allies never ask for payment for their help, but the problem is Konoha Village never fulfilled their own obligation of being Allies.

As if they only want to get and take and never give back what they used to get.

Sarutobi Haruzen shook his head with wry smile.

He didn't want to but when he went to see and ask for help from Mito-sama, he have hard time convincing her.

He also want to ask Senju Clan for help convincing Uzumaki Clan but there's a problem, Konoha Higher-ups is secretly attacking Senju Clan trying to weaken the thier fame so how can he ask them now?

And the Senju know this, even if he ask them and Senju accept it, he don't know if they really going to follow the other or not so he just bypass them.

"Senju Can... "

A light flashed in Sarutobi's eyes and helpless said." There is not time left."

"According to the investigation of the intelligence tean, the large force in the Hidden Cloud Village begin to rush to the Hidden Rain Village."

"This!"

Homura glanced at Utatane and sighed." They are to demanding, to much request."

"The request.... We can do it." Sarutobi Haruzen said with dangerous glint on his eyes.

"But they need to hold two village if they want to get paid."

All of them look at Sarutobi Haruzen, they did not expect him to be shameless.

No one will take a mission with such high moral rate, and from what they heard there's only five people on one group so even if they asked five or ten group the number is still small to hold two great village.

But if the they cns really hold two village, the Konoha will going to have easy time fighting the rest of the enemy.

Uzumaki Kingdom

"Fight two village?"

Uzumaki Xin squinted his eyes after he saw that Konoha Village passes the condition.

He didn't want Konoha to fully agree to their request, but this is still good, the amount of money is huge and will greatly help the Uzumaki Kingdom.

He originally planned to wait until the end of the war before going back to Hidden Rain Village but it seems he going back for another good deal.

"Little Xin?"

The Old Patriarch and other other looked worried, you must know there are the Great Village and not just random cat or dog.

Can they really stop them?

"Not a problem, but tell them that they need to prepare 20 S Class Mission for this and the half of payment for the mission before we accept it."

Let see if they can still play for this war.

Chapter 278 - Last Meeting before War

20 S Class Mission?

Do you know how much the reward of S Class Mission?

The lowest is 5 million and the difficulty of the mission is not much for Special Jonin or Jonin to complete.

But this is different, fighting a war is not same as S Class Mission that you normally take, and the difficulty is higher than a Normal S Class Mission.

The reward is raging in 10 million to 20 million at most, and for sure Uzumaki Clan will never accepted a S Class Mission with poor reward.

"Will Konoha Village accept it?" Old Patriarch asked.

"They will agree." Uzumaki Xin nodded

"If they don't want to be surrounded by four huge army, even if they cut their two arms they willing to do it."

In face of destruction, no one will think haggling price to the people who willing to take the risk so Konoha Village will never decline them.

"Ask them to pay 200 million for the first payment and we will get the last after the war or of the two village will back down."

"And also, tell them, we are going to attack, Hidden Sand Village, and Hidden Rain Village."

"Young Master, I can understand why choosing Hidden Sand Village, but why Hidden Rain Village?" One of the Elder confused asked.

Uzumaki Xin smiled and said." Not long ago, I have a good deal with Hidden Rain Village, I think Hanzo will accept a offer of peace while watching other to consume their own force."

"You all know that the actual target of the three Ninja Village is the Hidden Rain Village, and I'm sure Hanzo don't want lose some force while the real battle is not starting."

Everyone nodded, if Hanzo want to win the war or even defend he need huge force to hols the three great village.

It's not wise to fight where you will gain nothing while losing huge force so it's normal for Hanzo to choose the best way to minimize the lose.

"Will Konoha Village will be dissatisfied in this case?"

"Who cares, we are only taking mission and not asking their permission, if they want tell them find people who willing to take two village at once let se if they can find people who like money more than life."

"....."

Of course no one will take it, not even a group because of hey know it's impossible to stop or hold two village at same time.

Much more if they really hold them, they don't know what will happen next, maybe next day their own face is already posted in the Bounty Hunter Guild.

"Now the Uzumaki Kingdom is needed to be ready for the war."

Uzumaki Xin looked at everyone sitting with a serious face

"After the notice, there is still only one rule you need to follow."

"They to minimize our loss."

"Try to minimize the loss of our enemy."

"And don't work hard for Konoha, our task is to win and not to kill."

"If the situation is not right, you can just retreat instantly, remember, I don't like hero, I want people who have right mind, after all, I don't have plan to create Hero Monument in Uzumaki Kingdom."

"At the same time, try to recruit refugees, anyway the people will surely run away because of the war."

Anyway, if they got the half of deposit, even if something goes wrong in the end, they will not go to lose money.

And this is only way to recruit people while being safe at same time.

The Uzumaki Clan will enter the battlefield under the name of 'Help' while other Great Ninja Villages were fighting.

Chapter 279 - Konoha Village Scandal

Next Year after the New Year

The New Year's Eve just passed marking the start of the Third Ninja World War.

Hidden Sand Village, Hidden Cloud Village, Hidden Stone Village, and Hidden Rain Village officially declared war on Konoha.

Konoha Village had insufficient strength due to the four line combat.

Among them, Hidden Cloud Village was too far away directly fought on the upper border of the Land of Fire hoping to disperse Konoha's Military Power.

While Hidden Stone Village hit the Middle Side of Land of Fire making the effect of war become wider.

As for Konoha's Ally and Partner of Justice.

Uzumaki Kingdom could not bear to see that Konoha Village is being beaten by four Villages and suffering such disaster although Konoha Village did it wrong this time.

However, Uzumaki Kingdom did not hesitate to support Konoha in the name of Volunteers Army and join the war.

They claimed that they are the group of peace loving Ninja who advocate peace in Ninja World.

'Of course all of this is fake and they only using the slogan of Konoha to look more righteous than evil Ninja.'

Although Konoha is always backstabbing their own ally and selling them to others, Uzumaki Clan did not regret helping them.

Their friendship with Konoha started with the God of Ninja, Senju Hashirama, when he was still alive, had a long history of friendship so they never let anyone to bully Konoha Village.

Before the war begin, the benevolence and righteousness of the Uzumaki Kingdom had begun to spread throughout the Shinobi World.

As the high-level people and official in the Ninja World knew Konoha used Uzumaki Clan as their own younger brother.

Uzumaki Kingdom was able to abandoned it's premonition and help Konoha Village whole hearted.

But everything they are fools.

After being sell to outsiders, after disregarding their own safety, even if they never get anything help after th fight they still send their people to help

What a great fools.

But such an ally is a people everyone is looking forward to work

They don't care about what bad happen in the past and still join to help their own enemy.

What they don't know is if Konoha Village feel ashamed of not seeing this?

Now even the ordinary people in Konoha are preaching the benevolence and righteousness of Uzumaki Kingdom.

Konoha Today

Because of the sudden war, the originally peaceful Village began to feel tense.

All ordinary people are feeling that Konoha Village really good in finding ally.

It is easy for them to decline and turn blind eye on them after what they did to Uzumaki Clan so everyone feel both touch and ashamed.

It's not easy for small country to uphold benevolence and justice.

And Konoha Village?

They heard that they abandoned the Uzumaki Kingdom during World War 2, kill those who survived from the war and used them as experiment subject, taking all the property of Uzumaki Clan and stealing the Uzumaki Clan Ninjutsu.

Just hearing this, even the ordinary people in Konoha Village feel ashamed to have such Village, father more they advocate peace in the whole world.

They are sure that if they win this one, they definitely owe a huge favor to Uzumaki Kingdom.

And this favor is something that no one in the Village can pay in lifetime.

Chapter 280 - Source of Trouble

Meanwhile, while everyone is cheering for the righteous deed's that the Uzumaki Clan is doing, the Konoha Higher-ups is having trouble because of the gossip that circling around.

"So where this news come from?"

Sarutobi Haruzen looked at the information his subordinates give to him, looking at this makes his head hurt

Not only did he need to lead over the battle, but he also need to maintain the Harmon in Konoha, but with such news coming around the whole Village, this making his job more troublesome

"It still hasn't been found out." Anbu Shinobi shook his head

"Based from our information, the news just appeared out of nowhere couple of days ago.,c

Hearing this report, Sarutobi Haruzen can only helplessly sighed.

No need to ask, he already knows the culprit.

The Uzumaki Kingdom and that kid Uzumaki Xin is starting to become shameless again.

Haha!

What free of charge?

He knows that everything is for money!

They even paid the deposit of 300 million just to prevent the Uzumaki Clan from declining the request.

They even created an agreement on black and white paper to prevent them from not being paid in the end.

How stalwart and loyal the Uzumaki Clan said in the rumors?

They really are shameless to bone.

"The order continues to stop the spread of the rumors."

In the end, Sarutobi Haruzen can only forcibly use his own power to stop all of this even though it will affect the reputation of the Higher-ups.

"At the same time, investigate the source of the rumors."

Now it the war time, they can't help to get any accident in the middle.

"Yes!" Anbu nodded in response and leave.

Seeing the Anbu left, Sarutobi Haruzen took a deep breath and frowned while murmuring.

"The troops should be arrived in the Hidden Cloud Village by now.,x

He just don't know what waiting for them there.

"What about Danzo, what is Assistant Danzo doing?"

A Anbu suddenly appeared.

"Assistant Danzo is in Uchiha Clan right now."

"???"

Haruzen heard the Anbu's report made him taken back.

"What that old fool goin in Uchiha Clan?"

Uchiha Clan

"Don't worry." Danzo looked at the Chief Uchiha in front of him.

"Konoha Village will not going to let his people be wrong, nor will let a good person suffer."

"I believe that your Uchiha Clan are innocent so relax."

Meanwhile, Danzo is doing his best to help Uchiha Clan, he already form a alliance with them years ago so they can talk now normal.

Of course, all of this is for his own personal goal, if Sarutobi Haruzen can help by Senju Clan, why not ask for the help of Uchiha Clan, after all, both Clan is the strongest Clan in the world.
