Chapter 32 - The Muscle Brain finally use their Brain

The Leader of the Hidden Cloud Ninja asked, trying to find solution form their suggestion.

Now he don't have any idea left, maybe some will grow some brain and find the right solution from the deadlock situation.

Maybe you can also distracted and forget the stress and tiredness.

"This time, we Great Ninja Village has fallen into such difficult situation, the first aspect is that we underestimate the enemy."

The Group Assistant said seriously, now is the time for them to use their brain to move and not all muscle.

"Yes!"

"Yes-."

"Vice Leader us right."

However, all people responded with a perfunctory expression.

You said this few days ago, and there is not use for them at all.

Should people use Shadow Clone or ot other Cloning Jutsu.

"There is another aspect, local combat."

Vice Leader said." Uzumaki Kingdom is the Uzumaki's Native Land. They are more familiar with here than we are right nor, and they have huge advantage over us when it comes to ambushing the enemies."

"We don't even know what trap waiting for us out there." Vice Leader look any everyone in the room, frowning.

"You have found that since we stepped into this Uzumaki Kingdom, it seems that everything is not going according to our original arrangement."

Well, to put it simply, they are not being led to the Uzumaki's Rhythm, by a group of weak ninjas. Because they were too confident, thinking this group of people would only scream hard and beg for help of their own allies.

But they didn't expect to use such scam tactics, you know that a group of Uzumaki Ninjas are not just one or two, they are unknown in number because of the use of Shadow Clones, this is making them hard to understand the number of the enemies they are facing.

Unexpectedly, the whole Uzumaki Kingdom is not a fool as they think, not weak as they imagine, and of all the things that they will encounter here, they never expect that this group of people are a bunch of shameless people using any kind of tactics in their disposal.

Everyone nodded, indeed, this is the reason.

From landing to the present, the plan has been changed beyond recognition, they thought they already anticipated the reaction of them but it's not, they are though, and they come up with such shameless tactics.

But the plan can't keep up with the change, what if they rush up and fall into a trap?

Seeing the worries of everyone present, the Vice Leader said again. "Everyone is worried about the trap of the Uzumaki Ninjas, but...."

"Have you ever thought that our situation is different from when we started going ashore?"

Is it different? Where is it different? They all thought.

Could it be the expression of having so much while lacking in everything?

Or the pale face of everyone as if they come from giving birth of a pig.

Well, all of them is feeling hollowed out so there's no difference.

Seeing everyone's weird expression, the Vice Leader's forehead is about to break apart, what kind of brain do these guys have?

"People, the number of people is different." The Leader suddenly responded with a serious face, he seems to understand something.

Everyone snapped out, it seemed that they got the hint.

A large piece of cannon fodder died, but it doesn't matter. Anyway, there are few people in the Uzumaki Kingdom, and the strength is not strong.

The Hidden Cloud Ninja is still plenty, even if there are traps, so many people can react.

"That's right, if you want to break the current situation, you can only disturb the arrangement of the Uzumaki Clan."

"But how are we going to break the current situation?"

"Being Tough!"

Chapter 33 - One Push

"It's just hard." Vice Leader glanced at the people who were thinking and said. "Everytime someone is sent out to explore the situation in the Uzumaki Kingdom, they encounter obstacles."

"If the number of people is too small, if they encounter a Uzumaki Shinobi that is two to three times more than then, you will not be able to resist."

"If there are too many people, not only will the target be larger, it will be hard to conceal, but Uzumaki Shinobi will be sent out two or three times as many Ninja."

It really is exhorting to fight such war.

The Uzumaki Clan is shameless and scum, what can they do?

No matter how many people they send, they will send two or more people as they do, so what else do they play?

Sent a wave to death?

That is impossible, no one is an idiot here, sending will cause huge disturbance and worry to everyone, no one wants to be sent to die.

Ninja can't die so worthless, so a group of people who rightly refused such obvious result, they have to pay for the wrong move, and absolutely letting good things be sent will only cause a waste of money and resources.

Anyway, it's just a sentence, this kind of unprofitable death is idiotic and moronic, no one wants to step, even those on lower rank will not be willing to do it even if they give them Hero Title.

"So, we directly gather people at one point, and directly flatten the Uzumaki Kingdom with one move." Vice Leader said word by word, just a brainless push, gather all the power they have at one point.

Then push it directly, he don't believe they can still send more Shinobi to stop them, what if there are more?

Just send more cannon fodder to eliminate them, even if they need to use human tactics, he is willing to do just to end this troublesome war

Let alone hundred of millions of Detonating Talisman, it's quite dangerous, but they are not afraid, what are they? They come from the Great Ninja Village.

Moreover, the high-end power of Uzumaki Clan is definitely not as good as the Shinobi of the Great Ninja Village.

Not to mention, there's more Shinobi is coming, and they heard a Tail Beast is actually send by the Hidden Mist Village, there's the Seven Ninja Swordsman, the Uzumaki Kingdom will going to bleed heavy to pay the price if they want to resist.

"I call this 'The Great Push!'"

Great Push, one of the most important moment in the history that ever recorded, this is when a new Great Ninja Village and a Super Clan will rise from ash.

What they don't know is the thing waiting for them is more dangerous than sending firecrackers at night.

The Leader slapped the table and fiercely said " Execute!"

"Yes!"

.....

"Tsk! Tsk!" Uzumaki Lucci look at the small device in the table and can't help but to shake his head.

This Shinobi from Great Ninja Village are all fools, not only they don't realize that the people they waiting will never come, and the thing waiting for them is only destruction.

"No. 5, how is the preparation?"

"Report! Everything is ready, the people form the Time Room is out yesterday, we can finally start to plan."

"Good, call No.6 to 9, we will going to start the raid as Young Master plan."

"Confirm!"

Swiss!

No. 5 disappear leaving Lucci listening to the cheering voice coming from strange device, their cheering looks like they already win the war making Lucci shake his head again and again.

"This device is really useful, they don't know we have spy that is lurking all over their camp, they are planning something that we already know."

"Tsk! Tsk! Great Ninja Village? Nothing more than that."

Chapter 34 - Final Preparation

The meeting room is open again, everyone is present even the Senju Clan who still wearing farming gear.

"They finally going to move."

"So its finally here?"

"Yes Elder."

"So they can still use their small Brian in the end."

"I did not expect there still smart people form that barbaric village of Hidden Cloud."

"That's surprising."

"The Great Ninja Village can't help it, the plan to start a decisive battle is going to happen." Old Patriarch looked at everyone next to him.

He seriously said." Do we still need to use Shadow Clone and Multiple Shadow Clone?"

Well, this is a serious one, sending Clone will only stop them for second but not the whole time.

"No need, we can stop the harassment." Xin said.

"What are we going to so next?"

"Don't worry, we have their plan and we know their movement, and besides, the people they waiting will never come after all.'

"What next is the show of power, this last battle, we will who the new Uzumaki Clan, we will show them that we don't need the help of the Monkey form Konoha to protect our self."

"Ladies and gentlemen, this is the raise of Uzumaki!"

"...YES!"

The whole room start to shake, the voice of everyone full of power and pride is being transmitted to everyone on every corner of the battlefield.

The Shadow, CP0, and the other Ninja can't help but to raise their head for the upcoming war, they know that it's time to make name for their self

It's time to show their head and show the wors the new Uzumaki Clan.

"Lucci is everything is ready."

Lucci come out form the shadows and appear behind Xin.

"Everything is ready Young Master."

"Good, I want victory without any casualty can you do that?"

"Yes." He replied without single hesitation.

"Good, I approve it!"

When everyone is start to move, Senju Clan feels being left behind, he was itchy to move his arms and legs and fight the enemies.

But he know how important is the coordination on a war so the only thing he can do is go back and help the Third Elder.

Xin look at the helpless look of the leader of Senju and know what he is thinking right now, well it's not hard to read at all as his inner thought is clearly written on his face.

"Wait a moment Leader Hen."

"What's the matter Young Master?"

"Pick all your people, follow Third Elder to the battlefield, help our people to the fight."

At first Senju Hen slightly shock, but when he realized that his thought is seen by the Young Master, he can't help but to feel embarrassed.

"Don't worry, just follow the plan, use anything that you can do to help our people."

"But the field..."

"I will give you one day of rest, use it on whatever you want."

"... Yes!" Senju Hen run out with his feet skipping on his way, his expression look happy as he finally can show the Senju Clan power.

Chapter 35 - Gear of Fate Start to Move

"Little Xin, I heard that the Great Ninja Village has started a war?" The Great Elder walked over with worried look on his face and asked. "Do you need us old guys to take action?"

Why it is suddenly a decisive battle?

It's only a week now.

Doesn't the Shinobi need to investigate the details of Uzumaki Kingdom before taking action?

How can they just suddenly go to decisive battle suddenly?

Don't we cooperate well the other night?

Can't they just stay there and don't move?

All of this is running around the Great Elder's Head, what he don't know is the enemies is already tortured and near crazy if this continue.

"Don't worry, everything is under control, the people from the Time Room is already out last night and they are ready for the last battle."

"So that's it, well, we still have four Shadow Level so it's not hard for us to kill all of them, but giving them to those kids is also a great use of this war to hone their fighting ability."

But still, the Great Elder feel regretful, if those Shinobi hold even just a month, maybe a huge change can happen to Uzumaki.

But who knows that those Shinobi is just bunch of rice bucket, they can't even hold more than a week.

"There is one thing that needs your help." Xin though for a while and said, now that the big troops of the Great Ninja Village have set off now, he think that sending another group of people to Time Room is necessary.

The Time Room don't have time limit, they can send anyone there after it open, so better than sitting and waiting for the war to end, it's better to send the next batch of Shinobi to train.

Hearing this, the Great Elder also accept this, that's right, it's better to do something productive than sitting and waiting for their to end the war.

Uzumaki dont need idle person in the family, if not, send them to farm to help for the food of the clan.

"I will pick some of them, if they don't want to fight, I will send them to farm."

"That's also good, the farmland is empty right now, the farmer is busy fighting in Frontline."

"Then I'm going, I will wait for the good news form Frontline."

"Yes."

....

"Remember that our task is to rush!"

Leader of Hidden Cloud looked at the Ninja already assembled in front to him and nodded in satisfaction.

With this amount, why hoel back and get harass right?

"Destroy anything in front of you, ignore the tactics of the Uzumaki Shinobi, and push them to fight us head-on!"

Anyway, this is not their own country, if it is ruined, then it will be ruined. It does not matter at all if they destroy it

If you are not worried about being ridiculed by people all over the world, then better move and fight and destroy this kingdom.

And if you force it, he will asked the village to send the Tail Beast so they can use, after all, everytime they get harass by them, the anger accumulated is already reach to peak so having Tail Beast seems pretty good for them.

"Yes!"

"You will protect you he right wing, and don't let the strong people of Uzumaki Kingdom sneak attack!" He pointed one of them

"And you, protect the left eibd, use your self as bait if necessary!"

"Yes!" 2x

"This time, we have to annihilated the Uzumaki Kingdom and erase this scum in the face of the world!"

"Destroy the Uzumaki Kingdom!"

Chapter 36 - Decisive Battle

When the people from the Great Ninja Village finally step in the Uzumaki Kingdom land, they meet up a strange youngman alone.

"Alert!"

Everyone take a stance, they look around vigilantly, they are waiting for the ambush but the silent disturb by the loud noise coming from the youngman.

"Cough! Cough! Ahem! Go back dog of Great Ninja Village, go back to your own Village, don't waste out time.. cough!" The youngman said.

"Hey stupid bastard! Go home! How can you get out with such sick figure? Did the Uzumaki Clan don't have any spare people so they send you here to entertain us?"

"Hahahah!"

Everyone start laughing, they never expect that the Uzumaki Clan is so idiot sending a sick person to stop them.

"Cough! Cough! Stupid, if you really want to die, then let me help you! Cough!"

With bunch go seal, the youngman finally move.

"Remember, I'm Uzumaki Storm, I'm the Storm Bringer of Uzumaki!"

"Storm Release: Great Fog Forest!"

With one blow coming from his lips, a thick fog start to cover the surrounding, it so fast that the enemies even forgot to stop.

"Damn! Everyone gather!"

The vision inside of the fog is minimum, they can only see couple of feet away clearly, as if they are being encircle by thick blanket of fog.

.....

Somewhere inside of the fog, everyone is watching, they can see that the huge army start to gather to form a huge solid wall of people to block them.

"Barrier Team!"

"Yes!"

Four of the people behind jump inside of the fog, they run towards for location and stop, they then heard the comman from the device on their chest.

"You can ster."

"Roger!"

They then start to move, with one single move their hand created dozen of more hand seal making their movement look like a blur on anyone who seems them.

Each hand movements is clear and fast, no single alwaste of movement at all, they all clear what they doing.

And then in the end, for unknown number of seal, they slap their hand into the ground.

"Ninja Art: Earth Seal!"

"Ninja Art: Fire Seal!"

"Ninja Art: Wind Seal!"

"Ninja Art: Lightning Seal!"

"Ninja Art: Five Four Elements Formation Technique!" Together.

A huge seal start to appear into the ground, it start to spread forward until it created a huge square barrier that is so huge that you can see it even in distance.

Of course the people inside can't see it because of the fog covering even the sky above, but not long time the captain of the team notice the mark on the ground.

"Not good! It's a Seal Jutsu!"

"What are we going to so Captain?!"

"Break it use Earth Release!"

"Yes!"

Chapter 37 - Decisive Battle 2

After they created a huge formation trapping the whole army inside, they they then use thier Clan exclusive Jutsu.

"Ninja Art: Kaguya's Eye!"

Their perception increase by multiple times making them easily to sense everyone inside of the formation.

"Earth Pillar Clear!"

"Wind Pillar Clear!"

"Fire Pillar Clear!"

"Lightning Pillar Clear!"

They then move their hand forming hundred of more seal then push their palm I to the barrier wall.

"Secret Art: Negative Chakra Technique!"

From four corners, huge sealing Jutsu marking appears, the marking start to spread until the whole square shape barrier is filed with Seal Marking.

"Good!" Lucci's voice can heard from the device hanging on their chest giving them confirmation.

Lucci then look at everyone and said." Group 1 to 4, position!"

"Yes!"

Four group's, consist of five people, the weakest is Jonin while the strongest is Special Jonin, each of them separate on four direction and stop to thier respective place.

"Alpha 1, Code C, Operation Assistance Start."

Hearing this, the people around the barrier start to form seal using their hand, after that they place their palm into the back of the person in front of them.

"Secret Art: Chakra Transfer Technique!"

Slowly, the gentle chakra coming from their body start to flow to the person in front of them, this continue until it stop to the person who using the Sealing Formation.

....

Inside of the formation.

"Earth Release: Earth Drill!"

"Earth Release: Earth Wall!"

"Combination Technique: Four Towering Wall!"

"Earth Release: Sand Dome!"

Dozen or more Jutsu start to shine around, in instant they create a perfect four later wall around them and a dome shape sand above.

"Sensor Ninja!"

"Yes!"

Dozen or more Shinobi father, using couple of seal they then punch the ground

"Earth Release: Deep Earth Sensor!"

The Chakra travel deep down of the earth then start to spread around, when the technique hit the barrier the justu stop.

"Captain we are trap, there's a unknown Formation around us!"

"So they want to hold us down, very good, all of you, use Earth Jutsu and push! Attack all at once!"

"Yes!"

Tiger - sheep - oxe -....

"Earth Release: Earth Cannon!"

"Earth Release: Earth Dragon!"

"Great! A Rank Earth Jutsu!"

Chapter 38 - Decisive Battle 3

"Earth Release: Earth Cannon!"

"Earth Release: Earth Dragon!"

"Great! A Rank Earth Jutsu!"

.....

Outside of the Barrier.

"They are using Earth Release!"

"Seal it!"

"Yes!"

One of the pillars of the formation start to use hand seal again, he then put his palm into the barrier after finishing and cast another Jutsu.

"Uzumaki Secret Art: Earth Chakra Sealing Technique!"

After the hat, a rich earth element start to absorb by the barrier, everything that is made of earth chakra is starting to disappear.

Seeing this, the Ninja nodded and report." Earth Style is completely seal."

"Copy that."

...

Inside of the barrier, the Ninja inside see the change clearly, the Earth Jutsu they use shrink and disappear in the air as if nothing.

This made everyone stop in place as they watch even the earth eall start to get smaller and smaller until the land turn to original appearance.

"This!?"

"What's happening!!"

"What kind of Jutsu is this?"

The Captain start to feel anxious, he don't know what kind of sorcery the other people using, it's impossible for bunch of powerful Jutsu disappear so fast without anything blocking or attacking it.

"Captain!"

"What?"

"I have discovered something!" The Ninja nervously said.

"What did you discover?"

"Th-The Earth Release seems can't use right now!"

"What do you mean?"

"I can't use Earth Style!"

"....? What!?"

They look at the Ninja who start using seal to cast a simple earth technique but in the end, nothing happens.

"Did you miss something?"

"No! This Jutsu is a simple Rock Throw!"

"Impossible! How can't you use Earth Style!?"

The Captain look at them and the surrounding, he then start performing a simple Earth Style but like the first one nothing happen.

"This?"

"Impossible! I can't sense any Earth Element!"

He discovered it finally, he is a Earth Style User, he can perform A Rank Jutsu because of his Earth Affinity Nature, but today he can't feel it, he can't feel the Earth Element in the air or in the ground.

Chapter 39 - Decisive Battle 4

He discovered it finally, he is a Earth Style User, he can perform A Rank Jutsu because of his Earth Affinity Nature, but today he can't feel it, he can't feel the Earth Element in the air or in the ground.

He try again, and this time he try the most simple and easiest Jutsu that everyone know even Chunin.

"Earth Release: Tunneling Technique!"

The technique allows the user to create tunnel in the group. The large tunnel that is created allows the user to transport other without detection.

It's mainly used for infiltration purpose.

But looking the ground, he did not see any tunnel at all, not even a small change, this made the Captain start to feel angry.

"Earth Release: Earth Shore Return!"

"Earth Release: Hidden Like a Mole Technique!"

"Earth Release: Tearing Earth Turning Palm!"

"Earth Release: Bottomless Swamp!"

"Earth Release: Earth Rising Excavation!"

Dozen or so Earth Style is use but not a single one is activated, looking at the face of the Captain, the Shinobi around start to feel nervous, some even try to use Earth Style but nothing happens.

"Captain the Senor Team find something." The Vice Leader said.

"What did they find?"

"They find that there's a huge Formation around us, it's hidden using the fog techniques, I think the barrier seal the Earth Chakra Element that's why we can't use Earth Style."

"?!"

"What! Heo can such Formation can be to powerful!"

"No one know what kind of Formation the Uzumaki Clan cast on us but without any doubt they sealed the Earth Style."

"... Uzumaki Clan, they are experts using Sealing Technique, I did not expect you hat they also learn to mass seal a certain element."

This is not within their knowledge, they never expect that Uzumaki can use such powerful sealing technique on such huge area.

"They another Style! I don't believe they can seal all Style!"

"Yes!"

And then, everyone start to sue thier own style.

"Fire Release: Fireball!"

"Fire Release: Flame Wave!"

"Wind Release: Wind Cutter!"

"Wind Release: Wind Slash!"

"Lightning Style: Lightning Shot!"

"Lightning Style: Lightning Bolt!"

"Water Release: Wave!"

"Water Release: Great Water Fall!"

And after they use all their special release, they finally find the truth about the formation around them.

"Are you saying except Water Release, the four other style is sealed!?"

"Yes Captain." Vice Leader nervous said.

"We are doom!"

That's right, they are doom, almost all of them are Ninja who using Element Base Jutsu to fight.

Chapter 40 - Decisive Battle 5

"Is that mean we can only Water Style?"

".... Yes..."

"Damn! This huge problem, we are screwed! Water Style is a common but the problem is the Hidden Cloud Village only have couple of Water Style Jutsu!"

And more importantly, he knows that Water Release Jutsu of the Hidden Cloud Village is so poor as the largest user of Jutsu in the village is all Lightning Style.

They are in big trouble, but still he knows they can stop or else the war will over before they can even face the enemy.

"Use Water Style!"

"Yes!"

"Water Release: Water Spit!"

"Water Release: Water Wave!"

"Water Release: Mud Swamp!"

...

While the people inside of the formation is getting nervous while wasting their chakra, the outside looks more easy.

The formation is stable.

No one is lacking in chakra.

Everything is in order.

Everything is according to plan.

"All of you, go gather around the formation, Axillary Group, bring those thing." Lucci said as they walk near the barrier.

Meanwhile the Axillary Group brought a huge storage scroll and open it, from inside, a huge amount of metal tools poor out.

Lucci take out one and look at them.

"Chakra Sealing Bracelet, a product made by Metal Bending Release Group, we only have two hundred of it and it's a perfect tools capturing Shinobi."

He then take one." There's only 2 use of this bracelet, one is to seal the chakra of any Shinobi who wear this, and last is the weigh that can give huge burden to anyone who have it."

"What!"

"Amazing!"

"It's like the technique of Hyuga."

Senju Hen come closer, he look at the wtools and asked." Can I check it?"

"Sure."

He give the tools he holding to him.

"150kg, it's heavy for anyone below Special Jonin."

He the try to wearing it

"Amazing, I can't feel Chakra at all."

He try to use Jutsu and fail, he knows this tool is working.

He can't help but to feel amaze on how they come up with such perfect tools for abducting job, so perfect that he can't see any problem.

"It's good."

"Thanks to Young Master and General Kushina."

"Can I ask if we can buy some?"

"I think no, the amount of tools is not that many so I think it will take time for use open the item for bu siness, and besides, we don't even know if Young Master will sell it."
