Chapter 331 - Senju Clan Situation

Konoha Battlefield

"Patriarch, it's enough!"

Senju Hen knelt down in front of Senju Patriarch and said while crying. "Enough is enough! Senju Clan sacrifice too much!"

He didn't know why the Patriarch kept sending the tribe people to the front line, and even the Elder did not stop them.

The clan agreed and went to the frontline silently.

But for. The beginning of the War to the present, too many people have died in the Senju Clan.

From a large group of Konoha with a population of several hundred, it has been reduced to just a few dozen people.

"Enough!"

Senju Hen kneeling in the ground and helplessly said. "The Senju Clan can't continue like this, if it doesn't work."

"Let me go to Lord Hokage to plead guilty, I will hang over my head just to give him forgiveness."

He didn't know why the Patriarch wanted to do this, is it really just because the Senju Clan is Konoha's Clan?

Why did the Senju Clan sacrifice so much?

"Oh."

Senju Patriach looked at Senju Hen sighed, a trace of sadness flashed in his eyes and said faintly." Get up."

"Get up now."

"Patriarch..."

Senju Hen did not get up, he still lowered his head, but he didn't know why a drop of water dripped in his hand

He seemed to think something, his heart twitch in pain and raised his head and looked at the tears in Senju Patriach's eyes

"I-" He try to open his mouth but he don't know what to say

The Patriarch's eyes were red, he slowly closed his eyes and said faintly." Enough."

"Senju Clan paid enough."

Senju Patriach had smile at the corner of his lips and closed his eyes." There should be no complain about Senju Clan."

Senju Hen quietly heard the Patriarch's emotion, as if rhibkoof what the Patriarch wanted to do right now.

His pupils suddenly shrank, he look and nervous asked." Patriarch.... You.."

However, he haven't waited for Senju Patriach to finish talking.

Senju Patriach opened his eyes and look at Senju Hen sharply and said." Immediately pass order!"

"There should be nothing wrong on Frontline?"

Senju Patriach looked at the Konoha Shinobi next to him and said." Be careful during this time, I don't know what's going to happen next."

.....

The war continue.

After the news of the Mangekyo Sharingan come it again, Konoha Village was under even great pressure.

Basically, the famous small and large Shinobi Village is the Ninja World began to declare war with Konoha.

This is just a small scale war because of some battlefield that is not moving at all and the fight broke only small.

Recently, the Hidden Cloud Village taking advantage of it, after ala, the battlefield her is insufficient now, some troops been allocated to other places.

"No, one of the defensive points guarded by the Senju Clan."

Konoha Shinobi nodded and said." For the Frontline, they resisted the large number of troops of Hidden Cloud Village.'

"The Senju Clan..."

Orochimaru hears the Senju Clan, his eyes flashed with emotion." It is indeed a family of the First and Second Hokage."

They really love the Konoha deeply.

It is estimated that in Konoha Village, apart from the Senju Clan who could do this, no other clan would work so hard at all

"Yes."

Konoha Shinobi sighed." It really Konoha Big Family, but..."

"I heard that they have most a lot now."

After hearing this, Orochimaru start to knockes the table while thinking.

He didn't know what his teacher wanted to do with the Senju Clan, but now the Frontline force cannot be mobilized at will.

Once mobilized, some defense will be weakened and accident will be troublesome.

Chapter 332 - Senju Clan Pleading

"Where did that idiot Jiraiya go now?"

Orochimaru squinted lightly and said " no Konoha is fighting, what is he running around?"

Finally, he sighed." Send more Medical Ninja to Senju Clan, anyway, the Senju Clan is."

Tsunade's Family.

"Yes!"

When the Ninja heard this, his eyes condensed, but was about to go out and give order.

"Lord Orochimaru!"

Anbu walked in anxiously and said. "The Senju Clan! The Senju Clan!"

"What's the matter?"

Orochimaru frowned and asked. "Why are you panicking?"

"What's with the Senju Clan?"

When Anbu heard Orochimaru's scolding, he took a deep breath, facing Orochimaru with a shocked expression he said. "Senju Clan people...."

"They are exterminate!"

Uzumaki Xin looked at the Senju Patriarch with a look of annoyance and anger on his face.

It has only been a while and there are only dozens of people left in the Senju Clan left?

And most of them are kids?

Do you want to be so rigid?

Even if Konoha Village doesn't welcome you, won't you just change place?

Why work hard?

"Senju Clan are Senju Clan of Konoha." Senju Patriach seems to guess what Uzumaki Xin was thinking in his heart.

He sighed." I can't shame the Senju Clan."

"So you plan to send the whole family to death?"

"I don't understand why you think so radical and stupid, a honor without a family is like a centerpieces without a flower."

"Even if you can become a hero, how can you share your joy if you have nothing but reputation?"

"So you think if you send your own people to fight to death, Konoha Village will think differently of you?"

"Stupid, you are only helping them to fend by siphon the blood of your own family, you just treasure something that is not worth to treasure to begin with."

Uzumaki Xin looked helplessly at Senju Patriach.

"That is to say, you only intend to leave a little blood for the Senju Clan?"

You know, Uzumaki Kingdom needs a grown-up labor not a bunch of kids who still drink milk and change diapers.

"I don't expect you guys are morons, you even bring small kids in the battlefield."

Uzumaki Xinnooed at the Senju Clan child in front of him, the youngest was only about 3 whole the oldest is 8.

"What are you going to do now?"

He knows Senju Patriach's decision, although he does not agree with him, but he still shocked in his heart.

It really deserves to be Senju Clan, a Clan of Fools.

The Patriarch heard Uzumaki Xin's words with a tangled expression on his face, and finally he sighed.

He knelt down directly in his knees, drove to the ground, and slam his head in the ground." The Senju Clan, please take care of them!"

"Patriarch!"

Senju Hen saw that the Senju Patriach actually kneeled down to others, his eyes were suddenly become res and wanted to help the Patriarch to stand up.

"You!"

Uzumaki Xin looked at the Senju Patriach with a stunned expression an said." It doesn't have to be this way, anyway, the Uzumaki Clan and Senju Clan..."

However, Xin did not even finished yet.

"Thank you!" Senju Patriach and the other Elders next to him also knelt down.

Chapter 333 - Disbanding Senju Clan

Uzumaki Xin sighed inwardly, he knew what Senju Patriach and them meant.

"Okay."

Uzumaki Xin helplessly said." In the name of Uzumaki Kingdom, as the Patriarch and the Daimyo of Uzumaki Kingdom"

"I announced that I would officially accept the Senju Clan as a citizen of the Uzumaki Kingdom."

What the Senju Patriarch wanted was not that long outdated contract, but wanted him to declared this using his own name.

After listening to Uzumaki Xin, Senju Patriarch stood up with tears on his eyes." Thank you."

Then he turned his head to Senju Hen, he said with serious expression." I ordered the current Patriarch of Senju Clan."

"From this moment onwards, Senju Hen is the next Senju Patriarch of the Senju Clan, Jo matter who is from the Senju Clan, he must obey the command of Senju Hen!"

"Patriarch!"

Senju Hen stared at Senju Patriarch with wide eyes an said." I!"

"Let me stay, I will be with the Senju Clan."

As a member of Senju Clan, he could not watch the Senju Clan die in front of him.

But he.... He need to secretly survive.

"Shut up!"

Senju Patriach sternly said." From this moment on, you are the Patriarch of the Senju Clan."

But seeing Senju Hen's res eyes, he sighed." Brother.... Take care of them for the last time..... The Senju Clan is in your hand now."

"If it fails in the end."

"Abandoned the name Senju."

"Big Brother..."

When Senju Hen really planned to refuse, but saw that the Patriarch's hope on his eyes, he cns only smcry silently.

"Big Brother, I will definitely regimain the glory of the Senju Clan!"

He knew what the Patriarch meant, from this moment on, they could not use the word 'Senju' and even if they couldn't bear the name of 'Senju Clan' in the end, then they would abandon and just live on.

Senju Patriach patted Senju Hen on the shoulder and faintly said." Than you."

He looked at the Uzumaki Xin." I'm sorry yo trouble the Uzumaki Clan."

"Hey."

Uzumaki Xin sighed." In fact, it doesn't have to do be like this, Uzumaki Kingdom doesn't lack your bite of food."

You even need to use Earth Release to build a big infrastructure to Uzumaki Kingdom.

"No."

"Senju Clan are Konoha's Senju."

"We old guys just stay here."

"In any case, Konoha's relationship with Senju Clan will end at this moment."

Senju Patriarch with a relieved smile on his face. "I hope you go on."

"I don't know if father will beat me if he hears what I did."..

When they were about to go out, someone came reporting.

"Not good!"

"Hidden Cloud Village launched a general attack again!"

Chapter 334 - Shocking News

Almost Year after the War starts

Once again, there was an incident that shocked the Ninja World.

Konoha's Biggest Family, Founding Clan of Konoha, the First Hokage and Second Hokage Clan was exterminated by Hidden Rock Village to protect Konoha.

At the same time, when Senju Patriarch was dying, a Ninjutsu appeared on the battlefield that shocked the entire Ninja World.

Wood Release

Senju Clan awakened the Blood Limit Wood Release of the First Generation for the last moment.

Hearing the news, the whole Ninja World was sighed, fortunately, in the end, Senju Clan and the invading Hidden Cloud Village would end up with each other, or Konoha might reappeared a God of Shinobi again.

They heard that the whole battlefield become a new forest now.

"Wood Release?"

Onoki looked at the intelligence in his hand with shock look.

"It this true?"

"It's indeed Wood Release." Sand Anbu nodded.

"A lot of people have seen it, and the battlefield is not turn into huge forest."

"Nativity of a World of Tree." Onoki suddenly sighed when he heard the confirmation.

You must know that ther were two great force in the Ninja World, one is the Uchiha Clan Mangekyo Sharingan and the other is the Senju Clan Wood Release who fight known as invincible in the Ninja World.

Fortunately, Senju Hashirama is a silly and peace loving person, under the restraint of Senju Hashirama, no accident occured in the Major Ninja Village.

He even catch the Legendary Tailed Beast and give to others.

And after the Mangekyo Sharingan and Wood Release died between Hashirama and Madara, their family never produced such incredible ninja again.

So those almost god like ninja is no longer will appear in Konoha.

But there's a problem.

"What's going on?"

Onoki frowned and murmured." Even the Konoha don't have this two powerful Blood Limit, why they still appear at same time?"

Fortunately, the Senju Clan is also a villager who love the Village, in the end, he died with Hidden Cloud Village in order to protect the Frontline.

Although as Tsuchikage, it's painful to se the Senju Clan to be exterminate by the Hidden Cloud Village.

It's better than Konoha Village has another God of Shinobi to appear.

"Pass the order and continue to launch a general attack on Konoha."

Onoki thought." In any case,behem Konoha's strength is weak, they mait be caught off guard."

He didn't believe that Sage of Six Paths would take care of Konoha this time.

Konoha Village

"Wood Release!"

Sarutobi Haruzen looked at the information coming from the Ninja below, so scared that his smoke pipe almost fell into the ground.

"Is this true?"

"Did Senju Patriarch really awaken Wood Release?"

"Yes."

"Now that the battlefield had become a forest, there is absolutely nothing wrong with the report."

Chapter 335 - Haruzen is Afraid

"Call all the Elders"

"Tell them we have a meeting."

"Yes!" The Anbu responded and immediately went to notify them

Sarutobi Haruzen stood up and looked outside looking at the Konoha Village.

"Senju Clan.... Teacher.... Ah.."

He doesn't know what to say now.

Because the genocide of the Senju Clan is indeed due to him.

But he didn't want the Senju Clan to be annihilated at all, but because Konoha is now facing the biggest disaster since the establishment of the village, he cannot support the Senju Clan.

Sarutobi Haruzen thinks they should be able to hold, but he didn't expect that now..."

"Ah... "

Sarutobi Haruzen shook his head and felt helpless.

"I hope Tsunade and Mito-sama can take it..."

He knows that is going to be hard but what can he do?

Now the Senju Clan only left with a couple of old people, Tsunade and Mito-sama who are waiting for their people to come back.

What can he say to them after this?

He is now afraid that Mito suddenly exploded and destroyed them after hearing this sad news.

You know, Mito chose Konoha Village over her own Clan, and now the Clan she chose is destroyed on the hands of the people she chose.

If she doesn't explode in anger, then there's something wrong with her.

Losing both of her natal Clan and family Clan is something that an old person can't accept easily.

And not only that, Mito is smart, she can easily find out what they did, now Sarutobi Haruzen hoping that Mito will take Konoha first before her own feelings.

But he still doesn't know, that's why he wants to call all of his friends to think of a way to prevent Mito from learning the news.

"Here."

Uzumaki Xin walking in to the his office.

This is his office in the Uzumaki Kingdom, he didn't take them onto the camp to prevent soya to learning their identity.

He looked at the dozens of Senju Clan with red eyes in front of him, shaking his head and sighed in his heart, he can't understand why do such thing on your own people.

Is the reputation is that important that you disregard the life of your own people just for fame and reputation?

He can't understand, being patriotic is good, but too much is bad for anyone.

A Village can build even if someone destroy it, but family never come back after being annihilated.

"Everyone look at me, I will going to give you a simple and easy to understand knowledge in life."

Senju Clan people look at Xin with sad face.

"Loving your own Village and Birthplace is good, but excessively love will bring down to you and the people behind you."

"Fame and reputation is important, but not so important that you need to exchange the life of your own family for such stupid thing."

"I want you all to remember, I can accept failure, betrayal, scam and blackmail but I never accepted using the life of your own family for such stupid things."

"Remember, family first before anything else, you can make anything with our two hand but you can't bring the life of your family with anyway."

"Remember this, and remember it in your heart."

The Senju Clan look at Xin, trying to understand but they can't, but as he said, you just need to remember this on your heart and that's enough.

Chapter 336 - Elder Meeting

Konoha, Meeting Room.

"What so you think?"

Sarutobi Haruzen said with his hand in his chin, looking at the Group of Elders sitting in front of him.

"What should Konoha do now?"

"This?"

Koharu looked at the information in her hand, raised her head with an incredulous expression and her face.

"It Teacher's family really destroyed?"

As the apprentice of the Second Hokage, she didn't believe it.

She then slap the table fiercely and stand up, looking at Sarutobi Hiruzen with sharp eyes, she roared.

"Didn't you promise me that you won't do it too much!"

"Now! The Teacher's family is gone! How can we explain it to Teacher someday if we see him!"

"I-"

Sarutobi Haruzen sighed and said. "I don't know..."

"Calm down first."

Danzo also stopped Koharu and helplessly said. "Let's wait for Haruzen, maybe he didn't estimate?"

Sarutobi Haruzen's eyelids twitch hearing this.

Although his best friend was indeed helping him to speak, why he always feels something wrong in his heart.

"I didn't do anything."

Sarutobi Haruzen helplessly said. "The Senju Clan sacrificed for Konoha."

"They are heroes, they sacrificed to protect Konoha."

After listening to Sarutobi Haruzen's words, Homura sadly sighed. "Now we should send people to defend the part where Senju Clan left."

"In any case, things have become like this, and now all they can do is to protect Konoha."

So at least, they can worth of their Master and First Hokage.

"I've already arranged it."

Sarutobi Haruzen nodded, and sat Koharu finally calm down.

"But always defending is no way."

After all, Konoha has no strength to fight against the multiple enemies.

"Those little ninja village."

Koharu look at Homura and was silent for a moment.

"Now the only way is to find that Uchiha Shinobi..."

At this time, if oke or two more Clan are destroyed, it may arouse the anger of the Konoha people, and this will be more troublesome.

"Oh~."

Sarutobi Haruzen sighed melancholy, then glanced at Danzo who was pretending to be stupid sitting silently.

"The order is passed on, and the corpse of Senju Clan need to be recovered at the same time."

"Orochimaru will reorganize ninja to protect the frontline, while blocked the news first, we absolutely can't let Tsunade and Mito-sama know this."

"If not, maybe we will die not in the hand of enemy but in the hand of Mito-sama."

Chapter 337 - New Home

"Oh, are you new here?"

Old Dong looked at the black man in front of him and walked straight in and asked. "Third group of refugees?"

He still remember that the second batch of refugees just arrived a few sat ago?

And now there another batch? Did something happen?

"How many people are there in you group?" Old Dong frowned and looked and looked at Senju Hen.

"How come you are the only one to report?"

Or they didn't gather in here too now?

"How many people?" Senju Hen was taken aback for a moment and said. "I'm the only one."

You know, the rest of the Deninos children were sent to school by him.

"Only you?" Old Dong also was shocked an said. "What happened in the Land of Rain?"

Can the Uzumaki Clan it able to recruit people?

"I didn't come from the Land of Rain." Senju Hen shook his head and said. "I just come to the Uzumaki Kingdom the day before yesterday."

Yesterday, he spent a day in Uzumaki Kingdom, looking for a job that suits him by the way, only to fins that Uzumaki Kingdom has really become different from the last time he visit.

At that time, he persuaded people of the Senju Clan to assist the Uzumaki Clan and finally left at the end of the war.

Unexpected, only a few years later, Uzumaki Kingdom was become so powerful, especially the citizens of the Uzumaki Kingdom, with all their have with the kind of smile that you can see during the war.

It's really incredible.

Senju I had a feeling that maybe this country don't need any Ninja Village at all.

"I'm here to find a job." Senju Hen looked at Old Dong and asked. "Are you?"

After visiting all the factories in Uzumaki Kingdom, he finally found that it is possible to raise so many children only by moving bricks.

Because Uzumaki Kingdom does not have Ninja Village, it mainly relies on commercial output, so it is impossible to accept tasks at allm

The infrastructure team also ha the opportunity to make a lot of money if you work more and harder.

Fortunately, the school includes three meals a day.

Otherwise, he will need to asked someone to borrow money.

Senju Hen showed a wry smile on his face, but he did not expect that the family of the God Shinobi would eventually fall to this point.

"You can call me Old Dong." Old Dong looked at Senju Hen with a smile.

"So you escape here? Then you are so lucky, Uzumaki Kingdom is defita paradise for us refugees."

In the past Ms, because of his good working attitude, he was temporarily promoted to the Captain of the Third Infrastructure Brigade, managing more than a dozen refugees who had just arrived.

"I heard that the Infrastructure Team has a subsidy for Ninja?"

Senju Hen thought for a while and said, "My name is Mu Hen, I am a wandering ninja."

"Wandering Ninja?"

Old Dong watched Senju Hen warily, not knowing whether to notify the police, but there are safety propaganda in the Uzumaki Kingdom these days.

Because during the war, there may be other Shinobi to make trouble, so no matter who finds something wrong, they need to report fast.

And if you find a spy, you will get a contribution point that you can exchange for food or money.

This is a good thing to be able to apply for nationality of the Uzumaki Kingdom.

Chapter 338 - Old Dong Suspicious

"What's the matter?"

Senju Hen frowned when seeing Old Dong suddenly looking at him with vigilance on his eyes.

"What's the matter?*

Had his identity of Senju Clan been discovered?

Suddenly looked at Old Dong nervously, knowing that the entire Ninja World now knows that the Senju Clan had been destroyed.

Is someone know this, Uzumaki Clan and Senju Clan will going to face countless of trouble.

"Have you report to the Public Security Bureau?"

Old Dong look at Senju Hen, but did not relax for a moment." No matter who it is, as long as it is a Ninja from outside,you need to report to the Uzumaki Kingdom."

Old Dong is but lazy and pervert, but he will not let anyone harm Uzumaki Kingdom.

"Is that this?"

Senju Hen took out a card, which was delivered by someone the day after he come to the Uzumaki Kingdom.

Although he didn't know what it was, he still too it with him.

"Kingdom Identification Certificate!"

Old Dong looked at the thing on Senju Hen's ha d in shock, with envy in his eyes, he look at him suspiciously.

"Aren't you just come here? Why do you have such important thing?"

"You know, only couple of people in the refugees part have that kind of Identification presenting your nationality."

"His Royal Highness Xin sent this to me."

Senju Hen looked at Old Dong in confused and asked." Is there anything special about this small thing?"

"No wonder."

Old Dong heard it was sent by His Highness Xin, his jealousy was immediately recovered, he nodded at him.

"It turns out that it was sent by His Highness Xin."

"It seems that you are also an amazing Ninja."

"Otherwise, his Highness Xin would definitely not give you a nation as at will."

Senju Hen heard Old Dong's words, looked at the card in his hand and muttered. "It seems that this thing is very special."

"Of course it's special!"

Old Dong heard Senju Hen's skeptical tone and made him unhappy.

"Know that this is the Nationality of Uzumaki e."

"And this, and that, so..."

Under Old Dong's explanation, Senju Hen knelt when this was used in the Uzumaki Kingdom.

It was like a Ninja's Forehead protector in Shinobi Village, it was used to distinguish Ninja from different Ninja Villages.

It was just what he had in his hand, even civilians can get it after a long time of assignments.

'What an amazing thing!'

"Don't you have one?" Senju Hen asked suspiciously.

"I.... I don't have yet." Old Dong blushed while speaking eagerly.

"But I believe that I will be able to get it one day."

"Okay, stop talking, you did you are here to find a job?"

"Ah! Yes! Yes!"

Chapter 339 - Thiefs

"You have worked hard too."

One of the man nodded and said with a smile." It is estimated that your daughter has been very angry these days, you haven't seen her for do many days."

"No way, work is important." Another youngman helplessly said.

"Now it is a tense moment in the Uzumaki Kingdom, we can't relax a little bit."

The leader above have specially ordered, how can there be any accident during this period of time?

"Call me if you have any." The colleagues patted the Young man's shoulder and said." Everyone serves Uzumaki Kingdom."

"Okay, get out of here." The Youngman smiled, but didn't took back and kept staring at the few crystal monitors in form of him.

"If something really happen, I'm ready going to fuck up- wait a moment!"

However, before the other man can even walked out of the surveillance room, his colleagues shouted.

"Someone illegally crossed the border!"

"Hazuki, you have been to the Uzumaki Kingdom and you are familiar with the situation of this Kingdom, you can brought a team to enter from the other side.

A fatman with orange hair looked at Hanzuki who was carrying a huge machete next to him and seriously said." This task must be finished fast."

"Move faster, don't let the them alarm everyone, we need to mvo while that kid is not in the Uzumaki Kingdom."

Hazuki nodded, with a sbear at the corner of his noio, he faintly said." I see."

Of course, he know that is was coming soon, they had to get the things before the kid discover them and leave quickly.

After all, the people here is dangerous and some use Space Ninjutsu.

Thank goodness, base on the report, that kid bring all the strongman to help Konoha Village to war leaving the Uzumaki Kingdom 'vulnerable'.

He still remember the strength of that little devil, it they are discovered, then it will be bad

Kisame looked at the map in his hand and said." In this case, let's move!"

The map was brought from a merchant at a high price.

But it is not complete, it seems that the merchant who come to the Uzumaki Kingdom are restricted from moving and dare not walk around at all.

But the shipyard is still clear, after all, such a large factory is still on the coast and can be seen from far

Just the defense of that place seem to be right

....

"Two teams!"

Kamizuru Patriarch said helplessly after taking a deep breath. "These thieves are so arrogant, they come here after knowing that Young Master is not around."

"Did they think only Young Master can hold the fort? Those idiots."

Not long after he just fell asleep, he was notified that a thief had come and enter the border.

"I don't know what kind of mind this people have, choosing to hit the Uzumaki Kingdom of all place."

"Okay." Senju Hen smile.

"Not it's better to catch people who quickly, and it's fine at night, at least there is no need to evacuate people."

And who will enter illegal here and walked in openly in the morning?

Don't you know that Uzumaki Kingdom's inspection are very strict?

Chapter 340 - Sneak Attack from Kirigakure

"My Bee sent back the news that they were divided into two teams." Kamizuru Patriarch frowned after getting feedback from his Bee's.

"Two of them are very strong."

"I can see it." The gate keeper said with grin on his face.

"I can see two people carrying the famous Mythical Swords, Hiramakarei and Damehada of Hidden Mist Village on their back."

"If you guess it correctly, it should be a member of the Seven Ninja Swordsmen of the Mist."

"Didn't this people already defeated last war? Why still coming to us?"

"I don't know, maybe they are thinking that Young Master is not here and try their luck to attack."

"In that case, do I need to inform his Highness Xin to come?" Senju Hen asked.

"After all, this people is not easy to take."

"Fifteen Elite, the Hidden Mist Village is really want to gamble this time." The gatekeeper waved his hand.

"I have notified the Young Patriarch so don't worry."

"But only Miss. Naga answered, she said that we don't need to bother Young sleeping time for just trivial matter."

"If we want to be strong, we need to us to move on our own, we cannot rely on just one person."

"It is estimated that this is also the task that Young Master left to us." Kamizuru Patriarch helplessly said.

"I think no need to wait for his Highness Xin to come, now we can only rely on us."

"That's right, we are enough." Senju Hen nodded.

"Hehe."

Kamizuru Patriarch smiled while looking at the enemies that is running towards them.

"It's okay, don't worry, we have huge army behind us to cooperate, isn't it only fifteen Elite Jonin?"

"Let se if hundred of us can beat the fifteen of them."

.....

"Let me do it!"

The gatekeeper jump in front, he is start to feel bored standing in the gate, it's time to show his strength.

"Earth Release: Earth Wall!"

A huge earth wall is created stopping the charge of the Kari Shinobi.

"I thought you will attack?"

"No way, you know that I'm only good in defending that's why I become gate guard." The gatekeeper helpless siadm

"And we mush fight quick without causing too much damage."

"And also, you know that we need to show off, after all, we are just new family here."

Hearing his words, Kamizuru Patriarch and Senju Hen also feel into silence.

Indeed, nwo they can't let the Five Great Ninja Village know that they are still alive at the same time they need to show their value to the Kingdom.

Even though they know Xin will never asked them, their pride still can't accept to get something for free without paying anything.

And besides, even if they don't use thier trademark Ninjutsu, they can still use other Ninjutsu to fight.

"In that case."

Kamizuru Patriarch smiled and said." Bring a team, clean them and don't anyone discover us!"

"Yes!"
