

Uzumaki 341

Chapter 341 - Basic Rules

"Stop!"

Jinin raised his hand signaling everyone to stop while looking around, frowning slightly and looking in one direction.

"Since you are already here, why don't you show up?"

However, after waiting for a while, no one answered him, Jinin did not dare to move easily, he know what kind of people they going to face right now

Anyone who has experience the Uzumaki Kingdom War years ago knows that this Group of Uzumaki Shinobi is quite wretched, and if they don't pay attention, they may be killed in spot easily.

"Come out!"

Jinin looked at the tree in front of him.

"If you don't come out."

*Swish~

A few Kunai directly flew towards the direction, however...

*Blink!

Suddenly,.more than 20 Shinobi appeared around them.

Seeing that they were surrounded, Jinin and everyone can't help but to cursed secretly, you know, they are just eight of them in Thai group, do they need to send twenty for them?

And looking at the middle-aged man wearing black clothes and black masked in front of him, he felt that he is very strong.

"It's a pity."

Kamizuru Patriarch sighed, looking at the rice field in front of him, he feel helplessly and pity, this place is work by the refugees but they going to destroy it because of the fight.

"Since it has been destroyed, I originally planned to wait tmfotnyou to stay away from here, then let's do to."

After all, if there is battle here, destroying the crops inevitable to be destroyed.

Looking at the rice field in front on him with a bit of pain, his heart was suddenly filled with helplessness and it seemed that he was looking for the blackface ghost to reimburse.

To know that they still owe the Uzumaki Kingdom.

And it's not over yet.

If you you go and reimburse, needless to say, you will definitely be criticized in the end.

So Kamizuru Patriarch don't want to see those people at all, helpynhsi face blank whatever he face them.

Looking at the Kiri Shinobi, Kamizuru Patriarch said with serious face." At the same time, we suspect that you all will bring lose to Uzumaki Kingdom."

"Please don't make our job hard, lay down your weapon, hand on the back of your head, and kneel down on two knees."

"Follow us for investigation, if we found a probable cause, we will detained you and call your Village for Court Hearing."

Allmof Kirigakure Shinobi listen to Kamizuru Patriarch in lost, they dotn know what he saying or trying to say, they don't even understand the rules in catching people.

Jinin looked at the person in front of him with a bewildered expression, he don't know what he talking about.

Lay down your weapon and kneel down?

This is not a joke right?

"Don't joke me!"

"Everyone! Retreat the mission failed!"

....

Chapter 342 - Kamizuru and Senju Move

Seeing dozens of Shadow Clone suddenly appeared in front of him, the face of Jinin suddenly become green.

Uzumaki Kingdom is remained unchanged even their fighting style.

This kind of wretched style of play is really disgusting.

Especially these Shadow Clone are also tied with Detonating Talisman on their body.

The Shinobi of the Uzumaki Kingdom is simply a shame in the Shinobi World.

Looking at the Ninja who followed him, they slowly fell down one by one by the Uzumaki Shinobi, Jinin knew that he could not go on like this.

After all, if they lose too much blood here, the situation of Kirigakure will be in danger.

"I don't know what happened to Zabuza and others."

Jinin waved his double handled sword blocking the enemies attack.

"I guess the situation is not good?"

How they discover by them?

Obviously they were so careful, after going ashore, they stepped on the trees to hide their bodies and moved very slowly.

How could they be discovered?

At this time, on the other side.

Seeing this scene again, Kisame has something in his heart that he don't know should be said improperly.

This time there was only of dozen of them, so why Uzumaki Kingdom still uses this same tactics?

"Put down your weapon and we will spare your life." Senju Hen said lightly.

"If you are resisting, we don't have no choice but to kill you."

However, none of the Seven Ninja Swordsmen pay attention to them, as Ninja, their are ready to face death everytime they accept mission.

And if they surrender, the Village will never let them go, maybe even their family will get involved.

You know, last war, the Village pay a huge amount of money to get back the Seven Mystical Sword back from Uzumaki Kingdom.

And now they are chosen and give the important weapon to sue, if they surrender, for sure the Village will never tolerate them.

"Oh, it's really troublesome." Senju Hen said with headache.

"In that case... "

"Don't hold back."

.....

The flight start, while the Kirigakure Shinobi is siign their body and life to gamble, the Uzumaki Kingdom Shinobi is using Shadow Clone to fight them.

Seeing this on the first time made Kamizuru Patriarch and Senju Hen feel weird.

The tactics useful, its wretched and undeniable scum tactico, but you can't denied the usefulness of this rogue like tactics.

The enemies is all wastees while they don't lose any people in this fight, only some chakra that you can recover fast.

"You are here."

Senju Hen said with a smile on his face looking at Uzumaki Xin who suddenly appeared out his shadow.

"This Ninjutsu is really convenient."

Chapter 343 - Night Disturbance

"Uncle Patriarch, what do you tell me to come over for?" Uzumaki Xin asked suspiciously at Senju Hen.

"You know I need to have complete sleep, I heard that sleeping late and waking up too early effect your height."

""Haha, I was worried about an accident so I called you over." Senju Hen shook his head helplessly.

"But now it doesn't seem to be needed anymore."

"Oh?"

Uzumaki Xin asked curiously. "What happened?"

"The Kirigakure sent a Ninja to smuggle here." Senju Hen said with a smile on his face.

"Now it has been blocked by Kamizuru Patriarch and I heard nothing has happened."

"Kirigakure?"

After hearing this, Uzumaki Xin touched his chin, thinking." Unexpectedly, people from Kirigakure would come over first."

Sure enough, the Kirigakure, which is too far away from the mainland probably did receive the news and think he is not here because of the war

The Airship is the main target, and this is the first one for sure.

"I don't know if Kirigakure had recovered."

A smile appeared at the corner of Uzumaki Xin's mouth.

"I don't know if they recover the random last time, I hope they can pay again."

"I heard that Kirigakure start selling and importing fish in mainland to earn money." Senju Hen said.

"Oh? Those stupid people finally start to use their head and use the natural resources of the sea?"

You know, the sea contained unimaginable amount of wealth if you know what you doing, but those Kirigakure are ground of fools that they never use their own natural resources.

If they start it long time ago, Xin is sure Kirigakure will be richer than Konoha Village in just ten years.

That time, maybe they will need to defend the sea because the huge resources is only open for Kirigakure and Uzumaki Kingdom.

But it's useless, they waste a huge amount of time and natural resources, it's hard for Kirigakure to recover.

At the same time, Uzumaki Kingdom is holding a huge part of the sea, the Uzumaki Kingdom Navy is present in the sea so it is not easy to enter the Uzumaki Kingdom boundary.

Uzumaki Kingdom, late night

The battle that took place in the field was not hidden.

The loud noise broke the tranquility of the night.

Everyone turned on the lamp in panic, out into their clothes, and grab any weapon that they can grasp then get out.

"Everyone, please be quiet and don't panic."

A uniformed police shouted. "It's just that criminals have invaded the Uzumaki Kingdom."

"But please reassure we will protect your lives and property."

"Police Officer, who is it?" A Middle-aged man frowned and asked.

"We don't know yet." The Police Officer said while frowning.

"But it is estimated that it is Ninja from other Ninja Village, don't panic, all of you go back to your house!"

"The other already meet that intruder, and you all get the news later so don't worry!"

Chapter 344 - Civilians Willingness

They are just civilians they can't get involved in the Ninja Battle, although the Ninja School teaches chakra extraction and some self-defense skills, they can't fight even if it is a Ninja but it was useful for normal civilians.

At last..

"Is there anything we can do?"

The Young commoner sighed helplessly and said. "I'm any case, we are all citizens of the Uzumaki Kingdom."

"As long as we need our aspect, please tell us directly!"

"That's right!"

"Please tell us if we need to do something!"

"We can help too!"

The civilians behind them all responded loudly.

"We are all citizens of Uzumaki Kingdom, let us do our best!"

"Please calm down everyone!"

The Police Officer hurriedly shouted. "Now the situation is not clear, you can't run around, please go back to your own house and wait for information."

"And you are all tired working all DayZ do go sleep and rest early."..

Of course he knew what the civilians in front of him were thinking, they wanted to protect the only paradise and the only peaceful place in this world.

He can't stop them, after all, they want to protect what they have right now.

But the problem is, they are just ordinary people after all, they can't help to them right now.

He heard from Young Patrick that the solution for this kind of problem is about to arrive, in the future the civilians can help the fighting with the Ninja.

He doesn't know how but he is sure that Young Master has a solution that they don't know, what they need to do is to wait.

"There will be nothing wrong with the Uzumaki Kingdom!"

The Police Officer said, "You all go back to rest and maintain food order, don't panic and calm down, you will get information tomorrow morning."

The Patriarch Kamizuru said that if they are required to maintain the order of Uzumaki Kingdom, and there must not be chaos that will start.

"Come back guys!"

"Don't let the Police Officer job harder!"

"Let's go back and don't make trouble here!"

"Believe that Uzumaki Kingdom will be fine!"

Everyone heard the Old man's words, discussed it and agreed.

Now they can't help much, standing here will disrupt the he ordoso go back, sleep take a rest and wait for announcement tomorrow.

Seeing the civilians returning one after another, the Young Police Officer sighed inwardly, he then looked at the Old man.

"Thank you for you help, Old Mister."

"It's okay, it's okay."

The Old man smiled cheerfully." We are all citizens of the Uzumaki Kingdom."

"We should maintain the order of the Uzumaki Kingdom and guard the Uzumaki Kingdom, this is what we should to do."

Then holding the hand of Police Officer tightly, a serious expression appeared on his face and said." If you need out help, please don't hesitate to speak!"

"Okay, okay."

The Young Police nodded quickly." I will definitely, Old man go back and rest too."

"Believe that there will be nothing will bad happen to Uzumaki Kingdom."

Chapter 345 - Next Day Report

What happened last night didn't make a big splash in the Ninja World.

After the Kirigakure Shinobi were handcuffed, they were sent to a labor camp that had been vacant for a while.

They even heard that the Captain in Labor Camp is very happy to see that the camp is finally opened again.

After that last war, the labor camp is already abandoned, you can see the growing weed is so high that they need to clean first before they can start working.

As for the last batch of reform through Labor prisoners, they don't know the result of the labor camp will happen but for sure that Uzumaki Kingdom got a huge labor power.

It they still don't understand why they bring here, and continue to send people to harass them, they don't care at all, they only sending more prisoners to work for them.

Anyway, whatever they send people to attack the hem or not, this will not bring any harm to them, the current strength of Kirigakure don't have post treat for current Uzumaki Kingdom.

"The news has been blocked."

Kamizuru Patriarch walked in, looked at Uzumaki Xin who was reading the documents in front of him.

"What do you think we should do next?"

When Uzumaki Xin head this words, he nodded, put down the documents in his hand and said." Secretly send an order to Kirigakure and let them take money to redeem people."

"Yes, I'll make arrangements."

Kamizuru Patriarch looked at Uzumaki Xin with a weird look, he knew what his Highness Xin wanted to do.

After all, he also read those special books.

For this era, it's is really not flattering.

Under this kind of fooling education, it is estimated that those Kirigakure will be embarrassed again this time.

"Those seven mythical sword is collected again."

Kamizuru Patriarch asked." What should we do?"

"What do you?"

Uzumaki Xin touched his chin, looked at the swords that appeared in the table, and muttered." Uzumaki Kingdom doesn't seem to have Ninja who specializes in sword."

And the sword in this world is different in style and shape, the usefulness of the sword is forgotten because of the shape.

This is also the shortcoming of the Uzumaki Kingdom, the Physical Skill is fine after Xin created different Taijutsu Technique, but the Sword Skill are too weak.

And there is only small number of sword technique on Uzumaki Clan Library, that's not enough, or maybe he ask other to collect some Sword Technique.

There is also the Illusion Technique that is also not good in Uzumaki Clan, and right now Xin still on the process of collecting Illusion Technique and creating potion to strengthen Spirit.

"Send this sword to the slaughterhouse, lend it to the butcher's to use, rotn let it rot on the vault."

Uzumaki Xin sighed regretfully." In recent years, the population of the Uzumaki Kingdom increases, so the meat consumption has also increasing."

"I hope this sword is sharp enough to speed up the job in slaughterhouse."

Hearing this, Kamizuru Patriarch look weird.

He knows how important is his swords are, not even a ordinary Ninja want to dust it because it's precious.

Now his Highness Xin actually send it to use in cutting pork?

He cant imagine the look of Kirigakure Shinobi after they left heard that the precious sword I use to use to kill pig.

Well, omw sword here looks like a tools for cutting pig.

"And also, some sword is good chopping wood, lend it to some lumberjack to use."

"....."

Chapter 346 - Tsunade is Not Informed

Konoha Battlefield

"Damn it!" Tsunade cursed.

"Is Raikage that muscles brain is crazy? Cant he rest for a few days after he fight?"

If you can't breaxk the line of defense, why sending the Raikage to fight here when there's nothing particular strong here

"How is the Senju Clan?"

When her father took the family to the battlefield, she originally don't know anything,after all, she suffer two major blow from the previous war.

She originally disagreed sending all his family to the war, but the current situation is very unfavorable for Konoha.

What she can't accept sending a five or six years old children to the battlefield even though she knows they need more Ninja.

But with the persuasion of her father, the Senju Clan was Konoha's and it was right to sacrifice for Konoha.

Tsunade also have this kind of thought on her heart, after all, both her Grandfather sacrifice for th village.

But she is hoping that nothing will happen to her family, after all, Senju Clan is not the Senju Clan in the past.

"Is something happens in the end!"

Tsunade yelled angrily." I will smash the Old man's crystal ball!"

They really are hing she don't know what that crystal ball was for.

Jiraiya was beaten by her and said everything she want to know.

"The news come back a few days ago." A Konoha Shinobi reported.

"There was no accident, Orochimaru-sama said."

"That's good."

Tsunade breathed a sight of relief when she heard the Shinobi's words, and murmured." Where did Jiraiya go?"

Why she haven't seen him until now.

"Tsunade-sama! The Hidden Cloud Village is attacking again!" Suddenly, a Konoha Shinobi walked in and hurriedly said.

"The Commander of the Cloud Village asked Konoha Village to return the Mangekyo Sharingan and the stolen Sage Tool back to them!"

"Stupid!" Tsunade angry shouted.

"Isn't it annoying to call everyday like this?"

"And when did the Uchiha become Cloud Village property? Did he think we are a fools?"

"Prepare to defend, tell them by the way that the Mangekyo Sharingan user is not from Konoha, and the Sage Tools in not on the hand of us!"

"Yes!"

Orochimaru helplessly looked at the map spread out in the desktop, murmuring." The Old man can't afford to much."

Isn't it a joke that he have to hold on for small amount of troops to help them here?

You know, Hidden Rock Village is different from Hidden Cloud Village.

The Land of Earth is above the Land of Rain, unlike Hidden Cloud Village, which need to travel so far to come to the battlefield.

"It's a headache."

Looking at the map, Orochimaru don't know what to do.

"This is hopeless."

Chapter 347 - Battlefield Report

After knowing that the Senju Patriarch suddenly awakened Wood Release, this Hidden Rock Village began to attack the Konoha defense line madly.

Although he had allocated his troops to the defense line at same time, Orochimaru know that it won't last long.

The troops here we're always low, but now they have to divide their force, the Old man didn't know what he thinking.

Abandon the side first, and finally grab it back?

Moreover, the Senju Patriarch is not longer there, and he can't stop all fo the incoming enemies, it is estimated that the Hidden Rock Village will launch another fierce attacks.

The problem is, the Konoha's troops are insufficient right now.

"Orochimaru-sama, the information has been sent to Tsunade-sama." A Konoha Shinobi walked over.

"Moreover, in the case if the Senju Clan, we did not tell Tsunade-sama according to your request."

"Thank you for your hard work."

Orochimaru sighed, looking at the Konoha Shinobi.

'I hope Tsunade won't blame me when she knows.'

"How is the Uzumaki Clan now?"

"They still not fighting.'

Konoha Shinobi frowned and said." I don't know what happened to Hidden Sand Village and Hidden Rain Village, but the line of troopa was line up behind the borders, and ther was no action until now."

"That's it!"

After hearing this, Orochimaru lowered his head and looked at the map.

Originally, he planned that Konoha would clean up the others, and then join the Uzumaki Clan to solve the Hidden Sand Village and Hidden Rain Village.

But now it depends on the situation, and all the plan he come up is not working at allm

"Since the opponent is too strong, I can only cut our hand.... And try to drag the Uzumaki Clan into my battlefield."

As long as the Uzumaki Clan is also join the war, and finally created a huge chaos, Konoha will get a chance.

A chance to reverse the disadvantage.

Uzumaki Kingdom

"Taiga!"

Koroko patted Taiga on the shoulder, shook his head and said. "Don't be sad, we have gone through so many difficulty, haven't we survived the time?"

Looking at the farmland in front of them that has become a ruin, he sighed. "At most, we can start over again."

And yesterday, they know that the enemy try to enter in this site and a fight broke destroying the farmland that they cultivate hard.

"But... But..." Taiga raised his head and helplessly said. "I've been waiting for so long."

"By the way, I haven't asked you, what the hell is this farmland doing?"

Koroko curiously look at him. "You seem to have been dealing with this in the past few months."

"Is this a precious crops?"

"This is a task given to you by His Highness Xin." Taiga took out the book from his arms with frustrated expression.

"Unfortunately now...."

"Oh?"

Koroko look at the book curiously.

Rice Hybrid Breeding Record and Manual

Chapter 348 - Madara awakened

Mountains' Graveyard

"Hashirama..."

"..... Hashirama...."

An Old voice sounded in the narrow cave, it's gloomy and scary, the voice carry some hint of tenderness and helplessness.

"Ah?"

White Zetsu who was holding a brush and a paint grabbed the calligraphy paper in the floor and walked in.

Looking at the Old man with white hair in front of him and said in surprise voice.

"Master Madara is awake?"

"Ahem! Why did it take you somlong to come?"

Madara slowly opened his eyes and looked at White Zetsu in front of him with muddy eyes and asked.
"What are you doing?"

When White Zetsu heard Madara's words, he pulled out the calligraphy paper with both hand, raised it and said proudly." Master Madara look at this!"

"It's a stool I painted! Isn't it very similar?"

"I even use the real one to color it! How is it?"

"...."

Madara's sleepiness suddenly disappear, he look at White Zetsu weirdly.

Why this one is different with other?

Could it be that the he got the brain cell of Hashirama and mutated by hundred times making his intelligence degenerate to lowest?

Madara looked at the happy White Zetsu speechlessly and asked." You can paint?"

And, what the hell he draw stool of all things?

"It's boring."

White Zetsu lowered his head when he saw Madara's unhappy look, he said with face full of frustration.

"Master Madara hasn't woken up again, and the other have definitely gone out, no one will play with me."

Hearing what White Zetsu said, Madara sighed.

Indeed, being alone is too lonely, seeing White Zetsu like this, he unknowingly remember some old memories again.

With a smile on his lips, he murmured." Back then , Hashirama always pull me to fight who can pee longer.."

"It seems that I was really bored that time."

Then looking at White Zetsu, who was also staring at him a the time, the smile in his lips slowly disappear and turn cold again..

"Where the other have been in the past days?"

Hearing Madara's words, White Zetsu scratched his head as if lost in thought, clapped his hand one last time and said." Listening to him last time, it seems that he gone out to start a business."

"Business?"

Madara frowned upon hearing White Zetsu's words.

"What so you mean?"

"I don't know." White Zetsu scratched his head embarrassedly.

"I don't understand what he said."

"....."

Chapter 349 - Madara's Plan

"That's it!"

Hearing White Zetsu's words, Madara closed his eyes trying to forget all stupid things he heard today.

"Where is that Little Imp from Uzumaki Clan?"

"Oh? He seems to be at war."

White Zetsu added. "It's dangerous outside now."

"The entire Ninja World is at war, just listen to it, Konoha seems to be in miserable states."

"The war is starting again?"

Madara murmured. "..... Konoha.."

Back then, he and Hashirama created the Konoha Village to bring hope of peace to the Shinobi World, but he did not expect that in the end, the war still come.

Madara shook his head with wry smile.

"Hashirama, I've said that your method won't work."

He then slowly stand up while trembling.

"This time, I will let you take a look and see...."

"Who can bring peace to the Ninja World."

Everything is serious, until.

"Master Madara, do you want to poop?"

White Zetsu watched as Madara stab duo and asked." Do you need me to help you?"

"You!"

Hearing White Zetsu's words, Madara suddenly release his momentum, give him a fierce look and said.

"When Black Zetsu come back, ask him to bring that Little Imp!"

"What's the matter Master Madara?"

"What do you want to Uzumaki kid?"

"Shut up!" Madara stared fiercely at White Zetsu.

"Listen up!"

"Okay, okay!" White Zetsu reply nervously.

"Aren't you bored?"

Madara felt relieved when he saw White Zetsu like this, and helplessly said.".... It's also a while....."

"I haven't seenn the Ninja World."

"Let's go out for a walk."

"Really!"

White Zetsu almost jump high as his head the ceiling but he don't care, he is happy right now.

"Master Madara with me?"

"Yes."

Madara nodded with a smile." I'll take. A break for a few days, and when I'm back, remind me."

It's time to go out and see

See how the Shinobi World had become.

Chapter 350 - War Report

Early March

Uzumaki Clan Battlefield.

"His Royal Highness Xin!"

Lucci respectfully greet when he saw Uzumaki Xin coming.

As for the Uzumaki Kushina who was following Xin, Lucci ignore her and start to report the current condition.

"Is there a problem?"

"We only recruit few refugees these days." Lucci helpless said

"Indeed."

Uzumaki Xin nodded, he also heard that his report yesterday.

"I don't know why, the Land of Rain seems to be arresting the refugees of their own country." Lucci said.

"Arresting your own citizens?" Kushina taken aback.

What kind of country is that?

The current condition of the Land of Rain is dangerous, if you stay here, only death awaits you so it's normal for those civilians to escape from the war.

It's also impossible for the Land of Rain to sue them as soldier, they don't have ability to fight like Shinobi at all.

This is basically sending them to their own death if they did that, and for sure, the reputation of the Land of Rain will slam to the ground if they did this.

You know, it was still acceptable to see young kids who just graduated from Ninja School in the battlefield.

After all, even if they are just a bunch of kids, they are basically stronger than civilians who don't train like ninja.

"Is that so?"

Uzumaki Xin murmured while thinking.

"It seems that Hanzo wants to do something big."

No wonder a few days ago, he added another batch of order to them.

It seems that Hanzo wants to quell the Civil Strife in the Land of Rain and then directly announced the founding of the Sixth Largest Ninja Village.

"Brother Xin, I want to see Nono and Yuki." Kushina who silent standing beside him said.

She was curious about the improvement of two girls after they join the war, it's so long time when she even saw the two girls.

"God.'

"Nono and Yukihome will be glad to see you."

"They are both in the medical room right now."

"But remember, don't cause trouble to them."

"Team!" Kushina happily ran towards the medical room.

"I won't cause any trouble!"

"Thai gii.'

Uzumaki Xin looked at the leaving figure it Kushina, smiled helplessly and murmured." I hope you can be happy as a child."

He then turn his head to Lucci and thought." What happened to Konoha recently?"

"The situation doesn't seems to be very good." Lucci frowned.

"According to the latest news front he people below, Hidden Cloud Village has been attacking the Konoha, they seems using the momentum from the last case of Senju Clan extermination to forcedly Konoha yo submit to them."
