Chapter 371 - Konoha Reinforcement

"We can't hold it anymore, Lord Orochimaru." A Konoha ninja with sadness on his face shouted,

"Let's retreat! Lord Naruto will understand us."

"Shut up!"

However Orochimaru stared at him with cold eyes. "If you disturb the military's mind again, kill!!"

"But..."

Konoha Ninja, who had to say something, saw the expression of Ochimaru-sama, sighed inwardly, and shouted, "Yes!!"

however...

Orochimaru also knew that the current situation was really not optimistic, with a wry smile on his face, and murmured. "It seems that I am really going to explain here this time!"

Obviously he has not yet begun to explore the secrets of life and crack the mystery of longevity, he clearly still has...

Many things have not been done! !

"Where did the idiot Jiraiya go?" Orochimaru murmured with an angry expression on his face.

"If you don't come to Konoha, it will be over..."

however...

The words are not finished yet...

"Boom~"

Suddenly there was a loud noise from the battlefield, and a large amount of dust splashed.

Suddenly everyone's eyes on the battlefield were attracted.

"Is it finally here?" And the corner of Orochimaru's mouth raised, showing a smile.

After a while, the dust dissipated..

"Under the toad, the immortal...yawns...which young lady misses me?"

They saw a white-haired young man in armor standing on a huge toad with a wretched smile on his mouth, rubbing his nose.

"Jiraiya, don't you see what's going on here?"

The huge red toad below took a puff of smoke and said helplessly, "It's a battle here..."

The words are not finished yet...

"kill!!"

Except Konoha ninjas, all the surrounding ninjas rushed towards Jiraiya!

"This idiot!!"

Orochimaru covered her face speechlessly, "What a idiot!"

.....

"One thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine." A black-haired teenager murmured, supporting the ground with one hand, "one thousand and nine hundred."

"It's still 100, nine hundred and one thousandth."

"..."

The teenager was still doing his own physical training and muttered, "I don't know if I train like this, can I pass graduation by then?"

Then, a smirk appeared on his face...

"Hehe, I don't seem to go to school at all!!!"

"How is it possible to graduate?"

But he didn't notice, there was an old man with a cane standing behind him.

Madara quietly looked at kid who was training in front of him, but there was a sneer at the corner of his mouth. After all, this world is a world of genius.

A blood successor and a pair of eyes may be able to make a lower ninja instantly become an upper ninja, even shadow!

In Madara's eyes, how could he not see that the kid in front of him couldn't release ninjutsu at all.

This kind of person basically has no hope of becoming a ninja.

Because of physique...

Insufficient stamina!

Even if you are the one who hits the world without...cough cough, a physical genius, he must cooperate with ninjutsu to be able to cross the world of ninjutsu!

and so...

"Little devil, give up!" Madara sneered. "It is impossible to become a ninja without releasing ninjutsu."

Chapter 372 - Madara and the Kid

"Who?"

The Kid stood up with a backflip, but saw that standing behind him was an old man who even needed to walk on crutches, so he let go of the vigilance he had just raised and said cheerfully, "Old man, why don't you go back so late?"

"..."

I am old after all.

Madara was silent for a while, shook his head and said, "Leave me alone."

"Although physique has advantages in the early stage, but the back force is not enough to release the chakra people, the final achievement will be tolerated."

"Plus..." Madara glanced at the traces of training around him, and knew that this kid had been here for a long time.

"Long-term strenuous exercise can cause serious damage to the body. In the future, you may not even have the opportunity to use crutches."

"Hehe, I know."

The kid scratched his head and said, "Uncle Ryota also told me, but..."

"His Royal Highness Xun said..."

The kid showed a firm expression on his face, "If he even gave up, then there really is no chance."

"I believe I will become a great ninja!!"

"..."

You, a ninjutsu idiot, actually believe what a genius who became a shadow at the age of seven said?

Madara suddenly felt a little stomachache.

The kid in front of you doesn't have any problems in his mind, right!

"It's up to you!"

Madara shook his head and decided not to say anything. Now he only has one wish in his heart...

Bring real peace to the ninja world!

The rest...

It has nothing to do with him! !

Turning around and planning to go back with a cane and wait for A Fei to go home to cook.

Madara heard the movement that sounded again behind him, stopped again, and sighed in his heart. He and Hashirama seemed to be training that way back then, and they were training very late.

At that time, the Senju Clan and Uchiha Clan were still enemies!

But the only difference is that both of them are geniuses, and that stupid boy is just a waste!

but...

Madara turned his head to look at the teenager who was still training, and said helplessly, "Strength shouldn't be used like this!"

...

Chapter 373 - Jiraiya Arrived

"Orochimaru, tell me, why did you do this!"

Jiraiya grabbed Orochimaru by the collar and roared.

"Going to challenge the three Ninja Village!!"

How can such stupid thing ended here, you know that even with current Konoha condition, they can't fight them at all.

Everyone know that Konoha Village is the First Ninja Village in the world, the undoubtedly strongest of all Village but Jiraiya know that it's different.

Konoha Village is strong, and maybe just stronger than Hidden Rock Village by small margin but not strong as they can fight everyone with easy.

And right now they still fighting two major Ninja Village and still not winning a single fight nwo there's two more that is coming to them.

"Do you think you are the God of Shinobi!"

"Let go." Orochimaru looked at Jiraiya with helpless face

"I didn't provoke them."

"Don't you heat anything when you come back?"

'its like this.."

"Haha.."

After listening, Jiraiya let go of him, with embarrassingly like ok I'm his face.

"I was ruched over here by your Old man when I returned to Konoha, so I didn't pay much attention at all."

Then he looked around.

"Where is Tsunade?"

He did not see her mighty figure right now.

She should be shocked right now.

Because of him, the Konoha Crane Tail has become stronger.

"Tsunade isn't here."

Orochimaru asked suspiciously. "Isn't she on the battlefield of Hidden Cloud Village?"

And looking at this man who was looking around like silly, wonder if h can tell him the news about the Senju

"Forget it."

Orochimaru sighed inwardly, just let him be a foolish for a while.

"Apart from you, does the old man have any arrangements for support?"

If they didn't, they wouldn't be able to hold here

Although, Jiraiya has indeed become stronger.

But now there is no difference between one more and one less

"Not here." Jiraiya said regretfully.

"I don't know either."

"I rushed over when I hears you were in danger."

Of course, he hide that he want to see Tsunade and not this stinky snake.

Jiraiya also rubbed his forehead with a headache and said helplessly." But now it seems that even me is in danger."

Hearing Jiraiya's words, Orochimaru's mouth showed a smile, then disappear immediately and said faintly.

"There are too many enemies in Konoha now, if ther is not support, we really can only.... "

Chapter 374 - Xin's Daily Routine

"Go to work at seven, leave work at... ten in the evening, and take one day off each week...."

Suddenly, Uzumaki Xin felt that he was a black-hearted capitalist.

This time rule is more ruthless than last time, and this group of hard-working people in the Ninja World will nyo scold him and even appreciate him.

"Fortunately, people in this world are generally good at physical fitness." Uzumaki Xin sight.

"Otherwise, they would be exhausted to death."

Nowadays, the Uzumaki Kingdom has to do the same, after all, the labor force is still too small and the only way to extend production is to increase the working hours.

As for the proposal by his father to cancel holiday.

He directly ignored them, he is not kins of person after all.

"That old man still went to check that kid's place today and didn't run around? It seems he like that hardworking kid."

Naga looking at the notebook." Do I need to call Chan to come over and ask?"

"It's not necessary." Uzumaki Xin said with a smile on his face.

"As long as there is no accident, you don't have to worry about it."

Maybe this is Kid Chan's opportunity.

Don't bother yourself.

Maybe there will be a surprise in the end.

As for Chan will be fooled by Boss Madara to become a terrorist?

Uzumaki Xin is not worried after all, he knows that kid very much.

He is more like Rock Lee and Matt Guy of Konoha in the future.

"Understood!" Naga nodded.

His Highness Xin meant that he still didn't care about it, because everything is under control.

Although she didn't understand why he did it, Naga still had a high level of Ninja Ethics, and did not ask anything again, looking at the note on her hand.

"There are new discoveries at the research institute, and the Great Elder hopes you will come by."

"A new discovery?" Uzumaki Xin touched hai chin and murmured." What is it?"

Is there any new progress in Chakra Extraction or the weapon system?

Uzumaki Xin's eyes lit up and glanced at Naga beside him.

"I'll go there first."

In the last few days, under the guidance of this Old grandfather, Chan has learned a lot about physical skills m

You must know that he has explore everything by himself before, after all, the Physical Skills in Uzumaki Kingdom is lacking.

Chan couldn't help being regretful, Uzumaki Kingdom don't have any powerful ninja who expert in Physical Skill that why he is so very grateful to the old man who taught him.

"Little Devil."

Seeing Chan look like this, Madara nodded with satisfaction.

Konoha people, those little devil in the past is really unlovable, they onylmlole Hashirama even though Madara show kindness sometimes.

Why doesn't anyone like him in Konoha?

"You eat these?"

Madara looked down at the pile of cans next to him, frowning and said." Ninja's Nutrition needs are several times, even a hundred times that other can eat, if you fees your self with this, your body can't keep up."

Chapter 375 - Can Beef

"I'm used to it." Chan said.

"Brother Ryo needs to be on duty today, so I plan to eat something casually, Grandpa would like to have some?"

"This is a canned meat that sell only here in the Uzumaki Kingdom, and it tastes very good."

He take out one with vow printed on it.

"Canned beef, my favorite, as long as it is lightly heated, the flavor will be more delicious, Grandpa, do you want to taste it?"

Uchiha Madara glanced at the can with a trace of contempt at the corner of his mouth.

As the previous Patriarch of the Uchiha Clan, what kind of food he did not eat?

In particular, he followed Hashirama through the Ninja World to collect the Tail Beast, he and Hashirama had tasted the delicacies of mountain and seas.

But neither ot them knew how to cook back them so it was very hard to eat, and a bit unpalatable.

"Old man disdain..."

And before Uchiha Madara finished speaking, the ehates canned beef immediately released a peculiar smell.

*Ahem!

Uchiha Madara made a fake cough and said faintly." Since you invite the old man to have a taste, the old man will give you face."

What on his earth Thai delicious smell come from?

It's so fragrant!

Uchiha Madara sat next to Chna with doubts in his eyes, looked at the canned food on the firewood, muttered in his heart.

'It hasn't been long time I ate something, why did I feel so hungry.'

"The signature of the Uzumaki Kingdom, braised beef." Chen carefully picked up the heated can and said regretfully.

"This is the last can I have."

Then, handed it to Uchiha Madara.

"Come and taste it Grandpa."

Looking at Uchiha Madara with a smile on his face." Thank you for your teaching over the past few days."

"Hmph!"

Uchiha Madara snorted twice and said." This Old man teaching can only be rewarded by a mere can?"

He took the can, grabbed a piece of chopsticks, and slowly put it into his mouth.

"Eh?"

His eyes suddenly narrowed.

"This!"

He couldn't understand, how can such a small can contain such a delicious delicacy!

Madara ate so many different things from gross to most delicious food that even Daimyo can't eat but this is the first time he ate such good.

Looking at the can of beef on his hand, Madara felt like a fool.

For his whole time staying here, he never thought that he would discover a food that could make his mouth water.

It's not hot or cold, but what is just right.

The beef is shredded and some chunks mixed in it but you can taste the freshness of the beef on every single bite.

This can of beef is the strongest and most delicious food he ever had on his entire life.

Chapter 376 - Kid's in War

"You kid!" Jiraiya looked at a group of primary school students in front of him, and said silently, "Who asked you to come?"

What happened?

He clearly remembers that this kid should be graduated in one year?

Why did you suddenly come to the battlefield?

Moreover, even after graduation, it's just Chunin, shouldn't you sweep the trash and catch the cat in the village?

This is how the same thing?

"Hokage-sama arranged it." The kid said with a proud expression on his face, "Im Shinobi now!"

"Is the old man crazy?"

Jiraiya also looked at Orochimaru, and the two looked at each other, and said, "How did you send a group of little ghosts?"

What is the use of these little ghosts on the battlefield?

Especially now we are facing two of the five great Ninja villages, and a Hidden Rain village who owns the demigod of Ninja world! !

Are you here to give the head away?

Orochimaru also frowned, then, looking at the kids and smiling, "Come and tell your Brother Orochimaru, what happened in the village?"

"Eh!!"

Senju Kid scratched the back of his head, as if he didn't know what to say, "It seems that Aunt Utatane said that because of the unfavorable reasons on the battlefield, let us graduate early and let us help."

"..."

What is that old lady doing! !

Jiraiya also showed no concern, and said angrily, "What does the menopausal guy want to do?"

Aren't you afraid of being beaten after Tsunade knows about it?

You know, after Nawaki died last war, theres only couple of kid left in Tsunade's home, and they send this kid with them?

"I will arrange for someone to take you back in a few days. This is not where you should have come."

Jiraiya also touched the rope tree's head and said, "You are still young, stay in the village honestly."

Orochimaru also nodded his head in agreement. Don't say whether these little ghosts can help, it's good if they don't make trouble, and even if they are sent to the battlefield...

It's just a small cannon fodder

And if Tsunade knew, he and Jiraiya would be dead.

"I'm already a ninja."

Senju Kid said unhappily, "I can help."

"Tsk tut."

Jiraiya had a strange smile on his face, "Ninja who graduated early!!"

There is a fart!

Chapter 377 - New Discovery

"That is, it is still not possible to extract chakras forcibly at the moment?"

Uzumaki Xin touched his chin and looked at a strange device in front of him, like something like a blood vessel. "It was just through studying the absorption capacity of the mackerel muscle to create this thing?"

"Yes!"

The Grand Elder said with a smile on his face, "Science is really full of incredible knowledge!"

"We originally studied how creatures forced the extraction of chakras from the shark muscles."

"But I didn't expect to create this thing in the end."

"Life Extractor!!"

"A device capable of forcibly extracting vitality."

"It's amazing!"

Uzumaki Xin said with emotion, "Just what's the use of this?"

He remembered that Uzumaki Karin's vitality was overflowing because of the special physique of the Uzumaki family, which allowed the injured person to recover with one bite.

The principle is to absorb Karin's vitality. To some extent...

It will damage Karin's life.

So Orochimaru also told her not to stretch her arm for others to bite.

"Through the previous experiments."

The Grand Elder said with a smile on his face, "We found that the vitality extracted can be transferred to other animals."

"It can repair injuries, or increase life span, and strengthen physical fitness."

"!!!"

So strong?

Hearing the words of the great elder, Uzumaki Xin was stunned. If this is the case, then wouldn't he be able to continue to extract life to reach longevity?

"No."

The Grand Elder seemed to have guessed what Uzumaki was thinking in his heart, shook his head, and said, "It seems that there are restrictions and it is not possible to inject for a long time."

"That's it!" Uzumaki Xin felt a little regretful, looked at the extractor in front of him, and asked, "Can it cross species?"

"All the organisms that have been tested so far are fine." The elder nodded and said, "As for the human body, it has not yet been tested."

"Such words..."

Uzumaki Xin nodded in satisfaction.

It seems that people in the scientific research institute have listened to their own words.

Before confirming whether the test product is safe, try to use other organisms as much as possible, saying with emotion, "It looks like a clinical trial is about to start soon."

What about the prisoners who use the Hidden Mist Village?

Or do you want to catch a few terrorists at random from the outside?

and...

"It's called a strengthening agent!"

Chapter 378 - Chan Motivation

"It's called a strengthening agent!"

Uzumaki Xin touched his chin and said, "If it is not harmful to the human body, then dilute it ten thousand times and sell it to other villages.

One bottle of ten thousand tael, one hundred bottles for a course of treatment, three This course of treatment is effective."

As for it didn't work?

At that time, your physique had a problem, or would it be useful to drink a few bottles?

Health products are like this.

"We will arrange the clinical trial as soon as possible."

The elder nodded and said, "If it is the test sample, it is not enough now!"

Only the dozen or so middle-aged people in Uzumaki Kingdom are too restrictive.

"Perhaps..."

Uzumaki Xin touched his chin, and suddenly thought of someone, and said, "Take a few bottles to me."

A mysterious smile appeared on the corner of his mouth, "It's time to give Black Zetsu and White Zetsu some benefits."

I don't know what happens to age spots after eating?

Is it time...

My waist is no longer sore, my legs are no longer sore, and I don't even need to use crutches to walk?

"What is physique?"

Madara sat on the stone bench and looked at Chan who was still training not far away, and said faintly, "Relying on the body to directly attack, and it can be launched without the need for Chakra, it is called physique power."

"But physique practitioners have always been at a disadvantage."

"Because ninjutsu and illusion cannot be used, the resistance to these two techniques is too weak."

"If you are not careful, you may fall into someone else's trap."

Uchiha Madara sighed and said, "Boy, I advise you to give up!"

No one can become a strong man by relying solely on physical skills.

"I think the country of Uzumaki is very good now."

Uchiha Madara looked at Chan who was still training while ignoring her words, a smile appeared on the corner of her mouth, flashed by, and said faintly, "Even if you don't become a ninja. Can live a comfortable life."

"Go find a job!"

"No!"

However, Chan turned his head and looked at Madara with a firm expression in his eyes, "I won't give up."

"I became a ninja not because I wanted to live a good life, but because..."

"Defend this country!!"

Chan stared at Madara and said resolutely, "I have experienced wars, and I don't want the country of Uzumaki to fall into wars."

"and so..."

"I will become as strong as Brother Ryu!!"

"Become a soldier in the Uzumaki Kingdom."

"..."

Chapter 379 - Madara's Recognition

Seeing Chan's determination and his words, Madara was silent, and finally sighed and said, "I recognize your dream, kid."

Then, a sneer appeared at the corner of his mouth, "Although this dream is still so ridiculous.

Do you think this country needs you to protect it? ?

That whirlpool kid has already...

Just like he and Chan back then, he had no rivals in the Ninja Realm.

"Dreams can become reality as long as they last."

Chan said with a smile on his face when he heard the words of Grandpa, "This is what His Royal Highness Xin said, so I will stick to it."

"..."

Madara feels a headache when he hears that kid again.

A genius who always feeds other people with chicken soup, is he not afraid of problems?

He said helplessly, "Don't listen to what that red-haired kid said!"

"Huh?" Chan looked at Madara in confusion, what did the grandfather just say?

However...

"Your body cannot use ninjutsu and illusion."

Madara's expression became serious and said, " But it can refine Chakra."

"Ninja's physique does not rely solely on the body."

Hearing that Grandpa was about to talk about physical skills again, Chan immediately listened intently.

Madara glanced at Chan's body, and said faintly, "Although physical exercises are not like ninjutsu and illusion, they need to consume chakras to attack the enemy, but a large amount of chakras can make the body highly active, so that ordinary people can hardly imagine it. Speed and power."

"Therefore, physique has disadvantages and advantages. Although it is very dangerous for illusion and ninjutsu-type ninjas, for enemies who can absorb chakra or can invalidate ninjutsu, physique is the most effective way to defeat them. method."

"and so..."

"Your body has reached the strength it can bear at your age."

Madara looked at Chan and said, "Looking at the can just now, the old man has a suggestion for you."

"From now on, strengthen the control of the chakra, and wait until your chakra can be attached to every part of the body at will, then your physical skills..."

"It's the real entry."

"So that's it!!"

Hearing the words of the grandfather, Chan's eyes suddenly brightened, as if thinking of the way forward, he quickly asked, "What do I need to do?"

It seems that when this old grandfather was young, he should have been a strong physique, otherwise, how could he understand physique so much?

During this period of time, I also felt that no matter how I strengthened my training, I still gained little, and it seemed that I had reached a bottleneck.

Madara glanced at the small river next to him and the surrounding trees, stood up faintly, and turned around.

Just when Chan thought that Grandpa would not teach him, he looked anxious and wanted to ask...

A long voice came over.

"Step on the water, step on the tree!"

Chapter 380 - Reality of War

"That is, the old man asked you to be the instructor of the Senju Kid?"

Jiraiya also frowned, and said, "It's just a Senju Clan..."

"Are you sure you won't get beaten?"

"Senju Clan and Tsunade don't know yet."

Orochimaru shook his head and said, "The old man asked me to block the news."

"But now the Senju Kid..."

Jiraiya also hesitated, still sighed, and said, "It won't be long before Tsunade will be more angry."

He knows Tsunade's character. If he says it now, Tsunade will be sad for a while, and he will cheer up. The same guys have nothing to do, but if they are hiding from her...

Not only do you have to get fists, but even your friends won't have to do it.

"I even hate you."

Jiraiya also looked at Oochimaru with a serious expression, "What should you do?"

"I..." Oshemaru opened her mouth, but didn't know what to say.

He knew what the teacher meant, didn't he just want him to borrow the reputation of the Orochimaru clan to become Hokage's position?

But...

"I'll talk to Tsunade myself in a few days."

Orochimaru hesitated, but decided to say, "As for whether to tell Tsunade or not, let Tsunade decide!"

He was still cruel.

Even if Senju Kid had a chance to awaken Wood Release, he didn't want to disappoint Jiraiya and Tsunade, after all...

They are in a small team! !

"Really."

Jiraiya also patted Orochimaru on the shoulder, and said cheerfully, "That's right, the old man doesn't care about him over there."

"At that time Tsunade will naturally ask him to settle accounts!!"

"But..."

Orochimaru sighed and said, "I still agree with what the old man said, this world..."

"Only strength can guarantee one's survival, if the rope tree awakens Wood Release..."

"Oh!"

Before Orochimaru could speak, however, Jiraiya waved his hand, sighed, and said, "I also know, but..."

He looked at a group of little ghosts who were curious about the battlefield not far behind him.

"I just hope they will know later..."

"The cruelty of this ninja world!!"

"Stupid."

Orochimaru glanced at Jiraiya with disdain, "Ninja world is full of cruelty. If you make it clear earlier, they will work harder to live in this world."

"Hehe." Jiraiya also smiled and said, "It's free, now we can't stop them anymore."

"You need to know Konoha consultant but let them come..."

However, the words are still finished...

"Master Orochimaru, Master Jiraiya."

A Konoha ninja walked in with a panic expression, and said, "Hidden Sand Shinobi and hidden Rock Shinobi attacked again."

...
