

Uzumaki 471

Chapter 471: Festival

Labor Camps.

"Everyone knows the plan for tomorrow!" Jūzō Biwa looked at the surrounding Kiri Shinobi with a serious face, and said, "There must be no accidents."

"Got it!"

All Kiri Shinobi's eyes shook and shouted loudly.

And aside...

A fat man looked at them with floating eyes and shouted loudly, "I believe we will be able to succeed!!"

Early Morning.

Uzumaki Kingdom

Here comes the important annual festival in Uzumaki Country... Grim Reaper!

The winter snow has already melted.

Although February is still a bit chilly, it has not resisted the slight spring breeze.

This morning did not rain like the previous few days.

The warm sun slowly passed from the blue sky.

When the middle fell, dispelling the residual chills, the grass also quietly emerged from the ground.

Unknowingly, the original snow-white scenery has long since disappeared.

"Nagato, Nagato." A little blue-haired girl knocked on the door and shouted loudly, "Are you still up?"

"It's too late."

"There are people outside, come out and play!"

However... The door still did not open.

The angry little girl frowned her cute brows and patted the door vigorously.

"Bang!!"

"If you don't get up, we will ignore you."

"Yayan got up earlier than you."

The little girl pursed her mouth and shouted unhappily, "Open the door quickly and don't sleep in."

And the child with the orange hedgehog head on the side, with his face down, said, "I said it's still early, and everyone hasn't woken up yet."

Right now... It's only seven o'clock in the morning.

Especially today most people don't have to go to work, it is estimated that they are still resting.

"Yahiko, this won't work." Little Konan looked at Yahiko earnestly and said, "You and I are both from the Land of Rain. Back then, we didn't have much sleep until 7 or 8 o'clock."

"Everyone will go out to find food at five or six."

"I didn't even dare to sleep at night. I stayed in the corner by myself, afraid of being broken in by those nasty ninjas."

"Yeah!" Yahiko said cheerfully with a smile on his face, "It has been almost a year since I came to the Uzumaki Kingdom unknowingly."

"The present life was simply unimaginable before."

"So we can't relax a little bit." Little Konan heard Yahiko's words, lit her head with satisfaction, and said, "Know that there are many people in the Land of Rain who are living in very hardship."

Then, holding her head proudly, "And I am now a citizen of the Uzumaki Kingdom."

"Me too." Yahiko said, scratching the back of his head. "My father got it the other day."

"Really?" Little Konan looked at Yahiko with a happy face, and said, "Then we can go to school together at that time, so we will be with Nagato."

"En." Yahiko nodded with a smile, and said, "Study carefully with Nagato."

"To protect the country of the Uzumaki together."

"It would be great if the country of rain can be the same as the Uzumaki Kingdom." Little Konan nodded and said in a pitying tone, "In this way, everyone can live a good life."

"It's a pity." Yahiko also nodded in agreement, suddenly his eyes lit up, as if thinking of something, and said, "If the kingdom of rain is closer to the kingdom of vortex, then your Highness Xin will be fine..."

"Crack~."

Chapter 472: Special Day

"Crack~."

However, he hasn't waited for Yahiko to finish.

The door was opened.

"It's early for you guys!" Nagato rubbed his eyes and yawned. "What time is now?"

"It's Nagato, you're too late." Little Konan said unhappily, "If you are in the country of rain, you must starve to death in Nagato."

"But I've always been in the Country of Uzumaki!"

Nagato said with a yawn, "Eat three meals a day, each with meat, drink a glass of s-class honey water from the god crane clan in the morning, and a bottle of milk in the evening, except for my mother. Apart from eating sweets all day, everything else is going well."

For today's festival, my mother should go to the factory to handle things, and she should be back.

This nagging...

Both Little Konann and Yahiko squinted, staring at Nagato with dangerous faces.

There was a sudden urge to beat him.

"Come in." Nagato rubbed his eyes and opened the door, "Wait for me to wash up." He looked at them with a complaining tone and said, "It doesn't take so early even for the festival."

"It's fun at night, you know, you can go to the temple fair and watch the fireworks at night."

"Yeun!!" Little Konan heard Nagato's words, her eyes lit up, her head lit, and she looked at Nagato with envy, and said, "It's great! Nagato has always lived in the country of Uzumaki."

"Actually, I heard from my mother and uncle that the country of Uzumaki was not so good before."

Nagato took out the honey and poured a glass of honey water for each of them, and said, "Although living on a small island has no war, it still eats every year. When it's not full, even when it's cold, there are people who starve to death and freeze to death."

"But since the birth of His Royal Highness Xin, the Uzumaki Kingdom has slowly changed for the better."

"So His Royal Highness Xin is really a great man." Yahiko nodded and said with emotion, "He can definitely bring real peace to the Ninja World."

"Yes, that's right." Little Konan said with a look of admiration, "His Royal Highness Xin is amazing."

"Come on, honey tea, you have to know that this is s-grade honey." Nagato handed over twice the pale yellow honey water, and said, "I heard that if you drink it for a long time, it is good for your body and can increase the amount of chakra. And control over Chakra."

"I know, I know." Little Konan nodded and said, "Kamitsuri Clan S grade honey, this is a special offering in the legend, you can't buy it."

The highest honey chain store of the Kamitsuri Clan is only a grade, and the price is very expensive.

Chapter 473: Promise of Three Little Frog

"My mother bought me a little c-grade honey because of her promotion." Little Konan stuck her tongue out, looking at the honey water in her hand, and said, "And even the c-grade is very expensive."

"Well, I bought it at my house too." Yahiko said emotionally, "Like Little Konan, it's only C-level."

"Where did you get Nagato?"

It's really enviable.

Hearing Yahiko's question, Nagato lowered his head, fell silent, and said, "This is my father's life in exchange for it, and this house, both."

He... he haven't seen my father since he was born.

"..."

Little Konan and Yahiko were silent when they heard Nagato's words.

"Sorry, Nagato..." Yahiko looked at Nagato apologetically, but didn't know what to say, and finally said in a serious tone, "Your father must be a hero."

"Yes." Nagato nodded and said with a smile, "He is my idol!!"

"His Royal Highness Xin said that it is precisely because of these heroes who sacrificed for the country of the Uzumaki that the country of the Uzumaki will be there today."

"And so..."

"I will definitely become a hero like Dad." Nagato looked at Yahiko and Little Konan seriously, "After graduation, I will join the army and become a soldier in Uzumaki Country."

"Like your father, protect the country of Uzumaki."

Yahiko and Little Konan looked at Nagato at each other when they heard Nagato's words, then stretched out their hands, looked at Nagato seriously, and said, "The same is true for us!"

"Nagato, let us work hard together."

"Together, make the Uzumaki Kingdom stronger."

Looking at the two small fists sticking out, Nagato was taken aback, a smile suddenly appeared on his face, and then...

"Let's work hard together!"

Extend your right fist, slowly...

Three small fists touched together.

...

"Girl, what are you doing with the old man?" Madara looked at the younger generation of the Uchiha family with an unhappy expression, and said, "What's fun outside?"

He was obviously lying on the balcony in the old chair, dozing off in the spring breeze, why did he come out!

It's crowded outside and people are everywhere.

"Grandpa Madara, you can't do this." Mikoto Uchiha ignored Madara's displeasure and smiled and said, "You are going to take the class in a few days?"

"Grandpa Madara always stays at home, and there will definitely be physical problems at that time."

Mikoto looked at Madara seriously, and said, "The old man has to come out more."

"Hmph, the old man has gone for a physical examination a few days ago, and even the doctor said I'm fine." Madara hummed, "How could something go wrong."

Uchiha Madara looked down at his wheelchair... how is this different from lying at home?

What a stupid junior!

Chapter 474: Madara's Class Roster

"Don't be unhappy."

Mikoto Uchiha looked at Grandpa Madara like an old child, and said with a smile, "The weather is so good today, and it's the Shinigami Festival of Uzumaki Country. It must be very lively."

"The old man has lived for so many years, what hasn't I seen?" Madara curled his lips in disdain. Isn't this ceremony a family ceremony of the Uzumaki clan? They also have the Uchiha Clan, but...

The Uzumaki Clan turned this festival into the entire celebration in Uzumaki Kingdom.

He has lived for so long, Uchiha Madara, hasn't he seen the family festival of the Uzumaki Clan?

"Yes, yes, Grandpa Madara is amazing."

Uchiha Mikoto said while pushing Madara's wheelchair with a smile on his face, "But now that he is out, Master Madara will accompany me to stroll around."

"Humph." Madara snorted and said faintly, "Don't do this next time."

"Thank you, Grandpa Madara."

Uchiha Mikoto smiled secretly while pushing the wheelchair, and then, as if thinking of something, said, "Yes, there is this."

From the ninja bag, she took out a stack of A4 paper, "This is the academy today. Notify me of the list to pick up."

Pass it to Uchiha Madara in front.

"The students that Grandpa Madara needs to teach next semester are here."

"Student?" Grandpa Madara heard Uchiha Mikoto's words, he was taken aback, and slowly opened the list, squinted at the student's message above, and said, "From the Kamizuri Clan?"

He has heard of this, it seems to be selling honey, White Zetsu bought it too, it taste good!

Kamizuri Clan

This seems to be the surname of the Huge Clan in Sengoku Era.

Back then, he also led the mission of the name of the Thunder Country to guard the Kamizuri Clan!

Unexpectedly, they all came to the Uzumaki Kingdom in the end.

It's really interesting!

"The Mu Clan..." Uchiha Madara turned to a certain page and suddenly narrowed his eyes. As an enemy of the Senju Clan, he changed his name only slightly. How could he not see that this kid is a member of the Senju Clan?

Did not expect... Uchiha Madara has actually become the teacher of the Senju Clan. I don't know what will happen to his expression when he knows it?

It must be quite interesting, and...

"I won again this time, Hashirama."

Uchiha Madara's mouth raised, and he muttered, "It's really interesting!"

Chapter 475: Darkness in Heart

Seeing Grandpa Madara with a smile on his mouth, Uchiha Mikoto nodded with a smile. Grandpa Madara is good at everything, but he always has a dark face, just like others owed him tens of billions.

"The Uchiha Clan." Madara Uchiha turned to the last page and was silent for a moment. Then, turning his head to look at Uchiha Mikoto behind him, he said, "This is the kid of your family."

"En." Mikoto nodded with a smile, and said, "I will trouble Grandpa Madara at that time."

Uchiha spotted his head and continued to look at the roster, which was still full of records, including home addresses and parents' information.

Just... Unexpectedly, the Uchiha clan finally fell into his hands.

In the past, the Uchiha Clan refused to leave Konoha with him in order to stabilize and peaceful days, and he ended up...

Unexpectedly, it didn't take long for him to be annihilated!

What a shame!

Just what should he teach them?

As an opponent Hashirama, he is quite familiar with some ninjutsu Hashirama, but in terms of physical skills...

It seems that the most skilled are Uchiha Ryu!

While Uchiha Madara was thinking.

"Mikoto."

A deep voice came from behind Uchiha Mikoto.

Uchiha Mikoto turned his head, looked at the boy who came, and said, "Morning, Lord Patriarch."

"Well, good morning." Uchiha Fugaku nodded and replied blankly. He said nothing. Instead, he kept his eyes on the old man sitting in the wheelchair. he have a strange feeling every time I see him.

It seems... The kaleidoscope should be opened automatically.

"Is the patriarch patrolling?" Uchiha Mikoto glanced at Uchiha Fugaku's uniform, and said curiously, "It's really hard work!"

Then, seeing the patriarch staring at Grandpa Madara, he introduced, "This is Madara. Grandpa, the new physique professor at the academy, will be Uchiha's head teacher."

Head Teacher?

Hearing Uchiha Mikoto's words, Uchiha Fugaku suddenly raised his eyelids. Did he feel wrong?

Looking at his Madara in front of him, Uchiha TFugaku hesitated for a while, walked to Madara, bent over, and said blankly, "Uchiha's little devil will trouble you."

Then, he raised his head and looked at Uchiha Mikoto, "I'll do the work first, so be careful."

He left directly.

"The patriarch is very similar to Grandpa Madara." Uchiha Mikoto said, looking at the back of Uchiha Fugaku, "They are both cold-faced and warm-hearted people."

"Haha." Uchiha Madara looked at Uchiha Fugaku with disdain, sneered, and said faintly, "Don't leave?"

Very similar?

If you are really ignorant, even if this patriarch Uchiha opened the kaleidoscope, his strength...

He couldn't compare with Uchiha Madara at all.

"He has darkness in his heart." Uchiha murmured, narrowing his eyes.

The Uchiha Clan...

What does that redhead kid want to do?

"Huh?" Mikoto Uchiha was taken aback and curiously said, "Grandpa Madara, what did you just say?"

"It's nothing." Uchiha Madara said faintly, "Hurry up to the shopping street, the old man is already hungry."

"I didn't eat breakfast, I was pulled out by you, hurry up."

"Okay, Grandpa Madara." Mikoto Uchiha covered her mouth and smiled. "It just so happens that I'm hungry too. I heard that Uzumaki has many incredible delicacies."

"Let's try it~"

Chapter 476: Ye's Positive Outlook

"Oh." Ye also rubbed his waist and murmured, "Others are on vacation, and I..."

"I have to go to work!!"

It's still early...

He didn't wake up his wife and daughter, but got up quietly by himself, finished washing, and by the way, after checking whether the girl's quilt was properly covered, he went out.

"Already used to it!" Ye raised his mouth, looking at the early morning sun. He has been accustomed to everything in the country of the vortex for so many years, although because of his identity as a traitor, the neighbors on the street are facing their family. There are opinions.

The daughter did not receive any discrimination, and her life was very good. Everyone didn't tell her anything about him, and seemed to remain silent, probably because some seal came down from the top.

Therefore, no matter what task the Uzumaki Kingdom gave him, he will carry out it seriously, not to mention...

The battalion commander of this labor camp is still paid, and there is still a lot of it.

"Morning!" Ye walked down the road and said with a smile when he saw the people who had already gone out, "Good morning."

Although these people would snorted coldly when they saw him, they nodded to him in the end and signaled in return, so Ye is already very satisfied. You must know that the ninja world has been developing for so many years, and there is no traitor like him. ...

There are wives and daughters, a house and a job.

This is simply something he couldn't imagine when he was a ninja.

And because of his serious work for so many years, Uzumaki has also removed the supervisors arranged by his side. It is estimated that the Chakra seal on him should be removed in a few years.

By the time...

He will be able to teach his daughter ninjutsu.

Just as Ye was meditating and walking, he unknowingly walked to the labor camp.

Saying hello to Uzumaki who was on duty at the door, he walked in.

After so many years...

He seems to have become more polite.

"It's nothing today." Ye also walked to the office, took off his jacket, and sat directly on his chair, muttering, "It's really boring."

Because it is the Uzumaki Country Festival, there is nothing wrong with it. Just watch the labor camp and don't let the fog tolerate trouble. Then, you can get off work at night.

"I guess it could be earlier today." Ye raised the corner of his mouth. Muttered, "At that time, let's see if there is time, and accompany wife and the others to see the fireworks."

He haven't been shopping with them for so long.

And after get off work today, he can still receive holiday benefits.

"Yeah~!" Ye also stretched his waist and murmured, "The floor is still warm and comfortable."

The temperature of the fireplace at home is not well controlled, and sometimes it still smells, but now the floor heating in the Uzumaki Kingdom is only covered in some special places, so most residential areas have not installed floor heating.

He believe that after a while, Uzumaki The country must be able to cover the whole country.

Chapter 477: Clueless and Mastermind

"Boom boom."

And at this moment...

The door was knocked.

Ye also sat up immediately, and said seriously, "Come in."

"Ye Battalion Commander." A Uzumaki ninja walked in, handed over a document, and said, "This is the welfare of the labor camp. You can sign for it."

"En." Ye also skillfully took the file, took a look, frowned, and said, "Is there a group of Mist Shinobi?"

He thought it was only the employees of the labor camp. Didn't he expect that this time Mist Shinobi also had them?

You must know that the group of mist ninjas are not the ninjas of the Uzumaki Kingdom!

And they came to the Uzumaki Kingdom to steal something, what happened to the leader above?

So funny?

Actually give them benefits.

"His Royal Highness Xin said that Mist Shinobi has been with him for so long. It is time for them to feel the harmonious atmosphere of Uzumaki Kingdom."

Uzumaki nodded and said, "We can only do this with the arrangement above."

He is also a little unhappy in his heart!

Why can the group of Mist Shinobi receive the benefits of the Uzumaki Kingdom?

But since it was the arrangement of His Highness Xin, they could only execute it.

"I see." Ye nodded and said, "It will be arranged."

Almost scolded His Royal Highness Xin.

"Well, in that case..." Uzumaki accepted the document, then bowed, and said, "Thanks for your hard work."

After Uzumaki Shinobi returned a bow, he turned and left.

"Mist Shinobi..." Ye also looked at the benefits listed above, shook his head helplessly, and said, "I'm so lucky!"

....

"Everyone remember it." Jūzō Biwa looked at the mist ninjas in front of him and said, "Be careful, now we absolutely can't be discovered by CPO."

"Master Juzo, when will we act?" A Mist Shinobi asked, "Would you like to eat a full meal first?"

"Nonsense." Jūzō Biwa rolled his eyes and said, "If we don't eat enough, where can we run away?"

"I was full for breakfast this morning. I don't know what accidents will happen at noon, so I must not be hungry."

"Understood." All Mist Shinobi responded.

"Fuguki Suikazan is a good choice this day." Jūzō Biwa patted the watermelon mountain puffer fish next to him, nodded with satisfaction, and said, "I didn't expect this kind of festival in Uzumaki Country."

He has seen it just now. Today, the number of Uzumaki in the labor camp is obviously reduced by more than half, and...

They don't have to work to keep up with class today.

It's simply...

"A bunch of idiots." Jūzō Biwa, squinting and smiling, said, "This is a godsend opportunity!"

It's really jealous that even a ninja can live the festival!

You should know that their ninjas usually can only rest for a few days after finishing their missions, but the Uzumaki Kingdom...

Some eat and some drink, and now there are holidays.

It's really unpleasant!

"Hehe." Fuguki Suikazan was slapped on the shoulder by the Jūzō Biwa, almost jumped, wiped the sweat vaguely, showing a smirk, and said, "I didn't expect the Uzumaki country to be so stupid..."

"It seems that our plan has been half-successful. Then we just have to act according to the plan."

"I, I...I already want to hide in the mist village." Fuguki Suikazan showed a nostalgic expression on his face, and said in a sad tone, "I blame the Uzumaki Kingdom, we have been imprisoned for so long!"

He don't know if they know that they have betrayed the organization now, will they be killed?

Himself... Still have to be careful.

Chapter 478: Operation Start

"Are you going to start?"

Uzumaki Xin looked at the information coming from below, with a playful smile on the corner of his mouth, murmured, "Big stick and honey, don't know how effective it is?"

Then, he raised his head and looked at Naga, "How are you preparing?"

"That path has already been arranged." Naga pushed her glasses and said, "By the way, let the ninja clean up the weeds to make sure it's smooth and worry-free."

"Just..."

"What's the matter?" Uzumaki Xin frowned when he heard Naga's words, "What's the accident?"

"The wife and daughter of Ye may not go back to the labor camp."

Naga shook her head with a wry smile, and said, "According to the news uploaded, most of the shopping malls in Uzumaki Country are discounted today, so Ye's Wife will bring While taking her daughter to go shopping, Ye's lunch today was really settled in the cafeteria.

Oh, woman...

Uzumaki Xin looked at Naga speechlessly, thought for a moment, and said, "Forget it, they are also citizens of the Uzumaki Kingdom anyway, and it will be troublesome when an accident occurs. This is not bad, anyway..."

"I believe that Ye alone is enough."

Hey, the plan can't keep up with the changes!

He also plan to let myself show off again. You must know that the publicity of ordinary people is much better than his own publicity.

Uzumaki Xin said seriously, "Our Uzumaki Country will not give up any of the Uzumaki country citizens, so..."

Let Ye work harder too.

"Understood!" Hearing the words of Xin, Naga squinted, nodded clearly, and said, "I will arrange it."

That is...

There are too few hostages, and the defense must be reduced a bit, and Mist Shinobi must be given a little hope.

Labor camp restaurant.

"Huh?" A Mist Shinobi looked at the breakfast on the plate and said curiously, "Why is it so rich today?"

There are not only meat buns, scallion pancakes, but also noodles and soy milk.

"Oh, today is the Uzumaki Country Festival." A chef stretched out his head, glanced at Mist Shinobi, and said faintly, "Therefore, the order was given, and an extra meal must be added."

"If you don't have enough food later, you can add more. There is no limit today."

"There is also a roast beef meal for lunch, which is also unlimited, so remember to have it early at noon."

"Oh, okay, thank you." Mist Shinobi nodded when he heard the chef's words, and said, "We will make it sooner."

Don't know if you can catch up? Shall Master Juzo be late? Wait until lunch is over?

You know it's barbecue!

He usually finish my mission and come back before I can try it out, but today the Uzumaki Kingdom is not limited! !

It's so jealous!

"That's right." The chef looked at Mist Shinobi and said, "I forgot to tell you just now. Don't rush to leave after eating. Because today is the festival of Uzumaki Kingdom, you also have benefits to receive."

"We..." Mist Shinobi pointed to himself curiously, and said in surprise, "Do we have them too?"

You know they are just a group of prisoners...

There are gifts too?

"Yes, a piece of clothing, a few cans, and some shopping rolls." The chef said impatiently, "Hurry up, there are still people behind."

"You'll see the others in time."

"Oh, sorry." Mist Shinobi nodded, quickly picked up his dinner plate and left the window, suddenly feeling a strange feeling in his heart...

The Uzumaki Kingdom... What they trying to do?

Chapter 479: Swaying Fate

"What are you doing?" Jūzō Biwa looked at the noisy Mist Shinobi when they came back from breakfast, shouting, "Don't hurry up and get ready."

What time is it now?

Still making trouble here? Do you want to escape?

"Master Juzo look." A Mist Shinobi pointed at the dozen or so small gift boxes in front of him, and said happily, "There are clothes, cans, and some shopping coupons."

As Mist Shinobi, he and the others had never encountered such a thing, and the village never gave them benefits after the village came back.

Uzumaki Country

It's incredible.

Jūzō Biwa glanced at the benefits of the Uzumaki Kingdom that he had just received, and then, with his eyes widened, he said loudly, "What are you doing!!"

He looked at them heartbrokenly, "Did you forget the teachings of Master Juzo? Forget the nurturing grace of the village?"

"A little bit of something makes you forget all the ninja's integrity?"

"Sorry." Hearing Jūzō Biwa's words, the Mist Ninjas suddenly showed shame and said, "We are going to prepare now."

"En." Seeing everyone like this, Jūzō Biwa nodded with satisfaction and said with emotion, "It seems we must act now."

Otherwise, the sugar-coated cannonballs of the Uzumaki Kingdom will go down

Which ones can hold it?

Especially when you see the life of the battalion leader of the labor camp, it is simply to give others the urge to betray the village!

After all, the Uzumaki Kingdom.

The salary is high, the welfare is good, and the work is easy. It is much more comfortable than the rewards for hard work in the village, and the village's task rewards, they also score half of the rewards and hand them over to the village.

It's too cheating.

"But Master Juzo, everyone in this has three thousand silver shopping rolls." A Mist Shinobi waved a long note on his hand, and said, "Shall we not slip away after spending it?"

The number of them adds up to tens of thousands, and the prices of Uzumaki Kingdom are not expensive. The introduction of Ninja teacher seems to be two or three times lower than the price of the entire Ninja world.

With so much money, they can buy a lot of things, or else bring some souvenirs to relatives and friends in the village?

However, Jūzō Biwa glanced horizontally, and looked at him with a sneer with human-biting fangs.

"Sorry, Lord Juzo." Mist Shinobi hurriedly lowered his head and said with regret, "As a ninja, I was actually bewildered by these foreign objects."

"Forget it." Jūzō Biwa shook his head, sighed, and said, "I don't blame you, this is the country of Uzumaki too insidious."

"But-"

Chapter 480: Elite of Mist Village

Jūzō Biwa stared at each Mist Shinobi intently, "I hope you don't forget that you are a ninja from Hidden Mist Village."

"Yes!" Everyone was shocked when they heard the words of Master Juzo, "We understand."

Seeing this scene, Jūzō Biwa nodded and said, "Then prepare quickly and see what can be used as a weapon. We must know that we must not only guard against the ninjas of the Uzumaki Kingdom, but also cross the sea. It's not a trivial matter."

Especially they are now sealed with Chakras, they can't use ninjutsu at all, they are almost like ordinary people.

Therefore, if you are not prepared enough and want to cross the sea, you are simply looking for death!

"Master Juzo." A Mist Shinobi raised his hand and said, "What should I do with this?" shook the canned food in his hand, "This is the secret canned beef in Uzumaki Country. I heard that the shelf life is as high as three months. ."

"Collect it." Jūzō Biwa nodded and said, "As a spare food, it may be used in the sea."

"There are other materials, such as clothes and sheets, you have to prepare some."

These are very important for drifting in the sea. Although all the people in Hidden Mist Village are good swimmers,

Swimming across the sea, if there is a chakra, it's okay to say, if not

It's too dangerous.

"Understood!" Mist Shinobi said, "I will be ready."

"What about lunch?" Another Mist Shinobi hesitated and said, but seeing the expression of Juzo-sama's squinted eyes, he quickly changed his words, "Bah, Bah, Uzumaki would not want to seduce us with beef. I'm just a person. Just wake up."

With his eyes condensed, Raiga Kurosuki looked at the Mist Shinobi around with words, "We are organized and recorded Mist Shinobi elites. What is the mere sugar-coated cannonball?"

"You're right, Master Raiga of Loquat, Master Fuguki Suikazan." Mist Shinobi licked his face and looked at the two captains in front of him, and said, "We will definitely succeed."

Juzo nodded with satisfaction and smiled and said, "Yes, after I go back, I will ask Master Mizukage for your credit."

"Everyone has been able to maintain their nature for such a long period of time, without being corroded by the sugar-coated shells of the Uzumaki Kingdom, so you are all good."

"What kind of Ye is not like that?"

"It's the shame of the ninja!" Juzo clenched his fists and said seriously, "I hope you can understand what you should do and what you shouldn't do in the future ninja road."

"Only in this way can you become a successful ninja."
