

Uzumaki 501

Chapter 501: He Slip Again

"I am..." Fuguki Suikazan suddenly opened his eyes, looked at the Misty Shinobi who was staring at him with worry around him, his tone was stagnant, and said, "This..."

"What's going on?"

He remembered that they were obviously surrounded by Uzumaki ninjas, and then, in the process of bargaining, the Uzumaki ninja suddenly did not follow the plot and shot directly, causing some Uzumaki to fall...

"Illusion?" Fuguki Suikazan touched his face and murmured, "What a powerful illusion!"

Even people didn't see it, how did they use the illusion?

"You finally woke up."

Just when Fuguki Suikazan was meditating, Jūzō Biwa approached with emotion, hugged Fuguki Suikazan tightly, and said, "If you didn't stop me at that time, maybe we would all be finished."

"Especially at the end..."

"You bravely rushed towards Uzumaki, shouting that I was the scene of Uzumaki." Jūzō Biwa patted Fuguki Suikazan, and said emotionally, "It's really amazing!"

"Back then, I thought you were a timid, wretched, and fearful fat man who could enter the Ninja Swordsman, and you must have gone through the back door."

"Unexpectedly, I missed it."

Jūzō Biwa looked guiltily at Fuguki Suikazan, and said, "Although our plan failed this time, but..."

"It's not your fault, but Uzumaki is too cunning."

"I..." Hearing what Jūzō Biwa said, Fuguki Suikazan opened his mouth, but he didn't know what to say. In fact, what he wanted to shout at the time was...

I am a friendly army.

Unexpectedly, the Uzumaki ninjas didn't say anything to him, and put him there.

Just looking at the Mist Shinobi who looked at him with admiration, Fuguki Suikazan felt that he should not tell the truth, or they might be made into a sashimi puffer fish.

Sooner or later the pill!

Thinking of this, Fuguki Suikazan swallowed, and then, with a smile, he said cheerfully, "No need, this is just my duty as Wuren."

"Haha, everyone doesn't need to worship me, just the basic operation, just the basic operation."

"These are basic operations."

Let's see what the Uzumaki are going to do later, and then make a choice!

Really...

Change the plot without telling him.

Chapter 502: Ancor Vantian

"Steel boats are not made like wooden boats." The Fourth Elder said, pointing to the rough-made iron boat in front of him, "It must be carefully welded to prevent it from cracks and water."

"So it's quite troublesome to make."

"There is also iron. It is not as light as wood. Even if the super light and heavy rock art is used to its maximum, it can still only fly in mid-air, and the chakra loss of flying one kilometer is dozens of times that of wood."

"It's too wasteful." The Grand Elder said with emotion, "Even if the wind escape is added, it will not have much effect."

This iron boat is a bit tasteless! !

Except for a firm point, it has no other effect.

"Where are the researchers in Hidden Mud Village?" Uzumaki Xin frowned, looking at Great Elder, and said, "Did you think of a way?"

He remembered that in the future, Mud Village or Land of the Sky made a super-large strategic castle such as the Ancor Vantian, but an airship made of iron should be trivial to them.

"According to the information of Mud Village, I found that they did have relevant design materials, large Stone of Gelel as a powersource. It is said to be strong enough to power the entire ship." The elder shook his head and said helplessly, "Chakra loss is more than the super light and heavy rock art. Serious."

"So that's the case!" Uzumaki Xin murmured, touching his chin, "No wonder the Mud Village in the back swelled to the tail-catch beast as motivation."

That Ancor Vantian turned out to be a big chakra eater!

It seems that the country of the Uzumaki has to purchase a head and tail beast.

It is still impossible to obtain chakras from the environment, and the artificial extraction cannot keep up with the current development of the Uzumaki Country, and we can only learn the practices of the Mud Village.

To know this batch of steel ships, he wants to build the steel fleet, and then install some modern chakra guns or something.

With such military strength, who is the country afraid of?

If in the future

Tanks can also be made, especially in this world with ninjutsu. When tanks are added to illusion, it may be possible to make phantom tanks. With the addition of soil escape, it is estimated that they will be Grizzly Tanks and Apocalyptic Tanks.

"Maybe the future Uzumaki Kingdom can drag the entire Ninja World into the equipment competition?" Uzumaki Xin murmured, and then frowned at the first-generation steel ship in front of him. It was still a small, so tasteless, if is it large?

He guess he can't even float! !

"It seems that I need to find a mechanical engineer outside." Great Elder sighed, then turned his head to look at the elder, and said, "Continue to study and see if we can overcome these difficulties."

"But now the focus is on the Uzumaki agricultural fertilizer and fat pig racing elephant projects."

As the population increases, the food problem must also be resolved, otherwise it will be troublesome when problems arise.

"These projects are already underway." The elder nodded and said helplessly, "We found that in the process of pig breeding, injecting life medicines can make fat pigs grow bigger and more delicious."

"If the grain production is increased, even if the life medicine is used for irrigation, larger and more productive seedlings can appear."

Chapter 503: Feeling Helpless

Uzumaki Kingdom

Labor Camp, rooftop of dormitory building.

"You are here."

A red-haired young man, with his back leaning on the roof wall, with his hands on top of it, looked at the fat man with orange hair who was cowering and said lightly, "Don't worry, it's already nearby. I am ambushing my eyeliner."

"If someone else comes up, I will receive a message."

This fat man, as one of the Seven Ninja Swords in Hidden Mist Village, was so timid, he might have walked through the back door!

"Master Uzumaki." Fuguki Suikazan said helplessly, "This place you picked is the rooftop of the labor camp!"

How can you rest assured me.

You know, this is the only building where Mist Shinobi can move freely.

He remember him, he is Uzumaki Commander who didn't follow the script that night?

Fuguki Suikazan scolded inwardly, but there was a cheerful smile on his face.

"The most dangerous place is often the safest." Uzumaki Xinsaid lightly, "What's more, in Uzumaki Kingdom, no one can escape Uzumaki's surveillance."

After hearing the words of Uzumaki Xin, Fuguki Suikazan felt relieved, and then walked to his side, also relying on the guardrail, and said faintly, "What about me this time?"

He was so serious about getting into the escape team, setting up plans for them, filling in loopholes, and even becoming a psychological comforter.

As a result, all this was in vain, he is tired!

Fuguki Suikazant has become the most authoritative person in Mist Village.

Thinking of this, Fuguki Suikazan was angry on his face, "I clearly said that I would join the Uzumaki Kingdom, but now"

"Boss, I'm back in last."

If this continues, he will be made into a pufferfish sashimi sooner or later if he is found!

How much Mist Shinobi loves him now, in the future

He will be cut into several pieces by the mist.

"The situation has changed at that time." Xini pushed his glasses and said lightly, "There is a big guy who wants to play, so I can only change the plot temporarily."

"Humph." Fuguki Suikazan gave a cold snort when he heard it, turned his head and said nothing.

As a high-level person from Mist Village's small Shinobi to Nin Sword seven people, he also knows some unspoken rules.

Feeling upset!

"You" Uzumaki Xin saw Fuguki Suikazan's expression and sighed inwardly. It seems that people are already getting upset, but thinking of His Royal Highness Xin's words, she can only say helplessly, "Mist Shinobi should have no doubts now. "

"No," Fuguki Suikazan said. "Now they are all waiting for the verdict of Uzumaki Kingdom."

"You guys send mail here, right."

"Some people even have written a suicide note."

Chapter 504: Another Mission

"No." Uzumaki Xin pushed his glasses and said faintly, "Don't worry, you will not die."

"It is estimated that tomorrow, the verdict will be issued."

"Then my mission this time?" Hearing Xin's words, Fuguki Suikazan felt relieved, then looked at him seriously and said, "I hope that after this time, I will be able to join me."

"Okay." Uzumaki Xin patted the watermelon pufferfish on the shoulder and said, "Your request, I will tell you."

"As for this mission"

"There is no danger."

"As long as you lead your Mist Ninja team to become a benchmark team, respond to the call of Uzumaki Country, and earnestly complete the work of Uzumaki Country"

He haven't finished speaking yet

Uzumaki Xin raised her head suddenly, frowned and looked at a small whirlwind not far away, turned her head to Fuguki Suikazan, and said, "This conversation is over here. Someone is coming."

"Be careful."

He jumped directly from the stairs, and left slowly.

"Hey, you haven't said the specific content yet!" Seeing Uzumaki Xin's departure, Fuguki Suikazan hurriedly leaned on the guardrail and shouted, "Don't have problems again then."

"Or tell me, are there any big guys to join this time?"

However Uzumaki Xin's figure had long since disappeared.

Fuguki Suikazan could only sigh helplessly, shook his head, and murmured, "It's really troublesome!"

And at this moment

"What are you doing!"

An exclamation came from behind.

Fuguki Suikazan staggered in fright, and almost fell off, with horror on his face. Could it be that he was discovered that he was a spy?

And this voice

Jūzō Biwa?!

How did he come up?

Fuguki Suikazan suddenly ruthless. kill him! As long as you kill him, no one will find out.

When he was about to turn around and shoot

"Don't jump off the building!" Juzo looked at Fuguki Suikazan with half of his body leaning out of the retaining wall with a flustered face. You must know that the chakras on their bodies are sealed, if they fall like this It must be fish meat sauce!

It's right to keep up with yourself.

Although Fuguki Suikazan didn't say anything about the failure of the escape.

His heart is still full of sadness.

Otherwise, I wouldn't think about it, and jumped up and jumped up alone.

Fortunately, I found something wrong with the watermelon mountain puffer fish ghost, otherwise

They may be missing a general in Mist Village.

"Even though we failed this time, I and the other Mist Shinobi still remember the words you said."

"As long as you live, there is hope."

Chapter 505: Cloud and Konoha Village

Konoha Village

"I'm very glad that Hidden Cloud Village has this consciousness of sacrificing for peace in the world of Shinobi."

Sarutobi Haruzen sat in the position of Hokage, looked at the battlefield commander of Hidden Cloud Village opposite, and said with a smile, "Believe this cooperation between Cloud and Konoha Village will definitely go smoothly."

"En."

The commander of Cloud Village smiled and nodded, and said, "The cooperation between Konoha and Cloud Ninja Village has a long history."

"It can be traced back to the time of the first generations of Hokage and Raikage. It is a testimony of the friendship between our two Ninja villages."

"So Cloud Ninja Village and Konoha have been good friends since ancient times, good brothers"

"There is no barrier between you and me."

"And so"

"I heard that you got the Legendary Shinobi Sword"

"Can we use it once?"

Hearing the conditions in Hidden Cloud Village, the smoke gun in Sarutobi's hand trembled.

This!

he said that Hidden Cloud Village's cooperation with Konoha was definitely a conspiracy this time, but he didn't expect to pay attention to it!

Can that thing be taken out?

It is absolutely impossible.

How can a village of nuclear weapons be loaned to others?

"Sorry." Sarutobi Haruzen shook his head and said, "The Sword has been sent by Konoha to the Daimyo Mansion in the Land of Fire."

"After all, it is the national treasure of the Water Country anyway."

Sarutobi Haruzen looked at Cloud's side with words, and said, "Konoha will never invade other people's property."

So, you have no share, don't think about it.

"Yes, right." Commander Cloud nodded and said with a smile, "We Cloud Village thinks the same way. How can we grab other people's things?"

Then, with regret on his face, "I still wanted to Look at the legendary Shinobi sword!"

"We are also very curious about what happened thousands of years ago."

"But now"

"It seems that you have to ask the daimyo of the country of fire and the daimyo of the country of water to ask if you can show it to me."

"..."

Hearing Shinobi's words, Sarutobi Haruzen was silent for a while, and asked tentatively, "Just a simple look?"

He also want to find the name of the country of fire and the name of the country of water

Wouldn't Konoha's reputation be ruined?

What a sinister Hidden Cloud Village!

"Yeah! Yeah!" Cloud Jonin nodded, showing a eight-tooth smile, squinting his eyes and said, "It's just a simple admiration."

"That's the case." Sarutobi Haruzen said with a smile, "The Shinobi sword is still in Konoha, it's being packed, and it will be sent to the country of fire in a few days, yes."

"I can show you Wuren first."

"It won't be too late to send it in a few days."

"I believe Yunyin Ninja Village is the same as Konoha, absolutely"

"I won't wantonly snatch other people's property."

Chapter 506: School Start

Uzumaki Kingdom

Today is the opening of the second affiliated college of Uzumaki.

Therefore, early in the morning, the entrance of the college is very lively, and parents are everywhere bringing their children to school.

"Konan, you have to study hard!" Konan's mother squatted down, looked at Konan, and said with a serious face, "You can't be in the college like you are in the nursery school. Although Teacher White Zetsu didn't say, but your situation in the nursery school, I know it."

"At that time the college will see the parents, don't blame your mother for beating you."

"En!" Konan pouted when she heard her mother's words, and said, "I will study hard."

"It's just that Mr. White Zetsu is too stupid, he can only draw poo, and can't do anything else."

She just drew a picture on the face of Teacher White Zetsu.

Teacher White Zetsu actually even informed!

"Really, when you see Teacher White Zetsu, you must make him look good." Konan said angrily, then lit his little head at his mother, showing a sweet smile, "I will definitely listen carefully."

And at this moment.

"Konan!"

A familiar voice came from the entrance of the college.

"Nagato, Yahiko." Konan waved his hands happily when he saw the people who came, and said, "You are here too."

"En." Nagato and Yahiko nodded to Konan, then, looking at Konan's mother, said politely, "Auntie early."

"You are early too." Konan's mother said with a gentle smile on her face, "Where are Mama Nagato and Daddy Yahiko?"

"I am very familiar with Uzumaki country, so I didn't ask my mother to send it." Nagato said, "When I was young, I would come here to play every year."

There is also Brother Zicheng, Aunt Kuna Kuna coughing cough, they would also bring him to the academy to play, but later, after they had their own affairs, they rarely brought him out again, so that period of time also began.

While staying in the nursery, after Konan and Yahiko came to the country of Uzumaki, he was with him again.

"My dad had dinner last night and he was too drunk." Yahiko said with a headache, "I haven't woke up yet, so I can only come by myself."

"Haha." Konan's mother heard Yahiko's words and said haha, "It seems that Yahiko's father is very busy at work!"

"It's very busy." Yahiko nodded and said bitterly, "I rarely go home for dinner with me these days."

He went to the food court to find something to eat on his own.

Although the food in Uzumaki is very good, but

He still wanted the feeling of being together as a family.

"That's it!" After hearing Yahiko's words, Konan's mother was stunned for a while, then touched Yahiko's head and said, "In the future, one person can come to my house to have dinner with us."

Chapter 507: New Project

"Really?" Yahiko was pleased when he heard what Konan's mother said, "Can I go?"

"Of course." Konan's mother said gently, "Konan is alone, and there are just a few partners to accompany her."

"Yeah!" Konan nodded and said, "Yahiko can come to my house for dinner. My mother cooks very delicious food."

"Yahiko, you can also come to my house." Nagato patted Yahiko on the shoulder and said, "Or you can just stay overnight with me, my mother must be very happy, that's it."

"My mother doesn't know how to cook."

You guess you have to go outside to find food in the end.

"I, I," Yahiko heard Konan and Nagato's words, nodded moved, and said, "Thank you."

Thank you so much!

"Have you started?" Uzumaki Xin lay his hands on the wall with his head lying on it. He looked at the students who had come to the college one after another not far away, and said with emotion, "Time flies so fast!"

It's time for the frog team to officially go to school.

He wonder what the future of Uzumaki will be like?

Nowadays, the production in the country of Uzumaki has fallen into a stable state again. The new foreign population has adapted to the life of the country of Uzumaki, and is slowly integrating into the country of Uzumaki, although most of them have not yet obtained nationality. But believe

They have begun to think that they are citizens of a country of Uzumaki.

"The speed is still not enough!" Uzumaki Xin murmured, "The population of Uzumaki Kingdom is still too small."

Although the cities in the country of the Uzumaki have expanded a lot now, he believe that many cities will be gradually divided in the near future, but

With a population of more than 400,000, it is impossible for industrial production to splash any waves.

Both the civilian labor force and the ninja labor force are too small.

Moreover, the area of the Uzumaki Kingdom also limits the development of the Uzumaki Kingdom. After all, with the increase in population, food, clothing, housing and transportation will increase, but the Uzumaki Kingdom still has too few paddy fields available for farming.

"I don't know the land reclamation plan. How are the researchers doing their research?" Xin murmured, "I forgot to ask yesterday."

But he think the situation is not ideal.

After all, if you want to build a continent, you can't just build it up with a bit of soil at will. It must be in accordance with the actual situation, and then, attached to the original land, like spreading around it.

And the sea area close to the country of water is the most ideal direction for the expansion of the country of Uzumaki, but Machines and chakras are not enough!

Especially the Kamizuri Ninjas, now there are dozens of people from the Kamizuri clan and a dozen people from the Senju clan who have come to Uzumaki.

A drop in the bucket!

Therefore, it is not ideal to rely solely on manpower to build the continent. After all, not everyone is a god of Ninja world.

Huge chakra plus amazing physical strength.

Especially for the delicate work of creating the mainland, if something goes wrong, the small island of the country of Uzumaki may be ruined.

Chapter 508: Teacher Madara

"Mechanical engineer!" Uzumaki Xin sighed and murmured, "I don't know when Sakumo Hatake will act."

It really didn't work. he had to go to Hidden Cloud Village to see if he could lure the giant tortoise over, or use the dirty soil to reincarnate to summon the pillars, otherwise, there is no other way.

Should he let him do it himself?

Please, he is only a child, and if he is so strong now, he will scare the Shinobi world.

"It seems that you still have to smash Boss Madara with glory."

Give more pennants and certificates to the owner of Madara.

Let him get used to the life in Uzumaki country today, and become an excellent physique professor in Uzumaki country.

"Grandpa Madara with a little smile on his face, with a little smile." Uchiha Mikoto looked at Grandpa Madara who was standing at the door with a cane, and whispered a reminder, "That's still some kids. Grandpa Madara will be scared if you are so serious."

Grandpa Madara is good with everything, but he is a little paralyzed. Like most people in his tribe, he keeps his face cold.

She really doubt if Grandpa Madara is from the Uchiha clan.

Otherwise, how could he know Uchiha Ryuu Ninjutsu, Uchiha Fluid Art, Uchiha Ryuu Sword Art, and Uchiha Ryuu's throwing technique, oh, by the way, there is such a powerful illusion as last time.

Just, its impossible.

The elders of the Uchiha clan are now

And she had heard from His Royal Highness Xin that Grandpa Madara was a very poor old man, and only his silly nephew accompanied him.

And his family, long gone.

"The child's first impression of the teacher is very important." Uchiha Mikoto looked at Madara seriously and said, "So Grandpa Madara smiles so that children like it."

"Humph." Uchiha Madara coldly snorted, "I don't need children to like it."

"Since they want to be ninjas, they are no longer kids now."

"If you are not obedient, the old man will let them taste the taste of a ninja."

Apart from the pillars, why does his Uchiha Madara smile in front of others?

It's ridiculous! !

"Okay." Hearing Grandpa Madara's words, Uchiha Mikoto could only say helplessly, "Grandpa Madara, I hope you will be gentle."

Grandpa Madara is really stubborn!

However, when Uchiha Mikoto couldn't see it

The corners of Madara's mouth were pulled up slightly, as if he wanted to pull a smile but couldn't do it. In the end, he stared in front of him blankly and muttered in a low voice, "Hashirama..."

Chapter 509: Mu not Senju

"Okay, everyone is in their place." Uchiha Mikoto smiled and looked at the new student sitting in front, and said gently, "Now keep quiet, we are about to start roll call."

Then, he glanced at Grandpa Madara who was sitting on the rocking chair by the podium

These trivial matters are still handled by her.

"Uzumaki Nagato?" Uchiha Mikoto opened the list and shouted, then lowered her head and looked at the familiar red hair.

"Here." Nagato said with a small hand.

The three of them have long been familiar with Uchiha Mikoto, because this young lady will go to the nursery to help when she is free.

"Yahiko."

"Here."

"Musin Mu." Uchiha Mikoto looked towards Musin Mu's position. Although His Royal Highness Xin did not ask them to change their surnames, the Senju clan has always been too closely related to Konoha. The first generation of Hokage and the second generation of Hokage are both Konoha.

Their entanglement with Konoha is more troublesome than the Uchiha clan. If you don't change your surname, this is a big taboo!

Although, even if they were still called Mu not Senju, His Highness oun would not bother.

The country of the Uzumaki doesn't care anymore.

After all, as long as the Five Ninja Villages know the blood successors of other Ninja Villages in Uzumaki Country, they must go to war without saying a word.

Recruiting blood heirs from other Ninja villages is a big taboo in the Ninja world.

No matter how many

Therefore, it doesn't matter if there is one more Thousand Hands Clan.

"Uchiha Kei." Uchiha Mikoto continued to read, and as expected, except for Xiaonan and Yahiko, most of this class are children from the Uzumaki Kingdom family.

Perhaps this is the elite after the Uzumaki Kingdom?

"Okay." Uchiha Mikoto closed the student roster with a smile, and said, "Now I invite the head teacher of our class to introduce it to everyone."

However.....

"Hmph!" Grandpa Madara still leaned on his rocking chair, squinted to rest, ignoring Uchiha Mikoto.

Because he is an old man, he is still given a lot of privileges in the college.

Such as, assistant with this rocking chair.

Except that the classroom can't get the sun and this rocking chair doesn't have the softness of its own balcony, the others are quite comfortable.

As for the students

Humph! !

A bunch of idiots paralyzed by a comfortable life.

When he is comfortable lying down, he will come and give lectures to this group of rubbish.

Chapter 510: Madara's First Class

When Uchiha Mikoto saw Grandpa Madara glance here, he closed his eyes and ignored her.

"Hehe." Uchiha Mikoto smiled embarrassedly at the students, and said, "Grandpa Madara is a bit old, and I stayed up late to prepare for the course yesterday, so I was a little tired."

"Everyone, be considerate."

She then walking to Grandpa Madara and whispered, "Grandpa Madara, Grandpa Madara is up to you to teach."

However, Madara Uchiha still ignored Uchiha Mikoto, turned over and turned his back to Uchiha Mikoto.

Seeing this scene, Uchiha Mikoto suddenly felt a headache.

Grandpa Madara is having a temper again!

"Grandpa Madara, Grandpa Madara."

Uchiha Mikoto has no choice but to coax him like a child, and this is her job.

"Sister Mikoto, I don't need this old man to talk about it." A Uchiha member stood up and said, "I guess he has no abilities."

Sister Mikoto had already become Shinobi not long ago, and she was admitted by the patriarch, and she was more than enough to teach them.

"This school doesn't know why?" Uchiha kid said disdainfully, "Anyway, an old man who has trouble walking can come to class."

"Shut up." Uchiha Mikoto said solemnly to the Uchiha clan. "Respect the teacher, Poop Uchiha, and quickly apologize to Director Madara, otherwise you will have to be beaten again when the patriarch knows about it."

"Am I wrong?" Poop Uchiha stubbornly heard what Uchiha Mikoto said, "He must know nothing, so he dare not teach us."

"You Uchiha Kai" Uchiha Mikoto frowned and said, "Hurry up to Madara."

However, before Uchiha Mikoto could finish speaking, Madara stretched and stood up.

"Grandpa Madara, he didn't mean it." Seeing Grandpa Madara like this, Uchiha Mikoto thought he was angry, and said quickly, "I apologize for him."

However, Madara Uchiha ignored Mikoto Uchiha, staring at the door, and said faintly, "Someone is coming."

"Boss Madara is really" Uzumaki Xin sat in the office and looked at the scene on the crystal ball, shook his head helplessly, and said, "Huh, a little cute?"

You obviously want to be this teacher, but you are still playing big cards here?

Is it that the older you get, the more arrogant you are?

It's no longer the mad and cool boss Madara who always invites people to dance that he saw from anime.

"I don't know what would happen if I saw Boss Madara like this?" Uzumaki Xin touched his chin, the corners of his mouth raised, and said with a smile, "I should have been used to it, after all."

When Boss Madara was young, he looked arrogant.

He wanted it in his heart, but he had to pretend to be dismissive.

No wonder you can ride nine tails! !

They are all arrogant!

"What should I do next?"
